20 MEN IN BUNKO RING CONVICTED

Jury Ends Long Deliberations with Verdict of Guilty of Conspiring to Mulct Denver Tourists Out of Big Sums

—DENVER, March 23 (AP)—Convicted late today after a record-breaking jury session of four days and five nights, of conspiring to mulct scores of Denver tourists out of hundreds of thousands of dollars, 20 alleged confidence men are facing penitentiary sentences of from one to ten years on three counts each of the indictment.

In addition, three of their number and a deputy sheriff are under indictment by a grand jury for alleged violation of the prohibition law since a grand jury probe had unmasked the rascals from alleged attempts to influence the jurors at four members of the jury to opt out before that body tomorrow morning.

Stolen and unmoved, the 20 members of an alleged nation-wide confidence ring late this afternoon heard the verdict of "guilty" pronounced by the jury which for 103 hours has weighed their fate in the secrecy of the jury room. Only the historical outbursts of three of the men found guilty shattered the tense silence of the court room, where for ten weeks the defendants have been on trial, as the verdict was read.

Recommends Leniency.

The harshness of the blanket verdict was mitigated somewhat by a recommendation for leniency for all of the defendants by the jurors, and especially for those of the men found guilty.

Subpoenas summoning them to appear before the county grand jury tomorrow morning were served on four of the jurors before they left the court room. They had given their verdict and were discharged late this afternoon. One of the four, George Sharp, started the court, attorneys and spectators when he declared that his vote had been "in the room" and that he had been ill in the jury room since Saturday night.

As the defense attorneys lodged an objection to the finding on the fourth question was repeated several times and Sharp finally declared he was unqualified for conviction.

Jury Tampering Feared.

Extreme care had been used in guarding the jury in the case throughout the entire course of the trial and repeated intimations of attempts to "influence" the jurors had been made.

Mysterious cars appearing in a window of the jury room attracted wide attention yesterday, and an investigation ensued which revealed that they were a builder's sign on the windows. Today it was announced that one of the jurors had been threatened with death in an anonymous communication.

The request of defense attorneys, the court granted 20 days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

Judge Danklebe ruled the jurors for their long and arduous service" during the trial and discharged them.

The convicted men were: John Allison, Lou Blonger, Thomas Beech, George Belcher, Walter Byland, S. Cooper, Robert B. Davis, William Dougherty, A. W. Duff, J. H. Foster, J. H. French, Jack Hardaway, Louis Muslerke, Steve Olson, A. J. Poirer, L. J. Street, George Walker, George Williams, alias Grove Sullivan; G. H. Williams, C. C. Bailey.

Predictions were made in official circles tonight that the trial jury probe might bring results more sensational than the trial itself, which has lasted 10 weeks. It was the longest criminal hearing ever conducted in Denver. The jury deliberated all previous records for time consumed in considering a verdict having deliberated since last Saturday morning.

Oregon Has Three Ideas on Proposed Railway Groupings

Opinions Stress Lack of Rail Development and Show Fear of a Curb on Competitive Building Operations

—PORTLAND, March 23 (AP)—Oregon's case in regard to proposed grouping of western railroads was presented before members and examiners of the interstate commerce commission here today in less than two hours.

Three opinions on railroad merging were presented. These were by H. H. Corey, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, who presented a statement reflecting the opinion of that organization, another by H. J. Ottenheimers, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, who submitted a declaration authorized by the directors of that body, and by S. M. Mears, chairman of the Portland Traffic and Transportation association. The latter opinion opposed western rail groupings generally at this time.

All three findings stressed lack of rail development in the state. All stressed the fear that groupings of interests and systems by roads serving the northwest would mean the end of competitive building to the manifest detriment of Oregon's future.

Heiress to Fortune Becomes Bride of Newspaper Artist

Quiet Wedding Fulfills Wish of Girl Who Will Inherit Gates' Millions

—PASADENA, Cal., March 23 (AP)—The wish of Miss Dolora Angell, heiress to the $40,000,000 fortune of John W. Gates, for a quiet wedding was fulfilled at noon today when she was married to Lester Norris, newspaper cartoonist of St. Charles, Ills.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Norris left on a motor trip through California. They said they were "very happy" over the culmination of their romance which was begun in their childhood days in Illinois.

