

DELICATE POINT IS INVOLVED IN PENDING ACTION

British Prize Court Called Upon to Settle Question Which May Go to World Tribunal at Geneva

LONDON, (AP) — A new and embarrassing point of international law relating to the confiscation of church property in wartime has arisen in the British prize court.

Claims aggregating many hundreds of thousands of dollars have been entered by the owners of such articles as regalia, surplices, altar cloths, memorial glass windows, statuary, gold communion cups, crucifixes and vestments of Genesey origin, which were shipped by emans and Austrian agents or manufacturers and merchants to churches and colleges while the world war was in progress.

The ships conveying the goods were seized by British warships and the goods sold by public auction as enemy prizes.

Owners in the United States, under the leadership of Goetz & Co., of Chicago, and of Trefelt in Germany, represented by former Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, claim the amount realized from the prize sale, and losses and charges.

Church Property Exempt.
Claimants argue that under the laws of war of all nations, all church property is sacred and exempt from war seizure.

The British government, however, contends that the money paid to the shippers of the stored goods went to German firms to be used by Germany in the prosecution of the campaign against the allies.

The British prize court—general court has just decided that the question is so delicate and so involved with old and new regulations and war practices that it must go in its whole aspect before the full prize court, because there is doubt whether the German firms in Germany did not have an interest in the American firms, and also whether the prize court ought to submit the case to the new world court at Geneva or the Washington conference to be settled under the new international laws of war.

In the meantime, the money remains in the British treasury, awaiting a new disposition on the prize affecting church property, while the American Catholics all over the world are showing great interest in the issue.

MAY NOW ACROSS PACIFIC

BERDEEN, Wash., (AP) — A mammoth raft of cedar logs may be towed across the Pacific ocean to Japan this coming summer, according to H. Asanuma, a log buyer for Japanese concerns, who announced the plan here recently. Asanuma believes the feat could be accomplished during the favorable weather that ordinarily prevails during the summer season.

Japan is now enjoying a building boom, fostered by the imperial government. The tariff on finished lumber is so high that its importation is impracticable, and the lumber shipped from the United States commonly goes in the form of "ship equities," great logs that are admitted at the lower tariff rate to be sawed into lumber by Japanese mills.

It is expensive to ship lumber in this form to Japan," Mr. Asanuma said, "and rafting it across the Pacific would save much money."

RAIGES LEVEL OF SALT SEA

NIHARD, Cal., (AP) — The long blue sink of the Imperial Valley, California's great Salton Sink, added almost a year to its life as a result of a recent unusual event of a rainfall in the Imperial Valley, according to observers at the sink. This lake, or salty inland sea, which now is about 40 miles long and some 12 miles wide, has been evaporating at the rate of about a foot a year. The recent rainfall, however, not only brought out streams flowing in the desert, but reforested the area, observations indicating that the desert mountain watershed drained sufficient water into the sink to raise the level of the sea more than eight inches.

CHURCH BODIES LIKELY TO GET CLOSE TOGETHER

Northern and Southern Baptists Show Evidence of Willingness to Adopt Common Head

COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP) — The national Baptist conference has unanimously adopted a resolution recommending that the northern and southern conventions appoint or elect nine representatives of their respective bodies to constitute the "conference committee" of the church.

This is the first action ever taken by the two conventions looking toward a permanent deliberative body of the two divisions, members said.

The purpose of the conference committee, as set forth before the conference, will not be to attempt to bring about a union of the two conventions, but to act as a "board of co-operation."

The plan for the conference committee was presented to the conference through a committee headed by Dr. E. V. Mullins, Louisville, Ky., president of the southern convention, and chairman of the conference, and Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, Rochester, N. Y., president of the northern convention.

Many Leaders Fretful

The presidents of the two conventions, under the action taken, will be ex-officio members of the conference committee. Thirty-four leaders of the northern and southern conventions attended the conference today.

