DENVER BUNGO RING MEMBERS LAUNCH APPEAL

Application for $4,000 Transcript Covering Two Months' Trial First Step in Attempt to Reverse Verdict

DENVER, March 31, (AP)—Who the Denver county grand jury, investigating alleged attempt to bribe the jury which convicted 20 members of a nationwide confidence band here late last Wednesday, remained adjourned today until Monday, attorneys for the convicted men made their first definite move in the litigation intended to reverse the verdict.

Preparatory to filing a motion for a new trial, counsel for the prisoners ordered a complete transcript of the case, the trial of which lasted two months. The transcript, covering about 3,500 pages of legal arguments and evidence, will be furnished to the attorneys at a price of approximately $4,000.

New Sensations Promised

The grand jury investigation, to be resumed next Monday, is expected in official circles to be followed by a sensation that will equal even the dramatic story of the confidence ring from its capture last August to the conviction of its members last Wednesday. Prominent names of political and society men have been linked with the activities of the bunco men during the last few days.

The United States government today made first claim to the vast sums alleged to be due by members of the ring as a result of their failure to pay income, local, general and special taxes in recent years. A lien was filed today by the government upon the first of the twenty from whom the government, the city and county, the district attorney's office and other official sources purpose to collect taxes. The government alleges A. W. Duff, against whom the lien was filed, owes $85,000 in taxes.

The nationwide ramifications of the bunco ring were made more apparent today when it was reported to have been the subject of conferences in the district attorney's offices today, which were participated in by Thomas Lee Woolwin, district attorney of Los Angeles.

Walter Byland, one of the convicted 20, was twice summoned to the district attorney's office during the investigation. He refused to go, saying there was a possibility that Byland might turn state's evidence to testify against other bunco men here and in other cities, but District Attorney Phillip S. Van Cise was reluctant to discuss the reports.

Physicians who examined Lou H. Blonger, the 74 year old so-called "master mind" of the ring, declared today that his physical condition was low. It was intimated that Blonger, who is being held in the county jail with the other prisoners might escape a prison sentence, or be given a life term on the grounds that a penitentiary sentence would be tantamount to a death sentence.

PHYSICIANS ABANDON HOPE FOR BISHOP'S RECOVERY

ST. LOUIS, March 31 (AP)—The Right Rev. Daniel Tuttle, 86 years old, presiding bishop of the Episcopal church in the United States, was today pronounced as growing steadily weaker. Dr. Agge, who has been ill with grippe, was said to be in a semi-conscious condition by his physicians. His hope for the bishop's recovery virtually has been abandoned by physicians, it was said.

Russian Workman Would Try Pope in Soviet Court

Death Sentence Imposed on Catholic Prelate Inspires the Proposal for Halting Pontiff Before Red Tribunal

MOSCOW, March 31 (AP)—The Soviet authorities have not yet carried out the death sentence against Vigar Genar Butelkavitch, Communist justice Kurki declared this afternoon. The announcement, while causing away rumors that the prelate had already been executed, gave no further official information as to what the final outcome of the case would be.

A proposal that the Soviets now put Pope Pius on trial is made in apparent earnestness by a workman who signs his letter in the newspaper Pravda with the name Pedoroff. The writer argues that it is quite possible to try the pontiff without his being present at Moscow.

Monsignor Butelkavitch and other ecclesiastics, he points out, were on charges of organized resistance to the Soviet decrees for disestablishment of the church and its separation from the state, and the pope should hold to account before the Pedoroff asserts, "all the defendants at the trial said the pope was the chief instigator."

First Aid Service is Added to Duties of Letter Carriers

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP)—The gray coated letter carrier, already a collector for mail order houses, a keeper for queen bees, angle worms and infant alligators, as a means of transport for a large part of the country's cameras and in some localities, a vendor of stamps, now is asked by the post-office department to become also a traveling first aid station.

"In case of emergency call a doctor. If you can't get a doctor, call a postman," says a circular issued by the department today. Then it proceeds with a list of instructions to the postman himself, beginning, "Be calm; take command and give orders. Find location of injury—apply blankets and wrapped hot water bottles. And so on, through the category of accepted methods for applying bandages, compresses, probing for 'foreign objects' in a wound, and all other things that first aid experts recommend.

2,000 WORKMEN LAY DOWN TOOLS

Walkout Stops Activities in the Roslyn-Ceelum, Washington, Coal Mining Field

CHEELUM, Wash., March 31 (AP)—When the last shifts of workers came out of the coal mines in the Roslyn-Cheelum field this afternoon between 2000 and 2100 men laid down their tools in a strike called by disagreement with their employers over a contract to succeed one expiring at midnight tonight. The 120 men employed in the Washington field mine at 20 miles south of Olympia, also went out, the only ones in western Washington affected by the strike.

In line with the tradition of this district, no disorder is expected. Current from the Puget Sound Power and Light company's new line to Wenatchee was yesterday turned into the mines, making the operation of boilers unnecessary and it is anticipated that few maintenance men will be employed though the number necessary are to remain at work under an agreement made yesterday by representatives of district No. 10, United Mine Workers, and of the Washington Coal Operators' association.

One of the objects sought by the operators who proposed to cut the wages of men paid by the day $1.50 is a greater differential between the earnings of these men and of men digging coal by quantity. Men on day pay in the mines affected by the strike receive from $7 to $2.25, while similar workers in the quantity mines of western Washington, largely in the Bellingham district, get $6.

Southern Pacific Official Defends Consolidation with the Central Pacific on Grounds of Savings Effected

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31, (AP)—An expenditure of $10,738,000 would be needed, to set up competing systems if the unified operation of the Southern Pacific-Central Pacific railroads was superseded by joint operations, members of the interstate commerce commission were told today at the first California hearing to obtain supplementary evidence on the proposed re-grouping of railroads under the Esch-Cummings bill.

