ROADS MUST DOWN GRAIN ELEVATORS

Legislation Requiring Erection of Public Terminal Facilities by Railroads Recommended to Congress

WASHINGTON, (P)—Legislation requiring operation of public terminal grain elevators by railroad companies was recommended to congress Friday by the federal trade commission in a report on terminal grain marketing which also urged improved banking facilities for the movement of the grain in the northwest.

Elimination of the financing of commission houses by terminal elevators, improvement in the method of making up cash quotations and the elimination or reduction of so-called insurance charged country shippers at Duluth were among other recommendations.

The committee was of the opinion that grain merchandising on the part of operators of licensed public elevators appears to be contrary to sound principle of public warehousing, leading to dissatisfaction on the part of growers and millers and to illfeeling throughout the grain trade.

To Break Up Control
This situation, according to the commission, gives large elevator merchants a practical control of deliverable grain at the terminal markets, facilitates speculation in normal situations and has doubtless been at least responsible for the failure of the cash and future market to move in harmony.

The commission recommended that railroads be required to operate elevators for the convenience of farmers. Systematic normal situations as regards the use of public storage in the grain trade, the commission asserted, would be so generally beneficial to the trade and to the public as to justify such legislation.

The confession of faith adopted was only a recommendation to the churches of the denomination and is not considered binding on any church, it was said.

Anonymous Charges Against Treasury Officials Circulated Among Members of Congress Draw Strong Denials

WASHINGTON, (P)—Forested by President Harding, a formal statement was issued Friday by Secretary Mellon characterizing as "false" and "the product of selfishly ambitious employees," charges circulated among members of congress that key positions in the treasury were largely held by democratic officials.

The document containing the charges bearing the title "The Treasury Department—survey of the personnel of the bureau of Internal Revenue"—was circulated anonymously while at the same time it became known that members of the house had signed a memorial to President Harding praising treasury assistant Secretary Dyer of the treasury department, whose efforts at reorganizing the revenue bureau met with the approval of congress.

Names and party affiliations listed in the document were freely criticized for inaccuracies at the treasury while S. Parker Gilbert, Jr., wrote Representative Deag, republican, Ohio, representing the first time which Gilbert, Mr. Paul Gilbert, active democratic politician, making the stump for Governor Cox in the campaign of 1920, as undersecretary of the treasury.

"I do not know Mr. Paul Gilbert," Under-Secretary Gilbert said, "but assume from the context that the statement is of no consequence whatever to me but I should like to state for your own information that if it does refer to me, it is absolutely false in every respect. Since you are sending your name to the clerk, you may possibly be interested in the facts."

"I am not a democrat, am not a politician and have never been active in politics. I did not take the stump in 1920 for Mr. Cox and had no interest whatever in his campaign. I am a lifelong republican, have never voted anything but the republican ticket and my father was for 30 years one of the most active republican leaders in the state of New Jersey."

"I was appointed assistant secretary of the treasury by President Wilson in 1920 as a republican, was reappointed by President Harding in March, 1921, and subsequently appointed under-secretary of the treasury in June, 1921."

"I should have thought that before you permitted ignorant libels to circulate under your name, you would first have made at least some effort to ascertain the facts."

No walkout, he declared, would occur on the Southern, Mobile and Ohio, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago and Alton and a number of other roads, due to signed agreements, binding the men on those lines, to accept reductions as fixed by the labor board.

VITAL CHANGE IS FORCED AT HAGUE

Pressure by European States Compels Increase in Sub-Commission Members

THE HAGUE, (P)—The pressure of the smaller European countries, especially those adjacent to and having vital political and commercial interests in Russia, Friday forced the Hague conference to form sub-commissions of 13 instead of 11 members, as had been planned by the allied leaders.

This is interpreted by all the delegates as indicating not only a determination not to be shut out of the important discussions by the greater powers, but as manifesting eagerness about the future of the reorganized Russian state. The pressure surprised everybody by its force.

Foreign Minister Van Karnebeek of Holland, was entrusted by the conference with the task of naming the members of the three sub-commissions and the general will be announced Monday afternoon, to which time Friday afternoon's session was adjourned. Van Karnebeek's action has begun negotiations with the smaller powers, especially the Baltic states, in an effort to satisfy all nations in the formation of the committees of the conference.

