CHICAGO BUSINESS BLOCK IS SWEEP BY $15,000,000 FIRE IN EARLY MORNING

Huge Burlington Building is Guttled When Melting Heat of Conflagration Sears Its Walls to Crisp.

BANK VAULTS SEALED BY RAVAGE OF FLAMES

$6,000,000 in Cash and Securities Thought to be Safe from Harm; One Man Dead, Many Hurt

CHICAGO, (AP) — A spectacular early morning fire today destroyed a full square of business buildings just outside Chicago's "loop" district, with a loss estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

One fireman was killed, another seriously injured, ten or more slightly hurt and an unknown number of the hundred thousand spectators who thronged the burning district slightly hurt by falling bricks, burning timbers or sparks.

TRAFFIC IS STOPPED ON TRACTION LINES

Traversing the main burned area, the Metropolitan west side elevated line today was seriously handicapped in delivering its thousands of patrons to the downtown district as was the Aurora and Elgin electric interurban line, which also used the four-track structure which was caught in the midst of the fire.

The huge Burlington building, called a fire-proof structure, had the fire from spreading westward. Progress of the flames to the south was arrested by the facilities the firemen were able to muster by climbing to the tops of the smaller buildings there—two to six stories high—and then increasing the range of their water streams.

A vacant lot, the site of the proposed new Union station, kept the fire from spreading northward.

The Chicago river runs a block east of the burned district but would have afforded but little protection had the wind veered the sweep of the flames toward the retail business section to the east.

FIRE INVADERS BANK BUILDING

Heat from the burning buildings across the street cracked out the windows of the Mercantile Trust bank savings bank, where the Burlington building itself was after. A heavy police guard was thrown away quickly when the building caught fire. Cash and securities valued at approximately $6,000,000 are said to be in the bank's vaults and it may be several days before they can be examined.

The Burlington building caught fire at about the eighth story and burned up and down. No stream of water was powerful enough to fight the fire in the upper stories.

The flames, leaping high and putted by the gusts of wind, were visible for more than 20 miles.

TUNNEL IS FILLED WITH WATER

The Van Buren street tunnel of the Chicago subway lines under the Chicago river, debarred just at the burned area and for hours a stream of water poured into the tunnel until it was filled to street level.

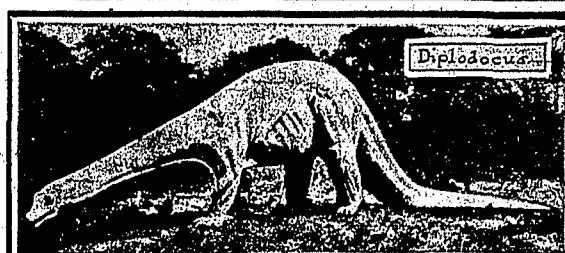

The Union depot mall terminal was not reached by the flames, but postal employees hurriedly removed all mail when it appeared that the fire district could not be restricted.

The Mercantile Trust and Savings bank later announced that the cash and securities in its vaults was amply protected by heavy steel, cement and asbestos walls, and that it was quite safe. Arrangements were made to have another bank take care of its business until now quarters could be obtained.

The new Burlington building, which stood a heat so terrific that the fire escape on the side facing the flames across the street became red hot and bent of its own weight. The ornamental tile on the building crumbled in the heat and the hot blast, breaking through the windows, destroyed the interior decoration in many rooms and wiped out everything made of wood. It was estimated that more than 25,000,000 worth of property was destroyed.

EXPEDITION GOES ON HUNT FOR PRE-HISTORIC MONSTER

Diplodocus

Plesiosaurus

FOR THE FIRST TIME in modern history an expedition has gone out in an effort to capture the live descendant of a plesiosaurus, recently reported to have been seen near the Andes Mountains, in the Territory of Chubut. The expedition, financed by wealthy scientists of Argentina, is headed by Jose Obagi, superintendent of the Buenos Aires Zoological Gardens, and Emilio Frey, an Argentine engineer. The animal, last reported to have been seen by an Englishman, is said to be a cross between a diplodocus and a plesiosaurus, pictures of which are here shown. Professor Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires Zoological Gardens, does not believe that the strange animal reported to have been seen has lived continually since the Pleistocene era. He places credence, however, in the probability that a descendant of the prehistoric monster exists, retaining the fundamental characteristics of its predecessors.

Wild Boar Breaks Up Foot Ball

Goaded by Hunger He Charges Players and Bowls the Men Over—Is Then Killed by a Policeman

GENEVA, (AP) — Winter in the Swiss Alps has been so severe that scores of wild boars, wolves and other animals have been driven to the town and lowlands in search of food. The authorities are offering bounties for their death.

Recently several thousand persons at a football match at Besancon, near the western frontier, were thrown into a panic by the sudden appearance on the field of a huge tusked boar. Goaded by hunger, the animal charged the players and bowled several of them over. It then turned its attention to the football, apparently mistaking it for something edible.

The boar ran wildly about the field, mowing finally for the spectators who took to their heels. A gamekeeper rushed to the field and ended the animal's escapade with a revolver shot.

The boar, which weighed 350 pounds, was later served to the players and their guests at a banquet in the town hall, the referee meanwhile having declared the game a draw.

PRESIDENT IS ENJOYING GOLF

Eats Breakfast on Private Car in St. Augustine and Goes Direct to Links

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — The special train conveying the presidential party from Palm Beach arrived at 8:45 o'clock. President Harding breakfasted on his car and went immediately to the links for a round of golf. The train left Palm Beach at midnight, proceeded all the way by a pilot train, and precautions similar to those taken on the trip south from Washington were followed by the railroad.

President Harding and his party plan to make a final two days stay here before leaving Friday for the return trip to Washington. The president wound up his houseboat cruise at Palm Beach yesterday, putting in a day of golf and other recreation there before boarding the train for St. Augustine.

Invitations have been accepted by the President and Mrs. Harding to be the honor guests at a public reception to be given at the Ponce de Leon hotel here tonight, for which about 1,000 invitations have been sent out. It will be the first public function they have attended during the vacation period.

Mother Acts as Fence for Two Boy Thieves

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The police today announced Mrs. Alma Dupke had been assisting in the raising of $100 obtained by her son, James Brisley, 21 years old, in eight residential robberies. Another son, Walter Brisley, 19, also assisted in duping of the loot, the police said. The arrest of the three, resulting to the police, resulted in the recovery of $4,000 of stolen silverware.

