SHIP BILL GIVE ONE MORE DAY

Opponents Waging Filibuster, Openly Declare They Have Votes Enough to Get Measure Out of Way

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Buffeted by another day of filibuster in the senate, the administration tonight might as well have headed toward the doom.

Opponents of the ship bill, after canvassing the strength of their forces, decided for the first time that they had enough votes to get the measure out of the way unless its supporters could obtain some action upon it within the next two days.

Several senators who have been mildly favorable toward the bill, privately admitted during the day that they would not continue their support of the measure much further, if it continued to block other legislation.

The opinion of senators as to the means of bringing the filibuster to an end, differed, some opposing recommitment and favoring displacement by another bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The filibuster began yesterday in the house by opponents of the bill proposing government purchase of the Cape Cod canal, and ended today after republican leaders made it known that they would not press the measure at this time.

Chairman Winslow of the interstate commerce committee, in charge of the bill, declared in a formal statement that the party managers had given him "no assurance of consideration of the bill at this session of congress."

Representative Winslow said he had "prorated" the decision of the leaders "in view of the merit of the bill and in consideration of constant and positive assurance that bills and resolutions would be taken up."

The legislative program, badly congested when the filibuster began, was complicated further today by the presentation of the third deficiency appropriation bill.

SPURIOUS MONEY MAKERS FACING FIGHT IN COURT

Secret Service Agents Wreck International Counterfeiting Ring and Take Between 500 and 600 in Dozen Countries

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—With the international counterfeiting system wrecked by secret service agents who laid its workings bare yesterday and with between 500 and 600 men connected with the ring in a dozen countries, under arrest, federal authorities today prepared for a court fight to send the counterfeiters to jail for the maximum term of 45 years.

While court evidence was being set in order, the dragnet of the secret service was extended to most of the large cities of the United States to catch hundreds of passers of counterfeit money, implicated by clues captured in Tuesday's raid here.

Joseph A. Palma, chief of the special secret service squad which for eight months tracked the makers and distributors of spurious money, gave evidence in the United States circuit court of the evidence of the international ramifications of the plot by announcing that 15 persons had been arrested in England, France, Egypt, Germany, Cuba, Austria and the Bahamas, as a result of information furnished by the American secret service.

Traco Links to Killings.

New York police, who began an independent investigation, professed to find a direct connection between the counterfeit plot and many hitherto unsolved gang murders of the past few years.

Several of the murders were believed to have resulted from passage of bogus money and from traffic crossing the ranks of the counterfeiters. A number of crimes, it was said, had been committed in or near the Bronx street cars owned by the Traco corporation yesterday as one of the gang's large wholesalers of counterfeiters.

Palma agreed that scores of important criminals were in the ranks of the counterfeiters.

Immigrants unfamiliar with American money were the easy victims, but they also hunted out small stores kept by aged women in their homes at times in charge of children.

Secret service men are checking up on all possible sources of information thrown open to them by yesterday's arrests to ascertain whether the counterfeiting conspirators turned over to independent gangs or whether they used their own national organization for the distribution of the drug.

In League With Bootleggers.

Seizure of large quantities of counterfeit internal revenue stamps, "physicians' liquor prescription blanks and Quebec liquor stamps" in yesterday's raids indicated, secret service men said, that the counterfeiters, in addition to making vast purchases of liquor from international rum runners, were in league with illicit manufacturers of whiskey in interstate traffic.

Some of the dies used in making spurious specie were smuggled here from Italy in large cheese, officials said today.

JAPAN'S TRADE INCREASES

Foreign Commerce Record for Year Ends With Slight Improvement Over Preceding Twelve Months

TOKIO, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Japanese foreign trade for the year 1922 indicates a slight improvement over the preceding year, said Mr. Arin, minister of Commerce.

"Up to November 1922 for instance exports reached 1,378,300,000 yen and imports 1,745,730,000 yen, showing respectively an increase in the former of 371,270,000 yen and of 300,000,000 in the latter. It is a matter for congratulation that in the latter half of the year 1922, the trade resulted in the excess of export due chiefly to the brisk demand abroad for silk.

"Viewed as a whole, however, there is something in the past foreign trade that indicates a decrease of business beyond the extent of the usual years. But this is a tendency common to all the world nations, nor is it insurance that efforts be made for the improvement so far as Japan is concerned, of the quality of goods and the reduction of prices.

