FORECASTS RE-ELECTION OF HARDING

Attorney - General Daugherty, After Conferences with President, Predicts Successful Run for Second Term

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 17, (AP) - Prediction that President Harding will be a candidate for re-nomination will be selected as the republican standard bearer and will be re-elected, was made here today by Attorney General Daugherty, pre-convention campaign manager for Mr. Harding in 1920 and since then his chief political adviser.

"President Harding will be a candidate for re-nomination," said Attorney General Daugherty. "There will be no other candidate against him except one and that one is always a candidate. He will be re-nominated and re-elected. The country and the people will demand it."

Mr. Daugherty, who is at Miami Beach recovering from his recent illness, made the statement to the newspaper correspondents with President Harding's Florida vacation party, for whom he sent. The statement is regarded as by far the most authoritative informal announcement as to President Harding's intentions with respect to 1924 yet made because of the close relationship between the chief executive and Mr. Daugherty with respect to political matters.

Follows Conferences The president and Mr. Daugherty had several conferences before the vacation party left Washington early this month, and they have seen each other two or three times during the former's three day visit here. Similar statements have been made in the past months by several reporters regarded as close to the president. Secretary Hoover some months ago made such a statement in California, and only last month, Senator Watson of Iowa made a speech in which he predicted that Mr. Harding would be a candidate and would be re-nominated.

Asked if there was any contingency under which Mr. Harding would not re-enter the White House, Mr. Daugherty said he believed only an impairment of the president's health would stand in the way. Of course much may happen in the next 14 months, but friends of the president within the last few days have ventured the prediction that he will return to Washington with his health better than at any time he has entered the White House and certainly

CALLS TURKISH CLAIMS MOST REPRESENTATIVE OF ANGORA IN PARIS BALANCES CONCEPTIONS AGAINST REJECTED POINTS

PARIS, March 17 (AP) - The Turkish council proposes to the Lusignan peace pact is "replete with evidence of Turkish ingenuity, and the conditions conforming to the Angora government's desire for peace and independence," declares Hussein Haghighi Bey, the Angora representative here. Haghighi Bey, who has throughout the night digesting the text of this lengthy document, which reached Paris by courier, forecast possible differences in the interpretation of the text, according to which nation was doing the translating. His digest divides the Angora project into two parts, the first being given over to those parts of the League of Nations which are acceptable to the Turks, and the second to the sections which their proposals have modified.

Enumerates Concessions In the first part is included Turkey's acceptance of a delay in the solution of the dispute over the Mosul oil fields between Turkey and Great Britain for one year, in reference to the league of nations for settlement if no agreement was then reached; the granting of Karagatch, the addition of the Mosul oil fields, the draft treaty solution for the freedom of the straits, and the treaty's adjustment of the minorities problem. Turkey likewise accepts the appointment of three international judges to the courts for five years and agrees to reorganize the department of justice, these stipulations being in line with the allied plan for solution of the question of status of the Kurds in the Turkish courts. In the second part of the digest, the modifications noted include the request that the frontier line between Greece and Turkey run through middle of the river Maritsa instead of along the left bank and for the possession by Turkey of the island of Castelloriza, part of the Dodecanese group, thus leaving Italy eleven islands in the Aegean. Turkey also Castelloriza practically belongs to the Anatolian coast.

Oakland Man has Device to Make Water Burn Like Gas

OAKLAND, Calif., (AP) - Rachele Jaccuzzi, this city, believes he has perfected a device to make water burn. The device yields a flame with a temperature higher than that of the average water's torch. The water which it is much the same as household gas, the inventor says. "Water is fed into a small coil and heated by a gas flame," explained Mr. Jaccuzzi. "This latter flame converts the water into steam at first. Toward the end of the coil the temperature has increased to such a point that the steam has been converted to a gas and when augmented by a small flame of acetylene, or other inflammable gas, burns with an intense heat."

