CHARGES CLAN WITH LOUISIANA DEPREDATIONS

Attorney General Puts Blame for Disorders Culminating in Murders, Squarely Up to the "Invisible Empire"

BASTROP, La., Jan. 22 (AP)—From 25 to 60 arrests on charges ranging from murder to assault and battery, will result from the state's open bearing into the activities of masked bands in Morehouse parish according to Attorney General A. V. Coco, in charge of the investigation.

"The investigation has reached the stage where it is a settled fact that the Ku Klux Klan is responsible for disorder and lawlessness in the parish bordering on revolution, and culminating in the murder of Daniel and Richard, the attorney general said today." He added that it also had been developed at the hearing that a "super-government virtually had supplanted" the constituted authority.

Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard were halted on the Mer Rouge highway, two miles from Bastrop, on August 24 by a band of masked men and no trace of them was discovered until their mutilated bodies were found in Lake La Fourche on December 22.

World Indict Organization.

The attorney general had been quoted as stating that the Ku Klux Klan in the parish would be indicted as an organization. Upon his return here this afternoon from a conference with Governor Parker at Baton Rouge, however, he explained that the organization itself could not be indicted but that true bills against its officers and members would be found.

The hearing lagged today, because of a heavy rain and wind storm, which made the highways in the parish all most impassable and prevented many witnesses from appearing.

ADA COUNTY SPONSORS NEW PRIMARY MEASURE

Bill in Idaho House Requires Oath as to Party Affiliation; Declares for Non-Partisan Judiciary

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 22 (AP)—The new primary bill, the introduction of which has been expected daily since the opening of the legislature, made its appearance here today, sponsored by the Ada county delegation, all of whom are republicans.

Introduced in the house with Representatives Call of Jefferson, Campbell of Boundary, and Hull of Bear Lake county, joining with the Ada county representatives, the measure provides for the nomination by primary of all congressional, state, district, and county officers.

Primary elections would be held the fourth Tuesday in May to be followed by platform conventions held under the direction of the state central committee of the several parties. This convention must be held within 16 days after the primary.

Regulating the amount of money which the candidates may expend in the primary campaign, the bill would provide that no money could be paid by the candidates for anything but personal expenses.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (AP)—An earthquake estimated by observers at the University of Nevada to have centered 60 miles north of Reno, Nev., was felt in many sections of the northern Pacific coast region early today. No serious damage was reported, although a landslide which delayed traffic on a small railroad in Nevada was attributed to the tremors.

HOUSE STRIKES AT TOBACCO LAW

Idaho Representatives Vote, 48 to 12, to Repeal High License and Bond

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 22 (AP)—The bill repealing the present tobacco tax and bond law was passed by the house of representatives this morning by a vote of 48 to 12.

The present statutes exact a $50 license fee, and each tobacco dealer is forced to put up a $500 bond, forfeiture of which takes place automatically upon conviction for a sale of tobacco to minors is made.

Representative Bruce of Ada county indicated during the debate that he would introduce a bill incorporating a nominal license fee, and requiring bonds. Other legislators suggested that they voted for the bill expecting to have another bill introduced preserving the bond feature and providing for a tax based on sales.

Suspension of the rules and unanimous passage was accorded a bill in the house today providing a repeal of the election law to fill vacancies in the legislature. The governor will now make an appointment of a successor to the late Senator D. W. Van Hoesen of Adams county, under section 8 of article 4 of the constitution.

MINERS ARE OPTIMISTIC OVER WAGE NEGOTIATION

Union Leaders Predict Early Signing of Contract Covering Tri-State Field and Removal of Strike Possibility

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Union leaders declared tonight they expected soon—possibly tomorrow—to sign a new wage contract covering the tri-state competitive field, and thus remove all possibility of a bituminous coal strike after April 1.

Mine operators of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with whom the labor men have been in conference here since last Wednesday, were not optimistic. An agreement might be reached tomorrow, they said, but the signing of the contract might be delayed for days or even weeks, up to the very date, more than 10 percent of the annual salary of the office.

BORAH ATTACKS FRENCH POLICY IN RHINELAND

Idaho Solon Calls Occupation of Ruhr "Offense Against Humanity"; Takes American Attitude to Task

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—French policy in the Ruhr was attacked as "ruthless militarism," a violation of the armistice terms and the treaty of Versailles and an "offense against humanity," in a statement issued tonight by Senator Borah of Idaho, a republican member of the senate foreign relations committee. Senator Borah also criticized the state department in what he said was its policy of silence and inactivity, and declared the United States should at least declare its attitude by formally protesting against the French policy.

"This is a situation," said Senator Borah, "in which the United States cannot with honor remain silent. The first duty of a nation is to protect its life when assailed and its highest honor and glory in victory is to be just to a fallen enemy."

"It was our soldiers that made possible the defeat and disarming of Germany."

"And we also made definite and certain pledges as to the treatment of Germany. After all that has taken place and at a time when Germany has been disarmed and rendered powerless, her territory is invaded, military rule is established, and she is being held in its wretched and suffering and untold misery to the German people, and in addition to that, great financial and economic loss to our own people."

"Even before the invasion took place this government had been advised by its own representatives that great suffering must obtain in Germany throughout the winter and that thousands of women and children must die of starvation. The action of France constituted that condition, which is established, and which will bring in its turn over to the most destructive and ruthless method of militarism, of arbitrary power and we do not so much even as record our protest. Certainly, we cannot be silent under such circumstances."

World Make Protest.

Touching upon our relations with Europe during the past few years, the Idaho senator said:

"We remained silent and inactive and we made no protest when the interest of humanity and the most vital of economic interests of our own people called for us to make a pronounced and unmistakable effort to bring the powers concerned into a conference for adjustment of the questions involved."

"The action of France is, in my judgment, without authority under the Versailles treaty. It is a defiance of international order and peace. It is an offense against humanity. What she is doing will not bring composition, but it will bring supreme suffering to the people throughout Europe, and incalculable loss to our own people."

"We should declare our attitude, and make our protest—this is the very least we can do and we should do very much more."

France Resumes Confiscation of Coal; Sees Sufficient Output for Own Needs

WHEN FRANCE DECIDED TO INVADE THE RUHR

This series of photographs was taken at the final split between the Allies in Paris, after France had announced her intention of invading the Ruhr district. Despite the break between them there was apparent cordiality between Premier Bonar Law and Premier Raymond Poincare when Mr. Law, accompanied by Lord Crewe, British ambassador to France, left Paris. Marquis Della Torretta, Italian ambassador to Great Britain, was the Italian delegate. Sir Eyre Crowe, permanent secretary to the British foreign office, was another delegate, as was Premier Theunis Van der Smissen of Belgium.

STRIKE CENTER IN VICINITY OF STINNES WORKS

Captive Industrial Leaders Are Hailed by German Population as Heroes; Dusseldorf Bank Reopens

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 22 (AP)—The French today resumed their confiscation of coal and trainloads have been started for France, manned by French crews, by way of Gohenzee and Treves.

The total amount of coal requisitioned now amounts to near 200,000 tons.

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 22 (AP)—The center of resistance to the French measures seems to be at Dortmund, Bochum and Gelsenkirchen, where the largest plants of the vast Stinnes interests are situated.

The inhabitants of the occupied area selected upon the transfer yesterday of the arrested managers, officials and industrial leaders to Mayen, as an opportunity to show their sentiment. The prisoners were hailed as heroes by those along the route. A telegram of congratulations upon his stand was sent to Fritz Thyssen by the municipality of Essen and the directors of the Thyssen industries.

"We are with you to the death," said the telegram, which was a French official to remark that the signers might be with him in person in a few days unless they agreed to cooperate.

Telegraph and postal rates have been tripled and the railway fares doubled. It now costs 1500 marks a word to telegraph to London and 900 marks to Paris and the postal rate on a letter from Dusseldorf to Paris is 150 marks.