"In the hope of attaining these desirable improvements, the government is resolved to employ every possible means by dispatching early this spring commercial commissioners abroad for the purpose of inspection and the appointment of special committees for the investigation of industrial possibilities."

DISCLOSES OWN STORY OF CRIME

Sixty-Two Year Old Texan Tires of Living Under Shadow; Wants to Visit Mother

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 22 (AP)—Charles F. McCandless, 62, of Hurst, Texas, who confessed to the slaying of a police officer, killed four men in Texas and New Mexico, between 1900 and 1910, and who claims there is a $10,000 bounty on his head, surrendered to the police here today. His motive for surrendering, he is alleged to have told authorities, was that he is tired of living under a cloud, and that he wants to visit his 34-year-old mother in Hurst, Texas, who wants him to atone for his misdeeds before she dies.

McCandless, according to his signed confession, had been in the United States as guard at various military camps throughout the west under the names of Jack and Richard W. Miller. Two years ago, he states, while serving under the name of Richard Miller, he was chief guard of the Newport News shipbuilding and Drydock company. Elmer G. Barnes was another of his many aliases, he says.

Millhaman Fifth Victim.

McCandless also claims to have killed a fifth man, whose name he does not know. This killing, his confession states, occurred at a militia camp in Arizona in 1915, from which he deserted after killing a guard.

The list of men killed as given in his confession follows:

- A. Hill Walton at Turnersville, Texas, in 1900.
- Cull Woods, at Hico, Texas, in 1908.
- An unnamed "highwayman" at Stephenville, Texas, in 1909.
- "Bill" Tuck, "the Mike" Dupree, at Clevis, N. M., in 1910.

It was for the murder of Woods, McCandless is alleged to have told the police, that the $10,000 reward was offered for his arrest.

CHINA FINDING VALUE OF MILK DRINKING HABIT

American Dairy-Industry Looks Toward Far East for Development of New and Extensive Markets

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—A hundred years or more ago the Empire of China, by imperial edict, declared it selfish for human beings to drink cow's milk. The august old lady thought it deprived calves of their natural food. Thus without knowing it, perhaps, she created a dietary regime for Chinese children from which they are only now about to be released.

About a decade ago the Chinese began to take notice of the use of milk by missionaries, and, in the vicinity of the mission stations, began using their own cows and water buffaloes as food sources. Once started on a milk diet, the trend has been going by leaps and bounds. Imports of condensed milk, milk powders and the sale of ice-cream in the foreign colonies of the United States have attracted the attention of the Chinese to milk drinking habits and they have now begun to study the benefits that might come to their children if the old Empire had not issued her edict.

America Sees Markets.

America with its billions of dollars invested in dairy cattle and products and machinery factories is looking to China as a big outlet, and its hopes are about to be realized, according to the World Dairy Congress Association. A type of letter being received from the Far East by the association has just arrived from Ellwood Varney, an American milk expert of the Liberty Dairy at Shanghai.

"There is no better opportunity in the world, than right here in China," writes Mr. Varney in a plan for aid in fattening the largest dairy school men to the Orient. "The kind of men wanted are the sort who are as much interested in the future of dairying as they are in fattening their own pocket books. We do not want the milk-seeker. We want the deer and the giver and he will find himself highly rewarded."

Mr. Varney's chief, Mr. Yee, owner of the Liberty dairy at Shanghai, a Cornell University graduate, is going to attend the World Dairy in Congress in Washington in October. Furthermore he is going to take back to China with him a large number of pure-bred dairy cattle with the object of establishing breeding stations similar to the horse-breeding stations established in the United States by the Government. These cattle-breeding stations are to be operated by Americans with American dairy school training and methods which call for the utilization of American dairy machinery and utensils.

Japan Takes New Tack.

Boy brand milk and cheese are in use in Japan as well as China and the World's Dairy Congress Association workers look forward to shifting the interest to cow's milk and cheese in that country also. The natives with American institutional training are starting the movement.

CALIFORNIA PRUNES BRING RECORD PRICE IN RUSSIA

SAN JOSE, Calif., Feb. 22 (AP)—A world's record price for fruit was established when $202,500 was received here for a box of prunes.

Two years ago, William Spielberg, San Jose shipper, contracted to send ten boxes of prunes to Moscow, Russia, at the rate of $335 per box. One of the boxes went astray and no further word of it was received until recently when a letter was received here by Spielberg from Russia, containing 1,005,000 rubles, the value of the missing box of prunes at the prevailing rate of exchange.