FIRE OVERRUNS COAST RESORT

Flames Borne on High Wind, Sweep Nantasket Beach Causing $750,000 Damage

—HULL, Mass., March 20, (AP)—Fire which laid waste much of Nantasket beach last night was brought under control at 1:15 a. m. today. Paramount park, New England's largest seashore amusement center, was almost entirely overrun by the flames and about 75 houses and cottages were destroyed. All the hotels and the new town hall were saved. The loss was estimated at about $750,000.

At midnight the flames were spreading against a wind that reached a velocity of 60 miles, and the Atlantic house, principal hotel of the resort, was threatened.

The water supply obtained through a pumping station at Hingham was inadequate. Firemen stood idly by unable to do anything to stop the flames. Dynamite was sent for in an attempt to stop them by blowing up buildings in their path. Houses on six streets were burned or burning at midnight.

ANTI-KLAN CANDIDATE WINS

—NEW ORLEANS, March 23, (AP)—On the face of a virtually complete unofficial return, from yesterday's primary in 10 parishes comprising the fifth supreme court district, to choose a candidate to fill the vacancy on the supreme bench, Judge J. F. Brunot, of Baton Rouge, anti-Klan Klan candidate, received a majority of 575 votes over his two opponents, Judges Columbus Reid, and Robert S. Ellis, both of Amite, supported by the Klan.

ADMITS USE OF FORCE IS COUNSELLED

Expert Witness on Communism and Co-Defendant with W. Z. Foster, Reveals Reds' Revolutionary Methods

—ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 23 (AP)—Charles E. Ruthenberg, co-defendant with Wm. Z. Foster, charged with advocating communism, syndicalism, and witness for Foster in his trial, admitted on the witness stand, after first denying it, that he had written an article saying that workers must adopt "extra parliamentary means" including use of armed force to overthrow the government of the United States.

Ruthenberg's fourth day on the stand was marked by a grueling examination by O. L. Smith, assistant attorney general of Michigan who attacked the witness's qualifications as an expert on communism.

Mr. Smith produced a copy of the October 1921, Communist, secret or underground existence, and asked Ruthenberg if an article signed "Dan"—his party alias—had not been written by him. The witness acknowledged the authorship.

Bares War Record

Mr. Smith brought out that Ruthenberg had served ten months in an Ohio prison for obstructing the war and had tried unsuccessfully to get the witness to admit that the communist leaders say in their speeches and writings that any counter revolutionary efforts should be rigidly suppressed.

Mr. Smith questioned the witness about an article in the Communist after the convention last year was raised in which plans for the general labor defense counsel were outlined. This is the organization which is raising the money for the defense of Foster and the others arrested with him.

Woman Radical in Court

Mrs. Frank Lilly, of Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the defense counsel, was in court today. Mrs. Lilly is a sister of Charles R. Crane, former ambassador to China, and inherited a large share of the fortune amassed by her father, known as the iron master. Ruthenberg was still on the stand at adjournment tonight.

Fordney Says Existing Tariff Has Nothing to Do With Present High Price of Sugar

—TACOMA, March 23 (AP)—Existing tariffs on sugar have nothing whatever to do with the present high price of that commodity, Joseph W. Fordney, former Michigan congressman and co-author of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law, declared here today.

"The tariff commission which the president has directed to make an inquiry into the sugar situation will find that the present tariff of 1.75 cents per pound upon Cuban raw and 2.25 cents on other imported sugar cannot possibly justify the increase of seven cents a pound which has marked the advance of the sugar market in the last few weeks," Mr. Fordney said.

HOOPER PREDICTS RESULTS.

—WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Outstanding developments here today in the sugar situation were the announcement by the tariff commission that, in compliance with instructions from President Hoover, it will find that the real reason for the advance lies in the fact that a group of New York, or other eastern bankers, advanced $4 cents a pound on 1,500,000 tons of Cuban sugar, that they have gotten control of the now crop and are now manipulating the price so that the consumer, paying the higher prices now quoted, can save them from going on the rocks.

