RESPECT FOR LAW NEED OF THE COUNTRY

New York Credit Man Declares Attitude of General Public Constitutes Barbaric Influence in Civilization

CLEVELAND, (AP)—Unless certain "barbaric" tendencies are curbed, the entire credit rating of the nation must be revised, Harry Tregoe of New York, secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Credit Men, declared Monday in an address at the opening session of the tenth annual convention of the Retail Creditmen's national convention.

Speaking on "A glance backward and a look ahead," Mr. Tregoe traced the fall of the Roman empire before the barbarian hordes of the north and then asserted that the safety of America and of the world today is threatened by a similar onslaught of barbarians. One of these, he asserted, is the tendency to attack the integrity of the courts.

Takes Issue With Gompers

Taking issue with Samuel Gompers for his recent criticism of the United States supreme court, Mr. Tregoe said that "the man who says the courts are all wrong is a contemptible liar."

Another "barbarian" against which Mr. Tregoe warned, was class legislation as exemplified by the agricultural tariff.

"We have no room in this country for any bloc," he said. "Congress represents the whole people, and when it passes 'to do that, our republic is endangered."

If It Is the Law, Obey It

Disrespect of law, he declared by the speaker as a growing menace and one which, if not curbed, would necessitate suffering of great magnitude.

He mentioned specifically the eight-hour legislation, saying: "It is the law of the land, let us respect it."

Authorities of America Listop to Close Analyses of Advertising Methods

MILWAUKEE, (AP)—Fifty-seven members of the national convention representing the 19 departments of advertising recognized by the Associated Advertisers Clubs of the World, Monday elected for the fourth time, W. Frank McClure, Chicago, their chairman at the first commission meeting held since the convention opened.

William Rankin of Chicago, spoke on the value of newspaper advertising. He declared that line for line, the advertiser got his biggest return from advertising in the regular press. The outlay of capital required for a newspaper campaign, he declared, was smaller than for any other campaign which could be made in the advertising field.

"Advertising is now passing through one of its great crises," Frank E. Lowenstein of Atlanta, chairman of the educational advisory board of the A. A. C. of W., told attendees at the educational conference of the convention.

Advertising on Judgment. "He added that "for the first time since the profession reached the plane of scientific selling science, it has come up for judgment on the following indictment:

"Is it worth while to spend his money in periods of severe financial depression in an effort to stimulate buying, when the whole of it is spent in the greatest spending mania, or is it better to sit tight, spend only as much money as necessary on public approach through display and direct mail campaigns and wait until the situation eases by natural process?"

WARD'S WIFE FAILS TO CLEAR MYSTERY

POUNDED by the court at White Plains, N. Y., to answer many questions she had refused to answer, Mrs. Walter R. Ward, wife of the millionaire baker, who killed Clarence Peters, an ex-convict, in an alleged blackmail fight, failed to clear up the mystery surrounding the case, especially as to why her wealthy husband had paid $50,000 to the blackmail gang. She was photographed as she left the grand jury room.

Expenditures by Government Show Marked Decline

Saving of Well Over Billion and a Half Will Be Effectuated During Present Year

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Expenditures for carrying on the ordinary business of the government for the current fiscal year will be nearly $1,700,000,000 less than last year, or about $100,000,000 more than the latest estimate by Director of the Budget Dawes, treasury officials predicted Monday. Expenditures of the government chargeable against ordinary receipts, exclusive of the principal of the public debt for the fiscal year to date, have diminished to $3,859,138,708, compared with $4,139,800,337 for the corresponding period last year, according to the latest daily treasury statement.

SEPARATE ONLY IN NAME

President of Southern Pacific Declares Divorced Lines Never Operated as Single

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—That the Pacific and the Coastland Pacific railroads have been under common control for half a century and that their growth has been developed in the operation of a single railroad system, separate in name only, filling a demand which a single company could not have filled, is the assertion in a statement issued Monday by Wm. Sprague, president of the Southern Pacific company. The statement was issued in commenting on the recent United States supreme court order directing absolute separation of the two railroads.

REAPPOINTED TO BOARD

IDAHO WEATHER Tuesday, Fair.

MORGUES FILLED WITH BODIES OF STORM VICTIMS

Sudden Gale of Not Over Five Minutes' Duration Claims a Death List Estimated at More Than Three Score

NEW YORK, (AP)—Morgues and undertaking establishments of the metropolitan area Monday night held the bodies of more than three score men, women and children—victims of Sunday's brief cyclonic thunderstorm. A marine police, who continued throughout the day their work of grappling in Feltman bay and Long Island sound off City Island, where the greatest toll was taken among Sunday's victims and fishermen, predicted they would find at least a score more victims—enough to push the death toll past 80. Eye witnesses of the swift tragedy placed the number even higher.

At least 250 canoes, rowboats and small motor boats were bobbing about off the island, witnesses said, when the storm came screaming down on the resort at a velocity of 80 miles an hour. Occupants of the little craft, sensing their danger, scrambled for shelter. But they had hardly got under way when they were engulfed in a blinding storm of rain and hail.

Storm Passes Quickly

As quickly as it had come the storm vanished. It had lasted less than five minutes. But scarcely a dozen of the 250 small craft had escaped. Horror-stricken but helpless to aid, the crowds on the beach and about the overturned canoe pile saw scores of men and women clinging to wrecked and overturned craft in the choppy sound, and they: One by one, they gave up the struggle and dropped off, to be carried out toward the open sea by the tide. Some of the bodies, the police say, probably never will be recovered. The tide, turning brought more than a score of them back Monday.

Heroic Work Saves Hundreds.

Eye witnesses estimated that there were between 500 and 750 persons in the wrecked boats. Heroic work by the United States life guards, members of nearby yacht clubs and volunteers from the shore crowd saved hundreds.

Among the first to put out were Jack Murray, J. C. Bower, Jack Malloy and Frank Washington. Manhandling two small motor boats, they saved more than a dozen men and women whom they found clinging to overturned canoes and row boats. They were followed by others and soon more than 50 craft of all sorts were out, struggling to safety the survivors of the disaster.

Howls of Animals Shatter Peace of New Rochelle City

Forty-five Minutes from Broadway is Too Close to Jungle for Residents' Comfort

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., (AP)—The howls of the mountain lion as she cradles her cubs resound nightly through the great open spaces of New Rochelle, just 45 minutes from Broadway. At least, that is the report, which came to the police today and has sent officers in quest of the animal.

Daniel J. Lynden, a restaurateur, said he met a puma and four cubs this morning at 3:30. He said he numbered the puma among the wild animals he has known and is sure of his vision.

A woman later reported that the howls of strange animals have kept her awake for the last three nights. No circus has been reported in the vicinity lately, and the police are a bit skeptical.

FIRST VOTE ON STRIKE BALLOT IS AFFIRMATIVE

Initial Answer to Question of Wholesale Walkout Makes Appearance at Headquarters of Shop Crafts Union

CHICAGO, (AP)—With a "yes" written across the square opposite the strike question on the pink ballot, the first vote cast Saturday night to end the railway shop worker in the United States, the first set of three ballots came out at headquarters of the shop crafts unions here Monday from a Chicago electrical worker on the Pennsylvania railroad.

The ballots from this employe made the round trip in record time, and presented a steady flow of the colored slips into the office of J. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, from now until June 25, when all the ballots are to be in Chicago. Nearly a million and a half of them were put in the mails Saturday night, one slip calling for a vote on a separate question.

