FRANCE WARNS TURKS AGAINST MOVE ON SYRIA

Appointment of General Weygand as High Commissioner is 'Fortentous; Conflict in Concessions Figures

LAUSANNE, April 28 (AP)—Premier Painleve of France will give a complete report of the Near East conference tomorrow by General Pello, who has gone to Paris to discuss particularly the definite decision of the conference today to suspend action here on the foreign concessions tangle with Turkey, pending the outcome of direct conversations at Constantinople between the concession holders and the Ankara government.

General Pello also is expected to talk over with the premier and General Weigand, newly appointed high commissioner in Syria, the general military situation in Turkey. The activities of Turkish divisions in Cilicia, which the French regard as a possible menace to Syria, held under mandate by France.

The French in Lausanne openly admit that the appointment of General Weygand as Syrian high commissioner may be taken as a warning to the Turks that any aggression against the Syrian frontier will not be tolerated.

The present French intention is, during the direct negotiations, to defend the French railroad concessions of 1914, with which, they contend, the Chester agreement interferes. The Allies will insist, it is understood, that these negotiations be held in Constantinople instead of at Ankara as the Turks are proposing.

Editor Harding Talks Shop with Fellow Workers

Newspaper Men of Newly Formed Society Hear President's Views on Problems

WASHINGTON, April 28, (AP)—Speaking intimately as an editor to editors, President Harding in an address tonight before the American Society of Newspaper Editors, declared to be without truth statements that the newspaper profession had proposed American membership in the permanent court of international justice at the behest of international bankers.

The president touched upon a number of subjects of especial interest to the editor of the country and said he would rather be a newspaper publisher than anything else in the world. For that reason, he added, he was going to remain publisher of the Marion Star, "until I settle up my estate."

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Editor Warren G. Harding talked shop with his fellow craftsmen tonight at a banquet of the newly formed American Society of Newspaper Editors.

The 100 newspaper men from all parts of the country who have been thinking out problems and international news to keep their local readers posted, with enough local news for out-of-town people to give them the flavor of the city.

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Weekly weather summary for the week beginning next Monday: Rocky mountain and plateau regions. Generally fair and normal temperatures.

UNITED STATES SENATOR KNUTE NELSON OF MINNESOTA, veteran legislator, who died Saturday evening en route to his home from Washington.

AGED SENATOR DIES ON TRAIN

Death of Knute Nelson Removes Oldest Member With Service Record of 28 Years

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 28 (AP)—United States Senator Knute Nelson died on a Pennsylvania railroad train at 8:15 o'clock tonight when on his way from Washington to Chicago where he was to continue on his way to his home in Minnesota.

Death was due to heart failure. The railroad train crew said that as the train was passing through Timonium, Md., eleven miles from Baltimore, the aged senator had an attack of angina pectoris and died in a few minutes.

With the senator at the time of his death were his niece, Mrs. Edith Truscott, of Jennings Lodge, Oregon; George W. Wells, Jr., insurance commissioner of Minnesota, and Walker B. Belford, deputy insurance commissioner.

Dr. E. M. Ewers of New York attended the senator and pronounced him dead.

Mr. Wells remained here and will accompany the body west. Mrs. Truscott and Mr. Belford proceeded to Chicago.

CHINA TO MAKE RESTITUTION IN COLTMAN CASE

Peking Government Agrees to Make Amends for Killing of American Citizen as Result of Prolonged Negotiations

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—China has agreed to make restitution for the killing by Chinese soldiers last December of Charles Coltmán, an American, an incident which has greatly strained good relations between the Washington and Peking governments.

As a result of prolonged negotiations between American Minister Schurzman and Peking officials, it has been agreed that suitable apologies will be made; that the military authorities in command of the troops will be removed from office, and that the heirs of Coltmán will be paid an indemnity to be fixed by the American government.

Although official notification of the agreement had not been received today at the state department, it is known to have reached the hands of diplomatic representatives here and is expected to be delivered to Secretary Hughes next week.

Demands Freedom of Business.

It is understood that Secretary Hughes will insist that Minister Schurzman continue his representations with the Peking government on at least two more points which have grown out of the Coltmán case and on which Secretary Hughes is anxious that a satisfactory agreement be reached. These relate to guarantees sought by Minister Schurzman to permit Americans in the pursuit of legitimate business in China to carry on that business independently of embargoes or local restrictions. This involves a discussion of the question of the stability of the Chinese government and the enforcement of its decrees throughout the provinces.

A statement on the American position with reference to the stability of the Chinese government was contained in a note which Secretary Hughes sent Minister Schurzman at the time he was directed to take up the Coltmán case. The statement said in part:

"There is nothing which the American nation ranks higher in China except the inevitability of the lives and lawful rights of its citizens and its own national dignity and self-respect."

Involved Provincial Law.

It was recalled that one of the reasons which led the Chinese scoundrels to hold up the automobile in which Mr. Coltmán, accompanied by the American consul at Kalgan, was traveling was to search it for silver, which, under the laws of the Kalgan province could not legally be exported from that province.

Oregon Troops Rest on Arms to Cope with Trouble if It Comes in Strike Situation

Additional Walkouts Mark Developments in Pacific Coast States; No Ships Tied Up in "Test" at New York

SALEM, Ore., April 28, (AP)—Upon instructions from Governor Pierce, Adjutant General George A. White has arranged to have machine gun crews, automatic rifle experts and gas howitzer squads of the Oregon National Guard ready for transportation by automobile at a moment's notice if their use is made necessary by the strike situation, it was said at the adjutant general's office today.

The adjutant general's statement reiterated purported incidents at various camps, tending to show the strike a failure.

SPREADING TO NORTH IDAHO.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28 (AP)—The general strike call of the Industrial Workers of the World resulted in additional men walking out today in Pacific coast states. Oregon reported a camp at The Dalles shut down and the West Coast Lumbermen's association, with offices in Portland, received a letter from the strike committee setting forth eleven demands.

Estimates as to the number of men on strike in Washington, as reported by employers, were that 10,000 had responded to the strike call, but the I. W. W. headquarters said the number was between 20,000 and 30,000.

Waterfront employers in Seattle said the strike of the marine workers had produced no noticeable effect. The leaders of the strike said it was spreading in eastern Washington and northern Idaho lumber camps.

Former Premier of France Announces Relativity Theory

Painleve to Reconcile the Old School Springing from Newton's Law to Einstein

PARIS, April 28 (AP)—A new theory of relativity is announced by Professor Painleve, former premier and noted mathematician, who declared his conception is based on mechanics of broader lines than those developed by Professor Albert Einstein, the German scientist.

"My work is to attempt to reconcile the old school springing from Newton's theory of gravitation with the new school emerging from Einstein's theory," he said.

"I consider Einstein's theory a step in the right direction, certainly it was necessary to science to explain phenomena which could not be explained under the old theories.

"Under the old teachings it was explained that the world turned on its axis, and in space. Of course, this is a mere talk for children; no such thing occurs, but such explanation must be given so the ignorant can have a mental picture of what the universe is like. Neither the earth nor the stars whirl in space."