At pre-war rates these rubles would have been valued at $502,500 in American coin. The letter bore fifteen 1,000 two-year tags for postage, having a pre-war value of $7,000.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Siphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—adv.

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists act a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult, and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed.—adv.

ATTACKS TREND TOWARD DESPAIR IN LITERATURE

Century Magazine Editor Tells Methodist Council Fears Must Be Conquered by Removing Their Causes

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 22 (AP)—The process of political, social, industrial and racial disintegration, cannot be stayed by deluding ourselves into thinking that we can shut our eyes to the ugliest facts of our time and blindly chant, "Day by Day, in every way, the world is growing better and better," Glenn Frank of New York, editor of the Century magazine told the meeting of the Council of Cities of the Methodist Episcopal church here today.

Five years ago by Mr. Frank as contained in the books of certain authors who have gone to make up what Mr. Frank termed the "literature of despair." The "New Dark Ages" springs from some one of all of these five distinct fears, he said. He described these as the Biological fear that the best blood of the world was turning to water; the Psychological fear that the crowd-man and crowd-processes of thinking will push to the wall that insurgent individual whom we might regard as one of the mainstays of progress; the Economic fear that our industrial civilization has outstripped the administrative capacity of mankind, and the forces of the younger generation has renounced allegiance to all wholesome standards of conduct and is on the loose.

Names Prophets of Despair.
The authors named by Mr. Frank as having contributed in some of their work to this literature of despair, were: Leo Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Gorky, Zola, Lorraine Hansberry, Everett Ruess, Lord Byron, L. P. Jacks, Denn Ingo, H. G. Wells, Ed. Wood, Grant Conklin, Ralph Ames, Graham, Madison Grant "and others."

"I do not suggest that we disregard this literature of despair," said Mr. Frank. "The five fears are well grounded. Our duty is to conquer them, not by emotional incantation, but by removing their causes."

"There is also a literature of hope made up of creative ideas, the idealism and the new spiritual values. I venture to suggest some ideas that seem to me must be rescued from the jaws of technical scholarship, taken out from under the exclusive patronage of cloistered intellectuals and put to honest work in the direction of our public affairs if we are to close the door to a new Dark Ages and open the door to a new Renaissance. There are Cultural Nationalism; Economic Internationalism; Democracy; Industry Liberated; Business, Rationalized; Politics; Humanized Education, Socialized religion and the idea of a Well Trained Race."

Sees New Competition.
Mr. Frank stated that Cultural Nationalism will convert world politics into a competition in excellence instead of competition in armies; common sense will force us into some sort of international management of the fundamental economic rights of transit trade, migration and investment in backward countries; Democracy in industry must be workable democracy and not socialism; Democracy in industry must be socially sound in order to be commercially sound; Democracy in government as the schism between politics and facts has meant a dangerous collision from which we suffer daily; the modern world and religion must open a new society well fit to the soul and be concerned with institutions as well as individuals.

While Mr. Frank said the literature of despair could be gathered together in a five foot shelf and so labeled, the literature of hope was found here and there, thrown up as unconscious by-products of the thought and investigation of our modern biologists, psychologists, economists, statesmen and others.

FUNDING TERMS UP TO HARDING

House Accepts Senate Changes Completing Action on British Settlement Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The British debt funding arrangement tonight was one step nearer completion, congressional approval of the act ratifying the recently negotiated settlement with Great Britain having been completed today. Only the signature of President Harding is required to permit the treasury to exchange formal settlement agreements.

Congressional action was completed when the house accepted senate changes in the British settlement bill without modification. As a result of the congressional approval and with the signature of the president assumed to be certain treasury officials believe that the debt funding terms which are to be exchanged between the United States and Great Britain and which will put into operation the program for refunding the sixty-two, all of these five distinct fears, he said.

The indentures will embody the terms accepted by the British government and describe the methods of payment, all of which were tentatively worked out between the two debt funding commissions in their recent negotiations. British internal bonds to be deposited with the United States treasury.

Under Secretary Gilbert of the treasury was unable to state tonight the date on which the agreement will go into operation. A series of conferences is being held between officials of the treasury and A. Howe Dutton, British treasury representative, who remained here after his commission's work was concluded and these conferences will determine the final form of the contractual agreement which will put into legal form the terms agreed upon in the negotiations. The British government probably will be represented by Sir Auckland Geddes, its ambassador here, in formally signing the document which will put the funding plan into operation.

