FILM ACTORS INVOLVED IN LIQUOR CASE

Jack Pickford and Sister, Lottie, with 18 Others to be Summoned Before the Grand Jury as Result of Raids

LOS ANGELES, March 16, (AP)—Jack Pickford, motion picture actor, and his sister, Mrs. Alan Forest, known on the screen as Lottie Pickford, will be summoned before the federal grand jury as the result of a series of raids last night which disclosed what seemed to be evidence of a coastwide conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, it was stated tonight by H. H. Dolley, federal prohibition agent. Eighteen others also are to be summoned, Dolley said.

The Pickfords are brother and sister of Mary Pickford.

Dolley said he had obtained from alleged bootleggers arrested last night what he considered valuable evidence against a number of prominent business men, motion picture actors, both men and women, and several other persons not so well known.

He stated all of the information obtained had been placed in the hands of Joe Burke, United States district attorney, for submission to the grand jury.

Boas Extensive Plot

Mr. Burke said the alleged plot and its ramifications appeared to be extensive, and that all information in his possession would be guarded closely until it could be given to the grand jurors.

Prior to the statements, officers arrested P. A. Jordan and J. G. Irving. They were leaving the residence of Max Wallace in the Hollywood district; Dave Lerner, also was arrested in that part of the city; and three men who gave their names as Maurice Mascagno, Guilio Nuccio and Luis Rosas, at a bonded winery at 500 Aliso street. Dolley said the federal officers found bonded liquor in the automobile of Jordan and Irving and asserted they were making deliveries to customers.

He charged the men had conspired to "supply a large clientele" in Hollywood with liquor, that Lerner shipped supplies from San Francisco to Jordan and Irving, who when Lerner was unable to meet the demand, took their orders to the Aliso street winery to be filled with "moonshine."

Holds Pickford's Checks

Dolley stated that in the possession of Jordan and Irving were found checks issued by Jack Pickford for $30 and $115 and added that one of the men under arrest had admitted having sold the actor half a case of whisky and a case of Scotch. From the same was obtained a list of alleged patrons, including Pickford and Mr. Forrest, Dolley declared, from them and from the others arrested was obtained further information implicating other prominent people, including other representatives of the film industry.

Pickford, accompanied by four attorneys, visited Dolley after the arrests, Dolley announced, and asked permission to go before the grand jury to explain how his checks happened to be in the possession of the arrested men. After a consultation with Mr. Burke, the request was denied. Then, it was asserted Pickford asked permission to make a statement to Dolley, in the presence of his four attorneys, but that request also was refused.

President to End His Stay at Miami Without Breaking Vacation Program

MIAMI, Fla., March 16, (AP)—President Harding will conclude his stay at Miami beach tomorrow without having taken part in any conferences, transacted any important official business and without having departed in any way from the three 1/2-day of his Florida vacation program—rest, relaxation and recreation.

Prior to his arrival at Miami beach Wednesday it had been thought that his vacation might be broken up during the night because of the number of political leaders and public men visiting or spending a vacation in this vicinity. Several of those who indicated they would like to confer with the president were seen by Secretary Christian, while others, including Wm. J. Bryan, have realized that the great desire of Mr. Harding during his stay in Florida is to obtain a needed rest.

COMMANDS BRITISH FORCE IN DELICATE POST

LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR ALEXANDER GODLEY is commanding the British army on the Rhine, a post made most delicate by the movement of the French troops into the Ruhr that has surrounded the British position and, further, by the demand of the French that the British permit them to run the railways through the Cologne bridgehead. To prevent friction has required inflexible tact on the part of General Godley.

BLAST WRECKED SCHOOL HOUSE

One Student Killed and Others Severely Hurt by Explosion of Gas Plant

BRAWLEY, Cal., March 16 (AP)—One student was killed and several others severely injured here today when the gas plant of the Brawley Union high school blew up. The explosion rocked the city and wrecked the front of the school building. The student killed was Hallie Smith.

Another girl, Katherine Hovley, sustained severe spinal injuries, and Richard Powell is suffering from burns and bruises which may prove fatal. Several other students received painful burns and injuries.

Had the blast come a few minutes later the loss of life would have been greater, school officials said. The cement pillars in front of the building were blown 100 feet onto the lawn.

CONFIDENCE SHOWN AT RUPERT BANK OPENING

Institution Which Closed Doors Recently is Again in Field of Business; Deposits Heavy on First Day

RUPERT, March 17.—The Rupert National bank, which recently closed its doors, reopened Monday morning with Crawford Moore of Boise, as president and the directors of the First National Bank of Idaho as the members of the board. A stream of depositors entered the bank on the reopening day and the total of deposits reached $29,000 in six hours.

WOULD INTERN GERMAN JEWS.

MUNICH, March 16, (Jewish Telegraph Agency) (AP)—The national-socialist fascists, at a meeting here today, adopted a resolution urging that all Jews in Germany be interned. The resolution provided that those Jews not voluntarily repatriating should be shot. The meeting also voted approval of a second resolution threatening that if the allied forces did not leave the Rhineland soon, all German Jews should be treated as hostages and shot.

Mr. Bryan, who now is a resident of Miami, called late today at the Flamingo cottage where the president joined Mr. Harding after returning from his overnight fishing trip.

The former secretary merely left his card, saying he had no desire to break in on the president's rest. Mr. Harding was lying down at the time, and Mr. Bryan had driven away before he knew of the call. Mr. Bryan previously had told newspaper men there was nothing he could say that would be news "as it is too early yet to talk politics."

The fishing trip down to Cooshiba Bay from which the president returned at two o'clock this afternoon was productive of rest for him, even though it produced no fish. High winds which lashed the ocean into foaming white caps prevented the party from even dropping a line.

PEACE MOVE DISCLAIMED BY GERMANY

Official Quarters in Berlin Make Emphatic Denial of Reports of New Proposals; London Hears of Conference

LONDON, March 16, (AP)—A dispatch to The Times from Berlin says a conference has been arranged between representatives of the German government and leading industrialists to discuss the situation with regard to reparations.

BERLIN, March 16, (AP)—Official quarters here tonight emphatically denied reports emanating from Berlin or elsewhere to the effect that Germany has made fresh precise reparations proposals to France or formally requested the initiation of negotiations.

At government headquarters it was stated that the German attitude remains exactly as it was outlined by Chancellor Cuno in the Reichstag; that Germany is not bartering the path to negotiations, but that formal discussions must vouchsafe to Germany complete freedom from any duress or impingement on her equality of rights. The report that Hugo Stinnes, the industrial leader, is negotiating with a wing of the French industrialists also was denied tonight at the headquarters of Stinnes in Berlin. It was stated, however, that Stinnes had been approached by French interests, to whom he replied that negotiations must be left to the government.

HUGHES HOLDS CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, March 16, (AP)—Dr. Hans Heinrich Dieckhoff, counselor of the German embassy, conferred today with Secretary Hughes by special appointment understood to have been requested by the embassy. No announcement, however, as to the purpose of the meeting was made at the department or at the embassy.

