NON-UNION MEN LEAVE WORK IN WEST VIRGINIA

Tie-up of Coal Industry is Completed Throughout Country - Railway Brotherhoods to Discuss Situation at Large

(By Associated Press) Suspension of work in the union coal mines of the country virtually was complete today, according to reports received from union sources up to noon, and claims were made that the miners' cause had been strengthened by walkouts in some nonunion districts.

President Lewis of the miners told the house labor committee resumption of work depended entirely on operators, whose refusal to confer, he said, provoked the suspension.

Miners claimed complete stoppage in New River district of West Virginia, nonunion territory heretofore. Scattered anthracite mining districts reported suspension 100 per cent of effective, with 70,000 men and boys idle.

Geological survey announced bituminous production of 11.3 million tons in week ended March 25, confirming the survey's forecast of 83,000,000 tons in consumers' hands April 1.

Officials of some of the local unions today were investigating the source of circulars which have made their appearance among the miners criticizing their leaders and advocating "one big union."

Officials of some of the local unions today were investigating the source of circulars which have made their appearance among the miners criticizing their leaders and advocating "one big union."

The men were urged to disregard the circulars and to re-avow allegiance to the leadership of the United Mine Workers. Radicals, it was stated, were taking advantage of the suspension to spread their propaganda in the anthracite fields.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) - Shipping men of the Pacific coast are slipping their watches, figuratively, on two interesting ocean races which got underway in the last three days. NEW CIVIL WAR NOW THREATENS LIMERICK, IRELAND

AFTER 750 YEARS of fighting for freedom it apparently is a hard matter for the Irish to cease hostilities. A new civil war has been threatening Limerick, where some casualties already have been reported. Armored cars are being used to patrol the streets in the evening at a pitched battle. Here is the first picture of the Irish Republican Army at Limerick to be received in this country. The soldiers are standing at the entrance to a hotel where they are quartered. A closeup of an armored car also is shown.

11,437,000 TONS MINE YIELD OF COAL FOR WEEK Record Output is Made in Preparation for Big Strike, Says the Geological Survey in Its Report

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) - A production of 11,437,000 tons—the highest record since a week in December, 1920—was recorded in the bituminous coal industry during the week ended March 25, according to reports compiled by the geological survey. "That is, in anticipation of the strike," was said to have been largely responsible for the heavy output.

Will Increase Reserves. "This confirms the survey's forecast that stocks in the hands of consumers would reach 60,000,000 tons by April 1," the statement said, adding that at least 3,000,000 tons of the production of the last reported week would be added to reserves.

Contrary to usual practice in the industry, production increased as the week progressed, reaching the high output for any one day with 36,092 cars loaded at the reporting mines on Friday, March 24.

Loading Air Heavy. Preliminary telegraphic returns, the survey said, indicate that on both Monday and Tuesday of last week, loadings exceeded 37,000 cars.

Reports from the anthracite industry indicated a similar condition, the production the week ended March 25, totaling 2,095,000 tons against 1,007,000 in the previous week and 1,564,000 tons in the corresponding week of 1921.

Grabs $5,000 In Currency Stranger Makes Bold Attempt at Robbery when New Bank Swings Open its Doors in Washington

WASHINGTON, (AP) - The Merchants Bank and Trust company, a new institution, opened its doors today within a block of the United States treasury and invited the public to make an inspection of its quarters. Four hours after the doors swung open an unidentified man entered, joined the other guests, but unlike the others grabbed a package of bills containing $5,000 and he passed the paying teller's window.

Teller Purmas Bandit. The paying teller leaped from behind the counter and with a pistol pursued the holdup man up Fifteenth street, shooting in the air as he went. Hundreds of government clerks, out for the noon hour, pursued the fleeing bandit and a pedestrian walking casually along heard the tumult, saw the running man coming and grabbed him. He held him until the teller and police arrived. The $5,000 was recovered and the unidentified guest at the bank's opening was sent to police headquarters.

The police said the police he was Edward Dayton, 25, of New York.

WILL EVAGUATE SIBERIAN POST Japan Decides to Quickly Withdraw Military Forces to Prevent Clash with Soviets

TOKYO, (AP) - Immediate evacuation of Siberia was decided upon at the last meeting of the Japanese cabinet, according to the Tokio newspapers today.

The Ashki Shimbun, in publishing the report, attributes the decision to activity of the reds in the maritime province, which, it says, places the Japanese forces in a position of having to fight the soviet troops or make peace.

