SENATE VOTES TO SET ASIDE SHIPPING BILL

Death Blow to Administration Measure for Dealing with Merchant Marine Comes After One Year in Congress

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The administration shipping bill died today just a year to the day after it was introduced.

On February 28, 1922, President Harding, appearing at a joint session of congress, urged enactment of legislation designed to build up an American merchant marine through government aid, and identical bills embodying the views of the administration were introduced in the senate and house. Today the bill then introduced after having passed the house in the meantime, met its death in the senate through adoption of a motion to lay it aside.

The end of the long process of the administration where it was a year ago in dealing with the $3,000,000,000 investment in war built ships. Future plans under administration are announced soon after congress adjourns Sunday.

Friends Hold Majority.

The death of the shipping bill came quietly. Under agreement reached yesterday, the senate promptly at 12 o'clock proceeded to vote on the motion of Senator Robinson of Kansas, the shipping measure back to the senate. Administration leaders, including Senator Jones, republican, Washington, who has been in charge of the legislation in the senate, had indicated their opposition to this course and the motion was voted down, 43 to 38.

The final blow was dealt when the bill, which was given up as lost last Friday by its sponsor after a four-day filibuster. Senator Ladd, republican, North Dakota, moved that it be laid aside in favor of the filled milk bill and the motion was carried, 43 to 7, with the republican leaders voting with the majority. The action meant the death of the shipping measure inasmuch as Senator Jones had no further efforts to call the bill up before adjournment.

Harding Quits Attempt.

The action was taken in preparation to come, for President Harding has let it be known that the administration plans no attempt to obtain reconsideration of the bill at the next regular session of congress.

The filled milk bill, which prohibits the shipment in interstate commerce of sweetened condensed milk, who made from skimmed milk and such oil substitutes for the withdrawn butterfat as cotton seed and coconut oil, was debated intensely through the remainder of the day. Agreement was reached for a vote late tomorrow on the measure, which has passed the house.

LONG BEACH OIL WELLS SPRINKLE RESIDENCES

Signal Hill Boom Makes Office Buildings Out of Banglows, Ruined for Homes by Downpour

LONG BEACH, Calif., Feb. 28 (AP)—Oil booms have an expansive view about them, often creating capricious overnight. The Signal Hill oil boom here has made office buildings out of banglows in as short a time.

Guahers in this field happen to break out in the midst of a group of pretentious residences, mostly of the bungalow type. The resultant downpour of petroleum ruined them as residences, but opened up to them a new field of usefulness as office buildings for oil companies.

As a consequence it is hard to find an oil field with offices as commodious and home-like as those which house oil companies in the Signal Hill field. Internationally important oil corporations, as well as little one-well outfits, transact their business in bedrooms, kitchens and other domestic apartments remodeled as offices.

Jelly Fish Called Only Communist in World of Animals

University of Washington Professor Makes Interesting Observations on Government

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 28 (AP)—Animals have tried out every form of government, and the jelly fish is the only one that has ever made a success of the communist system, Prof. Trevor Kineald of the University of Washington said in a recent address here.

"The jelly fish is the perfect socialist," he said, "because every member of the community does for the good. The amoeba, the simplest form of animal life, is the perfect individualist.

Professor Kineald said ants most closely paralleled human society. "The ants have even their own bootleggers," he declared, "and they are the most notorious in the animal kingdom. However, an ant colony knows nothing of universal suffrage. The old maids run the government while the males stay at home and take things easy."

"The ant is a radical while the bee is a conservative. Bees meet new situations with the old method of the old fall, but ants adapt themselves to new situations and win."

MELLOM'S DIVORCED WIFE WILL BE MARRIED AGAIN

Art Dealer to be Second Husband of Mrs. Nora Maly Mellon, whose Divorce was Topic in Parliament

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—A marriage license was issued today to Harry Arthur Leon, 30, a New York art dealer, and Mrs. Nora Maly Mellon, 43, divorced wife of Andrew W. Mellon, of Pittsburgh, secretary of the treasury. Mrs. Mellon could not be reached at her apartment, 340 Park avenue, but servants said they had been informed the marriage would not take place until after this week.

The Mellon divorce proceedings became an international sensation following their separation in 1909, and was brought before parliament in England on several occasions. Mr. Mellon advised a divorce in Pittsburgh in 1912. They were married in 1906.

