PUNTS AND PASSES

BY FULLBACK.
After watching the candidates at Lincoln field each evening, one soon discovers the reason for Twin Falls being the team which has the most members of hundred starling warriors are out every evening trying to make the team and although a select few will be chosen, unchosen birds are not on the job and working hard. It is a pleasure to watch them.

BROWNS DROP ONE

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—St. Louis dropped two and one-half games behind in the pennant race today by losing to Washington while New York kept leading Detroit. Washington came from behind in the eighth and by bunting back, including doubles by Harris and Rice, ran up three runs in the sixth when Judge hit the other run into the right field stands for a home run off an infielder.
Home runs by Williams and Collins in the fourth and sixth innings, respectively, and Collins' double in the ninth, scoring Severstal, who had retired, accounted for the Browns' run.
Williams' cleft was into the right field stands and was his 39th for the season.
He is now leading all other major league players by two circuit drives.
George Sizer was out of the lineup because of his injured right shoulder, but batted for Van Gilder in the eighth, and struck out.

St. Louis 2 8 0

THE ORPHEUM PROMISES FOUR GOOD SETS FOR TODAY'S OFFERING.

Silver and Edna are the headlines in a lightning-act novelty.
Kilgour and Clarke have a skit called "Woo-Woo-Papa," a combination of comedy and farce.
Matus and Young offer a dramatic and clever singing and dancing act. Clyde Flory opens the show with a banjo act that is well over the average. A Rupert Hughes picture, "The Wall Flower," with a News Weekly rounds out this bill which will be shown both matinee and night.
"The Trap," which closes tonight at the Biato theatre, is a story, thundering story of a simple hearted French-Canadian who becomes a wolf in human form after he is cheated in love and business. His domineering cunning reaches a climax in his death trap for the man who has taken everything from him. Lon Chaney, making his debut as a star in this Universal-Jewel attraction, portrays the role of the trapper in a manner that reaches the height of screen artistry.
Fanciful, different, dramatic, possessing two separate plots and two separate sets of characters, "Borderland," the Agnes Ayres Paramount picture which opens at the Idaho Theatre for two days beginning Tuesday, is destined to be a real melodramatic novelty. On the same program is a new Christie comedy in which Bobby Vernon has the lead. Then there is a Sport Review entitled "Record Breakers" showing record breaking in college athletics. The slow-motion camera makes these scenes interesting. Three thousand athletes participated in the great meet at Pennsylvania State.

MONDAY AT LINCOLN FIELD

The boys were treated to a real baseball game, the two teams divided equally as to weight. Several leads looked mighty good, but it is a bit too early to make any predictions as to who will make the grade.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)—

Monarchs' Williams of the St. Louis American clubbed his 39th home of the season in the fourth inning of today's game with Washington. No one was on base at the time. Williams now is leading the majors by two home runs, his closest competitor being Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis National, who has 35 circuit drives to his credit this season.

THE CAVE MAN BURIED HIS DEAD WITH AS SOLEMN RELIGIOUS RITE AS ANY IN VOGUE TODAY.

Such is the conclusion of Professor Meinage of the French Catholic Institute, from his painstaking studies of relics and ethnological records. Furthermore, he is convinced that their religion was not basically different from ours, and that the latter is merely an evolution of the former. The tophus with curving reveal, owing to its common use as amulet or talisman, although the cave man's belief undoubtedly accepted a plurality of gods, from which the idea of one supreme being later emerged. Professor Meinage's investigations, while pointing to the evolutionary future of religion, throw no light on the origin of the monotheistic concept—Scientific American.

THE WESTERN PRAIRIES.

I have been most impressed with that vast something, stretching out on its unbounded scale, unconfined, which there is in these prairies, combining the real and the ideal, and beautiful as dreams. I wonder, indeed, if the people of this continental inland West know how much of first-class art they have in these prairies—how original and all-your-own—how much of the influence for character, for such future beauty, broad, patriotic, heroic and here? How entirely they tally on land the grandeur and superb monotony of the skies of heaven and the ocean with its waters—Walt Whitman.

TARIFF BILLS NOW READY FOR CONCLUDING ACT

President's Signature All That Remains to Put Into Effect Administration Schedule of Duties

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—By a vote of 43 to 28 the senate today adopted the conference report on the tariff of 1922. Adoption of the report marked final legislative action on the measure which now goes to President Harding. It will become effective the day after he signs it.

