COAL WILL LAST FOR TEN WEEKS

Impending Strike Finds Country Well Prepared—Present Stocks will be Augmented by Non-Union Production

HOPE OF SETTLEMENT OF COAL STRIKE NOW VIRTUALLY AT AN END

No Way Apparent by Which Threatened War Between May Be Averted, Say Officials

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Government officials were reported today as being without hope that the threatened coal strike can be averted or that the proposed conference between the operators and miners would be arranged. It was indicated that government intervention at this time was practically at an end.

Hoping that a strike call April 1 is almost inevitable, government officials, according to the view presented today on high authority now are chiefly interested in seeing that a sufficient supply of coal is maintained for the country as a whole.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—The situation with respect to coal supply, it was stated, is not acute. There now is at the surface of coal mines and in stocks at consuming centers, it was declared, enough coal to last the country for ten weeks with the prospects, it was added, that this supply will be augmented by production from non-union mines and from operations in union territory which department of labor reports show are covered by district settlements between the miners union and local associations of mine operators.

NO ATTEMPT TO FORCE CONFERENCE

It was intimated that the government did not propose to enter upon any attempt to force a conference. Secretary of Labor Davis has gone as far as he intends to go in that direction, it was said, by repeatedly and publicly pointing out that the government considers the mine operators of the central, competitive field to be bound by provisions of the existing national wage contract to enter negotiations for making a substitute national contract ready to apply by April 1 when the old one expires.

Many operators in the semi-confidential exchanges with the labor department were said to have taken the position that the wage contracts provision with respect to its renewal no longer binds them, because of local or district actions by the miners, unless they claim that to have been in violation of contracts.

PRODUCTION IS INCREASING

Comment was withheld today upon the possibility that railroad labor unions might be drawn into the struggle after April 1.

Production of bituminous coal continues to increase slowly according to the current weekly report of the United States geological survey. In the week ending March 4, production reached 1,915,000 tons.

STATEMENT SHOWS A LOSS

Big Chicago Packing Firm Goes Through Year at Loss Each Into Millions

CHICAGO, (AP)—The annual statement of Wilson and Company, packers, revealing an operating deficit of $3,462,500 during 1921, was made public today, including payment of a consolidated dividend the deficit for the year was placed at $9,250,000, compared with profits of $1,600,000 in 1920 and $5,000,000 in 1919. The statement said that while sales totaled fewer dollars in 1921 than in previous years the tonnage was nearly the same.

Wilson and Company was the last of the five packers to make a statement, and each company reported a loss for the year. The aggregate deficit of Wilson and Company, Cudahy Company, Armour and Company, Swift and Company and Morris and Company was $7,217,460.

REDUCTION OF REGULAR ARMY PROVIDED FOR

Recommendations are for 115,000 Enlisted Men and 11,000 Officers with Sharp Cut in Appropriation

WASHINGTON, (AP)—With provisions which would necessitate reduction of the size of the regular army to 115,000 enlisted men and 11,000 officers, the army appropriation bill, carrying $2,263,030.67, was received today by the house appropriations committee.

The amount recommended for the military and non-military activities of the war department during the coming fiscal year is a reduction of approximately $110,000,000 from the total of the current year, and $27,935,250 less than budget estimates.

An appropriation of $1,437,000 is recommended for continuance of work on various river and harbor improvements, for which the chief of engineers requested $43,000,000.

The committee recommended $500,000 for the chemical warfare service, declaring that sum sufficient to provide for a "minimum amount of development work and training along lines compatible with present conditions," and for maintaining Edgewood arsenal in good condition.

Sixteen Injured and Seven Dead as Result of Seismic Blast at Accident

ATLANTA, (AP)—The sixteen persons injured in the derailment and destruction of an Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic passenger coach at Camp Creek early Sunday were pronounced out of danger today and arrangements were being completed for burial of the seven persons killed.

The coach was sent crashing from a trestle into the shallow creek 50 feet below. A broken wheel caused the accident, according to B. L. Bugg, receiver of the road.

Brunen was followed at least two days before he was shot to death while near a window resting and he feared an attack, Parker says.

AUTHORSHIP OF TREATY QUESTIONED IN SENATE

Sharp Tilt Enlivens Proceedings when Lodge Undertakes Defense of Secretary Hughes Following Statements by Johnson and Borah Tending to Impeach

ADDITION OF RESERVATION TO PACT EAGERLY SEIZED UPON BY JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The query, "Who wrote the four power specific treaty and its supplemental agreements," percolated in the senate debate on the pact today despite Secretary Hughes' letter taking the responsibility for the agreement. Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, declared that circumstances surrounding the reservation attached to the treaty by Mr. Hughes when it was signed presented in his opinion, "the most conclusive proof that somebody else wrote the treaty."

