MINERS CHARGE OPERATORS USE 'SMOKE SCREEN'

Official Union Statement Denounces Employers, Declaring Latter See Danger in Enforcement of Anti-Trust Law

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Bituminous coal operators who see danger to themselves from anti-trust law enforcement if they confer with the miners' union national to fix wages were declared to be setting up "simply a smoke screen" in a statement issued today by the United Mine Workers. The statement referred to an address by George H. Conking, managing director of the American Wholesale Coal Association, here yesterday in which the alleged dangers were discussed. "They know this is a frivolous excuse, but it is the only one they have left," the mine workers' statement said.

Allge Faith Break
"Only recently President Harding announced that Attorney General Daugherty had given him an official opinion that the operators and miners would not violate any law of the United States by meeting in joint conference for the purpose of negotiating a new wage agreement. Both President Harding and Secretary of Labor Davis have been unsparring in their denunciation of the operators for their assault on business morals by breaking their valid contract with the miners." The statement asserted that the operators in the central competitive field were absolutely bound by contract to enter a national conference with the miners. It also stated that the operators had refused to do so and added that "the plain, bald, open purpose is to bring the operators to the destruction of the miners' union."

Increases Oil Demand
An increased demand for gas and fuel oils may be anticipated in case of a coal strike, the bureau of mine said today, and in that connection issued a statement showing that the stock of these oils on hand February 1, was 1,310,481,250 gallons. Based on the daily average domestic consumption, it adds, there should be an equivalent stock of these fuels to last for 68 days. The production of these oils in January amounted to 85,110,877 gallons. Stocks of gasoline were increased in January by 110,000,000 gallons and on February 1 there was a reserve of 705,700,000 gallons, which is 130,000,000 gallons more than for the corresponding date a year ago. The record was established in May, 1921, with 800,000,000 gallons. These stocks are equivalent to a 50-day supply.

CANADIANS ASK SERVICES OF CONCILIATION BOARD
CALGARY, Alberta, (AP)—Owing to the fact that district No. 19, United Mine Workers of America, comprising Alberta and eastern British Columbia, has applied to the department of labor for the appointment of a conciliation board, it is not likely that the cessation of work order issued by union headquarters at Indianapolis will affect the local men.

Law Is Quoted
"The act provides there shall be no cessation of operations or change of wages or working conditions until the board's findings are announced," explained Robert Loret, international board member. The miners still are hopeful that there will be a resumption of negotiations, as the western Canada coal operators association will hold a special meeting Friday to discuss suggestion that negotiations be resumed or that operations be continued under the present agreement until the conciliation board's findings are announced.

Must Reform Methods

A number of reforms in German financial methods are stipulated. These must go into effect at fixed dates beginning May 31. New resources for reparation money must be found and the funds collected under the control of the allied committee on guarantees, which will pass upon their effectiveness and reliability. If they are found insufficient, the reparation commission will consider a number of other measures, including a domestic or foreign loan and eventually a levy upon capital in Germany.

One Requirement

It is stipulated that if reparation payments in kind to the value of 1,450,000 gold marks yearly are not fully delivered (the balance may be required) in each year.

If the German government fails to apply the reform upon which the partial moratorium is conditioned, the allies may refer to the terms of the annex to the treaty if Versailles authorizing them to take further pledges as a guarantee for reparation payments.

DIPLOMATS MAY PLAN ARMISTICE

Foreign Ministers Assemble in Paris to Discuss the Near Eastern Situation

PARIS, (AP)—The foreign ministers of the allied powers were in Paris today to confer on the Near Eastern situation. It was expected the first action would be drafting of a plan for an armistice between Greece and the Turks nationalists. This would be presented to the allies as a preliminary effort to forestall the expected spring offensive on the Anatolian front.

The foreign ministers are also to consider revision of the treaty of Sevres in favor of the Turks. All the allies are agreeable to a revision, but the French are represented as favoring rather more drastic changes than the others.

Representatives of both the Constantinople and Ankara (nationalist) governments in Turkey are coming here to emphasize their desires in this respect. M. Schanzer, Italian foreign minister and his advisors have been here since Monday night and the Marquis Curzon, British foreign secretary, left for this city yesterday with a number of experts.

Archaeologist Digs Up Roman Era Paintings

What Are Believed to be Authentic Pictures of Saints Paul and Peter Found

The belief in their authenticity is shared by the widely known archaeologist, Professor Zanetti. The hypogeum was found in excavations for the building of a large garage. It comprises a number of rooms and galleries, crypt, and a Christian church with marvelous frescoes of a very early date. The professor believed the portraits were painted from life.