The vote came on one year, eight months and 13 days after work on the measure began on what was the first republican protective tariff law in almost ten years.

Treasury experts estimate that the new act will yield about $400,000,000 a year in revenue, one-half from these four sources: Sugar, $97,000,000; raw wool, $100,000,000; iron, $125,000,000; and lace and embroideries, $100,000,000.

Joseph S. McCoy, secretary of the treasury, figures that in actual operation the effective equivalent of duties will average slightly below those in the famous Payne-Aldrich act. The average of rates, as written, however, is declared to be the highest in the history of American tariffs, while those in other schedules are estimated to be lower than in any other protective act.

Rates in some of the schedules are declared to be the highest in the history of American tariffs, while those in other schedules are estimated to be lower than in any other protective act.

CHURCHMEN TAKE IMPORTANT STEP

Amendment to Constitution of Protestant Episcopal Church is Finally Adopted

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19 (AP)—After an extended debate in which was discussed the whole matter of the concord—the proposed arrangement whereby bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States would be enabled to ordain ministers of the Congregational church—the house of deputies of the general convention today adopted finally an amendment to the constitution which was proposed to remove a barrier against such proposed ordinations.

The amendment had been adopted at the last convention and approved by the house of deputies at the present general convention. It provides for the insertion of the words "to minister in this church," and enables Episcopal bishops, which says they do not subscribe to all the doctrines of the Episcopal church. It was proposed to make possible further legislation to amend the machinery of the concord into action.

Relation of the Episcopal church with the orthodox, and old Catholic churches, was discussed in the house of deputies which occurred in a resolution of the house of bishops placing the matter of such relation in the hands of the bishops with power to act in the interval before the next general election.

Resolutions providing that a joint committee be appointed to take up matters in connection with the relations of the Protestant Episcopal church and federal council of churches of Christ in America and who were appointed by Bishop C. H. Brent of New York. These resolutions provided that relations be maintained through the present and Christian social service and the commission on church unity and that the presiding bishop and council consider closer cooperation between the church and the federal council "for the proper promotion of the physical, moral and social welfare of all the people, with power to act in the premises."

Defining Church Attitudes. This report, after reaffirming the declarations of the Lambeth conference for affiliation of Christian communions, defined the attitude of the church as follows: "It joyfully affirms its belief in the essential unity of all who have been baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity and who worship Jesus as very God incarnate. It exists in every fresh opportunity for cooperation among Christians to promote the extension of Christ's rule as the consequent welfare of mankind; it hopes that the cause of the organic Christian unity may be furthered by such cooperation. It is aware that cooperation can never be substituted for unity, nor an answer to Christ's prayer that they all may be one."

State Championship Series to be Played in Capital City—Hansen Confident

According to arrangements effected Tuesday night, Hansen and Boie will indulge in a three-game series at Boise, starting Saturday, for the state championship. The announcement, apparently unprecedented, arrangements previously effected whereby Jerome was to play Boie in the latter city for the same title.

This eleventh hour change in program appears to have resulted through a misunderstanding as to which team, Hansen and Jerome, is entitled to the right to contend for the championship with the Boie players.

While the present arrangement is announced by Col. General, president of the Hansen club, as the final one, a further conflict of opinion is threatened by the attitude of the Jerome club, whose members are understood to stand solidly on the old ground that Jerome and not Hansen is entitled to the winning end of the Boise series.

During the latter part of August, Jerome, ready to disband, sent out a notice stating that they were undisciplined champions of southern Idaho. Hansen took issue at this and challenged Jerome for a three-game series to decide the championship. This challenge was accepted by Jerome, and the opening game was played at Twin Falls on Labor Day. Here, let it be said, that earlier in the season, Jerome had won two games from the Hansen club.

Hansen Wins First Game. The first game won by Hansen by a 3-to-1 score. After this game Jerome stated that in that they had won two games earlier in the season, those two games should be added to the series, making it a five-game affair, instead of three as had been planned originally. Before the second game, which was played at Jerome, an agreement was made whereby the series should revert back to a three-game basis. After Jerome had won the second game everything seemed to be lovely and arrangements were made at Kimberly to play the deciding game.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 19 (AP)—H. L. Leno, president of the Salt Lake baseball club of the Pacific Coast league, tonight in a telegram to William H. McCarthy, president of the league, suggested an exhibition all-star game with the winner of the Coast league pennant for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the Argonaut mine disaster.