STORM SEEN GATHERING OVER RUHR

Newspapers, in Face of Prevailing Calm, Declare Situation More Acute, but Indicate No New Sore Spots

COLOGNE, March 17 (AP) - Joseph Smets, the well known German separatist leader, was seriously wounded today by an unidentified assailant who escaped. His secretary was killed in the attack. The assault occurred in Smets' office. For several years Smets has been a strong advocate of secession of the Rhine from Germany.

ESSEN, March 17 (AP) - The Ruhr is calm, but the possibility of a sudden break still exists. Although the newspapers declare the situation is more acute, they do not indicate any new source of trouble. Coal is now being taken from two mines by the French. One of the mines is near Essen and the other at Bottrop. The French have arrested several men in Düsseldorf on the charge of sabotage. They are accused of tampering with the telegraph system, the penalty for which is hard labor for life.

The controversy over the responsibility for the shooting of two Frenchmen at Duer last week is still proceeding. The Germans have produced witnesses who say the French shot the bullets were from revolvers such as are used by the German security police.

POLICE GUARD HOLIDAY MARCH

Thirty-Two Hundred Bluecoats on Hand as 8,000 St. Patrick's Day Celebrants Parade

NEW YORK, March 17 (AP) - Thirty-two hundred members of the police department, detailed to prevent possible clashes between Irish free state and republican sympathizers, guarded some 8,000 marchers in the annual St. Patrick's day parade through Fifth avenue this afternoon.

The nearest thing to a disturbance was created at Fort-second street when an aged woman, chowing her way through the crowd to the curb, shouted: "Oh, ye, dirty robbers!" The incident, which caused disgusted howl and also moved on.

Several republicans, bearing placards, scoring the free state, attempted to join the procession, but were politely pushed behind the police lines. Thirty patrolmen were stationed in each of the 48 blocks lining the line of march, while members of the bomb squad and detective division walked along the automobiles of the marshals. Sixty-four street patrolmen headed the procession. Extra details of traffic men and several hundred reserves were pressed into duty.

Most of the hands played "The Wearing of the Green," to the exclusion of whatever else they knew. Governor Smith and his staff reviewed the procession from a stand at Fifty-fourth street. Mayor Hylan, for the first time in his career as a public official, failed to join the reviewing party. Archbishop Hayes reviewed from the steps of St. Patrick's cathedral.

EXPERTS NAMED FOR SURVEY OF BASIN PROJECT

Study of All Available Records First Step in Government's Investigation of Washington Reclamation Plan

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP) - A commission headed by Assistant Secretary David H. Johnston of the Interior department has been organized by Secretary Work to make the survey of the Columbia river irrigation project recently authorized by congress. Director David of the geological service also will serve on the commission and it was announced today that the actual field work would be under the direction of Homer G. Galt, who has been an engineer connected with the service since 1906.

"A complete and thorough investigation of every essential feature of the project will be made," said a statement issued today by the commission. "The selection of Mr. Galt as the engineer in charge is the first step in the program of the commission as arranged for the detail from the interior department geological survey of a geologist to make a reconnaissance survey and a study of the geological features, a hydraulic engineer from the same bureau to make a study of the water supply. Arrangements also are being perfected for experts from the department of agriculture to be detailed for the purpose of conducting any necessary soil examinations.

The same line of field investigation with reference to this project as in the Columbia basin area will be followed.

YOUTH HELD IN DEATH MYSTERY

Authorities Look to Lad Found on Scene to Shed Light on Killing of Three Persons

EVERETT, Wash., March 17 (AP) - Prosecuting Attorney C. T. Roscoe, after questioning George Chakos, expressed the belief tonight that the youth could shed light on the killing of Mrs. Cleopatra Karas, 25, sister of Charles G. Karas, 29, her brother-in-law, and Alack Karas, 4, her son. Karas, two, her children, whose bodies were found in the ruins of a bakery conducted here by the family, after it maintained for two years, were found destroyed by fire early this morning.

