PRICE FIVE CENTS

RECEIVERSHIP IS ASKED FOR IDAHO GROWERS

Co-operative Marketing Organization Goes on Rocks as Reported Result of Poor Estimates of Business

SPOKANE, April 11, (AP)—Request for the appointment for the receiver for the South Idaho branch of the Idaho Wheat Growers' association was made in district court at Pocatello, Idaho, today by the Northwest Wheat Growers, Associated, of Portland and Minneapolis, it was announced here tonight.

The statement says that the present complaint was filed by the Associated Growers "in the interest of cooperation generally." It is also said that the local condition in south Idaho is, in the main, a result of poor estimates of future business by the board of directors of the unit.

The Northwest Wheat Growers Association in 1922 sold 1,000,000 bushels of wheat for the south Idaho office, but that office has never been directly connected with the other cooperative wheat marketing units. The statement reads: "After the 1922 operations auditors were sent to American Falls to examine the books. At this time tentative arrangements were made to include the south Idaho unit in the Northwest Wheat Growers Association, but the south Idaho board of directors failed to select members and a representative by the Northwest Wheat Growers Association, and the plans for selling the south Idaho wheat had to be abandoned."

Members May Be Sued.

The statement then tells about the purchase and rental of warehouses for the south Idaho wheat. It is stated, learned late last fall that the south Idaho branch had entered that phase of the business "under conditions which might prove dangerous to interests of members who had wheat in the 1922 pool. Investigation by the Associated and today's request for a receiver followed, the statement adds. Short crops and other conditions left the south Idaho branch with more warehouses than it could handle, according to the statement. It is suggested that a receiver, if appointed, "probably will find it necessary immediately to start suit against the several hundred members who have not delivered wheat to the 1922 pool, and who are unable to help meet the deficit which has been caused by the short pool."

Members of the Southern Idaho Wheat Growers' association will vote April 16, on a proposal for disincorporation of the association, according to statement today of W. F. Alworth, executive director of the organization.

The organization's assets are ample to meet all liabilities, Mr. Alworth said, but liquidation would result in considerable loss to the members. Difficulties of the association, according to Mr. Alworth, grew out of the indifference of members who declined to deliver to the association last year more than 105,000 bushels of wheat, although approximately 3,000,000 bushels were covered by contract between the association and growers.

APPROVES DEBT SETTLEMENT HELSINGORS, Finland, April 11 (AP)—Parliament today passed a bill for the funding of Finland's debt to the United States.

TARIFF TANGLE UP TOWARDING President to Attempt to Bring Harmony in Commission Be-set by Varying Views

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—President Harding will attempt soon to straighten out the tangle in the tariff commission growing out of the variance of opinions among members as to procedure under flexible provisions of the tariff law. Mr. Harding has made a tentative engagement to confer with the commission members Friday and indications today pointed to a thorough inquiry by the executive into the controversy which has held the commission almost in deadlock for some months.

The question of the commission's investigation into the sugar situation, being made at the president's request, also will be discussed at the White House conference. Chairman Marvin of the commission, said he expected to have the commission's preliminary statement on the investigation in the hands of the president by tomorrow night. The report to be made at this time will be largely statistical, but will serve, it was declared, to affirm the president's reported belief that the import duties on the present tariff law have no influence on sugar prices.

RAIL TRAFFIC SETS NEW MARK

Last Week in March Sees 938,725 Cars Loaded with Revenue Freight by Roads

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—Railroad traffic volume, which has set new records in successive weeks this year, reached a still higher mark on the basis of returns compiled by the car service division of the American Railway Association, during the week ending March 31, when 938,725 cars were loaded with revenue freight.

This total exceeded loadings of the corresponding week in 1922 by 116,917 cars, and those of the same week in 1921 by 275,674 cars. The total also was 21,680 cars in excess of that for the previous week of the present year.

The car service division indicated in the former statement that carriers were increasing their capacity to handle business. On March 31 the freight car shortage amounted to 68,948 cars, which was 457,748 cars less than the shortage reported on March 23.

There were 14,196 cars in good repair on March 31, but classified as surplus because located at scattered points where demand existed for them at the moment.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11 (AP)—Preliminary business was disposed of at the opening session today of the thirtieth annual reunion here of the United Confederate Veterans, and the resolutions committee, headed by Colonel J. M. Harbatsfield of Fort Worth, Texas, was engaged tonight in whipping into shape resolutions for presentation tomorrow.

Several resolutions were offered and adopted by the convention tonight regarding the names of Lee and Jackson. A resolution offered by a veteran from Texas declared that in future, when outstanding figures of the Confederacy are referred to they be named in order as Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson. It was explained that through the names of Lee and Jackson always were mentioned as the foremost heroes and that it devolved upon the veterans to correct this. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

SALT LAKE HAS PROPOSAL FOR RAIL COMBINE

Chamber of Commerce Advocates Merger of Western Pacific, Rio Grande and Santa Fe to Minimize Problems

SALT LAKE, April 11 (AP)—A proposal to merge the Western Pacific, the Denver and Rio Grande Western and the Santa Fe railroad systems was endorsed today by representatives of the Salt Lake City chamber of commerce at a meeting of representatives of the proposed combine.

W. W. Prickett, who represented the state at the hearing, also spoke for the chamber of commerce and declared that the consolidation of these three systems would not only be a benefit to Utah and would minimize transportation problems.

The chamber of commerce appointed a committee of 25 to investigate such a plan and to report on its success. Mr. Prickett announced.

Numerous reports, which almost generally were non-committal and a mass of evidence in the way of exhibits and statements were filed with the commission.

Smaller Roads Would Choose.

The majority of the reports were filed by smaller railroads in the state, expressing a desire to remain independent. The Salt Lake chamber of commerce has been grouped so that they might make their selection.

J. W. Prickett, Utah state manager of traffic, representing the state and the Salt Lake chamber of commerce, presented a concrete plan for the grouping of railroads in Utah. His report was endorsed by Warren Stiles, representative of the state at public utilities commission. W. S. McCarthy, speaking in behalf of the Ballard and Thompson Railroad company of Utah, said he would not agree to merge with the Denver and Rio Grande Western.

SANITY OF SLAYER OF FAMILY IS QUESTIONED

Seattle Japanese who Confessed Murder of Wife and Three Young Children Held for Mental Tests

SEATTLE, April 11 (AP)—Mitsuo Endo, Seattle dealer in second hand goods, who early today walked into the city station and confessed to the slaying of his wife and three young children, was tonight held in the expectation that examination would be made as to his sanity.