CALIFORNIA MAN ASSAILS TREATY AS AN ALLIANCE

Hiram Johnson Tells Senate Pact Would Cause Surrender of Ancient Policy of Independent National Action

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Assailing the four-power treaty as a "quadruple alliance," Senator Johnson, republican, California, told the senate today that its ratification would mean not only a recession from American tradition, but a national surrender under threat of foreign power.

ACCEPTANCE SPELLS DANGER

"The argument for this present surrender of our ancient policy of independent national action," continued the California senator, "is nothing in the end but a surrender to the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the gentlemen on the other side say, exposes us to danger. Therefore, we have no choice. We must accept this treaty."

UNITED STATES NEVER IN DANGER

Mr. Johnson quoted many utterances of Japanese and British statesmen giving assurance that the Anglo-Japanese alliance never was directed against the United States and asserted that these solemn declarations were not to be believed then this government was following a foolish policy by establishing a partnership with powers which have deliberately deceived the American people.

MORE CASH FOR GEM STATE

Heavy Advances to Stockman and Farmers Approved by War Finance Corporation

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Approval of $1.4 million for agricultural and livestock purposes, aggregating $29,000,000, was announced today by the war finance corporation. The advances included: Arizona, $100,000; Colorado, $115,000; Idaho, $150,000; Montana, $35,000; New Mexico, $35,000; and Wyoming, $55,000.

RESERVATION CALLED TOO SOON

"The authorship of the pact came to the front when Senator Johnson asserted that 'before the ink was dry'" on the treaty itself, Mr. Hughes protested and had the delegates sign a reservation relating to the proposed change of the Pacific. Senator Lodge interjected that the reservation was really signed before the treaty was really signed, "So much the worse," responded Senator Johnson.

LODGE RESENTS BORAH'S QUESTION

"Mr. Hughes has stated," said Mr. Borah, "that he wrote this treaty. Why, then, did not the idea come into Mr. Hughes' mind when it was written the treaty to include the provision about the mandated islands?"

NIKOL LENINE ONCE PUPIL OF ALEX KARENSKY

Russian Chief Said to Have Been Model Scholar Under Direction of Father of His Predecessor in Premiership

REVAL, Estonia, (AP)—An interesting coincidence in the lives of Nikol Lenin, premier of Russia, and Alexander Kerensky, whose government Lenin overthrew to set up the soviet regime, has just been brought to light. It appears from records just published that Lenin was a pupil in a high school at Simbirsk, Russia, of which Kerensky's father was principal, and that the older Kerensky reported him to be one of his best pupils and a gold-medal winner for good conduct.

Simbirsk was the birthplace and scene of the early life of Lenin, whose real name was Vladimir Iulianov, and who was the son of Ilya Nicolaevich Iulianov, a citizen of Astrakhan, the port near the mouth of the Volga river. What purpose is to be the records of the high school are just now published by the "Ezavrat" Bode. They show, the paper says, that the older Kerensky described Lenin (Oulanov) as:

"Very gifted as well as industrious and punctual. He was the leading pupil in all classes and, on completing his course, received a gold medal as the best graduate of the school in progress, eagerly and good conduct."

"When his father died in 1888, his mother brought up her children in religion and uprightness. The good fruits of such upbringing showed themselves in Iulianov's excellent conduct. "I noticed his extreme solitary disposition and shyness in intercourse with friends and with his schoolmates."

The Royalist Bode says the records show that Lenin belonged neither to the peasant nor nobility classes but to the middle-class people. It adds that the "striking Kaluzk (Tartar) lines in Lenin's face and head are attributed to his father's origin in Astrakhan."

ROBINSON CRUSOE STORY REPRODUCED FOR TOURISTS

Interesting Entertainment is Provided for Visitors at the Home of Castaway

VALPARAISO, Chile, (AP)—The rescue from an island in the south Pacific of Alexander Selkirk the British mariner, around whom Daniel Defoe is said to have woven the tale of Robinson Crusoe, was vividly pictured to several hundred tourists, including prominent British and American residents of Valparaiso, on their arrival recently at Juan Fernandez, the original Crusoe island, 250 miles off the Chilean coast.

Two natives of Juan Fernandez, one representing Crusoe and the other his men Friday, clothed in the traditional goat skins and wearing long beards, pushed off from shore on a raft after they had sighted the "rescue" ship. A parrot and a goat were their only passengers and, as in Defoe's story, the raft was laden with fish, fruits and other island products.

Boarding the vessel the "marooned" men were received with all honors by the captain, to whom "Crusoe" presented his offerings. The passengers then took up a collection for "poor children of the desolate island."