PACKER MERGER IS COMPLETED

Armour Promises Co-operation with Government if Consolidation is Tested in Court

—CHICAGO, March 23, (AP)—The acquisition of the Morris and Company, packing interests by Armour and Co., through a subsidiary, has been completed, according to an announcement tonight by J. Ogden Armour, chairman of the board of Armour and Co. The North American Provision Co., subsidiary of Armour and Co., of Delaware, was named as the firm acquiring Morris and Company's business.

Regarding the protest against the purchase made by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Mr. Armour's statement declared that "if this results in a federal action and if the government will gladly co-operate with the government in securing the presentation of all information and data necessary to a proper and final adjudication."

"Our constant desire to follow the business judgment and sound common sense, indorses the wisdom of the purchase of the Morris assets, and eminent counsel have given assurance of the legality of the transaction. Attention was called to a report to congress by Secretary Wallace to the effect that the combined Armour and Morris business would total only about 15 per cent of the total in meat foods and only about 23 per cent of the business done by packers under federal supervision. Secretary Wallace had admitted, the statement said, that the purchase was not in violation of the packer and stockyards act.

The North American Provision company will be capitalized at $10,000,000 of seven per cent cumulative preferred stock and $30,000,000 of common stock.

Prussian Vineyards Fall into Hands of French Authorities

German Town is Isolated by Troops as Result of Failure to Name the Assailants of a Wounded Officer

—DUESSELDORF, March 23 (AP)—The French authorities today began taking over the Prussian state-owned vineyards along the Moselle river, according to the Deutsche Rheinische Volkszeitung. The paper says the seizure includes vineyards, buildings, wine cellars and bottled wines.

There are thousands of acres of vineyards owned by the government along the Moselle where it runs into the Rhine.

The town of Mottmarn, near Elberfeld, was surrounded today by French troops and tanks. The French government demanded that the Mottmarn officials give the names of the Germans responsible for the shooting and wounding of a French major in the foot several days ago.

Traffic to Mottmarn has been entirely cut off. The main street runs between Duesseeldorf and Elberfeld are stopped at the station. The Mottmarn officials are obliged to give names of those

RESERVE BOARD CALLS HALT ON WHISPERED TALE

Inquiry Fails to Reveal Source of Reports of Possible Increase in the Re-Discount Rates

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Efforts of the Federal reserve board and the governors of the twelve reserve banks, in conference here, to discover the sources of rumors concerning possible increases in the re-discount rate by the reserve banks brought nothing tangible today. There was not a single reply to the board's telegram, sent to more than one hundred inquirers yesterday, asking where they learned of contemplated action by the board or the governor's conference.

The telegrams of the board had the effect, however, of putting a sudden stop to the flood of messages which it was receiving, each of which sought information whether anything in the nature of or tending to a re-discount rate increase would result from the conference of the governors.

Reserve board officials reiterated today that none of the twelve banks had made application for permission to raise their re-discount rates. The board's approval must be had before such rate changes are made and it was stated that the subject of rates had entered only casually into the governors' discussions.

BRINGS SETTLEMENT OF ARMY EXPENSES NEARER

American Spokesman Holds Conference with Allied Representatives of Reimbursement Claims

PARIS, March 23 (AP)—The question of the reimbursement of the United States government for the cost of the maintenance of the American army on the Rhine was brought somewhat nearer settlement today at a long conference between Eliot Washburn, the American representative, and the financial representatives of the allied powers. Big differences, however, still prevent complete agreement.

One delegate described the negotiations as "horse trading," which, he said, undoubtedly would result in an eventual accord, but meantime both sides were endeavoring to secure the best possible terms.

The allied proposition gradually becoming more definite, the spokesman terminated that payments to America shall be made only out of German reparations, but they still are debating the method for valuing and transforming into cash reparations which Germany may make in merchandise, as it has been settled that the United States will accept only money.

