URGES GERMANY TO MAKE OFFER ON REPARATION

Spokesman for Socialists in Reichstag Points Out Berlin's Duty to Make Speedy End to "Ruhr Adventure"

BERLIN, April 19 (AP)—On the resumption of debate in the Reichstag Wednesday on account of the recent address of Baron von Rosenberg, the foreign minister, Herr Breitscheid, speaking in behalf of the socialists, strongly urged that the government should make a definite concrete offer to France for settlement of the reparation question. "Our duty," said the deputy, "is to bring about a speedy end of the Ruhr adventure. We have no friends in the world. America and England will not intervene."

While not saying it was acceptable, Herr Breitscheid suggested that the plan of Louis Barthou on behalf of France, and M. Delors, on behalf of Belgium, for the payment of 20,000,000 gold marks by Germany had the merit of definiteness. "What we object to in the plan," he added, "is the stipulation for the progressive evacuation of the Ruhr, and its failure to reimburse Germany for costs of maintaining the armies of occupation."

Questions Exporters' Award.

Herr Breitscheid expressed the opinion that Germany probably would be far better off by making a direct offer than to risk the verdict of a board of experts, which later procedure he believed France and the other allies would not accept. "We are not affiliated with or related to this government," declared the deputy, "but nevertheless we desire to see it remain in office to liquidate the Ruhr conflict, which occurred during its regime."

In urging the government to come forward with a proposal, Herr Breitscheid suggested that it pursue the Reichstag statement, contemplate the increasing unemployment and also interpret today's slump in the value of the mark.

Defends Resistance.

Dr. Karl Helfferich, leader of the nationalists, then delivered a speech in which he declared that all the German political parties were united in a determination to refuse all negotiations unconditionally and until the Ruhr remained occupied. The only differences between the parties, the former secretary of the imperial treasury said, were regarding the manner of carrying out this determination. He added that only such steps should be taken by the government as would strengthen the present passive resistance.

Declaring that the depreciation in the mark must continue to be fought off, even with the use of the Reichsbank's gold, Dr. Helfferich said: "In this battle the Reichsbank's gold is our powder which must be shot. France's strongest confederate is the world's indignation over Germany's economic situation. Alongside the blame for the war stands the blame for this peace, and this must be discussed loudly and plainly. Peace was concluded under a violation of the solemn promises which President Wilson made us with the assent of the allies."

Childen Wilson's Course.

This, Dr. Helfferich continued, has been established by John M. Keay, the British economist, and Newton P. Baker, former American secretary of war, in their writings dealing with President Wilson's participation in the peace negotiations. Further, "his writings showed President Wilson himself in the preliminary peace negotiations, referred to the fact that Germany possessed the solemn promises of the allies. President Wilson showed that he realized 'this peace meant merely a division of spoils among robbers.' It is tragic for Germany that, despite his clear point of view, President Wilson came to break his word."

Seeks to Interest Young Americans in Political Affairs

National Civic Federation Turns Attention to Guidance of New Citizens

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP)—A movement to induce young American men and women to take an active part in the political affairs of the nation was launched today at the closing session of the annual convention of the National Civic Federation. A resolution was adopted creating a joint national advisory committee, consisting of all the state chairmen of political parties, and empowered to appoint an executive committee of 10 men and 10 women, responsible for the promotion of an interest in national politics among young people of the nation.

A resolution was adopted creating a joint national advisory committee, consisting of all the state chairmen of political parties, and empowered to appoint an executive committee of 10 men and 10 women, responsible for the promotion of an interest in national politics among young people of the nation.

A plan for preparatory work was voiced by Colonel Robert M. Thompson, honorary president of the Navy League of the United States and of the American Olympic association.

"Peace theories," he said, "are a symptom of the neglect of the American people to take an active part in political affairs."

Colonel Thompson said that if men like Senators Borah, Johnson and La Follette were republicans, he was not a republican.

"Neither of the great parties," he asserted, "now stands for anything but a scramble for office. Not the masses, but blocs, groups of people actuated by their own selfish interests, ruled the last congress."

Speaking about the permanent international court of justice, of which he said America was a parent, Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, urged America's joining the court, now established as an adjunct of the league of nations.