The three strike questions are on (1) the $60,000,000 wage cut ordered by the railroad labor board for July 1; (2) alleged illegal contracting of railway work and illegal reduction of wages; and (3) seven rules, mostly covering overtime pay, laid down by the board and which are not satisfactory to the men.

TWO RECORDS BROKEN BY INTREPID AIRMEN

Army Plane with Three Passengers Reaches Altitude of Over 24,000 Feet in Climb Taking Two Hours; Parachute Drop from Dizzy Heights Lands Occupant Safe, Miles Away

DAYTON, O., (AP)—Captain A. W. Stevens, aerial photographer, McCook field, established a new parachute jumping record Monday when he descended 24,200 feet to safety, officials of the field announced Monday.

Another record was broken at the same time when Lieutenant Leigh Wade piloted a twin motorized Martin bomber, carrying three passengers, to an altitude of 24,200 feet, it was announced.

Captain Stevens ascended in the same plane with Lieutenant Wade. The pilot, accompanied by Stevens and Sergeant Roy Langham, observer, took off at 11 a. m. and reached the maximum altitude at 1:05 p. m., requiring two hours and five minutes to make the climb.

Stevens, who has made aerial photographs here for several years, Monday made his first flight where oxygen was necessary. He consumed 100 pounds of oxygen, the party partook of refreshments and Stevens made ready for his leap.

Drops Thousands of Feet. When he left the plane, he did not permit his chute to be opened by the wind and then left him off, but leaped over the side and dropped several hundred feet before it opened and checked his drop.

The oxygen tank which he had sworn to his flying suit was torn off in the leap and lost. Thirty minutes were required for the descent. He left the plane at a point about 10 miles east of Jamestown, a small village 25 miles southeast of here.

NOBLES PREPARE FOR LABORS AT SAN FRANCISCO

Streets of City Present Picture of Animated Gayety as Frenzied Throng Emgorges in Merrymaking

NEW HOSPITAL AUTHORIZED SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Immediate construction of a new $300,000 birth hospital for crippled children at Fisherman's wharf was authorized Monday by the hospital committee of the imperial council of the Shrine.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The great kaleidoscope of fantastic-oriental costumes and decorations that represent the annual imperial council of the ancient Arabic order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, began slowly to revolve on Monday.

Gaily garbed bands and patrols swung jauntily through the streets on the home stretch of their pilgrimage to the meeting place of the annual convention. Bright splashes of color in the nobles' costumes—reds, greens, yellows, blues and purples—dove the sombre gray and brown habiliments of work-day humanity into the background. In examples of this Masonic organization pour their delegations into San Francisco. Tuesday the formal parades, the elaborate receptions to the imperial divan and the business sessions of the imperial council will begin, but Monday night the nobles are to welcome to their quarters and to band concerts and impromptu bits of merrymaking.

Subsidy Measure to be Submitted to House at Once; Extra Session is Threatened

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Harding's demand for speed in the free program of the tariff revision committee bill resulted Monday night in announcement by the merchant marine committee that it would be submitted to the house Tuesday.

Meanwhile the republican steering committee, which directs the legislative program of the house, is considering the president's urgent request that the bill be put to a vote as a party measure, if necessary, prior to an adjournment of congress. At a conference Monday with Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the republican leader there urged the committee to take that measure was of vital interest to the business welfare of the country and that it should not go over until the short session, beginning in December.

Reports were current at the capitol that the president had informed members of the republican steering committee that congress would not adjourn special session, solely to consider the shipping bill, if it failed to reach the voting stage before adjournment.

In his discussion of the legislative program with republican leaders, it was reported the president had said that action be taken on this and other pending bills for disposal by the adjournment of the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant.

Constable Killed by Auto Thieves on Country Road

Peace Officer Victim of Robbers' Bullets; One Suspect Placed Under Arrest

PEORIA, Ill., (AP)—Constable Arthur Smith was shot and instantly killed Monday night in a fight with automobile thieves on a road-northwest of the city.

Smith with Constable Turner were in the country serving legal notices. On the way back to the city, they noticed four men of work on a side road stripping an automobile which it later was learned was stolen early in the evening in Peoria.

Smith, through a flashlight on them and happened to see what was going on. He was answered by two shots, both taking effect in his body. He died instantly. One suspect has been arrested.

MEETING BETWEEN WILL HAYS AND PRODUCERS EXPECTED TO RESULT IN CHANGES

NEW YORK, (AP)—Moving picture reformers of a sweeping nature, both as regards the morality of the picture and the economic structure of the motion picture business, were predicted as a result of a conference held behind closed doors Monday between representatives of the producing field, headed by Will Hays, and the exhibitors, headed by Sidney S. Cohen.

The conference represented the first real test of the leadership of the former cabinet member in his new position, according to motion picture men. Relations between producers and exhibitors have been discordant, and Hays hopes to bring about greater harmony in all branches of the business.

Theater owners sought Monday to obtain reductions in film rentals, saying that they have felt the general business slump and asking that the producers help them meet it by cutting rentals. The proposed deal, discussion of a more equitable contract between producers and exhibitors and the beginning of Hays' campaign for "cleaner movies" comprised the chief business of the day.

LABOR PREPARED FOR FIGHT WITH ACTIVE ENEMIES

Keynote of Speeches at Opening Session of American Federation Indicate the Seriousness of Situation

CINCINNATI, (AP)—Facing a fight that leaders of organized labor regard as one for the very existence of the union, the American Federation of Labor here Monday opened its 42nd annual convention, which was marked by the presentation of many issues to be considered during the next two weeks.

"We are not in a mood," said Mr. Gompers, "to have the rights and privileges guaranteed to us by our constitution taken from us by any subtle reasoning or assumption of power, no matter whence it emanates."

This declaration of the veteran labor leader was greeted with applause, and was his main theme, which organized labor would "go forward and forward more determined than ever that there shall not be imposed upon our brow, upon our backs, the type of the 'man with the hoe.'"

The speech by Mr. Gompers came after a period of welcoming addresses by Major George P. Carroll, Secretary T. J. Donnelly of the Ohio Federation of Labor, and others. The big assembly of the Ohio national guard, which was the seat for the convention, was filled by delegates and spectators, while above their heads were hanging a thousand American flags, forming the hall decorations.

In his brief speech Mr. Gompers declared that organized labor asked employers to meet with the union leaders in conferences for the settlement of disputes, but he said that a genuine conference was impossible unless both sides stood on equal footing. "The 'open shop' is added," he added, "no one can resist the confederacy." Mr. Gompers concluded with a reference to the disarmament conference, asserting it made a beginning toward abolishing war and that labor throughout the world was the "greatest contribution toward that purpose."

Figures Show Loss

While the executive council's report centered about many questions that will come before the convention, it also showed that the total membership of the federation is 2,305,000. This is a loss of 720,000 in the last year, members of the committee pointed out that it was a gain of more than 1,000,000 over 1910, which year was followed by big gains during the war.

CHANG FORCES WITHDRAW

Warring Chinese Factions Indulge in Heavy Fighting All Day Sunday

TIENTSIN, (AP)—After heavy fighting all day Sunday between Chin Wang Tao and Shanhaiwan, the Fengtien forces of General Chang Tao Lin withdrew northwards toward Shanhaiwan. The Chihli forces of Wu Pei Fu are pursuing them.

