FRENCH TO BE CALLED ON CARPET

Deputation of Residents of Saar Valley Preparing Formidable List of Accusations to Lay Before Conference

GENOA (AP) - Conditions in the Saar valley control of which was awarded to France by the treaty of Versailles, are to be called to the attention of the economic conference by a delegation composed of prominent financial and other residents of the Saar, says the newspaper, L'Outillage, today. The French occupation, the deputation will declare, has caused a grave situation. It also will present numerous formidable accusations against the French troops.

Prayers were said in the churches of Genoa today for the success of the conference. Thousands of worshippers gathered to offer petitions for a blessing on the deliberations of the meeting.

At midnight Monsignor, archbishop of Genoa, celebrated mass and delivered a sermon emphasizing the historical moment through which Genoa and Europe were passing.

Asks Details of Plan.

George Clitcheer, head of the Russian delegation, has asked Signor Schanzer, chairman of the principal sub-committee, for exact interpretation of several points in the allied plan for the restoration of Russia.

M. Clitcheer desires especially an explanation of that part of the report dealing with the guarantees to be extended to foreigners in Russia, remarking that in other European countries foreigners are treated like citizens of the countries in which they reside.

The Russian delegates are carefully examining the recommendations, but the document is so long and so involved that the soviet may ask for more time to consider it. They think it will be difficult to have ready a reply in detail for the next meeting of the sub-committee, which has been arranged for Friday.

Merely Barty Basis.

As the report has not received the formal approval of the powers which convened the Genoa conference it is held in some quarters to be merely the basis for the opening of negotiations. They declare it may be far from the minimum the allies will accept from Russia in exchange for recognition.

Article 3 of the report declares that the soviet should assume responsibility for all material damage suffered by foreigners in consequence of the acts, or negligence of the soviet or its predecessors.

Organization of the economic commission of the conference was effected today by the election of M. Colrat, French under-secretary of state, as president. The commission then took up the question of the formation of a sub-committee and the appointment of such a sub-committee, composed of 12 members, was agreed to after considerable debate.

STRIKERS HARD AT WORK

Union Forces Direct Attention to Gaining Footing in Properties of H. C. Frick Coke Company

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) - Efforts of union organizers in the coke region of Pennsylvania were directed today against the stronghold of the H. C. Frick Coke company between Connelville and Uniontown with three expelled workers from the United Mine Workers headquarters at Indianapolis to augment the forces in this district. If they succeed in crippling the non-union plants in this section they indicated they expect the remainder of the fields to join the walkout. If they fail there is danger that most of the movement will return to work.

AGED COUPLE TO SEPARATE.

BATAVIA, N. Y. (AP) - Mrs. John Reins of this city, 78, has applied for a separation from her husband, 80, to whom she was married 40 years. She declares that her husband left her two years ago and she asks alimony. Mr. Reins has made answer that he is unable to pay alimony since his only income is a pension of $50 a month and his only possessions two cows, a pig and a plow.

RYAN NOT A CANDIDATE.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - William J. Ryan, in a statement given out Tuesday afternoon, announced his definite decision not to become a candidate for the United States senate from Florida.

Bandit Leaves Card and Now Languishes in Prison as Result

One of Three Armed Thugs Pays Dearly for Carelessness in Robbery in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) - One of three armed bandits who yesterday entered a private home and robbed a number of women who they were playing cards, is in jail here today. He thoughtlessly left his address behind.

Frank Harrington, 22, was arrested shortly after the robbery. Harrington's name was found on a slip of paper he handed one of the women when he gained entrance to the home by representing himself as "From the gas company." A companion helped Harrington search the woman while a third man served as a "look-out."

The slip of paper proved to be a note from a bank advising Harrington to pay a note which was due.

DECLARES HOUSE WILL STAND PAT

Chairman Fordney of Committee Outspoken in Favor of American Valuation

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) - The declaration by Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means committee that the house never would yield on American valuation has revived discussion of that tariff question at the capitol with opponents and proponents estimating their possible strength when the bill is taken to conference between the senate and house.