Endo, according to the authorities, has given two explanations of the quadruple tragedy. One was that he was jealous over his wife. The other was that she was unfaithful to him. Japan where he has several children by a former wife who is dead. Endo, according to the investigators, told them that he had agreed to agree to a division of their property and to let him return to Japan, while she remained in this country, but that she had refused.

The bodies of Mrs. Endo, who is believed to have been shot yesterday morning, and those of the children, three, five and eight, were found in the house in which they lived. They were found to have been slain just before Endo went to the police station, and at the public morgue. That of Mrs. Endo was pierced with six bullets.

MURDER PROBE STRIKES SNAG

Additional Arrests Likely in Connection of Killing of Salt Lake Banker

SALT LAKE, April 11 (AP)—Issuance against one or more persons of complaints charging murder in connection with the slaying last Monday of Benjamin F. Ballantyne former bank teller was unexpectedly delayed today when officials announced that further investigation of alleged contradictory elements of statements by principals in the case was in progress.

Although definite announcement was made during the day by county attorney Arthur E. Moreton that an informant had confessed that another John Browning Jr., son of John W. Browning noted firearms inventor, and his cousin, Marriner Browning, are being held in connection with the case, the complaints had not been filed tonight.

Officials said that a third person alleged to have been an accessory before or after the fact was under surveillance and that another arrest was imminent. Ballantyne was fatally shot in his fashionable residence here during an altercation with the two Brownings. Marriner Browning confessed that he fired the shot which killed the former banker, according to the police.

London Ponders Problem.

At the same time it was learned that the whole subject is under consideration at the London foreign office, and that a report will be made to the Canadian government by the British embassy. Such a development, in effect extending to the British dominions, the prohibition already laid down by Canada would bar the shipping tonnage from disposing of its surplus tonnage to any British subject, and if the example were set by other nations might wipe out entirely the foreign market for American ships. That contingency, however, American officials will not discuss in the present stage of the negotiations.

Progressives for Henry Ford for President

OMAHA, April 11 (AP)—Petitions requesting that the name of Henry Ford, Dearborn, Mich. automobile manufacturer, be placed on the primary ballot for president, were filed today with the secretary of state. The petitions contained more than 3600 names.

The filing of the petitions in Nebraska today was the beginning of a national mobilization of the progressive party of America, supported by the president for president, Roy M. Harrop, president of the American economic league, which is sponsoring the Ford for president movement, declared.

On April 1, State Manager Frank Johnson of Boise, Idaho, will file petitions in Idaho, requesting that Ford's name be entered on the primary ballot of the progressive party in that state. Other petitions will be filed in Iowa and Texas.

Petitions are being circulated also in California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Colorado and before summer every state in the union will be organized, Mr. Harrop declared.

HOOPER OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR WORLD COURT

Pleads for Pursuit of "Realizable Ideals" in Address Before League of Women Voters; Replies to Objectors

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 11 (AP)—Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, opening the administration campaign for American participation in the world court in an address before the National League of Women Voters here tonight, was put on the defensive before he started to speak when Judge Florence Allen of the Ohio supreme court, who preceded him on the program, declared for the outlay of war by nations, and urged that American entry into the world court was not a proper step toward the international peace.

His address was so warmly received by Secretary Hoover that the auditorium to overflowing, and the participation in the world court was not a proper step toward the international peace. His address was so warmly received by Secretary Hoover that the auditorium to overflowing, and the participation in the world court was not a proper step toward the international peace.

Cabinet Members Agree.

An answer to the Canadian note, handed to Sir Auckland Geddes for transmission to the Ottawa government, contains a defense of the language employed by the shipping board and clearly states that the restrictions imposed upon operators of craft brought from the board are legal and enforceable from the American point of view.

Secretary Hughes' reply was based on opinions obtained by him from the department of justice, from Secretary Hoover of the commerce department, and from the other officials of the department. It was said to represent the unanimous belief of the three departments in the right of the shipping board to continue to restrict the vessels, either to American or foreign cargo, under the form of contract now being used.

Wide officials at the British embassy refused to comment, there were indications that the Canadian government would be equally firm in its determination not to admit ships to Canadian ports that have not been bought from the shipping board, under the present terms of contract.

Avoids Political Pitfalls.

To go into the court, Mr. Hoover said, would not be "entering the leaguer in any sense." On the contrary, he argued, it would be placing international relations on a new basis, rather than politics and would at the same time continue the American policy of conciliation and good will exemplified by the refusal of the National League of Women Voters, and his address was the first detailed reply from administration quarters to those who have assailed his course proposal since it was laid before the senate by President Harding. It marked the beginning of the public debate in which most of the leading public men of the country are preparing to take part.

On Voluntary Basis.

"No other nation can summon its citizens to the court."

Eiberfeld Delegation of 2,000 Persons Invites French to Extend Sphere in Germany

LONDON, April 11 (AP)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Dueseldorf says that 2,000 communists from Eiberfeld, which is in unoccupied territory and two miles outside the French custom cordons, marched to Volvinkoff, a frontier post today and sent a delegation to request the French commander to occupy Eiberfeld and Barmen.

The extraordinary action was inspired by the refusal of the Eiberfeld authorities to provide relief work for the unemployed. The French pressure has forced many mills in the unoccupied territory to close and a great deal of fuel and raw materials and unemployment is rapidly increasing.

IDAHO WEATHER Thursday: Fair south, unsettled north.

BRITISH LABOR PARTY STAGES STORMY SCENE

Government Bows to Big Stick Wielded by Recalcitrant Element in House of Commons; Takes Steps to Retrieve Loss

LONDON, April 11 (AP)—Perhaps never since the days of Parrelotte's obituary has such a scene of violent uproar been witnessed in the house of commons as that which today transpired in the ornate chamber and dignified chamber into absolute hellum.

The disorders arose primarily out of the government's defeat by a small majority on a more technical point last night. Today Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer, introduced a motion framed to counteract this defeat only to meet with a storm unexampled in present day parliamentary annals, in the face of which the speaker, powerless to obtain a division, declared the carried over to the house and the house adjourned until tomorrow.

The laborites clearly felt that they had a big stick to wield against the government in the house and the government men which was the question originally before the house. In this attitude the labor members are likely to receive the support of the whole laborite electorate.