Notwithstanding Chang's overtures for an armistice last week and his reported acceptance of Wu's terms, the Chihli commander has maintained a cautious attitude.

Friday's attack found the Chihli line extending from the Hsiaoqing gulf coast to the hills, strongly supported by machine guns and artillery.

Chang's request for an armistice is believed to have been a ruse to gain time for reorganization of his defeated and retreating troops.

FEWER AVIATION OFFICERS KILLED THAN INFANTRY

PARIS, (AP)—There was less danger of death, in the late war, to officers who fought in the air than to those who combated on the earth. This is shown by the fact that 29 per cent of infantry officers were killed, while only 21 per cent of aviation officers lost their lives. The fatalities among officers in general, as compared to enlisted men in all branches were nearly equal, being 19 per cent of the former and 18.2 per cent for the latter.

The percentage of losses by age show that 20-year old soldiers, both officers and men, suffered the most. Here the death list was 52.9 per cent while men from 45 to 50 years old lost in killed between 23 per cent and 10 per cent of their numbers.

Confesses That She Hanged Husband

Mrs. Victoria Turk, 39, confessed to Chicago police that she and Leopold Mikrut, a former runner in her home town, in wait in the cellar for her husband, knocked him unconscious and then hanged him. Mikrut then went home, and Mrs. Turk went to sleep. In the morning one of her three children found the body, and the case was reported as suicide. She is shown making her confession.

DESERT LANDS OF CALIFORNIA ARE RECLAIMED

Mile by Mile the Sagebrush Wastes Are Being Made In to Agricultural Lands—Irrigation Water Plentiful

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—People who want to visit the deserts of California had better be quick about it, because the march of progress is reclaiming them not inch by inch, but mile by mile. Pretty soon Death Valley will be the only really unclaimed trackless waste in the southwest, and it is being encroached upon as time passes.

In the Imperial valley, which fifteen years ago was one of the worst wastes of arid, scrubby and stony wastes, there remain only one or two stretches where a traveler who sticks to the main roads is ever out of sight of houses and water. The sun still beats down as it always has, but instead of striking on rattled trails and treeless expanses, it beats down on cement highways and clumps of shade trees placed by early settlers and now of respectable size.

Irrigation is almost everywhere. Much of it is from the great Colorado system that is fed from the Colorado river. Some of it is from mountain streams, much of it from wells and pumping plants.

Going into the valley from the north, the traveler passes a half-dozen villages, all bordered in palms and deciduous trees. Going out again over the desert, the San Diego, he crosses a stretch which for perhaps fifteen or twenty miles has not yielded to improvement, but even that stretch is dotted with construction camps of one sort or another, and water is always within reach.

Tales of staggering wild bloodshot eyes and swollen, duck-caked lips, have become old stuff in the valley with all these changes, and the substitution of the automobile for the horse.

DEGREE FOR CENTENARIAN

CINCINNATI, Ohio, former United States Senator from California, received an honorarium gift for his hundredth birthday when he was requested to attend the commencement exercises of Wesleyan University at Middleton, Conn., this month and there receive the honorary degree of L. L. D. from his alma mater. Senator Cole, who is actively engaged in business here, will be 100 years old on September 17.

Senator Cole is said to be the only surviving member of his university class, that of 1847. He was a '49er, a politician, and later a congressman and senator. He was intimate friend of President Lincoln, and read his first William H. Seward of Lincoln's cabinet.

The senator recently favored the 113th issue of Lincoln's favorite stories. "A young Campbellite preacher came to Springfield, Ill., in early days and offered such an interesting creed

Doctors Disagree on Value of Milk as Diet for Adults

LONDON, (AP)—"Is there any one subject today upon which doctors disagree?" asks a sceptical newspaper commenting on the advice of Dr. Cecil Webb-Johnson, who has said: "Never drink milk, it is an unnatural food, save for the young."

Giving his reasons for this revolutionary opinion, Dr. Webb-Johnson, a specialist on diet, said to a questioner: "We are the only animals in the world who drink milk after infancy. The domestic cat, it may be pointed out, drinks milk after it has grown up, but this is purely a domestic habit."

"The idea has been handed down through generations that milk is a good thing to drink when you are ill. I think it is the worst thing, and I never allow my patients to have it. It causes obesity, flatulence, a dirty tongue and leads to rheumatism, headaches and other feelings. Taken in excess it often causes appendicitis.

"Nature does not intend milk to be taken after the purpose for which it was provided has been fulfilled. I prefer hard food always. Frequently—sometimes habitually—people will go whole days without hard food of any description. That, for one thing is bad for the teeth. Celery, apples and other things that make you bite should be on the table every day.

"Nor is milk good for the body in addition to ordinary food. It makes one fat, and a fat person cannot be healthy."

MONTEREY TAKES FIRST OF SERIES

Thirteenth Cavalry Quartette Defeated in Spotty, Poorly Played Game

BOISE, (P) — Upsetting all prior polo dope, the Eleventh cavalry team, of the Monterey Cavalry team, 8 to 7, in a "spotty" match with the crack Thirteenth Cavalry quartet, of Fort D. A. Bassett, Wyo., Monday afternoon. The match was the first in the Ninth army corps arena-championship series. With both games lost of the two previously played, the California players went into the game against the stellar playing Wyoming aggregation, but Wyoming, by a 7-0 score, with the exception of the last two periods, the game was slow with many misses and poor polo by both teams.

The "hobos" were even in the first four periods and the score tied at 2-2. Then Monterey came in the form and outplayed and outdid its opponent, scoring three times in succession on stellar plays. At the bell, Coulter of the Eleventh, missed a sixth try by inches. The ball rolled across the goal lines, barely missing the post.

Finlay Improves. With King, the veteran Wyoming captain-player, replacing Boon in the sixth period, the game became more closely played and more spectacular from the viewpoint of the average spectator. Volgt, of the Thirteenth, perhaps the most consistent player entered in the tournament this year, has failed to show during the previous periods but settled down in the sixth and with Major Reed, substituting for Lamm, of Monterey, whose injuries forced him out of the game, was the feature of the sixth period. Reed hit the horse into more plays, hit more consistently and played his opponent out of the plays in a better fashion than did any other man on the field with the exception of Volgt, notwithstanding the fact that with the opening of the Northwesters' tourney, Reed had not played for nearly eight months.

Tuesday afternoon finals for the renowned runner-up trophies will be played by the Tenth field artillery team against the Independent Freebooters' organization.

SPORT CHATTER

(By Hirampp)

The game scheduled for Wednesday evening at Lincoln field should be a dandy, as the best players in town are on the two clubs.

This game is being played in the hope that baseball will come into its own this season, with at least twilight ball.

Butt has a team, Kimberly has a team. Harco has a team and Jerome has a league and here is Twin Falls with a population that is larger than any of them without the least sign of a ball club. What is the matter? Don't the fans want baseball this season? If such is the case why not forget it and not keep asking the other fellow to get busy and start something. Surely a town as large as Twin Falls doesn't want to sneeze through a season without baseball.

The boys are all willing to get out twice a week and entertain those that want a little recreation and diversion and now it seems as though it is up to those that want this recreation to put out a helping hand.

