CHURCH MERGER IS LOOKED FOR

Vangelical and Evangelical Denominations with Big Membership May Join Forces

BARRINGTON, Ill., Oct. 3.—The eighth quadrennial-session of the general conference of the United Evangelical church to convene here October 5 will act on the proposal to merge with the Vangelical Association, from which the church separated thirty years ago. Favorable action would result in the formation of a new body, founded denominations in Pennsylvania in 1800. The United Evangelical body claims 100,000 members and the Vangelical Association more than 150,000.

The general conference of the Evangelical Association will convene simultaneously at Detroit. If the United Evangelical conference approves the proposed union it will probably merge to Detroit and consummate the merger, according to leaders.

The union of the church union of the United Evangelical church, which will report at the conference here, has reached a basis of union after ten weeks of negotiations, according to official announcement by the United Evangelical church. All conferences of the other body, except that of East Pennsylvania, voted the vote for union on 53 against 18, the statement said. An unofficial poll of delegates to the conference showed 78 for and 18 against the statement.

Bishop M. T. Maso of Lemars, Ia., and Bishop W. F. Hill of Allentown, Pa., will preside at the sessions of the United Evangelical conference, which are expected to last at least two weeks.

General church officers will be elected at the sessions. The reports of the various secretaries and church boards will show a gratifying increase in membership as well as along financial lines, the statement concluded.

HABIT BECOMING MENACE

Cigarette Smoking by London Women Beginning to Produce Vicious Effects Upon Health

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The "worn-out" increase of cigarette smoking among women, says the medical profession, is the menace of the future for some prospect by the medical profession. He declares the habit in many instances is passing beyond a pleasure and becoming a vice.

"The absorption of nicotine, which is the danger element in the matter," the correspondent proceeds, "produces a condition of nervous distress which is frequently painful to observe. From this proceed palpitations and exhaustion and outbursts of emotion. Women are becoming nervous, irritable, and certainly not intended to endure large doses of this poison. Her functions as a mother cannot but be interfered with when she indulges in it to excess."

It is the habit of many English women and girls to smoke cigarettes in public and not a few may be seen in restaurants and hotels smoking long, slender pipes. Women's organizations and social improvement societies have begun a crusade against this "infectious and unwomanly practice."

APPREHENSION IN AUSTRALIA AS GERMAN EMBARGO IS LIFTED

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 3.—A great deal of apprehension exists in Australia regarding the lifting of the embargo upon German goods. The lifting of the embargo upon German goods has been a source of anxiety here since the date the Steamer Malaya, which had loaded at Hamburg and was the first vessel to come from Germany since 1914, landed a portion of her cargo at Melbourne.

A storm of public protest and threats of all sorts of action by the various authorities ceased when it was discovered that the official origin of most of the cargo was Czecho-Slovakia, which made them immune from prohibition. Some German goods in the cargo were landed here on the day the embargo was lifted. They comprised pianos and toys, marked at prices considerably lower than those current here. Eleven other vessels were listed to load at Hamburg for Australian ports during August.

The federal conference of returned soldiers here adopted a resolution urging the federal government to pass legislation which would prevent the importation of German goods and protect Australian and British manufacturers. Another resolution provided for a nation wide campaign to pledge Australians to purchase Australian-produced goods exclusively.

PREPARATIONS ON BIG SCALE

Three Day Historical Festival in Commemoration of Famous Event Now Under Way

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Oct. 3.—Time will turn backward several centuries next April 4 when Juan Ponce, Knight of Leon, at the head of a small band of Spanish chivalry and sailing in three caravels, will land on the beach at St. Augustine and be greeted by thousands of Indians headed by the great chief Tacouso.

This will mark the beginning of a three-day historical pageant, preparations for which already have been started by an executive committee. This pageant in the United States' oldest city will be one of the most spectacular ever staged in America, sponsors claim.

April 4 will be Ponce De Leon day and will be featured by the landing of the Spanish knight in his search for the fountain of youth and later a sham battle will take place between him and the Indians. Old Fort Marion and other landmarks about St. Augustine will form a background for the celebration.