ERIN'S ARMIES STILL SNIPING

Desultory Firing Marks Hostilities Between Factions in Northern Ireland

BELFAST, (AP)—Desultory firing continued all day yesterday from the free state side of the border, along the frontier of counties Tyrone and Monaghan, in western Ulster. The shooting was mostly from snipers located in houses inside the boundary line, according to reports from the border received here today.

Commissioners Make Call

The Ulster border commissioners visited last evening the locality where the sniping activities were in progress and heard the shooting going on during the visit to Ballagh bridge, which divides the two counties, while Captain Thompson and Head Constable Hall of the Galoon platoon, reconnoitering near the bridge, were targets for the snipers on the other side. Other officers were similarly engaged while proceeding toward Ballagh bridge and had to seek safety.

Specialist Moving

A force of Ulster specialists has been moved from Newcastle, County Fermanagh, to within a few hundred yards of Clones, in the free state, where there is a strong garrison of the Irish republican army. Five mobile platoons of specialists from Omagh, Dungannon, Cookstown, Strabane and Killybegs were concentrated last evening in the Tyrone hills from Fermanagh to the Sperrin mountains and searched the countryside. The Cookstown platoon found a number of rifles and made five arrests.

Farm Is Riddled

Two families in the danger zone moved their entire effects to a safer place in the Tyrone county interior in consequence of their farm being hit by bullets. When a farmer in the Galoon district moved out his house was immediately occupied by snipers.

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Four men were injured, two possibly fatally, as the result of a head-on collision between a Southbound street car and a northbound automobile truck laden with milk near Murray, ten miles south of Salt Lake City today. The two most seriously injured are Robert Dwyer of Riverdale, Utah, and George M. Hart of Buffalo, Utah.

The truck as it struck the street car burst into flames, the gasoline tank exploding. Several persons rushed to the scene and extinguished the flames by pouring milk upon them.

VERBOSE TIDE SET LOOSE ON PACIFIC PACT

Flood of Prepared Speeches Pours In Senate when Unlimited Foreign Period Ends Under Unanimous Consent

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—A flood of prepared speeches for and against the four-power Pacific treaty was loosed in the senate today as the period of unlimited debate came to an end under the unanimous consent agreement which will bring a final ratification vote Friday. The one hour limit on individual speeches was effective at 3 p. m. today and several senators who had prepared long addresses jostled one another in bidding for recognition in the slovenly hour crunch of a snared oratory.

La Follette Opposes

The four-power arrangement was assailed by Senator La Follette as a scheme of Great Britain and Japan to secure co-operation and protection of the United States "in their further scheme of exploitation and imperialism." He declared it was viewed by both British and Japanese statesmen as merely an extension of the Anglo-Japanese alliance which it abrogates, and that in actual practice it would result in binding the United States to support the policies of London and Tokio against such outside powers as China, Russia and Germany.

Questions Britain's Power

"I do not know," said Senator La Follette, "whether the British government would consent if this proposed treaty went into effect, that the dominions should each have a separate vote under the treaty as they have under the league of nations. "At all events we do know that the Anglo-Japanese policy of aggression and imperialism which made the British Empire the most powerful empire since allies in the past will cause them to stand as a unit on policy and against any power on the ocean which dares to insist that the rights of any weaker power shall be recognized. Whether they outvote us six to one or two to one is not material."

AMERICA MENAGED BY MALEVOLENT DISEASES

Country Is Warned to Guard Against Epidemics Through Immigration

BELLEVILLE, (AP)—United States, as well as central Europe, must be on guard against the introduction of cholera and typhus through immigration of Russian refugees, says a warning issued today by Dr. Arthur Hays Sulzberger, the German Red Cross. Hordes of these refugees are pouring into Germany over the Polish, Lothian and Esthonian borders and many are seeking passports to America, where they have relatives and friends who are financing them for the journey.

Already nearly 60,000 cases exist in Germany, traced to refugees and German immigrants from the Volga region have been infected. Seventy-five per cent of the recent arrivals in the concentration camps were diseased, according to Russian statistics.

Rumania is understood to be turning the refugees back into Russia, but Poland is seeking to exclude them and thus avert an outbreak of the plague here, which it is considered would be certain eventually to reach the western world.

