TRUCE MAY BE CALLED ON STRIKE

Possible Loophole is Presented Through Railroad Men's Suggestion of Further Wage Negotiations

CHICAGO, (AP) — Two possible means of warding off the threatened rail strike of 400,000 shopmen suggested themselves to railroad circles on Wednesday night following what B. M. Jewell, head of the shop unions, termed the "last word" to the railroads in the union ultimatum sent to the Association of Railway Executives Tuesday night.

The executives, by coincidence, were scheduled to meet in Chicago Thursday afternoon and had their executives Wednesday said the shopmen's proposal of a truce pending further negotiations on wages and working conditions, undoubtedly would receive attention.

President Jewell's telegram Wednesday night to D. Wyatt Carter, chairman of the executives, left little way for avoiding the strike, it was felt by railroad officials. They characterized the union demands that the $50,000,000 wage cut ordered by the railroad labor board July 1, stayed, that rates abolished by the board be restored and that farming out of railroad work be discontinued, as "impossible and unreasonable."

The certain rejection of the union proposal therefore left, in the opinion of railroad men, but two possible loopholes to avoid issuance of the strike call.

Board Could Stop In One was that a conference between the union leaders and the executives might be called Thursday and if no agreement was reached, a technical disallowance of the agreement under which the railroad labor board, acting under authority of the transportation act, could take jurisdiction, as it did in the big big lumber case, was had, and set to prevent a walkout.

ANNUAL CROP REPORT SHOWS MANY CHANGES

Tendency of Farmers of County in Direction of More Highly Specialized Output Apparent in Estimate of Acreage as Compiled by Twin Falls Canal Company

TENDENCY on the part of Twin Falls district farmers to curtail production of certain staple crops and to take up cultivation of new and more specialized products of the soil is indicated in the annual crop report of the Twin Falls Canal company, acreage devoted to each crop and to the number of the several kinds of livestock on lands under the Twin Falls canal system.

Material reduction in the acreage devoted to alfalfa and red clover, both as hay and seed crops, as shown by the report, reflect unfortunate experience in production of these crops during the past two seasons. Acreage devoted to alfalfa and red clover seed production, on the other hand, shows an increase. Wheat, oats, sugar beets and peas will be grown to a lesser extent this year than last, while the acreage sown to corn, barley, rye and beans is increased. Head lettuce production figures for the first time, this year in the report of the canal company, and other specialized crops which the report shows are receiving increased attention are beans, melons and melon.

WHOLE CITY THREATENED BY DISASTROUS BLAZE

Agua Prieta, Mexico, May Be Wiped Out by Fire Originating in Chinese Meat Market

DOUGLAS, Ariz., (AP) — The entire town of Agua Prieta across the international boundary from this city is threatened by fire which broke out last night in a Chinese meat market. At 1:15 a. m. an entire block had been razed and the buildings in the adjoining block were breaking out in several places with a bucket brigade fighting valiantly to save them. A change in the wind saved the $50,000 Chinese houses.

LOS ANGELES SCHOOL BURNS

SCENE OF LAST WEEK'S ILLINOIS MINE MASSACRE

THIS PHOTOGRAPH was taken only a few hours before a mob of 5,000 striking miners attacked, captured and massacred the guards and strike breakers at the Southeastern Coal company's mine at Herrin, Ill. Superintendent McDowell (guard by arrow) is seen directing the posting of the mine guards, who were overpowered and slain when they could not do so and was shot down. Only a few hours before he had tried to President William V. Lester, in Chicago: "My God! Send the troops! We can't hold the mob off any longer!"

WAKEUP CREWS AT MINES WILL RETURN TO JOB

Arrangements Completed for Resumption of Work by Maintenance and Pump Men at Illinois Coal Properties

HERRIN, Ill., (AP) — Pumping and maintenance crews at three mines of the Madison Coal company, near Carterville, will return to work Thursday, W. J. Moorhead, president of the company, announced Wednesday night. The men, all office employees and mine bosses, quit work Monday night following posting of placards warning them to go home and the firing of shots by men in automobiles.

President Moorhead conferred with union officials and the maintenance employees Wednesday night. He said he had been promised that his men would not be molested if they returned. Frank Harrington, president of the Illinois miners working under the terms of the union locals to see that their fellows stayed away from the shafts.

