THREE DEAD IN VIOLENT STORM OVER MANITOBA

Rain, Wind and Electrical Disturbances Combine to Cause Heavy Property and Crop Destruction

WINNIPEG, Man., (P)—Three known deaths, scores of injured and extensive property damage was the toll of a half-hour electrical storm of hurricane violence that passed across Manitoba early Friday. The province was recovering Friday night from the short but fierce blizzards which swept down from eastern Saskatchewan striking Brandon, Portage la Prairie, Winnipeg and Lydiat, then passing over the Ontario boundary.

Snapping of high tension wires started a fire that destroyed three grain elevators of the Metrolite, Moryn and Premium companies. It was accompanied by a violent rainfall, the wind struck Winnipeg at 84 miles an hour, with terrifying electrical disturbances. A heavy wind shook the city.

Railway Station Shifted. At Lydiat, the Canadian Pacific railway station was shifted from its foundations, a railway sleeping car was overturned and several employes injured. Farm buildings and crops also suffered.

The rain was accompanied by hail in some areas, causing heavy damage to crops.

The damage in Portage in Manitoba will reach the million dollar mark, according to a report received here. No estimate of the damage in the outlying areas is available.

$2,000,000 ESTIMATED DAMAGE.
PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man., (P)—An infant girl was crushed to death, many buildings were wrecked and trees uprooted in the terrific wind storm which swept through the Portage plain Friday night. It was estimated Friday night that the loss in this city and surrounding districts would reach $2,000,000.

BRANDON, Man., (P)—Four are known to be dead and an unknown number injured as a result of the storm which swept the central portion of Manitoba early Friday. At least three were seriously injured. Increase in the casualty list is expected when complete returns from all sections of the province are available.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE BEGINS ON INVESTIGATION

Extraordinary Activity of Mexican Petroleum will be Gone Into by Committee

NEW YORK, (P)—The committee on language of the New York stock exchange Friday began its investigation into the recent extraordinary movements of Mexican Petroleum, which resulted in an extreme gain of 15 points to 150 in six days, after violent fluctuations.

The 1100 members of the exchange were requested to furnish the committee with a statement of their operations or "position," in the stock.

Adoption of the exchange resolution Mexican Petroleum to comparative obscurity in Friday's market. Opening at 184, a gain of 1-2 a point, the stock sold off to 176 at mid-day, soon, however, making up half its loss. In the later trading, pressure was renewed with a resultant reaction to the previous minimum, the stock showing a net loss of 7-1/2 points on sales of about 24,000 shares.

Pan-American Petroleum, which exerted control of Mexican Petroleum through its vast stock holdings in that company, was the leader of the day in oil.

PROMINENT FIGURES IN LABOR WORLD

FEDERATION IS AGAIN OPPOSED TO RECOGNITION

Labor Delegates on Test Vote Go on Record Against the Russian Soviet Plan of Government

CINCINNATI, (P)—Led by Samuel Gompers, foe of the Russian soviet government, the American Federation of Labor acted Saturday night in opposing the federation at its convention here on record against the recognition of the soviets for the third successive year. A test vote, called for by Mr. Gompers' suggestion, virtually ended the debate, but a final showdown was over until Saturday.

Aside from the Russian question, the convention went on record against the federation affiliating with the International Federation of Trade Unions, and re-elected the federation's present executive council of 11 officers, headed by Mr. Gompers as president. It was Mr. Gompers' forty-first election, and he was unopposed. Other officers were re-elected as follows:

First vice-president, Jas. Duncan, Chicago, Mass.; second vice-president, Joseph Valente, Cleveland; third vice-president, Frank Duffy, Indianapolis; fourth vice-president, Wm. Green, Indianapolis; fifth vice-president, W. D. Mahon, Detroit; sixth vice-president, T. A. Niekirk, Chicago; seventh vice-president, Jacob Flecher, Indianapolis; eighth vice-president, Matthew Wolf, Chicago; treasurer, Daniel F. Tobin, Indianapolis, and secretary, Frank Morrison, Washington.

Ill-founded Report Leads to Man Hunt and Victim's Death

Mexican Track Worker Chased by Crowd Falls From Mine Trolley to Death

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., (P)—An unidentified Mexican track worker ran aloft and plunged to death from a mine trolley Friday when pursued by a crowd of 75 men. Two other Mexicans, who were with him escaped.

The pursuit of the track man occurred when a rumor was circulated that a girl had been attacked. The report apparently was groundless.

18-Year-Old Negro Admits Crime and Pays Death Penalty

Mob of 300 Visits Summary Vengeance on Offender Following Confession

HOUSTON, Texas, (P)—Warren Lovin, 18 year old negro, was hanged at New Dumas, Montgomery county, late Friday, after confessing to the mob of 300 persons that he had attacked a young white woman living near the city, according to word received here Friday night.

CLOSURE RULE TO BE INVOKED DURING DEBATE

Republican Leaders in Conference Plan to Limit Debate in Interests of the Pending Tariff Bill

WASHINGTON, (P)—Swift progress in the senate on the tariff bill Friday resulted in a new closure movement. Republican leaders in private conferences planned to invoke the existing closure rule, limiting debate by a two-thirds vote and, if unsuccessful, they said they were considering the drastic step of laying aside the tariff bill to fight for their pending majority closure rule.

Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, was said to have suggested the closure rule to apply the two-thirds rule now in the rule book. He said he was planning within a day or two to bring circulating a petition, requesting only 16 senators' signatures for presentation to the senate. It was hoped, however, to obtain in advance pledges of the necessary two-thirds support. Republican leaders said it was possible that the necessary pledges might be obtained or within a few votes of the required two-thirds.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, said he believed the closure rule would be necessary in an effort to get an early vote on the bill should fail. Senator Lodge added the republican leadership was considering seriously the plan to lay aside the tariff bill and make a fight for the new rule to invoke closure by majority vote and "fight it out all summer if necessary."

Amendments Approved. Committee amendments in two paragraphs were approved Friday. They were on chains and spades, scythes, etc. The rates on chains ranged from 78 cents a pound to 35 per cent an allowance and reported a material reduction from the duties originally proposed by the committee majority. Amendments offered by Senator Whinnip, democrat, North Carolina, calling for even greater reductions were rejected by large majorities. The duty on spades, etc., approved, was 25 per cent ad valorem as originally recommended.