Professor Painleve thus far has written two parts of his new philosophy of relativity, and it is his intention to complete the work this summer.

The French bureau of longitude is arranging to use a new vessel with a staff of astronomers and mathematicians to study the eclipse of the sun next September 10, the time of which will pass across Mexico. The studies will be in connection with the Einstein theory.

DOOMED LINER STRIKES ROCKS OFF CAPE FRIO

Rescuers Bring to Land 227 Survivors Out of Total of 258 Passengers and Crew of Wrecked Vessel

CAPETOWN, Union of South Africa, April 28, (AP)—The Portuguese gunboat Salvador Correia arrived at Mossamedes, Portuguese West Africa yesterday, with 110 survivors of the steamship Mossamedes, wrecked several days ago at Cape Frio. Eighty-four survivors have landed at Port of Spain, and the French gunboat Cassiopee is on its way to Mossamedes with 35 others.

The chief officers of the wrecked steamer say the vessel struck the rocks in a fog Tuesday morning and a rough sea swept the liner after they turned toward the shore. "The passengers, rescued from sleep, rushed to the deck in a panic and were cut into the lifeboats with difficulty.

Radio Reinforced Useless

The electrical apparatus was almost instantly put out of commission by the influx of water to the boiler rooms, preventing the summoning of assistance by wireless. One of the lifeboats upset, seven of its occupants being drowned while thirteen others were rescued by Chief Officer Paulin.

One Boat Still Missing

The rescuers came across the lifeboats about eight miles from the scene of the wreck. One boat is still missing. Passengers and crew numbered 258. It is understood that the disaster is attributed to the strong currents prevailing at the cape and to a faulty chart.

CHURCH IN BANKRUPTCY

Petition Filed by Christian Scientist Organization in Chicago is Believed First of Its Kind on File

CHICAGO, April 28 (AP)—A petition in bankruptcy filed voluntarily by the Seventh Church of Christ, Scientist, was before the federal district court today, the first petition of the kind ever filed by a church.

The petition set forth that the business of the organization was "worship of God, and the study of the Bible, of the mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, Mass."

JUDGE SCORES HOUSE OF DAVID

Award of Damages to Former Members is Accompanied by Arraignment of Cult

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 28, (AP)—Rebuke was used as a cloak for immunity, said Justice J. Purnell, leader of the House of David cult, at Benton Harbor, Judge John E. Satter, of Columbus, Ohio, declared today in an opinion filed in federal court here, awarding damages approximating $15,000 to John W. Hessel and his family of Nashville, Tenn.

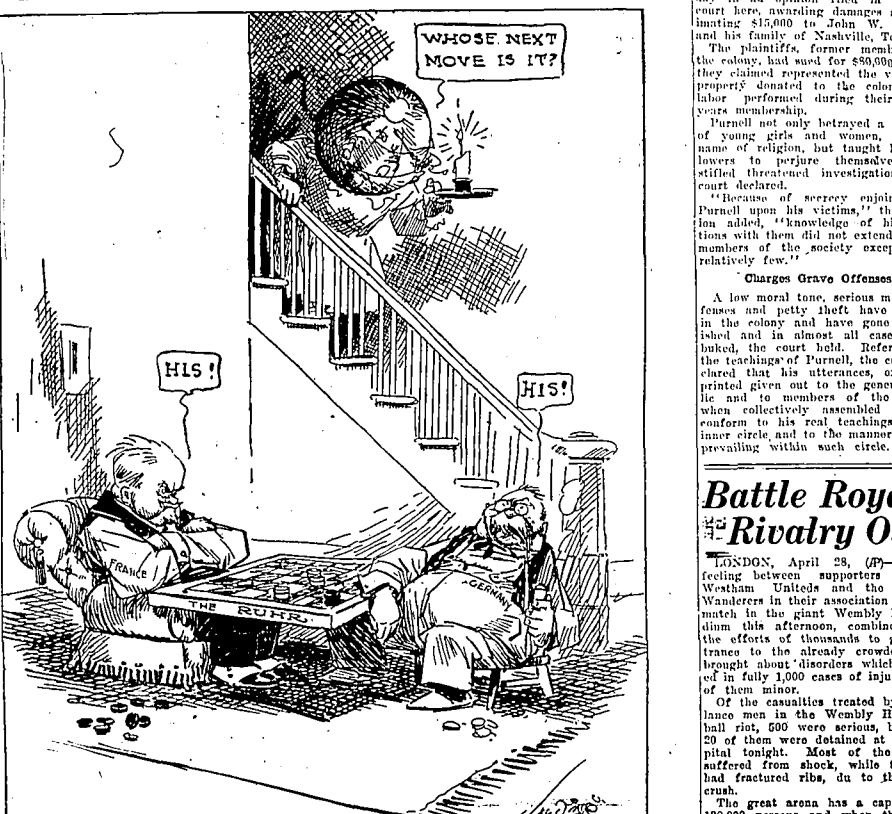

The plaintiffs, former members of the colony, had sued for $50,000 which they claimed represented the value of property donated to the colony and labor performed during their nine years' membership.

Purnell not only betrayed a number of young girls and women, in the name of religion, but taught his followers to perjure themselves and stifle honest investigations, the court declared.

Charges Grave Offenses

A low moral tone, serious moral offenses and petty theft have existed in the colony and have gone un punished and in almost all cases uncorrected, the court held. In the charge of Purnell, the court declared that his utterances, oral and printed given out to the general public and to members of the colony, were collectively calculated to conform to his real teachings to an inner circle, and to the manner of life prevailing within such circle.

LOOKS AS IF IT WAS GOING TO BE QUITE A LONG DRAWN OUT GAME

Battle Royal Grows Out of Rivalry Over English Game

LONDON, April 28, (AP)—Intense feeling between supporters of the Westham United and the Bolton Wanderers in their association football match in the giant Wembley hill stadium this afternoon, combined with the efforts of thousands to gain entrance to the already crowded bowl brought about disorders which resulted in fully 1,000 cases of injury, most of them minor.

Of the casualties treated by ambulance men in the Wembley Hill football riot, 600 were serious, but only 20 of them were detained at the hospital tonight. Most of the women suffered from shock, while the men had fractured ribs, due to the great crush.

LODGE SEES NO IMPASSABLE BAR TO COURT PLAN

Foreign Relations Committee Chairman Assures Missouri Governor Senate Will Add Reservations to Adoption

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A suggestion that the senate propose some reservations of its own before it assents to "joining" a court plan by the council and assembly of the league of nations, was advanced tonight by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the foreign relations committee and senate floor leader of his party.

The reservations put forward by the administration as a part of President Harding's plan for membership in the world court are highly important, the senator said, but he added that it would remain for the senate itself to decide its attitude toward "participation" in the league court.

Without referring directly to the differences which have arisen on the subject among republican leaders, he declared he naturally wanted to see President Harding re-elected and believed that after there had been a careful consideration of the league court plan a satisfactory adjustment would be reached.

Answers Missouri Governor.

