CROP PROSPECTS ARE BETTER THAN IN 5 YEARS PAST

Heat, High Winds, Hail and Drouth Take Usual Toll but Average of Half Decade Apparently Beaten

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Crops in general promise better harvests this year than their average for the last five years, forecasts of the department of agriculture based on July first conditions, issued Monday, indicate. bumper crops of white wheat, sweet potatoes and tobacco are forecast and most of the crop are larger than last year. With the exception of wheat, corn and oats, average this year range from one to 25 per cent larger than those of 1921.

Corn averages are increased this year in most of the corn belt states, but in the cotton states decreases are shown, while in Iowa, largest corn producing state, there is a two per cent decrease and in Missouri a three per cent decrease. The crop in general made good progress to July 1, except in the south-east, where it has been neglected for cotton. Growth has been slow east of the Mississippi, but stands are good and fields fairly well cultivated. For the west rapid growth has been made. Winter wheat moderate forecasts show a decline of 58,000,000 bushels, compared with June forecasts.

Many Districts Affected.

Severe damage has been reported from heat waves and hail storms in Kansas, from drought, high temperatures and wind in Nebraska, and from chinch bugs in Oklahoma and from black chaff and hoppers in some sections of wheat, remaining on farms July 1, 3,841,000 bushels, of 25,000,000 bushels less than the same date last year.

The 10 leading crops have a total area of 341,733,000 acres this year compared with 343,100,000 acres last year, a reduction of about 1 per cent, principally to winter wheat and oats.

DREAMS RELATED IN MURDER CASE

Obenchain Tied Enveloped by Account of Visions and Interpretations

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP)—Mrs. Madeline Obenchain, on trial here for the murder of Dr. Walter Kennedy, Monday virtually became a witness for the state when the prosecution commenced reading to the jury testimony she gave in her own behalf on her first trial in which the jury disagreed.

When attorneys for the defense objected to the prosecution's testimony Mrs. Obenchain's previous testimony explained statements made to the state's case, and the court upheld their contentions. The cross-examination of Mrs. Dilliff was resumed when court convened Monday after a recess of 10 days, caused by the death of the father of Judge John W. Shenck, presiding. Mrs. Dilliff testified to having two dreams which she related to Mrs. Obenchain, and which were interpreted by Mrs. Obenchain as foretelling Kennedy's death.

PROMINENT MEN ARE INDICTED

Ten Well Known Residents of Seattle Named by Grand Jury for Action

SEATTLE, (AP)—Ten men prominent in political and business circles of King county were indicted on grand jury charges by the special county grand jury which, after nine weeks' deliberations reported its findings late Monday afternoon to Judge Calvin S. Hall of the superior court.

E. C. Gillberg, president, and J. F. Lane, cashier, of the defunct Scandinavian-American bank; Claude C. Ramsey, Thomas Dobson and Lou C. Smith, commissioners of King county, each on four counts; Charles B. Wood, county purchasing agent, one count; W. A. Wilkes, treasurer Pacific Electric; Captain H. E. Tompkins, former assistant superintendent of the county ferry system; Captain J. L. Anderson, contractor operating the ferry system, and his brother, Captain Adolph Anderson, president of the Anderson Tugboat company.

The report makes sweeping charges of graft, collusion and gross mismanagement of the county ferry system against the county commissioners and Captain J. L. Anderson. It is charged that the $76 county, owned by the Anderson Tugboat company helped themselves to all stored in a county barge for use by county stevedores.

Costs Too Heavy.

The county commissioners are also charged with having systematically endeavored to pile up enormous operation costs for the purpose of misleading and deceiving the taxpayers of King county. It is charged that the county to the county and more particularly with regard to the cost of its operation. A transaction whereby the Lake Washington ferries were leased to Captain John L. Anderson by the county commissioners is particularly criticized. It is asserted that "an public was given to the matter; no bill called for, although different communities on the lake had asked for opportunity to bid for the lease, at least one community offering to lease without any bond at all, whereas Captain Anderson was given a bonus of 20,000 barrels of oil.

STATE TROOPS FIRED UPON, MACHINE GUN MOUNTED FOR ACTION

Men Congregated at Strikers' Picket Post Dispersed by Guardsmen at Shops

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., (AP)—Three shots were fired at state troops guarding the Chicago and Alton shops shortly after midnight. No trace of the persons shooting was found.

Twenty-five men congregated at a strikers' union's picket post in front of a grocery store at the north end of the shops were warned to disperse and a machine gun was set up to cover the strike pickets.

A sentry reported to the lieutenant colonel that the strike pickets had warned two women who passed the store to get out of the way. "Get the fireworks are about to start."

CHICAGO, (AP)—With increasing numbers of state troops and emergency forces of United States deputy marshals on guard wherever outbreaks have been reported, the government on Monday announced that life and property would be protected, the mails continued and interstate commerce not interrupted despite the strike of railway shopmen.

After a conference with President Harding, Attorney General Daugherty said that additional deputy marshals had been authorized and that they would be sent wherever strike disorders threatened.

The attorney general's announcement came shortly after Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling, acting head of the state government in Illinois, in the absence of Governor Len Small, had ordered five companies of national guardmen to Bloomington to protect the shops at the Chicago and Alton railroad. The ordering out of the state troops followed appeals from the local authorities.

Several shops fired at state troops have been visited by grand jury state troopers Saturday night when they returned to the shops following a fatal shooting early in the day. The shooting was reported to have been a "spontaneous" event, although shots were fired by strikers at a group of men who were believed to have been members of the Chicago and Alton strikers' union, some being injured. At Aurora, Ill., where an emergency force of deputy marshals has been on guard since the Burlington obtained a temporary injunction Saturday, several hundred strikers and strike sympathizers held a silent but orderly parade about the shops.

Aside from a few clashes, the cancellation of some passenger trains on the shorter run, and the re-opening of shops in various sections of the country, there were few developments on the day which railway executives had expected to furnish the turning point of the strike because of the ultimatum of many workers were on strike and did not return to work Monday would result. Their solidarity, they said.

Central and Northern California Scene of Dynamite Outrage, Shooting of One Man; Kidnapping of Another

SACRAMENTO, CAL., (AP)—Violence attributed directly or indirectly to the strike of the railroad shopmen, broke out in three places in central and northern California Monday night.