Bribery Charge Brought Against Governor Robertson of Oklahoma

OKMULGEE, Okla. (AP)—Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma and Fred G. Dennis, former state banking commissioner, were named as recipients of a $25,000 bribe conditioned on their deposit of $150,000 of state funds in the Guaranty State bank of this city to permit the bank to continue operations while in insolvent condition, an indictment returned by the district court grand jury against John P. Cook, former president of the bank and John R. Robold, vice president. The bill was made public shortly after noon today after Cook and Robold had been arrested. The indictment charges that the money was paid to the governor and Dennis with "famous intent to influence the acts, decisions and judgment of them," after Dennis had declined an offer made by Cook of the bank's affairs on the same day and found the institution to be in an insolvent condition and that Robold was liable to the bank for money borrowed in the sum of $400,000.

IMMENSE STOCK OF SPODS HELD UNDER STORAGE

Department Says Nearly 91,000,000 Bushels of Potatoes in Warehouses and on Farms in Fifteen Leading States

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Stocks of potatoes in the hands of farmers and local dealers March 1 in the 15 leading potato states are estimated at 90,940,000 bushels by the department of agriculture. Of this quantity 73,490,000 bushels were held by farmers and 17,450,000 bushels by dealers. Of the holdings in the hands of producers 80,935,000 bushels are expected to move off the farm and 42,566,000 to be retained. As this is the first year that stocks of potatoes on March 1 have been estimated by the department, there is no basis for comparison with stocks in preceding years.

Movement Starts

The states covered are Maine, New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, Colorado, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. In 1921 these states produced about 70 per cent of all potatoes in the United States. The movement from farms to March 1 was 119,371,000 bushels or 80 per cent of the total surplus.

Crop Smaller Here—

In 1921 the group of states including Pennsylvania, Maryland, Indiana, West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Kentucky, which normally consume in addition to their own large production of potatoes the bulk of the surplus from the northern tier of commercial states, grew 35,000,000 bushels less than in 1920, when 100,739,000 bushels were produced. Three surplus producing states, Maine, North Dakota and Colorado, had unusually big crops last season, aggregating 21,070,000 bushels more than in 1920 when 37,811,000 bushels were produced. Up to February 15, those three states had shipped 42,076 cars as compared with 23,493 cars up to the corresponding date last year.

STRICKEN FARM AREAS TO GET FEDERAL HELP

Preparations Made for Distributing Cash to Farmers Under Seed Loan Act

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Distribution of the $1,500,000 provided in the seed loan act just signed by President Harding for relieving the acute distress of farmers in the crop failure areas of the northwest will begin immediately, the department of agriculture announced today.

Arrangements have been made for opening a branch office at Grand Forks, N. D., as was done in the case of previous government loans for the relief of farmers in that section. The relief is provided for farmers in the "crop failure areas" for the purchase of spring grain for seed, which includes wheat, oats, barley and flax. The area comprises North Dakota, northwest counties of South Dakota, Montana, several counties in Idaho and Washington.

Farmers desiring loans should make application to their county agent, to the director of extension work in their respective states, or directly to the seed loan office at Grand Forks.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN PROVIDING FOR THE FUTURE?

Even man with the ordinary instincts of common sense knows that he should provide, as far as is in his power, against possible emergencies in the future.

The very first of such precautions is the acquisition of a savings account.

The secret of successful saving is not the amount deposited, but it is the regularity with which deposits are made. Even a small amount such as a single dollar deposited regularly each week on any day will grow surprisingly.

This bank welcomes small accounts and invites you to make an initial deposit of one dollar or more.

Four per cent interest is paid on all savings accounts, subject to usual regulations.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKES ARE LEGAL, COURT SAYS

Right of Labor Unions to Call Out Members to Aid Others Upheld by Judge

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Right of a labor union to call out members who have no grievance with employers to benefit members already on strike was upheld by Superior Judge Everett Smith in dismissing a suit for $20,000 damages brought by the Pacific Typetting company against International Typographical union, local No. 205, and its officers.

The suit grew out of a strike in local job shops last May following refusal of employers to establish the 44-hour week. Printers employed by the Pacific Typetting company did not strike as a 42-hour week had already been established in that plant. A result of the strike was to throw a large volume of business to the company from the shutdown shops. To make the strike more effective the union called out the men employed by the company.

Judge Smith in his decision emphasized that the object of the local union was not to injure the Pacific Typetting company but to benefit its members.

Joseph Zettler Revives Anti-War Outcry to a Finish But Police Pull His Place

NEW YORK, (AP)—Joseph Zettler, 55, awaiting grand jury action on charges that he violated the Volstead law, today is unique, in the view of police and prohibition officials, as the one known Manhattanite to have resuscitated the pre-war free lunch counter.

