

JOHNSON SEES FALSE STEP TO JOINING LEAGUE

California "Irreconcilable" Assails President's Proposal for Accepting Membership in International Court

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—President Harding's proposal that the United States accept membership in the permanent court of international justice was assailed here tonight by Senator Johnson, republican, of California, a leader of the senate irreconcilables, in a first "false step" toward membership in the league of nations.

Speaking before the Bronx board of trade, the California senator declared the demand for American participation in European affairs was based on no logical foundation, but emanated from a "befogged international intellectualism or an hysterically perverted imagination."

"Still the cry continues, the propaganda persists, for our entry into Europe," said Senator Johnson. "It urges one form and then another, different one, and has run the gamut of possible international organizations. It advocates appeal in turn with equal fervor to our altruism and our cupid-ity."

The demand that America join the league of nations is succeeded by the beautiful word picture of an economic conference and the great moral weight of the United States might play in a toasty treaty world. And now again one old leger, wary from defeats in battle, invites us to join the international court.

Has Sonorous Sound.

"An international court which substitutes the rule of law for that of power, and the domination of justice for armed might has a sonorous and an appealing sound. To argue that just as courts determine issues between individuals, it is logical there should be a like mode of adjudication of differences between nations? Why similar courts, at once strikes a sympathetic chord."

"But what is not said and what is not understood is that the so-called international court is no court at all, as courts are commonly understood. It is little more than that exists with our arbitration treaties. It does not function like treaty courts with which we are familiar. It cannot hale before it recalcitrant countries, nor can it, of itself, assume jurisdiction of disputes between nations. It is a mere arbitrary tribunal to which nations may submit disputes if they see fit, and only those questions, which the parties themselves agree to submit can be heard at all. Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan have refused to submit to any compulsory jurisdiction, reserving to themselves to decide when and whether any controversy in which they are interested shall come before the international tribunal."

Lacks Essential Powers.

"Thus the much heralded court, which is to prevent war in the future, is denied in its inception by the great nations of the earth the right of the power to act upon any questions, which may be the breeders of war, without the consent of these nations themselves. "It is proposed that we do exactly as Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan have done, decline to submit to the jurisdiction of the court unless we wish to submit to it. In a controversy with one of the powerful nations of the earth, without that nation's consent, even if we desire it, the international court could not act. The grandiloquent statements, therefore, made to our people that we are establishing the rule of law as opposed to the rule of power, substituting the domination of justice upon law for armed might, eliminating the causes of war, are the pardonable phrases, the glittering generalities with which we illumine every reference to our internationalism."

Continues Old Fight.

"It has been a long and a difficult fight to keep us from membership in the league of nations. We fondly hoped it had been decided by the American people. Perhaps it must be fought again. If so, let's fight it in the open, with full understanding and knowledge on the part of our people. "If America is finally to be driven in, let's go in with head up and flag flying. Do not permit our proud nation today timidly to enter upon a so-called partial, sonorous success, only to sneak in another, and while pretending we are going some place, ultimately, when too late, when the last irreconcilable has been taken and we cannot extricate ourselves, find our country unknownly a member of that which it has so emphatically repudiated."

SUN'S ECLIPSE SCHEDULED

Darkening of Solar Luminary Visible in America for First Time Since 1918, Last Till 1925, Due This Year

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 8 (AP)—The first total darkening of the sun visible in the United States since 1918, and the last until 1925, will occur on September 10, this year, and the eclipse will be total in the United States only in southern California. It will be visible as a partial eclipse over all North America and the West Indies.

The path of the total eclipse will begin in the Pacific ocean near Kamohaka and then pass to the south of the Aleutian Islands, skirting and overlapping the coast of southern California and passing through Lower California, Mexico, Yucatan, the Caribbean Sea and ending about sunset near the Lower Antilles.

BEATS DRUM 5,000,000 TIMES

CHICAGO, Mar. 8 (AP)—Ensign Herbert Burtenshaw, of the Salvation Army here, has figured out that he has hit his brass drum 5,000,000 times. He states that he hits the drum approximately 230 times to each march and that he beats it approximately half a million times each year. He has been with the army 21 years, but the first part of his service he put in on various other musical instruments.

RUSSIA DEFENDS GRAIN EXPORTS IN FACE OF NEED

Soviet Asserts Inability to Confiscate Private Property for Famine Requirements Although Seeking Aid Abroad

MOSCOW, Mar. 8 (AP)—Russian ships loaded with grain for western Europe may steam out of Soviet harbors at the same time that American ships, likewise laden with grain for the Russian famine sufferers, steam into Russian ports, unless present plans of the Soviet government are changed.

