Boy Speculator Tells of Disappearance of $7,000,000 while Depositors Storm Offices and Threaten His Life

CHICAGO, (AP) - While Raymond Bischoff, "boy speculator," was explaining to Judge Kenesaw M. Landis what had become of approximately $7,000,000 entrusted to him by thousands of families in Chicago's stockyards district, several hundred persons today stormed his office searching for the man whom they declared had brought them financial ruin.

Extra police were called to control the crowd which shouted threats against the 25-year-old broker and it was only when assured that Bischoff was being held in jail bars that it dispersed.

He's making us starve," "He ruined us, let us in," and other imprecations filled the air for nearly an hour.

While Bischoff, who admitted he had about $4,000,000 insisted he had played a safe hand in his speculation, each believed to be on an en route to the Pacific coast.

The police desire to question her concerning the holding of the juvenile bonds entrusted to Bischoff by customers wishing to speculate in oil securities. No trace of the bonds has been found.

Bischoff's blind stepfather, F. O. Davis, and his cousin, E. P. Geer, were also spoken of by authorities in seeking the holding of the juvenile bonds in finance. They were questioned by Judge Landis today.

Tells His Story TO JUDGE LANDIS

Smiling and without visible embarrassment, Bischoff told Judge Landis the story of his life and how he had come to lose the $7,000,000 in oil securities. He said he had lost the money in a speculative venture.

"I have always loved adventure and loved to take a chance," he said in reply to questions from the judge's attorney.

"While employed at a local packing concern, I dabbed in the stock market. Then, just at a time when I was about $10,000 in the good, a friend asked me to mortgage my pay interest on a mortgage on his home. He put in $250 and I went in for $250. I gambled in stocks. We won big."

"Dozens of friends then brought me money to invest for them. I decided I was wasting my time in a packing plant and opened an office, announcing that I would deal in finances generally. My friends and their friends brought me money and in return I gave my personal promissory note. I gambled in stocks and received a steady big win return for my investors. I played absolutely fair with them."

TRIED OIL GAME IN LOUISIANA

"Then I tried to obtain control of an oil well in Louisiana. I put hundreds of thousands of dollars into it when I thought I had won. I learned I had been double-crossed by bucket-stockholders and that I was not even close to controlling the well. My money and my investors' money—was gone."

"I decided to re-organize my company, use different methods in investing and fight my best. I put my money in my friends had trusted to me. They continued to come in with their gold, but for many days I have refused to take a cent for investment. They told me they would wait until I completed re-organization. I was honest with them. Then a few got angry and filed receivership proceedings. Sunday night they told me they would drop the proceedings if I withdrew. I refused. I want all of this to come in the open, for I have been honest—throughout my life—and, I have nothing to fear."

Judge Landis questioned Bischoff closely as to whether he had dealt with the money in a speculative manner. He said he had not and the judge ordered investigators to get in touch with the syndicate.

(AP) - A pretty young woman, thought by police to be the missing girl of El Paso, Texas, was rescued from a hotel here today while detectives were waiting in the hotel lobby for authority from San Francisco to take her into custody. The motorman of the car saw Stroff heading over the track and attempted to stop his car. The man told his position under the car was merely iron him. When the car was stopped, it found that Stroff's wife was under the wheels.

SAVES ENORMOUS SUM NECESSARY

Borah Declares Financial Demands of Bonus Legislation Will Grow Yearly

WASHINGTON, (AP) - The soldiers' bonus question was brought before the senate today by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, who suggested that a question by former service men who are not impaired physically or mentally as a result of their war service, might embarrass the government in taking care of the wounded and disabled.

The Idaho senator said that seventy-five billion was a conservative estimate of what it would cost the government to care for all disabled men before the government's obligations to them should be entirely discharged. He advised that it would already have appropriated $123,143,000 during the last five years for the disabled service men and said their ranks were growing.

"This is the beginning," said Mr. Borah. "This amount must continue to grow very rapidly in the next thirty years. In my opinion it will be a matter of only ten years before we are appropriating $1,500,000,000 annually for the necessities of the disabled men."

ACTRESS LAUDS CHARACTER OF DEAD DIRECTOR

Mary Miles Minter Declares William Desmond Taylor was Man of Exemplary Character and True Friend for Years

LOS ANGELES, (AP) - Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, issued a statement here today through her attorneys declaring that she had told investigators "all that she knew" of the life of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, who was reported to have died twelve days ago. It is also said she could not conceive how any person could voluntarily wrong Taylor.

"The statement follows: 'There is no personal or financial sacrifice that I would not gladly make to bring the slayer of William Desmond Taylor to justice.'

"Mr. Taylor was one of my best friends. His death was a great shock to me. I met Mr. Taylor first in 1919 when he became my director. I was then 17 years of age and his inspiration, his unfailing courage, and consideration not only me but to all with whom he came in contact immediately won my highest admiration.

REGARDED TAYLOR AS TRUE FRIEND

"From 1919 until the day of his death, Mr. Taylor was to me the symbol of honor and manliness, an inspiration, friend and confidant, and the symbol of all a girl admires in a man.

"His friendship was uplifting and his advice and aid were invaluable. It would be nothing less than veritable ingratitude if I did not, now, that he is dead, raise my voice to proclaim what he was to me and to those who would best know his character.

"I have told the authorities all that I know of both his life and in the past, that I fear, has been of little aid to them.

"I cannot conceive the character of a person who would voluntarily wrong Mr. Taylor or cause his death."

ARREST OF TRIO ENDS CARNIVAL OF CRIMINALITY

Salt Lake Police Secure Confession-Covering Commission of Twenty Burglaries and Holdups in Last Two Months

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (AP) - L. E. Riggs, 26; L. A. Harrison, 16, and E. C. Clark, 24, have confessed to a total of 22 burglaries and holdups in Salt Lake City within the last two months, according to the police. The trio was arrested with Leo P. Kelly, 25, Saturday night, after what the police described as "a carnival of hold-ups."

The police got word that four holdups had occurred within a few minutes, all committed apparently by the same men.

Motor Detective James E. Woodward got on the trail and pursued a sedan which had been described by the police as the vehicle of the trio. He brought the car to a stop when the alleged desperadoes saw that he intended to collide. Woodward caused the four men to hold up their hands while he searched the car, removing several pistols, revolvers and burglar kits.

DRIVER OF CAR IS EXONERATED

The men were then driven to the station by Woodward who is the smallest of the four. The police stated that they had exonerated Kelly in that the alleged bandits had commanded him to drive. In the alleged confession of the trio, the police stated that their admitted holding up the employees at 12 1/2 service station, Riggs is said to have been a former convict at Canon City, Colo.

