OFFICER LENDS AID TO BANDITS THROUGH ERROR

Police Sergeant, Off Duty, Mistakes Detective's Gun Play for Holdup; Triangular Battle Results

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—A confusion of identities led to a triangular battle tonight between a police sergeant, a detective and two bandits. The detective stopped four bullets, his brother one, and a bandit one. Two hoodlums were looking a cigar store when Detective John Cordes, plain clothes, entered with his brother, Harry, to buy cigarettes. The detective drew his service pistol and pointed it at one of the men, ordering, "Hands up." Just then Police Sergeant James McDade of Brooklyn, off duty in street clothes, passed the store and saw the tabling within. With pistol drawn he kicked the door open, drew a hoodlum, Cordes, thinking him a bandit and ordered: "Put 'em up."

Open Three-Cornered Fire

"Put 'em up yourself," shouted Cordes, aiming to confront McDade, and the bandits were "double-banking" him.

All three started firing at once—the bandit, the detective and the police sergeant, while the hoodlum, a bandit number two darted to and fro in an effort to get out of range of the cross-fire.

The detective was the first to fall. He had a bullet in his leg, and it was believed to be bad. His brother dropped next, with one wound, not serious. The first bandit was shot as he started to flee. The second bandit was captured by police and pedestrians.

Sergeant McDade and the cigar clerk escaped unscathed.

GRILLS JURORS IN BUNKO CASE

Denver Investigation Turns on Alleged Attempts to Influence Verdict

DENVER, March 29 (AP)—Members of the jury which yesterday afternoon found 20 members of an alleged nationwide confidence ring guilty, testified before the Denver county grand jury today, following summons served on them as they stepped from the jury box into yesterday afternoon.

One of the jurors, George E. Sharp, who caused consternation when the jury reported, by asserting when first questioned that his verdict was "guilty, on condition," was reported to be ill and unable to leave his home today, and did not appear before the grand jury. Sharp, when questioned yesterday by the court, finally gave an unqualified "verdict of guilty."

The grand jury probe is believed to be in connection with alleged attempts to influence the jury during the "bunco" trial, which lasted for 10 weeks.

Herman M. Okely, one of the jurors, who declared last night that he had been offered a bribe at his home by an unidentified man, today, after he was sworn in for jury duty, was one of the first witnesses examined by the grand jury.

No information on the progress of the probe was made public tonight, the grand jury adjourning early.

PASS HAT FOR JURORS.

DENVER, March 29 (AP)—Launched by a $25 donation from a state assemblyman, a campaign today was under way to reimburse jurors who brought in a verdict of guilty against 20 alleged members of Denver's "million dollar" bunco ring yesterday afternoon, was announced by a local newspaper tonight.

It is pointed out that the jurymen received only $1.00 a day for the 63 days they sat on the jury trying the alleged nationwide confidence ring members. "In view of the great public service the jury rendered, the jurors deserve more compensation, the announcement of the inauguration of the fund states.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 29 (AP)—President Harding let it be known that upon returning to Washington he would appoint Henry M. Dawes, of Chicago, a banker, and a brother of Charles H. Dawes, former director of the budget, to be comptroller of the currency.

Mr. Dawes will take the office filled by Dr. B. Crisinger, prior to his appointment to the governorship of the federal reserve board. The Chicago man will be the second member of the Dawes family to be comptroller of the currency, his brother Charles having served as comptroller the administration of President McKinley.

Lumber Interests Win Long Contest for Right of Way

Friendly Settlement Paves the Way for Operations on North Idaho Timber Lands

WINCHESTER, Idaho, March 29 (AP)—A crew of workers this morning started piling steel for the new logging road being constructed by the Craig Mountain Lumber company from Winchester into the Mission creek watershed, a distance of about six miles, where the lumber company will start operations on its vast timber holdings as soon as the road is completed.

The construction of this road has been held up since last November on account of legal obstacles, but it is now stated that the objections raised by John B. Toller, through whose land the logging road passes, have been settled in a friendly manner, permitting the work to proceed without further interruption.

It is estimated that the holdings of the Craig Mountain Lumber company in the Mission creek watershed are sufficiently large to enable cutting to be carried on for more than 20 years.