The views of the foreign relations chairman were contained in a letter written by him in response to a telegram from Governor Hyde of Missouri, and made public here. The letter, which constitutes the senate's contribution to public discussions of the court issue, follows in part:

"I have received your telegram in which you say five hundred Missouri republicans are looking hopefully to you to prevent the disaster to nation and party of my membership in the league court. We have depended upon you to serve us in the present crisis."

"It has always been the policy of the United States and more particularly the policy of the republican party, to promote in every way possible the settlement of international differences by arbitration and through the means of arbitral tribunals. We have advocated in the past the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration. If it had been proposed to establish a permanent international court for the settlement of international disputes, selected as is proposed in the league court, from the panel created by groups under the terms of the Hague convention; if it had been proposed to unke the judges thus selected permanent and to be appointed by the nations severally and not by the assembly of the nations and assembly of the league, and with long terms and sufficient salaries, in my judgment such a court would have received universal approval in the senate of the United States, but by the people of the United States.

Quotes Harding's Stand.

"In his speech in New York on Tuesday, April 21, the president said, 'I have not unhesitatingly offered on the league, if it is to be made as effective, helpful, more powerful to it. But it is not for us. The senate has so declared, the executive has so declared, the people have so declared of discussion with the more decisively stamped with finality.' With this strong and complete statement, I believe that the great mass of the American people are in full accord. I certainly am."

"Nothing would have ever induced me to have voted for the covenant of the league of nations which Mr. Wilson sent before the senate on July 19, 1919. But I voted twice in favor of this treaty with the reservation adopted by the senate."

"In the plan before us, the permanent court of international justice is not to be formed by the nations independently, but it is to be court already elected by the nations and by the league of nations, and this fact, as is already obvious, will lead to much discussion and it will have to be determined whether the senate will assent to accepting the court as proposed and chosen by the league."

ECONOMIC FRATERNITY ORGANIZED IN MOSCOW

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, April 28.—Alpha Sigma Gamma, honorary economic fraternity organized at the University of Idaho last spring, has been granted a charter in Alpha Kappa Psi national organization, and will be installed as the Idaho branch in May. Other chapters in the northwest are located at the universities of Montana, Oregon and Washington and Oregon Agricultural college. The installing officer will probably be from the University of Montana. The active membership of the branch is Alpha Kappa Psi. Dean of Lewiston is president; John H. Hufferd of Boise, vice president; George Galan of Boise, secretary, and Eugene Zachman of Emmett, treasurer.

IDAHO BOWING MORE WHEAT.

BOISE, April 27.—(AP)—An area of 113,000 acres in Idaho has been sown with wheat, according to a recent report of the International Agricultural Institute. The number of acres sown a year ago was 491,000, and they yielded a record crop.

CHAMPION TRUST BUSTER

David L. Fobel, assistant to the Attorney General of the United States with offices in New York, has earned the title of "Champion Trust Buster."

He has charge of the prosecution of violators of the Sherman anti-trust law. His most recent victory was the conviction of the members of the Sunbury Pottery association in the federal courts in New York. He also convicted the Tig Trust and the Terra Costa Trust.

CECIL FINDS GENERAL INTEREST IN LEAGUE

British Proponent of International Association Gives Impressions at Conclusion of Visit to America

NEW YORK, April 28.—Lord Robert Cecil, representative for South Africa in the league of nations, sailed on the Olympic today after a tour of the United States which, he said, had convinced him that Americans "from Maine to Wall street" were interested in the league even though all were not converts.

"I am immensely gratified by my reception here in your country," he said. "And I have been greatly impressed by the earnest attention my audience gave me wherever I went. 'The deep interest in world affairs displayed by your people shows that all the stories about Americans being uninterested in their own business to think of Europe are not true. Whether you admit it or not, you are deeply interested in international relations.' Asked if the activity of the American critics of the league during his tour had made him give up hope of seeing the United States in the association he said: 'Most certainly not.'"

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN DENIES SPLIT IN PARTY

Freedom of Discussion Within Banks Always Good Republican Practice, Adams Says in Statement

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Declaring there is no "serious division in the republican party," Chairman Adams of the republican national committee, said in a statement last night that "freedom of discussion within the party has always been good republican practice." Then he added: "The democratic idea that freedom of discussion within the ranks of republicans is synonymous with a party split is the opinion that one might logically expect from a party which served for eight years, more as a rubber stamp for a one-man government."

Mr. Adams contended that "nothing but strength for the party and good for the country can come from a free exchange of opinions on all public questions." The Harding administration, he added, "may be depended upon to pursue the policies necessary to insure the continuation of present prosperous conditions."

HIPPODROME DOORS CLOSE

New York's Greatest Playhouse and Home of Big Spectacle to Make Way for Business Structure

NEW YORK, April 28.—(AP)—The Hippodrome, the home of big spectacles and New York's greatest play house, closed its doors for good tonight and no longer will its audience, each representing half the states in the Union, wonder where the diving girls go when they disappear into the huge tank and never are seen from the front to reach the surface.

About 40,000,000 persons are computed to have entered the vast auditorium during the 18 years of its existence. The Hippodrome was erected on the site of the old Sixth avenue car barn. The great play house will make way for a business structure.

PREMIER DENIES AID TO BRITISH FARMERS

Donar Law Tells Delegation Agriculture Must Get On Economic Bases if It is to Continue to Exist

LONDON, April 28.—(AP)—British agriculture is going through the most deplorable of British farmers called recently on Prime Minister Donar Law. They contended their troubles to him and asked what the government would do for them. Donar Law told them flatly that the government could do nothing for them.

Donar Law has not yet learned to camouflage his meaning when he has unpleasant truths to tell. He just calls a spade a spade, and lets it go at that. His friends say he has not yet had enough experience to know how to master the tricks of high office, and make palatable truths taste pleasant. In his talk to the farmers Donar Law said: "You see that something has done by the government to prevent a fall in the price of foodstuffs. It seems to me it can be done in only one of two ways. Either by a big subsidy, the extent of which no one can force or by protection. The subsidy was tried and found impracticable. As regards protection, I think you know as well as I do that the public is not ready for it, and we could not get a majority for it. Agriculture must get on an economic basis if it is to live. It cannot be supported by the state."

But the house of commons did something for the farmers in a matter in which the government allowed its supporters to vote against the plan. It gave a second reading to the merchandise marks bill by 183 votes to 100. There was no great issue involved in the bill, and the government minister has given its followers a free hand. It provides that imported food products, including eggs, shall be marked to show the source of their origin. It imposes an tariff on such imports, the idea being to permit an appeal to patriotism in favor of the competing home producer.

It is prescribed in the bill that eggs are to be indelibly marked on the shell; meat in such a manner as may be prescribed by regulation; raw fruit and vegetables on the packages and poultry and dairy products on the box or tin.

LEGISLATURE ASKED TO REPAIR LEWIS MONUMENT

HOHENWALD, Tenn., April 28.—(AP)—Several miles from this city, in a lonely spot in the hills off the main highway, lies the body of Meriwether Lewis, notable historical character of the early days of Tennessee, but whose chief fame is due to the fact that he was the partner in the Lewis and Clark expedition.