The tourists spent three days at the Juan Fernandez island group visiting the wild country of high mountains peaks and luxuriant vegetation. They saw the monument erected by British seamen to the memory of Selkirk, the original Robinson Crusoe, and visited the lookout from which he is said to have sighted, nearly two centuries ago, the vessel that finally rescued him after four long years of solitude.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and irritates the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular diets of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, by removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, get about four ounces of Jal Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set free and bladder troubles disappear. This famous salt made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jal Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease—our

'MARYS' NOT SO NUMEROUS

Popularity of Good Old Name Declined to be on the Wane in England

LONDON, (AP)—"Mary" is becoming less common as the girls' name in the British Isles, say the organizers of the fund for the presentation of a wedding gift to Princess Mary in the name of "The Marys of the British Empire." These are very difficult times and in the really poor boroughs no collecting center was formed but the organizer of perhaps the poorest district in which there was a center said the greatest enthusiasm was shown by the Marys living there. In a rural district just outside London an all-man-brought-three-shillings and six pence wrapped up in a scrap of paper on which was written in pencil the message: "From my dear Mary who died last Christmas after nearly 60 years married."

Such gifts from the old were matched by others from young enthusiasts like the small girl who enclosed four shillings and six pence which she collected among her little friends.

ODD INSTRUMENT USED TO EXPLORE PATIENT'S LUNGS

Simplicity of Operation Out of All Proportion to Its Im- portance in Surgery

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Publicity attached to the recent successful operation on a little Kansas City girl here for the removal of a pin from her bronchus, has drawn attention to a curious surgical instrument invented for such purpose. While the instrument, the bronchoscope, as it is called, is little known to the lay public, physicians said its use for the removal of foreign objects from the lungs and stomach is quite common and that clinics are held throughout the country.

The bronchoscope appears simple enough to the eye. Roughly, it is a straight metal tube, more than one-quarter of an inch in diameter and about 15 1/2 inches long. A tiny wire runs down the tube and there is an electric light at the bottom which enables the surgeon to see into the interior of the lungs, bronchus or stomach. The foreign object is first located by means of X-rays, and then the tube inserted through the mouth into the lung or stomach. An especially designed pair of forceps is then inserted through the tube into the part affected and the object removed. The operation is often bloodless and requires but a few minutes. It has been known for a patient to leave the hospital within a few minutes after the operation, and when he had entered his life was in jeopardy from the introduction of a foreign substance into vital parts of his body.

Among various objects that have been removed from the lungs or stomach by pins, common pins, hat pins, false teeth, tacks, sewing needles, staples, hypodermic needles, coins and watch charms.

These Men Did It— So Can You!

A recent article in the Outlook mentions some remarkable cases of business successes. Such instances show that there is no limit to the advance of the competent business man who believes in advertising.

In a town of 4000 people in the state of Washington this writer found a department store doing a business of $783,940 last year. In a town of 2800 people in Georgia he found sales for 1919 of $898,486. And in a town of 3000 in Missouri he found a store that did $250,000 worth of business last year.

Cases like these, which are not uncommon, suggest that the enterprising dealer almost anywhere can expand his business far beyond the limits that conservative people would consider possible. And usually in such cases, advertising is what does it.

It has become possible during recent years to draw trade much farther than formerly. Automobile travel gives people a much wider circuit through which they can reach out to find bargains. They will travel a long distance to reach a trading center where enterprise and the spirit of growing business is found. The persistent advertiser finds that he can pull trade three times as far as he could 20 or even 10 years ago, and every year the possibilities of expansion through advertising are increasing.

The people have confidence when they read the notices of a well advertised store that it is doing a large business in comparison to its expense, hence that it is able to put its goods on the market at a reasonable expense for distribution costs. The efficiency of a store depends upon the relation between its volume of sales and its overhead and operating expenses. Advertising provides a big trade on a relatively small burden of expense, hence helps the dealer to serve the public economically.

ODD INCIDENTS MARK TRIAL OF FAT COMEDIAN

Arbuckle Case Still Uppermost
in Public Mind—Jury Results
Differ Widely as Between
First and Second Actions

SAN FRANCISCO, CP—The first attempt to convict Roscoe C. (Patsy) Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, of a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, ended in a mistrial. The first jury voted 10 to 2 for acquittal and the second 10 to 2 for conviction.

On September 5, 1921, a drinking party was held in Arbuckle's suite in the Hotel St. Francis, which was attended by Miss Rappe, her friend Mrs. Bambina Maud Delmont, Zey Provost and Alice Blake, showgirls, and a number of others. After the party had been alone in his room with Miss Rappe for a brief period she was found on a bed, apparently in agony. Four days later she died from the effects of a ruptured bladder.

On September 10 Mrs. Delmont swore to a murder charge against Arbuckle and three days later the grand jury returned a manslaughter indictment against him. A police court hearing of Mrs. Delmont's charge resulted in its being reduced to manslaughter, and Arbuckle went to trial on this charge on November 14. On Sunday, December 4, the jury ended a period of deliberation covering 43 hours with the statement that it could not agree. The second trial started on December 11 and ended February 3, the jury being out 44 hours. Arbuckle testified in the first trial, but did not do so in the second.

ACTED UPON JURY'S VIEWS

After the second trial District Attorney Matthews advised that "had a majority of the jury voted for acquittal I would have moved for the dismissal of the case, but the preponderance is in favor of conviction, and we intend to prosecute to the limit." The second trial was on the grand jury's indictment. Through the failure of the jury to agree both the indictment and the police court charge were kept alive.

