DEATH TOLL OF TORNADO REACHES 14

Pineville, Louisiana, is Hard Hit by Twisters that Strike Points in Four Southern States

ALEXANDRIA, La., April 4 (AP)—The known dead in the tornado which early tonight struck Pineville and vicinity across the Red River from Alexandria, reached 14 with the arrival here at 10 o'clock tonight of a train bringing the bodies of eight persons killed at Pineville and a small settlement a mile east of that town.

Fifty or more persons were reported injured. Search was being made tonight for the wrecked houses in an area approximately a mile square in the eastern section of Pineville for the dead and injured and missing.

Town in Darkness

The lighting system in Pineville was put out of commission by the storm and it was impossible tonight to learn the extent of the damage on account of darkness and the prohibiting of all street traffic on the town's streets.

It is estimated that between 50 and 60 houses were either completely demolished or badly damaged. Several mercantile buildings were also destroyed.

Some of the injured were reported to be in a serious condition, among them being Homer Jaron, whose arm was torn off by flying debris.

Debris Fills Streets

The most seriously hurt were taken to the United States veterans' hospital at Camp Stafford, or brought to local hospitals.

The main street in Pineville is strewn with wreckage from destroyed houses and telegraph and telegraph poles. Men of Alexandria and Pineville are assisting in clearing the streets tonight.

OUTS SWATH IN TEXAS

TEXARKANA, Texas, April 4 (AP)—A tornado swept through Cass county, in the northeast corner of Texas late today leaving a trail 15 miles long on which were scattered the wreckage of 25 or more homes. The heaviest damage was said to be in Laws, Chapel and Alameda communities and at a point about a half mile southwest of Atlanta, Texas.

No casualties have been reported.

RAZES ARKANSAS FARM HOUSES

ELDORADO, Ark., April 4 (AP)—Several farm houses were blown off their foundations, one destroyed, one man injured and a sawmill blown away by the wind and rain which struck this section late today. One farm home, six miles south of here, was completely wrecked. The family escaped injury when they took refuge in a deep gully.

DOZEN HURT IN NORTH CAROLINA

RALPHIGH, N. C., April 4 (AP)—A dozen or more persons were injured by the wind which swept through the wide and ten miles long south of Wendell, in Wake county, today, wrecking a hundred or more houses and doing damage to the amount of more than $100,000, according to reports here. Some of those most seriously injured were ordered removed to a Raleigh hospital.

PUTE LEADER ELUDES CHASE

United States Marshal Turns Back After Two Weeks' Chase with 73 Captives

SALT LAKE, April 4 (AP)—After a two-weeks' search through the mountainous territory of San Juan basin, in southeastern Utah, for renegade Piute Indians who revolted under the leadership of Chief Old Posey, United States Marshal Jay Ward returned here tonight and declared that 73 Indians had been captured.

Chief of Indian, Old Posey, however, eluded his pursuers and is still at liberty, Marshal Ward said. Seven of the captured Indians were arraigned before United States Commissioner Peter Allen at Blanding, Utah, on charges of insurrection, and now are in the custody of Sheriff W. E. Oliver of San Juan county, the remainder of the captives and others are prisoners in a barbed wire stockade, Marshal Ward declared, pending action as to their disposition by the federal Indian bureau at Washington.

Marshal Ward asserted that the search for Old Posey, who is reported to be 100 years old, would be continued, announcing his intention to return to San Juan district within ten days. He said the seven Indians who were arraigned had been arrested on federal warrants.

Sixteen Indian children, abandoned when the Piutes fled to the mountains, have been placed in an Indian school at Tropic, Utah.

U. S. Commissioner W. J. Burton of San Juan county, who accompanied Marshal Ward here tonight, declared that definite action was necessary to sever further claims between the Piute settlers and Indians in the southeastern part of the state.

High School Pupils Take Examinations by Radio Telephone

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Bendlin, and "Twin" in arithmetic taught to the tune of radio and its first trial today when pupils of several city schools took an accountability examination by wireless telephony.

While officials of the New York board of education listened to a radio station broadcast the voice of an instructor dictated a series of accountancy problems. Pupils at their desks in several high schools simultaneously heard the problems, answered them and then heard the correct answers transmitted by the specially installed radio loud speaking device.

KLAN IS SPLIT INTO TWO CAMPS

Members Flock to Opposing Standards of the Emperor and Imperial Wizard

ATLANTA, Ga., April 4 (AP)—While Imperial Emperor William J. Simmons and Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans started counter moves for control of the Ku Klux Klan through the courts, members of the order began reaching Atlanta today as a result of the fray.

In the meantime Sheriff J. I. Lowry of Fulton county ruled over the imperial palace, general headquarters of the clan, and Judge Thomas will resume hearing in the case tomorrow.

Klanmen are reported arriving from all sections of the nation, some flocking to the standard of Emperor Simmons while others were rallying around the faction headed by the imperial wizard.

Charges Embroilment

Warrants were issued late today for N. N. Purney, cashier of the Knights of Ku Klux Klan, charging him with embezzlement of $90,000, and for T. J. McKinnon, chief of the investigating department, for $20,000, according to the sheriff's office. The warrants were sworn to by E. J. Jones, an assistant of Emperor William J. Simmons.

Associates of Simmons said other warrants might be taken out. They said the charges against the two officials followed a day of investigation at the imperial palace official headquarters of the clan, while Simmons was temporarily in charge yesterday. Simmons was ousted today by court order and Sheriff J. I. Lowry placed in charge.

LIBERATION OF PRELATE HELD BY REDS ASKED

American Request to Soviet Government in Behalf of Former Patriarch is Reported Through London

LONDON, April 4 (AP)—The Riga correspondent of the Times says it is reported by a reliable Moscow source that America has unofficially requested the soviet government to allow the Most Rev. Dr. Tikhon, former patriarch of all Russia and metropolitan of Moscow, but now under arrest and awaiting trial, to proceed to America where he formerly resided. Dr. Tikhon abdicated as patriarch last May, having been placed on trial some time before for resisting the requisitioning of church treasures. It was stated recently that the proceedings against him were to be transferred to Petrograd.

Trotsky and Kamineff, who have become virtually dictators, it is further reported, were inclined to agree, but Bishop Antonia, head of the soviet anti-pope church administration, dissuaded them.

Bishop Antonia explained that the soviet church convention summoned for April 15, intends to place Dr. Tikhon on trial before an ecclesiastical board and unmask him, after which the soviet tribunal may without hindrance try him as an ordinary layman.

The American request was refused, and Tikhon's trial, adds the correspondent, has been postponed, pending the convention.

STORY OF EXECUTION TOLD

WARSAW, April 4 (AP)—Monsieur Butchkevitch, whose death was ordered by the soviet government, was executed at 4 o'clock Saturday morning. He was taken to the cellar beneath the Cheka building, according to advice reaching here, and made to stand with his executioner behind him. He was shot with a revolver through the back of the head.