The founding of St. Augustine, September 8, 1605, by Don Pedro Menendez de Avila will be observed on April 5 which will be Menendez day. St. Augustine will be under four flags—Spanish, French, British and American—on April 6. The transfer of flags will be observed by elaborate ceremonies.

Costumes of French, Spanish and British soldiers of the sixteenth century have been ordered and Florida state troops will take part. Other events to be pictured will be as correct as possible.

MANY SEEK NEW HOMES
MELBOURNE, Oct. 3.—Australia as a land of opportunity for the immigrant from England is catching

"Blood and Sand"

"Blood and Sand," the latest Paramount picture from the novel of the same name by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, the brilliant Spanish author, opens a four-day engagement at the Idaho theatre today.

Rodolph Valentino took the critics by storm when "Blood and Sand," his first starring vehicle, was released in New York and Los Angeles a few weeks ago. Valentino's interpretation of the character of a Spanish bull-fighter in this latest Paramount picture has been acclaimed from coast to coast as his most outstanding achievement.

"Blood and Sand" is most definitely the story of a bull-fighter rather than bull-fighting. Presenting a grippingly dramatic plot of a young hero of Spain's national sport, endowed with the full Ibañez heritage of glory, pathos, sorrow and humor, without at any time presenting one of those features of bull-fighting which are not enjoyed by American spectators.

It is said that without exception on either stage or screen Valentino's brilliant display of graceful sword and cape play in the bull ring scenes of "Blood and Sand" is the most remarkable piece of acting extant.

Seldom does a story present such wide contrast in feminine characters as "Garnet" and "Dona Sol." The quiet wife of the bull ring hero, played by Lila Lee and Nita Naldi in the tremendously exotic character of "Dona Sol."

There are two colorful Spanish cafe scenes laid in Madrid and Seville in which Valentino is seen in a Spanish dance which will recall his tango triumphs in "The Four Horsemen."

More thrills, more color, more action than has been witnessed in one picture for a long period are promised in this delightful picture of a world famous story made more famous by its production as a Paramount picture.

MANY SEEK NEW HOMES
MELBOURNE, Oct. 3.—Australia as a land of opportunity for the immigrant from England is catching the imagination of the English people, according to a letter received here from the Australian high commissioner in London, Sir Joseph Cook. Sir Joseph declared recently in a speech that one immigrant from England came to Australia with nine pence in his pocket and now is in charge of the Australian Immigration Service in London.

Police Force of Haitian Capital Considers Walkout in Protest Against Wage Out

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, Oct. 3.—A threatened strike of the capital's police force has been averted through the intervention of the American military commissioner, Brigadier General John H. Russell.

A rumor that their pay was to be reduced one dollar per month brought the threat, so a letter to the commissioner Russell ran, to the dire alternative of being deprived of their "perfume, hairdresser and barber" going out on strike.

The strike was averted, was so insufficient that it was necessary "we should have women" who give us "planning" where they will be safe. No matter which floor he leaves them in the middle of, someone is almost sure to step on them.—Claude Canlan, in Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"DRY" PREDOMINATE

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 3, 1922.—Twenty-eight of the forty-four candidates for congress in Ohio are listed by the Ohio Anti-Saloon League as "dry," fourteen are declared by the league to be "wet," and two candidates stand on the prohibition question is not announced. The latter are John Sharp, democrat of the seventh district, and George W. Higgins, democrat of the twelfth district.

NEW STYLE IN TEETH

LONDON, Oct. 3.—An interesting feature of the International Dental Exhibition, now being held in London, are the sets of artificial teeth made of a composition as black as ebony. They are intended for Siamese women, with whom it is the custom to stain the teeth black with betel nut to denote their married state.

Child Has No Rights.
It looks as if a child can't put his planting where he will be safe. No matter which floor he leaves them in the middle of, someone is almost sure to step on them.—Claude Canlan, in Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

DUNLEY TEAM HERE FOR TILT WITH EVANS' CLAN

Invaders in Tip-Top Condition for Today's Game with Local Gridiron Stars

The Dunley high school football team will arrive in town on the noon train today for the game with the local gridiron stars this afternoon at Lincoln field.

