Upper House Expected to Pass Bill by Vote Similar to That Recorded in House—Veto is Very Unlikely

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Informal canvasses made by leading opponents of the soldiers' bonus bill were said Saturday to have disclosed a senate majority for the measure of practically three to one. This compares with the nearly five to one vote by which the bill passed the house...

Both sides in the impending fight were understood to have found some satisfaction in the result of the canvasses. Opponents said defeat of any closure rule to limit debate on the bill practically was assured while some proponents pointed out that three to one majority could be held there would be the necessary votes to pass the measure over President Harding's veto...

Thirty senators were listed as "against the amended bonus bill" with this number possibly to be augmented by one senator who is absent from Washington and whose position has not yet been definitely established...

A number of senators who are counted now as supporters of the present bill if no definite one can be put through will join in a fight to amend the measure reported by the finance committee. Some of them favor a cash feature, with other important changes but the extent to which it will be possible to change the pending bill is regarded now as problematical.

Five Injured In Coal Mine Riots Over Union Help

Demand That the Unorganized Workers Lay Down Tools Met With Attack

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., (AP)—Quiet reigned Saturday night at the Kerns company and Morris and Paolker mines near here following disturbances Saturday which resulted in the serious injury to two men and the death of one. The rioters began early this morning when about 100 men marched to the Kerns company mine and demanded that non-union men employed there lay down their tools. The demand was refused and the crowd rushed the employer, injuring two of the rioters in the fighting that followed.

MAIN WITNESS ALLOWED TO GO

J. J. Cunningham Departs for New York; Police Search for Accused's Father

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., (AP)—White District Attorney Weeks and Sheriff Werner were perfecting plans for getting the father and brother of Walter S. Ward, who has confessed to killing Clarence Peters, before the grand jury next week, Maurice J. McCarthy, attorney for J. J. Cunningham, who is held as a material witness, Saturday got $2,600 bail for his client...

Cunningham, who was freed after a visit to Justice Platt's home here, started at once for New York. Meanwhile, the sheriff, his deputies and the lone county detective, reinforced by private detectives, kept plugging away along the admittedly slender lines which have been opened to them.

On Hunt for Father They tried to find George B. Ward, father of Walter S. Ward, and one of the founders of the bank company which carries his name, but if they were successful, they did not announce it. Sheriff Werner, as usual, stayed within hearing distance of his telephone, hoping momentarily to hear that the lost Rogers and Jackson, last heard of in Fresno, have been brought back into the picture.

RETAILERS WILL KEEP WORD WITH HERBERT HOOVER

Co-operation of National Association of Coal Dealers Now Assured, Commerce Secretary Believes

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senatorial objection to the administration's effort to prevent rising coal prices was withdrawn Saturday pending a demonstration of the success of Secretary Hoover's program of meeting the situation by moral persuasion, while assurance of co-operation were given the commerce secretary in his efforts by the National Retail Coal Merchants association.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, joined with Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, in announcing his intention of withholding demand for congressional investigation of the coal price problem, although he declared that if advances were not quickly achieved he would seek to determine the facts and, if necessary, urge indictments if profiteering existed.

Roderick, Stephens of New York, the chairman of the board of directors of the retail coal association, wrote Secretary Hoover that his organization would immediately study the "appellate suggestions offered as a basis for the guidance of the retail coal trade."

Satisfied With Program

Developments in the coal price controversy since his conference with Senator Borah Friday night were regarded Saturday by Mr. Hoover as giving him the support and co-operation necessary to push his program of "moral persuasion," to keep charges for fuel from climbing during the emergency.

"Senator Borah's useful warning," Mr. Hoover said in a statement, "is no aid or comfort would be given from the committee of the senate of which he is chairman, to those who have refused to co-operate in the voluntary plan of restraining coal prices will, I trust, put an end to the recent actions of some people in attempting to upset these arrangements through senatorial support."

Desire to Co-operate

"The national coal retailers association now informs me that they wish to co-operate and I have no doubt they will reply to my original propositions. There seems to be some mistaken impression that the secretary of commerce has unduly attempted to control prices other than the desire of the administration to use its good offices to protect the public. Congress has given no powers to the administration and in their absence if these good offices prove ineffectual it is up to congress to devise some other method."

WILL SHOW UP PRICE VARIETY

Report to Make Clear Reasons for Spread Between Producer and Consumer

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house committee will be informed, in a forthcoming report by the joint commission on agricultural inquiry, why the pay so much for fruits and vegetables, and the farmer will learn why he gets so little.

Chairman Anderson of the committee will be informed, in a forthcoming report by the joint commission on agricultural inquiry, why the pay so much for fruits and vegetables, and the farmer will learn why he gets so little.

The commission's report will show, Mr. Anderson said, that the fundamental different principles govern the price to the producer—supply and demand; and the principle of fixed charges. The sale price of fruits and vegetables, he added, was determined by the relation of supply to demand rather than by cost of production, the growers' return being largely determined by the wholesale price which is a fluctuating factor.

Lack of proper terminal market facilities was found to be one reason for the wide difference between producers' and consumers' prices.

New Sense of Flight

Flying requires the development of a new special sense, the sense of flight. This sense is not inborn; it may be developed, but cannot be created all at once. There are men of splendid physical equipment and intelligence who could never make more than passable aviators. A good aviator should feel entirely at ease in space.

He should be able to recognize at once the slightest trouble with his machine in any one of the three dimensions of space. He should react to the invisible movements of the atmosphere. The capacity to feel or sense conditions in the air and to respond properly with precise muscular contractions comes only through training, but these are based on normal physiological bodily conditions that are not possessed by all men.

