Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, calls state convention for August 3 to set on peace plan. Leaders of the strike are settling a settlement within two weeks.

WASHINGTON, July 26, (AP)—President Harding tonight set in motion the federal emergency fuel control organization with the selection of a central coal distribution committee of government officials under the chairmanship of Secretary Hoover.

The commerce secretary, at the request of the president, immediately wired the governors of the various states asking them to set up state organizations at the first step toward de-centralizing the organization for equitable distribution and maintenance of fair prices for coal under the administration's plan.

"Under this plan," Mr. Hoover said, "the distribution for railway was to be direct from the mines with the possible exception of a few state public utilities, the responsibility for all other distribution will rest upon organizations set up under state control."

Co-operation Asked.

Co-operation of state organizations was also asked by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Atchison who selected several transportation regulatory bodies of the states out of the Mississippi requesting them to act as regulating agencies of the commission in facilitating operation of the emergency service order giving priority to the shipment of coal distribution committee selected by the president consists of Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary of War D. C. Hooper, Commissioner Atchison or his representative, under the temporary chairmanship of the commerce secretary.

Members of the committee will be the committee later. Mr. Hoover said, who will undertake the administrative direction while the ultimate character of the plan is left to the discretion of the state.

This was taken at the commerce department to indicate that the committee was to be composed of representatives of the industries representing the railroads or geographical sections, such as New England or the Great Lakes region, President Hoover said.

President Hoover said the needs of those sections may be required.

Trial of Chicago Labor Leaders Brings Out Interesting Side Lights on Methods

CHICAGO, July 26, (AP)—The bombing of the homes of non-union contractors and threats to non-union contractors came to Chicago "goose might go out in a box" were told by witnesses at the trial of Fred Madry, president of the Chicago Building Trades Council today on charges of conspiracy resulting in murder.

The question of the wage scale fixed under the mediation award of former Federal Judge Leo Lewis was the trial for the first time over the objections on the part of attorneys for Madry, Timothy Murphy, and other labor leaders, who are charged with enforcing the Lewis award and who are charged with the deaths of five labor leaders on an trial.

James J. Barbour, attorney for Murphy, argued that the Lewis award had nothing to do with the case and that the contract was made by the defendant, James J. Barbour (Smoak) Hanson, the state's star witness, that he had no knowledge connecting Murphy with the slaying of Edward Goldman, chief state attorney, outlined the state's contention on the wage award as follows:

"The purpose is to show that the defendant was operating in the minds of all the defendants toward the accomplishment of which they indulged in acts of violence, that they were in possession of a building operating under the Lewis award by violence or any other methods they saw fit to take."

COAL LEADERS IN STRIKE ARE OFF FOR WASHINGTON

Secrecy Veils Real Objective but Impression General that Trip Means Conference with President Harding

CHICAGO, July 26, (AP)—M. J. Jewell, head of the striking rail shopmen, led the six international presidents of the shopmen's organization, Timothy Hooley of the firemen and glaziers, and A. Wharton, labor group organizer of the United States railroad labor board, departed today for Washington, prepared for a conference with President Harding tomorrow regarding the rail strike situation.

After a hurried conference with the president, Jewell and Hooley planned to leave Washington tomorrow night, arriving back in Chicago Friday morning. A veil of secrecy was thrown over the trip and their departure at 10:30 P. M. has become a common factor, union leaders declaring that Mr. Jewell was still in town all during the afternoon.

The journey follows a conference between James J. Davis, secretary of labor, and Mr. Jewell, last Saturday. After the conference Mr. Davis asserted that he believed that the principal stumbling block in the way of a settlement of the strike was the refusal of the railroads to return seniority rights to the strikers.

Mr. Jewell's meeting with the president will follow conferences between J. F. Loree, head of the commerce committee, and members of the senate interstate commerce committee, and between the president and W. W. Atterbury, of the Pennsylvania system, and the president and Don Hooper, chairman of the labor board. These meetings followed the conference between Jewell and Mr. Loree, which his efforts to settle the strike had failed because of the refusal of the executives to agree to the restoration of seniority rights to the men.