"This sum would be an outlay in addition to the present capital stock of both roads," F. L. Burekhalter, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific company testified. "Both roads would also require increased annual operating expense of $4,075,000. This sum would go far towards the construction of the Naton out off in Oregon, or the contemplated construction of double tracks in the Sierra."

Mr. Burekhalter, the only witness called today, said that the Southern Pacific company, the operating concern, had so merged the properties of the two roads that separation of joint operation would be difficult if not impossible.

REQUEST FOR BOUNTIES LANDS TWO IN CUSTODY

Deputy Sheriff Recognizes Name of Man Wanted at Hood River; Companion Held on Statutory Charge

When Ralph Weigle applied at the sheriff's office for bounty on several men wanted here on Saturday afternoon, he walked into trouble and brought his friend, Virgil Wallock, with him.

As Weigle signed his name to the bounty application slip, Deputy Forest Prater recognized the name as that of a man wanted by the authorities at Hood River, Ore. Knowing that Wallock, who was wanted here on a statutory charge, might be with the other man, Deputy Prater questioned him, and as a result found Wallock sitting in an automobile in front of the court house.

Wallock will be held to face the local charge, but Weigle will probably be released, according to officers. Both had been traveling about the country in an automobile and working at various places.

According to the French version of the affair, a lieutenant and 11 soldiers who went to the Krupp works for the purpose of requisitioning automobiles were set upon by a mob variously estimated to number between 2000 and 3000, which was called together by the factory siren.

The mob showered stones upon the soldiers, the French say, while many of the workmen, armed with revolvers, fired shots. The soldiers returned the fire, shooting over the heads of the mob at first, but when the workmen refused to disperse, finally aiming to kill.

Contractor Says Mail Order Bride Fled with $3,000

DENVER, March 31 (AP)—A woman who gave her name as Mrs. Cloray P. Whitney, 28, and said her home was in Missoula, Mont., was detained at police headquarters here tonight, pending a probe on allegations made by Jack Hunnell, 40, that she obtained about $3000 from him. Hunnell told the police he is a wealthy building contractor of Gallup, N. M.

Hunnell told the police he met the woman in Los Angeles through a matrimonial advertisement. On the statement that she would marry him Hunnell declared he had advanced her money at various times. Hunnell declared she told him she was wealthy, owned a ranch worth $200,000 near Missoula and had plenty of money.

SHOWERS FIGURE IN PREDICTIONS

Meteorologist Takes Optimistic View of Forecast for Dismal Easter Day

SPOKANE, March 31 (AP)—April showers seldom last all day, so no reason exists why women of Spokane and vicinity would fear their Easter duds at home, Meteorologist E. M. Keyser declared tonight in connection with the forecast, "showers."

"I don't want to discourage anyone into forcing to wear their Easter finery," Mr. Keyser said. "There should be long intervals between showers tomorrow when all the clothes can be put on parade."

CHICAGO, March 31 (AP)—Some hope for the annual Easter parade tomorrow was to be found in the announcement tonight of Henry J. Cox, district meteorologist, that only a slight temperature rise is to prevail tonight and tomorrow.

OUTING GIVES HARDINGS NEW HEALTH LEASE

President and Wife, With Vacation Companions, Stop for Week in Georgia on Way Back to Capital

ON BOARD HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, March 31 (AP)—The special train carrying President Harding and his vacation party from St. Augustine to Augusta, Ga., reached Jacksonville at 8:35 o'clock tonight, and left 15 minutes later.

The presidential special will reach Augusta early tomorrow and the party will stop at the Elgin A. Vanderbilt hotel, where they will stay during the visit. The president plans to attend Easter services in Augusta tomorrow morning.

Attorney General Daugherty changed his plans to leave St. Augustine, Fla., to accompany Mr. C. in advance of the presidential party, and traveled on the same train to Jacksonville. Just before reaching Jacksonville, President Harding went up to Attorney General Daugherty's car and spent some time with him.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 31 (AP)

Heated and improved greatly in health, President and Mrs. Harding tonight brought their Florida vacation to an end, departing by special train for Augusta, Ga., to spend another week before returning to Washington.

Those who saw the president and his wife step from a train 25 days ago at Granddune, and who also saw them board the train here tonight could see plainly the benefits derived from a vacation spent in the warm Florida sunshine, away from the cares of a Washington and without schedules or any firmly established routine.

Bronzed by Sun

The president, through open life of the household trip, and the daily rounds of golf, has been bronzed by the Florida sun. In the world another member of the party, "has improved 100 per cent."

Mrs. Harding, who left the White House last night since her illness of last fall when she boarded the train for Florida March 5, has been recuperating rapidly.

Politics did not intrude upon the vacation, but the sunbathers expected in view of the number of political leaders in Florida.

Avoids Politics

The statement of Attorney General Daugherty at Miami brought about some political discussion, but the president, both on his way here to any considerable degree, of feeling, as he thinks that predictions that he will be a candidate for re-nomination are premature, and that political considerations should be withheld until later.

However much the president may disagree with his attorney general as to the opportunity of the father's statement, their relations here were most cordial.

Secretary of War Promises Plain Statement in Response to Demand for Silence on Part of Army Officers

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP)—Requests that Secretary Weeks prevent army officers from speaking publicly in regard to their profession, and using language that conflicts with the aims of certain "peace" organizations, may result soon in a plain statement by the secretary setting forth his opinion of the organizations concerned and their activities.

Mr. Weeks said today that he had received from peace organizations a number of protests against speeches delivered by army officers. One of these asked particularly that he order Brigadier General Angus A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare service, to stop making speeches. It was indicated at the war department that the secretary might answer the requests by making plain the right of officers to act individually and by revealing to the country the "menacing attitude and unpatriotic program of certain organizations."