Treasury Bench Under Fire. All sorts of epithets and threatening gestures against the treasury bench came from the laborites, especially from the extreme left, including the Scottish members, led by John Joseph Jones and George Lambury. The house, in striking contrast with yesterday's scene, was crowded, and the two front benches were uncomfortably so. Excitement was at fever heat. Jones vehemently expounded the grievances of the farmer, seaman and was repeatedly called to order by the speaker who declared that the question could not be debated until tomorrow.

All the speaker's efforts to pacify the recalcitrants appeared only to inflame them still further. The speaker protested that it would be "a very bad thing" if the members should force an adjournment on account of grave disorder, and begged them to refrain.

Laborites Demand Answer. All to no purpose—"We demand an answer," so that the difficulty in which the government has found itself could be adjusted, but the opposition declined to take part in a division when the speaker's efforts, ending finally to the speaker declaring other closure motions and the chancellor's motion carried.

The government, constrained to leave before the storm, had to abandon the important agricultural debate set down for today and also the expected statement from the minister of agriculture concerning the government policy on the recent recommendations of the agricultural tribunal.

SOVIET ENDEAVORS TO QUIET BRITISH OPINION

Dispatches Record Note to Explain Execution of Archbishop Zelinski; Trade Relations are Endangered

LONDON, April 11 (AP)—The soviet government has sent a second note to Mr. Hodgson, the British agent in Moscow, apparently attempting to justify the first, which was in reply to the British protest against the execution of Monsignor Zelenki and the imprisonment of Archbishop Zelinski, according to the Daily Mail.

The first note was returned to the soviet government by the British agent and the Mail says the second also was returned as "insolent and unworthy of official transmission to London."

The Mail asserts that the "serious considerations" referred to in the house of commons yesterday by Ronald MacNeil, under secretary of foreign affairs, in connection with a query on this subject, include whether to retain the British trade mission in Moscow, and the soviet trade mission in London.

Carries Appeal for Russians to United States

Grand Duke Alexander Pleads for Moral Support for Persecuted People

PARIS, April 11 (AP)—Grand Duke Alexander, of Russia, on the eve of the opening in Moscow of the trial of Archbishop Glikhin, Tuesday issued a signed message "to the people of the United States of America," appealing for moral support for the persecuted Russian people. The message reads: "In the name of God and Christ, I appeal to the souls of all my spiritual sisters and brothers. Awake, if you believe in God and Christ or only in God. Under your eyes, in my country, Russia, 150,000,000 souls like yours, who have the same divine father in God, are suffering agony in their struggle for all that is holiest of holy for us and for their faith."

"The tyranny of government which is inspired and led by the forces of all that is evil, ugly and hateful has declared desperately open war against God and Christ. Hundreds of thousands of children are being brought up in pure atheism and hate and are educated to live in evil, in ugliness and in immorality. Think of the whole generations which are being prepared to poison humanity."

"To go on living, failing to remark this terrible calamity, is impossible. You must also give moral support to my countrymen who still are true to God and Christ—who prefer death to the betrayal of their father and savior. I cry aloud that the duty of every Christian on earth is to help morally my persecuted people."

SEES EVIDENCE OF GRAFTING IN VETERANS' AID

Major General O'Brien, Special Counsel for Senate Investigators, Predicts Uncovering of some Bad with Much Good

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—Disclosure of "dishonesty" on a pretty big scale here and there in the past handling of veterans' bureau affairs was predicted today by Major General John F. O'Brien, special counsel of the senate investigating agency in their struggle for all that is holiest of holy for us and for their faith.

However, he declared, he was impressed with the conscientious effort made in many directions to carry out the purpose for which the bureau was created. Many of the difficulties encountered which brought about adverse criticism, he said, probably will be traced to incompetence of unpaid employees entrusted with the expenditures of vast sums of money.

Graft Charges Involve Sites

General O'Brien expects the committee to begin hearings next week. Complainants reaching the committee cover most of the activities of the bureau, but the principal ones, General O'Brien said, are those charging "graft" in the purchase of hospital sites, and those from former service men who either have not received compensation from the bureau or are receiving some but think they are not getting a "square deal."

Wherever clear cases of injustice is shown, General O'Brien said, he forwards complaints to Director Hines for action and in this way many faults are being corrected. Complainants from individuals, the committee attorney said, have been divided into three groups: Those of complainants having no cases; "ordinary" cases resulting from an honest difference of medical opinion, and those cases where the beneficiary lives in a remote locality, papers have been lost, compensation checks have gone astray or administration is apparent. To aid him in the sifting and investigating process, General O'Brien said he asked and was receiving the cooperation of the bar associations in every state. Lawyers are being designated by those organizations who have no connection that would inject politics into the investigation. If acceptable to the committee's counsel they are then charged with running down complaints in their respective localities.

Combs Entire Country. In this way General O'Brien said, he is able to comb the entire country. All papers, especially those relating to complaints of "graft," he added, are turned over to local investigators with the assurance that the truth would be developed and there will be no "case to grind."

Neither he nor the senate committee, General O'Brien said, will attempt to correct mistakes or injustices. These are being called to the attention of the veterans' bureau and their correction will be left to Director Hines. If anything of a criminal nature is developed, he added, it will be called to the attention of the department of justice.

FOREIGN DEMONSTRATION. VIENNA, April 11 (AP)—(Jewish Telegraph Agency).—Acting on the warning given by the police that stern measures would be resorted to if the military maneuvers of the Hakenkreuzler (Swastika) were held, the leaders of that organization have cancelled the proposed demonstration. The organization, however, is continuing the publication of their newspapers of the black lists of Jewish business houses.

HOLDS UP APPLICATION FOR $5,000,000 INSURANCE

NEW YORK, April 11 (AP)—Five million dollars life insurance sought by S. S. Kresko of Detroit, operator of five and ten cent stores, is being retarded, it was learned today, by the state insurance department's investigation of an application by Wallace Scott for an underwriter's license.

The application of Mr. Scott, who is a friend of Mr. Kresko and a member of the stock exchange firm of W. E. Hutton and company is opposed by a committee of the New York Life insurance association. The underwriter's commission would amount to $150,000, it was said, and the committee contends that Mr. Scott needs the license only for the one transaction.

CARPENTIER GETS OVATION

Georges, in Defeat, is Still Idol of French Boxing Fans; Observed on Appearance at Legion Benefit

PARIS, April 11 (C)—Georges Carpentier still is the idol of the French boxing fans. If he ever had any doubts about this, the reception accorded him as he crawled through the ropes at the Cirque de Paris last night for an exhibition bout as a gala benefit for the American Legion must have dispelled them forever. Five thousand spectators stood and applauded as the former champion made his appearance, and the demonstration was renewed and continued until he disappeared in his dressing room after a bout with his sparring partner.