The action has been taken toward resuming pumping at two mines of the Peabody Coal company also shut down Monday night after being visited by union pickets. Williamson county was quiet Wednesday. Three of the twelve non-union men wounded in the massacre last week were in the hospital Wednesday morning and were expected to be discharged by the hospital guard furnished by Mayor A. T. Vance and union officials. The condition of four of the remaining mine workers and at least two may die, it was said.

Residents of Herrin Wednesday objected to newspaper accounts of a club banquet held across the street from the local hospital Tuesday night. The banquet, installing a local chapter of an international club, was planned three days before the shooting affair. The last week members of the club and city officials, before the shooting.

There was no connection between the club activities and the massacre. The members met across the street. After the banquet, the club members in fact sent a quantity of fried chickens and other delicacies to the injured strikebreakers.

Striking Miners Form Large Part of Wreck Victims

Seventy-Eight Out of 81 Injured in Railroad Accident Were Under Arrest

ELKINS, Va., (AP) — While the death list had not exceeded one Wednesday night, the number of injured in the wreck of a Western Maryland railroad train at Limerock Wednesday had grown to 81.

Of the 81 injured, many were in serious condition at hospitals. These included 25 members of the state militia and seven miners. The wreck occurred when the car of the train left the tracks. This car contained 105 alleged striking miners who were under arrest charged with taking part in a disturbance at Thomas Tuesday night. Seventy-eight of the injured were miners and the others were guards who had been stationed at each end of the special car coming through the mountains.

The car was in charge of Sergeant Dowers of the state police at Elkton. On the Blackwater grade, near Limerock, a loud report was heard and the car suddenly toppled from the track and rolled down a 50-foot embankment.

Makes His Escape Without Payment of Required Cash

A. Bruce Bielaski, Held for Ransom by Mexican Captors Shows Up Safely

MEXICO CITY, (AP) — A. Bruce Bielaski, the American kidnaped by Mexicans, captured without ransom by Mexican captors, showed up safely Wednesday night after being held for ransom by Mexican captors.

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The state department was officially notified in a message from Charge Sumnerlin at Mexico City of the release of Bruce Bielaski, Mr. Sumnerlin said in a telegram from Tuxtla Tlaxi, near where Bielaski was captured by bandits, stating that he was there "safe and well," and that he was expected to arrive in Mexico City Wednesday night.

NO WORD FROM CAPTURED MEN

Escape of Bielaski Only New Incident in Seizure of Americans in Mexico

WASHINGTON, (AP) — What may have happened to 40 American captives in Mexico, held for ransom by rebels near Tampico and held with the company's property for ransom, remained a mystery Wednesday night, the number of the captives held for ransom of $150,000.

No further word has come from Consul Shaw at Tampico or from any other source of an official nature since the consular dispatch of Monday night that lives of the 40 Americans and $250,000 in destructible property were held as security on 48 hours' notice for a payment of $150,000.

Department officials would not admit in any formal way that they felt any uneasiness because of the lack of information. It was indicated that delay in a complete-clearing up of the situation was not regarded as unusual.

There is known to be considerable property held, however, by the rebels. It is known that Consul Shaw has not informed the state department as to steps taken by the Mexican Federal authorities to obtain release of the captives.

Result Not Unexpected Release of A. Bruce Bielaski, held for ransom by rebels, was announced, cleared that situation, Charge Sumnerlin reported Mr. Bielaski's release saying he was "safe and well" and that he was expected to arrive in Mexico City Wednesday night. There has never been much doubt here that the former American government officials would be able to obtain information that relations between Mexico and the United States would become strained over the incident.

The question, however, that the Cortes Oil company incident has far more serious possibilities if further information sustains Consul Shaw's first message. No officials here are expected to have any indication as to how long the Washington government might be willing to wait for negotiations between the Mexicans of rebels and the rebels to bring about release of the captives.

MCCORMICK THREATENS DIRE STEP

Chicago Man Declares He Will Institute Wholesale Libel Actions Against the Papers Printing Gland Story

CHICAGO, (AP) — Harold F. McCormick, head of the executive committee of the International Harvester company, on Wednesday announced his intention to sue for libel every newspaper which published the report that he purchased a gland of another man to be grafted into his own body.

With this as the first count in his libel suits, other counts, he declared, will include charges of telephone tapping, invasion of his sick room, the surreptitious use of his name and treachery upon his property.

It was Mr. McCormick's first statement since he went to the Wesley Memorial hospital for an operation of almost three weeks ago, and he made it plain that he was chiefly incensed at the repeated stories that he had taken advantage of the unfortunate circumstances of a fellow man to deprive him of a vital organ.

