BRITAIN HOPES FOR NEW OFFER FROM GERMANY

Curzon Refuses to be Downcast by French Rejection of Latest Proposals, Which the Liberal Circles Deplore

ESSEX, May 4 (AP)—Increased pressure upon the Brits is seen in the French government announcement of a decree prohibiting the Germans taking coal from the mines without French permit. This policy, if enforced, the German industries maintain, would bring about closing down of most industries because the Germans are forbidden under the passive resistance program to apply for such permits.

LONDON, May 4 (AP)—The text of France's rejection of the terms embraced in German's recent note on reparations had not reached London late tonight.

France apparently rejected the German overtures, if not without actually consulting the British government, certainly without paying much deference to British views and her precipitate action has served to disappoint the hopes of those who had looked upon the German initiative as a step toward the alliance to the conference table.

Britain Loans Toward France.

The British cabinet is distinctly pro-French in sentiment, and the opinion is held in some quarters that if its influence failed to induce the French government to give further consideration to the German note prior to rejecting it, little hope remains.

In a speech made today at the Primrose League, Lord Curzon announced that the government was in close consultation with both France and Belgium. He seemed to intimate a hope that concerted action by the allies might be possible as a means of confronting Germany with such influence as to induce that country to take more effective steps to advance the reparations question toward satisfactory settlement.

Liberals Fear Cune Downing.

The haste of France in rejecting the note is especially deplored in liberal circles, because it is feared it may precipitate political developments with considerable far-reaching effects in Berlin and the substitution of a purely socialist administration. At the same time the political leaders considered as a factor in the object of the German note regarding passive resistance. They declare it was virtually a demand for a climb down on the part of France in the matter of reparations, a demand which would be inevitable rebuff in its train.

The British cabinet is expected to consider the German and the French reply together, with the object of finding out if anything will be saved out of the wreckage by further consultations with Italy, and if possible also with Washington.

Jeopardizes Rich Legacy by Wedding Father's Gardener

Daughter of Detroit Multi-Millionaire Incurs Mother's Displeasure by Union

DETROIT, Mich., May 4 (AP)—A romance that began among the rose terraces and fountain filled vistas of a multi-millionaire's summer home ended last Saturday with the marriage of Florence Otlet Avery, daughter of John H. Avery, prominent Detroit clubman, to Francis Barrigrand, her father's gardener.

The wedding, which was carried out secretly, did not become known outside the immediate family until today. Incidentally Mrs. Barrigrand, by her act, may have lost the very millions. Her mother, who made every attempt to prevent the marriage, said today the couple "can have no place in our life from now on."

LONDON, May 4 (AP)—The text of France's rejection of the terms embraced in German's recent note on reparations had not reached London late tonight.

FORD COMPANY HAS MOST CASH

Motor Concern Sets Financial Record for Corporations of United States

NEW YORK, May 4 (AP)—The Ford Motor Company, Inc., has more actual cash in its treasury than any other corporation in the United States, if not in the entire world, according to figures announced in Wall Street today, which place the total assets of the United States Steel corporation, despite the fact that the total assets of the Ford company is less than one-fourth the total assets of the United States Steel corporation.

The figures, taken from a statement filed with the Massachusetts commission at Boston, show that on February 23, 1923, the Ford company had a total of $159,405,587 cash on hand. This compares with total cash holdings of $25,700,181 reported by the United States Steel corporation in its last annual report of December 31, 1922.

Assets Exceed Half Billion The report also shows that the company has merchandise on hand to the amount of $100,000,000.

FEW TURN OUT FOR NEW YORK'S SUGAR PARADE

Only 72 Instead of Expected 25,000 Women March in Protest Against High Prices; Market Climbs Higher

NEW YORK, May 4 (AP)—Seventy-two, instead of an announced 25,000 women paraded to city hall today in protest against the high price of sugar, as prices of raw sugar futures receded from yesterday's slump and climbed from 41 to 46 points during the day's trading.

The protest parade, led by Mrs. Louis Reed Weizsacker, and leader of the local buyers' strike movement, was headed by a squad of mounted police and the police band of 25 men and included 35 marchers and 26 women in one motor car.