Damage Running Into Millions is Averted by Action of Union Chief

UNHONORED DEAD ARE CENTER OF CURIOSITY FOR GAZING CROWDS

Vacant Store Building Serving as Morgue Vies with Picture Show as Point of Interest for Population of Illinois Mining Town—Sympathy Conspicuously Lacking

HERRIN, Ill., (P)—Herrin's unhonored dead lay pale and stark Friday night in the vacant store building pressed into service as a morgue after Wednesday's mine trouble. The three floors of the building lay in ruins, and the bodies of men and women, young and old, barefooted boys and little girls.

They lifted muslin cloths, and peered at the pale faces, and at the wounds lacerated by pistol bullets, rifle balls and buckshot. They lingered avidly, then reluctantly pressed on to some adjoining horror, eager to miss nothing. Never a word of pity from the crowd. These were the enemy slain in a labor war. These were the men who came to take away their jobs. Outraged members, Wolf, it proved them right. That was the attitude of the towns as expressed by its men and women and its children. Tears, none sympathy, not much. These were the enemy.

The don't of fast a down nationalities, with slaving foremen of the slaw, long profiles of the native born, the long mustaches of eastern Europe, lay in peace for all the crowds, the laughter and the sullen looks. Bricks heath their heads for pillows, pine the call of officers and police who loved them, once and have lost touch with them in the vicissitudes of transient labor.

Meagre Courses Run. Most of them, it is safe to say, will be forgotten in the Potters fields, their meagre courses run, their stories finished. The cause they had wanted a living and because they wanted to make money. They died, hunted across the fields, shot, shot at, tied and dragged down dusty country roads because other thousands feared these men would take away their jobs and their money. The trees are green in Herrin and the birds are singing and the crops ripening in the summer sun. From the morgue the crowds drift to the billboards in front of the picture show, to see what the poster promises. To the drug store to get "Trinks," then home for supper. Only the outsiders show surprise and horror. People here say: "This is our business. Sorry, but it's done. Let us alone. We'll handle this all right. We're good people and get along with everybody if you mind your own business. We'll attend to ours."

Mounted Police Scour Hills for Missing Woman

Threat of Suicide Culminates in Disappearance of Young Boise Girl

BOISE, (P)—Mounted police scoured the foothills unavailingly Friday and a fruitless watch was kept along the Boise river for pretty Alyce Lester, 20-year-old Montana university sophomore who disappeared the evening of June 20 after her mother had scolded her for allowing the attention of a young man to whom her parents objected.

The girl vanished from the house in a fit of anger. She was hysterical, the mother said, and has threatened suicide at former times.

HALF ACCOUNTED FOR. CHICAGO, (P)—Approximately half of the property of the Southern Illinois coal company are alive and have been accounted for, the Edward J. Harberg Recruit Service Agency which furnished the men, announced Friday night. A number of these men were wounded but escaped, the agency reported, and now are on their way to Chicago.

Governor Orders Thorough Probe of Mine Outrage

Military Investigation Board to Entrain at Once for Scene of Tragedy

WASHINGTON, Ill., (P)—Governor Linn Small Friday night demanded the fullest inquiry into the riot at Herrin, which culminated in the massacre of more than 25 non-union workers, and ordered a military investigation board, headed by Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, commander of the Thirty-third division, to entrain immediately for the scene.

Angered by the failure of his own representatives at Herrin to keep him posted on developments, and the apparent laxity of the Williamson county officials in maintaining order, the governor announced that he had ordered the full lifted off of affairs in the coal fields and would find out before he is through what is wrong.

In the meantime, the governor said, he will ignore a recommendation from Robert McMill, director of mines and minerals, who has been at Herrin for several days, and who Friday afternoon wired the governor asking that the order mobilizing 1000 guardsmen for possible duty, be withdrawn.

GOVERNMENT STILL HOPES FOR STRIKE SETTLEMENT

Official Expressions of Regret for Herrin Outrage is Announced at White House

WASHINGTON, (P)—Along with official expression of regret for the mine strike outbreak in Illinois, it was made known Friday that the administration still was preparing efforts to bring about a settlement of the bituminous coal strike through a conference between the two parties and has some hopes of success. There were White House intimations that publicity for the details of the attempt would not be helpful and that details consequently would be withheld.

President Harding was said to deplore the Herrin events and to realize in them evidence of the bitter hostility arising out of the strike, while Secretary of Labor Davis, who was twice in conference with the president during Friday, issued a statement declaring that those responsible for the outbreaks in the Illinois mining towns should be punished to the fullest extent of the law.

Advants Official Report. The president is awaiting an official report of the events in the Illinois field which he is said to expect shortly. Labor department agents have been in constant touch with strike developments since April 1 when the miners walked out in all union fields.

Efforts being made to deal with the situation are being made along the lines of getting the mine operators and the miners' union representatives into a joint gathering, Secretary Davis indicated.

CARETAKERS PREPARE TO QUIT MINES

Desertion of Pumps in Idle Properties Prevented in the Nick of Time—Threats by Miners Responsible

HERRIN, Ill., (P)—Scores of men employed at Williamson county coal mines to guard and keep the mines in shape during the strike, quit work Friday under threats from certain union miners but shortly after midnight they returned to work when Hugh Willis, mine union district board member, personally promised them protection and placed union miners to guard them from any fresh outbreaks.

Absence of these caretakers on the job through agreement of operators and mine officials would have meant ruin for millions of dollars worth of mines through flooding. Reports that the men were being threatened by union miners came to the attention of state officials Friday afternoon and they, with county and union authorities, toured the county Friday night. The reports were found to be correct and Colonel Samuel Hunter of the adjutant general's office, telegraphed Adjutant General Black at Springfield that if the men remained at work he feared trouble and that the local authorities would not be able to cope with the situation. New outbreaks were feared, other officials stated.

Trouble Believed Averted. Colonel Hunter's report said that aid would be necessary. It was virtually fulfilled, however, when Willis and other union leaders persuaded the men to return to work and promised them protection. Willis declared that every mine which kept faith with the workers would be adequately protected and that the United Mine Workers of America would use its power to protect the mine caretakers. These men, pumps, clerks, and such, "as a whole are not members of the miners' union."