PUBLIC OPINION IS BIG FACTOR OF SITUATION

Success of the United States Railway Labor Board Hinges Largely on Attitude of People as a Whole

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Public sentiment meets such a tremendous influence in America that the moral obligation of the railway and their employees to avoid interruption of traffic will make the United States railroad labor board's decisions effective, Ben W. Hooper, vice chairman of the board, declared today before the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Hooper, W. W. Hanger, public member, and W. L. McFadden, labor member of the board, were guests of the chamber at luncheon, where Mr. Hooper voiced the opinion that America had passed through "the winter of our discontent" and "was now standing on tiptoe with the alarm of the vanguard on her lips, 'Let's go.'"

"The hard pull is over," the former governor of Tennessee declared. "The farmer is the only man in the country who has really defied. He alone did not have the parachute of organization to ward his attack and break his fall." The next time this country takes an international jorride in the Zeppelin of war, the farmer will have his parachute along with him and will not be invited to step out on a storm cloud and slide down a rainbow."

Hooper said he expected the number of railway employees to be largely increased in the spring, that revenues would be enlarged by increased business and that conditions "which is a justly a reduction of rates" which is a restoration of the normal business.

In return to normal, Governor Hooper said, the railroads had accomplished the feat without any general strike or serious disturbance. As a rule, both managements and employees have co-operated cordially in the matter of transportation. Mr. Hooper said, "This has not been easy for either side. The railroads have had to contend with financial difficulties, and have been continuously subjected to the temptation of taking the bit in their teeth and trying to get better by independent action more quickly than the labor board considered it just and reasonable to give them. Only a few carriers have succumbed to this temptation, and, in every instance, friction and discontent have resulted."

Compliments Are Many. "The compliments of the employes have been so certain and so sincere, avoid dealing with labor organizations, have disregarded the rights of the majority guaranteed by the transportation act. That certain carriers have evaded the board's wage orders by having receivers in charge put into effect wage orders of the courts without submitting the matter to the board and that certain carriers have evaded the wage decisions of the board by contracting or claiming to contract, certain classes of their work to independent contractors."

"Whatever may be the merit of these contentions of the employes, it is evident that they involve provocative situations. Under somewhat trying circumstances, the employes have exhibited commendable self-restraint. On the other hand, practically all the carriers have promptly put into effect decisions of the labor board with which they were not in thorough accord and have struggled patiently and conscientiously with discouraging conditions."

Text of Public Opinion. "The question will occur to you, will the fear of the condemnation of public sentiment always secures the obedience of the parties to the decisions of the railroad labor board, will there come a time when powerful motives of self-interest will induce one or the other to trample under foot the board's decisions and violate public opinion? "I would not under-estimate the number of public opinion. It exerts a tremendous influence in this country of ours. My personal view is that neither the carriers nor their employes have the moral right to discontinuance of their services to enforce the demands of either upon the other. "It must not be forgotten that there are some labor leaders and certain labor organizations who persistently present the dualistic doctrine that the toilers of this country cannot trust the courts and tribunal-bearing jurisdiction of their troubles. The railroad labor board, if moved by a profound desire to do justice, may largely counteract this destructive prejudice and thus discontinue sleeping over the nuclearistic parlor communist."

TODAY'S MARKETS

ISSUES ARE SENSITIVE

Leading Stocks Show Effect of Tighter Money at Opening of Exchange Transactions

NEW YORK, (AP)—Leading issues were more sensitive to pressure and tighter money at the opening of today's stock market. Postponement of shipping action on Canadian wheat caused a further reaction of 2-3/4 points. Railroad equipments and shipping also became heavy, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive and United Fruit sustaining one point losses. Rails, coppers and sugars gave way moderately. Gulf States Steel made an initial gain of one point, but this was immediately forfeited. Preliminary foreign exchange rates were mainly higher.