BACKTRACKS IN MURDER PUZZLE

District Attorney Calls for Slain Model's Letters; Will Re-examine Witnesses

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Assistant District Attorney Peckra announced tonight that he would devote tomorrow to re-examination of witnesses in the Dorothy Keenan murder case.

At the same time Mr. Peckra announced that he had asked the police to obtain various letters found in the safety deposit box owned by the slain model and taken over by her mother under order from the state's court. Examination of these letters, the prosecutor believes, may strengthen his theory that a ring of blackmailers used the girl as a decoy and killed her after she had refused to join in a plot to "shake down" her admirers.

Guimaras on List

Those who have been asked to call at the district attorney's office include the four members of the model's family, her maid, the elevator attendant in the West 67th street apartment house where she lived and was chloroformed, and Albert E. Guimaras, one of her admirers.

Federal Court Ruling in Case Involving War Contract; Given Automobile Firms, Sets Important Precedent

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Legal principles opening the way to collection of millions of dollars in the government's war contract cases were established, according to announcement here today by the department of justice, in the recent decision of Judge Bodine of the New Jersey federal district court in litigation involving the Willys and Duesenberg automobile companies.

Judge Bodine, the announcement said, ruled in favor of the government in connection with a claim of $83,740.00 against the Duesenberg company which was acquired by the Willys corporation. The latter now is in the hands of receivers of the court.

The ruling leaves the government free to press the claim against the Willys interests although the corporation and its entire assets are in receivership.

MOSCOW SEES CLEMENCY FOR CONDEMNED CLERICS

Impression Prevails in Russian Capital that Sentence of Death Will Not Be Carried Into Execution

MOSCOW, March 29 (AP)—The general impression prevailed in Moscow tonight that the execution of Archbishop Zepkin, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, and Vianor Connera, Dutch knight, who were condemned to death by the soviet court on Monday, probably would not be carried out and that the prelates would receive some degree of clemency.

It was announced today that the requests which had been received for mitigation of the sentences imposed on the prelates and the priests would be considered at the first meeting of the central executive committee.

Sees Farmers in Position to Decide Future Course of Transportation Lines

Illinois Central President Offsets the Radical Proposals by Attitude of Majority of Business Men and Ascribes Balance of Power to Agricultural Population

CHICAGO, March 29 (AP)—Farmers of the country hold the balance of power between the railroads and their enemies in what is termed a campaign of misrepresentation designed to discredit private operation of the roads, Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, declared tonight in an address before the Traffic Club of Chicago.

"I believe that a vast majority of the business men of this country are sound on the railway question," said Mr. Markham, who predicted that the next congress would see an effort to repeal the transportation act, which he declared would be a mistake. "The leaders of some of our organizations are outspokenly in favor of government ownership, and it is to be presumed that they have a large following.

Therefore, it seems to me that our agricultural population have the balance of power and will settle the railway question. If they should throw their great influence on the side of nationalization, our railroads will be nationalized, but the farmers will never do that if they are given the facts in regard to the railroads and if the radical propaganda about the railroads is fully answered for their benefit.

"Agriculture is founded upon transportation. It is the ability of the railroads to furnish adequate service, and immediately you injure the entire agricultural industry. Some of the self-appointed enemies of the farmer are pursuing a policy toward the railroads that is very antagonistic to the welfare of those in whose behalf they claim to speak."

Lowest temperatures ever recorded this late in the season, the weather bureau said, were reported today from various points in the Atlantic states.

TWO CO-EDS SUSPENDED FOR BUYING MOONSHINE

Ohio State University Students Are Disciplinary for Violation of Prohibition Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 29 (AP)—Two of four students suspended from Ohio State university today on a number of charges, one of which was buying liquor from bootleggers, were today suspended from the university, it was announced tonight. The two students were suspended for violating the law by purchasing liquor from bootleggers.

"Suspension of these four students exemplified my feeling in regard to students who violate our laws," he said. "The man who violates the law by act by buying intoxicating liquor is a menace to the principles of democracy."

RICH CLUBMAN SHOT BY GIRL

Young Woman Shoots F. M. Burnham in His Private Office; Suicides with Same Gun

NEW YORK, March 30 (AP)—Frederick W. Burnham, noted contractor, chairman of the board of Riverside Manor on the Hudson, died early today of a pistol wound inflicted yesterday by Miss Helena Zeligor, just before she shot and killed her own father.

