SEVERAL POSTS ARE FILLED BY NARROW MARGIN

Result of Primary Elections Decisive Except in One or Two Cases Which May Be Changed by Later Figures

With the possibility that returns from the two or three of the smallest precincts of the county from which no reports had been received early Wednesday morning might change the result in at least one of the more closely contested races for republican county office in the primary elections Tuesday, political observers waited until close of trading in additional news from the polling places had been exhausted before calling it a day and returning to their homes content, perhaps to await the result of the field canvass in these particular contests.

Gay L. Kinsey, Twin Falls, who on the face of available returns, has won the democratic nomination for prosecuting attorney over A. W. Ostrom, Buhl, and O. V. Williams, Twin Falls, with a margin of 111 votes over Ostrom and 21 over Williams, is in the most precarious position in this respect.

Missing precinct include Lucerna, where a democratic vote were cast, and Rock Creek, where the democrats polled eight votes. Other missing precincts are Kessenden, Tomer and Shephard Basin and Dulie. It is considered probable that no elections were held in the latter two precincts.

Myers Ahead So Far
A. J. Myers, Twin Falls, has an aggregate of 103 votes over W. Taylor, Buhl, for the republican nomination for prosecuting attorney, Lucerna precinct in the group which might be needed to elect Myers, Roseworth, Butte and Shephard Basin.

Another closely contested race, about which public interest centered, was that of C. E. Carlson, Twin Falls, who holds a lead of 88 over James Fitzgerald, Twin Falls, to whom he lost four out of seven Twin Falls precincts in the race for commissioner from the Second district.

Myers' returns favored Harry McKelvie in race against E. B. Sherman for the republican nomination for sheriff, but returns now available give Sherman a lead of 10 over McKelvie.

M. E. Finch, Twin Falls, easily won the democratic nomination for sheriff over A. D. Wilson of Buhl, holding a lead on latest returns of 345.

Four Sticks with Fuse Placed in Evidence in Chicago Labor Trial

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. (AP)—Four sticks of dynamite with rolls of fuse, all wrapped in a canvas bag, were brought to court today at the trial of the "Big Tim" Murphy, and three other labor leaders, charged with conspiracy in the slaying of William McKinley.

While the state's attorneys made every effort to convince the jury that the dynamite had been found in the apartment of John Miller, one of the defendants, the defense attorneys made equally strenuous endeavors to prove that the dynamite had been planted there by the police.

Michael Hughes, chief of detectives testified over the objections of defense attorneys that since May 11, the day after the assassination of McKinley, he followed a campaign of terrorism over a wage mediation award, not a single building under construction had been bombed. The first ten days of the month, he testified, the number of bombings had been 11.

ATLANTIC CITY GIRL SHOCKED LONDON

LONDON folk stopped and stared. Robbins held up traffic. Piccadilly bustled with jogs and conversation. And the cause of it all was Miss Margaret Campbell, of Atlantic City, N. "I don't show any more of my legs than your English girls in short skirts!" she exclaimed, "and besides I'm dressed to please myself alone."

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul said 4300 shovemen were at work on its line, freight was being handled normally and general conditions were reported as steadily improving.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy reported 400 additional shovemen hired today bringing its force to about 50 per cent of normal. The railroad said its freight traffic was from 15 to 15 per cent higher than last year and was being handled without serious congestion and the bad order car situation also was reported better.

NEGRO LYNCHED BY ANGRY MOB STORMING JAIL

Suspect in Murder Case Taken in Charge by Crowd Estimated at 500 and Hanged in Center of Business District

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 1. (AP)—Bittering its way into the city jail here today, a mob, estimated to number 600 men, forced a police guard to surrender Gilbert Harris, a Negro, under arrest in connection with the death wounding of Maurice Conroy, an insurance collector, and after hauling him on a truck through Central avenue, hanged him to an electric light pole in Corner Triangle, near the center of the downtown business district.

Harris protested that he was not responsible for Conroy's death, which he said he would receive in an encounter with a burglar at his home last night.

Conroy died shortly after 7 o'clock this morning and when news of his death and the arrest of Harris was circulated, crowds began forming. By 9 o'clock several hundred men had assembled about the fifth corner of Wood, of the circuit court, was summoned when the crowd became hostile and appealed to the mob to disperse, promising to give them $1000 if they let the negro, Mayor Harry A. Jones made a similar plea.

Neither could change the tempo of the mob, however, and a death made for rear and side entrances to the prison through which leaders forced their way and gained possession of the negro.

