

MANY GERMANS GOING BROKE IN STOCK MARKET

Craze for Speculation Appears to Have Engulfed Rich and Poor—Habit Declared a Necessity Not a Luxury

BERLIN, (AP)—Thousands of Germans have been bankrupted by the recent craze for speculating in the stock market. The losers were not limited to wage earners and professional men with inadequate incomes but included many comparatively wealthy men.

The workmen and professional men claim that speculating had become a necessity for men whose incomes are 3000 marks a month or less. They say they "pumped" in the market in the hope of being able to buy enough for their bills and to buy clothing for themselves or a dress for their wives.

Many Lost Jobs
Some of those who lost their earnings in this way have disappeared from their positions. Others are making the rounds of their acquaintances in an effort to borrow and the remainder are stolidly facing debts which they cannot hope to pay. Grocers and butchers generally have had all credit accounts closed.

One of the speculators who lost his monthly salary of 2000 marks in stock market speculation said:
"We have to struggle. We cannot buy anything but the barest necessities on what we earn and when prices go up and money for even the necessities is lacking, we take a chance here and there, especially thinking that our credit cannot be much worse and that we might have luck."

TWENTY-ONE STATES TO PARTICIPATE IN SPORT

Over One Thousand Teams to be on Hand for Opening of American Bowling Congress

TOLLEDO, O., (AP)—Approximately 1028 teams representing 21 states and Canada will be entered in the annual American Bowling congress tournament to be held here during the month of March. A. L. Langtry of Milwaukee, secretary of the congress, announced today.

With the closing entry date but a week away, more than 500 teams have been listed and dates assigned. The final week in past seasons has brought a greater number of entries than during the remainder of the pre-tournament period. The number of teams that have signed their intentions of participating leads Secretary Langtry to believe this year will be no exception to the rule and that attendance will set a new record.

Three new states are added this year to the list of A. B. C. entries. They are Alabama, Georgia and California. Two teams will represent Mobile, and another two are coming from Atlanta while San Francisco will send one.

The total entries for the various states are placed by Secretary Langtry as follows:
Ohio 400 teams; Illinois, 150; Michigan, 100; New York, 75; Indiana, 75; Pennsylvania, 60; Wisconsin, 60; Maryland, 20; Kentucky, 15; Canada 10; Minnesota, 12; Iowa, 10; West Virginia, 5; Kansas and Nebraska, 5; Colorado, 2; Alabama, 2; Georgia, 2; Florida, 2; New Jersey, 2; Connecticut, 1; California 1.

Figures in France's Political Upheaval

Here are the three leading figures in the French government's present political crisis. Following the collapse and resignation of the Briand government, President Alexandre Millerand appointed Raymond Poincare, former Premier of France, to form a new cabinet to succeed the resigned Briand ministry. According to reports, Premier Poincare will make an effort to create a strong nationalist government, which will exercise a policy of utmost sternness toward Germany.

TWIN FALLS LEGION MEN GRANTED COMPENSATION

Frank T. McAuley and Arnold F. Oswald Now in Boise Hospital for Aid

SEATTLE, Washington (Special to The News)—Frank T. McAuley of Twin Falls disabled war veteran, now confined in the government hospital at Boise, was today awarded government compensation of $10 a month by the district office of the United States Veterans' bureau in Seattle. The rating board also awarded to McAuley a total of $508.72, making the award retroactive to May 31, 1921. The war veteran was rated as having a total temporary disability.

Arnold F. Oswald, 544 Fourth avenue, Twin Falls, was awarded compensation of $10 a month beginning immediately because of disabilities received in the war service.

Announcement was made that claimants are receiving quick action on the part of the Veterans' bureau at the present time, because of the fact that claims have been decentralized from Washington, D. C., and awards are now being made in the Seattle district office. The bureau is now making every effort to adjudicate all claims of hospitalized war veterans in this district.