A monument erected over the grave by the state of Tennessee bears the following inscription: "Meriwether Lewis, born near Charlottesville, Va., August 18, 1774. Died October 11, 1809, age 35 years. 'An officer of the regular army, private secretary to President Jefferson, commander of the expedition to Oregon in 1803-1806, governor of the Territory of Louisiana. His melancholy death occurred where this monument now stands and under which rest his mortal remains.'"

Historians believe that Lewis was killed by robbers. Surrounding the monument are the remains of an iron fence for which the Tennessee legislature appropriated $500 in 1848. Local tradition says that during the war between the states, robbers tore away some of the pickets for the purpose of manufacturing horse shoe nails.

THEATRES

One of the most expensive and spectacular photoplays ever shown in Twin Falls is Robin Hood which attracted capacity houses to the Orpheum the end of the week.

ANDELIN-CLARK CONCERT

While a member of the Royal Grand Opera at Hanover, Germany, where he sang for three years, Mr. Andelin will, with Arvilla Clark is to appear in concert at the Lavering theatre Wednesday, May 2, was credited with having sung the only Low "C" ever heard on the operatic stage. The arrangement of the bass role in Mozart's "Magic Flute" was changed in order to demonstrate this famous low tone.

Mr. Andelin's deep range has not limited his upper register which is not only powerful, but exceptional in quality, enabling the artist to demonstrate all the lighter and finer head tones capable to a human voice. Perfect control permits the shading and expression necessary for a varied program of the world's most famous compositions.

Mr. Andelin spent five years in Germany in the Royal Grand Opera and Concert at Berlin and Hanover; one year in France in Grand Opera; and in London at the "Queen's Hall" and "Albert's Hall"; one year as soloist with the "Scottish Orchestra at Edinburgh. He sang "The Messiah" twice at Belfast, Ireland, with the Belfast Philharmonic Society, and made a tour of the British Isles as soloist with the famous Madame Tetrizine, greatest soprano of her time. The past six years spent in New York City in Grand Opera and Concert, including two tours from coast to coast and through Canada.

Arvilla Clark is a pianist with a personality which was immediately the admiration of all, and which she injects into every number. She is credited with being the most brilliant and accomplished before the American people today. As an accompanist she is superb, and adds much life and force to the wonderful songs of Mr. Andelin. Miss Clark's training as a grand opera singer and actress, as well as a pianist, makes it possible for her to interpret the work of "The Masters" with the true emotions and sentiments of the composers, both in song and on the piano.

The Screen

"TRIFLING WOMEN" IS DRAMATIC PHOTOPLAY

Rex Ingram's claim to film immortality is justified again in his remarkable new production, "Trifling Women," which comes tomorrow to the Orpheum theatre. It is the latest achievement of the skillful director, whose name has become synonymous with the best in filmdom and a guarantee of exceptional screen merit. It equals and, in some particulars, surpasses his earlier efforts, and should win a high place among the best of the season's photoplays.

The brilliant director of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other big Metro pictures is himself both author and adaptor of his latest success. This fact makes his triumph all the more complete, for the story and continually are on a par with the production itself. In all, it is a distinctly worthwhile photodrama, and it is recommended to those who want the best in their motion picture fare.

In the cast are brilliant players. Lewis Stone is seen as the Marquis Ferroni; Barbara La Marr as Zarcia;

L. M. LEHRBACH, M. D. Gynecologist and Surgeon. Practice limited to Diseases of Women, defects of the Thyroid Gland, and Surgery. Located in Smith-Rice Building.

Aamon Novaro as Ivan, and Edward Connelly as Ivan's father, Baron de Maupin. Others in the cast are Pomeroy Cannon, Hughie Mack. The fine photography is the work of John F. Seitz.

WOMAN SUPERVISES MAKING OF PICTURE

To Frances Marion, one of the leading scenario writers in motion pictures, and who adapted to the screen Fannie Hurst's famous "Humoresque," was entrusted the task of supervising the making of "The Nth Commandment," another popular Fannie Hurst story, which Cosmopolitan Productions pictures for Paramount, with Frank Borzage as director, and which comes to the Idaho theater for three days, beginning Monday next.

The filming of "The Nth Commandment" brought together the same combination which created "Humoresque." That picture, hailed as one of the greatest ever made, was also founded on a story written by Miss Hurst. Frank Borzage also directed "Humoresque," which was adapted for the screen by Frances Marion, who also supervised its production. In combining again, this famous trio worked with the same re-coordination that featured the making of "Humoresque" with the result that "The Nth Commandment" is expected to prove as popular as all the former films. Colleen Moore, James Morrison and Eddie Phillips head the cast.

SEES VANISHING FEAR OF U. S. IN LATIN AMERICA

Chile's Ambassador Tells Society of International Law Yankee Imperialism is No Longer Bugbear

WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—The American Society of International Law ended its convention here today without having taken specific action on the question of United States jurisdiction beyond the three mile limit by fighting run runners, or the permanent court of international justice—two problems which have commanded major attention. A dinner at which Ambassador Mathieu of Chile, and Hanabara of Japan, delivered addresses, was given by the society tonight.

On the question of the international court, discussed in detail last night by Secretary Hughes, a resolution was referred to the committee on a request that it ascertain and make public the opinions of the society's members. The council at its annual meeting today instructed Hilis Root, the president, who with other officers was re-elected, to set in motion immediately measures to comply with the resolution which was introduced by Frederick H. Covert of New York, a strong supporter of the administration's plan for American participation.

Traces Steps to Accord

Ambassador Mathieu discussed the Monroe doctrine and related the steps taken by the United States in the past few years to promote Pan-American accord.

"I will not attempt to conceal it," he said, "there existed in a not very remote past a certain anti-American sentiment that had become inflamed in some quarters to the point of conjuring up the bugbear of Yankee imperialism. The Monroe doctrine itself, which had served as a policy of insurance for the new republics during the emancipation, became so obscure in meaning and distorted in form that instead of being a principle of national solidarity it had become a declaration of hegemony and guardianship over all the free nations on the American continent.

"This distortion having been exploited by foreign interests, fomented by patriotic but misinformed writers, aggravated by minor incidents, carelessly explained or but little understood, it was only natural that it should produce upon a people proud, people, jealous of their independence, and eventually create a feeling of mistrust which the weak always experience in the presence of the strong and which predisposes them to blind resistance.

Americans Quell Fears

"But, meanwhile, men have spoken and a cloudless emerald has been reborn among us. President Wilson has spoken with that accent of profound conviction and apostolicunction which so impresses the public mind. President Harding has spoken and shown himself to be a frank exponent of a policy of disinterestedness and generous and free cooperation. Secretaries of State Root, Cull and Hughes have gone into South American speaking authoritatively for the United States. I can at least permit myself to quote from Mr. Hughes' great speech at the Brazilian capital: "We have our domestic problems incident to the expanding life of a free people, but there is no imperialistic sentiment among us to cast even a shadow across the path of our progress. We covet no territory; we seek no conquest; the liberty we cherish for ourselves we desire for others; and we assert no right for ourselves that we do not accord to others."