The Russian authorities, largely interested at this time in the building up of future agricultural and industrial possibilities, anticipate that they will be able to export even more food stuffs than they are asking such foreign organizations as the American Relief Administration to import. They explain the apparent incongruities of this plan by the statement that the outgoing foodstuffs are private property and that to be considered in their new policy of permitting private initiative, they cannot confiscate this food for famine needs, even though they have ten requests for grain sent into Russia to prevent thousands of deaths from starvation.

Trade for Implements.

The grain for export, they say, is the property of various co-operative societies accumulated by them from individual peasants who, in some fruit regions, had a surplus above their own needs. This surplus was consigned to the societies to be exchanged abroad for implements and other articles which the peasants must have, but cannot secure in Russia.

Asked why the government does not help its own people when there is sufficient food in the country to feed the entire populace, instead of continuing to plead for American and other foreign aid, one official said that if the salable surplus of the peasant were taken away from him this year, he probably would not raise any more grain than he absolutely needed for himself next year.

The government had to abandon the policy of requisitioning supplies from the peasants two years ago, and to encourage them to plant more grain than they needed for their own use," this official said. "If we started again to requisition grain from the peasants or co-operatives, we not only would undo all of the work of two years, but would be directly retarding our new policy of free trade."

Would Begin Markets

At a recent meeting of the State Plan Commission, the official statistician declared that Russia should be able to export from last year's crop about 100,000,000 pounds, or roughly 60 million bushels of grain. At this time is now ripe, this expert said, for Russia to endeavor to regain the European bread market. He doubted, however, the ability of the co-operatives to handle such a large quantity of grain. A small amount of Russian rye and wheat is already at the ports, but up to the present time little of it has actually been placed aboard ship for export.

S-36 LAST WORD IN SUBS

Largest Undersea Craft Ever Built on Pacific Coast Nears Completion in San Francisco Yards

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 8 (AP)—The S-36, "the last word in subs," and the largest undersea craft ever built on the Pacific Coast, will soon be completed at the Union Iron Works Plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company here, according to her commander, Lieut. L. A. Alford, U. S. N. Two hundred and twenty feet long and with a tonnage of 1,900, she will outrank any of the 61 other S-type submarines already completed or under construction. Lieut. Alford said, her total cost will approximate $1,000,000. Although launched in 1919, she is about 60 per cent completed, the hull in ship construction following the war and the disarmament conference have retarded the "finishing touches" of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company national tonnage of submarines was not affected by the conference.

The boat will carry a crew of 34 men and 4 officers. One rapid-fire four inch gun is mounted on a pivot, just in front of the conning tower on her deck, but most of the aggressive fighting, her commander said, would be by means of torpedoes, shot from under water from other side of her bow. Dollar for dollar, Lieut. Alford believes the S-36 will be one of the best investments in national defense the government has yet made. He pointed out that his craft, costing but one million dollars, could, without exposing itself, sink a battleship costing forty times as much.

Six other submarines of this type, the S-30 to 35, inclusive are now under construction at the same yard. Lieut. Alford pointed out, however, that the T and V models, work on several of which is now under way

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Luster to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because when used in the applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—adv.

in "eastern yards," will supplant the S boats of the "last word." These boats, he said, with an average tonnage of about 2,000 will ultimately become the submarine what the superdreadnaught is to the surface war vessel.

MEXICO BEGINS EARLY IN PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

Summed Return of Francisco de la Barras Says Newspaper Debate Almost Two Years Before Election

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 8 (AP)—Almost overnight the Mexican press has been precipitated into a heated discussion of the next presidential campaign and from all indications this debate will result in announcement by the various groups of their choices to succeed General Obregon upon expiration of his term.

The rumored return of Francisco de la Barras, since shown to have been unfounded, started the comment and the newspapers now are filled with interviews and declarations by prominent men from President Obregon down, relative to the advisability of beginning a presidential campaign with the elections nearly two years away. President Obregon is barred from re-election by the provisions of the national constitution. All indications are that the Obregon-Culler de la Haza triumvirate will stand as a unit, regardless of what develops.

SHOE MEN WIN FROM WRIGHT'S

Foot Fitters Take Odd Game from the Department Store Bowlers; Yochem Rolls High

The Shoe Market bowlers took the odd game from the Wright's store men last night at the Twin Falls bowling alley in the last regular scheduled series for the week.