48 Hour Record of Holdups and Robberies Brings Orders Increasing Number of Patrolmen on Streets

NEW YORK, March 31 (AP)—Precarious conditions against a crime wave in greater New York were taken today by police officials after an unusual 48 hour record of holdups and robberies had been totaled up.

All patrolmen on special duty in hospitals and routine departmental work were ordered to uniform patrol duty in their respective precincts and vacancies were supplied. The order, it was said, would place 600 additional patrolmen on duty.

The Orchelimum subdivision of 1000 acres adjacent to Twin Falls is not so large by 25 per cent as it was when it was opened to the public on Wednesday afternoon, one-quarter of it having been disposed of already and the remaining tracts are selling like hot cakes. The weather man was cruel to the Lanthorn investment and improvement company. His behavior of late entitles him to be reduced to the ranks of the erstwhile croakers. A chill wind swept the dust particles into the faces of the crowd which assembled at the Bryan-Piler farm for the opening and it seemed to chill the marrow of all who participated. But the attraction was too great and the checks poured in until there were 75 in the hat.

Joseph Krivanek and J. D. Cook of New York were arrested in Jerome for permanent residence Saturday.

SCENES IN "ADAM'S RIB"

In Cecil B. DeMille's new Paramount production, "Adam's Rib," the Chicago Board of Trade, with its wheat and corn pits, is reproduced with absolute fidelity to make real the scenes where Milton Sills, one of the five featured players in the picture, wins and loses a fortune in grain trading.

Then there is the Natural History museum where Elliott Dexter and Pauline Garon start a pleasing love romance. Great, towering, thirty-foot dinosaur skeletons put this scene in a class by itself as a novelty.

Besides the featured players in "Adam's Rib" which opens at the Idaho theater tomorrow, the excellent Do Millo cast includes Clarence Goldart, George Field, Robert Brower, Forrest Robinson, Gene Corrado, Wedgewood Nowell and Clarence Burton.

PRESS LAUDS "MONTE CRISTO"

Advance reports on "Monte Cristo," the special production which will be shown at the Orpheum theater for a two days' engagement starting Monday, indicate that motion picture fans of this city are due for one of the real treats of the cinema season.

A notable cast of screen artists support John Gilbert in the leading roles, including such popular featured players as Robert McKim and Ralph Channing, who used to be a resident of Twin Falls in the early days, later a noted player in stock at Salt Lake.

Two outstanding dramatic events are scheduled for presentation in Twin Falls in the near future. The first will be E. Forrest Taylor and Miss Anne Burman, supported by an all-star cast in "The Ghost Between," on Tuesday, April 10, and the other will be the New York production of "The Bat," on April 16 at the Lavinger theater. E. Forrest Taylor is too well known in this territory to need any introduction and brings at this time an excellent production both from a scenic and artistic standpoint. Many inquiries have been received in regard to bringing Mr. Taylor to Twin Falls and as soon as it was learned that he was coming into Idaho Mr. Rubin at once wired him to include Twin Falls. Correspondence followed with the result that the date was arranged for.

"The Ghost Between" is one of the greatest plays that has ever been released for the road. The story is a big man's love for a good woman. It runs the gamut of laughter and tears.

Neither money nor effort have been spared towards making "The Ghost Between" a scenic as well as an acting treat. The combination is bound to prove a memorable one.

TARKINGTON STORY IN FILM.
Coming to the Rialto theater on Monday of this week for the engagement of four days in Universal Pictures' Corporation's latest Jewel production, "The Flirt," a filmization of Booth Tarkington's famous story of the same name. An all-star cast interprets the various roles.

The title role is played by Eileen Percy, with Helen Jerome Eddy as the other sister. George Nichols as the father and Buddy Messenger as the little imp of a brother, are two others whose work in this picture stands out prominently.

"Isn't it grand? I feel like saying God bless you all," was the exclaiming used by Mrs. W. S. Kuhn as she unlocked the first headgate on the North Side canal at Milner on Monday afternoon, March 23, and started the flow of the vitalizing waters which will give life to 180,000 acres and furnish homes for thousands of good citizens. The ceremony was in the nature of a family party, in that nearly all those who witnessed it were residents of the Twin Falls tract, who understood and appreciated what was being done. The presence of the thousand citizens of Buhl, Filer, Twin Falls, Kimberly, Hansen and Murtugha who came to Milner to watch the operation of what the North Side company has done, was very pleasing to Mr. Kuhn and his associates. A special train from Boise brought down Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hill, Jr., J. H. BABSON GIVES WARNING TO SOUTH CALIFORNIA

Statistician Foresees Increased Competition for West Coast Playground; General Outlook is Good

MOUNTAIN, LAKE, Fla., March 31.—(Special to The News)—Roger W. Babson is resting here, having just completed his long trip of inspection throughout the different sections of the United States. He leaves here next week for his home in Wellesley Hills, Mass. This morning he issued the following statement regarding the business prospects of the Pacific coast. He added, however, that he was unfortunately unable to visit the coast on this trip and this statement is based upon statistical data and reports from his correspondents.

"The Pacific northwest," says Mr. Babson, "is looking forward to better business. Prospects are encouraging for lumber, fishing, shipping and agriculture. Practically all of the large sawmills of Washington and Oregon are now operating and production is above normal. A number of mills are even operating two or three eight-hour shifts. Orders for lumber are averaging larger than production in a number of strongholds. Many mills have sufficient business on their books to keep them running at capacity for some time. Of course, the lumber trade is largely responsible for the active demand. Later, there may be a let up, but I look for active residential building throughout the greater part of 1923.