ELECTRICAL DISTURBANCE MAY FOLLOW SUN SPOTS

WASHINGTON, (AP) - New groups of sun spots, reported to have been discovered Saturday at Miami by Dr. David Todd, former director of the Ambler observatory have been under observation for several days at the naval observatory here. Astronomers at the big government institutions declared today they had found four groups of the new sun spots, two on Wednesday and the others Friday.

The astronomers were unwilling to predict aurora display or logarithmic disturbances as the result of the solar outbreak, but if one does occur, they said, they may be looked for tonight. The two spots found Wednesday were too far west of the solar meridian to cause trouble; but the large and small groups seen Friday will reach the meridian today. It is when sun spots approach the solar meridian, it was said, that their influence is felt on the earth.

Upon the last occasion, in November, when sun spots caused electrical disturbances on the earth, brilliant aurora displays were seen for several days and telegraphic and telephone services were badly crippled in several portions of the world.

Wage reductions became effective at the same time in Malone, Vermont and a few of the Massachusetts mills without strike protest.

Wages remained unchanged in the great textile centers of Fall River, New Bedford and Lawrence, Mass.

The three week old strike of approximately 13,000 operatives in Rhode Island mills continued today. National guard detachments were held in readiness at Providence to arrest any call.

NINE NEGROES UNDER ARREST

Police Dragnet Surrounds Texas Village, Scene of Recent Wholesale Murder

WACO, Texas, (AP) - A dragnet by county and city officers around Conroe, a village near here where W. H. Barker, merchant, and his wife were slain Saturday night, and Homer Turk, 13-year-old son of a neighbor, dangerously wounded, had resulted today in the arrest of nine negroes. Two of them correspond to descriptions given by the Barkers' four-year-old daughter.

Officers said they are uncertain whether the motive was robbery or revenge. Barker had been shot through the head and his wife's head had been split with an axe. Homer Turk's skull was crushed and his condition critical. Willie Lou Barker, the 11-year-old daughter, was an eye witness to the tragedy.

The little girl remained in bed and alone in the house from the time of the attack which was about 10 o'clock Saturday until after daylight Sunday. She was abducted by one of the negroes who hid her on the floor by side her bed unconscious and the negro led him come in, thought he was one of the snafuists and was afraid to move. She was a bed when L. L. Turk, the boy's father, entered—the house and discovered the crime.

RUSSIAN WOMEN MUST ORGANIZE TO AID COUNTRY

Gamut of Experience from Court Life to Soviet Prison Prompts Interesting Comment by Former Aristocrat

SUIZBAN ON THE VOLGA.—If Russia ever amounts to anything it will be through the organization of her women, which has not yet taken place, declared a sprightly, merry little woman to the correspondent on the through train from Tashkent, in Turkestan, to Moscow. Before the revolution she had borne the title of princess. "I date Russian men" she went on. "They are a kind of mix of all these (it doesn't matter), after (homosexuality) is necessary (I don't know), and also (perhaps)."

She had been to Tashkent to speculate in gold. Everybody had to do something to live nowadays.

She was the wife of a Muscovite, who owned thousands of acres of land with an income of $100,000 a year.

She had married him to get out of Russia three years ago, well his hands, but he was cheating her, she said, wandering, she knew not where, both he and she were separated from their children and she had nearly died in a Soviet prison.

It was a thing with another, she didn't regret her sufferings and losses. It had taught her a lot. She had known court life, that came to London. Over the revolution had dropped her into abject poverty.

BROKEN SPIRIT TRIED OF STRUGGLE.

She was tired of the struggle. The prison had broken her spirit. Like many Russians, she was morally bankrupt. She had had her finger in politics and at times had a lot of fun at it. She wanted to get abroad but she wavered if she could ever settle down in a calmer atmosphere—she had become so used to excitement.

Some of her family had been executed through the efforts of another woman politician and she had tried to say that woman and her husband executed in their turn. It had been a struggle between the Reds and the Muscovites of the Caucasus region. The Reds had her finger in politics, she was a prisoner by the woman she had tried to have executed. It was Klement. Rather than satisfy her woman enemy, she had tried to get out of the Chkva prison by taking an overdose of cocaine. It had failed.

She had been put on the prison train and shipped north with several hundred of others, destined to an Archangel prison, after the Soviet manner of locking up people in places distant from their people and homes. She had to sell even down to her underclothes to get food.

SEVERE ILLNESS IS SUBSERVING.

Fortunately, she was able to make herself ill. She put snow on her chest, caught cold, and then the typhus, and had to be put off at a wayward hospital. There a sister of charity recognized and befriended her and she was brought back to a semblance of health, and through friends in Moscow was finally freed. How long her present freedom would last she couldn't say. She knew she could not venture a second imprisonment, not even for a week, so she carried about her enough cocaine to defeat the prison.

Meanwhile she was working, trying to keep "float." She had sold most of her old jewelry and things. Sometimes she did odd jobs as a seamstress. Sometimes she went to the country and brought in baskets of eggs. Just now she was prospering. She was sending money to her children. She had stored away some family jewels in a distant place to keep them in reserve for the future.

The Mailed Period.

HUGE PROJECT IS LEGALIZED

Hydro-Electric Plant and Six Storage Reservoirs Included in Plans

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—Licenses for development of a four-stage, 100,000 horsepower hydro-electric project on the south fork of the American river in the vicinity of Placerville, Cal., has been issued by the federal power commission to the El Dorado Power company. The plan includes enlargement of the "El Dorado ditch," 25 miles in length.

The announcement said it had been brought out at hearings that through development and employment of electric power for pumping in the Stockton, Cal., agricultural area, about three acres per horsepower could be irrigated as against an acre and one-half per horsepower if the same water is used for irrigation direct in the upper American river drainage area.

The project includes six storage reservoirs on the headwaters of the American river, with an ultimate capacity of 90,000 acre feet. Three of the reservoirs, to the capacity already constructed, are included in the license for project number 78, which was recently issued to the Western States Gas and Electric company.

Nutmeg State Reforms Marriage Laws

Herbert Andrews of New York went to Connecticut, too, when Mrs. Maul Andrews, wife No. 1, got on his nerves and he decided to marry pretty young Esther Tatnall of Pittsburgh. Andrews, in this fashion, brought a second wife home to live with No. 1.

Shubel K. Silver, church treasurer of New Brunswick, N. J., followed suit. He sloped to Greenwich with Adele Gouin, fair waitress of Perth Amboy. To finance their honeymoon Silver took $5,200 worth of Liberty bonds belonging to the church of which he was a supposed pillar.

Now, under the new law, if neither of the persons applying for license in Connecticut is a resident of the town, the clerk may not issue a license until the fifth day following the request of the parties making application for license is a resident of the town.