The reopening of the Dusseldorf branch of the reichsbank is regarded with satisfaction by the French, as it will ward off for the present the crisis in paper marks and postpone the necessity of the French issuing new Ruhr currency. Despite Berlin's announcement that the government no longer would send marks to the occupied area, funds have been coming in regularly in a semi-clandestine manner and the French have been asking the greatest care not to interfere.

Bochum Trouble Center.

Although there is a great state of ferment in the occupied region, the populace still refrains from interference with the French troops, except in the Bochum area, where the French have been called in several times to quell incipient rioting.

MINERS' STRIKE CUTS TWO WAYS

French Puzzle Over Coal Production Problem While the Strikers Face Starvation

ESSEN, Jan. 22 (AP)—A fine, rainy mist hung over the Ruhr valley today, making the atmosphere as hazy as appears to be the immediate outcome of the Franco-Belgian effort to force reparation deliveries from the valley against the wishes of the German government.

How to take coal from under the feet of a people who have only an ear for Berlin is concededly proving a question of an extremely knotty character, causing much burning of midnight oil on the part of the commissaires, engineers and military leaders sent to the Ruhr from Paris, Brussels and Rome.

The situation is not without its serious problems on the German side as well. Their main difficulty at present lies in their having thrown themselves out of work and thus deprived themselves of the means of making a living during such times as these, which even before the occupation were severely trying.

Essen's Banks Closed

Essen's chief interest today centered on the removal of the French patrol from the doors of the Edelbank branch here. Private banks were still unopened for business up to early this afternoon, awaiting the outcome of the negotiations between the Reichsbank directors and the occupation authorities.

It was stated in German circles today that the French had notified the railway, postal and banking administrations that they did not intend to disturb the internal operations of these services on account of the vital necessity of their functioning.

Several of the banks in Dortmund, it was learned, were closed today because of the continued occupation of the Dortmund reichsbank branch.

Many Districts Active

Motoring today throughout the section where the seizures of the state owned mines occurred last week, the Associated Press correspondent found all the plants in the Horst, Buur, Langenbrehem, Recklinghausen and Gelsenkirchen districts busy at work, although in some instances inquiries revealed that the loaded coal cars were climbing the steep shafts from the pits at intervals a great deal less frequent than usual. None of the mines visited were occupied, the troops having been removed.

PANICKY INVESTORS KNOCK BOTTOM OUT OF FOREIGN BONDS

Thirteen Active Issues on New York Exchange Drop to Lowest Levels in Their History

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Thirteen active foreign bonds on the New York stock exchange dropped to their lowest levels in history today on a resumption of heavy liquidation by investors who became frightened by the developments in the Ruhr valley.

The extreme losses, compared with Saturday's closing figures, ranged from 3-4 to 3-4 points while the declines from the high marks of this year ranged from 3-5-8 to 9-1-2 points.

Son Takes Place of His Father as Hostage to France

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 22 (AP)—It is learned that the 25-year-old son of Herr Vuestenhofer of the Essen mine association, volunteered to be ransomed to Mayen under arrest in the place of his aged father. The offer was accepted. He was charged with refusing to aid the French authorities in the delivery of coal.

GERMAN INDUSTRIALISTS WILL ANSWER TO FRANCE

Court Martial for Fritz Thyssen and Six Associates Held Prisoners by Occupation Forces is Scheduled

COBLENZ, Jan. 22 (AP)—The court martial of Fritz Thyssen and the other six industrialists brought here from the Ruhr valley, where they were arrested for refusing to obey the orders of the French, will take place in the new court house in the center of Mayence at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The accused men are being treated as political prisoners. They are not permitted to see anyone, except their lawyers. Dr. Frederick Grimm, several assistants, and two French lawyers, who will defend them.

Dr. Grimm declared this evening that no matter what sentence is passed on the seven men, resistance of the French would continue.

HASTEN TURKS' DECISION

LAUSANNE, Jan. 22 (AP)—The allies have decided to hasten the conclusion of the Near East conference and will present the draft treaty to the Turkish cabinet before the end of the week. If Turkey is not disposed to sign the convention after brief reflection, the allies may propose adjournment of the convention until the Turks express their readiness to be reasonable for a final settlement.

The Day in Washington

The independent offices appropriation bill carrying $498,211,571 was passed by the senate.

President Harding had sufficiently recovered from an attack of grippe to transact official business in his study.

Investigations of conditions in Porto Rico was proposed in a resolution by Representative Maloney, republican, Massachusetts.

A proposal to return all property seized by the state property custodian was disapproved by the house commerce committee.

Approval of the house action in increasing from $37,000,000 to $55,000,000 the appropriation in the army bill for river and harbor improvements was voted, eight to two, by the senate commerce committee.

The naval appropriation bill, carrying a request that the administration initiate a move to further limit naval armament was signed by the president.

Benedict Cromwell, war time assistant secretary of war, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him and six others with conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the construction of war camps.

Informing that Ambassador Harvey returned to his London post, had decided published reports that there was friction between him and Secretary Hughes, the state department head authorized a similar denial.

Senator Borah, Idaho, in a statement attacked French policy in the Ruhr and criticized the state department for what he said was its policy of silence and inactivity with reference to the situation.

WESTERN ROADS GIVE VIEWS ON CONSOLIDATION

Santa Fe President Criticises and Northwestern Executive Approves Commerce Commission's Proposals

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Executives of western railroads had before the interstate commerce commission today their views on tentative plans which the government has devised for consolidation of transportation lines in the territory west of the Mississippi and south of the Missouri river.

W. E. Story, president of the Atchafalaya, Tulelake and Santa Fe lines, took a critical view of the scheme so far projected for combining his road with other systems, while W. H. Finley, president of the Chicago and Northwestern, characterized as reasonable plans for placing under a super-railroad system that would include the Union Pacific, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha, and possibly the Central Pacific.

In suggesting consolidation possibilities, the commission proposed to put the Santa Fe, Great Northern, Denver and Rio Grande Western and several smaller lines into one system.

Representatives of the Union and Southern Pacific systems indicated that evidence supporting their viewpoint would be introduced at hearings which the commission will hold on the consolidation matter in western cities. All railroads concerned have filed much data as to amounts of traffic involved in interchanges between them at the present time.

Mr. Story said that inclusion of the Colorado and Southern lines in the Santa Fe group would throw the proposed consolidated system rather further to the north in its interest than necessary.

STOCKMEN MAKE PLANS TO LOWER MEAT PRICE

California Cattle Growers Propose to Work With Butchers to Reduce the Spread Between Product and Block

VISALIA, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—Believing that there is a wide difference between the price paid for cattle on the hoof and that the ultimate consumer pays over the butcher's counter, the Tulare county branch of the California Cattleman's Association has launched a movement to reduce the retail figure by close cooperation with the butcher. The organization is planning six cold storage plants in the near future, which will be utilized for storage of meat to eliminate price fluctuations.

Other counties, it is expected, will undertake similar arrangements should the Tulare plan prove successful.

VANCOUVER BOASTS ONE OF OLDEST APPLE TREES

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 22 (AP)—A duplicate of an apple from one of the oldest trees, it is said, has been carved from the wood of the tree itself, and is now owned by A. A. Quatnberg of this city. The tree was planted in 1826 and is located on the Vancouver barracks, where it continues to thrive.

The seeds, it is claimed, were placed in the ground 96 years ago by an English Army officer, stationed at the barracks when Vancouver was in possession of the Hudson Bay Company and under the flag of St. John's sweetheart in England sent him the seeds, and the tree is often called the "lovers' apple tree."

The bottle is estimated to have travelled approximately 1200 miles.

IDAHO EDITORS SEEK TO ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION

Newspaper Men of State at Boise Meeting Take Steps Toward Forming a Permanent Organization

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 22—A representative meeting of Idaho editors held here during the week took steps to form a permanent editorial association, following several flukes.