Police officers who invaded his Washington street apartment yesterday claim to have found a familiar brass rail before a length of mahogany with a table standing to one side heavily laden with relics of free lunch days, including the indispensable and now neutral pretzel. Moreover, claimed the detectives, they were served with two drinks of whiskey at a total cost of 25 cents; on payment of which they were invited to participate of the free lunch.

COURT OVERRULES RAIL WORKERS' WAGE MOTION

CHICAGO, (AP)—Overruling of the employees' motion to throw out of court present wage reduction petitions of 205 railroads now before the United States railroad labor board was expected to follow the conclusion of the railroads' reply today to the employer's charges that proper conferences between the roads and their employees had not been held.

For nearly a week, E. M. Jewell, head of the shopmen's unions, has been leading a series of conferences on various points prior to submission of the wage disputes to the board. Mr. Jewell contended that those conferences were not real negotiations as contemplated by the transportation act as a preliminary to bringing any wage dispute to the labor board.

The carriers have had two days of rebuttal testimony in which they denied Jewell's charges.

The session adjourned until tomorrow with the roads' rebuttal uncompleted.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Chicago Wheat

CHICAGO, (AP)—Wheat averaged lower in price today during the early transactions, the bulk of business consisting of scattered selling on the part of holders. Bears contended that a considerable improvement in export demand would be necessary to bring about any decided rise in values. Favorable crop reports were also regarded as a factor against higher prices.

The opening which varied from 1.8c decline to 3.8c gain, with May 1134 1/2 to 1.24-3/4 and July 1117 3/4 to 1.18, was followed by a slight general upturn, and then, by setbacks to well below yesterday's finish.

Subsequently, offerings were absorbed by strong commission houses and by interests that generally act on foreign account. The result was higher prices in the last half of the day.

Indications of foreign buying of future deliveries led to higher prices in the wheat market today notwithstanding that values had a downward slant at first. The close was unaltered at 1 3/8 to 1 7/8c advance with May 1139 1/2 to 1.36 5/8 and July 1119 1/2 to 1.19 5/8.

Corn and oats showed rather stubborn resistance to selling pressure. Scarcity of receipts acted as a bulwark influence. After opening 1-4c off to a like advance, with May 60 to 60 1/4c, the corn market sought slight general gains.

Persistent buying on the part of the commission houses brought about a more pronounced advance in later trading. The close was firm 7/8 to 1 1/8c net higher with May 61 1/8 to 61 1/4c. Oats started at 1-5c off to 1-6c off, May 27 3/4 and later kept near to the initial range.

Provisions were easier in the last half of the day.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Almost without exception prices of leading issues showed a downward trend at the opening of the stock market today, owing to the cooler attitude of the strike order of the United Mine Workers. Anthracite and bituminous shares were lower by fractions to almost one point, and the entire railway division sagged. Oils, coppers and textiles also gave way markedly, but equipments, metals and chemicals were firm. Pressure against high grade industrial made little headway, United States Steel soon recovering its early loss of a fraction. Initial foreign exchange rates were mixed, sterling strengthening, the German mark continued to weaken.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Labor disturbances, as indicated by the impending coal strike and higher money tendencies, call loans rising to 5 1/2 per cent, contributed to the uncertain price changes in today's stock market. Rates approximated 90,000 shares.

Directors of the Northern Pacific railway company today declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent on the common stock. This represents a reduction from 7 to 5 per cent annually.

Shares of the railroad, which had been held by Bethlehem, but Mexican oils and several prominent rails reacted more severely. The closing was irregular.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

GROUSE AND BROWNIE

"I have snowdrops in the winter. That is why I do not fall down into the snow banks," said the Ruffed Grouse, in answer to the question Billie Brownie had asked of him.

"I haven't the same kind of snowdrops that every one has, but that doesn't mean that I don't know what you mean," said the Ruffed Grouse. "Of course not," said Billie Brownie. "Snowdrops are shoes for every one else by any manner of means."

"The kind of snowdrops that I like and wear," said the Ruffed Grouse, "are the kind you now see. I wear gulls on my feet in the winter time, which I don't wear at other times of the year."

"I do not sink down into the snow, I stay on top. That is important when a creature like me goes out in the winter time."

"To be sure, there are plenty of creatures who do not care about being sunk in the winter time."

"They would rather sleep than, but I cannot understand it."

"Why a creature would want to sleep his time away like that is beyond me. A Ruffed Grouse simply cannot understand it!"