Chicago Grain. CHICAGO, (AP)—Moderate upturn took place in the price of wheat today during the early transactions. An advance in the Liverpool market appeared to be chiefly responsible. Besides need of rain was reported from India, and there were Australian advices telling of surpluses for Japanese account. The opening here, which varied from the same at yesterday's finish to 1/4-1/2 higher, with May $1.16 1/4 to 1 1/2 and July $1.16 1/4 to 1.02 3/4, was followed by a mild rally around 10:30.

Subsequently a sharp advance in prices at Buenos Aires led to a further upturn here. Drought reports from Kansas and Oklahoma tended to lift values. The close was firm, 6-8, 1/2 to 1-1/2 higher, with May $1.16 1/4 to 1.16 3/4 and July $1.02 3/4 to 1.02 7/8.

Corn and oats were firm with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1/8 higher, May 53-3/8 to 53 1/2, the corn market gained a trifling.

Offerings of corn to come here were light. The close was steady at a slight 1/8-1/2 higher, with May at 53 1/2c.

Oats started unchanged to 1/8 up, May 38 3/4 to 38 7/8, and held near to these figures.

Provisions prices tended downward as a result of lack of buying despite an upturn in hog values.

Cash Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, (AP)—Wheat—No. 3 red $1.19; No. 2 hard $1.15; Corn No. 2 mixed 49 1/4; No. 2 yellow 49 1/4 to 49 1/2; Oats No. 2 white 37 to 38 1/2; No. 3 white 34 to 35 1/2; Rye No. 2 77 1/2; Hay 57 to 60; Hides 42 to 43; Clover seed $12 to 12 1/2; Pork nominal; Lard 40 1/2; Milk 45.00 to 45.50.

Potato Market. CHICAGO, (AP)—Potatoes—Week receipts 30 cars, total U. S. shipments 684; Wisconsin sacked Round Whites $1.80 to 1.90; Wisconsin sacked Round Whites, some frozen, $1.85 cwt; Minnesota 45.00 to 45.50.

More than 500 extra people—miners, dance hall girls, gamblers, fur traders and gold seekers—were in the big city of the foot of the North, the new Paramount picture starring Dorothy Dalton which will be at the Idaho for the remainder of the week. The big scene in the Aurora Borealis is a love and dance hall are full of "punch" and the virile life of the hardy citizens of the Canadian north-west is wonderfully portrayed in this clever film. Edwin August plays opposite Miss Dalton. A two-part comedy is also on this bill.

Harry Tate, who leads the "London Follies" company which comes to Twin Falls next Monday evening, isn't one bit nervous when he plays before an American audience, as he is used to appearing before kings and queens. This merry jester has an "A-1" record in "Command" performance. A command performance in an order to act before a crowned head. Next morning the player receives a goodly check. It is needless to say that most English actors like to be commanded.

SMITH PLEDGES AID TO FARMER

Idaho Congressman Promises Co-operation to Afford Relief in Situation

Promise of his co-operation "in every possible way" to afford relief to the agricultural industry is given by Representative Addison T. Smith, in a letter to G. W. Douglass, secretary of the Idaho Farmers Union, acknowledging receipt of a petition soliciting his support of pending measures designed to revise the wartime government grain regulations to guaranty to producers the cost of producing wheat. The letter follows:

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th enclosing a petition signed by many of the farmers in your section urging the enactment of legislation to stabilize the price of wheat. Two bills have been introduced with this object in view, one by Mr. Sinclair of North Dakota and one by Mr. Christopher of South Dakota. I am advised by the committee on Agriculture of the house that a hearing will be granted on this proposed legislation on the 30th of the month. An effort is also being made to have this subject considered by the Farmers conference which convenes here on the 23rd at the request of the president with a view of considering the financial difficulties confronting the agricultural interests of the country and the suggestion of legislation that might afford relief. Of course we all recognize that the farmers throughout the entire country are unable to sell their products at a price which will cover the cost of raising them and that unless some encouragement is given, the food supply will be depleted to the point of having no necessary income under the law of supply and demand.

