CLAIM FARMERS TURNED CORNER

Governors Agree That Future Grows Brighter for Man on Land

NEW YORK, (AP)—Conviction that the farmers of the United States have "turned the corner" and are now started on the road to normally prosperous conditions was the consensus of statements by governors of leading agricultural states made public here today.

The assurances were given in response to an inquiry by E. A. Street to ascertain the facts regarding the agricultural situation. They came from agricultural states representative of all sections of the country, from New England to the plains states of the West and from the Great Lakes to Virginia and Mississippi.

In making these reports public Mr. Street expressed the belief that they reflected accurately a widespread conviction extending throughout the farming states from the Atlantic seaboard to the Rocky Mountain region.

Some of the governors not only asserted that the farming situation was improved but forecast imminent improvement in the industry generally.

One of the most optimistic of the statements came from Governor Harry L. Davis of Ohio, who telegraphed: "Our Department of Agriculture has made a survey of farm conditions in Ohio. Glad to advise that agriculturally Ohio farmers are on the up-grade. Improvement in price of farm products and improved marketing conditions have given Ohio farmers renewed hope and 1922 gives every indication of being a more prosperous year than the past."

"Ohio is in as sound condition as any state in the Union. We are turning the corner and are going forward agriculturally, industrially and commercially."

Extracts from the messages of some of the other governors follow: Governor McGray, of Indiana: "Conditions are improved and prospects brighter in Indiana. On the whole, the outlook is good for an early return to normalcy."

Governor Sprout, of Pennsylvania: "I feel that all conditions point to better things for agriculture in Pennsylvania. There may be some delay due to disturbance incident to the coal strike, etc., but I feel that such better industrial conditions are imminent and that our farmers, being so close to the market, will benefit."

Missouri Conditions Improve Governor Hyde, of Missouri: "The corner has definitely been turned. Missouri farmers being close to three great terminal markets, Kansas City, St. Louis and St. Joseph, have been more fortunate than farmers more remote from terminal markets."

Governor E. Lee Trinkle, of Virginia: "Agricultural conditions are recovering from deflation to some extent. Farmers are looking forward now as prices advance."

The wholesome effect of the late disastrous conditions is shown in the farmer's determination to organize and practice business principles in producing his crops. It is now beginning to diversify, to grow more food and feed crops and remove himself from the uncertainty of a one-crop dependence.

"The Virginia Department of Agriculture and more inquiries for farm land from all sections of the Union during the past two months than ever in its history."

Hopeful in Maine Governor Baxter, of Maine: "I consider the agricultural situation of Maine more favorable. The inquiry for Maine farms is five times as great as one year ago. Unquestionably the business of farming will be very attractive in Maine in the next ten years."

Governor Cox of Massachusetts and Governor Russell of Mississippi reported favorable conditions in those two states. Governor McKelvie of Nebraska was quoted as saying: "Nebraska has turned the corner and the prices of things have backed to normal and permanent prosperity. The farm value of principal agricultural products in Nebraska increased $65,357,000 between November 1, 1921, and March 1, 1922."

"While the prices for farm products have increased, the prices of things for which these products must be exchanged have declined. This realignment of exchange values is of basic importance and is perhaps the most significant indication of a return to normal prosperity. It gives profit now in nearly all branches of farming."

CUT RAILWAY RATES TO WEST'S SUMMER RESORTS

Reductions Are Made to Playgrounds of the Country—Scale Graduates CHICAGO, (AP)—Reductions ranging from 25 to 45 per cent will be declared on all railroads west of Chicago and St. Louis in round trip fares to western summer resorts effective in some territories May 15 to June 1, according to George J. Maguire, chairman of the tariff bureau of the Western Passenger Association. Reductions of 20 per cent on fares to eastern resorts will be declared on eastern railroads and applied concurrently on the western lines. It is anticipated that the reductions supplemented homeseeker rate of a one-way fare plus $2 for a month trip, which went into effect in March.

The summer tourist tickets will be sold only on September 20 at the price of a one-way fare plus and will be available for the larger distances to be held for the longer distances traveled.