APPLE CROP IS 600 CARS SHORT

Idaho Crop Forecaster Sees a Gain in the Production of Peaches and Pears

BOISE, (AP)—Idaho's 1922 commercial apple crop is estimated at 3,654,000 bushels, or 822 cars (it was announced Friday by Julius H. Jacobson, agricultural statistician in a special survey of the fruit condition as of June 1.

Mr. Jacobson's forecast of the apple crop is based on reports from hundreds of correspondents in all parts of the state, information obtained from the best-informed fruit men in the state and reports from fruit inspectors of the state department of agriculture.

The estimated production is exceptionally heavy, the report says, in spite of the heavy frosts of May, 8 and 9 and the bumper crops of the past two years, which resulted in many orchards having a light bloom this year.

Peaches Show Gain

This year's estimated apple crop is less than the 1921 crop by about 600 cars, but peaches and pears both show substantial gains over 1921. It is estimated there will be 208,000 bushels of peaches in Idaho this year while in 1921 there were but 150,000 bushels. Pears are estimated at 70,500 bushels as compared with 55,000 bushels in 1921.

The total apple production last year was 4,000,000 bushels.

The United States apple crop is almost double that of 1921 but not so large as the 1920 crop. In 1920 there were 22,000,000 bushels grown, last year the production was but 9,500,000 while in 1922 it is estimated there will be 17,800,000 bushels in the country. Large increases are forecast for practically all the important apple producing states, New York leading with an estimated production of 30,000,000 bushels. The national peach production is estimated at 55,000,000 bushels and pears at 15,000,000 bushels.

Ada county—Apple crop smaller because of heavy crop last year. Prunes not hurt by frost and there will be a big crop.

Canyon county—Apples close to 95 to 100 per cent in Parma section; 80 per cent in Roswell and 75 per cent in Apple Valley. Sweet cherries and peaches damaged by frost.

Payette county—Apple orchards spotted to full crop. Prune crop best in years. Peas and cherries very good. Many orchards have light bloom because of heavy crop last year. Three weeks late but general appearance and condition good.

Gem county—"Best fall around" fruit crop is sight we have ever had. Full crop of grapes and 85 per cent crop of apricots.

Washington county—Wineaps, Jonathans and Bonnet are somewhat light but deficiency is counterbalanced by practically 100 per cent Delicious crop. Fruit will grade higher due to better care of orchards.

Bloom Is Lighter

Adams county—Lighter bloom than last year. No frost-damage. Peas and peaches almost full crop.

Twin Falls county—Frost damage quite severe, especially on peaches, sweet cherries and early apples. Full crop of sour cherries and 90 per cent late apple varieties.

Nes Perce county—Fruit trees never looked better. Good outlook for large crop of apples, peaches, pears and cherries.

Footenall county—Orchards remarkably free from disease and pests. Season late. Almost full crop of apples, peaches and pears. Peaches and cherries damaged by frost.

HOW TO RUN BASES

Base running is a very important department of baseball. It helps to win games. So every player should to the best of his ability, become a base runner. Speed is valuable but not essential to good base running. Good judgment, getting a good start on the pitcher and a good slide are the things that make a good base runner. Base running implies running bases on batted balls as well as stealing bases. The art of base running is so intricate that it can be learned only by practice and by experience. These lessons assume to impart only the fundamentals of the game to young players. The one points must be learned by actual play, practice and experience. It may be said, however, that base running is capable of vast improvement. It is

GOOD BASE RUNNER WILL TAKE A LOT OF

From 15 to 18 feet off first base on a good pitcher. Amateur base runners take a lead of some 6 or 8 feet - not half enough. Take a good lead. Slide back first when he throws to base. A good start is even more important than a good lead. When you have got the pitcher's motion and make up your mind to go, get into your stride quickly and without effort. Keep your eye on the corner of the bag to which you mean to slide. Don't look at the catcher or at the baseman. Look only at the base. A hook slide with either foot is necessary to good base running. The hook slide means that you slide your body some distance off the bag then reach over and touch the bag with a hook of the knee. The free foot may be ahead of the bag

SLIDING BACK TO FIRST BASE

Fecklpaugh (Yankee) has taken an 18 foot lead off first on Shocker's pitch. Shocker is trying to touch off Fecklpaugh, but the hook slide takes the runner away from Slaker's quick motion to touch him out.

no better now than it was 30 years ago. A change, such as some players are making a considerable slide off third base, will revolutionize the entire art of base running.

The first thing for a base runner to do is to get a good lead on the pitcher's motion. This should be done if possible before going to bat. Observe the opposing pitcher closely and try to find out if he has not got some peculiar motion which will let you know in advance when he is about to deliver the ball to the batter. Also watch for a deceptive motion that may catch a runner off base.

GET THE PITCHER'S PECULIARITIES is the first step in base running. Do they take three throws and touch runners well? Measure the pitcher. What you are confident that you know his abilities take a lead accordingly. A

THOMAS KELLEY RESIGNS AS UNIVERSITY'S COACH

Leaves Idaho Institution to Return to the University of Missouri

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW (Special to The News) - Thomas Kelley, for two years head of the University of Idaho athletic department and football coach, has tendered his resignation to President Upham. The resignation was accepted by the state board of education, in action taken during commencement week, to take effect Sept. 1.

Coach Kelley has received an attractive offer to become head football coach at the University of Missouri where he was an assistant coach before Idaho brought him west. At the end of his first year in Idaho he signed a three-year contract, which has two unexpired years.

