

DAVIS WILL ADVISE BIG RESERVOIR

Assistant Secretary of Interior, Idaho's Former Governor, Talks Here on American Falls Project

"I shall recommend and vigorously urge that the government buy the American Falls reservoir on 1,500,000 acre feet capacity irrespective of the amount actually contracted for, although all the evidence now points to a reservoir of the 500,000 acre or the first unit, of that reservoir."

The foregoing statement was made here Wednesday by Assistant Secretary of Interior D. W. Davis, Idaho's former governor, who stopped off in Twin Falls for a short time. He is on a tour of inspection of government projects and stated that most of his time is spent on a brief visit to this tract.

"It is understood, of course," Secretary Davis added, "that I am not urging your people as to their course in connection with the American Falls reservoir project election. That is a question for them to pass upon, and they are competent to decide what is best for their future protection and needs; but I want to say that I am most anxious to co-operate, in my official position, in facilitating the work and in aiding your people in any way after they decide the issue."

Railroad Connection

Secretary Davis stated that in talks with Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line officials he found them interested in the success of the American Falls project.

"I was told by a high official of that transportation system some time ago," he said, "that railroad construction south was contemplated; but they seemed to be hesitating on account of lack of evidence of the future possibilities of this section from a tonnage basis. It is my opinion that in what a railroad system wants and must have to pay for the investment involved in any new construction and to carry on operations."

Secretary Davis was asked about the prospects of the success of the reservoir project and he replied that his opinion was that there was no doubt the people of this district would give their approval to the project.

"My observations since only serve to strengthen the view I expressed at that time."

"Recently I was asked again about the matter, and again gave my opinion as expressed from the colony two weeks ago."

"While the two propositions are not directly connected, there is a strong line of interdependency, for no new railroad construction would be considered."

Dancing Girl Says Purnell Broke Bounds

Entertainer Employed at House of David Amusement Park Makes Charges

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 10 (AP)—A Honolulu dancer from the House of David amusement park told the special grand jury investigating the call to duty that "King" Benjamin Purnell, 60-year-old leader of the colony, made improper advances to her in the pantry of Shiloh, the home of Purnell and "Queen" Mary last July. The witness was Mrs. LeVina Johnson Hegner, aged 30, who fled from the colony two weeks ago, and was discovered by accident working in a local factory. She gave testimony opening up so many leads that special precautions were taken to guard her.

Four House of David members followed the girl tonight when she slipped out the back door of the St. Joseph club hall. Judge Harry Dingeman, who is sitting as a one-man grand jury, dispatched a squad of state troopers in pursuit with orders to arrest the club members if they attempted to speak to her.

Mrs. Hegner was reported to have told the grand jury that she was called to the club hall last summer and while they were in the pantry, Benjamin, she testified, acted improperly, and when she objected, she said, he remarked, "I am not a man, I am a woman." She said Violet Turk, another member of the colony, opened the pantry door, and was reprimanded by Benjamin for entering without a pass.

Later, Mrs. Hegner said, Purnell asked her to come to Shiloh, but she refused to go. Mrs. Hegner, who was born in Honolulu of American parents, came to the colony five years ago and because she could dance Hawaiian dances became an attraction in the summer amusement park operated by the House of David.

Censors See Motive for Crime in Bared Male Leg in Films

NEW YORK, May 10 (AP)—The question whether a man, whose opportunity to display his own bared leg in modern times, can be exploited on a New York state movie screen with his legs unshaded, is the subject of a suit filed in the supreme court of the commonwealth.

The appellate division of the court granted yesterday requiring the state motion picture commission to submit for review a report of its order to delete a number of nude leg scenes from a motion picture released by Pathé Exchange, Inc.

The commission ordered the same corporation to eliminate all view of a man's legs exposed where trousers are pulled by dog at dance. The letter written by Mrs. E. P. Hosmer, woman member of the commission, stated an exhibition would "tend to incite to crime."

The movie people's reply that "there is no moral cause for the elimination than for the elimination of a like or similar exposure of a woman's leg" was filed with others papers in the court today.

OIL FIRE'S TOLL PUT AT 18 LIVES

Workmen Bend Efforts to Extinguish the Cone of Flames Shooting from Big Gusher

COHESICANA, Texas, May 10 (AP)—The Hughes-McKee well, the explosion of which yesterday cost at least 18 lives, continued to gush forth its torrent of fire tonight, fed by the constant flow of 15,000 barrels of oil and 3,000,000 gallons of gas.

For more than 48 hours the flames have leaped high and spectacular, flared streaks of fire as from a giant nozzle, disappearing in huge clouds of black smoke, which drift with the wind in a swirling blast.

The wind switched from the southward to the west early this evening, and the flames, blowing in the direction of Howell, leaving dark elements in its wake.

Men are working like Trojans to put the fire out. They are using all the power in the Powell field has tendered for the use of all available boilers. It will be necessary to use steam from a dozen boilers.

Various Estimates of Dead.