Connecticut was a happy haven for Merritt Lane, once vice chancellor of New Jersey. It enabled him to be married to two women at the same time, legally, without the stigma of bigamy or the punishment usually attending that pirated wedded condition.

Man Wanted in Connection with Shortage of Four Million Details Troubles

CHICAGO, (AP)—Raymond J. Bischoff, under detention in connection with an admitted shortage of $44,000,000 as a result of financial dealings with approximately 6,000 residents of the Chicago "back of the yard" district, blamed a lucky deal with a friend's $200 for the continued transactions which have involved him so heavily.

"A friend begged me to play the market with my money, saying his creditors were pushing him," Bischoff was quoted as having said. "I consented, doubling his money in a week. He told all his friends and I immediately was besieged with similar requests. That was the beginning of it."

"Dabblings in oil" led to his present status, he was quoted as saying after visions of big financial deals arose when he found how easy it was to have others give him their money to invest.

DEOLARE OLENT VIOLATED NO LAW.

Bischoff's attorney maintains that the 25-year-old "wizend of Bubbly Creek" has violated no law in his dealings, despite his shortage of millions. A Bischoff gave promissory notes for the money invested with him, the attorney said, adding "a man can't be imprisoned for non-payment of promissory notes if he has not the money."

Creditors may realize ten cents on the dollar, the attorney said.

"While I believe government intervention could have pulled through, if they had let me alone another week," Bischoff said.

The oil company of which he attempted to gain control, Bischoff said, has extensive holdings in Oklahoma 100 miles north of Tulsa, as well as in the Texas fields. Its stock has a par value of $100 he said, but recently it dropped to 22 cents.

"I became interested in the oil stock last February," he said. "I kept putting more and more money into it until in July I thought I owned every share in existence. But then I discovered a peculiar combination was fighting me. More shares began to pop up unexpectedly and before long I found that through backshop manipulations I had been buying duplicate shares."

"For the last few months I have been fighting a losing battle."

How Chemists Detect Poison.

The usefulness of chemistry in poisoning cases is well known. It enables one to determine the nature of the poison used, the way in which it was administered and the amount given. Some poisons are so potent that their presence can be detected even if the chemical examination is not made for weeks, or perhaps months, after death has occurred.

JUDGE TO GIVE HIS OWN VIEWS

Controversy on Judicial Attitude on Grand Jury Application Will Not Down

OKMULGEE, Okla., (AP)—With the return to Okmulgee today of Superior Judge H. R. Christopher, interest in the attention growing out of the discharge by the judge last Thursday of a grand jury investigation of the affairs of the defunct Commerce bank centered upon the judge's announced intention to appear before the Okmulgee county bar association to state his side of the controversy and upon the next steps to be taken for further grand jury investigation of local banking conditions.

It has been his contention that he dismissed the jury because he discovered that it had been drawn by him in a manner different than he later interpreted the law to provide.

Adverse critics, among them County Attorney James Hopburn, have charged that he may have been influenced "unduly" as well as his decision. Great confusion followed attendance of the jury, and there were cries of "lynch him!" as Judge Christopher left the court room. He immediately left the city and since has been at Coyle, Okla. Three hundred men marched with Mr. Hopburn among them the night the decision was rendered.

FOUR THEATRES TO DISAPPEAR BEFORE SPRING

Landmarks of Former Ancient Grandeur of World of Make-Believe Must Give Way to March of Progress

CHICAGO, (AP)—Four of Chicago's theatrical landmarks—remnants to the business acumen of a song and dance comedian, a melodious song mag, a vaudeville manager and a pair of show men—are slated for destruction. Workmen have already begun sinking caissons under McVickers, most venerable of the downtown theatres, and the wreckers will take charge in May. George M. Cohan's Grand Opera House, Powers and the Olympic are soon to follow, and with them will disappear the city's most profitable remaining theatrical enterprises, carved wafers of red plush.

The Grand probably will be the second of the quartet to go, as under the terms of the present lease it must be rebuilt, or else January 1, 1924. Powers, known to a by-gone theatre-going generation as Honey's theatre, and which for nearly 20 years has held the unquestioned prestige as the theatre in which the most illustrious actors preferred to appear, is to give way to an addition to the present Grand. A new five-story house may be incorporated in the hotel extension, but this point has not been definitely decided.

OLYMPIC THEATRE WILL BE REBUILT

Owners of the Olympic are planning to rebuild that house as soon as conditions are favorable. James H. McVicker, founder of the theatre which still bears his name, was the song and dance comedian in Chicago until early in the present decade. A traveling company brought him here in the early days, and in 1857 he built the first theatre on the spot where the present playhouse stands. Devoted to continuous vaudeville-skanda. The theatre immediately became the most important center of dramatic activity in the middle west, and its opening was a great event, and nightly thereafter crowded omnibuses left its doors after the performance for the Bull's Head Tavern and the fashionable supper parlors near Madison Square, now part of the near south side.

McVicker installed a resident stock company, which was a notable succession of visiting stars—Charlotte Cushman, Edwin Booth, the older Booths, J. H. Hackett, Lotta Crabtree, Letitia Barrett, Charles Kean and many others. Here Edwin Booth met Mary McVicker, the manager's daughter, when he afterwards married. Here when Lincoln was shot, there was double mourning, for Edwin Booth, the Wilkes Booth, had played McVicker's often. Here, in 1865, "The Black Troop" had its phenomenal Chicago run of 75 nights.

GREAT FIRE TAKES PLAYHOUSE

The theatre was destroyed in the great fire of 1871, and was the first playhouse to be rebuilt after the disaster. In 1890 it was again destroyed by fire, and the present structure dates from its restoration in 1892. The excellent show magate was John A. Hamilton and the musical manager, Richard M. Lester. Both were identified with the early days of the present Grand Opera House. In 1870 Honey, who had made a fortune with his musical troupe, bought the theatre, and prepared to open Honey's rebuilt theatre. The fire of 1871 destroyed the house, and in the very night before it was to be opened, and swept his fortune away.

In 1873 Hamilton, famous throughout the country for his Hamilton's Wizard Oil, built the largest building hall in the world on the site of the former opera house. Later he enlarged and turned it into a beer garden, which in turn became Hamilton's Theatre in 1875, and in 1880, after extensive alterations, was reopened under the former name of the Grand Opera House.

The Sharing Spirit.

In an orderly house, an announcement was placed in the bathroom to the effect that, since everyone shared in its benefits, everyone was asked to take a hand in helping to keep it neat and tidy. That idea carried through the house, would greatly relieve the housewife, and at the same time inculcating the community spirit. A housewife is sometimes driven to declare that the only way to make those about her realize what thoughts and actions are needed to create a comfortable home, was to neglect it until this was sufficiently obvious.

Education Not Complete.

