FOSTER'S PLEA FOR SHORT CUT MEETS REFUSAL

Court Denies Motion for Instructed Verdict of Acquittal in Case of Communist Leader on Trial in Michigan

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 22 (AP)—William Z. Foster, charged with violation of the Michigan criminal syndicalism law by assembling with the national communist convention in the sand hills near St. Joseph last August, must face a jury's decision as to whether he shall go free or serve 10 years in prison or pay a fine of $5000, or possibly both.

Judge Charles White today overruled a motion by Frank H. Walsh, chief counsel for Foster, that the court direct the jury to return a verdict of acquittal and ordered the trial to proceed.

Mr. Walsh made his motion immediately after the state rested. As its final evidence the prosecution read to the jury a number of passages from the "theses and resolutions" of the Moscow International dealing with direct action, conditions in this country, and an attack on the American Legion.

Defense counsel declined to state tonight whether Foster will take the stand in his own behalf or who the defense witnesses will be.

Mr. Walsh maintained there was no evidence that any poisonous solicited or urged by the convention to commit acts of crime; or that Foster took part in the meeting with the intent to promote or induce acts of crime, sabotage, violence or other unlawful means of terrorism.

Judge White overruled a motion to limit the evidence of the Moscow International from the evidence. Mr. Walsh particularly opposed introduction of the paragraph referring to the American Legion being composed of the "Hitler and Johnson of the war," and charging the legion is the leading spirit among "the organizations of strike breakers and cut-throats which are an obstacle to the establishment of American democracy."

The paragraph, he argued, was mere argument and not a statement of communist policy.

Mr. Walsh concluded the cross examination of Francis Morrow, who as "K-97," a government agent, attended the communist convention as a delegate at the morning session. He had Morrow identify checks totaling $300 made out by him payable to Charles Ruthenberg, one of the delegates arrested at the convention. Morrow said the money was collected by him for the workers' defense fund which defended communists arrested for circulating illegal literature. At the time he was raising funds for the defense fund, the testimony showed, Morrow was also working as a department of justice agent.

Names "Goose Caucus." The witness also named the 23 communists, who, with himself, were the "goose" in the so-called "goose caucus" of the radical left wing at the communist convention. The radical faction in its caucus voted to continue the illegal, underground movement, while the right wing favored liquidation of the communist party and coming into the open.

GERMAN MINERS RURL DEFIANCE

Fiery Proclamation Pledges Allegiance to Policy of Passive Resistance

HAMM, Germany, March 22 (AP)—Defiance to France and the expression of a determination to hold out against the occupational forces constitute the keynote of a fiery proclamation issued today by the national league of coal miners.

The proclamation declares that "neither the offer of cake nor the application of riding crops will ever succeed in making us the economic slaves of French militarism and imperialism; our unshaken resolve will go on quietly, but firmly, until France decides to abandon her policy of brutal political force."

Attempt by the French to haul coal stored at the pit heads will fail, the miners say. They add that they are determined to prevent France from obtaining any coal or coke and that "Polinaur will never attain his aims."

Aid for Russia in Recognition Called Illusion

Secretary of Commerce Hoover or Says Real Salvation Must Come from Within

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—It is a "hopeless illusion" that a flow of money or business toward Russia would follow recognition of the soviet government by the United States, Secretary of Commerce Hoover stated in a letter received today by C. V. Hibbard, associate general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. International committee.

Russia's real salvation must come from within Russia, Mr. Hoover declared. While the aid of responsible bodies will be required to perfect a comprehensive reconstruction program, he said, "all the charitable relief we hope to do is lift special groups from utter destitution up to the level of the general poverty and thus to prolong life for the future."

Mr. Hoover's letter was a reply to one from Mr. Hibbard requesting his views upon the relief outlook and the future requirements of Russia.

What Russia Needs. "What Russia needs," Mr. Hoover said, "is economic reconstruction; the restoration of peace; the restoration of agriculture; the restoration of industry; the restoration of machinery and animals. Her workmen need tools, her industries need raw materials, her factories need new machinery, her transportation needs repairs and equipment. If her large industry is to be restored, she needs skilled workmen and trained executives and the impulse of self-interest that is absent from nationalized industry."

Furthermore, for purposes of reconstruction, gigantic sums of capital and the professional personnel to direct reconstruction are needed. He pointed out that the question of restored productivity to large industry rests on other fundamentals, such as the security and the freedom of initiative, and the maintenance of progress through the institutions of Russia herself.

PRELATE SINKS LOWER

ST. LOUIS, March 22 (AP)—The condition of Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle was very serious tonight, according to an announcement by leading physicians. The prelate, who is head of the Episcopal church in America, was reported unconscious, having suffered a "sinking spell" this afternoon.

Radio Conference Delves into Conflicts in Ether

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Technical problems in connection with the attempt to re-allocate wave lengths in an effort to prevent hindrance and suit the interests of commercial, governmental broadcasting and amateur use of wireless telephony and telephony continued to keep the national radio conference in executive session today. The announcement of the conference conclusion, Secretary Hoover said, might come tomorrow, but the radio experts and government officials concerned intend to tackle an ambitious schedule of assigned wave lengths agreed upon. It is possible then that President Harding may be asked to issue an executive order which would compel applying their conclusions.

GULT'S LEADER IS ACCUSED BY GIRL DISCIPLE

Mrs. Hansell Says Head of the House of David Bribed Official to Avert Probe Into Alleged Immoral Conditions

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., (AP)—Declarations that the Ypsalite House of David bribed a prosecuting attorney in Berrien county to avert an investigation of alleged immoral conditions within the domain of the cult and that an appeal was once made to the governor of Michigan to prevent an inquiry by federal agencies, marked the climax today of the case of Esther Hansell in the suit for a financial accounting brought by her parents-at-law, who charge they were made victims of a fraud by the colony.

Mrs. Hansell brought her testimony to the witness stand today in a challenge to attorneys of the cult to bring into court girls she declared had been mistakenly "brought to Benjamin David Purnell. Girls of tender age, now in the colony, she declared, would bear out the sensational charges of immorality practiced under the guise of religious ceremonies.