IDAHO AGRICULTURAL INTERESTS WORRIED OVER OUTLOOK AS TO CARS

CHICAGO, July 26, (AP)—Western railway executives in a statement tonight, after a long meeting, offered, without congestion and without delay, to increase the passenger traffic still being operated at the rate of approximately 100 per cent of normal. According to the statement issued tonight by the western presidents' committee on public relations of the Association of Railway Executives, car loadings exceed those of a year ago, except on roads especially affected by the coal strike. All western lines with headquarters in Chicago, report an increase in the number of men at work in the shops, the statement said.

SUMMARY OF STRIKE

B. M. DWYLL, head of the striking rail shopmen, met tonight with the national presidents of the shopmen's organization, Timothy Hooley, president of the firemen and glaziers, and A. Wharton, labor board member of the railroad labor board, went to Washington see President Harding.

Western railway executives issued a statement asserting that freight was being moved as of normal without congestion and passenger traffic was normal.

President Harding conferred with W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania system, and Secretary Hooper, regarding the shopmen's strike.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad made a written proposal to its shopmen to end the strike on its lines and sent a copy to President Harding.

President Harding, in a message to J. C. Gove, chairman of the Railway Employees' National Association of Chattanooga, Tenn., suggested that the strikers accept a decision of the railway labor board and return to work pending "a re-consideration of the strike, in which there is reasonable doubt about the correctness or justice of the decision made."

EDITORS BECOME TRIBE MEMBERS

Chief Whose Profile Adorns the American Nickel, in Charge of Ceremonies

GLACIER PARK, Mont., July 26, (AP)—Temporary control of the American newspaper was acquired tonight by the Blackfoot Indian nation, when 200 members of the National Editorial association, now nearing the end of their tour, gathered here tonight.

The Indians, from the reservation near here, greeted the editors as they returned to the park entrance from their whirlwind two-day tour of the national playground, and put on an elaborate program for their hosts.

Chief Two Guns White Hair, whose profile now decorates the American nickel, was in charge. The ceremonies were in the spirit of the adoption of the Blackfoot, a melody which has marked the entrance of many noted whites in the red race. After this ceremony the editor's party through wagon was placed in charge of an Indian. The Indian member of each couple made a speech, which was passed on to the audience by an interpreter.

Final Sign Countered

Then, while the last of the old time medicine men thumped his drum, and walked a delectful chant, each Indian drew the sign of adoption three several times, across the forehead of his ward.

The ceremony was concluded with a dance in which everyone, Indians and editors alike, took part.

Following the adoption ceremony tonight the Indians escorted their new supporters to the special train which took them to Lewistown, Mont., where they will spend Thursday.

ILLINOIS STRIKE OF COAL MINERS MAY BE SETTLED

Action of State President in Calling General Meeting of Every Local in State Declared Highly Significant

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 26, (AP)—Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, today called a convention of every union local in the state to meet on August 3 at Peoria, Ill. The union on strike peace plans presented at the meeting here. His action was considered so significant that leaders on both sides of the controversy in Illinois predicted that the strike in Illinois would end within two weeks.

Mr. Farrington's action was taken after an all-day conference with his executive board, approximately 25 members from all over the state. A union leader tonight said that the meeting had brought the following results:

1. Mr. Farrington is convinced that he still is supreme in power among the miners of Illinois despite threats in his preceding issue by the executive board. Followers of John L. Lewis, national miners' president and generally opposed by Farrington in matters of policy are in favor of a separate state agreement but veterans insisting that he would not pull Illinois away from the national union policy in making it. Mr. Farrington now has determined to place the issue before the miners of the state themselves and let them decide whether to remain in strike or to link to work under terms satisfactory to both sides.