TWO AIRPLANES ARE INCLUDED IN EQUIPMENT

Exploring Steamer Maud Being Prepared for Seven Year Voyage Under Command of Captain Amundson

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Final provisions and outfitting of the exploring ship Maud, which left Seattle for Amundson, noted Norwegian explorer and discoverer of the South Pole will resume his interrupted Arctic expedition next May, is being completed at the stout little ship lies in the landlocked waters of Lake Union here.

A smashed propeller blade, lost in the ice off the northwestern coast, last year forced Captain Amundson to bring the Maud to Seattle for repairs. When the journey is resumed, the vessel will carry four extra blades so that a similar accident may cause only a temporary halt to the expedition. The Maud will carry provisions for seven years, although the explorer does not expect to occupy more than five years at the most.

Carries Two Airplanes

The most important of the Maud's equipment, in Captain Amundson's opinion, will be the two airplanes, purchased in Norway and shipped here recently and which will be used in the making of extensive geographic and hydrographic surveys for a thousand miles to the northwestern coast, to track through the Northern seas. The primary purpose of the expedition, which is operating under the auspices of the Norwegian government, is to study the movement of the Arctic ice pack, the effect of ocean currents, magnetic influences and other phenomena of the polar regions. The airplanes, Captain Amundson expects, will be of great value in this work. He said that he would probably use them to reach the North Pole should his plan to drift with the ice to the pole prove not feasible. A wireless equipment installed aboard the Maud will be used to broadcast a message when he reaches the top of the world.

Captain Amundson expects to strike immediately into the inland or northern drift of the ice as it leaves Bering sea next spring, and to swing wide to the north-easterly current early in the summer.

With the explorer will be Captain Oskar Wiisting, sailing master, who stood at the side of the South pole. G. Olonkin, engineer; Dr. H. V. Sverdrup, scientist of the expedition, two Norwegian aviators and a crew of six Siberian natives who joined the Maud in 1920.

Horseback riding was prescribed by them as an exercise.

REMARKABLE STORY TOLD OF BATTLE IN SEA DEPTHS

Official Describes Evidence of Encounter Between Swordfish and Whales

LONDON, (AP)—That monsters of the deep fight in groups as well as engage in personal combats, is testified to by Captain G. Eved Poolo, a commissaire in the gold coast colony, who writes the following to his brother: "Between Sierra Leone and Sokon di we steamed through, for over an hour, a blood red sea, and saw some hundreds of whales dead or dying on the surface of the water. Some were just able to move slowly along; few if any would move quickly. There must have been a sanguinary battle, supposed to have been put up by swordfish. It was a most appalling sight, and the extent of the bloody expanse must have represented the death of many more whales than were visible. No one on our ship had ever seen or even heard of anything approaching such a spectacle before."

DOUBLE VICTORY SCORED AT BUHL BY TWIN FALLS

Boys' Team Takes Buhl Into Camp with Score of 32 to 17.—Girls Defeat Opponents by Score of 20 to 6

Twin Falls high school basketball teams won a double victory last evening at Buhl...

Both games were fast, and well played, and Miss Moore has gathered a real team to represent Twin Falls this coming season.

Minnie Page, right forward for the girls' varsity squad, was by far the bright spot in the local team, her speed was dazzling, and when it came to accuracy in shooting baskets, Minnie led the whole field...

Twin Falls girls displayed more team work, and seemed to have a better knowledge of the game. Their guarding was well executed...

The boys' game was a battle from start to finish, the Buhl lads working from the opening whistle to beat Twin Falls...

Referee Bracken warned the crowd several times against yelling, but Twin Falls was trying for a free throw, but his efforts were in vain...

Stanley Cron, who thus far this season has shown wonderful speed in all the games, was again the star in a corner. His work last night stamps him as the biggest find of the year.

Handicapped by the loss of "Jug" Selloy, who left for Montana earlier in the week, it looked rather dismal for the local lads, but Cron's playing easily made the fans forget that the team had been weakened.

Len Scott played a crackerjack of a game, and his basket in the last minute of play was a beautiful piece of work.

Moroni Jamison at center also showed great improvement, although he worked under more difficulties. Putnam, who played opposite him, measured 6 feet 3 inches, and is extra fast.