Appeals to Governor. Intercession of Woodbridge N. Ferris, now United States senator-elect and then governor of Michigan, was sought by the cult in 1914, the witness declared when a federal inquiry threatened.

Mrs. Hansell, who was secretary to Purnell, went to Mr. Ferris' home at Big Rapids with Mary Purnell, wife of the cult leader, with a plea that the state institute an inquiry to forestall federal action.

They refused to file before the governor at the direction of Purnell who had already fled the colony and directed their efforts from his refuge in Canada, she testified.

Several days later Purnell returned to Benton Harbor and wrote a letter to Mr. Ferris asking what action he planned. The governor's reply or any other reply, she testified, was not known to the witness. At any rate, she said, no investigation was made by the federal or state governments.

SEE MOTIVE FOR MURDER OF GIRL

Investigator's Statement Supports Theory That Refusal to Blackmail Cost Life

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—The theory that Dorothy "King" Kennan was murdered because of her refusal to participate in a blackmail plot was given credence today by a friend of George P. Lobrun, secretary to Chief Medical Examiner Morris who was among the first to visit the model's home after her body was discovered eight days ago.

Mr. Lobrun said he found in the apartment a photograph of a man said by her mother to be a friend of Dorothy's, but with whom she had quarreled.

"The mother said that this man, who she called a Portuguese," said Lobrun, "had made a proposition to Dorothy, her daughter told her, to get some money out of Dorothy's friend. This friend, she said, was a good friend of her mother's and had been very kind to her. The maid called him 'the millionaire.'"

Lobrun said Mrs. Kennan told him Dorcas could not agree to this proposal and that Miss Kennan's older brother told him that "this Portuguese had maltreated his sister and he seemed very bitter against the man." Lobrun said the "model" was described by Mrs. Kennan, Lobrun said, and he declared she told him that the man had kissed her twice in the face a few days before the killing.

Flood Waters Impounded by Five-Mile Ice Gorge Hold Grave Danger to Sioux City

Inundation of Missouri River Island Bottom Lands Results in Known Death of One Person, with Several Others Reported Missing; Much Livestock Perishes

AIRPLANES DROP EXPLOSIVES IN AN UNAVAILING EFFORT TO BREAK JAM

SIoux CITY, Iowa, March 22 (AP)—One person is known to have been drowned, and according to unconfirmed reports, several others are missing, and hundreds of head of livestock drowned and scores of farm dwellings swept away as the result of a flood in the Missouri river bottoms south of here, caused by a five-mile ice gorge at Sioux City.

Airplanes late this evening bombed the gorge but without result. The bombs dropped from a height of 700 feet over craters 20 feet wide, but these filled with soft ice. Dynamite charges set off by crews working on the ice pack were also ineffective. Unless the ice gorge is broken by morning flood stages will be great at Sioux City, where the Missouri already rose ten feet tonight.

Of the reported drowned, one is known to be C. K. Johnson, a farmer, who lost his life when he returned to the island where the water began to rise, huddled close to the high points of the island, before the flood swept them away.

Smoldering bursting of the ice pack in the bend where the water began to rise, huddled close to the high points of the island, before the flood swept them away. Hundreds of head of livestock on the island where the water began to rise, huddled close to the high points of the island, before the flood swept them away.

Island Under Water. Brassfield Island, near Sergeant Bluffs, Iowa, from which one man was swept by the flood this morning, was completely inundated tonight. Hundreds of head of livestock on the island where the water began to rise, huddled close to the high points of the island, before the flood swept them away.

RENOUNCES MEMBERSHIP IN I. W. W. TO TAKE JOB

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 22 (AP)—Barney Brooks, local industrial workers of the world organizer, renounced his membership in the radical organization. This is said to be the first time in California an I. W. W. has pleaded guilty to such a charge, as members of the order steadfastly had refused to admit violation of the anti-syndicalism law.

Upon announcing that he would renounce membership in the Industrial Workers of the World and that he had work waiting for him, Judge C. O. Busic sentenced him to serve from one to 14 years in the state prison, but was granted probation for five years. Brooks took his belongings and went out to get his promised job.

LEWISTON MAN IS NAMED FOR PLACE IN CABINET

Mark A. Means is Selected by Governor to be Idaho Commissioner of Agriculture to Succeed Cannon.

BOISE, Idaho, March 22 (AP)—With the naming today of Mark A. Means to be commissioner of agriculture, Governor C. M. Moore made his first cabinet appointment since the adjournment of the Legislature and the second since beginning his administration. Mr. Means, a senator from Nez Perce county in the session just closed, will take office April 1, when Miles Cannon, incumbent for the past four years, will resign.

Women's Auxiliary to Ku Klux Klan is Ready to Function

ATLANTA, Ga., March 22 (AP)—The Kameka, a woman's order of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is ready to function "alongside of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan," according to a statement issued today through William J. Simons, former imperial wizard of the Klan, who has appointed himself emperor, or president of the organization.

TEN YEAR FIRE LOSS IN FORESTS FIVE MILLION. SAN FRANCISCO, March 22 (AP)—Fires in the National Forests of California destroyed more than 1,800,000 acres of timberland, valued at nearly $4,000,000, during the decade ending 1922, according to the United States Forest Service here. Most of the fires were man-caused.

HUNTED INDIANS OFFER TO SHOW WHITE FEATHER

Fugitive Piutes Send Word by Friendly Navajos to Pursuing Posses of Their Readiness to Surrender

SALT LAKE, March 22 (AP)—A report received at Moab from Blanding, states that Mike O'Hara's boy and two other Indians of the fugitives have sent a message by friendly Navajo Indians, offering to surrender if they have a guarantee that they will not be killed. It is said that the fugitives are located in the Dark Tank country, and that the posse is hard on the trail.