Mrs. Burnham was at his bedside when the end came.

Miss Zeligor, police believe, became infuriated when she learned Burnham had married.

Her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Leo Zeligor, of Riverside Drive, learned for the first time today that the man they had entertained as a friend with whom their daughter had become infatuated, was the same Frederick W. Burnham, who maintains the magnificent Riverside Manor estate on Dobbs Ferry, and with his wife, was a social leader in that exclusive suburb.

SHOOTING PLACE IN SUITE

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Firing in her card and then calmly waiting in an ante-room for an interview, 25-year-old Helena Zeligor of Riverside Drive, today entered the private office of Frederick W. Burnham, wealthy contractor, shot him with a double-barreled pistol and then killed herself with the weapon.

Burnham, 44 years old, and a member of a fashionable suburban club at Dobbs Ferry, was rushed to Bellevue hospital where it was said he was dying.

Noise of Argument Heard

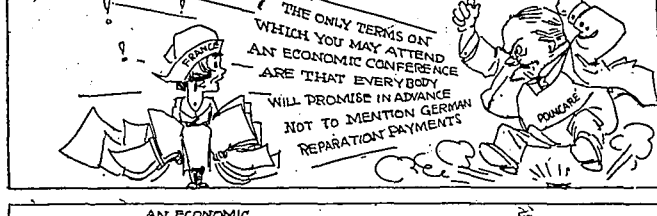

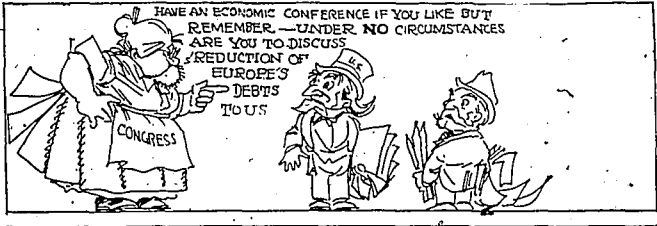

The body of Miss Zeligor prostrated with the two-barreled 45 calibre pistol still clutched in her right hand, was discovered in Burnham's private office minutes after those outside had heard voices raised as if in violent argument, had heard two shots rapidly fired and then unbroken silence.

She was on the floor. A bullet had torn through her brain. In a far corner of the room was Burnham, clinging to a window ledge, gasping and rumpiling his hair. The bullet from the pistol wound in the left side of his head. As those from without rushed toward him, calling him by name, he pitched to the floor, almost over the young woman's body.

Women Scientists Credited with Cure of Deadly Malady

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Ten year-old Morris Gedulst has been cured of influenza meningitis, a disease with a mortality rate higher than 96 per cent, by a new serum developed by two women scientists attached to the research laboratory of the New York health department, it was announced today at the United Israel Zion hospital of Brooklyn.

The first case was stated was the second person saved from death by the serum during the last few years. The two cures are the only ones ever effected in this city, about 50 other sufferers having died of the rare ailment.

The serum was developed at the health department laboratory at Willard Parker hospital, by Dr. Olga Zolovitsky, and Dr. Elizabeth Neal, in charge of meningitis research. It is taken from an immunized horse into which there has been injected Pfeiffer bacilli.

Dr. Neal said today that Morris had been given three injections of ordinary anti-meningitis serum and three of the new serum.

"It is impossible to say that the disease, she declared, but I believe it is safe to say that it has contributed largely to these cures we have on record."

Dr. Povitsky was the first scientist to observe the difference between ordinary meningitis and influenza meningitis and it was she who first developed the serum. Later, Dr. Zolovitsky, then of Johns Hopkins university hospital and now of the Rockefeller foundation, confirmed the same results.

"In the case of Gedulst, the boy showed a sterile reaction after the first three injections but it is safe to say that his subsequent recovery was due to the bacilli in the serum."

"Influenza meningitis is a deadly disease. In all the laboratory work I have done, I have never seen a case recovered."

FOSTER DENIES GIVING AID TO REVOLT PLOTS

Admits Attending Conclave of Organization Alleged to Have Aimed at Overthrow of the Government

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., March 29 (AP)—William Z. Foster of Chicago, charged with criminal syndicalism for assembling in the Michigan sand hills with an organization alleged to have been formed to advocate the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence, took the stand in his own behalf today and, admitting his presence at the syndicalist convention, denied all connection with the organization.