An strange contrast was the reception given Battling Siki, the Senegalese fighter, who last year laid Carpentier low and wrestled the world's championship from him. Hoos and hisses, mingled with applause and cheering, greeted the appearance of the black man, but even to the impartial listener it was evident that the hoos and hisses predominated.

The contrast between the two rivals was apparent, as far as physical condition was concerned. Siki was fat and flabby. He looked anything but the splendid athlete who met and defeated Carpentier September 24 last. Carpentier, on the other hand, never stripped in better form. Without an ounce of superfluous flesh he appeared as though trained down for a hard fight. His muscles were supple under his clear skin, and if his brittle hands can hold out he seemingly will be able to give a good account of himself during the coming months.

PADDOCK GOES TO PARIS

California Sprinter, Leaving to Compete in World Intercollegiate Games, Promises Mother to Do His Best

"This is my last participation in intercollegiate races," Paddock said to newspaper men. "After it is over, I will throw my shoes in the Seine. I am in excellent condition, never felt better in my life and I will put everything I have in me in this last effort."

Paddock, who expects to continue racing even though he cannot again compete in college games made his first world's record in Paris in 1919. He expects to return in July.

Bird Cannot Stand Rivalry. A nightingale dies for shame if another bird sings better.—Burton.

AROUND THE BASES

Burley will be the team to entertain the local high school baseball team this week, playing the Evans team Friday afternoon at Lincoln field.

Although it is the consensus of opinion that Twin Falls will not have a team to compare with last year's nine, nevertheless one sees great improvement in the youngsters as each week rolls by.

The work of Ed Mussell behind the bat has proven beyond a doubt that Coach Evans made a wise move when he pulled Ed from the outfield and had him don a mask.

Ed looks like the real article behind the bat. He is doing his best to make the fans forget that Bob Pultzier graduated last year.

Of the pitchers, Ray Hodgins looks the best. Ray has wonderful control for a high school chucker, and has a nice assortment of curves.

Laval Jarman seems to be working on last year's reputation, and hasn't hit the hard work as yet.

Clarence Garrity, the name is just right for a ball player, looks to be the find of the year, and if early season predictions don't lead one astray, Garrity will give the other starters a hard run for pitching honors. Garrity has a world of speed and a nice breaking hook ball. A little more control and Garrity will be the Evans' most consistent winner.

Jarman will start off against the Burley team, providing his arm is O. K. Garrity will finish in case Laval gets lumpy.

Burley is an unknown product, as the Cassia county school has been passing up baseball these last few years.

Coach Evans is trying to play two games a week, but to date has not been able to look over one.

On April 18 the Filer team will be hosts to the Twin Falls baseball team, and a hot game is looked for. Filer won from Jerome, as did Twin Falls, but Filer's victory was decisive, while the local athletes had tough sledding throughout the game.

CINCINNATI, O., April 11, (C)—Ed Roush, the reentranted outfielder of the Cincinnati Nationals, will in all probability play unorganized baseball this season. The outfielder said today that he would leave for his Oakland City, Indiana, home tomorrow and start overtures with industrial league teams.

MECHANICS WIN FROM CAFE MEN

Rendahl-Wright Bowlers Roll High Scores to Defeat the Rogerson Team

Rendahl-Wright's mechanics took the old game from the Rogerson cafe bowlers last night in the last series of the evening.

Fighting against some of the best bowling of the year the cafe department of the league experienced considerable trouble during the first two games, although they were the last one in easy fashion.

Starting out with 806 the mechanics annexed the opener with but 14 pins to spare, the Rogerson lads knocking down 702. Bill Towner rattled the pit with 192 in this game.

The second game was bowled in the second game of the evening, both teams going well over the 800 mark, the auto men getting 895 to 847 for the second game. Percy Thompson of the auto team hit them down for a total of 107 in this game.

Preved at the thought of losing three in a row, the Rogerson boys branched in the third game of the evening, and totalled 875 while the Rendahl-Wright boys were gathering 818. Harry Vogel, the chap who starts at Main street to do his bowling, scored high game with 186.

Charley Larsen had high three games with 535, with Harry Vogel of the same team but on his trail with 529. Logan had to leave after the second game, and the cafe men took the allotted 150 pins.

SIDE LIGHTS.

The last games of the Twin Falls bowling league will be played this evening, when a double-header will be staged. The first game on tap will be between the I. D. store boys and Wright's store pin smelters. This game means quite a bit to the I. D. men as there is a possible chance for them to get into the prize money.

In the last series of the schedule the Shoe Market team will play the fisher theater boys. The Shoe Market team is right at the top and have a chance for some of the prizes also.

A little dope from the dope bucket: If the Shoe Market team win all three games it will be tied with the Rendahl-Wright team for second prize. If the I. D. store team wins all three of its games it will be tied with the Rogerson cafe for third prize, and should the Shoe Market win two of its three games, it, too, will be tied for third money. That's the way the things stand on the last night of league bowling.

How about a few extra games while all the members of the Shoe Market team are still in condition? Why not take the first 15 names from the averages and put them in a hat. Have three teams drawn from these names, and hang up a purse. Then in the doubles, suppose the captains of each team pick out two men and let them represent the team in the doubles with a single elimination governing. The five men teams to play five games total pins for the five games taking the prize.

The singles could be arranged by the captains, or make it a free for all event.

CLEANERS TRIM GROGERS' TEAM

Bowling Leaders Chalk Up Another Victory as Tournery Nears End

The Troy laundry team, winners of first place in the Twin Falls bowling league, continued its slaughtering tactics Wednesday night by taking two out of three from the Alford and Mott aggregation.

Clipping off 813 in the opener, the laundry workers had but little trouble with the grocers, who toppled 785. Charley Bruggemann took high game with 188.

The grocers took a high dive in the second and landed on the 675 mark, while the Troy team were busting 'em to the tune of 909. Bill Bailey went wild in this game with 203.

The last game resulted in the leaders slipping a notch, 713 being their total with the postoffice gang vying with the series with 765. Jack Tritt with 168 took high game.

KIMBERLY TAKES BEATING

Filer High School's Baseball Team Chalks Up Victory Over Visitors by 12 to 3 Score

FILER, April 11—(Special to The News)—Kimberly's baseball team took a beating here Wednesday afternoon at the hands of the Filer team, 12 to 3.