At Rosville, 15 miles from here, 600 members of the Pacific Fruit Express were shot while on duty at its grading plant, where a strike said by company officials to have been forced by intimidation of workers by striking shopmen, is in progress. His wounds were considered as serious.

Armed strike sympathizers were said to be occupying positions commanding the icing platform at the plant.

At Red Bluff, one man in the jail and another is out on $5000 bond, charged by Patrick Gallagher, a Holleranman, with kidnapping him. Gallagher has been working in the Southern Pacific shops at Corbin.

Tank Is Dynamited. At Newcastle, 10 miles from here, an attempt was made to destroy one of the largest water tanks on the Southern Pacific system with dynamite. Five men drove up in an automobile, placed a lighted charge under the tank and withdrew, according to reports to Sheriff Tom of Placer county. A hole was blown in the tank.

FULL DATA UPON COLUMBIA BASIN IS PROVIDED FOR

Senate Committee on Irrigation Orders Favorable Report on Bill Directing Secretary Fall to Prepare Survey

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The senate committee on irrigation and reclamation Monday ordered favorably reported a bill directing Secretary Fall to survey and report to congress by Jan. 1, 1924, on all essential features of the proposed Columbia basin irrigation project in Washington state.

The bill, as originally introduced by Senator Pollock, republican, of Washington, was practically rerafted by the committee, but carried the Washington senator's request for an appropriation of $100,000 to finance the survey and report.

Senate Hears Endorsement

Endorsements of the bill were heard Monday by the senate. Secretary Fall sent a letter in which he said that although no preliminary investigations have been made and there is much need for the securing of additional data upon the proposed venture, he was in favor of the enactment of the bill.

Former Major General Goethals, Senator Pollock's aid, had reported on the project and declared the feasibility of the development is established beyond doubt.

Director Davis of the reclamation service also appeared in advocacy of the bill.

Heavy Per Acre Cost

J. C. Halton of Spokane, former consulting engineer of the Columbia basin irrigation committee, estimated that the project would cost finally about $125 per acre. He said water power will come along and take care of itself, adding that he believed 300,000 horsepower would be placed on Clark's Fork river between Flathead Lake, Montana, and Pease Lake, Idaho, when these waters were added.

Senator Walsh told the committee the people in his state were apprehensive that the project in Washington would injure them, taking water from the state, but he might be needed within it for irrigation and other purposes.

"I am inclined to think that the people in Montana," he declared, "will insist that adequate provisions be made for them to receive the water that is necessary for the irrigation of all their lands."

"I would like to have the survey made," he added, "but would like to see it broadened and the investigation extended to lands in Montana, particularly those in the vicinity of Flathead lake."

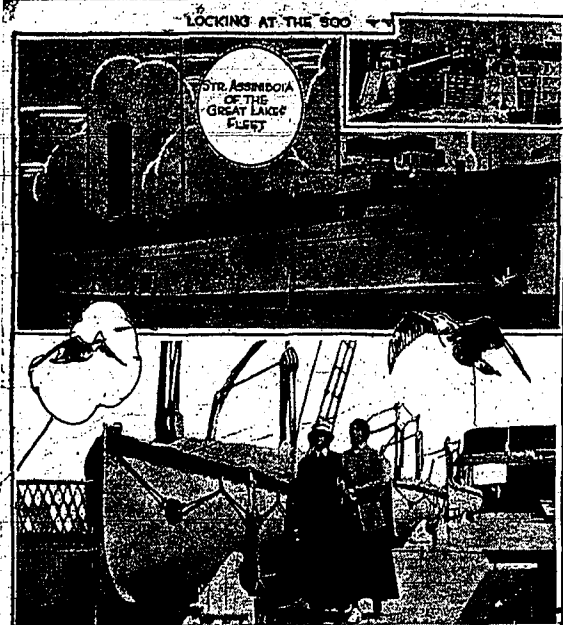

First Farm Book

"A Book of Husbandry"—believed to be the first book on farming printed in England—was bought recently for a sum equal to about $100 on behalf of the British museum at Sotheby's sale-rooms. This book, so small that it could easily be slipped in the pocket, was printed in 1533 by the British printer. It was written by Sir Anthony Munday, poet laureate, Derbyshire, and is in excellent condition, though colored with age. It is bound in morocco.

Effluence and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed and I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been taken had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieved my bowels at once, improved the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Dyer, Birmingham, Ala.—c17.

VACATION VOYAGES ON INLAND SEAS OF AMERICA

America's inland seas, the Great Lakes afford opportunities for beautiful vacation voyages, especially appreciated by those whose purse strings do not allow an ocean voyage. A week or two spent on the Great Lakes' cruise permits one to experience the joys of ocean travel without the addition of frequent stoppages of shore lands.

OLD FAITHFUL CHANGES PERIOD OF ERUPTIONS

Alteration in Famous Geyser's Tempo Does Not Lessen Its Vigor

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo.—Old Faithful, Yellowstone's most faithful geyser, has slightly changed the period of its eruptions.

According to the observations of the park naturalist and the rangers, the geyser now erupts on an average every 64.6 minutes. Last year the average period was 60 minutes.

The alteration in Old Faithful's "tempo" does not indicate any lessening of its vigor or "fidelity." On the contrary, Nationalist M. D. Eastman's observations show the geyser's fountain to be increasing in volume. The change is believed to be due to an alteration in the subterranean tube of the geyser.

For the last year or so Old Faithful has acquired a habit of occasionally throwing out small rocks. The passage of the rocks through the tube is believed to have enlarged its dimension slightly, thus in turn being responsible for the lengthened period between eruptions and the increased volume of water.

A number of other interesting changes, tending constantly varying interest to the mysterious manifestations of the park's performing natural wonders, are also reported by the park's official observers.

Constant geyser, after a period of quiet, has resumed regular activity with an interval of one minute between eruptions.

The White Dome geyser, in Lower Basin, has also become more active and now plays to a height of 50 feet every hour. For many years past it has seldom erupted over 20 feet.

In the Upper Geyser Basin, Morning Glory has changed its color from blue to brilliant green, owing to a decrease in temperature that allows yellow algae, the minute vegetable growth giving color to the geyser, basins, to develop. The green color is produced by the combination of blue water and yellow algae at the geyser's mouth.