STORM CENTERS ON KLAN LEADER

Captain J. K. Skipwith is Accused by State in Connection with Bands' Activities

BASTROP, La., April 19 (AP)—Captain J. K. Skipwith, exalted cyclops of the Morehouse parish Ku Klux Klan, will be the storm center in the forthcoming trials of Morehouse citizens as a result of operations of masked bands in the parish last year, for which Governor Parker holds the Klan responsible.

District Attorney David Garrett arrived here Wednesday from Monroe, and filed 20 bills of information, prepared by Attorney General Cooze, charging nearly a score of persons with various offenses.

The serious charge is that of conspiring to murder and two bills covering this crime are directed against Captain Skipwith. One relates to the case of Watt Daniel, kidnaped by a band of hooded men on August 24, last, while the other relates to that of T. V. Richard, Daniel's companion. Two bodies, identified as those of the men, were found December 22 in Lake La Fourche.

There are no other murder conspiracy informations. In addition to these other bills charging Captain Skipwith with carrying firearms on the premises of another conspiring to compel a person to leave his home, conspiring to assault a person, conspiring to compel a person to leave an automobile and conspiring to compel a person to leave his place of business.

Dr. D. B. McKel, former mayor of Mer Rouge, arrested in Baltimore at the request of Governor Parker upon a charge of murder in connection with the Daniel-Richard case, also is named in several bills.

Warrants were issued and placed in the hands of Sheriff Fred Carpenter for the arrest of the defendants.

DISPUTES GARY'S VIEWS ON IMMIGRATION RULES

Bureau Commissioner Argues Three Per Cent Quota Cannot Be Held to Blame for Labor Shortage

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—Elliott H. Gary's recent statement blaming the immigration restriction law for the labor shortage was disputed Wednesday by Commissioner Hubbard of the immigration bureau who declared the three per cent quota could not be held responsible so long as the quota fixed remained unexhausted.

Approximately 75,000 immigrants from Germany and other northern European countries can be admitted between now and July 1, the commissioner said, although the supply from Italy, Russia and other southern countries has been shut off.

Referring particularly to the shortage of labor in the steel and iron industry, Mr. Hubbard said the domestic supply had kept that industry going in England and in Germany, but that the difficulty here lay in the sort of work required in a steel mill. For that reason, he said, the industry had been compelled to a large degree to use labor from Italy, Poland and some of the Slav countries.

SEAMEN RENEW BID FOR SHIPS

Marine Engineers Association Remodels Proposal After Meeting Rebuff

NEW YORK, April 19, (AP)—The Marine Engineers' Beneficial association tonight submitted a new offer to purchase three shipping board vessels, after Chairman A. D. Lasker of the board had rejected their original bid of $300,000. The association offered a deposit of $50,000 as a guarantee fund and operate the vessels until an arbitrary price is fixed.

The association proposed leaving the price to an executive committee of the next congress. It also proposed taking over the ships at once and operating them without interference by the shipping board with the understanding that the balance of the agreed purchase price would be paid within one year of the date of delivery.

The offer was made on receipt of a letter from Chairman Lasker pointing out that the original offer of $100,000 for each of the three ships approximated only one-third of the lowest sales price on the vessels by the board. The government's minimum price, Mr. Lasker wrote, was $20 per deadweight ton, on ships of the type of the steamers Pomona, Hanley and Hannawa, sought by the association.

The association in the counter offer, agreed to assume any losses out of physical operation. The new offer would be divided equally between the operating company and the application toward the purchase price.

The vessels, the offer continued, would remain insured by the shipping board, which also would take care of repairs or latent defects. The proposal also revealed that the association would name seven other vessels to be purchased on the same terms, a total of 10 vessels as a nucleus of a contemplated fleet of 110 ships for ocean, coastwise and lake trade.

COMMUNICATION PROJECT MEETS WITH OPPOSITION

Hitch in Plans to Link China and United States by Wireless is Attributed to Japan and Britain

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19, (AP)—Plans of the Federal Telegraph company to link China and the United States by an American wireless system have met with unexpected foreign opposition at Peking, according to recent cable advice received from the Chinese embassy by company officials.

British, and particularly Japanese opposition, backed by official representations to the Chinese foreign office, have held up Chinese validation of the Federal's first contract with China, according to these advices.