"There are plenty who do like to sleep all winter. The Woodchuck is a lazy one. He likes to sleep. And what a sound sleeper he is."

"The toads and frogs and so many others like to sleep, but not Mr. Ruffed Grouse. No, no indeed."

"I don't see why creatures want to sleep all the winter," said Billie Brownie. "But then of course it is often hard to understand why others want to do certain things and why they do not want to do other things."

"I love the winter time, but then of course you know I belong to Peter Gnome's Every-Day-Is-Nice club."

"What's that?" asked the Ruffed Grouse.

"That is a club where all obey the rule of never grumbling about the weather."

"We enjoy each day as it comes along and we had that there is always plenty of fun to be had on every day, whether it snows or rains or whether the sun shines."

"Of course I don't mean that we are always playing out-of-doors. Sometimes we go to Witty Witch's cave or to old Mr. Giant's cave and we hear stories and have delicious hot suppers."

"But we never grumble about the weather. You know, creatures often do that without going out-of-doors."

"I love the snow," said the Ruffed Grouse.

"I shall tell that to Madam Snow."

She will be much pleased by the compliment. "I love it when creatures like her and admire my lovely snow."

"She always wears white, of course. She loves it better than anything else. She doesn't like it when her frocks and gowns become soiled as sometimes happens."

"Prince Snow often brings a new supply of whiteness for her gowns, though. That pleases her so much. I made up a song about the snow the other day," Billie Brownie continued, "and I wonder if you would like to hear it."

"Immediately," said the Ruffed Grouse. "I'm not much on poetry myself, I never could write any and I never read any, but that doesn't mean that I don't want to hear it."

"I'm much pleased to hear your poem," Billie Brownie said. "It would be especially nice to feel that I was hearing a poem which you made up yourself. I feel I've been an honor to hear a poem of your own invention, or of some 'A. New Supply' own composition, or whatever else one would call it."

"Do recite it for me, Billie Brownie." So Billie Brownie recited for the Ruffed Grouse this poem:

"Oh the snow, the snow is so soft and so white. It's nice in the daytime, it's lovely at night. 'Tis glistens and glistens and sparkles as it falls, 'Tis is all just now I have to tell."

"I'm not much of judge of poetry but I fancy that is all right," said the Ruffed Grouse.

"As it well you're not much of a judge of poetry," laughed Billie Brownie merrily.

And They All Disappear

The output of the pin factories of Britain amounts to over a million millions in ten years—a figure which would in ten years cover every town in the kingdom with a layer of pins several inches deep.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—adv.

Two Ounces OF MIRACLE OIL

poured in the fuel tank to each five gallons of gasoline or kerosene, by living through heat of the combustion chamber, will lubricate the upper cylinder walls, valves and valve stems, reducing friction where friction is greatest; prevent carbon formation, maintain compression; and save at least 15 to 25 per cent in fuel which is three to five times the cost of MIRACLE OIL.

Considering the facts, can you continue to operate your car, truck or other combustion engine without this upper lubrication when every stroke of the piston against dry upper cylinder walls is grinding away the most vital parts of your motor?

Think this over now even if your motor is in good condition.

COURT AWARDS WAGERED AUTO TO MRS. HAYS

State Supreme Tribunal Sustains Wife's Claim to Car Wagered and Lost by Husband on Election Bet

Mrs. Minnie Hays' claim to possession of an automobile, wagered and lost to C. A. Robinson, Trustee, for her husband, J. W. Hays, in a bet on the result of the gubernatorial election in Idaho in 1918, had been sustained by the state supreme court in a decision written by Justice Robert N. Dunn and concurred in by the other members of the court.

It is indicated that the case will be remanded to the district court here for a new trial.

Bets on Elections

Hays, an active member of the Non-Partisan League, bet on the election, similar, it is claimed, to Robinson's bet on the election and that Davis would be defeated. After the election, when Robinson came to claim the Hays car, Mrs. Hays asserted her claim to ownership of it.

In a decision of the supreme court in a case based on a technicality, the court holds that Robinson's statement in his answer to the original complaint that he and the garage operators who acted as stakeholders "deny each and every allegation contained in the complaint not hereinafter specifically admitted, is not in violation of the system of pleading used in the state."

Instruction Held Faulty

Failing to deny that demand was made by Mrs. Hays for the car admitted the truth of that allegation," the court says. "It is the duty of the jury for the court to instruct the jury that the allegation of demand must be supported by proof. If all the other facts necessary to support a verdict for the appellant (Mrs. Hays) had been found by the jury in her favor, this instruction would have required the jury to find for Robinson, because there is no proof of the demand alleged in the complaint."