Diversification Favors.
"Salmon canning was a fairly good outlook. Plans have been made for a substantial increase in the pack this year. The employment of more men, and the purchase from ships' chandlers, can-making plants, machinery houses and food and clothing establishments, will continue to contribute towards better business. From an agricultural standpoint, Washington and Oregon are in a better position than most states. Crop diversification is an outstanding factor. Moreover, the crop yield each year is exceptionally heavy. Apples, hops, berries and small fruits all bring wealth to the grower. Under these conditions, the future of the Pacific northwest enters the new crop year in a strong position. This year's crop cannot be fully forecast, but what came through the winter in excellent shape and the canneries appear to have contracted for a large amount of berries and small fruit.

"With lumber production at high levels, with more active canneries operating than a year ago, with considerable ready cash in the fruit, sheep and farming country, and with an increase in shipping trade, the Pacific northwest is headed towards a gratifying increase in business. Uniform and complete prosperity cannot be expected for some time and there will be moderate recession. The outlook is relatively good, however, and advertising and selling campaigns in this section should produce generously. The prosperous Wenatchee valley is most attractive; but Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and other Washington and Oregon cities also merit attention.

Question in South.
Regarding California," Mr. Babson says, "the northern part of California has been settling down with the rest of the country. Lumbering, mining, stock raising, wool growing, canning and other lines, have been quite thoroughly liquidated. San Francisco and the bay region have been dull for over a year. For this part of the state a slow but steady improvement is in prospect. Southern California, on the other hand, did not reach the peak of the present cycle until the latter part of 1921. It will doubtless escape the critical phases of the depression; nevertheless, it may not have completed its period of readjustment.

"Many factors suggest this outlook for southern California. I see nothing in any of these factors, however, to occasion alarm. The great diversity of crops and industries upon which California depends and the efficient marketing characteristic of the state should tend to prevent any serious depression. I emphasize the possibility of further moderate liquidation, as I know from my correspondence that many look for uninterrupted expansion. For the long pull, California is unquestionably sound, but during 1923 business may mark time. Southern California should be included in all sales campaigns, but as the years progress, both sales and credit departments should proceed carefully.

"In explaining the reason for this," Mr. Babson continued, "if you picture the country as a placid lake and imagine that somebody drops a rock into New York, you will get a vivid idea of how an economic movement begins and develops. The ripple of depression and prosperity spread to the north, the west and the south. Take the recent depression, for example. It started in the northeast, with a decline in the stock market and a slowing down of New England factories. This came the crash in the agricultural west and south Canada held up for some time after the depression appeared in the states. The Pacific coast was among the last areas to be effected. Improvement is going to follow much the same course.

Plans True to Form.
"The northern parts of the Pacific coast district is running true to economic form. There was a distinct decline in California, Oregon and northern California. Moreover, this decline did not develop until some time after the onslaught of the depression in the eastern coast. California escaped its early forecast. In the southern sections of California, however, the trend has been greatly modified. Reaction is taking the form of a pause in growth rather than any prolonged downward movement. In Los Angeles, for example, during the boom year of 1920, the cost of California rose and in 1921 and 1922 it about held its own. It is possible, of course, that some weakness may develop later; but in view of the industrial progress of the locality, such a recession should not be severe.

"I hesitate when in Florida," continued the statistician, "to forecast definitely for California. First, because I am apt to be misquoted by some of the Florida enthusiasts; and secondly, because I love and believe in the Florida coast. California and Florida have a population of 25,000,000—or perhaps more. It has the possibilities of a great empire. On the other hand, it has no monopoly of sunshine and its more rapid growth is due to the fact that Florida has been asleep. However, I say this as a friend of California because I want California to realize her true potentialities. In the next ten years it will have more competition than it has had during the past ten years. Trees do not grow to the skies and this applies to oranges, trees as well as every other species. Little does California realize the tremendous orange plantings in Florida during the past few years. Florida will come into her own almost at one time—about 1927. Beginning then, there is bound to be a tremendous struggle for eastern markets between these two states. I want my friends in California to be prepared for the flood when it comes.

A Vital Question.
"California has thus far been sort of immune from the great business depression," added Mr. Babson in conclusion. "This is due to the great influx each year of new people with money. People who made money in other states have been carrying it to California. When business in California would have fallen off, this natural decline was offset by new people and new money coming from other states. Can this always continue? I simply ask the question and urge my good California friends to think about it. In the meantime, let me say that business, taking the country as a whole, is making an exceptionally good showing. The Babson-barometer stands today at 5 per cent above normal compared with 12 per cent below normal a year ago today."—(All publication rights strictly reserved.)

23 SERIES STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX TOURING CAR $975

Judged solely on what you yourself can see—its beauty of line and finish and its many refinements—the 23 Series Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car will merit quick approval.

But go deeper than that. Fine appearance is only one of the essentials you want. Judge it on its hidden, vital qualities that make for long life, extra service and certainty of operation.

For example, the crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces. This practice, which is followed exclusively by Studebaker in the low price field, virtually eliminates vibration.

The striking body is all steel, even to the framework. Seats are wide and deep and are set at the exact angle for most restful riding. The ten-inch cushions are upholstered in genuine leather.

The one-piece, rain-proof windshield provides unobstructed view of the road ahead. The cowl ventilator is opened or closed in a moment. Attractive cowl lights are set in the windshield base—and there are many other features.

The reputation of the Light-Six is firmly established. One hundred thousand owners have experienced its satisfaction in performance, durability, economy, comfort and convenience.

BOWLING NOTES

With the Troy Laundry team will be making out first place. The Twin Falls bowling league will get under way Monday evening.

Owing to the fact that the Kiwanis and Rotary club are scheduled for an evening of socialing on Wednesday, the games for the coming week have been changed around a bit.

Monday evening a doubleheader will be played starting at 7 o'clock. The opening game of the evening will be played between the Troy Cafe and Idaho Theatre teams. These two teams are fighting hard for a place at the top, and with but two more games after this week, the work of the team this week will have much to do for the final outcome.