No comment was obtained today either at the German embassy or state department, after Dieckhoff's report from Berlin to the effect that a new German plan of settlement of the reparations question was about to be proposed, providing the allied governments would agree in advance to give it consideration, and that communications on that subject had been transmitted to various German embassies and legations.

FACES TRIAL FOR KILLING FRIEND

Kenneth McLennan is Charged with Murder of S. B. Shellabarger of Nampa

NAMPA, Idaho, March 16, (AP)—Kenneth McLennan, charged in a verdict by a coroner's jury Thursday noon with slaying Sam B. Shellabarger, was formally charged with murder in the first degree in a complaint filed in the court of Justice of the Peace T. E. Jones Thursday afternoon. O. I. Cushman, a brother-in-law of the slain man, appeared as complainant.

Mr. McLennan was visibly moved at the charge was read to him. It is alleged that he had, with premeditation, caused the death of his former friend by firing a bullet into his body.

Shellabarger, an O. S. L. crossing shaman, was found dead outside his stampan, a bullet through his body. The cup of wine of the Shellabarger family was filled to overflowing to show when word reached here that a daughter, Bethany Shellabarger Early, had died at Blackfoot early this morning. Father and daughter will be buried at the same services, members of the family announced. Mr. Egbert left late today to take charge of his wife's body.

CHANGES QUOTATION METHOD.

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—The method of quoting United States government bonds on the New York stock exchange will be changed within the next two weeks so that the minimum fluctuation will be fixed at 1/32 of one cent instead of the present decimal system with its minimum of two cents on $100, it was learned today. This will still permit of a much narrower movement than that in other listed bonds, which are quoted in eighths of a point.

Steamboat Springs, Back on Job Again, 'Set Desert Afire'

Recent Activity of Lassen Peak is Attributed Cause of Phenomenon in Nevada

RENO, March 16, (AP)—Steamboat Springs, famous half a century ago among the natural wonders of the west, is back on the job again between here and Carson City, "setting the desert afire." Columns of steam are issuing from a score of hissing vents in the arid earth, with jets of boiling sulphur water spraying the surrounding hills.

The cause of the eruptions is said to be the recent activity of Lassen Peak, California volcano, the springs being the boiler and the peak the furnace of this geological steam engine.

Students and sightseers have flocked to the scene and a careful study of the geyser and medicinal waters is being made by scientists of the University of Nevada and other institutions.

GUESTS ESCAPE IN HOTEL FIRE

Two Hundred Persons Reach Safety when Flames Destroy Portland Hostelry

PORTLAND, Ore., March 16 (AP)—Fire broke out on the ground floor of the Alder hotel, a five-story building in the retail district, early tonight, presumably from an overturned electric iron in a tailor shop, flames and smoke pouring were in the building, but it was believed all escaped.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the firemen the flames gained rapidly and an hour after the fire started flames burst through the roof. Tons of water were poured into the building, drenching thoroughly everything but flames swept.

Proprietor Proves Hero.

Fred Smith, proprietor of the burning hotel, soon after the fire started brought himself of J. J. McClure of Coos Bay, Ore., a guest who was lying ill in an upper room. Smith dashed up the smoke filled stairway, broke into McClure's room, seized the helpless man, grasped him to a fire escape and carried him down to the street to safety amid the cheers of the crowd.

Count Loss at $150,000.

Two hours after the fire broke out it had extended to every part of the building, which for the most part completely gutted. The chief losses were on the building itself, the hotel plant and furnishings and several stocks of goods of various kinds and stores on the ground floor. Preliminary estimates placed the aggregate loss at $150,000.

Portland's tallest office structure, the 14-story Yeon building, located directly west of the burning hotel, suffered considerable damage by smoke which penetrated some offices. This building is fireproof, however, and the flames, although licking at its steel wall for more than two hours, did not take hold.

Evidence of Prosperity is Seen in Income and Profits Tax Payments

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Evidence of prosperity, almost nationwide, was given in the last income and profit tax payments to the government, treasury officials declared tonight, but although its statement on figures which, although incomplete, support their earlier estimate of receipts of $400,000,000 between March and 15.

One of the reasons given for the view that business conditions improved throughout the year and are continuing on the upgrade was that although the general level of federal tax rates has been lowered as compared with the rates upon which last year's payments were based, treasury figures indicated the aggregate amount of taxes collected during the first half of March this year will far exceed the collections for the same period last year, when they totaled about $380,000,000. Reports to the treasury tonight showed that this amount had been exceeded probably by $50,000,000.

LINKS FOSTER WITH CONCLAVE OF COMMUNISTS

Testimony at Michigan Trial Shows Alleged Agent of Soviet Here Took Part in Sand Dune Convention

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 16 (AP)—William Z. Foster, charged with violating the state law against criminal syndicalism through attending the communist convention held in the sand dunes near here last August, was linked directly with the meeting today when two state witnesses testified they saw him there.

Foster was not present when the convention was raided August 22 by a sheriff's posse and federal agents, but was arrested later in Chicago.

Jacob Spolansky, a department of justice agent from Chicago, testified he saw Foster at the meeting on Sunday, August 20, when Spolansky and Edward Shanahan, another federal agent, had set on a nearby sand dune and watched the meeting.

Waitress on Stand.

Mrs. Ethel Mielko, a waitress at the Wilfkill resort, where the convention was held, pointed Foster out in the crowd of courtiers at those on whom she had waited and then testified to the audience outside the rail and identified Mrs. Pastor Stokes and Rebecca Sackorow of New York, and Ella Reeves, baroness of San Francisco, as others present. The three women under indictment with Foster surrendered last week.

The entire day was spent by the state in developing the story of the raid and identifying some of the hundreds of papers and documents seized when the raiders dug up two barrels of hidden evidence.

An apparent disagreement between Foster and Frank Walsh, his chief counsel, on the one hand and several of Foster's fellow defendants who are awaiting trial, on the other, was denied today by all concerned, although the others issued a signed statement that apparently repudiated the line of defense intended by Mr. Walsh's opening statement yesterday.

Claim "Close Harmony."

Despite the apparent inconsistency of the two, Charles E. Ruthenberg, executive secretary of the workers' party, witness at the trial, in his statement, told the Associated Press that they were working together in "closest harmony," as Mr. Ruthenberg expressed it.

In his opening statement yesterday, Mr. Walsh said the evidence would show that the convention was called for the express purpose of voting on a motion to abandon its illegal organization and come out into the open, that the motion was defeated by one vote, and that it would be shown that Francis Morrow, a department of justice agent, voted against it, and that for the government of the United States, through Morrow, kept the communists as an illegal party.

Other counties in this part of the state are contemplating similar action, it is said.

PROBE POINTS TO MURDER OF GIRL ARTISTS' MODEL

Police Accept Medical Examiner's Report as Proof of That Young Woman Was Slain and Hobbed

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—Reports of medical examiner who performed an autopsy today on the body of Miss Dorothy Keenan, artists model, found dead in her West 57th street apartment yesterday with an empty chloroform bottle on the floor, virtually proved to the police the theory that the young woman was murdered and robbed of her jewels.