NATIONALS FINISH TRAINING

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The National Olympic team finished their training week at the 1922 summer camp at which they met the Georgetown university in their final exhibition game. Manager Miller does not expect his confidence over the team's showing in taking seven out of eleven games in the series finished with the Boston Braves, which ended here yesterday with a 10 to 2 victory for the home team. What pleases him most about yesterday's game was that it was earned by two regular pitchers, Brill and Gleason.

INDIANS FULL OF PEP

CLEVELAND, (AP)—The regulars of the Cleveland Indians are back in their ball yard to complete their training for the 1922 season, which opens Wednesday.

Despite bad weather this spring, Manager Spenser says the players are in better shape than they were last year. He expects confidence that transfers to and tomorrow would put his men on edge. The regulars returned last night from Columbus, where yesterday they administered a 10 to 2 defeat to the Senators.

GAME IS PLENTIFUL IN MEXICO CITY MARKETS

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—A hunter's paradise is Mexico, and almost within sight of the capital are forests that abound in all sections of Mexico City markets. Venison is a staple and wild ducks and geese may be purchased for a few cents. Also available are well as varieties of pheasants and pigeons are sold from the streets by peddlers. Indians from the hills frequently travel to the city with a wild hog and turkeys may be had for the price of a turkey trip to a native hunter.

If one is so inclined a tender mow may be procured for Sunday breakfast. Also the Mexican cuisine, especially of the tropical regions, is fresh along all others.

A bit further removed from Mexico City lie the jungles of Vera Cruz and Guerrero, where tigers, leopards and even small lions make their home. Sportsmen who have visited these jungles assert the hunting is as good there as to be found in Africa.

PERFORMANCE TELLS TALE

Eddie Collins, Reported "Slipping," Offers Evidence to Critics on Subject

NEW YORK, (AP)—Eddie Collins of the White Sox, considered by many experts to be baseball's greatest second baseman, is "slipping," says John McGraw of the Giants. "During the White Sox-Giants game at the Polo Grounds yesterday McGraw charged his veteran center fielder, 'Kid' Gleason, in conversation. 'Now,' said the Kid, 'in the course of the tele-tele, Eddie Collins is the rascal. 'As you' mused McGraw, 'but he's slipping.' 'Why?' queried Gleason. 'Well, his beginning to get a double chin. It's a sure sign. They don't cover the ground or hit as well when they get that way.' At this juncture Eddie made a long drive and sprouted a line drive back of second with one hand and—Gleason laughed.

AROUND THE BASES

(By Hitzcamp)

Felix's game with Kimberly brought out the fact that Coach Evans has the makings of a team that looks as good if not better than last year's nine. It is understood, of course, that the boys need considerable polishing, as most of them are playing their first year of high school baseball. Playing amateur baseball and school baseball are as different as night and day.

The three members of last year's track two fix, Putzer, and Tompkins, Fix wasn't in the game Friday, but in Idaho Falls with the debating team. By the way, it is refreshing to know that the star athlete of the school was a member of the winning debating team. These things only go to prove that athletes are beneficial, and not detrimental, as thought by many who take no interest in sports, in the development of a student both mentally and physically.

the tallest man on the team, and probably the tallest in the league, will build for an ideal first baseman, and will make a real one if he listens to Coach Evans. Although no marks were chalked up against him in the error column, "Slim" had the tendency to "flop" and "flop" the ball a little. Why "Slim" came out there Friday depends like a Mack Bennett bathing beauty is beyond us. Put an old shirt on under your "tin," Slim, and the heavier it is the better the condition of your armor after each game. Yes, one of those red flannel affairs will do the work.

Hammond started off the season with some real hitting, making four nice hits, and none of them were fluky, either. Clean bingles in any league.

Gerold Jarman looks like a fixture at short. He is death on fly balls and looked good on the rebound. He is also a chucker, but with Fix and Laval Jarman on the mound it is doubtful whether Evans will have to take Gerold away from short. Gerold stole three bags Friday and is dangerous with the stick. His home run was a real clout, although fast hitting would have held him at third.