A new geyser is developing in the Upper Basin, 300 feet south of the Gifford. It is small at present but will be an important addition to the park's array of spectacular geysers, since it is near the regular lander trails and plays regularly every 10 or 20 minutes.

Naturalist Skinner's observations show a considerable increase in the annual production of the park since last year. Besides the addition of 103 craters to the geysers, there has been a decrease in the number of sheep or more numerous.

Mountain sheep are seen more frequently on Mt. Washburn, and the wary antelope quite frequently near Tower Falls and Camp Roosevelt.

As an added attraction to the park great vessels are lifted or lowered through enormous locks that have cost many millions of dollars and are a monument to American engineering. The longest lock is 900 feet long. One may remain on board during the locking or step ashore and enjoy a promenade while watching the process.

ACRICULTURAL BLOC LOSSES IN FIGHT ON TARIFF RATE

Soy Beans Supply Ground for Argument; Feasibility Also Disposed Of

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Failure of the republican agricultural tariff bloc on a vote, 28 to 22, with its fight for a rate of 1 1/2 cents a pound on soy beans, and the approval, 52 to 13, of the existing emergency rates of 3 cents a pound on unshelled peanuts and four cents a pound on the shelled market, senate consideration Monday of the tariff bill.

The soy bean rate approved was four-tenths of one cent a pound, but Senator Lund, republican, North Dakota, gave notice that he would again seek to have the higher rate adopted.

In re-writing the tariff, the finance committee majority cut the rates on unshelled peanuts to three-fourths of one cent a pound and on shelled peanuts to one and one-half cents a pound.

AFFAIRS ABROAD CAUSE SELLING

French and Belgian Bonds Disposed Of in Quantities on the Exchange

NEW YORK, (AP)—Selling of French and Belgian government bonds, evidently based on apprehension that late developments in Germany may necessitate complete revision or modification of the allied reparations claims, was the outstanding feature of Monday's bond dealings on the stock exchange.

On very persistent liquidation, French 7 1/2s and 8s suffered extreme reversals of 2 1/2 and 2 points respectively, while Belgian 7 1/2s and 8s showed gross declines of 2 1/4 to 2 points. In neither instance were final prices much above minimum quotations of the day.

Practically all of the so-called French municipalities and other issues of that character, floated here during and after the war, showed similar depressing tendencies.

The Three City French loans (Bordeaux, Lyons and Marseille) of six per cent denomination, apartment of Seine 7s, Salsotte 6s and Paris-Lyon Mediterranean railroad 6s were lower by 1-1 1/2 to 3 points.

Some of the neutral issues of northern Europe reacted in sympathy, but British loans were firm to strong, reflecting the steady tone of exchange on London.

Twenty-Seven Only Out of 108 Players Qualify for Further Chance

SKOKIE COUNTRY CLUB, Glenview, Ill.

(AP)—The whirl wheel of the qualifying rounds in the national golf tournament turned one-third of its course Monday, 108 of the 162 contestants of the world's toughest 36 holes for a chance in the final on Thursday and Friday with only 27 reaching the goal.

The end of the day found all of the national and international stars shooting within the coveted circle, although a few had narrow escapes, and a record for two cuts of qualifying play made by Jack Hutchinson, Chicago pro, who held the British open championship last year.

Jack turned in a card of 67-68 for a total of 135, the lowest mark ever made in an American tournament. Mike Brady of Detroit, with 146, Jim Deane of Bolman, Kansas, N. Y. present title holder with 144, Abe Mitchell of England, with another 144, and Joe Kirkwood, the Australian champion, with 146 followed along behind Jack.

The other qualifiers ranged up to 152. The low 24 were to qualify, but they made it 27.

Live Alone With Birds

At the extreme northerly point of the Shastas—a place near the pole that Peckham is a small lonely town, where E. Edgewood of London lives every spring with the sea birds as almost sole companions. For 33 years he has occupied this hut from spring to autumn. For many years he has been the watcher of the Society for the Protection of Birds. Edgewood's long vigil in the absolute loneliness of hills, sky and sea, has been well rewarded. The stock of birds has increased notably, especially the almost great northern divers, fulmars and golden plovers, while there are new colonies of gannets on the cliffs. The birds know the watcher, and the skunk even come to the door of his hut to feed when they find it open each spring.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Burned

The average man loses more dollars to need ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars' output later on. It is the same in buying the right kind of Colic and Diarrhea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.—adv.

Famous Monument Moves

The Washington monument, solid as it is, cannot resist the heat of the sun poured on its southern side on a midsummer day without a slight bending of the gigantic shaft. This is perceptible by means of a copper wire, 174 feet long, hanging in the center of the structure, and carrying a plummet suspended in a vessel of water. At noon in summer the apex of the monument, 550 feet above the ground, is shifted by expansion of the stone a few hundredths of an inch toward the north. High wind cause perceptible motions of the plummet, and in still weather delicate vibrations of the crust of the earth, otherwise unperceived, are registered by it.

NON-UNION MEN ARE PERFORMING STRIKERS' WORK

Operations Resumed at Sacramento Shops of Southern Pacific—Loading of Fruit Cars Now Going Forward

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Tension which had prevailed in Sacramento and Roseville, railroad town, 18 miles northwest of here, for several days Monday was much decreased as operations were resumed at the Sacramento shops of the Southern Pacific railroad and as imported workers proceeded with the work of taking fruit cars at Roseville.

Men agreed that the taking of the fruit cars was proceeding more or less normally.

At both Southern Pacific and Western Pacific shops in Sacramento, striking employees were paid off Monday.

Striking shippers here will preserve order among themselves if their attention to Sheriff Ellis Jones holds good. He appointed 12 strikers as deputy sheriffs, on the understanding they would not go outside their ranks in the exercise of their authority.

Denies Mobilization Rumors

Adjutant General J. J. Dorree took occasion emphatically to deny reports from Chicago and elsewhere that the California guard was being mobilized for strike duty. Adjutant General Dorree declared he could not account for the rumors, other than that they might have been based on the fact that several national guard companies at the state had been holding drills and meeting at their armories preliminary to the annual drill commencement as scheduled from July 15 to 25.