United States Marshal J. Ray Ward arrived at Blanding, the starting point of the Piute Indian outbreak, this afternoon, and immediately assumed control of the situation. Marshal Ward met the Indians as they arrived, since Washington has instructed him that direction of the affair rests solely within the hands of the Utah representative federal authority. That the first step will be to secure peace, and the second to effect a complete and thorough investigation of the entire matter.

Bedakids Surrounded. Marshal Ward arrived after an all-night and all-day automobile drive from Thompson via Monticello. He also had a number of conferences with local peace authorities and returned members of the posse, which have the renegade band surrounded in the rough country near from Blanding.

Surrender of the Indians will be sought without bloodshed if possible, but a quick surrender under any circumstances. The Indians have an opportunity for the past 48 hours to replenish either their stock of ammunition or of food, and it is not expected that they are successfully held out for many days even though they should decide to make a desperate stand in the face of the superior force of whites which now has them hemmed in.

AGED MAN TO BE TRIED ON CHARGES OF MURDER

Useful Conditions of Canyon County Jail Result in McElmann Being Taken to Boise to Await Trial Opening

BOISE, March 22 (AP)—Following his prolonged stay here before justice of the Peace T. B. Jones of Nampa in which he was bound over to the district court to stand trial on charges of first degree murder of Kenneth McCoy and was brought to Boise this evening by Sheriff O. Y. Mason of Canyon county, and placed in the Ada county jail to await the opening of his trial.

McElmann, who was charged with the murder of E. B. Shellabarger, crossing watchman of the Oregon-Idaho line, on March 4, was brought to Boise because of "unsatisfactory and unsafe" conditions of the Canyon county jail.

BOINKO SUSPECTS WAVE HEARING

Twenty Alleged Swindlers on Trial for $252,000 Fraud, Spring Surprise

DENVER, March 22 (AP)—The defense in the trial of twenty alleged members of a nation-wide confidence game ring sprang a surprise today in the district court here when it rested its case without introducing a witness.

Judge George F. Dunklee, presiding, announced he would read his instructions to the jury tomorrow. The case has been on trial nearly two months, and has had many appearances for the prosecution.

The defense suggested that the case be given to the jury without argument of counsel. The prosecution, however, refused to agree to the offer, and the court to accept it after having heard the judge's instructions. 13 Victims Lose $252,850. The defendants are charged in three counts with conspiracy to commit fraud through the operation of a confidence game, with general conspiracy of committing or attempting to commit crime through the operation of a confidence game, and larceny in connection with a confidence game. The state presented evidence to show that $252,850 had been lost by 13 victims who testified at the trial. It contended, in addition, that $200,000 had been lost by 12 other victims. The trial District Attorney Philip Van Cise conducted a wholesale raid here in August, 1922. The victims resided in many parts of the United States. A grand jury returned from $4,000 to $5,000, according to the testimony, Frank Donovan of Fort Worth, Texas, admitted the heaviest.

SURRENDER OF MURDERED MEN IS DESCRIBED

Survivor of Herrin Massacre, on Witness Stand, Tells of Agreement Under Which the Victims Left Mine

MARION, Ill., March 22 (AP)—The surrender under a flag of truce and a promise of safe conduct of 48 non-union workers of the mine of the Southern Illinois Coal company last June was described by Robert Officer, one of the survivors, today at the Herrin riots trial.

Over the objections of the defense and in the absence of the jury, Officer, University of Pennsylvania graduate, and now a resident of Greenville, Ky., testified that he had a telephone conversation with Colonel Sam Hunter, representative of the state adjutant general, the afternoon the pit was attacked.

"Hunter said W. J. Lester, owner of the mine, had called him up from Chicago and authorized him to tell us that the mine would be Officer said."

"He said he arranged a truce with the union officials and that Fox Hughes, vice president of the sub-district, had agreed to come over to the mine with a white flag."

Fire From Farm House. C. W. Middlekoff, assistant attorney general, who has directed the examination of the state's witnesses, agreed that the substance of this telephone conversation was improper and Judge Hartwell ordered it expunged from the record. The witness was permitted to state that a white flag was raised after the conversation.

Officer asserted that the first shots were fired into the mine this afternoon from two farm houses near that, after the white flag was raised, he saw an airplane overhead and heard explosions. He said that the next morning another white flag was raised, the men of this mine were told to turn their arms and come out, that they would not be harmed.

The witness testified that the prisoners were marched in a short distance when he heard a man he could not identify make a speech saying, "Kill all of them and wipe out the breed." Other witnesses have asserted that Otis Clark, one of the six defendants, made this speech.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

TOLEDO, March 22.—L. R. Steel of Buffalo, nationally known business man, died from natural causes on a New York Central train entering the union depot yards here early today, according to Coroner Charles J. Henseler, who conducted a post-mortem examination.

Death was caused by a ruptured blood vessel in the brain, Coroner Henseler found.

Mr. Steel's death came while he was en route to Chicago for a conference with Pittsburgh and Cleveland financiers in an effort to raise $1,000,000 which his associates said he believed would prevent his firm from going into receivership. His efforts to raise the money were futile, it was said, and giving up in despair, Mr. Steel started for Chicago to rest.

LUMBERMEN CLOSE MEET

National Association Embodying Merged Wholesale Bodies, Concludes Sessions at Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 22 (AP)—Seattle, Wash., was selected from the semi-annual meeting in September of the National American Wholesale Lumber association at the closing session today of the convention in which a merger of the two wholesale lumber dealers' associations was effected. The other meeting will be held in an eastern city, but the time and place was not fixed.

W. H. Chuechee of Pittsburgh, was elected president of the merged corporation.

What is Good Lens? A "good" lens in the photographic sense, is one which will give a perfectly clear distinct image, without flatteration, and without "false images," when it is used with a large stop, and over a wide angle. Before, therefore, we are in a position to say whether a lens is "good" or not, we must know at what aperture it will work, at what angle it includes. It is evident, therefore, that something more than a mere capacity to give sharp pictures is necessary.