EASTERN TRADE HEALTHY

Idaho Department Store Man Declares Little Interest in Railroad Strike Appears

Thomas Horn of the Idaho department store returned Tuesday from an extended eastern business trip during which he visited the buying centers, spending some days in New York City. There is little talk of the railroad strike in New York, Mr. Horn says and passenger traffic moves for the most part as of very close to schedule. The main subject of conversation in the wholesale districts is the collapse of the German mark and its relation to the outcome of financial conditions in that country.

J. C. Beach, who left here with Mr. Horn while Clara Murphy, a widow of Arkansas City, has been appointed a sheriff and tax collector by Governor McLean, to succeed the late Sheriff G. B. Leary, who died last week. Mr. Murphy, who was chief deputy in Sheriff Leary's office, is the first woman ever appointed to serve in such an office in Arkansas.

Pieric Acid Fumes Cost Lives of Two Northern Idaho Men

Explosion at Bottom of Well Brings Tragic Death in Spite of Efforts to Rescue

COVEY LAKE, Idaho, Aug. 1. (AP)—Overcome by fumes of exploded pieric acid, Fred Benson, age 30, and Neil Johnson, age 60, farmers, were asphyxiated this morning at the bottom of a 20 foot well, which they were digging on the Benson ranch, two miles east of Garwood. Garwood is fourteen miles north of here.

Benson's wife and eight year old daughter, lowered a bucket from a windlass to the stricken men. They grasped the bucket and were hauled to the surface, but they were so weak they collapsed and died before they could be taken from the well.

EXECUTIVES DECLINE TO ACCEPT HARDING'S PLAN OF SETTLEMENT

Heads of Railroads Affected by the Shopen's Strike Announce Decision by Overwhelming Majority Not to Agree to Reinstatement of Men with Unimpaired Seniority Rights

NEW YORK, Aug. 1. (AP)—Railway executives of the nation today firmly but courteously rejected the program advanced by the Harding administration for settlement of the rail strike. Willing to accept conditionally two suggestions put forward by the White House—that both sides abide by wage decisions of the railroad labor board and that law suits springing out of the strike be withdrawn—the heads of 143 roads declared emphatically that it was impossible to reinstate strikers with unimpaired seniority rights, the third provision in the president's plan.

Shopmen Likely to Accept Plan for Settlement

After being told by Robert S. Lovett of the Union Pacific that there was no moral or practical reason for judging from their position, the executives abandoned, caught the first train for their respective headquarters and indicated that they were going ahead and would operate their roads with the forces they had assembled since the shopen walked out on July 2.

The decision not to yield on the question of seniority was made known to the White House by telegraph after the rail heads had listened to a 20 minute address by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who, as direct representative of the president, told them in effect, that the administration held the seniority question in minor importance in comparison with that of upholding the railroad labor board.

This action was taken in the face of a letter by Secretary of Commerce Hoover to Dr. D. W. Witt Cuyler, chairman of the American Association of Railway Executives, embodying the "terms of agreement" which the administration proposed. The railway managers and union shopcraft workers are to agree, preliminary to calling off the existing strike.

Acceptable to Workers
President Harding had closed his letter with the words: "I have no doubt but believe these terms will be accepted by the workers. If there is any objection to these terms, they will be obliged to open direct negotiations or assume full responsibility for the situation."

It became apparent from the very beginning of the strike that the seniority question would be the wedge which would divide administration and railway executives.

LEADERS OF MOB AT HERRIN ARE KNOWN IS CLAIM

National Coal Association Declares Arrests Could Take Place at Any Time Attorney General of State Cares to Act

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1 (AP)—The National Coal Association in a statement announcing completion of "a sweeping, impartial investigation of the Herra massacre," declared that the leaders of the mob were known and that at least 100 members of the mob "can be arrested any time this week." General Brundage of Illinois gives the word.

The association is "laying its evidence and findings before the governor of Illinois," the statement said.

"Particular emphasis should be laid on the point that the names of the massacre are able to point out the official of the United Mine Workers of America who gave the word to take the armed men into the mine and shoot them down in the manner of an army squad executing spies or traitors," says the announcement.

"The national coal association report supports the contention of the Illinois attorney general that the massacre was the result of a well laid spy and that the riot was spontaneous. The report deals comprehensively with each member of the mob sent to Herra by John Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers; failure of the sheriff to do his duty; organization of the mob as a military machine, and the unkept truce pledges assumed jointly by the sheriff and the ranking local of the United Mine Workers.

