OAKLEY WINS DISTRICT'S CAGE CROWN

Undefeated Contenders Take Hard-fought Contest from Burley, 43 to 32, in Final Round of Tournament.

Oakley high school basketball team won the seventh district championship at the high school gym Saturday evening by taking a hard fought battle from the Burley team, 43 to 32. The victory gives the Oakley team the title for the second consecutive year. Both Burley and Oakley runners up in last year's tournament.

Oakley's win is significant in that the team has not lost a single game in either the district semi-finals or finals in the two seasons past. The victory, handicapped by the loss of Worthington, who was confined to his home with an attack of flu, made a wonderful showing against the perfect Burley team. Oakley's superior basketball shooting combined with smoother floor work proved too much for the vanquished team.

The game began with both teams out to win, the score being so close up to the last six minutes of play that a break of either team would have won the game.

At the end of the first half was 12 to 6 in favor of Oakley, the difference in the score being the result of Bateman's failure to convert four foul shots.

Nip and Tuck Race.

In the last period Burley made a determined stand, tying the score before the Oakley lads had got their bearings. The game from then on was nip and tuck, but one team shooting a basket and then the other.

Cannine, the Burley star, was put out on fouls during the middle of the last half and from that time on the team began a series of long distance shooting that Burley seemed unable to cope with.

One distance basket shooting of Lawson, Oakley center, and Bateman, Burley forward, was the best ever seen on the local floor. Time and again these two lads shot baskets from far beyond the center of the floor.

Aside from these two players, the work of Griffith and Korshnik of Burley was worthy of mention. The lanky Griffith shot five baskets in the last half, while Korshnik's gunning and floor work was the best he has shown during the tournament.

Division, played forward for Oakley did some clever basket shooting in the second half, as did Martin.

Girls Stage Quind Baisland.

The opening game of the evening, between the Jerome girls and the Twin Falls girls' basketball team, resulted in a victory of the North Side girls, 17 to 10.

Gillie Gill, Jerome forward, featured the game with several nice baskets, while Margaret Seelley and Ruth Wynn featured for the home girls.

Better guarding, with snapper passing caused Twin Falls to lose the rubber game with the Jerome girls.

Superintendent Hillman of the Jerome schools, presented Oakley's winning team with a handsome loving cup and the contest and short talks were made by Principal Mercer of the Oakley team, Captain Kenneth Wilson accepted the cup.

Bill Korshnik accepted the runner up cup for the Burley team, and said that up to the finish of the game he figured that he was captain of the best

RURAL CREDITS UP TO HARDING

Senate and House at Night Sessions Approve Conference Report on Farm Measure.

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Both the senate and house approved the conference report on the farm credits bill tonight and the measure is ready for submission to President Harding when he visits the capitol prior to the adjournment tomorrow to sign bills.

It was not until 11 o'clock that the safety of the legislation was assured through the adoption without a record vote of the conference agreement by the senate. The house a few hours previous had approved it 277 to 23.

As agreed to in conference by the house and senate managers the essential features of the composite house bill remained unchanged, but broader authority was given to the private credit corporations which it would authorize.

Continuation until March, 1924, of the war finance corporation also would be provided for.

Managers on the part of the house explained in a formal statement to the house that the bill as agreed to in the conference would create two distinct rural credit organizations, the federal intermediate credit banks and

SENDS BACK SCHOOL BILL TO SENATE

Idaho House Re-Passes Measure to Provide for Buildings at State Institutions Previously Denied in Upper Body

BOISE, March 3 (Special to The News).—Determined that provision be made for building extensions at the University of Idaho, Lewis and Clark College, the Pocatello institute and state industrial training school through the $400,000 mill state tax levy, the Idaho house today defeated in the senate Wednesday, re-introduced the bill in the house today, suspended the rules, passed the bill and sent it to the senate in record time.

One of the biggest battles of the legislative session took place in the senate this afternoon when the bill which was defeated yesterday placing automobiles which carry passengers and freight on the highway under the direction of the public utility commission, was reconsidered by a vote of 24 to 17, and placed in the committee of the whole for amendment. The most notable amendment was drawn by automobile stage companies and transfer companies now in business for the purpose of creating a monopoly and that a powerful lobby was influencing senators to reconsider their votes. Senator Boughton of Kootenai county fought desperately against the reconsidering of the senate's action of yesterday.