The opener showed the Wright's store team trying to break a low record, their total reaching 707, while the foot-fitters totaled 812. In this game Jake Yochem came to the front with 185 for high.

Jake Yochem was the big noise in the second game, also, coming up to the bat for the tenth inning with the bases full and a strike needed to win the game. The old fighting spirit gripped the mighty Jake, and in answer to the pleadings of Captain Salmon of the Shoe Market team, Jake pulled in a couple of notches off his belt, put on his best fighting face and threw the ball. The audience watched the ball take its course down the polished surface; the dropping of a pin would have sounded like an earthquake, while the ball sped to its destination. In a flash, it was over. The mighty Yochem had delivered in a pinch, and the Shoe Market team had won another victory. The score in this heart-breaking affair was 772 to 751. Art Boone had high in this game with 197.

In the last game of the evening, the Department Store chaps stopped on it and came out on top. The final reading of the game was 818 to 784. Emory Benoit had high in this one with 195. Jake Yochem took high honors for the evening with an average of 180. Total pins stood 2350 for the Shoe Market marrio shooters, to 2277 for the Benoit specialists.

When the day's work is done:

Wright's Store	1	2	3	Totals
Kieffner	113	111	105	389
Boone	163	107	155	515
Hill	137	166	127	450
Benoit	121	155	102	478
Finke	163	132	179	474
Totals	707	751	818	2277

Shoe Market	1	2	3	Totals
Huthen	147	125	107	450
Salmon	167	139	138	444
Hanank	119	148	177	444
Buchanan	151	180	140	471
Yochem	188	151	172	511
Totals	812	772	784	2350

WHEN WRIGHT IS WRONG

All good games to look at, although no records were broken.

The Shoe Market filled Hugh Lewis' place with Art Hanank. Not a bit bad.

Captain of the foot coverers changed his line-up, and the second game proved that he was right. Jake Yochem is the right man at anchor.

The change in line-up didn't seem to help Dug Salmon much but Yochem knocked 'em cold.

Art Boone surprised the fans by shifting gears and getting into intermediate. Art came out with 515 for the evening with all the added speed. The stop watch caught Art making the trip to the pins in two minutes flat.

Charley Hill said he was glad that the new pins would be a week older before he bowled again. Charley had plenty of hard luck, and when that Jimmie Huthen looked good last night and yet he didn't get very far in the totals. The new pins failed to respond to his magic touch.

Art Hanank is coming right along, and now that he is a regular on the Shoe Market team, he will give the boys a real race for top honors. Art throws a ball that takes a slight rebound toward the lanes and seemed to be getting control of the pesky thing.

Jake Yochem's work for the evening was the patent factor in the Shoe Market's two victories. Jake is as cool as the proverbial cucumber, although not as green when it comes to knocking over the mipples.

Emory Benoit was not up to standard, owing to the fact that he didn't knock down as many pins as he usually does. His first game totalling 121 showed that he missed the 200 mark by 69 pins.

Walter Buchanan fell down in the third game, stopping at 140. Walter just picked up most of his spares, but last night the 7 and 10 pin seemed to bother him a little.

Dug Salmon kidded the scorekeeper by rolling 307 in the opener. Dug isn't strong for kidding, so passed it up in the next two games.

Art Finke was another of the top scorers who did clean in the averages. Art couldn't get started, although he did pop off 179 in the last game.

After it is all said and done, one must not forget to mention the wonderful work of "Pop" Kieffner. This vintage of '76 sparkled with enthusiasm, but that let him out.

In his first game he rolled the clever sum of 113, but fell down a little in the second, stopping at 111. His last game of 165 came as a thunder cloud out of a clear sky. It is said that one of the spectators fainted when Kieffner's last score was announced.

Tonight the Independent market will take on the Central Market bowlers for the seventh time in the hopes that the worm will turn, and they will see what it feels like to win a series.

Our daily bowling thought: What a man learns about a woman depends upon what he tries to teach her.

BUYERS SHY AT SALE OF CLUB

Prospects Poor for Change in Ownership of Boston Americans and Brooklyn Nationals

NEW YORK, March 8.—(AP)—Baseball circles had two major league clubs on the block today—the Boston Americans and Brooklyn Nationals—but although interests in both admittedly were for sale to the highest bidder, doubt was expressed tonight as to the prospects of either changing ownership at present.

Harry H. Finco, president of the Boston Reds, declined to comment on reports reaching the possibility that he might sell his interests. It was learned, however, that he had not conferred today with Ben Johnson, president of the American league, on the subject, as suggested in advices from training camp sources.

