SUIT BARES BOLD PLAN FOR RICHES

Hugo Slinnes, German Financier, Author of Alleged Schemes for Collection of Money in Millions

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—Attachments of funds carried in four New York banks to the credit of Hugo Slinnes, German industrial magnate, in connection with a $2,000,000 branch of contract suit filed by James A. Hillman, trustee of the Slinnes Trust company, through various financial schemes, had made attempts to float loans for hundreds of millions of dollars in this country.

The attachment order, signed by Supreme Court Justice Wasservogel, was placed in effect by deputy sheriff. The funds, the exact amount of which was not disclosed, are held by the National City bank, the Guaranty Trust company, the Equitable Trust company and Hollen and company.

Tillman, described as a financial promoter, claimed that the attachment order was entered into on May 3, 1919, he entered into an agreement with Slinnes which necessitated the transfer to a Swedish corporation controlled by Slinnes, of certain agencies for developing trade with the United States. These agencies were owned by Tillman, he stated, and he was to become, under the agreement, managing director of the principal office at Stockholm.

Would Furnish Security Slinnes, Tillman's statement continued, was to furnish collateral security that Tillman might undertake to secure a loan of $125,000,000 in the United States.

This amount was needed by Slinnes at the time, it was said, for the purchase of the American raw material.

Instead of furnishing this collateral, the statement continued, Slinnes caused a lot of "financial schemes" as a means of raising the $125,000,000, which Tillman thought never would be seriously entertained by American bankers.

One of these schemes was an average, was that he was to obtain a $100,000,000 loan upon Slinnes' promissory note, unsecured by any collateral.

Would Buy Marks After this loan, the statement went on, Slinnes planned to use the money for the purchase of the $100,000,000 bill of exchange at the current exchange rate, $101.25. With the marks, Slinnes intended to purchase mortgage bonds, held by the Federal Reserve bank, which functions something after the fashion of American title and bond and mortgage companies.

After these mortgages were secured, Slinnes was to sell the marks in exchange for dollars. Slinnes was to send them to the United States as collateral for a $50,000,000 loan based on pre-war value of the marks. Slinnes figured he would not be observed by American bankers in this manipulation.

Explicated Plans Tillman said he told Slinnes he could not do this, and when Slinnes knew American bankers would not entertain them, but Slinnes refused to listen to him. Slinnes, who had used was that him for commissions in the enterprise, he understood for Slinnes.

LOSES PAYROLL IN HARD FIGHT

Guardians of Cash Amounting to $75,000 Set Upon by Armed-Thugs in Daylight

YANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 29 (AP)—Three unmasked bandits today held up the city paymaster, F. P. Schooley, and Robert Armstrong, a city hall employe, and robbed them of $75,000 in currency intended for a city payroll. The three escaped in an automobile after a spectacular race in the town streets.

Armstrong and Schooley were returning from a bank to the city hall when the payroll and had reached a point within 50 feet of the city hall entrance when the men sprang at them, ordering Armstrong, who was carrying the money "to drop it quick."

Police announced they had a definite clue to the identity of the bandits.

BABY GUY STILLMAN

Baby Guy Stillman

The legitimacy of whose birth is established through the decision announced Friday which denies the petition of his father, James A. Hillman, for a divorce and finds him guilty of misconduct of the same character as that charged to his wife, of which charge the latter was acquitted. Incidentally, the result of the decision will mean that Baby Guy shares equally with his brothers and sisters in the family fortune of several million dollars.

Question as to Whether Child Dispatchers are Officials or Subordinate Officials Is Up

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (AP)—Arguments on the status of train dispatchers—whether they are officials or subordinate officials—to determine their right to contract for wages and other agreements between carriers and American Train Dispatchers' association, occupied the attention of the United States railroad labor board today.

While the board was hearing arguments by the board's executive, John H. Walker, head of the railroad firemen's organization, President Robert Hoover asked for the conference with Chairman Hooper to discuss pending matters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—An indictment against approximately 85 percent of the corporations, firms and individuals engaged in producing shell potteries in this country, was made public today by William Hayward, United States attorney for the southern district of New York.

The indictment is a series of statements taken against various industries affecting housing and begun by the investigation carried on by the Look magazine.