Erring at the wrong time cost the visiting players several runs, while the offerings of Koke met with the approval of the local swatters. Martin, Schaeffer, Adkins, Love and Timm did the heavy work for the Filer team.

UP TO THE FANS

Friday evening at 8 o'clock the baseball fans of Twin Falls will gather at the Gem State Vulcanizing company at 126 Second avenue north, for the purpose of trying to arrive at some definite plan for baseball the coming summer.

At the two previous meetings plans were discussed concerning a twilight league, and action was postponed owing to such poor turn-outs. Why the fans of Twin Falls sit by and refuse to help get baseball started is something that no one but the fans themselves can answer, and yet, when approached on the subject, everybody and his uncle is in favor of baseball.

It is too bad there has to be so much pleading and begging to get the fans together long enough to form some definite plan to give rest, diversion and recreation to lovers of the national game. Twin Falls is known from one end of the state to the other as the greatest sporting town in Idaho; that it supports its athletes better than cities twice its size. How did the town get such a wonderful reputation? The question is easily answered: It's because Twin Falls is the daddy of them all when it comes to supporting athletes.

There isn't the shadow of a doubt that the fans would turn out in goodly numbers if we did have a twilight league but who is going to start the league? It takes co-operation to form a twilight league, or any other league, and all that is asked is that the fans attend the meeting on Friday evening.

Plans were started to lease the old ball park, but the owners have not given an answer as yet. There are two other things left to do. First, there is a possibility of leasing some ground on the Ferrine "800" and building a park, a place that will be the home of good clean sport, and a place where one can go for a couple of hours after the day's cares and toils are over for relaxation. If the fans want a new ball park let's find it.

The second plan is to use Lincoln field for Twilight ball, and should a Sunday team be chosen the games could be played at Kimberly, Filer, Hansen, or Bluff. If the fans want Sunday baseball and would rather leave town to see it, let's hear about it.

It has been suggested that Lincoln field be leased during the summer months for a four team league that will play three times a week. Not a bad idea, but it is only the plan of one man, who may be in the minority.

There is always a bunch of fans who talk about as much as an oyster during the hard work time, and when

FAILURE TO CAPTURE DE VALERA ADMITTED

Free State Army Headquarters Corrects Erroneous Reports of Taking of Irregular Leader with L. Lynch

DUBLIN, April 11 (AP)—Official contradiction by the free state army headquarters this afternoon of reports that Eamon de Valera had been captured near Clonmel, brought statements in republican quarters tonight that the irregular leader was not a member of the party surrounded by free state troops when Liam Lynch was captured.

Some declared that De Valera was not in the district at the time, but was attending a meeting in Dublin. All reports in regard to his whereabouts, however, are untrustworthy. The capture and fatal wounding of Lynch, who was the republican chief of staff, excited speculations of immediate peace, but there is no indication as yet of any change in the attitude of the republicans or the government.

At the inquest into the death of Liam Lynch, republican chief of staff, held today the jury found that death was due to bullet wounds inflicted by national troops in the execution of their duty. The jury also found that when Lynch was captured he was not armed.

EDITOR WINS WAR MEDAL

Robert R. McCormick of Chicago Tribune is Awarded Distinguished Service Medal for Heroism

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—Robert R. McCormick, editor of the Chicago Tribune, has been awarded a distinguished service medal for exceptionally meritorious service rendered during the world war as commander of a battalion of the Fifth field artillery, and later as a lieutenant colonel and colonel commanding respectively the 122nd and the 61st field artillery.

The citation said "Colonel McCormick displayed rare leadership and organizing ability, unusual executive ability and sound technical judgment, contributing materially to the successful operation of artillery of the American expeditionary forces."

COAST BUYERS TAKE BIG CLIP

PORTLAND, Ore., April 11—Consumption of one of the largest wool sales of the season, involving 600,000 pounds of the Lake county clip, was announced here today. Coast buyers took the whole at 43 cents a pound.

SUGAR TREES

It has been suggested that in probability the bees were the first to locate and pollinate trees that furnish sugar, the animals' breaking down great branches to obtain the sweet material. The Indians were also in the secret that a rare kind of sugar might be had for the gathering from the Douglas fir in the dry belt of British Columbia and eastern part of the state of Washington.

The sugar output from this source is scarce. That it develops at all seems to be the result of atmospheric conditions. Firs growing on the northern and eastern slopes have proved to be the best sugar producers.

Supremacy Through Pressure.

Pressure has often been the making of men. They are not at their best unless compelled to keep up to their limitations. The remarkable thing about that is the more you move up the greater becomes the capacity for moving. It's just pressure making its way.

Yew Among Long-Lived Trees.

It is of interest to note that yews of indefinite growth by nature never die, except by a violent death. This extraordinary length of life in the world of trees, savoring somewhat of the perpetual, is shared also by the vine, olive and fig tree.

Preferred the Cash.

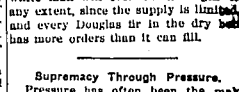

Youngsters that come in contact with the public become most worldly wise. Johnny shined shoes and knew the ways of the world from intimate, and sometimes bitter experience. One day a prosperous-looking old gentleman stepped up into the shine stand. He eyed Johnny with a friendly interest. "Young man, you look like a bright, intelligent young fellow," he remarked. Johnny looked up at him unimpressed. "Say, mister," he returned, "I've had that line pulled on me before. What I want to know before we go any further, is this a cash shine or when I get through will you put me on the head and tell me I'll be governor some day?"—Kansas City Star.

GERMANS MAKE OBJECTIONS TO BUFFER STATE

Military Experts Argue Independent Rhineland Would Become Battle Ground for France and Germany

BERLIN, April 11 (AP)—German military experts, commenting on the recent suggestions made abroad that the Rhineland be demilitarized, and made a buffer state, contend that this would not provide security for either France or Germany, since either one could overrun the territory easily. The creation of such a territory, they argue, would merely mean the pushing back of the lines of mobilization on both sides of the Rhine. Germany's mobilization is as well behind the Weser or in south Germany, the point out, while the French mobilization would take place to the west of the buffer state, just as if that still were a part of Prussia.

In any case, the experts conclude, all the military advantage France would be likely to get from the establishment of such territory between France and Germany, would be the moving further eastward of the ground on which the initial battles in any future war would be fought.