LIQUOR SALES WILL CONTINUE, SAYS TREASURY

New Ruling Permits Carrying of Intoxicants by American and Foreign Ships on Exactly Equal Basis

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sale of liquor of shipping, board vessels outside the three-mile limit is permissible under new treasury regulations issued Friday according to P. A. Vico, general counsel for the prohibition unit.

This interpretation was taken as settling for the time being the controversy over liquor on government ships precipitated by Adolphus Bush III, St. Louis, brewer, when he wrote President Harding that the government was engaging in the bootlegging business by permitting sale of alcoholic beverages on shipping board vessels.

Solution of the problem, Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, declared Friday night, "lies in excluding all ships that sell liquor from American ports."

Legislation the this end is being considered, he said, asserting that by putting both American and foreign vessels on an equal footing with respect to liquor, the competitive feature of the question would be removed.

Apply to All Ships.

The new regulations were not drafted with the intention of settling the question of liquor on shipping board vessels. "We said, and in fact were written before that question arose. As drawn, however, he said, they would apply equally to American and foreign ships in permitting, intoxicating stores within the three-mile limit under certain regulations which provide that while in American ports all liquor on board a ship must be sealed up.

Amending the former regulations, the new rules were issued "pursuant to an opinion of Acting Attorney General Nelson," dated February 1, 1921, affirmed by Attorney General Daugherty June 30, 1921, and the decision of the United States supreme court in Grogan vs. Walker and the Aucher case vs. Aldridge, rendered May 16, 1922.

The new regulations, which become effective today, provide for the seizure of beverage liquor when in transit through the United States.

WOMAN SETS PACE IN MINNESOTA CAMPAIGN

Friends Present Her With Sedan in Which She Tours the State

ST. PAUL, (AP)—A woman is setting the pace for all candidates in the Minnesota primary election campaign. Rambling over the countryside, from town to town, in a small sedan automobile, Mrs. Anna Dickie Olson, of Cloquet, is waging an intense campaign for the Democratic United States Senatorial nomination.

Mrs. Olson, inspired by the Democratic state convention, will go into the June 19 state-wide primary opposed by two men, Thomas J. Malghan, of Preston, and Homer Messer, of Minneapolis, in the only contest of recognized importance.

Mrs. Olson is more than a campaigner for her nomination; it is a campaign of womanhood for recognition in politics, she declares, and in her automobile campaign, she feels she is blazing the way for her sex.

Campaigns in Sedan

The sedan was presented to her by friends—the next day she started on her campaign tour of the state; a tour that will terminate with the June 19 primary, and then only momentarily if she is nominated.

Her 14-year-old daughter, Mary, is doing most of the driving; she is mightily interested in her mother's campaign, and together with Mrs. Olson, superintendent of Cloquet schools, makes up the family "cabaret."

From time to time various women friends of Mrs. Olson accompany her on her cross country drives, and now and then local folk are added to the party for an intensive drive in some particular region.

It isn't just the towns and cities that are hearing and seeing Mrs. Olson, for many times her automobile stops beside some field and a farmer is invited to rest within it while the ardent apostle seeks to strengthen his party alignment or convert him to the Democratic cause.

The mint began operating several months ago, and in the past time it has manufactured 5,000,000 rubles in silver of denominations of 10, 15, 20, 50, 100, and 1 ruble pieces. The coins contain 90 per cent silver and 10 per cent copper, and in general appearance are much the same as those in use before the war. Close inspection, however, shows that the Soviet coin of arms has replaced the old imperial eagle. Another striking feature is the Bolshevik motto "Proletariat of the World, Unite" on the reverse side.

The new coins are sent to Moscow, where they are held in part of the government's treasury. When sufficient quantities have been assembled the government contemplates using them as a form of guarantee for paper money to be issued in the future. Ultimately it is hoped to put them generally in circulation, and thus obviate the present scarcity of currency. # WILL PROVIDE GERMAN DYES

Resolution Introduced Permitting Acceptance Under the Terms of Agreement

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A joint resolution authorizing the president to take such steps as are required to permit Americans to obtain dyestuffs and chemicals under reparations provisions of the treaty of Versailles was introduced today by Senator Shortridge, republican of California. Since the dissolution by the state department of its arrangement with the textile alliance whereby the latter acted as agent for the receipt of the commodities, it is said, none have been turned over to this country by the reparations commission.