Prohibition's Dragnet Yanks 100 in Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — More than 100 persons today faced charges of violating the national prohibition law as the result of a series of raids here yesterday and last night by federal agents under the leadership of Samuel F. Retter, recently appointed prohibition director for California. Wines and wines valued at $25,000 were seized.

ANDEAN BEAST IS GLYPTODON

Belief Expressed It is Survivor of Million Year Old Genus of Pleistocene Period

BUENOS AIRES, (AP) — It was not a plesiosaurus that was seen swimming in an Andean lake, recently, but probably a descendant either of the horn-plated glyptodon, or of the megatherium, in the opinion of Professor Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires zoo.

"Plesiosaurus is a pseudonym, the newspapers have given it which has stuck," he said, "but I believe it is a huge animal of the edentate family of which ancient remains, not fossil mark you, were found in Patagonia in 1897, and one of which was fired upon and hit by the explorer Ramon List in 1890, without hurting it."

He explained that while the plesiosaurus dated back ten million years, the edentates such as the glyptodon and megatherium belonged to the quaternary era, of only a million years ago. He said that from 1890 to the present time there has been 12 places in Patagonia between latitudes 25 and 32 at which mysterious creatures were reported to have been seen. These, he believes, constitute a few survivors of the genus which existed in the pleistocene period.

Professor Onelli said he had been obliged to postpone the start of the expedition for another week, as a total of 2000 pesos was needed, of which 3000 were yet lacking. While a motion picture camera had offered to film the entire expedition of the expedition in return for the exclusive right to film the capture of the animal, Professor Onelli preferred it to be financed by popular subscription.

PUBLIC BOOZE AUCTION IS HALTED BY POLICE

Liquor Seized from Car in which Auctioneer Cries Merits of Contraband Merchandise

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — Five men were in custody today as a result of an attempt to hold a public auction in Levanne avenue last night. More than 100 quarts of liquor were confiscated when the officers descended on the scene and scattered several scores of the bidders. Few provisions for secrecy had been made, the auctioneer standing on the footboard of an automobile in which the liquor was transported. Live fire was in progress when the police interrupted the sale, they reported.

DEATH OF LADY WHITE DUE TO BURGLAR'S BLOW

Anto-Mortem Statement Says Man Entered Her Room and Struck Her Over Head

LONDON, (AP) — Lady White, widow of Sir Edward White, late chairman of the London county council, during a moment of extraordinary grief made a brief statement before her death this morning. She asserted that a burglar had entered her room through a window and struck her. A woman occupant of a nearby room reported having heard a scream after Lady White fell Monday night and the assumption is that when she shouted for help the burglar struck her on the head.

The police reported nothing had been disturbed in the room. Lady White had given a bridge party in the hotel Monday evening, retiring about 11 o'clock. She was between 50 and 60 years old.

TO ISSUE GOLD CERTIFICATES

Precious Metal in Treasury to be Loosed in Trade Markets; First Since War

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) — Issue of gold certificates without demand, discontinued in 1917, was resumed today.

Gold certificates have always been available upon demand, but during the war silver certificates were issued on ordinary checks. Resumption of the ordinary use of gold certificates was said by treasury officials to remove the last artificial currency grouping out of the war and to return to the normal conditions.

REMEMBERS TWO MORE EX-WIVES

Moore Recalls Taking Brides in Denver and Ridgeway but Forgets Their Names

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Two more wives were added today to the list of matrimonial victims of J. Edgar Moore, who is under arrest here charged with bigamy and embezzlement.

"I have kept a pretty good record of my marriages and I am sure there are only 13," said Moore.

Moore told the police in the original list of 11 marriages he had neglected to include one at Denver, Colo., where he said he was married under the name of James Vaughan and also one at Ridgeway, Md., where he gave the name of Henry Forbes. He said he could not remember the names of either of the wives.

"I have always been subject to severe nervous disorders. Writing and affection have caused my nervousness. I would get tired of one woman and would desert her. Then I would feel the need of affection and would get married again," Moore said. Moore is said to have married all his 13 wives in 10 years. He lived with his first wife a year.

DIVORCED WOMAN SEEKS $45,000 LIVING EXPENSES

Needs $18,000 Per Year for Clothes and Other Sums in Same Proportion

NEW YORK, (AP) — Counsel for Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould, divorced wife of Frank J. Gould, today told Supreme Court Justice Newburger that his client needed $45,000 annually for living expenses. These were enumerated as follows:

- Clothes, underwear, shoes, etc., $18,000
- Operating automobile $4,000.
- Rent of apartment $6,000.
- Food $4,000.
- Entertainment $5,000.
- Doctor bills $2,000.
- Dentist $1,000.
- Dancing and music $4,000.

This statement was presented to the court by Attorney Gustav Rogers, who asked that Mrs. Gould be granted $100,000 for "her board and clothing, maintenance and other necessities" since her husband discontinued her allowance after a divorce obtained from her in France nearly four years ago. Decision was reserved.

BLOODSTAINED TOWEL TELLS CRIME STORY

Daughter Finds Father In Bed with His Throat Cut—Mother is Questioned by the Police Officers

DENVER, Colo., (AP) — The discovery of a blood-stained towel in the home of George Bohl, laborer of this city, by his daughter Kate, 16 years old, early today revealed one of the most mysterious attempted murders that has been brought to the attention of local police for several months.

DAUGHTER FINDS GUBERNESE EVIDENCE

The attempted murder was discovered when Kate, who had risen, preparatory to going to work, caught a towel on which lay her hand. Finding the blood-stained towel hanging on the rack she started an investigation that led to the discovery of her father's condition. Calling a neighbor, Jack Howbert, who called the police, the two started an investigation that revealed a bloody razor, folded up, lying on the bed between the father and mother.

RAZOR CASE IS UNDER PILLLOW

A further search revealed the case of the razor beneath the pillow of the mother.

"After Bohl had been removed to the hospital Mrs. Bohl, the daughter, Kate, and Howbert were taken to the police station to be held for questioning.

TEARS MOISTEN WOMAN'S CHEEKS

Mrs. Obenchain Cries as Counsel Seeks to Refute Theory of Woman Scorned

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP) — Another day of argument today was ahead of the court where the trial of Mrs. Madeline Obenchain for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Bolton Kennedy, is drawing to a close.