Coach Evans had his side out again last evening and as one of the regulars said: "It showed so many." The day before a game is usually used for a light workout, but with only four days between the O'Neil yard Dunley game, the local football mentor decided that Dunley would watch watching, and had devoted the last two days in trying to figure out a way to break up the stops walk of the invaders.

The Dunleyites have nothing to say concerning their team, stating that they are coming here with the idea of using every means known to gain, legitimate football to gain their end.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp.

On Thursday the local fans will be treated to another football game when Gooding and Jerome will play a return match. Jerome won the first set, 23 to 0, but Gooding figures that they were out lucked, and consequently the return game.

The Piler team will be over tomorrow to give the local warriors the once over, while Evans will have a chance to look over Piler on Friday when they contest the O'Neil school. It is felt that both the Piler and Twin-Falls teams will have a chance to watch the other before they clash here on October 13.

The normal variations in weight may be greatly affected in different ways. Some men lose six pounds or seven pounds during a Turkish bath, while others gain nearly as much in an equally short time by deep drinking.

BALL FANS IN CONTROL

discussing regarding the ability of the two local teams and their individual stars divided the fans.

Although the American league play is still in progress, the decision of a year ago, the odds are steadily dropping. In place of the 8 to 5 offered prevailing last week, Yankee supporters quote six to five tonight and there is little betting even at these short odds.

Now records in either attendance or gate receipts are unlikely, however, for with the return to the seven game series, duplication of the figures established in last season's best-five out of nine games, appear impossible. In 1921, total receipts for the eight games were $260,335, and the aggregate attendance was 293,977.

Kenesaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, tonight assigned the umpires for the opening games, with the statement that all the preliminaries had been completed and that now it was up to the players and the weather man.

"Now, don't ask me to name the winner," he warned. "It is neutral, but it's going to be a great series."

His selection for positions of umpires places W. J. Clem and Harry McCormick of the National league behind the home plate, and at second, while George Hillenbrand and C. B. Owens of the American league will work close to the first and third base foul lines.

The Giants are expected to open on their own grounds and in the role of home players, facing the American league standard batters. Nolt has won 17 games out of his 37 starts in the National league pennant race this season and is without doubt the Giants' pitching ace.

Huggins is expected to send Joe Bush, the Brainerd-Alton, slug gun, to the mound to secure the initial National rush for victory.

"Babu" Ruth was out with the Yankees in their final practice which began in effect after 10 o'clock this morning and ended when the Giants ambled out about 11. He looked hard against the pitching, sent a couple from his club into the cooler attitudes and then disappeared.

Manager McGraw of the Giants did not come out and Hughey Jennings, first assistant in charge, Manager Huggins of the Yankees sat in the stands observing his charges. Both appeared very serious and did not attempt to joke.

The probable batting order for the opening game:

National		American
Baneroff	Shortstop	Witt	Center field
Bray	Third base	Duggan	Third base
Musel	Left field	Pipp	First base
Kelly	First base	Schang	Center field
Stengel	Center field	Snyder	Catcher

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Eating Too Much Meat May Clog Kidneys. Then the Back Hurts—

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull aches in the kidney region, a sore head, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidney active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get good four-ounces of Jad Salts from any drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set free.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful after-dinner drink; water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells thousands of bottles of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble—adv.

The Note Has Been Sounded for Our Country's New Era of Prosperity

Bountiful crops—resumption of manufacturing—mines fully operating industrial peace. We, too, start with merchandising plans with the object of expansion coupled with intense selling. QUALITY has now been implanted in the minds of the buying public. Instead of the price appeals, and this institution will reap the benefit that comes through

"The New Order of Things" by its clinging steadfastly to its principle of "QUALITY AND RELIABILITY FIRST" so carefully guarded throughout the trying times of the readjustment period, when so many stores were tempted to lower their standard to meet what they thought was necessary to invite patronage by lower prices and inferior merchandise. The benefits of purchasing your needs at this store are distinctly yours, and local as well as out-of-town buyers will do well to respond promptly to the offerings that are ready here now in such extensive variety.