Lewis is Blamed

"Lewis' telegraphic instructions to treat the members of the steam shovel men's union as an outlaw organization and to shoot them down into the mine followed on successive days by a mass meeting, the attack on the mine, and the massacre. Lewis and State Senator Charles H. Hays, president of the county substitute district of the United Mine Workers, must assume direct responsibility for throwing a match into the powder box.

The statement announced that its investigations corroborated stories of "barbarous treatment" of the Williams brothers by press associations and newspapers and declared that some bodies were found to have been branded.

FILES PROTEST AGAINST ACTION

Wyoming Governor Urges President Not to Send Marines in Oil Controversy

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 1 (AP)—Governor Robert D. Carey, of Wyoming, has telegraphed to President Harding, protesting against the sending of marines to Wyoming to eject alleged squatters from the Teapot Dome naval oil reserves.

"Honorable Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, Washington, D. C.

"Have seen press reports to effect marines been ordered removed certain claimants from land in Teapot naval oil reserve. It such reports are true, would respectfully protest against such action: If any person or persons are in illegal possession of lands in this field, they can be removed by legal process through court. Such procedure as is contemplated ignores the course of the nation and establishes precedent which would be a national disgrace. I am confident my office will be put to use to enforce, if necessary, the law rather than by legal action. In this instance no legal attempt has been made to remove this claimant. It has not been proven that they have violated any law and it is possible that their claims are valid, as some of those purchased by the State interests and turned over to the government. Finally I would advise you that the land in question is in Wyoming to justify use of armed forces."

JAPAN DECLARED TO BE LIVING UP TO AGREEMENT

Secretary Donby Well Pleased with Attitude Towards Disarmament Obligations

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 1 (AP)—Japan is observing every detail of her obligations under the naval and four-power treaties entered into at Washington and a feeling of mutual confidence has succeeded the uncertainty which formerly existed in American relations with Japan, according to a statement given out by Secretary of the Navy Edwin Donby on Monday; the first day of the annual conference of the Secretary Donby intimated that conditions in the far eastern Pacific were not sufficiently stabilized to permit of immediate consideration of the Philippine's aspirations for independence, even should internal progress prove that the country was fitted for it.

This statement said:

"I believe that Japan is living up honorably to every detail of her obligations under both treaties. I was much impressed with the confidence exhibited by the Japanese in the success of the conference held at Tokyo as well as the United States, has come to realize that the new international arrangements in the Pacific are beneficial to all concerned. I also noticed a similar feeling in China."

Regarding conditions in China, Mr. Donby said: "The Chinese government," stated his belief that China's salvation would come through "strong man" who would be able to control the military leaders of the country in check.

SCHOOL YEAR TO LAST 12 MONTHS

Board of Education in Educational Innovation

NASHVILLE, Aug. 1 (AP)—Nashville will be the first city in Tennessee to have an all-year-round school term if the recommendation of the city board of education, made Monday, is adopted by the city council.

According to plans, the school term will be divided into four sessions of three months each. Each student may elect what three of the four sessions they wish attend, or they may attend all four. The school year will begin in the summer time an opportunity to continue their work while they are in the winter or other seasons will have the same opportunity. It also will give those who have been forced out of school because of illness or other causes, or those who have failed to make their grades, an opportunity to attend the extra sessions and in that way keep up with their classes.

Another feature of the plan is the fact that teachers will be given an opportunity to work the full year while heretofore they have only been enabled to work nine months and have been forced to remain idle during the summer or obtain other employment. It also will mean, school officials say, that they will be enabled to employ more experienced and competent instructors if they can assure them all year round employment.

Even the children are declared to be well pleased with the new arrangement. A great many of them expect to take advantage of the opportunity it will afford them to complete their education more quickly than has been possible heretofore. It is hoped by the board that the new plan will be put into operation in the coming school term.

POLITICAL DEMOCRACY DEPENDS ON DISCIPLINE AND OBEDIENCE

Vice-President Coolidge Analyzes Basis of Settlement of Shopmen's Strike and Points Out Spirit in Which Mutual Agreement Must Be Reached—Unity Must Be Preserved

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Aug. 1 (Special to The News)—During the past few months Calvin Coolidge, vice-president of the United States, has been giving great thought and study to the labor situation owing to the coal and railroad strikes. In view of the successful way in which he handled the Boston policemen's strike in 1919, he was invited to the Boston Industrial Conference to state his position on this momentous question.