Kentuckian Makes Offer
Owners of the Brooklyn club meanwhile, admitted they had been approached by representatives of Edward F. Simms, wealthy Kentucky turpentine and oil operator, with an offer of $500,000 for their interests, but did not appear to regard it favorably.

In Brooklyn, Stephen W. McKeever, who, with his brother, Edward J. McKeever, holds a half interest in the Dodgers, declared emphatically he would consider no proposition to sell and added that "there isn't any money enough in New York to buy out share in the club."

McKeever Holds Balance
Baseball men regarded the attitude of Mr. McKeever as practically quashing the proposed deal because of an agreement he and his brother are understood to have with Mr. Ebbets, under the terms of which each party has first option on the other's holdings in the event either desires to sell.

Proof of the existence of this pact was seen in the Monday, March 5, Ebbets that he could reach no decision regarding the Simms offer until conferring with the McKeevers.

OAKLEY LOSES FIRST OF SERIES GAME TO BOISE

Capital City Braves Defeat South Central District Basketball Champions, 38 to 23

OAKLEY, March 8.—(Special to The News)—Boise won the first basketball game of a three game series from the Oakley hoopers here tonight, 38 to 23, before a crowd of 550 fans.

Using the five-man defense style of play, with short snappy passes, the visitors completely outplayed the local ego artists who failed to fathom the changed style of play.

Oakley's heretofore smooth running machine crumbled in tonight's game, the tension being a little too much for the home boys.

Quinter, Boise's captain and right forward, was the star of the evening. His floor work combined with his scoring of 24 points, placing him far over the others. One of Quinter's baskets was shot from beyond the center of the floor with one hand.

Bill Larsen failed to convert the foul goals, giving way in the second half to Hunter, who did but little better. The entire Oakley team seemed nervous, while Boise's team work was the best seen here this season.

The second game will be played Friday evening, and in the event of Oakley winning, a third will be played Saturday evening to decide which team will be sent to Moscow to compete for the state title.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES TO GIVE ANNUAL DANCE

Big T Society, Composed of Letter Men of Various Teams, to be Host to Social Affair

Members of the Big 'T' society of the Twin Falls high school will try and show the fans that although rather clumsy in football togs, they are classy dancers, the event being the first annual dance of this society which will be given tonight at the Lavering dance hall.

The Big 'T' society is composed of athletes of the high school who have made letters in baseball, football, basketball and track.

Those who have watched the formation of the boys through the season past are making arrangements to attend the hop tonight to show their appreciation for what the boys have done to put Twin Falls on the athletic map.

The athletes of Filer, Buhl, Kimberly, Hollister and Jerome have been invited to attend, which promises to be the big social event of the high school year.

APPROVES BENTON'S TRANSFER

CHICAGO, March 8.—(AP)—The controversy over Pitcher J. C. "Rube" Benton was settled today in a decision by K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, declaring Benton eligible to play in organized baseball, approving his transfer to the Cincinnati Reds by the St. Paul, Minn., club and criticizing those who brought charges against Benton.

The National League has objected to the transfer of Benton on the ground that he had knowledge of the 1919 world series scandal and failed to bring it to the attention of the proper authorities and failed to sustain charges filed by him against another player.

YOUNG DESPERADOES ESCAPE

OGDEN, Utah, March 8.—(AP)—Four youthful desperadoes, after looting up Guard John Foster, made their escape from the state industrial school at Ogden early this evening. The boys started for Salt Lake on a stolen automobile. They were stopped between the two cities, but jumped from the machine and escaped to the hills where they are now being hunted by scores of officers and citizens. As they are armed a fight is expected before they are captured.

CHAIN STORES GO INTO HANDS OF RECEIVERS

Steel Enterprises Doing $20,000,000 Business in Three Years Appeal to Court to Avert Threatened Crash

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 8. (AP)—Twenty corporations comprising the Leonard R. Steel company enterprises, into which the public has poured more than $20,000,000 in the last three years, were placed in the hands of receivers today by Federal Judge John R. Hazel. Ancillary receivers will be named for every state and branch of Steel corporations in this and other states.

The receivership, officials of the company said, is a friendly one and designed to avert a crash of the entire financial structure of the local attitude of certain stockholders and creditors, which, it was declared, had become apparent during the last 24 hours.