Mrs. Mellon, before her marriage, was Nora Mary McMullen, daughter of one of the founders of the Guinness stout and of Dublin, Ireland. When Mr. Mellon instituted divorce proceedings against her, she appealed to King George and parliament, alleging that she had been deprived of her fortune as a result of the divorce. Her husband of violating an agreement not to divorce her, made in 1909, under which she received a trust fund of $1,350,000 and $350,000 for their two children.

Mr. Mellon brought the suit on grounds of infidelity, naming Alfred George Curphey, an Englishman, as co-respondent. Curphey and Captain Kirkbride, of the British army, were arrested in New York in 1911, charged with ignoring subpoenas to appear at the hearing in Pittsburgh, but were released in 1912. Curphey, it transpired, had been named co-respondent by Lord Vivian in his divorce from Lady Barbara Vivian in London in 1907.

The appeals of Mrs. Mellon for intervention by the British government were denied by Sir Edward Grey, then secretary of state for foreign affairs, who held that she had forfeited her British citizenship when she married Mr. Mellon and her citizenship had not been restored despite her two years' residence in England and France after the separation.

Mrs. Mellon returned to the United States in the spring of 1911 and was ejected from the Mellon home in Pittsburgh on court orders obtained by Mr. Mellon. The children were given into his custody. Her wedding presents and household belongings also were seized.

The divorce hearing was held secretly at Pittsburgh in July, 1912, when a special commission, that had taken testimony in England, France and cities in the United States, filed its report.

By an agreement the divorce was granted to Mr. Mellon on grounds of desertion. A report during the hearing in 1912 that they had become reconciled in Europe was denied by Mr. Mellon.

PILGRIMS GIVE DINNER TO DEBT COMMISSIONERS

Ambassador Harvey Calls the Agreement on Terms of Payment First Real Settlement Since Armistice

LONDON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Pilgrims gave a dinner this evening in honor of Stanley Baldwin, chairman of the exchequer, who headed the British funding mission to Washington. Lord Desborough acted as chairman and the principal speakers were the American ambassador, George Harvey, and Mr. Baldwin.

The Prince of Wales surprised the Pilgrims by dropping in unexpectedly. He is a member of the Pilgrims and he explained that he did not want to make a speech or be toasted, but simply came as a member to hear the speeches and to have dinner.

This was the first public dinner the Prince of Wales attended since his landing in England. He is getting plenty of American attention, which he apparently likes, as tomorrow night he will be the guest of honor and principal speaker at the American University dinner.

Others at the dinner included the Duke of Devonshire, the Brazilian ambassador, Dr. Harry Garfield, Viscount Peel, Sir Robert Storey, and Sir Philip Lloyd-Grasmere, Viscount of the Empire, Sir Hamar Greenwood, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Captain J. American embassy, and Robert P. Sinclair, the American consul general at London.

Seals Friendship.

Ambassador Harvey said, in part: "We have met to celebrate a great achievement. I do not think I exaggerate when I say that this is the first conclusive settlement of a really vital world problem since the armistice. It involves far more than the greatest financial transaction reported in history; it bore with it an enhancement of mutual respect, and I firmly believe, the everlasting friendship of the two great nations, which the entire world looks for the preservation of peace and stability, which are essential to the prosperity and happiness of all mankind."

The task was one of appalling magnitude, said Mr. Harvey, and the adjustment of terms relatively minor. "The undertaking," he added, "could not have been carried out in any other light than that of a devastating failure if the agreement should not win the approbation and satisfaction of millions of people who comprise the British empire and the American republic. That object has been attained."

The great majority in congress presented conclusive evidence of unanimous gratification in the United States, and the unanimity manifested in Great Britain afforded eloquent testimony to the sense of relief, even joy.

On Rock of Integrity.

"The United Kingdom," said the ambassador, "continues to rest on the rock of financial integrity and national honor." Re-counting the circumstances under which the debt was incurred, Mr. Harvey said that the pressing need when the United States joined the allies was for munitions, clothing and food, which the United States was able to supply, but the process was less easy than it might be supposed.

Our treasury had no available funds," he explained, "and we obtain adequate sums only through taxation and the pledging of its credit. Both methods were adopted instantly to the limit of its capacity."

Ambassador Harvey combated the assertion that the United States had refused to make huge advances to the Pilot H. J. Knight of the U.S. air mail service, has been named by the postoffice department the "Air Mail Ace of Aces." He has carried the air mail a total distance of 140,029 miles, or nearly six times around the world, in three years and seven months.