Seta New Record.

The drastic action of the upper house in indefinitely postponing the bill which the senate had not even read yet, was given, by Senator Graham of Payette, as his reason for favoring a reconsideration. Senator Callahan of Shoshone county, both decidedly in favor of the bill, and in favor of the bill was evident and indicated that Senator Boughton's reference to a lobby was a "favorite and cheap method in hand of arousing prejudice." The various messages to the senators was the nearest to personalities shown during the seven-day session.

In the various counties of the state which had asked for an appropriation from the highway fund of $104,300.22 to reimburse them for funds paid out in excess of cooperative per cent met through the state fund, the bill providing for the formation of grazing associations in districts and a bill which would allow county commissioners to print pro-ceedings outside their counties, by the lowest bidder.

Approves Study of Guarantees

The senate also passed two joint resolutions, one approving the appointment by the governor of a commission of five to investigate bank guarantees and other banking laws, and a resolution concerning friendly relations with Mexico.

Efforts to amend in the house a senate bill, which would provide for the collection of irrigation district taxes by county officers, were partially successful late today, when Representative Darrow succeeded in having an amendment adopted which would make it optional with the county.

SENATE KILLS REQUIREMENT FOR FRUIT AND LETTUCE GRADE

BOISE, March 3 (AP)—The senate has used its death-dealing power on another house agricultural measure, which it indefinitely postponed a bill which would require the grading of lettuce and fruit.

The upper house also defeated two bills which assure the morning news by killing off a clause in the narcotic drug bill by Senator Valliant, and a bill which would amend the school laws so that in districts with an agricultural valuation of $200,000 which include cities of 5,000 population, the question of division would be submitted to electors only on agricultural land, and a three-fourths vote be required.

Memorializing Congress to Make an Appropriation to Spend $200,000 on Forest and Indian Reservation Roads, the House Passed the Senate Memorial and Sent it to the Governor Today.

Gathering of statistics by assessors to be used in advertising Idaho was frowned on in the house today, when it defeated the Taylor bill. Idaho will now have no governmental method of gathering statistics.

DENIES RIGHT TO INTERFERE

Elihu Root Says United States Would Not Be Justified in Stopping France.

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—The United States has no more right to stop France from going into the Ruhr than France would have in compelling this country to naturalize the Japanese, declared Elihu Root, former secretary of state, in an address to the newly appointed executive body of the committee of one hundred on foreign relations at its initial meeting today.

The primary purpose of the committee of one hundred, Mr. Root said, "is to get into the heads of the American people a series of conclusions, universal facts which every one would agree, but which nine-tenths of the people of the United States do not know—facts which form the necessary basis of all sound reasoning upon international affairs."

HOUSE LEADERS UNDER FIRE FOR AVERTING VOTE

Alabama Congressman Takes Mondell and Campbell to Task Because Ford's Offer Was Not Presented.

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Attacks were made today in the house on Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the republican leader, and Representative Campbell, republican, Kansas, chairman of the rules committee and speaker pro tempore, for the failure to permit house votes on Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals and on a resolution proposing government purchase of nitrates for farmers of $10,000,000 worth of nitrates and calcium arsenate.

Representative Jeffers, democrat of Alabama, charged the two republican leaders with misusing their position in denying a vote on the Muscle Shoals proposition at the latest or in accordance with the wishes and desires of the great interests, such as the fertilizer, power, the Chilean nitrate interests, and the aluminum trust of this country.

Sees Broken Promise

Mr. Jeffers declared that Mr. Mondell had stated on the floor of the house last August 25 that the Muscle Shoals legislation ought to be considered by congress, but that "the promise all went for nothing."

"The legislation of the farmers of the nation," said the Alabama representative, "has been denied by their own people, but still here in authority."

Failure to bring up the nitrate bill led to a filibuster on the democratic side.