Language of Statesman

"That, I say, is the language of a statesman; that is the policy of a powerful nation that concerns itself more with making itself loved for its justice than feared for its power. "Where, then, is the bugbear of Yankee imperialism and the sibilant oracle of the Monroe doctrine? Thank God our republics can live here in that regard and taken their heart to the full measure of their powers, in the national human and generous policy of co-operation."

TONEY PITCHES FOUR HIT GAME

Cincinnati Reds Helpless Before Card Twirler; Boston Wins Game From Giants

ST. LOUIS, April 28 (AP)—Toney allowed Cincinnati but four hits and St. Louis took the old game of the series today. The score was 4 to 3. Jake Daubert, who suffered an attack of pneumonia early this year, was back on first base for the Reds.

ROOKIE AGAIN BEATS GIANTS.

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—New York led the deciding contest of their three game series with Boston today, 6 to 4. Joe Genewick, a semi-professional pitcher last year, won his second victory from the world's champions. Genewick was aided by three double plays.

BING STOPS DODGERS.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28 (AP)—Philadelphia won its first home game of the season today, defeating Brooklyn 3 to 2. In the fifth and his double to right Jimmy Ring was in the box for the Phillies and pitched in masterly style.

LEACH TO JOIN PHILLIES

Jerome's Contribution to Major League Baseball Receives Orders to Report for Workout

Fred Leach, Jerome's donation to the league last year, has realized what he has long realized: when he leaves the first of the week for Philadelphia to join the National League Phillies.

A product of the north side sand lots, Fred has, by clean living and hard work, hustled himself up to the top rung in baseball, and he will have the good wishes of his many admirers on both sides of the Snake river.

Last year Fred went to the Waterloo team, and turned things up, and was bought by Rochester, of the International league. Sent a contract this year, Fred left that his chances for the big league were rather slim in that league so decided to lay off for a season, and await further developments.

Friday he received a wire from the Phillies and accepted terms at once. Leach has been working in Jerome for the Western Union as a telegrapher since returning home last fall.

OXFORD FORCES RELAY RECORD

English Runners Fail Again to Capture College Championship; Won by Penn State

PHILADELPHIA, April 28 (AP)—England, represented by Oxford University, failed today in gallant attempt to capture for a second time the two-mile college relay championship of America, but the British quartet forced an even more brilliant Pennsylvania State team to set a new world's record to win before the Union Jack bowed to the Stars and Stripes. It was the outstanding event on the closing day of the twenty-ninth annual University of Pennsylvania relay carnival.

NOTES OF THE MEET

At the track meet, Friday at Filor, several district records were smashed, and a close inspection of the records of other years compared to those of Friday bring out the fact that the Filor track was fast, and that athletes of this section are proving that Southern Idaho mixes other things besides potatoes and apples.

Turning to the high jump, we find Ringert of Buhl clearing the bar at 5 feet 4 1/2 inches, with the eastern athletes taking first place with 5 feet 2 inches.

In the 100 yard dash 10 flat was timed for the Filor meet with 10.03 at the eastern meet. These figures are not quoted to belittle the efforts of the eastern division athletes, but only as a matter of comparison as to what an athlete must do in the south central section to get a chance to go to Moscow.

Getting back to the meet of Friday and comparing it with the meets of other years in this section, it is found that the state record for 50 yard dashes is 5.2; and the district is 5.1 and that 5.2 was the time made Friday.

Long of Rupert tied the state record in the 100 yard dash, and broke the district record when he covered the distance in 10 seconds flat.

Stone of Rupert broke the district record in the 410 yard dash, covering the distance in 5:31. The previous district record was 5:41 made by Johnson at Burley. The state record in this event is 5:2 flat made at Moscow by Caselbat of Northern Idaho.

In the 220 yard dash, Long of Rupert smashed the district record of 22.4 by stepping the distance in 22.1. The state intercollegiate record of 22 flat is held by Doe of Burley.

Phil King, Twin Falls' mile runner of a few years back, ran the mile in 4:28 at Burley during one of the district meets, and Rosebaum of Burley ran the mile at Moscow in 4:17.5 for the state record. The time Friday for this event was 5:02 made by Tony of Filor.

No records were smashed in the high hurdles as Wolf of Burley holds the district record with 17 flat, the state record being the same. The time Friday in this event was 18:1 made by Frank Powers of Twin Falls.

It was thought that David Alvord of Twin Falls had broken the state record Friday in the 220 foot hurdles with 27.1 but the records show that Doe of Burley hopped the hurdles at 26:4 at Moscow last year. Alvord, however, broke the district record of 28:1 held by Doe of Burley.

Long of Rupert broke the district record in the running broad jump with 19 feet 10 1/2 inches, the former record being held by Poe of Burley with 19 feet 5 inches. The state record in this event is 22 feet 5 1/2 inches made by Doe at Moscow last year.

Although no records were smashed in the high jump, Ringert of Buhl missed district record by a half inch clearing the bar at 5 feet 4 1/2, while Wolf of Burley holds the district record with 5 feet 5 inches. The state record for this event is 5 feet 9 1/2 inches.

The athletes fell down on the pole vault, missing the district record of 10 feet 6 inches held by Nelson of Burley, by 6 inches. The state record for the pole vault is 11 feet 9 inches.

Kershinck of Burley beat his own record of 41 feet in the shot put by 6 1/2 inches Friday. The state record for this event is 46 feet 11 3/4 inches.

Kershinck also holds the district record for the discus throw with 109 feet 6 inches, Jenkins of Twin Falls missing this mark Friday by 8 inches. The state record is 114 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Smith of Jerome threw the javelin 137 feet 5 inches Friday, falling three inches short of the district record. The state record for javelin throwing is 163 feet 2 inches.

Burley still holds the state and district records in the relay the time Friday being 1:37, while Burley's district record is 1:34.14, and the state record is 1:36.

Now that it is all over and the fans of this section will have to wait another year before seeing another district meet, it is well to remember that Twin Falls will send four athletes to Caldwell next Friday to compete in the eliminations, and it is hoped that all four men will be able to move up another notch making the grade to the state meet which will be held at Moscow the following week.

The four boys who will make the trip to Caldwell are Alvord in the 220 foot hurdles, Jenkins in the discus and shot put, Powers in the high hurdles, and Bice in the half mile.

COLUMBIA BOWS TO VICTORY

PHILADELPHIA, April 28 (AP)—Columbia university's eight oared shell crew rowed to victory today in the nineteenth contest for the Child's cup on the Schuylkill river in Fairmount park. Pennsylvania was second, and Princeton a poor third. The time of the crews for the mile and five-sixteenths was Columbia 7:44; Pennsylvania 7:56; Princeton 8:03.

CENTRAL WINS ASTOR CUP

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—The Astor cup match representing the high school championship of the United States in prone rifle firing, has been won for the fourth time by Central high school here. The Modesto, Cal., high school tied Central in the first match but in the shoot-off Central turned in seven perfect scores, while the California school made but five.