DAMAGE ACTION WILL BE FILED

Williamson County and Mine Workers to Stand Trial Under Coronado Decision

CHICAGO, (P)—Legal action for the recovery of damages sustained by the Southern Illinois Coal company as the result of the mine riot at Herrin and the destruction of its property, which there will be started immediately against the United Mine Workers of America and the county of Williamson in behalf of the company and the families of its dead employees, Follette W. Bull, attorney of the coal company, announced Friday.

The suit against the United Mine Workers, the attorney pointed out, will be the first suit under the recent Coronado decision by the United States supreme court holding labor organizations liable for damages. The suit against the United Mine Workers probably will be filed in the federal court at Indianapolis.

SHOOTING DRAWAOWED. DUBLIN, (P)—The shooting of Sir Henry Wilson was not done at republican instigation or of the Irish republican army, it was said by the republican army would acknowledge this fact, it says a statement issued by the publicity department of the army at the Four Courts headquarters early Saturday morning.

THREAT IS APPROVED. HONOLULU, T. H. (P)—A Tokio telegram to the Nippon Jiji dated June 24, says the privy council Saturday approved the Washington four-power Pacific treaty. It now goes to the diplomatic advisory board and it is expected will be referred to the prime minister for his acceptance.

HOUSE MEMBERS ARE IN ACCORD WITH SENATORS

Army Appropriation Bill Approved by Conferees of Both Branches; Naval Reserve is Provided For

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house Friday concurred with the senate in fixing the size of the army at 125,000 enlisted men and 12,000 officers. A senate provision for continuing work at a normal rate on new navy vessels under construction and appropriating $3,000,000 to facilitate a civilian naval reserve were retained in the naval appropriation bill under a complete agreement on the bill reached Friday by the senate and house conferees.

Appropriations for Alaska and dredging at the Mare Island Cal. dry dock were increased from $500,000 to $750,000. The house conferees agreed to senate increases of $500,000 for a new pier at the Puget Sound navy yard and $167,500 for improvements at the Pearl harbor, Hawaii, station.

House Makes Concession

In accepting the senate plan for developing a civilian naval reserve—the plan urged by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt before the conferees—house conferees were said to have made an important concession. Under the plan, two weeks training on Eagle boats and cutters will be given to 3000 men and 1000 officers who will be enrolled and subject to call for service like the national guard.

In addition to the $7,500,000 increase for naval construction, the house conferees accepted a senate amendment authorizing transfer from the shipping board to the navy department of 63,000,000 of individuals owed to the board by private contracts. The additional $10,000,000 to fund to the naval construction fund.

Will Remain on List

The senate conferees yielded on the provision for retention of 3700 petty officers of the navy who will be placed on the reserve list. The senate had voted to retain them in active service. A senate amendment increasing the appropriation for the Great Lakes naval training station from $100,000 to $200,000 also was accepted by the house conferees.

Earlier in the conference the house managers had accepted a senate provision increasing funds for naval aviation by $6,537,000, mostly for the purchase of new aircraft.

An agreement in conference, the bill carries about $203,000,000 and the conferees report it to be hurried through congress before the proposed house adjournment Saturday if possible.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT TO WELCOME STUDENTS

Miss Ethel Redfield Will Be Speaker at Opening of the Gooding College Year

GOODING COLLEGE, Gooding, Ida.—Miss Ethel Redfield, state superintendent of public instruction, will give Redfield as the state superintendent of public instruction, will give opening exercises, Sept. 11. In fact, the thought of the occasion belongs to Miss Redfield, who insists that no emphasis should be placed on having every student on hand the very first day of school. President C. W. Tenney heard her make the statement and she gave a high school commencement address and then asked her to help stage a welcome for the new students and a genuine home-coming for the old boys and girls at Gooding college.

Miss Redfield's address by Superintendent Redfield will include, new and old will be met at the depot, pennants will fly, college yells will fill the air, refreshments will be served and the best musical talent of the college and of nearby towns will be asked to attend in the program.

Since Gooding college was organized Oct. 8, 1917, there has been a marked increase in enrollment each year and the applications already on hand indicate that a banner crowd will be on hand when Miss Redfield comes to Gooding, Sept. 11.

President Tenney will leave Saturday for Salt Lake where he will act as instructor in the Utah Epworth League institute, and on his return will continue the campaign for students and funds for this popular young school of the intermountain people.

Legal Fiction. A fiction in law is an assumption made for the purpose of justice though the same fact could not be proved and may be literally untrue; and it is a fiction of law when the fact is wrong. The fictitious characters of John Doe and Richard Roe for the purposes of various actions are well known.

The Greater Character. The man who sees greatness in himself a greater man than the man who merely sees limitations—John Balfour.

CONVICT WAS TO SWEAR FALSELY IN FIRST TRIAL

Sensational Evidence Introduced in Case of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, Accused Murderess of J. B. Kennedy

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain sought to persuade Paul Roman, now a convict, to give false testimony for her in her first trial for the murder of J. Delton Kennedy. Roman testified Friday in his second trial.

He followed up his assertion by identifying about a score of letters as having been written by Mrs. Obenchain from her cell in the Los Angeles jail, to him in Folsom penitentiary, where he is serving a sentence for grand larceny. The letters teemed with expressions of affection and also referred to a "story Roman was to tell."

The last missive, which Roman said was handed to him in the county jail while he was there last May, having been brought from prison to testify for Arthur C. Rurch, co-defendant in the Kennedy case, read as follows:

Letter is Threatening

"Paul, my sweetheart. "I love you, believe me. Don't give me up now. If you do I will take you with me, so help me Heaven."

There was no signature. Roman said the handwriting was Mrs. Obenchain's and that the note, with a $5 bill, was brought to him by a jail "strutty."

"The false testimony," Roman said he was to give, was that he had overheard "two ragged men" plotting to kill Kennedy after having tried to blackmail him. Mrs. Obenchain at her first trial testified that when Kennedy was shot in Beverly Glen on Aug. 5, she saw "two ragged men" disappear in a clump of bushes after two shots had been fired at Kennedy.