Now we come to Bob Putzer, the first string backstop. Bob is a keen ballplayer, and his experience under Evans' coaching last year stood him in good stead Friday. He catches in the main stem of a ball club, contrary to the general belief that a pitcher is the main cog. A pitcher faces but one man, while the backstop has eight men to take care of. A pitcher throws up a catcher tells him to do it and it is up to the catcher to watch the batters. For instance, a batter slaps a wide curve ball for a single; the next time he comes to the plate a fast one on the inside corner would be a good dish to serve him. If he should pole—that kind of it, it is a good policy to keep him away from the groove, and hope that he don't knock it out of the lot. Bob used his middle Friday, and it is much to his credit as it is to Laval Jarman's that Laval threw a solid game. Bob was full of pep, and kept up a good line of chatter all through the game. Show me a backstop that kills the batters and I'll show you a good backstop. "Putz" was a little too anxious Friday to do much with the bat, but we all know what he can do, so enough said.

Gene Thomas was a member of last year's team and looked extra good at the bat Friday. His three triples were all healthy swats. He had but one chance in left and missed that, but it was a hard chance. There is no excuse for missing there after you get both hits on them.

Laval Jarman looks as though he will be a steady change-off man for Fix in the box, and, like his brother, Gerold, can be used in the infield. His confidence Friday showed that the experience gained in the Twilight league last season turned into a wonderful asset. Laval looked good at the bat, too.

Not having seen Cliff Fix work out

as yet, it is impossible for the writer to get a line on him, but in all probability he will come in for his share of razzing after the next game.

To an outsider it looks as though the school team will line up in the following manner: Putzer, catcher; Fix and L. Jarman, pitchers; Hammond, first base; Harper, second base; G. Jarman, shortstop; Tompkins, third base; Thomas, left field; Russell, center field; Nye, right field. Of course the writer has not seen Moroni Johnson, Merrill Puckett, Blagins, and the others work out, so consequently cannot write about them. And don't forget that the above team is not Coach Evans' picking, and has nothing whatsoever to do with the way he is figuring on making up his team.

OPEN INSULT IS CAUSE OF FIGHT

Killing of One Man Believed Due to Ill Advised Criticism of Woman

CHICAGO, (AP) — Gun play to avenge an alleged insult to the sister of William "Salor" Friedman, prominent night-walk pugilist, was considered by the police today as one motive for the shooting in a west side saloon which resulted in the death of one man and the wounding of four others. Friedman is expected to surrender today and give officers his version of the shooting.

Alfred Hubin, the man killed, is believed to have been a bystander. One of those wounded is Charles Halesman, who is alleged to have given the insult to Mrs. Dora Greenburg, sister of the fighter.

Police were also giving consideration to a report that the gun battle was the outgrowth of trouble between rival gangs of hoodlums.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO, (AP) — Wheat secured a material uptick in price today during the early dealings, Liverpool quotations being sharply higher and crop reports from the southwest being less favorable. There was but little pressure to sell. Eastern interests led the buying. The opening, which ranged from 5 1/2 to 1.82 higher, with May $1.33 to 1.33 1/4 and July $1.21 1/4 to 1.21 1/4, was followed by moderate further gains and then something of a reaction.

A larger decrease than expected in the visible supply tended subsequently to send prices further upgrade with the close unsettled. May $1.35 3/8 to 1.33 3/4 and July $1.21 1/4 to 1.21 1/4.

Corn and oats sympathized with the wheat advance. After opening 1.80 to 3.8c higher, July 62 7/8 to 62c, the market gained a little more and then sagged somewhat.

Oats started unchanged to 1-4 up, July 39 7/8 and made a slight general advance before showing any tendency to halt.

Higher quotations on hops helped to give a lift to the provision market.