Mrs. Obenchain cried softly when Alfred P. Macdonald, her counsel, addressed the jury, declaring the state's theory that she was "a woman scorned" had been disproved.

"Where is your 'woman scorned' to be demanded. 'There is no 'woman scorned'. There was a man scorned, killed, rejected, thrown over. That was Bolton Kennedy. This is true, out of the mouth of the prosecution's own witnesses and by its own evidence.

"The state does not charge this woman actually fired the shots which killed Kennedy, but relies on the theory of conspiracy. It contends the motive was that of a woman crossed in unrequited love. It pictures Madeline Obenchain, Bolton.

"Read her letters—these sad relics of romance of which the prosecution have read and reread and flattered, and which forever will echo and re-echo in this woman's heart—and where is your 'woman scorned'?"

Promoting Wizard is Held by Grand Jury

HOUSTON, Texas, (AP) — Seymour E. Cox, noted wizard, for his oil and airplane ventures, was indicted by the federal grand jury today on 14 counts, charging use of the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of stock in three companies, whose capitalization aggregated $41,000,000.

TROOPS SWEEP REBELS OUT OF TROUBLE ZONE

British Forces Now in Complete Control of All Sectors in South Africa Except Central Rand Region

LONDON, (AP) — With all sectors of the disaffected area in South Africa cleared of rebels except certain portions of the Johannesburg, or central region of the rand, the struggle apparently has entered its final phase. Jappans, in the east end of Johannesburg, seems to be the principal remaining center of resistance.

ARTILLERY AND TANKS ARE USED

Artillery, tanks and airplanes were used in the capture of Fordburg from the revolutionists. They disregarded notices stopped from airplanes giving them until 11 o'clock in the morning to surrender, but capitulated after 75 minutes bombardment.

Another success was achieved in the east rand, where extensive proprietary mines were recovered and 158 revolutionists captured. Their leaders, how over, escaped.

INFANTRY IS CLEARING THE STREETS

JOHANNESBURG, (AP) — Advice from Fordburg, timed last yesterday, report that government infantry were then clearing the streets after the capture of the town from the rebels. Many prisoners had been taken and the remainder were retreating on the Langlaagte river.

Leaflets were dropped by airplanes warning the women and children to leave before the town was bombarded. There was an immediate response, a steady stream of refugees proceeding to a special camp outside the zone of bombardment.

WOMEN ARE FOUND SNIPING TROOPS

Although the houses in Fordburg had been deserted by the men, only women and children being found when the government forces entered, sniping at the government troops continued. One of the snipers, apparently a woman, was shot, but when the body was recovered it was found to be that of a man in woman's clothing. Women carrying white flags sheltered some of the rebels, according to the military reports, while groups of children surrounded other rebels to facilitate their escape.

Thousands of British forces took Dunswart on Sunday by a frontal attack with the bayonet, but the stretcher bearers were unable to remove the wounded owing to the continued firing from the houses, until reinforcements arrived in the afternoon, the reports state. Every house on the main street of Dunswart, captured last week, was found, fortified and barricaded had been placed in the streets. On Sunday night houses and shops were ransacked and saloons were looted.

FORM RIVAL TO KU KLUX KLAN

Knights of Visible Empire Will Work Without Masks in Daylight, Says Founder

HEALDTON, Okla., (AP) — An anti-Ku Klux Klan organization, known as the Knights of the Visible Empire, has been formed here.

John Hydo, a local attorney and one of the organizers, announced in a statement today that the purpose of the society "is to protect against mob rule as exemplified by teachings of the Ku Klux Klan."

According to Hydo, the organization and its inception at a meeting Tuesday of 48 citizens of Healdton. Hydo said the monthly had jumped to 150 to-day and that 100 others were waiting to sign applications. He said the organization might be expanded throughout the state but that no definite plans had been decided upon.

"There is not one line in the constitution that cannot be approved by every citizen loving, law-abiding citizen," Mr. Hydo said. "No masks will be worn and there will be no secret meetings."

"We pledge allegiance to the law of the land and only ask that the laws be enforced by those empowered to enforce them. There will be no secrecy and any member will admit that he belongs to the organization. We will work hatched in the sunshine, not masked at midnight."

Historical Rock

Redemption rock is in the town of Princeton, Mass., near Mt. Washington. It derives its name from a treaty made on its surface with the tribe of Indians May 2, 1763, for the prison of Mrs. Mary Rowlandson, of Lancaster, a captive of the Indians. The treaty was made on behalf of the whites by John Hown of Concord. The rock has a large flat surface, on which about twenty persons can stand.—Boston Globe.

JAPAN GRIEVES FOR ACTION ON "IMMIGRATION"

Viscount Shibusawa Says Results of Washington Conference are "Tolerably Satisfactory", Hopes for Future

TOKIO, (AP) — The results of the recent Washington conference "are tolerably satisfactory from an international standpoint" but "its omission to take up the immigration question upon the fundamental solution of which depends the real attainment of American-Japanese understanding" is to be regretted, in the opinion of Viscount Shibusawa, Japan's "grand old man," who made these assertions in a recent speech before the Bankers club.

RESULTS ARE SUBJECT TO CRITICISM

"The results of the Washington conference," said the viscount, "seem subject to public criticism on several scores, but they must be received, in my humble opinion, as tolerably satisfactory from an international standpoint."

"The only regret over the conference is its omission to take up the immigration question, but the fact should not be ignored that the conference has contributed much to the reconciliation of American and Japan sentiments which once had been more or less mutually strained. All the efforts employed by Japanese business men for settlement of the immigration question at Washington proved of little avail."

FAIL TO REACH OBSCURE EVIL

"This appeals... with special acuteness as any of the existing American-Japanese agreements serve little purpose in the way of bringing that chronic issue to a satisfactory solution."

"However," Viscount Shibusawa concluded, "faith-comes mountains and I believe that constant endeavor by the two peoples finally will be crowned with success."

Climbs Flagpole to Save Little Kitten

CHICAGO, (AP) — Patrolman Robert Doyle last night climbed a slender 50-foot flagpole to rescue a homeless black kitten from a self imposed three-day fast.