They add that Germany, after all, is in no position to produce secretly sufficient military supplies and perfect a military organization to enable her to carry on war against France. They declare the possibility of her doing so is absolutely excluded for all calculating time. Aside from this, they assert the location of a separate state in the Rhineland would infringe on German sovereignty and that its existence could be guaranteed only so long as the French were able to provide it with adequate military support.

SEEKS TO GAIN HEARING.
PAHIS, April 11 (AP)—Dr. Hans Doron, leader of the movement for a separate Rhineland republic, who is in Paris avowedly to seek the protection of the allies for the functioning of such a republic, has thus far failed to come in contact with officials of the French government, it was stated at the foreign office today.

The question of the separation of the Rhineland and the eventual protection of the frontiers of any new government from German reprisals is a delicate question, it was intimated, which the allies are not prepared to act on now.

The belief was expressed in French official circles that there is a movement for the establishment of a republic in the Rhineland separate from the German state. This movement, officials think, would grow rapidly if reprisals were not feared.

HOOVER OPENS CAMPAIGN

court except with our consent. The court itself cannot summon us in, nor in any manner or degree exert upon us any kind of compulsion, not even moral. Our proposal to enter the court and the act of violation to it which President Harding has asked, is based on the assumption that compulsion is not necessary for purposes of good will and a sense of justice.

It is true that part of the other nations joining this court, have joined it in a slightly stronger degree. These other nations have been moved either because they have greater faith in the processes of international cooperation than America is able to show in its present mood of distrust, or else because harsh sufferings have made them more fearful of the chance of war.

But the admission which President Harding proposes to the international court is strictly limited by carefully drawn stipulations which will no doubt be fully considered by the senate. All we do if we ratify President Harding's proposal—all the promises we make—the only obligation we take are these and not others: We promise to pay a share of the running expenses of the court, a matter less than $40,000 a year; and we promise to take part with 46 other nations in choosing the judges. The judges are men of international reputation who sit nine years and are freed from all prejudices except to maintain principle and law.

League Connection Remote.
"There is another section of opponents of President Harding's proposal who condemn the idea, not because they do not agree to its primary purpose and method, but solely because it was created under the aegis of the league of nations. But we are not by this act entering the league in any sense. The connection of the court with the league is indeed remote. Its chief concern is that the judges are elected as provided in its own statute, not by the league, but by the representatives of the nations to the league and to an elective body for this purpose. It is this elective body that we join, not the league.

"There are few people who apparently maintain an open mind on international cooperation by rearrangement of their prejudices. The court is already in existence. It is largely the handiwork of American thought and American hands, for us to insist upon its being torn down and re-erected just because it was created by a conference called by the league is to neglect the handiwork of which Americans took part, is one of the most unbecomingly suggestions of national selfishness that can be conceived.

Analyses Borah's Views.

"Another section of the opponents of President Harding's proposal condemn it because it does not go far enough; because it has no teeth in it. This is the basis of Senator Borah's objection. I admit the enlightenment of the courage of his position. He would have an international court of such strength that it would try war itself and would have as join it in such a manner that it would be able to go to its jurisdiction. Senator Borah's international court in its relation to the nations would be somewhat analogous to the supreme court of the United States in its relation to our states.

"Now, by all means, let us have no quarrel—on the contrary, let us have no quarrel on the subject of respect. Some men work because they feel they have to or starve; others to discharge obligations assumed, and still others because they love their work. To all a man's job is his best friend, and by all it should be so treated.

In his speech at Atlanta last week President Harding employed one sentence which might well become an American slogan and which if heeded would rattle our political quincunx both great and small.

Had it not been for the great contributions of time, money and talent on the part of our forefathers, not only in times of war but to an even more marked degree in the reconstruction periods following, we should not have a government capable of doing anything for its people.

Mighty few of us will be called to serve in Washington or to ornament the halls of Congress, but local questions demand a due proportion of our time and as high an order of patriotism for the right solving.

THE MOTHER AIRSHIP

The newest thing in aircraft is a dirigible, of the semi-rigid type, which will serve as a mother ship for air planes. The United States Army is building such a ship to carry 12 fighting planes.

It is obviously a brilliant idea—if it will work. It has worked in trials with a small dirigible, sufficiently to justify the experiment on a bigger scale.

The public cannot be blamed for having little faith in aircraft of the lighter-than-air type, in view of the failure that has attended almost every dirigible balloon ever built.

It has been the history of both the rigid and semi-rigid types that they nearly always collapse from structural defects or wreck themselves in landing or get blown away by gales or burn up.

Thus the dirigible has been generally discarded in favor of planes, for purposes of either peace or war.

"My goodness, Uncle Jerry, you don't mean it!" Mrs. Penfield paused in her chopping of meat for the dressing.

"Yes, Carl'ne, I came in to tell you. I'm awful sorry, but—"

"But Christmas day!" she interrupted, struggling between hurt and bewilderment. "Not to take dinner with your own folks?"

"I would if I could. Wouldn't nothing be any better, though, if we got out of town. It's a sudden call. Business I got to see to! I may not be back for several days. Don't expect me till I come. I've got to hurry for my train. Good-by. Merry Christmas!"

"Oh, Mrs. Penfield stared after him. She still had no idea what sort of business he was trying out, as he expressed it; certainly she could not understand why any business whatever should call him out of town on the chief holiday of the year.

The rest of the dinner was gone for her, but she exerted herself, that the children might not notice. And they did not. Never before had they had so wonderful a feast. They would live on the memory of it for many days—rather more literally than anyone supposed at the time, too.

Little, slightly numb from repletion, lunched down on her tablecloth and fixed her black eyes solemnly on Mrs. Penfield's face.

"What're you thinking of, dear? Aren't you full?"

"Full!" Little left it at that, with entire adequacy. "What I was thinking of was last year and the swell feed I got. I had some moldy bread and a piece of hologna that I fished out—"

"Oh, Little, Little!" broke in Mrs. Penfield compassionately. "I'll never be thankful enough that Crink found you."

"Neither'll I be, you bet your front doorstep. Jiminy, it's great to live grand like this."

The next morning the sky was full of clouds. It was degrees colder, and the wind sent the ragged leaves of the pepper tree swiveling around the driveway. Mrs. Penfield reflected that it was fortunate she and Just laid in a supply of coal. Cornmeal and driftwood might serve as kindlings, but they made little impression on heating the house and that generous portion of out-of-doors which seep in through cracks and knot-holes.