The indictment was reported by the July grand jury which brought the deliberations of the body into August. The indictment held against 24 individuals.

The firm and individuals named were engaged principally in the manufacture of porcelain and earthenware fixtures for bathrooms in apartment houses. Several of the indicted firms also manufacture bath tubs and similar accessories.

The indictment is in two counts. The first charges the defendants as having been engaged in a price fixing combination. The second charges that the defendants have unlawfully fixed the price of porcelain and earthenware in a selected group of so-called "legitimate jobbers."

The price fixing count alleges that since the defendants' manufacture and sale of 85 percent of all the sanitary pottery produced in the United States, they have been able by concerted action, to cause uniform and non-competitive prices.

As the second count, Mr. Hayward said, the defendants had a rule whereby members of the group were to purchase directly from the manufacturer or the contractor. The manufacturer, according to Hayward, conspired to sell to "legitimate jobbers" at a price which in turn, would confine his sales to "legitimate plumbers."

The jobber and the plumber in each case, said the indictment, had been given without fear of competition.

WIDE AREA IN GRIP OF FIRE FIEND

Flames Fanned by 30 Mile Gale Raging Over Tract 15 Miles Wide Defy Efforts of Fighters

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 29 (AP)—A dense fog of smoke hangs over Duluth tonight and forest fires worse than the one which broke out early today, fanned by a 30 mile gale are raging over an area 15 miles wide along the Miller Trunk and Vermillion trail roads.

The flames have eaten their way nearly 20 miles along the two roads, defying hundreds of fighters, blinded by the smoke and the intensity of the heat.

Fortunately, few settlers reside in the fire zone and no villages are immediately threatened. The towns of Ellsworth, Cotton, Fairbanks and Wadena, however, are in the path of the flames.

Change in the direction of the wind tonight from the west to the northwest has caused additional worry among the forestry officials and military.

Captain Travis C. Williams of the air force, declared that conditions were "very serious" on his return from a survey of the entire area.

Following a trip through the area, declared the commander was becoming critical.

Several Die When Fire-Flend Claims 5-Story Apartment

Department Cut Off from Reason Work by Flames; Four Bodies Recovered

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Several persons were burned to death today when a fire broke out early today in a five-story apartment house at 241 West 109th street.

Flames shooting from the windows made almost impossible for firemen to enter the building from scaling ladders thrown up from the street.

Four bodies were removed from the upper floor. Three firemen managed to reach that floor.

Ten persons were rushed to hospitals in which broke out early today in a five-story apartment house at 241 West 109th street.

HOSILE NOTE FROM TURKS REGARDED AS END TO PEACE HOPE

SULTAN IS WILLING BUT ABICATION HAS NOT YET TAKEN PLACE

PARIS, Sept. 29 (AP)—The abdication of Mohammed VI, sultan of Turkey, is not yet accomplished, but the sultan has expressed the desire to do so in order to bring peace, according to a telegram received from the Ankara agency, who stated that the Constantinople dispatch to Ankara.

The dispatch further stated that the sultan's state of health prevented him from attending to the affairs of the empire. In Ankara parliamentary circles, the news is considered as correct.

A Havas agency dispatch from Constantinople yesterday said the sultan had abdicated in favor of the heir apparent, Prince Abdul Mehmed, but the sultan's resignation, but added that the news was not confirmed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29 (AP)—The situation between the British and the Turkish nationalities was extremely tense tonight, according to the London Times. Kemal Pasha, British commander, concluded in hostile terms, was considered by British military circles as a serious obstacle to the peace settlement of the straits question. The prospects of an armed conflict were considered more evident than previously.

The note of Kemal demands the retirement of all British troops from the Asiatic side of the straits, as the French and Italians have done, and says in case of acquiescence, the British will have to accept a peace settlement of the straits question. The prospects of an armed conflict were considered more evident than previously.

It also demands the cessation of what it termed the arbitrary measures of the British in Constantinople in dealing with the Turkish population and a solemn undertaking that no Greek vessel shall be permitted to pass in the Bosphorus straits with a protest against the destruction of Turkish war material in the straits.

The note of Kemal was in reply to the last written communication of General Harrington, and transmitted through Hammad Bey, the nationalist minister in Constantinople, to Kemal in Smyrna.

