

PRESIDENT ASKS MINE OWNERS TO RESUME MINING

Offer of Bituminous Operators to Place Properties at Government's Disposal Draws Note of Praise

WASHINGTON, July 17, (AP)—Bituminous coal mine operators were "invited" by President Harding at the White House today (16) to return to your mine properties and resume operations after they had replied to the president's tender of arbitration for settling the national coal strike with a collective offer to put their properties and their service at the disposal of the government "in this crisis".

Speaking as chairman of the group of operators after the White House conference, Alfred M. Ogle said the employers would make the attempt to resume operations.

"Meanwhile the miners union, through an adjournment also did its controlling policy committee, made certain its refusal to accept the arbitration proposal and many of its adherents immediately left Washington. The bituminous operators were likewise not a unit in accepting the government arbitration proposal, but the president said that a large majority of them, by a qualified acceptance had given him occasion to express my own and the public's gratitude."

There were intimations in official circles that all the implications of the decision to ask that the mines be opened in districts where men were willing to work, falling sufficient loss safeguarding.

Split as to Details

A day and a night of almost continuous sessions did not suffice to make the bituminous operators united for acceptance of the details of arbitration proposals of the government, but through anthracite operators that week had given quick acceptance. On a final vote, a general letter accepting the principle of arbitration and making the tender of mines and services, was agreed upon and presented to the president's attention.

A delegation consisting of 15 operators took the message to the White House and after their visit a statement explaining the procedure was given out, as well as the text of the president's response.

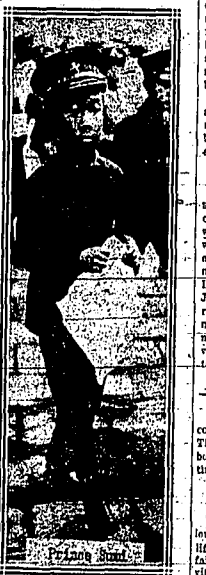

The White House statement which presented a transcript of the president's remarks to the operators follows: "At five o'clock this afternoon the coal operators made an extended verbal and written report to the president. All of them subscribed broadly to the proposals to arbitrate."

"The majority of the districts represented in the conference accepted the president's proposal unconditionally. A minority of the districts joined in the conference in subscribing to the general principles of arbitration and collective bargaining."

Statement to Operators

President Harding's statement to the operators was as follows: "Gentlemen: I have your decision. I would not be frank if I did not confess a disappointment at your lack of unanimity. To the large majority of you, who have pledged readiness to resume activity under the government's proposal, I must

Rate on Cotton Occupies Senate

Several Controversies Slow Down Work—Lenroot Continues His Fight

WASHINGTON, July 17, (AP)—The senate moved slowly today with the administration tariff bill, becoming involved in several controversies over rates in the cotton schedule. Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, continued his fight against the duties proposed but was unsuccessful in his efforts to have the committee rates cut down.

The additional duty of 12 per cent on fancy woven cloth, was approved, 31 to 22. With the adoption of a committee provision that the total duties on cotton cloth of any kind should not exceed 35 per cent ad valorem, the senate completed consideration of amendments to the cloth sections of the cotton schedules. It then got into controversy over a compensatory duty of 10 cents a pound proposed on long staple cotton in yarn finer than number 70, and 10 cents on long staple cotton contained in finished cloth, but this rate was approved, 32 to 22.

Other Rates Approved. Other duties approved included: Cotton window holland and oil cloth, three cents per square yard and 20 per cent ad valorem; water proof cloth, five cents per square yard and 30 per cent ad valorem. Tapestry, 45 per cent ad valorem, a reduction of five per cent from the original rate proposed by the committee.

Pile fabrics 60 per cent ad valorem, a reduction of five per cent from the original duty proposed; heavy wares fabrics 40 per cent ad valorem, five per cent ad valorem, 20 per cent ad valorem, 35 per cent ad valorem, this rate less than first proposed.

This has been made possible by funds contributed by American children through the Junior Red Cross. These children have never learned to play nor to laugh, but every day outside the old prisons, sitting in their schools, they were being played prisoners' have burn the city, duck on the rock, hop Scotch and other games that have made the American children the brightest in the world.

The girls indulge in all the games and frolics popular among their little sisters in America. During school hours they are taught also to sew, embroider and care for the sick.