Chakos, arrested after coroner Charles Pickett discovered that the skull of Karas and Mrs. Karas had been crushed prior to death, was held on an open charge. Fire Chief Al Toro declared that when firemen appeared at the bakery Chakos talked to them several minutes before he became the rest of the family were in the building, in which Chakos had occupied a rear room. Firemen found Chakos running around the yard near the burning house when they arrived.

Offers Reward P. N. Wells, proprietor of a restaurant in Seattle, brother-in-law of Mrs. Karas, came here today and offered a reward for information leading to the arrest of the slayer of the two adults. The children were suffocated by smoke.

Wells said that he had always been friendly to George Chakos. He Karas, husband of Mrs. Karas, who was slain last summer near the road between here and Mukilteo, four miles south, while making a delivery with his family, was also suffocated and was found beside the car. Chakos and two men from Oklahoma were arrested at that time, but released after an investigation had dragged on some time. No trace was found in the ruins today of any instrument with which Mrs. Karas and Gust Karas might have been killed. Wells declared that the Karas family had no enemies and that he knew of no motive whatever for the murder.

AMERICA LEADS ALL NATIONS IN MANUFACTURING

Brief Span Sees United States Forge to First Place in Volume and Variety of Products and Number of Workers

NEW YORK, March 17 (AP)—In the span of a little more than two generations the United States has assumed the leading position among all nations in the volume and variety of its manufactured production, the number of wage earners engaged in manufacturing, the power applied to processes and the value of products, the national conference heard says today in an analysis of a recent census of manufactures.

"From 1849 to 1919 the total value of products manufactured in the United States rose from $1,002,000,000 to nearly $32,500,000,000, and the number of wage earners employed in manufacturing from 857,859 to 9,696,372. In the first 20 years of this century the more than doubled, while the total value of manufactured products in 1919 was approximately five and one-half times the total in 1899," the report says.

Draws on Population.

"An increasing proportion of the working population has been drawn into manufacturing. Of each thousand persons engaged in manual occupations in 1899, about 182 were employed in manufacturing industries. The corresponding figure 20 years later was 200, representing an increase of about 12 per cent. In some states the percentage gain in the number of persons employed in manufacturing industries to the total population gainfully occupied was much larger.

"This development has taken place, however, without increasing the proportion of men and children in the industry. The entrance of women into industry has no more than kept pace with the industrial growth, while the proportion of workers under 16 years of age declined almost 50 per cent in the period from 1899 to 1919."

"The growth of the personnel of manufacturing industry and the effect of increased production on the standard of living are reflected in the increasing expenditures for wages and services, accompanied by a large saving in average cost of service to the employer. The average cost of labor in manufacturing industries rose from $20.71 per month in 1899 to $40.50 in 1919, an increase of 95 per cent. The total wage cost in manufacturing industries increased 153 per cent from 1914 to 1919 alone.

Power Ratio Increases.

"The total horsepower of the various types of power in manufacturing establishments increased from about 2,350,000 in 1899 to nearly 30,000,000 in 1919. The ratio of mechanical power to man power has also increased to a marked degree. From 1899 to 1919, the total power used nearly tripled, while the number of wage earners increased less than two-thirds. In the last decade the total horsepower of electrical motors in manufacturing plants rose nearly 230 per cent. A marked increase in the use of oil has taken place, but the decline in the quantity of this fuel consumed in manufacturing rising from 34,000,000 barrels in 1909 to 22,000,000 barrels in 1919 is approximately 35 per cent.

"As a result of the rising price level due to world wide economic influences, there has taken place an increase in the production and value of industrial products in many industries far out of proportion to the increases in the man power and mechanical power used. This is especially marked in the automobile, phonograph, rubber and petroleum industries while in the woolen, beet sugar, boot and shoe, brick and clay products, fertilizer and glass industries, production did not keep pace with increases in wage earners and power employed."