"We have no one in mind at present who will handle the work," said A. H. FLY ACROSS NORTH POLE

Amundson's Plans Materially Altered; Will Leave Ship on Extensive Flight

LONDON, (P) - Captain Roald Amundson, the explorer, who is about to begin a five-year expedition into Arctic regions, says in a message to the Times that the plan was for his ship, Maud, which sailed from Seattle, Wash., recently for Nome, to drift across the Polar ocean, while short reconnaissance trips would be made in small planes.

Disappointments, however, had caused considerable change in the flying plans and should conditions allow he would start with Lieutenant Omdal, his pilot, from Point Barrow, flying across unknown regions of the Polar basin, across the North Pole and thence to Cape Columbia, (Green Land), where a depot had already been established.

WEBB HUBBELL OUT OF GAME FOR REMAINDER OF SEASON

HUBBELL - Webb Hubbell, pitcher for the Philadelphia Nationals, who was struck by a batted ball May 24, continues to improve according to messages received by Mrs. Hubbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Samuels. Mrs. Hubbell arrived in Philadelphia and went immediately to the bedside of her husband. He has gained to such an extent that he has been able to leave the hospital. X-ray pictures show three fractures in the skull and surgeons state that it is only a miracle that Webb is alive. They say that his survival is only due to his good habits and clean living. In all probability Webb is out of the game for the season. Mrs. Hubbell will stay for a month and if Webb continues to improve satisfactorily he will then return to Phil. Whether or not Webb will accompany her home is not known.

COUNCIL DROPS ITS PLANS FOR 14-MONTH AUDIT

Pledge of Successors and Expense Involved Constrain Retiring Administration to Leave Record as It Stands

In view of the fact, as presented by E. A. Wilson, retiring administrator, that a detailed audit covering bond issues, sinking funds, and various other phases of Twin Falls' municipal finance would involve an expenditure of between $2500 and $5000, and in view of the fact that the administration of municipal government July 1, has given its pledge to have made a detailed audit covering the last five years' financial operations of the city; the city council members, at a special meeting last evening, decided to decline its pledge to have made an audit covering municipal affairs during their 14 months term of office.

Members of the council expressed the opinion that the audit they had considered would be duplicated by the audit of wider scope promised by their successors, and that making such an audit covering the last 14 months period would involve an expense that ought not to be imposed upon Twin Falls taxpayers under these circumstances.

The councilmen were advised that an audit covering only cash receipts and disbursements of the city during the 14 months period would cost approximately $200.

Consideration of the audit question was incidental to the principal purpose of the session which was to canvass the returns of the election Tuesday for mayor and councilmen under the commission form of government.

Election Returns Tally.

The official canvass tallied exactly with the unofficial returns of the election heretofore announced.

Under the commission form of government, the council adopted by unanimous vote, a resolution declaring J. D. Tucker elected mayor, and E. J. Roberts, B. S. All and P. L. Cogswell elected councilmen.

The resolution declared further that the regular number of councilmen for the commission form law, had not been elected and that by reason thereof it became necessary to hold a second election of one additional councilman.

Only Two Names on Ballot.

Only the names of W. H. Dwight and E. G. St. Aubrey, who were elected by the committee of candidates for councilmen not elected, will appear on the ballots at the second election, which is to be held Tuesday, June 27.

REQUEST VERY UNPOPULAR

Invitation to Admiral Baron Kato to Form New Cabinet Strongly Opposed

TOKYO, (AP)—Popular feeling is running so high over the recommendation of the senate that Admiral Baron Kato, regarded by many of the people as a reactionary, he asked to form a cabinet to succeed that of Viscount Takahashi that the admiral's residence is being closely guarded.

Constitutionalists, supported by a majority of the members of the senate, are carrying on a strenuous campaign against the formation of a bureaucratic, or non-party cabinet, such as they declare, Kato's would be.

Parades formed in protest against the Kato-for-primers movement, visited the representatives of the admiral and of the members of the senate.

In the meantime Kato is sounding out his friends on the situation and is reported to have made up his mind to refuse the premiership unless he can obtain the strongest possible cabinet.

ASK SUPPORT ON ACTUAL RECORD

Keynote of Republican Campaign Throughout Nation Sounded at Columbus

COLUMBUS, (AP)—Sounding the keynote of the coming republican congressional campaign throughout the nation, Congressman S. D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the republican national congressional committee, and several republican candidates Saturday night declared that the republican congress has made good on every one of the platform pledges of 1920 and that republican congressional candidates will face the voters this fall on an affirmative platform.

The address was made before the Buckeye republican club.

"This campaign will be aggressive and not defensive, because we are going before the country with a record of constructive legislation accomplished which is the greatest and most constructive ever not through by any previous congress in the history of the nation. We have nothing to hide or to be ashamed of," declared the Ohio congressman.

Asserting that much which progress has been made in international affairs dealing with fundamental economic problems both national and international, he said the republican party has "decided to go before the voters with the record and undertake the task of educating the people on the meaning and significance of what has been accomplished."

FEAR FELT FOR PRINCE'S LIFE

Decision to Permit Visit in Cairo of British Heir Apparent Strongly Criticized

LONDON, (AP)—There is much apprehension here concerning the safety of the prince of Wales, who is scheduled to visit Cairo, the last step on his homeward journey, with the exception of short visits at Malta and Gibraltar. Those who are fearful point to the anti-English feeling in Egypt and the recent assassinations of foreigners. They criticize strongly the decision to have him visit Cairo and say there will be a distinct feeling of relief when it is known he is safely aboard the Benbow again.