Red Forces Advance. Reports from Vladivostok today said the red forces of the Chita government, advancing southward, along the Trans-Siberian railroads of Vladivostok government troops, had reached Spasskoye.

The Vladivostok troops as fast as they are forced to retire into territory guarded by the Japanese, are being disarmed by the Japanese forces, displaced units. Some thousands of the red troops are said to have invaded Japanese neutral territory, the Japanese hesitating to open hostilities in view of the negotiations that have been pending some time at Dairen between the Japanese government and the Chita soviet republic.

Reports from Dairen said Japanese representatives there had warned the Chita soviet republic against invasion of Japanese guarded territory.

PREMIER SEEKS COMMONS VOTE OF CONFIDENCE Is Granted with Cheers When He Appears to Ask Approval of Government - Talks of World Problems

LONDON, (AP) - Prime Minister Lloyd George appeared in the house of commons today for the first time since February 28 to ask from the house an expression of confidence in the policy of the government toward the Genoa economic conference. He was greeted with cheers from the government benches.

Is Up to House. Mr. Lloyd George said his resolution gave the house an opportunity of approving or disapproving the objects of the Genoa conference and the making of the Genoa economic conference. He was greeted with cheers from the government benches.

He did not believe such a body as the Genoa conference could properly consider the revision of existing treaties, even in the event this was desirable. Something to Repair.

The trouble in Europe had been attributed largely to the reparations exacted by the treaties, said Mr. Lloyd George, but the treaties did not create the reparations. Their creation was due to the fact that there was something to repair. If the treaty of Versailles were altered, he declared, it would only transfer the burden from Germany to France.

Mr. Lloyd George said there were two considerations dealing with the reparations. The first was that if the payments were insisted upon beyond the power of the war-exhausted country, a crisis would be precipitated which would not be confined to Germany. The second was that Germany's ultimate capacity to pay must not be judged by her present capability, when in common with the rest of Europe she was struggling to recover from the exhaustion of the war.

Treaty is Elastic. Neither of these considerations could properly be judged at Genoa. They ought to be judged by the machinery of the treaty, which was very elastic. France, he forecast, could not forego the right to have adjudication in accordance with the treaty's conditions.

Defending the idea of the conference, the prime minister said he had been told that the coalition was dying. "Perhaps I may have the privilege of a dying minister to give my last word of advice," he remarked.

"I do not know who will succeed but I shall live to utter a word of final warning. Whoever succeeds will find it impossible in the present state of Europe to go on without conferences. The world is so battered, depleted and crushed that the cure will be a slow one and will need many consultations of its leading physicians."

Armed Troops Take New Oath of Allegiance to De Valera's Government; Collins Meeting is Broken Up

DUBLIN, (AP) - Official figures given yesterday show that 3,200 men left the Irish republican battalions of the Irish public army yesterday afternoon, marching to Banfield, where they took an oath of allegiance to the republican freeing themselves from any further responsibility to the Dail Eireann.

MULLINGAR, County West Mouth, Ireland, (AP) - An incident from which sensational developments are expected have occurred here, the chief of 100 state troops marched to the gates of the barracks occupied by Irish republican army adherents of Eamon de Valera and were refused admission.

STOP COLLINS MEETING. DUBLIN, (AP) - The meeting addressed by Michael Collins at Castlebar, County Mayo, last night was stopped by members of the Fourth Western division of the Irish republican army after a woman was wounded by a bullet, according to accounts reaching Dublin this morning.

The chief of the republican government and his party returned to their hotel, and the officer who had proclaimed the meeting at an end followed declaring that none would be allowed to leave until Mr. Collins and his friends had surrendered their arms.

Men Are Disarmed. "The accounts received here do not show that Mr. Collins was disarmed, merely saying that 'some people who left the hotel were arrested.' The telegraph wires around Castlebar were cut and when the newspaper correspondents there heard a train for Athlone they were ordered by officers to go to the barracks.

The newspapermen were conveyed to the barracks in automobiles, where they found A. McCabe, a member of the Dail Eireann, with Commandant Kelly and other officers. The commandant stated that Mr. McCabe had admitted he was the first to draw a revolver at the meeting. Mr. McCabe then, in the presence of the correspondents, said he believed he was the first to draw the dispatches said.