"The repudiation of our contract with China by the Peking government would hurt Chinese-American communication entirely in the hands of the British and Japanese," said Leon Boqueron, of San Francisco, vice president of the Federal company. Mr. Boqueron added that he did not have any opinion as to whether the Chinese eventually would adopt such a course, despite the strenuous opposition of the United States of Japan, backed by the Tokio government.

He added that the American state department has been appealed to and is standing squarely behind the Federal offer. The Tokio government, however, in China and actual recognition of the open door policy to which Japan as well as other nations are subscribed.

HITS STANDARD OIL MONOPOLY

Wyoming Land Board Leases Field to Midwest Company; Sells Oil to Rival Firm

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 19, (AP)—An unusual situation may develop in the Salt Creek oil field as a result of the action taken by the Wyoming land board today in awarding the lease on section 36 of that field to the Midwest Refining company on a 65 percent royalty basis and then selling the state's royalty oil to the Mutual Oil company, a rival of the Midwest.

Under the new arrangement, the Midwest's Rocky mountain concern, owned by the Standard Oil company of Indiana, will have to give the major part of the crude oil produced on the famous section to an outsider, whereas up to the present time the Standard subsidiaries virtually have dominated the field.

The Mutual's bid for the royalty oil was 25 cents below the Mid-continent price with a minimum of $1.50 a barrel specified. The Midwest had made four alternative propositions for the lease. Section 36 has been said by experts to be the richest tract of petroleum land in the world. The award has an estimated value of from $25,000,000 to $100,000,000. Several million barrels of oil are produced from this section annually, according to oil men. Great interest has been manifest in western states in the award. Six bids were received by the board March 15 on royalty oil according to the state.

DENVER MINT ROBBERY LINKED WITH BOND PLOT

One of Defendants, Testifying for Government, Traced $25,000 Bills to Minneapolis Brokerage Firm

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 19, (AP)—The Denver mint robbery of December 18, 1922, was linked with the bond conspiracy trial when Henry E. Sorlein, one of six defendants suddenly changed his plea of not guilty to guilty and took the stand as a witness for the government before Judge John P. McGee, in United States district court here today.

Sorlein charged that Stanley Mae Cormick, former partner of A. W. Stevens in the Denver, Minneapolis brokerage firm named for the latter, and now under indictment in connection with the bond conspiracy, had contained $80,000 in $5 bills taken in the Denver mint robbery, and had arranged to turn them over to a South Dakota banker in place of stolen bonds that could not be obtained. All the stolen bonds that Sorlein handled were obtained from McCormick, Sorlein testified.

The Denver mint robbers escaped with $200,000 in currency after mortally wounding Charles Blinton, guard on one of the federal reserve trucks at the mint.

His time of 2 hours, 47 minutes, 47.3 seconds set no new mark, but it was nearly two minutes faster than that of the runner-up, Frank Zuna, of the Millrose A. A., New York, and his victory established him as the only blue sweater previous winners, most of those who placed have been running for years.

Wallie Carlson of Chicago, was third, and Albert F. Nicholson of Stamford, Conn., who outdistanced the lead with others and then with De Mar for nearly half of the 25 miles, was fourth. After Gunnie Nilson and Nestor Erickson of New York had finished fifth and sixth, there came plodding Uncle Carl W. A. Linden of the Boston A. A., victor in 1919, and old Bill Kennedy of Port Chester, N. Y., who led the way in 1917. The latter, gray-haired, who comes to Boston for the races, usually riding, backbeams, was warned by one physician before the start that he should not run.

MARINE CORPS FLYERS MAKE STOP AT YUMA

Two Out of Four Planes in Cross-Continent Squadron are Laid Up for Repairs at First Stop

YUMA, Arizona, April 19, (AP)—Major R. S. Gieger, commander of the squadron of four Martin bombing planes, commanded by United States marine corps officers and enlisted men, who started today from San Diego, Cal., on a cross-continent flight to Quantico, Va., decided today to spend the night in Yuma instead of trying to continue to Tucson. Two of the planes are undergoing repairs tonight for mishaps on the first leg of the flight. Although no injuries resulted from the mishaps, Major R. S. Gieger, commander of the squadron, and Captain Maloney, manning plane T-2, reached the Yuma flying field only after a hazardous forced landing in a rock-strewn canyon, and Captain Woods and Lieutenant Hatterburg in the T-4 crashed into an automobile and operators as they landed on the Yuma flying field.