The situation was expressed by the head of the organization, Charles A. Hackett, Silver City Avianche, who said: "Our business represents a large investment and is the only one in Idaho that is not protected by organized effort. We are being broken up like the fagots, one at a time. We are entitled to better protective legislation and we should be together on numerous trade matters. One big effort will be made to get together and stay together."

By-laws were adopted setting up, among other things, that the organization, named the Idaho State Editorial Association, will be strictly non-partisan and that no salary or other compensation shall be paid any officer. An attorney was engaged to compile the laws requiring legal publications to determine if any are unnecessary and if requirements are better met by tax-paying boards. The editors felt that publication, even in more or less condensed form, but still showing the nature of income and expenditures, would exert an influence along the line of economy. The matter was left to the executive committee, and the legislative committee to present these facts in an advisory way to the legislature. The officers, in addition to President Hackett, are: Vice-president, F. F. Swan, Gooding Leader; secretary, Guy Finley, Boise. Those with George F. Barker, Sandpoint Review, and Nicholas J. Twiss, the Tribune, from the executive committee. The legislative committee: Frank W. Brown, Buhl Republican; C. A. Bottelstein, Arco Advertiser; John Baird, Meridian Times.

SWEDEN BUILDS ROADS TO HELP UNEMPLOYED

Government Allots Funds for Construction of Hundreds of Miles of Highways by Men Out of Jobs

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 22 (AP)—Six hundred miles of highway were constructed in Sweden during 1922 by men who otherwise would have been without employment. The government allotted funds to this end and the work was done in large measure near the centers of unemployment. It was discontinued when employment in the district began to pick up.

It is predicted that the number of unemployed needing help in Sweden during the first half of 1923 will be only about 24,000; and that by 1924 this number can be reduced to 6,000.

INTERROGATION OF OIL MEN'S WITHOUT CLASH

Senate Grilling of Harry F. Sinclair is Resumed After Stormy Adjournment; Demand is Not Repeated

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The bombshell which had been timed for explosion today with the appearance of Harry F. Sinclair, under subpoena, before the senate oil investigating committee, turned out to be a dud.

Mr. Sinclair appeared before the committee accompanied by an array of counsel, was questioned at length by Gilbert E. Roe, committee attorney, as to the stock ownership of the Mammoth Oil company and the affairs relating to oil of the Hyva corporation, and concluded his testimony with good humor prevailing on every hand.

The oil man, during the three hours he spent on the stand complied to the satisfaction of the committee with the demands for information as to the Mammoth company, the concern organized by Mr. Sinclair to operate the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve, lease, and as to the Hyva corporation, a private investment company, owned entirely by Mr. Sinclair and his family.

Demand is Not Repeated

The request of the committee attorney for the complete record of the Hyva corporation, which Mr. Sinclair refused last week on the ground that the committee had no authority to investigate matters other than oil, was not repeated.

All questions asked by Mr. Roe, with one or two minor exceptions, related to all the witness standing by his statement of last week as to what he was willing to give, answered them without any semblance of objection.

After leaving the stand and while the committee continued its inquiry through subordinate officials of the Sinclair companies, Mr. Sinclair made this statement to newspaper men: "I think the impasse we came to the other day was because the minds of Mr. Roe and myself did not meet. It was not because I was unwilling to give what he wanted, or because he wanted more than I was willing to give."

Previously, during an interlude in his examination, Mr. Sinclair had expressed to Chairman LaFollette his regrets that any unpleasant incidents had arisen during his appearance before the committee and Senator LaFollette amiably expressed agreement.

Traces Stock Distribution

The testimony which Mr. Sinclair gave was for the most part, a detailed account of the disposition of approximately 2,005,000 shares of Mammoth company stock, which he received in exchange for the lease to Teapot Dome, obtained last April from the government.

Once through questions asked by Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, a committee member, the testimony turned to Teapot Dome itself and in that connection Mr. Sinclair presented a copy of a guarantee which he gave the government to the effect that although he might turn the lease over to the Mammoth company, he would hold himself personally obligated to carry out the terms of the lease.

The committee's hearing of subordinate officials of the Sinclair companies involved minor details and technical matters: The committee will begin tomorrow the hearing of the Standard Oil company of Indiana with E. W. Stewart, chairman of that company's board of directors, as the principal witness.

Methodist Board of Bishops Applies Test to Organizations; Calls for Aggressive Evangelism

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Money is but a means to an end, and the church which fails to secure converts to Christ fights a losing battle, the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church says in a statement made public today.

For the first time in the history of Methodism the Board of Bishops suggests that at least "two months out of every year should be kept comparatively free for aggressive evangelistic efforts."

The thirty-six bishops comprising the board in the statement say: "With budgets our workers cannot be as imperial inspectors for the czar, appointed and maintained. It should be of immediately begun preparing however, never be overlooked that plans for the annexation of California money is but a means to an end. The primary emphasis is and must always be upon the culture of the Christian limited money at his command and life, the spread of Christian principles, it is stated that his death saved and on the development of a vital, intelligent, spiritual life.

The church which fails to secure converts to Christ fights a losing battle. More than ever before in the history of the Russian-American Company, made an effort to carry of the Grand Chamberlain's scheme and who put the main emphasis upon the vital, spiritual values, and upon the forces which develop them.

"We express the judgment that selected and history states that this at least two months out of every site was purchased by the Russians far should be kept comparatively for "three blankets, three pairs of breeches, two axes, three hoes and some colored heads."

The Russians established a station on the Farralons Island where seals were killed, the meat dried and sent for food to Fort Ross and other Russian settlements along the north.

Trappers Make Big Catches in Wilds of Western Washington Despite the Handicap of Severe Cold Weather

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 22 (AP)—The catch of fur-bearing animals in the wilds of western Washington is reported to be large this season despite several weeks of very cold weather during which the animals kept too closely at home to be trapped.

The largest catch thus far reported was made by Inger and Theodor Olsen, brothers of Hoquiam, Wash. who trapped for two months in the Olympic mountains at an altitude of 5,000 feet. They caught 32 martens, two fishers and four cougars, and they estimate their catch to be worth $2,400 at present market prices.

DEFENDS STATE HOSPITAL PLAN

Critics of Institutions for the Treatment of Tuberculosis Answered by Chairman

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 22—The effort to prevent building of anti-tuberculosis hospitals in Idaho has created something of a storm both inside and outside the legislature. Catherine R. Wiley, chairman of the anti-tuberculosis commission in charge of the building of the proposed hospitals, has made the following statement to the press of the state:

"The action of the supreme court in upholding the commission as against its assailants is, of course, a source of great satisfaction to the commission. Nevertheless, the purpose of the politicians who were responsible for the filing of the injunction suit have been served in that court action has delayed the building of the hospitals until the legislature could meet, so they could renew their efforts of the last session to abolish the hospitals.

"It is a disgrace to the people of Idaho if the purpose of economy can only be served by destroying this great humanitarian project. That politicians with money enough in their pockets to properly care for the members of their own family, dare appeal to abolish them in the name of economy to the very people they are intended to serve—those of small means—and give them equal opportunity with their richer brothers for life, happiness and economic efficiency can hardly be regarded as commendable.

"The special fund created to build these hospitals is lying unused—a real temptation to the greedy. Plans have been completed and bids called for on the construction of the hospitals. Both hospitals can be built within the original appropriation. A fund for maintenance only will be asked from this legislature. As against this request is a bill to abolish the original fund and prevent building of the hospitals.

"The commission has served without pay and has spent in four years only $2000 of the $5000 allotted for expenses."

Landmarks Remain to Recall Time of Russian Occupation

Greek Chapel and Blockhouse Bear Evidence of Colonization Scheme in California

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Russian flag floated over a part of California for thirty years, from 1812 to 1842, at Fort Ross, Sonoma county, where the Greek chapel and blockhouse today mark the remnants of the Russian occupation.