The second game Monday evening will be held by 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

Another doubleheader in on the boards for Tuesday evening with the Remuda Wright club starting the evening's entertainment with the Wright's boys. The game will start at 7 o'clock sharp. The auto men took a good whipping last week from the Show Market boys, and are not on doing their high class work Tuesday night.

Roy Child's league leaders will be seen in action in the last game of the evening when they meet the Show Market team. This game in the big one of the week, and the winner of this three game tilt will give the fans a line on who is going to win the prize as these two teams are in the most formidable contenders although the Remuda-Wright boys are still in the running. Should the auto men win three in a row from the Wright's score, the Show Market boys will have three from the laundry team, then-but what's the use?

Our daily bowling thought: If you have a secret that is worth keeping it is worth telling to your friends.

Mr. Shad L. Hodgin, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Dear Sir: Complying with your request for our opinion as to whether or not it is necessary for a citizen to be a tax payer in order to hold the office of Mayor of Twin Falls, we, the undersigned, submit the following:

We have carefully examined the Constitution and the Statutes of the State of Idaho covering the subject and under Section 20, Article 1 of the Constitution as construed by our Supreme Court, in the cases of Pioneer Irrigation District v. Walker, 20 Idaho 605, and Ferbrache v. Drainage District, 23 Idaho 85, we unhesitatingly give it as our opinion that it is not necessary to be a tax payer in order to hold the office of Mayor.

Sincerely Yours,

Candidates For Election

The Detweiler Coal Co. wants to be elected without fail. Some folks, when they run for office, seem so dilatory about it, but we are in earnest.

We notice by the local papers that there are two tickets in the field, klan and anti-klan. Now, we want to run on both tickets. We are so glad that the Old Republican and Democrat Parties have been scrapped, as we believe that they both have outlived their usefulness.

We have a good reason why we want to run on both tickets. We don't want any votes.

We pledge ourselves to lock up "tight" on Sunday (No Sunday business at our coal yard) but we DO want to sell you Spring Canyon Nut Coal six days in the week.

Now, we are not as well acquainted with these klan and anti-klan fellows as we are with the Democrats and Republicans, but we have decided not to make any difference in the price of our coal, or in the weight. You can belong to any church or secret organization you want to; there is only one thing that we ask of you, and that is that you buy our coal; not because it is cheaper but because it is better, starts easier, lasts longer, is hotter, has less ash, soot, slate and clinkers and it costs only $8.00 per ton; so now let's get together and do business. We will both be benefitted.

We still have some of that famous Trebi Barley for sale. Yield 100 bushels and more per acre.

INVESTIGATION IS COMPLETED IN MODEL CASE

District Attorney Finishes the Questioning of Wealthy Admirer of Dead Girl; Says Next Step is up to Police

NEW YORK, March 31 (AP)—After questioning John Keaneley Mitchell, wealthy Philadelphia clubman and his personal attorney, John H. Jackson, for five and a half hours tonight, Ferdinand Pecora, assistant district attorney, announced he had completed his investigation into the murder of Dorothy King Keenan, and that he would turn over all testimony and evidence to the police.

"The rest is up to the police," he said. Mitchell and Jackson received every detail of their friendship with the slain model, Mr. Pecora said, and answered all questions frankly.

"Do you mean that Mitchell's revelations give him a clean bill of health?" was asked. He declined to answer.

Glans Important Facts. While refusing to disclose what testimony had been given by the two men, Mr. Pecora said that new information of the greatest importance had been brought to light.

The information strengthened his belief that Miss Keenan had been slain by conspirators who planned to blackmail Mitchell, and also tended to support the police theory that she had been slain by robbers.

"I will say nothing as to who is suspected," Mr. Pecora continued. "I am through with this inquiry until the police request my further assistance. The police have more facts than I have and the scope of their investigation has been larger than mine."

Mitchell Details Story. Mitchell, he said, told the complete story of his friendship with Miss Keenan, which dates back two years. So did Jackson. They were particularly questioned, he said, about their movements the night the model was slain.

Police were preparing to check up on the stories and Mr. Pecora was satisfied that Mitchell had never met the brothers of the slain model, John and Frank Keenan. While Mitchell and Jackson were being questioned, John Keenan remained in an outer office. For the first time in his investigation of the murder, Mr. Pecora had a stenographer record the statements of Mitchell, who was known as "Mr. Marshall," to Miss Keenan and Jackson as "Mr. Wilson."

Theft of Valuable Violins At Ogden is Believed Solved in Capture of Edith Walling

OGDEN, March 31, (AP)—The theft of three valuable violins from a Salt Lake dealer a few days ago was cleared up in Ogden today, police say, with the arrest of Miss Edith Walling, 19, of Los Angeles, a violinist, and Raymond Delano, 25, said to be absent without leave from the United States marine corps at San Francisco. Delano was arrested this morning as he called at the room occupied by the girl in a local hotel. The girl escaped from the police by slipping down an awning to the street. She was captured at Promontory Point on Great Salt Lake late today after she had walked thirty miles.

People Tell Us We Have Revolutionized the Dry Cleaning Industry of Twin Falls

Our new clarification system of dry cleaning has suddenly become a sensational success.

Hundreds of Twin Falls county people have used this service, scores have congratulated us on the better quality of our cleaning.

For years we have watched developments in dry cleaning methods and equipment, have investigated and tested those which showed merit. Finally we decided on the Bowser clarifilter system of cleaning as the only method that will remove every vestige of dirt from garments, sterilize as well as clarify the fluid used in carrying off this dirt, at the required rate of three hundred gallons for each garment cleaned.

Send in a trial order, it costs no more than ordinary cleaning.

HODGIN CANNOT QUALIFY

The Idaho Statutes Require the Mayor to be a Taxpayer

Section 3867, Idaho Compiled Statutes, reads as follows: "All officers shall be qualified electors and taxpayers and shall have resided within the limits of the city for three months next preceeding their election."