Charging that an agreement to take up the nitrate resolution had not been carried out, Representative Ben of North Carolina, ranking democrat on the rules committee, gave notice that his supporters would "resort to such means as we deem fair and open to force action on it."

Charges Tyranny

"You have deprived the house of a vote," he shouted to Mr. Campbell and Mr. Mondell, adding later that the action of the republican leadership was "tyranny."

Representative Mondell said that a filibuster had prevented action on the measure, which would have authorized purchase of the Cape Cod canal. The majority leader added that he did not think the nitrate resolution "wise legislation" and was opposed to bringing it up.

Iowa Inventor Perfects Unicycle

Professor E. J. Christie, of Marion, Iowa, is the inventor of a unicycle which, if his expectations are realized, may revolutionize methods of transportation. The unicycle is built upon gyroscope principles and is expected to attain a speed of 250 miles an hour. The wheel is 14 feet high, and the gyroscope on each side weigh 500 pounds. The power, furnished by a 250 horse power engine, is transmitted by chain drive.

Professor Christie was formerly president of Garfield university, Wichita, Kansas, and has devoted his time in recent years to perfecting his invention.

Orchestra Conductors.

Although it is known that Lully died from accidentally hitting his foot with his baton, the first modern use of it in orchestral conducting was attributed to Spahr in 1820. Hilbert there had been a dual control of the orchestra. An eminent musician was at the piano to "play with the orchestra at pleasure, which when it was heard," says Spahr, "had a very bad effect. The real conductor was the first violin, who gave the tempo, and now and then when the orchestra began to falter, gave the beat with the bow of his violin."

STATE SUPPORT URGED TO MEET SCHOOL NEEDS

Rapidly Increasing Sums of Current Expenses for Public Education Are Pointed Out to Teachers

CLEVELAND, O., March 3 (AP)—In 1910 the current expenses for public education in the United States amounted to $200,000,000. In 1920 $670,000,000 was spent for the current expenses of public schools. These figures were given by the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association today by Dr. George D. Strayer, of New York. "During the period there was a very great change in the purchasing power of the dollar, as well as an increase of thirty per cent in the number of days of schooling provided and the further fact of a very large increase in attendance in the upper part of the school system where costs are necessarily high," continued Dr. Strayer.

"No less interesting than the aggregate figures are the comparisons which have been instituted among the several communities within a single state. In the state of New York, where an intensive study has been made, for the year 1920-21 in one community the current expense per pupil in elementary schools was $26. In another community within the same state the amount was $272."

"The property tax furnishes almost all of the revenue for schools in the state of New York. The variations in the equalized assessed value of property per capita is as great as that shown for school expenditures. While in the main the wealthier communities spend the larger amount per pupil it often happens that poor school districts have the higher tax rates."

"The scheme of aid provided by the state of New York neither equalizes the support provided for education, nor the burden of taxation borne by the several communities. If opportunity and burden are to be equalized, the state must levy a tax upon the property or incomes of all of the people, in some other manner secure revenues by a system of taxation which bears with equal weight upon all."

"The result that we seek to achieve within the state with respect to the equalization of educational opportunity can be brought about only by providing for state support. We have been moving in this direction. In one state, Delaware, complete state support has been instituted."

FEEDING TESTS RESULTS TOPIC FOR DISCUSSION

Annual "Feeders' Day" Program to Be Presented by University Experiment Station at Caldwell

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO: Moscow, March 3.—The "annual feeders' day" program will be presented March 6 at the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station at Caldwell. This year's cattle feeding investigations are being conducted with 88 steers and 30 cows, which are being fed 100 days on different rations. The meeting will be held at the feeding plant of the station farm and results of the feeding trials will be discussed and the cattle compared.

The steers are being fed the following rations:

- Lot 8—Long alfalfa hay and 25 pounds of corn per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 3—Long alfalfa hay and 5 pounds of corn per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 4—Long alfalfa hay and 5 pounds of barley per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 5—Cut alfalfa hay and 5 pounds of barley per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 6—Long alfalfa hay alone.
- Lot 7—Long alfalfa hay—and 10 pounds of corn silage per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 8—Long alfalfa hay and 25 pounds of corn silage per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 9—Cut alfalfa hay and 15 pounds of corn silage per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 10—Cut alfalfa hay alone.
- The cows are fed as follows:
- Lot 1—Long alfalfa hay and 10 pounds of corn silage per 1000 pounds of live weight.
- Lot 2—Long alfalfa hay alone.
- Lot 3—Cut alfalfa hay alone.