Medical Examiner Norris said the chloroform had been inhaled. Bruises were found on the face and neck, indicating that the person administering the chloroform had met resistance.

Investigators said they hoped to obtain valuable information from two men, known as "Marshall" and "Wilson," who had called at the young woman's apartment frequently. Marshall was said to be wealthy; Wilson was his secretary. Marshall's visits were closely guarded, according to the elevator boys in the apartment house, and Miss Keenan's colored maid.

Marshall, it was reported to the investigators, was the donor of many valuable jewels to Miss Keenan. The young woman's jewels, valued at $10,000, have not been found.

The model's mother, who lives at another address, said her daughter met Marshall some months ago and he last visited her Wednesday night. She was certain that he had not had anything to do with her daughter's death.

Counsel for Robert Guimares, the model's friend, who was arrested early today when police found a pistol in his hotel room, filed out a writ of habeas corpus for his release. The writ is returnable tomorrow before Supreme Court Justice Mullan.

Guimares, under indictment in Boston for larceny from clients of a brokerage firm, had been sought by the police of that city for months. When arrested today, he wore a costly fur coat and jeweled pins and rings, said to have been given him by Miss Keenan.

Lame Back!

Detweiler has a lame back from shoveling coal—man wanted with a strong back to relieve him at Detweiler's Yard.

Some people seem to think that we talk too much about other matters and don't boost our Coal enough. There is a reason for everything. When one loves his neighbor as himself he can't help wanting to talk to him. Some coal needs boosting every few days, ours doesn't. People know our coal.

If a young fellow would be continually telling the girls how good looking he was, you would think he was silly. Same with coal.

Now, if anyone offers you our coal for less than $8.00, we may pay you to go see it in Spring Canyon or not; if not, why take a chance. 50c less per ton means 2 1/2c per 100 lbs. Don't forget, it is heat that you are after.

SEED BARLEY

We have Trebil Seed Barley for sale. Yields 100 bushels and more per acre, compared to 50 and 60 bushels yield of ordinary barley. Think it over, barley will be high next year.

"We are still buying wool. See us before you sell."

We are also buying pelts, and we don't try to get them for a song, as has been the custom. We will pay top prices for them.

SELF-DEFENSE IS PLEA MADE BY LUMBERMEN

Head of Douglas Fir and Exploitation Company Says the Combine Was Formed to Meet Foreign Market

SEATTLE, Wash., Mar. 16 (AP)—The Douglas Fir and Exploitation company was formed to eliminate a "deplorable condition" in the foreign lumber market, its president, Major Everett G. Griggs of Tacoma, testified today when the defense opened presentation of its evidence before Examiner W. W. Sheppard of the federal trade commission on charges made by the commission that the company was a conspiracy to control lumber prices by coercion.

Major Griggs said that combination of buyers in foreign countries made lumber prices prior to formation of the company. A representative of the company was sent to the Orient, he testified, and reported that Japan was strongly inclined to conservation and would buy American lumber so long as the price did not exceed $42 a thousand, letting their own timber stand.

Where are you going, fresh young air?

NO CHALLENGER FOUND FOR SUZANNE'S TITLE

French Star's Victory Over American Champion Leaves No Contender in Sight for Women's Tennis Title

NICE, March 16 (AP)—No one could be found to challenge the right of Suzanne Lenglen to the supreme title of the women's tennis world.

After the overwhelming defeat she administered to the American champion, Mrs. Molla Mallory, 6-0, 6-0, in the semi-finals of the Nice tourney today, all were agreed that there was no woman in sight likely to dethrone the French star for some time to come.

Mlle. Lenglen was magnanimous in victory, and Mrs. Mallory dignified and courageous in defeat, and when they shook hands with apparent cordiality after the match both were given hearty applause by the great crowd.

Mrs. Mallory refused to talk to the newspaper men, but Suzanne said she was overjoyed at her success, not because of the victory over Mrs. Mallory personally, but because it gave her the chance to "get back at the American sports writers" by whom she said she was ill-treated in 1917, after her defeat to Mrs. Mallory at Forest Hills.

"Perhaps they will see the error of their ways now," she added, "and realize how unfair they have been to me, who had to go on a strange court 48 hours after landing from the boat. I am sure Mrs. Mallory can play a better game than she did today. She was bothered by the light and other conditions to which she is unaccustomed."

Free State Troops Redouble Activities Following Nationalists' Proclamation of Mourning

LONDON, March 16 (AP)—The London correspondent of the Daily Sketch in a dispatch from Dublin describes the extraordinary conditions under which the Siki-M-Tigue bout will take place there tomorrow night. Already owing to the pronouncement of the republicans against the opening of theaters and other places of amusement, free state troops everywhere are guarding public buildings, patrolling the streets, stopping and searching passing vehicles and examining citizens to ascertain if they are carrying arms.

The free state government's reply to the republican proclamation was to order all the theaters to open tonight, and the terrified managers of the amusement resorts were bound to comply. Hence tonight lights everywhere were blazing, but the audiences were sparse in the theaters, moving picture houses and other places.

The manager of the Scala theater, where Siki and McTigue will fight tomorrow night, at first refused to comply with the military command to open his doors tonight, because he had received mysteriously delivered threats to blow up the theater if it was opened.

TELFOED TO LEAD QUINTET

Idaho Lettermen Elect Couer d'Alone Player to Captain Next Season Vandal Basketball Team

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, March 16 (AP)—Harold Telford of Couer d'Alone will captain the 1923-24 University of Idaho Vandal basketball team, lettermen voted at a recent election. There was some discussion as to whether the basketball team should follow the no-captain plan of the football eleven but it was agreed that with Idaho's style of playing a floor general is essential to directing the play.

Telford has been one of the most consistent Idaho players and was this season the first choice of J. Fred Bohler, coast conference secretary and selector of the coast all-star quintet, for a guard position. He is a big man, unusually fast, and has a scoring record above the average for a guard. Alex Fox of Moscow, Idaho, forward on the all-star five, is the retiring captain.

MODERN METHODS

A few years ago an automobile could be possessed only by the rich. Now few can afford to be without one. Electric light in every city home is a new thing. It is only in these modern days that we have learned that the luxuries of yesterday must be the necessities of today.

Communications have undergone the same change. The letter, the telegram and the personal visit used to be the only means by which business and social affairs were handled. Today the modern means is the telephone.

Just your words are not enough. You want to project your own voice with all its intimacy and directness and its evidence of your personality into your message. Moreover, you want to tell your story and get your answer in one operation. It is more satisfactory than any other method and that is why progressive business men do business by telephone.

THEATRE LADS MEET WATERLOO

Wright's Store Bowlers Take First Two out of Three Games with Low Scores

Both the Wright's Store team and the Idaho Theater boys bowled their true form last night in the regular scheduled games of the Twin Falls bowling alleys.

The Tess's of the Storm Country were stormed in the first two games by the bowlers who try to do Wright, the theater lads falling to 701 in the opener. The Wright's Store men didn't do much better, tying up at 725. "Pop" Kleffner led the field in this game with 172.