The burned bodies of at least six men remain in the fire zone, according to DeWitt Hawkins, one of those in charge of the well today. He said five bodies could be seen near the well and that at least another workman was missing. One or two spectators have perished, he believes. The fire, forgotten in charge of the work, estimated the final death toll will reach 18.

J. K. Hughes, head of the J. K. Hughes Development company, owning the lease, accompanied by J. S. Barker, his attorney, were here today checking up on the number of dead and missing.

At headquarters of the company, at Mexia, a statement issued placed the dead at 35.

Hundreds Dead Banned.

Hundreds thronged in and out and lingered about the Sutherland undertaking establishment all day today, eager to catch a glimpse of the charred bodies of some of the working crew perished in the explosion yesterday when the well ignited.

LASKER SUCCESSOR NAMED

Appointments of Edward P. Farley of Chicago, as New Head of Shipping Board is Announced at White House

WASHINGTON, May 10 (AP)—Appointment of Edward P. Farley of Chicago, former vice president of the Emergency Fleet corporation, to succeed Albert D. Lasker, as chairman of the shipping board, was announced today at the White House.

The appointment will become effective June 12, when Mr. Lasker will resign, after one year of service as chairman of the board. The announcement of Mr. Farley's selection said he was in full accord with the policy of the administration in the selection of an American merchant marine. It was made after the president had conferred with Mr. Farley at luncheon at the White House.

Mr. Lasker, although relinquishing his duties June 12, has been asked by the shipping board in a resolution of honor that the council must abandon its support of the Russian revolution or part with the federation. Martin Flynick, president of the district No. 10, United Mine Workers of America, chairman of the council, said that the committee, said he had no doubt a separation could be prevented.

Suehow Bandits Grow Skeptical and Fear Trap when Peking Government Promptly Accepts Demands

PEKING, May 11, (AP)—Ray Anderson, an American of long experience in Chinese political affairs and a person confident of several important military or military leaders, has announced that he will personally visit the Suehow train bandits in their present stronghold at Paotoku for the purpose of negotiating an early release of the Suehow captives now being held by them for ransom.

PEKING, May 10, (AP)—A hitch has developed in negotiations for the release of the captives held by the Suehow bandits in the hands of the hold back of Lanching, according to a report carried today by the Asiatic News Agency, a Chinese news service.

The news agency declares that the government's hasty acceptance of the bandits' preliminary demand that the pursuing troops be called off has made the bandits skeptical of official sincerity and has led them to fear that Peking is laying a trap for them.

Wu Yu-Lin, minister of communication, says the agency says, has telegraphed General Tsiung-Chu, governor of Shantung, informing him of the indignation of the foreign legations at the Suehow outrage and of the demands made by the foreign diplomats on the Peking government.

He added that the Chinese government would be held responsible for the safety of the kidnapped foreigners and promised the Shantung government any financial assistance necessary in the event the bandits required a heavy ransom.

WOMAN REFUSES LIBERTY

PEKING, May 10, (AP)—The best available information indicates that only one woman is held by the Suehow bandits, Sonora Vera, wife of Manuel A. Vera, of Guadalajara, Mexico, who refused to leave her husband although offered her liberty, according to reports received here.

Through traffic has been established between the Suehow and Shantung temporary tracks laid around the wrecked right of way torn up by the bandits, who raided the Shang Hai-Peking express last Sunday morning. However, no trains are running through the bandit infested region at night.

LOS ANGELES FIGHTS FIRE

One Man Burns to Death in Flames Spreading from Engineering Plant to Petroleum Tanks; $150,000 Loss

LOS ANGELES, May 10 (AP)—Fire which started at 10 o'clock this morning at the plant of the Gorham Engineering and Machine Co., which is a plant of the Pacific American Petroleum company, burning one man to death and causing a property loss of approximately $150,000, was still burning at a late hour today.

Alfred Barvin, 22, who was working in the boiler room of the plant, where the fire started, following a gasoline explosion, was burned to death. Several other workmen were burned in fighting the flames, which for a time threatened that the industrial district of Vernon, a suburb.

After destroying the Gorham plant, the flames spread to six 500-gallon petroleum tanks of the Pacific American company property. Fire fighting companies from Vernon and Los Angeles were able to confine the flames to the tanks and a few buildings.

The fire started following an explosion caused by a spark from an electric welding iron used in sealing cans of gasoline.

Union Pacific Executive, Reporting Approval by Board of Directors of Plan for Constructing Rogerson-Wells line, Reviews Conditions to be Met by Twin Falls Citizens

PLATT EXPRESSES GRATIFICATION OVER PROSPECT FOR DEVELOPMENT

HERE IS UNION PACIFIC'S CONFIRMATION OF AGREEMENT TO CONSTRUCT SOUTH LINE

Salt Lake, May 10, 1923.