Deputy State Labor Commissioner Arthur Johnson was chary about giving out information about his conference with Roseville union leaders here late Monday. It was admitted that the union men had protested what they declared was the enforced labor of Mexican workers in the Roseville yards under the guns of armed guards.

SEATTLE, (AP)—Patrolman Charles O. Hall.

A coroner's jury previously had reported a verdict of suicide in the Legate case.

SHERIFF TO TAKE CHARGE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., (AP)—With the consent of the city commissioners policing of Cheyenne during the railroad shopmen's strike was turned over to Sheriff George J. Farrell Monday. He was requested to take charge of the necessary to maintain order here. Union Pacific officials declared Monday that 450 of the 1000 employees who walked out July 1, had returned to work. Union leaders, however, disputed the figures.

APPLICATIONS COMING FAST

SPOKANE, (AP)—None of the 450 striking shopmen on the Idaho division of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad had applied for reinstatement when the company's ultimatum expired at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, according to the Idaho Councils. They also reported that the road had given the striking employees until 3 o'clock Monday afternoon to return to work without loss of seniority. Mr. Connolly reports that applications for positions are being received at the rate of a full street car as they will be secured by the end of the week.

SUGGESTS WAGE SCALE OF MARCH

President Offers Concrete Plan for Resumption of Coal Mining

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Harding Monday placed before leaders of employers and employees of the anthracite and unmined bituminous mine fields, a government plan for settling the coal strike. It called for immediate resumption of work by miners now on strike and by March 31, for fixing of permanent wage levels by arbitration and for an investigation to recommend permanent solution of problems in the coal industry. All representatives of the groups concerned Monday night had delayed in their response to the proposal, although union officials informed the president they had no power to give acceptance or refusal, but would summon the general policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America here Saturday to consider the matter. A day of conferences at the White House and at other offices with Secretaries Hoover, Fall and Davis and Attorney General Daugherty participating was taken to bring matters to this stage.

Anthracite Men Silent

Alfred M. Ogil, chairman of the bituminous operators' union, indicated that his associates considered an arbitration plan they had offered last week for district settlements, "the best and fairest way" to get the mines open, but John L. Lewis, president of the union, classed this "as obsolete in the light of the president's proposals to the operators. Although their committee was three times at the White House, maintained silence.

Both bituminous and anthracite sections of the general conference of the coal industry had indicated a deadlock Monday before President Harding brought forward the arbitration plan. The government, "concerned with coal production sufficient to meet the industrial and transportation requirements of the country," he said, "desired to have production resumed."

Propose Immediate Return

He proposed that mine workers should return on the old wage scale and that a commission of five representatives of the public, three of the miners and three of the operators, should fix by force August 1 a permanent wage scale to be held in effect until March 1, 1923. If its deliberations should not result in a scale by August 10, the president further suggested that the wage levels at the time work was stopped should continue until a new scale was ready.

In addition, the commission proposed, the president said, should "investigate exhaustively every phase of the coal industry" and "reveal every cost of production and transportation." Congress would be asked, it was added, to make appropriations to finance and authorize its work.

"I have taken this shortcut to the resumption of operations because I believe it is in the interest of the public welfare," the president concluded.

"When two great forces do not agree there must be a peaceful way to adjustment, and such arbitration opens the way."

ADVANCERS ARE APPROVED

CHARGE ROAD IS EVADING RULES

Action Against Southern Pacific Alleges Attempt to Manufacture Sentiment

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Complaint was filed with the department of justice Monday in behalf of producers and shippers of the Pacific coast against the alleged activities of the Southern Pacific railway in endeavoring to "create sentiment and action against the decision of the supreme court ordering dissolution of the partnership of that road with the Central Pacific." Announcement that the complaint had been filed was made by the California committee of producers and shippers, the statement adding that the protest was based "on efforts of the Southern Pacific railway to stamper commercial organizations into supporting its attempt to evade the intent of the supreme court decision."

Assurance was received, the committee said, that the petition would be considered by the department prior to the next hearing of the dissolution case.

A Pleaser-Wooler

The Dutch patrons of the Hudson and the Mohawk valley were a hardy race. Years ago, says Mr. James Fenimore Cooper in "Legends of a Northern County," I was told the story of the wedding of charming Margritta, wife of Schlecterhorst, wife of Philip Schuyler. It seems that Philip, who was big and stout, came to blows with Margritta's father on the trail near Henssler's creek in a dispute over points or tobacco or rum. Philip was winning when Margritta rushed to the aid of her father and began to beat his antagonist. Philip was so much impressed with her static ability and with her possible value as an ally in those days of red men and danger that he wooed and married her. All that was about the year 1630. I cannot vouch for the story, but it was an old man's tale when I was a boy in Albany, where many people spoke Dutch of the Seventeenth century.

A Full Stop and Then You Step on It!

WHAT kind of a response do you get? Does the motor take all you give it or is there a noticeable slowness in your pick-up? Of course the latter may be due to the motor or clutch but more often it is a symptom of faulty gasoline. The motor ever under perfect conditions cannot deliver any more power than you put into it. Anything worthy of the name of "gasoline" will carry you along at a fair rate after the car has developed a certain amount of momentum. But the pick-up from a dead stop, stiff grades, and long distance traveling bring out the fine qualities in a perfectly balanced gasoline—Conoco. All gasoline isn't balanced. It takes experience, time and money to make it so. But "Conoco" always has stood for the best gasoline procurable and it always will. For complete satisfaction, standardize on Conoco this season. KIWANIS FINDS FIELD OF WORK

"Under-Privileged" Child Has Friend in Organization, Sweeley Says

In extending the helping hand to "under-privileged" children, Kiwanis clubs throughout the United States and Canada are finding their objective and field for labor. M. J. Sweeley, president of the Twin Falls club, told Kiwanians and their wives at an informal business and social meeting Monday evening at the Regocon hotel.

Reports as Delegate

Mr. Sweeley made this statement in the course of his report on the convention of Kiwanis club international at Toronto, which he attended as delegate from the Twin Falls club.

Approximately 80 men and women were seated at the table spread at the Regocon hotel dining room, where the evening's festivities began. Club members and their guests joined in singing several songs, and in addition, vocal numbers were given by Mrs. O. P. Duvall and Mrs. E. H. Masters, with accompaniment played by Mrs. Merlin Butler. Later in the evening the Kiwanians and their ladies adjourned to Shoshone falls for a general good time and midnight dance.