MYSTERY SURROUNDS OLD MEDAL UNRAITHED IN UTAH

SALT LAKE, Mar. 17 (AP)—Apparently there is no solution to the mystery surrounding a brass medal issued in 1874 for the purpose of attracting settlers to Jamestown, Virginia, which was found several years ago in the bottom of a small stream in north-eastern Utah by a prospector. The accepted theory, however, is that it was brought across the continent by Indians.

The medal is the property of H. H. Hunt of Elko, Nevada and on one side it has the legend "Johnstown Produce, Corn-Tobacco," and bears the serial number CCXXXI. On the other side there is an Indian head not unlike than on American one-cent pieces.

Laundry Bowlers Lengthening Lead

Week-End Statistics Show the Cleaners at Top of List with 704; Rendahl-Wright Next

The finish of the ninth week of bowling still finds the Troy laundry team leading with a percentage of 704. Their nearest competitor is the Rendahl-Wright team with a percentage of 630.

With the season just a little over the half-way mark, there is a possibility of several changes being made in the percentage column before the final game is played, although the Laundry men claim that they are right where they will be when the final curtain drops on the bowling tournament.

The League Standing

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Troy Laundry	19	8	.704
Rendahl-Wright	17	10	.630
Idaho Theater	16	11	.594
Shoe Market	15	12	.555
Wright's Store	12	15	.444
Rogerson Cafe	12	15	.444
I. D. Store	11	16	.407
Alvord & Mott	6	21	.222

In the total pins department the Troy laundry leads with 21,664 pins topped into the pit in 27 games. As in the standings the Rendahl-Wright team is day night. The Troy laundry won the odd game last week from the Rendahl-Wright team, after losing the first one by 83 pins.

The I. D. Store men lost three straight to the Rogerson Cafe team last week, showing a reversal of form. The question is will they be ready for the league leading laundrymen Monday evening?

With such bowlers as Laville, Hugh Boone and Ford going right the store boys should make life miserable for the leaders, to say nothing of Squires and "Dixie" Moore. Moore is dangerous at all times, and is just as apt to roll well over the 200 mark as he is to fall down.

This game promises to give the bowling fans some real thrills Monday night.

For Tuesday evening the Shoe Market will entertain the Rogerson Cafe pin-crushers. This is another game that promises considerable excitement. Both teams are going in mid-season form and should the Shoe Market win three straight, and the Troy laundry lose two, the percentage would be—

Let's wait until Wednesday morning before figuring the percentages.

Wednesday evening the Rendahl-Wright team will tackle the Idaho Theater kids, and another battle royal is on schedule. The mechanics lost two last week, and are determined to take all three Wednesday evening. Well, maybe.

Wright's Store men will take on the Alvord & Mott team of Thursday night, and it may be possible that the Grocers will bring a surprise with them.

Just as Halley's comet sneaked through the skies a few years ago, the stars of the Idaho Power company's bowling team come along with a challenge to the Sugar Factory team, and are anxious to play the coming week. It is now up to the Sugar Factory squad to try and snuff out the lights.

Captain Ingraham of the Power company team has gathered around him some of the best light and power men in the business. When it is remembered that Bill Rowberry, Charley Hill, Floyd Pollard and Ira Joslyn are members of the team it is well that the sugar men stop, look and listen before accepting. Ellis Wolfenden is coaching the Ingrahams.

Another team that is after a game is the lawyers team. Tried and true, this team boasts of Bill Halley, Orr Chapman, O. W. Witham, Captain Fortier, Harry Benoit and Justice Bothwell. This team is after the butchers' quiet, and after winning from the meat cutters they would like to play a picked team from the league. Mike Marting is chief counsel for the lawyers.

Our daily bowling thought: Keeping busy at the right thing keeps you from doing the wrong thing.