The principal companies named in the receivership proceedings are the L. R. Steel company, Inc., the parent organization, L. R. Steel company, Limited, operating chain stores in Canada; the Federal Stores company of Youngstown, Ohio, and F. E. Nelson Stores company of Massachusetts, in which Steel companies had a 75 per cent interest; the Mary Lincoln Candy company, Inc., stores and factory the Steel Department Stores Holding corporation of Delaware and the Steel Department Stores, Inc., with branches in many states including Colorado, Utah, Minnesota, Washington and Idaho. In addition to department stores, the corporation owned or controlled restaurants and cafeterias. A statement issued last October indicated ownership of about 80 stores, of which have since been sold or discontinued.

Inquiry Story Unconfirmed
A report that the receivership would be immediately followed by an inquiry into the manner in which the stockholders' money was disbursed found no confirmation either at the district attorney's office, nor from the receivers. District Attorney Guy B. Moore said he had not been asked to take a hand in the proceedings.

No statement of present assets and liabilities is available, auditors at work on the finances of the various corporations not having completed their work.

VALENTINO TROUSERS IN DISREPUTE ON CAMPUS

Three Colorado Students Sue for Damages for Injuries to Person, Sensibilities and Apparel

BOULDER, Colo., March 8. (AP)—Damages totalling $2,531 are to be sought in moot court here by three students who alleged they were assaulted by class mates and stripped of their "Valentino" trousers. Seniors in the law school have been assigned to the case.

The suits are a sequel to the campaign conducted by the Parity league for a "Valentinoless campus." Reid Williams, president of the associated students, asks $200 for a black eye, public ridicule and his torn Valentino trousers, naming Homer Burger, football and end star member of the boxing team, as defendant. Arthur Quintin, captain of the football team, asks $100 damages to his body and joins the other plaintiffs in seeking $1,500 exemplary damages. Marian Stauffer is the other plaintiff. In addition to Burger, the other defendants are Paul Oltensburg and Dean Rider.

GASOLINE PUMP ISSUE IN COURT

Right of Wholesalers to Dictate Use to be Made of Handling Devices is Attacked

WASHINGTON, March 8. (AP)—Contracts under which refiners and wholesalers of gasoline install pumps and tanks for retailers on the condition that they are not to be used for handling the products of competitors was under discussion in the supreme court today in four cases brought by the federal trade commission against the Sinclair Refining company, the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, the Gulf Refining company and the Marathon Oil Manufacturing company.

These cases involved proceedings brought by the commission against about 20 wholesalers and sought to attack present gasoline retail practices prevailing throughout the United States. The commission contended that the contracts had the effect of restricting competition because they deterred refiners from seeking the trade of retailers using apparatus installed by competitors.

The refiners and wholesalers asserted that in most instances the retailers were set up in business by them; that the retailers had the option of purchasing tanks and pumps; that such apparatus could be purchased by the retailers in the open market and that the contracts did not prohibit the dealers from installing the apparatus of more than one refiner. It was asserted also that the business was devoid of all interstate commerce features.

The decisions of the lower courts in all the cases were adverse to the contentions of the federal trade commission.

It was said the jury appeared hopelessly divided, with a majority favoring a verdict of conviction.

Hendricks is an organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World. He has been employed in various lumber camps of this county and while so engaged is alleged by the prosecution to have advocated violence and sabotage in fomenting a general strike in the lumber industry of the state, which he is alleged to have said would be called May 1.

WANTED—A CLEAN CAMPAIGN.

One of the things which should not be lost sight of in connection with the forthcoming city election is that the election is not primarily a fight for honors among candidates, but a crusade for a better order of things in municipal government.

The campaign should not be one of vituperation and personal abuse. The time for that has gone by. A concerted effort looking to the elimination of the Mills-Walton forces and all their works would merely be awakened by any resort to tactics which, unfortunately, have altogether too often characterized city elections in Twin Falls in the past.

Let the principles involved be given full consideration. One of the reasons for the comparatively light vote in the last two municipal elections centers around this very point.

The average man or woman doesn't want either personal or political back raking and as far as The News is concerned its face will set squarely against any attempt of any kind to inject a single personal note into the campaign with intent to make political capital of purely personal or private issues.

The opportunity for which a great majority of Twin Falls persons have waited for many months is at hand. Let's not baffle the issue by means of petty personalities. The fight is for clean government in Twin Falls and a decent regard for the interests of Twin Falls citizens as a whole.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.

Solomon's enumeration of earth's mysteries was limited to 374—and they may have included the outstanding puzzles of his day.

But if he were living now and his wisdom were still functioning at maximum efficiency he would doubtless add many more mysteries to his list—mysteries that have come with modernity. And if he should pick those really hardest to solve, the way of the subject with the news camera would be given a foremost place among those added.