Knight, an Omaha man, is a world war veteran and flies with the air mail from Iowa City, Iowa, and Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Other allies unless payment was guaranteed by Great Britain, declaring: "Great Britain was never asked to guarantee, and never did guarantee, the payment of a single dollar loaned by the United States for the use of any country other than Great Britain herself."

"The United States, according to the ambassador, voluntarily gave a pledge that Great Britain should not be held to account for any portion of the supplies delivered to her representatives for transportation to or to be used by another ally."

"In point of fact," he continued, "a very considerable percentage of the debt incurred by Great Britain to the United States was incurred in the purchase of food and clothing for people living in England."

Losses Shared Equally.

He pointed out the interesting fact that the cost of the great war in money to the United States and Great Britain was about the same—10,000,000,000 sterling in cash, remarking: "The human mind cannot comprehend the sum so colossal, but nobody here, I am confident, will deny that the outcome was worth the money, and probably—God pity us all—the lives."

Another misapprehension regarding the United States, he wished to remove. "It has been said that we singled out and dunned Great Britain. We did neither one nor the other. The expiration of the three years during which we had agreed to bear the entire burden was approaching, and on the day our government gave notice to all our debtors to call effect, which was merely the customary preliminary to payment or the negotiations of terms. One or two appeared and talked about the sum to collect, but nobody here, I am confident, will deny that the completed settlement of this greatest financial transaction in less than a month."

Necessary Task.

The raising of twenty billion dollars was not an easy task, the ambassador admitted, but it had been done. "When the time came to settle with the enemy," he continued, "we were gratified to head that our portion of the reparations would not be less than ten billion dollars, when their pockets had been thoroughly searched; whereupon we waived our claim in the allies' favor—certainly a well-meant act at the time, even though funding commission, and concluded: "Great Britain—old nobly—America recognizes and glories in the fact. She also hopes the mother country will continue to do so, regarded faithfully the obligations of justice, honor and fidelity to each other."

IDAHO RESIDENT BOASTS CLAIMS TO DISTINCTION

John Schmidt, 91, of Halley, Has Voted for All Republican Candidates for President

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 28 (AP)—Having cast his ballot for every republican presidential candidate since 1856, when John C. Fremont of California ran for office, is the boast of John Schmidt, 91, resident of Halley, and believed to be the oldest bachelor in Idaho. Schmidt was born in New York and went to California during the gold boom days of the '50s. He came to Idaho in 1864 and has resided in this state ever since.

In the elections of 1860 and 1864, Mr. Schmidt cast his ballots for Abraham Lincoln for president. Schmidt, remarkably active for a man 91 years old, says he feels sorry for men who show their age at only 70 years. He does all his own housework, but says that his being a bachelor is not his fault. He admits there was a girl in San Francisco about 1870, but her parents objected because they thought him too poor.

OIL OPERATIONS COVERED IN REPORT TO SENATORS

Interior Department Supplies Voluntary Information in Report to Activities in Wyoming and Montana

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—A voluminous report on oil operations in the Wyoming and Montana fields was transmitted today by the interior department to the senate public lands committee in response to a resolution by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana. The information relates to operations of all companies, particularly in the Salt Creek, Wyoming, and Cat Creek, Montana, fields.

"Senator Walsh said the department report would be studied carefully by the committee during the congressional recess and used in the thorough investigation of oil land leasing operations ordered by the committee to begin October 15. Particular attention will be paid to the steps by which, he said, the Mid-West Oil company and others secured dominating position in the Mid-West territory."

Facts Worth Knowing To Wearers of Shoes

The average boy of today is fond of sports of all kinds. If he is a regular red-blooded American Boy he takes a keen interest in sports. His eye is trained to "follow the ball." Likewise as he grows and broadens out mentally and physically, he begins to notice what the other fellows are doing, what they talk about, what their hobbies are, and last, but not least, how they dress. He sizes the "other fellow" up and if he wears something which makes a hit, then the boy's ambition to have a similar article will spur him on to get it.

Every boy likes good looking shoes. Likewise all parents want shoes for their boys that will wear. Combine a snappy looking shoe with one that will wear and both parents and the boy are satisfied. Here is where Sinclair's "GRAINSKIN" line comes in.