The team in general displayed more team work than last week in its game with Piler.

ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE TURKS HAVING EFFECT

Victories Against Greeks May Result in Retrenching Sphere of Influence of the Soviet Forces

BAKU, Azerbaijan, Soviet Republic, (AP)—The success of Turkish arms against the Greeks is stirring the Musulman world, and may in time have a far-reaching effect on Russian influence throughout the Caucasus, Turkestan and Persia.

There is a tendency on the part of Moscow, tired of settling interminable disputes, to let these various outlying republics, sovietized by force of circumstances, and Red army freed, go their own way, temporarily, at least, until the republics have not been slow to reassert their old local power.

Imperial Russia formerly had a sort of blanket rule, called a viceroyalty, functioning in the Caucasus, consisting of seven provinces and five territories, for a region populated by 12,000,000 persons, three times the size of New England, and three-fourths as large as Texas.

POPE BENEDICT PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

Day Brings Hope. The worst period for the crops during the night passed. It was extremely low at this time. Shortly after 7:30 o'clock the sun began to appear through the mist on the Altiplano, shedding a feeble glow through the clouds. The attendants and prelates, who were present to the window, one of them remarking: "Now it is day; it brings hope."

Cardinal Gasparri, who was with the pope from 6:30 o'clock until 11:45, was in the ante-chamber shortly after that hour with all the diplomats in Rome who called personally for news. Referring to the pope's hoarse speech which the cardinal said, the situation was unusually remained extremely grave. Throughout the night there was almost absolute silence in the Vatican, with only a few guards patrolling up and down and here and there various attendants performing their tasks.

Ward Passing From Common Usage. The use of fare as a verb is rapidly becoming obsolete, we seldom speak of a traveler "faring" on his way, yet such usage is perfectly correct. We still say that an enterprise "fares" well, although the modern tendency is to use "turn out." Then there is the meaning "fare" as we fare well. Fare may be both the noun and the verb, and the word is clearly not a new word. Fishermen will recognize the word as a term used to denote the total amount of fish caught on a cruise.

A Frog Chances. As I sat on the piazza that evening, I noticed first an ominous absence of direct voices, and next the presence of a numerous frog population about the little lake close by. The musical performance of these voluble reptiles began about sunset and increased in volume and power till, unless one could be heard. If all the throats in the state had assembled in that spot and sung their loudest, they could not have been heard above the awful volume of frog voices—Olive Thorne Miller.

boy at forty-six. He has been wrestling over thirty years and is still at the top of the heap. Frank Kramer won the national professional cycling title for the eighteenth time. He has passed the forty mark, but time has not robbed him of his speed. Jim Thorpe, the great Indian, is still troubling the younger fellows up at football. Pat McDonald, fat, fat and forty, won the weight event at usual at the National Championships, and Pop Gearz's hand is just as steady with the reins as when he began driving harness horses some forty years ago.

TEX RICKARD IS FACING CHARGE

Famous Fight Promoter Accused of Offense Committed Last Summer

NEW YORK, (AP)—Tex Rickard, boxing promoter today was arrested on a charge of criminal assault made by the children's society on the complaint of a 15-year-old girl. Two other girls were held as witnesses. It was learned that a bench warrant had been issued yesterday afternoon. Hearing of this morning, Rickard promptly surrendered himself in a west side court with counsel. He was held in $1000 bail for examination January 25.

Rickard said he had no statement to make at this time. Offered Girls Wine. According to Vincent Benam, superintendent of the children's society, the promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight and other famous bouts accepted three girls last summer at the swimming pool which he ran in Madison Square garden. He also alleged that Rickard took two of the girls, Alice York, 16, and Anna Hess, 15, to an apartment and later offered them some wine, after which he was said to have assaulted the luck girl in the garden box. After a complaint had been made to the society, the three girls were held on a blanket charge of incontinency. The girls were questioned last night by the district attorney's office and the warrant was then issued.