He denied that he had filled out a questionnaire at the convention in which his occupation was stated as industrial organizer of the communist party of America, and he denied he had been issued a portfolio containing radical documents.

Documents in Evidence.

Both the alleged questionnaire and the portfolio said to have been assigned to Foster had been introduced in evidence by the state.

Foster admitted on cross-examination that he had sat in a meeting of the presidium or governing body of the convention.

There was nothing in Foster's bearing to indicate he was the man who organized more than 100,000 strikers and led the great 1919 steel strike or who, according to his own statements, has been an active revolutionary leader for nearly 10 years.

His story, on both direct and cross-examination, was one of years of radical and union activities. At various times in his career, he said he has been a member of the I. W. O. secretary of the Syndicalist League of North America, student of radical movements abroad, leader of many strikes, delegate to radical meetings and correspondent in Russia, member of the Women's union, railway carmen and other organizations and for the last two years a subscriber to the Mexican communistic school of study.

Assistant Attorney General Smith attempted to show that Foster had a hand in unseating E. F. Grable, former head of the Railroad Brotherhood of Workmen, who was defeated for reelection last fall, after he had refused to call his men out in sympathy with the railroad shopmen's strike. Foster denied that he had attended the election convention in Detroit at which Grable was ousted, although admitting he had opposed Grable's stand.

Gives Speech From Memory.

Under examination by Frank P. Walsh, his attorney, Foster repeated as much as he said in a number of the speech he delivered at the communist convention. He said he had told the delegates there of a trip taken through the west to address striking shopmen, from which trip he had returned just before the convention met. On cross-examination Mr. Smith brought out that Foster was in Ogden, Utah about the latter part of July of the first of August, and asked him if he was accompanied on the trip by Joseph Kowalski.

Foster denied knowing Kowalski. "Don't you know he was at our party and that a federal agent followed him directly from a meeting which you addressed in Ogden and followed him back to New York, where he was arrested and sent to prison for slipping back into this country after being deported?" Mr. Smith asked.

"I never met Kowalski, never heard of him and never knew he was at any meeting I attended," Foster replied. Kowalski is a Russian who was arrested in Chicago in the January, 1920, raffle and deported to Russia.

CROP PESTS CAUSE LOSS OF BILLION EACH YEAR

Imported Parasites Constitute Heavy Drag on American Farming and Fruit Growing

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—A billion dollars a year is the board bill of uninvited farm and fruit pests which come to the United States from foreign lands, according to Chairman C. L. Marshall of the Federal Horticultural board. Two hours of every day's work on the farm or in the garden and orchard goes to feed these guests, Dr. Marshall says.

There are at least 100 major plant pests and many hundreds of minor pests which have been imported, but there are thousands of other pests, insect and plant, that have not gained entry into the United States and which the Federal Horticultural board is endeavoring to keep out.

Fifteen quarantines are being enforced now and in connection with these efforts are under way to eradicate the pink bollworm, the citrus canker and the Paratuberculosis date scale. The other recently established pests, including the European corn borer, the Japanese beetle, the pine blister beetle, are recognized now as permanent factors in the agriculture of the country, and for these, eradication of spread is the hope here. This eradication and control work is being conducted by the Federal Horticultural board and involves an annual expenditure of upwards of $2,000,000.

Tribute Paid to Bernhardt Rivals Rites for Kings

Thousands Attend the Funeral Services and Join in Vast Procession to Last Resting Place

PARIS, March 29 (AP)—The divine Sarah lies quiet and alone tonight under her mountain of flowers. As the sun went down last farewells were taken of her by that Paris and the world through which she had moved so long under hats all her own.

It was at the end of ceremonies which had stirred Paris for days, and tribute was paid to the memory of the great actress in a manner such as the queen of cities so rarely bestows except on its most beloved. This last day was as free of incidents as her life had been full of activity, work and storm.

Triumph Over Death.

It was commonly commented that there was nothing sad about the funeral, nor did the majority of the vast crowd which witnessed it take the event as one of sadness. The general note, as expressed by the newspapers, was that she had triumphed over death with her vigorous work and her motto, "never say die."