Friendship Strengthened

Friendship existing between the people of the United States and of Canada was stressed by the principal speakers at the convention, Mr. Sweeley said. In some instances, he said, he thought he detected a note of resentment or disappointment on the part of Canadian speakers in respect to the refusal of the United States to enter the league of nations. Senator Beveridge in his address before the convention, replied to these allusions, declaring that the United States was determined on entering the league because of the numerous nationalities composing its citizenship.

Mr. Sweeley paid a tribute to the beauty of the convention city and its surroundings and to the Canadian's methods of law enforcement.

In this case Dr. VanCott is suing for $200 claimed as fees for professional services rendered, at the instance and request, he said, of the sugar company in the case of C. C. Cardwell, an employe, who was injured last October

New System to Replace Overworked Furnaces at Lincoln Building

The board, upon motion of James Pittenger, accepted the annual report of the bookkeeper, F. C. Lynch, and authorized its publication. Publication of the report was awarded to The Observer, the bid of which was lower than those of other of The News or Times.

Report of the treasurer also was accepted and warrants were returned therein in payment of claims against the district in the sum of $355.00.

HANSEN TAKES HARD GAME

Vipont Team Goes Down to Defeat Before Superior Playing of the Visitors

Hansen won from the strong Vipont team, Sunday afternoon at Vipont, in a 10-inning game by the score of 5 to 2. Bases opened up for the hitters and pitched great ball for nine innings, holding the hard-hitting Hanseanites to 11 scattered hits. In the tenth he pelled, and gave way to "Moose" McVey. Goodnight greeted McVey with a scorcher to right, sending Barnard, running for Chambers, to third. Barnard scored when Laury singled to right. McVey, who had been out at first, leaped to left, sending Goodnight and Laury across the platter. Vipont failed to do anything in their half of the tenth, and Hansen went home with the long end of one of the biggest fought battles ever seen at the ballpark.

Frank Fuller, checking for Hansen, twitted a mastery game keeping such hitters as McVey and Riles under control at all times. Eight scattered hits was the best that Vipont could get with its batters.

KIMBERLY DEFEATS BURLEY

The fast Kimberly team mopped a coat of whitewash Sunday afternoon at Kimberly to the Burley team, when they walloped the latter by the score of 19 to 0.

The Difference in Advertising is the Difference in Men

Of itself, advertising is little. And the difference in it are the differences which exist in men.

Just as some men are strong and virile and interesting, so is some advertising. And just as some men are ineffectual and weak and boring, so is some other advertising.

"Does it pay to advertise?" It pays those men who are keen enough students of the public to make it pay them. It pays those men who are truthful, sincere, interesting and believable.

It pays the men whose product deserves the payment, whose brains are keen enough to organize for success and judge enough of the human mind to know how to tell their story with sincerity and interest.

So when you judge advertising, judge it by how it is used and by whom—not of itself and of itself alone.

Remember, an ugly man looks just as ugly in a mirror.

NON-UNION MEN ARE PERFORMING STRIKERS' WORK

Operations Resumed at Sacramento Shops of Southern Pacific—Loading of Fruit Cars Now Going Forward

SACRAMENTO, (P)—Tension which had prevailed in Sacramento and Roseville, railroad town, 18 miles northeast of here, for several days, Monday was much decreased as operations were resumed at the Sacramento shops of the Southern Pacific railroad and as imported workers proceeded with the work of icing fruit cars at Roseville. Reports agreed that the icing of the fruit cars was proceeding more or less normally.

At both Southern Pacific and Western Pacific shops in Sacramento, striking employees were paid off Monday. Striking workmen here will preserve order among themselves if, their promise to Sheriff Zula Jones holds good. He appointed 10 strikers as deputy sheriffs, on the understanding they would not go outside their ranks in the exercise of their authority.

Denies Mobilization Rumors. Adjutant General J. J. Borree took occasion emphatically to deny reports from Chicago and elsewhere that the California guard was being mobilized for strike duty. Adjutant General Borree declared he could not account for the rumors, other than that they might have been based on the fact that several national guard companies about the state had been holding drills and meetings at their armories preliminary to the annual guard encampment at Monterey from July 15 to 25. Deputy State Labor Commissioner Arthur Johnson was chary about giving out information about his conference with Roseville union leaders here late Monday. It was admitted that the union men had protested what they declared was the enforced list of Mexican workers in the Roseville yards under the guns of armed guards.

Hall.

A coroner's jury previously had reported a verdict of suicide in the Legate case.

SUGGESTS WAGE SCALE OF MARCH

President Offers Concrete Plan for Resumption of Coal Mining

WASHINGTON, (P)—President Harding Monday placed before leaders of employers and employees of the anthracite and unionized bituminous mining fields, a government plan for settling the coal strike. It called for immediate resumption of work by miners now out at wage rates of March 31, for fixing of permanent wage levels by arbitration and for an investigation to recommend permanent solution of problems in the coal industry. All representatives of the groups concerned Monday night had delayed definite answers to the proposals, although the union officials informed the president they had no power to give acceptance or refusal, but would support the general policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America here Saturday to consider the matter. A day of conferences at the White House and at other offices with Secretaries Horner, Fall and Davis and Attorney General Daugherty participating was taken to bring matters to this stage.

Anthracite Men Silent. Alfred M. Ogil, chairman of the bituminous operators' group, indicated that his associates considered an arbitration plan they had offered last week for district settlements, "the best and fairest way" to get the mines open, but John L. Lewis, president of the union, closed this "as obsolete in the light of the president's proposals." Anthracite operators, although their committee was three times at the White House, maintained silence.

Both bituminous and anthracite sections of the general conference of the coal industry had indicated a deadlock Monday before President Harding brought forward the arbitration plan. The government, "concerned with coal production sufficient to meet the industrial and transportation requirements of the country," he said, "desired to have production resumed."

Proposes Immediate Return

He proposed that mine workers should return on the old wage scale and that a commission of five representatives of the public, three of the miners and three of the operators, should fix before August 10, a temporary basic wage scale to be held in effect until March 1, 1923. If its deliberations should not result in a scale by August 10, the president further suggested that the wage levels at the time work was stopped should continue until a new scale was ready.