The generating plant on the T-1 burned out at a 2000 foot elevation, after the planes had crossed the San Diego mountains, and Captain Maloney made a successful forced landing. Major Gieger signalled the other planes to continue to Yuma. The damage to the T-3 was repaired in an hour, but it was more than an hour before the aviators could make a successful takeoff on account of the clinging mud, mesquite and loose stones. Major Gieger said after reaching Yuma that he had at one time almost abandoned hope of getting the plane out.

In landing the T-4 at Yuma, Captain Woods found his path blocked by several automobiles which had drawn out into the edge of the field. The plane crashed into the nearest car. The occupants saved themselves from injury by dropping into the bottom of the car as the plane hit.

The fabric and struts of the T-4 were damaged but Major Gieger said he believed that both the T-1 and T-4 could be repaired before morning and the flight resumed.

CONVICT CAMP WHIPPING BOSS TELLS STORY

Florida Legislature's Investigators Hear Accused Man's Side of Alleged Abuse of Prisoners

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 19, (AP)—The first phase of the legislative investigation into alleged convict abuses in this state, relating to the death of Martin Tabert of North Dakota in the private camp of the Putnam Lumber company at Oklawaha, Fla., drew near this today with the appearance of Walter Higginbotham, the camp "whipping boss." Higginbotham, 35 years old, attired in a neat blue serge suit and silk shirt, came into the committee room in response to his summons. Committee members said frankly that he belied their mental pictures of him.

Higginbotham told the committee in a few words that while he was the official "whipper" of the lumber camp, he carried on his work in a humane manner. He never administered more than 10 or 11 lashes at one time while his monthly punishments averaged about 10, he said. He did not give Tabert more than six or eight blows, gentle ones, he testified. After a lengthy session today the committee recessed until Saturday morning to allow for the summoning of eight witnesses, four residing here, and the others in nearby Florida towns, by G. Grimson and I. W. Kneeshaw, assistant attorney general of North Dakota.

Two former employes of the Putnam Lumber Co., M. H. Lagroun, of Koiya, Ga., and Jesse W. Walters of Cross City, Fla., today testified that they recommended to Higginbotham that Tabert be whipped because he was not doing his work properly and that the number of licks given him were not more than ten.

Physician Testifies
Dr. C. M. Pusley, of Tallahassee, chairman of the board of the county commissioners of Leon county at the time the board entered into contract with the Putnam company to supply it with prisoners, gave his professional opinion that pneumonia which had been alleged by the lumber company as the primary cause of Tabert's death, might be induced by a severe whipping such as Tabert is said to have received.

Assistant Attorney Grimson informed the committee that it would not be necessary to summon but eight of the 37 witnesses which he had requested. Tuesday, those residing as far west as the state of Washington including the mother and brother of Tabert, will not testify.

PAVES WAY FOR AMERICA TO JOIN WORLD COURT

GENEVA, April 19, (AP)—Mitsuchi-ro Adachi, Japanese minister to Belgium, stated here today that he was communicating with President Manley C. Hudson of Harvard university, concerning a plan by which the United States could join the court of international justice without any special legislation itself to join the league of nations.

WADSWORTH IN LONDON

LONDON, April 19, (AP)—Elliot Wadsworth, assistant secretary of the United States treasury, arrived in London today from Paris where he has been negotiating with the allied representatives for reimbursement of the American army costs in the Rhine line. While in London he has appointments with American Ambassador Harvey and British treasury officials tomorrow, he said, his conversations with the latter would not be concerned with the delay in the Japanese debt-funding agreement. He plans to return to Paris Monday to attend a meeting of the reparations commission.

INVESTIGATORS ON FIRE SCENE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 19 (AP)—Almost half a century ago the children burned to death in a fire which destroyed the farm house of the Japanese school here, representatives of the state board arrived to investigate the circumstances of the fire. The funeral of the tenth child will be held later. It has been suggested in several quarters that this and other fires in the Japanese quarter were incendiary. Inquiry into their cause was begun yesterday by the fire department.

GOVERNMENT USES

The New York sugar exchange. The criminal phase was held in abeyance but, Acting Attorney General Seymour announced that it was under serious consideration.
Final decision regarding criminal action was said officially to be before Attorney General Daugherty, who is now at Asheville, N. C. He was personally active in drafting the injunction suit, based on the Sherman anti-trust law and anti-trust provisions of the Federal Reserve act, and was said to be considering a request upon the federal grand jury in New York for criminal indictment, under the conspiracy provisions of the Sherman act, of defendants named in today's civil suit.