Chairman Fordney is of the opinion that the conferees will accept the American valuation, but Senator Smoot of Utah, ranking republican on the senate finance committee, does not subscribe to this view. As the situation now stands, it would appear that the conferees would be at least 7-7 against the prohibition.

Senator Smoot, who made the fight for foreign valuation before the senate committee majority, says he will not vote for American valuation in the conferees unless a modification of LaFollette of Wisconsin, the second ranking republican on the finance committee, voted against this valuation in the committee. Representative Green of Iowa, ranking republican on the ways and means committee, says he would vote for American valuation on the principle and the four democratic conferees, two from the house and two from the senate, are counted against it.

Fordney is Outspoken.

Chairman Fordney is outspoken for American valuation. Chairman McComb of the senate committee, and Representative Longworth of Ohio, the other two conferees, have made no statement as to their position since the senate committee majority definitely selected foreign valuation. Conferees generally were studying the new tariff bill as reported yesterday in the senate in preparation for the long days of conference that are ahead on the senate floor. Several amendments to the bill apparently have been offered from the republican side, while democratic leaders are preparing to make a general assault on the measure as well as separate attacks on many of the rates. Democrats on the finance committee have been given ten days in which to file their minority report.

White-Robed Callers Pay Two Visits with Results Which Differ

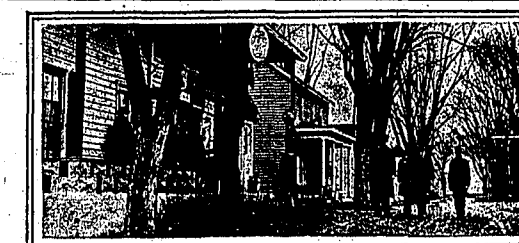

Alleged Members of Ku Klux Klan Face Shotgun in the Hands of Householder

BAKERSFIELD, Cal. (AP) - White robed and hooded men in seven automobiles last night took C. H. Light, resident of Bellows, out from the front of his home, and delivered a lecture to him and later called at the home of Gus Schoenfeld, druggist, who defied the visitors with a shotgun, whereupon they disappeared, according to a message received here today. The hooded men, it is said, represented themselves as Ku Klux Klansmen. They warned Light to seek employment, according to a report to the sheriff's office. The visitors did not make known their relation to Schoenfeld.

TESTIMONY IN STILLMAN CASE VARIES WIDELY

Attempted Bribery Alleged by Witness on Part of Attorney for Plaintiff - Parents of Guide Would Protect Son

MONTREAL, Que. (AP) - Severe cross-examination awaited the first blooded Indian, Louis Beausvais, father of the guide, Fred Beausvais, when the trial of the Stillman divorce case was resumed here today. Yesterday the Indian parents defended their son and Mrs. Anne U. Stillman against the charges of misconduct made by James A. Stillman, New York barrister, who alleged in suing for divorce that they had misbehaved in the Quebec woods and that Fred Beausvais was the father of little Guy Stillman.

In their testimony, Fred's father and mother sought to show it would have been impossible for workmen at the Stillman summer camp, near Grande Ance, Que., to have drawn said: rollie cartridges and peeped at Beausvais and Mrs. Stillman in the bedrooms of the lodge. They said there were no roller curtains on the windows at that time, the summer of 1918.

There were other points of difference between their statements and those of their neighbors who more than a year ago testified against Mrs. Stillman. The neighbors swore that Mrs. Stillman and Beausvais occupied adjoining rooms in the lodge and that the Stillman children, Anne, Alexander and James, slept in tents outside.

No Tent on Place.

Mr. and Mrs. Beausvais said there were no tents on the place at that time. The children and Mrs. Stillman occupied rooms on the ground floor, they said, and Beausvais slept outside.

Mrs. Beausvais, after identifying Fred's handwriting on three insignificant notes, however was said to have also identified a letter in which Fred told of the tents being on the place.

Bribery Charged.

Sheriff Simead testified that he overheard LaFontaine offer $500 to two workmen if they would swear they had seen wrongful conduct by Mrs. Stillman and Beausvais. This offer was alleged to have been made in June, 1920, just before Mr. Stillman filed his charges. Both testified in New York that they had peeped through windows and keyholes at the Stillman camp and seen Mrs. Stillman improperly conducting herself with Beausvais.