TIME FAILS TO DESTROY CHARMS OF TWIN FALLS

W. G. Reed, Former Resident Here, His Possession of a Stumbling Block in Way of Future Development

That Twin Falls looks as good to him as ever it did, is the statement of W. G. Reed of Oakland, who for years was a resident of Twin Falls engaged in the contracting business, and who is spending a day or two here on business.

California cities, according to Mr. Reed, are all booming and there is no evidence of any immediate let down. The building trades, particularly, he says, are exceptionally active, yet the Twin Falls country carries a strong appeal and is frequently referred to in highly favorable terms by Californian people who are familiar with this section.

"Twin Falls ought to cheer up," says Mr. Reed. "The sand is still here and it is just as good land as it ever was. It will produce just as much to the acre as it ever did, and when it comes to actual production it is second to none. But the spirit is not what it used to be. Energy spent in complaining and talk used up in deploring conditions which cannot be helped amounts to waste and loss. He discourages prospective residents and sends visitors out with a bad impression. Twin Falls needs advertising but not of that kind."

Advertising of the right kind would be worth millions to Twin Falls just now. In fact it is the thing of which this section stands most in need."

Mr. Reed expects to be in Twin Falls for some time. He said he has extensive property interests here.

Idaho Product Sells as High as $3.60 in Chicago and it is Scare, Local Man Reports

Idaho potatoes selling for little or nothing here are bringing as high as $3.60 per hundred pounds in Chicago, where people are afraid for the Idaho product and cannot get it.

This is the statement of William Werner, who has just returned from a trip of three months throughout the middle west. Mr. Werner stated that middle western cities are undergoing an unprecedented prosperity and progress, and he reported this condition as being a westward and should be felt here shortly.

"People back there are looking for Idaho potatoes and apples, but they are unable to get them," said Mr. Werner. "Michigan, Wisconsin and even New York potatoes are being pushed, and widely advertised and as a result they are practically the only varieties to be bought here. They are priced at $2.25 to $2.75 a sack and are far under the Idaho spuds in quality."

Comparing Costs. "While in Chicago I took the trouble to inquire as to potato prices. I found that Idaho potatoes are selling at high as $3.60 to restaurants. These same potatoes, figuring according to present freight rates, which are 84 cents a sack, would cost about $2.25 to $2.50 a sack and a price of 60 cents to the growers here, could be put on the market at Chicago at a total cost of $1.50 a sack."

Mr. and Mrs. Werner went from Twin Falls to Joliet, Ill., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. L. Valentine, Mrs. Werner's sister.

"At Chicago we found conditions worse than at St. Louis," Mr. Werner said. "There is an enormous amount of building and wages are bigger than they were before the war or have been since. Carpenters are getting $1.25 to $2 an hour; brick masons get $2 an hour and painters and plasterers are being paid $20 a day."

Prosperity Reigns. "Milwaukee is prospering and business men there are satisfied and optimistic. In talking with Mrs. Valentine's son, who is a contractor at Minneapolis, he told me there was more work than could be done and that building records of seven years are being broken. This year will be the biggest ever in the building line for Minneapolis."

All of Illinois is flourishing and prosperous. Farmers have had very few losses, farm valuations have held up well and city property is firm. Bankers at various places in Illinois said the situation is entirely more plentiful. Small loans are bearing eight per cent interest and larger ones four per cent.

Dealer is building up very well, but conditions are not so good at Pueblo, and from Pueblo to Salt Lake they are not encouraging."

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

Drink Salty Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared, and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's surplus waste and stimulates them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 miles of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink bits of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system, so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help clean their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

SHORTS IGNORE TERMS OFFERED IN SETTLEMENT

Stock Exchange Postpones the Date for Delivery of Piggly Wiggly Shares and Scramble Continues

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—The ultimatum of Clarence Saunders, president of the Piggly Wiggly Stores, Inc., calling upon the trapped short interest in the class A stock, estimated at 25,000 shares, to settle with him at $150 a share before 3 p. m. today, or to pay $250 a share later, apparently was disregarded by the majority of the shorts. Although E. C. Bradford, Mr. Saunders' counsel, expressed satisfaction at the progress of the settlement, which is being handled through about a dozen houses, it was reported that the day's sales at Mr. Saunders' quoted price of $150 were exceedingly small.

The New York stock exchange, which suspended trading in the issue following its violent 52 point fluctuation Tuesday, today struck the stock from the list on the ground that there was such a concentration of holdings as to make impossible a free market for the stock. The exchange also postponed until 2:30 p. m. next Monday the date for the delivery on Tuesday's transactions, thus giving sellers of stocks coming from distant points time to obtain the same for purposes of delivery.

Shorts in Scramble.

Mr. Bradford announced that postponement of the delivery date would not affect Mr. Saunders' terms. New instructions and prices will be given to brokers tomorrow, he said, after he had an opportunity to consult by long distance telephone with Mr. Saunders, who is in Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Bradford, who is a director of the Piggly Wiggly company and a Washington attorney, spent most of the day in the brokerage offices of Watkins and Company, where he directed negotiations for the settlement.

Holds Stock in Vault.

Mr. Saunders' Piggly Wiggly stock was in the vaults of the National Bank of Commerce, the New York correspondent of the Union and Planters' Bank and Trust company of Memphis, where Mr. Saunders has his account. No stock would be released from that source, he said, except by his instructions.

The last annual report of Piggly Wiggly Stores, Inc., published here today, showed net profits of $653,953, equivalent to $3.26 a share on the 200,000 shares of no par value class "A" common stock outstanding.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, attacked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by moving the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—adv.

JUNIORS LOSE TO SOPHOMORES

Jamison Delivers Winning Run in Last of Seventh Bringing Victory by 5 to 4 Score

A single in the last of the seventh inning by Chet Jamison with the winning run on third gave the sophs a hard earned 5 to 4 victory over the juniors yesterday afternoon at Lincoln field, in the second of the class games.

The game differed from the freshman-senior game of Wednesday, in that the two teams were more closely matched, the sophs being guided by "Moone" Garry, and the juniors listened to Lester Jenkins for advice.