Story Utterly untrue," he said, and he related out that when the rumor first became current, Dr. Victor D. Loebenstein, who attended him in the hospital, issued a denial that a human gland was used.

"This denial," said Mr. McCormick, "was printed by some, but not by all of the newspapers which printed the original story." The telephone wires from Mr. McCormick's house had been tapped was officially reported to the Chicago Telephone company during the day.

GRAVE CHARGES ARE VOICED BY DISABLED MEN

American Veterans of World War in Fighting Mood as the Result of Addresses Before National Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, drew both applause and criticism from the disabled American veterans of the world war Wednesday when he explained to their convention the relief measures the government had undertaken for its stricken defenders.

Chairs greeted his announcement that the bureau had established an employment unit designed to find suitable jobs for every man given rehabilitation, and his assertion that his favorable revision of the civil service laws will give former soldiers more preferential positions on every government list.

Seers of veterans clamored for the floor, however, to ask why employment had not been found for various individuals and why others had had their training concluded too soon and their training pay stopped.

The climax of the criticism came with the reading of a telegram from the president of the National Association of Disabled American Veterans, which was read by Robert E. Marx of Cincinnati, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, asserted that the president and other executives and why others had had their training pay stopped.

Plans Are Criticized
Although Marx ruled out of order many individual complaints about neglect and accused himself in sympathy with most of Colonel Forbes' policies he criticized several plans of the director.

He took exception to Colonel Forbes' announcement regarding employment.

"This is the only country that has not had an employment service for its veterans in operation for two years," Marx charged that the bureau had failed to report on the complaint of the disabled American veterans of the past months ago that financial support was being made in hospital care of soldiers in Ohio and 75 percent of the soldiers from one institution were discharged dead.

Reignier General Charles E. Sawyer, President Harvill's personal physician, also was criticized. Humphrey Sullivan of St. Louis, representing Harford MacSider, national commander of the American Legion, charged the general Sawyer with economizing at the expense of the health and sanity of disabled soldiers.

Irrigation Waters Wipe Out Villages

EL PASO, Texas, (AP)—Within less than 200 miles from El Paso five old towns gradually have given away to irrigation waters, and their former sites are now farm lands.

Canchero, a peaceful Mexican village 200 years ago, on the banks of the Rio Grande, is one of the places which has been wiped out. Although it withstood the storms and hardships and some attacks from the Apaches within the past two centuries, the water has washed away the thick adobe walls.

Cantostero had a population of 400 persons. Other towns wiped out slowly by the waters from the Rio Grande and the Elephant Butte dam project were Santa Rita, with a population of 300; San Aljino, 250; San Jose, 250; Alamoito, 300. Each had its ancient churches, stores, cemeteries and school houses. These are to be seen no more, save for a few crumbling walls which the water has not entirely melted down.

Fishing License Only Way of Identification

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—But for the fishing as a fishing license among the effects of a man who drowned in a hotel here recently while registered as J. J. O'Brien, the body would have been buried in the potter's field and the dead man's identity might never have been discovered.

In going through the dead man's effects a fishing license made out to P. B. Shea, Orofino, Idaho, was discovered. A local merchant later identified the body as that of Mr. Shea and stated that he formerly was deputy sheriff at Orofino.

Shea died of heart failure while registered under the name of O'Brien. All efforts to discover relatives or to identify him had failed until the discovery of the fishing license.

HOPE FOR ERADICATION OF TUBERCULOSIS IN CATTLE

Careful Planning Speeds Up the Tests and Cuts Down Cost of Treatment

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The plan for the complete eradication of tuberculosis in the cattle herds of the country seems well within the bounds of possibility to Department of Agriculture experts as the result of a demonstration that an entire county may be cleared of all its reactors in a week and a day. Such a demonstration was recently completed in Essex county, New York, where local authorities, assisted by the state and the Department of Agriculture, began the testing of the herds on May 12 and finished the job on Saturday, May 20.

Rapid Tests Made
The county was divided into convenient districts, and 25 veterinarians were taken from farm to farm in automobiles by 25 leading farmers who volunteered their services. By this use of rapid transportation and by careful planning of routes it was possible in two days to test 920 herds containing 15,274 cattle. This was an average of more than 18 herds a day for each veterinarian. Because the loss of time was cut to a minimum and supplies were bought in quantity, the work was done for less than half the usual cost when herds are tested individually, the report to the department said.