In the second game the theater lads went as far as 737 while the counter jumpers totaled 788. Three men—Selek of the Idaho Theater team and Hill and Art Boone of the store quintet—were tied for high honors with 178 each.

The last game of the evening was decided when Laval Jarman of the theater boys made a spare in the last frame and counted 8 on the next ball, the final recording being 733 for the Wright's Store and 737 for the theater lads. Chet Kerr was high in this game with 181.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Total, and another Total. Lists scores for Idaho Theatre, Kerr, Selek, Reeves, Sullivan, Jarman, and Wright's Store members.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS

The poorest bowling of the tournament so far.

The postponement of one day seemed to keep the bowlers from hitting their regular strides.

The last game was exciting from the standpoint that but four pins separated the two teams when the last two men started their last frame.

"Pop" Kleffner, who claims to have bowled with King "Tut" years ago, started off as though he was going to cut a few caps, but the second and third cantos showed him back to earth bowling his regular game.

Chet Kerr, the theater team's lead-off man, made five errors in a row in the first game, but did better in the next two.

Art Boone felt provoked at the way the pins behaved last night. They didn't fall all over themselves with joy at finding out that the ball would eventually arrive at its destination.

Mark Mertraugh said that when the ball leaves Art's hand it wishes him a happy New Year, and by the time it hits the pins everybody is giving Christmas presents.

Emory Benoit and his trained pipe had an engagement at the firm's ball, so Harry Benoit took his place in the last two games.

Harry tried to convince the jury of ten pins that he was a high class bowler but his argument was not convincing, as 133 was the best that he could do.

In the last game of the evening he topped 160, and a few days of practice would make Harry crawl right up among the topnotchers.

Charley Hill played a good joke on his average in the first game with 121. These are the things that have kept the local bowlers out of the tournament at Milwaukee.

Laval Jarman had a grand time hunting for the head pin, using 146 for his mark in the three games. Laval rolled 105 in the second stanza, which was his lowest score of the tournament.

Art Finko promised to bowl 200 in the last game, but missed it by 54 pins. Art had considerable trouble with the splits last night, and threatens to avoid hitting the head pin in the future.

"Milky" Reeves was off color, getting 135 in the first two games and 127 in the last.

Walter Selek, the pucky captain of the theater team, had troubles of his own in the last game, doing everything but make strikes and spares. 112 is what he claimed he bowled in that last heart breaker.

Denny Sullivan plowed along during the evening with an average of 159 for the three games.

BASKETBALL LETTERS GIVEN SEVEN VANDALS

Members of Idaho University Squad that Took Pacific Coast and Northwest Conference Titles Honored

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, May 15 (Special)—Letters have been awarded by the athletic board to members of this year's University of Idaho basketball squad, which took the Pacific Coast and northwest conference titles for the second successive year. Three-ring sweaters and blankets were awarded to Captain Alex Fox of Moscow and Oswald Thompson of Moscow, two-ring sweaters to Harry Edwards of Moscow, Harold Telford of Coeur d'Alene, William Garin of Caldwell, Adrian Nelson of Moscow, and a single-ring sweater to Dennis Keane of Moscow. Percy Stecher of Moscow and Paul Pitko of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, failed by a very narrow margin to meet the qualifications necessary to receive the award.

The board also awarded sweaters and monograms to Johnny Vesser of Coeur d'Alene and Wesley Phillippi of Boise, the only two members of the Idaho wrestling squad to qualify. Both are receiving their first award in that sport.

Freshman basketball numerals were also awarded by the board to Lester Keller, Dwight Nelson of Nampa, Heuburn, Glenn Hulse of Coeur d'Alene, Roy Royce of Nespeque, Ray Stephens of Blackfoot, and Elbert Stollman of Nespeque. This is the first year that numerical sweaters have been granted to any but first-year football players, but under the revised constitution awards will be given to freshmen meeting the qualifications in any of the major sports.

Representatives of Four Countries in American Zone and 13 in European Zone Drawn for Competition

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—Seventeen nations—four in the American zone and 13 in the European zone—to-day were drawn for competition for the Davis cup, international tennis trophy held by the United States.

In the American zone, Canada was drawn against Japan and Hawaii against Austria in the first round. Argentina drew a bye in the upper half of the draw for the European zone and thus will play in the second round against the winner of the first round match between Czechoslovakia and Switzerland. The other two matches in the upper half are: India vs. Ireland and France vs. Denmark.

SIX FIGHTERS TO RISK TITLES

New York to Be Scene of Several Championship Bouts During Coming Season

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—Six world's boxing champions will defend their titles in New York during the coming out-door season, according to present plans of promoters.

Two of the title bouts have been arranged for the Polo Grounds, the first between Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, and Eugene Criqui, his French rival, on June 2, and the other between Jimmy White, English holder of the world's flyweight belt, and Pancho Villa, former American 112-pound champion, on June 16. Entanglements have been placed in the way of the Kilbane-Criqui fight because the Americans is at present on the "outlaw list" of the New York state athletic commission.

Four other championship bouts are in the making. Benny Leonard, lightweight title holder, will be ready to defend his crown June 1, possibly against Lew Tendler; Mickey Walker is likely to risk his welterweight title on July 4 against Jimmy Smith or George Ward; Joe Lynch, providing he is successful in retaining his bantamweight title in the meantime, may appear against Carl Tremaine of Cleveland; while Johnny Wilson is understood to be tentatively matched to defend his light middleweight championship against Tommy Robson of Malden, Mass., in June or July.

Heavyweight title contenders will occupy the limelight on May 12 at the Yankee stadium where Jess Willard will box Floyd Johnson and Luis Firpo will fight an opponent as yet unspecified. The St. Louis American's opponent, it was said today, is likely to be either Billy Miske of St. Paul or Bob Roper of Chicago.

The outcome of these bouts will narrow down the list of aspirants for Jack Dempsey's crown and pave the way for a final contest to determine the champion's logical opponent. Dempsey is practically certain to defend his title in the fall, either here or in South America, the latter contingency depending upon whether Firpo emerges as the principal contender.

DURANT LOWERS SPEED RECORDS

Race Driver Sends Car Around Los Angeles Speedway at 117.8 Miles an Hour

LOS ANGELES, March 16 (AP)—R. C. ("Cliff") Durant, automobile race driver, who yesterday on the Los Angeles speedway broke all world's records for five and ten miles, today on the same course bettered all times, both competitive and non-competitive, for distances from ten to fifty miles. Today, as yesterday, the tests were made under the sanction and supervision of the contest board of the American Automobile association.

Durant's records will stand as official, according to members of the contest board.

Durant made 15 miles in 7:40:05, breaking the competitive record of 7:49:20, held by Jimmy Murphy.

With an average of 117.8 miles an hour, Durant cut Murphy's competitive record of 10:33:20 for 20 miles and his non-competitive record of 12:56:40 for the same distance to 10:12:54.

At the 25 mile distance Durant clipped the world's record of 12:58:20, made by Murphy, to 12:45:22.