SECOND HUSBAND WOULD DIVORCE GLORIA SWANSON

Motion Picture Actress is Made Defendant in Suit Filed by H. H. Bomborn, who Charges Desertion

LOS ANGELES, March 23 (AP)—Gloria Swanson, motion picture actress, was made defendant in a divorce suit filed today by H. H. Bomborn, her husband. The complaint charges desertion.

Miss Swanson was married to her present husband in December, 1915, just a year after her first husband, Walter Rees, film actor, obtained a decree of divorce on the ground of desertion.

Persistent rumors that her married life was troubled culminated finally in an announcement by Miss Swanson in September, 1921, that the "report" that my husband and I have separated is true.

Bomborn later verified this announcement, but said a divorce was not contemplated.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS FILED FOR FAMOUS SHIP

PHILADELPHIA: March 23 (AP)—A petition is being prepared by the Association of Spanish War Veterans to be forwarded to Washington in an effort to have the name of the Olympia, flagship of the American fleet at the battle of Manila bay, removed from the list of vessels to be scrapped.

If the gallant ship can be preserved, the Spanish War Veterans plan to fit it as a memorial to shelter the trophies awarded to Admiral Dewey, the ship, and the members of the crew after the Spanish flotilla was defeated.

The Olympia is fast rotting and rusting away in the lagoon at the Philadelphia navy yard. So antiquated now is the famous battle cruiser that a shot from a modern dreadnaught would send her to the bottom.

The Screen

"MONTE CRISTO" HAS SPECIAL MUSIC SCORE

As is the case with all special photography features, there is an exceptionally appropriate music score for the super-production "Monte Cristo," a late motion picture based on Alexandre Dumas' immortal novel "The Count of Monte Cristo."

This great photoplay will begin an engagement at the Orpheum theater next Monday, and patrons are advised to book their seats early as a record rush is expected.

PLAY'S POWER LIES IN ITS SIMPLICITY

Just as many great characters are made up of small but good qualities, so may a screen drama be simple yet powerful. This is said to be true of the William Fox production, "The Town That God Forgot," which opens for its first local showing at the Idaho theater today.

The locale of the story is just any small American community where the red-headed milk striver to get the most out of life. The characters are such as may be found in any such community not forgetting those characters which, in their own ego, have closed their eyes to the small kindnesses and have instead, sought to rule others through the small authority given them. In the portrayal of the life in this community the screen drama points well into professor of forestry, who is supposed to have established the first school of forestry in the western hemisphere.

NAMES AUTHOR OF NEW THREAT TO BLACKMAIL

Major D. M. Daugherty Tells Prosecutor of Casual Friendship with Slain Model and Attempted "Shake Down"

NEW YORK, March 28 (AP)—The highlight of public interest which was shifted from character to character in the Dorothy Keenan murder case tonight was focused on the identity of the man who Major Draper M. Daugherty, son of the United States attorney general, today said had threatened a blackmail him because of his acquaintance with the model, unless he got him a job with the department of justice.

Daugherty, appearing voluntarily before Assistant District Attorney Pecora, discussed at length with him his acquaintance with the slain girl and left after giving the prosecutor the name of the alleged blackmail.

Gives Guarded Op.
This name Mr. Pecora kept to him self, but he told newspaper men the man had been questioned by the police in connection with another matter. Reporters encountered the same difficulty in interviewing Major Daugherty as they did when the mysterious "Mr. Marshall"—the girl's elderly admirer later revealed as J. K. Mitchell, Philadelphia capitalist and chairman, was the central figure in the drama.

Mr. Pecora, who for nine days absolved Mitchell from the press, today took the same precautions to keep that Daugherty wishes to avoid interviewers were fulfilled.

Daugherty, who was accompanied by a friend whose name was not revealed, was closeted with Mr. Pecora about 45 minutes. At the end of the conference Mr. Pecora said he had confirmed newspaper reports of his casual friendship with Miss Keenan and the attempt made by the telephone to blackmail him. The blackmail angle was what particularly interested the prosecutor, for it is his theory that the girl was slain by blackmailers who failed to make her cooperate in a plot to "shake down" Mitchell.