"I wish to assure you and your neighbors that I sympathize with you most deeply in the problems confronting you and will continue to do all in my power to afford relief. It was hoped that the legislation which was enacted increasing the volume of money to be loaned through the Federal farm loan board and the restoration of the War Finance corporation, would stabilize conditions, but while millions of dollars have been sent to the banks throughout the country to loan on farm and stock paper, our information is that additional relief is necessary if the agricultural interests of the country are to be restored to their normal condition."

Handbags of Long Age

The ancient handbags which most nearly approached those affected by women of today were carried by the Byzantine ladies of Constantinople, under the eastern emperors. This was a period of great commerce with the Asiatic coast, who found a ready market in this luxurious court for the rich brocades of Persia, India and the embroidered silks of China; these were utilized in schemes of dress more costly and extravagant than the world has seen before or since.

Sheep With Many Horns

In their wild state all sheep were furnished with a pair of horns, but the number never exceeded two until some curious specimens were discovered in several isolated sections of Asia. These species had from four to six horns, the upper set being graduated with the smallest ones just above the eyes. Obviously enough, the two lower sets usually curve upward, while the large pair curl downward.

HAVE OLD CAVEMAN INSTINCT

Love, in the Orient, Primitive in Their Methods of Demonstrating Affection.

There are all sorts of ways of expressing affection. The Mainichi, a Japanese journal, reports the case of a policeman at Hiroshima, who fell in love with a restaurant maid, and then she seemed cold and unresponsive. The case of the policeman is a story which is being told with a bright light on an answering dame by thrusting her in the calf of her leg with his official sword. He might go further and issue a manual on how to make love, suggests our contemporary. J. A. Flynn was honest and light refreshments were served to the ladies in attendance.

Mrs. John W. D. Smith entertained informally at luncheon Thursday afternoon complimentary to Miss Frances Costello who is leaving this evening to resume her work in the Spokane schools. The guests were Mrs. J. A. Costello, Mrs. Oliver Harsted, Mrs. J. L. Lee, Mrs. Frank Magel, Mrs. J. A. Smith and Miss Costello. After luncheon Smith and Miss Costello. After luncheon several games of bridge were enjoyed.

Mrs. W. H. Stanley was hostess to the Thursday Bridge club at her home on Addison avenue last evening. In this club the score of each member is kept for the series, at the end of each on the losers entertain the winners at dinner. Members present were Mrs. James A. W. Hunter, Frank Holm, J. P. McRoberts, J. P. Johnston, E. E. Kell, Bula Sawyer and W. H. Stanley. Mrs. E. H. Gates was a guest.

The Presbyterian Missions society met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. D. Barnhart, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. G. M. Hall, devotionals were read by Mrs. Gish. An interesting program was given. Those taking part being Mrs. A. E. Miller and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, whose subject was "Challenge for the Mission Field" and "The Church in a Changing World," by Mrs. M. F. Gamble, Mrs. F. P. Bray gave a vocal number, accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Carlson. Refreshments were served by the hostess for the afternoon, Mrs. A. D. Hatford, Mrs. Gladys Carlson, Mrs. Davies and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

The Loah Campfire girls held a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. P. H. Hantrow in the Red apartments. Thirteen girls were present and plans were made for a waffle luncheon to be given Saturday from 11 to 2 o'clock in the room on Main avenue.—Elbert Hubbard.

Genius and Success

Genius is only the power of making continuous efforts. The line between failure and success is so fine that we scarcely know it. It is a fine line and we are often on the line and do not know it. How many a man has thrown up his hands at a time when a little more effort, a little more patience, would have achieved success. At the close of each day, there is a success clear in. In business sometimes prospects may seem darkest when really they are on the turn. A little more persistence, a little more effort, and that seemed hopeless failure may turn to a triumph. There is no failure except to no longer trying. There is no defeat except from within; no really insurmountable barrier save our own inherent weakness of purpose.—Elbert Hubbard.