Miss Rappe had come to San Francisco with her manager, A. Benschner, and Mrs. Delmont for a visit, and was invited to the Arbuckle party by Alfred Fischback, roommate of Arbuckle. According to the testimony there was a generous supply of liquor at the party and Arbuckle entertained the guests while wearing his pajamas and bathrobe.

After the party Miss Rappe was taken to another room of the hotel and died in the bathroom, where she died. While the investigation into the death was progressing Zey Provost and Alice Blake, the two principal prosecution witnesses, were not "kept" as "keeping" to the home of an attaché of the district attorney's office, the fear being expressed that they "might be approached." This action of the district attorney was characterized as "imprisonment" by Gavin McNish, chief defense counsel, and was made an issue in both trials.

WIDE DIFFERENCE IN TESTIMONY

The testimony of Miss Provost and Miss Blake in the second trial differed materially from their statements in the first trial that the prosecution made an attempt to impeach them and designate them "hostile witnesses." The attempt was ruled out by the court. But had they testified in the first trial that they had heard Miss Rappe say while suffering on the bed, "It hurt me!" In the second trial their recollection was hazy on this point.

Incidents of the first trial were the bringing of a perjury charge against Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, Los Angeles witness, who was called by the court. Mrs. Neighbors was charged with perjury because she testified that she saw Mrs. Morgan, Pasadena, both defense witnesses. The charge against Mrs. Neighbors was dismissed and Miss Morgan returned. Incidents of the second trial were the failure of Arbuckle to testify, the attempts to impeach the prosecution witnesses referred to and the decision of the defense not to make a final argument.

DRASTIC ACTION PART OF PLANS

Ulster Government Said to Be Considering Bill Aimed at Elimination of Rioting

BELFAST, (AP)—The king's speech reopening the Ulster parliament to-morrow will refer to the situation in Belfast created by the recent outbreak of terrorism and will also deal with the general situation in northern Ireland, it is learned.

The Ulster government plans a surprise by giving notice of the introduction at an early date of a drastic bill for the repression of disorders and crime. The measure would empower the authorities to take possession of premises from which they are expelled, and if necessary to destroy them.

The bill also would confer power upon the authorities completely to close and barricade danger spots from which attacks have been made from time to time with fatal consequences. The penalties for those found with arms or under circumstances which indicate directly their participation in sniping would be greatly increased under the bill and wider powers would be given the police to allow prompt search and detection of offenders.

DRIVEN FROM HOME BUT SHE DOESN'T MIND NOW

Sixteen Year Old Chicago Girl Experiences Remarkable Rise in Fortunes

CHICAGO, (AP)—Victoria Klenay is 16 years old and a modern Cinderella. Last Thursday she left her home with the thrush of a heeler from her father, if she returned without a job, according to the story she told Mrs. Helena Danek, president of the woman's protective association.

Mrs. Danek recalled the name of a banker whose daughter died three years ago. She noted a striking likeness in the features of the two girls.

The banker and his wife were astonished. This morning Miss Klenay was wearing the slippers and a charming dress brought from a chest that for three years had been unopened.

GERMANY IS FATHERLAND

Mennonites Leave Manitoba for Mexico Rather Than Teach English to Youngsters

OMAHA, (AP)—A trainload of Mennonites from Haskett, Man., stopped briefly in Omaha last night on their journey from their former colony near the Canadian border to Torreon, Mexico. Members of the party gave a number of reasons for moving, among them being an objection to a law requiring them to teach English to the growing generation.

"We are Germans and want our children to be German," Benjamin Fahr, one of them was quoted as saying. "A majority of the colonists are of German ancestry, although some others are included. Of the 176 persons in the party, 53 are adults."

BAPTISM OF DOG CAUSES OUSTING OF PREACHER

BUSTED, owned by Mrs. Malbona Porter, of Brookline, Mass., probably is the only dog ever "baptized," in accordance with the rites of the Presbyterian church. The baptism, said by Mrs. Porter to have been performed by Rev. Edwin Curtis, resulted in the expulsion of Dr. Curtis as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Brookline.

Walter Kopf

Roy Glinzaker and Frank Samide

Lots of speed—later on. The pitching staff of the New York Giants, world's baseball champions, are working out the kinks in their spring training camp at San Antonio, Texas. Here they are seen in their first "warm-up" of three-pitching. Boreness already has been worked out of the pitching arms of this whirlwind crew, but famous arms of famous twirlers are being nursed along with care. The lower panel shows three rookies who hope to land better with McGraw's clan. Roy Glinzaker and Frank Samide are after Walter Kopf, while Walter Kopf seeks an infield position.

BIG LEAGUERS ALL IN ACTION

Sunday Witnesses Heavy Practice All Along the Line with Results Very Satisfactory

CHICAGO, (AP)—Sunday found all the big league teams in action, according to training camp reports reaching here today.