All messages from Cairo give the impression that the welcome given him by the natives was a cool one.

The Outlook says regarding the visit to Cairo: "Of all the unfortunate moments to select for the prince's visit to Cairo, this seems about the worst. To expose the prince in the streets of Cairo under the protection of an incompetent police force is to take a very big risk without any compensating advantage whatever."

CHINESE LABOR GETS MORE PAY

Workers Succeed in Their Efforts to Reach a Higher Standard of Living

NEW YORK, (AP)—When you pay more for your Chinese firecrackers for the next Fourth of July, you may take comfort from the fact that the men who made them over in Canton are getting a 15 per cent increase in wages, according to a report of labor conditions in China, made public today by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, here.

Canton, says this report, has been having successful strikes in hundreds of trades, with resultant increase in wages and improvement in the living of the workmen. The makers of firecrackers got the lowest increase. Tea house waiters got the highest increase, 50 per cent. Masons, sailors, barbers and wooden box makers got increases of 40 per cent. Ox butchers were raised 85 per cent, as were oil producers. Workers gaining 30 per cent included mechanics, makers of foreign dresses and laundresses. Wine distillers got a 25 per cent raise; so did painters and tin pickers. Metal-builders had their wages increased 20 per cent.

Missionaries Need Funds.

The 59 Presbyterian missionaries in Canton report that contributions to their work must be increased to correspond with the new scale of wages and the higher cost of living. This missionary force supervises 36 organized churches with a communicant membership of 6279. Canton also has 63 Christian schools, including a medical college with a school for nurses, a school for the blind and a college of theology, all of which are affected by the increased costs. To a lesser degree the higher cost affects all the Presbyterian missionary work in China, the Presbyterians having 533 missionaries throughout the republic. Prices are advancing for the whole population, according to a report made by J. E. Wesley of the Canton Union Middle school to the Presbyterian Foreign Board.

REGULARS WIN EASY VICTORY

Republican State Committee Chairman Brings Test of Pinchot's Strength

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—In selecting W. Harry Baker, of Harrisburg, chairman, by an overwhelming majority, the regular regulars on Saturday won a sweeping victory over the forces of Clifford Elsholtz, of Harrisburg, defeated Brigadier General Asher Miner, of Wilkes-Barre, backed by Mr. Pinchot, by a vote of 81 to 32.

All other officers of the committee, and Senator Pepper, who was chosen to represent Pennsylvania in the republican national committee, to succeed Senator Boies Penrose, were elected by acclamation.

Admitting that the republican party in the state was divided into two factions, all the speakers made a plea for unity, declaring that to be the only way to defeat the democrats at the November election.

"I want such a victory," declared Mr. Pinchot, "as will electrify this good republican state and make it clear to the rest of the nation that Pennsylvania is solid republican."

ENTIRE SHIP'S CREW GUARDED

Transport Sirius Scene of Raid Involving Liquor to the Value of $10,000

NORFOLK, Va., (AP)—Approximately 100 gallons of liquor, valued at more than $10,000 were said to have been seized by marine guards of the navy yard Saturday in a raid on the naval transport Sirius under orders of Rear Admiral Ralph Andrews, commander of the Norfolk navy yard. Officers and men of the ship are confined to their ship under guard.

A search of the shipment was ordered when the barges were loaded and then the transport itself was searched by the marine guard. Guards were immediately thrown aboard and alongside the vessel with orders to permit no one to leave or board the transport.

The Sirius returned to Hampton Roads about a week ago from the West Indies, and has been at the navy yard since. According to information received by Admiral Andrews, the whiskey was put aboard at one of the West Indian port ports although it was said not to be listed on the manifest and there was no method of ascertaining at which port it had been loaded. It was contained in 13 large packing cases and was consigned to the marine quartermaster depot at the naval operating base.

"Movies" Popular.

A recent questionnaire in six Chicago high schools shows that 85 per cent of the 3,000 students attend the movies from one to seven times a week. These students spent $220 a week at the movies, or $40,000 a year. Most of them were frank to admit that they preferred the thrillers with gun play and bare-knuckle escapades. The results of such a questionnaire might, no doubt, be duplicated in other cities. Movie-going is a habit that has a large hold on both young and old. Probably the movies now constitute at least 90 per cent of the nation's entertainment—Minneapolis Journal.

RECLAIMING WASTE LAND

Because it has the authority of the federal department of agriculture, the statement that two-fifths of the land in the United States cannot be cultivated must be accepted as accurate.

Land of this kind is available for game preserves. Whether under federal or state control, or in private hands, it could be made profitable hunting ground in the open season.

Comparatively little has been done to utilize the abundant food supply from this source. Some kinds of game have been banished from the market because of indiscriminate killing threatened their extinction.

Land fit neither for tillage nor for raising game might be used, it is suggested for growing nuts. The nut growing trees require no great care or labor, and the yield should easily be made profitable.

COMPLETING REHABILITATION

Announcement from time to time of progress made in rehabilitating the devastated regions of France evoked admiration in this country. The French government now announces that 90 per cent of farms in the war-torn regions of France have been restored to productivity, indicating that American assistance in rehabilitation has been of substantial practical value.

Still more significant is a supplementary statement that the output from the pre-war production of the former 100 per cent. The difference is credited to improved methods, which include manner of working and the utilization of improved agricultural tools of American manufacture.

TENDENCIES IN SLANG

There is comfort for those who abhor slang in the observations made by one who has recently investigated the subject. The observer finds that none of the bywords or parrot phrases now in vogue originated during the last year, and holds the hope to language purists that the passion for slang is passing.

