CO-OPERATION IS KEYNOTE OF FARM SUGGEST

General Manager of California Fruit Exchange Dwells on Necessity of Mutual Confidence Before Conference

WILL OF THE FARMER IS BIGGEST SINGLE FACTOR

Declares Such Ventures Should be Composed of and Managed by Agricultural Men Only to Succeed

WASHINGTON, (AP)—American agriculture as a whole "could profitably study the factors that have contributed to the success of general business depression," G. Harold Powell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, declared today at a luncheon before the National Agricultural conference. Mr. Powell declared the success of co-operative marketing depends upon the will of the farmer to co-operate... He said a co-operative association could be held together by contract or agreement between it and each member and over long periods of years.

IN THE CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS' EXCHANGE, FOR EXAMPLE, 10,000 MEMBERS WILL NEARLY $100,000,000 WORTH OF CITRUS FRUITS ANNUALLY TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE, THE GROWERS HAVE FORMED MORE THAN 200 LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS, PACKING HOUSES AND MANAGING THE LOCAL MARKETS.

Most of the California growers received prices for fruit that returned more than the cost of production. Not only have these returns to the producers, but the trade, also has been benefited by the present farm depression; the opening of export markets through extension of long-time credits to foreign buyers through the federal reserve act.

Outline Program

"Have the federal reserve banks," the Louisiana governor suggested, "send their own representatives to the capital of this American nation to secretly determine to purchase our products and unable to pay for them. Look up the character and character of these producers as well as their financial responsibility. Sell them not on very short time, as is customary now, but on six, 12 and 18 months, taking their acceptances, with endorsement of the great banking institutions of each nation, and authorize the spinners, manufacturers and dealers to sell their products on equally long time, with their acceptances and notes in payment to be deposited in trust until the claim of the federal reserve bank shall have been paid in full."

World Gets Quick Relief

Governor Parker told the conference that this plan "would afford almost instant relief, would mean the employment of many more men, and by extending to these nations the cotton to give profitable employment and the foodstuffs to keep many of them from starving, would do more to relieve the poverty of the merchant marine, would put energy and spirit into business, and bring to this country the good will of all the older nations of the world."

Governor Parker departed from his prepared address to take notice of rumors which he said had been heard in some quarters concerning the conference. He said he had no foundation whatever in the rumors.

RUSSIA NEEDS LEADERSHIP IN HER INDUSTRIES

Need of Inducing Return of Two Million Who Have Left Becoming More Apparent Every Day, Observers Declare

MOSCOW, (AP) — Russia's lack of constructive leadership for its industries and commercial reconstruction becomes more apparent every day, and the necessity for inducing refugees to return is clearer to the beholders, perhaps than to other countries, and here less knowledge of the inefficiency of government departments and the difficulties the communists have behind the scenes.

Director Lenin has repeatedly stressed the desirability of attracting back to Russia the 2,000,000 Russians who have fled to other countries and represent the cream of Russian intelligence. The engineers, scientists, bankers, teachers and merchants are greatly needed. Esthonsians and Lithuanians played a large part in the business life of old Russia. They had enjoyed the benefits of both Swedish and German culture. Many of them are well-trained specialists and managers and directors of various enterprises. But they have nearly all left. Almost all Russia and taken up residence in the new Baltic states.

Will Not Re-enter Trade. Battle merchants will not re-enter trade in Russia for they indicate confidence in the communist government. Manufacturers are unwilling to resume their old work under government control. Even property-owners, or rather former property-owners, are unwilling to take back their apartment houses and hotels under the proposed reconstruction plan. Consequently the new economic policy is falling far short of expectations.

Free domestic trade is not entirely free. The term is misleading. It is impossible for foreign goods to be carried at will on Russian railways. Permits are required for each shipment. It is difficult to get these. The permitting on all lines is extensive. There is no insurance.

It is largely through the goods carried by hand that markets in the great cities are supplied. Many men carry flour and sugar from the Ukraine to take out an existence. It brings a better price in Moscow and Petrograd. Meat is also carried to the cities by railway employees and regular dealers who employ carriers.

Preparatory Step. Lenin's insistence that the government must win the confidence and support of the intelligent classes is generally regarded as a preparation for further movements to the right in governmental policies as soon as it is possible to make them without disrupting the communist party utterly.