TODAY'S MARKETS

SENSATIONAL FEATURES ARE NO LONGER APPARENT

Price Develops Irregularity Shortly After Opening—Food Speculation, Gain Strength

NEW YORK, (AP)—Recent sensational features were lacking at the opening of today's stock market but prices showed irregularity as Gulf States Steel repeated its recent uncertain course. That stock made an early gain of 1 1/2 points, but almost immediately reacted three points to 70. Texas Gulf Electric, St. Paul Battery, Manhattan Elevated and Manhattan Bldg were one to 2 3/4 points higher. Food specialties, including corn products, as well as chemicals also hardened, but the market for specialties became somewhat unsettled on American Sugar's decline of 1 1/2 points.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Selling of steel, especially those issues which contributed largely to yesterday's dealings, featured today's brief market session. Gulf States extended its reaction by over seven points, making a total of more than 25 points from yesterday's high price. Republic lost four points and declines of 1 to 2 1/2 were sustained by Bethlehem, Crucible, Great Northern, Iron, Sloss-Sheffield, Republic and Vanadium. Losses of one to three points were sustained by the principal oils, motors, equipments, chemicals, textiles and junior rails, shippers, shippings and chain store issues strengthened. Closing prices were generally lower. Sales approximated 500,000 shares. Liberty bonds raised and other bonds were steady.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3 1/2's $90.80; first 4's $97.50; second 4's $99.82; first 5 1/4's $107.00; second 5 1/4's $107.50; third 5 1/4's $107.20; fourth 5 1/4's $107.00; Victory 3 1/4's $107.60; Victory 4 1/4's $100.18.

Chicago Grain. CHICAGO, (AP)—Traders on the Chicago board of trade were in a waiting mood at the start of today's session. Trade was light, sentiment mixed and the market seemed listless. May wheat 75c started 3/8 lower to unchanged at $1.13 7/8 to 1.14. Initial figures for July 75c were 1/8 lower at $1.01 to 1.02.

Prices sagged to the low level of these ranges then recovered to stop at the end of the first hour.

Buying by strong commission houses made for higher prices later and a new high for the present upturn was reached. Price taking checked the advance but the undertone was strong. May closed at $1.16 7/8 to 1.16 and July at $1.02 7/8 to 1.03.

Holders of corn were inclined to trade in favor of oats at the start. Selling was not wide and prices soon recovered. May started 1/8 lower to unchanged at $3 1/2 to $3 3/8 to 1.2c. July began at 55c, later gaining 1/8c. Corn strengthened with wheat but was held to narrow range by commission-house selling. Final prices were $3 1/2 to $3 3/8 to 1.2c for May and $5 88 July.

Oats were firmer and unchanged to 1/8c higher at the opening with May 35c and July 35c to 36c. There was a gain of 1/8c in the first hour.

Provisions reflected a stronger market in live hogs. Trade was light and prices generally 1/2 to 1/4c higher. Wheat No. 2 red $1.10; No. 4 hard $1.07 3/4.

Corn No. 2 mixed 49 to 49 1/4c; No. 2 yellow 49 to 49 1/4c; No. 2 white 49 to 49 1/4c; No. 3 white 34 1/2 to 35c; Bye No. 2 82 to 83 1/2c; Clover No. 62 to 62c.

Thursday next $5 to 7. Cattle—Receipts 100 to 120. Pork nominal. Beef nominal.

Portland Livestock. PORTLAND, (AP)—Cattle, hogs and sheep nominally steady; no receipts.

Omaha Livestock. OMAHA, (AP)—Hogs—Receipts 600; active, 1 to 1 1/2 higher; medium weight 39 to 40; No. 2 white 37 1/8 to 38 1/2c; No. 3 white 34 1/2 to 35c; Bye No. 2 82 to 83 1/2c; Clover No. 62 to 62c.