The Russians came to California for colonization in 1812, after Count Nikolai Petrovich Kozanov, Grand Chamberlain, visited the state in 1805, as imperial inspector for the czar, appointed and maintained. It should be of immediately begun preparing however, never be overlooked that plans for the annexation of California money is but a means to an end. The church which fails to secure converts to Christ fights a losing battle. More than ever before in the history of the Russian-American Company, made an effort to carry of the Grand Chamberlain's scheme and who put the main emphasis upon the vital, spiritual values, and upon the forces which develop them.

"We express the judgment that selected and history states that this at least two months out of every site was purchased by the Russians far should be kept comparatively for "three blankets, three pairs of breeches, two axes, three hoes and some colored heads."

The Russians established a station on the Farralons Island where seals were killed, the meat dried and sent for food to Fort Ross and other Russian settlements along the north.

In 1817 the Russians made a claim to Alaska as their sole possession on the Pacific. Russia held Alaska until 1867 when the United States bought it for $7,200,000.

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Jan. 22 (AP)—The pelt of a pure white beaver is in possession of a fur buyer here who bought it from a trapper in the Nipigon district. There is not a trace of color in the pelt, which is of fair size. White beaver is one of the rarest skins brought in from the north.

CHURCH MUST NOT FAIL TO SECURE CONVERSIONS

Methodist Board of Bishops Applies Test to Organizations; Calls for Aggressive Evangelism

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Money is but a means to an end, and the church which fails to secure converts to Christ fights a losing battle, the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church says in a statement made public today.

For the first time in the history of Methodism the Board of Bishops suggests that at least "two months out of every year should be kept comparatively free for aggressive evangelistic efforts."

The thirty-six bishops comprising the board in the statement say: "With budgets our workers cannot be as imperial inspectors for the czar, appointed and maintained. It should be of immediately begun preparing however, never be overlooked that plans for the annexation of California money is but a means to an end. The primary emphasis is and must always be upon the culture of the Christian limited money at his command and life, the spread of Christian principles, it is stated that his death saved and on the development of a vital, intelligent, spiritual life.

MECHANICS WIN FROM MANGLERS

Rendahl-Wright Team Takes First and Second Sets in Bowling Bout with Laundry

The Rendahl-Wright Auto company bowling team walloped the Troy Laundry quintet Monday evening at the Twin Falls bowling alleys by winning the odd game with 810 pins toppled to 797 for the Cubit clan.

The grease consumers took the first game by the score of 769 to 741, manglers falling to bowl up to their usual high standard. In this game Self turned a few springs and totalled 179 for high game.

In the second game the laundry lads stretched up a bit, put on a clean front and gave the mechanics a good beating, taking the game by the score of 853 to 768. McCracken had high game in this clash with 207, which was high for the evening.

The third game was a nip and tuck affair, the horneless vehicle artists winning by the scant margin of 15 pins. The score in this game was 810 to 797. Capt. Self of the auto team totalled 293 pins in this effort.

The high total for this evening goes to Self and Bailey, both players piling up 534.

What they did:

STRIKES AND SPARES

Asbury was decidedly off color, suffering from a sore finger, which gave him considerable trouble in holding the ball.

Thitt knocked over 179 in the second game and said that it was Woolworth the money.

Balley jogged right along holding a neat average during the three games. Bill picked up three spits.

Miller dished out a poor game in the first, stopping at 117.

McCracken ended the second game with four strikes. Go to it, Mac!

Pere Thompson wasn't up to standard, being unable to pass 146 during the evening.

Cubit and his rabbit's foot were very much in evidence. Several times while looking for a split, he discovered all pins were down, but not in the pit.

It's wonderful to be lucky.

Sombody played a mean trick on McBill and hid the 1 pin every so often, and Mac couldn't find it.

King, after bowling two nice games, fell down in the third and stayed at 114.

The new rule of having both No. 1 men start at the same time, gives the anchor men a chance to show what they can do in a pinch.

This loss of two games puts the Laundry men down a few pegs. Last we forgot, the season is young.

Both teams bowled over 2,000 which shows that the players are rapidly getting into condition, and another two weeks should see some classy bowling.

Another keen game on the docket for tonight when the Rogerson Cafe wood splitters knock 'em over with the I. D. Store boys.

On paper it looks like a stand off, although one never knows when there will be a big score rolled.

Harry Vogel is cutting up again, and says that years ago, when Paul Revere rode his famous race, the butchers had a real bowling team, and although a trifle old, still maintains that the old guard can still roll 'em down the center of the alley. Harry says that he can get the old gang together, and challenges any team in the league to a three game series, to be bowled Friday evening.

Several barbers have signified their willingness to join the butchers' team.

Another challenge that may materialize into a real game, is the challenge sent out by Emery Benoit. This stalwart pin buster has a five-man team which last night in B, and he is willing to play any other letter of the alphabet. On the "B" team are Benoit, Bailey, Bonebrake, Buchanan and Boore.

This is a tough looking layout, and would give any five-man team in the city a real battle.

BANKERS SCHEDULE MEET

Twin Falls National and Bank and Trust Teams to Try Conclusions on Bowling Alleys

The Twin Falls National bank and the Bank and Trust games will be played this afternoon at 4:30.

These games are creating more than passing interest, due to the fact that the entire National bunch, with the exception of Charley Larson, are dark horses.

Al and Norvin Kecker have little to say concerning the game, although both have been practicing hard, which means "swat-out."

Clarence Hearty is the real dark horse of the team. When Clarence is right he is apt to topple over a good many pins, which means that Larson will have some real help. Ernie Gyna is an unknown quantity, but admits that he can keep the ball on the alley.

The Bank and Trust gang have the services of J. L. Laville, Fix, Ryan, Patrick and Peck.

GREB RETAINS HIS CROWN

Light Heavyweight Champion Defeats Billy Brady in 12 Round Bout That Goes to Limit

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 22 (AP)—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh successfully defended his American light heavyweight boxing championship title to-night against Billy Shade of California in a 12-round bout which went to the limit.

Greb won the majority of the rounds, but was booted continually by the crowd after the fifth round because of the lightness of his attack. The bout was fast but neither man produced a stinging punch and both left the ring unblemished.

The champion used his peculiar "windmill" style, misting often but even so he invariably landed several blows to the Californian's one. Shade was aggressive in spots and willing to exchange in the puffy rallies, but the hitting power of both contenders drew derision from the spectators.

MEYERS AND DARRIN DRAW BALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 22 (AP)—"Spud" Meyers, of Pocatello, Idaho, and Frank Darren of Logan, Utah, fought a 12 round bout to a draw here tonight before a crowd of more than 3,000 enthusiastic fans. The men are welterweights.

EDEN LOSES TO HAZELTON

North Side High School Basketball Teams Tangle with Score of 40 to 4 as Result

EDEN, Idaho, Jan. 22.—(Special to The News)—The Eden high school basketball team lost to the Hazelton high last Friday evening on the Hazelton floor, by the score of 40 to 4.

This was the first game of the season for the Eden lads, and although considerable smaller than their opponents and on a strange floor, put up a remarkable game. They fought to the last, even though the odds were against them. The game looked more like an indoor football game than it did basketball. The game should go down on record as not a personal or technical foul was called during the entire game.

Clyde Jenkins threw both goals that gave Eden their four points. V. Kelley was the high man for Hazelton, getting a credit of 10 field goals.

The two teams will meet on the Eden floor next Friday evening and will no doubt even things up, as the Eden lads feel confident they can take the Hazelton team down the line.

A game is also being arranged between the Jerome Legion and the Eden All Stars teams. The two games will be played the same evening at Eden.