A man was lamenting his wife's extravagance—but more in address than in fact. "Her parents," he said, "were folk," he explained, "and they failed to teach her proper business principles. She was taught only to save her money—never how to spend it intelligently."

TONGS AGAIN ON THE RAMPAGE

Killing of Two Chinamen and Wounding of Third May Result in Outbreak

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Chinamen throughout the west were reported under cover or on their guard today as the result of an apparent outbreak of a tong war last night when two Chinese were killed and a third wounded in Seattle, one slain in Butte, Mont., and one shot probably fatally in San Jose, Cal. In every instance the shootings were carried out in characteristic tong warfare, police reports indicated. In Butte and in Seattle the Chinese, said to have belonged to tongs, were shot down on the street with deadly accuracy. Seattle police made five arrests in connection with the shooting. Lowrey, 72, said to be the only member of the Blue Tong long in San Jose, was met at his door, according to a police report, by three young Chinese, who fired three bullets into his body. While San Francisco has the largest Chinatown, and is headquarters for most of the tongs, no trouble had been reported here early today. Local police said they were watching the situation and have been ready to prevent an outbreak. The atmosphere in Chinatown was reported tense, however.

TO RESUME WORK AFTER LAPSE OF SEVERAL YEARS

Construction of Monument for First President of Confederacy to be Started

FAIRVIEW, Ky., (AP)—Work on the Jefferson Davis monument at its birthplace here will be resumed when the weather conditions permit next spring, according to Major John H. Leathers, Louisville, treasurer of the Jefferson Davis Home association. The shaft was started in 1870 and the construction has every hope and expectation that the monument will be completed in its originally intended height of 351 feet, Major Leathers says. The custody of the property has been directed to turn it over to the contractor, who has made preparations to resume work, held up since early in the war, and who will push the construction as rapidly as possible. The treasury now has $30,000 to spend on the monument, Major Leathers says, and with the daughters of the Confederacy actively engaged in raising the $20,000 estimated to be necessary to complete the work, plans for a completed monument to the first president of the Confederacy are being formulated slowly.

Oyster Preparation.

Oyster shells and other objects planted on oyster grounds to provide points for the attachment of the spawns are called "cutch." The cans, bits of crockery, brush, etc., were formerly much used for this purpose, but now catch consists of shells entirely of shells and especially oyster shells.

PROMISE UNIQUE PROGRAM

Engagement of Griffis Group by the Twentieth Century Club Announced

The greatest treat of the musical season is promised in the engagement of the Griffis Group which will appear at the Lyceum on Wednesday of this week, under the auspices of the Twentieth Century club. The Griffis Group consists of Olga Steeb, Edna Thomas and Sascha Jacobson, all young Americans representing what the greatest of all Emerson wrote—they see no reason why their country should be "fed on the scraps of foreign harvests" when they have ability (some have talent) to give of their own and enthusiasm to offer. As pianist, mezzo-soprano, vocalist and violinist they have each respectively made eminent places for themselves on the concert stage; they have branched themselves together and dedicated their efforts to "amplifying America's art" and called themselves the Griffis Group in memory of the late Charles T. Griffis, another brilliant young American who had thrown off the foreign shackles and whose "American" compositions were just coming into their own when death claimed him. The Griffis Group does not devote its program, exclusively to American compositions, but it always includes one group and always at least one number by Charles T. Griffis.

ON HIGHROAD TO GREAT THINGS

Olga Steeb, the pianist, is on the highroad to that sort of recognition which is given to but few women pianists. In Berlin before the war she was the favorite of musical circles for her astonishing feat of playing with the best of orchestral nine different operas in ten days. She has a repertoire of 42 by memory. Edna Thomas has been told by the newspapers of New York and other large cities that hers is one of the most exceptional mezzo voices before the public. Added to her regular repertoire she sings in an old Italian costume inherited from an old Greek historian, the charming old, Creole songs of New Orleans of which she has made an extensive study. Jacobson, violinist, began life in the Jewish ghetto of Philadelphia and his history reads like Faupin Hunt's famous story "Humoresque." Since his return to America after brilliant triumphs abroad he has played with almost all leading orchestras, with ever-recurring comparisons to Mischa Elman.

A unique program may be looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation.

Omnivorous.

From a story—"He eagerly swallowed every word she bestowed upon him; he fed upon her every look; he lived upon the smiles she gave him." Theirs what we should call an all-consuming passion.—Boston Transcript.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that most formic uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or a slow headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jai Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jai Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful five-percent lithia-water drink—adv.

OLGA STEEB Piano
SASCHA JACOBSON Violin
EDNA THOMAS Contralto

OLGA STEEB is a brilliant star on the pianistic horizon. Within the past year she has replaced upon immediate notice both Godowski and Liszt with uproarious success. "She played with a proficiency and power that cannot fail to be recognized."—New York Eve. World.

EDNA THOMAS has a great mezzo-contralto voice, but she would be a "soprano" if she had no voice at all, because she has the spirit of the born entertainer. She captivates attention. Her Creole songs sung in the cities of 1840 are becoming immensely popular. "These songs were all being sung twice over before the fashionable audience would let the concert proceed."—New York Times.

JACOBSON—There is scarcely a large orchestra here or in Europe that has not listed Jacobson among its soloists on several occasions. He is among the "big ones" of the viola, satisfactory and sure. "To all who heard him there came the inevitable memory of Mischa Elman's first visit to this country."—New York Eve. Sun.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

For Biliousness, Constipation, Indigestion, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Catarrh of the Bladder, Hemorrhoids, Piles, etc.

IN THE July issue of the American Motorist, the official publication of the American Automobile Association, appeared the following article, under the department headed "Pertinent to Car Ownership"

"A most interesting contribution to the solution of the careful motorist's lubricating problems is found in Desmod's Miracle Oil, which is of a composition and nature which while affording a most perfect lubricant yet is so perfectly soluble in the gasoline that it neither settles in the tank nor separates from the fuel until it is drawn together with the fuel into the combustion chamber and there compressed with the gases.

"When the explosion occurs the oil separates from the gases and is sprayed over the piston head and against the cylinder walls as well as into piston rings and valves. Having a higher fire test than the gases, Miracle Oil lives and does its work and then blows out through the exhaust valves, lubricating valves and stems on the way out.

"An efficient lubricant in the upper working parts of the motor can only mean one thing, freedom from carbon trouble, and freedom from carbon trouble means more mileage."

After using Miracle Oil (nily for two months in my Buick Four, I have decided that I cannot possibly afford to be without this oil. The car runs more easily and with far less noise than it did when it was new. The extra power and the greater gasoline mileage produced by Miracle Oil are two pleasant and amazing surprises to the car owner.

I am using Miracle Oil in my car. I find the car starts right off with a quick pickup and runs much smoother. I will always use Miracle Oil when I can obtain it. (Signed) C. E. BISBEE, Twin Falls.