There is the kernel of the mystery. What is it that they say? Statesmen, scientists, movie actors, artists, pugilists, winners of beauty contests—all seem obsessed with the notion that they must say something. If what they say is as insane as most of them appear when saying it, the film does well to be silent.

IS YOUR GARDEN PLANNED?

Simultaneously with the first Spring thaw, advertisements for garden and seed pamphlets make their optimistic appeal for consideration by the man with a yard. This is the time to weigh thoughtfully the comparative value of a flock of tomatoes or a group of asters, green peas or the multicolored sweet variety, bulky cabbage or parsley; perhaps a little of this and a little of that, but of course a small patch of mint and some lettuce.

Summer is not yet coming in, as chants the English song, but the weeks are few indeed until the man who means business will begin to estimate his garden space and over-estimate his own enthusiasm for working it.

But a bit of garden certainly makes the home, and everything gains by anticipation. So look over the seed catalogues and dream of the crop.

Would Study Foreign Trade Outlook From Farmers' Viewpoint

Secretary Hoover Invites Exporters and Agricultural Organizations on Commission

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8 (AP)—Exporters of agricultural products and representatives of agricultural organizations are being asked by the commerce department, Secretary Hoover announced last night, to serve on the special commission that will investigate the foreign trade outlook for farmers.

Under an appropriation of $500,000 made by congress to investigate what combinations are in existence or in process of formation abroad to hold up the price of raw products, such as rubber, which are imported into the United States in large quantities, and to consider various means of supply can be developed on American soil, the department also was authorized to make a special study of the present situation with respect to agriculture. The commission now being formed whose membership would be announced shortly, will plan and direct the investigation.

Had the man been hit half a second later, when the heart was expanding, to one physician, instantaneous death would have been inevitable.

ALIBIS CLAIMED BY ACCUSED MEN

Oregon Night Rider Suspects Declare Innocence of Alleged Hanging

MEFORD, Ore., Mar. 8 (AP)—A feature of testimony for the defense in the night riding trial of Dr. J. W. Hill, J. P. Hittson and Howard Hill, after the state had rested its case, was that of the three defendants who declared their innocence and claimed alibis for themselves.

Hill said that on the evening of the alleged hanging of J. E. Halo on the night of March 17, he quit work about five-thirty and was at his home until seven-thirty, when he went down to look for a certain laborer. At nine o'clock he went to Dr. Bryn's residence to get the doctor to come to his home, where his little girl was ill. Dr. Bryn was not there, but Mrs. Bryn was. Between 9:30 and 9:45, Hill said he met Dr. Bryn in front of the Rialto theatre, and the latter at once drove out to the Hill residence. Hill followed in his own car and picked up Attorney George Coddling, now chief deputy in the state corporation commissioner's office at Salem, enroute, he said. Hill and Coddling then drove to his own home, then Hill went home, he testified, and found Dr. Bryn there administering chiropractic treatment to the little girl. Then after a short visit with Dr. Bryn he said he kept the car to the garage where he kept it and walked home.

Denies Donating Robo. It was testified by Hill that he had never worn a black robe in a meeting of a lodge in the Old Fellows' Hall, which had been used by the Ku Klux Klan as its hall, as W. L. Craig had testified for the state, and he denied that he had ever told J. E. Edmonson, state's witness that he had turned the black robes used on the night of the Hale kidnaping and hanging, which are alleged to have been worn by Hale's tormentors.

In testifying for the defense, Jesse P. Hittson, one of the defendants, and former Meford chief of police, said that on the night of the "hanging" he was at home with his wife and daughter and William Offutt, Jr., and that a contract between him and Offutt had been agreed to that evening. The contract was introduced as evidence. Hittson said Offutt left about 11 o'clock. J. P. Halo, chief witness and self alleged victim of the night riders left last night for San Francisco, where he will go under the care of a special agent according to Assistant Attorney General Liljequist.

QUART OF WATER GLEANS KIDNEYS

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fall to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of real Soda from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may get firm and active again.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Real Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clear and active and the blood pure; thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

The Pneumonia Month. March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breathes in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ-laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.—adv.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

On account of bad roads and extent of territory, our fieldmen may be unable to call on you during the contracting season. To accommodate those of you who wish to contract we have opened an office in the Arthur L. Swim office on Shoshone Street, where one of our men will be in attendance. We will be pleased to talk Sugar Facts with you, and invite you to make this office your headquarters when in town.