Attention, Farmers

We have now about 5,000 acres of beets in sight. The price of sugar went up 10 cents yesterday. We have paid $0.75 per ton for beets to date. Farmers are sure to get at least $1.00 per ton more for last year's crop, which will make $7.50 per ton.

Prospects for the coming year are better than the past year's price. Why not help us get our 10,000 acres by putting a part of your land in sugar beets? We feel that beets, planted early, is the safest and surest crop on this tract. The price is sure and there is no other cultivated crop which will bring as good returns. Why not take advantage of the high price of beets this year and make money?

Sugar beets get most of their sugar from the air, and contrary to dope given out is easier on land and puts land in better condition than most any other crop.

STOP—Figure—it will pay to diversify. Ten acres of sugar beets will pay the expense of running your farm.

Lemna of Chicago made a strong bid for the leadership in the double event when they tallied 1240, a poor start of 380 being the only thing that kept them from passing J. Froer and E. Zajac, also of Chicago, who led the leaders with 1250.
Larry Dunn, of Chicago, took the lead in the all-events with 1,932 points to his credit, which total has been broken only five times in a B. C. competition.

M'TIGUE BESTS BATTLING SIKI

Irish-American Fighter Gains Decision Over Senegalese for Championship

DUBLIN, March 17 (AP)—Miko McTigue, the Irish-American fighter, is now world's light heavyweight champion and European heavyweight champion, and Georges Carpentier can no longer regain the honors lost to "Battling" Siki by a return match with the defeated Senegalese.
McTigue gained the decision from Siki at the Scala theater in a 20-round contest tonight. McTigue won on points at the end of the contest, but later Siki was reported to have disagreed vigorously and expressed the intention of challenging the decision.
Carpentier came from Paris with his manager and sat at the ringside. He watched the progress of the contest not only with intense interest, but apparent satisfaction. He announced his intention at the close of the fight, to challenge the winner.
Fight Proves Disappointing.
The fight proved disappointing. There was most swinging and side-stepping, but no knockdowns were scored and neither man showed any particular sign of battle at the end.
One of the most exciting features of the whole affair was the possibility that the Irish irregulars would interrupt the proceedings with a bomb, but the government had guards stationed at various points around the theater, and beyond one explosion a short distance from the battleground, there was no trouble and the fight proceeded on its long and tiresome way.
The men entered the ring at 8:15, and although both were welcomed, the Irishman naturally was the favorite. It was evident from the start that McTigue had a pre-arranged plan aimed at letting the Senegalese tire himself out. He let Siki do the swinging while he did the ducking and dashing about.
It was not until the eleventh round that first blood was drawn, the Irishman's forehead showing a slight gash.

Soon after that Siki was bleeding from the lips.
Siki Shows Punishment.
When he came up for the nineteenth Siki showed signs of punishment; he had lost some of his dash and was not as enterprising as he had been in the early rounds. McTigue was weary and took no chances. He had distinctly the better of this round, although his opponent reached his ribs a number of times.
In the twentieth and last round McTigue went in hard and punished Siki severely in the face. He was still on the offensive when the bell rang.

FORECASTS RE-ELECTION

in better physical condition than at any other time in the past year.
Hardest Part Passed
Touching indirectly on this phase of the question, Mr. Daugherty asserted that the president had passed through the hardest part of his administration—the period during which the more far reaching policies must be formulated and the aftermath of the world war straightened out. The time for the most extensive appreciation of the Harding administration, Mr. Daugherty said, now is beginning.

The attorney general indicated plainly that he had no desire to manage Mr. Harding's campaign next year, declaring he never would be a campaign manager. This statement, however, was not taken as meaning that Mr. Daugherty will not take a prominent part in the campaign if Mr. Harding is the central republican figure, but as indicating that he would be content to remain somewhat in the background as an adviser.
Issues in Making
Although agreeing with the statement made here yesterday by Wm. J. Bryan that it was yet a bit too early to talk politics, Mr. Daugherty said some of the issues on which the campaign would be fought out already had appeared. Among these he mentioned taxation, law enforcement, freedom of action for the United States in international affairs and the administration of the department of justice.
The attorney general did not elaborate on his statement that there would be only one candidate in the quadrennial-republican convention against Mr. Harding. Some of those who heard him believed he referred to Senator La Follette of Wisconsin.