No New Light on Killing.
After his visitor had departed, Mr. Pecora made the following comment: "The information given me by Mr. Daugherty does not tend to shed any light on the solution of the murder mystery, but it is of interest to me as an index of the character of the person who made the blackmail threat. I think Mr. Daugherty spoke to me frankly and I regard him as trustworthy as I have regarded Mr. Mitchell."

Bernhardt's Wish Will Be Observed In Funeral Rites

Services To Be Conducted in Small Church With No Orations But "Many Flowers"

PARIS, March 28 (AP)—The body of Sarah Bernhardt tonight rested in the famous rosewood casket lined with white satin which was made at her order 20 years ago and in which she was frequently photographed while on her foreign tours.

Abbo Loutil, curé of the church of St. Francois de Sales, where the funeral services will be held tomorrow noon, said that prayers over the great artist today, who was tenderly lifted from her bed and placed in the coffin, which was taken to the ground floor of the home where a room has been transformed into a chapel.

Bernhardt is still clad in her white satin dress. Over her face and half a fine lace veil has been drawn. On her breast is pinned the cross of the Legion of Honor, and around her neck is a ribbon holding the gold locket containing the picture and a lock of hair of her son, Maurice, which she always wore.

The casket was closed, except for the upper part, which was left open so that the face could be seen through the veil. The prayers for the interrupted passage of mourners was resumed.

The casket will be taken to the church early tomorrow morning and after the services the funeral procession will go to the Cemetery Pere la Chaise, where the body will be placed in a simple but massive vault, without oration and hearing only one word: "Bernhardt."

The Paris city authorities had hoped to hold the services in some great church, such as St. Michel, but Bernhardt's wish was that it be as simple as possible and her preference was for the relatively small church which she attended while in Paris. There will be no orations at the funeral, in compliance with her wish, but her desire for "many flowers" is certain to be gratified by the public.

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes you care so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive a sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase in medium and large size bottles at any drug store.—adv.

MERCHANTS WIN FROM SHOWMEN

I. D. Store Bowlers Take Three Straight from Idaho Theatre Squad

Three straight games was the toll exacted by the Idaho Department Store bowlers from the Idaho theatre pin smashers last night in the regular scheduled game at the Twin Falls bowling alley.

Bowling 822 in the first game, the counter jumpers had but little trouble pacifying the theatre kids, who failed to pass 733. "Hoops" Livinville made the pins equilibrate to the score of 197 in this game.

An added feature to the evening's entertainment was the appearance of Clint Evans bowling for Jarman of the theatre team.

The second game saw the kids take another whipping, this time the score read 770 to 734. Ford hit high with 174.

Hollering over the 800 mark in the last game, the store men had but little trouble annexing the third straight. The best the Idaho theatre boys could do was 747 while Livinville's crew plus scored down 812. "Dinky" Moore won the ice cream cone in this game with 105.

SAD BUT TRUE

GOING DOWN
The kids had a hard time, but there is some excuse, as they were all out playing ball in the afternoon and were tired.

Even the appearance of Clint Evans didn't serve the theatre boys. Clint couldn't see why he should have to be content with 114 in the first game when some of the others rolled as high as 197.

Squires sailed along at a nice clip until the last game and then—

Chet Kerr refused to roll over 127 in the last game and he didn't.

"Henry" Ford skinned his finger in the second game, and did well thereafter. It was contagious as the entire theatre team was skinned in all three games.

Walter Selek was too tired to roll a big game, so 147 will have to be used as his high mark for the evening.

"Dinky" Moore came to life in the last game. When Livinville yelled at the start of the game for "more," Dinky thought he was talking to him, and rolled 195.

Reeves failed to get started until he started for home.

Evans was another who didn't get started until the final bell had been tolled. (This one has been tolled before.)

"Daniel" Boone made a great showing in the first game, failing to hit the head pin until the tenth frame when he made a strike.

Denny Sullivan was the high man for the evening with 508 pins dropped. Denny raised his average one point, bringing it up to 159.