Gyb Kleffner, Otis Neuman, Bill Leiser and Gene Ostrander are home for the summer, and will appear in the lineup tomorrow evening.

A movement is on foot at the present time to start a four-team twilight league with two games a week. Tuesday and Friday seem the most plausible days.

Ball players are being rounded up, and after the names have been turned in the different managers will have a drawing, thus having the four teams as nearly equal as possible. Last year's season was marred in a way, when the Legion club became too strong and people didn't turn out to see them play, so they figured it a giveaway. With the drawing of players this condition would be eliminated.

The fans' support is needed, and this subject has been talked about and written about so often that it seems foolish to comment any further, and yet, when the thought comes that Twin Falls is going to be without baseball this season the situation seems to demand some sort of comment, so once more, like the drowning man reaching for the proverbial straw, we plead with the fans to get together, in a final effort to have representation in Twin Falls of America's greatest sport.

There is plenty of material here at present for a four-team league and as far as can be learned, all are willing to give their services. Let the fans

THE BANKRUPTCY OF NATIONS

The aftermath of the world war finds nearly all the nations of Europe in a deplorable condition, financially and morally. The expenditure of men and money has almost ruined the nations of continental Europe, and economic disaster is well-nigh complete. France is making a brave effort to meet her obligations in the payment of interest, but the debt is so great that it is doubtful if an indefinite moratorium, or suspension of payments on the national debt, can be avoided. The German government declares that the nation is bankrupt. Great Britain, with her vast resources, finds herself financially handicapped by the shrinkage in the value of the pound sterling, and the people are taxed practically to the limit. Italy is hanging on more with hope than with confidence that financial disaster may be averted. Not only did the nations of Europe contract immense debts to carry on the war, but great amounts of currency, without the backing of gold, were issued to meet domestic obligations. This currency has depreciated so much that the people themselves have little confidence in it, and it is practically worthless in transactions with other nations. Production and markets constitute the salvation of Europe. Cheap currency must be retired from circulation by the millions, and the people must show by their productive industry that their credit is worthy of confidence.

PREVENTING BUSINESS FAILURES

An experiment which may result in a stabilizing effect on business generally is being made by the National Wholesale Men's Furnishing association. The aim is to prevent failures among retail dealers through systematic extension of aid to those verging on financial embarrassment, who are found to be capable of rehabilitation. The association is informed whenever a retailer begins to fall behind in meeting his obligations. Thereupon a questionnaire is sent inviting him to make a complete statement of his condition, the local business situation and other circumstances which may enable formation of opinion respecting the possibilities of saving him. Thus before he has become utterly discouraged or been thrust into bankruptcy the wholesaler's life saving crew is on the way to his rescue. After a study of the case, if it appears the man is qualified for the business he is in and he has not sunk too far toward failure, plans are devised for restoring his business to normal. The beneficial effects of stabilizing one branch of trade by this or some other means would extend outside the single circle. It would result in course of time in establishing business in the most competent hands. Furthermore, proving successful as it is said to be doing, it would be copied by other trades with the result that we should witness a general strengthening of the country's business structure. For aught there be no apparent connection between widely differing lines of trade, they are all linked factors in the whole. One cannot be adversely affected without the others bearing a large of the burden. There is nothing new about the principle. It is simply the principle of being from destruction for the mutual benefit of one that in which a great many have a stake.

SHARP CUTS IN MANY ITEMS OF TARIFF MEASURE

Senate Finance Committee Continues Its Downward Tendency in Action on Imports; Increases Very Few

WASHINGTON, (AP) - Continuing the reduction of rates in the tariff bill, the senate finance committee majority made sharp cuts Monday in proposed rates on surgical, dental, scientific and laboratory instruments, polyethylene ore and polyethylene alloys and other commodities. All of the reductions, some of which were effected after the original recommendations had come under fire from the democratic side, were approved by the senate.

Some increases in rates also were proposed and accepted. They covered furs, furskins and were recommended by members of the committee said, as compensatory duty to the manufacturer by reason of the recent action of the senate in removing manganese ore from the free list against the committee's recommendation. The duties on furs and furskins were fixed at 1.75 cents a pound on that having more than 1 per cent of carbon, and 1.75 cents and 16 per cent ad valorem on that containing less than 1 per cent of carbon.

Committee Cut Accepted

On scientific and laboratory instruments, the committee proposed and the senate accepted a reduction from 25 per cent ad valorem to 15 per cent. A democratic amendment to make the rate 25 per cent, as at present, was rejected. On surgical and dental instruments, the committee originally recommended duties equivalent, Chairman McCarver said, to 80 per cent. It reduced them to 45 per cent on surgical and 35 per cent on dental, and its action was approved after the senate had defeated motions from the minority side to cut those rates.

WASHINGTON, (AP) - Consideration of the naval appropriation bill in the senate at first set for Tuesday, will not be begun until Thursday under a deal reached by leaders late Monday.

PRESIDENT IS OPPOSED TO IMMEDIATE ACTION

Executive Not Willing that the Ford Offer Should be Hurdly Accepted

WASHINGTON, (AP) - President Harding is understood to have taken a determined stand Monday against action by congress at this time on pending bills for disposal of the government's nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Ala.

The views of the president as outlined, it was stated, to Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the republican leader, at the White House, were conveyed to the republican steering committee, charged with the task of framing the legislative program of the house. Members of the committee declined to indicate whether they would recommend action on the bills or let the whole question go over until the Democratic session.

There was no intention as to how the president regarded the proposal of Henry Ford for release of the property beyond the statement that to let the matter was too big to be hurriedly considered in what members regard as the closing period of the present congress.

FRANCE DEMANDS UNITED EFFORT

Poincare Declines to Repede From Position Taken as to Hague Conference

PARIS, (AP) - Premier Poincare, in his note to the British government, in reply to the recent British memorandum, does not recede an inch from the position taken in his memorandum of June 1, with respect to The Hague conference.

He insists that if the powers come to an agreement in the absence and present a united front to the Russians at The Hague and do not permit them to stray from this point, they can and will accept all requirements of them. As proof of this M. Poincare instances what they have done for Italy in the treaty just concluded.

The French document, although lengthy and businesslike, is devoid of diplomatic circumlocutions. The tone is somewhat cold; disparaging references to the Geneva conference are frequent and there is what appears to be an "unpleasant" allusion to the pact's commission.

When speaking of the question of credits to Russia, the reply refers to "the demands formulated by prospective leaders with regard to certain countries whose prosperity, and economic future could not be doubted."

MASKED PARADES BARRED

Chicago Council Against Ku Klux Klan Declines to Bar Arducke Films

CHICAGO, (AP) - A recommendation that Ku Klux Klan parades and public demonstrations be prohibited within the city limits if the participants appear masked was made Monday by usual members of the council judiciary committee.

The committee also refused to bar the exhibition of the motion picture films here of Roscoe Arbuckle, the comedian.

REFORMS CAUSE SHARP DECLINE

Drop in Values on Exchange is Traceable to Housecleaning Process

NEW YORK, (AP) - To the accompaniment of a flurry aggregating 3,750,000 shares, Monday's stock market registered numerous net losses of 2 to about 20 points. The reaction affected every division of the list, but was most pronounced among oils, metals, equipments and miscellaneous issues which featured the long-sustained spring rise.