TWIN FALLS AND FILER WIN MEET

Elimination Contests Determine Sub-District Representatives in District Finals

Twin Falls and Filer high school basketball teams will represent this sub-district of the south central district in the finals which will be held here on March 2, by virtue of their winning the last two games of the semi-finals which were played Thursday night at the local high school gym.

Filer won its game from Buhl by the score of 41 to 4 in the opening game of the evening, the west end team failing to make a single field goal. Three points were made by Mullins and one by Layne via the free throw route.

This game gave the Filer lads three straight wins, two from Buhl and one from Kimberly. Filer's superior floor work, combined with Marlin's clever basket shooting, did the work as far as the scoring is concerned, while the entire team guarded as though a championship was at stake.

The second game of the evening between Twin Falls and Kimberly resulted in the Blue and White hoopers winning by the score of 66 to 12. Lardie Jenkins of the home team gave another high class demonstration of the great indoor game, shooting 13 baskets and being in every play.

For Kimberly the work of King, Robinson and Wood featured. The box score of the last two games:

HUGE SWINDLES LAID AT DOOR OF MISSING BARBER

Watch is Set on Mexican Border for J. M. Marcino, whose Operations are Said to Have Cost Investors Thousands

CHICAGO, Feb. 22 (AP)—An immigrant from Italy of a dozen years ago, who later became a West Side barber in Chicago, is being sought tonight along the Mexican border while bankers and state officials in the east and middle west, trace his career in frenzied finance, a career which already has cost investors from a half million to a million dollars or more.

The missing barber banker is Joseph M. Marcino or Joseph M. Blata, a dapper man, 27 years old, just a little over five feet tall and remarkably broad.

But you see a man about five feet two, and almost three feet broad, it's Marcino. A Burns detective who is directing the search, said today.

While the detectives are searching for Marcino who disappeared in Buffalo last Friday after he is alleged to have peddled nearly $200,000 worth of stolen securities, Frank L. Taylor, former railroad man, and other officials are reported to be in charge of celebrating national bank funds.

Known Loser Half Million. Taylor told Burns operatives who arrested him that he at one time worked for the Burns agency and also had been a secret agent of the department of justice.

Burns agents here figure the known losses from Marcino's operations at $501,000, and say that they expect much more to appear before their investigation is complete.

Through manipulation of the funds of the Niagara Life insurance company of Buffalo, N. Y., they say investors lost $248,000.

The closing of the Warren, Mass. bank last week revealed a shortage of $213,000. Taylor claims Marcino cleaned out the bank's vault and later peddled the securities in and around Buffalo.

The failure of Mechanics and Merchants bank in Philadelphia on February 12 added another $130,000 to the total.

A New York congressman is said by the detectives to have lost a sum estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000 through his faith in Marcino's schemes.

Beats Initial Handicap. The detectives also are investigating the connection between a bank at Weyauwega, Wis., and the Niagara Life insurance company, securities formerly owned by the Wisconsin bank, in which Marcino is said to have obtained a controlling interest about six months ago, have turned up in links in and around Buffalo, where they are said to have been pledged by the insurance company as security on loans.

Marcino's career as financier, according to Burns agents, started about 1917 or 1918, when he fathered a scheme for starting a new bank at Ottawa, Illinois, and buying out the existing bank, a scheme which failed, they say, he was indicted by the grand jury here for operating a confidence game, but disappeared.

RECEIVERS ARE NAMED FOR BIG MORTGAGE CONCERN CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 22 (AP)—William L. David and Thomas H. Hogsett, Cleveland attorneys, late today were named receivers for the Cleveland Discount company, one of the largest mortgage concerns in the United States, by Honorable Pleas Judge Alvin T. Pearson, and immediately took charge of the affairs of the organization. Two other lawyers at the time were appointed receivers in name for the receivers. The resources of the company were reported last July to be more than $42,000,000.

A voluntary petition asking the receivership was filed by W. H. Hopple, Tiffin, Ohio, manufacturer, chairman of the board of directors, who said that he had made the application on behalf of more than 15,000 stockholders scattered throughout the country. Mr. Hopple is said to be the largest stockholder in the concern.

GERMANS MAKE OUTCRY

One of the lowest type. The Red Cross is said to have refused the privilege of having representative visits them, despite several applications to General Fournier.