Roman did not testify at the previous trial regarding this angle but was a witness for the defense in both Rurch's trials. His testimony on these occasions was that a story of a thorn having been cut from Rurch's knee similar to a species found in the Glen was a "frame up." This testimony was read from the transcript in the first Obenchain trial.

Had Known Kennedy

Roman testified that he was placed in jail here July 10, 1921. He said he had previously met Kennedy and had also become acquainted with Mrs. Obenchain and that he saw the latter soon after she was arrested, last August. Later on they had conversations in the medical clinic there, he declared, which resulted in his "re-arranging" the story about "ragged men."

This story, he said, was repeated to Philip R. Obenchain, former husband of the defendant, who was one of her attorneys at her first trial. Roman was taken from the jail on December 22, last, to San Quentin penitentiary where he later was transferred to Folsom. He said that he saw Mrs. Obenchain the day he was leaving the jail and told her he had "changed his mind about testifying for her," and that she told him if he did not "make it hot for her."

Correspondence Arranged

Previously, he said, they had arranged to correspond and Mrs. Obenchain was to refer to the testimony he said she wanted him to give as though it were a story he was writing. He said references to "A" were to mean Rurch and "martyrs" Kennedy, while Mrs. Obenchain was to be "heroine."

A juror asked Roman why he changed his mind about testifying for Mrs. Obenchain.

"I never did change my mind," he replied. "I had never intended to testify to a falsehood."

He then identified the letters which he said Mrs. Obenchain wrote him, having them mailed by friends of her in Los Angeles. Most were signed "Your Devoted Girl," while others bore the signatures "Madalynne" and "Miss M. Donner Conner."

Explosive on His Native Heath

High above the ground the eagle seats on his red-brown wings, while the white-barred feathers of his tail are spread out fanlike as a rudder to steer his course. His piercing eyes searchingly the heather far below. Suddenly he swoops. Next moment he is rising again swiftly and strongly with a mountain hare hold fast in his talons. The great wings beat the air now with long, powerful strokes, carrying him rapidly towards the hungry family that is waiting for him in the eyrie.—Exchange.

Pride and Vanity

I would much rather fight pride than vanity, because pride has a stand-up way of fighting. You know where it is. It throws its black shadow on you and you are not at all aware of it until it strikes. But vanity is that delusive, that insectivorous, that multiplied feeling; and men that fight vanity are like men that fight widgees and butterflies. It is easier to chase them than to hit them.—Henry Ward Beecher.

DEMPSEY MUST FIGHT OR QUIT

Big Fellow Next in Line for Attention of New York State Boxing Commission

NEW YORK, (AP)—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, has 17 days in which to formally accept the challenge of Harry Wills, negro, for a bout for the title or have his name put up for competition in New York state.

The decision was reached by the New York boxing commission Friday as a part of the campaign started earlier in the week to force Wills, in every instance to meet capable contenders, to quit and start all over again.

Two champions, Johnny Kilbane of the middleweights, have been shown of their crowns so far as the empire state is concerned.

News of a Dempsey-Wills bout already are under way. Upon his arrival here Thursday, Jack Korman, the champion's manager, went into conference with Tom Dickard, promoter, and Frank Flournoy, matchmaker.

It is thought that everything will be finished before July 10, the date the commission has set, Frank Flournoy said. The battle may be waged in New York state, he added.

Boxing followers here Friday night were asking what would happen if Dempsey accepted Wills' challenge and Dickard were failed in attempting to hold the match.

WILLARD IS INDIGNANT. LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Indignant over the action of the New York state athletic commission in setting July 10 as a time limit for Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, to accept or decline the challenge of Harry Wills, was expressed here Friday by Jess Willard, former champion, who has challenged Dempsey to a return bout.

AMERICANS SWEEP FIELD. SANDWICH, England, (AP)—American players Friday swept the field in the British open golf championship. Walter Hagen won the cup with a score of 300 for the 72 holes. James Barnes was tied for second position with George Duncan, the veteran British player, their cards reading 302. Jack Hutchinson, who held the British open title, came next with a score of 303.

WINS FRENCH CHAMPIONSHIP. PARIS, (AP)—Batting Siki, the Senegalese heavyweight, Friday night won the heavyweight championship of France by defeating Alfred Nilles on points in fifteen round bout. The contest was slow.

FIGHT DECLARED DRAW. AUROHA, Ill., (AP)—Pat Moore, Memphis lightweight, and Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., boxed ten rounds to a draw in the open air arena here Friday night. Moore weighed in at 136 pounds and Taylor at 144.

REPORTS MADE VARY WIDELY

Responsibility for Outbreak at Herrin Shifted from Side to Side by Investigators

HERRIN, Ill. (AP)—Attempts to refer through the maze of rumors, reports, contradictions and facts of the ming war to obtain an uncolored account of the events leading up to it, Friday night, after everything was quiet, brought two authentic reviews of the affair, one from a union official, and another from a state military official. Hugh Willis, district board member of the miners' union, in the first statement from union officials concerning the massacre, told newspaper reporters the blame lay squarely on the coal operators who imported strike breakers. He declared that the first shots were fired by the strike breakers and that these shots were without provocation and that one of the chief causes of the trouble was the high handed manner in which the imported workers "held up private citizens and refused to let them traverse the public highway by the mine." He made no attempt to deny that the affair really was a massacre, but insisted it was not started by union miners.

Suggested Sending Troops

Cobald, Samuel Hunter, of the state adjutant general's office, reviewed his official investigation of the disaster, the following being the salient points: "That Colonel Huger had led a dozen squadrons asked Sheriff Thaxton and other local county officials if they wanted troops sent; that his bid was told each time—over again, the fighting started—that the local authorities could handle the matter. "That he urged the mine officials to close the mine to avert a disaster, but that request was refused. That an indignation meeting of 600 miners was held just outside Herrin the day before the fighting began. "That he persuaded the besieged workers to run up a white flag and obtain consent from mine officials for a truce, but that this truce was broken by whom he did not know. "Both reports termed the armed guards at the mine "gun men."