The 30 mile record, 15:32:20, also held by Murphy, was cut to 15:17:57. The world's 50-mile non-competitive record of 26:57:40 made by Murphy in 1919, and the same driver's competitive record of 25:50:40 for the same distance were cut to 25:31:01. Durant tied also for the 75-mile record, but the trouble spoiled his plans when he reached the 60-mile point.

"Indeed," said the other man dubiously, "that doesn't sound encouraging, but perhaps you wouldn't mind apologizing for the liberty you've taken in calling me a strawberry."—London Tit-Bits.

Amubsson Tapestry Rugs.

The little city of Amubsson, in France, 250 miles south of Paris, has been the commercial center, for over a century, of the weaving of tapestries for the floor, as well as tapestries for furniture and the wall. Hence the name Amubsson rugs has become attached to tapestry rugs, and they are commonly called out there even when woven elsewhere. Thousands of Americans who have visited Mont Vernon, President Washington's home, overlooking the Potomac river, may remember having seen two Amubsson rugs there. One in the dining room and one in the library. Both these rugs were made in Amubsson, France.

A child's nature should be allowed to unfold in the sunny atmosphere of love and trust. By studying his needs, parents can help to bring out the best in him, thus forestalling that coldness and lack of sympathy which we regret to see between parents and those adult children whose attitude toward life is embittered because, when they were young and affectionate, they were subjected to the chilling effect of the consciousness that a little sister or brother always stood first in their parents' affection.—Exchange.

MOSCOW, March 16 (AP)—Leon Trotsky, the Russian war minister, may assume a new job, that of directing the rehabilitation of Russia's big industries, it plans which are to be presented to the twelfth congress of the communist party, meeting in Moscow late in March are carried out by Trotsky, it is understood, would act as director of the fighting forces of Russia, but will devote most of his time to the heavy task of whipping Russian factories into shape. It already has worked out plans to this end and will present them to the congress.

Trotsky's chief business organizer would long ago have been called into play in this particular job had it not been for opposition by some members of the party, who considered that the war minister would enforce military control over the workmen. It is said that in the beginning of the war many factories which were poorly equipped or poorly managed, utilizing their machinery to strengthen the mechanical equipment of the better factories which are to be operated with larger forces to bring about a normal output.

Trade Union Problem

In addition to discussing plans for industrial betterment, the party congress is expected to devise means to bring about a better feeling between the "Nepmen" and the workers. The development of the new economic policy are called, and the actual proletariat. The "Nepmen" have not votes, but their growing prosperity has greatly alarmed some of the more rabid communists, who see in their extension the danger of a restoration of the old regime. The Premier, Lenin, sounded the keynote of the conference policy in a recent statement in which he declared that the basis of the social reconstruction of Russia rests upon the collaboration of the two classes. He has proposed that about 100 of the most honest and able members of the party be formed into a special department, authorized to inspect the working of all government institutions and industries, with the aim of ironing out any difficulties that develop in the relationships of the two classes. They are to act in collaboration with the central committee of the communist party, forming a body of perhaps 600 men whose decisions would be virtually final.

The basis of Russia's social reconstruction rests upon the collaboration of the workmen and peasants on the one hand and the bourgeoisie on the other," Lenin said. "The bourgeoisie are now being allowed a little leeway. Should serious class differences arise between these two classes—then a class is unavoidable. But the necessary conditions for such a split do not exist in our structure, and the aim of the central committee should be to watch very carefully all conditions, out of which a split may develop, and to ward off all that in the end the fate of our republic will depend chiefly upon whether the peasant masses will follow the working classes, or the bourgeoisie." The speaker also has this possibility before our eyes, the better the workmen and peasants will understand it, and the better will we be able to avoid a split that would be ruinous to the soviet government."

Would Cut Red Tape

The party congress will devote also considerable time to projects for the prevention of bribery, and to curtail the red tape which now entangles most government bureaus. Lenin in his article says that with this exception of the foreign office, and nearly all of the government departments are today as they were in the old days, using the same old typical bureaucratic methods.

PREPARING FOR TOURISTS

Colorado Springs Citizens Form Organization to Divert Motor Travelers Off Beaten Paths

COLORADO SPRINGS

As a forerunner of the approaching tourist season, local professional and business men have formed the "Rocky Mountain Motors, Inc.," the purpose of which is to divert cross country motorists from the main east and west highways to those of less prominence, leading to points of interest north and south of the continental routes. The organization plans to erect signs at the points from which side trips may be taken. Tourists are unaware of many points of interest not touched by the main arteries of travel and, therefore, miss the opportunity of viewing some really accessible but little known scenes of the leaders of the movement state. Other western states will follow the example of the local organization, according to the members of the R. M. M., Inc.

Explains Hints on Producing Beets

Sugar Company Lends Aid to Farmers in Form of Bulletin on Soil Preparation

The necessity of careful preparation to obtain the best results from beet growing is presented in a new bulletin of the Amalgamated Sugar company distributed from the downtown offices of the local factory. The bulletin is as follows:

Ground broken out of alfalfa and planted to potatoes is fine to follow with beets. If beets were grown the previous year a coat of manure should be applied. Avoid foul land such as wild oats and other noxious weeds. "If unable to fall plow, good results were obtained the past year by planting potato and beet land without plowing. If plenty of moisture is in the ground, just fit the ground into a good seed bed and plant as early as seed will germinate. If the ground is dry, irrigate before planting. All spring plowed land should be irrigated before or immediately after planting. To get good results by irrigating immediately after planting, care must be used; some growers got good results the past season by plowing and working land down to a good seed bed then plowing, digging a good seed bed and one or two quarter inches deep, using ditchers on planter to enable them to follow the row with a corrugator and make a smooth ditch which would run water without flooding. Then irrigate every other row, running water from six to eight hours, being governed by the slope of the field and quality of the soil.

"If too much water is used it injures the soil and will not give good results. As soon after water is shut off and ground is dry enough, harrow double crossways of the row to firm the soil and break up any clods. This system enables one to get seed in ground several days earlier than would be possible if land is irrigated before planting. It also saves considerable work and intelligently done will give good results, but is not as safe to the beginner as the old method of plowing and harrowing. If one has moisture enough it is not necessary to do either; we believe where land is fall plowed and seedling is done early enough in the season most years there will be moisture enough in the ground to germinate seed. The seed bed must be firm and compact as the little tap root requires a compact seed bed to make a natural root.

"Air spaces, water or dry sub-soil will make sprangling roots and deformed beets with little tannage. One and one-half inches is deep enough to do work in early planting, later as ground gets warmer, never more than two inches. Beets should all be planted in April if possible and not later than the 15th of May. Early planting in Idaho has always given the heaviest tannage and highest sugar content. Early planted beets are less liable to be hurt by insects. It is easier to get them thinned on time as weeds and beets do not grow so fast. Now is a good time to prepare a good comfortable place for beet labors.

"Plant nothing but good land. See that you have plenty of moisture in ground." Plant early. Examine drill each time you turn to be sure that each shoe is depositing seed and that all shoes are putting seed in ground same depth. Do not plant less than 15 pounds of seed to the acre, more is better.