It stated in British circles that night that they would be forced to modify their conciliatory attitude at the moment the Turks bring up charges against the British. It would be said to threaten seriously the European side of the Dardanelles and also hamper passage of British vessels through the straits.

Six submarines of the British fleet are being ordered to the Bosphorus to prevent the transport of Turkish troops across the sea of Marmara in the event of war between the British and the Turks. The British have posted batteries in strategic positions on the heights of Chalcedon and at Mal-Tepelik on the peninsula of Gallipoli. Three destroyers are on the Asiatic side of the Bosphorus, a short distance from Constantinople.

Some optimism was felt today over the prospect of a peace settlement. Bouillon, the French ambassador, and Mustafa Kemal Pasha at Smyrna, where there was a conference on the general peace settlement, which would be held in London.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 29 (AP)—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, was today nominated by the Democratic State Convention for governor and lieutenant governor.

The withdrawal of the name of William B. Hearst as a candidate during the afternoon, smothered out the prospect of a contest between the two. Hearst, who had been named as a candidate for a modification of the Volstead act to legalize the use of beer and light wine under state regulation.

Dr. Royal Samuel Copeland, of New York, nominated for United States senator, a member of the grand jury, Mayor George B. Lusk, of New York, who led the Hearst forces at the convention.

The platform adopted condemns both the national administration of the republican party. It calls the national administration a failure and "bankrupt of ability or achievement."

CHANGES OF SETTLEMENT VERY SLIGHT

Kemal Pasha Demands Retirement of All British Troops From Asiatic Side of Straits—England to Stand Pat

The events pause in the near east. Outcome of Pending Negotiations May Be Signal for Beginning of War or Peace

LONDON, Sept. 29 (AP)—The events of the next few days probably will be decisive in determining the outcome of the meeting when Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the French ambassador, and Mustafa Kemal Pasha at Smyrna, where there was a conference on the general peace settlement, which would be held in London.

FAMOUS ART GALLERIES OF RUSSIA ARE INTACT

Little Truth in Frequent Assertions that Land of Soviets Has Lost Art Treasures

PETROGRAD, Sept. 29 (AP)—The Hermitage, one of the greatest art galleries in the world, exists today in all its pre-war magnificence as a visible refutation not only of reports that Russia's fine paintings had been destroyed or stolen during the revolution, but of those adventurers who occasionally have peddled in New York and

Paris, supposedly original paintings from its collections. Small groups of school children, plotted through the galleries by teachers; a few art students; occasional provincial enthusiasts, and now and then a foreigner who strays into Petrograd are about the only visitors to the galleries, and they seem lost in its spacious rooms. But the great paintings still are on the splendid walls; the rare porcelains and Greek vases of priceless antiquity are still in their glass cabinets; the marble statues brought from the ends of the earth still stand on their pedestals; the unrivaled collections of old coins, Egyptian scarabs and countless other art objects are still in their carefully numbered trays and the mummies still lie in their sarcophagi grim and grinning despite the latest revolution that has passed over their heads.

The Winter Palace, adjoining the Hermitage, still bears marks of the shelling and machine-gunning received during the early days of the Bolshevik coup d'etat, but the building housing the valuable art collections has been spared even these marks of battle. Its exterior walls are red and smooth, the ten gigantic Atlantes in Finnish marble—huge, naked, Herakleian feet high and each carved from a single block of granite—hold up its portico in line of pillars and are as smooth and glistening as the day they were placed there in 1852, although the square that fronts them has been the scene of much hard fighting.

Special Guards Employed. Immediately after the Bolsheviks won control, special guards were placed about the Hermitage and it was saved from looting. The already priceless collections are being augmented today by the most valuable of the objects of art confiscated by the government from private persons during the early days of the revolution.

In painting the Hermitage ranks with the Louvre in Paris and the famous galleries of Spain and Italy. The Dutch and Flemish pictures are more numerous and more valuable than are the collections in Holland or Belgium. In all there are more than 8000 paintings, each of which is worth a small fortune, and there are besides 200,000 engravings and 15,000 drawings, each so valuable that it merits careful preservation for posterity.