The figures for the first half of the bowling season which closed last Thursday evening show the Troy Laundry leading in the won and lost column, and also in the total pin department. The Rendahl-Wright quintet are pressing their hard for honors in both divisions, and a hot scrap for supremacy is being looked for when these two teams clash.

For the first half of the season the league has bowled for an average of 774 pins per game or 155 per man per game.

This, in all probability, will be boosted up to 160 before the season ends on April 12.

The coming week will see the Troy Laundry mixing with Rogerson Cafe bowlers on Monday night, and with Harry Vogel going all to speed, equipped with Bob Logan showing steady improvement, the Cafe men are apt to give the Laundry workers a setback. The game will be a nip snorter from start to finish.

Tuesday evening the Rendahl-Wright bowlers will clash with the I. D. Store and with the auto men within a half game of the top some clever bowling may be looked for.

The I. D. Store men had a slight slump last week, but will no doubt be in fighting condition for the mechanics when the opening shot is fired.

Walter Solek and high school lad representing the Idaho Theater will be on the boards Wednesday evening, playing the Alvord & Mott quintet. Watch out for the tail ends.

The Screen

"THE GALLOPING KID."
When Hoot Gibson enlisted in the U. S. army for the period of the war, the recruiting officers knowing of his hazardous career at Universal City, assigned him for duty in the tank corps. Breaking in whippet tanks proved to be no more difficult for the Universal star than handling bronchos.

In his latest Universal starring vehicle, "The Galloping Kid," directed by Nat Ross, which comes to the Biello theater next Monday, Gibson gives an exhibition of the brand of horsemanly that won for him the diamond studded championship belt at Pendleton, Oregon.

The story is one of the William H. Hanby "Misfit" series that met with such popularity in a national magazine.

FINE HORSEWOMAN.
Dorothy Dalton, athletic Paramount star, had her very first riding role in her screen career, but never has one taxed her horsemanship like the one she has in her latest picture, "Dark Secret," which opens at the Idaho tomorrow. The horse she rides is a Bedouin steed named "Untamable," with a disposition that justifies its name. She is thrown and injured while riding. From the incident the plot develops.

THE BIRTH OF A RACE.
A great spectacular romance, "The Birth of a Race," has been booked by the Livingston theater Monday and Tuesday.

This picture comes direct from a long run at several of the leading theaters in Chicago. The special of George Robson, one of the most beautiful and dramatic photoplays ever made. Two years and over a million dollars were required for the filming of this great production, which combines a gorgeous historical pageant with a modern story of unusual appeal. A big theme is the foundation of the story, mankind's struggle for the ideal brotherhood throughout the ages.

With its romance, its smiles, tears and thrills, this exceptional picture play carries us back to the Garden of Eden, thence to Noah and the Flood, to Moses, to the Crucifixion, to Columbus, the Declaration of Independence, Lincoln and his cancellation proclamation, to the world war, and out into the sunshine of peace, with a better understanding and a closer brotherhood between all races and nationalities.

The story of an American family is told in the latter part of the picture, a story of love and courage and of final happiness after the storm of war.

Burley Earns Right to Meet Oakley in Final Round with Two-Point Margin Over Filer

Two converted foul goals by Ronald Bateman of the Burley team in the last three minutes of play, put Filer's quintet out of the running in the second game of the morning, 25 to 23 being the final reading in this the best and closest game of the South Central district tournament.

Burley started the scoring and held a slight lead throughout the first half, this period ending 13 to 11 in favor of the Cassia county lads.

The second half started out with both teams playing as though a championship were at stake, Burley holding its two-point lead up to the last eight minutes of play, when Martin shot a basket, tying the score.