Has Lots of Confidence.

3. Mr. Farrington is convinced that he can defeat any opposition brought by the Lewis faction in Illinois. In his all-out effort to settle the strike he openly declared that he would submit a proposition from the operators which might lead to speedy peace. A similar proposition has been made public officially but it was frankly admitted privately that it was virtually worthless. Mr. Farrington has determined that the men return immediately to work on the wage scale which existed when they quit work; this agreement was made in the Peoria meeting and that in the meantime a permanent agreement be effected.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 26, (AP)—Lack of evidence to sustain charges of criminal conspiracy led today to dismissal from custody of J. H. McCoy and W. T. Henderson, two men charged with the alleged strike of five fighters on Marble Creek. The men were released by order of the prosecuting attorney and were very generally favored by the weather. Harvesting was well under way in most sections. Harvesting of wheat was in good progress in the elevated western and later northwestern sections.

Except for a day of rain in the west, the progress during the week ending yesterday except in some southeastern states, the weather "bureau" announced that the outlook for the week ending today was for a fair to good harvest. Moderate temperatures and sufficient moisture prevailed in most of the country, though the lower great plains section received some very hot weather and lack of sunbath was felt in certain eastern districts, while drought continued on the Pacific coast and in the lower Colorado valley districts. Parts of the southeast, on the other hand, suffered from too much moisture.

LEONARD READY FOR BIG FIGHT
Advance Sales for Championship Match Reach the Sum of $400,000

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—Not since the Dempsey-Carpenter fight has the public been so worked up over a boxing match as it is over the one which will be fought Thursday evening in Jersey City between Champton Beany Leonard of New York, and Challenge Leonard Fendler, Philadelphia, for the world's lightweight title.

Hardly since Leonard took the title from the Englishman, Freddie Welsh, at the old Manhattan casino, has there been so much pre-fight discussion over a lightweight contest, though in the intervening time Beany has not even contended who asked for a chance. Fendler has fought an uphill battle for recognition all this time.

By almost everyone except the champion himself, Fendler is acknowledged the most dangerous opponent Leonard has harassed his crown with since ascending the throne. To newspapermen at his training camp at Duhr Lake, N. J., Leonard has belittled Fendler, classifying him as a "dot" and classified him as a "second rate."

Usually Leonard is less glib. He has trained hard and carefully, which Fendler classifies as ample justification of the champion's utterances. Leonard says he is at the peak of his manhood, that he never will be a better boxer.

This is the first photograph to reach America of the court at Wimbledon, England, showing Mlle. Lenglen, the French marvel (in the foreground) defeating Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Malloy.

The American champion, in a straight set for the world's championship.

most punishment, but there is a close difference in their fighting styles. Fendler is a left hander and Leonard uses his right to greatest advantage; Fendler is a body puncher and Leonard favors more time to the chin and jaw.

Leonard's Record Prominent
Of the two records Leonard's is far the better. He has been in nearly 200 ring battles since he became a Saturday night preliminary boy, 10 years ago, knocking out 63, or about one-third of his opponents, gaining seven decisions on points and finishing 118 other no-decision affairs; in most of which he had a clear margin.

Fendler has been two years less in the ring and has been in about half as many bouts, 76, or more than three-fourths of them, being no-decision affairs, in a majority of which he was the unofficial victor. He has 19 knockouts to his credit. He has lost a few decisions, notably one to Rocky Kansas, who fell as easy victim to Leonard last year, and a month ago.

Furthermore, the names of the mighty are not so prominent in Fendler's record as in Leonard's. His biggest victory was a decision over Johnny Dundee, though "Lefly Lou" had no decision against him. Willie Jackson, Pinkie Mitchell, Ritchie Mitchell and Buster Friedman—all top-notchers—figured in Leonard's decision over Dundee last year and one over Friedman last fall and another previously over George Chafey of Baltimore.