On President's Suggestion

The resolution was drawn to carry out the suggestion of President Harding made some months ago in a letter to Senator Frelinghuysen, republican of New Jersey, that congressional action provided the only means by which America's right to purchase a share of the reparations dyestuffs and chemicals turned over to the commission by the German government could be exercised. The commission had refused to deliver the dyestuffs to other than designated agents of this government, it was explained, and there was no one to receive them legally when, after protests had been entered with the state department, it was announced that the arrangement with the textile alliance was ended.

The First English Guinea

The English Guinea was first coined in 1837, and derived its name from the fact that the gold of which it was at first composed came from Guinea, from whence it was brought back by intrepid British fortune seekers.

Commanders of Opposing Forces in Chinese Civil War Engage in Informal Visit to Compose Differences

TIENTSIN, China, (AP)—Commanders of the opposing Chihli and Fengtien armies on the South Manchurian front have gone aboard a British warship at Chih Wangtao to discuss formal terms of a truce. The meeting is reported to have been successful and that the fighting on the Chihli-Manchurian border between the forces of Wu Peifu and Chang Tso-Lin will be brought to a halt. It is believed here that the negotiations at Chihwangtao for a truce will be successful and that the fighting on the Chihli-Manchurian border between the forces of Wu Peifu and Chang Tso-Lin will be brought to a halt. ### Nervy Crook in Berlin Gaily Removes Clock from Wall While Court is in Session

BERLIN, (AP)—Thousands of lawbreakers have been given "time" in Berlin's central criminal court in Meid, but recently an ingenious crook, posing as a repairman, actually was given the court's official clock, and during the conduct of a trial.

The sitting was well under way when the man in working clothes entered the courtroom with a long ladder which he calmly placed under the huge, imposing timepiece on the wall. The judge, counsel, accused and spectators were not aroused at such an unprecedented interruption. The president stopped the workman as he took the clock long enough to inquire the meaning of his conduct. The visitor explained that he merely wanted to get the clock for repair and that it would only take a moment. The president objected, but consented when the man said he already had set all things and always found the court in session.

The vacant space on the wall surprised the janitor later in the day, and his investigations revealed that the clock had been robbed under its very eyes, in fact, with its permission.

CONTROL OF SUDAN IS NECESSARY TO EGYPT

Britain Contemplates Protectorate in Territory Against People's Wishes

CAIRO, Egypt, (AP)—He who holds the Sudan controls Egypt hence all of Egypt is vitally interested today in the reports from London that Great Britain is considering the establishment of a protectorate in this territory. "Egypt without the Sudan is a tomb for its people," says one newspaper, and explains that control of the Sudan is absolutely necessary to the economic development and life of Egypt. Without the Sudan Egypt's independence, recently granted by Great Britain, would be a farce.

The London rumors carry the detail that Great Britain contemplates the declaration of a Sultanate separate from Egypt under one of the sons of the Mahdi as its ruler, the whole under British protection with a system of government similar to a British dominion.

The Egyptian people will resist, their newspapers declare, and to the extent of force. They are voicing their determination to regard Egypt and the Sudan as one and inseparable. With Great Britain in the Sudan, the products of the country will be exported by way of Berber and Suakin, and with her hands on the sources of the Nile Great Britain could render the lower reaches of the river, so vital to Egypt, fertile or infertile at will.

Papal Hopes

During the election of a new pope it is customary to prepare in advance three sets of white papal robes of different sizes, as no one can tell which of the candidates for papal honor will be chosen. On September 8, 1914, when Benedict XV entered the Sistine chapel arrayed in the papal robes of the smallest size, it was found that even these were far too large. The robes must be in readiness, as the pope on his election is immediately clad in his vestments and receives the homage of the assembled cardinals. It is not unusual for both the robes and the Fisherman's ring—the symbol of papal authority—to have to undergo alteration to fit the new pope.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS STUDY NEWSPAPER WORK

Object of New Association is to Increase Interest in Study of Journalism in Institutions

MADISON, (AP)—To interest high school students in newspaper work is the object of the Central Interscholastic Press Association, an organization of high school editors in more than 400 cities of the country.