Comparing, as it does, the best in stocks, both in upper and bottom, we feel that with the development of this line to the point of excellence in quality, which we now have, it, we have absolutely "struck twelve."

Frequently the average person of today in buying a pair of shoes does not get what he expects. If he buys a cheap shoe he gets a cheap shoe, or if he pays more money he does not always get what he pays for or rightfully expects.

Our GRAINSKIN shoes are stamped "GRAINSKIN" near the top of the shoe in the leather. This protects the wearer against imitations or inferior qualities, and we are the first to stamp in the upper leather of the shoe the kind of leather from which it is made.

GRAINSKIN Shoes carry heavy, genuine Oak Soles, stitched aloft, giving every bit of service possible. No cut channel to lessen service and no doped finish to cover up poor sole leather.

TEAMS PAIRED FOR CONTESTS

Jerome and Gooding to Stage Opening Game in District Basketball Tourney

Jerome and Gooding will open the south central Idaho district basketball finals, which will start tonight at the high school gym, according to the drawing held last night at the Ferrino hotel.

Okley and Carey will play the second game with Filley in the third. The last game of the evening will be between the Twin Falls and Burley teams.

The Jerome and Gooding game should be split from start to finish, while the fans will get their first look at the Okley and Carey teams in the second game.

Filer and Halley Paired. Filer drew Halley in the third game of the evening, and the neighboring city fans will have to be on their toes all the time, as Halley is reputed to have one of the fastest teams of the night.

Donnelly is the running guard, and is said to be a dandy. Filer is the man who watches Halley's basket. Filer and Halley should give the fans a real game.

Twin Falls Draws Burley. The last game of the evening will be played by Twin Falls and Burley and it will give the spectators a chance to see whether Burley is really the great team it is reputed to be.

SECURITY for the notes, given to various Los Angeles banks, he named several parcels of city and country land.

The petition stated Jeffries recently had acquired a large farm near Burbank, a suburb of Los Angeles, on which he was making his home.

Vandals Capture Northwest Title

Idaho Hoopsters Defeat Washington Team, 24 to 21; Will Meet California

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 28 (AP)—The University of Idaho basketball team tonight won the right to meet the University of California to determine the Pacific coast conference basketball championship for 1923 by defeating the University of Washington, 24 to 21, in a post-season game in the Gonzaga university gymnasium here.

By the victory over Washington, Idaho also won the Pacific northwest conference basketball title for 1923, which was at stake in the contest. Idaho won the conference championship last year.

Washington started out with a rush and ran up 10 points to the Vandals' five early in the first period. Idaho then came back and from this point on the defense of the team slaters tightened.

Washington scored another free throw shortly after the beginning of the second period, making the score 16 to 14 in their favor. At this point the Idaho offensive branched and the Vandals tied the score. Idaho then went into the lead and returned a scant minute throughout the remainder of the game.

Both teams played a strong defensive game, the guarding of Crawford and Bryan for Washington using a feature of the contest. Washington played a stronger offensive game than did Idaho most of the Vandals' points being scored through free throws.

Captain Fox of Idaho made 16 out of 18 tries from the foul line. Only eight of the Vandals' points were made from field goals.

"Windy" Crawford for Washington made four out of eight free throws. The balance of the Washington points were made from the field.

Fox of Idaho was high point man with 16 points, although he failed to score a single goal from the field. One of Idaho's best Washington players, Heeketh of Washington, for second place in scoring, each of the three making three field baskets.

With the score 20 to 16 in Idaho's favor and a scant two minutes remaining to play, Coach "Hee" Edmundson of Washington attempted a rally by sending Wells, Frayne and Peters into the battle. The Washington men responded by staging a rally that netted them five points, but Idaho's lead was too great to be overcome.

Although the game was marked by roughness on both sides, Crawford of Washington was the only man to be taken from the contest because of personal fouls.

Lineup and Summary: Washington. Position. Idaho. Lewis (c) F. Fox (c) Heeketh F. Edwards Franklund C. Thompson Crawford G. Telford Bryan G. Edmundson Kean Substitutes: Washington—Frayne for Heeketh; Heeketh for Frayne; Frayne for Lewis; Peters for Heeketh; Wells for Crawford. Idaho—Nelson for Edwards; Edwards for Nelson.

WRIGHT'S TEAM WINS FROM I. D.