The ceremonies lasted throughout the day, beginning early in the morning with the transfer of the body to the church, which was hung inside and outside with black Japeries. By noon, when the services began, the church was crowded and for blocks around the entrance to the church thousands and thousands of spectators had gathered.

The church regulations governing Holy Week, which allow only prayers in churches, were strictly adhered to until the singing of the mass by noted artists. When the church ceremony was over a vast one began; it was the procession to the cemetery. No crowding king ever received a greater tribute from the people.

Heaped high upon the grave are vast masses of flowers. They had been sent to the house in the church and later were shown in the procession, but the vast quantities were not all. This evening thousands continued to file past the grave and cast flowers upon it. Bouquets and clusters of blossoms are mounting high under the greening branches of the willow, aspen and pine trees at the graveside.

All of Bernhardt's friends, known and unknown, swear that she loved lilies "above jewels and silks and glory," as she once said, selected lilies as the principal flower of their offerings.

Those humble thousands who had no invitation to the church ceremony brought to the cemetery a few handfuls into the air, itself was steeped with the odor of her favorite flower.

The route taken by the cortege from the church to the cemetery was about five miles, and along all the way the cortege was massed in solemn silence. Bernhardt on her way to her last resting place passed by the theater Sarah Bernhardt, where she had often appeared.

STUDY EARLY CHRISTIANS

Sunday School Students of High School Aim to Trace Zeal and Persecutions of Founders

A most interesting department of the Methodist Sunday school is that composed of the junior high school students and the high school students. Their attendance is 145, and the superintendent of their department is Mrs. Marshall F. Browne.

During the ensuing six months this group of students will be studying the doings and teachings of the first century Christians, the world they worked in, the persecutions they endured, their zeal and courage in carrying the gospel to the ends of the world. It promises to be a most fascinating study, all based on the Book of Acts, studied not only from the spiritual standpoint, but as history and literature.

Students not in any other Sunday school will be welcomed to these classes, the work beginning Easter Sunday.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautiful, dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brooding at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking a few drug stores for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—adv.

PRESS REPORTS INTRODUCED IN MURDER TRIAL

News Writer's Account of Massacre Brings Out Facts in Connection with Operations of Associated Press

MARION, Ill., March 29 (AP)—Only two witnesses were called to the stand by the prosecution at the resumption today of the trial of Hugh Willis, state executive board member of the Illinois mine workers, and five other defendants, charged with murder in connection with the Herrin riots, most of the action being taken up by a legal battle which was won by the defense.

The first witness was J. C. Hooks, of Louisville, Ky., who formerly was manager of an insurance office in Marion, which specialized in working men's compensation insurance. He was called to tell of an alleged admission made by Phillip Fontanetta, the youngest of the defendants, for whom family he had handled a compensation claim.

Donald M. Ewing, a Chicago newspaper man, testified that he had arrived in Marion on Chicago the morning of the riots, had taken an automobile to the mine where the trouble started and then had gone on toward Herrin, where he found six men lying in the road surrounded by a crowd of about 150 persons.

Act of Mercy Balked. The witness said three of the men were dead, one was still breathing and two were conscious and begging for water. He declared he had tried to give one a drink, but had been prevented by a man he identified as Bert Gracer, a defendant.

cross examination read a story carried in the New York Times of Friday, June 23, and distributed by the Associated Press. After reading a section dealing with the shooting down of six men, he asked:

"Did you write this sentence, 'Hundreds of men, women and boys laughed at their plea for water'?"
 "No, sir, I did not put that into the story," the witness answered.
 "Did you put into your story that you saw a young woman there?"
 "Yes, sir."

"Did you say that this young woman said: 'I'll see you in hell before you get away from me'?"
 "Substantially that."

Associated Press Rules. "Didn't you write that these men had been dragged behind an automobile and gravel imbedded in their flesh?"
 "Yes, but what I thought was gravel afterwards found was spots caused by dirt shot."

"Is it true that reputable newspapers are not allowed to change or garble news matter supplied by the Associated Press?"
 The Associated Press has eight or ten instances of newspapers doing that every week.

"Is it not true that the Associated Press does not present rumors as facts?"
 "We are not allowed to carry rumors but we can give stories without revealing the source."