The communist party is rapidly becoming a party in the sense that the United States and England have parties. Its important leaders show daily signs of making further concessions to the hostile majority which will have nothing to do with communist principles, or half-communist schemes, such as the concession plan of letting factories to old owners.

The holding up of the Far Eastern republic at China under bolshevik domination, but with general elections and right of private property, is looked upon in Russia as an indication of revised policies which will eventually be adopted in European Russia.

The Same Light and Measure. Reason, like the sun, is common to all; and it is for want of examining it by the same light and measure, that we are not all of the same mind; for all have it to that end, though all do not use it as William Penn.

SISTER WOMAN MOSTLY CHEAT

Evangeline Booth of Salvation Army Uses Strong Language in Announcing Views

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — Women who powder their noses, touch up their hair with a bit of golden glint or add the bloom of youth to their cheeks are positively dishonest, Evangeline Booth, national commander of the Salvation Army, declared while here recently. Women use "make-up" to deceive, Miss Booth said. "A woman has no right to fool the world," she added. "The woman with bluing cheeks, dilapidated eyes and carry-over hair is a cheat. Many divorces are caused by the fact that women have attempted to deceive their husbands regarding their appearance, she thinks. Men, who added, wants women as objects, intended they should be.

Cosmetic Sales Are Heavy. The enormous sale of cosmetics in the United States is a disgrace to the country, Miss Booth feels. "If our young women of today would only take the money they use for make-up and powder, and buy milk for the poor, starving babies of the world, they wouldn't need any artificial make-up. Their cheeks would be the hue of joy that comes only from giving service to the world." Miss Booth thinks motivation and untidly should be the guide when it comes to clothes. Following the style of the Salvation Army, she says, skirts should be five or six inches above the ground. "Too many women today destroy their true womanliness by immodest dressing and they have only themselves to blame when their characters are questioned," she asserted.

LEPER COLONY STEADILY SHRINKING IN NUMBERS

Cures Effected Through Recent Discoveries are Steadily on the Increase

HONOLULU, T. H. (AP) — The leper settlement on the island of Molokai contains fewer patients than at any time in the past 20 years, according to the statement of D. D. McVeigh, superintendent of the colony, on a recent visit here. The decrease, he said, was due to the treatments with the chaulmoogra oil specified by Dr. A. L. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii.

Practically all of the 485 patients at the colony now are taking the Dean treatment. Mr. McVeigh, after commenting upon the popular belief that the children of lepers are afflicted with the disease, Mr. McVeigh who has been superintendent of the Molokai settlement for many years, said that "both mentally and physically, the children of leprosy parents measure up as well, if not better, than those of healthy parents."

All Normal Children. "These children are not only normal, but they also have the advantage of the training that is given in the splendidly conducted homes for the children of lepers throughout the world."

Permitting to purchase 600 pounds of chaulmoogra oil, from which the Dean specific is derived, has been given by Governor Wallace R. Farrington to Dr. A. L. Dean, president of the territorial board of health, to order that the territory's supply might not be exhausted. Dr. Trotter, in a letter to the governor, pointed out that Dr. Heuser of the Rockefeller foundation announced recently that the Philippines government would purchase three tons of the oil and that this would virtually consume the world supply.

The territorial board of agriculture has established a chaulmoogra plantation at Waiholo, this island, where several thousand saplings have been planted in order that the increasing demand for the oil may be satisfied.

PRESS OF IRELAND IS INCLUDED IN COMMENT

World Congress of Irishmen Indulges in Debate Over Attitude of Newspapers

DUBLIN, (AP) — After a heated debate the world congress of the Irish race decided today to hold secret sessions for the organization of the International Irish League, the project for which was favorably passed upon by the congress yesterday. This action was hotly criticized by several delegates and much speculation as to its purpose was provoked.

Delegate Cleary of Australia, berated the press. Eamon de Valera, who was presiding, assailed members of the press present during the delegate's sessions as if he deprecated the attitude but he indicated later that he favored secrecy on the question of trade promotion. Delegate W. J. Brown, Newfoundland, opposing the secret session, criticized the general attitude of the congress, which he said had been run in a manner worthy of a backwoods camp. Delegate Cleary, in replying said there had been no faithful press reports of the proceedings, not even in the Irish press.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Bage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Bage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyneth's Bage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkening, glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyneth's Bage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger—try.