Table with basketball scores for Hazelton, Havens, Tuescher, M. Lindsay, Freeman, C. Lindsay, Kelley, and A. Lindsay.

HOWAT DECLARES WAR ON INDUSTRIAL COURT LAW

Kansas Miners' Leader, Released From Prison, Addresses Coal Diggers at Pittsburgh While Miners Lie Idle

PITTSBURG, Kan., Jan. 22 (AP)—Alexander Howat, former president of the district number 14 United Mine Workers of America, addressed a veterans' meeting of approximately 5,000 miners this afternoon at Franklin, de-Howat and his colleagues for the "splendid fight they have made."

Other resolutions demanded that the committee which had charge of the miners' election December 12 furnish the local unions with tally sheets showing the vote of each local and the Workers of America, addressed a veterans' meeting of approximately 5,000 miners this afternoon at Franklin, de-Howat and his colleagues for the "splendid fight they have made."

Howat declared war on industrial court law which he termed "wiped off the statute books," and that the "father of the industrial court was repudiated in the election held November 7. It was the first appearance of the deposed miner's chief in nearly two years. Mines in the district were practically at a standstill today and the assemblage was one of the largest seen in the district.

DENVER RETAILERS ADD ONE CENT A GALLON WHEN MIDWEST REFINERS ANNOUNCE NEW QUOTATIONS

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 22 (AP)—An advance of one cent a gallon in the wholesale price of gasoline was announced by the Midwest Refining company here today. The increase became effective this morning. It is said to have been occasioned by higher cost of crude oil which has been steadily advancing in the last few weeks.

The increase in wholesale price was immediately reflected on the local market in an increase of one cent per gallon retail, put into effect by the larger companies here. While a few independent concerns were quoting a retail price of 20 cents per gallon, the prevailing price was 22 cents a gallon, as compared with 21 cents yesterday.

BALKANS' PEACE IS GUARDED BY LITTLE ENTENTE

Federation of Czechoslovakia, Jugo Slavia and Rumania Is Important Factor in Preserving Equilibrium

PRAGUE, Jan. 22 (AP)—In the peace settlements of 1919-1920 the pendulum in the Balkans was allowed to swing to extreme nationalism, and this led to political disunion. But today, in the view of neutral observers, the pendulum is swinging slowly to conciliation and co-operation, and the outlook is brighter.

One of the strongest forces working toward moderation and stability undoubtedly has been the Little Entente, the political union between Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia, and Rumania. This loose federation, conceived and brought into being by Czechoslovakia, is generally conceded to have done more than any other thing to preserve the political equilibrium of the Balkans during the last two or three years.

Fascism Important Factor.

Fascism has been and still is a factor in the situation which cannot be overlooked. In Hungary, for example, Fascism has assumed two vitally important aspects. In the first place it seeks to regain for Hungary the territories of the former kingdom. This means that the Hungarian movement comes into direct conflict with Czechoslovakia over the recovery of Slovakia, where there are several hundred Hungarians; with Rumania over the question of Transylvania, and with Jugoslavia over the Banat and Croatia. Secondly, as nationalism and royalism in Hungary are now the dominant forces with almost identical aims, fascism there is struggling for the restoration of the monarchy. This delicate point brings Hungary into still further conflict with her neighbors, since the cardinal idea behind the Little Entente is at all costs to prevent the restoration of the Hapsburgs.

Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia and Rumania are today bound together by a series of mutually beneficial treaties, and nowhere in the situation is to be found any tendency toward expansion. The Little Entente, formed or enlarged at the expense of the former Austro-Hungarian Empire, strives to maintain the status quo established by the Paris peace treaties. It has acted as a bloc on questions not bearing directly on Central Europe, and in this direction it has been fortified by Poland, whose policies gravitate only in part toward Central Europe.

Turk Plays on Passions.

The Little Entente has been able to keep the peace of Central Europe, but it was unable to prevent the conflagration in the Near East. The Turk knows only too well how to exploit the differences between the Balkan nations, and thereby to effect his dramatic return to the comity of European nations. Meanwhile, Jugoslavia and Greece have awakened to a realization of the strategic importance of Bulgaria's position, and now the statesmen of all three of those countries and at Lauenburg are hurriedly revising the old Balkan Conference and the same time Greece and Bulgaria are asking to be admitted to the Little Entente. The Little Entente may eventually take in these two states, and even others, thus forming an enlarged confederation which might lead ultimately to a United States of Central Europe.

asures of expulsion against state officials who refuse to obey instructions. Herr Spies, president of the Weisbaden region, was expelled today.

An incident occurred in Cologne today when crowds gathered to front of the residence of Herr Von Roeder, fiscal commissary of the reiche, against whom an expulsion order was issued. The people protested against the expulsion and called upon Von Roeder to ignore the order. The British authorities granted Von Roeder a 24-hour delay and notified the French, who will send police to Cologne tomorrow to carry out the order and place Von Roeder on board a train.

"This is the last battle of the war," said General Donvignes to the correspondent of the Associated Press this evening. "If we win this we shall have peace for fifty or a hundred years. If we lose, all our sacrifices of men and money during the war will have gone for naught."

The confiscation of coal in cars continued this morning. The aggregate seized is nearly 200,000 tons. The French hold that even should the miners' strike become effective, which they doubt, 25 per cent of the Ruhr's normal output is certain to be assured. They consider this will be sufficient for French needs. It is asserted by them that not a pound of coal is going into Germany.

DECLARE FEARS DICTATED PLEA

Arkansas Railroad Strikers Say They Confessed to Arrest to Escape Mob

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 22 (AP)—Declarations of the two witnesses—"Red" Orr and Luther Wise—that they pleaded guilty of arson, while they were innocent, because of the fear they would be lynched if they went to trial, and assertions that high officials of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen were forced to leave Harrison, Ark., by a "mob" was before a committee of the Arkansas legislature at the end of the opening session today of an inquiry ordered in connection with recent disorders incident to the strike of railroad workers along the line of the Missouri and North Arkansas railways.

Orr and Wise, strikers, who declared they accepted sentences of from seven to ten years each, asserted that when they demanded a trial they were told by Circuit Judge Shinn that their lives were in danger. "Wise and I were brought to court last Wednesday and Judge Shinn asked us if we did not want to change our stories," Orr testified. "I told the court I wanted a trial and the judge said: 'All right, you will be tried to-morrow but I warn you that your lives are in danger.'"

Anything to Get Out Orr said after a conference with attorneys, he and Wise decided to plead guilty.

"I had seen a crowd of armed men on the court square," Orr said, "so I put it strong to my attorneys that I would plead guilty to anything to get out of Harrison." Wise's testimony was in substance the same as that of Orr.

Both denied any connection with the burning of the bridge with which they were charged.

Orr asserted that when visiting Grand Jurors members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen came to Harrison last April they were waited upon by a "mob" armed with rifles issued them from the general offices of the road and served with notices to "get out."

Crowd Suggests Boyco

When the union officials were brought down stairs from their rooms in a Harrison hotel in custody of the spokesman of the "mob," Orr declared, the crowd cheered and some shouted "bring them outside; we've got a rope that will fit their necks."

Second Autopsy Deopsens Mystery Surrounding Case of Pair Found Dead in Rhode Island Cottage

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 22 (AP)—A second autopsy late today served to deepen rather than dispel the mystery in the case of J. A. Fraser McLish and his wife, Madeline, found dead in the lodge they occupied on Paul Fritz Simon's estate, Harbour View, here, their bodies charred to fire and marked with admitted that they were without a definite clue. The head wounds made it impossible to accept the theory that the couple had been suffocated in the fire; the locked windows and doors of the little lodge left no explanation of the possible presence there of a third person. The medical examiners today found that the man's death had been "primarily due to suffocation," although his skull had been fractured "by violence by an unknown person." No smoke was found in the lungs of Mrs. McLish, the examiners reported.