Used Noah's Ark Plans

No secret seems to have been made of the method of construction adopted by Noah in building his ark. On the contrary, the specifications are given in detail in the Bible. Imitations of it have been attempted now and then in recent times. Thus, in the year 1000, a Dutch merchant named Peter Phinca built at Hoorn a ship on the same model, though not of corresponding size. It was 120 feet long, 20 feet broad and 12 feet deep. The reason was found to be remarkably well adapted for freightage, and it is still would hold one-third more lading than other ships of like size without requiring more hands to work it. Much more recently several so-called "Hercules" or "Hunts" were built after the model of the ark in Denmark.

'Not Realism'

Hawkins (an art critic)—That picture of Regent street is a marvellous piece of work, Larkins.

Larkins—(Who knows nothing about art)—I will be arrested.

Hawkins—Why?

Larkins—As far as you can see up the street there isn't one woman looking back to see what animal has on. The artist never lived in the town.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Where They Differ

Mrs. Gaultier—Do you believe that when a man and woman are married they have the same thoughts?

Mr. Hardfax—Nope. The woman always thinks she'd have done better if she'd married somebody else. The man thinks he'd have done better off if he hadn't married at all.

Unqualified

Flubb—How did Dudley manage to escape jury duty?

Dudley—His wife was drawn on the same panel, and he convinced the judge they could save each other on anything.—American Legion Weekly.

W. McDowell, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Lee Hantrow. The meeting closed with Mrs. Arthur Goodrich. After the election delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and the meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Paulson.

JUST BURROWS OF ANIMALS

Mystery of 'What Was Known as the "Devil's Corkscrew" Has Been Considered Solved.

Of the many fossils which have come out of the mountains and plains of the West, few have excited wider interest than the "devil's corkscrew," found in rocks of the Miocene period, in northwestern Nebraska. They are usually white, and stand out clearly against the bluff background of the rock which incloses them, often attaining a length of 16, with many twists and turns, ending at times in a large bulb, with occasional side passageways. When first discovered it was thought that these gigantic "corkscrews" were highly purified vines or roots of some strange plant. Study of the "corkscrews," however, failed to reveal any traces of plant structure. Later the skeleton of an animal like the buster was found in a large bulb near the end of the "corkscrew," and hours of a small camel and small deer were found in others. After that it was discovered that many of them contained the bones of a small burrowing animal about the size of the western prairie dog. Excavation of actual recent prairie dog burrows, after filling them with thin plaster of Paris, showed an interesting fact; the burrows of the prairie dog and the prehistoric "corkscrews" were closely similar. The mystery is considered solved.

"Fiasco" Meant Failure

"Fiasco" is the Italian word for a bottle or flask. It is said that the Venetian glassblowers, in making their beautiful glassware, when they discovered a flaw in the bulb would convert it into an ordinary flask or flask, whence fiasco came to mean a failure.

Lovely Fabrics are Mid-Winter's Flowers

WITH their soft colorings and petal-like texture, the crepes and satins and silken weaves which fashion decrees, bring a breath of spring into winter months. Our Piece-Goods Department is gay with fresh new fabrics—fabrics that tempt you to buy, not only because of their sheer loveliness but because their prices are so exceedingly attractive.

AND conspiring with our Piece-Goods Department the pattern counter offers another marvelous economy—a money-saving made possible by that wonderful picture-guide, The Belrobe, which accompanies the Designer Pattern. The Belrobe enables you to save 50c to $10 more on every suit, dress or gown you make.

First, The Belrobe gives you an individual layout chart, not the usual chart for an average size and an average width of material, but a helpful chart for your exact size and for each width of suitable material. It is because of this chart that your Designer Pattern calls for 1/4 to 1 1/4 yards less than would otherwise be possible—a saving of 50c to $10 on materials!

Then, The Belrobe shows you how to put your garment together with the skill and exactness of an expert. Every-step is planned by simple pictures. As you follow with your needle, a creation grows beneath your fingers.