Tariff Not Factor
Another development today in the sugar situation was a report to President Harding by the tariff commission, which found that duties of the new Fordney-McCumber tariff not lower than a factor in the recent increase in sugar prices.
The commission declared the increase was due to other causes and that if the tariff was reduced or removed, the tendency would be to decrease production of American beet sugar and increase imports of the foreign product.

The government's action in the New York injunction suit designed to close the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange and the New York Coffee and Sugar Clearing Association, Inc., to future or speculative trading in sugar, was unusually speedy and vigorous. It also constituted a new and extraordinary legal development of anti-trust prosecutions in its attempt to stop speculation on the commodity exchange, a precedent which it finally established by the supreme court, government counsel said, might lead to important future expansion of the Sherman law's effect.

At the White House it was said it would be novel and important to determine for the future whether or the government has the power to prevent speculation in food-stuffs and also in clothing, prices of which have a tendency to fluctuate abnormally.

Two months of active investigation by government agents in this country and Cuba, preceded filing of the injunction suit. Although the department of justice plans were known to a considerable number of officials the move made today was clothed in secrecy, no indication being given that the government contemplated such drastic action.

Officials explained that the civil proceedings properly came first in the government's procedure, and that it was to use the injunction to prevent further increases in raw sugar prices, which are reflected to the family sugar bowl through the wholesaler and retailer. The criminal phase logically followed, officials said, if Attorney General Daugherty determines that the evidence warrants conviction on conspiracy charges of those in the alleged combination which is charged to use the speculative trades since sugar prices since early February.

May Strike at Profits

Still another line of attack was probably, aimed at the profits of those involved in sugar speculations. Acting Attorney General Seymour said that in the injunction proceedings the government probably would make an additional prayer to the court, not contained in today's petition, striking at the profits of speculators. It is proposed to ask the court for an order annulling the speculative trades since February and prevent settlements being made between brokers and customers. This also was said to be another unprecedented move in anti-trust litigation.

THE MARKETS

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET
CHICAGO, April 19 (AP)—With estimates current that the domestic wheat crop this year would be 48,000,000 bushels or less than was harvested in 1922 and that Nebraska prospects were for only one-third to half a crop, the wheat market was feature of the day.

Highest prices of the day in the wheat market were obtained after reports were out indicating that abundance of winter wheat plantings this season would total 6,982,000 acres, and would be more than 5 per cent in excess of 10-year averages including the heavy abundance of 31 per cent in 1917.

Active buying for eastern account was the feature of the day. In this connection it was noted that 700,000 bushels were announced as having been taken for shipment to Europe.

Corn and oats rose with wheat; furthermore, prospects were for continued weakness of corn receipts here. Provisions reflected a downturn inlard prices at Liverpool.

AMERICAN FALLS WILLING TO AID IN MOVING TOWN

District Directors Are Assured of Support of Property Owners in Clearing the Proposed Reservoir Site

"We are satisfied that the property owners at American Falls are willing to cooperate with the state in the moving of the town and the purchase of land near the reservoir site," said W. F. Alworth, secretary of the board of directors of the big district, Thursday on his return from American Falls where the directors met on Wednesday to consider the problems presented by the removal of the town of American Falls and the purchase of right of way lands.

The people at American Falls are getting well organized to aid in moving the town. A committee consisting of Judge O. R. Hann, Colonel L. E. Evans and Dr. Schult was appointed Wednesday night to be in charge of the clearing of the locations of various buildings in the new townsite.

"It was a very interesting and successful conference," said Mr. Alworth. "There was manifested a willingness to accept a fair exchange of locations in the old townsite for the new townsite. It was an indication that they will agree on a fair price on lands. The farm lands to be purchased have been classified and the price will vary from $5 to $40 per acre. About half of the lands to be purchased are Indian lands.

"The citizens are ready to plan the future locations of their various public and business buildings and residences, and they will select their own locations. Brick buildings or others that cannot be moved will of course have to be torn down and replaced in the new townsite, but the frame buildings and houses can all be moved, and in good condition. About 300 frame houses in the village. A meeting of the churches was called and the church people are willing to get together on the assistance in the new townsite. The women of American Falls are very much interested and have agreed to assist in any way possible and they will assume the duty of moving the streets."

