WORK ACCEPTS HARDING PLAN FOR BUREAUS

Secretary of Interior Heals Breach by Surrender of Jurisdiction Over Forest Service in Realignment Scheme

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—Frank Harding's realignment of various government bureaus, which heretofore has been the center of a row among high officials of the interior and agriculture departments, was accepted without reservation tonight by Secretary Work of the interior department in his public address outlining department policies which he succeeded Secretary Fall in mentioning, the reported disagreement between Mr. Fall and Secretary Wallace of the agriculture department as to which should have jurisdiction over the forest service.

Does Not Profit in Over-Jealousy

Secretary Work's address was delivered before a meeting of agriculture employees and was the first public utterance by any cabinet officer regarding the forest-service dispute which preceded Mr. Fall's retirement from the cabinet. The new secretary did not refer specifically to his predecessor but throughout his speech he emphasized his view that nothing was to be gained by over-jealousy as to departmental authority.

As other examples of the same sort, Secretary Work enumerated the changes made in the administration of public highways and the conservation of the natural resources of Alaska.

PACIFIC STATES LEAD IN DRIFT TOWARD CITIES

Department of Agriculture Reports Decrease During 1922 of Approximately 460,000 Persons in Farm Population

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—A decrease during 1922 of approximately 460,000 persons in the rural population of the United States was reported today by the department of agriculture which said its figures were based on a survey of 10,000 representative farms and groups of farms. The estimate, which included all men, women and children living on farms, shows a decrease of about 1.5 per cent from the 1920 census, which placed the agricultural population in rural districts at 31,529,000 persons.

The population movement away from the farms, the department stated, was strongest in the Pacific states, while the percentage of loss was greater than the average for the entire country in the mountain south, central and New England states, as well as in the Pacific group.

The movement from farms to towns and cities last year was estimated at about two million persons, offset in part by the shift of approximately 880,000 persons from towns and cities to farms.

Birds on farms in 1922 was given as 225,000, and death 266,000.

In the shift of agricultural population to cities, few towns relatively the largest movement was in the mountain south, followed in order by New England, the Pacific, the middle Atlantic and the east north central and the south Atlantic states, all above the national average. Below were the west south central, the west north central and the east south Atlantic states.

HEADS OF MANY ENGLISH SECTS ARRIGN SOVIET

Bolshevik Attitude Toward Church as Shown by Execution and Imprisonment of Clergymen Brings Protest

LONDON, April 13, (AP)—The attitude of the soviet government toward the Christian church of the world as manifested in the recent execution of Vicar General Dutchkavitch and the condemnation of Archbishop Zepiak, forms the subject of an indignant protest issued Thursday over the names of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, Cardinal Bourne, Rabbi Hertz, General Bramwell Booth and other religious heads representing nearly every sect in England.

Addressed to "all men and women of good will," the document exhorts those who have at heart the well being of the world and the maintenance of religious liberty to register their condemnation of the soviet's actions. "The last few weeks," says the protest, "have witnessed a portent which has filled all generous-hearted men and women with horror. The ruthless warfare which the soviet government has long carried out against all forms of religious belief has come to a head.

Strikes at Central Facts
"Hundreds of thousands of religious people and the ministers of religion of all ranks and creeds have been subjected to savage persecution, the express purpose of which has been to root religions out of the land. The central facts for which religious stands have been systematically outraged and insulted. The most sacred of religious festivals (Easter) has been made the occasion of blasphemous travesty.

"The bolsheviks themselves have not disguised the purpose they have in view. In their own journal they declared: 'We must carry our agitation against religion just as systematically as we do in political questions, but with even more determination. Although we have declared war on the denizens of heaven, it is by no means easy to sweep them from the households of the human race.'

The proclamation then says for the sake of those workmen and the whole people of Russia and for the preservation in their hearts of their faith in God that the signers appeal.

United in Indignation
"We represent many religious communities and many political oppositions," it goes on, "but we are united in the indignation and horror with which we regard the present policy of systematic persecution of religion in all its forms. Such a policy cannot be tolerated in silence by those who value religion or liberty. Our protest will, we are confident, evoke a response everywhere on the part of those who have at heart the well-being of the world."

BOOTLEGGERS' CORSETS SHOWN
BOSTON, April 13 (AP)—Latest styles in bootleggers' corsets were displayed by the police today as a result of a raid on a tenement house in the north end where a quantity of moonshine was seized. There are two models. Each is a two partitions tin garment of two gallons capacity, shaped to the body, and held in position under the coat by shoulder straps. One has faucets at the bottom to pour liquor into a glass. The other has a rubber hose to siphon the stuff through openings in the top.