Is Refused Lodging. A Dublin man, said to be Charles Byrne, a member of the Collins party, was arrested and accused of the shooting. Mr. Collins subsequently told the representative of the Irish Independent, Dublin newspaper, that he had found Mr. Byrne in the barracks and found him in a cell with one of the men who had been arrested. He said he had asked Commandant Kelly to parole Mr. Byrne. Mr. Collins is to be responsible, but that the request was refused.

Mr. Fogarty, proprietor of the Commercial, also, Collins, I presume by the bullet fired at the meeting.

The correspondent of the London Evening News says all the roads to Castlebar were blocked by troops and that automobiles moving toward the town were stopped by armed men, who even ripped up the railway track to prevent the arrival of the special trains from the surrounding towns. The meeting was consequently delayed until 7 p. m.

The crowd numbered 20,000 persons, many from many hostile to Collins. Collins was frequently interrupted and then an attempt was made to rush the forces, which supported his platform, says the account, and a supporter of Collins drew a revolver. Others then drew revolvers also, upon which the crowd stamped, women fainting and several persons were trampled upon.

PROGRESS MADE IN CAMPAIGN FOR BIG RESERVOIR

Reclamation Association Director Tells of Present Status of American Falls Project—Petition Near Completion

POCAHELLO, Idaho (Special)—The regular meeting of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce was given over to the American Falls project with the largest attendance in months.

Guy Flenner, managing director of the Idaho Reclamation Association, who is putting on the campaign to finance the great undertaking, presented a review of the conditions that had led the government to cease activities at American Falls, and that had determined it to abandon the mammoth storage enterprise.

Everything paid for. "These canal companies and districts they could not pay the amounts they had agreed to out of their pockets," said Mr. Flenner. "They could not get out of their pockets."

"If we can put this across, the American Falls project will be completed. If we cannot the project will be abandoned and it will not be revived during the lives of men and women of the middle generation and today."

Easy for It to Leave "We have made it easy for the government to get out, other places such as the Colorado river project are making it easy for it to come in."

Mr. Flenner said objection to bonding was rapidly vanishing as it became known that the government bond had a productive investment—something that would create new wealth and help take care of taxes and the old accumulation of bills.

He expressed confidence that the farmers of Snake river valley would help themselves, the valley, and all south Idaho by organizing this district and putting the great storage project over.

"Anyway," he added, "it is up to them in the final analysis."

Foundation Work

The speaker told of the satisfactory progress of the campaign, which had been necessarily slow and laborious, but the field work, office work, publicity in almost every form, engineering, etc. Everything had to be started from the grass roots, he stated. There was no foundation previously laid as to this particular problem.

Law's Delays

After it has been signed up and filed the law's delays would intervene, and he did not expect the first election, to decide whether or not the district would be formed, would be held until some time in June. If the district is formed, a subsequent election would be held on the question of bonds. Meanwhile, if the people show an interest and good faith the government would give up reasonable time, but if it was shown that the project would be lost to us as soon as the government ceased our indifference.

Independent Districts

The speaker explained that some of the contracting territory was represented by irrigation districts already organized and in the cases of some companies the desire had been expressed to organize as such and finance themselves.

"We have no choice," the speaker went on, "and our only hope is that many organizations independently do so in harmony with the progress of the greater development as they will not be interested by the limitations the government must necessarily impose."

by a financing district, having nothing to do with the operation of systems.

Would Brand a Label

"The speaker closed with an earnest appeal for all classes to get behind this undertaking. "It is of overwhelming importance to Idaho," he said. "With announcement that it is to go forward to completion there will be instant revival in the Snake river valley and all over south Idaho. With its collapse will come discouragement at home, with all that is associated therewith, and further lack of confidence on the outside."

"We are already discredited in the East and Middle West as being impotent and bankrupt. A label, of course, although the ex parte case is adverse. "Let us prove that we possess sufficient business ability to make use of these wonderful resources of ours, these new frozen assets, to lift ourselves out of the rut and show them all that we are manly fighting—a constructive people who are determined to build here, on the foundations laid by our fathers, the superstructure of real commonwealth greatness."

TAX COMMITTEE ADVISES SLASH IN OFFICIALS PAY

Recommends That $1,600 Be Maximum Salary Paid Minidoka County Officer

RUPPEL—Material reductions in the salaries of county officials of Minidoka county are urged in resolutions addressed to the board of county commissioners by the Citizens' Committee on Taxation, of which E. E. Fisher is chairman and W. W. Mattison secretary.