A personal foul called on Kershnik failed to help Filer's score, Love missing on both attempts. A moment later Timm fouled, Bateman con-

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—The University of Southern California's track athletes, including Charles Faddock, spectacular sprint champion, will not compete this year in the outdoor intercollegiate track and field championships. This became known tonight when it was announced the executive committee of the intercollegiate A. A. A. had tabled for a year the membership application of the Pacific coast college.

The action was taken, officials said, because of lack of information concerning scholastic and eligibility requirements of the California university but it was understood they felt these requirements did not measure up to eastern intercollegiate standards. The Californians, it was said, were asked to submit further information on both subjects.

verting both. Bateman was the whole show for the Burley lads, shooting baskets from the center of the floor and showing clever floor work.

Charles Lamp, Martin and Love featured for Filer, not to forget the hard-working Marvin Cole.

Carry Puts Up Fight.

The first game of the morning brought about the elimination of the Carry team, Oakley winning, 40 to 15. Carry put up a wonderful fight, especially Pyrah, left forward. This club has started in every game played by the Carry basketballers, and another season should see him close to the top.

Oakley started off with a bang, practically sewing up the game in the first half when they led, 17 to 4. Clever guarding by K. Wilson and Larsen in this period proved the undoing of the Carry lads.

Martindale, right forward for Oakley, cut loose in the last half, shooting some of the prettiest baskets of the tournament. His back hand baskets bordered on the uncanny.

Hunter, star guard for Oakley, suffered from a bad knee and gave way to Davidson. Carry didn't make any substitutions.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS MATCHED.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 3 (AP)—Mike O'Dowd and Jack Malone, St. Paul middleweights, have been matched to box ten rounds here on March 16, it was announced tonight.

ALL-STAR CAGE TEAM SELECTED

Cannine, Martindale, Larson, Hunter and Jenkins Are Chosen for Mythical Quintet.

(By PHIL GOLDWATER.)

With the changing of the style of play from the old man guard at the basket to the new five-man defense, a choice of an all-star team became more difficult; but for the sake of argument, we will put Martindale of Oakley and Cannine of Burley in as forwards. Martindale is chosen for his all-around floor work, and his accuracy. His knowledge of knowing the whereabouts of the basket. Martindale shot some of the most spectacular baskets ever seen on the local floor, in the tournament just ended. Cannine was chosen to Davidson. Carry didn't make any substitutions.

because of his speed on the floor, his clever dodging, and his knowledge of the game. His long distance baskets, combined with his dribbling, are also points in his favor.

There were several others who came to mind while looking for a forward, Pyrah, of Carey, for instance, whose work during the tournament seemed to many to be the real feature. Pyrah's work was good, but he lacked the experience of either Cannine or Martindale. Then there was Bateman of Burley, whose work at forward stamped him of championship caliber, but when one figures Cannine and Martindale as forwards in a team against Bateman and Pyrah the palm must go to the first named. "Whitely" Martin of Filer was another forward whose work during the tournament brought him close to being picked for the all-star team, but Martin, like Pyrah and Bateman, fell a fraction short of hitting the coveted mark.

For center we picked Bill Larson of the Oakley team. Larson's work throughout the tournament was the best seen here in a long time. His wonderful guarding, his long distance basket shooting, and last but not least, his converting of foul goals make him an easy choice. During the tournament Larson converted 46 out of 60 foul goals.

Hunter, Oakley's diminutive guard, is one of the men picked for that position on the all-star team. Although handicapped during the entire series with a sore knee, he showed a world of speed, besides his ability to shoot baskets from any position. His dribbling even better than that of Cannine, puts him in a class by himself in this department, and when it comes to guarding, Hunter is a topnotcher.

The 1923 basketball teams have no standing guards, consequently Timm of Filer, Kershnik of Burley and Kenneth Wilson of Oakley won't fit in this line-up. These three boys are all topnotchers as standing guards, but the all star team picked by The News this year is going to be an up-to-date team, thus the standing guard is a minus quantity.

For the other guard, we have picked Lared Jenkins of the Twin Falls team. Jenkins is selected by many to be the fastest man on the floor during the tournament and it is our opinion that if there are faster men in this section on a basketball floor we will pay for a seat to look them over.