The kitten sought refuge at the top of the pole last Sunday and was then afraid to leave the gilt ball at the top for the return journey. For three days it filled the air with hungry wails, until Doyle went to the rescue. Policemen at Englewood station adopted the kitten.

Does Your Budget Balance?

You read in the newspapers about the various European governments trying to make their budget balance. A government cannot long expend more money than it receives, any more than an individual can. It is important to balance the household budget, and included in this budget should be a proper provision for saving.

The finances of the family must be placed on a business basis if proper provision is to be made for the time when earning power diminishes. Nine times out of ten the women are the money-sewers of the family. They have the real knack of saving. They know, too, how to make one dollar do the work of two in buying.

This bank welcomes the savings accounts of thrifty women and will be glad to assist them in business matters. One dollar or more opens an interest-bearing account.

GRIMES SIGNS WITH DODGERS

Holdout Player Lines Up on the Same Day Whittied is Acquired

CHICAGO, Ill., (AP) — Brooklyn stole a march on other National league baseball teams at its training camp and over-night made the announcement of double contracts to talent. Beulah Grimes, the Dodger pitching ace, who had stoutly been given up, has signed a two-year contract and George Whittied, formerly of Pittsburgh, has been added to the team. Brooklyn refused to waive Whittied out of the league and thus acquired one of the most versatile players in the game.

Meanwhile comes news from the Yankee camp that Bobby Roth has been eased off the lot indefinitely for an infraction of the rules and that George Herman Ruth has been promoted from mere home run king to field marshal and will get plenty of extra change to manage with the umpires during the season.

The Giants, badly unimpaired, but fit after beating the Camp Travis soldiers at Marathon yesterday, went to Seguin, Texas, today to play the Chicago White Sox.

The White Sox players had only a light workout yesterday, according to what was heard back to the local fans. The Chicago Cubs, who have been working from dawn to dusk were put through another hard drill yesterday at their Catalina Island, Cal., training camp. Manager William Killifer, reports said here, is contemplating a switch in his infield which would send Johnny Kelleher from third to the keystone sack, while Zeb Terry, who has been working around second base will be assigned to the hot corner where he has shown to advantage.

MATTISON PLAYS OPENER

Three Cushion Tournament This Evening Expected to Test Nerve of Local Men

The second series of the "inter-city three cushion billiard tournament" between Rupert and Twin Falls will be played this evening at Rupert, with Mattison of Twin Falls, and Ansell of Rupert starting out in the first game. Mattison has been going at a good clip all week, and it is to be hoped that he will win his game this evening, although "Bill" Ansell is a pretty tough proposition.

The second game will be between Eppler and Edmunds. Ep has not been up to his old time form, but with a little more time will give Edmunds a real game. Edmunds lost to Goldwater last week, but was playing on a strange table.

The final game of the evening will be played by Turner and Goldwater. Turner defeated Mattison last Wednesday with a 50 to 46 score, winning the only game for the Rupert trio. Goldwater has been shooting good billiards the last few days, and should give a good account of himself this evening.

AGE IS NO BAR TO HADJI PLAN

Seeks to Rebuild Dissipated Fortunes Though Over 101 Years Old

BAKU, Azerbaijan, (AP) — At the age of 101 years, Hadji Tagiev, Baku's former oil king, who was ruined by soviet nationalization of his property, has started to rebuild his fortunes where he began—as a stone mason.

Hadji Tagiev is an optimist. "A man isn't old so long as he can work," he declared and, like a true Musselman, he continues to dye his white beard brown.

He is using his spare moments in learning to write. For more than 80 years, he had signed his name to business papers by making his mark with a blunt stick dipped in ink. "One must keep up with the times," he explained to curious friends when the centenarian began to take lessons. Tagiev is known to Americans through his recitation in the Baku two and a half years ago of the General James H. Harbord mission. He was and is known throughout Russia and the middle east as an example of a poor man who became immensely wealthy, first as a house builder and then, 60 years ago, through the purchase of a piece of oil land that yielded abundant returns. This was in the days when oil was gathered close to the surface and taken from wells in buckets.

WOULD RECLAIM 6,000,000 ACRES

Waters of Colorado Will Be Drawn Upon for Irrigation and Power

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP) — The Colorado river, development of which is the subject of a series of meetings of the Colorado river commission, the first of which will open here today, is one of the world's great rivers being 1700 miles long. It extends, in its system, through seven states of this country, from the permanent snowfields of the Rockies in Wyoming and Colorado, to the subtropical lands of the Imperial valley, California, and through Mexico into the Gulf of Mexico, California.

Complete development of the river basin, it has been estimated by government engineers, will place under irrigation nearly six million acres of land, two million of which are now irrigated. Less than 100,000 horsepower is now developed from the river while its hydroelectric potentialities have been figured in excess of six million horsepower.

WOULD FIERCE MANY GOOD USES.

Flood control, reclamation, irrigation and power are the four important results of development work on the Colorado, and while the latter three will add billions to the wealth of the southwest, the government agencies and the states interested have agreed that the first, flood control, is the vital need for consideration. All are co-related, for the first move for all is the construction of a dam.

Millions of dollars of property values in California and Arizona are periodically menaced by Colorado river floods, and President Harding last year provided for a hearing by Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall at San Diego on plans by Imperial valley residents for quick action by the government on Colorado river flood control work.

BIG PROBLEMS NOT YET SOLVED.

Engineering problems of the Colorado are not solved, according to E. C. Larson, hydraulic engineer of the United States geological survey and accredited to be one of the best informed on the Colorado question. The Colorado river with its drainage basin comprises 244,000 miles, affecting the state of Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, California, New Mexico and two still new of the Republic of Mexico. Its main tributaries are the Greas in Wyoming, the Grand in Colorado, the San Juan, Little Colorado, Virgin and Gila. Due to the fact that for 700 miles the Green and Colorado rivers in the upper basin flow through canyons where irrigation development is not possible, most of the irrigation projects must be undertaken in the lower Colorado. Complications in plans for develop ment of the Colorado result from conflicting claims of state rights to the water, as well as the international status, since any development work would have certain effects on Mexico. The Colorado river commission was created primarily to smooth out these difficulties. READ THE CLASSIFIED ADS.