This is an unjustified conclusion. As the observer himself intimates, there might be cause for concern if the creation of slang were to cease, for Professor Brandt Matthews and other language students will tell you that the constant addition of slang to the language is a sign that it is a living, growing thing, and the acrobatic is in language when slang comes to creep into the language in a moribund way.

ing thing; and the acrobatic is in language when slang comes to creep into the language in a moribund way. We may be passing through a period of quiescence, so far as slang is concerned, but the fondness for it, or the need of it, lies by no means passed.

CHEAPER MONEY IS LIKELY SAYS FAMOUS STATISTICIAN

Money Merely a Commodity in Same Sense as Merchandise, With Wholesale and Retail Value - Higher Rates May Prevail Temporarily But General Tendency is Downward

WELLSLEY HILLS, Mass. (Special to The News)—Roger W. Babson, the famous statistician, is today regarding the money situation: For the past few years banks, mortgage companies and others engaged the financing of most houses by offering people to pay high rates of interest. Manufacturers, business men, home builders and others are today paying high rates of interest on the money they borrowed.

Forecast is That Harvest Will Be 9,734,000 Bushels Less Than in 1921

BOISE.—Idaho's combined winter and spring wheat production as of June 1 is forecast at 24,245,000 bushels, or 9,734,000 bushels less than the amount harvested last year, according to the monthly crop report of Julius H. Jabobson, agricultural statistician of the Idaho crop reporting service.

Of this total 8,712,000 bushels is winter wheat and 15,533,000 bushels is spring wheat. The spring wheat acreage this year amounts to 679,000 acres, or a decrease of 21,000 acres under last year. The present condition is 91 per cent of normal compared with 98 per cent last year.

CINCINNATI, (AP)—The American flag will be at half mast on July 9 on every American Legion clubhouse in memory of Col. Fred W. Galbraith, who died on that date one year ago, according to notice which has been sent out to every American Legion post in the country by Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion upon suggestion of the members of Robert E. Bentley post, of Cincinnati, of which Colonel Galbraith was a member.

with it only in an awkward way, and the function of a considerable part of the newly coined words and phrases which find their way into the language as slang is to simplify the expression of these ideas, or to make it possible to express them in a way that is not ironic. When slang serves this purpose it is not bad, and it is not good. It fills no need it soon dies.

Wash Tubs and Wireless

The country has gone wild about receiving messages by wireless. But this invention, interesting and useful as it is, is not greater than the standpoint of the mother than the things which relieve her of the age-old drudgery.

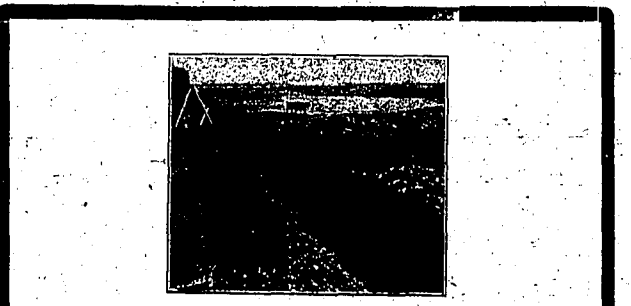

For example, the modern idea of having the family washing done at a big, efficient institution, does more to bring happiness into mother's life than any of the things which the world may consider more wonderful.

Have you tried sending the entire family washing to this up-to-date laundry? You owe it to yourself, for the sake of your health and happiness, to know exactly what the Troy Laundry can do for you. Find out what we do and how we do it.

AT THE IDAHO

AT THE IDAHO, MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Milton Sills, Lois Wilson and Theodore Roberts in a scene from the Paramount picture, "Miss Lulu Bett." A. William deMille Production.

The Idaho theater announces for Wednesday a screen adaptation of Dumas' "Killing of Robespierre." The story and action described in the "Killing" ballet are said to be faithfully reproduced. The story has for its climax the regeneration of a woman of the slums, Anne of Austria, by the discovery of a crucifix on the body of the Danish sailor, Hans, who has been slain by her woman's jealous lover, Hans Harlocker. The action is laid in a sailor's boarding house. Especial care was taken in the selection of the sailor types referred to in the verso. The trendiest lines of the ballet will be served admirably as titles for the picture.

STABS AT ORPHEUM
A cast of unusual excellence, a big story done in a big way, an element of mystery that is maintained until the final fete out, and heart interest that will grip all classes of people, combine to make Mrs. Christy Cabano's new E-C screen drama, "Beyond the Rainbow," a production worthy the attention of every lover of high grade motion pictures. Of chief interest, perhaps, is the fact that this big picture, which opens at the Orpheum theater Tuesday, is presented by a cast which for the high caliber of its collective work is probably without an equal in the screen today. The following stars take part: Helen Ware, Lillian (Billie) Dove, Harry Moray, Edmund Driess, George Fawcett, Rose Coghlan, Diana Allen, James Harrison, Mandy Heston, Margaretta Cooney, Walter Miller, Charles Clark, Clara Bow, Huxley, Gordon, William Tucker and Walter Miller.

SUPER-SPECIAL AT REALTO
"Queen of Sheba," the William Fox super-special which was the film sensation of New York during its spectacular run at a prominent Broadway theater, is booked at the Idaho theater beginning next Monday.
Something tremendous was expected when "Queen of Sheba" opened in New York, for many stories had been published in the course of the year through which it was being made, but audiences and critics expressed amazement as well as delight over the result.
As a spectacle the picture is declared to be unsurpassed, and as the joyo story it is a business proposition that the rest man the world has known and is described as a photoplay of rare charm. The production was directed by J. Gordon Edwards. Betty Blythe played the Queen of Sheba, Fritie Lieber King Solomon and Nell Craig the Princess Salome, Sheba's opponent in the chariot race.
The pageantry came in for high commendation, and the chariot races cheered on by a crowd of 8000 was received with acclamation. By a special device involving the employment of batteries of cameras, the close-up pictures of the races were taken.