While efforts are being made to ascertain what happened after the execution, the only information thus far vouchsafed is that the body was removed to an unrecalled spot.

SOVIET CLOSING INCIDENT

MOSCOW, April 4 (AP)—The execution of Vicar General Butchkevitch appears to be a closed incident so far as the Russian government is concerned. From Catholic sources it is learned that no reply has been made by the government to the request of Roman Catholics of Moscow for permission to bury the vicar in accordance with the rites of the church.

G. O. P. IS NOT FOR OPEN SHOP

Gomper's Statement Received With Surprise by Members of President's Party

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4 (AP)—The statement issued in Washington tonight by Spanish Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, warning the republican party against taking a stand in the 1924 campaign in favor of the open shop, was received with surprise here tonight by members of President Harding's vacation party.

Mr. Harding himself had no comment to make on the labor leader's statement, but other members of the party close to him were plainly surprised. The attitude of the president's associates here is that the republican party will take no such anti-labor position, and it was made known informally immediately upon publication of reports that pressure had been brought to bear to have the party declare itself for the open shop.

So far as has been learned the only discussion of the matter at all during the southern trip has been by an Ohio manufacturer who happened to be stopping at the same hotel with the president in St. Augustine, and who while there had merely a social call on the executive.

Associates of the president in saying that no movement of any consequence in support of this manufacturer's view had been started, have pointed out that such a step would be absurd inasmuch as neither through legislation nor through executive action could any administration bring about the open shop conditions in American industry.

The president, it has been pointed out, has on numerous occasions publicly

GERMANS PLAN TO HONOR DEAD

Victims of Clash With French Troops at Krupp Plant to be Buried with War's Heroes

ESSEN, April 3 (AP)—Two more of the Germans wounded in the clash with French troops at the Krupp works here last Saturday, died today, bringing the total fatalities to thirteen.

The common funeral for the victims which had been set for today, has been postponed until Friday or Saturday.

They will be buried in the "cemetery of honor," laid out during the war for men who died in the service of their country.

The Krupp plant which had been closed since Saturday resumed work today. Officials said it would continue to operate indefinitely as orders were on hand for several months and a few more were coming in from time to time. The output, except that for Ruhr consumption is being stored since the Krupp refused to honor the Berlin government's orders not to pay the export taxes.

Death Summons Discover of Pharaoh's Tomb

Natives See Pennily Exacted for Tampering With Burial Place of King

CAIRO, April 5 (AP)—The Earl of Carnarvon died peacefully at 2 o'clock this morning. He was conscious almost to the end. His death was due to blood poisoning through the bite of an insect with the later development of pneumonia.

Death occurred at the Continental hotel in Cairo early this morning. The physicians' certificate giving the exact cause of death has not been made public up to the present, but the latest reports indicate that death was due to lobular pneumonia in both lungs, complicated with pleurisy.

The death of the Earl of Carnarvon comes soon after the culmination of the exploit that brought him chiefly into public notice—the discovery of the rich tomb of the Pharaoh Tutankhamen in the valley of the kings in Egypt by the archaeological expedition which he headed.

While the press of the world was still devoting no small amount of space to the discovery, it is now turning to the world's art and history which Lord Carnarvon and his fellow explorers had uncovered, came the news that he had been suddenly stricken down and was lying agonically in Cairo from the bite of an insect.

By the public at large the misfortune which the earl had met was regarded as a lamentable incident that might have happened in any tropical climate such as that of Egypt. But to the cred-

CREDITS JAPAN WITH HONESTY IN HER PLEDGE

Former American Ambassador to Tokio Says Suspicions of Move Against China or Russia are Unreasonable

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Suspicion occasionally cropping out that Japan will renege what she has relinquished in China and the mainland, Siberia is both unfair and unbecomingly. Charles Beecher Warren, former ambassador to Japan declared, at the annual dinner here tonight of the Japanese Club, that the Japanese government, under the leadership of Masumoto-Hiroyasu, Japanese ambassador to the United States, and Mame Hanabusa, who were to honor guests, were obliged to state that she plans to attend the function because of the death of Prince Kitashirakawa, brother-in-law of the emperor, who was killed in an automobile accident in France.

Mr. Warren declared that to recite the facts of the Far Eastern situation would be to refute and dispel any such insinuation by Japan that would offend the friendly powers.

Credits Good Faith.
"Such suspicions," he said, "are unfair because we certainly treat Japan on the basis of crediting her with good intentions of a great nation which has bound itself in good faith before the world. They are unreasonable for Japan took the German rights in Shantung as an act of war, as one of the allies in the great war against the German empire and occupied a part of Siberia in the first instance as a military enterprise, with the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy."

"To recover the German rights, to reoccupy the leased territory of Germany in China is to take war against China, whose territorial integrity Japan has pledged her faith to respect and to take advantage of the internal conditions of China, which Japan has agreed not to do. To reoccupy any part of the mainland of Siberia is to make war against the Russian people."

Clies Troops Withdrawal.
"The Japanese have asked their signature with performance. The troops of Japan have been withdrawn from Hankow, from Shantung and from the mainland of Siberia. They might there be Japanese soldiers in China except under the terms of specific treaty provisions and all Japanese soldiers have been withdrawn from the vicinity of Vladivostok, Nikolayevsk and elsewhere on the mainland of Siberia."

Mr. Warren declared that there is a new stability in the Far East and that the distrust and suspicion that prevailed in Japan and America only a short time ago that seemed to constitute a potential danger to the peace of the world, has disappeared. The dangerous situation in the Far East, he said, fundamentally arose from the weakness of China—its inability to establish and maintain a stable government qualified and prepared to protect and preserve its territory, or perform the normal functions of a sovereign nation among the nations of the world.

The weakness of China, he said, will not in the near future disappear. Efficient government cannot be expected to arise out of the conditions that are bound to prevail for a considerable time, he said. Other nations, he pointed out, must give an unembarrassed opportunity for the development of the capacity to govern and be willing to be jointly helpful and assist the slow and toilsome progress of the Chinese in establishing efficient self-government.

Assures China of Chance.
The new four party treaty terminates the Anglo-Japanese alliance, he said. This treaty between Japan, Great Britain, France and the United States, awaits only the expected ratification of France in order to become effective. Nine nations, he asserted, have achieved a unity of policy toward China and commerce with her, and the Chinese are assured an opportunity, unembarrassed by further aggression, to work out their problem.

METROPOLITAN BREAKS ALL INSURANCE RECORDS

Year 1922 Shows Increasing Prosperity and Improving Business Conditions

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company broke all records in amount of business done in the year just accounting to a record published today. The amount of new business placed on the books exceeded the phenomenal year of 1920 and was far in excess of what had been done in 1921. The officers of the company believe that this certainly reflects improved business conditions.

Particularly significant is the fact that industrial insurance, which is taken largely by wage earners and their families, had such a great volume. The total amount of industrial insurance placed during the year was over $75,000,000. The income of the company increased by over thirty-eight and a half million dollars that of 1921, reaching the total of $40,860,000.