FILER ENDORSES DISTRICT PLAN

Vote is Ten to One for Scheme for Building the American Falls Reservoir

Twin Falls Canal company stockholders, at a meeting Tuesday afternoon at Filer, voted on a basis of stock represented, voted 55 to 4 in favor of inclusion of lands under the Twin Falls canal system in the proposed Snake River irrigation district for the purpose of building the American Falls reservoir. On the basis of vote by individuals the ballot showed 44 in favor of the plan and six against it.

Tabulation of the vote at Filer, taken in connection with votes at similar meetings previously held at Buhl and at Castleford, shows sentiments as expressed in the ballots, in the territory west of Twin Falls, as 10 to 1 in favor of the district plan.

The Filer meeting was the third of a series in a campaign in progress in this county this week, which will be concluded Saturday with a meeting at Twin Falls. The fourth meeting of the series was to be held today at Kimberly.

Speakers at the Filer meeting were F. A. Banks, reclamation service engineer, and Senator L. L. Evans of American Falls. H. J. Weaver presided. The meeting called for expressions from Ivan G. Lincoln, W. E. Alworth and C. W. Colner, directors of the canal company, who were in attendance.

WOULD HAVE CANCELED VOTE

In explanation of the vote, Mr. Banks said today that two of the individuals who voted in opposition to the district plan explained that they had done so because they preferred to pay cash for water from the American Falls reservoir for which the canal company has contracted. It was pointed out that the same purpose could be served by their purchase of bonds issued by the district for the purpose of financing construction of the reservoir. Both then indicated that had the district been in the situation in which they would have voted in favor of the plan.

TODAY'S MARKETS

WHEAT BREAKS FROM ITS HIGH LEVEL OF PRICES

Setback Comes on Opening in Symptom with Reaction in Liverpool—British Millers Do-Bull

CHICAGO, (AP)—Sharp breaks in the price of wheat at Liverpool today led to a moderate setback in Chicago quotations during the early trading. Buying here on the decline assumed large proportions, however, and a fair rally ensued. It was said the weakness of the Liverpool market was due to big arrivals there and to efforts of British millers to resell purchases of wheat. The opening in Chicago, which ranged from 5-8 to 2 1/2 lower, with May 5 1/2 to 1 1/2 and July 5 1/2 to 1 1/4 to 1 1/4, was followed by a slight further decline and then by something of a recovery.

Subsequently, demand gave out for a while, and prices fell lower than before conflicting reports about Liverpool prices led to fresh rallies here in the late dealings. The close was unsettled 3-4 to 1 3/4 net lower with May 5 1/2 to 1 1/4 and July 5 1/2 to 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 3/8.

Corn and oats went downward in price with wheat. After opening 1 1/2 to 7/8 off, May 6 1/2 to 6 1/8, the corn market dropped to below 60c for May, numerous holders letting go to stop losses.

Receipts were small, but export call was slow. The market finished weak at 1 1/4 to 1 3/4 net decline with May 5 1/2 to 5 5/8.

Oats started unchanged to 1-4 to 3-8c lower, May 37 7/8 to 38 1-8c, and then suffered a general sag.

Provisions were depressed by lower quotations on hogs as well as on grain.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Speculative issues again featured the constructive side of the stock market today on very extensive dealings but representative institutions and individuals were subjected to severe pressure. Sales approximated 1,200,000 shares.

High grade rails, particularly Great Northern and Northern Pacific, broke sharply later. Oils, motors, equipments and steels also were 1 to 3 points up for foreign prices. The closing was heavy.

The increased firmness of foreign exchanges prompted further covering of short contracts at the opening of today's stock market. Railway shares, the stabilizing feature of the previous day, were again the strongest issues, although gains were limited to fractions. Oils showed firmness, but were irregular. Norfolk and Western's decline of a half point was only reflection of the impending coal strike.

Among specialties, Kelco-Wheel was most prominent, rising 2 1/4 points on the company's excellent annual report.

Liberty Bonds

DEMANDS OVERTHROW OF "PULPIT PUSSYFOOTING"

Gotham Preacher Defends Sensationalism in Pulpit as Duty to Cause

NEW YORK, (AP)—In a letter addressed to "Discriminating New Yorkers," Rev. John Rosch Straton pastor of Central Baptist church, today pleaded for the overthrow of "pulpit pussyfooting" and the adoption of more "sensational preaching." It was from Dr. Straton's pulpit that William A. Brady, the theatrical producer, recently defended the morals of the stage and moving picture studio in an open debate with the pastor. The Rev. Dr. Straton's pastor emeritus, recently withdrew from the congregation after criticizing his successor for sensationalism.

"There is no use in trying to heal the cancer of sin with soothing syrup," Dr. Straton declared in his open letter, and it is to his credit that he followed upon the pulpit infiquities of a rebellious race.

The clergyman declared that if it were a crime for a preacher to be a sensationalist like Alvin Karpis, Daniel Peter, Paul and even the divines of God himself, "would have been convicted as criminals in their day."

PINKY CAUSES PASTOR TO SLEEP A WHOLE WEEK

Poison Contracted in China is Aggravated by Influenza; Strange Result

DALLAS, Texas, (AP)—Chinese pink eye poison, partly removed at Shanghai, but persisting in his system to some extent, together with an attack of influenza, sent the Rev. H. W. Burwell, Dallas Presbyterian evangelist, into a six days stupor, but today he was awake and apparently normal. Last Tuesday he went directly to his room after conducting revival services at Lubbock, Texas, and fell into a slumber. When aroused for dinner he went to the table and there entered into a strange sleep which hung over him until yesterday.

One year ago the evangelist and his wife returned from the Orient where he contracted Chinese pink eye.

"He is unaware that he has been sleeping almost continuously for a whole week," Mrs. Burwell said.

EXPECT BIG SHRINKAGE IN TAX RETURNS TODAY

Decrease to Approach Three Million Mark as Compared with Previous Period

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Treasury officials expected today that the receipts of income and profits taxes due today to show a decrease of more than $300,000,000 from the collections made during March of last year.

While the shrinkage in business profits during the calendar year 1921, Secretary Mellon said today, makes the figure somewhat uncertain, official estimate is that the first installment of taxes for the year will amount to $460,000,000 as compared with $727,000,000 in 1920.

COURT UPHOLDS MEAT ORDINANCE

Judge Lee Decides Questions Raised by Butchers in Favor of the City

Twin Falls' meat inspection ordinance is upheld and the position of the city in the action brought by C. A. Smith, judge of the Independent Meat company and other persons operating meat markets here is sustained in its entirety by a decision just handed down by Judge T. Bailey Lee in district court at Burley.