SETS ASIDE DEFAULT IN $14,000 DAMAGE ACTION

State Tribunal Sustains Lower Court in Case of C. A. Robinson Against Earl Fritz Company

Default judgment obtained against the Earl Fritz company of the Northwest by C. A. Robinson, Twin Falls, in connection with his claim for $14,000 damages growing out of the sale of his fruit crop in 1920, has been set aside by order of the state supreme court, according to word received here by W. P. Guthrie, attorney for the fruit company.

The supreme court's decision sustains the action of the district court here in setting aside the default and places the case upon its merits before the lower court.

THE PHOTOGRAPH

By MOLLIE MATHER

Janey sat looking at her adorned friend.

"Why," she asked impatiently, "do you never have your picture taken? Mollie! I have not seen you in the house, and you would—Janey's eyes were careless, "make such a lovely picture."

Mollie Deming, spinster, smiled. "No one would value my photograph, unless it might be you," she replied. "My relatives would doubtless write polite notes of appreciation when they received them, and relegate them to some unremembered corner."

"You know better than that," Janey cried. "She jumped to her feet.

"Anyway, I want a picture and I am going to have it. You look especially lovely today, like some sweet shepherdess, and your soft, striking white hair, and your true blue eyes. Poor Terry will be glad of a job. He really should have been an artist in the city. Sentiment, holding him here, alone prevented."

later to hide that same photograph away. For the sadness of Mollie's pictured eyes had a provoking trick of bringing quiet tears to her own.

"That man!" exclaimed Janey contemptuously. "Fancy being true to the memory of such a creature."

Then one day, as Janey entered unawares, Miss Mollie's sitting room was in a picture. And the two women gazed facing the picture contentedly, happily, oblivious of her presence.

"It was fate!" the distinguished appearing man was saying, and even in her astonishment Janey responded sympathetically to the sincerity of that voice.

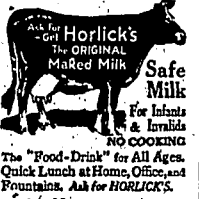

"When I thought that I had utterly lost you, Mollie—when the never-ceasing longing brought me back to this old town to view again, if only in secret, your face, I came upon that photograph in Terry's window. You Mollie, had only forgiveness in the sweetness of your expression—had only griefed appeal in your eyes. So I am here, dearest, for that punishment I would have inflicted upon you has long been my own."

Janey closed the door noiselessly behind her, and when she was again in her own room, she hummed a gay little song as she searched out her friend's picture and replaced it upon the dresser.

LAUNCH FIGHT ON CITY'S RULE BY COMMISSION

Opposition to Change in Form of Twin Falls Government Selects Committee to Manage Campaign

Opposition to adoption of the commission form of government for Twin Falls was organized at a meeting of about 100 persons at Parish hall Tuesday evening with the election of a committee of 12 members to direct a campaign culminating in the special election next Tuesday.

Members of the committee are C. E. Munson, R. H. Stevenson, Arthur H. Swin, E. J. Finch, E. L. Ashton, S. L. Hodgins, W. Or Chapman, H. M. Holler, T. J. Woods, Mrs. Burton E. Morse, Mrs. M. J. Sweeney, Mrs. H. W. Crook.

Subsequently members of the committee elected C. E. Munson chairman and E. J. Finch secretary.

Speakers Voice Objections

Speakers called upon at the Tuesday evening meeting, which was called to order by Burton E. Morse, were S. L. Hodgins, who reviewed the history of the commission form in Boise and criticized it as a scheme for division of official responsibility; R. H. Stevenson, who declared that adoption of the commission form under conditions existing here would bring on turmoil and strife for a period of years, and M. J. Sweeney, who attacked the commission form because of additional expense involved.

Case of Tenth in Boise

"It makes no difference what form of government is adopted, it will never have government any better than the men that we put in office," Mr. Hodgins declared. The commission form was adopted in Boise, he said, at the behest of a "reform" element whose breath for several years made Boise a laughing stock and rendered life unendurable to the citizenship. The purpose of the Black law, which provides for the commission form, is to divide official responsibility," he said, and cited a case in Boise's history where one of the board of commissioners successfully defended his position as absolute head of his department with sole power to employ whom he chose and determine salaries paid.