Along with this great increase in the business side, the welfare work done by the company, in behalf of the health of its industrial policyholders, kept pace. Metropolitan nurses made more than two million free visits to sick industrial policyholders, bringing the total number made since this service was inaugurated to over sixteen million. The company has distributed altogether two hundred and seventy-two million booklets and pamphlets on disease and prevention and treatment of disease and this, in cooperation with the general activities which are widening each year on the part of affiliated national and local health organizations, has resulted in extending the life expectancy among industrial policyholders by eight and one-half years since 1911.

Snake River Is Vital Factor in Idaho's Growth

Government Engineers Point Out Importance of Stream in State's Development

BOISE, April 4.—The study of the power resources of Snake river begun in 1920 by an examination of the river between Huntington, Ore., and Lewiston, Idaho, by engineers of the United States geological survey of the interior department was continued in 1922 by a similar examination of the river in southern Idaho, between Milner and Weiser.

The report on this work will not be published for several months, but in the meantime in order to make the data that it contains available, manuscript copies of it will be open for public inspection at the office of the geological survey in Washington, D. C., and at the office of the district engineer at Boise, Idaho, in room 615 of the Idaho building.

In its western course across southern Idaho Snake river has cut through the basalt and the stratified sediments that make up the extensive plains bordering the river, and between Milner and Weiser it has a total fall of nearly 2000 feet. Of this drop 240 feet is concentrated at two points—at Twin falls, where the fall is 140 feet, and at Shoshone falls, where it is 260 feet. The high stages of the river with these falls compare favorably in grandeur with Niagara. Shoshone falls is now utilized for the development of power, but Twin Falls and many other places, which are fully described in the report, are valuable potential power sites not yet developed.

Prior to 1884, when the main line of the Oregon Short Line railroad was completed across southern Idaho, the Snake river plain from Pocatello westward was a sagebrush desert. Boise had a population of about 50, and other points at which there are now large villages or cities were little more than stage stations. By 1890 the total population of the plain was perhaps 15,000, and a small amount of land was being irrigated. About 1900 the country began to realize that desert lands could be reclaimed by irrigation, and between 1900 and 1910 many extensive government and private irrigation systems were put into operation in southern Idaho and in other western states. Tracts in southern Idaho amounting to more than 1,200,000 acres are now being irrigated. With the growth of population that followed the opening of these vast tracts there came naturally a demand for power. The geological survey's report gives a summary of the development of power in this region. The first developments were small and were under local control, but as the field of operations widened interference between companies led to intense rivalry and to over-development, which was followed by depression and reorganization, resulting finally in the formation of the Idaho Power company, which now owns and operates practically all the hydroelectric developments in southern Idaho along Snake river. The report gives the history of each project in detail and describes the project works, at which over 70,000 horsepower is now being made available for use. The report contains maps and descriptions of 19 sites at which 250,000 horsepower could probably be developed, even during times of low-water flow. It sets forth the amount of water available for power development and the schemes by which the fullest use may be made of the water. Chapters of the report are devoted to the physiography and geology of the river valley and to the springs along the river.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR-ELECT ANXIOUS TO BEGIN WORK

Disregards Thompson's Wish to Sound Out Eight Years in Office by Deciding to Assume Reins April 16

CHICAGO, April 4 (AP)—Mayor-elect William E. Dever, who yesterday received the largest plurality, with one exception, ever accorded a Chicago mayor, will take the oath of office and assume the reins of municipal government on April 16, instead of April 20, his followers said tonight.

The decision was reached, it was said, after it was found that the law did not specify the date for the change, merely requiring the successful candidates to have their certificates of election, to have their bonds approved and to take the oath of office. Mayor William Hale Thompson, it was understood, had been desirous of rounding out eight years in the office by remaining until April 20, but the mayor-elect is reported to have decided to go into office as soon as he is qualified.

It is expected that the democrat city clerk and city treasurer, elected with the democrat mayor, as well as 20 aldermen, will assume office at the same time.

LABOR OBJECTS TO USE OF ARMS TO END STRIKES

Rockford Plan for Trained Industrial Reserves Under National Defense Organization Calls Down Wrath

CHICAGO, April 4 (AP)—Trained industrial reserves as a coordinate branch of the national defense, thus providing a militia of industry to preserve industrial peace as the militia of arms preserves order, is the cardinal principle of what has become known as the "Rockford plan" for ending strikes, according to its author, Professor Henry Martyn Herrick, associate professor of modern languages at Rockford college.

The plan is described by Professor Herrick as a "challenge to union leaders to meet his way," but Matthew Wall, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, characterizes the plan as "unpracticable, absurd, a dream and perhaps a nightmare."

"One is strangely impressed with the brilliancy of the new idea of an 'economic reserve' or army of break strikes of organized wage earners. When one seeks to find the sources from which this economic reserve is to be conscripted, one is left in complete darkness and confusion," said Mr. Wall. "Where is he to find these voluntary strike breakers?"

Herrick Outlines Plan

In outlining his plan Professor Herrick stated: "I recalled first a question asked by the acting governor of Illinois of an official of the miners' union during the coal strike.

"'May they die coal for the host of the official' was the question. 'No,' replied the official.

"Our defense has been wholly military. We have defended our borders, but not our vital industries. We must supply this lack by making trained industrial reserve a coordinate branch of the national defense. The militia of industry will preserve industrial peace as the militia of arms preserves order. It will take but few trained reserves to defend our vital industries such as mining and transportation. Industrial unpreparedness is as inexcusable as military.

"Strikes, in narrow good old military terms, are either laudable or malignant. Strikes in vital industries are malignant. The laudable strike usual in Lincoln's day, has become rare. You see, therefore, why our six million farmers do not strike.

"But to organize labor the strike is the breath of life.

"The government, cooperating with the entire educational system, will offer a brief intensive course in one or more of the vital industries under the new plan. This will add purpose and aim to education, and will stamp on citizenship. No drafting will be required, for volunteers will flock to the reserves in allegiance to Uncle Sam, even many from the unions to escape bad leadership.

"Here is the safeguard against socialism. The spirit of admitting the desirable alien to do the work we should do ourselves will be apparent. The Boy Scouts will be ideal pioneers of the new way.

"The plan has made a good start. In Rockford, its power and promise were quickly recognized. It has received attention at the White House and has been placed on file for reference in the department of labor, in the division of conciliation. The plan strikes terror to the heart of the employer."

Wall Defends Strike

Mr. Wall, in commenting on the plan, said:

"Professor Herrick would have labor free to organize and to strike if it wants to, but he would set up an economic reserve, founded on voluntary conscription, that could be drawn upon wherever and whenever the organized work-a-darn exercise their refusal to give service to the employing interests.