Most of Petrograd's other famous art galleries and museums which also are again being opened to the public prove, like the Hermitage, to be intact. The same is true of Moscow and other principal Russian cities, where the soviet government, like the regime of the czar, has jealously guarded collections of art.

CUBS BUNCH HITS AND WIN

Defeat Cardinals in Only Game Played in National League; Peculiar Play Features

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (AP)—Obornoe led St. Louis to two hits, while Chicago bunched five of its hits off Pflfer and defeated the St. Louis Cardinals.

The entire visiting club surrounded umpire Egan on a peculiar play in the sixth inning. Pflfer, backed for Lavan and walked. When he reached the base, Mann took his place to run for him without notifying the umpire. Pflfer went to the base. O'Farrell then threw the ball to Grimes, who touched Mann and he was declared out. The St. Louis players ran from the bench and while they were arguing Pflfer returned to first. "The umpire then ruled that Mann was not in the game and Pflfer had not been tagged out. Then Mann was announced as the runner and the game resumed."

Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 0 2 3
Chicago 5 10 0
Batteries—Pflfer, North and Ainsmith; Obornoe and O'Farrell.

WHITE SOX MEET DEFEAT

Still Have Fighting Chance for Pennant as Red Sox Wallow, Yankees

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 29 (AP)—Tommy runs by Johnny Tobin and masterful pitching in the pinches by Van Gilder gave St. Louis a victory over Chicago today. Tobin, the local's lead-off man, clouted the first ball. Right after that he went into the right field stands for a circuit breaker. His second home came in the third inning on his second trip to the plate and the ball fell virtually in the same place. Van Gilder was the first man to play in this inning also.

The victory continues the mathematical possibility of the Browns taking the pennant in view of New York's defeat by Boston today. Should the locals win their two remaining games and the Yankees lose theirs the teams would be tied for first place and a play-off series would be necessary.

STARTS HIS THIRD YEAR

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 29 (AP)—Vivian Marsh, captain of Drake and formerly's 1923 football team, is playing his third year of intercollegiate football this season. He probably will play right guard again this year.

Marsh tips the scales at more than 180 pounds. He is fast and regarded as one of the best leaders Drake has and captaining his team in several years. Before coming to Drake, Marsh played four years of high school football in his home town, Fort Madison, Iowa.

BREAN ON VAQUANT LOTS

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 29 (AP)—Frank ("Duke") Hanny, captain of the Indiana university football team for 1922, started his gridiron career on the vacant lots of his home town, Auburn, Ill., where he developed rapidly when he entered high school. He is one of the most versatile players that ever wore the crimson, being a good kicker, can throw and pull down forward passes with equal success, is heavy enough to buck the line, when called upon, and fast enough to kick the one-its that plays a part in diagnosing plays of the opposing team.

Hanny was injured at the start of the season last year in the game with Harvard and never was able to display his entire ability, but in 1920 he was credited with having held his opponents to only four yard gains, while in play. Captain Hanny is an excellent student, good natured and popular. He is 24 years old and served overseas in the late war.

QUINN BEATS YANKEE

BOSTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Boston again defeated the league leading New York Yankees today. Jack Quinn, former Yankee spiltball star, held the visitors to five hits and had the better of Bob Shawkey in a seasonally played game. As the St. Louis Browns won their game today with Chicago, the pennant issue in the American league remains undecided. To clinch the league, the Yankees must win a game or the Browns lose one.

Boston 1 6 0
Batteries—Shawkey and Schang; Quinn and Ruel.

ATHLETIC WIN TWO.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29 (AP)—Philadelphia took both ends of a double-header from Washington today. The first game was a pitcher's battle between Ogdan and Erickson, and the former gave way to Bommel in the 12th, who won his 26th victory. Scores

First game: R. H. E.

TRAINER TAKES NEW JOB

EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 29 (AP)—King Brady, for several years trainer of the Chicago Cubs has been engaged by Dana M. Evans, director of athletics at Northwestern university, as trainer of the football players.

Tex Rickard Announces Securing of Senegalese for Bout in New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—With announcement today by Tex Rickard, promoter, that he definitely had arranged to import Battling Siki, Senegalese conqueror of George Carpentier, for a bout Thanksgiving day, followers of fights began speculating the water except he would be the first American to meet the negro.