SOVIET FINDS IRON ORE

Russian Government Expedition Solves Long Standing Mystery by Discovery of Great Magnetic Field

MOSCOW, April 28 (AP)—A scientific expedition financed by the government has solved a mystery of fifty years standing by its discovery in Kurak of magnetic iron ore field. The ore was found at a depth of 600 feet and in such quantities as to arouse the hope that it may develop into one of the world's largest fields. About fifty years ago it was noted that compasses used in Kurak, instead of pointing directly at the north magnetic pole swerved as much as fifteen degrees toward an indefinable stretch of territory. The presence of magnetic ore was agreed to be the cause, but hundreds of borings failed to locate it. The soviet expedition was sent at the instance of Premier Lunino and was headed by Professor Lazzarov, Gubkin and Archangel'sky. They found the ore after six months work in the vicinity of the provincial town of Tshigri. The ore sent here assays from 50 to 75 per cent pure magnetic iron. The researchers of the scientists indicate that the ore field is 250 kilometers long and 1 to 2 kilometers wide, varying in depth from 500 to 800 feet.

REVIEWS HERRIN TRUCE FAILURE

Mine Union Leader Gives Investigators His Version at Closed Session

MARION, Ill., April 28 (AP)—The mystery surrounding the failure of a truce arranged the night before the Herrin riots was explained today by Fox Hughes, mine union leader, at an executive session of the legislative investigation committee, which then adjourned to meet here again Monday morning.

Previous witnesses testified that through the efforts of Sam Hunter, personnel officer on the staff of Adjutant General Carlos Black, and Marion business man, W. J. Lester, agreed to close down his mine which he had operating with non-union labor.

This was on Wednesday afternoon after one of the mine trucks had been attacked and three of its occupants shot and after the mine itself was surrounded and attacked.

Witnesses testified that Colonel Hunter telephoned to C. P. McDowell, superintendent at the mine, and he agreed to cease firing and raise a white flag when informed that Lester was willing to close the mine.

Colonel Hunter, then, according to previous testimony, talked to Fox Hughes at the mine's headquarters in Herrin, told him Lester had agreed to close the mine and that the defenders had raised a white flag.

Turned Back by Bullets

Colonel Hunter called the miners' headquarters at about 6 o'clock that day and asked for Wm. Sneed, president of the sub-district, a state senator or Hugh Willis, state executive board member of the Illinois Mine Workers," Hughes testified.

"I told him that Sneed had gone back to Springfield and he said he had arranged to have the men at the mine hoist a white flag and close down the mine and said we ought to do what we could to stop the trouble. I agreed with him.

"Then I put a white rag to use as a flag of truce in my shirt and started out at the mine in an automobile. I walked to the mine. I did not see any white flag but heard shots and bullets whizzed past my head.

"So I returned to town. I did not see Willis and he had just been because I heard Willis had already started to Marion to confer with Colonel Hunter. I did not know anything about an agreement to take the men out of the mine the next morning."

RESCUERS SEEKING MINER

Calls of Entombed Workman Lead to Belief that He Was Not Seriously Hurt by Cavain

GLOBE, Arizona, April 28 (AP)—One Mexican miner, name unknown, was still imprisoned in the Cactus copper mine, 10 miles from Globe, today, following a cave-in at the property early this morning. Orr Vanduburn, district safety director, returned from the mine today and said that rescuers would reach the entombed miner some time tomorrow. He heard the man's calls, he said, and expressed the opinion that he was not seriously injured. Four men were working in the mine tunnel when a cave-in occurred. Of the three who were taken out early today one was injured severely.

ARMY OFFICER IS FOUND DEAD

MANHUA, April 28 (AP)—First Lieutenant John T. Newland of the army chemical warfare service was found dead in his room at the Army and Navy club here today, according to an official announcement. The official statement added that evidence of poison had been found in Lieutenant Newland's stomach. The dead officer, appointed to West Point from Washington state, was graduated from the military academy in 1915.

CUPID SETS SPEED RECORD

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—Cupid set a speed record in New York today. In the 180-minute half holiday session, City Clerk Currey sailed 190 marriage licenses were issued. Deputy Clerk J. J. McCormick also set a new record, marrying 92 couples in the three hours between 9 and noon.

HEAVY WHEAT CROP IS FORECAST FOR ENGLAND

Cambridge University Expert Forecasts Six-Ton Harvest America Will Have None of Crop to Export

LONDON, April 28 (AP)—The popular notion that England is played out as a wheat producing country is all wrong, according to Professor Biffen of Cambridge university. His admirers here say that he knows more about wheat than anybody in this country, and some maintain that he is the greatest authority on the subject in the world.

He addressed the Bedfordshire Chamber of Agriculture on wheat the other day. He told its members that in a very short time English wheat growing is going to come into its own. There would then, he said, be money made out of wheat raised by British farmers despite the vast crops of wheat grown in other parts of the globe.

In America, he said, the population was growing more rapidly than the wheat crop, for the country there would no longer be a huge surplus to send to this country or anywhere else.

DE VALERA MUST EXPLAIN TERMS

Dublin Political Circles Agree Rebel's Peace Proposal Has no Chance in Present Form

DUBLIN, April 28 (AP)—Eamonn de Valera's proposals for peace stand no chance of acceptance until he explains his terms more clearly, according to the consensus of opinion expressed today by Dublin's political circles.

No cabinet meeting was held today. Some of the ministers left town and there is no intention to hold a week-end council to discuss the proclamation. In reply to the government's offer of the terms of the government attitude would be made.

Monsignor Luzzo, the papal delegate, who has been investigating conditions in Ireland, is understood to have taken the view that the republican offer requires serious consideration. The republicans are generally skeptical, but hope is entertained that once the republicans lay down their arms for any reason they will not resume them.

Situation Summarized

The Free State supporters sum up the situation somewhat as follows: Beyond his offer for the immediate cessation of hostilities, De Valera's proposals hold no attraction. His basis for the ministers' offer does not differ from the contentions he has always maintained. His willingness to submit to a popular vote still depends upon the fact that an act be passed by which he is understood to mean that England should not interfere if the voters decide for a republic.

OREGON TROOPS

backbone of the I. W. W. marine workers' strike at this port has been broken, having failed to interrupt or seriously delay scheduled sailings of ocean passenger liners.

Today with its usual heavy workload, the port is loaded upon a test of the strike. A score of trans-Atlantic shipwreck liners left port and almost without exception they departed on a schedule which was not threatened to cause delays the Marine Relief association provided engine crews.

The strike was called last Wednesday in an effort to enforce a new wage scale averaging $15 a month, over the scale effective on ships operated under direction of the United States shipping board.

NAMED FOR RESERVE BOARD

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—George R. James of Memphis, Tenn., was appointed by President Harding today to be a member of the federal reserve board. He succeeds John R. Mitchell of St. Paul, who resigned.

AGED SENATOR DIES

SENATE'S VETERAN MEMBER

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—The death tonight of Knute Nelson, senior senator from Minnesota, aboard a train en route to Chicago, removed from the senate its oldest member, and one of those with the longest service record. He was 80 years old, and had served 23 years.