PRIZE WINNER AS PLAY
"Miss Lulu Bett," William de Mille's Paramount production, coming to the Idaho theater next Monday and Tuesday, is the screen version of the play which won the Pulitzer prize of $1000 as the best American play produced during the 1920-21 theatrical season. The play ran on Broadway and was a decided hit. Zora Gale, an American novelist, is the author.
The story is typically American and deals with a side of small-town home life not yet uncovered. The principal character is the seemingly unattractive spinster sister-in-law of a small town justice of the peace and dentist. She has to depend upon him for support and shelter, and she also automatically becomes the unpaid family servant. Later, romance enters into her life, only to increase her troubles. After several bitter experiences, however, or anything closer up for Lulu and happiness and love are her reward.
Milton Sills is leading man and Lois Wilson plays the role of the girl. Theodore Roberts, Helen Ferguson, Mabel Van Buren and others of prominence are in the cast.

BIG SHOW AT ORPHEUM
A galaxy of de luxe entertainers is presented on the bill at the Orpheum theater on Monday next, which is to be a very elaborate one, headed by three dancing girls, a trio of talented young ladies, elaborately staged and costumed. The dancing girls portray an unusually class dancing act in a repertoire of classic dancing numbers. The three little dancers led by Mlle. Grace are finished terpsichorean artists whose shilly makes them popular favorites.
Which and Hazelton furnish their share of comedy in their hilarious skit called "Jim, the Janitor," full of nonsensical situations, comedy patter and catchy songs.
Thompson and Barrett, a neat and talented couple, present a comedy act, "Patent Applied For," a brand of fun intermingled with song hits.
Paul Howard opens the show to a good advantage in feats of contortion placing his body in many knots and stunts and forward and backward bending and dancing.
Special feature picture helps to make this show enjoyable, entitled "Shadows of the Sea," starring Conway Torrie.

A LINK WITH CARIBBO
During their stay at Sorrento, George Fitzmaurice and his company, who spent almost two months in Italy filming "The Man From Home," for Paramount, made their headquarters at the Hotel Vittoria. It was at this hotel that the late Enrico Caruso passed the closing weeks of his life, in the vain hope that the climate of his beloved Italy would restore him to health and strength.
Thus those who see "The Man From Home," which is coming to the Idaho theater next Wednesday, will know that in one scene at least they are looking at the ideal spot on which Caruso spent his last days.

MOORE OAKING TO IDAHO
"Reported Missing," starring Owen Moore, which opens at the Idaho theater next Friday, was made by the Solheim company in their studios in the east. Its cast, however, was recruited from the best screen players.
Tom Wilson, best known among the black-face comedians who frequently appear in pictures, was brought on from Los Angeles especially for the important role he has in the production as DeWolfe Gillette.
This was also Togo Yamamoto, who has long been featured in Orpheum pictures.
"Patience Garon, who plays the leading feminine role, was recruited from the "Lilies of the Field" company playing life work between the ages of 45 and on Broadway. Nita Naldi has supported Mr. Moore in a number of previous productions.

"When I was just starting in motion pictures," says Rodolph Valentino, "I could not in any way influence the manner in which my first name was spelled. So the papers and others took the common form—the German or Austrian—and made it 'Rodolph.'"
"Later when I became better known and became associated with Paramount I wanted them to use the Italian—in my case the proper spelling, 'Rodolfo.' But there were objections to this—it was thought people would imagine I had a brother with a similar name, and so on.
"So we compromised on 'Rodolpho.' This is according to the French, and as I'm half French; it was quite satisfactory."
"By the English equivalent is 'Rodolphus.' Imagine a combination like that, 'Rodolphus Valentino!' So we compromised once more and now it is final—'Rodolph'—and I hope that my friends will understand the reason for the change and just why it all came about."

PREMIER'S HEALTH BETTER
Physical Condition of Lenin Reported to be Improving—Official Bulletin Closes.
RIGA (AP)—The soviet legation here said Friday night that no further announcement regarding Premier Lenin would be made at present, as the latest accounts of his condition were good.
The various rumors regarding the illness of the soviet leader and the lack of news from soviet sources led the German language newspaper Riga Brevier to comment Friday that it seems as if the bolshevik had begun to reckon on the possibility of Lenin's "departure."
The paper says: "If Lenin dies, it is believed a serious struggle will ensue within the council, where the extreme left will strive to tear the power from the moderates. This may lead to chaos and a relapse into the government methods of the recent past."

SHERIFF IS REMOVED FOR MEMBERSHIP IN KLANSMEN
BEAUMONT, TEXAS, (AP)—Thomas H. Garret, serving his second term as sheriff of Jefferson county, has been removed from office by Judge Robert G. Street, following an indictment by jury verdict in which Garret was found guilty of official misconduct in taking the oath as a member of the Ku Klux Klan.
Judge Street declared that the fact that Sheriff Garret had become a member of the Ku Klux Klan as a violation of the oath he took as sheriff, caused for Garret's removal, to which there was nothing in the Ku Klux Klan oath in conflict with the duties of a sheriff, but the court held that the Klan oath was in effect to "deceive the ignorant and unwary."
In effect, Judge Street's opinion, if upheld by the state courts to which the suspended sheriff's attorneys gave notice of appeal, is that no peace officer in Texas can be a Klansman and officer at the same time.