Rickard declined to say what American boxer he had in prospect, but he did assert that Siki's first opponent would not be a "fast up."

"There are three or four high class men in the light heavyweight class and I will select one of these after the foreigner arrives here," the promoter declared.

The reigning king of the American light heavyweight is Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh. He has been reported as anxious to meet Jack Dempsey, world heavyweight champion, but that is as far as his ambition has carried him.

Wins From Gene Tunney

Greb took the American title from Gene Tunney, fighter of Greenwich village in a 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Tunney has been trying to get back into the ring with the Pittsburgher and is billed for a return go some time this winter.

After Battling Levinsky had lost the world's light heavyweight championship to Georges Carpentier, the latter lost the American title to Tunney.

An additional possibility is that the winner of the Tom Olibon-Billy Blake contest at Madison Square Garden October 18 may be matched with Siki.

Agrees to All Conditions

Either of these four men comes under Rickard's specifications.

Siki has agreed to all conditions for a battle, Rickard said, and if he wins in his first attempt, or makes a good showing, he will be matched to meet Dempsey next June. The Senegalese is expected to sail from France late in October, reaching here early in November in ample time to be in good shape for a Thanksgiving day bout at Madison Square Garden.

BOUT COMES TO SUDDEN FINISH

Harry Willis, New Orleans Negro, Has Easy Time in Fight with South American Boxer

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—Harry Willis, New Orleans negro, won a technical knockout over Slem Johnson, South American boxer, in the 12th round of a scheduled 15 round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Johnson was battered so badly that he could not hold on and the referee stopped the bout one minute and 55 seconds after the going rang.

Johnson landed the first blow, a right to the head, but with it went his courage. Willis crashed lefts to the body and had his opponent hugging him before the first round ended.

Johnson landed two lefts to the chest in the second but held most of the way. Willis was warned for hitting in the breakaway. Willis kept pouncing Johnson in the third but the South American managed to stick through.

Johnson hugged his way through the fourth and landed a sharp left as the fifth opened. Angered, Willis smashed ponderous rabbit and kidney punches, rushing Johnson to the ropes. The latter's left eye was closed.

Willis hammered Johnson without mercy in the sixth but the latter stuck gamely.

Gregory in Seventh

Willis had Johnson groggy in the seventh and as the round ended Willis swung his right hand hitting Johnson on the head. Johnson rushed in but Willis held him off.

Willis did most of his hitting with his left in the eighth and did considerable thumping. When Johnson rushed, Willis used both hands. The South American apparently weakened. Johnson was the more feebler in the ninth and twice Willis had him staggering.

WATER ORES IS LATEST.
BERLIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—Water chess is the latest diversion to hit Berlin's sporting life. A game recently was played in the large pool of the stadium, the capital's leading sport center. A board of wood underlaid with cork was used. One of the requirements of the match was that neither player leave the water except after stated intervals of two hours each.

STATE POLICE TAKE HAND IN INVESTIGATION

New Jersey Governor Assures Daughter of Slain Woman Every Effort Will Be Used to Solve Crime Mystery

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 29.—Governor Edward D. Edwards today announced in a letter responding to a request for aid from Charlotte Mills, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, that he had invoked the assistance of the detectives of the New Jersey state police to help solve the mystery of the murder of Mrs. Mills and the Rev. Edward W. Hall.

Ever since the bodies of the slain—shot under the circumstances were found under an apple tree three weeks ago, the exact character of the woman's wounds was made known today following an autopsy after the examination of the body. This showed that in addition to three bullet wounds in her head her throat was cut.

Mrs. Hall, widow of the murdered clergyman, said tonight that she would not object to the examination of Mrs. Hall's body. The question has been raised as to whether it would permit this for the purpose of a forensic autopsy, such as has been made on Mrs. Mills' body.

According to today's autopsy which has established the fact that the caliber of the fatal bullet, Mrs. Hall said: "I didn't own guns."

No member of either the Hall or Stevens family owns a .32 calibre revolver.

Detectives studying the results of today's autopsy, concluded that the fourth bullet fired at her, which grazed her lip, had first passed through Mr. Hall's head. From the position of the bullet wound in the forehead, they believe the couple were locked in an embrace when killed. In further support of this theory, they say that one member of Mrs. Mills' wardrobe was blood-soaked, which indicated to them that the clergyman's head was resting there when he was shot.