In addition, the commission proposed, the president said, should "investigate exhaustively every phase of the coal industry," and "reveal every cost of production and transportation." Questions would be asked, it was added, to make appropriations to finance and authorize its work.

"I have taken this shortcut to the resumption of operations because I believe it is in the interest of the public welfare," the president concluded. "When two great forces do not agree there must be a peaceful way to adjustment, and such arbitration opens the way."

ADVANCES ARE APPROVED

WASHINGTON, (P)—Approval of advances not to exceed $30,000,000 to the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association for the purpose of financing the orderly marketing of cotton was announced Monday by the war finance corporation.

Action Against Southern Pacific—Alleges Attempt to Manufacture Sentiment

WASHINGTON, (P)—Complaint was filed with the department of justice Monday in behalf of producers and shippers of the Pacific coast against the alleged activities of the Southern Pacific railway in endeavoring to "create sentiment and action against the decision of the supreme court ordering dissolution of the partnership of that road with the General Pacific." Announcement that the complaint had been filed was made by the California committee of producers and shippers, the statement adding that the protest was based "on efforts of the Southern Pacific railway to stampede commercial organizations into supporting its attempt to evade the intent of the supreme court decision." The Assurance was notified the committee said, that the petition would be considered by the department prior to the next hearing of the dissolution case.

A Pioneer Wedding. The Dutch patrons of the Hudson and the Mohawk valleys were of hairy race. Years ago, says Mr. James Fenimore Cooper in "Legends of a Northern County," I was told the story of the wedding of charming Margerita, and Richteckhorst, wife of Philip Schuyler. It seems that Richteckhorst was big and stout, came to blows with Margerita's father on the trail near Rensselaerswyck in a dispute over pelts or tobacco or rum. Philip was winning when Margerita rushed to the aid of her father and began to box his antagonist. Philip was so much impressed with her athletic ability and with her possible value as an ally in those days of red men and danger that he wooed and married her. All that was about the year 1650. I cannot vouch for the story, but it was an old man's tale when I was a boy in Albany, where many people spoke Dutch of the seventeenth century.

WHAT kind of a response do you get? Does the motor take all you give it or is there a noticeable slowness in your pick-up? Of course the latter may be due to the motor or clutch but more often it is a symptom of faulty gasoline. The motor even under perfect conditions cannot deliver any more power than you put into it. Anything worthy of the name of "gasoline" will carry you along at a fair rate after the car has developed a certain amount of momentum. But the pick-up from a dead stop, stiff grades, and long distance traveling bring out the fine qualities in a perfectly balanced gasoline—Conoco.

KIWANIS FINDS FIELD OF WORK

"Under-Privileged" Child Has Friend in Organization, Sweeley Says

In extending the helping hand to "under-privileged" children, Kiwanis clubs throughout the United States and Canada are finding their objective and field for labor. Mr. J. Sweeley, president of the Twin Falls club, told Kiwanians and their wives at an informal business and social meeting Monday evening at the Rogerson hotel.

Mr. Sweeley made his statement in the course of his report on the convention of Kiwanis club international at Toronto, which he attended as delegate from the Twin Falls club.

Approximately 80 men and women were seated at the table spread at the Rogerson hotel dining room, where the evening's festivities began. Club members and their guests joined in singing several songs, and in addition vocal numbers were given by Mrs. O. E. Davall and Mrs. F. H. Masters, with accompaniment played by Mac McCalla.

Friendship Strengthened

Friendship existing between the people of the United States and of Canada was stressed by the principal speakers at the convention, Mr. Sweeley said. In some instances, he said, he thought he detected a note of resentment or dissatisfaction on the part of Canadian speakers in respect to the refusal of the United States to enter the league of nations.

Mr. Sweeley paid a tribute to the beauty of the convention city and to the surroundings and to the Canadian's methods of law enforcement.

HANSEN TAKES HARD GAME

Vipont Team Goes Down to Defeat Before Superior Playing of the Visitors

Hansen won from the strong Vipont team Sunday afternoon at Vipont, in a 10-inning game by the score of 5-2. Bates opened up for the visitors and pitched the ball for nine innings, scattering hits. In the tenth he locked Chambers in the slots with the ball, and gave way to "Murph" Morley. Goodnight greeted Morley with a scorching right, sending Barand, third baseman, to third. Barand scored when Larry singled, filling the bases. E. Fuller sent a Texas leaguer to left, sending Goodnight and Larry across the platter. Vipont failed to do anything in their half of the tenth and Hansen went home with the long end of one of the hardest fought battles ever seen at the camp. Frank Fuller, checking for Hansen, threw a mastery game keeping such hitters as Morley and Biles under control at times. Kelly scattered hits, but the best that Vipont could do with his battery.

A return game with Vipont will be played at Hansen July 20. The batteries Sunday for Hansen were E. Fuller and Biles; for Vipont Bates, Morley and Biles.

The newly organized Twin Falls baseball team, under the management of Earl Alvorth, will go to Kimberly Sunday to play the return game of the season. Kimberly, fresh from their victory over Burley, feel confident that they will even matters with the local aggregation. Although the locals have played but one game with the present lineup, they are working out every evening this week for Sunday's battle, and the team should be in tip-top shape by the end of the week. The game will start at 8 o'clock sharp.

KIMBERLY DEFEATS BURLEY

The fast Kimberly tea-mapped a score of fifteen Sunday afternoon at Kimberly to the Burley team, who they walked the latter by the score of 15 to 0.

Superior fielding and heavy hitting tells the story. Burley has a good team and a couple of more weeks of practice will make the rest of the team on the bench sit up and take notice.

The batteries for Kimberly in Sunday's game were Lemp, Thompson and Courts.

FILER WINS CLOBE GAME

Filer took a hard-fought game Sunday afternoon at the Filer fair grounds from the Clover nine by the score of 13 to 12. The game saw several starts to finish, and the outcome was in doubt up to the final inning. A large crowd witnessed the game. The batteries for Filer were Sandoz and Snelgen; for Clover, Pelako and Johnson.

Something Going to Happen: Two mountaineers had long enjoyed a blood feud with each other, but at last neighbors, desiring peace, managed to bring them together.