Garry started out as a catcher, taking care of Martin's slants, and did fine work behind the bat, although the Moose failed to do anything with the wicket.

In the fifth inning Garry took the mask off and went in to pitch, and then the fun started. Throwing with bullet-like speed, the Moose had the juniors completely baffled, but he forgot to take into consideration that his catcher, one Robertson, couldn't see them either. After Garry had fanned the first two men, and both were camping, he pitched a bouncer missing of the third strike by Robertson, he gave that young hopeful the gate, and called for Russell Denoyer.

Russell fearing the wrath of the fearful Moose, missed the first few balls that were thrown, but after a few minutes got his bearings and did good work. During this inning the juniors made two runs without the least signs of a hit, not even a walk.

In this inning Garry fanned five men before the side was retired, but two errors being responsible for the damage done.

Jamison Proves Outlier

Aside from the fact that it became known that Garry can get excited, and that he will get mad if things don't go right, the feature of the game was the batting of Chet Jamison. On the first ball pitched to him in the first inning with Hammond on first by virtue of an error, Chet sent the ball sailing over the right field fence. Then in the seventh inning when a hit meant the game the hard hitting Jamison sent a hot single to left, winning the game for his teammates.

Sheehan in left field for the juniors made a dandy running catch of Jamison's long fly that won him a round of applause.

The juniors sent two runs across in the initial frame when Crom walked, went to third on two passed balls, and scored when Leiser singled to left. Leiser scored a minute later on a battery error after arriving at third on an error by Day.

Their last two markers came in the fateful fifth, when Garry took the mound.

The sophs made their third run in the fourth inning when McCormick

Alvord and Mott Bowlers Defeat Wright's Store Team in Tournament Game

Alvord and Mott, tall enders, finally took the odd game at the Twin Falls bowling alleys when they walloped the Wright's store team in the first two games and then lost the last one by 80 pins.

Although they won two games, the Alvord & Mott team did not break any records for total pins as they won the first one with 772 to 738 for the store men, and in the second game they took a game with 702, the lowest score to win a game since the tournament started. In this game, the Wright's store men bowled the lowest league game on record, stopping at 673. In the first game Art Finko and Hank Brueggemann tied for high honors with 109 each, while in the second Archie Anderson got away with the score on 103.

The last game showed the Wright's store men real cool and they proceeded to bust a few. Their total in this game was 847, with the grocery boys making 707. Charley Hill had high in the last stanza with 209, which also went for high for the evening.

LAWYERS HOLD BANKERS TO TIE GAME ON ALLEYS

Count of Total Pins Shows Honors Evenly Divided with 1431 for Each Contender

Harry Benoit's quintet of trained bowlers trained the Bank and Trust pin pushers Thursday afternoon at the Twin Falls bowling alleys when his hard working five held the Bankers to a 1431 tie.

Funny things happen in a bowling contest, but when two teams smash at pins through two games and then end in a tie, one naturally must think of that beautiful ditty, "Love's Labor Lost."

The first game showed the bankers with a lead of 27 pins, the final reading in the opener being 741 to 714. Harry Benoit worried the pinpushers with 100 which gave him the high game.

In the second game the money clinkers skidded to 690, while the appeal artists smacked up to 717. Captain Porter sailed 'em down the alley for a score of 182 in this game, which went for high for the two games.

UNDILUTED CLASS.
 The lawyers did the best they could, and now another series must be played to see whether they did or did not.

Ort Chapman fell to 102 in the second game, but didn't seem to mind, as he hit 125 in the first.

Guy Ryan totalled 277 for the two games, but in hopes that they will name a cigar after him.

O. W. Witham gave the bankers a chance in the first game, but when they didn't take advantage of it, he tore loose in the second and rolled 142.

Patrick, enjoyed the entertainment, and proved it by rolling 118 in the second game.

Captain Porter started with 125, but in the second he sizzled "on down the alley for 182. It takes mighty good arguing to beat that kind of bowling.

Wilton Peck didn't do as badly as the fellow that could't average 100, as he made 142 in the first and then ended a glorious day with 123.

Harry Benoit gave the bankers a thrill when he rolled 100 in the first.

VANDALS' NINE BARIN' TO GO

Ten Men Back From Last Year Squad Augmented by Promising Bunch of Youngsters

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, March 22.—With 10 men back from last year's squad and with a promising bunch of youngsters available from the last freshman crew, Idaho's baseball chances look mighty promising—no good, in fact, that the Vandal mentors are planning to continue for a second year only a spring training camp at Lewiston. This will come at the time of spring vacation, the first week in April.

During that period the Vandal squad members will drop down to a lower altitude and go through their paces just as the big leaguers do in their spring training camps. Washington State college has its spring vacation at the same time and there is a possibility that the Cougars will also move to Lewiston, which will provide sufficient practice games for both teams. The Lewiston boosters are strong for having the college nine with them for a few days and are helping in every way they can. Lewiston is to be seen in the under way a little early in order to take advantage of the competition available by the presence of the Vandal and Cougar squads.

Idaho's nine made a real showing in the coast conference last year. It seems evident, however, that other schools likewise have veteran teams, so competition may be keen in basketball as it was in the basketball season just closed.

The pitching staff is exceptionally strong, having been bolstered by the addition of Bob Fitzke, whose hurling last spring led the fresh into many a victory. The great amount of material available will make competition for positions for both teams. A check-up of material indicates that Idaho may count on a position near the top of the foot of the percentage column. Veterans on the squad are "Bugs" Snow, "Lefty" Marlene and Les Eddy, pitchers; Frank Kinnison, catcher; Guy Wicks, second; "Skip" Bitters, shortstop; Harry Edwards, third; Alex Fox, first; Cobley and Eugene Osterander, outfield.