Dr. Gruentzen, president of the district, from whom the Red Cross is established at Eiberfeld after his expulsion, has notified the lord mayor and diet of Essen that he forbids the entrance of any police force to replace those who have been expelled.

It is reported from Woenekelkirchen in the Lonnep district of the English occupied zone, that the French troops here are preventing food shipments and are also preventing the Germans also state that a rigid pass control has been instituted at the bridges over the Ruhr and the Lippe, every traveler in the district cars as well as on the steam roads being obliged to show his papers before being permitted to proceed.

Railway Control Spreads Further progress is said to have been made in militarization of the branch railway lines. From German forces, however, referred report of another serious mishap took place at Dahlhausen, where two trains operated by the French collided, killing five persons and severely injuring eight others.

The Dusseldorf report that unemployed men are being given work by the occupation authorities as excavators and miners at wages of 60,000 marks a month, a figure which the Germans claim that they are winning the struggle in the Ruhr.

The system of passive resistance inaugurated by the Germans when the Ruhr was occupied by the French, declared by the newspapers of Essen and other towns in the occupied area to be entirely satisfactory. The newspapers still take the stand that they can "cheat" if more than they can "hold" out the hope that the French and Belgian operations sooner or later will be liquidated, but they do not suggest that the Germans should apparently call for a long stay. Daily they are moving up additional artillery to certain points and making themselves as comfortable as possible.

The French now have in full effect their custom ring for the collection of taxes. It has been welded round the district in which the concentrated German forces are installing telephone lines and making necessary arrangements to extend water and rail transportation. They are using thousands of trained civilian workmen brought from France.

SOLDIER BONUS CHANCES IMPROVE MOMENTARILY WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 (AP)—Soldiers have received in the house were given a glimmer of hope today by Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, author of the measure voted by President Harding, but it proved short-lived.

Mr. Fordney addressing the house on the British debt settlement, said Secretary Mellon had told him that he had no objection to the use of the money received from the foreign debt, principal and interest, in financing a bonus for former service men after the money had been obtained.

Mr. Mellon, when his attention was called to Mr. Fordney's remarks, said he had no recollection of having made the statement.

The treasury secretary commented with Mr. Fordney by telephone and the Michigan representative later stated that he evidently had misunderstood Mr. Mellon and would strike his remarks from the record of the house proceedings. He added that at the first opportunity he would make an explanation of the matter to the house.

The opportunity was afforded at a session of the house tonight, Mr. Fordney taking the floor in explanation of the floor secretary had told him he had not intended to convey any such impression as given by the Michigan representative. Mr. Fordney, saying he wished the record corrected, he obtained unanimous consent for his remarks to be stricken from the record.

THEORY OF SLAYING BY BOOTLEGGERS IS FAULTY LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 22 (AP)—Information in the hands of the police does not bear out the theory that bootleggers were responsible for the mysterious slaying here last week of a prominent engineer.

The theory was advanced last night, it was announced tonight by George K. Home, captain of detectives. Remington probably was connected with a number of liquor smuggling rackets in this vicinity. Captain Home said, but no direct evidence has been secured to show that he had been involved in any trouble with them. A check given by Remington to a bootlegger for some time back by whiskey and "guds" was made good later by him, the police said they discovered.

The police turned their attention to a scrutiny of Remington's correspondence and private papers today. This search, it was announced, revealed that he had written to friends in Connecticut of death threats made against him and verified the statement of Mrs. Virginia Remington that he had lived in fear of his life for several weeks prior to the slaying.

Cafe Bowlers Take Match with Wright's

Rogerson's Team Wins First Two Games and Lobs Third when Opponents Stiffen The Rogerson Cafe team took two out of three from the Wright's store bowlers last night at the Twin Falls bowling alley in the first of the scheduled games for the week.

In the opener, neither team seemed to get its bearings, both falling below the 500 mark. This game went for the soup makers by the score of 789 to 749. Kennedy of the cafe's emporium outfit rolled 181 for high.

When the smoke had cleared after the second game it was discovered that the Rogerson Cafe crowd had knocked down 876 while "Pop" Kleffner and his trio stopped at 778. Cleary Larson gave the natives a seat in this game by swatting down 311 pins.

The last game of the evening was featured by the big league bowling of Art Hannak who slugged the lumber around the 500 mark. This game went to the Wright's store men by the score of 854 to 821.