RECTOR ASKS FOR TIME TO REPLY TO ACCUSATION

New York Clergyman Will Make Detailed Answer to Demand for Affirmation of Faith or Resignation

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Rev. Percy S. Stekney Grant, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, here, today wrote Bishop William T. Manning asking for further time in which to prepare his formal reply to the bishop's demand that he publicly avow belief in the divinity of Christ or resign from the ministry.

Dr. Grant reiterated in a sermon yesterday his objection to this tenet of the church, first publicly expressed a week ago, and pleaded for an "unshackled clergy," thus lending his friends to a strengthened conviction that he would force the issue of a trial for heresy.

His letter to Bishop Manning this evening reads as follows: "My dear Bishop Manning: I received Friday night your personal letter, which you also had sent to the newspapers.

"Saturday and Sunday were very busy days, with matters that could not be postponed until Monday. I have had to be away from my desk most of the time.

"I shall have to ask you, therefore, to suffer a few days to pass before my formal reply is placed in your hands."

POLICE TAKE NEW TACK IN GIRL DANCER'S DEATH

Interesting Disclosures Promised Upon Return of Detectives Interviewing Friend of Fritzi Mann

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 22 (AP)—Although the efforts of the police to explain the death of Fritzi Mann, dancer, seemed to be halted today by the release of Dr. Louis L. Jacobs of the public health services hospital at Camp Kearney, they declared that new and important clues were being investigated and that tangible results might be expected soon.

The writ of habeas corpus obtained by Dr. Jacobs' attorneys was not opposed in court, the police saying they had no evidence on which to hold the physician.

Two detective sergeants in the northern part of the state today interviewed a girl friend of Miss Mann and the opinion was expressed by Chief of Police Patrick that they would have something of interest to report on their return.

MILLION TREES TO BE PLANTED DURING YEAR

Former President of American Forestry Association Devises Novel Organization to Promote Tree Planting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—A million trees planted in 1923 is the objective of the American Tree association just organized by Charles Lathrop Pack, former president of the American Forestry association. The new association will make anyone who plants a tree and registers it with the association a member. There are no cash dues and there is only one way to join the association and that is to plant a tree. The association will send a certificate of membership after the trees have been planted and will give tree planting instructions to any who ask for it. Mr. Pack has long been identified with public welfare work, particularly in relation to forestry, having for many years been president of the American Forestry association. During the war Mr. Pack organized and directed the work of the national war garden commission. Last fall, together with the secretary, P. S. Ridsdale, and direct ors, Dr. Henry S. Drinker, John Hays Hammond, Charles F. Quincey and Stanislaw Chard, resigned from the American Forestry association, and Mr. Pack declined to allow his name to be put up for re-election. A statement as to the aims of the American Tree association says:

People Must Make Demand. "After three years of endeavor to unite the foresters of the national forest policy Charles Lathrop Pack has organized the American Tree association, which will devote all its energies to secure nationwide planting of trees. Mr. Pack sees that the demand for a national forest policy must come from the people and not from any group of foresters, lumbermen or timberland owners, as the people are vitally interested in having steady and permanent productions of forest products. Up to now the foresters have not been able to agree upon a form of forestry policy and so Mr. Pack has determined to devote himself to arousing the public to the value of tree planting."

Response to the call for tree planters has been remarkable, P. S. Ridsdale, the secretary of the new organization, says. Everyone who planted a tree in 1922 is eligible for membership. From Louisville, Ky., three thousand memberships have been received from one bank that gives depositors trees to plant. The national tree voting plan has been taken up in a number of schools and this feature has proved of the people and not from any group of foresters, lumbermen or timberland owners, as the people are vitally interested in having steady and permanent productions of forest products. Up to now the foresters have not been able to agree upon a form of forestry policy and so Mr. Pack has determined to devote himself to arousing the public to the value of tree planting."

Reforesting Europe. Mr. Pack is continuing the sending of millions of American tree seeds to England, France, Italy and Belgium to help reforest war devastated areas in those countries. As a result of this work millions of American trees are already growing in western Europe.

Another educational campaign of the association is the "Make Washington the National Arboretum of the Country." The hub of the idea was the planting of the Armistice elm by Mrs. Waverle. Hastings a year ago. Seeds from the famous Dunnet Kennedy elm at Crawfordville, Ind., have been received for planting at the Lincoln memorial. This spring will see the planting of memorial trees by several state societies in Washington, the trees to come from the home states.

NEW ZEALAND'S CHEESE COMPETES WITH CANADA

Importations Bring Grains to Dominion's Dairy Industry and Search is Made for Remedial Measures

TORONTO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Canadian dairymen are concerned over the future of their industry, and steps to save it from a further slump are being considered by provincial and federal agricultural authorities. The chief cause for concern is the inundation of New Zealanders have made in the British market where, for many years, Canadian cheese held first position.

J. A. Kudlick, dominion dairy commissioner, admits that the industry is "facing a crisis, the like of which has never arisen," and M. N. Bagey, president of the Eastern Dairymen's association, has expressed the same view.

Grading of cheese under federal supervision and some change in the export of the product proposed for the experts among the measures proposed.

Between 1911 and 1921, federal figures show, exports of cheese to Great Britain declined from 181,893,724 pounds annually to 133,929,340 pounds, while in the same period New Zealand's shipments to the mother country increased from 49,137,384 pounds to 160,911,454 pounds.

COMMUNISTS ENGAGE IN ANTI-RELIGIOUS DRIVE

"Religion Darkens Mind," is Keynote of Propaganda Throughout Russian Trials of Churchmen Continuing

MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (AP)—An anti-religious campaign in towns and villages all over Russia has been inaugurated by the communist party in connection with the reformation movement in the orthodox church, and the numerous trials of churchmen which are still going on in many districts.

"Religion darkens the mind," is the keynote of most of the speeches and anti-religious lectures. While official support, and official recognition of the various clerical groups who broke away from the former patriarch, Tikhon, has been afforded by the soviet government, the communist party expresses itself against any reforms in the church which, it says, is trying to adopt socialism in order to live. It demands the entire liquidation of the church.

Anti-propaganda by lectures and otherwise is also being carried on among the red army recruits in barracks.

VALUATION OF UTILITIES PROPERTIES

The most practical means of pressing the water from stocks of public utilities is, as is now generally recognized, the basing of rates and fares on the physical value of utilities properties.

State public service commissions have made it a policy, as a rule, to hold that the investment value is the cost of the construction or improvements when made.

This tribunal gave the opinion that an utilities company is entitled to returns on increased value, or in effect on replacement value. Inferentially, a company would also be entitled to no more than current value...

The BLIND MAN'S EYES By William MacFiege Edwin Balzer. ILLUSTRATIONS BY R. H. Livingston

CHAPTER XXII

Not Eaton—Overton, Santoline awoke at five o'clock. The blind man felt strong and steady; he had food brought him; while he was eating it, his messenger returned.

She snatched it in dread; the shape of the packet and the manner in which it was fastened told her it must be a photograph. "Open it," her father directed.

"What is it you want to know, Father?" she asked. "That is the picture of Eaton?" "Yes."

"You're having the picture. Where did you get it?" "I knew where it might be. I sent for it."

"But—but, Father—" It came to her now that her father must know who Hugh was. "Who?" "I know who he is now," her father said calmly. "I will tell you when I can."

"When you can?" "Yes," he said. "Where is Avery?" as though his mind had gone to another subject instantly. "He has not been in, I believe, since noon."

"Send for him. Tell him I wish to see him here at the house; he is to remain within the house until I have been here."

Something in her father's tone started and perplexed her; she thought of Donald now only as the most eager and most vindictive of Eaton's pursuers. Was her father removing Donald from among those being seeking Eaton?

search had not yet succeeded and she threw her head back in relief. Seeing the light, he had looked into the library; but when he saw her, he approached her quickly.