BIG TELESCOPE TO BE BUILT AT OHIO WESLEYAN

Instructor at University Gives Fortune to Realize Ambition of Lifetime—Will Be Third Largest Instrument

DELAWARE, O., (AP)—Within the next few years there will arise on Observatory hill on the campus at Ohio Wesleyan university here a huge concrete building, with a lens 100 feet high, and a lens 100 feet in diameter, looking skyward. It will be the third largest telescope in the world.

At that time an old man may look from the doorway of an out-of-date brick house near the great instrument, and remember, in a moment to his prevariance and the dominating fear of a life that will have passed the four score and ten mark.

If he is there to see it, he will be comparatively penniless, as a money-god, but rich in happiness.

If he is not there to see it, he has said he will be just as satisfied because he knows it will be there, whether he is or not.

Gives Fortune for Ideal

Professor Hiram M. Perkins, now 83 years of age, started teaching astronomy and astrology years ago at Ohio Wesleyan, a poor man. During the long years of teaching since then he had amassed a fortune of close to $250,000 by fortunate investments. But he will die a poor man. Nearly every cent that he has earned and saved to gether will be represented in the "third largest telescope in the world."

A story that passes understanding is unfolded in the simple announcement by trustees of Ohio Wesleyan that $250,000 has been contributed for the installation of the telescope. All but $75,000 of the quarter of a million dollars was given by Professor Perkins; the remainder by his sister and brothers.

Professor Perkins has lived with one dominating goal—to be able to turn enough money over to Ohio Wesleyan university for the purchase of such a telescope. Not only did he devote all his income from his investments to his telescope fund, but he also contributed to it from his meager salary as a college professor, and Mr. Perkins trimming their household budget to make the sacrifice possible.

And the story of self-sacrifice is not one to be told with the efforts of Professor Perkins to dodge recognition for his remarkable gift.

Does Not Want Credit

He has steadfastly refused any acknowledgment for his gift, and he has driven the college pastors, but refused to distraction by refusing to permit the use of his name in connection with the gift.

"I don't care whether I live to see the telescope and the new observatory completed or not," he is quoted as saying. Professor C. C. Crump, now head of the department of astronomy, "The knowledge that the university is to have this is sufficient."

Professor Perkins gives the telescope at the age of an old man. He has lived away in his work-life—the belief that the study of the stars outclasses all others in teaching the majesty and power of God, and in inculcating principles of true religion.

Under the terms of his gift, the telescope is to be used first for the instruction of all the students of the university; second, it is to be turned over to the public at regular intervals, and after that it is to be used for research.

Sabbath to be Observed

WATER AT JACKSON LAKE FLOWING OVER SPILLWAY

Big Government Reservoir at Headwaters of Snake River is Full

BURDEY—Jackson Lake is full. On June 21, the reclamation service here says, the big government reservoir at the head of Snake river in Wyoming reached its capacity of 847,000 acre feet and water began to flow over the spillway at the top of the dam.

Last fall, when the gates were closed, more than 151,000 acre feet were left in the reservoir as a start toward the supply for 1922. During the winter there was a great deal of snow fall, so especially in the upper part of the watershed, which assured a good runoff of water during the coming summer. On account of the cold spring, this runoff was delayed so that the lake was a week later in filling in 1922 than it was in 1921. It is expected, however, that the need for turning out stored water will be correspondingly delayed this year.

Jackson Lake, one of the largest reservoirs in the world, furnishes water to some 700,000 acres of land in southern Idaho, including the Minidoka and North and South Side Twin Falls projects and about one fourth million acres of the upper Snake river valley.

Department of Agriculture Aids the County Agricultural Agents

BILLINGS, Mont., (AP)—Aid of the department of agriculture in a campaign to exterminate grasshoppers has been extended county agricultural agents of Montana and the Federal department has established headquarters here to study insect conditions. Supplies which are used in poisoning the grasshoppers have been ordered and it is planned to scatter the poisoned mixture over an extensive part of Yellowstone county where the heaviest plague of last year is thought to have started.

Stuart Lockwood, in charge of the investigation phase of the work and E. J. Udine, who is in charge of the factory work, are two representatives of the department of agriculture who will develop their time this summer to combatting the insect which in prolific years is a serious detriment to growing crops.

Increase is Rapid

Investigations conducted by the department in past years shows that each female hopper lays from 50 to 100 eggs in the fall and they hatch in the early spring which follows. These figures give an idea of the rapidity with which the pests increase.