NEW PREMIER OF PORTUGAL HAS NO MERCY

Revolutionists Promised Short Shift at Hands of Successor to Assassinated Former Government Head

LISBON, (AP)—Cunha Leal, the new premier of Portugal, who assumed office about the middle of December, has vowed that he will restore public order in the country and pledged his honor to bring to justice the assassins of former Premier Granjo and several other statesmen murdered in the October revolution.

He is taking energetic measures to keep these revolutionary elements in check. Several military and naval officers have been sent from Lisbon to the provinces in punishment for taking part in political meetings of civilians. The new premier has appointed as civilian governor of Lisbon Lieutenant Agostao Nunes, a naval officer who had declared that he would not wear his uniform again until justice had been done to the assassins of Granjo.

Made Early Vow
Premier Leal had made a similar vow shortly after the assassinations. His accession to power was brought about within 24 hours after the previous ministry had fallen and was attended by dramatic incidents. The air was thick with rumors of approaching revolutionary action. A cabinet of five members already had been formed and was ready to step into power. The newspapers state that his choice as premier saved the country from a civil war.

When it became known that Leal was forming a cabinet all the extreme elements came to the streets in October last, including soldiers, sailors, civil revolutionaries and some officers, met and sent emissaries to the president warning him that they would not accept Leal's cabinet and demanding that Mesquita de Carvalho be made premier. When they learned that they would not have Mesquita de Carvalho, threats were delivered at a revolutionary club and promises were made that the revolutionary program would be carried out at whatever cost to the government.

On assuming power, Premier Leal declared that he would "quash all agitators and those who commit fresh crimes as in the case of previous republics." He promised that all his efforts would be directed to enforce order and to loosen the grave economic and financial situation in Portugal. He declared that the men who had urged him to accept the office feared that the continuation of disorder in Portugal would bring about foreign intervention. The premier said he realized that his life was endangered, but to refuse to accept the office would have been an act of cowardice.

Premier Leal's task was complicated by a meeting held outside the capital of members of the parliament which was directed at the time of the revolution which presented to the government a demand that he be evoked in a new parliament in Lisbon. This Leal refused to do.

FOR FLEXIBLE TARIFF RATES

Chamber of Commerce Membership Committed to Establishment of Tariff Board

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Legislative provision for flexible tariff rates to be administered by a tariff adjustment board having "quasi-judicial" functions is included among other tariff recommendations to which the chamber of commerce of the United States has been committed by referendum vote of its membership, announced today. Other propositions adopted in the referendum were "reasonable protection for American industries in destructive competition, maintaining of the 'anti-dumping principle,' encouragement of export trade and adequate tariff measures to meet foreign discrimination.

The vote on the question of the American valuation basis for levying duties was announced as 570 for and 833 against, lacking the necessary two-thirds majority to commit the chamber to either way.

The purpose of the proposed tariff adjustment board, it was said, should be to provide a consistent tariff policy in the face of fluctuating trade conditions and its tariff rate decisions, although limited in range by congress, should be made as effective and binding as duties now fixed by legislation.

The first three officers will be students and the class sponsor will be from the faculty in each of the classes. There were no oral nominations and the nominations must come from the advisory. No returns were given out at the close of school, except the senior ballot. Dale Starr and Clifford Pix will be in the race for president, Craven Beata and Alma Baker will run against each other for secretary. There will be three student councilors from the senior class, those nominated are Robert Richardson, Dudley Stern, Helen Keaston, Nell Cole, Helen Hornold and Florence Dent. The freshmen and sophomores have only a president and secretary to vote for and the juniors have a president, secretary and one councillor.

It has been feared that there would be no Coyote this year because of lack of interest in the annual. Principal Karnes and Superintendent Mitchell both said that there could be no annual unless there were 500 subscriptions by the time that the material was ready to go to print. A second subscription list was passed around on Tuesday. To date 449 persons have signed up for the Coyote. Although there is a shortage of 51 subscribers, Editor-in-Chief Hart Van Riper is confident that the annual will be printed. A meeting of the Coyote staff probably will be held Wednesday evening after school.

Monitor service started again the other day in the boys' basement. There was a shortage of 51 subscribers. He resumed because the service would be done during the day. The duties of the monitors are to stay in the locker room and guard the belongings of the students during the day.