General Contractor and Builder, Twin Falls. Could I get an agency to sell your Miracle Oil to garages and oil stations in Idaho? I am using Miracle Oil in my Overland and think it fine. (Signed) A. M. BARNETT, Kimberly, Idaho.

SITUATION IS AGAIN SERIOUS OVER IRELAND

Death of Four Special Constables Regarded as Possible Basis for Reopening of Entire Government Controversy

LONDON, (AP) — The situation in Ireland, which had seemed to be improving under the apparent efforts of Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins to obtain the release of the kidnapped Ulster men, has become seriously dangerous as the result of the Clones affair on Saturday.

The Times' Dublin correspondent says today that the news of the Clones, in which four special constables were killed, eight wounded and six made prisoners and the leader of the Sinn Feiners, Matthew Fitzpatrick, shot dead, has provoked a government which was perturbed, as the affair dashed the high hopes based upon its amnesty proclamation and the British declaration to release all prisoners held for offenses committed in England from Irish political motives prior to the truce in Ireland. Developments are awaited with the utmost anxiety.

ACCUSATIONS ARE CONTINUING

There is some conflict in the accounts of how the shooting was precipitated. Irish republican army men at Clones and their sympathizers take the stand that armed and uniformed Ulstermen had no right to enter free state territory and subjected themselves to arrest by so doing. It is pointed out that the Gaelic football players now in the Derry jail were arrested for a similar reason by the Ulsterites.

The account of the shooting from the same source is that Fitzpatrick approached the Ulster constables and ordered them to raise their hands, promising no violence if they surrendered. He then wrote to this demand. It is said, was the shooting and killing of Fitzpatrick and then the republican army men fired.

In Belfast, on the other hand, it is contended the rights of soldiers in Ireland were not infringed by sending the police from Belfast to Donkillyen by train, although the line passes for a few miles through the area. Mr. George Fuller, Hearts were used in abundance in the decorations and a prize, won by B. Wilkins, was given for the correct guess as to the number of hearts used. The program was made up of readings, games and guessing contests.

FAILED TO USE DUE DISCRETION

Against this it is maintained by the republican army supporters, that knowing the state of tension on the frontier the Belfast authorities should have ordered the police to detain on returning the border.

Research into the kidnaped Ulstermen the Times' Dublin correspondent believes that the military government is doing its utmost to procure their release, but says it seems to have been met with flat defiance from the Irish republicans in County Monaghan, which will only come to an end, he declares, these instigators for the football players in Derry.

The Morning Post's Dublin correspondent, while declaring that Griffith and Collins "mean well" asserts that Irish mobile opinion "has decided the De Valerites are no ton."

WOMEN TO BE DISBANDED

LONDON, (AP) — London's women police are "not a necessity and are too costly to maintain as a luxury," Sir William Harwood, commissioner of the Metropolitan police has found, and as a result the women's patrols will be disbanded at the earliest possible moment, according to the Daily Mail.

London has one hundred police women, and maintenance of this force costs 50,000 pounds annually. The government's special economy committee under Sir Eric Geddes which reported its findings last week, also declared the utility of the women police "negligible."

Social Notes

Edited by Mrs. E. B. Williams Telephone 393

The Blue Larks Boulevard club met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. M. Wright with twelve members in attendance. The secretary's report was read and accepted, followed by the treasurer's report of five more members having paid dues. Mrs. A. C. Rutherford announced the time and meeting place of the annual ball to be given for the Moral club. One member was to be appointed to help serve the lunch that day. Mrs. J. A. Walters was chosen representative from this club. Since the picnic is to be held on the regular club day, it was voted to cancel that meeting. Mrs. Frank Brown offered to the club the silver upper half of a quilt, which all accepted, with thanks for future use. Mrs. V. B. Pisco was appointed by the chair to look up the two remaining rugs, unsold. Two names of possible new members were submitted by Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Clarence Young and Mrs. Frank Brown. Each was voted upon and unanimously elected. Mrs. Monica Stearns talked on the subject of the hot lunches being served at the Washington school and urged all the members to earnestly co-operate with those undertaking the task. Mrs. Rutherford made a motion, later on the treasury, for the lunches of seventeen needy pupils for one week, Mrs. J. E. Hooker seconded the motion and it was agreed upon unanimously by the club. Mrs. Frank Brown, assisted by Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Moses Skeates, furnished a splendid program on "The History of Idaho." Mrs. W. W. Edmondson and Mrs. Carlyle Pickett were club guests.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Mildred Leazer entertained a club of which she is a member at her home on Fourth avenue west. The afternoon was spent with games and which Mrs. Leazer served delicious refreshments. Those present were Clara Maud Shipley, Daniel Bookwitz, Grace Schade, Almina Avant, Alice Taylor, Peggy Wall and Mrs. D. E. Davies, who is the leader of the club.

Eather Shipman, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shipman, celebrated her tenth birthday on Saturday of last week at her home on Sixth avenue east. Hearts were used in abundance in the decorations and a prize, won by B. Wilkins, was given for the correct guess as to the number of hearts used. The program was made up of readings, games and guessing contests.

GOOD TIME

FUNI PRIZES!

CHEAP goods, printing or any other kind, should be cheap because cheapness, nine times out of ten, is their only recommendation.

Twin Falls printers are NOT undersold anywhere—and low priced printed matter is, in a majority of instances, sold in Twin Falls for prices actually below the very lowest figures of outside printing establishments.

BUT the Printing Industry does not grow, and thrive and add to its payrolls upon the basis of the "cheapness" of the work it turns out.

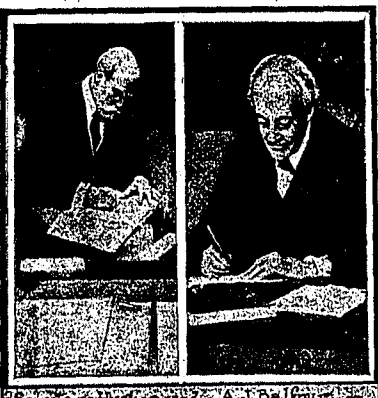

Reasonably priced printed matter is the thing which all printers like best to sell.

It is the thing which Twin Falls Printing Establishments are best able, of all printing businesses, to supply.

BUT mere cheapness is the poorest kind of a recommendation for goods in any line. And the printing company which asks for business on the basis of cheapness and cheapness alone, offers only cheapness--

Twin Falls printing is low priced--you may prove this for yourself any time--but CHEAPNESS is NOT its only recommendation.

BASEBALL FOR 1922

Just now baseball club owners and managers of the major league are boasting themselves about matters having to do with opening of spring training camps for athletes under contract to perform during the coming season. Calls have already been issued by managers to men setting dates for departures for these camps, some south and some west and the liddle books are fixing to go.