Effective January 1, 1923, the committee's resolution urges that salaries of the assessor, treasurer and sheriff be reduced from $2,900 to $1,600; auditor and recorder from $160 to $100; county superintendent of public instruction from $180 to $120; probate judge from $120 to $100; prosecuting attorney from $120 to $100; coroner and surveyor each $100.

The committee, in this connection, points out to the commissioners the following alleged facts:

Minidoka county was reduced in territorial size from 1917 to 1919 by the action of Jerome county.

Two independent school districts have been created within the county, materially lessening the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools. The entire county has been organized into high schools—thus eliminating almost completely the teaching, issuance, etc., of road and bridge bills and warrants by the auditor and treasurer.

Adelphi precinct and the adjacent dry farm region is almost depopulated.

FEARS OVERPRODUCTION IN 1922 POTATO CROPS

RUPPEL—Indicating concern over consequences or possible overproduction of potatoes this season in southern Idaho and the country in general, E. H. Richard, attorney and secretary of the Paul, Idaho, Commercial club, has addressed to the Union Pacific Railway a request for information as to the prospective potato crop acreage and the yield of the crop.

"If the average this season is going to prove an extremely large one," he says, "there is apt to be an enormous crop shortage which will make for losses instead of profits to farmers here."

Roosevelt Once Planned Search for Amphibian

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Theodore Roosevelt believed there might be some huge surviving amphibian in the jungles of the Southern Andes such as has recently been described in dissections from South America, and when the former president went on his expedition which discovered the River of Doubt he had some idea of looking for it.

Barrett Tells Story

John Barrett, late director of the Pan-American union and minister to Argentina during President Roosevelt's administration has just disclosed that part of Colonel Roosevelt's expeditionary plans which hitherto are said to have been unaided.

"On reading the first cabled report," said Mr. Barrett, "that Martin Sheffield, an American of whom I have personal knowledge, had reported the discovery of a new species of a pleiosaurian monster or huge amphibian swimming in the waters of a southern Andean jungle lake, I recalled that nearly 20 years ago, in November, 1903, when I was minister to Argentina, I had been invited to speak in the story of the American prospector whom he said he well remembered."

"After the departure of the others the president for half an hour discussed, as an enthusiastic naturalist and scientist the possibility of there being some huge surviving amphibian descended from the ancient pleiosaurians and actually took steps, so to speak, in the story of the American prospector whom he said he well remembered. I mentioned the incident to Secretary Lach as I left the president's office and he may possibly recall my conversation."

Pinned Search for Beasts

"Years later when Colonel Roosevelt made his famous trip to South America, he told me confidentially just before sailing that, although he had never heard anything further from the American prospector, I should not be surprised if, after his arrival in Argentina, he decided to make a special trip to Argentina to the southern Argentine and Chile, in the hope of ascertaining whether there was any truth in these stories of this monster amphibian, which, strongly appealed to him. He wanted nothing said about it least there should be ridicule if he did not succeed."

Writes to Roosevelt

"Although I gave him no promise, he said he could not again. Shortly afterward I wrote President Roosevelt in personal and unofficial letter referring to this incident. In about a month or a half, there came in the regular post a personal letter from the president written in his own handwriting and expressing real interest in the story of this American whom he said he well remembered and asking me to get without fail into touch with him at once and ask him to write about what he had seen. He said he would mean while send word that he was off again on a mineral and timber prospecting tour in southern Argentina and Chile, but giving no address and no names of those he might represent."

Again Finds Trail

"In April, five months later, just before I went to Panama as first American minister, I received a letter from the prospector written from some far away place in Chubut, or so-called Patagonia. He was almost enthusiastic in his story of how he had again found a fresh trail of a strange animal leading to the waters of a lake, although he had not actually again seen the beast as in his first experience. This letter I at once forwarded to President Roosevelt and I am wondering if it is still in his archives which may have been preserved. Since then I have never received any further word from or about this American prospector. Possibly he may be alive and read this and give to the world some further information."

may be an inspiration to Jose Cinqu, Superintendent of the Buenos Aires Zoological garden, and Emilio Frey, the distinguished Argentine explorer, who are on an expedition to ascertain the facts about this extraordinary pleiosaurian or surviving amphibian whose ancestors go back through untold ages."

D. S. L. TO START ROAD BALLASTING

Plans for Improving Southern Branch Calls for Work of Five Hundred Men

BUPPERT, Ida.—Resumption of road ballasting on the Twin Falls branch, interrupted by winter weather, is scheduled for April 15.