RUSSIAN TRADE SURE TO GROW

American Official Now in Moscow Declares Work Only is Needed

MOSCOW, (AP)—There is bound to be an ever increasing amount of foreign trade in Russia, despite all her handicaps, in the opinion of Adolph Torgler, Pittsburgh. "The only chance here with the American relief administration as cashier. "There's no doubt that the soviet government will continue to be to the right, as opposed to the left, in its economic policy," said Mr. Torgler. "So soon as Russia can get her transportation system straightened out, big business can be handled, many of her present problems will correct themselves. One of these would be the famine. There's enough food in Russia, if its distribution can be effected.

Only Work is Needed.

"Russia has not been exploited. She only needs to start to work. She's far richer than the western countries of Europe. Germany was far worse off than Russia, when the world war ended but she started to work, and that's why she will get along. People want what may be said, Germany and England are doing business here and will do more.

"Russia's finances are conducted by the Jews, and this is a hopeful fact, as they are excellent bankers. The new national bank has even taken back the 500 rubles of the Russian Imperial Bank for its daily exchange quotations, and this little fact shows how the tide sets.

Private Banks Allowed.

"New private banks are now allowed, and may be opened by those countries which have recognized soviet Russia. Those countries which have not recognized soviet Russia will probably open banks, temporarily, through local agents. There's a lot of business right now for foreign banks in the way of exchange and remittance business. "Dr. Haxel Bellakky, whose father and brothers conduct the Cosmopolitan bank in St. Paul, Minn., is now here and trying to open a bank. He has already a shoe and perfume factory. "That there are many hazards in business at present, he found out lately when a fire in Tashkent, Turkistan, for the purpose of getting material for his factories. Bandits held him up near Tashkent, robbed him of $5,000, 500 rubles and took even his fur coat, so he had to come back to Moscow through the cold without warm clothes."

Savings Accounts

The habit of putting aside some income for a particular purpose, perhaps to buy an automobile, is of great importance in building up the ability to succeed in accomplishing other objectives. If you set yourself to reach one goal after another, you will find each goal attained makes the next easier. Saving on a checking account is subject to temptation of spending before the object is attained. A savings account makes you think twice before withdrawing.

PACKING-HOUSE STRIKE MAY BE BROUGHT TO END

Members of Meat-Cutters and Butchers Union Will Settle Question by Vote—Employers Not Interested

CHICAGO, (AP) — Effectiveness of the strike of packing house workers continues or suspension of which will be voted on tomorrow in the country under orders of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America, has been denied by the packers since his location, December 5. In many plants dismissals were made that for a few days' work was diminished but that recently all the plants have been operating with output impaired. The union has maintained that the strike has been effective.

The strike resulted in numerous clashes between strike sympathizers and the police in Chicago, and in the lynching of negro strike breakers at Fort Worth, Texas, and Oklahoma City, Okla. Yesterday at Oklahoma City, five men, three white and two negroes, were sentenced to life imprisonment for their part in the lynching of John Brooks, a negro strikebreaker.

Following by hundreds of Chicago hundreds of policemen were assigned to duty in the lack-of-the yards district and in the stock yards, about the big packing plants. They were withdrawn only yesterday.

The strike was called after a majority of the members of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America voted in favor of it after a wage reduction in various packing centers had been agreed on by plant councils, the packing houses not recognizing the unions as existent, but agreeing to negotiate with committees from organizations of their own employes.

Operators Deny Strike. Attempts to lift the representatives of the union and the workers together through official mediation failed when the operators asserted that there was no strike, as far as they were concerned, that their plant was operating at normal and that they were in agreement with the men whom they had employed.

Yardstick Proved Undoing of Youthful Elopers

Anna Marie Blyden, 13 year old, and her beau, Merton Durke, 14 years, of Sylvania, O. a suburb of Cincinnati, were returned to their homes after being away on their elopement for a week. They left their home on a brand new bicycle that Merton had received for Christmas, the young man telling on the handiwork. By this method they reached Flinday, where Merton sold his $50 bike for $25 and then they traveled to Sulliville, Ky. By this time the papers had a story of their disappearance, with an accurate description of the pair, and this was their undoing. They visited a store to purchase some food and the storekeeper suspected them of being the pair. He measured them with a yardstick, and then they gave up. He turned them over to a deputy sheriff who notified the parents. They were put up at a private home over night, and the following morning an auto, with Anna's uncle, came and brought them home.