Charlotte Mills called on Governor Edwards today at his office at Jersey City. After her visit a letter was sent to her by the governor, which says in part:

Governor Lewis A. Allen: "I have read your pathetic appeal to me with profound regret and heartfelt sympathy for you in your extremely bereaved state of mind. On this very day I have invoked the assistance of the detective force of the New Jersey state police to rush to your aid and assist the prosecutors and their staffs. Colonel J. E. Moran Schwarzkopf, superintendent of the state police, has been notified to lead the entire personnel of his force, if necessary, to this end."

with the government the national reply to the allied demands. Therefore, General Harrington has postponed his departure for Mudania to meet Kemal. Meanwhile the Turkish leader has given assurance that his troops will not advance farther than the neutral zone.

The belief prevails in British military circles that Greece may be asked to evacuate Thrace by October 10. This would permit the Kemalists to enter Thrace by ports on the sea of Marmora, avoid a violation of the status and safety of Constantinople and demand for possession of Thrace before the proposed peace conference begins.

FILER WINS FIRST GAME

Defeat Burley in Well Fought Contest by a 15 to 6 Score; Timm and Aman-Feature

BURLEY, Sept. 29.—(Special to The News).—The Filer high school football team won a close game Friday afternoon from the local gridiron stars by the score of 15 to 6.

The home team was the first to score. Filer won the toss, and chose to receive, but lost the ball on yardage. Line plunges combined with a few end runs soon had the ball in dangerous territory, and ten minutes after the game had started Burley had scored a touchdown. They failed in their attempt to add the extra point. The second quarter was devoted to exchanging points with Filer having a little the better of the argument. Toward the end of the first half the enemy snatched over the goal line. They, too, failed to make the extra point; the score at the end of the first half being 6 all.

Scores on the Touchdown.

Timm, the fleet, footed back field man of the invaders, through a series of long end runs, succeeded in making another touchdown. On a fake kick formation, which resulted in an end run, Filer gained the extra point, making the score read Filer 15, Burley 6.

During the last few minutes of play, Filer made three attempts to gain two yards for a touchdown, but failed. On their fourth attempt they fumbled, the ball going over the line with a Burley man in possession, thus giving Filer a safety, and another point. Score, Filer 15, Burley 6. The two teams were evenly matched, with Filer having a shade on the contest.

weight, and also the playing of Aman and Timm. As in last year's games these two back field men did the bulk of the heavy work for the Filer team.

BUHL TEAM UNABLE TO FATHOM AERIAL ATTACK

Westsiders Lose Game to Irrigators When Bannockman's "Duck" Misses of Open Formation Plays

BURLEY, Sept. 29.—(Special to The News).—The Buhl football team went down to defeat Friday afternoon at the hands of the local gridiron stars by the score of 27 to 0.

An aerial attack that completely baffled the "victors" accounted for most of the scoring done by the locals. "Skippy" Nelson, star quarterback of the Buhl team, covered himself with glory, being in the game every minute, and doing most of the passing. The feature of the game was a long forward pass, Nelson to Stone, the latter running 16 yards to the work. The playing of Stone and Long at half, Hammer at full and Hooper at end, featured for the home team.

JEROME DEFEATS GOODING WITH OLDSTYLE FOOTBALL

Northside's Better Through Aerial Attack of Bummy and Win Heavy Victory To Play Return Game

JEROME, Sept. 29.—(Special to The News).—Jerome won from Gooding Friday afternoon by the score of 24 to 0.

The visitors opened up with an aerial attack that bewildered the locals for a few minutes, but it didn't take long for Jerome to break up the passes, and after the first 10 minutes of play Gooding failed to make any big gains. Jerome played the old style football, figuring on their line to do the work. The two teams will play a return game at Twin Falls on Thursday on Lincoln field.

STRAIGHT FOOTBALL WINS FOR WENDELL WARRIORS

Take Easy Victory from Hagerman, With Simonsen and Elliott Showing Mid-Season Form

The local team employed straight football throughout, trying but three forward passes during the entire game. The playing of Simonsen at half and Elliott at quarter featured the contest.