Tea, Bread and Syrup are Poor Fare for Youngsters

Witnesses Before Railroad Labor Board in Enquiry as to Living Conditions Declare Present Pay-All Too Little and Further Reductions Would Work Terrible Hardships Upon Maintenance of Way Employees

CHICAGO, (AP) - Human exhibits to prove that maintenance of way employees cannot live properly on their present pay today were brought before the United States railroad labor board hearing into the roads' demands for wage cuts when Frank P. Walsh, union attorney, called to the witness stand a number of employees who told the board their present earnings kept them underfed, underclothed and lacking some of the necessities of life.

Mrs. Joe Baboni, wife of a Milwaukee, Wis., section hand, was the first witness called by Mr. Walsh.

She told the board that she had to borrow the old coin she wore to make the trip here. At the end of her story she turned to the board members and said:

"I know that you won't cut my husband's pay when you know we can't live on what he's getting now."

Mrs. Rahoul said her husband's earnings that month were $70. Her monthly expenses for bare necessities for herself, her husband and their three children were given as $40 for groceries, $30 for rent, $15 for rent and $15 for milk. Her 10-year-old boy was told by a doctor patero that he had consumption and she took him out of school, but the school said he was merely under-nourished, she testified.

"We fed him mostly on tea, bread and syrup," she said.

Those Who Require Peace Protection Must Pay for Same

Youngstown, Ohio, Mayor Outlets Down Police and Fire Departments to Save Deficit

YOUNGSTOWN, O. (AP) - With the approval of the chamber of commerce, Mayor George L. Otis announced today that he would lay off within ten days all members of the police and fire departments, except 25 in each department, some 133 police, some 80 firemen at present.

Those who want additional fire and police protection must band together and hire it, the mayor said. The city has no money to pay salaries and the banks have refused to lend any.

WEEKS DECLARES HIS DEPARTMENT WELCOMES PROBE

Secretary, in Formal Reply to Charges, Says Everything Possible Is Being Done to Protect People's Interests

WASHINGTON, (AP) - In a formal statement replying to charges made yesterday on the floor of the house Secretary Weeks declared today that "the war department was doing 'everything possible' to clear up war contract controversies in such a way as to fully protect the interests of the federal government.

Referring specifically to requests for an investigation made by Representative Johnson, republican, South Dakota, and Woodruff, republican, Michigan, the secretary said that if congress thought an inquiry advisable the war department would "welcome it."

Costs and properly amounting to "many millions" already had been recovered in the present administration, the secretary said, and other contracts were being reviewed as rapidly as possible.

Referring to statements that the firm of Hornblower and Weeks had been involved in sale of the Beach Magneto company, J. C. Weeks said he had not been connected with that firm since 1913.

JURORS AGAINST DEATH PENALTY

Second Trial of Arthur C. Burch Delayed Because of Difficulty in Filling Box

LOS ANGELES, Cal. (AP) - Opposition to the infliction of the death penalty is delaying the selection of a jury for the second trial of Arthur C. Burch for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, in which examination of more than 100 names was expected to continue at the opening of court today.

After the death of seven men seemed probable today. Only six names remained on the roll in Judge Sidney N. Reeves' court when, however, a new panel of 100 was used to report tomorrow. Already 68 names have been examined and only 12 have been passed for cause.

Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, mother of the slain broker, is reported critically ill.

FORMER WARDEN OF MONTANA IS BEFORE COURTS

Late Head of State Penitentiary Accused of Appropriating More Than $300,000 to His Own Use During Term

HELENA, Mont., (AP)—Frank Conley, former warden of the Montana state penitentiary, entered the district court today to defend himself against charges of misappropriating during his term as prison official, property valued at approximately $300,000. Probably no case in the history of Montana has attracted such state-wide interest. Political factions of the state have lined up both for and against the former warden and it is said the results of the present suit will do more to divide issues at the coming election in November than any other one factor.