Victors Take First Two Games but Weaken and Drop Third to Opponents

The Wright's store bowlers took the odd game from the I. D. store men last night at the Twin Falls bowling alleys, winning the first two, and then falling down below sea level in the third, while the I. D. lads mustered up enough courage to roll 823.

The first game was not up to the usual standard set by these two teams, the Wright's store team winning by the score of 749 to 739. Charley Hill of the Wright's store bowled a little out first in this game with 174.

The second game showed a little improvement, both teams doing much better. The Wright's store men topping over 821 while Liville and his cohorts, needed the pin to the tune of 768. Charley Hill again took high honors with 192.

The final game of the evening was featured by the I. D. men showing their old form, knocking down 829, while the Bennett mope bowlers fell down to 722, the poorest game of the evening.

"Hot" Liville rolled 188 in the game. Although the Wright's store team won the odd game, the I. D. men came out ahead with total pins, having 2536, while their opponents registered but 2292 for the three games. Liville had high average for the evening with 173.

What happened: Idaho Dept. Store 1 2 3 Totals Ford 145 113 160 418 Moore 150 150 150 450 Wright's Store 1 2 3 Totals A. E. Boone 123 156 144 423 Bennett 129 135 137 401 Hill 178 192 141 511 Rifer 150 171 144 471 Finke 133 168 156 457 Totals 749 821 729 2292

WHY THE I. D. Using Webster's unabridged, pathetic is the word for the first game. With Phil Flix and Larsen out of the I. D. line-up a dummy had to be used, allowing the absent member 150 each game.

A chap by the name of Maxwell bowled in the dummy's place, and did pretty good work, considering that he was supposed to be a dummy. The way some of the other bowlers bowled, they, too, would have qualified.

None of the pin busters could get started in the opener and the more the I. D. fell down, the more insistent became the Wright's store men; that they didn't want to win either. After waiting for one another through ten frames, the Wright's store team was declared the winner, with a total of 749.

The goddess of luck must surely be with a team that takes a game with a total of 749. Enery Bennett had several reasons for not doing better, the main one being that he didn't knock down more pins.

"Heary" Ford was in fine fettle last night, getting 113 in the second game after a supreme effort.

Art Boone, the man who put the low in slow, had considerable trouble making strikes in the first two games. It seems that during the first game a one-of-the-balls turned around and missed Art, which sort of unnerved him.

Art was never known for speed, and last night he lost control, too. Charles Liville will stay close to the top if he keeps on clipping off 529. After a poor start, Liville braced and rolled 176 and 188. "Pop" Kieffner had a great time trying to make the pins behave. It seems that "Kieff" figured on making 500 for the evening, but was defeated.

SEEKS TO MAKE FARMER FRIEND OF SPORTSMAN

New Hampshire Fish and Game League Undertakes to Improve Relationships in Out-of-Doors

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 28 (AP)—The sportsman sometimes has hard words for the farmer who posts "no trespassing" signs along a trout brook or a tract of woodland that promises good hunting. The farmer feels a righteous indignation against the fishermen who hunt so carelessly or maliciously.

Breaks down his fence and stone walls and leaves gates open and bare down so that the cattle get out of the pasture. To remedy this situation the New Hampshire Fish and Game league has been organized to promote better sport and better relations between farmer and sportsman in this state.

The object of the league is declared to be "to encourage, assist and advise the state authorities in propagation and protection, to obtain the proper spirit of cooperation between the land owner and the real sportsman, and to lessen and better relations and lawlessness of the irresponsible hunter and fisherman." It links together 47 sporting clubs scattered throughout the state.

In announcing its purpose the league points out that the entire expense of planting away with game and pleasant fishing many clubs and sportsmen in the last two years was covered by the hunting and fishing license fees and fines paid by violators of the fish and game laws. The league estimates that the more than 18,000 non-residents who paid for licenses in the year ended June 30 last, brought into the state fully $1,873,800.

The hotel keeper, the garage man, the farmer, the roadside store, the sporting camp and in fact everybody gets a share of this. It says the league will pay for every rodent in the state. It is worth having? Do you want a share in helping? Law violations are to be stopped and a friendly understanding promoted. The league stands for a square deal, thinks of the other fellow, and puts good citizenship into everything it does.

The state fish and game commissioner is made an ex-officio member of the executive committee of the league. Mrs. Mallory had very rough going in the first set of her match in the women's singles with Miss May Greene of England, but improved as the match went on and took the second set rather easily. The score was 6-3, 6-0.