Real Republicanism: In a recent letter written for publication, President Harding said: "We seek no favors, but we do believe in American genius and capacity under equal opportunity."

That is good Republican doctrine. It may well be lifted out of the ship subsidy connection in which Mr. Harding used it and applied to the tariff policy.

Old Jerome and Dave and the older men gathered in one corner of the stockade for a council of war. "The boy had fought it plain that the stock-piled party was at least two days behind the three Indians from whom he had escaped, so that there was no danger that day, and they could wait till night to send messengers to warn the settlers outside, it was easier within the fort. Meanwhile, Jerome would dispatch five men with Dave to scout for the three Indians who might be near by in the woods, and the boy who saw them slip out the rear gate of the fort, it once knew the way, so, shook his head, and waved his hand to say that his late friends were gone back to hurry on the big war party to the attack, now that the three Indians were gone.

Another sender appeared and cried to Bud to bring the "light" to her cabin. She had been unearthing clothes for the "little brethren," and Bud helped to put them on. In a few minutes the lad reappeared in fringed hunting shirt and trousers, wringing in them most uncomfortably, for they made him itch, but at the same time wearing them proudly.

On the mighty wilderness the sun sank slowly, and old Jerome sat in the western tower to watch alone. The silence was oppressive and the night significant. It meant that the boy's theory was right; the three Indians had gone back to their fellows, and when darkness came the old man sent runners to the outlying cabins to warn the inmates to take refuge within the fort. And the gathering was none too soon. The hooping of oars started before dawn. A familiar arrow blazed from the woods, thudded into the roof of the cabin, spluttered feebly on a dew-drenched rafter and went out. Savage war-whoops rent the air, and the battle was on. All day the fight went on. There were feltns of attack in front and rushes from the rear, and there were rushes from all sides. The wounded were tended and cooked and cared for the wounded. Thrice an Indian reached the wall of the stockade and set a cabin on fire, but no one of the three got back to the woods alive. The stranger boy sat stoically in the center of the stockade, watching everything, and making his effort to take part. Late in the afternoon the ammunition began to run low and the muddy discoloration of the river showed that the rain had begun to tunnel under the walls of the fort. And yet a last rally was made just before sunset. A body pushed against Dave in the tower and Dave saw the stranger boy at his side with his bow and arrow. A feverish smile later he brand a yell from the top of the stockade high over the din, and he saw the feathered tip of an arrow shaking in the breast of a big Indian who staggered and fell behind a bush. Just at that moment the walls of the fort from the woods behind—the yells of white men that were answered by joyful yells within the fort:

"The Virginians! The Virginians!" And as the rescuers dashed into light on horse and afoot, Dave saw the first leap the wall of the stockade and disappear behind the fleeing Indians.

"Come back to 'em," he granted to himself. The gates were thrown open. Old Jerome and his men rushed out, and belated and rescued the three men from the woods behind—the yells of white men that were answered by joyful yells within the fort:

"Get in! Get in, quick!" yelled old Jerome, and the three men came as soon as the Indians reached the cover of thick woods, and came the valley did. Three men fell—one, the leader of the Virginians, whose head flopped forward as he entered the gate and was caught in the arms. Not another sound came from the woods, but again Dave from the tower saw the cane-brush rustle at the edge of a thicket, saw a head thrust forward with the palm of a hand toward the fort, and saw the stranger boy emerging—this time with a bloody scalp dangling in his left hand. Dave sprang down and met him at the gate. The boy shook his head and arose proudly, and a crimson scar on the scalp, and Dave made out from his explanation that once before the lad had tried to kill his tormenter and that the scar was the sign. In the center of the enclosure the wounded Virginian lay dead, and when old Jerome stripped the shirt from his breast he shook his head gravely. The wounded man opened his eyes just in time to see and he smiled.

"I show it," he said faintly, and then his eyes caught the boy with the sculp, were fixed steadily and began to widen.

"Who is That Boy?" He Asked Sharply.

"Who is that boy?" he asked sharply.

"Never mind now," said old Joel soothingly, "you must keep still!"

"Come back here!" commanded the wounded man, and still searching the lad he said sharply again:

"Who is that boy?" Nor would he have his hand dressed or even take the cup of water handed to him until old Joel briefly told the story, when he lay back on the ground and closed his eyes.

Darkness fell. In each tower a watcher kept his eyes strained toward the black silent woods. The dying man was laid on a rude bed within one cabin, and old Joel lay on the floor of it close to the door. The stranger had refused to sleep in and huddled himself in a blanket on the ground in one corner of the stockade. Men, women and children fell to a deep and weary sleep. An hour later, the boy in the corner there made his blanket, and when a moment later, Lydia Ross, feverish and thirsty, rose from her bed to get a drink of water outside her door, she struck about on the threshold. The lad, startle-looked, but for his breath-cloot and swinging his bloody scalp over his head, was stamping around the fire—denying the stamp-denial of the strange man—his fierce, guttural sense that he was not to be seen in the blaze, stricken white with fright and horror, saw the boy too paralyzed to move and he stopped, staring at her a moment with savage rage, and went on again. Old Joel's body fell, stark and dead, and again the boy laid, with another oath and a threatening gesture. Joel motioned to the corner of the stockade, and with a stare of defiance in his black eyes the lad stalked slowly and proudly away. From behind him the voice of the wounded man called, and old Joel turned. There was a ghastly smile on the Virginian's pallid face.

"I saw it," he said painfully. "That's—that's my son!"

REMOVE BARRIER TO FREE SPEECH IN TWIN FALLS

City Commissioners Repeal Ordinance Requiring Mayor's Permit for Public Assemblies; Face Problem

Voting early in its session Monday night to repeal an ordinance prohibiting speaking on the streets and public grounds not authorized by the mayor's permit, Twin Falls city commission decided before adjournment at midnight that it had removed barriers against all sorts of demonstrations and assemblies and it was indicated that an ordinance to provide for licensing of demonstrations and similar affairs considered for some weeks in a previous session, would be fast-tracked on an early session. Upon suggestion of the mayor the rule requiring three readings of the proposed repealing ordinance was dispensed with and it was adopted by unanimous vote of the commission's present. Commissioner S. B. All being absent. It was introduced by Commissioner J. T. Roberts.