The mixture which is "broadcast" to poison the grasshoppers is not dangerous to stock, Mr. Lockwood stated, and is the most effective way yet devised of fighting the pest.

LAY PLANS FOR AN EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN HERE

Five Hundred Persons Entorse Proposal for Union Tabernacle Services in Twin Falls Next September

Five hundred persons representing six denominations in Twin Falls and churches at Buhl, Hansen and Knoll, at a meeting Wednesday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church here, unanimously endorsed plans for holding a union evangelistic tabernacle service in Twin Falls during the month of September.

Decisions as to whether he would undertake to conduct the campaign was announced by persons taking part in the meeting and there were expressions of opinion that existing conditions here demand relief of the sort expected to result from the campaign.

Plans for the tabernacle proposed to be erected here for the campaign, providing for accommodation of 2000 persons and being susceptible of enlargement with increasing attendance, were placed in the hands of a building contractor.

Mr. Rayburn would bring with him his company of four assistants, including a soloist and choir director and a pianist.

Ministers Attending.
The Rev. E. L. White of the Methodist Episcopal church of Twin Falls, presided at the meeting, and other ministers who occupied seats on the program were Rev. R. J. McKrown, Knoll; Rev. Samuel Harris, Knoll; Rev. G. W. Jones, Buhl; Rev. Charles Egan, Buhl; Rev. C. G. Helman, Buhl; Rev. E. E. Cox, Hansen; Rev. W. H. Pearson, Twin Falls; Rev. W. H. Tolliver, Twin Falls; Rev. W. B. Burke, Twin Falls.

Denominations that would unite in the evangelistic campaign here are the Protestant, Methodist, Baptist, Christian Episcopal and Church of the Disciples, it was stated.

The Rev. Mr. Rayburn was the guest of the ministers participating in the plans for the campaign, at dinner at the Rogerson hotel.

To Clean Furniture.
Remove the dirt from the broistles with a painter's brush with long bristles. Wipe the surface with a soft cloth wrung out of warm suds of white soap. When dry, pour a mixture of equal parts of turpentine and paraffin oil into a saucer, dip the paint brush in the mixture just wetting the tips of the bristles, and remove the surplus by squeezing the end of the brush for an instant in a piece of cloth. Go over the carpet portions with this, and treat the plain surfaces with a little of the same mixture applied with a piece of cheesecloth. Finish by polishing vigorously with a piece of flannel or velvet.

REHEARSE STORY OF FATAL SHOTS

Circumstances of Slaying J. Belmont Kennedy Before Jury in Obenchain Case

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Circumstances of the shooting of J. Belmont Kennedy in Beverly Glen on August 21, were related Wednesday in the second trial of Mrs. Matatlanya Obenchain for his slaying by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boushky who live near the scene of the shooting. They repeated testimony given at the first trial of Mrs. Obenchain and the two trials of Arthur C. Burch, co-defendants, all of which ended in acquittals.

Mrs. Mary Deonoff testified she had received letters from Paul Roman, inmate of Folsom penitentiary, to be delivered to Mrs. Obenchain. Roman testified he corresponded with the defendant after she had tried to persuade him to testify falsely that he observed two men plotting to blackmail or slay Kennedy.

Japanese Ideas That "Permit."
"Popular belief in Japan has it that if one employs the same road going to and from a funeral, the evil spirits, now acquainted with the route, would be inclined to lead another relative of the deceased to the graveyard. Young men only are employed to do tree grafting in Japan, as it is the belief that they impart their life and vigor to the grafted plants. Educated Japanese say that these beliefs are not superstition; that the ideas just simply persist.

General Wu suggested that the reorganized republic be known as the "United States of China." The majority of the provinces already have signified their approval of the proposal to reunite the country under a federal government. "Taking with each province existing rights, similar to those accorded the separate states of the American union, general Wu said.

CUT SLIGHT ON PENNSY SYSTEM

Wage Reduction to Maintenance of Way Men Less Than That of Board

DETROIT.—(AP)—The wage reduction announced for maintenance of way employees on the Pennsylvania system, Tuesday generally averages slightly less than that ordered in effect on other railroads throughout the country. The Pennsylvania railroad labor board, according to unofficial sources received here late Wednesday at the general headquarters of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers. One exception, according to the information here, was in the case of carpenters, who were set a 4 cents an hour, or approximately 25 per cent, by the Pennsylvania order, compared with the cut of 1 cent an hour, or 20 per cent, ordered by the labor board. The labor board cut 10 cents on building and track foremen $6.33 monthly and the Pennsylvania took $5 monthly off the former class and left the track foremen unchanged, it was stated.