Urges Support of Government. Mrs. Weizsacker urged the women to support the federal government's injunction against the sugar interests. She said she had been informed directly by federal agents that the women's sugar boycott movement had been the direct cause of the drop in sugar futures prices.

France Enters Market. France was reported to have purchased 100,000 tons of raw sugar in Cuba at from 6.50 to 7.50 cents, which, it was stated, would amount to nearly six cents freight paid in New York.

Cable advices received by local refiners from Havana indicated that prominent Cuban sugar considerably disturbed over the boycott and were considering a retaliatory boycott of American manufacturers in favor of French and British.

SEATTLE, May 4 (AP)—John H. W. W. leaders in various parts of the United States, asking that all "footnote members" head for San Pedro (Los Angeles harbor).

That and a decision by Los Angeles members of the Ship Owners' association of the Pacific coast to abandon their policy of passive resistance to the strike and to take the offensive tomorrow morning with the anticipated arrival of 200 non-union workers from San Francisco to replace the strikers, were the outstanding features of the day in the strike.

PEACE PARLEYS DEADLOCKED ON FOREIGN RIGHTS

Ismet Refuses to Discuss the Amended Text of Provision for Safeguard of Foreigners in Turkey

LAUSANNE, May 4. (AP)—The Near East peace conference has been in a deadlock on the question of the protection of foreigners in Turkey. Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, has refused even to discuss the amended text of the provision in this connection, proposed by the allies to replace the text which was accepted by Ismet after the adjournment of the first session of the conference in February. The allies do not consider themselves bound by the text framed in February, because it was accepted after the Turks had refused to sign the treaty.

The allies insisted in today's discussion that arrests, seizures, and domiciliary searches affecting foreigners be carried out only when consented to previously by the foreign advisers. Ismet insisted there should be no revision of the compromise text agreed upon in February, which provided that the advisers could be notified after the arrests were made.

Ismet Places Blame
Ismet refused to discuss any except this compromise text, insisting that if the allies repudiated their accord reached in the closing hours of the previous conference and if it were again found that a peace agreement was impossible the world would know that the rupture had been caused by the uncompromising attitude of the allies.

Joseph C. Grew, American minister to Switzerland, intervened in the discussion, saying the United States wished to see the functions of the legal advisers clearly defined so that foreigners could be absolutely safeguarded.

The delegates left the conference pessimistic over the deadlock as the question is regarded as one of the most important before the conference.

Involves Americans

In concluding his remarks, Mr. Grew emphasized the importance attached by the American government to a clear definition of the functions of the legal advisers with regard to arrests, searches and imprisonments. Ismet Pasha then caused some surprise by turning to the American representative and declaring that Ambassador Child, Rear Admiral Bristol and Mr. Grew had all agreed during the previous session of the conference, approved the allied compromise text which the allies now repudiate.

To this, Mr. Grew replied that the Americans had merely used their good offices and had made no commitments either for their own country or for the allies. An allied spokesman later described the American minister's remarks as timely intervention in support of the allied position. The American government is regarded here as favoring even more power for the legal advisers than the allies suggest.

ACCUSED WOMAN REPLIES

Mrs. Stokes, defendant in divorce case, brands deposition of negress as frame-up.

CHICAGO, May 4. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Ethel Stokes, defendant in a divorce suit filed in New York by W. E. B. Stokes, wealthy New York hotel owner, left for New York today, branding a deposition of Rose Miller, negress, taken here yesterday, as a "frame up."

She also intimated that she carefully kept diary in which she recorded every word of her married life, which would be used by her to refute the statements of Mrs. Miller, formerly employed in a New York tearoom beneath an apartment tenanted by Edgar T. Wallace, named by Stokes in his action for divorce four years ago which failed.

Mrs. Miller, in her deposition, said she had taken luncheon to Wallace's rooms and had seen Mrs. Stokes there in negligee. She identified Mrs. Stokes, she said, from newspaper photographs. Mrs. Stokes denied her husband had sent his secretary here to coach the witness. She refused to appear to determine whether the witness could identify her, claiming that "there is no reason why I should help Mr. Stokes fight me."