Nearly Equal Physically
In physical qualifications matters

they are nearly equal. If Fendler, who is 35, can be said to have youth on his side, then Leonard, who is 36, can claim age, but each is near to the summit of a boxer's aim.

Their weight will be about equal—they must weigh in at the point of 12 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but it is generally believed that getting down to weight has been more costly to Leonard. Fendler has nearly two inches advantage in height and one inch longer reach. The margin in neck, chest, forearm, etc., is negligible, though in Fendler's favor.

One powerful fact that Fendler will be facing is precedent. No lightweight champion ever has been defeated in the full flower of his power, not Wells, not Jack McCalliffe, nor George Lovings, nor Frankie Erna, nor the acknowledged master of them all, the dark skinned Joe Gans.

The next biggest crowd in the history of pugilism is expected to see the battle. The estimate of Tom Rickard, the promoter, is 75,000. He will be a record "gate" for a lightweight fight, probably between $400,000 and $500,000.

Six hundred policemen will establish a dead-line two blocks from Boy's Thirty Acres and no one without a ticket will be permitted inside that mark.

Use of Voice Aid to Health.
Actors, singers, preachers and lawyers are said to benefit in health much from the constant use of their voices, which exhausts the chest.

Metropolitan Lawn Tennis Championship Games Slammer Down to Close of Play

The Kinsey brothers, doubles titleholders, proved the sensation of the year. Treasury's Offer of Four and a Quarter Investment Proving Attractive

WASHINGTON, July 26. (AP)—Favorable reception of the treasury's new offer of four and one-fourth per cent four-year notes in the investment markets of the country, was indicated tonight in reports to Secretary Mellon.

The four and one-fourth per cent on the new notes is a low level for government obligations with a four year maturity.

"The statements which appear in several of today's press dispatches," Mr. Mellon said in a formal statement, "to the effect that the treasury has offered a four and one-fourth per cent four year treasury note, are erroneous and should be disregarded. The treasury has offered under this date a four and one-quarter per cent note, dated August 1, 1922, maturing September 15, 1925, and subscriptions for these notes are now being received by the federal reserve bank."

The draft problem and the recent deal involving several New York and Boston clubs decided at the meeting of American league owners here tomorrow.

A Business Motive Power

The time must come when all businesses will consider the advisability of advertising in the same spirit that a manufacturer ponders over the advisability of adopting a new machine. One does not install a piece of labor-saving mechanism because it suits his fancy; but because the efficiency of the business requires it.

He expects the new machine to reduce his cost to operate — perhaps to make a better product—and thus aid him in meeting competition and making larger profits.

Advertising is exactly similar. The man who refuses to consider it as a possible expedient, simply shuts his eyes on one of the problems of his business. He might as well ignore the banks as sources of credit when he has need to borrow capital.

On the other hand, the man who looks to advertising to checkmate all weaknesses and shortcomings of his business and to carry it along to victory despite these, has a childlike faith in the miracles.

Advertising will not make his product or his service any better than they are; but it will bring him the full benefits of their merits. It will not eliminate wastefulness in his factory or his store; but it will reduce his cost to operate. It will not make illogical selling methods successful; but it will assist good selling methods, and often point the way for improving them.

Advertising is the most inexpensive motive power that the manufacturer or merchant can buy today. It is a form of stimulus that brings excellent returns on the investment.

 (Special to The News)—W. R. Smith & Company, for Highland Livestock company, Centerville, 370 fat lambs, average weight 60 lbs., at $12.50, and 500 feeders, average weight 60 lbs., at $12.00, at $12.50.

For Spring Valley Livestock company, Centerville, 302 fat lambs, average weight 71 lbs., at $12.15, and 500 feeders, average weight 60 lbs., at $11.65.

Market 15 to 25c higher; best lambs $12.25; top feeders 12c.