"Be sure to have ditchers on drill when you plant. The ridges protect the young plants, enables you to irrigate if necessary, and makes it easier to follow row with cultivator."

EGYPTIAN HEADRESSES TO BE RAGS FOR YOUNGER WOMEN

LONDON, March 16, (AP)—A return to the hair-dressing styles of the Mid-Victorian period is forecast by leading West End hair dressers, although they admit that Egyptian head-dresses will be the rage among the young women during the coming season. "The middle-aged and elderly women have been entirely forgotten during the last few years in the matter of hair dressing," said one hairdresser, "and it is for them that we are reintroducing the Victorian styles, which have never been surpassed in their dignified and stately style."

The Egyptian headresses which are becoming popular are made from one piece of gorgeously colored brocade or tulle, and hang simply from the shoulders to the feet. They are gathered up to one hip, where they are fastened by a large Eastern brooch.

Laughter Always Beneficial

A writer in Health Culture says: "A hearty laugh stimulates the nervous system and stimulation of the nerves has various other effects besides that of exciting sensations. As a result, it may act upon the viscera, promote or hinder digestion and influence secretions. It may stimulate or check the action of the heart and accelerate or retard the movements of respiration. Habitual laughter is certainly beneficial. A merry heart does good like medicine," wrote the wise man of old; also, "He that is of a merry heart has a continual feast."

CHINESE ARMY DIVISION ADOPTS CHRISTIAN FAITH

Missionary Tells of Conversion of 4,000 Soldiers with Commander Assisting in Ceremony

CHICAGO, March 16 (AP)—The eleventh division of the Chinese army, called by some "the Chinese Ironsides," commanded by Major General Fong Yu Hsiang, known as "the Cromwell of China," has become solidly Christian, according to a cablegram received today by the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The cablegram, which was from the Rev. Edward Kingsley Lowry, a returned missionary to China, residing in Peking, told of the conversion of 4,000 soldiers of the eleventh division, with General Fong assisting at the ceremony. According to the board of foreign missions there were only about this number of soldiers remaining in General Fong's division who were not Christians so the board infers that this completes the personnel of this fighting group of China.

It was General Fong and his eleventh division which swooped down on the Shensi province to the relief of Peking, when being defended by General Wu Pei Fu in the fighting of last summer. General Fong threw his men into the path of the victorious Manchurians and hurled them back in a defeat, which eventually resulted in ruin. At that time the Christian soldiers were arm hands containing the stern military ideals of their leader. They advanced to the fray singing Christian hymns. This division is the only one in the Chinese army in which there is definite welfare work and vocational training for the men, all of which is due to the constructive activity of their leader, the board states.

HAPSBURG WOULD RENOUNCE STATION TO REGAIN ESTATE

PRAHUE, March 16, (AP)—To retain possession of valuable property, mines and factories, in Silesia, Frederick, at one time an Archduke of Austria, was ready to renounce his relationship to the house of Hapsburg. He pleaded in the courts of Czechoslovakia to be classed as a commoner, but the judge ruled otherwise and, under the decision that all properties of the Hapsburgs were to be confiscated, he has lost all his holdings without a cent of compensation.

Frederick is an uncle of the late Austrian emperor, Charles. He exerted, in the old days, a measurable influence in the family which dominated central European politics for the last seven centuries.

A CREDIT Twin Falls' first "community sing" could hardly be described as a one hundred per cent success but it was very far from being a failure.

The idea was a new one here, added to which the weather was not encouraging and a number of points which could not be foreseen resolved themselves into minor obstacles in the way of success. But if the directors of the enterprise are not discouraged a very good start has been made.

As to the window shopping and of the festivities, one point is very clear, namely, that in an area of several hundred square miles there are to be found no such stocks of goods as are on exhibition at Twin Falls.

Twin Falls as a whole should find much of which to be proud in the Thursday night showing, much which would do credit to a larger and older town than Twin Falls.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

From all parts of this country where men and women of Irish blood are numerous come reports of preparations for the celebration of the day more elaborate and more enthusiastic than have marked this annual festival in recent years.

Since last St. Patrick's day Ireland has slowly been regaining its equilibrium after years of strife and turmoil. The Free State government appears to be triumphing over its enemies.

INVESTIGATING THE SOVIET

It is reported from Washington that several United States senators are to go to Russia during the late summer or fall as guests of the soviet government, all expenses of the junket to be borne by that government.

This report will be received generally with several grains of salt. The soviet is eager for diplomatic and commercial relations with the United States. There are two opinions in the United States on the wisdom of resuming those relations.

satisfactory as the information now at hand, which consists of a heterogeneous mixture of soviet propaganda and anti-soviet propaganda. If it becomes necessary for the United States to send emissaries to find out what the situation in Russia is, the United States will probably be able to finance the tour and have it conducted in such a way that the envoys will not be treated with one side of the question only.

THE FORUM

ONE CANDIDATE'S VIEW

Editor Twin Falls News: Dear Sir: If I remember correctly, I read in the "News" a notice expressing a desire that the merits of the candidates at the coming city election should be fully discussed.

I had been urged from many sources, and before I was actually asked to be a candidate, I was asked to be a candidate. I had been urged from many sources, and before I was actually asked to be a candidate, I was asked to be a candidate.

When I was brought out as a candidate, it was for the purpose of combatting the "Walton Machine." My committee selected three men to fill the three positions of mayor, street commissioner, and another gentleman, the cream of any community, but for a set of conditions over which he had no control.

I wish here to state that I have the most profound respect for every candidate on the opposite side in this contest, and had they been in the field first, no power could have induced me to run against them.

As to my qualifications for this office, I have nothing to boast of from past experience or future ability. I can only say that I have been a hard worker all my life.

commonwealth and taxpayer suffers but pays the bills. If harmony cannot be brought about in the city administration, then I for one favor the free use of the recall, and if it may be hit, my earnest desire and prayer is that the managers of the candidates on both sides shall find it to their advantage not to resort to any harsh words or personal thrusts at any of the candidates on either side that will engender a bitter feeling.

In the final analysis it behooves all of us to observe that beautiful lesson given by our Divine Master and recorded in the gospel of St. John, 8th chapter, verses one to twelve, namely: "Let him that is without sin amongst you cast the first stone."

Respectfully, W. M. LAMBING. Twin Falls, March 15.

THE SONG OF THE BOOSTER

I yearn not for Pina's Tower, Nor Cleopatra's Nile; The Colosseum is not so small as you Nor cars from Par' dise Isle.

In Babylon I never shall tread, Nor scale Alps' tallest peaks; I care not for Russ' black bread, Nor Araby's wildest bread.

Africa's diamonds hold no lure, Nor Holland's windmills quaint; Of Yellowstone I'm not so sure, An Angel trail I'd not faint.

CHAPTER IV

Uncle Jerry.

Many times Mrs. Penfield had speculated about the identity of the man who had been searching for her—who had even traced her to The Custard Cup and then failed to visit her.

It was not an unkind joy to know that a previous acquaintance might be near and that at any moment she might be called upon to talk casually of those years which were buried deep in her heart.