Modart Front Lace Corsets

Sold only at this store.

Unlike many front lace corsets, the MODART FRONT LACE CORSET is neither heavily or stiffly boned.

The greater comfort thus achieved adds still more to their desirability.

A Modart corset properly fitted to your figure adds charm and grace desired by all women.

For maintaining and improving the figure we recommend the MODART corset in a wide range of models to suit all preferences and individual requirements.

Above All Other Things Controls the Value of Women's and Misses' Apparel.

Buyers are oftentimes tempted, through material, color and low prices, and stores are numerous who merchandise on this basis. Manufacturers are plentiful who are copyists, and naturally create models through this method that are behind the styles.

Coats and Wraps

Expressing the mode of the hour at the more moderate prices. An offering of the newest at this time is very opportune. More than in many seasons the lines of the coats and wraps for Fall this year are distinctly becoming, and individual in styles. Handsome materials and more lavish use of fur and embroideries lend added elegance to the new models.

If you are in search of a new Autumn Coat—an exceptionally lovely coat—one that fulfills such ideals of winter-coat richness and winter-coat beauty as you may often have had—then shop at the United Stores.

JURY DECLARES WILLS INVALID

Decides Mrs. Estella Starr Was Not Competent to Dis- pose of Property

Mrs. Estella Starr was mentally deranged from grief over the accidental death of her son Gale, when she executed a will five days before her death at her own hand at the foot of the son's grave, August 11, 1921, it was decided Tuesday by a jury in the district court here, which by its verdict to interdict the claims of Mrs. Starr, her husband, who contested the will on behalf of himself and of the remaining son, Dale. The will provided for appointment of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company as administrator of the estate, which consisted of real estate property appraised at $9000. Net income from the property was to be paid over to the husband and remaining son, and in the event of the death of both before the son was 30 years of age the property was to be given to the Methodist church.

Attorneys for the husband offered testimony to the jury that shortly before making the will Mrs. Starr had persuaded her husband to deed the property to her with the argument that if she should die the estate would be avoided if the husband died first. She was to devise the property to her husband in her will.

Final of the case in district court occupied two days' time. The jury returned its answers to the interrogatories after two hours' deliberation. The verdict agreed on their answers to two of the interrogatories and divided ten to two on the third.

Agreement was reached on the interrogatory proposed by the court which was to make such a will as a sane man would make under the conditions under which they were to receive it. The jury reported first that it had agreed upon its answers to the question put by the court. Judge W. A. Babcock directed the jurymen to concur their deliberations and answer all of the questions.

The case for Mrs. Starr was conducted by E. A. Walters, E. P. Perry and O. A. Bailey, while E. M. Wolfe and J. M. Martin were attorneys for the estate.

NO CLUE DEVELOPED IN HUNT FOR MISSING MAN

Passing Hours Strengthen the Conclusion that Fred Carson Has Met With Foul Play

Unavailing search was made Tuesday for Fred Carson, wagon driver in the west end of the county for the National laundry at Twin Falls, who has been missing since early Saturday morning, when he was last seen on the outskirts of Castleford. With the passing hours the conviction is growing that Carson has met with foul play. The only other alternative suggested is that he was picked up when he started out on foot from Castleford by a traveler and taken toward the Idaho range and he had no suggestion was made as to a motive for foul play in connection with Carson's continued absence. He was last seen at the National laundry when he went to Castleford Friday, investigation shows. His friends are in good shape, according to his employer, G. E. Sandholm, and he had lately expressed the purpose of establishing a permanent home at Bull for himself and wife and four little ones. O. E. Homan, acting deputy sheriff, who has been detailed to the search by Sheriff E. E. Sherman, spent Tuesday in Castleford and vicinity without success. He will spend several days at the latter place visiting Mr. Robert's parents and will be at home to their friends at Pocatello after October 17.