Conley entered the employ of the state prison at Deer Lodge as a guard more than 30 years ago. Some time later he and Thomas McTague took the penitentiary over under contract. They operated the institution at considerable profit until it was taken over by the state in 1909. Conley, who had been the active head of the prison, was continued as warden until April 17, 1921, when he was displaced by Governor Joseph M. Dixon. M. W. Potter was appointed warden, which position he now holds.

Misappropriation Alleged.
Following Conley's dismissal much bitterness sprang up between the opposing political factions. As a result Governor Dixon appointed T. H. MacDonald, a Kalamath attorney, to investigate the affairs of the penitentiary. MacDonald was appointed in April, 1921, and filed his report with the governor and prison commission on November 25. In it he alleged misappropriations by Conley of state property valued at more than $300,000.

After many meetings of the prison board, appointment of an investigating commission and other maneuvers, Attorney General William D. Barkley filed suit against Conley for an accounting late in January. The suit is one in equity and was set for trial before Judge A. J. Horvay in the Lewis and Clark county district court.

After the suit was filed, Barkley's attorneys then agreed to submit amended complaints and answers. The attorney general filed his amended complaint on March 23, alleging Conley owed the state more than $300,000, as a result of misappropriations and other impositions. As the suit is one in equity it is not being tried before a jury. It is expected several weeks will be required to try the case.

ANOTHER OREGON JERSEY BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD

Year's Production of Butter Fat Well Over That of "Plain Mary" of Maine

SALM, Ore., (AP)—Another Oregon Jersey cow has broken a world's record and now holds the championship for all nature animals, according to information telegraphed from New York by the American Jersey Cattle club. She is Lad's lota, owned by S. J. McKee of Independence, Ore. The cow's record for the year ending last Friday night was 1,017.01 pounds of butter fat. This beats by 7.26 pounds the previous record held by Plain Mary a Maine cow.

In the Jersey list are eight classifications, beginning with cows under two years old and ending with mature cows, those above five years old. Oregon now holds the records for seven of the eight classifications.

Happenings of a Day In Sports

GREAT CROWDS WELCOME STARS OF BIG LEAGUE

Every Indigation Points to Record Breaking Attendance at Season's Opening in the New York Polo Grounds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Warm weather, but overcast skies, ushered in the baseball season of 1922 here today. Weather forecasts, however, brought cheering assurance to the fans of Manhattan and Brooklyn that the day's events would not mar the big day of the year for those who went to the Polo grounds to see that National league team of the two boroughs begin hostilities.

Douglas or Nohr were the pitchers considered most likely to face the batter for the Giants, while "Dutch" Ruether, whose work had shown remarkable turn, was looked on as the hurler for Brooklyn.

New York was without the services of Erlich, second baseman, who was sent home from the south with an infected foot, but his place was taken by Hawley, who played a star game in the youth's series last fall. Brooklyn presented her strongest lineup. High, the new Dodger shortstop, and Deberry, a catcher new to the Brooklyn team, were the strange faces in the outfit commanded by Will Rubinson.

The Yankees were in Washington to open the American league season. Boston and Philadelphia were also ready for today's opening. The National league season was to be initiated in the Quaker City by the Braves, while Connie Mack's Athletics were in Boston to meet the Red Sox.

Slow to Proceed.
Neither manager of the two major league pennant winners of 1921 was predicting this year that his team will lead in front, but each foresees close and hard fought races.

John J. McGraw, pilot of the Giants, world's champions, believed his combination was a better one than last year's aggregation, but he said the "luckies" would determine the outcome.

"I never predict where my team is going to finish at the end of the season," said McGraw. "I'm too long in the business for that. But we'll be right in the fight from the start, and in equity it is not being tried before a jury. It is expected several weeks will be required to try the case."

"I figure that the same four teams in the last season, New York, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Boston, have a chance for the pennant and that the race will be just as interesting as a year ago."

Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, champions of the American league, admitted that the five weeks' lapse of Ruth and Stewart at the start of the season would furnish a big handicap.

Only Question of Time.
"It will be important," he said, "how the club plays during that period. If it keeps fairly well up in the race our chances should improve after they get started. The team will have to fight to make up the ground lost. The Yankees have been training hard. The pitchers still are a bit backward, and the team is not hitting as well as it can, but it is only a question of time before we get started."