The 5 cent hourly cut for foremen and laborers ordered by the labor board was applied to the Pennsylvania, according to the labor board, but the Pennsylvania order cuts 3 cents hourly for foremen and laborers on the line were cut 7 cents an hour compared with the 7 per cent schedule applied by the board, it was noted, and assistant foremen were cut 3 cents hourly by the Pennsylvania adjustment, compared with 5 cents in the labor board order.

ENTIRE DAY IS TAKEN UP WITH WARM FIGHTING

Battle for Possession of Four Courts Continues Uninterruptedly Between Insurgent and Federal Forces

DUBLIN. June 29.—(12:30 a. m. AP)—The fighting in Dublin today was not materially altered. The artillery temporarily is inactive, but sniping continues. The Free State forces are completely surrounded the four Courts, and a big attack is predicted for dawn. The republicans are holding several buildings in addition to the four Courts.

DUBLIN. (AP)—Michael Collins, head of the Free State government, took active measures Wednesday against the republican insurgents under Roger O'Connor, in their stronghold in the center of Dublin, four Courts. An ultimatum for the surrender of the insurgents was ignored and at the expiration of a brief time limit, Free State troops in armorial cars and motor lorries began a movement against the insurgents, which was met with an immediate fusillade from the building.

From dawn until late Wednesday night there were heavy sniping, though at intervals the firing ceased. Small artillery, trench mortars and machine guns were employed by the attacking forces, but the insurgents could fire themselves largely to machine gun and rifle fire. No attempt was made to carry the four Courts by the Free State troops, but the fighting was breached at various places.

Casualties Are Few.
The casualties are few in proportion to the nature of the fighting, and they consist for the most part of civilians caught in the line of fire. So far it is known seven were killed and some more or less seriously wounded. This does not include any casualties that may have been suffered by the republicans, those being impossible to ascertain.

Less than 1000 Free State troops are engaged in the present operations and it is known that the irregular number several hundred. The insurgents were obliged to evacuate several buildings during the progress of the battle, but immediately took up new positions which had evidently been prepared in advance.

The Free State troops did not interfere with activities at republican headquarters in Suffolk street, where E. M. De Valera and his colleagues were as usual. Mr. De Valera declined to make any statement on the present warlike situation.

"Leyden Jar."
A Leyden jar is a glass jar or bottle used to accumulate electricity; so named from having been invented by Leyden, Holland. In its common form, it is coated with tin foil, within and without, well up toward its top, and is surmounted by a brass knob which communicates with the inner coating. To charge the jar, the knob is connected with an electric source and the outer coating with the ground. Electricity of the same kind as the source is then accumulated on the inner coating, and the opposite kind on the outer.

TRUCE MAY BE CALLED

senger schedules would not be interrupted. City authorities made plans to supply New York with milk and perishable foodstuffs by motor trucks if necessary.

Labor leaders estimated that more than 125,000 workers would be involved in Greater New York in a strike of 165 car repairs, maintenance men and electricians.

Have Emergency Supplies.
Traffic managers of some of the railroads declared all of the roads had a reserve supply of engines and rolling stock which could be drawn upon in an emergency, thus doing away with the necessity of heavy repairs to equipment for some time.

Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, who was here Wednesday with other members of the cabinet inspecting possible new sites for a postoffice, said that he did not think there would be a strike and that Washington did not feel alarmed over it. The strike situation, he said, was complicating the outlook for business, however.

HAYS PROMISES CLEAN SCREENS

General Federation of Women's Clubs Told of Efforts to Cleanse Movies

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y.—(AP)—Will H. Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, promised the delegates to the General Federation of Women's clubs in session here Wednesday, that moving pictures would be cleaned at their source.

It was the purpose of this organization, he said, to establish and maintain the highest possible moral and artistic standards in film production and to develop the educational, as well as the entertainment value, and the general usefulness of motion pictures.

There is one place and one place only where the evils can be eliminated and the good and great advantages of motion pictures retained," Mr. Hays said, "and that is at the point where and when the pictures are made. And it can be done there and there, no mistake.