"His idea is new only in that he would have the state, instead of the private employer, venture into the organization of strike breaking, by organizing a state organization of strike breakers under the former exclusive term of 'economic reserves.'

"Somehow the workers of America are loath to give up their rights as freemen. Professor Herrick's idea is interesting because of his all-absorbing desire to protect employers and industries and in his failure to give any consideration to the protection of human life and the advancement of the human interests of that large group of producers—the wage earning class. For the workers to resent wrong, for them to organize to protect themselves against economic enslavement, for them to aspire to a better life and to the higher things in life, evidently is all wrong, according to the ideas of Professor Herrick.

"Why continue the unjustified and uneconomic assumption that the possessors of wealth do no wrong and need not be restrained while the non-possessors of wealth are always wrong and need always to be regulated and restrained? Are we to condone the conduct of those making it imperative for the workers to protect against their continued degradation and slavery and by the only power in their possession—the strike."

"Does Professor Herrick intend that there should be maintained constantly an army of unemployed, but trained and paid by the state? Or does he intend that our princes of finance shall voluntarily contribute and assign part of their working force to this economic reserve? In either event Professor Herrick again assumes that the workers are more uneducated than he, shifted at will, and that they are unopposed to the sympathetic appeal of their fellow workers."

BLOOD STAINS FIGURE IN STORY OF GIRL'S DEATH

Testimony as to Conditions Found in Slight Dancer's Cottage is Offered in Trial of Dr. Jacobs

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 3 (AP)—Testimony relative to the finding of blood stains in cottage 33, at the Blue Sea hotel cottages, at La Jolla, where Fritz Mann is declared to have been killed, but Thursday afternoon in the night she was Tuesday in the trial of Captain Louis L. Jacobs, charged with her murder.

This testimony, given by Mrs. E. V. Spencer, janitress at the Blue Sea cottages, came as a surprise to the jury. Mrs. Spencer declared the bed had been disarranged and that there was discolored water in the bath.

Dorothy Armstrong, dancer and chum of Fritz Mann, was the first witness called today. Miss Armstrong had been called to testify in the Mann case just after her examination was started, the defense halted the questioning by protesting that it had not been established that a crime had been committed.

Miss Armstrong's testimony was confined to statements regarding four meetings between Miss Mann and Captain Jacobs at which she was present. Efforts on the part of the prosecution to have Miss Armstrong identify Captain Jacobs as the escort of Miss Mann on the night she is alleged to have been killed failed.

THUG ATTACKS JEWISH RABBI

Stranger in Seaman's Uniform Inflicts Severe Wounds; Believe Robbery Was Motive

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4 (AP)—Rabbi Alfred G. Lafee, 25, of the Bush street temple, lies in the Mount Zion hospital, near death from a crushed skull near death from a result of a beating given him by a stranger dressed in a navy seaman's uniform while they were alone in a hotel room last night.

Rabbi Lafee was bleeding and senseless when found by a "pink" of the hotel in the room early today and remained unconscious throughout the day except for a brief period when he was able to identify himself. Robbery is believed to have been the motive for the attack. Physicians early tonight were debating the advisability of operating on him.

Search for the stranger, described as a heavy-set man of about 25 years, were unavailing today. The police also attempted in vain to learn why Rabbi Lafee had been seized his name as "A. Layne" on the hotel register. The stranger registered as H. B. Hickman.

Rabbi Lafee is credited with being the youngest rabbi in the state. The Bush street temple is regarded as one of the most important in local Jewish and the young rabbi is an outstanding figure in the Jewish community here. Relatives are of the opinion that he gave lead to a "hard luck" story told him by the stranger and endeavored to help him by putting him up at the hotel for the night.

The police took from the room a heavy tumbler, believed to have been used by the stranger to beat the rabbi about the head.

SPAIN'S KING DECLINES CABINET'S RESIGNATION

Ministry of Marquis of Albuquerca Weathers Crisis and Retains Post when Monarch Manifests Approval

MADRID, April 3 (AP)—The king Tuesday expressed confidence in the ministry of the Marquis of Albuquerca, when the resignation of the cabinet was declined him. In consequence of this, the ministry remains in power, with the exception of the minister of finance, Jose de Maiztegui.

Earlier in the day the premier, Marquis de Albuquerca, conferred with the king for two hours today, presumably concerning the cabinet crisis. After the conference the premier informed correspondents that complete harmony prevailed in the cabinet relative to the Moroccan policy and that any reasons there might have been for resignation of the war minister had been removed.

The premier added that the Spanish episcopate's manifesto opposing any constitutional change with regard to religious matters would be discussed later.

A dispatch from Madrid last night said ministerial difficulties were rumored, especially because of the reported intention of the government to reform the paragraphs of the constitution dealing with the concordat and the nation. Another rumor was to the effect that the war minister was dissatisfied over the settlement reached by the cabinet for establishment of a civil protectorate in Morocco.

LORD CECIL EXPLAINS HIS MISSION IN AMERICA

British Exponent of League of Nations Denies Purpose to Instruct United States What They Should Do

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Robert Cecil in an interview with newspaper men denied Tuesday that his trip to America was purposed to instruct the people of the United States what they should do about joining, or not joining, the league of nations.

"I am not an important intervenor in other people's affairs," he asserted. "I thought I had made it plain in my public statements that my object in coming here was to give information about the league of nations as a first intention."

Lord Cecil also stated that he would be guilty of the gravest impertinence if I attempted to instruct the American people in their own affairs.

"I am presenting the league of nations as a practical business proposition, and as an organized international effort for peace. I can see no hope for the survival of European civilization unless there is an end of war and some hope of peace in the future."

Lord Robert said he had neither the expectation or intention of changing the attitude of the American people toward the league of nations as expressed by the last election. He pointed out that there was a great danger for a nation in distrusting everyone as there was in trusting everyone.

REPORTS RESCUE AT SEA

Steamship Captain, Erostrated Two Year Ago for Failure to Pick Up Mon. Tolls of Saving Second Crew

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Captain A. Randall of the steamer President Filmore Tuesday reported by wireless his second rescue of sea since he was ejected two years ago for neglecting to pick up three men in a disabled motor boat off the Long Island coast.

Latest rescue was that of the captain and crew of six of the British schooner Brita, of Cherch, in distress 500 miles south of Cape Race, New Brunswick, off the coast of St. John's, N. E. The schooner had been damaged by storm, was set on fire before she was abandoned.

Captain Randall was in command of the steamer Hudson in October, 1921, when he was alleged to have ignored the distress signals. Randall's ship was carrying mail and he did not realize the motor boat was in trouble. He was cleared after a hearing before the board of steamship inspectors.

His first rescue after the hearing was made in January, 1922, when he saved the crew of the schooner Unio from the crew of the schooner Unio from the crew of the schooner Unio.