Some Idea of a Garden.

Letter from a "moderately intelligible" man to a seed merchant: "Dear Sir—Having one-quarter acre of ground not used for anything but growing stones, I wish to make it into a profitable and attractive garden. Please send me one dozen strawberry seeds; one box, with three complete one dozen plus seeds; ten square yards of grass; one concrete path, winding; six tall flowers, with six pieces of wall; one safety lawn mower, with patent apparatus for converting it into a safety razor. And please send enough buckets to hold the strawberry and plus grass, and slide and buck equis for the honey. The grass should be green—not the withered kind I see in so many gardens—and the seeds of a flavor unsuitable for chickens. Yours truly, A. F. Ool."

The leaders of the masked organization are shown in an automobile, leading the parade.

HEAD OF KRUPP WORKS ON TRIAL

Effort is Turned to Fix Responsibility for Sounding of Sirens on Day of Clash

WERDEN, Germany, May 4. (AP)—The first day of the trial before a French court martial of Gustavo Krupp, son of the late and late president of the Krupp company, five Krupp directors and four workmen, was spent largely by the prosecution by pressing questions designed to place responsibility for the blowing of the Essen plant's sirens on March 31. The sounding of the sirens bringing out thousands of Krupp workers on the arrival of a detachment of French soldiers is held to have been the determining factor in the clash with French troops that ensued.

Under oath and supported by workmen summoned as witnesses, the directors testified that the sounding of sirens as a danger signal had been a practice for years and was initiated and controlled by the workmen's council.

Forty witnesses were summoned, but only a few were heard today.

Lieutenant Durieux, who gave the order to fire on the workmen, described the scene, concluding with the words: "I am no longer a little boy, look at my white hair, this drama will perhaps weigh on me all my life, but I have passed before the tribunal of my conscience and it absolved me." The trial will continue tomorrow and probably Sunday.

Age Not a Matter of Years.

Age counts for much less than it did a generation ago. People do not submit so readily to the growing-old process. They are realizing more and more that youth is not a physical affair at all. The new psychology, which is quietly, but deeply, affecting human thought in many directions, is teaching man that healthy labor, cheerful thinking, and useful interests in life go a long way towards preserving fitness and freshness of body and mind.

Condition of Crops Reported Favorable

Canal Company Manager Says Wheat and Alfalfa Have a Good Start

"Maintenance charges are being paid every day and our maintenance records are in better shape than they have been in the past four years," stated J. C. Wheeler, general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company Thursday on his return from a trip throughout the south side district.

"There has been no frost recently, although the winds have been cold, and crops are in fine shape," he said. "The recent weather has been ideal for crops and the outlook throughout the district is very good."

"Farmers are learning to select their best lands for the cultivation of beets and they are sure to succeed. We have raised beets for 14 years on our own farm and have found it important to select the richest land, plant early and cultivate rigidly."

"A total of about 92 per cent of the 1923 maintenance charges have been paid and there is only about five per cent of the land on which maintenance charges are being paid that is not suitable for cultivation. This is a small per cent and, I believe, the fact is very significant. The entire amount of maintenance for this year will probably be paid before the end of this week."

"Precipitation, although considerably under normal until recently, has caught up with the average of last year and now exceeds it slightly."

First Paper Makers.
Wasps construct their paper nests from wood pulp; and it is quite likely that man, when the human race was in a far more primitive state than it is at present, it gaged its idea a paper manufacture from—the social wasps, which had the same habits then as now, says the American Forestry Magazine. Most of these social wasps obtain the material from which they make their paper from the looser parts of the surface of old, unpainted fence boards, rails, house shingles and so on, and it is formed into the necessary pulp by being chewed up with the saliva as a mixer.

RECORD FLIGHT WINS AVIATORS WIDE APPLAUSE

Hundreds of Messages Carry Congratulations to Army Flyers Who Set the New Non-Stop Mark

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 4. (AP)—While hundreds of telegrams of congratulations continued to pour in on them from all parts of the world, and with the knowledge that United States congressmen and senators are planning to honor them, Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John A. MacReady today rested on their laurels.