President Leno suggested that the game be played immediately following the close of the season. The all-star team would be made up of two players from each of the other seven teams.

LATE SPORT TELEGRAMS

CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 19 (AP)—Shooting in the Horlick trophy match of the national rifle and pistol matches here, the United States infantry rifle team hung up a perfect score on the 800-yard range, establishing a world's record. Each of the eight infantrymen composing the team and a string of 100 bullets to his credit, besides each man registered bulletseers with their two shots for record. Never before in the history of rifle matches has this feat been accomplished, the nearest to it having been within five points, this former record being held by Infantrymen.

DENVER, Sept. 19 (AP)—Phil Bloom of Brooklyn, N. Y., won the judges' decision over Frankie Murphy of Denver in a 12-round bout here tonight. The men are welterweights. Murphy was the aggressor throughout the battle but Bloom proved too clever with his fists and skillful in ring generalship for the local boy.

SEATTLE, Sept. 19 (AP)—Bobby Harper of Seattle won the decision over Jack Josephs of Minneapolis in a six-round welterweight bout here tonight. Josephs landed many more blows than Harper, and the decision was received with loud calls of both approval and disapproval.

Bread Riots in Portuguese Capital Result in Free Bakers for City for One Day

LISBON, Sept. 20 (AP)—The recent bread riots in this city, the protest of the people against the late rise in the price of this commodity, produced a spectacular figure. A tall, good-looking woman, barefooted, dressed in white with a scarlet handkerchief around her head and carrying a black flag on a staff, led the crowd which was raving bakers. She waved her banner, cheered the mob, and exhorted the people to revolt.

The police closed in on her and she was soon suppressed, but her place was immediately taken by another wild-eyed agitator, who had no trouble in leading the rioters. The people of Lisbon paid nothing for their bread on this day. The bakers, suffered the loss.

THE SAVING AND INDUSTRY Back of every branch of our highly developed American industry stands the savings book. It has been the accumulated savings of millions of our people that has made our great development possible.

Practically every prominent figure in American finance and industry states, emphatically, that his success has been the result of a determination at the beginning of his career to learn to save; and through that determination was accumulated his first capital, often a small amount.

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.
 CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Although still nervous, wheat traders took more possibilities today with more confidence, especially as the Liverpool market failed to refect fully yesterday's advance in America. Prices here closed unsettled, 1.6-1.75 on lower wheat, December $1.67 1/2 to 1.94 and May $1.08 1/2 to 1.03 1/4. Corn finished 1-1/2 to 5-8 advance, oats unchanged to 1-8 to 1-4 down and provisions unchanged to a decline of 1/2 cents.

In the absence of any apparent increased danger of war, on a great scale and with no signs of important fresh buying for Europe, wheat prices in Chicago showed from the outlook a tendency toward a moderate extent from yesterday's sharp upturn.

Liquidating sales by yesterday's buyers was a feature. Meanwhile, reports indicated a decline between France and Great Britain as to war policy did a good deal to hold speculative sellers from becoming aggressive, but failed to stimulate the market sufficiently to renew the enlarged interest which was conspicuous in the market the day before.

The wheat reported export bids for wheat as being far out of line and estimated that fully 300,000 bushels had been taken there. Europe today, purchasing here for export, was estimated to 300,000 bushels of hard winter wheat. According to a British authority, military in France and Italy, wheat in general were undisturbed as to future supplies.

On the other hand, stocks of wheat at Liverpool showed a decrease for the week and domestic primary receipts were smaller.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened the provision market.

POTATO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Potatoes, white or white, steady on Early Ohio; receipts 100 cars for export, was estimated to 300,000 bushels of hard winter wheat. According to a British authority, military in France and Italy, wheat in general were undisturbed as to future supplies.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Prices in today's stock market recovered substantially from yesterday's severe setback, containing the impression that the decline was brought about by the technical conditions of the market. To-day's volume was acceptable and a good volume of business.

Railroad shares as a group gave the most consistent exhibition of strength, such representative shares as Union Pacific and New York Central opening at substantial gains and offering substantial resistance to selling pressure.

Stocks, such as Mexican Petroleum, Baldwin and Marine preferred, which were subjected to the heaviest attacks yesterday, were again acceptable and a good volume of business.

Government bonds were active at steadily rising prices, the directors' annual meeting of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. was held in New York City, Sept. 19, 1922.