The Chicago Nationals were looking over some more spots today as the result of two trouncings. Portland and Vernon of the Pacific Coast league closed the week with a draw, a tendency of some of the clubs to have easy chances. Back at Catalina island and the team expects to do some strenuous polishing this week in preparation for several games Friday with Los Angeles and Saturday and Sunday with Vernon.

The Chicago Americans, tacked with their successful engagement with the New York Nationals yesterday, resumed practice today at Seguin, Texas. The Sox and Giants will meet three times this week in Texas.

In San Antonio the Giants were not downhearted by the Sox's defeat, but were hoisting a pitching find in Claude Jonnard, last year's strike-out king of the Southern league, with Little Rock. He hurled three brilliant innings and did not allow a hit or a run and struck out two men. The score was 4 to 3.

COMMISSIONER

Members of the Detroit American squad were prepared to receive Baseball Commissioner Landis at their training camp in Augusta, Ga., today. Commissioner Landis, it was stated, planned to make Augusta his first stopping place on his proposed tour of baseball training camps.

Burlinghame, star right hander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is causing the Dodger chiefs a lot of worry at Jacksonville, Fla., training camp over his contract, but President Ebbets says he has made his final proposition to him. Grimes said he was considering an offer of $9,000 a year for five years by a semi-professional club in Chicago.

The Yankees were talking enthusiastically with Grimes and he was considering an offer of $9,000 a year for five years by a semi-professional club in Chicago.

OUTFIELDER IS REINSTATED

The arrival of Judge, Shanks, Garvey and Earl Smith at the Tampa, Fla., training camp of the Washington club yesterday, with Roger Beckins-paugh due to get in today, practically completed the squad. Leon Ouelin, the promising young outfielder, has been reinstated. All the players are reported to be progressing favorably in condition except Walter Johnson, who has a cold.

The Boston Red Sox are continuing their "heavy" sweating. Thirty-nine hits, including fourteen doubles, a triple and a home-run, were made in the batting line between the regulars and "hangers" at the Hot Springs, Ark., training camp yesterday. The regulars won, 10 to 12.

At St. Petersburg, Fla., the Braves camp, Dick Rudolph brought in the group who have been working out of Hot Springs. George Tyler said that his pitching arm was fast getting into trim.

NEW RULE AN EXPERIMENT

Harvard Coach Calls Attention to Possibilities of Working Out of Latest Decisions

CAMBRIDGE, (AP)—R. T. Fisher, Harvard football coach, said today he believed the football rules committee made a mistake in passing the new rule that if a player is taken out of a game because of injuries he cannot have to play in the same half.

Fisher said there would be a tendency to leave an injured player in the game until physicians and coaches were convinced that it was necessary to take him out instead of withdrawing him for observation.

Fisher regards as an experiment the rules abolishing the free trial for a goal after touchdown and the substitution thereof for a play from scrimmage. Every team, he thought, would elect to drop kick and this would bring about the development of drop kickers instead of placement kickers.

TOURNAMENT AT SALT LAKE

MISSOULA, Mont., (AP)—The Missoula high school basketball team, scholastic state champion of Montana, has accepted an invitation to participate in a tournament at Salt Lake City this week with titleholders of Colorado, Utah and Idaho, it was announced today.

ADVANCE SALE IS HEAVY

Over Twenty Thousand Seats Reserved Already for Big Motor Classic

INDIANAPOLIS, (AP)—Twenty thousand persons either have purchased or reserved seats for the tenth annual 500-mile International acceptance automobile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway, although the contest is not scheduled to be run for almost three months, according to speedway officials. The event will take place May 30.

The advance sale to date, it was said, is the largest since the annual race was inaugurated. Orders from all parts of the United States, Canada, Cuba, and from England, Italy and Honolulu requesting reservations have been received, according to T. E. Meyers, secretary and manager. Last year's attendance of 125,000 was the greatest that ever crowded into the speedway grandstand, according to Mr. Meyers.

Howard Wilcox, local driver and winner of the race in 1910, already has put in some hard practice laps in preparation for the coming event.

Louis Chevrolet, designer of the winning cars in 1920 and 1921, has been working on half a dozen cars all winter and expects, it was said, to have them all at the starter's mark May 28.

Tommy Milton, Ira Vail, E. G. "Canon-ball" Baker and others already have been in their entry blanks. Baker, a local motor-cyclist and automobile racer, has never been on the speedway track, although he has been a leader in the sport for many years. He is a noted cross-country racer, having driven either motor-cycles or automobiles from coast to coast more than fifty times. He holds many cross-country records.

WILL TRY IT AGAIN

NASHVILLE, Tenn., (AP)—Ed (Stranger) Lewis, world champion heavyweight wrestler, who defeated Joe Petros here last week by using the headlock, has been matched again for the Jugulars heavyweight title for a finish bout next Thursday night under an agreement that the headlock be barred.