"I look for another close race in the American league," Cleveland, St. Louis and Washington all figure to give the Yankees a battle, and in each case the pitching will play a big part. That is why I am glad I have a staff composed of Hays, Hoyt, Jones, Bush and Shawkey."

The News is read by the permanent earning classes.

WILL THROW FIRST BALL

President Harding Scheduled to Open Game Between Nationals and Yankees

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—President Harding was on the program to throw the first ball today and start the Nationals and the Yankees on their way in the 1922 championship race. Official business in Washington was expected to give way to the event, with members of the senate and house, high officials of the army and navy, and others planning to attend. The weather man had promised ideal baseball weather.

The pitching selections were Morgan for Washington and Hoyt, the youthful star of the last world's series for New York. The last minutes with which Manager Milan made in the Nationals' lineup was to bench himself in favor of Earl Smith in left field in recognition of the latter's excellent work during the training season. The conspicuous feature on the Yankees' side of the lineup was the absence of Ruth and Meusel from the outfield. The "Babe" had arranged to view the excitement from the grandstand, his 30-day suspension not permitting him to go present on the field during a game.

BYZEMO WINS AGAIN.
HOUSTON, Texas, (AP)—Stanislav Byzemo, former heavyweight wrestling champion, won in two straight falls from Yusuf Gorman, Turkish grappler, here last night.

PITCHERS ARE SELECTED FOR OPENING GAME

Commissioner Landis Prepares to Witness Opening of Season from Grandstand; Ticket Sales are Enormous

CHICAGO, (AP)—Chilly winds will make the warming up process difficult and may serve to cool the hot enthusiasm in the new major league baseball season opens today in the western cities of the big circuit. Everything seemed auspicious for the grand entry of another season except the weather and there were hopes that by game time the clouds might pass over and the schedules could be started on time. The advance seat sale in all cities has been heavy. Fair weather only is needed to bring out the beneficiaries. The Chicago Americans will start the season here with the St. Louis Browns. The Urban boys—Pabst for the White Sox and Shorker for the Browns—have been selected as the opening pitchers. Shork will catch for the Sox and Soverell for St. Louis. K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, will watch the season get under way from the stands.

Go by Probably Out.
The other American league game at the western end will be played at Cleveland with Detroit as the visiting team. The Tigers probably will start without their manager, Ty Cobb, who suffered an injury in an exhibition game. He expects to get back in condition before playing again. The National league schedule for this end of the circuit brings together Chicago and Cincinnati at the latter's home grounds and Pittsburgh and St. Louis in the Cardinals' park. Manager Killifer is expected to send Gover Alexander against the Reds at Cincinnati. Charlie Hartnett, a regular catcher, will receive. In the Reds box will be, according to present indications, Eppa Rixey with Ivy Wingo catching. There was some uncertainty at St. Louis regarding battery selection. Either Sherbell or Haines and Clemmons will be the Cardinals' battery. Adams or Glazer will pitch for the Pirates, with Gooch receiving.

TEXAS ONE DAY LATE.
DALLAS, Texas, (AP)—The Texas baseball league gets into action for the sixteenth season tomorrow, in reality the twenty-first year of continuous baseball in Texas, the old Texas league formed in 1902 and the South Texas in 1903 having united in 1907 in the present circuit.

RUTH GETS CASH OFFER

Famous Slugger Need Not Suffer Penitentially During Extended Lay-Off for Thirty-Eight Days

CHICAGO, (AP)—"Babe" Ruth, with the gates of American league parks closed to him for 38 days, has been offered $100,000 for his playing services if he will join a semi-professional team here. That was the figure named by the team manager at a meeting of his association last night. He drew a laugh. A call for cold facts produced a document from the manager of the Chicago, the City Hall team in the Midwest league, showing that he had signed Dick Kerr, former Chicago American pitcher. The announcement was also made that Charley Deal, former Chicago National player, had agreed a week ago to play with the same team but that he had asked for his release and had reported to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league.

Why the $10.90 USCO is better than just a $10.00 tire

November 10, 1921, the 30 x 3 1/2 "Usco" was marked to sell for $10.90.