Inevitably, since imagination is a more vivid artist than reality, she had exaggerated the possibilities of the encounter, anticipating them with a dread which she was far from feeling when that encounter actually occurred.

"Good morning," she called brightly, as she rolled aside the big door. A man stood on the warped board that took the place of front steps.

"Am I supposed to know you?" she inquired at last. "I was hoping you'd guess me," he returned, in a deep voice that filled the narrow alley with its melody.

"Yes, I've seen you," he said, in a deep voice that filled the narrow alley with its melody. "I'm his youngest brother, John Jeremiah Winston."

Mrs. Penfield extended her hands. "Come right in. I didn't know I had a near relative in the world. I'm tickled to death."

Jerry Winston entered, walking slowly. As he sat down, he caught his hand against his side with a grimace of pain.

"They sat in silence for several moments, each absorbed in thoughts which the presence of the other had roused. It was the first time since his childhood that Jerry Winston had been face to face with a member of his own family."

"I can smell the woods in my dreams. I could smell 'em when I was a youngster, and thirty I couldn't stand it any longer."

"And now you're living near here?" He hesitated. "Yes, a few blocks over," he replied vaguely. "I don't know whether I shall hang round or not. Depends."

"Her face eyes grew deep with sympathy. "Do you mean you can't find anything to do?" "I'm trying out one or two things," he answered shortly.

"This time the evasion was unmistakable. Mrs. Penfield was sorry she had pressed the matter. "It do hope you'll stay," she said. "It has been lonely. There ain't nobody left—nobody."

"She shook her head. "Neither of my family nor—I had a few years of happiness, and then—" She broke off, her lip quivering.

"She, 'Caroline, that's tough," he put in awkwardly. "Looks like your old man might as much as dropped you, I think, but I guess he wasn't really—"

"What's that? Somebody coming?" "Yes," she breathed more evenly. "The car would be a relief from the tension of a painful reminiscence."

"No, I can't come to see you, Mrs. Penfield. It was Gusie Bosley, in the shape of hats, carrying in a smart set of bags, drawing on the freshest of gloves as she talked. "I'm going downtown."

"You always are," commented Mrs. Penfield, laughing. "Yes, I had a lot." Mrs. Bosley smiled good-naturedly. "I'll get a card on my door, telling anybody that calls to come here."

"All right." "And if anybody does come, will you please say I've gone to Sacramento and won't be back for a couple days?"

you please say I've gone to Sacramento and won't be back for a couple days?"

"Mrs. Penfield's eyes grew wide. "Sure I will," she said slowly, "if you'll do your part."

"My part! What do you mean?" "I mean if you'll go to Sacramento." "Ain't you smart?" snapped Mrs. Bosley. "I ain't asking you to do a crime. Ain't no harm in your saving me a little bother."

"Ain't no bother saved by doing a little harm, either," retorted Mrs. Penfield pleasantly. "I'm always glad to help out, but I can't go so far as that. I'm sorry."

"Jerry will!" Gusie tossed her head angrily. "All I got to say is, you'll trip over something bigger, holding your head so floundering."

"Some little lady!" commented Jerry Winston with a laugh. "Hot and peppery like a Spanish sauce!" His face straightened; his merry eyes grew keen and cold. "You don't like Mrs. Bosley, do you?"

"Down town," he mimicked. "Not in Sacramento." She did not return his banter. Her brows twisted. "Of all the people in The Custard Cup" she began absently.

"I'll bet you're worrying 'bout my tendencies," he laughed. "That's what it is to get near a relative. Why, bless your soul, that feller's harmless."

"Oh, yes, of course," she replied, recovering herself. "I ain't criticizing. I was only surprised."

"That straggled in from the kitchen. "By George!" cried Jerry Winston. "So that little shaver belongs to you, does he? I didn't know you had any youngsters."

"I have two—three—by adoption." "Queer you ain't sure of the number," he commented slyly. "One of them is brand-new," she smiled. "I haven't had her but a day. Think, dear, this is your Uncle Jerry. Ain't that nice?"

While they were getting acquainted, Mrs. Penfield went into the kitchen. "We'll have lunch pretty soon," she called back. "I've got some cornbread warming in the oven, and I'm making dried-beef gravy. I've been saying that the plowers hoping we'd have a company, and now I can open it for one of my very own family. Ain't it wonderful?"

Billiards is Ancient Game. Who invented the name of billiards is clouded in mystery. The first known reference to the game with any traditional or official accuracy occurs in Abbe McGeoghegan's "History of Ireland."

Mrs. Penfield circled around by the front door. "It's time for Oink," she said, looking out into the driveway. "Good morning, Lorena. Everything going smooth?"

Lorena Percy paused on her way past Number 47. She was a pretty girl with deep violet eyes, small features, and masses of sunny brown hair. She had an excellent business position, besides singing in a choir, and she was frankly a favorite with Mrs. Penfield.

"No, not everything," smiled the girl. "Dick Chase and I have been invited on a lovely trip to Mount Diablo, and he can't—he won't—go."

"Why, that's too bad, Lorena. I wish you could go." "So do I," sighed the girl. "We must have a quarrel over it. You see, some friends of the Bosleys are getting it up, and there was room for two more, so Mr. Bosley invited—"

"Oh!" interrupted Mrs. Penfield, in a different tone. "Well, if I was in your place, I wouldn't think about it again. You know it's always a good idea for folks to stick to their own circle of friends, and I'll bet that was what Mr. Chase was thinking."

"Maybe," conceded Lorena; "but how I've wanted to go to Diablo with a jolly party! I expect I'll get over it," she laughed. "If you say I'd better, it'll help me to do it." She waved her hand and went on toward the Percy flat.

Mrs. Penfield turned back into the living-room; then stopped in the most profound amazement. Jerry Winston had risen and was still holding an attitude of listening, of thoughtful absorption. She tried in vain to recall anything in her light interchange with Lorena that could have had significance.

"What's the matter, Uncle Jerry?" she asked. He shrugged his shoulders and became instantly the nonchalant, good-natured man of a few minutes before. "Nothing, Car'line. I'm naturally kind of interested in this little nest you live in."

"Wait till the children get here," she nodded proudly. "I'll bet you'll be interested then. They're dears, every one of 'em."

Little came in first and dashed to the sink. "I got some'n' new," she smiled. "I'll bet it don't leak, neither." "Ain't that a peach!" declared Lettie triumphantly. "She don't leak. Look at it!"

"O Lettie!" cried Mrs. Penfield. "Look yourself!" The child's gaze followed the direction of Mrs. Penfield's finger. The water had percolated through the obstructions in the bottom of the teakettle and had found many holes for escape. The teakettle had become a sprinkling-pot, merrily spraying the floor.

"Jiminy!" exclaimed Lettie. "Ain't that the darndest luck!" With a dash of black curls, she made for the sink. "Jerry Winston's broad shoulders shook with laughter. "I can see she's going to be a comfort. You just hang around and keep an eye on Lettie."

"I'm thinking of doing that very thing," said Uncle Jerry. (Continued in Next Issue.)