The organization, which has experienced a rapid growth in the last few months, resulted from a local meeting held two years ago by P. W. O. Bloyer, director of the course in Journalism at the University of Wisconsin. The students of journalism here are actively directing the association, which has, however, officers of its own, elected here last November at a meeting attended by 200 high school editors.

School Publications Are Criticized

Copies of school publications are sent to Prof. Bloyer, who assigns students to criticize each issue for make-up, style, headlines, general content and to suggest possible improvements.

The various school publications are classified and judged, the winning publications having the privilege of carrying their rating on the editorial page. An effort is made to keep the editors interested in their work and to show them what other schools are doing.

So many schools are applying for membership in the association that it is now planned to divide the country into districts, each of which will hold a convention this year. The first two meetings have been held here with representatives present from the middle western states.

WAGES ARE LESS THAN RELIEF CONTRIBUTIONS

London Firm Dismisses Employees as They May Benefit by Charity

LONDON, (AP)—A man can derive a larger income in Poplar by accepting relief than he can by working, so generous are the contributions of the Poplar Guardians. Full information as to the methods of the Guardians in relieving poverty in their borough discloses greater extravagance than had been suspected. An East End firm wrote to the Guardians: "Our employees who live in Poplar have pointed out that they can get more money by being unemployed than by working for us. As we have no wish to prevent them getting as much as possible, we propose to dismiss them so they can take advantage of your relief."

Charity on Big Scale

That the firm did not exaggerate prevailing conditions is shown by other testimony. A man and wife were granted 10 pounds 10 shillings a week to relieve their poverty when the earnings of four single daughters brought the family income up to 7 pounds 5 shillings a week. So generous were the Guardians in disbursing the taxpayers' money that they granted one dependent from the unemployed a higher scale of relief than had been asked for.

In their own defense the Guardians simply state that they elected to help the poor people of the borough, and they have no excuse to offer for doing it.

MORTGAGED HOMES

There was recently published a statement relative to the ownership of homes in New York state. According to that statement the number of homes other than "farm homes" was $2,240,931, of which 597,785, or 26.7 per cent were owned by the occupants.

Probably this exhibit of mortgaged homes is exceptional. Study of 1922 census statistics on the subject seems to indicate that in large industrial states the number of mortgaged homes is greater than in agricultural states, both in number and percentages.

"Farm mortgages are for 'business' purposes." Mortgages on private homes, on the other hand, are a means to the end of home-owning. Home-owning is incentive to saving, and is more thrifty when it comes within earning capacity than rent-paying is.

IF MARTHANS CAN SEE US

Periodically the planet Mars comes nearer to the earth than it is at other times. Whenever this getting together takes place the astronomers here on earth are filled with hope to find out more than is now known about the earth's fellow-traveler in space.

During the next two summers Mars is again to be near the earth, only a matter of 41,000,000 miles distant. But no telescope now in existence can bring the planet near enough to this sphere so that there is the slightest hope of settling the age-old question of the Martian canals.

But suppose the Martians have succeeded in bringing the earth so close to them that they can see it as with their naked eyes, and also have invented devices whereby they may hear and understand all that is going on here?

His speculation on why men seem to be unable to patch up his differences should be interesting. And when he comes to look upon him in his more peaceful occupations and diversions, the Martians might be even more perplexed.

they get there faster, such inventions and such getting him there faster seem to have no other purpose. These and other similar reflections the Martians might draw from man's antics, and if he could get hold of them, such reflections might be worth more to him than anything that he could learn about the canals on Mars.

FIRST ELECTION IS TAME AFFAIR

Only One Untoward Incident During Day of Balloting in Ireland

DUBLIN, (P)—The Universal verdict Friday night was that, with the exception of one instance in Dublin, Ireland never had such a tame election as that which took place Friday to choose members of parliament.