Chicago Grain Market
OHIOGA, July 26 (AP)—Export purchasing in large amounts brought about a moderate advance today in the price of wheat, but with leading sales returned, the market moved mostly tranquil. The market closed unsettled, 1-2 cent lower to 1-4 advance, with September $1.07 to $1.07 1/8, and December $1.09 1/4 to $1.09 7/8. Corn finished 3-4 to 1-2 lower, oats 1-4 to 3-8 to 5-8 to 1-4 higher, and provisions down 20 to 35c.

Urgent buying of red winter wheat for shipment from ports on the Gulf of Mexico was credited to France and it was estimated the day's export business in all positions would total 9,000,000 bushels.

Offerings of wheat increased on all advances in price, with the character of selling declining more hedging from the market, especially in the southwest. Another bullish influence was the heavy receipts at primary points, nearly double the aggregate a year ago. In addition, reports from the country of conditions indicated that most of the spring crop had reached a stage beyond danger from rust. Emergency orders regarding railroads had no apparent effect on the course of prices.

Corn, like wheat, declined as a result of enlarged rural offerings. Oats showed strength because of disappointing threshing reports.

Provisions were depressed by weakness in the hog market. Packers did much of the selling.

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—Stocks were active and strong. The close of today's session on major averages:

Federal authorities had taken control of coal and coal traffic, but heavy selling later caused many net losses.

Oils and motors were again the vulnerable features. Mexican Seaboard bonds and certificates registered new lows for the movement.

Although the report of the United States Steel corporation for the year's second quarter was regarded as extremely favorable, but little showed on the prominent pressure with most of the prominent independent stocks. Buying of equities, as well as copper and affiliated shares, was intermittent at best.

Rails cancelled the greater part of their moderate advances in the latter part of the trading.

A few stocks, such as Corn Products and Industrial Alcohol, were inclined to ignore the reactions of the general list, but Mexican Petroleum, which had shown consistent strength, gave way in the general reaction toward the close, a heavy time prevailing. Sales amounted to 700,000 shares.

Call money rates held at 4 per cent until the final hour, when offering rates were at 3 1/2 per cent.

Foreign exchanges added very generally to yesterday's reactions.

ELEVENTH HOUR IS AT HAND FOR REGISTRATIONS

Three Days Remain for Listing of Citizens Who Desire to Vote in Primaries as Well as General Election

Twin Falls No. 1.—Mrs. Kate Taber, 209 Sixth avenue east.
Twin Falls No. 2.—Mrs. Mary Gillette, 354 Ninth avenue north.
Twin Falls No. 3.—Mrs. G. W. Bice, 216 Park street.
Twin Falls No. 4.—Mrs. H. F. Rexroat, 1228 Kimberly road.
Twin Falls No. 5.—Mrs. W. L. Leach, 418 Sixth avenue north.
Twin Falls No. 6.—Mrs. Katherine Gahhart.
Twin Falls No. 7.—Mrs. Emma T. DeCamp, 235 Blue Lake boulevard, north.

With one Twin Falls precinct, established by the 1920 census with a population of 1005, showing a registration of 700, and another, with a population of 1641, showing registration of 100, estimates at the proportion of registered voters to the county's population range from 50 to 75 per cent.

Depending upon the estimate accepted, deduction is made as to the vote to be cast in the primary elections August 1, of the three political parties participating, the nomination of candidates for county and precinct officers and delegates to county conventions.

Interest Apparently Low
Surface indications seem to point to a lack of interest in listing voters rather than to any particular interest on the part of the voters themselves as the factor making for the relatively high proportion of registrations.

The three days remaining for registration of voters in the precincts to be held in the primary elections as well as the general election next November, is generally conceded, will not be so successful as the registration which will materially increase the present percentage.

Will Accommodate Voters

Registrars in each of the 27 precincts of the county, during the last week of ten days, have put forth in general satisfaction a designated opportunity to vote to every citizen before the expiration Saturday night of the time for registration for the primary elections.