Miss Effie A. Henderson was united in marriage to George Roberts of Pocatello on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the Baptist parsonage, the Rev. W. H. Tolliver officiating. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Henderson, parents of the bride, and Miss Edith Henderson, the bride's sister. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate relatives. The young couple left on the evening train for Denver and Fort Morgan, Colo. They will spend several days at the latter place visiting Mr. Robert's parents and will be at home to their friends at Pocatello after October 17.

The Community Welfare club of Bull held their opening meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Tuesday afternoon, October 2. The beautiful rooms were made more attractive by the elaborate decorations of flowers and Virginia creeper. The president, Mrs. B. R. Cifery, presided. The meeting opened with the singing of "America" by the assemblage. The address of welcome was given by the president, Mrs. Parker, and responses were given by representatives of the following clubs: The Home Culture club, Twin Falls; the Country club of Castleford; Mrs. M. J. Swenley, president of the Inter-Mountain and Coast Federation, delivered a wonderful address, giving an splendid account of the big annual held at Chattanooga, N. Y., last June, also talked in her inspiring manner of the work of the Western Federation. Mrs. B. R. Cifery, accompanist by Mrs. Arthur Ostrom, sang to the delight of all. "A Silver Ring" and "There's a Lady in the Park." The program was closed by Mrs. Ray Overbaugh rendered two beautiful piano solos. At the close of the program delicious refreshments were served to the large number of ladies who were in attendance at this delightful affair. Mrs. James Fitzgerald, the Episcopal Guild will entertain this (Wednesday) evening at the Parish hall complimentary to their pastor, Rev. Charles H. Eads, who leaves for Seattle, Friday, September 15, to Miss Ione McVint at Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their home.

The regular weekly luncheon of the Business Women's club was held in their club rooms Tuesday at noon. Twenty-five members were in attendance.

THE INSTITUTE

With better conditions for the entire town of Twin Falls interested in the success of their visit, Idaho teachers attending Institute here should find no fault with the warmth of their welcome.

And Twin Falls is enjoying the event just as much as, possibly, are the visitors. The traditional hospitality of the city finds ready expression this week and the result should give equal satisfaction to all concerned.

As to the Institute itself, no stronger array of talent was ever gathered for a similar event in the state. Those attending the sessions cannot help but profit by the daily programs, returning to their homes richer for the thought gained, the information furnished by the experience.

And Twin Falls hopes that their thoughts will be pleasant ones for a long time to come not only with respect to the Institute itself but as to Twin Falls and her people.

AN APOLOGY

The News apologizes to its readers for its share in the very silly and wholly unnecessary controversy which has arisen with respect to circulation claims between newspapers.

For a good many years now The News has endeavored at all times to conform to a code of ethics which would contribute to the dignity and decency of the newspaper business in the west. It has avoided controversies as it would the plague, and has sought by precept and practice to institute the idea that no higher form of business courtesy should exist in any profession than that practiced in clean, ethical newspaper work.

The News today is heartily ashamed of the newspaper business in Twin Falls but accepts the consolation to be found in the reflection that the situation is not of The News' seeking.

There is no bluff in any single statement ever made by this newspaper and The News' offer to submit its subscription records, not of the year ending last July, but as of the present time, to any competent auditing committee, has been urged to the utmost. Apart with the conclusion of this particular incident The News will issue circulation statements to advertisers without reference to the claims of any other newspaper and never again will the slightest attention be paid to any single assertion of any kind or character having to do with the conduct of the business of The News by any other newspaper here or elsewhere.

The Case and The Girl

By Randall Parrish

Copyright 1921 by Alfred A. Knopf, Inc.

"Yes; now don't laugh at me! Do you suppose I would ever have done anything as reckless as advertising for help if I had not been actually desperate? Can you imagine a respectable girl performing so ridiculous an act, as putting her whole trust in a stranger, inviting him to her home, introducing him as her promised husband to her relatives and friends? Why, it almost proves me crazed, and, in a measure, I think I must be. But it is because I have exhausted all opposing anything of flesh and blood; I am fighting against shadows. I cannot even explain my predicament to another."