The total pins for the three stouts: Rogerson Cafe 2486, Wright's Store 2381 and the total for the evening went to Bill Towan, 170 being the rest of his efforts.

HARBINGERS OF SPRING REVIVE BASEBALL TALK News Reader Asks if Fans Are Going to Travel Again This Year to Hansen or Jerome to See Games

To the Sporting Editor, Twin Falls News: Springtime, and young men's thoughts turn to love; but say, mine are turning to thoughts of baseball.

I am of the opinion that we could not support a league team, but we certainly can support another Twilight League. There were some features that we had not quite satisfactory, but with the experience gained from the last time, I think it could be made to function about right.

I have reference to the fact that at the last of the season all the good players were playing on the best team, somewhat like the Giants, if you know what I mean.

I think the reason the Twilight league was a success was the price of admission which was about right. No body complained of not getting his money's worth, and the league had money left.

They are calling mass meetings for everything else, why not baseball? Yours for baseball, J. W. F. Twin Falls, February 22.

Burley Five Loses to Oakley Quintet

Superior Team Work Wins Opening Contest at Rupert for Last Year's Winners RUPERT, Feb. 22.—(Special to The News)—Oakley's basketball team won a hard fought game here tonight from the Burley quintet in the first game of the evening in the semi-finals for this sub-district, by the score of 37 to 30.

Superior team work, combined with better basket shooting, tells the story of Burley's first defeat of the tournament. Burley's basket shooting was wild, while the Oakley team took advantage of every miscue made by the Burley five.

Counting forward for the Burley team was the whole show for his team shooting eight baskets, and giving a wonderful exhibition of floor work. Martindale and Davison, and the clever guarding of Hunter featured.

Seven teams are struggling for recognition at the tournament, Burley, Oakley, Rupert, Heiburn, Delco, Paul and Albion competing.

The first game of the afternoon was won by Oakley, playing Heiburn, by the score of 84 to 11. Burley beat Paul and Oakley, Rupert, Heiburn, Delco, 22 to 12, and Paul beat Heiburn, 30 to 26, thus eliminating the Heiburn quintet.

Friday morning three games will be played, starting Rupert and Oakley in the opener, Paul and Burley in the second and Albion and Delco in the third morning affair.

Hatteras, North Carolina, Wettest Spot, and Yuma, Arizona, Driest, According to the Observers' Records

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—The country was not so wet last year as it normally is. Philadelphia was the driest it has been in 100 years. Complications of the weather bureau show that 96 of the 175 reporting stations had less rainfall than normally. Hatteras, N. C., was the wettest spot, while Yuma, Ariz., was the driest. Mobile, Ala., was a close second for the wettest place, and El Paso, Tex., took second position as driest.

From the Mississippi valley eastward the amounts of precipitation ranged generally from about thirty inches in the upper lake region to between 50 and 60 inches in most of the Gulf coast states, although slightly less than 40 inches of precipitation fell in much of Pennsylvania. Between the Mississippi river and the Rocky mountains the amounts varied from slightly more than 32 inches at Haver, Mont., to about 50 inches in southeastern Texas. Less than 10 inches were reported in most of the southern Rocky mountain districts and the far southwest. On the Pacific coast precipitation varied from about 60 inches in extreme northwest to a little more than 20 inches in Washington.

nine inches in extreme southern California.

The outstanding feature of precipitation during the year compared with the normal was the large deficiencies in amount in the far northwest, especially western Washington, and also in the area from central Colorado southward. Tacoma, Wash., received but little more than half the normal annual rainfall, while in extreme western Texas and southeastern Mexico, less than half the annual amount was received. There was a general deficiency also in the central northern states from the western upper lakes region westward to the Rocky mountains, except at a few points in Montana and North Dakota.

Less than the annual amount was recorded, very generally from western Tennessee, Arkansas, and Missouri northeastward over the Ohio valley and lake region. The year was unprecedentedly dry in portions of Pennsylvania. Compared with the normal, amounts were unevenly distributed in New York and New England. In the Atlantic coast states from Virginia southward, and also in the Gulf states more than the normal amount of precipitation fell as a rule. There was more than the normal amount also in north central Texas, southeastern Kansas, central and western South Dakota, extreme northwestern North Dakota, southeastern Montana, the northern portions of Utah and Nevada and in much of the central portion of California.