The decision in the case is to dissolve a restraining order heretofore issued restraining the city from enforcement of the meat inspection ordinance. Copies of the decision have been received by Taylor Cummins, city attorney, and J. K. Hickman, attorney for the plaintiffs, the others who brought the suit in question.

The decision is full as follows: Gives Purpose of Ordinance—This is an action wherein the plaintiffs seek to enjoy the right of free trade in the sale of meat in Twin Falls, requiring slaughter houses and the sale of meat products. The complaint has been attacked by both general and special demurrer. Plaintiffs contend that the ordinance is void in that it seeks without legal authority to extend jurisdiction beyond the city limits, and further, that it is unconstitutional and void for the reason that it favors one class as against another.

A careful study of this ordinance would seem to disclose a two-fold purpose: (a) To protect the city from nuisance, pestilence or disease arising from the unsanitary conduct and management of slaughter houses within the city and 5 miles beyond; and (b) To protect the city's consumers against the ill-timed sale of unwholesome and milkily meats.

Under Section 3948 and especially Section 3873, Stats., I am of the opinion that the legislature has through constitutional sanction, given municipalities the power to pass all reasonable health regulations, and has vested in them the right to enforce the same to the extent of 5 miles beyond corporate limits. The most serious contention is that of unconstitutionality. Sections 6 and 15 of this ordinance, at first glance, would seem to support the contention, but a close reading of the ordinance applies to all persons whosoever in the matter of inspection.

APPLICATION AS TO FARMERS—Farmers are exempted from the slaughter house regulation but other requirements are demanded in lieu thereof, and these are identical with the demands required of farmers by Section 1781, Comp. Stats. The state law refuses to classify the farmer as a dealer or vendor of meats, but does not relieve him from inspection regulation, and, in this ordinance, every person who brings meat into Twin Falls, for sale, must have it inspected, and pay an inspection fee.

And this fee is the same for everyone except the farmer who by law enjoys a particular exemption from the inspection fee imposed on a part of slaughter house regulation. The general demurrer will be sustained. The special demurrer will similarly be sustained. The motion to strike denied, the temporary restraining order dissolved, and the injunction denied, pending the decision. Counsel for defendant will prepare the necessary order.

CONTINUE ATTEMPTS TO AMEND 4-POWER TREATY

New Amendment Offered in Senate is Slight Variation of That Rejected

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—For the third time the senate debated today an effort to amend the four-power treaty to permit participation of outside nations in international conferences over controversies arising in the Pacific.

An amendment for that purpose by Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, similar to that on the same subject rejected yesterday was defeated 50 to 28. The treaty opponents indicated, however, that they would bring the proposal forward again later in the form of a reservation in the hope that they might secure the support of a number of senators who object to all amendments as a matter of principle. The party alignment on the amendments was virtually the same as that which yesterday defeated similar amendments. Except for a temporary absence the same few republicans and democrats left the majority of their respective parties.

SISTINE CHAPEL TO APPEAR IN CONCERT

Precedent of Centuries is to be Broken in Interest of Poor in Devastated Regions

PARIS, (AP)—For the first time in centuries the choir of the Sistine chapel, which sings at the services in which the pope officiates in person, is to appear on the concert platform. The choir, the normal strength of which is 52 voices, has arrived here and will give a series of concerts on behalf of the devastated regions where it is hoped to collect over 1,000,000 francs.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everyone uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, making one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—adv.

AUTOS DISAPPEAR IN HOURS OF THE EVENING

Two-Thirds of Stolen Cars Are Taken Between 7:30 and Midnight

CHICAGO, Ill., (AP)—Two-thirds of the automobiles stolen here are taken between 7:30 and midnight, and by the greatest number at 10 o'clock while their owners are at theaters and other places of amusement, according to the committee on motor car thefts of the Chicago Crime commission. Three hundred twenty-three persons were tried here in connection with car thefts between January 1 and August 15, 1921.

Other observations of the committee follow: A thief has been known to walk into a large public garage at night and open the watchman and other employees with a gun while he drove away with the car of his choice. The thief usually prefers to hold up a man about to put his automobile in a garage rather than to break into a garage after the car is locked up.

By far the greater number of stolen automobiles were taken not because of the intrinsic value, but to be used in various forms of law-breaking.

THE CIVET-CATS

"It's all very fine to be a Malayan Civet-Cat but to be a common Civet-Cat is better," said the Civet-Cat.

"One would expect such a speech from you, wouldn't one?" asked the Malayan Civet-Cat.

"One might. I do not know," said the Civet-Cat.

"Of course," he added, "you are like me and your family is like my family and your families are like each other and all the rest of it but still I am glad I am not you.

"You are glad you aren't too," said the Malayan Civet-Cat. "For if you were, you would always be sorry you were and that would be most mixing and upsetting.

"Of course you can't help but admit that I have large spots and that they are actually larger than yours."

"I have a stronger looking body and I am stronger too."

"You aren't as fine as I am," said the Civet-Cat. "I am not too strong for that would make me a little toughened but not so red as I am now."

"I have large spots and my whole body is beautifully marked. I have a fine ring-streaked tail too."

"I belong to the wildcat family and at the same time I look a little like a skunk."

"All creatures wouldn't consider that an honor but I do, for I consider the skunk a very handsome creature."

"And I have an odor which is something like the skunk's. Most creatures wouldn't like that but I do, oh yes, do. If I didn't I would change my perfume but I do like it. All Civet-Cats do."

"Yes," said Mrs. Civet-Cat. "We all do. If we didn't care for the family perfume we wouldn't have clung to great cat family and civet cats are becoming more and more known.

"Handsome ladies are wearing us as coats and fur-trimmed muffs and as decorations on their hats."

"They say that when our fur becomes damp or when they wear us out in the wet weather we're especially generous with our family perfume but they're not in the least appreciative. They are very lacking in thankfulness."

"Still, they do us the honor to wear us as a family and treat us as they would fox or seal or something noble and fine and beautiful like that."

"And if we give them of our perfume we give it without extra charge so even if they don't appreciate it they ought to be glad we don't charge them for it."

"I suppose," said Mr. Civet-Cat, "you talk about the honor of being worn as a fur for you know that you are safe here in the zoo."