WILL SUCCEED DAWES AS DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET

Brigadier General H. M. Lord Named by President to Hold Charge of Finances

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Brigadier General H. M. Lord, chief of finance of the war department, has been selected to succeed Charles G. Dawes as director of the budget, appointed from which Mr. Dawes will retire June 30. It was announced Friday at the White House. Mr. Dawes' retirement will be in accordance with his understanding with President Harding that he would guide the budget bureau only through the first year of his life. General Lord who for some time has been recognized as the probable successor of Director Dawes, is a native of Rockland, Maine, and formerly was a newspaper man. The "White House," in letting it be known that General Lord would become the new budget director, said that expenditures of the government for the fiscal year 1922 would be $1,750,000,000 less than for the fiscal year 1921. This amount, it was asserted, included a saving of $100,000,000 more than has been previously estimated. Marriage Plot Charged by McAadoo's Sister

Mrs. Thelma Helms Foster, of New York, has brought suit for $50,000 against Mrs. Nonna McAadoo Foster, alleging that Mrs. Foster alienated the affections of her husband, Angelo Scarpa Foster, whom she is suing for a separation. Mrs. Nonna McAadoo Foster, sister to former Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo, is the foster mother of Angelo Foster, whom she adopted years ago in Knoxville, Tenn. Her answer to the suit is an allegation that she, after her daughter-in-law's grand father and her uncle, Charles M. Whitely, Sr., and Charles H. Whitely, Jr., induced her to sell $75,000 worth of bonds and invest it in their real estate firm, they brought about the secret marriage to deprive her of her money. Foster is sticking to his foster mother's temporary alimony and counsel fees.

LIFE ON RANCH WINS DIVORCE

Wife of Wealthy Montana Man Tells Story of Married State at Miles City

CHICAGO, (AP)—Mrs. Helen Lettner's story of a threat by her husband, Frank C. Lettner, wealthy mine owner and ranchman of Miles City, Mont., to kill her and her children if she left his life, she lived on a ranch near her a divorce in circuit court here Friday. Mrs. Lettner, a resident of this city, said she left her husband in September, 1920, but returned to Miles City in July, 1921, to appear as a witness in some litigation. It was then, she said, that her husband induced her to accompany him to the ranch, where, she alleged, he drew a revolver and declared by intended to kill her and himself. "Go ahead, shoot," she said she told him and then he dropped the weapon. Mrs. Lettner said that shortly after this incident she returned to Chicago and later started suit for divorce. "A ranch house is a terribly lonely place to live. If one has been brought up in the city," she said. She added that her husband, who she said, owned more than $1,000,000 of stock in copper companies and several thousand acres of land, often left her to spend as much as a week at a time at a club in Miles City.

Death and Birth. What a ridiculous thing it is to tremble and affect ourselves about taking the only step that is to deliver us from all misery and trouble. As our birth brought us the share of all things, so in our death is the death of all things included. Ask, therefore, to lament and take on that we shall not be alive a hundred years hence is the same folly as to worry we were not alive a hundred years ago. Death is the beginning of another life.—Montaigne.

Fires Carried by the Wind? Heavy fires have a considerable amount of light. Some that were doused with fluid powdered red chalk and afterwards released were taken while less than 24 hours in "light" six miles away. Observations at Haven show that the dust of Jordan seems to show that fires come down the wind from Cuba, 93 miles away.—The Youth's Companion.

Work of the Diver. The greatest depth which has been found safe for a diver of experience and good physique to descend in a diving dress is 203 feet, at which there is a water pressure of 14 1/2 pounds per square inch. S. J. Trevithick of the United States navy made a record of 274 feet by the use of a high-pressure tank, in Long Island sound.

Civil Service. The word "civil," which has its origin in the Latin word "civis," is used to distinguish the service from the military or naval service of the government. The civil service is that branch of national service to which clerks and others required by various departments of the government belong.

'Twould See So. New York man wooed and won his bride by mail, which is the most expensive correspondence school course known.

CHINESE CITIES ARE DESTROYED

Four Thousand Estimated to Have Been Killed by Mutilinous Troops

SHANGHAI, (AP)—Although there is no report of confirmed accuracy of the figures in the Kiangtong army probably fairly accurate estimate places the dead at four thousand in Kiangtong, Taisho Wannan and Lung Chuan. The greater portions of these cities were destroyed. It is believed no foreigners were slain or taken captive.

Most foreign property, principally belonging to Christian missions, has been destroyed. Great anxiety is felt regarding the fate of the Catholic Lazarist mission under Father De Jenlis at Taisho, which Thursday was reported under siege by the mutineers with six hundred Chinese converts refused white his compound. There has been no further news from the mission.

Interior Improving. Messages from the interior of Kiangsi say conditions there are greatly improved, although the outbreak south of Nanchang has not been wholly quelled. The mutinous troops are being brought under control and reorganized. Fears for the safety of foreigners generally are being allayed.

The city of Nanchang is calmer and apparently residents there are very confident. The foreign residents have departed to board the British gunboat Cockchafer and the American gunboat Monocacy. Chinese refugees still are warning into Nanchang from the north to accept the protection of the city government. The estimated number $14,000 monthly from the Nanchang Chamber of Commerce to maintain order.

Communications south of Nanchang virtually are suspended.

Elephants Rip Up Pipes. Wild elephants have caused considerable difficulty at the island of Sumatra during oil development work, as these animals seem to have taken a special dislike to the pipe lines laid above ground through the jungles, and have repeatedly torn them up, so that hundreds of men are kept busy repairing the damage.

Slimeless Superstition. The Slimeless have in their houses an even number of windows, doors, rooms and cupboards, for they have a superstition regarding odd numbers as bad-luck and something to be avoided.

The Largest Butterfly. The largest known moth or butterfly in the world is the Great Atlas Moth of India. With wings out stretched it measures nearly a foot across from tip to tip.

The Change. "It was an awfully kind boss," said the former stenographer, "so considerate, so thoughtful, so smart and generous. And then, heaven forgive me, I married him!"

Mrs. Arthur J. Peavy entertained with a luncheon on Thursday in honor of the birthday of Mary King, of Boise, who has been visiting in Twin Falls this week. A beautiful birthday cake, unadorned by thirteen yellow candles and trimmed with yellow honeycuckle was the center of attraction. The guests were Mrs. R. L. King, Mrs. E. J. Ostrander, Miss Alice Strong of Banta, Mrs. J. L. Peavy, Mrs. M. J. Peavy, Mrs. King, Mrs. Wanda, Patricia Wilson, and Beth Bowen. After luncheon the girls of the party, chaperoned by Miss Strong, attended the moving picture.