THE GREATER LOYALTY

I John 4:21—"And this commandment have we from Him; that he who loveth God love his brother also."

A few weeks ago the police force in one of our largest eastern cities went on a strike and deserted their post of duty. A city, accustomed year after year to the protection of the law, with an officer on every street corner...

The force and restraint of law in this great city were withdrawn, and for many anxious hours a panic of crime reigned upon the community. Police and ruffians saw that their hour had come and made the very most of their opportunity.

What of the ethics of the strike itself? Did these officers have a moral right to leave their posts of duty when they knew that to do so would enable ten thousand enemies of the law to perpetrate their crimes?

An individual, or a group of men, or a class of men, has no moral right to promote selfish interests at the expense of the general interest of society.

Neither can manfully and justly overlook the rights of the individual and of the group in which he works. The farmer has rights, the minor has rights, the business man has rights, even the much-abused middleman.

Patronism is the surrender of self-interest for the welfare of the larger or community entity, sometimes we call it the country, other times we possibly describe it as "the flag."

The greatest enemy to true patriotism is the selfishness of the group selfishness. It is natural to be selfish, but it requires discipline, and courage, and vision to be socially-minded.

All the other loyalties of life should contribute to this greater loyalty. There should be loyalty to self—in other words, self-respect.

There should be loyalty to family and kindred. And yet we have all known families wherein the members were loyal to each other, but whose interests were so confined to the family-circle that they cared nothing, or seemed to care nothing, for their neighbors or for their neighborhood.

There should be loyalty to class. Any group of men, of like mind and similar employment, or with any natural bonds of fellowship, have a legal right and a moral right to organize and promote their common interests—provided, always, however, that their program does not degenerate into class selfishness.

Christianity is incompatible with group selfishness of any kind. Its very genius is cosmopolitan and democratic and society-serving.

It is a mistake to think that the rights of the individual are more important than the rights of the community. There is a higher loyalty than class loyalty, and that is loyalty to the community of mankind.

It is a mistake to think that the rights of the individual are more important than the rights of the community. There is a higher loyalty than class loyalty, and that is loyalty to the community of mankind.

HARRIET and the PIPER

By Kathleen Norris Illustrated by Irwin Myers

CHAPTER VI (Continued) She brought Nina back at noon, a garrulous and complacent Nina, who could pity the elder Hawkins as girls who "never had admirers."

At about three, when Harriet and Nina were sitting on the slaty terrace, with the house, the new mansions, and their books, Hansen brought one of the small closed cars to the side door.

"Mrs. Welch has telephoned for me, ducky. Your father isn't coming home tonight, but have a happy time with Miss Harriet, and I'll be back in a jiffy." "How good-by, 'leaving' you all right, Hansen?"

"Nothing alarming here, yet Harriet experienced a sick thrill of apprehension. Something abnormal seemed to her the matter with them all this afternoon."

"Did you happen to know where Hansen is, Miss Field?" "Driving Mrs. Carter to the Wehbs' at Great Barrington, the girl answered, readily."

Harriet brought the strange man to the dinner table, but there was nothing in that to make the dinner so unattractive. To be sure, Richard ate little, and spoke hardly at all; but this Mr. Williams was quite entertaining, and the old lady in good spirits.

At eight Hansen was back, presenting himself in his dusty feet-cloak; Mr. Carter immediately drew him with Williams into the library. Nina loitered up to bed, but the old lady and Harriet remained downstairs.

"Just a moment, Miss Field," Richard said. "Will you sit down?" And as Harriet, looking at him in frightened curiosity, did so, he became quiet.

"I thought I did," Harriet admitted. "Did you think of any reason for this?" Harriet gave the stranger a glance that made him an eavesdropper.

"I fancied that it was connected with what distressed her last night, Mr. Carter."

"Mrs. Welch has telephoned for me, ducky. Your father isn't coming home tonight, but have a happy time with Miss Harriet, and I'll be back in a jiffy."

"Nothing alarming here, yet Harriet experienced a sick thrill of apprehension. Something abnormal seemed to her the matter with them all this afternoon."

"This morning, I don't know how long Harriet sat, with a great light or darkness, breaking in upon her mind, 'he was leaving when Nina and I came home.'"

"No, because nobody did. No person, no Mr. Webb, came to see me, or Barrington, or anywhere else, today," said Williams, breaking in decidedly, by-force a contrast to Richard's hesitating tone.

"What directions?" Harriet asked, antagonized by his manner, and feeling her cheeks get red. The man evidently had small respect for womanhood.

"He drove to New London," Richard supplied. "Pop's yacht is there."

"Not likely!" said Williams, with a modest shrug. "However, even if he is right," Richard resumed, "the chances are that they are all there, and if they are, it will bring—my wife back with me to-night. Meanwhile, I leave the house in your care, Miss Field. I needn't tell you that my mother and Nina must be kept absolutely ignorant of what we suspect. You'll know what to tell them; please! I should be longer away. If my calculations are wrong, there's no telling where I may follow Mrs. Carter. I leave this end of things to you!"

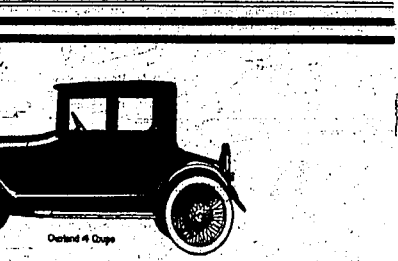

"I know you are! It's—" Richard passed his hand over his forehead— "It's utter madness, of course. But please God, we can keep it all hushed up. He had mentioned Hansen and Germaine, but he knew that he could trust her! The great was sensational enough. But back of the excitement lay the joy of being needed and being trusted."