Moeker Ready to Go The fliers received and sent two interesting telegrams. One, from Ezra Moeker of New York city was as follows:

"Congratulations on your wonderful flight, which beats my time made 71 years ago by ox team at two miles an hour, five months on the way. Happy to see in my 82nd year to great a transformation in methods of travel. Ready to go with you next time."

The telegram sent by MacReady and Kelly to Colonel Franklin R. Kenney former executive of the air service, who presented to them $5,000, was on a vager that the fliers would successfully fly from New York to San Diego, follows:

"To do anything that needs doing is a soldier's plain duty, but when that accomplishment brings victory to a friend it makes it a pleasure. With a grateful acceptance of your splendid gift there is a satisfaction and a knowledge that it pays to bet on the army air service."

Colonel Kenney telegraphed the $5,000 this morning.

Monkey Reasons

It used to be thought that beasts and birds were guided in their action entirely by instinct, reason playing no part whatever in their daily lives. But now naturalists are not so sure. To learn to use a lever as a mechanical instrument implies, one would think, a certain amount of reasoning power. Yet a monkey kept in captivity employed a stick to pry up the lid of a chest which was otherwise too heavy for the animal to raise.

HAZELTON WINS TOUGH TUSSEL WITH BURLEY

Northsiders on Home Field, Defeat Cassia County Nine in Hard Fought Game, 5 to 4

HAZELTON, May 4. (Special to The News)—Hazelton's high school baseball team won a hard fought game from the Burley team here this afternoon by the score of 5 to 4. Durfee pitched the entire game for the visitors, and pitched nice ball, allowing but four hits and striking out 11 men. Errors paved the way for most of the runs scored by Hazelton and it was through no fault of Durfee that the home boys came out on the long end of the score.

Jeffries started the pitching for the Hazelton team and did nice work, allowing three hits and fanning 7. Lindsay relieved Jeffries in the seventh inning, but fanned five during his stay in the box. Errors accounted for most of the scoring, with Burley being the biggest transgressor, making 12 miscues. Hazelton erred 8 times. Burley made 6 hits to 4 for the home team.

Batemann, first baseman for the Burley team made three of the six hits made by his team, one being a long two base swat. Kelley, back stop for the Hazelton team connected for two clean bingles out of four trips to the plate and A. Lindsay connected with a two fly hit. The game was one of the best played in Hazelton this year, and not until the Hazelton boys had chased a run across in the last of the ninth did the fans know who would be declared the winner.

Burley started out in the first inning with a marker but the home team came back with two in their half of the frame. Burley got busy in the second inning and tied the score. From then until the fourth when the Hazelton sneaked a run across the game was nip and tuck. In the last of the eighth the Hazelton sent one more home, leading the visitors by two runs when the ninth inning opened. In this frame the visitors landed on Lindsay and coupled with a few errors sent two runners across tying the score. The game ended in the ninth when the home team sent the winning run across the plate.

The teams will play a return game at Burley next Wednesday. The summary: R. H. E. Burley 4 6 12 Hazelton 5 4 8

CALDWELL WINS OPENING GAME

Winning Team, Shut Out for Six Innings, Runs in Eleven Counters in Fatal Seventh

CALDWELL, May 4.—(Special to The News)—Handing the Caldwell team the game on a silver platter, the Twin Falls high school baseball team lost the opening hit, 11 to 0. For six innings Loyal Jarman of the Twin Falls team pitched in great form, allowing the hard hitting Caldwell boys but two scattered hits. In the seventh inning the entire Twin Falls team went hay-wire, every man on the team that had a chance to make an error doing so in real kid fashion. When the smoke had cleared the Caldwell team had chased in 11 runs. Up to this time the visitors had been leading 7 to 0. In the fatal seventh, Mussel, Jerry Jarman, Cron and Selek gave us poor an exhibition of baseball as has been seen in Caldwell in years. Captain Jarman ran into Nye in right field, and allowed two runs to score. Hodgkin took the mound in the eighth and did fairly well. He held here in the ninth. The Twin Falls team will leave for home Sunday morning.