Fully one-third of the day's business took place in the last hour, the market facilities of the exchange then being closed beyond capacity. So extensive were the offerings of that period that the official ticker did not register its final quotations until 3:22 o'clock.

Reasons for the violent reversal, which followed sharp setbacks of last week, differed widely, but in quarters close to the exchange it was a matter of gossip that most of the selling originated with interests which have been affected by the "reform" movement upon which the exchange recently embarked.

Many Stocks Affected

Monday's most reactionary stocks included United States Steel, which last Saturday issued a disappointing statement of May net profit earnings, the so-called "merger" steel, namely, Republic, Lackawanna and Midvale; oil, domestic and foreign oils, such as Sinclair, Mexican Petroleum and General Asphalt and market favorites of the type represented by Baldwin, Studebaker, United Rubber and American Woolen.

To Davison Chemical fell the distinction of scoring the greatest decline, that stock losing 9 7/8 points. Taking the day's minimum quotations as a basis of reading, some three score stocks are 10 to almost 25 points under high records of a few weeks ago, when all the activity was on the "bull" side of the market.

A score or more saved themselves by clinging to the sides of Corollia Vandenberg's schooner yacht instead until they were hauled in or picked up by rescue craft.

Searchers Work All Night

The waters had been cleared by daylight of all the living, but the search for the dead continued through the night. Outdied by the searchlights of the police boat, John P. Hyland, a score of boats cruised about, occasionally finding bodies. Meaningless chaos reigned on shore, where drinkings descended unbroken by the main glare of electric lights. The island power plant had been put out of commission by the storm, as had the telephone and telegraph lines.

Mothers, fathers and wives of the missing heaved the police station when a temporary morgue had been set up - gazing fearfully at the faces of the dead by the flickering light of candles and lanterns. Others crowded the wreckage strewn beach waiting for the rescue crew to come in with more bodies.

Fresh crews hauled to the island Monday when they had first news of the tragedy through the morning newspapers. Police directed them to the Bronx morgue where the 34 bodies so far recovered had been removed.

Still Further Havoc

The City Island calamity, while the greatest, was not the only havoc wrought by the storm.

Pending investigation, a charge of homicide was lodged against Paul Simon, owner of the 75-foot ferry which ran on Classon point park in the Bronx, which was blown from its base and buried its 60 occupants on the beach of Long Island sound in a tangle of steel wreckage. Seven were killed and 27 injured. More than a score of isolated drownings, electrocutions by touching fallen wires and deaths beneath falling trees were reported from various parts of the storm area.

DEFENDS WATER DISTRIBUTION ON STOCK BASIS

Robert Ray, in Answer to Other Salmon Tract Settlers' Suit, Upholds the Company's Scheme of Apportionment

Right of the Salmon River Canal company to apportion its surplus stock and to distribute available irrigation water on stock basis to settlers who comply with provisions of a settlement agreement is defended in the separate answer of Robert Ray, in the case of E. Glavin and others against the Salmon River Canal company and Ray. Disposition which the company expects to make of this surplus water stock is outlined in Ray's answer which was filed in district court here Monday by his attorney, T. K. Hackman.

Traces Salmon History.
The answer is a lengthy document and enters in detail into the history of the Salmon River project since 1911, when initial steps were taken that resulted in the reduction of the project from 60,000 to 35,000 acres, and with attempts to effect a settlement as between the bondholders and the settlers whose lands were retained and those whose holdings were excluded. The so-called surplus stock is that which was issued for lands subsequent to the reduction of the project.

The company, says Ray's answer, "will permit the transfer of additional stock only when such stock represents valid and outstanding water rights and interests in said irrigation system originally acquired for lands outside the restricted area and such stock is sought to be transferred to lands within the said 35,000 acres by the owners thereof."

In relation to the distribution of water, the answer says, the company "will appropriate and distribute water available in said system to the settlers within the restricted area on the basis of the number of shares of stock in said company appurtenant to their said lands instead of on the basis of acreage thereof."

Danies Violation of Law.
The answer denies any violation of law in the canal company's proposed arrangement. "It points out that settlers who have entered into the settlement agreement have made payments in cash or given mortgages for the balance due on the stock they have purchased heretofore; and therefore have better claim to share in additional water stock than the plaintiffs in this action, all except one of whom, it says, have made no payments on their stock in more than eight years."

Statement also is made in the answer that holders of 21,000 out of the 35,000 acres in the restricted area have complied with the provisions of the settlement agreement, and that all of the settlers who have made settlement, as well as Ray, are indispensable parties to this action.

It is the contention of Glavin and his associates in this action that apportionment of so-called surplus stock should be made upon a basis of acreage within the restricted area. Settlers associated with Glavin in this action are G. A. Sallee, C. L. McFarland, Beryl Kunkel, J. E. Pohlman, A. E. Caldwell, C. W. Strickling, R. A. Carter, Albert Holmgvist, Orville E. Parrott, and all persons similarly situated."

"Geyman" Stuff No Hit With Girl

When John Trazzo, son of a wealthy importer in Connecticut, met Miss Helen Wurtzbach in October, 1920, she was librarian at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston. He implored her to go to Turkey with him and became so insistent she fled to Chicago, where he followed her and sought to force her, she said, by threats of deportation to the United States, and U. S. immigration officials, are considering deporting him.

She Killed "Perfect Lover" of Fifty Loves

Peggy Marie Deall.

About 39 members of the Quiet Inn Hour league of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church motored to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tolliver, and several of the young men made short talks and offered prayer. This early morning outdoor service was wonderfully impressive. The party returned to town in time for Sunday school.

EARLY ANNOUNCEMENT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Early announcement of President Harding's choice of the "dirt farmer" member of the federal reserve board under the act increasing its personnel to eight, was forecast Monday in official circles. Three men suggested for the position were Clifford Campbell of Coldwater, Michigan, president of the National Milk Producers' association; Eugene Funk of Bloomington, Ill., well known as a seed corn producer; and Sherman P. Houston, a farmer and banker of Malta Bend, Missouri.

The Home of the Soul.

In older times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely upset as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Bird Helplessness.
Eminent naturalists have pointed out that certain of nature's most active creatures show strange helplessness under certain conditions. Place a vulture in a pen six or eight feet square entirely open at the top and the bird will be absolutely a prisoner as if it were hermetically sealed in the enclosure. This is due to the fact that vultures never begin a flight from the ground without starting on a run of three or four yards. If they cannot have that preliminary run they either cannot or will not attempt to fly, and so a vulture will remain a prisoner for life in a jail with no top.

SELF-PROTECTION URGED ON FORMER SERVICE MEN

Government Insurance Campaign in Northwest Adopts a Slogan

SEATTLE (Special to The News)—"Buddy, protect yourself!" This is the slogan selected for the government insurance drive among war veterans of the Pacific Northwest, June 12 to 17 inclusive, according to Douglas B. Taylor, insurance director of the United States Veterans' bureau, who has charge of the campaign. Every ex-serviceman of Washington, Oregon and Idaho will be urged to re-insure his war-risk insurance during this week.

Members of veterans' insurance to be renewed by former service men of Twin Falls has been set at $150,000. The campaign has the endorsement of Norman W. Engle, northwest representative of the American Legion, and all posts have been urged to cooperate in the drive. The total amount of year insurance totaling $5,000,000 in the district. The Red Cross and the Disabled American Veterans' organizations are also supporting the drive, which the Veterans' bureau is conducting for the benefit of the service men and women. Women's auxiliary of ex-servicemen organizations have offered to work for the success of the drive.