EACH MAN IS DETERMINED

Decisive Result Hoped for in Tonight's Battle Between Heavyweights

NEW-YORK, (AP)—A decisive result is hoped for tonight in the clash at Madison Square Garden between Tom Gibbons of St. Paul and Harry Greb of Pittsburgh in their scheduled 15-round bout. Gibbons, by virtue of his weight advantage, has been established as favorite. "The fighters are recognized as two of the best light heavyweights since Battling Lewinsky lost his lustre at the hands of Georges Carpentier."

The duo are to weigh in at 172, but it is generally expected Greb will be several inches under this poundage. In addition, the St. Paul scrapper has an advantage of two inches in reach and more than four inches in height.

Both Gibbons and Greb are expected to try desperately for a knockout. Greb's credit is a knockout at the hands of Joe Chip, who dropped him in two rounds in his first fighting year. Gibbons, who also began fighting in 1913, has knocked out 43 men and has never been counted out. Tonight's meeting will be the fourth between the pair.

WESTON IN FIRST PLACE

Basketball Team from Smallest High School Carries Off State Championship

BOZECOW, Idaho, (Special to The News)—By winning from Moscow, Saturday night, by the score of 23 to 17, Weston became state basketball champions in the high school basketball tournament, the new champions, representing the smallest high school that ever sent a team to compete for the highest honors of basketball. With a total enrollment of 55 pupils Weston sent the best team ever seen on the university floor. Gasman, first guard, was the bright star of the Weston team, all through the tournament.

In the afternoon game, Cullinan defeated Coar d'Alenc by the score of 30 to 27. Weston finished the tournament with a perfect average.

LUONES LIVES BEST RECORD.

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Raimo Macliel, an Argentine swimmer, yesterday completed a record swim from Colonia Uruguay to this city, a distance of 44 kilometers (about 27 miles) across the Plata estuary. He was in the water 24 hours, 39 1/2 minutes, beating the previous record by 40 minutes. This is said to be a world's record for endurance swimming.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO, (AP)—Better crop conditions in the southwest led to market declines in the price of wheat today during the first part of the board of trade session, further gains being reported in Kansas and Oklahoma. Besides a drop in the price of wheat, the outlook tended somewhat to weaken values, and there was a setback in sterling exchange. The opening, which varied from 1 1/8 lower to 1 3/8, and July $1.17 3/4 to 1 1/8 were followed by decided downturns in price all around. Subsequently declines accompanied by selling the part of houses with eastern connections carried the market as low as $1.12 1/4 for May. Announcement of a decrease in the visible supply total brought about only transient fluctuations. The close was heavy, 2 1/4 to 5¢ per lower, with May $1.12 1/4 to 1 1/8 and July $1.15 to 1 1/8 1/8.

Corn and oats declined in value with wheat. The opening for 1 1/2 to 1 3/8 higher, May $3 to $3 1/4, the corn market receded to well under Saturday's finish.

With figures showing stocks of corn to be the largest ever known the corn market displayed little power to recover. Prices closed weak, 2 to 2 3/8¢ lower, May $3.34 to $3.78, and July $3.54 to $3.78.

Options started 1-8¢ to a shade up.

SOME INTERESTING QUOTATIONS are to be drawn from the published results of the Chamber of Commerce questionnaire with respect to the abolishment of the County Fair.

According to the secretary's report 39 per cent of the rural reports recommended elimination of the County Fair; 41 per cent recommended various reductions; 27 per cent were indefinite or made no suggestions.

Of the city reports 50 per cent recommended maintaining the fair on the present basis; 10 per cent suggested elimination entirely; 34 per cent suggested various reductions, and 28 per cent were indefinite or made no suggestions.

It appears further that only one member of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce recommended the complete elimination of the fair, while not a single reply received outside of Twin Falls recommended the maintenance of the institution on the exact present basis.

If the proposition of the County Fair is sound as a whole, Twin Falls county should continue to hold an annual County Fair. If it can be shown that there is neither reason nor excuse for the holding of a fair in the county, then there is no excuse for a county fair anywhere. The County Fair is a purely agricultural and stock proposition.

Last year, with a deficit from the operation of the fair for the year of over $7,000, the cost to the taxpayer amounted to somewhat under a quarter of a mill. Appropriations for the fair have been made in four years out of the six during which the institution has been in existence. Much of the money so appropriated has gone into permanent improvements in the way of buildings, grandstands, fences, stables and irrigation and water system. The balance has made up a shortage in gate receipts caused by inclement weather and consequent lack of patronage.

The news favors a continuance of the fair, all points considered, especially in view of the fact that if no fair is held this year, it will be necessary to start all over again should a fair be again decided upon. This is for the reason that under the terms of the agreement whereby the present site was set aside for Fair purposes, the land reverts to the original owners at the end of any year during which no fair is held.

But means should be found to cut the expenditure to a point where there will be little if any deficit, even if the institution has to be materially weakened to bring this about. To expect the fair to be altogether self-supporting year in and year out is to expect the impossible. The uncertainty of Fall weather alone introduces an element of chance as to gate receipts which practically precludes any assurance of definite financial results.