Irene Castle Treman, Dancer, Asks Chance for Man She Accused of Stealing Gems

NEW YORK, May 4, (AP)—Irene Castle Treman, dancer, pleaded with Magistrate Overlager today to be lenient and not impose heavy bail for James Gump, jewelry broker, whom she charged with having appropriated a pearl necklace valued at $7,000 which she gave him to sell. The dancer wore a hand of pearls and diamonds on her left ankle and appeared bored with the proceedings, dabbling a powder puff on her nose from time to time. Gump's counsel said that if he could get light bail his client would endeavor to return the pearls which he had pawned. Bail was fixed at $2,500 after the district attorney's office had asked for $10,000.

RUM RUNNERS EVADE PATROL

Liquor Smugglers Turn to Air and Submarine Channels to Get Contraband Ashore

NEW YORK, May 4, (AP)—Cut off from surface communication with the Atlantic rum fleet by a concerted drive of prohibition enforcement arms, the liquor running fraternity have turned to air and submarine channels in an effort to get the contraband ashore. Lieutenant Commander Camden of the coast guard cutter Seneca disclosed today when he came in off the rum patrol. Instead of fleeing this port as has been announced last night the rum fleet has merely moved a little further south of Sandy Hook. The Seneca had just located the British yacht Istar off Jones inlet. Commander Camden said, when a big gray seaplane swooped down beside the rum runner and two of the fleet clambered aboard. The Seneca put on full speed toward the seaplane, but before she arrived a smaller plane which had been circling high overhead signalled the other. The gray plane's occupants tumbled back on board and took the air before the Seneca arrived. Leave Boxes Behind. A short time later, the Seneca sighted two boats, ostensibly lobster fisherman, alongside another unit of the rum fleet. She sped toward them and the lobster boat fled leaving behind submerged boxes, which were believed to be cases of liquor which were to be towed ashore under water. The Seneca dropped a shot across WINNEPEG, Man., May 4 (AP)—The flood menace appeared again today with another rise of the Assiniboine river, forcing residents in some sections of Brandon to leave their homes. Gene Walked Up an Down, Up an Down, All Day and Night, Lookin' for Pat: You remember that Greaser who was plugged last October—the night Miss Majesty arrived?

PUT STUART IN FIRST PLACE

As Portrait Painter, Critics Accord Him Highest Rank in the List of American Artists.

First among American portrait painters, Gilbert Stuart holds a secure place in the history of our native art. His fame is assured, notwithstanding the wave of ultra-modernism sweeping the land.

Madeline however, did not forget nor give it up. Days passed, and she could not bring an additional gossip of Stewart's leading career to her own penitentiary.

Stewart's interest in the revolution across the Mexican line had manifestly increased with the news that Gene Stewart had achieved distinction with the relief force.

Madeline was stirred with an anger toward the brutal cowboy that was strong as her sorrow for the loyal old cattlemen.

She sent Nels, mounting upon his own horse, and bawling Madeline to the door of the house.

"Yes, I share found him," replied Nels, when questioned. "Found him up on the hill."

"Gene Walked Up an Down, Up an Down, All Day and Night, Lookin' for Pat."

You remember that Greaser who was plugged last October—the night Miss Majesty arrived? Well, he said, an' people say that Pat is a-go'in' to lay the killin' out on Gene.

Our form of government demands a two-party system, and it cannot function effectively without it.

"Majesty, I can't explain Stewart's singular actions," she said. "His has changed terribly. I fancy his once magnificent strength is breaking."

The sister's love found its way to Madeline. She read it, tears in her eyes. It told Madeline much more than his brief story of illness and poverty.

Nels crossed the railroad track and disappeared behind the low, flat houses. After a little time he reappeared and hurried up to the car.

"Thank you, Nels. Take me at once to the Greasers' hole over here. Likely the Greasers have been kind to him. But they're shore a poor lot."

They left the car, now surrounded by gaping-eyed Mexican children, and crossed the dusty space to a narrow line between red adobe walls.

"Gene Walked Up an Down, Up an Down, All Day and Night, Lookin' for Pat."