SOLICITS HELP TO SAVE TURKS FROM RUSSIANS

Charles R. Crane Says Aid Should Be Given the Angora Peace Party to Offset Bolshevik Influences

NEW YORK, March 17, 1923.—A plan for aid for the Turks to save them from Russian influences, was made by Charles R. Crane of Chicago, former American diplomatic commissioner to Russia and Turkey, on his arrival today from a trip through Russia and the Near East.

"The Turks," he said, "appreciate the fact that the Bolsheviks stood by them when all Europe was against them, but they know that the Bolsheviks have wrecked Russia and they profoundly mistrust them. They do not wish anything like that to happen to Turkey."

"The members of the right wing of the Turkish government at Angora are striving hard for peace and everything should be done to help the Turks so that they would not feel that they would require any support from the Soviet government."

The Bolsheviks face an exhausting job in Russia, he said, to try to put along 100,000,000 hostile people, for all Russia is an strike.

"Even though they are losing several millions of people a year," he asserted, "the Russians are still very brave, because they know they have worked out a successful technique of passive resistance and are prepared to suffer in order eventually to get their country back into their own hands."

was a paper by Mrs. E. C. Parsons on the history of the club, spiced with a brief description of each member. The meeting was such a delightful affair, the ladies decided to make it an annual event.

Miss Elma Jean Ducker was hostess at an enjoyable party Friday evening at her home on Ninth avenue north. After meeting at her home the guests spent the evening dancing in the amusement room at the Reed Apartments after which they returned to the Ducker home for a dainty two-course supper. The tables were decorated with St. Patrick's day emblems and colors. Invited guests were the Misses Imogene Craven, Neva Cinar, Anna McNew, Bernice Reed, Lyloona Booth, Mae Franklin, Mary Louisa Bailey, Aleno Seal, Jennie Ryan, Margorie Brown, Margaret Dunlap, Jean Dinkelacker, and the Messrs. Donald Lenz, George Paulson, Gale Bover, Frank MacIntosh, Jack Sheehan, Rauland Detweiler, Alton Denton, Walter Smith, John McMartin, Harry Putzier and Donald Crow.

The Angolan Legion auxiliary gave a delightful St. Patrick's musical at the home of its president, Mrs. Burton E. Morse, on Saturday afternoon. The committee on arrangements were Mrs. D. Jackson, chairman, Mrs. A. Deeman, John, Mrs. George Leopold and Mrs. W. H. Dwight. During the early part of the afternoon the guests were received by Mrs. Wendell Allen, Mrs. W. P. Paszer, Mrs. C. E. Wright and Mrs. Merle Batley. Those receiving the last half were Mrs. Ralph Pink, Mrs. B. H. Graves and Mrs. Wilton Peck. Little Jane Wright, dressed as an Irish colleen, opened the door for the guests. A splendid program was given, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. W. H. Dwight, Mrs. James Hall, Mrs. Zonna Smith and Mrs. O. P. Duwall. Piano numbers were rendered by Mrs. Merle Batley, Mrs. D. L. Alexander and little Miss Jennie Henz. The Emanon trio, composed of Mrs. Dwight, Mrs. I. H. Masters and Miss Emma Smith, sang several selections. Accompanists for the vocal numbers were Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Batley and Mrs. Duwall. Refreshments carrying out a color scheme of green and white were served from a table covered with a handsome lace cloth, the centerpiece being a cut glass vase of green carnations with trailing vines.