In this city, raiders, headed by Rory O'Connell, of the irregular republican army, made off with the documents and tally sheets of the national university polling precinct. Elsewhere in the city and county of Dublin, the day was devoid of incident.

The publication of the constitution evoked no expression of opinion from Eamon de Valera, leader of the republican faction. Mr. De Valera declined to speak concerning it, on the ground he had not had time to read the document.

$27,000,000 MORE

The 12,000 signal men received the heaviest cut of the group, being reduced five cents an hour, with helpings subtracting six cents more. Signal foremen, assistant foremen and inspectors, however, escaped, with no reduction.

The 5,000 train dispatchers likewise escaped a cut, the board declaring the nature of their work and their responsibility warranting continuance of the present rates.

Stationary engineers, firemen and others, numbering 10,000, escaped with the smallest slice from their pay envelopes, being cut 2 cents an hour. Executives of the firmen and other union men and the signal men and clerks' brotherhood decided at a conference with eight other labor unions in Cincinnati last week to issue a strike ballot if their wages were reduced.

No Change in Pay Dining car employees and the culinary workers on the forries in San Francisco may still continue to get their present pay since but few carriers asked a reduction in these classes. But four carriers asked for reduction of their marine workers, too, and the wages of that group, numbering 800, were remanded for settlement with the carriers.

The board explained that the clerks' cut was lighter than some other classes because they had "suffered considerably less from certain changes in their rates and because they never have been highly paid compared with other classes."

Flowers for Dining Room. Flowers always make the dining room more cheerful. Why not make your own flower box and plant your own flowers? Take three boards of equal length; the length you desire, and two small ones for the ends. Nail this to match the dining room furniture and set it on the window sill with profit, if necessary.

INCREASE SCOPE OF ASSOCIATION

Nine Western States and Park Services Make Important Recommendations

SACRAMENTO, (P)—Nine western states and the national park service were represented here Friday at the third annual meeting of the National Park to Park Highway association. President Scott Leavitt of Great Falls, Mont. in his annual report urged that the organization be nation-wide and add that 273,000 persons visited the four parks on the canyon slope of the Rocky mountains last year while 11,000 entered the four large parks on the Pacific coast.

L. L. Newton of Cody, Wyo., urged completion of hard surfaced roads connecting all parks, and W. B. Lewis, superintendent of the Yosemite national park, who represented Stephen B. Johnston, director of national parks, pledged the support of the department of interior in carrying forward the association's work.

Take in Whole Country Resolutions providing for the complete nationalization of the national park to park highway association and so throwing the membership rolls open to men all over the country was unanimously adopted.

Under the new plan, it is proposed to interest men of national reputation in road matters in the development of tourist travel with a view to completing a chain of highways over the Rocky mountains to the national parks of the Pacific coast.

Another resolution provides for closer co-operation with the various travel bureaus all over the country for the dissemination of information concerning the condition of roads.

SHRINERS LEAVE ON OCEAN TRIP

Newly Elected Imperial Potentate Heads Party Bound for Honolulu

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Two steamships filled with Shriners bound for Honolulu on a visit to the home of the new imperial potentate of the order, James S. McCallister, left here Friday. They were the H. F. Alexander, formerly the Great Northern, on its first trip across the Pacific since being used as a transport in war service, and the Matsonia, a shipping boat vessel. A few Shriners also were on the Nisne, which left later in the day.

All but two members of the imperial divan of the mystic shrine, Benjamin W. Howell of Boston, and David S. Groulan of Monterey, Ala., were in the party whose trip will be a continuation on a smaller scale of the festivities that have marked Shriners' week here.

A stay of several days will be made in Honolulu and the volcano of Kilauea also will be visited. The party will reach San Francisco on its return trip about July 1.

A large crowd saw the imperial party off. Five airplanes and a tug which carried Mayor Rolph acted as an escort to the H. F. Alexander and Matsonia as they steamed toward the Golden Gate.

Happiness. It is almost entirely the individual's fault if he is not happy for happiness is a cast of mind. One of the greatest of all poets says: "There is nothing either good or bad"—in this world—but thinking makes it so." Happiness resides not in the pocket nor even in the bodily health, but in our mental attitude to our surroundings, and in contentment with our lot. We cannot entirely govern our surroundings, but each of us is captain of his own soul. Thank God for what you have got.—Sir Alfred Fripp.