This odd and closely figured price was the lowest quotation ever made on any tire of known standards.

A genuine pioneering step by the makers of U. S. Tires.

Now comes a lot of different $10.90 tires being rushed into the market. "Special" tires. "New" tires.

Unfamiliar to look at—with perhaps an atmosphere of having been made to meet the price.

But the "Usco" still occupies a place by itself. A good old standby on millions of cars for years. Better than it ever was.

Still putting the emphasis on honest quality, even if it does sell for only ten dollars and ninety cents.

The $10.90 tire with the record of a proven product.

The tire that people still buy for the dignity of its quality regardless of the low amount they pay.

HARD WORK IS EXPLANATION OF LONG LIFE

Famous Twins at Age of 90, Work Daily on Farms and Declare Intention to Keep at It as Long as They Live

HEAVENWORTH, Kan., (AP)—The friends of James and Joel Chestnut, twins, who celebrated their ninetieth birthday anniversary last October 11 on the farm of the former near here, are prone to dispute the claim of the Woodville, O., twins, William H. Sr., and Henry Bruns to the title of "oldest living twins in the United States," at the age of 88.

The recipe for long life of the Kansas twins is similar to that of the Oldham—"work." Each of the Chestnut twins owns a farm and works on it daily, still being able to keep pace with a farmer working "three-acre and ten" years their junior. Plans of relatives for the twins to retire, always have provoked a protest: "Our chief enjoyment in life is working on our farms. If we hadn't kept busy all these years we probably would have died long ago."

At a party given by the twins on their ninetieth birthday, Jim remarked: "I'm going to keep right on working up until a time as long as I can." So striking is the resemblance to the Chestnut twins, that when they don their "Sunday clothes" and have their heads trimmed, it is difficult to tell them apart. Like the Bruns twins, the Chestnuts also are pioneers, having settled in Kansas in the late '50s. For 63 years they have lived on the farms they now occupy.

SACRED RELICS ARE NOT EXEMPT

Robbers Defile Famous Chapel and Secure Precious Stones Worth Millions of Rubles

MOSCOW, (AP)—In the midst of the campaign of repatriation of church treasures, the famous chapel of the Kremlin in Moscow, which has been robbed, has been defiled by robbers, who secured jewels valued at five million gold rubles by stripping some of the most sacred icons in Russia of their diamonds and pearls and taking jeweled necklaces, crowns and other valuables.

The robbers cut a hole in the roof of the chapel the night of April 7 and descended into the church by means of a rope ladder. The jeweled copy of the most holy Ikerian icon, brought to Moscow in 1483 from Athens, and before which innumerable captives paid homage every time they passed into the Kremlin, was also partly defaced; the tiny chapel, which has always been the arena for the devout of orthodox faith, was strewn with broken images and other sacred furnishings which the robbers apparently were unable to carry off with them.

When the news of the robbery gained circulation the chapel was thronged with the crowds of the faithful who attended a special service.

COULD NOT ACCEPT REWARD But the Druggist Must Have Had His Opinion of His Woman Put on His Services.

The druggist had stopped in the middle of putting up a dilapidated prescription and deftly removed from the woman's eye the cinder that had been causing her great pain.

"Ah, thank you so much," she gushed. "How much?"

"Nothing at all," he replied coolly.

"O, but you should let me pay you something—you really should! My sure it would be only right to pay you for your time. It took all of five minutes—or at least we will call it five minutes, though of course it wasn't really so long—and if your time is worth $8 a day—and really I think druggists should make that much—though of course they do not work so hard as carpenters or painters—why that would come to—let me see, why nearly 10 cents—or at least it would be call it 20 cents, though it would really be about 5 cents, would it not?"

"No, madam," the druggist replied firmly. "We are glad to do these little services for our customers, and I recall distinctly that you have bought most of your postage stamps here for a long while."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Won't Pay Debts of Lady Craven, Husband Says

He will not pay the debts of Lady Craven, asserts the Earl of Craven, in an advertisement published in London newspapers. The Earl, whose mother was a daughter of Bradley Martin of New York, recently was named respondent in a divorce suit. It is charged that he eloped to France with Countess Cathcart.