Application blanks for reinstatement of war insurance may be secured at any Legion post, Red Cross office or branch office of the Veterans' bureau in the three states. It was announced. The only requirements are that the ex-serviceman undergo a physical examination to prove good health and pay two months' premiums. These examinations are given free by government doctors. Disabled veterans receiving federal compensation are not barred from the insurance program.

Mr. Powles announced that insurance checks should be made out to the name of the United States and sent to the Seattle district office of the U. S. Veterans' bureau. Government insurance rate books have been furnished the local Red Cross and a service men's organization.

Its neutrality and independence were guaranteed by France, Prussia, Russia, Austria, England and Holland, whose representatives signed the treaty of London, May 11, 1807. It has been a grand duchy since 1814; from that date until 1830 it was governed by kings of Holland as grand dukes, though distinct from the kingdom of Holland. In 1830 it passed to the house of Nassau. It was formerly a member of the German confederation and was included in the German customs-union.

HARRIET and the PIPER

CHAPTER VII.

That Isabelle's misadventure would run its full gamut did not occur to Harriet until the next day. Then, as she arose for her morning bath, she was wakened by the sound of a knock from her bedroom door. The possiblities here to suggest themselves. It seemed to her incredible that any woman would risk all that Isabelle had for the sake of a boy's first love, and yet on the other hand there was the memory of Isabelle's suffering two nights ago, and here were the amazing facts to prove it.

It was for few women to enjoy the popularity Isabelle had known. But any woman might run away with a rich admirer. Harriet's admiration for the cleverness with which Isabelle conducted this pretty playing with the girl disappeared, and in its place came the sharp conviction that old-fashioned women like Linda had some justification, after all. It was "dangerous." It did "lead to sin." It could indeed "happen even too often."

Harriet felt her own lapsing morality regarding his standard. Just now, when Nina most needed her influence, when Richard was struggling with difficult business conditions, when Ward was engaged—

she interrupted her thoughts here, and tried to make herself feel like a woman engaged to be married. Somehow the fact posited in harrying her. There was an urgency about it that prevented her from tasting the full sweet. Engaged-to-a rich man, and a rich man's son. Well, perhaps when Ward came back, it would seem more believable.

She had been standing at one of the half windows, a window deep set in the brick wall, and commanding through glass and beeches the path to the tennis court. Hands pressed her eyes tight, she came back to the present moment with a start. Ward Carter was behind her. He laughed at her confusion, and they set down on the window-seat together. Yes, he was going back to the Hollands, and so was Blonch, but they had both come in just for lunch and the drive.

Instantly he brought reassurance to her. Ward was such a dear! Of course she loved him.

"But you weren't a very good boy last night!" she said. Their hands were locked; but she had shaken a negative when he would have kissed her.

"Hottish!" he confessed, calmly. "I played poker, too. So you ought to do that when he's engaged. Sorry—sorry—sorry. Listen, when we're married it's all off. No smoking, drinking, gambling, vice, women, or song, what?"

"You may not know it, but you never spoke a truer word!" the girl said. Her shout of laughter was pleasant to hear.

"Listen, does Mother know it? About us, I mean?"

"Oh, Ward—nobody knows it but Hugh!" His mention of his mother brought back recollections with a rush, and she added uncomfortably, "She's at Great Barrington."

"Oh, darn! I wanted to see her! She wrote me, and told me she loved me, and that she didn't think she had been a very good mother to me!" He laughed, youthfully, with a bewildered widening of his eyes. "I thought she was sick. Well, maybe we can stop there going back."

"Where do you leave Mr. Blonch?"

"He beat it down to the tennis court. Say, listen, is there a chance that he's stuck on Nina? It looks to me like what the watch comes in."

Harriet glared at her while before she answered him. Her heart was sick within her. Gone upon her mid-air dream had come this shadowy fear, more a shadow now, when her responsibility had infinitely increased, and when she had had proof of the love and respect in which they held her heart.

"I don't like it!" she said, briefly. "I'll find Bottomley, and have lunch put ahead."

"You don't like him?" Ward said, watching her closely.

"Of course like him for Nina!" she amended.

The boy followed her while she gave her order. Then they went out into the blazing day together.

"Nina isn't going to have more than a half a day," said her brother, fraternally.

"Nina has a fortune!" the girl remarked, dryly, opening her wide white parasol.

"Lord, he could marry a girl with ten times that! Look here, you can't think a man like Blonch would consider that?" he protested.

"I would rather see Nina dead and buried!" The words burst from Harriet against her will, against her promise to Hugh. There was no help for it, her essential honesty would have it so.

"Talk to him!" Ward, fortunately, was not inclined to take her too seriously. "You'll like him! God, he's certainly had a good effect on me!" added the youth, modestly. "He doesn't drink and he talks to me— you ought to hear him!—about character being fate, and all that! Ray, listen, before we get out of the woods—"

His sudden sense of her earnestness and beauty belied the careless words. Harriet found his arms tight about her, her face tipped up to the young handsome face that was stirred now with trembling excitement. The quiet movement of his breast she could feel against her own, and the passion of his kisses almost frightened her; she was held, bound, half-lifted off her feet.

"Ward!" she gasped, freed at last, and with one hand to her disordered hair, with the other held him at arm's-length. "Dear! Please!"

"It was no use. Your lips and senses were enveloped again, and close to her ear she heard him whisper: "I'm mad about you! Do you know that? I'm mad about you!"

"I think you are!" she stammered, breathless and laughing. "You mustn't do that! You mustn't do that! Why, we might be seen!"

Bravado, too, he flung back his hair, and stooped to pick up her parasol.

"Do you think I care!" he panted, indifferently. "I wouldn't care if the whole world saw!"

"Sh—sh—" By the single only known to youth and womanhood Harriet had gathered herself into trimness and calm again. She took her parasol composedly. Her eyes told him the whole story. Nina and Blonch had been two hundred feet away, coming up from the tennis court.

"You fool—fool—fool!" she said to herself. What had they seen? What was to be the situation would Nina's suspicious affront! Richard Carter treated her; there was no time to tell him that she loved his son. Did she love Ward—or with his keen and kindly eyes would Ward's father see exactly what she saw in the marriage of Rosa or Germaine? It was unthinkable! How she had weakened her position here! How she had risked—her heart contracted with pain—severing of her association with Crawford.

Lancelot under his veneer of gaudiness and foolishness, offered fresh terms. For old Madame Carter had come down, and it occurred to Harriet that if Nina had seen anything in the wood, she might naturally interest her grandmother with an account of the affair. She old lady would go instantly to her son. And Richard—Harriet could imagine him, tired, harassed, heartless over the recent inexplicable weakness of his wife, having to face another woman's treachery, having to tell the whole story of the affair to the little secretary's engagement to his son.

It was experiencing the most overwhelming shock of all his life now; he must shortly be exposed to all the while of scandal! He attended with the secret eyes of his world, the weeklies with their muddy insinuations, the starting fact headlined above his breakfast bacon. This was time to offer herself and the household, to help him to lift the load.

"Blonch!"

"Him afraid I wasn't listening, Mr. Blonch!"

"What Nina and I want to know here we may have our party!" Royal reply.