Jenkins did most of the feeding for the Twin Falls team during the tournament and besides his fast floor work he would be an able assistant to Bill Larson in converting foul goals. Jenkins is another of those players who knows the exact location of the baskets, being able to shoot from practically any position.

So there we have an all-star basketball team which, on paper, reads: Cannine, Burley, forward; Martindale, Oakley, forward; Larson, Oakley, center; Hunter, Oakley, guard; Jenkins, Twin Falls, guard.

In picking out an all-star team, a good test is to figure the five men on a team, and see if another team could be picked that would give the all-star team a hard game, and after looking over our choice, we doubt whether a team could be chosen that would come within 15 points of beating the above-mentioned quintet.

CATTLE THEFTS ARE SERIOUS ON NEVADA RANGE

State Board of Stock Commissioners Reports Measures to Combat Repeated Raids on Herds.

RENO, Nev., March 3 (CP)—Theft of cattle continues to be serious and reported small raids upon stock have been a constant drain to owners. Steps will be taken to protect the range, according to the annual report to the legislature of the state board of stock commissioners.

Livestock losses from disease throughout the state during the past two years have been below normal. There have been no serious outbreaks of scabies, anthrax, lung cholera or poultry disease, the report says, and adds that tubercular infection among cattle in that state is rapidly declining, the percentage of reactions to tubercular tests having fallen from 8.45 in 1919 to 2.56 in 1922.

For more than 100 members this was virtually their last day of service and goodby greetings were heard and sometimes touching. The house halted its filibuster for half an hour to present a large sheet of silver to Representative Mondell of Wyoming, retiring republican floor leader.

During the day the administration proposal for American representation on the world court was definitely laid to rest until the new congress convenes in December. The senate voted, 40 to 24, against proceeding with the King resolution granting the president's request for senatorial consent. All but one republican voted against its consideration, and three democrats joined them.

Several last minute nominations were sent by President Harding to the senate, including that of Senator Simmons, democrat, North Carolina, to the allied debt funding commission to succeed Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, who declined to accept re-nomination yesterday. Among the nominations held up to the last moment was that of James G. McNary, Texas-New Mexico banker, to be controller of currency. By a margin of one vote he received the endorsement of the senate banking committee, but his opponents carried their fight to the senate floor on the basis of a minority report.

SAFETY PATROL GUARDS PUPILS

Older Boys Form Escorts for Younger Children on Busy Street Crossings.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 3 (CP)—Dangerous street intersections are being made safe for Southern California school children by the organization of "safety patrols" composed of older boys who act as escorts for younger or more heedless pupils compelled to cross busy thoroughfares on their way to and from school.

The "safety patrol" plan at first was tried out in a small way in several Los Angeles schools, where older boys were instructed in the proper manner of crossing streets and then commissioned to stand at dangerous intersections near their schools and guide the smaller pupils from curb to curb. The boy "traffic officers" did their work so well that the idea soon took hold in practically every Southern California county. School principals organizing patrols on their own initiative while county boards of education began planning county organizations to function under the direction of special "safety supervisors."

The movement is being sponsored by the Automobile Club of Southern California, which seeks to extend the "safety patrol" plan through interviews with school officials, addresses to pupils and a system of safety instruction through regular lectures and monthly safety bulletins sent to 11,000 teachers and reaching through them an estimated total of 600,000 pupils.

Merely a Rattlesnake.

Down along the Mual river in Florida the natives are not usually easily scared, but one night the conversation turned to spirit manifestations and one man spoke up: "Don't believe in them," he stated, "but I did once. One night I waked up in my cabin and heard something 'sloosh' across the floor. Spooks, I think. It was so creepylike. Scared? Well, I reckon. But I gets the nerve to crawl out of bed an' to light a match and then I'm cert'ly plumb ashamed of myself and I ain't never believed in spirits since. Why, it weren't nothin' in the world except just a big, common, mean, sneaky rattlesnake."

Two Kinds of Polygons.