First installation of renewed activity was made by a visit Thursday to the gravel pit south of Rupert by E. C. Manson of Pocatello, superintendent of the Idaho division, who made his trip in his private car. His visit was primarily to get work trains lined up for the spring campaign.

Widening Roadbed

For the next two weeks activities will be devoted to widening of eight miles of roadbed. Joe Lawler of Boise, general foreman, was due to arrive Saturday to get a gang of men together for that purpose. About 75 men will be required for this.

On completion of the dirt work, graveling will begin on the 18 miles yet remaining unballasted below Twin Falls. It is stated between 300 and 400 men will be required for this. It is expected the Twin Falls line will be finished within a month after getting present plans under way, after which the entire outfit will be moved over to the Bliss cutoff. Improvements jugged up by the railroad company will require at least five years to put through, say those in close touch with officials, if present plans are carried out. These include, ultimately, ballasting of the main line all the way from Milledale to Huntington, Ore.

Purchase Gravel Pit

As a starter, arrangements have already been made for purchase of a gravel pit near Tuttle, Idaho. A conference between the roadmaster, engineers and other officials connected with immediate developments will get under way Friday, to make final arrangements.

DECLARES CORN BASIS AGRICULTURAL WEALTH

Rare Value of Food Value of Mush and Milk Extolled by Head of Federation

CHICAGO, (AP)—Corn is the foundation of America's agricultural wealth and is a splendid "starchy vegetable diet," cheaper than potatoes or rice, W. N. Adams, president of the American Millers Federation, told a meeting of that body here today.

The history of the country, Mr. Adams said, is indelibly marked with corn from the period when it sustained the colonists, rationed the revolutionary army, caused men to cross the Allegheny mountains and open up the vast prairies of the Mississippi valley, and saved the south after the civil war to the present.

"Yet the American farmer has never received the returns from this crop that its value merits," he said, "because it has come to be looked upon as largely an animal food."

"The present generation, whose parents and grandparents considered corn meal as an essential article of diet, have rarely tasted mush and milk," he added.

EXPECT CROWDS TO JAM PARKS RUTH'S HITTING IS FALLING OFF

Coast League President Predicts Greatest Year in History of Organization

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Crowds bigger than ever before, weather permitting, will jam the parks of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, William H. McCarthy, San Francisco, president of the league, predicted in a statement made public here today.

"The cry of 'play ball' will mark the commencement of the greatest pennant race in minor league history, under the aegis of the most progressive league in the country, and it will not except the major leagues, in this statement," Mr. McCarthy said.

"Most progressive, I repeat, because in every forward looking movement for the betterment, protection and improvement of the class of the season, the league has pioneered the way."

"The purs of twenty thousand dollars offered by the directors is the latest earnest of our intention to secure the continued, sustained and best effort of every player from the commencement to the close of the season."

"Teams have been strengthened, the country has been combed to fill up weak spots with better players, parks have been enlarged and improved, and no expense has been spared in giving the best to our people."

"A favorite star will be missed from almost every team. Perhaps this is the best answer to those who have urged that we were opposed to the advancement of a ball player. We are not opposed, but we are opposed to developing and developing our teams annually to suit the convenience of the major leagues. Most emphatically, the ball player is entitled to advance, but the league itself and the patrons of the game in the most rapidly developing section of the country, the Pacific coast, are entitled to protection. Why should we teach in Salt Lake he sacrificed to please St. Louis, or Los Angeles, or Portland, or San Francisco, or any of our great cities after to provide entertainment for Brooklyn or Philadelphia or Washington?"

"To the ever increasing number of patrons of our league in different cities, at the commencement of the season of 1922, I renew the pledge that so far as it is humanly possible we will spare no expense, effort or energy to protect, promote and develop the sport to its highest plane. It is your support, your confidence, your love of the game, that makes professional baseball possible. It is our duty to give you the best and we will fulfill that duty."

Home Run Hero Unable to Connect with Pesky Pellet in Training Games

NEW YORK, (AP)—The New York Yankee baseball team and the Brooklyn Dodgers resume their series of games at Little Rock, Ark. today. The team's chief pride and boast, George Herman Ruth, appears to be in the throes of a batting slump. George Herman has made only four hits out of 18 times at bat in the last four games.

There was some cheer for the Yankees, however, in the fact that Wally Pipp had regained his batting eye. He got four two-baggers against the Dallas, Texas, league team yesterday, and that was considered a fair day's work. The Yankees won by a score of 6 to 0.