ARABS OBJECT TO JEWS AS PALESTINE'S RULERS

Division Between Rival Races Leads Hope for Separate State for Themselves

JERUSALEM, (AP)—The division between Arabs and Zionists over the establishment of the Jewish homeland in Palestine is becoming more clearly defined as the two opposing elements clash.

Before Winston Churchill told the Arab delegation in London a few weeks ago that the creation of a national independent government in Palestine could not be sanctioned now, the Arabs here had hoped that the British declaration would be scrapped and that an independent Arab Palestine would be set up under British advisors.

SNOW RETURNS IN CUSTODY TO ANSWER CHARGE

Seven Months Pursuit of Alleged Robber and Jail Breaker Ends in Capture in New Oil Field in Oklahoma

Clarence E. Snow, alleged robber and jail breaker captured last week in the Wilkings oil field, (Cango county, Oklahoma), by Deputy Sheriff V. H. Ormsby, at the end of a pursuit prosecuted for seven months by the sheriff's office, was Sunday returned to Twin Falls and lodged in the county jail to await the action of the court.

Withholds Story of Escape.

Deputy Sheriff Ormsby today declined to tell the story of Snow's escape as he learned it from Snow's companion in the oil field where he was captured. Snow was arrested at 11:30 a. m. April 7, 1922. In each case Snow is alleged to have held his victim at the point of a gun while the robbery was committed. Snow was transported from the county jail during the night of September 7, 1921, by sawing the bars and making a rope out of his prison clothing and lowering himself four stories to the ground.

The pursuit of Snow was carried on with his capture effected almost without any assistance from the authorities in the region in which he was located. Mr. Ormsby said. Effective assistance, however, was given by Snow's employers. The sheriff in that county, a new incumbent in the office succeeding the officer who had been lynched, was given by Snow's employers the Idaho officer's efforts to locate Snow among the workers in the new oil field. The population of that district, he asserted, is made up of a large number of criminals and dangerous outlaws.

Paymaster Given Aid.

The scene of Snow's arrest was about 20 miles from the county seat. The trial here was made by Mr. Ormsby and the oil company's paymaster, in a car over almost impassable roads. While the officer remained in the backcountry, the paymaster distributed copies of papers to the employees among whom he identified Snow. Mr. Ormsby, after locating his man, called to him and together they effected Snow's arrest. Snow displayed resistance about offering his hands to be handcuffed. He made no resistance, however.

Accuses Check Writer

Chief of Police Pursuits to Complaint Charging Felony Against A. E. Clemo

Complaint charging A. E. Clemo with issuance of fictitious checks, constituting a felony, was today filed in the probate court here by Prosecuting Attorney F. L. Stepien, at the instance of Ben J. Brown, Twin Falls chief of police. Clemo was taken in custody Friday night in a condition which the officer described as "very queer."

The complaint recites that Clemo used a fictitious name, that of J. H. Davis, in signing a check for $200 made payable to John Griffin, operator of a lodging house here. Other checks alleged to have been issued by Clemo under fictitious names are in the hands of the police.

Sheriff Counts Score Even when Ormsby's Disguise Almost Brings Him into Clutches of Constable

Sheriff E. R. Sherman today is regretting with gloom in connection with an incident in connection with Deputy Sheriff V. H. Ormsby's pursuit and capture of Clarence E. Snow, alleged robber and jail breaker, which, he considers, even the score as between himself and Ormsby with regard to Ormsby's use of a disguise on a recent occasion in an elaborate practical joke at his superior's expense.

The pursuit of Snow led at one time to a little town known as Batavia, in company with the sheriff of the county in which this town is situated, Ormsby went to Batavia in pursuit of his quarry. From the sheriff and his officer, Ormsby, who admitted that Snow would be apt to recognize him, donned a disguise including a false mustache which figured in the long chase and here robbed some of the boys. Arriving at the town, Ormsby took up a position in front of a bank building. It happened that this bank had been robbed some days previously. When Ormsby noticed that he was attracting the attention of the village constable and other bystanders, he fled. Ormsby, who was in disguise, and made his way through a number yard and across the school grounds to the railway depot. There he removed his disguise, bundled it up