LEVY IS VITAL FACTOR IN TAX

County Assessor Explodes Notion that High Valuation Means High Tax

The people in general seem to be imbued with the idea that high valuations mean high taxes, B. Claude Stewart, county assessor, said today. This is not necessarily the case, and some attention should be given to reducing levies as well as reducing valuations, for the one without the other means very little. Our levies are made according to our expenditures, and the question of reducing our public expenditures is a problem to which we must bring our best business judgment and the experience. Recommendations should be made to our various boards to the end that no appropriations be made except on the clearest showing of an actual necessity.

The people should know for what purposes taxes are levied, then they would better know where to place the responsibility. We have in the county numerous taxing bodies each levying a tax on the same property, and each acting independent of the other. First comes the state levying taxes for state government. Following the state comes the county levying taxes for current expense, county school purposes, redemption of outstanding warrants, payment of interest on county indebtedness, redemption of county bonds and for other purposes.

Next comes the school district levying taxes for maintenance and to provide funds for the payment of bonded indebtedness and the interest thereon. Then comes the highway district levying for maintenance, bond interest, etc.

The property may be located within an incorporated city, town or village and be subject to a number of levies which are included in the general levy. It may be further subject to several special taxes such as paving tax, sewer tax, sidewalk tax, sprinkling tax, etc. There is no limit as to what can attach to property in the way of special taxes, and when these taxing authorities have levied enough to supply their wants the total of all taxes become a burden and a push to the subject to secure special taxes such as paving tax, sewer tax, sidewalk tax, sprinkling tax, etc. There is no limit as to what can attach to property in the way of special taxes, and when these taxing authorities have levied enough to supply their wants the total of all taxes become a burden and a push to the subject to secure special taxes such as paving tax, sewer tax, sidewalk tax, sprinkling tax, etc.

We are now busy working out a program for assessing this year and will fully realize that it is a big problem and will be considered wholly in the interest of all the people to the end that equal and exact justice be accorded every taxpayer. You will find us willing and anxious to have any taxpayer advise and confer with us at any time, and we will carefully consider suggestions and opinions of any one of us, if such will result in a more equitable and just equalization of taxes.

Between $1,500 and $2,000 was expended at the close of last year for taxes on MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT ALONE by the Printing Establishments of Twin Falls County.

Add to this the amount expended in taxes by the men who own the various plants and publishing houses and it should become apparent to anyone that Twin Falls county is actually the center, in this part of Southern Idaho, of the Printing Industry.

Make use of this industry—employ it for one hundred per cent of your Printing needs—Regard it as one of the important lines of business which has so far been developed here. Make it pay more taxes, employ more men—the industry is willing to serve.

If you can buy a better product in the printing line elsewhere, by all means do so. But give this particular "Home Industry" the same chance that you accord the salesman for the outside establishment.

Twin Falls Printing is Good Printing.

MORE HEARST BUNK... Listen to this from Mr. Hearst's official Phalaris:

"It appears that the Washington conference has put in a treaty form a rule forbidding the United States to establish a military base at the Philippines. And there is under discussion a suggestion that the United States be forbidden to establish fortifications on the island of Guam, property of this country."

"What do the American people think of allowing Japan, England and France, Japan especially, to decide what the United States may do with its own territory?"

Bunk! For that matter, what do the American people think of allowing Japan, England and France to dictate how many battleships, cruisers or other vessels we shall have? For that matter, what do the American people think of allowing Japan, England and France to dictate as to how many $40,000,000 dreadnaughts we shall scrap? That is exactly what Japan, England and France will do if the proposed treaty to limit naval armaments be consummated; isn't it?"

And we shall, in turn, dictate how many battleships Japan, England and France may keep and how many dreadnaughts they shall scrap.

As for Mr. Hearst's official Phalaris—was he not lorded of the clacking clickers when it was rumored that Japan was to establish a naval rendezvous in the Gulf of California, by arrangement with Mexico? Did not the eagle screechers screech that the United States could never protect an Asiatic power to set up a stronghold near or on American coasts?