"The roof-garden party. We've got to have it from half-past six to half-past seven only, because then it won't be too hot."

"Why not have it at eight, with lanterns?" Harriet said, quite involuntarily, and with a pang of self-compassion swept over her. It was hateful, it was incredible, but she was playing his game as easily as if dooils and reluctance had never entered her heart.

ty on to the words, when I caught sight of a woman on the other side of the tree. She looked up, laughing, and said: "Go ahead, but I don't,—Excuse."

THE MARKETS

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO, (AP)—Wheat underwent a decided tumble in value Monday, largely as the result of anticipation of big shipments from the southwest, where the harvest is becoming more general. Heavy liquidating sales on the part of holders took place and there was an aggressive offering from short sellers, whose demand from buyers was at a minimum. The close was unsettled, 3 1/8 to 3/4 cent lower with July $1.10 3/4 to 1.09 7/8, and September $1.10 1/8 to 1.10 3/4. Corn finished 5/8 to 1 1/8 off, and oats down 3/4 to 7/8 to 1 to 1 1/8, and provisions unchanged to 20c lower.

With crop news favorable from practically all sections and with a bumper yield of winter wheat seeming to be almost certain, the accumulation of selling orders here swamped efforts to bring about any decided rally in prices. Weakness in the New York stock and futures markets added to the downward impetus of cheap prices in the last part of the board of trade session. Final quotations on wheat were at nearly the day's lowest level, with December delivery at the lowest price yet this season. The fact that elevator facilities here are still clogged with grain was only offset in part by the fact that vessel room for 700,000 bushels of wheat was chartered for eastern lake ports.

Corn and oats were weakened by the wheat market decline.

Omaha Livestock

OMAHA, (AP)—Hogs—Receipts 14,000; mostly 16 to 25c lower; bulk 120 to 230 pound butchers, $10.05 to 10.25; top $10.25; bulk 250 to 300 pound butchers $9.50 to 10.05; packing grades $9 to 9.65.

Cattle—Receipts 7,500; cows steady, mostly 10 to 15c lower; spots 15 to 25c lower; $9.00 bid; steer-stock steady to easier; other classes of stock mostly steady.

Sheep—Receipts 10,000; lambs $5 to $6; ewes $4 to $5; choice $5 to $6; medium light $4 to $5; heavy $4 to $5; Teeling lambs $11.75.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Selling of the same enforced character as that which precipitated the sharp reactionary movements of last week was largely evident on the stock exchange Monday. Speculative issues reacted 5 to 10 points on sales approximating 1,750,000 shares.

In substance, much of the liquidation was subscribed to interests which already have or are about to sever their direct relations with the exchange in consequence of that institution's drastic program of "house cleaning."

Other offerings were attributed to brokers who were said to have received broad intimations that the exchange no longer would countenance pool operations in stock of obscure or merely potential value.

These several forms of liquidation were accelerated in the later dealings by a pronounced expansion of short contracts, based in part on the market's lack of support together with other adverse developments. Among these was the declaration of the Paris bankers' committee to proceed with the international loan, that action causing weakness in international currencies.

More than one-third of the day's business was transacted in the final hour. Oils, steel, motors, equipments, explosives, textiles, food specialties and chemicals were then the center of the transaction. United States steel, which had been irregular to the early part of the session, was extensively offered at a net loss of 3 1/2 points. Independent stocks, notably Republic and Manhattan, registered more severe declines.

High grade rails were immune from pressure until the reverse became too pressing to withstand. Losses among transportation were held within moderate limits, however, the chief sufferers being Southern Pacific, Reading and Erie at net declines of 1 to almost 2 points.

Call money opened at 3 per cent, eased to 2 3/4, lowest quotation in almost five years, but gradually stiffened as stock market prices became more reactionary, advancing to the day's highest quotation of 3 1/2 per cent in the last half hour. Time funds held at last week's levels, with smaller offerings of long date accommodations.

Stripling reacted half a cent, while allied bills were 7 to 12 points lower and German marks were almost 7 points under their price of two weeks ago.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3 1/2's $100.08; first 4's $99.86; second 4's $99.84; first 4 1/4's $99.96; second 4 1/4's $99.92; third 4 1/4's $100; fourth 4 1/4's $100; Victory 4 3/4's $100.02; Victory 3 3/4's blank.

Making an Asset of Difficulties

A great opportunity is now before American business—the opportunity of making a big and permanent asset out of the very difficulties of the present situation. The conviction that this can be done is extremely heartening. It is enough to put a new thrill of life and activity into every form of industry.

From one point of view the present situation is by far the most desirable, the soundest, the sanest, and the most hopeful this country has ever seen. Why? Because it brings into bold relief, through sheer necessity, the latent power to create conditions as we would like to have them.

The curtailment of Demand for the products of industry brought us face to face with the question, hitherto ignored, as to what causes demand. Then it was discovered that Demand was a created thing, and that more of it could be created in almost any direction — if enough of the right effort were applied.

Chief among the means of creating Demand is now seen to be Advertising. Whoever you find a big demand for any product you find, invariably, that the demand for that product has been stimulated by human effort, and chiefly through advertising.

It is obvious to any one who will think it through that the present demand for any product could be substantially lessened if it were possible to eliminate all forms of advertising—including pictures, displays, and word of mouth, as well as printed and painted messages—and just let that product depend on the natural or unstimulated demand.

And it is equally obvious that a demand for any worthy product can be created and stimulated by means of Advertising.

This fact puts within the hands of the business man the means of creating his own market. That would be the biggest asset he could have—an assured market for all he could produce.

SCHOOL BOARD ASKED TO PAY DAMAGE CLAIM

Injuries of School Girl Hurt by Truck Basis for Demand on District; Several Teachers Submit Resignations

Claim for damages growing out of the injury of Ellen Smith, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. P. Smith, in December, 1920, when she was struck down near the Bickel school by a truck operated by a driver in the employ of the school district, the wheels passing over her head and causing disfigurement, was urged at a meeting of the Twin Falls board of education today night at the presence of the district and their attorney, E. J. Hornbush.

May Best Chances The amount of damages asked was $1000, and it was stated that if suit should be instituted $5000 damages would be asked. As a committee to investigate and confer with the district's attorneys in the case, C. E. McClinton, J. Peters and Superintendent M. C. Mitchell were appointed.

Another problem brought to the attention of the board was that of claim of E. E. Floyd for waiver of tuition fees charged against his son, Oscar, a high school student, from last April when the Floyd family withdrew the district; was sold and the family moved into the Kimberly district. The board took no action relative to the waiver requested.

Fix Opening Date. Date for the opening of school this year was definitely fixed by the board at Tuesday, September 5. As principal of the Bickel school, the board confirmed Superintendent Mitchell's appointment of Mrs. Ethel Wood as principal of the Washington school, to succeed Mrs. B. J. Way, whose resignation was accepted. Appointment of Miss Olga Billiar, teacher of the Washington school, to be principal of that building, also was confirmed.

Members of the janitors' staff, whose appointments by the superintendent were confirmed by the board, today were given 10 days' vacation. The janitors appointed were G. O. Taylor, high school and junior high school; P. D. Frazzelle, Lincoln school; J. P. King, Bickel school; John A. Wile, Washington school. Under a new arrangement proposed by the superintendent, the janitor will employ his own assistants. It is expected that a saving to the district of about $1200 for the year will result from this arrangement.