And finally, The Belrobe imparts Paris' own touch in finish. It shows those clever finishing touches that make your frock look as though it just stepped over from Paris.

FOR the newest fabrics! For the latest fashions! For the splendor in every department! Make regular visits throughout our store.

...of others, these nations could pay it if they chose. If the League were all it is cracked up to be they do proportion to bear much more than their due proportion of the expense. But the League began to disintegrate as soon as it was formed. Not a single member having anything of importance at stake has put trust in the League of Nations to preserve or protect it. They have all sought security in treaties and alliances as seemed best to themselves. Why should they try to maintain a League that does not benefit them?

COMPRESSED RATION FOR HORSES IS SATISFACTORY
 Interesting Experiments at Camp Lewis Show Possibilities for New Scheme

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., (AP)—A horse, like a soldier, travels on his stomach, and experiments have shown that compressed ration here with a pressed and compact wartime ration for miles and miles. The tests are regarded as successful, for the animals gained weight and retained their strength after 40 days on the "iron rations."

The ration was made of No. 3 white oats, kiln-dried and crushed and held together by a 12 per cent mixture of pure case blackstrap molasses. The food was compressed into bricks weighing three pounds each. Two inches thick, six inches wide and 12 inches long. For a horse a daily ration of three bricks, weighing nine pounds, was furnished, contrasted with the bulkier 12-pound regular ration of loose oats. Mules were fed two bricks with an extra three quarter pound chunk daily, as contrasted with the regular nine pounds of loose oats.

The horses and mules on the ration were put through severe marching expeditions on the special ration. They performed satisfactorily.

The tests here were part of a war department experiment to develop a ration that would consume the smallest space and be most easily transported in military operations.

SHARK MODEL OF GRADE
 LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP)—The Chinese for centuries have found great delight in fins of the shark, but little good has been said for the shark on this side of the Pacific until Dr. Frank C. Clark, president of the Southern California Academy of Sciences, came forth and lectured in championing the pariah of the seas. Dr. Clark said that for poetry of motion, real rhythm and grace the shark has few superiors in the sea.

TONS OF BABY BUGGIES
 SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Twenty-five tons of baby buggies were brought into San Francisco last year by steamship, for local purchasers, according to custom house statisticians, who figured that this tonnage represented more than 50,000 babies.

Worth Considering
 The question is not so much how you contract a cold, but how to get rid of it with the least loss of time and inconvenience. If you will consider the experience of others under similar circumstances, who have been most successful in checking their colds, in their beginning, you will secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay, and use it faithfully. There are many families who have used this preparation successfully for years and hold it in high esteem. It is excellent.—adv.

Surely!
 It is easy enough to find a needle in a haystack—if you act on it.

SAFETY TO PEDESTRIANS IS PROBLEM IN FRANCE

Four Hundred Persons Killed in Streets of Paris Last Year, Records Show

PARIS, (AP)—Four hundred persons were killed in Paris streets by automobiles or horse-drawn vehicles, tramcars and other means of locomotion in 1921.

The problem of street traffic has been the subject of many investigations and numerous reports and recommendations have been made by Prefect of Police Louilleur.

Some time ago "red hands" about six feet wide were placed across the streets at the intersections of the busiest corners of the city, policemen were stationed at these points to motion automobiles to stop and pedestrians to cross the streets on the "red hands" were supposed to be in absolute safety.

Pedestrians, however, seemed to think it "below" their dignity to walk the "red hand" and now they have been abandoned for "zones of safety." The latter will consist of adopting the system in vogue in New York at the busiest corners along Fifth Avenue and Broadway.

Chinese Think Little of Women.
 If so little account is woman in China that a father, if asked the number of his children, will probably leave out the girls in reckoning. In the very great majority of cases the girls are not taught to read or write, for the simple reason, as the men would say, that it is useless for girls to learn to read. All the restrictive customs are based on the idea that woman is a being inferior to man.