Ease and Comfort in Java. Living in Java is so inexpensive that a European resident in moderate circumstances may keep many servants; while the Mohammedan residents, whose religion allows them to own slaves, are usually able to support the full number. Of late, however, the U. S. L. penetrating in a degree even to Java, has forced them somewhat to reduce their families. In Java if a nobleman marries he must have a very little to do to the ceremony, but very kindly send his sword or his hat to represent him.

VERDICT AGAINST ALLEGED SLAYER

Coroner's Inquest Finds Mrs. Phillips Responsible for the Death of Meadows Woman

LOS ANGELES, July 17, (AP)—A coroner's inquest today found Mrs. Clara Phillips responsible for the death of Mrs. Anna Meadows, her supposed rival for the affection of A. L. Phillips, her husband, and then the law having had its way with the smiling prisoner for a time, husband and wife were permitted to see each other for the first time since she was arrested. Mrs. Meadows was beaten to death with a hammer.

Today's inquest, which took place in the jailer's office, was adjourned. Whatever the two said to each other was not caught by the attorneys and newspapermen present.

Phillips, his wife and the counsel he has engaged for her later held a conference in another room. The attorneys issued a statement saying the circumstances of Mrs. Meadows' death as presented to the public thus far were incomplete and asking that judgment be suspended until the entire matter had been brought out in detail.

Witness Reports Story. The inquest verdict was based chiefly upon the testimony of Mrs. Peggy Caffee that she accompanied Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Phillips on the drive last Wednesday which terminated in the tragedy. She declared that Mrs. Phillips accused Mrs. Meadows of accepting as gifts from Phillips, a set of direct for her automobile and a wrist watch. Mrs. Meadows declared this was not true and Mrs. Phillips responded with blows with a hammer she had taken from under her cape. Caffee testified.

The First National bank, where Mrs. Meadows was employed, gave to the district the first official statement that the first and watch had been bought by Mrs. Meadows with money she received in settlement of a claim against a street railway company for the death of her husband eleven months ago.

TWIN FALLS MEN WIN AT KIMBERLY

Lack of Control on Part of 'Nig' Lemp Big Factor in Result

Wildness on the part of 'Nig' Lemp, Kimberly's star checker, paved the way for a 7 to 4 victory for Twin Falls Sunday afternoon at the Kimberly grounds, over Ben Train's Kimberly independents.

With a 'kicker' conception as to where the plate was located, Lemp would have won from the Twin Falls aggregation, as every run made was the result of wildness on his part.

Oliver started on the mound for the locals, and for 6 innings gave a fine exhibition of pitching. Two hits and one run were the lot for the locals, and on the east were able to garner from the southpaw during his 6 inning stay on the rubber. 'Lefty' fanned 3 men and walked three.

Don Liville replaced Oliver in the 6th, and the Kimberly side took kindly to his 'sloober' ball, striking him for 2 runs and two hits in the 6th, and another in the 7th. In the 8th and 9th, Don resorted to his underhanded delivery, and held Kimberly safe.

Good Plays Are Common

Pleanty of fine plays featured the game, which was witnessed by a large crowd of fans. Three fast double plays were executed by the local team the last one ending the game after one was out. With Riley on first by grace of Phil Fitz, the outstanding feature in the local's hitting, Phil driving in three of the seven runs made by the localities. Thompson led the attack for Kimberly with a double that was as fast as a grasshopper.

Wahl's catch of Milton's foul back of the autos near a great many fans, in the fourth 'Ed' Thompson came into the limelight by pulling down Kieffer's long drive to left. The hitting of Kieffer was the outstanding feature in the local's batting. Phil driving in three of the seven runs made by the localities. Thompson led the attack for Kimberly with a double that was as fast as a grasshopper.

Only Control Needed

That Twin Falls was lucky to win was the opinion of a great many fans, who with better control Lemp would have defeated the Twin Falls team. The locals will journey to Hansen next Sunday for a clash with that team.

FILER LOSES TO HANSEN

Hits and Errors Severely Divided with Those of Lattie Coming at More Opportune Times

FILER - (Special to The News) - Hansen won from the local team here Sunday afternoon, by the score of 22 to 10.

Sheffer started on the mound for Filer, but gave way to Diglio in the fifth. The two local brothers did the throwing for the visitors, while Patton did the receiving.