ADMITS WRITING BLACKMAIL NOTE TO DR. VAN COTT

Dawson Murphy Makes Full Confession of Attempt to Extort Money from Twin Falls Man by Threats

Dawson Murphy, aged 33 years, prisoner in the county jail facing prosecution on a charge of attempting to extort $200 from Dr. E. Van Cott of Twin Falls, by means of threatening letters, a few hours after his arrest here Saturday morning made full confession to the sheriff's office that he had written the blackmailing letters because he bore a grudge against Dr. Van Cott and because he needed the money.

Murphy's wife admitted to the officers that she had knowledge of her husband's attempt to extort money from Dr. Van Cott, and knew of the first of the two letters written by Dawson for this purpose. She is only 20 years of age and is the mother of a three-month-old child.

Makes Full Confession Murphy's confession was wrung from him by Deputy Sheriffs V. H. Ormsby and H. C. Van Ansdalen after long questioning. He denied at first having written the letters, but after a demand to write a letter at Ormsby's dictation and when the two were compared Murphy made a clean breast of his guilt, the officers said.

Murphy probably will be arraigned Monday in probate court on a charge of attempting to extort money from Ormsby and Van Cott. Conviction would entail a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary or $2,000 fine, or both.

The trap in which Murphy was caught was set by Sheriff E. B. Sherman and his deputies when Dr. Van Cott advised the sheriff to contact him to write a letter to the first letter which was received through the mail June 2. The sheriff's office declines to divulge the entire contents of this letter but it was stated that the substance was as follows:

"Leave $200 under a rock at the corner of the old tin barn on Second avenue south at 9:45 o'clock Sunday night. I am a woman with three children and have known you for a long time and was acquainted with you before you ever came to this town. It will pay you well to put the $200 at the corner of the barn."

The letter was unsigned but at the end appeared the word, "Don't De-ly." Upon advice of the sheriff's office Dr. Van Cott replied to this letter, stating that he was short of money but would have it later. The reply was deposited at the place designated in Murphy's letter, and officers, concealed at a point of vantage, awaited its claim.

"Mail Will Be Popping" "Twin Falls, Idaho, June 6, 1922." "Dr. Van Cott: "Received your letter and am giving you until 9:45 Friday night to put it at the northwest corner of the tin barn on Second avenue south under an old tin can. If you fail, I will be popping."

The second letter was unsigned. A reply to this demand was framed and left at the designated place, Deputy Sheriffs H. S. Hamilton and Ormsby again taking up their vigil under cover of a haystack almost directly across the street. The vigil was with- out reward until daylight, when, after the departure of Ormsby to summon Deputy Van Ansdalen to take up the watch, Murphy appeared on the scene, Murphy did not go directly to the de- signated place but walked eastward around the barn, finally stopping and picking up the note that had been left for him. He turned and started up Third street with Deputy Hamilton at his heels.

Begins Boarding Note At the entrance to the Washington barn Murphy paused and began read- ing the note. He glanced back, saw the officers following, ceased his reading, and then darted into the barn.

With searchlight and pitefork Hamilton made a thorough but unsuccess- ful search of the barn. Almost an hour later he located Murphy on Main avenue and recognized him as the man who made a statement to the arrest- ing officer, whom he accompanied to the jail without any show of resistance.

Soon after the officers took up their positions for the vigil Friday night a woman and child passed the street and headed toward the Washington barn. Dr. Van Cott's note had been deposited. This woman later was identified as Mrs. Murphy. She continued along Second avenue, stopping at the dwelling of a negro named Christian- son.

had stopped there to inquire as to the whereabouts of her husband who, she said, had stayed at the Christian- son house until the departure a few days before of the younger Christian- son when he took up quarters in the Wash- ington barn.

On Terms of Equality The officers were disguised, and the later camera accepted them on terms of equality. About midnight when Deputy Van Ansdalen came to relieve his companions for a short time, he pulled the bay off the itinerants and was ad- dressed by them in harsh tones. He did not disclose his official ca- pacity.

DENIES CLAIMS TO WATER RIGHT Judge Babcock Upholds Recla- mation Commissioner's De- cision in Swim Case

On the theory that the Twin Falls Canal company is justified in rejecting certain applications for transfer of water rights, Judge W. A. Babcock, in district court here Saturday, gave his decision in the case of L. L. Swim and others against the canal company, sus- taining the decision of the state com- missioner of reclamation which denied the validity of the claim of Swim and his associates for water from the Twin Falls canal system based upon the re- claimation of canal stock issued in con- nection with the reclamation of lands in the Clover district.

Apply to Designated Lands Judge Babcock held that the water rights in question are appurtenant to lands in the Clover district and do not apply to other lands under the Twin Falls canal system to which Swim and his associates in the suit sought to transfer them.

MYSTERY VEILS MOVE OF THIRD PARTY HERE Alleged Fight for Meeting Comes to Light Through Under- ground Channels

Reports were current here Saturday that a meeting for the purpose of fos- tering the organization of a third polit- ical party in Idaho to be a factor in the coming state and county elections, would be held here Sunday. No effort had been manifested by promoters of the undertaking, to communicate their alleged purpose to hold a meeting here through any of the ordinary channels of publicity, but reports that there was to be such a meeting gained consid- erable credence.