The man whose name is mentioned most frequently in The Twin Falls News is—Who?

Many readers will be able to answer at once, a few, perhaps, would not guess in a month of Sundays.

Yet the personality of this man is clear cut, virile and distinctive. Not in some time has his name and a reference to his activities been omitted from The News, nor is it at all likely that the future, in this respect, will be in any manner different to the past.

A letter to a Twin Falls man from a friend in New York, exhibited at The News office yesterday, contains the information that betting in the metropolis is being freely indulged in on this man's chances of election to Congress—a personality! One of the strongest, best liked and best known in America.

Yet, McMill McCormick would place our old friend Andy Gump in the same category with Nick Carter, Peck's Bad Boy and a few screen idols—Poor Mc, can't he get a kick out of anything?

AMERICA'S FIRE LOSSES

President Harding, is issuing a proclamation calling for the observance of Monday, October ninth, the anniversary of the Chicago conflagration of eighteen hundred seventy-one, as Fire Prevention Day, draw attention to what has become a disgrace to America. "It has long become a reproach to our country," he said, "that by reason of poor construction, inadequate facilities for fire prevention and too general carelessness about possible causes of conflagration, our fire waste reaches figures year after year which are not approached in any other country in the world."

The fire losses of the United States in nineteen hundred twenty amounted to three hundred thirty million, eight hundred fifty-three thousand, nine hundred twenty-five dollars, or enough to build more than fifty-five thousand houses at a cost of six thousand dollars each. Terrible as was the Chicago fire, its loss, placed at two hundred million dollars, is seen to be much below the country's annual fire waste now. It has come to pass that every year lately we have had fire damage equal to the wiping out completely of one large city.

There is no reason why there should be a greater rate of fire waste in the United States than in any other country. The immense wealth of the American people affords no excuse. There are so many useful things to our wealth can be applied that our resources should be guarded as carefully as if the nation were poor. Wastefulness will sooner or later affect even the richest nation. As it is now American people are paying in many ways for fire losses, one of them being in increased insurance rates.

Fire Prevention Day is thus an occasion for solemn thought on the subject of waste. As the only possible way of reducing carelessness about fires is to appeal to the people individually and collectively to be careful, such observances as the one proposed are to be treated as practical and made to count to the utmost.

OUTLAPPING THE FLAPPER

Our flappers may be had enough, but let us comfort ourselves with the thought that they might be worse. As misery loves company, so do we gain comfort from the thought that there are worse off than ourselves.

—Although this ought to make us unhappy. So, while we may deplore the paint and powder, the Hottentot hair, and all the other follies of our own girls, there is something still more objectionable which they have not yet done—perhaps only because they have not thought of it, and when it is called to their attention they may take it up.

This is having themselves tattooed. Tattooing has become such a craze among young girls of England, according to reports, that local authorities are seeking powers to make it illegal to tattoo girls under twenty-one years of age.

The war, as usual, is blamed for the tattoo craze, which is more prevalent in towns where soldiers and sailors are stationed. Girls who have these horres for lovers are said to have emblems supposed to symbolize undying love and faith tattooed on their arms and chests.

CHAPTER I

The Lady in the Linenous. West still stirred in black uniform, but wearing the red choker of honorable discharge on his left breast in the club writing room, his feet comfortably elevated, endeavoring to extract some entertainment from the evening paper. The news was not particularly interesting, however, and finally, obsessed with the feeling that it would soon be time for him to seriously contemplate the procuring of suitable employment, the young man turned the sheet about rather idly, and ran his eyes down the columns devoted to classified advertisements.

Half way down the first column, under the head of "miscellaneous," he paused and read a paragraph with some interest; then read it over again, emitting a soft whistle between his teeth.

"Well, by Jove!" he said to himself slowly. "That doesn't sound so bad, either; out of the ordinary, at least. Say, Thompson," and he turned to a tall young fellow busily writing at the adjoining desk, and shoved the paper under his eye, pointing to the paragraph which he had just read with one finger. "What do you make out of that, old man?"

"The other, rather sober-faced, and slow of speech, read the advertisement word by word, with no change of expression on his face.