Hits and errors were evenly divided, with Hansen's hits coming at the right time.

The local team will play the fast Eden team next Sunday at Eden.

BIG LUMBER COMPANY BUYS 235 MILLION FEET TIMBER

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—The Forest Service of the United States today announced the purchase of 235,000,000 board feet along the upper Snake river, Shoshone national forest, Washington. Areas already printed, which are a good bet for future sale, contain approximately 1,200,000,000 feet of timber. Under the proposed plan of forest management the average yearly cut will be limited to 40,000,000 board feet. Forty years will be required to cut out the existing merchantable timber, by which time the present immature timber will be ready for the ax. By the practice of scientific forestry, logging operations can thus be carried on without

The forests of the sale area consist chiefly of mature Douglas fir, hemlock, cedar and white pine in mixture. The contract here made for the timber, which is subject to re-planting at three-year intervals, was $273,275, net proceeds. The plan for the management of the timber of this watershed was reviewed and approved by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

A Japanese corner in a room may be artistic if simplicity is carefully worked for. A Japanese screen of black satin gold embroidered, or printed, with silk, makes a good background for this corner. Either a teak-wood cabinet or stand continues the effect and a Japanese print for the wall with Japanese lotus plants in a shallow bowl placed either on top of the stand or cabinet completes it.

DOCTOR'S DILEMMA IN CHINA

Ignorant—and Superstitious—Native Beseech Physician to Perform All 'Kinds of Impossibilities.'

The rain was coming in sheets, and we had to stop at three this afternoon. Since then I have had a number of patients. A boy of eleven who fell over a cliff and broke his arm, eleven months ago, is here with all his relatives, asking me to make the bones grow together again. There was no treatment for the arm when the accident happened, for the native doctors know nothing of surgery. They found some vile-smelling concoction to the arm with bamboo splints and put another plaster of the same mixture on the back, "to draw the bone up." The arm is now useless. I suggested an amputation, but the relatives will not consent to a mutilation of the body. The boy tried to prostrate me, by opening and closing his hand, that the arm had life, and he would not believe me when I told him that the ends of the bone could not be brought together, except by an operation. An old woman, bedridden for many years, is lying in the rain, on a stretcher made of sackcloth and bamboo poles, while her half-silly husband, who almost fell into the water when he came up the plank, pleads with me to give her some medicine to make her feet walk, her tongue talk and her fingers able to hold her chop sticks. A poor girl with tubercular sinuses in her bound foot tells me that she is to be married soon and that her future husband says he will beat her if she comes to him in poor health.

About four o'clock we went out for a bit of a walk. A poor woman on the bank held out her emaciated baby and asked me to make it see. Some ignorant medical practitioner had run needles into its eyes to drive demons out of its stomach. The mother, offered to bow before every shrine within a radius of three miles if I would only give her baby power to look up into her face.—From "A Foreigner in a Cargo Boat," by William L. Hall, in Asia Magazine.

Pillings Now Made of Paper

Pillings, for substituting supports are now being made of paper in California, the chief recommendation of which is the fact that they are not subject to attack by the termites which ruin wooden piles in a short time. On a long wooden cylinder a long roll of tarred paper with glued edges is wound and covered with cord. Over this another band of paper, much narrower, is wound diagonally like the banding on a sawed-off arm. The cylinder is revolved while it is bound with more cord, but glue being applied continuously. After three layers of paper have been put in place, the wooden cylinder is removed and the paper cylinder is reinforced with a course mesh.

A mixture of cement and sand is squirted all over the cylinder, and several cylinders are joined end to end with the same cement so as to make a pile 60 feet long and from 18 to 50 inches in diameter. A square steel head, is fitted over the top to receive the shocks of the pile-driver.

Christian and Pagan Speakers

A strange mix of approach is given by a new enterprise in Japan. The Japanese paper Maimichi brings the information that the Christian school "Kwansei-gakuin" in Kobe, and the Buddhist "Koyasan" College, here entered into an agreement according to which Christian preachers are to lecture to the Buddhist students on Christianity, and the Buddhist lecturers are to speak on their religion in the Christian school. The initial lectures have already been given.

Motor to School

Every day in the school year 14,000 children make up the school in North Carolina. Consideration of the enormous rural schoolhouses in the high grade central school is going forward rapidly in this state. Ninety-three per cent of children carried to school at state expense are transported in motor vehicles.