All of which directs attention to the unsettled condition of baseball in Twin Falls. The question is: "What will the Magic City do for its sport this year?" And thus far no answer has come to the query.

It is a safe bet, however, that some moves will be produced to lead on some thing appropriate baseballly speaking. Conditions were just as unsettled in this line of sport a year ago, but there came forth a genius who figured out the Twin Falls Twilight Baseball league.

What was done last year can be done again, but in view of the fact that six clubs at times proved a heavy strain on the local talent it would probably be as well to consider a contracted "eleven" with a practically diminished schedule.

But whatever else happens in the domestic sport department Twin Falls cries for and must have baseball. This institution can be constructed on the foundation formed last year, which was in the main, substantial and rendered success for the time being assured from the start. The time is at hand when the new 1922 baseball structure should be erected.

BONUS MONEY SOURCES

This rich country should have no difficulty in raising $425,000,000 annually in the next two years to defray the cost of proposed soldiers' bonus. The trouble is to select the source or sources from which the money shall be taken. It having been put up to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon to make a recommendation, that official did so before the ways and means committee of the house. Now we shall see how congress and the people react to the proposal.

Mr. Mellon is firmly of the opinion there should be no reliance on payments by the allies on account of their indebtedness to the United States, an opinion which is shared by practically all competent to judge in the matter. He is opposed to levying a general asset tax on the ground of cost and difficulty of administration. Not so many Americans will agree with him on this. But special taxes should be levied to meet bonus payments, the secretary says, and he suggests an increase of first and second-class postage rates, increase of cigar and tobacco taxes, increase of documentary stamp taxes, a tax of 2c on each bank check, and a 60-cent levy on each horsepower of automobiles. From these sources he estimates $300,000,000 a year might be secured, which would leave a shortage of $125,000,000 in the amount he believes must be available to meet bonus demands. Likely this will bring congress back to a consideration of a general asset tax, if it does not resort to it for all the money needed for the soldiers. There probably will be less popular objection to that form of taxation than to an increase of postage rates and the nuisance of pasting stamps on checks.

It is important that the banks still being enacted, there be no unnecessary delay in beginning payments to the ex-servicemen. The advantage of the levies recommended by Secretary Mellon is that they would begin to yield cash almost immediately their collection was authorized, while if another plan were adopted complicated machinery would have to be set up and this would take time. It is not an enviable duty that was put on the secretary of the treasury, but it is a matter of general satisfaction that Mr. Mellon has so promptly laid before the ways and means committee recommendations practical if not proper.

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

Interests and Activities of the Coming Citizens of Twin Falls

This is the week which the Scout movement all over the United States is celebrating its twelfth birthday. On February 8, 1910, the first Scout Troop was organized in London, England. It is now twelve years old. The whole Scout movement is just now entering its Tenderfoot stage. At 8 o'clock on Tuesday night Scouts all over the country were invited to meet and solemnly reaffirm their Scout vows. Several troops in Twin Falls did this.

Some of the people some idea what the Scouts are doing the council has placed a very creditable exhibit in Fisher's drug store for this week. All Scouts are not only urged to look it over carefully but also to bring friends, teachers and parents to see it. And if you have anything in the Scout line that would add to the exhibit take it to the store, who will see that it gets a display. The store will probably have some good stuff on show have not brought anything around to help out the window.

News of the Troops

Troop No. 7 met last Saturday night at Capt. Caven's and all were present 'but' A. S. Norman, who presided and Louis Hahn acted as secretary. Moral Hahn was transferred from Patrol 1 to Patrol 11. The second patrol report of Troop No. 7 was read by the patrol leader. The third patrol report of Troop No. 7 was read by the patrol leader. The fourth patrol report of Troop No. 7 was read by the patrol leader.

Troop No. 4

Captain P. W. McRoberts, mayor of Twin Falls, Wednesday night took the Boy Scouts' oath as an honorary member of Boy Scout troop No. 4, Twin Falls. The oath was administered by the Scoutmaster, who was assisted by the Scoutmaster. The Scoutmaster then read the Scoutmaster's report of the troop.

Troop No. 5

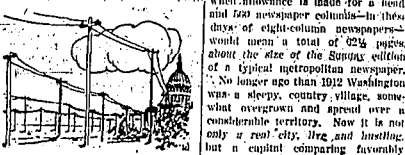

A group of boys from Troop No. 5 took a trip to Blue Lakes last Saturday. There was considerable snow on the ground, but that did not prevent the boys from taking their Scout pack, fire building, cooking and tracking. The boys who were on this hike were: Kenneth Kitchin, Edward McCall, John Robertson, Freeman McDonald, Burton Perrine, Lytle Hoffman, together with their Scoutmaster, E. V. Egan. The boys in this troop are making a splendid effort to perfect their leadership and second class tests during this anniversary week, and intend to have a Scout and patriotic celebration. The meeting in the parlors of the Methodist church at which the families and friends of the boys are being asked to be present. At this meeting everything pertaining to tenderfoot and second class work will be exemplified as well as some patriotic Lincoln exercises.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

Capital Getting to Be a News Center

WASHINGTON.—The capital is the greatest center for the dissemination of news in the world, according to recent investigations which indicate that not less than 500,000 words are sent out daily by wire, radio and mail from the offices of Washington correspondents. The amount of publicity material sent out according to recent investigations, which indicate that not less than 500,000 words are sent out daily by wire, radio and mail from the offices of Washington correspondents.

Just how the 500,000 words are divided each day among the news services, correspondents and news wires is of interest. The Washington correspondents' total is roughly about 50,000 words a day by wire; the press associations send another 50,000, for there are five of these organizations, carrying 10,000 to 15,000 words each. The 10 leased wire news organizations, carrying more than 100,000 words daily, making a total of 200,000 words telegraphed from Washington daily.

Mail service is probably equally heavy, and writers for magazines and other periodicals who do not deal in news news probably carry some 100,000 words daily.

NO LIVING THING ON ISLAND

Condition of Affairs Would Seem to Prove That Mother Nature Can Make Errors. A freak of nature, proving of more than ordinary interest, is a good-sized island in Puget sound, which is apparently dying from old age. It was observed last summer that every fir and cedar tree on the island was dead. About the water's edge vegetation appeared withered and a thin vapor hung over the island during the day. Never inhabited, and about 100 acres in extent, the island has for years been noted for its growth of wonderful trees.

These three feet in diameter grew so thickly as to make travel through them almost impossible. Both cedar and alder flourished. The ownership of the tract has been in litigation for years and the timber could not be logged.