"Now, it is not true that members made of the Associated Press are not allowed to change material received from the Associated Press?"
 "It is not true."

Mr. Neely then read from a copy of "The Herrin Conspiracy," a pamphlet issued by the National Coal association, but the witness denied that he was read and then had gone on toward Herrin, where he found six men lying in the road surrounded by a crowd of about 150 persons.

Veterans Hope to Put Idaho in Lead

Seek More Members for Twin Falls Post as Aid in Boosting State into First Place

The Twin Falls post of the American Legion is working toward an enlarged membership as a means of assisting in placing Idaho at the head of the list of states as regards the percentage of membership out of the total number of veterans.

As a result of the efforts of various posts throughout Idaho this state now ranks second among all states in point of the ratio of membership with the number eligible, according to Dr. W. F. Passer, Americanization officer of the local post.

"The posts at Boise, Nampa, and numerous other points in Idaho have made big gains and it now remains for Twin Falls to do its share," said Dr. Passer. "Last year Idaho ranked thirty-sixth from the head of the list and the fact that it is now second shows what has been done. With continued efforts the Idaho boys can win the honor of leading the parade at the national convention at San Francisco, proving that this state is 'on the map.'"

Local ex-servicemen who have dropped out of the post and others who have not joined are missing a great deal and they will realize this fact if they will only get in the game and do their part.

DELVES INTO TRANSFER OF SEATTLE BALL CLUB

Coast League President Seeks to Learn Nature of William Wrigley's Deal in Angeles, in Deal

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Los Angeles club of the Pacific coast baseball league and stockholder in the Chicago club of the Nationals, was asked today in a questionnaire sent to him by William H. McCarthy, president of the Coast league, whether he "directly or indirectly aided or assisted or extended credit to Charles L. Lockard or Wade Killefer, or any other person, to purchase stock in the Seattle baseball club."

The recent purchase of the Seattle club by Lockard and Killefer is to be investigated by President McCarthy at the next league meeting to determine the truth of assertions that Mr. Wrigley is an "silent" owner in the northern team.

Questionnaires seeking to learn the business details of the transfer of the Seattle club, were also mailed to Killefer and Lockard. Wrigley, Killefer and Lockard were also asked to sign an order which would permit Harry H. Stafford, attorney for the league, to inquire into every record surrounding the transfer of the Seattle club.

The interrogatories are of the most searching nature, inquiring into the financial affairs of those addressed, their property holdings and their banking connections.

HOW WOMEN CAN SERVE

Good times, it is often said are not an accident, but are man-made. They are woman-made too. The house-keeper, like the wage and salary earner, is a worker in the prosperity factory. It is to her interest to keep home industries running to capacity.

In a world recovering from war, nimble hands must continue their tasks. Moments now lost must be put to use; work in the home must go on; women must sew that the world may save. With the home doing its share prosperity is ours.

How agreeable such service is, with the array of fabrics and the smart and easy patterns of today. Sewing is no longer a complicated mystery. It is the simple art which spells economy for the woman and prosperity for the nation.

LAUNDRY TEAM TRIMS WRIGHTS

Low Scores Figure in League Bowling Contest Between Storemen and Cleaners

Giving the worst exhibition of bowling yet seen during a league game, the Wright's store men lost two out of three to the Troy laundry bowlers last night. The first game went to the soft soap artists by a score of 784 to 604. Art Finkle took the high honors in this game with 181.

Table with 2 columns: Player Name and Score. Includes Wright's Store (181, 137, 106, 514), A. E. Boone (107, 109, 182, 398), Harry Benoit (111, 102, 134, 347), Kieffner (139, 153, 140, 425), Benoit (139, 125, 116, 380).

WHY IS A BOWLER wasn't a question of not trying, as the store lads did the best they could. They just couldn't make the grade, and that's all there was to it.

That second game showed how far a team can get off color and still win games. Emery Benoit, who went through the three games last week without making a strike, kept up the good work in the first game, and it wasn't until the 48th consecutive frame that he sent them all down on the first ball.

Ralph Boyd had an off-night, slipping several points in his average. Ralph could pass 454 for a total.

Art Boone, who claims that he is the first King 'Tut' to get a few pointers, showed in the first two games that they didn't bowl very well 3,000 years ago.