Idaho will play 22 games, with 12 of them on the home diamond. The schedule is quite attractive, and like the basketball outfit, starts off with a coast trip. The season follows: April 25-26—O. A. C. at Corvallis. April 27-28—Washington at Seattle. April 29-30—O. A. C. at Moscow. May 1-10—Whitman at Moscow. May 11—W. S. C. at Pullman. May 12—W. S. C. at Moscow. May 14-15—Berkeley at Moscow. May 25-26—Oregon at Moscow. May 28-29—Washington at Moscow. June 1—W. S. C. at Pullman. June 2-3—W. S. C. at Moscow. June 4-5—Whitman at Walla Walla.

"PAPERHANGING" GAINS

Investigator's Records Show Forty Per Cent Increase in Year in Fraudulent Check Passing in California

OAKLAND, Cal., March 22, (AP)—Fraudulent check passers increased forty per cent in California in 1922 compared with the previous year, according to Hart Schrader, Jr., handwriting expert of the state bureau of criminal investigation, who recently prepared statistics for August Vollmer, chief of police of Berkeley, who lectured to the University of California students on criminology.

One California city, however, because it typifies other municipalities in the state, is supporting forgers, bad check passers and other members of the "paperhanging" profession at the rate of $8,000 a day, the statement showed. From January 1 to April 1, 1922, the city used as an illustration rewarded the criminals to the extent of $75,000, Schrader said. Mr. Schrader's report stated: "Even children are becoming proficient, for only recently nine juveniles, ranging from twelve to sixteen years of age, were arrested in one locality for flooding the town with fictitious checks written by themselves and signed 'Mr. Brown' or 'Mr. Smith' (even the initials being omitted), and the merchants readily took these checks in payment for candy, flashlights, etc." "Worthless checks are cashed in the larger cities more readily than in the rural communities," Mr. Schrader's statement showed.

HOLSTEINS MAKE NEW PRODUCTION RECORDS

Leaders in Classes of Different Ages in 1922 Make Average of 29,055 Pounds of Milk, 1,350 Butterfat

CHICAGO, March 21 (AP)—The 1922 leaders in the seven classes of different ages of pure bred Holstein cows produced an average of 29,055 pounds of milk and 1,350 pounds of butter in one year. In the fall age and senior four-year classes previous records were broken, according to a report of the national headquarters of the Holstein-Friesian association.

During the year 18,000 cows were tested for production and since the establishment of the official test 55,000 cows have passed the production required for their age, the report stated. All tests are supervised by state colleges of agriculture. Last year 113,772 Holsteins were registered with the association.

In the fall age class, May Walker Olio Homestead, owned by the Minnesota Holstein company at Auslin, displaced Duchess Skylark Ormsby, a Washington state cow, with a production of 31,810 pounds of milk, and 1,523 pounds of butter. Graahmholm Colantha Pauline Segis, a Minnesota cow, displaced another Minnesota cow in the senior four-year class with a record of 34,281 pounds of milk and 1,428 pounds of butter.

In the junior four-year class, Mamsell Johana, owned by C. L. Johnson, Warren, Minnesota, stood highest for the year with a record of 31,515 pounds of milk and 3,117 pounds of butter. Countess Matilda Segis, the senior three-year champion from Washington, produced 25,817 pounds milk and 1,153 pounds butter. Junior three-year champion, Princess Alinda Vereman, owned by Earl Graham of Compton, California, produced 29,623 pounds milk, and 1,154 pounds butter. Colony Grobegen Valloesa, senior two-year champion, produced 28,371 pounds milk and 1,005 pounds butter. She is owned by Colony farm, Essendale, B. C. In the junior two-year class, Daisy Argie Ormsby, owned by John Erickson of Waupun, Wisconsin, led with a record for the year. She produced 22,851 pounds milk and 1,085 pounds butter.

PINEVILLE, Ky., March 22 (AP)—Reports from Lexington today that Henry Ford had purchased a large coal and timber holdings of the E. S. Peabody syndicate of Chicago, were accepted by coal and timber operators here as confirmation of recent persistent rumors that such a deal was pending.

TOWARD GREATER PROSPERITY: Analysis of the American Railway Association's report of car loadings for the week which ended March 3 shows that the increase recorded is along lines that surely and directly lead to greater prosperity.

In large part this gain is to be credited to shipments of merchandise and miscellaneous freights, which includes manufactured products.

The report shows not only that productive industry is increasingly active, but that distribution throughout the country is increasing.

When I was a youngster I always envied my playmates because they could whistle through their fingers.

Because Americans are accustomed to capturing the lion's share of the prizes there have been reports that foreigners on the committee for the next Olympic games are planning to handicap Uncle Sam's athletes by placing on the program more events in which they are not proficient and reducing the number in which they particularly excel.

A list of the world's records in some 90 events shows that Americans hold 37 and Britons 28. Denmark and Finland athletes hold seven each.

It is generally admitted that American training methods are more strenuous than those of any other nation.

ing world records. But Americans seem to have shown that they can win and be "good sports" as well.

PROFAGANDA: The New York Times recently expressed the average man's reaction to the news as colored by the paper he reads.

Brooklines there the man with soul so dead who has become a machine.

"It must be admitted that editors invite some of this criticism by the very nature of their job which requires them to make comments on the short-comings of public men.

"A more temperate and friendly critic than most, and one who knows the kind of business of magazine and book publishing at first hand, Mr. Herbert S. Houston, complained that the very volume of news from all the world's affairs is making it impossible to get a good deal of news, the point is so far as there was one, seems to have been that there was too much interpretation.

"The truth is that most readers, and certainly most readers of the class which is so free with criticism, have only one criterion for the accuracy of news, comment or interpretation. If it agrees with the reader's previous opinion, it is true; if it conflicts with that opinion, it is a piece of lying propaganda, comment or interpretation.

When I was a youngster I always envied my playmates because they could whistle through their fingers.

Because Americans are accustomed to capturing the lion's share of the prizes there have been reports that foreigners on the committee for the next Olympic games are planning to handicap Uncle Sam's athletes by placing on the program more events in which they are not proficient and reducing the number in which they particularly excel.

depth of the unalloyed which she had unwittingly stirred. Her own grief was swallowed up in the grief of another.