The Towata Camp Fire Circle met at the home of Health Bernhardt on Main North Thursday evening. A short business session was held, after which Helen Fisher was in charge of the entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. Howard Conover entertained with a four course luncheon on Thursday in honor of her mother, Mrs. H. F. Sanford, of Santa Ana, California. A profusion of roses and garden flowers decorated the rooms. Following luncheon the afternoon was spent socially. The guest list included Mrs. H. F. Sanford, Mrs. J. R. Pickett, of Boise, who is also a guest at the Conover home, Mrs. J. B. Conover, Mrs. Richard Glavin, Mrs. Dean Areas, Mrs. Ralph Alexander, Mrs. E. J. Collier, Mrs. Greenhalgh of Logan, Utah, and Mrs. Truman Greenhalgh.

Mrs. W. J. Mack was hostess to the Addison Avenue Social Club, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. O. Smith was welcomed as a new member. A general social time with needle work was enjoyed and Mrs. Mack served refreshments assisted by Mrs. H. E. Kilborn, who with Mrs. Carl Prisk was a guest. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Mench on July 20.

Miss Marie Leese entertained at dinner Thursday evening at her home on Blue Lakes boulevard. A large bowl of pink roses formed the centerpiece, pink candles and place cards decorated in pink added to the beauty of the table. Pink satin bags were the favors which upon being opened were found to contain the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Leese and Dr. Orrin Fuller of Jerome on June 20.

Games and music were the diversion for the evening. The guests were Miss Hillary Hanson, of Teller; Miss Beretee Loney, Miss Dorothy Fuller, Miss Avis Rudolph, Miss Ruth Harvey and Miss Helga Carlson.

The Ninth Avenue club enjoyed a delightful outing on Wednesday at the Hillary home at Teller. Miss Combs. Fourteen members responded to roll call with current events. Miss Zuma Steuberger and Miss Margaret McCreary were guests, and they assisted Mrs. Combs in serving delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Glingstary entertained for 14 members of the Highland View club and their guests in an out-door meeting this week at her country home. In the absence of the president, Mrs. George Fuller, who was kept at home by illness, Mrs. Sammie vice president, presided. The afternoon was spent with needlework and refreshments were served. The next meeting, July 10, will be held at the home of Mrs. Rignin.

DEATH OF FAMOUS CHINESE IS APPARENTLY CONFIRMED

Wu Ting Fang, Former Minister to Washington, Believed Overcome by Worry

AMOI, China, (AP)—Confirmation of the report of the death of Wu Ting Fang, former minister to Washington, more recently foreign minister for Southern Yansen in the southern republican government, was received here by telegraph from Canton Friday. Wu had been one of the chief hopes of President Li Yuan Hing for bringing about the unification of the north and south Chinese factions. "Wu's death was hastened, it is believed, by political worries which have piled upon him since the disruption of the southern government. He had given no reply to President Li's offer of the presidency, a move by which the veteran executive hoped to reconcile the rivalistic southerners. Wu was taken to the hospital from his home during the bombardment of Canton by gunboats of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's navy.

BAD TAXATION METHODS

Killing the goose that laid the golden eggs has long been cited as an example of bad business policy.

Several administrations ago the post-office department got the admission to be self-supporting.

Not a bad idea so long as it could be applied without crippling the service.

But during the Wilson administration, when hunting sources of revenue was not the least of the functions of government, the attempt was made to make the postal goose lay more than one egg a day.

This extraordinary taxation yielded revenue directly, but it was found to have an unfortunate kick-back.

The big end of postal receipts comes from first-class mail. Letter postage also was increased, but it was found that the discouragement of second-class matter soon had its effect upon the volume of letters.

When the letters stopper moved the profits of the postoffice department fell off.

The golden egg was being choked to death.

Representative M. Clyde Kelly, of Pennsylvania, has introduced a bill to repeal the last two of the increases in second-class postal rates.

When the measure will yield the government 175 per cent more than was produced by the pre-war rates.

The effort, therefore, is not to relieve publishers of the burden of war taxes, but rather to adjust the postal rates to yield the greatest volume of revenue consistent with good postal service.

The services of the postoffice are so important to the social and economic welfare of the country that they should not be interfered with for the sake of making money for the government.

There are other forms of taxation less detrimental.

And as is natural with hobbyists the Wizard of Menlo Park makes all sorts of claims as to the merits of these questionnaires.

MORPHINISM IS CAUSE OF CRIME

Need of Special Institutions to Cure Addicts Without Means to Pay for Treatment

CHICAGO, (AP)—A cure of morphinism would decrease criminality, according to G. Edward Sanford, medical director of the municipal court of Boston.

"Morphinism is a majority of our morose cases, is the main determining cause of criminality," Mr. Sanford declared in a report published in the Journal of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology.

"Applying this proportion to the 245 Boston municipal court cases of 1920 for violation of the drug law, we should have, besides, about 837 arrests of morphinists for other offenses, a total of 1,082 arrests," he added.

Cure Is Possible. "Weaning is possible in practically every case. We have no medical institutions in which addicts without means are kept long enough to have a chance to be cured."

"In spite of the widely spread belief that many alcoholics would take to morphine after prohibition, I have not yet seen such a case.

"The remedy can be summed up in the simple formula: control the drug, control the addict."

PERISHING IS INVITED BY IDAHO LEGION MEN Commander of A. E. F. May Attend State Department Convention Session at Nampa

NAMPA.—(Sun, John Pershing may be here as the guest of the Idaho American Legion one day during the forthcoming state convention, July 27, 28 and 29.

The A. E. F. will be in Montana two days before the convention meets here, and state officers of the Legion were wired to the war department, asking that General Pershing arrange his itinerary to include Nampa.

Invitations to attend the convention here also have been sent to the grand officers of all the principal Idaho lodges, and it is expected that a distinguished company of legionmen will be here.

Romans First Pleasure Tourists. Traveling for pleasure came into vogue in the peaceful years of the Roman empire, and the Scotch-Irish American. Historic places and natural curiosities were sought out and famous groves and grottoes visited.