HEIRS ATTACK CLAIMS OF GOULD'S CHILDREN

Son and Daughters of Present Wife are Declared to Have Been Born Out of Wedlock

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Three children of the present Mrs. George J. Gould are not the issue of George J. Gould, "within the meaning" of the will of Jay Gould and have no interest in his estate, four heirs of Jay Gould declared in answers filed today to the supplemental amended complaint of the estate trustees in the Gould accounting proceedings now pending.

The answer was filed by Malcolm Sumner, guardian ad litem of Jay Gould, Jr., George J. Gould, III, Margaret Carter Gould and Estvayne Wainwright, juvenile heirs of Jay Gould.

It discloses that the children of Mrs. George J. Gould, formerly Gulliver, are George J. Gould, Jr., George J. Gould, III, Margaret Carter Gould and Estvayne Wainwright, and that all of them were born during the married life of George J. Gould and Edith Kingston Gould, the wife of George J. Gould—prior to the death of Edith Kingston Gould, and also prior to the marriage of George J. Gould to Gulliver Sinclair.

The answer also alleges that the "said children have no right or interest in the Jay Gould estate and that the children are not the issue of George J. Gould within the meaning of that word used in the will of Jay Gould, deceased."

It also was denied that "the power of testamentary appointment" given George J. Gould in the will over the estate held for his benefit, empowered him upon his death, to bequeath that share of any part of it to any one or more of the children in question."

REPORTED LIBERATION OF PRIEST IS BELIEVED A HOAX

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—A message sent from here today to a Knight of Columbus publication in New York, stating that Father J. A. Vranick, the missing Illinois priest, had been "captured from his abductors" and was being returned to his home, is regarded by the Buffalo police as the work of a crank.

The message was signed by "J. C. Perrine." Under the signature had been written and partly erased, the words "Burrin National Detective Agency, Buffalo, N. Y."

Detective Chief Zimmerman said there is no agency bearing the name of Perrine here, and none is listed as a recognized national agency.

NAMPA DEFEATS FILER TOSSERS

Visitors Score Four-Run Lead in First Period Leading to Victory, 8 to 3

Playing its first baseball game of the season, Filer went down to defeat Wednesday afternoon at the Filer grounds before the Nampa ball tossers, 8 to 3.

Failing to go into the box ready to pitch, erstwhile Schaeffer, Filer's star pitcher, had an opportunity to win the first game of baseball the Filer high school has ever played. Three walks and a hit batsman gave the visitors a four run lead in the opening inning, but one hit being made, that a two runner to right by Woodie.

The Nampa squad scored another run in the second frame, when Smith sent a hot one to center going on to second when Hall left the ball get away from him. A passed ball sent him to third, and then Spriggs and Smith got a second run home, Smith striking the rubber as soon as the ball was hit.

Two more were registered for Nampa in the fourth, Johnson opening the inning by puncturing the air. Smith sent his second hit of the day to center, stole second and went to third on a passed ball. Spriggs singled into scoring Smith, but was forced at second when Smythe sent an easy roller to Aman. Smythe stole second, and scored a moment later when Burdick sent a long triple to deep left.

NAMPA TO CROSS BATS WITH TWIN FALLS TEAM

Visitors' Victory Over Filer Shows Strength and Skill, and Insures Keon Contest Here

Twin Falls will be treated to its second game of baseball this afternoon, when the Nampa team will cross bats with the local high school ball tossers. Nampa's victory over Filer yesterday showed them to be well over the average high school team, and it is doubtful whether the Harrison put out its strongest lineup.

Woodie, who caught yesterday's game at Filer, will do the catching this afternoon, and is said to have considerable skill. Johnny Keith, who played short yesterday, will be seen on the receiving end. The hard hitting Burdick will shift from second to short, with Gray coming in from center to second. Gray will be stationed in center.

Coach Evans is still undecided as to who will start in the box, although it is probable that Favel Jorman will start off, with Hodgkin taking his turn if necessary.

Nampa has a hard hitting team and have in Keon a pitcher of inside base ball. This will give the locals something to think about as the local team has been whipped by teams into taking the last year's season.

The games today and tomorrow will be played at Lincoln field and will start at 4 o'clock sharp. Season tickets will be accepted at these games.

Rotary Club Bowlers Best Kiwanians in Competition

Varying Degrees of Skill Are Manifested in Elimination Rounds in Which All Members Participate

(BY EZRIA)

Well, I heard so much about this new Rotary club that I thought I would go over and see them rotate at their bowling alley, so after getting permission from Mandy, and promising to be back early, I walked forth for a little recreation.

They told me that there was going to be a winner or something but after watching some of those fellows try and roll the balls toward the pins I came to the conclusion that they were kidding, as they couldn't be a winner with that kind of bowling.

Being an old timer here, I know quite a few of the actors, and in a careful way, I found out that the first set to end with both teams winning two games in the elimination.

When the Kiwanians found out that they were not the bowlers they thought they were, they added the total pins and found they had punished the perpendicular wood 1946 times, while the Rotarians, (I merely say that, not judging any, as they all bow) knuckled over 1859 numbers.

"I have said, I know all them Rotarians club men, and if the Kiwanians fellows knew them as well as I do they would have known better than to try and get away with that pin stuff, but they didn't, and sprang the gag on them, and then the bow began to fly. There was a young Rotary boy, (I forget his name) and he looked like a boy to me) by the name of Evans, and he started on page one and began to quote a lot about what should be done about taking pins. He seemed quite excited and finally had his way, the score standing two games apiece as was. I guess that he got excited to make the other fellows think that he really was excited because after it was over, he was excited no more.

Rotary Presents Trophy

During the elimination games, there was a man came in who said he was Judge Walters. (I didn't get a chance to hear what his name was) who immediately stepped upon the platform, and wanted to know who was the highest bowler. Bert Colwell, who had the highest score, was named as was, but the judge said that he meant as a bowler and not in salute. Well, it soon was found out that John Smith was the "Royal" man that the judge was hunting for, and the judge found out that John was really trying to bowl, he made him a present in the name of the Rotarians club. It was a beautiful thing, and he had it with him when he was laid in so far, that I couldn't see it, but I was told that there was some in it, and no doubt there was.

Organization of music was started by the weaker members of both organizations started to rolling what they called five pins. They used five pins but I didn't see any of them, but I was told that they stayed put where the pin boys put them.

In this five ball affair, as it were, the Kiwanians teams proved that being members of the younger circle they were better bowlers than the Rotarians, who have not grown big enough to be used for ten pins. Every game that the Rotary men thought they were going to win was thought wrong.

One of the fellows told me that the Kiwanians had won three sets of this five ball game. I found out afterward that it was a Kiwanian man who told me as the chance, but they didn't win any more than that.

Evans Admits Clash

The big game of the evening, which was between a select team of both clubs (I guess they were called select because they were selected) was started and then I saw this fellow Evans again, who is the captain, coach, and general manager of the Rotarians team. The Rotarians won the first game by what some said was a score of 10 to 2, as follows: 602 for the Kiwanians and 716 for the older club. I introduced myself to this Evans boy and he told me that he was the best bowler in that game, as he rolled 130.