What a great deal of comfort is to be found in a pocket of gold. An elephant is possessed of much gold, but he does not know it. Happiness is like that.—Sir Alfred Fripp.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT IN-FIGHT WITH I. W. W.'S

Riot with Harvest Hands Assembled in City Park Results in Arrests

CHEROKEE, Okla., (P)—One man was killed and three others probably fatally injured here tonight in a fight between about sixty harvest hands assembled in the city park; just outside the city limits. The fight, which assumed the proportions of a riot, is thought by officers to have been incited by the I. W. W.

The man killed was known as Paul Bernack of Ardmore. He was about 40 years old. In his pocket was found an honorable discharge from the thirty-fourth infantry at Fort Leavenworth, Mo. He also carried an I. W. W. membership card, officers said.

Late Friday night 12 alleged members of the I. W. W. who are charged with participation in the shooting affair, were arrested. Sheriff McCrady said eight of those arrested here were carrying I. W. W. cards.

Some Habits of Eels. Eels feed on almost any animal food they can find, living or dead. They are especially fond of carrion. It is believed that eels spawn but once in their lives and die soon after their first spawning period. Large eels migrate toward the sea in the fall, in the spring small transparent eels of two inches in length and upwards are common on the shore under stones.

Have Settled Plan for Work. Some men are in a state of perpetual confusion. They are always apparently as busy as bees, but they never achieve anything. It is no use working unless there is a settled plan. The day's activities should be carefully scheduled—so many hours for work, so many hours for study, so many for healthy relaxation.—Sir H. Woodman Burbridge.

The Limits of Elsewhere. A. W. O. writes that when in Florida he tried to buy a Chicago paper and offered the boy 5 cents. When he refused that sum also pointed to the printed statement on the front page: "Price 2 cents in city and suburbs; elsewhere 5 cents." "Oh," replied the boy, "you're a thousand miles from elsewhere."

Profile Sturgeon. The Russian sturgeon, known as beluga or usco, is very large. It has been known to grow to the length of 20 to 25 feet and to weigh 3,000 pounds. John Woolman. He believed that love could, with the witness fortified in the hearts of all men through all establishments of custom and every barrier of pride and selfishness. The event justified his confidence; whatever he went, hard hearts were softened, atrocities and love of power and pride of opinion gave way before his testimony of love.—Whittier.

WOULD POSTPONE SUBSIDY ACTION

Republican House Leaders Will Defer to President but Prefer to Get Bill Ahead

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Republican leaders of the house will confer again Saturday with President Harding on the question of taking up the administration's ship subsidy bill prior to adjournment.

Indications Friday night were that they would reiterate the belief that consideration of the measure ought to go over until the December session, but all leaders declared they would take it up and force it to a vote if the president still insisted.

The bill was reported Friday to the house by the merchant marine committee which rejected the Democratic amendment providing that no government aid should go to ships on which liquor was sold. There was no action on the Edmonds' proposal for imposition of $10,000 fines on all ships, American or foreign, which sold liquor on any voyage starting or ending at an American port.

Defeated by the committee, Mr. Beach announced he would demand a vote on his amendment in the house. There was no record vote in committee on the amendment but it was opposed by republicans and supported by democrats.

Looks Like Defeat
The prohibition question had wrapped itself so closely about the bill that many leaders admittedly were in doubt as to how it might stand up in the house. Ejection of the ship, liquor is so late the light, according to republicans opposing action at this time, invited defeat of the bill.

When the bill formally was presented to the house by Chairman Greene of the merchant marine committee, democratic members will vote on it until Thursday to file a minority report.

The committee vote on reporting the bill was 9 to 4, republicans voting aye and democrats nay, except Representative Cullen, democrat, New York, who voted present.

The Best Text of a Play

If I were a dramatist I would tell the plots of my plays to a child under nine years old. If his interest waned, I would despair; if I could not hold him wide-eyed, I should hope Moller chose his book for such a purpose—be sure she had the child-like mind. It is in the hour before and after bedtime that you will find our critic most receptive. You have in him a first-class book reviewer. He has "Go on" — what happened there was your best appraisal.—W. M. Letts in the Yale Review.