"You must try," he insisted firmly, affected by her evident distress. "I must be told everything if I am to be of any value. A half my confidence can accomplish nothing."

"But it sounds so foolish; I am being haunted! I know that, yet that is all I do know."

"Haunted, in what way?"

"I do not even know that; but by a woman, I think—a woman who must strangely resemble me. She pretends to be me—to my friends, to my servants, at my bank. I never see the creature, but I hear of her from others. She has actually drawn checks in my name, imitating my signature, and having them cashed by clerks, who know me well. I am constantly reported as being seen at restaurants and hotels where I have not been; and with parties I do not know. This has been going on for a month now. I have endeavored to discuss the situation with a few people, but they only laugh at the strange idea. No one will listen to me seriously."

"And you conceived the thought that perhaps a total stranger might prove more sympathetic?"

"Yes," she admitted. "If he was young and adventurous; provided I interested him at all. It would seem to offer me a chance; and then, if unknown to the party impersonating me, such a one might learn the truth unsuspected. Do you believe me, Captain?"

"I have no reason to doubt what you say. I mean to do my very best to uncover the mystery. You have these fraudulent checks?"

"Yes; one was returned to me only yesterday."

"I shall want them, together with one you drew yourself. You do not mind if I ask you one or two rather direct personal questions?"

"Assuredly not."

"What caused you to announce our engagement?"

She laughed, but from sudden embarrassment.

"I was silly, wasn't I? Really I do not exactly know; a sudden impulse, and the words were spoken. It occurred to me that our intimacy could be accounted for in no other way."

"So I supposed. Well, there is no harm done, but now, you understand, we must play out the game."

"Play it out!"

"Surely; act natural, permit no suspicion to be aroused. Even if I should feel impelled by duty, to kiss you, it is my privilege."

"Why—why, you cannot mean that!"

"Oh, but I do. This is no threat that I shall insist on carrying the matter to such an extreme, yet I must insist on the right if it becomes necessary."

Her eyes fell, the breath pulsing between her lips.

"I am not afraid," she said rather proudly. "Yes, I will play the game."

"Good! I knew you would. And now for the second question; why did you come to my room last night?"

She stared at him incredulously.

"Your room! I come to your room! Assuredly not, what can you mean?"

"Then it must be that I have at ready encountered the ghost; he declared smilingly. "For the very counterpart of you certainly visited me. I had a clear view of her; I would have sworn she was you."

"A woman?"

"Absolutely a woman; flesh and blood, no doubt as to that."

"When was this?"

"After midnight."

"It was not I, Captain West; please believe that—but hush; there comes Federal Coidge!"

"Your room! I come to your room! Assuredly not, what can you mean?"

"Then it must be that I have at

Folly in Grieving.
One class of feelings can be extinguished only by the creation of another; one sentiment, banished only by inspiring the antagonism of another; one interest supplanted only by the stronger occupancy of another. So long as this is unperceived the over-grieving heart will seek in vain to discipline itself. Thinking of its sorrow as too much, instead of its sense of duty as too little, it fails to meet pointedly its own remedy.—James Martineau.

We Claim The Right Truck Tire Will Cost You Nothing

An underized, worn out or hard compound solid tire will cost you a great deal in truck expense.

The right tire pays for itself in protection to the truck and saving in repair cost. To do this it must have:

Cushion Traction Mileage

Firestone Tires have those three major qualities today more than ever.

We can refer you to truck owners in this locality who will gladly vouch for this.

Be sure to come in and see what we believe is the ultimate tire for all-around use—the Firestone Heavy Duty Cushion.

Thousands of them are in service. They are not "shelling" nor "wiping," because of a remarkably uniform cure. They are not separating at the base—Firestone has a new process.

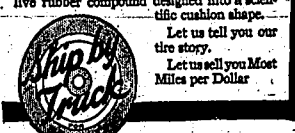

They are piling up tremendous mileage records, because of even, slow wear.