Now there is not a living thing on the island. Not a crow rests on the dead tops, and as boats pass an occasional crow tells of the falling of a great tree. Scientists who have visited the island in the last few months believe the land has soured. The growth of trees and vegetation has been so rapid and dense as to exhaust the humus in the soil. Another theory is that the soil rests on a rock base and the roots of the plants have come into contact with the brine of Puget sound to such an extent that the salt has burned out the plant life.

FRENCH FARMERS MADE GAINS

Assertion That They Realized Large Financial Benefits From the War Seems Reasonable.

A class of French society that gained large financial benefits from the war is the farmers. They have become, into a great force in French politics, but only after a long and arduous struggle, but later they will surely grow more aggressive.

In the old days, but most of them used the tenar farmer has ceased to exist—they have all recently bought their farms. There were 2,000,000 American soldiers in France, and it is estimated that, on an average, they spent a dollar a day apiece out of their own pockets; this makes $2,000,000 a day, and most of it went to the French farmers, to say nothing of the millions spent by our government to supply rations to these very soldiers.

The difference between the city producers and the farmers is that the former are few, while the latter represent a very large vote, which has the same result as that it would have in any other republic, viz., those representing the large vote are not taxed!

The needs of the French budget will doubtless bring about a correction of this state of affairs, when the farmer vote will have to pass from the defender to the aggressor.—C. H. Sherrill in the Outlook.

Wireless Aids Jewelers

Fifteen hundred small wireless outfits have been installed in Paris jewelry watch and clock stores to enable the jewelers to catch the correct Greenwich meridian time as it is sent daily at ten o'clock by the Eiffel tower.

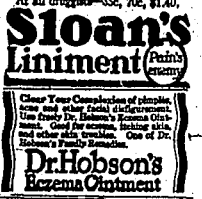

Formerly the exact time had to be obtained from the observatory by telephone. The installation is simplicity itself. The outfit, about nine inches in diameter, is hung on a nail in the wall. A copper wire run down to the cellar of a long water or gas pipe serves as a "ground wire," while the removal of the bulb from a nearby electric light and the insertion of a contact plug take the place of antennae. It can be done in five minutes.

Japanese Glycerin Production

Until the outbreak of the war all the glycerin used in Japan was imported from the United States and European countries, notes Finance and Commerce (Shanghai), but the enormous demand resulting from the war led to the establishment of a factory under the protection of the Japanese government, which has reduced somewhat the volume of imports of glycerin. Originally the manufacturers of glycerin in Japan used only fish oil, but are now adding to the supply by using tallow, vegetable wax and coconut and bean oils. China's imports of glycerin during 1920 showed a fair increase: Out of a total valued at about 177,000 Japanese taels, the United Kingdom supplied over 90,000 taels worth; Japan, 25,000 taels; the United States, 15,000 taels; the Netherlands, 3,000 taels, and Switzerland, 2,500 taels, while Germany also sent some small supplies. Shanghai is the largest absorbing center, taking about 61 per cent of the total importations of glycerin into China. (The average value of the bulkhead trade for 1920 was $124,000.)

ICE BY ELECTRIC PROCESS

Method, Long Tried Out in Hotels, Restaurants, and Ships, Soon to Be Universal.

Now that electric refrigeration has been simplified to the point where it is suitable for the home, it is safe to predict that it will not be long before it will be within the reach of even those of very modest pocket books, and all need of bothering with the tedium, with his pick and tongs, will be gone.

The ice used on our tables has long been the product of electric refrigeration, although the mechanism was not located in our own homes, says the Philadelphia North American. Hotels, restaurants and passenger boats have used the electric process because it is efficient, sanitary and convenient.

Electricity does not immediately and directly produce the freezing temperature, but merely provides the motive power to operate certain chemicals which are the actual refrigerants. In the process of condensation these chemicals vaporize or "boil" and absorb the heat from the surrounding air. The machinery by which condensation and vaporization is produced was formerly large and expensive, and it has taken continuous experimentation to reduce it to a point where it is practical for household use.

The process has been similar to the transition of locomotive power from the large and clumsy railroad steam engine to the smaller automobiles, with their comparatively simple mechanism. The complete machinery is to be reduced to a point where it could be produced cheaply and operates on a small scale. Electric refrigeration has now almost reached the final stage. It will soon be considered essential in all our kitchens.

PLANT INDOOR WINDOW BOX

Small Expense and Little Effort Required to Have Ornamentation Always Pleading.

To the real garden lover the charm of the garden can be extended to the winter months, for a window garden gives cheer to a room and is always a source of interest and delight.

Window boxes can be kept charming for the entire year by sowing them with hardy begonias and cyclamen, the Christian Science Monitor. Another interesting arrangement, all in green, is of small palms and ferns, or the long-leaved Boston type, and asparagus asparagus to trail over the edge. Ferns, roses, the cyclamen or certain varieties, and Irish iris make a window box with a delightful color note. For late autumn, if the room is kept cool, some of the darling little chrysanthemums in brown and yellow are effective for weeks, and in the winter, for the late winter or early spring flowering bulbs may be used among ferns.

In planting a winter garden one must always remember that plants do not like the near steam heat, and the radiator is under the window. A broad shelf should be placed six inches or more above it and the box set back on the shelf, so that the force of hot air does not come too near the foliage.

The small expense and the little effort required for a beautiful indoor window box makes it possible for every home-loving woman to have one.

Restoration Worth While.

Why build new cottages? Why not repair old ones? These were the questions asked by the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings in England, and answered successfully. The society took a veritable relic of old England, five centuries old if a single day, in the shape of two dwellings under one roof at Brighthelmston, in Suffolk. The thick timber, seasoned to the quality of iron, were good, but the roof, the floor and the windows were defective. In fact the building was habitable only on a portion of the ground floor. Nothing daunted, the society set to work and, by judicious restoration, made the old dwellings as sound as a bell. The total cost of the work, including the freestone pile, was $6,512. A new cottage would have cost at least $4,750, not including the site. It is any wonder that the society is casting round for other old houses to conquer?—Christian Science Monitor.

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY

A DISH that is nourishing enough to take the place of a main dish at dinner is:

Tommy With Olives.
Put one small onion cut fine in a fry pan until golden. Add three teaspoonfuls of cooked ham or a can of tomato; stir until hot, then add one-fourth of a cupful of milk, the same of water, stirring all the time; add three-fourths of a cupful of grated cheese, and when it is melted remove from the heat before the cheese becomes stringy. Then add one-half cup of stoned ripe olives, chopped. Season and serve at once.

Scotchies.
Take two cupfuls of rolled oats, put through the mill chopper and brown lightly in the oven. Take two tablespoonfuls of shortening melted, one-fourth of a cupful of molasses, one-teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda. Mix all the dry ingredients, add the melted shortening and the molasses and milk. Roll thin and cut in strips and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Ice cake as it comes from the oven with sugar melted with a little water.