Miss Ryan breezed through 15 games against Mrs. Rayner, England, without losing one. Thought for the Day. When some people speak of their principles they mean their prejudices.

OBINATOWN WELCOMES CONSTANCE TALMADGE

The Feast of a Thousand Lanterns All San Francisco's Chinatown turned out in amazing splendor of which it is capable when an occasion presents itself that is worthy of such a brilliant spectacle.

Those symbolic processions have become a number until they have become so catalogued with San Francisco's past glories rather than her present ones, but the spark of festival, which burns so "stately" through the Chinaman's drab, everyday exterior, was rekindled when it was made known that Constance Talmadge, star of "East Is West," the First National attraction which will be seen at the Orpheum Theatre, was to spend a week there "on location."

RAINSTORM SUPPLIES THRILLS "All out with sickers," used to be the order in the army when the company was called out to drill on a rainy day. The actors who took part in the last scene in "White Paris Sleeps" of the picture which had Mr. Tourneur, near his kind-hearted, he would have issued a similar order, during the filming of this scene. "Never have I posed for a picture in such a down-pour of rain. It may only come down a bucketful in tubs and barrels," said one of the performers.

The scenario, however, called for a rainstorm, and Mr. Tourneur, who is a stickler for realism, held up the filming of this particular scene until nature had provided a genuine rainstorm. "I hope the fellow that wrote that rainstorm in the scene gets credit," said one of the screen artists.

Those who have seen this thrilling motion picture drama, "White Paris Sleeps," agree that the life of a motion picture star is not always sunshine and roses. Last times tonight at Lavering Theatre.

LONG DOCKET OF BOOZE CASES

March Term in District Court to Include Trial of Many on Liquor Charges

The docket for the March term in district court which begins Monday will contain at least 12 liquor cases unless pleadings already entered by the defendants are reversed. Civil cases were disposed of Wednesday.

Phil Tula, Cecil Arnold and Joe Ramos, arrested by deputy sheriffs Monday on liquor charges, were held to answer to the district court Wednesday when they were arraigned for preliminary hearings before Justice Kenney. Packard in the office of Judge O. P. Tula pleaded guilty. The other two pleaded not guilty and all were held under $500 bonds.

The jury in the trial of the damage suit on B. A. Van Meter against the city returned a verdict awarding $1000 for $800 for Mr. Van Meter. Mr. Van Meter alleged the city was at fault in permitting the existence of traffic obstructions which he held were responsible for his personal injuries from an automobile accident. The jury, in answer to court interrogations included in the verdict, held that the city should have anticipated conditions pertaining to the accident.

SAYS HER LANGUAGE LED TO KILLING

DANIEL MCCARTHY, business agent of the plumbers' union in Chicago, shot and instantly killed Stephen Kellher, labor leader, after the latter had fired at him in a restaurant where—hundreds were dining.

Chicago, Feb. 28 (AP)—Daniel McCarthy, business agent of the plumbers' union in Chicago, shot and instantly killed Stephen Kellher, labor leader, after the latter had fired at him in a restaurant where—hundreds were dining. Caught as he fled, McCarthy declared Kellher and his wife, Mrs. Nerva-Thompson Kellher, had accused him, and Mrs. Kellher's language to him had been such as to start the fight which ended in the killing.

The Author of "Ulysses."

It has been maintained by a recent critic of Swift that the caricature of humankind in Gulliver was suggested by Swift's observation of the "Wild Irish." Swift, however, bore the teagues of his time no ill will; but Mr. Joyce is so minutely personal in his mockery that the doubt arises whether his original intention—to catch in a word of art the whole phantasmagoria of a day of life in Dublin—has not been precluded by something short of good humor. Thus A. E. passes by, and Mr. Joyce sets us all chattering. It is extremely well done, and we cannot help joining in, but it is not—shall I say—very high class. I except all that relates to Bloom in this epic work. In the philosophic Bloom Mr. Joyce has added a new character to that company of real imaginary personalities whom we know better than our nearest acquaintances, perhaps better than ourselves.—John Eglinton, in the Dial.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS TO MEET IN NEW ORLEANS

Louisiana Metropolis is Chosen for Fifth Time as Gathering Place for Men who Were Gray in 1861-65

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 28 (AP)—The 33rd annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans to be held here April 11-12 will be the fifth gathering of its kind in New Orleans.