Section 3861, Constitution of Council. "The Council of each city of the second class shall consist of not less than four nor more than twelve citizens of said city, who shall be qualified electors and taxpayers under the constitution and laws of the State of Idaho."

Since it is the Statutory Law of Idaho that all elective city officials cannot qualify unless they are taxpayers, and Since Mr. Shad L. Hodgin is not a taxpayer,

We the Lambing committee, having at heart the welfare of Twin Falls, and a firm desire not to walk in the paths of uncertainty, thereby avoiding confusion and needless litigation in our city affairs,

Respectfully call upon Mr. Hodgin to prove his sincerity for the welfare of our city, by Withdrawing from the Race for Mayor.

The sections of the statute above quoted have been the law of the State of Idaho for eighteen years and the Supreme Court of the State has never declared said laws to be unconstitutional.

We sincerely trust that Mr. Hodgin will not let his personal ambition, nor the desires and importunities of his friends, plunge Twin Falls into needless and expensive litigation.

WE AWAIT YOUR REPLY, MR. HODGIN.

COMMITTEE.

Note—In case of litigation, should Mr. Hodgin be elected the present incumbent would hold over pending the decision of the Supreme Court. Nothing in the Commission Form of Government Law, under which our city is now operating, in any way conflicts with the above statutes.

AN EASTER THOUGHT

Long, long before the continent we call America was discovered, a mighty river was pouring its waters through our western country. Aboriginal man gazed upon it in awe, and wild animals crept to its banks to quench their thirst. The same river is sweeping through those regions today, as it will be doing in the ages to come.
 On its broad bosom vessels of all descriptions transport cargoes of things useful and necessary to the existence of man and beast. Its waters irrigate vast regions devoted to the production of foodstuffs, of fabrics for clothing, and of materials needed in the construction of homes and church and schools and mills, and all other structures essential to the welfare of man.
 Kind. For the water course along which this river flows is about 2,550 miles in length.

To trace this mighty river to its source one must begin at the Gulf of Mexico, into which it empties, and proceed northward. At certain intervals tributaries are encountered, there being about 100,000 such streams, large and small. Northward, ever northward, the source seeks travel,
 until at last he finds it in Itasca Lake, a small body of water in northern Minnesota—the beginning place of the tremendous Mississippi, the "Father of Waters."

Since long before the discovery of our continent there has been another,
 and mightier river—a river of love,
 carrying spiritual healing to the nations of the world. It stops not at oceans, but crosses them. It sweeps over mountains and down into valleys, through cities and communities of all lands, and even penetrates the jungles of darkest Africa, carrying to barbarians and savages the message of love, and hope and faith. Its tributaries must be reckoned by millions, for they flow from every hamlet and village and city in the world.

To trace this mighty river of love to its source one must go back through the history of the human race. Back through modern eras, back through ancient times, back through the ruins of forgotten civilizations; back, and on back nearly 2,000 years, and then the river finds it in an empty tomb in the land of Palestine. For there, and not in the manger at Bethlehem, the mighty stream of Christianity had its beginning in the Resurrection.

 And thus it comes about that at Easter-tide the thought of the world turns to that empty tomb and its meaning: "Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting?
 O grave, where is thy victory?"

THE ELECTION

That the Hodgkin-Keel-Leslie city ticket is a "wet" ticket, an anti-church ticket and a wide-open Sunday ticket are among the happy suggestions offered by way of conversation
 in connection with the forthcoming
 City election.

It is these things by turn, be it understood, not all at once. In a similar sense the Lambing-Stinson-Roberts ticket is any kind of a ticket but the kind, it really is, the entire problem of selection revolving itself into a sort of glorified popularity contest, with interesting sideights supplied by the backers of each set of candidates.

Each side has affirmed its determination to give to Twin Falls the best efforts of which its members are capable in the event of election. Mr.
 Roberts alone is a member of the present city administration, the others, with the exception of Mr. Mc-Anley, whose candidacy is apparently not attached to any ticket, have never, so far as known, served in similar office. Mr. Roberts' record in office is well known. An allegiance hidden in his loyalty to the Mills-Walton interests constitutes his greatest fault and his connection with Messrs. Lambing and Stinson perhaps the greatest single source of weakness of the Lambing ticket.

Barely have the people of any Idaho town had an opportunity of voting for a better man for Mayor than Shad Hodgkin, perhaps never, and the same may be said of Messrs. Keel and Leslie.

The idea that the future of Twin Falls is not wholly safe in every sense of the word in the hands of these men is an absurdity and any implication tending to create a contrary impression should be so treated.
 Yet this implies no reflection upon the business record, the personal standing or the good faith of Mr.
 William Lambing, his opponent.

The News is opposed to the candidacy of Mr. Roberts on the general ground that his record in office is not such as to entitle him to a second term.

It is unfortunate that so great a degree of feeling should be aroused in the eleventh hour stages of the campaign. We all of us would do well to bear in mind that no matter what the outcome, we are going to continue to live in Twin Falls in more or less harmony with our fellow men and with existing conditions.

To permit the excitement of the election to result in an after condition in any manner tending to interfere with this is to pay too big a price for what we are pleased to regard as our ideals in the way of City government.

A NEW FACTOR

As to the reputed activity of the local membership of the Ku Klux Klan in Tuesday's election, it may be observed that this was to have been expected. More and more the tendency toward groups rather than individual action grows in its relation to politics.

Assuming that the local Klan organization is an active factor in the election, and it is difficult to believe the contrary, the same objection lies as would be the case if the Catholics, the Mormons, the Methodists or the Jews would undertake the job of gaining control of our City.

The City of Twin Falls should owe no special consideration to any organized body. The duty of its Mayor and Council is strictly to the people as a whole, and there can be no such thing as unbiased and unprejudiced service to all where special privilege is owned to the few.