May Take Time.
"It may not be done in a moment," Hays said, "but it can be done in a practical manner without the support of the public, which support, I know you will give."
As to the manner in which the club women might help, Mr. Hays said the easiest way was to refuse to patronize theaters that produce objectionable pictures. He urged the federation to maintain a vigorous department for letter films and to appoint letter film committees in every community.

As for censorship, Mr. Hays said the American people were against it in all forms.

In the Capital's Early Days.
During the administration of John Quincy Adams the east room of the White House in which his mother had hung clothes to dry, was so gorgeously furnished that his rivals abused him for his extravagance. From the political stump in the campaign of 1823, he was arraigned for having put a pillow table in the White House. And Adams found it necessary to prove that this had been bought and set up by his son from his own private allowance.

LOCAL CRIME

One of the most popular forms of crime in large cities over the country is stealing automobiles.

Possibly the theft of the Mitchell car in Twin Falls a day or two ago may be accepted as evidence of the civic growth and progress of the Magic City.

The theft does, however, prove one thing beyond a doubt, and that is that there are persons in Twin Falls who may safely be ranked among the red criminal class.

CROP WEATHER

Hot! Of course, but what about the compensating advantage of the weather from the standpoint of the crops and the farmer who grows them?

There is only one element of uncertainty in the crop prospects in the Twin Falls country this year and that is the price at which the product will be sold.

And prices will be higher than a good many people imagine if the general proposition of world conditions constitute anything at all of a factor in the equations.

VALUE OF FRIENDSHIPS

It takes a long time to build up a real friendship. Because of that it is wise for everyone to strive to maintain friendships, once they are established.

For the reason that they have been through many of the same experiences that we have, know the same people that we do and enjoy doing the same things that give us pleasure.

However, there are a number of persons who do not appreciate their friends. They like their friendships for granted.

One of the finest things to be gotten out of life is the enjoyment to be derived from association with real friends.

But life is fleeting and real friendships are not made in a day. Those who have had difficulty in making real friends or in retaining them will do well to start immediately to learn the art of being friendly.

CHAPTER XIV

The curtains at the French windows of the library were drawn.

Richard stepped forward, his eyes fixed on the girl who stood before him.

"I hardly know how to say it," he began. "But—but you know my name."

"I know—I know how you feel!" Richard said with a sort of brief sympathy.

"The girl's tired eyes flashed." "There was no divorce" she said.

"No divorce?" he echoed with a puzzled frown.

"I want to tell you about it" she said. "But the tears would come again."

"I'm tired," he said, in a tone he might have used to Nina.

"Oh, I'm going to Linda at once!" Harriet said, feverishly, hurt to the soul.

"I'm very sorry," Blondin said heartily, when the men were alone.

"I know—I know" Richard's eyes were smiling, as if he knew the picture, and liked it.

"Well, Linda married when I was ten, and I thought came and then Julia came. I still lived for books and books."

"I remember feeling that, yes!" Richard commented, smiling, as if he paused.

"Well," Harriet said, "I met Royal Turner, despite her desperate reaction, suddenly snuggled Harriet's eyes.

"You couldn't sleep?" he exclaimed with quick sympathy. He looked from her about him, as if for a shelter for her emotion.

"I wanted to see you, Mr. Carter," she faltered. "I couldn't sleep very well. I've been down at the shore. But later—any time will do."

FEDERAL POWER BOARD'S AGENT INSPECTS SITES

Major H. S. Bennion, Assistant Chief Engineer, Visits Snake River Falls Upon Which Filings Have Been Made

Hydro-electric power sites on Snake river in the vicinity of Twin Falls, which are ready for development when official approval is granted, were inspected Wednesday by Major H. S. Bennion of Washington, D. C., assistant chief engineer for the federal power commission.

The sites inspected included Twin Falls and Upper Salmon falls, upon which filings have been made by the Idaho Power company, and Augur falls upon which a filing has been made by the Murtagh irrigation district in connection with its plans for reclamation of approximately 10,000 acres of land in the Hansen butte region between Hansen and Murtagh.

Advice Courteous Weight

In view of Major Bennion's official position, it was believed that his recommendations and advice would be a paramount factor with the board in acting upon the filings made.

Major Bennion, in this district, inspected both developed and prospective sites and received reports from the engineer in charge of each. He entered upon his trip through southern Idaho at American Falls, where he arrived Tuesday and subsequently visited the Murtagh project power systems.