Mr. Coolidge assumes we will accept labor under and that capital, labor and management will unite in bringing about a true industrial democracy. But he states fearfully that no democracy—political or industrial—can survive without discipline, organization and obedience. There must be law and order. Bonds of arbitration must be created and obeyed in order to give wage workers themselves to get on. His own words are as follows:

"We need a fuller realization and a broader comprehension both of political and economic democracy. In this age of science and invention and organization there is a special need for a full understanding of the foundations of industrial democracy. The word democracy is used very inaccurately. It means the right to signify freedom and equality. Many have thought it represented an absence of all restraints. Others have considered it, as providing a refuge for all. The people of America have long been committed to democracy. The best thought of the world has been compelled to follow and has little regard for its customers what may be expected of it is first to understand what it is.

Daily Brags Power

"There has never been any organized society without rules. The great power of mankind has been created through unity of action. This has meant the adoption of a common standard. In most ancient times this was represented in the chieftain. In modern times it is represented by a code of laws. The important factor to remember is that it has always required obedience. Democracy is obedience to the rule of the people.

"The failure to appreciate this double function of the citizen has led to much misunderstanding, for it is very plain to see that there cannot be any rule of the people without a government to be ruled. The difference between despotism and democracy is not a difference in the requirement of obedience; it is a difference in rules. The American seeks to wield all its powers, to exercise all his rights as well as require the performance of all his obligations. In the ideal industry, each individual becomes an owner, an operator and a manager, a master and a servant, a ruler and a subject. Thus there would be established a system of true industrial democracy.

"In very many industries this is already taking place. Employers are encouraged to purchase stock in the companies of the business. They are requested to apply their inventive ability in the various mechanical operations. Through trade unions and shop committees they have a large share in the determination of wages and conditions of labor. By the introduction of the sliding scale and piece work they share in the general property of the concern. Thus industrial democracy is being gradually developed.

Emphasis Is Needed

"There is a principle in our economic life that needs somewhat more emphasis. Long ago James Otis declared that kings were made for the good of the people and not the people for kings. It needs also to be remembered that the people are not created for the benefit of industry, but industry is created for the benefit of the people. Those who are employed in it are its chief beneficiaries. Those who have acquired capital provide the plant and machinery for the workman. Those who have acquired skill in organization provide the management for the workman. This manager secures the raw materials and oversees the product. Capital and management perform the great service for the benefit of the workman. He performs a corresponding service for them. Into each who contributes according to his ability there is due equal consideration and equal honor. There is no degradation in industry, it is a worthy one. It is the duty of each who contributes to it. It will be successful in accordance with the opportunity given for the development of all the powers of man.

Under this system, as soon as employees could organize and make decisions, conditions could be established to the most violent and bitter of industrial disputes. All hands were eagerly asserting their right to rule, forgetful of their obligations to obey.

"Investigation and experience have gradually brought about the recognition of the correct principle. Time and social development will insure its adoption. Industry is changing from the theory of exclusion to the theory of inclusion. It no longer is content with one small part of the individual, it

Are You the Man Who "Never Reads Advertisements"?

Some men, who are neither blind nor illiterate, claim sincerely that they "never read advertisements."

Yet, if you could investigate, in each case you would find that the man who "never reads advertisements" used an advertised tooth paste or shaving cream or soap. If he owns an automobile it will be an advertised car. If you ask his opinion of any automobile he will reply in words that might have been lifted bodily from an advertisement of that automobile.

Advertising has formed his opinions to a great degree.

He may have received his information through others who obtained their knowledge from advertising. But it is a fact that no man can escape the effect of advertising even if he does say he "never reads advertisements."

Not one of us ever reasoned out entirely from his own mind that the earth is round. If we had not read it or heard it we would never have known it.

In these days of good, truthful, helpful advertising to say, "I never read advertisements" is merely your way of saying, "I don't read all advertisements."

kind and of the acceptance of the obligation alike to rule and to obey.

"The disappointment which has been experienced, at first thought in the increase of power, whether of wealth or place, has resulted from the expectation that it would bring relief from the necessity of obedience. Neither politics nor industrial democracy can relieve mankind from the requirement of obedience. There is no substitute for virtue. Too much emphasis has been put on the desire to rule and too little on the obligation to obey. More, and more all social problems must be worked out in accordance with this principle. An obedient nation would possess supreme power. The law of life, the law of progress, is the law of obedience, the law of service.

"Whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant."

Has a Skyrosper. In central Massachusetts east of the Connecticut valley, in a ridge of hills, which after crossing into New Hampshire, sends up a well-known watch tower known as Mount Monadnock, 7195 feet, says the American Forestry Magazine. This range continues northward sending up an occasional peak like Mount Sunapee, the southern Kearsarge and Mount Cardigan.