Savory Sandwich Filling.
Mix one-half cupful of almonds and brown them in a tablespoonful of cooking oil. Then chop the almonds and mix with one-half cupful of butter, one-half cupful of cream, one-half cupful of chopped pickles, one tablespoonful of chutney, chopped. Spread buttered bread with cream cheese softened and sprinkled with chopped almond mixture. This is sufficient filling for a loaf of bread if the slices are cut very thin.

Liquid Yeast

Take four medium sized potatoes, washed, pared and grated, boil about five minutes stirring constantly, strain most of water, add one-fourth of a cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, one dry yeast cake soaked in one-fourth of a cupful of warm water, or one cake of compressed yeast may be used. When the yeast is dissolved, add one-half cupful of water and one-half cupful of sugar. Stir for twenty-four hours. This yeast should not be kept more than two weeks.

New Potatoes and Peas.
Cook small new potatoes, add a few sweet green peas in a little water as possible. Make a thick rich white sauce, stir in the vegetables and serve with plenty of pepper and salt.

Dried peel is especially good for bringing a dull fire to life in a sick room, where the smoking of a few sticks may make the patient for whom sleep is necessary. Just Suggesting.

The most embarrassing moment of my life was in school. I am a senior in high school, and naturally take great pride in it, and like to lord it over the freshmen. I am in the freshman French class and at every opportunity I get I make fun at their mistakes.

Well, we were just starting on French and my French teacher was trying to help me out on something I did not understand.

She said to me: "Norman, supposing that I said to you, 'You love the girl.'"

Not keeping the question in mind I replied: "What girl?"

It truly was an embarrassing situation for me to have all these freshmen giggle at me and laugh me, thinking me a duse of my own words.

The show started and was well along when Johnnie and Annie rushed in to their mother, and with many tears and lamentations wailed out:

"We had our show goin' so good, and Buster was doin' one of his best tricks, when they man Brown called him home and busted up the whole show."

PROBLEMS OF TAXATION GRIPS IDAHO REALTORS

Association Head Through Tax Agent, Addresses County Taxpayers

Through a message addressed to John D. Robertson, state tax agent, who addressed a gathering of 19 citizens here Friday evening, and delivered too late to reach the speaker, Ir. E. High of Boise, president of the Real Estate Association, of Idaho, extended an invitation to property owners and real estate dealers of Twin Falls county to attend the Idaho real estate convention here on February 21 and 22, at which time, he said, "we will tell them our remedy" for the tax situation.

"The message follows: 'It is a very serious matter for you folks to be involved so much to let Twin Falls taxpayers the interest the real estate associations are taking in this tax problem. Our interests are identical. We are in the same boat. Too many tax-free and too many tax-free boards. We cannot live half taxed and half exempt. Taxes must be equalized. Real estate and pay 50 per cent of all taxes when it represents but 40 per cent of the wealth. We must either prosecute or supplement the present system. We extend an urgent invitation to all property owners and real estate dealers of Twin Falls county to attend the Idaho real estate convention in Boise on February 21 and 22, at which time we will tell them our remedy.'"

WATER RIGHTS TRANSFER IS ARGUED BEFORE COURT

A. L. Swin and Associates Object to Canal Company's Contention on Claim to Stock

Argument by attorneys in the case of Arthur L. Swin and others against the Twin Falls Canal company involving claim by the plaintiffs to 8522 1/2 shares of canal company stock was in progress this afternoon before Judge W. A. Balesock in district court here. The stock in question is said to be a surplus remaining after application to designate the stock within the original Twin Falls project of water rights set aside for this purpose by the Twin Falls Land and Water company, and was purchased by the plaintiffs from the Land and Water company with a view to transferring water covered by the stock to the Castleford butte. The canal company denies possession of the stock as a valid claim to water for the purpose given, and denies that surplus water is available for the proposed transfer.

MINISTER DEFINES TERMS

Dr. W. W. Burks Distinguishes Between "Conversion" and "Parson"

Speaking on the topic of "Conversion" in a sermon last evening at the Christian church in connection with revival meetings in progress this month, Dr. W. W. Burks drew by illustration and reference a distinction as between "conversion" and "parson." "Conversion" he said, is the change that comes in the thinking, affections and will of man under the production of the gospel, while parson is a change that is effected in the mind of God toward a sinner in harmony with His promise.

Dr. Burks this evening will take for his subject "The Law of Parson." Services last evening were opened with 30 minutes sacred concert by the chorus and orchestra under direction of Glenn Curtis of Portland.

HANSEN NOTES DISTRICT DOWN

Proposal for Creation of New Highway Organization is Defeated

Creation of the proposed Hansen Highway district of territory included in the Twin Falls highway district was defeated by vote of 45 to 22 at an election Saturday at Hansen. Efficiency in traveling over unblocked roads is believed to be responsible in a measure for the small vote cast, but dissimulation of the electors generally is believed to have been a new factor in view of uncertainty as to probable award of appropriations as between the new and parent districts. It is considered the principal factor in keeping the vote down.

CLEAR ROAD ELECTION CALENDAR

The election at Hansen Saturday is the last of three elections recently called for submission of question of creation of new highway districts of the Twin Falls district. In the Hansen and Kimberly districts the proposal has been voted down, while at Murtagh proposed formation of the Murtagh Highway district was carried February 4 by vote of 115 to 12.

It is regarded as improbable that the proposed Blue Lakes highway district to comprise the entire territory included in the Twin Falls independent school district will be submitted to vote, and advocates of the proposed Salmon River highway district strongly have expressed their purpose to abandon this undertaking.

RE-SUBMISSION AT KIMBERLY PROPOSED

Plans for re-submission of the Kimberly highway district were announced last Friday by O. G. Zuck of Kimberly.

MOTORIST MUST DISPLAY NEW PLATES BY MARCH 1

Police Here Demand Receipt for Application for License Inadequate

Automobile owners will be required to display 1922 license plates on their cars on and after March 1, and receipts showing application made for license will be insufficient to prevent prosecution for failure to display license plates at that time, under interpretation placed by police here upon an order issued by the state department of motor vehicles by the attorney general Roy L. Black for the state department of law enforcement establishing March 1 as the deadline for motor vehicle license payment.

License payments were due January 1 for motor the "dead line" has been fixed at March 1. The date was advanced this year in pursuance of a policy that is designed ultimately to require payment on January 1.

Police officers throughout the state are expected on March 1 to take into custody motor vehicle owners who have not paid the current year's license fee. The license fee is the only tax collected on motor vehicles. Chief of Police Ben J. Brown said today: "It is our opinion that the order fixes the deadline for license payment at the time in which license plates are to be obtained. It is our purpose to enforce the order rigidly."