Phil King had a lot of trouble picking up his spares the result being that he slipped to 404 for the evening.

Charley Hill took a tumble in the average column, rolling a total of 347 for the night. Charley couldn't locate the head pin.

Jack Tritt had a grand old time trying to pick up spits and spars. Jack said the change in the weather had something to do with it.

'Pip' Kieffner rolled 153 in the second game, which was high for his team. Now that the fishing season is over 'Pop' is bound to do better bowling.

Boy Cubitt dropped one point in his average, but had a touch of hard luck. Boy had but 143 in the second game with only one error, spits doing the dirty work.

Art Finkle had a bad game in the second, but made up for it in the other two.

Bill Bailey set the pace last night with 644, after having 182 in the opener. Bill had four spits in his first game.

Lawyers Clean Up on Bankers' Team

Legal Lights Roll 1607 in Two Games Against Total of 1430 for Money Counters

Rolling 1507 pins in two games, the lawyers bowling team won from the Bank and Trust timber clouters on Thursday afternoon at the Twin Falls bowling alley. The best the bankers could do in the two games was 1430. The features for the afternoon's entertainment go to the law firm of Porter and Witham. These two re-imbled were the boys who brought home the honor for the legal department. Witham rolled the high game of the day with 170 in the second game, with Porter having a total of 330 for the two games.

In the opener, the bankers took a 10 pin lead, winning 750 to 740. Guy Ryan with 107 won the hand painted arm bands in this game. The second game gave the lawyers a lead by a score of 1607 to 1430. Benoit rolled 170 in the second game, while Benoit's tribe rolled 707.

LAYING DOWN THE LAW Table with 2 columns: Player Name and Total Score. Includes Patrick (165, 148, 311), Fern (167, 106, 273), Peck (137, 110, 246), Pix (144, 104, 308), Linville (163, 145, 298).

FROM THE BLEACHERS. The lawyers held a meeting after the first game to see where their trouble was, and after arguing for several minutes it was discovered by Captain Harry Benoit that the team wasn't knocking down enough pins.

The lawyers are waiting for the league to end so that a team can be picked to play them for the championship of Main street.

Harry Benoit had a few nibbles for his 121 game, the best one being that the alleys were too long.

Wilton Peck allowed his heart to get the best of him, and dropped to 110 in the second game. Peck's scores keep wilton, and wilton.

O. W. was Witham in both games, having an average of 171 for the afternoon.

Ryan was high man in the first and low man in the second. Guy went to run an elevator so the ups and downs don't bother him very much.

Or Chapman sallied forth in the first game with 102, and when told that a few strikes would help his score he got busy and finished up the day with 161.

Phil Pix razzed them down the polished surface so fast that not even the scorekeeper could tell what was happening.

Captain Porter sang that old familiar ballad, "When the pins begin to fall" and averaged 165 for the day.

'Hoops' Linville used 163 for high, being a little off color.

Bill Bailey went through the two games without an error, but several bad spits kept his score down.

Bill Scelley of the sugar factory team was present, and challenged the lawyers to a two game tilt for next Thursday afternoon. Harry Benoit accepted the challenge.

LINE-UP FOR OPENING GAME PUZZLES MENTOR

Evans in Quandy as to Personal of Team that Will Meet Jerome Nine in First Contest of Season

Jerome's baseball team will make its first appearance of the season here this afternoon at Lincoln field when it will cross bats with the local high school team. Perfect baseball weather the last week has given Coach Evans of the Blue and White a chance to give his cohorts some real workouts, but after a week the local mentor is still undecided as to who will be used during the game. Having enough material to pilot three teams Evans is in a quandy and at a late hour Thursday evening could not make up his mind as to the line-up for today's game. For pitchers there are Laval Jarman and possibly Garrity. Hoaglin is laid up with a sore arm and will not be seen in action. Behind the bat, the weak part of the team, there will be Mussell and Garrity. Mussell played in the outfield last year, and did great work, and this year Evans is trying to make him feel at home with a mask on. At first base "Slim" Hammond looks to be the choice, with Walter Scott, Captain Jerry Jarman, and a new arrival, Jerry Jarman, will be seen at short, and Stan Crom will be stationed at the hot corner.

outfield is, another unknown quantity, as there are several like looking chaps out for a place in the locker cabinets. Chief Jamison, Atkinson, Lon Scott and Don Nyo may be used if any.