"Hoops" Livinville, the man who put the knuckle in Pinoche, did well enough to hit his average of 109, but fell down miserably in the second with 136.

Tonight the Troy laundry team will entertain the Idaho store bowlers, and should the store men win three the laundry team will no doubt lose three games. This is as close as we can figure the dope on this game as both teams have threatened to break a few high score records.

A game that should create a great deal of excitement is the game scheduled this afternoon at five between the lawyers and Bank and Trust bowlers. This game has been on the boards for the last three evenings, but each day finds one of the lawyers out of condition which caused a postponement. Today's game will be rolled, with alibis taboored. Orr Chapman will be seen in the role of lead-off man.

FIRPO DECISIONS HIBBARD

South American Heavyweight Shows Speed and Improvement in Boxing in Exhibition Bout

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Louis Angel Firpo, South American Heavyweight and conqueror of Bill Brennan, won the decision over Jim Hibbard of Buffalo, in a four-round exhibition bout for the benefit of the American committee or devastated France to-night.

Firpo showed much speed and decided improvement in boxing. Although the boxers wore eight-ounce gloves, Hibbard, a new comer in the heavyweight class, was badly battered at the end of the bout. The Argentinian did not uncoil the full power of his punches.

Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, and Elio Flores, Filipino boxer, went through four rounds of milling to a draw.

Frankie Genaro, American flyweight and conqueror of Billy Brannan, won handily from Bobby Dorle of New York, in their four-round exhibition, while Johnny Dundee, junior lightweight champion, captured the decision from Tony Vaccaro of New York, in four frames.

ident Harling its inquiry into the effect of new import duty on prices, would be more far-reaching than originally was intended and the prediction by Secretary Hoover that present prices would result in decreased consumption and increased production.

When the tariff commission met today it had before it the president's telegram sent Tuesday night from St. Augustine, Fla., directing that it establish whether the new tariff was keeping the retail price of sugar at high levels. The commission, which already had initiated an investigation, at the request of Cuban producers to determine whether a reduction in the sugar duties was advisable under flexible provisions of the tariff law, decided at once to increase the scope of its inquiry.

Bees Production Gain.
Mr. Hoover's prediction was made in a letter to Representative Dullinger, republican, Massachusetts, who had asked for information as to the present situation.

"Sugar consumption and production," said the commerce secretary, "respond very quickly to price. It would be normal to anticipate that estimated consumption would decrease as the result of the present over high price."

Mr. Hoover also forecast that the present price levels will no doubt stimulate production, especially in Cuba, as at this moment plantation profits are very large.

Every Woman is Wearing Corsets Again

You wouldn't presume to go into a shop and ask for a certain dress you bought and found satisfactory two or three seasons ago. Yet you will walk into a corset department and make this request, not thinking of the Silhouette, but just that it's time to buy a new corset. The wise woman will put herself in the hands of a competent corsetiere to become eligible to the new fashions.

KEEPING THE ISSUE CLEAR

Clear through the warp and the woof of American tradition runs the idea that the possession of land or other interests is not a fundamental requirement
when it comes to the selection of public servants. Rather has the thought been inculcated that ability and integrity should be recognized wherever found and that the same rights, the same privileges and the same opportunities are open to every class, the poor and the rich alike. The possession of property, whether it be real property or any other kind, cannot and should not be regarded as carrying with it any advantage
whatever in favor of its possessor.

The reverse of this sets up the proposition of handicap to the man who is not a property owner when it comes to a selection for public office. Carried to its logical conclusion such reasoning amounts to placing the property owners in one group and the non-property owners in a second group and announcing flatly that from the first group alone shall the selection for public office be made.

Let's keep the issue clear; we are going to elect a Mayor and two Councilmembers. Let's approach the problem in the full light of common sense with the potty issues behind us.

Which of all those men, the candidates, on their records and their reputations, would be likely to make the best public servants?

It is said that customs in the Ruhr are making trouble. And it all depends on the point of view whether it's French or German customs.