The first time that Crink returned without the money for the laundry which he had just delivered, she was disappointed; the second time, she was alarmed. In each case the family had gone out of town to spend the holiday week; Crink had encountered a maid who informed him carelessly that he would get his pay the following week.

"Your children, we just got to plan," said Mrs. Penfield, cheerfully. Consequently they planned. Mrs. Penfield took no further account of possible income during the week, and apportioned the supplies on hand to tide them through till the day after New Year's. She was reasonably sure that on that date she could depend upon a payment from Mrs. Weatherstone.

Mrs. Penfield was that commercial outcast, the cash customer, who receives only the most fleeting consideration from the storekeeper, whereas the customer who keeps him waiting for his money is the object of his earnest solicitude and accommodation. It seems that the less money one has, the more promptly one pays. It was probable that Mrs. Penfield might have opened an account at Mr. Drake's; but it was contrary to her prudent policy, and also distasteful to Crink's idea of independence.

"Land, I'm glad I've read all them diet books," she said to herself. "I know now that if you go without food for a few days, you ain't starving! You're fasting. And that's awful stylish, too. Besides, water is awful filling."

She drank two glasses before every meal. To her astonishment, she discovered that Little knew this trick as well as she did; having learned it by a far more interesting means—through reading, but by necessitous experience.

It looked as if she would be able to steer her household craft safely through the shallow waters, without appealing in any direction; but there was one thing which she had not counted on, and that was the cumulative power of hunger. Ravenous stomachs accept the limited ration for a time; then rise in gathered rebellion and demand their full mead, totally unlike their apathy under fasting.

It was not until New Year's day that this happened. Lunch consisted of a small allowance of cornbread.

"Can't I have some more, Penzie?" wheedled Thad.

Mrs. Penfield's eyes filled with the tears that had been close to the surface every time she had looked at her brave brood.

Little sprang to her feet. "You little dummy," she said affectionately; "ain't cornbread you want; it's water. I'll get you some."

She brought him another tumbler of water. He drank a few swallows obediently. He always did what Little told him to.

"Oh," he objected, making a wry face. "It's got some'n in it. Tastes like sally."

"You bet it's got some'n in it," rejoined Little. "It's like you want some more water—and then some more. You're going to get full 'fore I'm through with you. And after you get a full feeling, you can't tell what gave it to you."

"Oh, children," began Mrs. Penfield, quickly. "Tonight we'll have a g-gr-g—" Her voice broke. With a swift movement she got up from the table and went back to the stove, rattling the dampers vigorously.

Crink also rose. "I got something to see to," he explained hurriedly. With the air of starting on a distant errand, he went out through the big front door.

Instantly, as if she had been waiting for some such circumstance, Little dashed out at the back door. She ran to the coop in which Bonnie Geraldine clucked every day, and crumbled a reasonable lunch of cornbread through the slats. Reaching in her pocket for more, she turned to feed Mr. Caesar.

Crink was there before her, digging into his pockets, and spreading cornbread for the hungry little dog.

"I thought maybe—maybe FIP'd like some," he said softly.

Little nodded. "We can't tell him—'bout—'bout drinking water," she whispered. Her lips were unsteady, but she broke the cornbread with resolute fingers till Fillebuster had eaten every crumb.

The day dragged through—and the night. The next morning, as early as permissible, Crink set out for relief, and brought back an enormous bundle from Mrs. Weatherstone's, as well as the pay for the two weeks. And the lunch that day, outdistanced the Christmas dinner in acceptability to all the little Penfields.

When Mrs. Penfield opened the bundle that Crink had brought, she was amazed to find that it did not contain white clothing as usual, but silks and embroideries, colored fabrics, a far more difficult washing. However, she

"I can't take it," said Mrs. Penfield firmly. She forestalled Mrs. Penfield's objection "I've just got to leave it with you." "I can't take it," said Mrs. Penfield firmly. "It makes no uneasy. You'd better rent a safety box. Ain't anything safe here if a burglar should take a notion to come. I'm sorry, but I don't feel like taking—"

"You needn't take it," interrupted Gus Bosley. "You're lighting movement, she snatched through the open bedroom door and placed the package on the apple-box cupboard. "The responsibility's on my head. Thank you." She ran out of the house, well ahead of Mrs. Penfield, who followed, protesting, as soon as she had snatched up the package.

WILSON GIVEN CONTRACT FOR COUNTY AUDIT

Seven Bids Rejected by Commissioners and Award Given Local Accounting Firm; Begin Next Week

Elwin A. Wilson, Twin Falls accountant, was awarded the contract for making the four-year county audit through action taken at an audited session of the board of county commissioners at their regular meeting Wednesday.

Mr. Wilson stated that he expects to start work next week, not later than Wednesday, and the help of two or three assistants will be required. The work will probably be finished within 60 or 90 days, he said.

The maximum cost of the audit was fixed by the commissioners at $2000 and it may be less than that figure, commissioners said, the final cost depending on the length of time required for making the audit.

The compensation of the accountant was fixed at $25 a day and $10 a day for each assistant.

The award was made from a field of seven bids filed at Boise, Pocatello, Salt Lake, Caldwell and Twin Falls. The commissioners rejected all bids on account of the fact that the bids contained clauses or stipulations not entirely satisfactory or were otherwise not in accord with the written specifications drawn up by the commissioners.

The low bid was less than that of the highest and was accepted and signed Wednesday with Mr. Wilson, but the commissioners stated that after taking qualifications and various other matters into consideration they believed the best results would be obtained by signing a straight contract with the local firm.

The commissioners require that the audit be strictly in accord with the specifications. The work will begin with the published statement of the county auditor dated the second Monday in January, 1919, and will cover the four-year period following that date. It is required that a detailed audit of all accounts and transactions of county officers be included as well as a verification of the correctness of books of accounts and balances.

The county fair department and the county hospital are not included in the audit.

Sportsmen Agree on Future Plans

Harmony Prevails at Meeting of Buhl and Twin Falls Men; Game Warden is Guest

With a spirit of harmony and cooperation prevailing, sportsmen of Buhl and Twin Falls met at a meeting at Buhl Wednesday night to discuss the present situation as it prevails to both localities, and arrived at a favorable basis of understanding as to a future program.

The meeting and banquet was attended by about 75 sportsmen, including approximately 15 from Twin Falls. Speakers included H. P. Thomas, state game warden; George Tonkin, deputy federal game warden; Jack Shrovet, president of the local game association; H. R. Grant, E. L. Dooly, P. C. Meredith and Carl King.