"I'm sorry I went to pieces so," she apologized. "I don't know why I was pressed down on my feelings; but if I take it off the least bit, they roll up as furious as ever. You mustn't think I'm complaining. I did for a spell, but I learned better."

"Sit down," begged Mrs. Sanders. "I want to tell you how I hate myself for being so selfish. I wouldn't have hurt you for the world. But I never dreamed—you're always so cheerful!"

"I'm cheerful, yes," acknowledged Mrs. Penfield sadly. "but once I was happy. I tell you what, Mrs. Sanders, you can be suspicious of the fellow that's cheerful. He's been through something. Happiness is a thing that bubbles up naturally before you've had much experience, but cheerfulness is a thing you've reasoned out and stand by 'cause you believe it's right. There's a kind of happiness that never comes back, once it's gone."

They sat in silence for a moment, in closer communion than words had ever brought them.

"I know now," said Mrs. Sanders gently, "why you took those children."

An irradiated expression came into Mrs. Penfield's face. "Yes, you know now. I didn't do it at first. I got a position as housekeeper in a wealthy family. But I couldn't be satisfied, just supporting myself. I had to make a home again—and for somebody that didn't have one. Way it is, when you lose them that's dear to you, it kind of opens your heart wider, and you get more love for more folks—stand or less. When I had children of my own, I thought 'bout them; but when I—I lost 'em, I began to think 'bout all the children, every-where—spec'ly the ones that was handicapped and forlorn and didn't have a chance to grow up true to the souls that the Lord gave 'em. I came to see that I'd got to make a home for some of 'em, so I gave up my position and hunted up Crink, and then Thad. I can't earn so much money this way and it costs more to live, but I feel

The hysterical frenzy had died out of Mrs. Sanders' expression. She looked as if she had laid hold of peace and poise. She took Mrs. Penfield's hand in both her own.

"You will always be my friend," she said simply. "You've made me see how wrong I been going—letting my feelings collect inside of me till they fermented. Only way to keep 'em sweet is to let 'em out—work 'em off for somebody else. I'm going to try—and whenever I feel—that way again, I'll think 'bout how much more unhappy you are—"

"Yes," breathed Mrs. Sanders, "that's—that's all."

Where Fil Caesar Led.

Several weeks had passed, and the pink sweater had not been worn. It was sometimes looked at, reposing in a paper wrapper in the cleanest apple box—Monday morning with high hope, Saturday night with black despair.

One fateful day, when she was going through five days of behavior that might have been recorded with a gold pen on a pearl page—and then, presto! Humanity! Impst. Catechism! One—her impulsive feet had trod the narrow way up to and including Saturday noon. The goal was in sight, Miss Lettie staged a

Through the instrumentality of Lettie, Mrs. Penfield was confronted by difficulty. Erastus was no part of her policy; neither would it have withstood the unerring instinct before her. Playing for time, she replaced the cover on the safe and snatched her keys. "Why, Lettie, evidently you got the wrong idea 'bout feelings. You can't divide the world into folks that you like and folks that you don't. They're all the time hopping back and forth over the line, from bad to good, and from good to bad. Why 'tis with me, I like 'most everybody I know."

"And what do you do with the others?" persisted Lettie morosely. "Why, I—I don't do nothing 't all. I'm willing they should live, 'cause I expect the Lord knows what he made 'em for, even if I can't see it. They Opposed to all rules was Mrs. Penfield's attitude of neutrality, as of a detached onlooker. "You're too easy," said Mrs. Wopple. "You'll be sorry when it's too late," declared Mrs. Catterbox. But Mrs. Penfield only smiled at them gently, with a far-off position in her eyes which they resented, because it showed that their carefully pointed criticism had failed of its aim.

"I'd punish her if she'd give me a chance," she admitted, "but when she does it herself, I can't—'thout heaping it up double. Besides, if a fellow's conscience has stirred up a fight in his own soul, anybody that takes a hand from the outside is only putting himself on record as a meddling. So the fight was Lettie and the fact that she had hovered in suspension, occasionally glumped, but elusive and inclined to fly high. Ironically enough, the greatest obstacle in her path of virtue was Mr. Wopple. He acted as a reagent, drawing out and precipitating all the worst in her nature.

By a curious instinct, they were both conscious of a fundamental antagonism, complicated on Mr. Wopple's side by the irresistible desire to start something. Turned loose in a menagerie, he would have entertained himself by thrusting sticks between the bars of cages, that he might gloat over the torture of animals deprived of the power to give him the retaliation he deserved. He was naturally a hunter of beasts; and in Lettie he found a most satisfactory subject for his ingenuity.

"I hate him," declared Lettie, stamping her foot. "I hate him!" She ceased her careful driftwood down on the accumulation in the corner and straightened up with a jerk, her black eyes flashing.

Mrs. Penfield, sitting the stew for lunch, smiled at her composure. "That's one thing you got to get over, Lettie."

The child stood still in the middle of the kitchen and considered this possibility. "I'll never get over it," she said slowly. "It's in me to stay."

"Oh, no, it isn't," contradicted Mrs. Penfield mildly. "By and by your nature'll get whittened out more, and all the hate'll drain off naturally. The only place that hate can live in is a small dark hole where the sunshine of good nature never can get at it. You'd be wiser, Lettie, to know how easy 'tis to scare hate out of your system. Why, if you so much as let a smile creep near it—"

Lettie came nearer; her eyes shone. "Say, Penzie, honest, do you like Mr. Wopple?"

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO, March 22 (AP)—Although foreign buying of futures contracts helped give a moderate lift to wheat prices today, the effect failed to lift prices on the face of local selling here against buying at Winnipeg. The Chicago market was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-4c lower, with May $1.21 7-8 to 1.22 and July $1.16 1/2 to 1.17 1/2. Corn finished in shade lower, 1 1/2c up, but at a shade decline to a like advance, and provisions down 10 to 17c.