Not such a bad come-back at that

WE WERE all sitting IN THE smoking car. AND HARRY, who admits HE'S A born comedian. TURNED TO me and said, "I'D BEEN reading about SPIRIT MESSAGES, and guess WHAT HAPPENED to me. I DREAMED my watch was gone, AND WOKED and looked. OF COURSE I had to bid. AND ASK, "Was it gone?" AND HE said, "No." BUT IT WAS "GO." SO THEY kidded me till I THOUGHT I'd got hunk. SO I said, "Well, I DREAMED one day, WHILE RIDING with Harry, THAT THE barn was burning. BUT WOKED up and gosh, IT WAS HARRY'S cigarette." AND HARRY said, "NOT TODAY, old dear." I'M SMOKING your kind now." AND PULLED a pack OF "SATISFY'S." AND THE only come-back I COULD score up was, "ISN'T THAT glassine wrapper GREAT for keeping. CIGARETTES FROM drying. EVEN in hot air!"

FEDERAL POLICY AWAITS OUTCOME

Deliberation and Careful Consideration to Rule in Handling of the Strike

WASHINGTON, July 17, (AP)—Occupied almost exclusively with endeavors to bring about a resumption of work in the coal mines, federal officials of the government marked time today in the railroad strike situation. Indications were given that the suspension of activity with respect to the railroad troubles was deliberate and for the purpose of giving full attention to the coal strike.

Officials of the state of railroad, which presents unusual features in that it is in the hands of a receiver appointed by a federal court, still tonight studied the final report of the inspector general of the eighth corps area, who, on instructions from Major General Hines, the corps area commander, has been in Texas, where all disorders have occurred, to make an investigation.

Governor's Action Delayed
The inspector general, Colonel Lincoln, in a telegram to the war department late in the day, said Governor Neff of Texas has announced that he would be a few days delay before he announced what steps would be taken by the state to proceed.

The first report was from Denison and said that it prevailed there when the strike arrived because an attempt was being made to operate the railway shops and no trains practically were being moved. The federal officer is understood to have been told that the violence would result if the shops were opened and trains moved with non-union labor.

The blaze originated in the basement under the refrigerators, and is believed to have been caused by defective wiring. The loss was covered by insurance.

HAVE NO WORRY ABOUT DATES

In Fortunate Albania They Knew Nothing of Such Things as Calendars or Clocks.
Calendars and clocks are luxuries in Albania. The untortured peasantry know only three periods of time—morning, noon and night, and two seasons of the year, winter and summer. Days and dates are unknown to them. Nor have they any conception of distances. When a traveler asks an Albanian the distance of one point from another, he never answers in miles or kilometers, but "it is half a day, it is two days, it is a week." When an Albanian makes an appointment, he is considered to have kept it if he comes within two or three hours of the time set.

With the absence of calendars, the people do not know their correct ages, especially those in the country districts. In this respect the women of Albania enjoy an advantage over their sisters in foreign countries who guard so jealously the secret of their years. One Albanian woman Albanian woman is unknown; even to herself.

At Fifteen—She does not love me, she has hang myself in her father's arms.
At Twenty—The world does not understand me. Life is a failure.
At Thirty-five—Why didn't I marry Mabel instead of Helen. Mabel always understood me.
At Forty-five—Now, if I were President of the United States I would—
At Sixty—This isn't such a bad old world after all.

Arabs Use Ostrich Bark.
A novel way of catching fish by Arabs was described by Lieutenant Commander A. S. Ewell-Stanton in describing the work of the British gunboats on the river Tigris above Baghdad. The natives, there, he said, "cut a ground bait of tuns of dough containing a small quantity of opium. The fish swallowed that and, becoming stupefied, floated about with their white bellies upmost. Arabs went in pursuit of them on rafts, spearing which they unheeded with their feet while the hands were free to hold the landing net."

True Sayings.
"The love that causes two hearts to beat as one does not guarantee a continuous performance," wrote the late Edgar Saltus. He also made this true observation: "Life is packed with delights which the majority of us never enjoy. The world is full of charming people—whom few of us ever meet."

Abductor Rivaling Venus.

PARIS ETCHER FOUND ARTIST

Marketed Prints Which Brought Fame to Soldier of the American Expeditionary Force.