Mr. Alworth stated that he observed only two vacant business rooms in the city and stated the residences are nearly all occupied.

Parent-Teachers Select Officers

Executives are Named at Final Business Meeting; Will Aid in Boy Scout Work

Mrs. G. E. Duke was re-elected chairman of the general organization of the Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. C. S. McMartin was elected vice chairman, and Mrs. F. E. McAtre was elected secretary. Mrs. McAtre was also elected to the office of recorder at the final meeting of the association held Thursday night in the high school auditorium.

On account of the lack of a quorum the officers of the high school department of the association were not elected and the election will be held next fall. Mrs. I. E. Jodyan presided at the meeting.

Donald McLean, member of the Boy Scout council, spoke in regard to Boy Scout work, May 3 to 6, and the association voted its assistance in the boys' camp program. On Friday, May 4, the Parent-Teacher association will have charge of Boy Scout day in the local schools and all parents are to be urged to attend the schools on that day. A committee was appointed Thursday night to have charge.

Begins Projects of Value to Farmers

Swine Demonstrations, Berry and Seed Associations Urged by Farm Agent

Several projects of interest to farmers and which are designed to furnish a means of advancing the industry and establishing the most profitable methods are planned or have been put in operation by R. H. Brossard, county farm agent, acting in cooperation with the extension department of the University of Idaho.

Mr. Brossard has just started a swine demonstration project with a view of ascertaining the most profitable methods of breeding. The project is to be operated in a manner similar to the poultry demonstration project now in operation. Records are to be kept by hog raisers in various parts of the county. Four farmers have agreed to assist.

The swine demonstration project has as its purpose the recording of net returns from various herds in such a way as to show clearly what are the best practices of swine raising; as well as to show the effect of various crops in handling herds for a definite period of time, and to correlate the information received from various sections. The records of the farmers will show correct inventories, prices and total values of herds, complete farrowing records, amount of feed used and its cost and annual receipts and expenses.

Mr. Brossard also hopes to interest the Grimm alfalfa growers in an association for the purpose of improving the quality of alfalfa. If the plan succeeds a number of members of the association of growers would follow every step in the growing of alfalfa for seed. Fields will be inspected for weeds, and threshing and all other phases of the raising of alfalfa for market would be supervised with a view of producing seed that would bear the stamp of approval of the growers and would be guaranteed as to quality.

Mr. Brossard has obtained considerable information matter on berry raising and marketing to be submitted to the farmers interested in forming a berry growers' association. A meeting of farmers was held several weeks ago when the establishment of an organization was discussed and unanimously agreed upon. Mr. Brossard is endeavoring to ascertain whether or not a berry association can be maintained without the expense of incorporating.

APPOINT RECEIVER FOR UNIT OF WHEAT GROWERS

Judge Exam Acts on Complaint by Northwest Association Against the Southern Idaho Branch, Report Says

Following the filing of a complaint last Friday in district court at Pocatello by the Northwest Wheat Growers' association a receiver was reported to have been appointed Thursday by Judge O. R. Hann for the southern Idaho branch of the Northwest Wheat Growers' association. The identity of the receiver or his plans were not made known.

Before the final appointment was made, W. F. Alworth of Twin Falls, a director in the southern Idaho unit, was asked to accept the position but declined. Mr. Alworth stated that he preferred not to accept in view of the fact that his wheat was pooled in the organization.

The voting on the disincorporation of the southern Idaho organization probably will not take place for some time, or until a final date is set by the Northwest association. Mr. Alworth stated.

The southern Idaho association has been in operation for the past two years and has been independent in its management. The headquarters are at Headquarters are at American Falls, and directors, besides Mr. Alworth, are J. T. Fisher of Rockland, W. J. Williams of Malad and J. D. Rigney of Jerome.

Mercury is Steady in Spite of Winds

High winds Thursday were rather misleading as to actual temperatures, according to the weather report which shows that the average for the day was 49 degrees an increase of one degree over Wednesday.

High temperature at 57 degrees was four notches under Wednesday's maximum, but low mark of 40 degrees represented an advance of four degrees. The winds, however, proved extremely disagreeable, and interfered considerably with the completion of the cleanup day program.