After starting at a transient downturn in sympathy with lower quotations at Liverpool, the wheat market here advanced soon with offerings readily absorbed and buyers outstunning seller demand for wheat available to be shipped at once appeared, however, to lack volume as compared with yesterday, and bulls were at a further disadvantage owing to a fact that a little moisture had been received in the dry section of Kansas. Then came expanding operations between here and Winnipeg, leaving a heavy surplus of wheat downward in the final half hour.

Sales of 200,000 bushels of wheat to be put into storage here contributed in some degree to a decline in the market at the finish. In addition, announcement was made that all of the wheat in the Chicago harbor, 300,000 bushels, had been ordered to be shipped to the coast, thus increasing the amount of breadstuffs ready for delivery on May contracts. Continued liberal shipments from Argentina was the chief element given for weakness at Liverpool.

Confined within narrow limits, corn and oats reflected the action of wheat, and ending in the same way. The market commanded prices equalling the highest record this season.

Provisions were lower in line with hog values.

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Speculative apprehension over the possibility of a virtual 5 to 12 per cent rise in the money rate and the marking up of the call money rate to 6 per cent after a recent rate of 5, called attention to the increasing stringency of the money situation, which was also reflected in a further depreciation of bond values.
Although brokers had been bidding 5-1/4 to 5-1/2 per cent for 15 to 20 per cent for time money for some time, few large loans at the higher rate had been made prior to today, when several such transactions were reported.
Independent strength was shown by several issues in the oil, rubber, sugar and motor accessories groups. Marland Oil was heavily bought on the announcement that the company had closed a contract with the Standard Oil company of New Jersey whereby one of the latter's subsidiaries will purchase between $30,000,000 and $25,000,000 of the surplus crude oil and gasoline of

The Pneumonia Month

March is a typical pneumonia month, and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention it is much less liable to pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and spreads in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ-laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

SUCCESS MARKS FINAL PROGRAM

Clever Stunts and Attractions Again Hold Interest at Closing of Merchant Show

With principals encouraged by the support given at the first showing and with another capacity audience present, the second presentation was given by the Twentieth Century club Thursday night at the Idaho theater, making a further achievement of the community spiritedness of those who have planned and carried out the program.

The program was again opened by the Dutch song led by Mrs. W. H. Dwight, assisted by Mrs. E. G. Starvoan, Miss Flora Both, Miss Doris Both, Mrs. F. T. Kollig, Mrs. Manrique, Miss Faith Salice, Miss Lucille Wolfe and Mrs. N. J. Koefor. The other numbers were presented according to schedule and the exhibition show closed the program.

Members of the Twentieth Century club received numerous expressions of praise and congratulations for their efforts and had the honor of persons who attended the two programs left with the conviction that Twin Falls merchants are up-to-date in every respect. The committee of organizers is charged with the duty of making the program a success in the future.

Proceeds from the carnival will be devoted to the general fund of the Twentieth Century club to further the aims of the organization. The assistance will be given by the Boy Scout financial drive and the district loan scholarship plan as the two projects of importance remaining on the calendar of the club for the present season.

MILLER DECLINES POST IN GOVERNOR'S CABINET

Farm Work Stands in Way of Acceptance by Castledford Man of Appointment as Commissioner

BOISE, March 22.—(Special to The News.)—Carl J. Miller of Castledford has been tendered the position of state commissioner of agriculture by Governor Moore.

Carl J. Miller, in Twin Falls Thursday, stated that he had been tendered the position of commissioner of agriculture, but that he had declined the appointment.

"I appreciate the honor of this appointment," said Mr. Miller, "but my farming interests are such that I am compelled to decline the position, a fact which I regret. I have always felt that the position carried with it a splendid opportunity for real service to the farmers, and in the hands of the right man could be made of the highest value to the agricultural interests of the state. The previous incumbent apparently saw fit to use the office as a means of furthering his political aspirations rather than as a means of service to the people and the result has been unfortunate for everybody concerned."

She explained that while she was on the road, as a House of David missionary, Turner instructed her to wear girls' clothing, and that while she was acting as his secretary, she dressed to appear older than she really was. She had disguised herself so often and had been so confused by the "new creation" calendar originated by Pynell, she said, that she lost count of the years.

Must Plant Seed Free from Weeds

Value of High Testing Stock for Planting Urged by C. B. Ahlson; Offer Free Analysis

Although tests of small seeds may show them to be 99.5 per cent pure, the remaining .5 per cent may contain enough weed seed to jeopardize an entire crop, according to C. B. Ahlson, state seed commissioner with the extension department. Mr. Ahlson returns to Boise Friday or Saturday after having been in contact with farmers and seed dealers here for the past two days urging better quality of seeds for planting.

"Use of certified seed is the best insurance against spreading weeds," stated Mr. Ahlson. "I have found that dealers here as a rule have been careful in offering seed for planting. Growers buying their seed from other farmers, however, are taking a risk on the success of their crops and they should be absolutely sure as to quality. Growers should find it to their advantage to send a sample of the seed they intend to plant to the laboratory of the state university. Half a cupful will be sufficient, and just at this time returns can be made on tests within four or five days."

Good testing 99.5 per cent pure may contain enough weed seed to result in the growth of about 300 weeds per acre on a basis of 10 pounds of seed to the acre, Mr. Ahlson said.

MEYER FOUND NOT GUILTY

Case on Trial for Two Days Culminates in Verdict for Defendant on Grand Larceny Charge

Verdict of not guilty was returned at 8:45 o'clock Thursday night in the trial of Irvin W. Meyer in district court on a charge of grand larceny for the theft of about 300 pounds of a mortgage automobile. The case was given to the jury about 5 o'clock.

The case has been on trial for the past two days. Meyer is alleged to have had a battery, windshield and several parts and accessories of the automobile. Frank Mayer, who is accused of connection with the alleged theft, was also on trial next week on a charge of receiving stolen property.

On account of his participation in the foreclosure of the mortgage on the property of J. C. Taylor, prosecuting attorney, was disqualified as prosecutor and Frank L. Stephens was appointed to try the case for the state. Meyer was represented by Turner K. Huckleman.