Questions Generally Asked and Their Answers

Re MIRACLE OIL

- Does Miracle Oil contain any ingredient harmful to the motor? MIRACLE OIL is absolutely guaranteed to contain nothing that would harm the motor in any way, and would welcome your own chemist's analysis!
- Will Miracle Oil foul spark plugs? MIRACLE OIL will not foul spark plugs. In order to prove this, take out one of your spark plugs, insert lower end in MIRACLE OIL so that the entire lower end is covered with oil, replace and connect your wire and you will find your plug will fire regularly.
- Will Miracle Oil affect carburetor or clog it up? MIRACLE OIL will not clog or interfere in any way with the carburetor, in fact it will improve it, as there are several working parts of the carburetor operating without lubrication which MIRACLE OIL will reach and lubricate.
- Is it necessary to install a mechanical device for Miracle Oil? There is no added expense for mechanical device. We use the fuel for conveying the Oil to these parts. MIRACLE OIL is poured into the gasoline tank, two ounces to each five gallons of gasoline. When poured into the tank it mixes with the gasoline and will not separate or settle. Each explosion carries its own lubrication!
- In what way will Miracle Oil increase the efficiency of my motor? MIRACLE OIL is drawn into the combustion chamber through the intake valve lubricating the valves and valve-stems, which are not reached by the present system of lubrication. At the time of each explosion the oil is released, and sprayed over the upper cylinder chambers and piston, rings, lessening friction and maintaining compression. After performing its duty in the upper cylinder chambers, it is blown out through the exhaust valves, lubricating the valves and valve-stems, leaving no residue. By lessening the friction on these parts, it will greatly increase the efficiency of the motor.

Mr. Atkinson, chief engineer in charge of metallurgical department, Maxwell Motor Co., Detroit, Mich., says: "Your theory of UPPER LUBRICATION is the correct one, and the motor public should receive MIRACLE OIL with open arms."

The American War Mothers met with Mrs. Henry Peters on Friday afternoon, at her home on Second avenue east, with eighteen members present. A half hour was spent on the celebration of the Constitution of the United States which is to be the study for the remainder of the year. Mrs. Thomas Irwin, who is to supervise the study, gave a comprehensive and interesting summary of the history of the colonies leading up to the adoption of the constitution. Following this the members were busy with needlework and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Mrs. Peters, Mrs. O. F. Strobeck and Mrs. J. Filgornin. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. H. Harris, 131 Eighth avenue north.

The first annual Masonic charity ball given under the auspices of the Twin Falls Shrine club was a most successful affair. The hall was beautifully decorated in red and white with a background of evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. J. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. George Easley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bond formed the receiving line. The beautiful forms of the ladies and the brilliant colors in their dress suits and red feathery gowns a charming kaleidoscope of colors. There was a large attendance, many coming from neighboring towns, among them being Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyde and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wences of Burley. Delightful music, and the serving of delicious punch added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Mrs. D. H. Churchill entertained at dinner, and also at an evening party yesterday in honor of the birthday of her husband. The rooms were charming in decorations of red and green. The guests at dinner, which was served at one o'clock, were Mr. and Mrs. James Barry and Miss Lena and Marguerite Barry, and the following friends from Piler: Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hagler and small daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller. Book was the amusement for the evening and the guests were Messrs. and Madames William Scott, G. M. Simpson, W. A. Howard, David Brown, Frank B. Bell and N. E. Morgan.

The W. G. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. James M. Wall on Friday afternoon. The program was opened with the singing of a hymn, devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Joseph Blake and by giving a money on the teaching of the Bible to children followed by several prayers for children's work. The president, Mrs. Grace, presided at the home. Mrs. M. C. McDoune sang two beautiful solos, accompanied by Mrs. P. T. Kellogg. Mrs. E. V. Berg gave a comprehensive and instructive paper on the work of the children's bureau. Miss Elizabeth Shotwell, talked interestingly on "Child Labor versus Child's Work." Mrs. "Bessie" Wilson presided at the home. The program was for child welfare cover the ground at once and lose no effort in caring for the work. A social hour followed and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. J. M. Clear, Mrs. May Glendon and Mrs. Jack Glabors.