FISTIC KINGS DEFEND TITLES

Lynch Defeats Midget Smith and Genaro Outpoints Taylor in Chicago Athletic Show

COLISEUM, CHICAGO, April 4 (AP)—Before more than 10,000 spectators, the biggest crowd that ever witnessed an indoor athletic show in Chicago, Joe Lynch, world's bantamweight champion, defeated Midget Smith of New York, while Frank Genaro, American flyweight champion, outpointed Buddy Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., in two consecutive ten-round contests tonight.

Genaro fought as much in the air as he did with both feet on the canvas and hit Taylor with such a terrific compilation of punches that he had the crowd screaming.

After a dizzy first round which went to Taylor, Genaro warmed up to his task, permitting Taylor to do a lot of the leading while he suffered singularly stiff and accurate countering with rights and lefts.

Taylor Sheds Teeth

Taylor was credited with winning the first, fourth and tenth rounds, while the third was fairly even.

Genaro was in front in the second, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth. Taylor lost two pivotal teeth in the fourth round and in the fifth a bridge flew out of his mouth. Taylor's handlers said the damage was done by Genaro's head striking Taylor's mouth when the champion jumped into the air to land.

Rivals Convention Crowds

The Coliseum, the largest building of its kind in Chicago and the scene of half a dozen Republican national conventions, was packed to standing room capacity with an estimated attendance of 10,000 to 12,000 men and women when the first preliminary started. The gate receipts, with tickets selling at $2 to $10, were around the $58,000 mark—the largest of any indoor athletic show ever held in Chicago. With the house nearly sold in advance, disappointed fans offered as high as $10 for a choice $10 ticket. Outside, the police nabbed a daring individual who was doing a land-office business on the sidewalk selling counterfeit tickets to the unsuspecting for $3 each as fast as he could hand them out.

With boxing staged "under cover" in Chicago for the last six months, tonight's program was the most profitable held here in twenty years, since the memorable fake fight between Terry McGovern and Joe Gans, the fight that resulted in clamping the lid on the sport.

Operas Under Inspection

The promoters expected tonight under the protection of an inspection restraining the police, sheriff and coroner and every other officials from interfering. The police did not interfere—they watched with delight when one of the boxers planted a solid punch on his opponent's nose and between bouts acted as ushers. The Coliseum never held such a crowd even at a republican convention, for tonight even the aisles were illuminated by hundreds who were forced to stand.

In a six round opener, Jimmy Anderson outpointed Mike Snyder, flooring him for a count of nine in the fifth round. They are Chicagoans and boxed at 140 pounds.

BUSINESS MEN FAUL TO SOLVE TRADE TANGLE

Americans Make Little Headway in Effort to Break Tie-up Resulting From Occupation of Ruhr

CORLENS, April 4 (AP)—Little headway toward solution of the difficulty has been made by the representatives of several American houses, including the International Harvester company, sent here in an effort to untangle the trade tangle resulting from the occupation of the Ruhr. Orders and shipment of goods estimated at more than $50,000,000 have been tied up from this cause.

The regulations adopted by the allies intended to facilitate exports of goods to neutral countries in default of application to the German exporters have thus far been ineffective. The few German manufacturers who in their own interest desire to fill the American market promptly blacklisted when they apply for exportation licenses.

When the American buyers try to substitute themselves they are confronted by a complication of details which thus far in one department at least in Washington is understood to be making diligent inquiries through the embassy in Paris and Berlin in the hope of finding a way out of the middle.

Coming upon the heels of the election of the fine democrat, Frank Doremus, as mayor of Detroit, it was added, "the election of a democratic mayor in the second city of the United States gives democrats everywhere a double reason for rejoicing."

DEATH SUPPER

ious students of Egyptian mysticism the news did not come as a surprise.

Revives Superstitions

Even before Lord Carnarvon was stricken with blood poisoning, announced as due to an insect bite, there had been talk of the curses laid by the ancient Egyptian mystic incantations on any who dared disturb the tomb of Pharaoh Amenhotep. As he stricken the old legends spread and hundreds were to be found, not before superstitious, who were ready to believe that the old Egyptian curse had fallen on the Englishman.

There were some who even questioned whether it was an insect that had dealt him the poisonous stroke. It was suggested that he might have touched some ancient object in the tomb itself set thirty centuries ago to revenge the dead king on any who might disturb his rest.

Marie Corelli, the noted writer, recently said she called the attention of Lord Carnarvon to the beliefs of Egyptian mysticism and also expressed herself as not surprised at an accident occurring to those daring explorers who rifle the tombs of dead monarchs. She cited from an ancient book on Egyptian history which gave long lists of the treasures buried with some of the kings among these divers were potations enclosed boxes "in such wise that they who touch them shall not know how they come to suffer."

Wife Has Eventful Trip

Lord Carnarvon was first reported ill on March 19. His wife started by airplane from London to his hotel in Cairo but was obliged to return to Paris by a sudden illness that seized her in midair. She finished the trip by boat and rail arriving to find her husband somewhat better. He was unable to fight off the poison however and soon suffered a relapse. This was followed by pneumonia.

The fifth Earl of Carnarvon was born June 25, 1866, and succeeded his father to the earldom in 1900. His mother was a descendant of the famous Lord Chesterfield, author, statesman and man of fashion.

The earl is survived by a son and a daughter besides his widow. Lord Carnarvon was reputed to have spent more than $100,000 maintaining the expedition, which finally uncovered the tomb of Tutankhamen, after seven years of fruitless excavation.

A RACE OF WEAKLINGS?
In modern society increasing percentage of the weak and incompetent, because of its humanitarian reforms?

It were there a line of railroad south out of Idaho into California our crops would reach a natural market. Such a line is possible through construction from Rogerson, Idaho, to Wells, Nevada, and the building of the great American Falls reservoir constitutes a leading investment in favor of such construction.

It will not necessarily work that way, however. The progress made in modern medicine and living conditions, while it does preserve the weak, also tends to raise the general health level and prolong the life of all. Thus it makes the strong stronger, giving them longer life and increasing their progeny.

There is evidence of this on all sides. Athletes are continually improving old records, and civilized athletes over and over again have proved themselves more enduring than savages of supposedly perfect physique. There is no reason to believe that our average young men today are capable of doing any less work, whether with hands or head, than their fathers and grandfathers did. It might be a safe bet that, in the course of their lives, they get more done than their forebears did.

LAW ENFORCEMENT
Attorney General Daugherty's stand for maintenance of prohibition laws is in line with that of the president and of all citizens who hold to the supremacy of government.

Once a law is a law compliance is the only course open to good citizenship and enforcement is the only course open to good government. Differences of opinion as to the merit of a law are no reason for violation or for failure to enforce. Disregard of dry enactments is not directed only against prohibition. It is against the majesty of the law—a majesty that the American people recognize as entitled to allegiance.