Ancient Wisdom

A great civilization flourished in the valley of the Nile some 5000 B. C. These Egyptians reaped the dung beetle, the scarabaeus, possibly recognizing its scavenging powers. The well of Joseph, near the great pyramid, is excavated through nearly 800 feet of solid rock. The ancient Hebrews ate the mandarin of real public health. The laws of Moses, who was born about 1500 B. C., the first hygienic code known, apply about as well today as when first promulgated.

Frills and Ruffles Are Supplanting Former Mannish Severity in Apparel

CHICAGO—The day of mannish severity in the realm of apparel is waning. The tendency is for dainty frills and ruffles of lace and broderies in costume, an occasional and demure as those worn a half century ago by the girls who are grandmothers today. This decided change, which comes perhaps as a reaction to wartime freedom in dress, is being more talked of every day by close students of fashion both in France and America. Evidence of the increasing use of lace was cited by Frank Hatch, head of the Zion Laco Industries of Marshall Field & Company, at the recent Chicago meeting of the Fashion Art League of America.

The cycle of dress, revolving slowly, approaches again in a period when feminine apparel reverts to a softness of outline, a shadowiness of outline," he said. "Lace and embroideries are coming into use wherever there is the slightest chance for them." He told of the greatly increased demand for all Spanish-ahored designs, replicas of antique hand made lace, which will afternoon and evening gowns are being made.

Perhaps the swing of the pendulum of fashion is due to a reaction from the era of short skirts and rolled down stockings—the post war days of the most serious living and greater frivility in dress. Longer skirts, an increase in home sewing and the wider use of lace and embroideries presage the growing spirit of conservatism in apparel.

The sketch to the left was made of a costume worn at all over Spanish black silk lace. Such a costume can be worn with any of a number of different colored slips, giving the wearer several dresses in one. The slips usually are of crepe de chine, satin or georgette. The dress sketched in the right hand illustration is typical of the new Colleen type, with ruffles of embroidered batiste edged with Irish crochet.

THE MARKETS

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Big export sales led to material upticks Friday in the bulk of wheat. The market closed firm, 1-2 to 1-4 cent higher, with July 61.11 to 1.11 1-2 and September 61.11 5-8 to 1.11 3-4. Corn finished 8-10 to 1-40 off to 3-4 higher. Oats 1-4 to 3-8 to 1-20 up, and provisions varying from an unchanged figure to a rise of 27 cents.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3-1/2's $100.18; first 4's $99.92; second 4's $99.86; first 4-1/2's $100.20; second 4-1/2's $99.98; third 4-1/2's $100.00; fourth 4-1/2's $100.00; Victory 4-3/4's $100.58.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin Saturday will say: The wool market shows a halting tendency at the present moment, both in the eastern markets and in the west, where buyers' limits in some instances have been cut down.

During a transient lull in demand for wheat about midday, the market suffered a sharp setback, duly reflected, touching a new low level for the week. Strong houses here and in the east, however, became active again on the buying side of the market, causing prices to finish at nearly the top point of the session.

Corn and oats were ruled chiefly by the changes in the price of wheat. The price of wheat advanced, and the price of corn and oats advanced accordingly.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP)—Recent hectic unsettlement in the stock market made further progress Friday, prices of many speculative issues again breaking sharply. Liquidation differed from that of Thursday and the early period of the week in that it was directed more generally against the low priced bills, a majority of the food specialties, minor motors and several of the mail order and chain stores issues.

being materially reduced at the close. Sales amounted to 1,974,900 shares.

Continued ease of call money rates was a negative influence, being based mainly on the light inquiry. The opening rate of 3-1/8 per cent was advanced to 3 per cent in the early afternoon, but no reaction was shown in time for such accommodations holding form in closing hours.

Foreign exchanges without exception reflected more clearly the unsettled state of economic conditions abroad. Sterling fell 1-2 cents, allied remittances lost 6 to 10 points, and neutrals were lower by 5 to 10 points.