CORINNE GRIFFITH VITAGRAPH STAR

IS SHE a comedienne or an emotional actress? That is the question that is being asked concerning Corinne Griffith. She has displayed such versatility in her recent productions, "This Lie," "The Unknown Quantity" and "The Girl Problem" that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, has not yet determined the meter of this star. Miss Griffith, however, has no inclination for light comedy roles, so undoubtedly she will sparkle in these. Whenever the play in which she appears, you are certain to see a beautiful girl beautifully gowned.

ROMANTIC SETTING IS BASIS OF GREAT PLAY

"The Woman God Changed" Staged in Bahama Islands; Elaborate Scenes

Innanch as much of the story of "The Woman God Changed" has to do with a tropical island, the company playing the various roles in this splendid Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture, which will be displayed at the Idaho theater for two days beginning next Wednesday, was carried to the Bahama islands off the coast of Florida on a specially chartered steamer where for two weeks Steven Owen and E. K. Lincoln, who are seen as castaways on an island were kept busy by Director Robert G. Vignola, his cameramen and assistants. The burning and sinking of a steamship following an explosion of ammunition, was faithfully pictured and the casualty (in the picture only) proved quite exciting. Other scenes, notably a remarkable cloud effect, were "shot" with excellent results. "The Woman God Changed" is a beautiful play, and fully up to the high standard set by Paramount.

"MAUD" IS ON THE WAY

Maud makes her appearance as a star in the movies at the Idaho theater beginning Monday next. Douglas MacLean is billed as the star of Maud's picture, "Passing Thru." An "Ince-Paramount" production, but Doug freely admits that Maud carries away first honors. Doug makes no professional judgment. On the contrary he declares that "Maud-outstages" Bill Hart's "Pinto" and "Teddy" the wonderful dog, to say nothing of Joe Martin, the almost-human chimpanzee. Like the star that she is, Maud, who is a pure white, loped-eared hybrid, much displayed a remarkable exhibition of temperance during the filming of "Passing Thru." Maud caused no end of worry to William A. Belter, who directed the feature, as well as the native MacLean company.

"Keeping Up With Lizzie" Declared to Be One of Best of Season's Offerings So Far Released

Ray and Al Rockett, youngest independent producers of features, have chosen Enid Bennett, Paramount star, to select the title role in their second selector feature, "Keeping Up With Lizzie," and have surrounded her with one of the greatest casts ever seen in comedy drama. Miss Bennett, herself, is at her best in comedy and, as she knows how to wear clothes as well as any woman on the screen, and has tons of them to wear, she will have the opportunity of her career in the role of Lizzie. She will appear at the New Orpheum next week. There is no better leading man than Edward Grouce with his serious, handsome face and easy grace in acting, nor a cleverer villain than Leo White. GIANT DOG LEADS CAST OF "THE SILENT CALL"

Saturday Evening Post Story by Everts Made Basis of Splendid Production

A canine star is making his debut in "The Silent Call," the Laurence Trimble-Maurin production, presented by H. O. Davis and distributed by Associated National Pictures, Inc., which will be shown at the Orpheum theater the latter part of next week. The dog shows a canine intelligence that is striking.

If O. Davis has selected for his story Hal O. Everts' "The Cross Pull," which was published in the Saturday Evening Post. The plot deals with western life around the high Sierras and calls for a dog in its leading development. The writer's sharp analysis of investigation is being scanned the foremost kennels of this country and Europe before they came upon Stroutstrot, this Belgian found who takes the role of Flash in the picture. Flash is a cross between dog and wolf; and the development of the picture shows the two strains in him struggling for mastery. Because human domination becomes intolerable he breaks his chains and goes to the mountains where he mates with a full blooded wolf.

In the end, however, the human instinct of loyalty is too strong to withstand. When he senses that the human beings who claimed his affection are in danger, Flash returns to the fold in time to effect a thrilling rescue.

SORAP THE WARRIORS

When Secretary Hughes made his proposal for the "scrapping" of capital warships the term conveyed a single meaning to most persons: that the vessels were to be destroyed either by being broken up and sent to the junk pile or by sinking.

No doubt that by Mr. Hughes' intention: that the nations should make "a clean sweep" of some 68 mighty fighting ships as a beginning of the great work of armament limitation.