Lease of lots north of the high school, the district board of education solicited of the Precinctors. The lots are for grounds this summer, was approved by the board.

Asks for Pipe Line Various necessary improvements and repairs in the school system were suggested by committee and by Clinton W. Evans, district superintendent. He urged the desirability of installing more adequate pipe line for sprinkling Lincoln field. The wagon committee filed its report after an inspection of the 35 wagons comprising the district's fleet of vehicles to repair pupils' cars from school and district lots to repair work would be required this year than last. The property committee reported results of its conferences with janitors of the several school buildings.

The several committees will meet during the present week to formulate detailed recommendations which the board will consider at a special meeting next Monday.

EXECUTIVES OF PAVING CONCERN RENEW PROMISES

Warren Construction Company President Finds Materials and Workmanship in Resurfacing Work Satisfactory

Materials and workmanship entering into pavement resurfacing operations began here last week when operations were resumed by the Warren Construction company, that a favorable beginning has been made toward bringing about the fulfillment of its promise that when this district is completed the Warren company will never be called upon to return to alter or repair pavement laid here in 1920.

On Inspection Trip Statement to this effect was made last evening by Mr. Macphail after an inspection of the work made by himself; Robert Warren of Portland, vice-president of the Warren Brothers company of Boston, and B. D. Hoyt, Portland, general manager of the Warren Construction company. Mr. Warren spent only a few hours here Monday and during that time was taken over the state highway from Piler to Kimberly which was last year paved with the process controlled by the Warren Brothers company. Mr. Macphail and Mr. Hoyt will remain here until this afternoon when they will leave returning to Portland.

Will Finish in Three Weeks. Work now being done by the Warren Construction company will be completed within three weeks, Mr. Macphail said. Within a day or two, he said, the resurfacing will be completed at the rate of about 4000 yards a day. "As I said when I was here three weeks ago arranging to start the present operations," Mr. Macphail said, "we are going to do this work so that the resurfacing will be completed, called upon to return to repair or alter it. We expect, however, to come back next year for new work."

WOULD TAKE BOND CASE INTO FEDERAL COURTS

Corporation Sued by Buhl Highway District Seeks Removal of Suit

On the grounds that the litigants are citizens of different states, the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, a Maryland corporation, will ask for removal from the district court to the federal district court of the case instituted against it by the Buhl highway district.

Hearing on the petition for removal of the case which, with $1000 bond was filed here Monday, will be held in district court here June 23. The case involves a claim of the highway district against the company for $72,042.25 on bonds of Russ W. Allred, former treasurer of the highway district and former cashier of the Citizens State bank of Buhl, which closed its doors last December. Allred's estate is the subject of the case were filed by A. R. Hill, Lake Falls, and Gustin and Pence, Salt Lake, attorneys for the company, and service was acknowledged by Bothwell and Chapman, attorneys for the highway district.

CELEBRATORS OF FOURTH OF JULY GIVEN FREE REIN

Council Provides for Hoisting Flags, Roping-Off Streets, Use of Park and Makes Exception to Fireworks Rule

Flags will be hoisted over the streets in the business district; certain streets will be roped off for open air dancing and other amusements; an exception will be made to the rule in the case of the prohibition against setting off fireworks, and the city park will be available for the disposal of the committee and of the celebration crowd on the Fourth of July in Twin Falls under the provisions of a motion adopted at Monday evening's brief regular session of the city council.

World Limit Use of Park The council allowed itself wholly in sympathy with the plans of the celebration committee by its action in granting all of the requests made by the committee in connection with the celebration. Permission for indiscriminate use of the city park, however, was opposed by Councilman Craig T. Brecken, of the parks committee, who insisted that the park should be beginning to get rid of all of the confetti scattered on the grass a year ago.

Lowering of the laws restricting the use of fireworks is not made general but applies only to the members of the celebration committee designated to set off its own prohibited display.

Lease for this year covering land used as Twin Falls' automobile tourist park and owned by A. J. Hill, Wapak, Waco, was approved and signed. Amount was fixed at $125 for the year, the same as last year.

Districts Licensed Upon recommendation of Dr. W. L. Ikkard, and district inspector, the council authorized issuance of dairy-men's licenses to E. C. Bond, Fred C. Spencer and D. E. Clark.

The council authorized issuance of licenses to the district clerk and against the general obligations fund in the sum of $530; against the waterworks fund in the sum of $83 and against the street sprinkling fund in the sum of $370.40.

SEARCH FOR VICTIM OF SNAKE RIVER IS HALTED

Coroner Waits for Body to Come to Surface Through Natural Causes

Search for the body of Tom Papless, Greek section hand, aged 30 years, reported to have been drowned while swimming in the Snake river Sunday afternoon in the lake back of Miller dam on Snake river, was temporarily abandoned Monday by Coroner P. J. Grossman and his assistants after officers failed to raise the body by means of a buoy and had proven unavailing.

Searchers for the body will wait until it comes to the surface through natural causes when they anticipate it will be carried to the lower end of the lake. Papless had been in the water for about 45 minutes when he disappeared and was not seen again, other section men who were his companions told authorities here. Water is about 10 feet deep at the point where, they said, Papless disappeared. Papless had been employed on the section at Miller dam a short time. Authorities have endeavored to communicate with a brother, said to reside at Ogden.

NOTED ENGINEER IS VISITOR HERE

Colonel J. W. Covert, Builder of "Iron Trail," Prescribes Paving Remedy

Colonel J. W. Covert, noted civil engineer, Alaska railroad builder and a personal friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, left Sunday for Boulder, Colo., after spending two days here investigating paving conditions for the Warren Brothers company of Boston. He left with Leo B. Chase, superintendent, here for the Warren Construction company, his recommendations for mixtures and repair remedies to be applied in instances where work which the Warren company is doing here on pavement laid here in 1920.

Many Claims on Time. Colonel Covert came here from Moscow, where, in response to invitation, he addressed engineering students of the University of Idaho on hard surface road topics. He also stopped in Boise at the request of the city administration to establish mixtures for the paving being laid here as well as at Nampa and Payette to set mixtures for bituminous paving similar to that laid in Twin Falls which is now being constructed there.

Colonel Covert is highly esteemed in the engineering fraternity where he is considered an authority on many subjects. He was at one time leasing engineer for the Southern Pacific railroad and other western roads, and has spent 40 years in this line of work. His experience includes supervision of preliminary work on the Alaskan railroad made famous by Rex Beach's story, "The Iron Trail."

In Open With Roosevelt. Colonel Covert spent considerable time in Northern Idaho in his early days with Theodore Roosevelt who then was living in the open in a search after health.

Colonel Covert indicated the probability of his return here in the near future to inspect the progress of the work on the pavement.

WHY ENTER FOR RHEUMATISM? Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscle or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to anyone afflicted with rheumatism.—Adv.

Head Lettuce Seed is Locked in Vault

Five hundred pounds of head lettuce seed for growers who have signed marketing contracts with the California Vegetable Union were locked away in the courthouse vault upon its delivery Monday at the county farm bureau office. This precaution was taken because of the high value of the seed, which sells on the market now for as much as $8 a pound, the courthouse vault being worth about $4000 on the market. The seed will be distributed among the growers through the farm bureau as soon as it is weighed up in parcels. It will cost the growers $2.50 a pound, the contract price.