David Alford and Joseph Deiss entertained 24 of their young friends with a dinner dance Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Alford on Sixth avenue north. A St. Patrick's motif was carried out in all of the decorative details, green snapdragons in crystal vases with green candles in cut glass sticks being used on the tables. The place cards bore an emblem of the day, while on the inside of the program of dances was found.

Mrs. E. S. Larned entertained eleven little girls Friday evening to celebrate the twelfth birthday of her daughter, Katherine. The evening was spent with games and guessing contests, Margaret Witham winning the prize. At 9:30 supper was served at a long table adorned with the symbols of St. Patrick's day and having as the pièce de résistance a lovely birthday cake trimmed with green candles in the required number. Each little guest received a little dressed doll as a favor.

Mrs. J. C. Dehaenamp was hostess to the American War Mothers Friday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. H. M. Heller and Mrs. Eva Taylor. The business session was presided over by Mrs. David Brown, local war mother. At this time it was decided to assist in taking the census for the Americanization work which is being taken up by the various associations of the city. The War Mothers also voted to accept the invitation of the Legion Auxiliary to meet with them at their next regular session. During the social hour dainty refreshments were served.

The Presbyterian Missionary societies of this section held a meeting on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week at Bull. Those who attended on Friday from Twin Falls were Mrs. G. M. Hall, Mrs. A. E. Sifoy, Mrs. G. M. Simpson, Mrs. O. W. Witham, Mrs. M. C. Mitchell, Mrs. J. G. Sawyer, Mrs. J. D. Kautz, Mrs. Schade, Mrs. A. G. Peterson, Mrs. D. E. Davison, Mrs. F. P. Bracken, Mrs. L. O. Evans, Mrs. T. J. Douglas, Mrs. A. D. Stafford, Mrs. J. A. Johnson, Mrs. R. C. Ratcliffe, Mrs. D. F. Sweet, Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Marsh. On Saturday about 35 young people motored down from this city and attended the meeting.

Few and Choice Pictures. Pictures hung side by side or in groups produce monotony. Even the choicest picture loses some of its value when hung without discrimination with several others. A few well-chosen pictures that are hung with plenty of free space about them, against a good, neutral background, have a much greater decorative value than have many pictures plastered on the wall like advertising chromos on billboards.

Eleven members of the Community club were delightfully entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Hunt. A social hour followed the business meeting and refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

The Addison Avenue Social club held on all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Chas. Bruggeman to celebrate the birthday anniversary of the organization. St. Patrick's day decorations were carried out in the rooms and in the table adornments and place cards. At one o'clock the ladies sat down to a beautifully appointed table and partook of a delectable luncheon served in six courses. Irish jokes were substituted for toasts and much merriment was called forth. It was also the birthday of one of the members, Mrs. W. A. Childers. As the hostess course was served a huge birthday cake was presented to Mrs. Childers and she was given a handkerchief shower as a surprise. During the afternoon a novel program of music was rendered. Amateurs folk songs being the topic. A brief history of the song and a sketch of its author was given and then the club chorus sang the song. A special feature of the day

23 SERIES BIG-SIX TOURING CAR $1750

Many people make the mistake of buying a car without enough seating capacity. Then when they want to take their friends along, the children have to sit on someone's lap, the foot space is all jammed up with luggage, and everybody is crowded and uncomfortable.

The Studebaker Big-Six Touring Car has two comfortable auxiliary seats that fold out of the way. It is a big, roomy five-passenger car except when you need it for seven, and then it's a comfortable, convenient seven-passenger car—something which a five-passenger car can never be. And there is still room for the luggage.

Come in and look at the Big-Six Touring Car. No matter how much you pay we don't believe you can find a more satisfactory car.

Its reliability has been proved in the service of thousands of owners. Correct design, highest quality of materials and precise workmanship are evident throughout out every detail of its construction.

Equipment is complete—even to an extra disc wheel with cord tire, tube and tire cover and bumpers, front and rear.

The name Studebaker is assurance of satisfaction.