Mirth and the Maiden... "He was a mirth-loving man, and perhaps that accounted not a little for his successful amours; since women, for the most part frivolous creatures, are excessively bored by the seriousness with which men treat them, and they can seldom resist the boon which makes them laugh. Their sense of humor is crude. Diana of Ephesus is always prepared in life profusion to the winds for the red-nosed comedian who sits on his haunches from "The Framing of a Lark" by Somerset Maugham.

BOY SCOUT COUNCIL

Interests and Activities of the Organizing Citizens of Twin Falls

Troop 3... The "fla" and the "Blith of a Nation" combined brought the attention at the meeting of Troop 3 Wednesday night down to the lowest point reached for some time. The did attend spent a profitable time in discussing for the future; the nature and value of good turns and their application to scouting. Arrangements were made for an outdoor camp Saturday, at which time, some outside tests will be given and preliminary tests and practice for others supervised. Several of the boys have their second-class work in shape, with the exception of some of the scoutcraft and woodcraft tests, which must be made in the open.

Troop 4... Troop 4 was called to order at 7:30 by Joe Deias, scout patrol leader. It was voted to help a poor family who were in need of food and clothing, and a committee was appointed to collect and deliver the goods Friday evening.

Education in Toys... Building blocks have helped many a boy find his chosen vocation. A set of building blocks is claimed to have been the inspiration of one of our greatest engineers and inventors, the late Thomas Edison. CHAPTER XI (Continued) Suddenly a light of suspicion flashed into Ferens' face. "You're with us, aren't you? You see the wrongs we've suffered, and how bad it all is! You haven't been on a voyage with us. You've only tasted the life in harbor. Good God, this life is heaven to what we have at sea! We wouldn't mind the fighting. We'd rather fight than eat. It's an evil grin comes over his face for a minute. "Yes, we'd rather fight than eat, for the stuff we get to eat is hell's broll, God knows! Did you ever think what the life of the sailor is, that swings at the top of a mast with the foot fresh in his eye? That's because he's starved, and the cold, gets twenty lashes for not being quicker? Well, I've seen that, and a bad night it is. Did you ever see a man flogged? It ain't a pretty sight. First the back takes the clench of the whip like a 4-0 washboard, and you see the ridge rise and go purple and red, and the man has his breath knocked clean out of him with every blow. Nearly every stroke takes off the skin and draws the blood, and a dozen will make the back a ditch of mud. Then the whiplapper stops, looks at the lashed, feels them tender like, and out and down it comes again. When all the back is ridged and seared, the man looks black and beautiful, becomes a bloody mass. Some men get a hundred lashes, and that's torture and death.

"Mind you, there's many a man gets fifty lashes that don't deserve them. That's because he's slow, stupid and beautiful, becomes a bloody mass. Some men get a hundred lashes, and that's torture and death.

"The man's face had taken on an almost ghastly ferocity, until it looked like a distorted cartoon—indivisible, fanatical; but Dyck, on the edge of the river of tragedy, was not ready to lose himself in the stream of it. As he looked round the ship he felt a sort of excitement, like nothing he had ever known, though he had been brought up in a country where men were by nature revolutionists, and where the sword was as often outside as inside the scabbard. There was something terrible in a shipboard agitation.

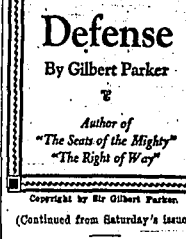

CHAPTER XI (Continued) A fortnight later the mutiny at the Nora shook and bewildered the British fleet. The day after Richard Parker visited the Arlaine the fleet had been put under the control of the seaman's delegates, who were men of standing in the ships, and of personal popularity. Their first act was to declare that the fleet should not leave port until the men's demands were satisfied. The government had armed the forts at Sheerness, had sent troops and guns to Gravesend and Tilbury, and had declared war upon the rebellion. At the head of the Delegates, Richard Parker, with an officer's knowledge, became a kind of boy admiral, who, in interview with the real admirals and the representatives of the admiralty, had talked like one who, having power, meant to use it ruthlessly. The government had yielded to the Spithhead mutineers, giving pardon to all except the ringleaders, and granting demands for increased wages and better food, with a promise to consider the question of prize-money; but the Nora mutineers refused to accept that agreement, and enlarged the Spithhead demands. The Delegates demanded a detachment of the fleet, Richard Parker declaring that no accommodation could occur without the appearance of the lords of the admiralty at the Nora. Then followed threatening arrangements, and the Delegates decided to blockade the Thames and the Medway. It was at this time that Dyck Calhoun—was, by consent of Richard Parker, had taken control of the Arlaine—look action which was to alter the course of his own life and that of many others.

CHAPTER XI (Continued) "How many ships in the fleet are sworn to this agitation?" Dyck asked presently. "Every one. It's been like a spread of infection. It's entered at every door, looked out of every window, and it's in the hearts of the crew, the officers, the deck-boys, the firemen, the stokers, the messengers. Besides, there are the Delegates."