Why the "Horse's" Chestnut? An English writer says the horse chestnut has no connection whatever with the horse. Evidently he has not thoroughly examined the tree, for wherever a small branch or cluster of leaves starts, there is the shape of a horse's hoof, even to the print of the nail, used in putting the shoe on. It is plainly seen when one knows it is there.

Always. Better break your word than be wrong in keeping it.

It was Williams' 27th circuit drive of the season and his fifth in the last five days. The Browns increased their lead to two games as a result of their victory while the Chicago-New

Both are coming more and more to look upon this bank as their favorite bank! Why? Possibly because they are made to feel "at home" here; that is always a reason for opening business relations with any firm.

Of they may have been referred to this bank by a present depositor. Much of this bank's consistent growth comes from that source—a fact which gives us genuine gratification. Any straightforward concern, no matter how small, will like it here.

FIRST GUN FIRED IN ATTACK UPON COMMISSION MEN

Maintenance of Unjust and Unreasonable Rates by Livestock Brokers Alleged in Statement by Wallace

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1, (AP)—Exchanges at Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul and Portland and all commission men market agencies at those exchanges and individual commission firms at Fort Worth are alleged to maintain unjust, unreasonable and discriminatory rates for purchase and sale of livestock in charges filed with the packers and stockyards administration, according to a statement issued today by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

The charges, the statement said, were filed by the American National Livestock association, the National Wool Growers' association and 15 state livestock associations. The defendants have been given until September 1, the statement said, to file an answer or to satisfy the complaints.

The producers' organizations making the complaints represent that the livestock commission charges are approximately 100 per cent higher than those prevailing on these markets in 1905; that they are unlawful and should be reduced. They also complain that charges are discriminatory in that a greater average per car charge is imposed and collected on shipments of certain classes of lightweight livestock than is imposed on heavier animals where a smaller number is loaded in a car.

No price discrimination.

The complaints also point out that in auction charges, no distinction is made as to the value of the individual animals, or the gross per car value of animals selling at low prices as compared with those selling at high prices. Further, they complain that charges for the sale of mixed livestock in car lots and for the sale of unsorted or mixed lots of two or more individual animals for the purchase of stockers and feeders are unjust, unreasonable and discriminatory.

The complaining associations ask, on behalf of all shippers of livestock to the markets mentioned, for an award of damages against the defendants by the amount of the commission charges collected over and above what may be determined by the secretary of agriculture to be reasonable and just reparations in date from the time those species became registrants under the act.

The producers' organizations also demand satisfaction to the alleged general belief of stockmen that the livestock commission business is overdone, that there are too many men engaged in it and that because of this a large number gaining a livelihood from it, an unfair, unjust and unreasonable burden is imposed on the shippers of livestock.

GOVERNORSHIP IN DOUBT

W. Y. Morgan and W. E. Stubbs in Neck and Neck Race for Governor of Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 2, (AP)—W. Y. Morgan of Hutchinson, former lieutenant governor and W. E. Stubbs, former governor, were running a neck-and-neck race for governor on returns available here at 1 o'clock this morning. At that hour returns tabulated from 23 counties, including 123 precincts complete and a large number incomplete, out of the 2338 precincts in the state showed: Morgan 5484; Stubbs, 6311.

T. A. McNeal of Topeka and W. F. Lamberton of Lawrence putting on a similar race for third place, while Fred Knapp of Salina seemed assured of fifth.

Scattering returns showed that four of the republican congressmen who are opposed for re-nomination, are leading in their respective districts.

Exclusive Nahant's Kicks Can't Stop His Charity

MIKE DI CARLO'S GUESTS

When Mike Di Carlo made a fortune in his butcher shop at Lynn, Mass., he went over to exclusive Nahant and bought the fashionable residence shown in the lower picture. Then, Mike having nothing of the sort in his mind, he invited the poor of Lynn, regardless of creed, color or anything else, to be his guests and make merry in his home. They did, and the bloodhounds of the summer complained that his gatherings were disorderly. Mike was arrested and freed at once, with praise from the magistrate. The upper picture shows a wagonload of Lynn's poor on their way to Mike's home in Nahant.