And Mrs. Civet-Cat made a meowing sound to show that she agreed.

"I am a Spotted Lynx," said the animal in the next cage in the zoo. "I am beautiful and my spots make me look so dressed up."

"Ah, but you haven't any real family perfume such as we have," Mrs. Civet-Cat remarked.

"Yes, but so different from you," Mrs. Civet-Cat answered.

"There are many different creatures in the zoo," she continued, "who have fine sounding names, and who live here in this house, such as the Black Parrot and the African Ichneumon, a very black animal from the Malay peninsula called the Bear-Cat, or, as he prefers to be called, the Binturong. There is the Sulfuric or Stender-Tailed Meerkat of South Africa, too."

MARSHAL FORCES FOR CITY'S RULE BY COMMISSION

Advocates of Twin Falls Administration Under Black Law Select Executive Committee for Campaign

Advocates of the commission form of government, at a meeting of about 100 persons including several women in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, selected an executive committee to conduct a campaign along with the forthcoming special city election, March 24.

E. F. Walton was the guiding spirit of the meeting. He made the principal address, suggested the selection of the executive committee, nominated four of its seven members, stipulating that Homer C. Mills should be chairman. He indicated that the plan of campaign contemplated use of a "masterly speech" and would require funds, and suggested the passing of the hat to collect dimes to meet expenses of the present meeting.

Members of the executive committee chosen were Homer C. Mills, William Reibjor, C. E. Hildreth, J. P. Larson, W. F. Porter, S. D. Davis, J. C. Walker, Walton's nominees were Mills, Porter, Schrieber and Walker.

J. A. Cron, H. H. Friedholm and Tom Conroy were nominated for membership on the committee but they declined.

The meeting was called to order by Kennedy Packard, who subsequently was elected chairman with H. S. Hogan as secretary. Packard outlined the purposes of the meeting, and was followed by Walton. S. D. Davis and J. A. Cron were the only other speakers, although the meeting was declared open for general discussion and there were calls for others to speak.

ABRAHAMSON CITY ADMINISTRATION

Walton developed suggestion for adoption of the manager plan for Twin Falls had originated among the former service men in the last city election, but, he said, it was a scheme of other persons or interests. "The paving company can dictate the form of government we shall have," he declared. Referring again to the paving, he asserted: "The paving situation is serious. The present administration has taken no steps to remedy it, although it has been asked to do so; but steps will be taken whether the administration takes them or not."

Walton charged extravagance, and gross violation of law in the waterworks department against the present administration. "The city manager plan would perpetuate the control of the present administration for four years more," he said. "The new would have no course except through orderly proceedings. If for no other reason than to get rid of the present administration," he declared "the people of Twin Falls should adopt the commission form of government."

S. D. Davis said that he had been a teacher of civil government for twenty years and that he was familiar with forms of government. In the light of this experience and knowledge he said, he was convinced that the commission form was the most democratic and the city manager plan the most autocratic. "The commission form," he said, "will take the control of affairs out of politics. The law under the commission form prohibits hauling of voters to the polls, so the voter is left to his own discretion and the politician is left out." He referred to conditions in Salt Lake where, he said, adoption of the commission form has "practically eliminated politics."

Walton then called attention to the purpose of the meeting and suggested the selection of an executive committee of seven members.

CEMEX WANTS NEW COUNCIL

Declining his nomination as a member of the committee, made by L. Hanson, J. A. Cron told the meeting that he did not know as he entirely understood the situation. "I am in a different position than I have been in times past," he said, "because I have no newspaper hanging on my coat tail."

here represented might be considered more radical than the present. "The other class," he said, "which is totally obscure, seems to think itself above the common people and has been attempting to cram its great wisdom down the throats of the common people with the result that we have had one of the worst administrations in our history. I believe representation for the common people in the city government, or at least of those who have financial sense. We need a different class of councilmen, or at least a council that will better represent all of the people."

Cron added that he considered his nomination an honor which he would be forced to decline because he had lately met with financial reverses and would have to give his attention to his interests outside the state.

H. H. Friedholm, in declining his nomination, said that he had been appointed as an election official and that he would undertake the job but for the votes of the common people are counted equally. "Subsequently as the proceedings drew to a close, he obtained the floor and explained "before the departure of the newspaper representatives, I want to make it plain that when I referred to the common people I meant that we are all common people and there are no aristocrats."

HAULING OF VOTES PROHIBITED IN DEBATE

Acting upon Walton's suggestion the chairman appointed S. I. McAuley and J. W. Honeck to pass the hat for dimes to meet expenses of the meeting. During this proceeding some one suggested that the committee just chosen should take into consideration plans for transporting voters to the polls. "It's not to be done; it's against the law," Chairman Packard ruled. "Others pointed out that this provision of the law would not apply before adoption of the commission form, but no action was taken on the question."

"Pursuant to Walton's suggestion members of the committee met in conference for a time after the adjournment of the public meeting.

DEATH SUMMONS MRS. O. B. FULLER

Former Twin Falls Resident Succumbs at Home in Detroit; Burial Here

Word of the death at Detroit Tuesday night of Mrs. O. B. Fuller was received here today a few hours in advance of the return of Stuart H. Taylor, who with Mrs. Taylor, a daughter of Mrs. Fuller, had been for about five weeks in Detroit where they were called by the illness of both Mr. and Mrs. Fuller. The body will be brought here for burial, according to advice received here.

Mrs. Fuller's death was attributed to Bright's disease. Considerable improvement had been noted in Mr. Fuller before his death.

Mrs. Fuller was elderly and well known in Twin Falls. She made her home here from 1905 until the spring of 1918 when, with her husband, she returned to Detroit, their former home and the home of David H. Fuller, a son, and Mrs. C. M. Hill, a daughter.

FOLLIES MAKE BIG HIT WITH OPENING BILL

Snappy Hits, Clever Dances and Pleasing Novelties Win Applause from Immense Audience at Orpheum Theatre

One of the best amateur shows ever produced in the state was that given at the Orpheum theatre last night by a group of some thirty or forty young men and women of Twin Falls in the interests and under the auspices of the Twilight League's hospital club.

The "Twilight Follies" as a performance contained perhaps a third more material than was actually needed for an evening's entertainment and yet it would be difficult to determine just exactly where the knife should be applied in the event that the program were to be shortened. From start to finish there were few wits and the applause of the huge audience at the merry antics, lunge songs and really clever acts and sketches constituted a tribute to the players which should prove to one and all that the performance was a success.