Meets Welcome Here

Major Bennion was accompanied here by Harry Dibble, project manager for the federal power service, and by P. J. Rankin, Boise, chief engineer for the Idaho Power company, and H. W. Turner, Idaho, president of the Murtagh irrigation district. Major Bennion at American Falls, but was called back to Boise Tuesday by the Idaho Power company, district manager for the Idaho Power company, joined the party here.

On his inspection Wednesday of the Augur falls site Major Bennion was accompanied by H. T. Henderson, engineer for the Murtagh irrigation district, and later by the district engineer, here with the district engineer, two of its directors, James L. Barnes and O. D. Ellis of Hansen, and Attorney James W. Foster.

NEW CONTESTS DEVELOP ON DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Two Candidates File for Nomination for Commissioner from Third District

Two candidates for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner from the third district filed papers on Wednesday, the resulting contest figuring as the outstanding feature of the day's political announcements, all of which were made by Democrats.

The opposing candidates were W. F. Brewer of Hansen, who served as county commissioner in 1917 and 1918, and J. D. Barshart of Kimberly, who was formerly a deputy in the office of the county recorder.

Each candidate filed papers signed by five members of the party rather than by the county chairman, who has been out of town for several days returning Wednesday. Mr. Brewer's nomination was endorsed by John E. Davies, Taylor Cummins, E. J. Fineli, J. H. McNichols and W. F. Donnelly, all of Twin Falls. Mr. Barshart was endorsed by Ora McVey and B. McCoy of Hansen, and R. G. Wilson, W. H. Turner and J. M. Steelsmith of Kimberly.

Contest for the Democratic nomination for prosecuting attorney developed with the filing Wednesday of W. H. Davidson of Kimberly of Twin Falls, a practicing attorney here since 1918, now serving as receiver in bankruptcy for the southern Idaho district.

There will be competition also for the Democratic nomination for probate judge since the filing Wednesday of nomination papers of Kennedy Peckard, pioneer Twin Falls resident, now in the west part of the state in opposition to the candidacy of John E. Davies for this place.

PETITIONS FOR AMERICAN FALLS DAM COMPLETED

Twin Falls Swings Into Line With Formal Call for Submission of Proposal for Snake River District

Crestmont in the territory under the Twin Falls canal system of petition for formation of the Snake River irrigation district to assist in financing construction of the American Falls dam has been joined by Twin Falls, as the situation made Wednesday evening at chamber of commerce offices here showing a total of 10,325 new signed up.

Removes Last Barrier.

Harry Dibble of American Falls, project manager for the federal reclamation service, who was present when the canvass was completed, said the completion of circulation of petitions here has removed the last barrier to further proceedings looking toward formation of the big irrigation district. All of the other canal companies of the Snake river valley whose territories will be included in the big district have completed circulation of petitions.

Mr. Dibble expects to take with him on his return to American Falls Thursday, the petitions signed here. Photostatic copies of the petitions will be made for filing in the office of the reclamation commissioner, and the petitions there filed will be returned here to be filed with the board of county commissioners.

Subsequent Procedure.

Within two weeks thereafter, the commissioners will be convened to hear suggestions and protests relative to the proposed district's boundaries, and on the day for the election at which the question of forming the district will be submitted to vote of landholders within its boundaries. This election will be held under the same conditions as those held for the Snake river valley four weeks or more than eight weeks after the hearing.

The district, if it is formed, will be authorized to issue its bonds to meet payments on contracts between the reclamation service and the canal companies for water rights in the American Falls reservoir.

COURT HEARS CLAIMS OF MURDERED MAN'S MOTHER

Woman in Spain Ousts for Insurance Award Through Court Here

Appeal to the district court for the decision of the state industrial accident board in the case of Ignacio Bilbao is which an award of $2400 was first allowed and later rescinded by the board, was argued by attorneys before Judge W. A. Babcock here Wednesday.

Bilbao was employed as a shepherd by James Farmer, was shot and killed in March, 1920, by William Carver, a Bliss district farmer, under circumstances indicating that a dispute over Bilbao's attempt to drive his flocks on or near Carver's property had preceded the shooting.

Under provisions of an industrial accident policy carried by Farmer on his employee, claim was made for recovery on account of Bilbao's death, in behalf of Carina, a Spanish, a resident of Spain and the adopted mother of the slain man.

The claim was resisted on appeal on the ground that the woman had been offered to show that the claimant was actually dependent upon Bilbao for support.

The case for the Spanish woman was presented by E. M. Wolfe of Wolo and Martin. Charles M. Kahn, Boise, appeared in behalf of the state board.