The question as to whether the Klan organization of this city yields a whole or a pernicious influence no man can honestly answer on the evidence. This however is true: the idea of the existence of a concealed or masked group influence in civic affairs in Twin Falls may or may not be of value to the members of such group but it cannot be reasonably accepted as of value to this City. Its existence is too prone to let down the bars to lawlessness on the part of any who care to take advantage of the mask feature to indulge in lawless acts on the basis of a very thorough assurance that in public estimation such acts would be directly charged to the Klan and the membership thereof compelled to bear the brunt of the responsibility.

It is perfectly fair to assume that the rank and file of this institution's membership is composed of men of as high an average intelligence as the membership of other fraternal and religious institutions and with the outstanding difference of the identity of Klan membership. The identity of membership and the concealment of connection is a sign to the entire spirit of the other organizations.

But to the mass chargeable the great bulk of public unwillingness to accept the organization at the valuation placed upon it by its advocates and as long as human nature remains unchanged the feeling will obtain.
 Public opinion will always take the position that a secret influence is generally a sinister influence for the reason that if it were not there would be no occasion for secrecy.

Possibly the Klan, if it remains a factor in American community life, will some day change this. When it does it will have taken the first long steps in the direction of public popularity and the Americanism of tradition.

A PLAIN STATEMENT TO THE PEOPLE

By the Hodgkin-Keel-Leslie Ticket

Mr. Lambing's correspondence with Mr. Keel made apparent the fact that the same forces were promoting his candidacy and that of Mr. Stinson, as were also supporting Mr. Roberts', who is an important member of the Walton-Mills political gang. All secrecy and doubt concerning this connection has been removed by the illustrated advertising signed by these candidates.

It now becomes important to lay before the public the other influences—aside from the Walton-Mills combination—which are supporting these candidates.

We say that the organization known to the uninitiated as the Ku Klux Klan is the principal force behind these candidates. This statement is made advisedly. Two of the candidates on the Lambing ticket have admitted that they have applied for membership in that secret organization. Reverend Burks of the Christian Church who seems to be the only man in this community who has sufficient courage and decency to publicly acknowledge membership in this organization, has been active in advancing the interests of these candidates and has attempted with some degree of success to remove opposition from their path. Certainly Reverend Burks would not lend his support to those candidates were they not, too, in accord with the teachings and in active sympathy with the purposes of the Ku Klux Klan.

We believe it is important for the people to understand the teachings and purposes of this organization, so that they may avoid having the conditions, which the application of these purposes to our civic and governmental affairs will impose upon this community.

The Ku Klux Klan as an organization claims a numerous membership in this community, but for some reason—either through shame or wilful design—it is disclaimed and repudiated by every person here except Reverend Burks.

From its printed propaganda its members stand for and are 100 per cent Americans. They subscribe allegiance to the "Invisible Empire." They stand for separation of church and state—which seems to mean to them only separation of the Roman Catholic Church and its members; members of the Jewish race and faith and members of the Mormon Church from political activity. It discriminates against the foreign born. It appeals to national, to racial and to religious prejudice such as will only engender rancor and bitterness among neighbors and produce turmoil and dissension in the community. It operates under cover of mask and robe; it assumes without legal authority to take unto itself the enforcement of the criminal law and the punishment of those whom it suspects of law violations. It is designed to terrorize, intimidate and destroy those who do not accept its tenets or bow to its will. It is admittedly a political organization; ambitious to inaugurate its program of intolerance. Among its reputed membership in this community are many misguided, though sincere and honest citizens.

We do not accept the claims nor approve of the purposes of this organization.

There are three organizations in this nation whose 100 per cent Americanism we proudly extol—the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish-American War Veterans and the American Legion. The members of each of these organizations have worn the regalia of 100 per cent Americanism and by their courage and sacrifices have gloriously preserved the institutions and nobly advanced the ideals of true Americanism. This they have done without regard to their place of birth; their race; their religious beliefs or political affiliations. In times of national stress such considerations are properly cast aside. In times of peace surely those considerations growing out of bigotry and prejudice have no proper place in what should be the constitutional government and orderly progress of an intelligent Christian people whose fundamental principles of government are those of religious freedom, separation of church and state and that "All men are created free and equal."

We, too, favor the cardinal American doctrine of separation of church and state, but we apply this doctrine to all and to every church, it is equally as great a violation of this principle for Rev. Mr. Burks as a minister and Klansman to belittle his holy office by employing it for political purposes, to mislead his people by attempting to influence their right of suffrage as it would be for a Catholic Priest, a Mormon Bishop or a Jewish Rabbi to do the same thing.

We believe that the foreign born who are here because of the past generous policy of our government respecting immigration, are entitled to the same equal rights and protection under our laws and to the same opportunities to make an honest living as are any other citizens.

We believe the law should be enforced only by the legally constituted authorities; that all laws should be enforced with equal vigor, and without fear or favor. We believe this should and can be done without violating the sacred constitutional rights of any citizen.

We do not believe that any secret, invisible or insidious influence or organization should be exalted to the control of the government of this City. We believe that public officials should be responsible only to the public, and that their conduct as men and officials should be open and above board.

What Twin Falls now demands is harmony and co-operation. With this its successful future is certain. Let every person be respected in and for his honest religious beliefs. Let people come here to build homes and assist in the development of this great country and in producing wealth from its wonderful resources. Do not discourage or prevent their coming by saying to them that they must worship God only as some one here will dictate; or, that they must kowtow to some invisible or mysterious authority in their government which will first approve or reject their certificate of birth. Let them know that the laws are only to be enforced by the constituted authorities supported by the co-operation of an intelligent and law-abiding citizenry.

We have felt that the importance of these matters has required this plain public statement.

A public mass meeting will be held Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Lavinger Theatre at which the issues and facts will be dealt with by these candidates and other citizens.