THE CHAMPIONS
It seems that with many persons a championship is a championship, "although there's nothing in it." There are claimants to championship for picnicking, for still walking, for some-squinting and for a number of other equally meaningless achievements.

NO ARTIFICIAL RAIN
Once more prosaic, matter-of-fact science blasts the hope of regulating the rainfall by artificial means. The weather bureau asserts that for practical purposes rain making per order is still a long way beyond sight.

Once more the rain maker must defer assumption of control over the clouds. From time immemorial imaginative individuals have pictured themselves in the role of Jove, releasing the floods from above or damping them back. The latest effort in this direction was along scientific lines and, it is claimed, produced results.

But those who view the subject from the practical standpoint and who are in position to know what they are talking about rate the electrically charged sand method as holding no real promise and relegate it to the limbo reserved for such efforts. Nature still clings to some of her prerogatives—including control of rainfall.

Assaults Upon Railroads Also Handicap Idaho

By GUY PLENNER
If there were a line of railroad south out of Idaho into California our crops would reach a natural market. Such a line is possible through construction from Rogerson, Idaho, to Wells, Nevada, and the building of the great American Falls reservoir constitutes a leading investment in favor of such construction.

Letter markets, nearer markets, with less crop competition between producer and buyer, are equivalent to freight rate reductions. They spell the thing we need in railroad matters. No earnings are permissible that would begin to supply the enormous amount of capital required.

Senator Borah recently pointed out in a speech to the senate that freight reductions were impossible, while transportation today constitutes a foremost problem in our national life and is being given the best thought of leading minds. The practical thought is to bring about conditions that will once more inspire confidence in railroad securities in the minds of the investing public.

Such a policy would be a most desirable one. It would mean that the railroads would be free to raise their rates in some cases, leading their influence and their activities not only to hardening the arteries of commerce but to producing a high standard of living for the body of America, a chief component of which is agriculture.

This is all part of one of the most radical economic ideas of the present nation, embracing elements which are open in their desire to witness an overthrow of the existing government, and participated in, perhaps unwittingly, by members of the government who have permitted themselves to become mouthpieces of the most dangerous organization of radicals in the world outside of Russia.

Repeal of the transportation act of 1920, abolition of the railroad labor board, giving the interstate commerce commission greater powers, equivalent to a dictatorship over commerce, and removing the existing control designed to prevent discrimination as between state and interstate commerce, are among the proposals that have been evolved from this combined communist mind.

It would mean that the railroads would be free to raise their rates in some cases, leading their influence and their activities not only to hardening the arteries of commerce but to producing a high standard of living for the body of America, a chief component of which is agriculture.

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 4 (AP)—Four additional oil men who voluntarily surrendered were released on bond Wednesday in connection with the federal investigation being conducted in the oil promotion business in Fort Worth.

Little Attempts Hospitality.
"Oh, I found the most wonderful bargain," announced Mrs. Penfield, as she put down her seat cushions on the kitchen table and unbuckled, the straps. "Look here, Uncle Jerry. It's bean splits."

"They look it!" laughed the big man, as he inspected the beans, which were hulled or otherwise disintegrated.
"Yes, it was easy to name 'em," she agreed. "Pinks is, they don't cost but half as much as the whole ones, and where's the difference in nourishment? The whole bean's there, only not in one piece. And I know a way to cut 'em up so they'll be just as good as the whole ones. I'll put 'em in a nice dash of Indian meal, and land, they don't need nothing more to a sitting. They get as nourished as they can stand. You know a lot of folks are over the moon with 'em."

"Round here?" inquired Uncle Jerry, with lazy ambiguity.
She faced him with a flush on her cheeks. "Uncle Jerry, you don't mean that the reason you don't don't eat meals with us often is—"

"I'll be running along," said Uncle Jerry, with a whimsical smile. "Time get back you'll have yourself argued out of food and furniture, I expect."

"No, I can't stand for a certain amount of both, but I'm going to remember that enough is all I want. There's the perennial truth," she added softly, as she caught a glimpse through the open front door. "Too bad you're going to be so difficult."

"Well, now, I don't have to go straight away," admitted Uncle Jerry slowly.
Mrs. Penfield gave him a sly glance, but made no comment. It was beginning to dawn upon her that Uncle Jerry admired Prudence Haggood—that he regarded her as a superior being, and that she was the cause of his extended, which he had known before he was sometimes shy, always awkward, always self-conscious, the nonchalant, self-possessed Jerry Winston—and yet she stayed by Mrs. Penfield's side.

Certainly there was a difference from anyone else in The Custard Cup. She was like a quiet little rowboat that had strayed from its moorings and had floated into a group of variegated craft. Always gentle and friendly, she yet had the slightly aloof manner of one whose thoughts are turned often inward. So far from being unduly by her surroundings, she had brought her own world into them and kept it intact. Her carefully preserved silk gowns, the fine old lace around the neck and edging the sleeves, her green and gold polka-dot dress, the calm expression of her eyes—these set her apart from her neighbors, intangibly but undeniably. She had brought a bit of crocheting; Mrs. Penfield got out her sewing; Jerry Winston nervously proffered some reminiscences of the Oregon woods in the interests of pillow tops; Lettie was quietly cutting pie pieces out of an old Weatherstone magazine. Conditions were ideal for a congenial confab—when like a bolt out of the blue, word came that Mrs.

LONDON, April 4 (AP)—The Prince of Wales successfully rode his horse, Little Favorite, to victory today in the Welsh Guards cup steeplechase over a two and a half mile course in the household brigade races at Hawthornden, Hill. Only one other horse finished the course out of the five starters. King George and Queen Mary were interesting spectators.

Enslor's baby had been taken ill. Would Mrs. Penfield come at once? Of course she would.
"Your entreaties Miss Haggood," she reminded her household, with a parting wave of her hand. "I'll come back as soon as I can."

Lettie bright upon whom the mantle of hospitality had fallen. Uncle Jerry became more communicative about trees and out-of-doors, strangely easier now that his niece was gone. Lettie, however, understood that the honors were hers. When Penzie was away, she was the next hostess in line. She put aside her lectures and directed her mental energy to the question of hospitality.

"Talking ain't much good," she said to herself, watching Uncle Jerry, who was expatiating on the value of Oregon plants. "We'd oughter feed her. Folks don't eat no lettuce, and I'll give 'em to your house 'less they're eat." This decision was cemented by the fact that Miss Haggood had treated Crink and Lettie to cake a few days before. "I gotta feed her some'n."

The tortured family and the tortured guest fled to the back yard, fighting the red-hot misery that clung to their throats, breathing in great breaths of the cool air that soothed and inflamed at the same time.

"O Penzie," wailed Lettie, dancing about in agony, "I—honest to goodness, I was—was trying to entertain—Miss Hap—"

"It's—it's all right," choked the guest, who was never more—more—cheerful."

Uncle Jerry coughed violently. "It's a blooming—cheezzo!"