The Romans seemed to have preferred these gentler scenes of nature, and had little appreciation of towering heights and plunging canyons.

CHAPTER XII.—(Continued) AFTER DINNER IT COME THAT Dotson called her to the telephone, and that a moment later she passed the call on to Richard.

"It's Mr. Gardiner, Mr. Carter. He didn't know that you were here, but he would rather speak to you," Richard said.

"Applying this proportion to the 245 Boston municipal court cases of 1920 for violation of the drug law, we should have, besides, about 837 arrests of morphinists for other offenses, a total of 1,082 arrests," he added.

"I hadn't any idea that you were here, but he would rather speak to you," Richard said.

"You're waiting up for Nina?" "Oh, yes, Madame-Carter," Harriet answered.

"Come in. Is it you, Pilgrim?" the pleasant, quiet voice said.

"You look as if you needed it," Harriet urged, simply.

"Well, I had it made last November just before it went away. Mrs. Carter gave me the waterial a year ago."

"It was astonishing to see the color come up in her dusky skin; her eyes met his almost pleadingly.

"I suppose a man may ask his wife if she likes pearls?" Richard said.

"That's all—my dear!" she said, obediently, but her flush again she closed the door.

CHAPTER XII. It was the gayest spirit that Harriet had ever known at Crownlands.

"Why, I wanted to suggest, that we tell our little piece of news to the family," Richard suggested.

"Why, no, I don't—I don't suppose there'll be!" Harriet stammered.

"You're waiting up for Nina?" "Oh, yes, Madame-Carter," Harriet answered.

"Come in. Is it you, Pilgrim?" the pleasant, quiet voice said.

"It was astonishing to see the color come up in her dusky skin; her eyes met his almost pleadingly.

But now there was a beautiful and gracious woman in Isabelle's place, and long before the world knew that Harriet Field was really Harriet Carter, there was a very decided change in the social atmosphere.

Always beautiful and always busy, constantly in demand on all sides, she went about her house like a smiling wreath of matrimony, and Richard watched her.

"She had been watching him, with all June in her face. But as he went on the color slowly drained away, and about her beautiful eyes a look of strain and even of something like shame gradually deepened.

"Yes, I see. Certainly, I see. We will have to let them talk. This is simply the best arrangement possible under the circumstances."

"It is an arrangement that a man perhaps has no right to ask of a woman," Richard said.

"Thank you!" Harriet said, almost inaudibly.

"Simply change your name on your checks," Richard said, thoughtfully.

"It is an arrangement that a man perhaps has no right to ask of a woman," Richard said.

"Thank me anything that puzzles you," the man said.

"Richard went downstairs, surprised to feel still vaguely unsettled. He had had his work with Harriet, but said indeed much that he had not expected to say.

"You look as if you needed it," Harriet urged, simply.

Better to let the world know the relationship; he was perfectly satisfied to have it so. But still, as he settled himself to a hour's reading, the plaguing little impulse persisted.

There was something very appealing about this woman, thought Richard, suddenly closing his book. Her beauty, her alertness, her complete subjugation of her own interests to his, he found strangely fascinating.

"By George, she has made a most interesting woman of herself!" Richard decided, opening his book again.

"She ought to be right in the middle of things; that girl!"

THE MARKETS

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Anxiety over heat and drought, together with predictions that the winter crop yield would be well below the June 1 estimate, led to a material upturn in wheat prices Friday. Extensive profit taking sales, however, forced a reaction. The close was unaltered at the same as Thursday's finish to 3c higher, July $1.13 7/8 to 1.14, and September $1.14 7/8 to 1.15. Corn gained 1/8 c to 1/2 c and oats 7/8 to 1c. Provisions finished unchanged to 1/2 cent lower.

Temperatures around 100 in districts where the winter crop was yet unready to harvest and no immediate cooler weather or showers seemed likely to give relief, had a bullish effect on the wheat market. Some spring wheat territory not counting in the total of winter wheat. News of a heavy storm in Canada failed to move more than a transient contrary market influence, whereas Liverpool quotations higher than had been looked for helped noticeably to stimulate buying here.

Export demand showed improvement, Europeans taking 500,000 bushels at the seaboard. The fact that for the greater part of a week the market here had been working up in price made the holding of new advances more and more difficult. Especially in the best foreign, the season, owners' efforts to realize profits were on a big scale, causing prices to sag. The market was bulging well supported nevertheless, at the finish.

Bullish crop conditions strengthened corn and oats independently of wheat. Export demand weaker in line with the hog market.

These represented the smallest fall season in many weeks.

Additional restreints were imposed upon speculative operations by the firmer tone of money rates. Call loans gradually rose to 5 per cent in the final hour.

American Petroleum opened at a fractional advance at $16, that figure proving its buy for the season. After declining to $17 at mid-day, it made a temporary recovery, but fell back at the end to its previous minimum, or a net loss of 7 1/2 points.

Non-American Petroleum issues assumed early market leadership, the "A" shares making an advance of 6 points and the "B" advancing 7 1/2 points, but these gains were cut in half later. Buying of Pan-American was attended by reports that the company, which actually controls "Max Petroleum," contemplated actual absorption of the latter.

Other foreign and domestic oils, especially General Asphalt, Royal Dutch and California Petroleum, trailed along with the new leader. These, too, were materially impacted by the more intense realizations of the afternoon, with motors, shippings and prominent specialties.

Bills were the sustaining features of the day, although advances in the invoice market were confined to one or two points, with New York Central, Atlantic Coast Line and several of the transcontinentals and covers as the most conspicuous issues.

Sterling bills were off another cent to $4.1 for demand bills. French and Italian ventilators were affected to the same extent, losing 7 points each, and marks shrank to within the same fractional fraction of 330.

CANDIDATES IN NUMBERS SHOW UP DURING DAY

Records Show Only Two New Democratic Aspirants for County Offices but Gossip Names More to File Papers

Records of the county recorder's office at closing time Friday afternoon showed nominations filed during the day by only two candidates for county offices, although the day brought forth reports of many more or less clearly defined declarations of intention to enter the lists on the part of other aspirants.