The smug, hollow-throated selfishness of Hearst's demagogic Phalaris satisfies those who accept bunk at face value.

Hearst and those who ape him have done all they can from the beginning to bedevil, to death the arms limitation conference. They will not succeed. Some day they will find themselves stowing in their own broth.

HOLD-OVER INEFFICIENCY... It has been notorious that the federal government is carrying too many people on its payroll. The Wilson administration, when it came into power nearly nine years ago, did so on a platform confining the stereotyped denunciations of republican extravagance, yet one of the first acts of that administration was to begin increasing expenditures in general and the number of federal employes in particular.

When the war came, there was of course a need of larger forces of government employes, but there is not the least doubt that under cover of the war, exigency advantage was taken to add to the payroll tens of thousands of employes for whom there was not the least actual necessity. It became a matter of fact in Washington that they were so numerous as to be in one another's road, and it was seriously asserted that in some offices the forces reported for only part time as the buildings were not large enough to accommodate them when they all came together. At the peak there were more than 800,000 employes on the government payroll.

Since the war there has been a very marked reduction in their number, and the reduction is being continued by the Harding administration. But the woeful-out process will have to be carried a great deal farther to redeem the pledges of economy, if we are to believe a report which has just been made

Begin Work on World's Largest Bridge

Actual work on the great suspension bridge over the Delaware river, from Camden, N. J., to Philadelphia, has begun. The first blows marking the opening of construction, were struck by Governor Wood of Pennsylvania, and Governor Edwards of New Jersey. The opening formalities mark of the building of what will be the world's largest suspension bridge, the single span of more than 1700 feet being unobstructed anywhere in the world. The bridge is expected to be opened for traffic on July 4, 1926. The top photograph shows a model of the great structure, below is a view of the construction. Below is Governor Edwards of New Jersey, and Governor Wood of Philadelphia, who struck the first blows marking the building of the giant span.

Mr. Dawes, controller of the budget. According to Mr. Dawes, even yet only 70 per cent of the government's clerical force is efficient. He recommends that examinations be held for all departments in order to rid the service of incompetent employes. The recommendation does not please members of congress who have been most active in his standing faces on the roll for their discharges. But it will certainly please the taxpayers of the country, who will insist that the controller's suggestion be adopted.

UNIQUE PLAN TO BE TRIED AT DETROIT

Scheme of Traffic Control Will Operate Within Four Mile Radius of Single Tower, Advocates Claim

DETROIT, (AP) — A new system for control of traffic in the congested part of Detroit that is said to contain number of features heretofore untried, and that will result in control of traffic over a distance of four miles from a single tower, will be put into operation here about February 1. It is announced by Police Inspector Harry H. Jackson.

The plan is an enlargement of the system now in vogue here. It provides for placing a master tower at Woodward and Michigan avenues. By means of helix and lights a single officer in this tower will direct traffic from Detroit river to a point four miles from the heart of the business district on Woodward avenue.

The London Follies' company which will play in Twin Falls on Monday evening has just finished playing in Little Columbia and Twin Falls in the fourth city in the United States to be played by this musical aggregation. Playing in Portland, Seattle and Boise, they are coming direct to this place. Harry Tate who heads this large company, is known as England's greatest funmaker, and has the enviable record of having appeared at more royal command appearances than any other comedian in the world. The chorus surrounding this famous comedian has been especially selected.

The Celtic romance of Dean Byrne's literary temperament finds abundant room for gratification in his story, "The Woman God Changed" published in Hearst's magazine, and pictured for Paramount by Cosmopolitan picture theater today and Thursday.

Byrne's genius for creating this type of story makes him peculiarly adapted to the screen. Born in New York he courted fame by reading the hand of his fathers. He lived in his father's stories, read his folk lore, attended his school, until at last he engaged a D. A. from University college, Dublin. Mr. Byrne is an athlete and lover of golf and yachting. He is a member of the International Sporting club, New York; Woodway (Country) Club; Riverside (Conn.) Yacht club; a contributor to sports magazines, and is considered an authority on boxing and wrestling.

It is to be regretted that a statement in this column yesterday to the effect that Monday evening's New Orleans performance was hardly up to standard should have resulted in a request by Manager Anderson, that no further criticism of New Orleans attractions be offered News readers. The comment referred to was made honestly and in good faith. The request will, of course, be heeded to.