The first veterans' convention was held here June 10, 1889, and was presided over by John B. Gordon, commander in chief, with the late J. A. Chalmers as adjutant general. The second was on April 8 and 9, 1892, and as on the previous occasion General Gordon was the presiding officer.

Agenda in May, 1903; the old veterans gathered here to repeat the camp fire stories. General Gordon again occupied the chair with W. E. Mickel as adjutant general. Three years later, in April, 1906, the thimbleing grey lines of white haired men came back to the Crescent City.

And now for the fifth time the veterans will "pitch camp" in this city. General Julian B. Carr of Richmond, commander in chief, will be the presiding officer. Edgar M. Taylor will be the adjutant. The reunion will be held in the vast auditorium on Olio street between St. Charles and Prytanis, used last year for the national Knights Templars convalescence. Committees on arrangements have already been named.

No changes were made by the senate in the committee bill reported from the public lands committee by Senator Leavitt, republican, Wisconsin. The bill was sent through by unanimous consent.

A federal commission of three members including the attorney general and secretary of the interior, will be provided to investigate titles to the land and proceed with litigation to clear up numerous controversies. The bill is a substitute for measures offered by Senators Burton and Jones of New Mexico.

UNITED STATES CLOSES CONSULATE IN ENGLAND
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The British government was notified today by Ambassador Harrey in London that the United States had issued orders that its consulate at Newcastle-on-Tyne was not to be reopened and that disposition was to be made of the lease of the consular premises. The decision grew out of Great Britain's cancellation of the exequatur and recognition of General Slater and Vice Consuls Brooks, who were charged with discriminating against British vessels.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO SETTLE PUEBLO INDIAN LAND TITLES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The compromise bill to settle titles to Pueblo Indian lands in New Mexico was passed late today by the senate and sent to the house.

No changes were made by the senate in the committee bill reported from the public lands committee by Senator Leavitt, republican, Wisconsin. The bill was sent through by unanimous consent.

A federal commission of three members including the attorney general and secretary of the interior, will be provided to investigate titles to the land and proceed with litigation to clear up numerous controversies. The bill is a substitute for measures offered by Senators Burton and Jones of New Mexico.

UNITED STATES CLOSES CONSULATE IN ENGLAND
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The British government was notified today by Ambassador Harrey in London that the United States had issued orders that its consulate at Newcastle-on-Tyne was not to be reopened and that disposition was to be made of the lease of the consular premises. The decision grew out of Great Britain's cancellation of the exequatur and recognition of General Slater and Vice Consuls Brooks, who were charged with discriminating against British vessels.

WELCOME NEWS Passage by both branches of the Idaho legislature of an amended bill to take the place of the present "outer" law with its five hundred dollar scalp bounty as an incentive to prosecution, should prove welcome news in Twin Falls.

The old law belonged to that type of statute which is a good thing as long as it is properly used but which operated to place a premium upon the bringing of law suits against public officials and which so fixed things that there probably never was a public servant in the State of Idaho who could not have been ousted from office under its provisions.

CONGRESSMEN AND TRAVEL Secretary Weeks suggests that as long as an army transport is being dispatched to Alaska on necessary business he is willing to transport as many congressmen as care to make the trip, with a provision that they pay for their meals.

A PACIFIST ABSURDITY. Socialist members of the Wisconsin legislature would abolish the national guard that of state as militaristic and making against peace.

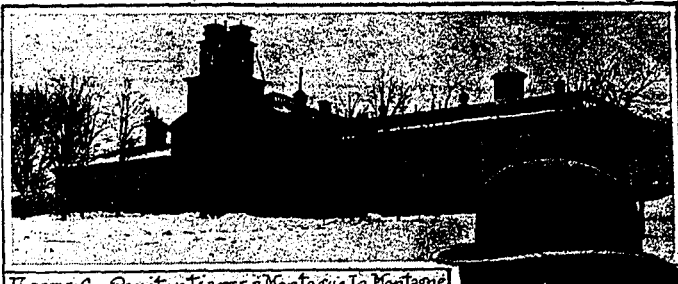

Perhaps that is the reason why the Socialists wish to abolish the national guard. Perhaps they desire violence and anarchy.

TOO MANY LAWS One of the strangest political tendencies of our time is the sudden increased faith of our legislators in the power of law to enforce themselves once they are reduced to writing.

Yet a few months ago a railroad president questions whether the country would not profit by a four-year adjournment of congress.