FOREST FIRES GAIN HEADWAY IN NORTHWEST

North Fork of Flathead River District and Eastern Washington Scene of Most Disastrous Blazes

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 1, (AP)—Two forest fires, one of 1000 acres, burning in the Blackfoot forest, on the north fork of the Flathead and the other of 200 acres in the Kanaskut forest, in eastern Washington, on the Priest river, were the most dangerous elements in the forest fire situation in district No. 1 of the forest service today. Both of these fires are gaining headway against large crews fighting them.

High temperatures and hot, drying winds have created a critical condition in the woods of western Montana, Idaho and Eastern Washington, forest service officials said today.

The timber being burned by the 1000 acre fire is owned principally by the Nell Lumber company. Sixty-five men are combating this blaze, which is the second largest in this district this year.

On Burned-Over Lands.

Thirty-one men are fighting the fire on Star creek, on the Kootenai forest, near the Idaho-Montana line. This has burned over 25 acres and 15 acres have been burned by a blaze on the same forest, on Three-Mile creek, crows from the Snowflame mine, near Troy, Mont., are fighting the blaze, which may threaten the mine property. Two new fires broke out on the Kootenai forest today, both of them caused by lightning.

The Marble creek, Foehl creek and Homestead creek fires, all on the St. Joe forest, south of Avery, Idaho, were being held by large crews of fighters today.

Returns from the whole district were meagre. The Second and Sixth districts were the only ones in which there were contests.

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP)—Decreased rural selling after a new low price record for the season had been touched led to something of a rally today in the wheat market. The close was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish at 3-8 to 3-4 cents, having September $108 7/8 to 1.00 and December $108 1/8 to 1.02. Corn gained 5/8 to 1-3-8, and oats advanced 1/8 to 1-1/8, and provisions down 1/2 to 3/8.

Persistent buying activity, though in small amounts had a bullish effect on the wheat market during the first half of the board of trade session, and it was not until the close that the market turned down. The early outburst, however, was not sufficient to bring about a change in the market, and the close was a steady one with domestic milling demand limited to an occasional order. New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—Earlier prices in the stock market today tended upward again with what proved an erroneous assumption that President Harding's plan for a settlement of the rail strike would be accepted by the opposing interests.

The market reacted sharply later, however, in the absence of news that moderate public opinion and pressure against motor, rubbers, steels and equipments, which seemed to originate largely from professional speculators.

Settlement of motor agreement was impeded by announcements of further cuts in the prices of several popularly held stocks. The reaction, however, was attributed to similar conditions in the tire trade.

Reactions among steel and equipment firms from the terms of the iron loan were ascribed to delay in the awarding of contracts by the Federal railway system. Fuel shortage also encouraged uncertainty in these lines.

STORIED UP FOR HISTORIAN

Write Congress Attention to Real Value of Congressional Record, Not of Common Knowledge.

The Congressional Record is the butt of the humorist, the subject of a storehouse of political quotations for the historian of tomorrow. It is the target at which the satirist shoots his arrows of wit, but it contains a compendium of information which stands as an accurate contribution to political science through the ages, when those who have cast their lives and sneers have been forgotten. A mariner cast ashore on a desert island with nothing to read but the debates of congress could amuse himself in a few years by crammed with facts at a culture which would know something about nearly every subject under the sun, including romantic literature and poetry. It would have a substantial grasp upon the development of government, economics and political philosophy, says the Washington Post.

Every man who has ever spoken on the floor of the senate or house has left something in the sun total of what the Record contains. Even the errors propagated in debate are useful; they help one to ascertain the ultimate truth. Thomas B. Reed once said that every member of the house would have a substantial thing to say if it would be discovered that there was a substantial reason explaining why every man was there. A great deal of matter gets into the Record every day which at the time may seem irrelevant. With the passage of the years importance is emphasized. In 1922 the Congressional Record of today will be an invaluable repository of facts bearing upon all phases of life as it now lived.

HAD NEW TELEGRAPHIC IDEA

Warfare System of Communication in Germany Was Something of an Innovation Then.

During the time the scientific world was much interested by the report that the German army was using a method of communication known as "telegraphy through the ground." Subsequent investigation by the interested parties with the assistance of the method was a compromise between wireless and one-wire telegraphy.

The two communication stations were not connected by wire. A wire was placed along the lightning through both ends extending into the ground, and current from a Ruhmkorff coil or kindred apparatus was conveyed along it. Installed parallel to this wire, and some distance in advance of it, was a similar wire, in which current was induced by the first, thus permitting the sending of signals.

The method is thus broadly similar to wireless, except that the ground forms the medium, instead of the air. One would imagine, however, that although the method has the advantage that there are no intervening wires to be cut, it would be a very simple system to tap.