"What have you there?" he demanded of her. She flushed at the tone. "What right have you to ask?" Her instant reply had been to conceal the picture, but that would make it seem she was ashamed of it; she held it so Donald could see it if he looked. He did look and suddenly seized the picture from her.

She Struggled to Free Herself From Him.

toward the picture on the table; the manner made her furious. "Let me go, Don!" "No, sorry, dear." He drew her to him, held her only closer.

"Don't, Harry; want to see you! He wanted to know when he came in; he will tell you know when you can go to him."

"Very well. Perhaps that is best. Dear, over this man whom you have known as Eaton, I never be found, or if he is found, he cannot be let to live. Harry, have you never seen a picture with the numbers printed in below like that? Can't you guess yet where your father must have sent for that picture? Don't you know what those numbers mean?"

"What?" "They are the figures of his number in what is called 'The Rogues' Gallery.' And they mean he has committed a crime and been tried and convicted of it; they mean in this case that he has committed a murder!"

"For which he was convicted and sentenced." "Yes; and is alive now only because before the sentence could be carried out, he escaped. That man, Philip Eaton, had Hugh—"

had gazed at the picture a few minutes before, had been disturbed and frightened at feeling it to be a kind of picture unfamiliar to her and threatening her with something unknown and terrible. She knew the reason now for a score of things Hugh had said to her, for the way he had looked many times when she had been in the room.

Her hands dropped from her face; she threw her head back proudly and triumphantly, as she faced now both Avery and her father. "He, the murderer of Mr. Latron?" she cried out so.

The blind man was very pale; he was fully dressed. A servant had supported him and helped him down the stairs and still stood beside him sustaining him. But the will which had conquered his disability of blindness was holding her firm now against the disability of his hurts; he seemed composed and steady.

"Will you wait for me outside, Harry?" he said to her. "I shall not be long." She hesitated; then she felt suddenly the fulfillment of opposing him and she passed him and went out into the hall.

"You have been hurt again, Hugh?" she managed steadily. "Hurt?" he said as constrainedly. "No." The car started, and she sat silent, with her hand still upon his, as they went on to her father's house.

mechanism and flung it into the woods. So she sat in the car, waiting for the captors of Hugh to come up. "Where is he?" she asked them. "Where is he?" They did not tell her; but reply was unnecessary. Others' eyes pointed hers to Hugh. He was in the back seat of the second machine with two men, one on each side of him.

fore him unless he stopped. He brought his car up short and muffled. "What is it?" he cried, as he started the engine. "What is it? What is it?" she cried in return.

"The man recognized her. 'Miss Santoline!'" "What is it?" "We've got him!" the man cried. "We've got him!" "Him?" "Him! Hugh Overton! Eaton, Miss Santoline. He's Hugh Overton; didn't you hear? And we've got him!"

"Where is Mr. Avery?" he demanded. "I've got to tell Mr. Avery." She made no response but threw herself in front of the car and clasped a wheel as the man started to throw in his gear. He cried to her and tried to get her off; but she was dead to him. He looked in the direction of the house, shut off his power and leaped down. He left the machine and ran on the road toward the house.

Harriet started the car and turned it back in the direction from which it had come. She speeded and soon other headlights flared at hers—a number of them; four or five cars, at least, were in file up the road and men were crowding and borsouren were riding beside them.

She rushed on so close that she saw she alarmed them; they cried a warning; the horsemen and the men on foot jumped from beside the road and the leading car swung to one side; but Harriet caught her car on the brakes and swung it straight across the road and stopped in it; she closed the throttle, and pulled the key from the starting-

"You have been hurt again, Hugh?" she managed steadily. "Hurt?" he said as constrainedly. "No." The car started, and she sat silent, with her hand still upon his, as they went on to her father's house.

CONQUEST STILL SOVIET'S DREAM

Bolshevik Leader of Moscow Avows Hope of Seeing Red Flag Flying Over New York

MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (AP)—Soviet leaders have not by any means given up the hope of some day seeing the Red flag flying over the capitals of the world, including the city of New York.

Addressing a banquet of communists here recently, Leo Kaminief, chairman of the Moscow Soviet, said the Bolsheviks workers should be proud of the fact that they hold within their grasp the only capital on earth today where the general staff of the working class can safely plan for the struggle of the future.

"And I look forward to the time," Kaminief said with earnestness, "when the red banner of revolution will fly, not only from within the ancient walls of the Kremlin, in Moscow, but also from the flag staffs of towers in Paris, London, Rome and New York."

Delves Into Ruins of Pueblo Built on Side of Panama Volcano by Ancestors of Aztecs

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 22 (AP)—John Q. Critchlow of Salt Lake City, president of the Panama Sugar Company and director of the railroads of Panama, has unearthed archaeological remains in the ruins of a pueblo on the side of the El Volcan de Chiriqui, an ancient volcanic mountain in Panama which has an elevation of 11,000 feet, according to word received here from Mr. Critchlow.

El Volcan de Chiriqui, said to be the only mountain in the world where an observer can look upon the waters of the Pacific and Atlantic oceans in a single scope of the eye, was chosen by the Maya people, the forefathers of the Aztecs, as the burial place of their deities.

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET. CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Under heavy-selling pressure wheat dropped today to the lowest prices since the first week in December. A decided increase of the United States available supply was a large factor responsible.

With most of January gone and with receipts at primary terminals about as large as ever, numerous holders of wheat appeared to lose confidence in the fact that this month would witness sharp falling off which had been looked for in the crop movement.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Daily's total sales 623,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 97.25; not loss 36. High 102.2, 101.43; low 78.50.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Speculators for the decline enveloped to bring about another reaction in today's stock market, utilizing the unfavorable week-end developments abroad as an excuse.

Opinion is general that the European situation is exerting a decidedly restraining effect on London and that public participation in the market is a negligible factor.

Some uneasiness was caused today by the further depression of French and British bonds, a number of which established new low records, another slump in foreign exchanges, some of which are approaching their November lows, and news of railroad and miners' strikes in the Ruhr.

Major activity in the industrial list centered in Baldwin and Studabaker, the former advancing a net gain of 3 1/2 points to 43. The latter 1 1/2. Pros American issues were active and strong on official announcement that the company has no immediate intention of offering a $25,000,000 issue of seven per cent preferred stock.

PREPARE DOCKET FOR COURT TERM

Liquor Cases Will be in Majority in January Trials; Jury is Selected

The criminal docket for the January term in district court will be somewhat lighter than during the last term but it will also be featured by the trial of liquor cases. The docket for the jury term, which begins next Monday morning, has not yet been arranged.

The grand jury will be sworn on Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the hall of the Melvin Blackburn attorney case in which the jury disagreed at the last term. It will appear in court on Monday morning.

The jurors for the coming term, whose names were drawn yesterday, are as follows:

W. P. Brower, G. W. Colner, J. H. Hall and Clyde Johnson of Haugen; D. A. McMullan, M. W. Denoyer, A. S. Martin, W. S. Parish, E. J. Compton, J. H. Dunaway, R. W. Steele, A. L. Knight, W. B. Amalany, R. E. Spaford, Albert Eastling, H. E. Barker, J. E. Forman, E. H. White, Chester Kroegel and A. C. Banno of Twin Falls; P. C. Hill of Berger; W. T. Conant, W. T. Samuela, E. C. Swanner, L. Four pleaded guilty in district court Monday on liquor charges and will be sentenced Wednesday. They are James Kelly, Junn Adams, Frank Sizemore and Myran Piercey.

Arguments will be heard this week on the civil case in which testimony has been completed. These are Morrison vs. E. R. Sherman; Orin Ross vs. the Twin Falls Canal company, and Cecil Mattice vs. M. Koppelman and others.