World Events

A resolution providing for cessation of license previously granted to Mrs. Florence Squibb and Mrs. Jessie Ryan to operate lodging houses, however, was placed upon its first reading, and final action will not be taken for two weeks in order to give an opportunity for the women to be heard. This resolution was sponsored by Commissioner Roberts. Mrs. Squibb and Mrs. Ryan are operators of some which have been twice fined by the police within the past two months, each raid disclosing quantities of liquor.

The problem of how to dispose of garbage eluded a generous share of the commission's attention and finally it was decided to call for bids for hauling "tin cans, household garbage and rags" from the residence districts. The subject was introduced by Dr. Harry Davis of Fourth avenue east, who complained that the garbage hauler employed by the city had refused to take away garbage other than rags from his residence but had demanded extra pay for removing kitchen garbage. There was some discussion as to terms of the contract under which the garbage hauler was employed. J. T. Krivanc, superintendent of streets and waterworks and sanitary inspector, gave it as his opinion that it was the duty of the garbage hauler to carry away everything that was placed in cans for that purpose.

Massen Promise Opposition

L. S. Massen told the commissioners that the system of municipal garbage removal as employed here for three years was most objectionable in terms of health and said that he would oppose its continuation to the extent of instituting injunction proceedings. His proposal was that individual householders be required to dispose of garbage at their own expense. "It is unfair," he said, "to require one-half the residents who are the taxpayers to pay for the removal of the other's garbage." He offered by all of the kitchen garbage if the city could guarantee its delivery to him, and expressed skepticism as to the city's ability to do this.

The commissioners also authorized calling for bids for men and teams to do the removal of the other's garbage. John Wolfenden, a representative of the Van Deusen agency were on hand to discuss with the commissioners, plans for making an audit of the city's affairs covering the last five years. Decision was reached to call for bids on the work involved.

and a representative of a supply house offered to furnish it for $1.50 a foot. According to the fire chief extensive repairs are needed at the fire station. He enumerated the following: new beds and bedding and bed bug exterminator.

In connection with its consideration of the affairs of the fire department, the commission authorized dismissal of J. A. Mangham and Cliff Lewis as fire fighters and employment of William Hendricks and E. W. French in their stead.

Upon recommendation of J. T. Krivanc, street and waterworks superintendent, the commission authorized the purchase of a carload of alum at a cost of $1,350 delivered for use in water purification, and of new springs for the street flusher costing between $70 and $125. It took under consideration the superintendent's statement that a water main on Addison avenue west to the county general hospital would have to be replaced in the near future with cast iron pipe. Action of alkali on metal hoops around wood staves in the pipe now in place there, the commission was told, has so weakened the link that breaks are frequent and costly. One such break occurred Sunday afternoon, the superintendent said, and repairs were not completed until 11 o'clock Monday forenoon. Four breaks have occurred in the line recently.

Police Chief Makes Report

George M. Eckert, chief of police, brought to the attention of the commissioners a case of violation of ordinance involving distribution of large paper posters put out by a Bull concern; a dangerous situation existing on Main avenue, north where a sidewalk has been undermined, he said, and his recommendation for a regulation to prohibit persons under the age of 14 years driving automobiles.

C. E. Blitsoe was assured that consideration would be given his complaint when he complained of where all of the drainage from the culverts block was permitted to run off through an alley back on his premises on Second street east. An exception to requirement of an ordinance providing that gasoline tanks must be installed not less than 25 feet distant from fire plugs was made by the commission in the case of E. O. Haves, who was permitted to install a tank within 15 feet of a fire plug at the place of business on Shoshone street south. Haves told the commissioners he could not install the tank farther from the plug without getting onto another person's property.

Present Auctioneer's Case

While before the commission, Haves took occasion to discuss the question of municipal license for auctioneers and to recommend a "duty in gratitude to Mr. Lee," that the prevailing scale be revised to provide for a lesser license fee. He charged that a former administration for reasons that he could give, had discriminated against H. B. Lee, auctioneer, after raising the license fee from $5 to $20 a quarter, by permitting outside auctioneers to ply their calling here upon payment of the $5 fee. When the subject had been introduced by Haves, Lee made a further explanation of the situation. He said that he felt that the fee should be reduced; that he had not paid the fee for the last quarter and that he did not expect to continue in business unless the fee were reduced. Upon recommendation of the mayor, the question was passed until the next meeting with the understanding that it be the duty of a scheduler to be worked out that would be "fair to all."

Would Be Inspector

Application for the position of meat and dairy inspector, being filled temporarily by W. W. Havel, is expected to be made in person by W. C. McPherson, who came to Idaho last fall with Scott's "modern catarrh" from Brooklyn to Roseworth. He presented his certificates of graduation from the Kansas City Veterinary College and veterinary school of the University of the State of New York together with other credentials. He said that he was leaving Roseworth but would welcome an opportunity to remain in Idaho if he could find something to do here. With assurance given by H. C. Alexander, that the report of James B. Hall, former city treasurer, for the quarter ending June 30 was "absolutely correct, at least, in accordance with ledger entries," the commission accepted the report and ordered its publication.

Resolutions were adopted defining the duties of appointive officers and fixing the salaries and wages of officers and employes.

AFTERNOON PASSENGER SET AHEAD TWO HOURS

Short Line Conforms Train Schedule to Chamber of Commerce Suggestion

Within the next week or ten days, according to assurance given by D. S. Spencer, general passenger agent of the Oregon Short Line, the westbound Twin Falls branch passenger train No. 155 will be scheduled to leave Middlesboro at 12:30 p. m. and arrive at Twin Falls at 2:45 p. m., or two hours earlier than at present.

Word to this effect came to the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce in a letter from Mr. Spencer. The change suggested by Mr. Spencer, in view of the suggestion made by the chamber of commerce some three weeks ago when the time of the arrival here of the train was changed from 3:45 to 4:45 p. m. Mr. Spencer suggests that the schedule now proposed will be beneficial to both passengers and mail standpoints.

Chamber of commerce officials believe that the change now proposed will meet with general approval here, but in the event that there are objections, announcement has been made that the chamber of commerce directors at their meeting Tuesday evening will receive and consider any adverse opinion.