Those whose nominations were filed were A. D. Wilson, 205 Twelfth street, Buhl, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff, and C. J. Kallan, Buhl, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner from the first district.

Two Pioneer Residents

Mr. Wilson is a pioneer of the Twin Falls country and is serving now as marshal at Buhl. Mr. Kallan also is an old-timer, coming to Twin Falls in 1908 and later moving to Buhl. He is the operator of theatres at both Twin Falls and Buhl.

Definite assurance was given of the intentions of three other candidates—all Republicans—to file for county offices. William B. Wolfe, Twin Falls, it was stated, was prepared to file for county commissioner from the second district, and William Cunningham, Buhl according to assurance given, had completed his papers for filing for the Republican nomination for commissioner from the first district.

First Contest Looks

Promise of a contest for the Republican nomination for county treasurer, for which Mrs. Emma Longley, Warren, the incumbent, already has filed, was held out in the assurance that H. North was preparing to file his nomination, and it was said that C. H. Brown also intended entering the race for the nomination. Both North and Brown are former service men, residing in Twin Falls, and both have served as deputies in the treasurer's and other county offices.

Files for Delegates

The second nomination for delegates to a county convention, out of 2434 to be elected by both parties at the primary election, was filed Friday when A. Dorman Johnson filed as a candidate for delegate from Twin Falls precinct No. 2 to the Republican caucus.

SCOUTS SPREAD TIDINGS OF CELEBRATION HERE

Committee Sets Out to Tell the World About Plans for the Twin Falls Event

Members of the troop of Twin Falls Boy Scouts for which A. Dorman Johnson is scoutmaster, will return Saturday from a week's outing at the Boy Scouts' cabin in Shoshone basin.

Troop 7 for which W. E. Nixon is scoutmaster, will leave Saturday for a similar outing at the cabin, and will return at the end of the week for talks part in the Fourth of July celebration here.

Activities of the Scouts at their summer camp in the basin are numerous and varied, but one of the most successful of the sports is one devised for them by E. V. Berg and by them passed on to their successors at the camp.

This is the search for the buried treasure. None of the Scouts have divulged the nature of the treasure, although some of the troops will thus far this season have failed to discover it by following the instructions as given here.

"From the southeast corner of the plateau ten south 65 paces to the peak of the spinnaker; thence west 30 paces to a cask of rum; thence 70 paces across to a small log on the edge of the forest to a grave; thence east 31 paces between two of the finger bones of a pirate; thence south 103 paces to the foot of a little rattle to the end of a bullet; thence 80 paces southeast to the crossbones of a bloodstained villain; thence east 25 paces to lone twin pine trees. Look in the hollow of the tree and there find the log of gold dust."

The Scouts returning Thursday will be accompanied by Lynn Stewart, who has spent several days at the camp as acting scoutmaster.

SCOUTS ON ROAD TO SUMMER CAMP

Search for Buried Treasure One of Amusing Diversions at Shoshone Basin

With a program definitely provided for that will leave not a dull moment in the day, the chamber of commerce celebration committee has set out to "tell the world" about Twin Falls' Fourth of July celebration.

In this undertaking Boy Scouts are lending valuable assistance. Three parties of Scouts Friday set out in automobiles over different routes to placard neighboring towns and highways leading in all directions with posters extending the invitation to Twin Falls' celebration of the nation's birthday anniversary.

Two Scouts, taking the route through Buhl, Hagerman, Wendell and Jerome, covered a trip of 70 miles and overland to approximately to leave in their wake the news of the celebration. As other party headed east to Murtaugh and across the river to Eden and Hellsden, while a third made a loop to Castelfield and back on the state highway.

LOOSES MARITAL BONDS

Court Grants Decrees in Cases of Two Couples Unhappily Mated

Decree of divorce was granted Friday by District Judge W. A. Babcock in the case of Onie H. Smith against Parley C. Smith on grounds of the husband's alleged failure to provide necessities of life for his wife and baby. The action was not resisted.

Decree was issued in the case of Thomas C. A'Hardt against Pearl A'Hardt, annulling the divorce and the custody of two minor sons to the father on grounds of deserting by the mother from her home at Eldorado to join one Raymond D. Getchell; it was alleged; formerly a next-door neighbor, at her former home in Missouri.

To Live in Missouri.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Umbaugh have gone to Burley to make their home.

WHEAT GROWERS TO HEAR REPORT

Progress in Closing Out the Million Bushel Pool to be Given at Meeting

Election of a new board of directors is the principal business before a meeting of directors for the southern division of the Idaho Wheat Growers' association to be held in American Falls Saturday, although it is expected that reports will be forthcoming at this time as to progress made with sale of wheat pooled by members for sale through the association.

Believes Pool Closed Out

W. F. Alworth, who will attend the meeting as director from this district, said Friday that he had reason to believe that the 1,000,000 bushel pool with which the association entered the year had been closed out, but would not know positively until after hearing reports made to the meeting.

Inability of the association to continue marketing of its wheat during the month of May, Mr. Alworth said, had been disappointing to the association's officials and members, but he said, he was confident that failure to sell resulted entirely from conditions which kept the buyers out of the market.

Real Wheat to Sell

"If we had been operating on the exchange," he said, "we could have sold a million bushels of wheat easily enough whether we had any at all or not. The association, however, deals with the trade which says for wheat 'not delivered' and its market is necessarily confined to millers and other actual consumers of wheat. Our sales were not made early this month, when we had something like 200,000 bushels yet to dispose of, and I am hopeful that my reports will show that the entire pool has been marketed at a figure that will give a satisfactory return to the growers."

MISS MAY ANGELO TO BE LAND OFFICE REGISTER

Woman Clerk is Named by President to Succeed Ben E. Gray who Retired to Bealton

Miss May Angelo, clerk in the Halley land office, was Thursday announced by President Harding to be register of the Halley land office, succeeding Ben E. Gray, who is to be removed after having refused to accept this resignation, according to a telegram received Friday from Representative Addison T. Smith, by E. L. Heigley, chairman of the republican county central committee.

Appointment of Miss Angelo was recommended by Senators Borah and Gooding.

Congruent with her appointment, Gray will be removed from office, effective when Miss Angelo is confirmed and qualified.