Alonzo C. Webb, the American soldier who has won sudden fame in Paris art circles by his distinctive etchings, was content to pass his printout among his filemates—One day, however, while he was having his etchings printed by the old-fashioned process called "gallo duque," the printer said: "Why don't you sell these etchings?" "They're not good enough," replied Webb.

"You're crazy," said the printer; "you wouldn't mind selling them, would you? Don't you need the money?" "Yes, God knows I need it, but I never thought of selling these things," rejoined Webb.

The old man gave Webb a note to a dealer in the Rue de Rivoli who took "on deposit" one each of five prints. "The very next day Webb received a letter at his home at Belleville, asking for three more to replace those the dealer had sold the first day. "That must have been a happy morning at Belleville," I remarked, somewhat stirred at this turning point in the life story.

"Not especially," Webb replied. "I'm partly Scotch and don't often get excited. I take good luck just as I take bad. I rarely even feel about good luck."

"But don't you describe yourself as a delightful thrill?" "The pleasure is no less in the aggregate. I take it in a quieter form; it lasts longer and there is no reaction."—Charles H. Grasty in the New York Times.

To Make Scientific Investigations.
Mountain miners in the Andes do heavy labor in a rarefied atmosphere that makes the slightest effort fatiguing to newcomers, says the Scientific American, and Canadian scientists are in Peru to discover whether this immunity of the miners is due to changes in the blood or to other functions. The scientists will yield their own blood, both at sea level and at three-mile altitude, and the samples will go to our universities for analysis.

France Encourages Aviation.
France recognizes the value of air travel and its importance to the future. She has budgeted 164,378,000 francs for civilian aviation for the year 1922. Naturally, Paris is the great center of French commercial aviation, the Le Bourget airfield in the suburbs taking on the appearance of a busy railway terminal. Airplanes to and from London (five departures daily) and Brussels carry the largest number of passengers.

Flowers Began Together.

Sweet peas and mignonette should always grow together. Even the downy-trodden everlasting pea (as Gerard calls it) with its large frank blossoms, has this year won its way to favor. That plant is to itself an epitome of all the sermons of the year with courage and constancy for their text. It is as good as a meditation by Jeremy Taylor. "We were very grave about it last year, only a very little was permitted; it was denounced as too encroaching; and a quantity of it was ruthlessly cut away. We believed its illumination to be secure. Not a bit of it! Never did it spread and flourish and flower more abundantly than it has done this summer. It ran round the corner of the house and made a blooming bowyer of itself in the shade under the east porch. It gave a rich, deep background for the white iris and hush roses to the south; it actually climbed up and looked in at the dining room windows, and nodded to us as we sat at breakfast. "By my soul, let us roast!" it said, as plain as words; and after all I had to confess its conquering beauty.—B. V. B.—in "A Garden of Pleasure."

Feeling.
The teacher was giving a few general questions to test the intelligence of his pupils. "How many races are there?" he asked.

"Two," replied a small boy, who had been feeling the cane some time previously. "Two? Well, what are they?" "Please, sir, teachers and pupils."

"What do you mean, my lad, by saying teachers and pupils?" queried the teacher. "Please, sir," was the reply, "the teachers are the 'colored' race, and the pupils are the 'white' race."

Samples and Samples.
"Did you here that Blank was arrested?" "That is news to me. I am astonished. For what was he arrested?" "It is charged that he took home samples of the goods he was handling."

"A. S. Where was he working?" "In a bank."

There's a Vast Difference

—between making ordinary gasoline and making a balanced gasoline. And it shows up plain as day in their behavior in your motor.

Briefly, balanced gasoline is refined with the definite aim of making the most of the many natural properties of gasoline and of utilizing them to the greatest advantage.

Motorists want a gasoline of all-around dependability. They don't want one that is a wonder on starting but takes the hills like a lame horse. And they aren't particularly anxious to drive over the mountains if they've got to put up with a lot of coughing, belching, lost time and sorely-tried patience every time they start a cold motor.

Conoco—the balanced gasoline—gives you everything you really want in a motor fuel. It starts quickly, takes the heavy grades comfortably, gives you the highest mileage you can hope to get and does it all economically.

Use Conoco, the balanced gasoline, and Polarine, the perfect motor oil. Start today.