The treaty provides that if any of the signatories should become engaged in war involving naval operations, it may give notice to the others of the suspension of its obligations under that document.

America, France and Italy believe there should be as much actual "scrapping" as possible. Great Britain and Japan apparently incline to the conversion policy.

ONE MORE STEP

In deciding to ban the use of poison gas in warfare, the five major powers took the greatest step yet in the elimination of barbarous methods from armed hostilities.

The danger that in case of war desperation may lead to violation of all pledges is not overlooked. The British say plainly that they will continue to watch the development of war gas making, as no doubt will the United States and the others.

It is somewhat surprising to be informed by a minister who has performed many marriages that he believes not more than 15 out of 100 marriages which follow elopements prove happy.

The experience of Dr. Houghton is probably that of most other ministers who preside over a matrimonial Great Britain. Dr. Houghton probably has a better record of refusals than the average minister who is sought by elopers.

HER VOICE

by MILDRED WHITE.

Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.

The old lady who left Honeyuckle house was tied to it by neither memories nor sentiment. She was a gay, yet sensible old lady, and Benny met her at the house on the city square, where one of her friends was giving a party. "I've lived most my life in a small town," the old lady said, "and I did not want to quite end it without seeing the city. Now that I've seen it, I am here to stay. I'm going to have a good time. I'm going to lecture and opera and theater, and Honeyuckle house may go to ruin for all that I care."

Miss Gloria Benton grew suddenly interested. Gloria Benton was the name printed beneath portraits on musical programs. Benny had been her college friend's adaptation.

"Where is this little house of yours?" she asked. "Tell me about it."

"My home town? Oh, it's a slow, picturesque village. Honeyuckle house is at the foot of a pretty hill—at least, strangers exclaim over it. Where is this little house of yours?" she asked. "Tell me about it."

"I was given the house after fifty years," Benny gloved.

"Why, I believe," she exclaimed, "that Juliette and Honeyuckle house is the very place for me. You see, Benny passed recently, I have tied my voice out some place into the country. Doctor's orders."

Sister Sage was making a riot of bloom around the white doorposts, when Gloria Benton dismissed the maid and turned into Honeyuckle house for a day of relaxation and inspection.

A round white collar was at Benny's throat, and she lifted her hat from her wavy hair as she entered the quaint old house. Immediately she was delighted with its interior. She would bring Howena, her mother-in-law, here, she decided, and the partnership remain until the last day of fall should make return to the city unavoidable. She was tired mentally and bodily with work and study and public entertaining. When she had finished her scrutiny of Honeyuckle house, Benny went out only her coat and the kitchen chair. Kitchen chairs appeared to be lacking. Then she saw the man. He was measuring calmly around the back-latticed porch, and he wore the khaki suit of a workman.

"That are you going to do?" she accented him.

"I am taking measurements," the man laconically replied. "For the enlargement of this porch. I intend to fix the place over."

"Is not necessary," she cheerfully assured him. "For the short time of my stay, the house will do us all."

"You die entirely laboring under some mistake," he said. His voice had a pleasing tone.

"I purchased this house from the agent this morning. When I have made it satisfactory, I intend to move in."

Benny's hopefulness vanished.

"I could rent the house to you," he suggested, "until I need it."

Benny was instantly joyous.

"Oh! would you?" she asked, "and just as it is furnished?"

"The man nodded. His eyes had not left her face. "With the privilege of going on with the repairs. I shall see that you are not inconvenienced."

So the matter was satisfactorily arranged. Acquaintance may ripen easily into friendship, in a Honeyuckle-garden. Benny was not lonely, but she found herself watching with growing anticipation for the pleasant owner's visit. He came often to look after the improvements, and sometimes asked her aid in suggestion. He was the respected attorney of the village, she learned through Howena. He was delighted with her suggestion of white settles on either side of the Colonial porch.

"His wife," he said with gentleness in his tone, "would enjoy it." He was a plain man, but understood the world she had left. It had been a flattering word to Gloria Benton, but this man's matter-of-factness some way rested her.