OPENS WITH MINSTREL SETTING

The performance opened with a representation of the old time minstrel show with a sufficient number of novelties and innovations to lead an air of modern staging. Howard E. Gable, under whose direction the performance was staged, served as interlocutor and the professional touch lent by his handling not only of his own part but of the entire show went far to add to the pleasures of the performance.

Every single feature of the performance was well planned and well carried out in a liberal spirit of applause. Frank Ellis, as a comedian, proved his right to be regarded as verging close upon the professional. Hugh Lewis as cabaret manager, played a difficult role with a degree of attention to detail and an avoidance of the weaknesses of overacting which reflects credit not only upon his own work but upon that of the stage director.

GLEEVER WORK WINS APPLAUSE

Jack Wright and Miss Helen Kiefer, who produced a ten minute skit which would compare favorably with many professional performances and later performed a fancy dance in the cabaret scene which was about as graceful a pleasing a feature as has ever been offered a Twin Falls audience. Donald McFarlane, a professional dancer, offered a solo number which was well received and, assisted by Miss Susanna Taylor, gave a jazz dance performance in pleasing style.

Arthur Bowkitt took for himself and occupied a prominent place in the hearts of the audience as a minstrel comedian of ability and experience. Some of his songs were among the hits of the evening while the work in similar vein of Emory Bendit, Dr. Van Cott, Jimmie Wheeling, Perry Bush, Oliver "Wool" Taylor, Tom Williamson and E. S. Pitts were of a high order of merit.

Walter Hyndale, in the minstrel glee played a character part and did it well. The success of his work was attested by the fact that an elaborate bouquet was passed up to him over the foot lights, following his song.

SONG NUMBERS ARE WELL RECEIVED

Willie Hance and Glen Noble sang solos which were heartily received. Misses Ogoretta and Verona Murray rendered two duet numbers and blended the southern melodies with splendid effect. Donald Flynn was the attraction of his audience from a start to solo work and was warmly applauded. A pianologue by Miss Mildred Taylor proved thoroughly entertaining and a character song by Mrs. Stahl and Miss Lee drew well earned applause.

The singing of the high school sextette was one of the happiest features of the performance.

All in all it would be difficult to select a better qualified company anywhere than that which appeared last night and it seems rather a pity that an organization which so obviously fills a long felt want in Twin Falls should be allowed to disintegrate at the conclusion of the two performances here.

To the committee in charge of the performance, consisting of Frank Kiefer, president of the Twilight League Association, and F. J. Bohman and E. F. Steifer should go a large share of the credit for the offering.

APIARIST ASSERTS RIGHT TO CASH UNDER CONTRACT

Claim for Money Involved in Deal for Purchase of Honey is Before Jury

Suit instituted as a test case by Wesley Foster of Boulder, Colo., against Peter Huys of Buhl, to recover money alleged to have been paid by Foster, through his brother-in-law, Charles H. Harper of Filer, as agent, on a contract for the purchase of honey in the fall of 1918, is on trial before a jury empaneled late Tuesday afternoon in district court here.

Similar action as against A. A. Warner is pending in the court and several others are said to have accepted Foster's money for their honey under similar circumstances.

The defendant Huys denies liability for returning the money which, he says, was received under provisions of a verbal agreement reached subsequent to the date of a written contract in evidence. He charges that Foster and his agent failed to fulfill their agreement to receive the honey and complete payment for it, and that the money already paid belongs rightfully to him.

M. J. Sweeley of Sweeley and Sweeley is conducting the case for the plaintiff Foster, while S. L. Hodgkin of Walters, Hodgkin and Jolley, appear for the defendant Huys.

APPLE GROWERS RAISE DISPUTE

Pennsylvania's Statement that Washington Production is at Peak is Refuted

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The apple industry in the state of Washington has reached its peak and the United States census of 1920 will place it below Pennsylvania, New York and Virginia, in the opinion of S. W. Fletcher, of the agricultural extension department, Pennsylvania state college. "The western industry, he declared, is more speculative than that of this section, and to that cause he attributes its loss in comparison with the more conservative eastern states."

YAKIMA INSPECTOR TAKES DIFFERENT VIEW

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—W. L. Close, district horticultural inspector for the Yakima valley, today took issue with S. W. Fletcher in his statement that the apple industry in Washington has reached its peak.

Close asserted that there are many apple orchards both in the Yakima and Wenatchee valleys which are not yet in full bearing and that the acreage in orchards is being increased slightly annually. He anticipated a more rapid increase as soon as additional lands are placed under water. He said lack of suitable lands is the hindrance to quicker growth at present.

"The western apple industry is not speculative," he said. "It is a thoroughly scientific industry in which great attention is paid to careful orcharding and marketing."

JURY DECLARES VALID NOTE THAT WAS ALTERED

Returns Verdict Awarding Judgment for $785.50 to John E. Glander Against G. Voelker

Claim of John E. Glander against G. Voelker, for recovery on a note for $500 executed in November, 1910, which Voelker signed as surety for R. E. Betzler who has since died, was sustained by a jury in district court here which Tuesday afternoon returned its verdict awarding judgment to Glander for $785.50.

Voelker pleaded in defense that the note had been altered by Betzler with the knowledge of Glander, so that instead of being payable to a bank at Buhl it was made payable to Glander in settlement for $1500 worth of seed which Voelker asserted, Betzler had received from Glander.

Both of the litigants are Buhl district residents.

J. W. Taylor, attorney for Voelker, indicated that appeal would be taken to the supreme court. Glander was represented by Walters, Hoag and Dalley.

The Family Savings—

How Are They Protected?

Too often the savings of the family are dissipated by neglect. Fire destroys or thieves come in and steal. Temptation comes in the form of desire. Cash is at hand, and the funds go.

The prudent family deposits the family savings in a good, safe bank, where they are available, where they may be readily had, and where, if permitted to remain, they labor and earn.

Money at interest works for the family. It lightens the loads as the years go by. It provides the way for the education of the growing children. It insures peace of mind. And it promises an easy old age.

Money behind the clock tempts the spender, tempts the thief and defies the flames. It earns nothing and it promises nothing. It works neither for you nor your children.