Causes Needless Strife

"The commission form invites the radical element to all sorts of activity, causes strife where there is no need for strife and provides a vehicle for agencies that are destructive of the principles of American government," Mr. Stevenson declared, summing up his argument against the proposed change in Twin Falls government. "The commission form is favored in Twin Falls solely by forces who desire the recall as a weapon to use against persons in office who incur their displeasure, he added, predicting that a period of turmoil marked by frequent elections would be a consequence of adoption of the proposal."

Taxpayer Pays More

"From the viewpoint of the taxpayer," Mr. Sweeney said, "it would be a mistake to adopt any scheme that would involve additional public expense and make for uncertainty." He pointed out that substantially the same offices would exist under the commission form as under the present plan. The salary of the mayor, now $500, is fixed by statute at $600 under the commission form, and councilmen whose salary now is $300, would be councilmen under the commission form draw $450. Instead of $1700 a year it would cost the city $2,400 a year for the six years it would have to retain the commission form after its adoption.

Automatic Salary Boosts

"Increase in the city's population to more than 10,000 persons under the Black law, would automatically double the salaries of city officials, and, instead of paying $1700 a year for salaries as at present, the city would be obligated to pay the mayor $1,200 and commissioners $900 each, making a total increase of $8,600.

Commission Advocates Dissat

Senator Sweeney disclosed the fact that advocates of the city manager plan of city administration to be voted on at a special election April 19, had consented, in the interests of public economy, to abandon their plan for submitting this issue to the electors. However, the commission form would agree to do likewise. Commission form advocates refused to consent to any such arrangement, Senator Sweeney, said, explaining that he had conducted negotiations in the premises as chairman of the chamber of commerce tax committee.

SHORTHORN ARISTOCRACY TO BE OFFERED FOR SALE

Breeders Association to Dispose of One of Its Best Offerings to Public

One of the best offerings of purebred Shorthorn bulls ever placed before the public by the Twin Falls North and South State Shorthorn Breeders association is to be offered at the association's annual Shorthorn sale to be held at the C. A. McMaster sales barn here Thursday, March 30, according to announcement made today.

Only 30 animals will be offered for sale at this time. Many of these are pure Scotch and were prize winners at various fairs, in 1921.

Among the breeders who are contributing for this sale are C. A. McMaster, Willard McMaster and J. H. Olund of Twin Falls; Dr. R. H. Arnes, D. L. Beamer, H. H. Schillman and E. R. Tiekner of Piler; M. D. Barstow of Ruly; Earl Brothers of Harney; J. H. Bundy of Bliss; N. H. Leland of Wendell; R. H. Callen of Jerome; S. H. Ureter and Rega Brothers of Kimberly; Vernon Orin and Gordon Dool of Marsa, and Miss Davis and Lester Diller of Twin Falls.

It is said that this is the only offering of such Shorthorn bulls advertised in southern Idaho this spring, and many buyers who are looking for quality stock already have signified their intention to attend this sale.

One of the most interesting features of this sale will be a puro-bred registered Shorthorn steer offered by the Brothers of Kimberly. It is expected that spirited competition will result in the bidding in which hotel and butcher shop operators here have been invited to participate.

BUTCHERS FILE NEW COMPLAINT AGAINST CITY

Inspection Ordinance is Renewed on Grounds Enforcement is Discriminatory

Opposition on the part of meat market and slaughter house operators here to the municipal meat inspection ordinance was renewed today with the filing in district court by T. K. Hackman, attorney, of an amended complaint in the case of C. A. Young, E. B. Whitney and Fred K. Wash, doing business as the Independent meat market, against Twin Falls city officials.

Adds New Charges

General charges in the original complaint that the ordinance was invalid, which was overruled by District Judge T. Bailey Lee, is renewed in the amended complaint and an additional charge made that the ordinance is discriminatory in that only slaughter houses within a five mile radius from Twin Falls are assessed to pay costs of inspection, and that city officials have failed to enforce the regulatory measure as to persons selling meat from open wagons.

Not Fighting Inspection

Discussing the case, Mr. Hackman today said:

"There seems to be a misapprehension in the minds of some persons as to the real purpose of the suits questioning the validity of the meat inspection ordinances of this city in that some people seem to think my clients wish to deprive the city of the right to inspect meats. Such is not the case. My clients do not pay costs of inspection, and, notwithstanding the fact that the city has been temporarily restrained from inspecting, pending the restraining order my clients consented to subject themselves to the enforcement of the inspection ordinance, except that they did not consent to the payment of fees.