Jerome comes over here unknown, but reports from the northside metropolitan state that Jerome's team will be heard watching. The game this afternoon will start at 3:30 and will be played at Lincoln field. Season ticket will be honored.

GERMAN INTERNAL LOAN SHORT OF SUBSCRIBERS

Public Absorbs Only 25 Per Cent of $50,000,000 Issue; Private Banks to Shoulders Huge Deficit

BERLIN, March 29 (AP)—Only 25 per cent of Germany's internal fifty-million dollar loan has been covered by popular subscription, according to returns made public today, and while the public has absorbed only 25 per cent of the loan, the financial experts frankly concede that the showing is anything but flattering.

The extent to which the loan is underwritten by the public through the mediation of private banks leaves the banks with a deficit of fifty million gold marks which they now are obligated to assume, in keeping with their promise to the government and the reichsbank. Whether the reichsbank will succeed in disposing of all or the major portion of the unsubscribed balance is highly doubtful, although the hope is expressed that the loan will be listed on German bourses and will consequently find added takers.

LAWMAKERS BAN SMOKES WHEN GOVERNOR SPEAKS

California Legislature Defers to Neighbors' Law and Extends Courtesy to Utah Executive

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 29 (AP)—The rule against smoking in the assembly of the California legislature, suspended for a time today, was reinstated by the Governor. Charles H. Mabey of Utah, addressed that body in a courtesy to him because public smoking in his state is against the law. The action was taken after consideration of a resolution introduced by the Utah law had been repealed. When it was brought out that the Utah law did not cease to be effective until May, the windows were opened so the smoke could blow out by the time Governor Mabey arose to speak.

SEIZURE OF VINEYARDS CREATES STIR IN RUHR

German Populations Manifest More Concern Over Loss of Wine Crop than Over Appropriation of Mines

COBLENZ, March 29 (AP)—The seizure by the French of the Prussian state-owned vineyards along the Moselle has created more stir in the occupied territories among the German population than the appropriation of the coal mines and coke ovens in the Ruhr. It was announced today that confiscation of state-owned vineyards, which cover thousands of acres, will be extended as an early date to the Rhine river on the banks of which the Prussian state has vast tracts devoted to grape growing.

A MAN'S DUTY.

Whatever the individual opinion may be as to the merits or demerits of this, that or the other candidates for Mayor and Council, one point is clear, namely, that the biggest single factor in the whole election process consists in polling a representative vote.

THE BAD SIDE OF LIFE.

"How to Kill a City" is the interesting title of a little booklet devoted to civic development in reverse. Many a town has tried it and of course a majority survive but the strain exacts a fearful toll and the effects frequently linger.

PREVENTED PRODUCTION.

The Department of Agriculture has been making a survey of "prevented production" in farm crops. It is estimated that in the last thirteen years the average annual loss has been more than four billion dollars in eleven of the leading crops.

COAL FROM STONE

A Munich chemist named Prueckner is credited with having produced a "synthetic coal" from stone. It might be remarked that a good many American coal dealers this winter seem to be producing stone from coal, but let that pass.

American hard coal and producing also a good quality of gas and coke. If this is true, it should be a boon to Germany, with her coal beds in Upper Silesia annexed by Poland, those in the Saar valley taken by France and now the Ruhr coal mines controlled by the French. It may be an epochal discovery. But before any American applies for the right to manufacture the new fuel in this country, it might be just as well to find out how much it costs to produce, and whether it really comes from a stone quarry.

Ain't Lorense going to be married next week?" "Oh the talk. But, as Mits' Percy says, there ain't nothin' sure till it happens. It's may been she ain't struck with that young Chase. The love 'tween those two young people has grown naturally and steadily, and it stands ten times the chance to last." Mrs. Wopple blushed with faded expectancy. "Yes, dear, but there are lots of things that would suit me better. You've got to get over this habit. In January you must go to school, and learn things, out of books, so't you can show 'em wagers." "Mitsy exclaimed Lettie, in dismay. "Till Joe J.'s never sit still. I wish they taught school by running. And look here, Penzie, you just give these here ink bottles another up-and-down.