A portion of a plane bounded by a broken line is called a polygon, or, in other words a many-sided figure. A polygon that has all its sides and all its angles equal is known as a regular polygon. Triangles, squares, hexagons, etc., are polygons.

Night of Quaker happenings. There is perhaps no night in the year which the popular imagination has associated with a more peculiar character than that of the evening of October 31, known as All-Hallow's evening, or Hallowe'en. The idea with reference to Hallowe'en is that it is the time when supernatural influences prevail. Spirits come from their hiding places and walk about. There is a remarkable uniformity in the freakish customs connected with this night all over England and America. Nuts and apples are everywhere in requisition. In north England the celebration at the time is called "Nut-Crack night."

SELLING YOUR STATE.

Missouri has inaugurated a movement to "sell" Missouri to the country. The desire is to attract attention to the state's industrial possibilities, its fertile soil, its scenery, its climate and other features.

St. Louis has taken the lead in the movement with the authorization of an expenditure of nearly $900,000 for improvements designed to make the city one of the nation's show places.

The business of "selling" a community to the rest of the country is really one of setting and maintaining a standard of excellence. A community in which the people live up to their obligations will attract without a conscious effort the wisest market for its products, whether those products be industrial or devoid of possibilities of financial return.

There is a Virginia orchard whose crop of apples is taken each year by the inhabitants of a certain district in Europe. What is accomplished by the grower in apples is a symbol of what can be accomplished by communities in all sorts of activities. The apple-grower in Virginia shipped a high grade and maintained his standard year after year. The buyer knew he could rely on the product. Any community which establishes a high standard in the things it wants the world to take from it, and then maintains that standard, may feel confident that it has "sold" itself to the country.

WHAT HAYS HAS DONE.

It is doubtful whether Will Hays fully realized the formidable proportions of the task he undertook when he became official adviser to the movie magnates. Certainly the public, which was aware in an indistinct sort of way that the movies lacked something or were permeated with too much of something else, lacked appreciation of the magnitude of the goal Mr. Hays set out to reach.

Now that the Arbuckle incident is ended, it is possible for the first time to analyze the film director's job and review his accomplishments in a sane perspective. Mr. Hays is first of all a politician—and a good one. When he became virtual head of the vast movie industry he found himself in a situation that would have tested the skill of the cleverest politician. His job, briefly, was to induce the producers to inject a "new tune" into the films. That was some task because the producers, unduly sensitive, or thought they were, making the kind of pictures that brought public approbation at the box office.

But who is there to say that his efforts have met with no success? Already an improvement can be noted in the character of the headliner films being screened throughout the country. The movies have been improved in the short space of one year. It is not unreasonable to hope that, given time, Mr. Hays will accomplish much more.

USES OF HAFNIUM.

The discovery of a new element that "will not wear out" suggests a number of profitable uses to which it might be put. Hafnium is its name, and if some method of producing it in cheap and workable form can be found it is to be rated as a great blessing to the race.

Indeed, the possibilities of hafnium as alloy, ingredient or composition element are practically limitless. What a boon it would be, if it could be so produced that it could be woven into the heels of socks or the seats of trousers or built into shoe soles and other

BABSON FINDS BUSINESS BETTER IN MIDDLE WEST

Statistician Notes Transformation from Agricultural to Industrial Activities; Car Loading Increases.

CHICAGO, Mar. 3. (Special to the News)—Roger W. Babson today released the third installment of his annual Survey of Business Conditions in the United States and Canada. He herein treats of what he calls the "Industrial West"—that great section immediately tributary to Chicago including Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. These states were once wholly agricultural, but are rapidly changing into an industrial section. New factories are springing up every day—factories for building, manufacturing and trade. Yet the total area under cultivation continues to hold its own. "Every section of America," says Babson, "is now a factory of business. For New England it is the number of spindles in operation—for Pennsylvania the number of blast furnaces, for New York the number of looms, and so on. The characteristic for the 'Industrial West' is the total car loadings at Chicago. Since since January 1, 1923 are running well ahead of the corresponding time last year. For the entire country, for the current month of 1923 the net car loadings were about 2,500,000. For the current month of 1922 the net car loadings were only 2,200,000.