A Cincinnati judge dismissed a woman juror because she went to sleep
during the trial. At last—a movement for wide-awake juries!

The two ladies and the three enter-pillars proceeded on their way.

When they had rung, they could hear Mrs. Percy coming along the narrow hall with a jerky, shuffling sound.
She opened the door with her left hand.

"Good afternoon," she greeted them
laconically. "Come in."

She ushered her guests into the tiny living-room and laboriously removed a litter of magazines from one chair, a piece of sewing from another.
An awkward toss with her left hand sent a white crocheted shawl from a third chair to a small table. The three ladies were thus enabled to be seated.

"How are you feeling today?" inquired Mrs. Penfield briskly.

Mrs. Percy shook her head. "I've got my warms," she replied lugubriously.

"Warning!" echoed Mrs. Penfield.
"Good land, what do you mean?"

Mrs. Percy's eyelids drooped mournfully. "I mean the forerunner of the
—the end."

"Oh, nonsense. I don't believe it," cheered Mrs. Penfield. "What's wrong?"

"You couldn't have been using your eyes," returned her hostess, in an aggrieved tone. "Maybe it doesn't show in my face—yet, but it's strange if you didn't notice the way I walked.
My right foot drags. I can't scarcely use my right arm at all."

"How long have you had it?"

"Three days. It came on sudden-one morning."

"I s'pose you've seen a doctor," suggested Mrs. Penfield.

Mrs. Percy sighed heavily. "No need. He couldn't tell me more'n I know. I've just got to wait—and grow steadily more helpless. The hardest part of it is Lorene's leaving. I shall be alone, and I can't do for myself
now. Troubles always come together.
I've been set against Lorene's marrying from the first. She might wait a while before she plunges; probably she'd marry better if she did."

Mrs. Penfield appeared to be pondering the situation. "I thought you felt that way, Mrs. Percy, but that's a slight trouble compared with your sickness, ain't it?"

"Yes, of course, but—"
"I'll just bet," exclaimed Mrs. Pen-field with conviction, "that if you could use both your arms and legs all right, you'd feel that was the main thing. What Lorene done would be so small a point you wouldn't scarcely care which way it went, would you?"

Mrs. Percy opened her mouth;
closed it again.

Mrs. Penfield's brown eyes grew wide in a stare of innocent surprise.

"Why, land, you don't mean to tell me—for goodness sake, Mrs. Percy,
if your body was all right again,
wouldn't you be so thankful that you'd be more'n willing Lorene should leave you for a life of her own?"

A slight flush colored her hostess'
heavy cheeks. "Why, yes, of course," she acknowledged stiffly. "I should feel very different in that case."

Mrs. Penfield nodded condolingly.
"Yes, I guess you would. Health's the main thing. Little troubles don't seem no bigger'n specks when a big trouble comes 'long to measure 'em
by."

Mrs. Percy grabbed this statement with vehemence. "I don't know much about little troubles, myself. I've had big ones, one right after another.
I haven't never been reconciled to Mrs. Percy's going. Doesn't seem right for a man to die because he was brave, way he did. He was a police officer, and he was shot while making an arrest. It was reckless, the chance he took. It wouldn't seem so hard if he'd just been sick and died of it."

"Oh, you'd have felt it just as much," began Mrs. Sanders.

"Yes," echoed Mrs. Penfield; "and as 'tis, you've got something to be proud of. I've always thought I'd rather mourn for a man that was brave than cook for a man that's a coward."

Mrs. Percy, regarding this com-plation, tossed her head in some offense. "I didn't mean it would have been easy in any event. The thing, after all, that makes me miserable is my broken life. When you've had ten years of married happiness, you don't get reconciled to giving it up."

Mrs. Penfield gazed at her dreamily. "No, not reconciled! Being resigned to everything is a pretty good sign of moral prostration. But there's one thing you got to remember: if you had ten years of happy married life, you had exactly ten years more than a lot of women have, and you'd oughter be thankful for it, 'long with your mourning."