"Honest, Penzie," protested Lettie, with streaming eyes, "I was trying to—please you. It—was an accident."

Mrs. Penfield shook her head sadly. "I never saw anything like the way you're always around if there's a large accident ready to happen. I wish I knew how to keep you out of the way of 'em."

WARNS AGAINST PLANTING OF "TURKESTAN" ALFALFA

BOISE, April 5—Several large importations of alfalfa seed are being distributed in this country. It is entirely proper that some of this alfalfa which is "Turkistan" alfalfa, says C. B. Harlow, field agronomist and state seed commissioner.

This variety is not suited for the inland section of Idaho. It is slow in making growth after the first cutting and does not yield with the native grown common or Grimm. "The color of the seed is dull and has a light brown tinge. The plants are very hard and the seed content is most objectionable. Russian Knapp weed is invariably found in the 'Turkistan' alfalfa. The seed is very hard and almost the size of a half hittle seed. The weed is a perennial and as persistent as the Canada thistle or morning glory."

Timely publicity checked the sale of the seed in Idaho. However, a few growers purchased seed to plant and today have their fields taken with this most noxious weed. Four of these growers practiced clean, cultivation all last summer, but the seed was eradicated, but hope to kill the Russian Knapp weed this summer.

Saving a few cents a pound on the seed is a poor system of practicing economy.

This year the four growers herein referred to have submitted samples to the Idaho National Agricultural Experiment Station for analysis in order that they would know that this seed is suitable for planting. Surely the growers are not going to give a bad name to the alfalfa, in order to be truly satisfied that it pays to have the seed tested.

Northern Idaho growers may forward samples to the branch laboratory, Moscow.

"Glory Be!" Triumphed Lettie.

The Screen

"THE DANGEROUS AGE"
A SPECTACULAR DRAMA
A spectacular drama is coming to the Orpheum theater today for a two-day engagement. It is "The Dangerous Age," a sensational attraction produced by John M. Stahl from the original by Frances Irene Reels.

Among the spectacular features incorporated in the story are a thrilling race between an automobile and a train culminating in a sensational smashup; a horse race staged especially by the producer with ten horses and jockeys from the famous Santa Anita track in Mexico; a magnificent cafe scene in which hundreds of beautifully gowned women take part and in which was installed all of the high priced gowns, glamour and air of extravagance known to mark the famous old Cafe de Paris, after which the set was exploded; and last, but not least, a thrilling sea and sky scene for beauty is said to surpass anything in the way of a musical celebration ever before attempted for the screen.

The Game Hog.
Along in November Freddy began wishing for an air rifle for Christmas. He wished for it when it was around, he wished for it before ground, before his brother and sister, and before one else who might have any influence with Santa Claus in the matter. His wishing was successful and the first thing Freddy awoke on Christmas morning was the coveted air rifle. He dressed hurriedly, bolted breakfast and grabbed up the gun and started "hunting." Two squares up the street was a little park with sparrows flitting about. Freddy started gunning for sparrows. He shot and shot without hitting a bird, but he wasn't disheartened. Just before noon one day mother was astonished to hear Freddy cussing at the front door crying:

"Why?" Freddy's mother exclaimed. "Have you hurt yourself with your new gun?"

"No," Freddy sobbed. "Then what is the matter?"

"Oh, mamma!" Freddy cried, "I killed one! I killed one!"—Kansas City Star.

The Wrong Man.
A traveler rushed up to a stranger at a railway station just as the train was about to start, and asked: "Are you going on this train?"

"I am," was the reply.

"Well, my friend," said the traveler, "you might do me a favor. I have two big trunks, and they always make me pay extra for them, it's always you mind taking one, it will cost you nothing?"

"But I haven't a ticket!" said the stranger.

"I thought you said you were going by this train!" exclaimed the traveler.

"Yes, I am!" was the answer. "I'm one of the company's inspectors!"

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, April 4 (AP)—Although during most of the time today the wheat market here reflected an advance in Liverpool quotations belief that the domestic winter crop had received substantial benefit from rain and snow led downward to a reaction. The close was unsettled at 1-1/2 not decline to a like advance with May $1.20 1/2 to 1.20 5/8 and July $1.17 1/2 to 1.17 5/8. Corn finished 1/2 to 7/8 up, oats unchanged to 1-8 to 1-4 off and provisions unchanged to 7c higher. At first wheat bulls in the Chicago market were assisted both by the Liverpool advance and by indications that the winter wheat sections which most needed moisture had received the least. For awhile strength of values in the corn market had a good deal likewise to stimulate buying want and to go to bid for the market. There was about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, mostly Canadian, but including considerable Durum.

Rising sales broadened out, however on the price options in wheat, and with private reports indicating that more moisture had been supplied to the winter wheat territory than was shown by the government, the market was a two-sided one during the late dealings. Good export business in corn, together with gossip that the crop in Argentina was delaying the crop movement there had much to do with lifting the corn market here. Besides, corn receipts in Chicago were the smallest for some time past. Oats lagged owing to liberal arrivals at primary points. Provisions were firm in response to the action of hog values.

ASSURE SUCCESS FOR HODGKIN MEN

Supporters to Redouble Efforts for Keel and Leslie in the Second Election

If four candidates are to be voted upon at the election to be held April 23, for the selection of two city-commissioners, the Hodgkin supporters are prepared to redouble their efforts on behalf of J. S. Keel and W. T. Leslie, according to members of the Hodgkin volunteer campaign committee.

Considering the margin given these two candidates and the announcement that a considerable part of the Lambing vote will be thrown over to the other side at the coming election, indications Wednesday were that Leslie and Keel will be the successful candidates.

In contemplating Mr. Hodgkin's election, individuals and representatives of groups and organizations who supported the Lambing ticket expressed the hope that Keel and Leslie will be elected and many offered their support to that end.

Whether or not J. F. Roberts and C. H. Stinson will continue as active candidates was not known Wednesday. Mr. Roberts was out of the city and Mr. Stinson stated that he had not considered what his course will be.

Regardless of the number of candidates who continue in the race for the city commission, the election is expected to be held April 23, according to S. D. Davis, city attorney. The mayor and the two successful candidates will organize and take office on April 30.

Drizzle Prevents President's Trip to South Carolina City but Does Not Interfere with Best and Play

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4 (AP)—April showers prevented President Harding today from carrying out his plans to visit Aiken, S. C., just across the state line from Augusta, but did not in the least interfere with the pursuit by the chief executive of his hobby of rest and recreation.

Showers fell here early today until a few minutes before the presidential party was due to start for Aiken and after receipt of reports that the rain was continuing in the South Carolina city the trip was called off.

It was said tonight to be probable that the president, possibly accompanied by Mrs. Harding, would motor over to Aiken tomorrow to play golf and to the guest of Cameron Forbes, former governor general of the Philippines.

The president got in a round of golf during the forenoon over the Augusta Country club course and in the afternoon rested at the hotel.