OLD ENMITIES ARE FORGOTTEN

Conference Brings Into Friendly Relationship Men Who Were Mortal Foes

GENOA, (AP)—Diplomats in making strange bed fellows in Genoa, or rather, Genoa is doing so, if one chooses to keep the statement, reiterated 20 times daily by its friends, that the Genoa conference is not political. It certainly is unusual to find the soviet chief, Chicherin, sitting side by side with Constantine Dinnikoff, 74 years ago the bolshevik had Dinnikoff in jail in Petrograd. At that time he was the Russian minister accredited to the Kerensky government and the diplomats of the whole world were alomg against the soviet's violation of his diplomatic immunity. The night of August 10th and the German chancellor, Dr. Brüning, in conversation recalls Joffe's very audacious escapade from Berlin four years ago. He was then bolshevik ambassador in Berlin, according to the terms of the Brest-Litovsk treaty. Dinnikoff, German government unceremoniously headed him and his entire staff on a special train and shipped them back to Russia, obliging they were propagandists and not diplomats.

It also seems odd for M. Rakovsky and Premier Dinnikoff of Romania to be sitting together at a conference called in the interests of peace. Rakovsky was an active Romanian socialist at the beginning of the world war, and the Bucharest government in 1917 turned him over to the president of the Ukrainian republic, federated with Moscow.

Then there is the cordiality with which the British minister, Mr. Lloyd George, greets Maxim Litvinoff. Their attitudes here do not in the least suggest the stormy time Litvinoff had in England before he became Chicherin's chief assistant in Moscow.

But in four years the bolsheviks have made more treaties than the other European states have completed in the same time. By the professional diplomats have to admit the Russians are no novices, and must be dealt with accordingly here.

UNABLE TO RECOGNIZE TUNES

Many People of Commanding Ability Have Admitted Lack of Appreciation of Music.

Lord Breckinhead, lord high chancellor (better known in America some cents ago as "Baldy Smith") confessed at a public dinner recently that he recognized the tune of "God Save the King" only because people stand up when it being played.

Some other famous people had a equally poor ear for music—one, the Duchess Dupleix, Dr. Ethel Smyth, who for 20 years was a neighbor of the empress during her English exile at Farnborough and was constantly in her company, says she was totally devoid of musical instinct. Once when a lord hand struck up "Farrant pour la Syrie" in her honor the empress looked it for "God Save the King." Sir Walter Scott was equally impervious to music, though many passages in his writings imply that he liked and understood it. "In music," he told Lord Melbourne, "I don't know high from low."

WONDERFUL IS HUMAN MIND

Man Believes What He Wants to Believe, and Then Finds Reasons to Confirm Convictions.

A wonderfully curious organ is the human mind, a never-failing source of humor—that by the minds of other people. And that is a part of the humor. "If I kill you, it's all right," Leech made one of the Paul Church carriages to another; "but if you kill me, by Jove, it's murder."

We clearly see the defects in the reasoning of acquaintances. They And this is evidence of the correctness of our own beliefs. It proves our ability to interpret conditions and to draw conclusions, or it would were proof of such a self-evident fact necessary. The agreement of our friends shows that we are free from the mental weaknesses of them who do not agree with our views.

It also proves the intelligence of our associates. And that would not have intelligent friends. That is our reason for choosing them, or, rather, the reason why our opinions change them. We think that we select our friends, but this is one of the human delusions. Our opinions are the selective force. This is a phase of our defensive social behavior. It preserves our good opinion of ourselves.

We believe what we want to believe and then find reason to confirm our convictions. Of course, we do not deliberately seek arguments for views which we already hold. Usually, we are not even aware that our opinions are fixed, so subtly have they gained the mastery.

We think that we are open-minded seekers after truth. But business and social interests have determined our views and we are really trying to justify them, so as not to disturb ill of ourselves. Self-interest is even more important psychologically than the esteem of others. And this human craving for self-justification by argument sets in motion the defensive neutral mechanism which gives the mental error, defensive toadying. We must justify ourselves to ourselves—Edgar James Swift in Scribner's.