Mr. Thomas offered his help toward getting wild celery and rice to be planted in this county around lakes and streams as an incentive to duck and geese. He also approved of the plan presented by Mr. Grant for exchanging Idaho pheasants with the game department of North Carolina for quail of that state.

The plan for exchanging of the birds was decided upon at the meeting of the sportsmen here, and it was determined that work had been started with the North Carolina officials. The quail will be planted at various points in the county, including the district around Buhl.

Boys Are Held for Bad-Check Writing

Two Youths from Buhl Lodged in County Jail; Claim Both Caused Trouble

Two boys, aged 16 and 17, were brought to Twin Falls from Buhl on Wednesday by John R. Ault, probation officer, and placed in the county jail where they are held on charges of writing worthless checks.

One of the boys wrote a total of $48 worth of checks and the other wrote 20 checks for a total amount of $100 and totalling $27. The boys confessed to the charges, Mr. Ault stated.

The two are said to have given authorities considerable trouble through mischievousness and delinquent activities at Buhl. One of the lads is accused of having called out the Buhl fire department with a recent benefit dance given by the Buhl firemen was in full swing. The other refuses to stay in school.

MUSICAL CLASSICS TO BE GIVEN IN CONCERT

Appearance of Salt Lake Artists is Heralded with Interest; Tabernacle Organist to Appear

An announcement that is received with interest in musical circles is that of the appearance at the Methodist church on Friday night of Professor John J. McClellan, well known Tabernacle organist and pianist; Professor William E. Wolfe, violin virtuoso, and Miss Lela Leonard, chief contralto of the Tabernacle choir of Salt Lake City.

The concert is one of a tour of 10 concerts in northern Utah and southern Idaho and are giving programs that are exceptionally charming and popular, all the while keeping to a high standard and not becoming flashy or cheap.

Mr. McClellan will be heard several organ solos. His reputation is firmly established and his music is expected to be of exceptionally high quality. He is also a most beautiful soloist, his interpretation of them are bound to furnish a highly enjoyable part of the excellent program, while Miss Leonard's voice is a charming melody.

Mr. Wolfe's most beautiful solo, has made a deep impression on her audiences everywhere she appears.

QUESTION IS RAISED ON COMMISSIONER ELECTION

Many Bollovo W. T. Leslie May Be Successful Candidate for City Office—Ruling Indicates Otherwise

Once again the state law regarding elections under the commission form of government is furnishing the basis for a series of questions and discussion and not a few local citizens are not sure but what W. T. Leslie was elected as a city commissioner.

The majority appear to believe that Mr. Leslie is not yet entitled to the office. The question revolves principally around the interpretation of the law and of the manner of counting the votes.

J. L. Meo, city clerk, cites Attorney General Black's decision last year as precluding the possibility of anyone having been elected to the commission. Mr. Black's decision was that in order to be elected a candidate for commissioner must have more than half the ballots cast. A careful reading of the statute will confirm this opinion, Mr. Meo stated. The half of the total number of ballots cast is approximately 1050, while Mr. Leslie received 1032 votes.

LEGION BENEFIT SHOW DRAWS BIG ATTENDANCE

A capacity audience attended the showing of "Sand," the William S. Hart picture, given at the Idaho theatre Wednesday night as a benefit for the Twin Falls post of the American Legion.

An attractive feature of the event was given after the first show when "Smile Through Your Tears," a recent popular number, was sung by J. B. Hall, and several other local artists, including John Nye. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Bainbridge, played a selection from Robin Hood, "The Mill in the Forest," and "The American Patrol."

Members of the legion who had charge of the dinner, or who acted as hosts, were A. E. Johnson, manager; Bryan Carlos Linville, E. L. Williams and Manager J. E. Madson.

URGE DECREASE IN POWER RATE

Board of Chamber of Commerce Recommend Representation at State Hearing

The board of directors of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Wednesday night, recommended that the chamber utilities bureau take up the matter of the Idaho Power company rate hearing with the commission with a view to having Twin Falls represented at the hearing which is to be concluded April 30 by the state public utilities commission at Boise.

The valuation of the power company as a basis for rate making will be the subject considered at the hearing. The board approved a decision to urge a reduction of local rates on electricity on the grounds that this locality includes the greatest source of supply of the power company. The position was taken that the same principle that applies on long distance telephone rates should be applied in electricity charges should be applicable in electricity rates.

The utilities bureau was also recommended to protest an increase on freight rates on coal, an official report of which has been received. The meeting is otherwise devoted to consideration of minor routine matters.

EXPLAINS OPERATION OF FEDERAL ORGANIZATION

Springer Events, Veterans' Bureau Official, Addresses Rotary Club; Warns Talk Game Protection

What the government tries to do and how it does it, might have been the title to an interesting talk by Springer Evans of Boise at the regular weekly meeting of the Twin Falls Rotary club Wednesday at the "general" of the federal organization, a federal service men.

Mr. Evans is a brother of Coach Evans of the high school faculty and is in Twin Falls on business connected with the federal game warden, and State Deputy Game Warden Salisbury were also guests of the club and each delivered a few brief remarks upon his favorite topic.

Mr. Evans made an eloquent plea for general observance of state and federal game laws and complimented Twin Falls county upon the interest in game conservation manifested by the sportsmen here.

DISPOSES OF JURY CASES

Last Case is Tried Wednesday and Jurymen Dismissed for Term; Court Cases to be Heard Later

The jury cases of the present term of district court were disposed of with the return of a verdict for the defendant Wednesday in the case of Louisa Evans, et al. vs. H. B. Lewis, and the remainder of the jury drawn for the term was discharged.

The final case was brought to settle the necessity of an automobile. The jury in the trial of the case of B. E. Davis against H. R. Pettijohn, after deliberating for 4 1/2 hours Tuesday afternoon, was nearly midnight Tuesday night, failed to agree and was discharged. The case will be listed at the next term. The suit involved a quantity of farm products which were attached and which Porter & Wilham, appearing as intervenors for the Claston estate, claimed belonged to the estate and could not be legally attached.

About 30 non-jury cases will probably be set for hearing later this month.

POLICE FILE COMPLAINT

Conner, Twin Falls constable, charging him with being intoxicated and fighting on the street. The charge is an outgrowth of the arrest of J. D. Conner and A. Fiala a few days ago. The latter, who is alleged to have had a jug of liquor in his possession, will be given a hearing in probate court Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Conner will answer to the police court charge Thursday.