In the Twin Falls precincts which include considerable suburban territory, registrars have made arrangements to meet Saturday at a designated building in town where they may be found by persons desiring to register.

Thus, Mrs. George W. Bice, registrar for Twin Falls precinct No. 3, and her voters two years ago cast their ballots at the Smith Motor company building, will spend the closing day at the Barker Furniture store at the corner on Shoshone street west.

Mrs. H. F. Rexroat, registrar for Twin Falls precinct No. 4, including the southern quarter of the town and surrounding country districts, will be at the Hooper Furniture store, all day Saturday on Main avenue south, all day Saturday.

Mrs. Katherine Gahhart, registrar for Twin Falls precinct No. 6, whose voters cast their ballots at the Lincoln hotel will spend the day at the Five Points store.

Others at Homes
Other registrars for Twin Falls precincts, so far as has been announced, will be found all day Saturday at their residences.

Vote to register on or before Saturday will prevent voting at the primary elections, but another opportunity will be presented for registration prior to the general election on November 7.

Tradesmen Here Fall Victims to Old "Short Change" Game

Three out of four Twin Falls business houses were victimized Wednesday to the extent of $5 each by "short change artists," according to the account given The News. No reports were received in the police, the victims preferring that their names should not be divulged, and the exceptionally lanky tradesman having gone to complete his errand.

The game was operated, it is reported, by a young man and a young woman traveling in a car bearing a Washington license tag. It was worked in this manner:

The pair would make a small purchase, calling for payment of say, 25 cents. The merchant would hand over the bill in payment. The merchant counted out, $9.55 in change. The customer pocketed the five-dollar bill and 5 cents given by the merchant. Leaving the four silver dollars on the counter and remarking at the same time, "Was that a ten-dollar bill I gave you?" The merchant would then hand over the five-dollar bill and 5 cents, saying the customer took from his pocket a one-dollar bill, and placing it with the four silver dollars and keeping the five-dollar bill on the counter.

WATER GAUGE FACTOR IN RECLAMATION PROJECT

Murtaugh Irrigation District Will Record Flow of Rock Creek at Mouth

Installation of a gauge, to measure the flow of Rock creek at its mouth near Augur falls on Snake river has been completed, according to statement Wednesday of H. T. Henderson, engineer for the Murtaugh irrigation district.

Records on the flow of the stream are to be used by the district for submission to the federal power commission in connection with its filing on power site at the mouth of the stream. Filing also has been made by the district on power from Augur falls, and thought it was an important factor in the district's plans for reclamation of approximately 50,000 acres of land situated between Hartsell and Murtaugh, where it is known as the Hansen bench region. Power from these developments will be used to operate pumps which the district will install near Hartsell.

CHAUTAUQU GUARANTORS ASK CHANGE IN PROGRAM

Would Have "Fighting Parson" Here Sunday Instead of Play

Management of the Ellison-White association will be requested by guarantors of the Chautauqu program to permit of the appearance here on Sunday evening, August 6, of Dr. E. H. Bryan. "Fighting Parson" instead of the scheduled play, "Cappy Ricks," by the Percival Gibson plays.

Decision to this effect was reached at a meeting Tuesday evening at the office of Dr. W. E. Pike, president of the guarantors' organization, and a telegram was sent to the guarantors, who are attached to the Ellison-White association.

The announced program provides for the appearance here of Dr. Williams on Monday evening, August 7. The local guarantors ask that the play be given on this date rather than on Sunday.

Individual guarantors at the meeting Tuesday expressed themselves in enthusiastic terms over the strong numbers scheduled for the forthcoming Chautauqu course.

It had been alleged that Glavin's car struck and overturned a horse-drawn vehicle driven by Lohr off the road and that Lohr, suffered a sprained ankle as a result. Evidence was lacking, the prosecutor said, to show when Glavin was exceeding the speed limit or that he had struck the Lohr vehicle.