"That's one thing I like about it," remarked the other. "They are in earnest, and taking no chance of having their purpose guessed at. By Jove, I don't see how any one can get in bad, merely by finding out what it all means."

"Well, so as you please, you would employ. Only you have my advice."

West read the item again. He had been discharged months in France, and his discharge from the army had left him bored and dissatisfied with the dull routine of civil life. He dreaded to go back into the harness of a prosaic existence; even his profession as a civil engineer had somewhat lost its charm. He had wanted the joy of adventure, the thrill of danger, and it was still surging. This advertisement promised a mystery—quite strangely attracted his imagination.

"Wanted: Young man of education and energy for service involving some unusual perils. Good pay, and unusual reward if successful. May have to leave city. Purpose disclosed only in personal interview."

As Thompson had pointed out, this was not signed, nor any address given. West crossed over to an unoccupied desk, and wrote a note for tomorrow, wording several times, and finally making a clean copy. The answer read: "To Advertiser: Am 26; late captain of Engineers; university graduate, adventurous disposition. Would be glad to consider your proposition. Address, Box 07, University club."

He placed this in an envelope, called a club messenger for service, involving some unusual perils. Good pay, and unusual reward if successful. May have to leave city. Purpose disclosed only in personal interview.

Two days elapsed before an answer appeared in his box; a small envelope, addressed in a lady's handwriting apparently, and mailed from one of the sub-postoffices. The brief note read: "Box 07, University club. "Your answer to advertisement makes a good impression, and I am willing to put you to the further test of a personal meeting. If you are prepared in this matter, and quite prepared to assume the necessary risk, you will be at the northwest corner of Spaulding park at 5:30 this evening. Do not come in uniform, but it will be well to bring evening clothes in a bag. Be sure of yourself, and be prompt."

definitely steps had already been taken to do this. The delay in reply would have afforded opportunity for some investigation as his address would give the necessary clue to his identity. The request for evening clothes, however, rather reassured him; evidently his first plunge into this mystery was not to occur in any stratum of low society; no vast amount of personal danger could be involved in such preliminaries. The appointment was in a rather desolate spot, with which he was in no way familiar. He had no knowledge of how he was to be approached, or identified, but his being requested to bring a bag containing evening clothes, somehow suggested rifting, rather than walking, and consequently his eyes followed more or less intently the constant stream of automobiles.

He grew restless and doubtful as the moments slipped past. Then suddenly without the slightest warning, a black limousine whirled in immediately the curb, and came to a stop alongside the curb, and he stepped out, his fingers on the "hatch" especially. West was in a hurry to get out, but he was wanted. Yet it was all so obvious he could not protest. Silently he lifted up his bag, and stepped forward. He saw no one within, but firm in the belief that the chauffeur must have his orders, he entered blindly the door closing instantly behind him. The curtains were drawn, the interior gloomy and indistinct, and the driver resumed his seat, and started the motor, before West realized that he was not alone. In one corner of the wide back seat, drawn back from any possible observation from without, sat a woman.

"At first glance he could only barely distinguish the outlines of her figure, but as she turned, he saw that she was a young woman of education and energy for service involving some unusual perils. Good pay, and unusual reward if successful. May have to leave city. Purpose disclosed only in personal interview."

"I am glad to meet you," she said, and she turned to West, who was standing by the door, and she saw that he was a young man of education and energy for service involving some unusual perils. Good pay, and unusual reward if successful. May have to leave city. Purpose disclosed only in personal interview."

 NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(United States Department of Agriculture) 49—Bradstreet's review will say: "Trade and industrial conditions generally show further improvement. Expansion in the buying trade is higher, commodity prices, a will faster pace. In industry, employment about the most widely diffused of the year, conditions better and late northern crops ripening with trifling frost damage, are among the notable features of the week. Outstanding special features in the week which has seen some of the lateness of the season—made up for by more confident buying, are the reported heaviest buying of steel rails ever witnessed in one week, and very good increase in purchasing at primary markets of all the leading textiles, with important advance in witnesses for wool. The most total of longed for raw silk and raw wool. The disappearance of the idle car from the railway records, with the most total of longed for witnesses for 13 months past, and an increased coal output, this more especially visible in the anthracite branch.