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, March 16 (AP)—Revised of export demand for wheat caused shorts to cover freely and tended to lift all other grains to higher levels on the Chicago Board of Trade today.

At the finish wheat showed a net gain of 1-3/4 to 2-1/4, with May $1.11 to 1.12 1-3/4 and July $1.15 7/8 to 1.16. Corn was up 1-1/8, oats rose 1-4 to 5-8 and provisions were unchanged to 10c higher.

The wheat market showed firmness from the start, because of the strength in Liverpool, where the market advanced readily when a sudden development of a shortage of cash wheat abroad became apparent. The market there was not affected by the action of the American markets, but the markets on this side of the Atlantic were quick to reflect the action of Liverpool and advanced sharply.

City's Official Paper is Bought

Sale of Observer is Announced in Last Issue; Marshall F. Browne is Purchaser

A brief statement in the Friday issue of the Observer announced that a deal has been completed whereby the paper has been sold to Marshall F. Browne, making that issue the last, and leaving the care of Twin Falls without an official publication.

The statement says, "It is understood that Mr. Browne plans to consolidate the Observer with the Farmers' Digest." Lack of sufficient time to devote to the publication and that it interfered with his other business was given by Homer C. Mills, president of the company, as the reason for selling.

It was understood that Mr. Browne intends to retain the rights of the paper, but the name will not be used. Mr. Mills stated that only a part of the equipment was included in the deal with Mr. Browne and that another party has been found for the remainder.

Fear Cunningham Was Fire Victim

Mrs. J. C. Johnson Leaves for Ogden to Assist in Search for Father Reported Missing

Mrs. J. C. Johnson of Twin Falls has left for Ogden to assist in the search for her father, William E. Cunningham, age 65, who is believed to have perished in the fire Thursday which destroyed the Arlington hotel at Ogden, entailing an estimated loss of $300,000.

Mr. Cunningham, who is known among Ogden and Salt Lake railroad men as "Bingham Bill" Cunningham, was reported missing Thursday following the fire which occurred early that morning. When he failed to appear a search was started. The chief of police and the fire chief of Ogden were notified and a partial search of the ruins failed to reveal any evidence of the missing man.

Mr. Cunningham was last seen Wednesday when he entered the hotel over the warehouse in which the fire was said to have started. He had been ill for several days.

Preparations were being made Friday for a survey of the burned property, which consisted of a department store and a candy store on the ground floor and the hotel on the two upper stories of the D. H. Peery building. Reports were made that the owners of the property intend to build a modern office building on the site.

URGES VALUE OF CROP DIVERSITY

Officials of California Organization to Address the Local Vegetable Growers

Lettuce growers of Twin Falls district gathered in the Business and Professional Women's club rooms Friday night to discuss the crop for the coming season. W. T. McCall, of the Idaho Producers' union, presided and announced that a meeting will be held Monday evening in the same rooms to hear several speakers on the subject of introducing a greater acreage of other vegetables, including cauliflower and celery, in this district.

At the meeting Monday the speakers will be R. G. Visher of Sacramento, Cal., head of the crop production department of the California Producers' union, through which the local products are marketed, and C. J. Kupfer, also an official of the California association. They will be at Buhl in the afternoon.

While the lettuce crop will probably be large this year, Mr. McCall is urging that the growers do not depend entirely on the one crop, but plant a portion of their fields to the other vegetable named. He stated that the future of vegetable growing in southern Idaho offers vast opportunities and that California will be the chief consumer of local produce within a few years.

Data concerning the temperatures of the Twin Falls district covering the past eight years, have been taken, and sent to the officials of the California organization. The temperature records have been arranged in charts and these will be introduced Monday. By this means it will be possible to predict a number of conditions and variations of temperature in the future and the result will be of great benefit to the growers, according to Mr. McCall.

STORM PATH IN SOUTH MARKED BY DESOLATION

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 16 (AP)—Eighteen dead, approximately 100 injured and property damage estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 made up the known toll tonight of a tornado which swept across delta counties in northern Mississippi last night, demolished one village—Savage—and left a trail of property damage and dead and maimed in a dozen or more towns and farming settlements. Several hundred are homeless.

Of the known dead nine lost their lives when the storm battered the remains of the town of Savage, badly damaged two months ago by a tornado, and carried half a dozen dwellings into Coldwater river.

The storm was a whirling wind which swept in from the southwest. Savage was tonight a mass of splintered wreckage; at Sardis a dozen buildings were wrecked and the front of a hotel was smashed; at Holly Springs the McDermott hotel and the Frisco railroad station was damaged; half a dozen buildings were wrecked at Hernandez and at Walnut lake the storm took its heaviest toll on the plantation of L. C. Cannon where nearly a score of cabins were swept from their foundations and the plantation dwelling was damaged.

High temperatures prevailed throughout the path of the storm.

BLIZZARD HITS BOZEMAN

BOZEMAN, Mont., March 16 (AP)—A storm of blizzard proportions struck Bozeman and vicinity about midnight tonight with a strong west wind and a heavy fall of snow.

MISSOULA TRAFFIC HALTED

MISSOULA, Mont., March 16 (AP)—A storm of the proportions of a blizzard struck Missoula about 9 o'clock tonight and for an hour and a half it was practically impossible to get about the streets. The wind blew the wet snow for miles and traffic was stopped. Six inches of snow fell in the time the blizzard raged. The temperature did not fall greatly. The storm is reported to be general throughout western Montana, with a heavier snowfall than in Missoula.

GOLD IS FOUND IN PARK

Terms of Grant of Land to City Precludes Possible Mining Development to Banish Taxation

LOS ANGELES, March 16 (AP)—Los Angeles could follow the example of Long Beach, whose municipal treasury is swollen with oil royalties, and become a "taxless city" by opening Griffith Park's scenic hills to exploitation of gold mining interests, according to business men who recently sought mining concessions in the park, which lies in the foothills of Hollywood.

At least $200,000,000 in gold could be taken from the Griffith Park hills, the applicants for concessions contend, citing the discovery of gold nuggets in one of the ravines of the preserve as evidence that its slopes were well suited down with precious metal.

However, an opinion handed down by the city attorney to the effect that the terms under which the city obtained the park prohibit its use for any commercial purpose, makes it unlikely that the purported hidden hoard of gold will be disturbed.

BUFFALO AUTHORITIES FOR FLOGGING FOR WIFE BEATERS

BUFFALO, March 16 (AP)—The whipping post as a restraining influence on wife-beaters is favored by the probation officers of this city. Their opinion was expressed during the hearing recently of an exceptionally brutal case. Serious cases of wife beating in which the woman carried the marks for days or weeks average about 50 a year in this city, and there are frequent "repeaters."

"Flogging is the only remedy for these brutes," says William T. Glavin, chief probation officer. "The last is being used in Delaware and Canada, and I would like to see it adopted in New York."

Bad whiskey figured in the most recent cases of wife-beating, the court records show.

The Baptist Ladies will serve a splendid chicken dinner, 50c a plate, at Wright's old store on Saturday, from 5 until 7:30.—adv.