Mrs. Percy's lips came together with a snap. An uncomfortable silence spread over the room, pressing conversation out of existence. Mrs.
Penfield, fearing that she had been too outspoken, sprang up briskly, with the thought of breaking the tension.

"You musn't imagine I'm unsympathetic, 'cause underneath I been studying on how we could help you. I can see one thing we'd better do—that is, look out that you don't take cold, entertaining us in a room that don't get any sun. Here, let me put this little shawl 'round your shoulders.
You musn't take any chances, you know."

Without waiting for assent, she snatched the crocheted shawl from the table and proffered it to her hostess.
And Mrs. Percy, the spoiled, the waited-on, was instantly mollified.
She accepted the service with murmured gratitude.

No sooner had Mrs. Penfield resumed her seat, however, than it was Mrs. Percy who did the springing.
She came to her feet with a ponderous agility very different from her previous manner.

"Ugh! Ugh! The nasty thing!"
she screamed. "Oh! Oh! Take it off! Oh! There's two of it! Take it—"

Mrs. Sanders ventured to the rescue.
With a careless gesture, Mrs. Penfield strung in ahead of her. "I'll do it,"
she announced in a tone of renunciation with which one takes the initiative in a perilous enterprise.

FOREIGN CENSUS PROJECT BEGINS

Movement of Women's Organizations to Aid Foreigners Gets Under Way

The first active steps toward the accomplishment of plans of the joint Americanization committee, composed of representatives of 15 women's organizations in Twin Falls, will be put in effect immediately in the form of a canvass of the city to determine the number of foreign residents of Twin Falls and other nationalities.

The census committee of which Mrs. C. E. Glendon is chairman, has divided the city into 20 districts and has allotted the work of making the foreign census in each district to each of the following district captains: Mrs. E. A. Landon, Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. I. Friedman, Mrs. H. P. Laird, Mrs. W. F. Passer, Mrs. David Brown, Mrs. T. E. Irwin, Mrs. Eva Taylor, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Moore, Mrs. P. S. Bell, Mrs. Dorman Johnson, Mrs. E. B. Williams, Mrs. M. E. Collins, Mrs. W. E. Edrington, Mrs. C. E. Potter, Mrs. H. W. Clouche, Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Irvin Drabell and Mrs. Marshall P. Brown.

Committee Named.

Serving on the census committee, which is in charge of the work, are Mrs. Brown, Mrs. C. L. Siggins as assistants to Mrs. Schreiber.

After the census is taken the result will be tabulated by each of the organizations and each participating organization allotted a certain group. Where the number of any nationality is too large two or more organizations will be assigned.

The census is expected to be completed by Saturday, April 7.

Plans of the general committee provide for the holding of picnics and various other similar gatherings during the summer with the women and children of the foreign families as guests. For this year probably early in the fall, a night school is to be established and various events given in which the entire families may participate.

The idea originated in the community service department of the Twentieth Century club and the movement was fostered by the members of that department. A meeting was held early this winter and the result was from numerous organizations participating and Mrs. E. M. Wolfe of the Twentieth Century club has been appointed general chairman of the project.

The movement is in keeping with the general aims of the Twentieth Century club and other organizations of women and the primary object is to establish a closer touch with Twin Falls' foreign element, to promote any project for its betterment and to generally build up a better understanding with members of foreign nationalities who are making their homes here.

TREES TO BE PLANTED AS LINCOLN MEMORIALS

State Association Holding to Ideals of Civil War President Desires Support in Twin Falls Country

The principles of the Veterans' Lincoln Birthday association, headquarters of which are at Boise, are being advanced here this year in connection with the observance of Arbor Day April 29.

The association is seeking the organization of the pupils of every school in Idaho for the purpose of planting trees on Arbor day to be known as Lincoln trees. The purposes of the organization are intended to symbolize the ideas of Lincoln and support has been given to the proposition by state officials.

The association is receiving the support here of Miss Charlotte Pond, county school superintendent, and Miss Elizabeth Showwell, city grade school superintendent. The grounds of the grade schools offer little opportunity for planting more trees, but Lincoln trees will be planted wherever possible, Miss Showwell stated.