Senator Nelson, although ill last winter with influenza, was active during the last session of congress and today when he left Washington for his home in Chicago, he was in excellent health, although the death of his wife a year ago had greatly depressed him. Those who were closest to him said he never fully recovered from that blow.

Senator Nelson was a civil war veteran and worked hard, especially during the war, in pushing legislation dealing with Americanization. The opinions bill was one he fought for. He was chairman of the judiciary committee and a member of the commerce committee. He reported the bill which failed to pass, and the child labor constitutional amendment.

Under the rules of seniority, Senator Dillingham, republican, of Vermont would succeed to the chairmanship of the judiciary committee. Senator Nelson's present term would have expired in 1925.

President Pays Tribute

President Harding received the news of the death of Senator Nelson while attending the dinner of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, and immediately issued a statement saying that the Minnesota senator was "a stalwart American and performed a most useful public service with a record of great work accomplished."

"Senator Nelson was an inspiring example of American opportunity," the president's statement, written in his own hand at the dinner table, said. "He came to us in poverty from Norway, acquired a competence, served in the war of the union, and had a long and honored career in the senate. I hold him in very high regard and deeply regret his passing."

Great strength—physical and mental—was the first thing that impressed him in meeting Knute Nelson, long affectionately referred to as the "Grand Old Man" of Minnesota. His physique was stocky and muscular, his head larger than that of the average man, his features cast in a strong mold. His whole personality was suggestive of unfeignedness, breadth of mind and decisiveness.

Nelson had a peculiar aptitude for statesmanship, evidenced by the fact that, besides being a member of the United States senate for more than twenty years, he was for six years in the house of representatives, and he served in the legislature of Wisconsin and Minnesota and twice as governor of the last named state. He was frankly and unaffectedly proud of his record of never having been defeated for any office for which he became a candidate. In politics he was a republican.

In dealing with legislative questions he was thoroughly fearless in his public utterances and in public conferences with members of his constituency, was outspoken. One of the many laws passed largely because of his initiative and aggressiveness was the bankruptcy law, which, from its active and successful connection with it, was known as the "Nelson Cure."

Aids Mother as Newsboy

Born in Voss, Norway, on February 2, 1843, Knute Nelson came to the United States with his widowed mother, when he was six years old, and they found their first American home in Chicago. Knute helped his mother by selling papers on the streets. Later they moved to Wisconsin and the youngster obtained his first schooling in Inana county, going to the academy at Albion, Wis., where he studied for three years.

In the civil war Nelson entered the Fourth Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry. He served three years, taking part in the capture of Fort Jackson, St. Philip and New Orleans, in the siege of Vicksburg and the battles of Baton Rouge, Camp Bisland and Franklin. In the fighting at Port Hudson, La., he received a wound in the thigh, the effects of which he felt the rest of his life. Taken prisoner, he was kept at Fort Hudson until surrendered. Returning to Dane county, Wis., at ter the war, Nelson studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1867. In 1868, Mr. Nelson married Miss Nicholm Jacobson, at Christiansia, Wis., and moved to Alexandria, Minn., which was to be Nelson's home thereafter. Five children were born, but four have died, leaving Miss Ida Nelson the only surviving child.

Mr. Nelson was elected to the house of representatives in 1883, after he had served terms in the legislature of both Minnesota and Wisconsin as state senator. After six years in the lower house of congress he retired and resumed his law practice. He was elected governor of Minnesota in 1892 and was re-elected two years later but resigned in 1895 to become United States senator to which office he was re-elected in 1901-07-13, the last term extending to March 3, 1910.

Counts War in Education

The home life of the Nelsons was marked by the same simplicity as characterized the personality of the lawyer and statesman, as neither the senator nor his wife cared for the distractions of social activity. Mrs. Nelson, long after her husband became a national figure, adhered to old world customs of housekeeping, among them washed floors.

Mr. Nelson's amusements and recreations were simple. He loved to be out of doors, but when in the house his chief pleasure was found in his library, where he read almost daily, his favorite books being historical. The Alexandria home is on a large and well managed farm and the senator was pleased to refer to it as "Farmer Nelson." He once said he did not wish to be called statesman and that he was a "hayseed." The first book he ever had was an old school reader for which he traded a "jag" of wool. He kept that little book all his life. Accomplished as he was in knowledge of history and the law, he was accustomed to say that his best university had been the war of the north and south and the service he saw in it.

AN UNCLEAN TENDENCY

Probably there are very few persons who have not at some time or other, been honored by the attention of the half silly, half vicious type of correspondent whose specialty is the anonymous letter.

Time was when such practices were taken seriously, in fact, the sending of anonymous letters through the mails even entails a penalty which few persons would care to incur...

Anonymous letter writers, dog poisoners, wife beaters had incendiaries differ only in the extent of their criminal tendencies. All are afflicted with an urge towards secret criminality which manifests itself in varying degrees...

The punishment earned by such practice usually amounts mainly to the contempt of all normal and clean-minded people.

AGAIN THE FRIEND OF CHINA

There will be general satisfaction over the formal announcement of the cancellation of the Lansing-Ishii agreement between the United States and Japan.

The Lansing-Ishii agreement, supplementing the Root-Takahira agreement, was entered into Nov. 2, 1917.

By it the American government recognized that Japan, through territorial proximity to China, held special interests in that country.

Even in war time there was considerable dissent in the United States over the Lansing-Ishii pact. Its enemies believed it an unwarranted surrender of national self-respect.

The United States has for many years occupied the position of friend of China. This position is one which has not demanded an appeal to arms.

BABSON GIVES REASON FOR DECLINE OF BONDS

Business Activity Takes Cash from Securities Market, Statistician Says in Explanation of Governing Factors

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., April 28.—(Special to The News)—Bonds have declined since last September until at the low point of March 27, they were back to the level of December, 1921.

"Bond prices," says Mr. Babson, "are governed by a combination of three factors: the demand for goods, the supply of money, and the psychology of the times."

"If we begin at the bottom we find three main causes: first, a contraction and manufacturers restrict themselves to take care of new business. As soon as these conditions exist, buying starts in earnest."

"Funds that would otherwise be invested in bonds are used in business, in fact, many bonds are sold to get the necessary cash to carry on operations on the new scale."

DUEL INDEFINITELY PUT OFF

Must Be Admitted That Israel Putnam's Method of Conducting It Was Somewhat Disconcerting

Old Israel Putnam had his own ideas about duelling although it was regarded in his day as more or less a part of a gentleman's code of honor.

It once happened that Putnam unintentionally offended a brother officer in the Continental Army. The dispute arose at a wine table, and the officer demanded instant reparation.

Putnam, being a little excited, expressed his willingness to accommodate him with a duel, and it was stipulated that the duel should take place on the following morning, and that they should fight without seconds.

At the appointed time the officer went to the dueling ground armed with sword and pistols. Putnam was there before him on the field and had taken a stand at the opposite end, musket in hand.