"He lowered his voice as he used these last words," Dyck answered, though he did not really know. "But who is at the head?" "Why, as bold a man as you see—Richard Parker, an Irishman. He was once a junior naval officer, and left the navy and went into business; now he is a quota man, and leads the mutiny. Let me tell you that unless there's a good round answer to what we demand, the Nora fleet'll have it out with the government. It's a man of character."

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE HAPPY WEEDS... "We are so happy," said some little weeds which were growing in a big flower pot. "I'm glad you are," said Fairy Yab. "You know I've met such happy creatures and things today! I had a talk with some elephants playing polo, and a circus elephant was as good as over a creature could be."

"A Talk"... "And now I meet you and you're all so happy." The Fairy Yab was perched upon the side of the flower pot. In the flower pot was a big, bright geranium flower, and growing in the earth, too, were quite a few little weeds.

"What has happened to make you so happy, Weeds?" asked Fairy Yab. "You see," the Weeds continued after a moment, "we aren't always wanted. As a family we're not so very popular, we're usually dug up and thrown away, and, after all, we suppose that is all right. "For we, as a family, are rather mean the way we crowd the flowers out of the way, and if they don't want harm done to our little, we dig up the way before we can do much harm."

"We can't really blame people for digging us up, for as a family we can push our way about and aren't in the least polite about waiting for invitations or anything like that. "But when the person who owns this flower and the flower pot saw us coming up out of the earth, she said: "Oh, I am glad to see those cunning little weeds growing up."

"You can imagine how pleased we were. We all were just as happy and pleased as could be. We weren't going to do the flower any harm because we were usually dug up and weeds and weren't going to grow up into big weeds, but we thought we'd be dug up in any case. "But—no, we were actually weeded. Just fancy, Fairy Yab, how nice it was to be weeded by a family. For some time to come now the family with pride will tell this story. "Yes, the Weed family will tell how some of its members were wanted and how they were treated."

"So they're going to stay alongside this plant, and we are going to be a part of the decoration in the flower pot. "That's the enough to make us proud. "Fairy Yab," he said to me, "just think of the great honor which has been shown to me. I have had a chance to be a part of the decoration in the flower pot."

"In fact, Fairy Yab," the elephant said, as he waved his hand at me and moved his big body from side to side as though he were singing and keeping time at the same moment, "I have had a double honor shown to me. It's my honor, because she rode me twice! "So you see, Weeds, what happy creatures I have seen today. For the other elephants were all happy, too. They had some nice tricks and had learned a new one, and they had seen a lady ride upon me twice. "I was excellent in a call and were feeling much pleased. "And now, even the little Weeds, and Fairy Yab, were all happy. "I don't wonder." "I'm glad to hear that. You might tell the other families about it, too, will you, Fairy Yab?" "Good, good," said the Weeds. "We are so very much pleased."

Wondering unavailably, Philip was on his feet. "Tell me," he demanded, "where does this worth get into?"

And the clerk told him. Philip had difficulty finding his way there, the house was so small and unobtrusive; for lack of paint, so hidden by twisted old trees from the roadway. But Fay Winters was with her chosen friend.

The friend sat—a neatly shabby little creature—in an inexpensive gayer covered chair. The cheery light from an open stove shone on the two girls' faces. What had been the topic of their conversation, Philip Laidlaw could not know; but it was evident that neither ungenerous criticism nor unkindly surmise had left that soft glow of sympathy in the young woman's eyes or touched their lips with bitterness.

"I want you to meet my friend, May Worth," Fay said proudly. To him, alone, she added, "and she is a good friend—one of the best people."

As Philip Laidlaw clasped the hand of the girl who was his eyes met hers, true understanding came to him. And disappointment vanished forever.

Ugly Men the Best Wives? Ugly men make the most successful wives because, forced to be affix to overcome the natural beauty of the male of our kind, they are able to do so in a manner that leaves the beautiful man leathery behind. Dr. Bernard Hollander, London psychologist, said in a recent lecture. Women naturally distrust the pretty man, he argued, and this there can be no harm in the ugly one. Man Not Unlike Lower Animals. Darwin says the monkey is a habit that "must have been acquired since man branched off from the common progenitor of the genus homo and of the unevolving anthropomorphous ape." This assertion causes us to regret that we have not a more definite difference between us and the lower animals, until we read on and find an account by the same author of an Indian elephant, which, when kept captive, bobbed brightly white tears rolled down his face—Chicago Daily News

Do Not Reach for the Moon. Psychological science apparently has exploded the good old notion that "babes will reach for the moon." Dr. John H. Watson states in the Scientific Monthly that when actually put to the test they will watch contentedly anything they see moving, no matter what its distance, but that they will not reach for it until it is within 20 inches of them.

What is useless to you may be valuable to others—advertise it in the classified columns.