"The real purpose of my clients' complaint is based upon the fact that the city ordinance placed the burden on the three slaughter houses located within two miles of the city of Twin Falls of paying all or practically all the salary of the meat and dairy inspectors and the expenses of inspection in the fees charged for ante-mortem and post-mortem examinations of animals killed at said slaughter houses; that these ordinances, on the other hand, permit all other persons to bring meat into the city and sell it without its being inspected; that these charges, an examination or inspection simply being made of the portion of the meat which is offered to the public, and this meat is sold from wagons or in other inexpensive ways, and may be the carcass of an old bull, or some other decrepit animal, and this cannot be discovered by this inspection of the portion of the carcass submitted to the inspector.

Makes Unfair Competition

"My clients have a large investment of money and considerable taxes to be paid, and they are thrown into competition with this other class of meat, and this other impure and unsanitary method of selling meats. If the ordinance were to apply to all meats brought into the city by requiring the ante-mortem and post-mortem examinations so as to insure that all meats were from healthy animals, and from the proper class of animals, and the expense distributed among all, my clients would not be in court."

D. A. Wright, Expert in Chick-on Propagation, Leases a Tract Near Town

Pattered after the Petaluma system a chicken hatchery plant has been placed in operation one quarter mile north of the northern edge of this city. The plant is known as the D. A. Wright and Company Chicken Hatchery, and will be operated for the propagation of the White Leghorn breed of domestic poultry. The hatchery was fired up this morning for the first time.

The plant is located on a four-acre tract of land and for the immediate present will have a capacity of 5000 eggs. The company has 1000 birds of Traced and Dun Barrow strains, with special pens for birds especially adapted to propagation of the species. The company solicits custom hatching. Mr. Wright, who is in active charge of the system, shows a record of 30 years in chicken breeding and hatching. He is a student of the American Poultry school at Kansas City, where years ago he took a complete course in poultry breeding and tending. He has spent a number of years on the Pacific coast some of which was devoted to a study of the Hogen system at Petaluma.

LEGION TO MAKE SERVICE CENSUS

Veterans' Organization Undertakes to Establish Contact with Service Men

Twin Falls post, American Legion, cooperating with Legion posts at Duhl, Filer, Kimberly and Murtugang and with Women's Auxiliary organizations, will undertake to establish personal contact with the more than 2000 former service men of Twin Falls county through the agency of the American Legion service campaign, in pursuance of a declaration reached at a meeting of the post Tuesday evening. General charge of this campaign on the part of the Twin Falls post was delegated to a committee composed of Carl L. DeLong, Leo P. Dracken, Harry J. Benoit, Sidney H. Graves and John C. Harvey.

As Relief Measure

Purpose of the campaign, which is to be conducted by the American Legion throughout the nation, include formulation of the service record of each former service man together with a comprehensive statement in each case as to the present status and requirements of each individual. This information thus obtained will be turned over to national headquarters of the Legion for use in urging measures for the relief of former service persons. Members of the post in discussion at Tuesday evening's meeting declared this campaign is the most comprehensive and constructive program yet entered upon by the Legion.

Unemployment Discussed

The unemployment situation came in for consideration at the meeting, and members voted to communicate to Carl L. DeLong, past employment officer, both the names and addresses of former service men who are out of employment and opportunities for obtaining employment. Under supervision of Ralph Piek, a committee chairman, members of the post were served "army style" with refreshments consisting of baked beans, coffee and rolls.

IRISH QUESTION SERVES AS SUBJECT OF SPEECH

Twin Falls Rotary Listens to Address by William T. Scelley on World Question

Twin Falls Rotary at the regular weekly luncheon Wednesday was entertained by a lengthy and carefully prepared address on the Irish situation by Rotarian W. T. Scelley. The program which was in charge of Mr. Scelley was postponed from the meeting of a week ago (delegated originally to a St. Patrick's day feature) in addition to Mr. Scelley's remarks George E. Carpenter, Salt Lake moving picture man with interests in the same line here and members of the Salt Lake Rotary club, addressed the members on the general subject of the necessity of a more optimistic view of local business conditions if outsiders are not to be sent away with the thought apperpet in their minds that all Southern Idaho is on the verge of financial bankruptcy.

Mr. Carpenter offered it as his opinion that conditions in the Twin Falls country from his own business observations are a great deal better than in a majority of other bigger cities in the intermountain country. Mr. Scelley's address dealt with the subject from the standpoint of north and south Ireland and an interesting array of historical facts served to hold the attention of his hearers throughout the entire address.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, will meet in the parlors of the church with Mrs. L. P. Jones as hostess, and Mrs. H. J. Kingsbury as leader of program, Thursday, March 23 at 8:30 p. m. All members are invited to come and bring a new member.