Army Airplanes Complete Record Flight

Six army airplanes, carrying 12 officers, under command of Captain Thomas G. Lauphler, shown arriving in Washington, after the completion of a record-breaking 5,000-mile flight, which was made to prepare plans to "hot the up" the Caribbean Sea in the event of an enemy naval attack. The planes traveled an absolute schedule from San Antonio, Texas, to Cuba and Porto Rico, returning to Washington, where they were greeted by Secretary Weeks, Assistant Secretary Dwight Davis, General Mason T. Patrick, Chief of the Army Air Service; and Brigadier-General Hines, Assistant Chief of Staff. The planes covered 5,400 miles in 61 hours 13 minutes flying time. By reaching Porto Rico on schedule time they showed that within three days the entire American Air Force can be mobilized on that island to bomb and sink any approaching enemy fleet. There was not an accident on the flight.

WOMEN SPLIT ON FOREIGN ISSUES

Proposal for Endorsement of Affiliation with World Court Causes Lively Debate

DES MOINES, April 13, (AP)—Political lines were sharply drawn in the debate today before the annual convention of the National League of Women Voters on the proposed resolution that the league go on record as favoring participation by the United States in the permanent court of international justice, as recommended by President Harding.

Debate on the subject continued for more than an hour over proposed amendments and substitute resolutions, but at the hour of adjournment no vote had been taken to indicate how the delegates will line up to-morrow in voting on rejection or adoption of the resolution.

The only amendment adopted added the words "and toward that fuller and more far-reaching international co-operation which is necessary to prevent war," making one of the deputed sections of the resolution read: "Resolved, that we pledge our active support to the proposal of the president and the secretary of state for participation by the United States in the permanent court of international justice, believing this to be the first steps toward the outlawry of war and toward that fuller and more far-reaching international co-operation which is necessary to prevent war."

This amendment was offered by Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, of New York. An amendment by Miss Florence Halsey of New Jersey, seeking to add the words "and the entrance of the United States into the league of nations," was voted down.

League Friends Claim Victory
League of nations advocates among the delegates claimed tonight that the action of the convention was a victory to them; Mrs. Tiffany's amendment was introduced, they said, in order to avoid antagonizing too strongly the anti-league group. Mrs. Tiffany herself is recognized as openly pro-league.

Proposal that the United States call an international conference to consider further steps for the maintenance of peace also resulted in a controversy when Mrs. William G. Hubbard of Illinois submitted as a substitute:

"Be it further resolved that we call upon all citizens of the United States to unite in support of every constructive effort toward permanent world organization for peace without regard to party affiliation."

This was declared by the national president, Maud Wood Park, presiding officer, to have lost, after a very close vote, and tomorrow the convention will resume debates on the original request that the United States call a new international conference.

Legion Seeks Funds to Decorate Graves

Organization of Veterans to Conduct Nation-Wide Drive to Honor War Heroes

For the purpose of aiding in establishing a permanent income with which to decorate the graves of American veterans in the war cemeteries in France the Twin Falls post of the American Legion plans to arrange for receiving financial contributions in connection with the drive for $100,000, inaugurated by the national headquarters of the Legion to be carried on throughout the United States.

The details of the plan as it affects Twin Falls have not been definitely decided upon and the amount to be asked or whether or not any definite goal will be agreed upon have not been officially established. The contributions, however, will not be set at any amount, any figure from a few cents upward being welcome, according to legion officials.

The nation-wide drive was decided upon at the national headquarters and announced about three weeks ago. After the funds are raised arrangements will be made for the decorations of the graves of the American boys annually on Decoration day.

FARM WORK PROGRESSING, FEDERAL BULLETIN SAYS

Crop Report Issued for Week of April 10 Shows Ground in Good Shape and Early Spring Crops Doing Well

The recent showers in southern Idaho interfered somewhat with spraying of trees, but all reasonable farm work made good progress, according to the weekly summary of weather and crop conditions in Idaho distributed by the department of agriculture. The report is for the week ending April 10.

The report covering southwest Idaho states that the spring has been unattended by dry and vegetation is backward. Winter wheat and alfalfa have come through in good shape and early sown spring grain is coming up nicely.

In the immediate Twin Falls district, the report says, frequent showers have put the ground in excellent condition, wheat sowing was progressing rapidly, grass and fruit buds coming fast and stock doing fine.

The reports for the Bull and Hollister districts are about the same as that concerning Twin Falls. The report states that rain at Burley totaled 1.25 inches and ground is in excellent shape for seeding. The ground was until recently too dry for planting beets, the report says.

"What's the matter with water?" demanded Mrs. Penfield, thoughtfully puzzled. "Dry cleaning ain't half so good, is it? Things don't smell so good, either."

"I don't just begin to iron the hangings," continued Mrs. Penfield elegantly. She held up a tense, red nose, all embroidered in a scattered design of self color.

"What's that?" he asked weakly. "I'll show you, if you'll have to come into the kitchen," she led the way and pointed to a spread, thrown across a line. It was of cashmere satin, woven in India and embroidered with delicate silks in a raised pattern.