They grip the roads—paved or mud—see the traction groove with its gripping shoulders.

They protect the truck because of the live rubber compound designed into a scientific cushion shape.

Let us tell you our tire story.

Let us sell you Most Miles per Dollar

The Idaho Auto & Supply Co. is now the only garage in this vicinity equipped to change solids. Their heavy, powerful, 200' ton press makes short work of the process. This tire service is entirely free in connection with the purchase of solid tires from them, otherwise a charge of 50c per inch of width is made for pressing.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Another sharp advance in prices took place in today's stock market session. While some of the impetus for the advance was due to short covering, influenced by favorable developments in the Near East and prospects for easier money rates, there were indications that much of the buying was based on the speculative belief that the reaction of the last two weeks was the nucleus of a correction of an over-bought condition and had gone nearly far enough. Apparently there was little outside participation by small traders.

INVOKE RECALL IN CASE OF TWO LODGING HOUSES

City Commissioners Revoke Permits Issued in Cases Where, Attorney Says, Prohibition Law Was Violated

Licenses issued to two operators of lodging houses in Twin Falls were revoked by action of the city commission at its meeting Tuesday evening. The disqualified operators were Mrs. Florence Squibb of the Bryan rooms and Collis Dawson of the Weaver rooms.

The commissioners voted unanimously to revoke the licenses after S. D. Davis, city attorney, in response to inquiry by Commissioner S. E. All, had announced that in each case the license holder had been convicted of violation of the prohibition laws.

In City's Interest

Resolutions declaring the licenses revoked, set forth that the action taken is "in the best interests of the city of Twin Falls."

The resolutions were introduced by Mayor J. D. Tucker, who said he was acting in the matter upon request of Commissioner J. E. Roberts, who was absent from the meeting.

An application for license submitted by the successor to Mrs. Squibb at 417 E. Main street, was tabled by the commissioners with brief comment.

Will Help Build Road

Four hundred dollars is the amount authorized by the commissioners to be expended by the city in conjunction with the Twin Falls highway district in improvement of a quarter mile stretch of road leading east from Dine Lake boulevard south near the rock crusher, plant toward the sugar factory. Total cost of the work and graveling this road is estimated at $10,000. The city will contribute $4,000, the highway district at $3,000, and the Twin Falls school district at $3,000.

The road is to be located on the east side of the city, between the waterworks and the city streets, and will connect with the highway on the gravelled road not now connected with graded highway. The amount of the city's contribution for this road was fixed in a motion offered by the mayor and seconded by Commissioner S. G. McAuley.

Enforce Policies Lacking

Inability to find any record of instruments to cover the site of the filtration plant and one of the dwelling houses at the filtration works was reported to the commissioners by City Engineer E. V. Borg. Mr. Borg's report was referred to the clerk and waterworks superintendent for further investigation and inquiry as to the necessity for instruments for the site.

Commissioner McAuley, who introduced the subject, was directed to report at the next meeting his recommendation as to what should be done. He said that he had approximately 14 acres of land in the vicinity of the filtration plant.

Mr. Mullins paid under a lease that will expire next December, a rental of $225 for the property. He considers the rent too high, but will take the place another year if the figure is raised.

The commission endorsed Commissioner McAuley's recommendation that the city employ its engineer at $750 a year instead of the $425 salary he is now receiving.

The commissioner reported that E. V. Borg, city engineer, would be employed a good deal of the time during the next few months with work at Miller and had consented to the per diem arrangement.

Questions Item of Expense

Commissioner All, in the course of his examination of bills against the city treasurer, chief of police and police magistrate, and ordered warrants drawn in payment of claims against the general obligations fund in the sum of $2,000 against the street sprinkling fund in the sum of $725.50, and against the waterworks fund in the sum of $22,101.63.

Dawson May Call For New Hearing in Court

Rooming House Operator, Convicted of Illegal Sale of Liquor, Resists Judgment

Within 30 days, attorneys for Paul Dawson, operator of the Weaver rooms, Twin Falls, who was convicted of illegal sale of liquor and sentenced to serve three months in jail and pay $300 fine, may serve and file an application for a writ of habeas corpus for a trial, under provisions of a stipulation attorneys placed on the records of court Tuesday.