Scotland, the "Land of Cakes."
 "Land of Cakes" is a name given to Scotland, where oatmeal cakes form an important article of diet, especially among the lower classes. The phrase was made famous by Robert Burns in 1788. In his poem "On Capt. Burns's Persecutions Through Scotland."

Possible to Train Crows.
 The search for food is the crow's chief business, although his love for glittering things causes him to wander from his ordered road when attracted by the gleam of some object at a distance. If this object of his curiosity can be transported, he takes it. The crow is easily tamed, but the process demands patience. Many crows talk as distinctly as parrots. Pilly the Elder notes a case where a crow alighted in the Forum and saluted Emperor Trajan and his two sons, "calling them by name."

MAY CHANGE HISTORIC NAME
 WASHINGTON, (AP)—One of the bills now suggested for this town is "Fochloo," after Field Marshal Foch. The desire to change the name is due to an effort to avoid recalling the "defeat of an allied and friendly power"—the defeat of Napoleon.

Only One Right Action.
 There can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.—Herbert Spencer.

THE LEAGUE'S DILEMMA
 The latest trouble of the League of Nations is members' delinquency in payment of dues. The deficit thus caused is approaching 10,000,000 gold francs, which is something to worry the sellers at Geneva who get the big salaries, and the loser employs as well. Of course, it's all the fault of the United States of America. Had this country gone in the sovereignty of the League would have been assured, for the plan was to make us pay. The League cannot draw on our treasury, but we can give it advice in proof that though we do not love it we "have nothin' agin' it." Let the League take a leaf from the book of American gas companies; 5 per cent discount for payment of bills before the 10th of the month. If this inducement does not bring in the money, shut off the gas.

POINCARÉ'S POLICY
 Premier Poincaré's address to the Chamber of Deputies outlining his policy was, as expected, framed to assure the vote of confidence which was given him enthusiastically. He has pledged his government, in his predecessors pledged theirs, to a course of nation in keeping with French popular demands of the moment. He said what the deputies and the people wanted him to say. This formality being over with, Mr. Poincaré will take up negotiations with the allies of France in a more moderate temper, as is essential if he would accomplish anything of worth for his country.

AND SHE DIDN'T SAY GOODY

Naturally Aviator Was a Little Astonished at Way His Passenger Had Left Him.

An airplane had been taking up passengers for short trips, and by the time his last trip was absolutely full up by being asked silly questions.

He told his passengers, two ladies, that on no account were they to speak to him; that he could not talk and give his attention to his machine and that they must keep silent.

Up they went and the aviator quite enjoyed himself. He looped the loop and practiced all sort of stunts to the own satisfaction with no interruption from his passengers until he felt a touch on his arm.

"What is it?" he said impatiently. "I'm so sorry to trouble you," said a voice behind, "and I know I oughtn't to speak. I do apologize sincerely, but I can't help it. I thought perhaps you ought to know Annie's zone."

Humming with money, one of the "industries" of Florida is building "bee trees" in the swamps.

As high as 500 pounds of honey have been found in one hollow tree. The trees are located by the hunters who follow the flight of bees, and the quantities are never eye-balled and a reliable compass.

OLD MYSTERY OF THE SEA

What Became of Fine Liner President Which Disappeared in the Year 1917

Among the modern sea mysteries none is more baffling than the vanishing of the liner President in 1917. The vessel was the latest word in luxurious ocean travel, having but lately been launched. And that day to March when she sailed from New York for Liverpool, every vessel in the North river paid tribute to her size and superiority. She was 268 feet long and of 2,900 tons.

Early in April reports began to filter into America from Liverpool that the President had not arrived, and as the days sped on far into the summer the agony of suspense on both sides the ocean grew. On her passenger list had been the names of many prominent persons, among whom were the celebrated comedian, Tyrone Power, George O. Cookman and the duke of Devonshire. A few more than 100 passengers were aboard the President.

Whether the President foundered in some violent gale, was sunk or crushed by iceberg, or was destroyed by fire, no man to this day has been able to tell, for not even a splinter of wreckage was ever reported seen.