Merits Win New Honors

People have recognized in the new Overland a higher standard of automobile value. Longer lines, a higher hood, an all-steel body, Triplex Springs (Patented), a dependable, economical engine have earned for Overland the greatest success of its history.

Some Overland advantages over other light cars: Engine mechanism entirely enclosed; Borg & Beck type Disc Clutch running in oil; One and One-Half Inch Rear Axle Shafts removable without disturbing housing; (Shafts and wheel bearings same make and type as used in Packard Six).

INDIAN WOMAN ENDS OWN LIFE BY RIFLE SHOT

Sarah Nebie, Who Led Authorities in Pursuit of Murderer, in Despondent Mood, Sends Bullet Through Brain

Sarah Nebie, Indian woman, who with her husband, was the first to take up the hunt for Van Eaton for the murder of a girl two years ago near the Nevada line, killed herself late Friday at her home, three miles east of Contact, by firing a rifle bullet through her heart, according to the coroner's inquest conducted at Contact.

Dependancy was the only cause mentioned by the coroner as being responsible for her act. According to information given the coroner, Joe Nebie, husband of the woman, and another man were working at the cannery at the Noble home in the Meadow creek district, when they heard a shot and rushing to the house found the woman dying. A local physician, who was called immediately from Contact, but before reaching the woman he was informed she had died.

Through her intimate knowledge of the Nevada country the Indian woman's services were called by the sheriff in seeking Van Eaton. For several days she took a leading part in the search which led to the finding of a man's hat and a note, supposed to have been written by Van Eaton on the bank of the Salmon river reservoir. The note was dragged thoroughly but no trace of the body was found and the belief arose that the note was simply a ruse of the hunted man. The search was continued but Van Eaton was not found.

A. L. Stewart and Charley Robinson Seriously Hurt at Rogerson Ranches; Delicate Operation is Performed

Archie L. Stewart and Charley Robinson, residents of the Rogerson Ranches, are patients in the county hospital for treatment of serious injuries sustained in encounters with horses during the latter part of last week.

Mr. Stewart received a fractured skull when one of his horses, kicked him. The fall on the horse also broke the skull just above Mr. Stewart's left eye and necessitated an operation Saturday morning which he survived nicely according to the attending physician.

Mr. Robinson, who is a foreman at the Perea ranch, received serious abdominal injuries when thrown from his horse Thursday. The condition of both men was favorable late Saturday night, according to reports from the hospital.

Interest Shown in Orchestra Concert

Possibility of Establishing a Symphony Seen in Connection with Musical Event

Considerable interest is being shown in the orchestra concert to be given at the Orpheum theater Monday evening, April 9, according to Gustav Platteau, who is managing and directing the concert.

The size of the orchestra has been increased to include 78 players, including members from Blackfoot, Pocatello and other points.

Rehearsals have been conducted every Sunday afternoon at the Orpheum theater several weeks and encouraging improvement is noted each week in the practice performance.

A feature of the concert will be the appearance of Miss Corinne Maupin, solo harpist. Miss Maupin is said to be unusually talented. She will be presented in solo and will take part in the ensemble and will be accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Masters, who will give several vocal solos.

Mr. Fleckner hopes to make the concert an annual event, and if possible, to establish the orchestra permanently as a symphony organization.

IDAHO UNIVERSITY HAS RECORD HOLSTEIN COW

Idaho Violet Posh Ormsby First in State to Produce 1,000 Pounds of Butterfat in Year

Idaho Violet Posh Ormsby, a nine-year-old Holstein cow bred and owned by the University of Idaho at Moscow, has produced 1,000 pounds of butterfat in the United States to produce 1,000 pounds of butterfat in one year and the first in Idaho to make this production, according to official announcement of the national registry office of the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

In 35 days Idaho Violet Posh Ormsby produced 25,425 pounds of milk, of which 25.4 percent butterfat. Her butterfat production for the year to date is 1,007.11 pounds, equivalent to 12,523 pounds of butter. The American record for butter production is 1,523.2 pounds. This record makes her the highest producing Holstein in Idaho and gives her sixteenth place among 12,141 cows producing over 100 pounds of butterfat.

In May, 1922, the highest month of her test, Idaho Violet Posh Ormsby produced 102.18 pounds of butterfat. Her sire is Hazelwood Posh Ormsby and her dam Cascade Violet Cornucopia. Twelve different supervisors were employed in conducting the test.

RATE ON SCHOOL BONDS LOWERED

Negotiations Closed with Boise Firm for Reducing Interest on Debt

Negotiations were closed at a special meeting of the school board Saturday afternoon, whereby $52,000 in bonds of the school district No. 1 were refunded by the Chittis Bonding and Mortgage company of Boise.

R. M. D. Childs attended the meeting and closed the negotiations with the Chittis company reduce the interest to 4.55 per cent.

The bonds taken over by the Boise company do not mature for several years, but the school board simply exercised its option of refunding as a means of eliminating the necessity of continuing payments on the higher rate of interest.

Later bond issues of the school district bear 5.75 and 6 per cent interest but the point has not yet been reached in the new deal where the board is permitted the option of refunding.

The matter of refunding of bonds was decided upon at the recent special meeting of the school board when the high school and intermediate departments were reorganized. James Fitzcerald, treasurer of the board, and J. H. Bradley, newly appointed member, were named to have charge of the proposition.

No other business was considered at the special meeting Saturday.

FARM HELP IS IN DEMAND

Local Agencies Report Scarcity of Good Hands for Agricultural Work This Year; Urge Men to Register

With the spring work on farms getting well under way a shortage of reliable farm labor is reported.

The surplus of laboring men in the city has practically disappeared, many of them having taken farm jobs, according to Commissioner S. G. McAuley of the street department.

The chamber of commerce has received requests for farm hands in increasing numbers recently and other employment agencies report the demand is increasing. Men seeking farm work are requested to register at the chamber of commerce, city hall or the farmers' service offices.