The writ petition of appeal to the court from both judgment and sentence in the case had been filed without bond and has been signed by attorneys of Dawson at E. J. Murray and Olat

WATER WHEEL FIGURES IN NEXT CASE IN COURT

Dispute Between Machinist and Butcher Over Claim for Wages to be Aired

Jurors will be empaneled Tuesday in district court here in the trial of the case of J. E. Lawrence, doing business as the Lawrence Machine and Tool works, against C. B. Tanks, formerly operator of an abator and meat market here, wherein Lawrence instituted suit against Tanks to collect $670.80 alleged to be due on account of labor and materials furnished.

In an answer and cross-complaint the butcher denied any indebtedness to Lawrence and alleged the fact that Lawrence had contracted to construct and install a water wheel to operate a dynamo at the slaughter house and that the wheel was improperly constructed, wherefore Tanks asked that Lawrence take nothing and that Tanks be awarded $1000 damages.

In answer to the cross-complaint the machinist said that the water wheel was built in accordance with specifications upon which the builder and the owner agreed, and renounced his claim for recovery of the alleged debt.

Asker E. Wilson is attorney for Lawrence; and T. H. Hickman for Tanks.

HODGIN OUT OF RUN FOR BENCH

Twin Falls Attorney, Whose Name Was Written in on Ballot, Declines Nomination

Shad L. Hodgin, Twin Falls attorney, who was nominated as one of the republican candidates for district judge by voters who wrote in his name on the ballot at the primary election, has declined to make the race because, he says, while "I fully realize that it is my duty to go and fill the office of district judge, I have made other plans for the future and cannot be a candidate for that high district office."

Mr. Hodgin's withdrawal from the race leaves a vacancy to be filled by the republican state central committee. J. W. Bryan, Leon D. Burley, the other republican candidate for the district bench.

Mr. Hodgin's letter to the secretary of the republican committee, which was mailed Tuesday, is as follows:

"At the primary election held in August my name was written on the ballot for the office of district judge of the Eleventh judicial district, comprising the counties of Twin Falls, Jerome, Malheur and Cassia. I have declined to be a candidate for the office and request that you not place my name on the official ballot. I am, at no time, and am not now, a candidate for the office."

"I desire, however, to take this opportunity to sincerely thank my friends for their expressions of confidence shown by writing my name upon the ballot and for the many kind expressions of assistance in the coming campaign should I determine to remain in the race. I fully realize that it is a great honor to hold and fill the office of district judge, but I have made other plans for the future and cannot be a candidate for that high office."

Window Shoppers' Night Gives Town Metropolitan Air

Merchants Vying with One Another in Elaborate Display of Wares; Big Crowd

With one of the largest night-time assemblages of people on the streets in the history of the town, with streets crowded with brilliantly lighted shops and with the Twin Falls band playing with brief periods of intermission at various corners in the business district for about two hours Tuesday evening, Twin Falls' "window shoppers' night" scored a degree of success that bids fair to establish for the event a high place in Twin Falls' calendar.

Women predominated among the crowds that thronged the streets, but this probably was in consequence of the presence here this week of almost 800 visiting teachers and the masculine window shopper was very much in evidence.

Dealers in women's wearing apparel, availing themselves of the opportunity to display the latest offerings in the realm of fashion, with one exception, in their methods of improving it, and invariably the largest crowds were clustered about shop windows in which feminine apparel was exhibited.

Living models were employed with telling effect in some instances. But the caterers to women's requirements had no monopoly; with one exception in their methods of improving it, and invariably the largest crowds were clustered about shop windows in which feminine apparel was exhibited.

During the hours following the raising of blinds to reveal the various displays, traffic on street and sidewalk was almost at a standstill. Closed sidewalks, and a veritable river of humanity coursed slowly by the various displays. The door of every business house was closed and sales were made during the evening.