Brooklyn, on the other hand, has been ploughing along with the whole team hitting on all cylinders and the pitchers doing real big league stuff. Pitching against Fort Worth yesterday, Manann and Mitchell held the Texans to seven hits and no runs while the Dodgers were getting 17 hits and 8 runs.

The Giants might have had a hard time in winning against the Memphis team yesterday in the Southern association and the latter team have been able to yield. The Dixie leads compiled an error column that was most pretentious and the Giants went away with the verdict, 9 to 1.

The teams play the last of their series at Jackson, Tenn. today.

TO WORK PITCHERS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Nationals were to meet the Boston Braves at Charleston, S. C., today in the first game of their five-day barnstorming trip home. YOUTH ADMITS THAT HE SLEW SHOSHONE MAN

Max Walton, 19, Arrested at Father's Home, Blames Lurid Literature and Moving Pictures for Desire to Be Bad

Max Walton, 19, has confessed that he killed George Lane, 35, in the hardware store in Shoshone, Ida., Saturday night, according to officials of the sheriff's office at Shoshone. They are the blame for the lures and sensational moving pictures for his desire to become a "bad man."

Walton shot Lane with a pistol which he had just bought from Lane, during an argument over a check which Walton had given in payment for the pistol and other articles, according to the alleged confession.

Arrested at Father's Home.
Walton was arrested Sunday morning at his home in Shoshone, A. W. Walton, about nine miles from Shoshone, where he had been in hiding all night following the killing.

Deputy sheriff, stationed at Snake River crossings by Sheriff E. H. Sherman at Twin Falls county, when he received word of the killing Saturday night, were recalled when word came of the capture of the alleged slayer. Police officers of Twin Falls also were notified and they maintained a strict watch for the suspected youth on Twin Falls streets.

Reports by Millaps and others who talked with Lane prior to the shooting showed that the tall, awkward appearing ranch boy had visited Lane's hardware store early Saturday evening and purchased a complete "outfit" consisting of an excellent rifle, saddle, automatic, "claps," larist, cartridges, and other equipment. He is alleged to have paid for the bill of goods with a check for $140.70, signed "William J. Horan." The check and the bill of sale were later found in the hardware cash register.

Took Gun with Him.
The cowboy apparel with exception of the "claps" and automatic, was left in the store. Lane is alleged to have attempted to purchase a saddle horse of a Shoshone livery stable. Becoming suspicious of the value of the check given him, Lane returned to the store, after visiting a club nearby and in the company with the money waiting the return of the youth. Millaps said Walton had soon after the store and Walton again visited the store and the subject of the check was again broached by Lane. The two, Lane and Walton, then went out in front of the store where they conferred for some time. Still dissatisfied with the check and evidently unable to come to an understanding with Walton, the hardware dealer turned his back on Millaps and the youth and began hunting through the telephone directory, apparently seeking the sheriff's telephone number, the county officer said.

Shots Without Warning.
Without a word of warning, Walton pulled out the gun and shot him. Walton fired from the store and shot him in the back of the head. Lane slumped to the floor before the telephone. Whirling suddenly, Walton fired once into the face of Millaps, who dodged and came up unscathed. He grabbed Walton's arm and deflected a second shot.

Rushing to the front door, Walton turned and snatched his gun at Millaps a third time, but the cartridge failed to fire. He disappeared in the building, the livery stable attendant said.

The Livery Stable. Walton is alleged to have attempted to saddle a horse to escape and to have been chased out. He then disappeared about into the darkness. One posse was gotten out shortly after 10 o'clock, when the shooting occurred, and another immediately in the home of the lad's father, where they waited all night, returning to Shoshone about 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

At 10 o'clock, Sheriff Clarence Horan returned to the Wallace home and Sheriff W. H. Walton prepared to bring his son to the sheriff's office. Max had returned home about an hour before the arrival of the second posse and is said to have told his father of the deed.

Mr. Walton and his wife are prostrated by the tragedy. The family is well known and highly respected by all and the general verdict is that his course of lurch literature is solely responsible for the boy's terrible deed.

Reynolds, residing one and one-half miles northwest of Twin Falls, was late Saturday afternoon found on the streets here in company with George Erickson, aged 7 years, the son of a neighbor, a short time after Earl's parents had called the aid of the police in their search for their missing son.

Earl's hat came off and was held in his lap as he took a chair at the police station for questioning by the officers.