KIWANIANS GIVE VIEWS ON NEEDED LEGISLATION

Change in Time of Tax Payments is Advocated and Offshore Tax Favored and Opposed by Members

Views of individual Kiwanians with respect to legislation desired at the hands of the present session of the state legislature were expressed at a regular meeting of the club Monday.

Change in the time for tax payments was advocated by W. T. Leslie who declared the Christmas season the most undesirable time in the year for this function.

Enactment of the proposed gasoline tax as a means of raising revenue for maintenance of the system of state highways was favored by O. E. Lind, automobile dealer, and opposed by Wendell Allen of the Allen Oil company.

No action upon the several suggestions made taken by the club, but a standing committee headed by former Senator M. J. Stowley was instructed to submit recommendations in relation to proposed or pending legislation at the next meeting.

Captain C. L. Longley, director of the federal assay office at Boise, was a guest of the club, and responded to a happy reunion by the club, but remarks by A. R. Colwell, a member of the club, who has recently returned from a visit to his former home in the middle west, reported business conditions improved in that region.

Several young numbers were given by the "Four Knights of Harnomy," a quartet composed of Charles Taylor, Fay Fisher, H. F. Gardner and Victor Lackman of Salt Lake, who have just concluded an engagement at the Lawing theatre.

MANY REPORTED IN NEED

County Commissioners Investigate the Cases of Needy and Extend Aid Where Circumstances Warrant

Numerous cases of need are appearing before the county commissioners, several having appeared daily for several days. The conditions reported are carefully investigated and aid is extended only where circumstances are known to justify the action, the commissioners report. One case was found of a family of five children, the father being unable to obtain work and the mother being ill.

Shortly before coming to Twin Falls Mr. Smith lost, in a storm at sea, a ship load of horses which resulted in a great financial loss to him. He was a graduate of the Toronto veterinary college in 1889. It was at Toronto that he met and married his wife, Sarah L. Riley. Mr. Smith is survived by his wife and two children, James W. Smith of the Big White store and Miss Anne W. Smith who is connected with the law firm of Bothwell & Chapman.

MOTORISTS PASS YOUTH PINNED BENEATH AUTO

James Calvert, Flier High School Boy, Has Narrow Escape when Car Overturns

After being pinned beneath his overturned Ford for upwards of two hours on Sunday morning at the side of the road on the state highway near Flier, James Calvert, 17, Flier high school student, was released from his precarious position by members of a Twin Falls fishing party who, noticing the car stopped to investigate the wreck.

According to the young man's story he was returning from a Saturday night dance and reached the point of the accident about 10 o'clock in the morning. In an effort to adjust a rube about his feet he lost control of the wheel and before he could recover himself he was in the ditch with the car on top of him.

Dozens of cars, he declared, passed him, but being unable to attract attention he was doubled up under the front seat with the gasoline pouring over him from the overturned tank and unable to move. His final rescue was effected by Glairie A. Bailey, Jack Shroud and Homer Bonebrake, who were able to lift the car and identify the owner of the vehicle as Fred E. Bailey. Mr. Bailey drove him to the office of Dr. Newberry of Flier who treated him for a badly bruised eye and a wound at the back of the head which was at first supposed to be serious.

Reports Monday morning were to the effect that his injuries are not serious and that an X-ray picture disclosed no fractures. He is at the county hospital. Calvert lives a short distance south of Curry.

HOLD RITES FOR PIONEER

Friends and Relatives Attend Funeral of J. M. Smith; Lodge Gives Ceremony

In the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends which taxed the capacity of the Episcopal church, funeral services were held Sunday for James M. Smith, an old and well known resident of Twin Falls, whose death, after a lingering illness, took place on Friday night.

The burial service of the church was solemnized by the rector, the Rev. George H. Sumner, and a number of hymns were sung by the choir. Masons to the number of nearly one hundred assembled at the Masonic temple and escorted the remains to the church and cemetery. The pallbearers, chosen from the local ranks of Masonry, were:

Dr. Charles Dwight, Dr. W. H. Dwight, E. J. Hornbrook, E. J. Ostrander, D. D. Albord and C. F. Green.

Full Masonic rites were observed at the cemetery.

Mr. Smith resided in Twin Falls for 15 years, most of which time he was employed by the city. He was born in Scotland 73 years ago and came to this country when 18 years of age. He moved from Illinois to Cherokee, Iowa, in 1882, after being engaged in the transportation of horses. In those days he was known as the largest dealer in full blooded draft horses in northwest Iowa.

Shortly before coming to Twin Falls Mr. Smith lost, in a storm at sea, a ship load of horses which resulted in a great financial loss to him.

He was a graduate of the Toronto veterinary college in 1889. It was at Toronto that he met and married his wife, Sarah L. Riley. Mr. Smith is survived by his wife and two children, James W. Smith of the Big White store and Miss Anne W. Smith who is connected with the law firm of Bothwell & Chapman.

During the second period Monday the students of the junior high school enjoyed an assembly held in recognition of the pupils who won distinction with high scholarship during the past semester. Mrs. Jenns Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Duvall, sang several songs. Mrs. Hinton played a piano solo. C. C. Mitchell, superintendent of schools, told the pupils of the advantage of a high school education, and of furthering one's education. The honor students names were read and they responded. The high honors for the semester were won by Barbara Provost, whose average was 95.

A good deal of enthusiasm has been aroused at high school for the taking of the subscription list for the Coyote this year. Five hundred subscriptions are needed before the Coyote will be published. The students are requested to pay $1 down now and the remainder when they receive their annual. Two hundred and thirty-eight dollars have been received.

U. S. GAME OFFICIALS GIVE TIPS ON HUNTING

Urges Observance of Existing Laws; Claim Violations Due to Ignorance

George Tonkin, United States game warden of Baker, Oregon, with jurisdiction over that state and Idaho, spent Monday in Twin Falls in company with Deputy State Game Warden John T. Sallisbury who is also deputized as a federal game official.

The two are making a tour of Southern Idaho towns in the interests of game protection and in investigating a number of legal breaches of the game laws at various points in this section. Observance of existing laws both state and federal, is urged by both men as the only means of preserving the game throughout the country.

The general disposition on the part of the public is to live up to the laws, they state, but ignorance of regulations is responsible for a good many violations some of which are of serious import.

Co-operation between state and federal game authorities is close and as a result a rigid system of inspection is possible for the most part during the entire year.

Mr. Sallisbury states that complaints have reached him to the effect that there have been cases of hunting the Hungarian partridges recently planted here in the hopes of establishing the bird as an adjunct to the wild game of the country. Such cases will be rigidly prosecuted where actual evidence is obtainable, both men say.

TIDE OF GRAIN FLOODS HARBOR

Lake Vessels Laden with $50,000,000 Worth of Grain are Tied Up at Buffalo

BUFFALO, Jan. 23 (AP)—Strung along side by side in imposing array under the lee of the outer breakwater and tucked away in corners of the inner harbor here, are nearly 100 of the largest freighters on the Great Lakes loaded to capacity with grain harvested in the American and Canadian northwest last fall. The vessels with their cargoes, which comprise nearly 20,000,000 bushels of grain—wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley and flax—are worth at the present market price about $50,000,000.

Much of the grain will remain in storage in the holds of the vessels until west last fall. The vessels with their cargoes, which comprise nearly 20,000,000 bushels of grain—wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley and flax—are worth at the present market price about $50,000,000.

The movement of grain from the boats to the elevators has been so placed in the harbor that they can be moved up to elevator legs some time during the winter when the movement by rail will have relieved the elevators of a part of their bulging stores.

The most winter cargo in floating storage this season is in the hold of the steamer William C. Agnew, one of the best vessels in the fleet. Nor could it be possible to move it there as rapidly as the freighters bring it down the lakes. So the big freighters become storehouses for the winter, and they are as desirable for that purpose as the elevators.

The current evening department of the Twentieth Century club will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. E. J. Finck, 421 Second avenue west.