Catching sight of his opponent he leveled his musket and fired. The astonished officer ran toward Putnam, who was deliberately reloading his piece.

"What are you about?" he demanded. "Is this the conduct of an American officer and a man of honor?"

"What am I about?" inquired Putnam. "A pretty question to ask a man whom you intended to murder."

"I don't care for that. It's you," he cried, passionately, and he grasped her with a violence that startled her.

"Gene Stewart turned white. I for one expected to see him jump like lightning when he saw what he'd done. But he was calm 'an' he was thinkin' hard. Presently he said: 'Pat, that's a fool idee, an' if you do the trick I'll hurt you all the rest of your life. There's absolutely no reason to frighten Miss Hammond, an' tryin' to arrest her would be such a d-d outrage as won't be stood for in El Cajon. If you're sore on me send me to jail. I'll go. If you want to hurt Al Hammond, go 'an' do it some man kind of way. Don't take your spite out on me by insultin' a lady who has come here to have a little visit. We've not had without bein' low down as Greasers.'

"It was a long talk for Gene, an' it was as surprised as the rest of the fellows. It was plain to me an' Al Hammond that it it afterward that Pat Howe had forgotten the law an' the officer in the man, an' his hate."

"I'm a-goin', I'm a-goin' right now!" he shouted. "Stewart seemed kind of choikin', an' he seemed to have been bewitched by the idee of havin' a confrontin' you."

"An' finally he burst out: 'But, man, think you it is! It is Miss Hammond! If you see her, even if you was looped or drunk, you—you couldn't do it.'

"I wouldn't 'I'll show you she is d—n quick. What do I care who she is? There awell eastern women—I've heard of them. They're not so much. This Hammond woman—"

"Suddenly Howe shut up, an' with his red mug turned green he went for his gun. Stillwell paused in his narrative to get breath, and he wiped his moist brow. And now his face began to lose its ruggedness. It changed, it softened, it rippled and wrinkled, and all that strange mobility, focused and shone in a wonderful light."

"An' then, Miss Majesty, then there was somethin' happened, Stewart took Pat's gun away from him and threwed it on the floor. An' what followed was beautiful. Sure it was the beautiful-est sight I ever seen. Only it was comin' out some of a while after, when the doctor came, he had another patient besides the wounded Greaser, an' he said that this new one would require about four months to be up 'n' around cheerin'-like again. An' Gene Stewart had beat the trail for the border."

SUPERSTITION AN OLD ONE

Modern Belief Concerning Groundhog Day Has Come to Us From Early German Folklore.

We owe our superstition of groundhog day to the Germans, who hold the idea in regard to the badger. They have a saying, "The shepherd would rather see the wolf out his stable on a winter day than the sun." As the badger hibernates in the hole of a wood-sidged river, the German belief as to the little creature's abilities as a weather prophet was transferred to the groundhog.

Pope Gelasius, in the Fifth century, instituted Candlemas day as a church festival in honor of Innocent XII, in a search for a new feast. It was the feast of the people of those days were afraid of the evil spirits of the ground, and it was believed that the sun would be in honor of the Virgin.

As this was the last month of the year and its name comes from the Latin "februa," to expiate, probably the people of those days were afraid of the evil spirits of the ground, and it was believed that the sun would be in honor of the Virgin.

WHEAT UNDER PRESSURE

Favorable Weather Conditions in the Crop Belt are Reflected on Exchange by Fall of Prices

CHICAGO, April 28 (AP)—Excellent weather conditions throughout the entire wheat belt brought about lower prices today in the wheat market. The close was heavy at 1 cent to 2 cents below...

With reports at hand showing circumstances were more auspicious for field work in the spring crop districts, and that winter wheat on farms had been improved by rains, the wheat market from the outset was under pressure from sellers.

Efficient unwillingness to accept delivery of what here on May 1, was shown today by many holders of May contracts and as a result there was a noticeable increase in the price of wheat as compared with July and September.

NEW YORK, April 28 (AP)—Stock prices again fell ground in today's brief and relatively dull session. Not losses in the active issues ranged from small fractions to 3 points. Outside the stock market, financial interest was in the sharp reaction in the cotton and sugar futures markets, the former dropping 39 to 70 points and the latter 10 to 15 points. Bear operations in the stock market were encouraged by the emphasis placed in the weekly mercantile reviews on the slackening in industrial expansion, the speculative uncertainty surrounding the immediate course of oil prices and the easing tendency of commodity prices, recent advances in which furnished the impetus for bullish demonstrations in various sections of the list.

OPPOSITION TO BOON ELECTION APPEARS LIGHT

No Organized Effort Seen to Fight American Falls District Issue; Local Leaders Are Optimistic

Opposition to the bond issue of the American Falls irrigation district to be voted upon by the property owners throughout the district on May 12 appears to be slight and so far as the local leaders in the project are concerned there seems to be no knowledge of any organized effort being planned to discourage the carrying of the election.

Opposition to the bond issue of the American Falls irrigation district to be voted upon by the property owners throughout the district on May 12 appears to be slight and so far as the local leaders in the project are concerned there seems to be no knowledge of any organized effort being planned to discourage the carrying of the election.

Communications were sent out on Friday to the committee members asking for reports and from the reports obtained it is evident there is practically no opposition, at least none that appears serious at the present time.

CITY'S PROBLEM EXPENSE BUDGET

Apparent Income Estimated to be Considerably Under the Former Expenditures

One of the first problems of the incoming city administration appears to be one that requires a talent for stretching the expected financial receipts to cover a budget for the ensuing year. The appropriations under last year's budget, which have been practically exhausted, were considerably higher than the available income in sight for this year.

Queer Uses for Gold.

To the ordinary uses to which gold is put the natives of India add a number that are curious. According to a bulletin report of Messrs. Samuel Montagu and company, gold in the form of thin leaf is swallowed in India for medicinal purposes. A frequent form of ptery is to replace the domes of religious buildings, and such operations can easily absorb 10,000 or more Sovereigns with a shield on the adverse side are in constant request. An inquiry as to the ultimate use of some thousands of pounds revealed the curious fact that a rajah of queer tastes had imported them to form a penker to each pane in the windows of his palace. As a contrast to the savings of France, which are utilized to promote the trade of the world, those of India are buried or hoarded.—London Times.

Compliment Mrs. Walter Dufresne, who is leaving soon to make her home in Boise. Mrs. Bert Keeter entertained at a charming bridge party at her home in C. W. Johnson and Mrs. W. H. Toliver. Prizes in the card games were won by Mrs. J. F. Johnston and Mrs. Shad L. Hodgins. A color scheme of pink and yellow was carried in the decorations and also in the dainty luncheon served after the games. The guests were Mrs. H. E. Vogel, Mrs. Alvin Harbour, Mrs. D. E. Wray, Mrs. C. C. Yoder, Mrs. Groin Van Horn, Mrs. W. P. Passer, Mrs. I. F. Morse, Mrs. J. F. Johnston, Mrs. Shad L. Hodgins, Mrs. George Davidson, Mrs. J. H.