Mirrors in the Hen Yard.

A man says he gets two eggs a day from a single hen. His plan might be worth trying on a larger scale, so we print it for the benefit of some of our suburban readers. He has arranged a mirror opposite the hen's nest, so that when she bows off and catches the egg in the glass what she supposed is another hen is cackling. This arouses her jealousy and, not to be outdone by a supposed rival, she jumps back on the nest and lays another egg.—Boston Transcript.

Flat-Iron Can Opener.

A flat-iron will serve the purpose of a can opener. Simply put the hot iron on the top of the cover of the can, leave it a few minutes and the can will open easily.

Constipation

Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that moves waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.—ad.

Origin of Gas. There are a thousand uses for gas today, both in the home and factory, and yet only a comparatively short time ago the head-hoed Scotchman, Sir Walter Scott, was writing as a "midman in London who was trying to make a light without a wick," and people, thinking the gas pipes were filled with fire, approached them with fear.

GOOD CROWDS AT GAMES

Billiard Tournament Draws the Biggest Attendance So Far During Entire Event

Table with columns: Player, W., L., Pct. Includes names like Epler, Larson, Gallowater, etc.

Last night's games brought out the biggest crowd of the week, and those that were unable to be present were the losers.

Larson, the man with the keen eye, was the most successful of the contestants who will have to beat him to win the tournament when he last night (30) by the score of 32 to 17 in 81 innings.

The second game of the evening between Gallowater and Snook, proved to be the best exhibition of safety play seen here in a long time.

Snook, who usually plays an open game, played one of the best games of his career. His safety play brought out a crowd that has not been seen here in a long time.

At this point Gallowater got away with a few hits, bringing his total to 32, while Snook remained at 25. Snook then braced up, and the score was tied again at 30.

This tournament is open to the public, and no admission fee is charged.

A second resolution proposed by the chamber of commerce was adopted yesterday by the highway district commissioners requests the forest service to determine the most feasible route for the proposed road.

KIMBERLY ROAD DISTRICT PLAN LOSES SUPPORT

Five Out of Six Men Counted as Advocates of Project Turn Against Proposal After Study of Figures

Decision of all but one of six Kimberly citizens, heretofore counted as foremost advocates of the creation of the proposed Kimberly highway district, was today revealed in opposition to the formation of the proposed district to be submitted at an election in Kimberly Saturday.

Announcement of this decision was made following an investigation made yesterday by the Kimberly citizens' committee on the proposed highway district, out of which the proposed new district would be created.

Unwilling to Take Gances. Speaking, he said, for H. Wilson, L. H. Walker, John W. Clark and himself, who with G. G. Zuck, composed the delegation which yesterday pursued this investigation on behalf of Kimberly citizens, W. H. Spence today said: "We feel that there is a 'joker' somewhere in the situation, but we have been unable to find it."

However, we are unwilling to take any chance involving the possibility of saddling a heavy load of indebtedness upon the district, and we shall oppose the formation of the proposed district at the election Saturday.

It seems to me that the publication of the figures given out by the Twin Falls district commissioners would have been sufficient to lead to a defeat of the Kimberly district plan, unless we had been able to disprove the figures. We are counting now upon the publication of our statements to the public in the formation of the district together with such personal work as we may do to cause it to be voted down tomorrow.

Smaller Debt Would Be. In the same effect, W. F. Brockard of Kimberly, and H. C. Mills, county commissioners, who yesterday accompanied the Kimberly delegation in its investigation, expressed themselves today. "If it should be determined that the Kimberly district's debt would be only $25,000 instead of more than $125,000, I will not be unwilling to support plans for the formation of the district," Mr. Brockard said. "A debt of even $25,000 would consume all of the taxes that could be raised in Kimberly road district for two years, and would leave nothing for road building or maintenance. It is generally believed here now that we will get more roads by staying in the Twin Falls district than by pulling out."

The complaint, which was filed by T. K.