Arthur L. Swim, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Am authorized to advise the Twin Falls committee of which you are chairman that the Oregon Short Line hereby confirms its oral understanding with your committee as follows:

"If the committee will acquire all of the capital stock of the Idaho Central Railroad company and thereupon accomplish the cancellation of the existing certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to that company by the interstate commerce commission and in addition will provide free of cost to the Oregon Short Line the necessary right-of-way, including grounds for terminals at Wells, Nevada, the said Oregon Short Line will coincidentally apply to the interstate commerce commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to be issued and when granted will promptly begin the construction of the line from Rogerson to Wells, prosecuting the same with proper and reasonable diligence to completion."

(Signed) C. E. GRAY.

I am gratified, as I feel sure the people of your section will be, with the direct prospects of fuller developments for the Twin Falls and Southern Idaho district.

This outlet by transportation for the greater productivity of the entire section by reason of your intention to conserve the waters of Snake River will tend to justify to some degree the expenditure for railroad construction.

(Signed) H. V. PLATT.

The Rogerson to Wells road will be built by the Oregon Short Line under certain conditions which should not be difficult to comply with, according to a message received in Twin Falls Thursday evening from Howard V. Platt, vice-president and general manager of the road, and embodying a definite assurance of the fact by C. E. Gray, president of the Union Pacific.

The message followed confirmation by the board of directors of the Union Pacific, meeting in New York, and was followed by a telephone message from Mr. Platt some hours in advance to the effect that the matter would be brought before the directors and that a message embodying the board's confirmation might be expected at any time from President Gray.

The securing of the certificate of convenience and necessity previously issued to the Idaho Central Railroad by the interstate commerce commission is being done by the Oregon Short Line will apply to the commission for a new certificate and immediately upon the granting of the same begin the work of constructing the line.

Ground for terminal facilities in Twin Falls has already been secured and a message received from E. F. Gray of Contact, Thursday night, gave assurance that the necessary Nevada residents to take care of any necessary expense in connection with terminal requirements at Wells.

From Rogerson south to the Nevada line the only private party of any consequence to be traversed is and will be that of the Utah Construction company and steps will be taken at once to comply with the Short Line's request that the Utah Construction be made in that section. Surveys, it is understood, have already been made over the route to be traversed.

NEW CALLS FOR SOLIDARITY IN PARTY'S RANKS

Postmaster General, Representing President at Ohio Celebration, Sounds Rallying Cry Against Minority Rule

MANASSASFIELD, O., May 10, (AP)—Admission that there is a division in republican party ranks was made by Postmaster General Harry S. New, in an address here tonight in which he called for renewed solidarity of citizens.

"Does, individuals with pet theories and fragmentary factions," and asserted that as a result of accomplishments of the Harding administration the unexpected may happen in the form of an early reduction of federal taxation.

"I freely admit the division in the republican ranks, but the state of our democratic adversaries is no better," Mr. New said. "The trouble from which both parties suffer today is lack of cohesion."

The postmaster general was the principal speaker at the centennial celebration of the birth of John Sherman, Manassasfield's most noted citizen, and representing President Harding at the affair.

Tax Reduction Is Goal.

Describing the administration's part in bringing better times Mr. New said: "I happen to know that it is the belief that the administration—certainly it is the hope—that all of these prosperous conditions will permit the unexpected to happen in the form of an early reduction of federal taxation. If our returns continue at anything like the present rate and our business begins to the treasury a surplus which it is at least temporarily doing, the reduction will be certain."

"The democratic party Mr. New said: "Mr. Justice Clark, speaking as the mouthpiece for the Wilson democracy, has been the cause of the nation's ills. I have to know that it is the belief that the administration—certainly it is the hope—that all of these prosperous conditions will permit the unexpected to happen in the form of an early reduction of federal taxation. If our returns continue at anything like the present rate and our business begins to the treasury a surplus which it is at least temporarily doing, the reduction will be certain."

"The outstanding achievements of the administration cannot be denied. It cannot guarantee that you shall be married happily. It cannot guarantee that the operation of the automobile will not even make the most respectable citizens immune from physical ills."

What Do You Want?

"What do you want?" was the way the postmaster general started his address.

"There are some things that an administration cannot do. It cannot guarantee that you shall be married happily. It cannot guarantee that the operation of the automobile will not even make the most respectable citizens immune from physical ills."

Business Men Want America in World Court

Chamber of Commerce of United States Expresses Views on Vital Issues

NEW YORK, May 10, (AP)—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States at the concluding business session of its annual convention today endorsed entry of this country into the world court, advocated increasing by two per cent the immigration quotas, and urged state regulation of public utilities rather than local regulation.

Resolutions also were adopted recommending the calling of a general economic conference of the nations of the world to adjust peace and economic problems; opposing government operation or ownership of the merchant marine, advocating legislation to govern flight of aircraft and airways to stimulate commercial aviation; the establishment of a court of tax appeal; government reclamation of waste lands; steps to prevent national loss by adequate flood control and reiterating its adherence to the open shop policy. Prior to the adoption of the resolution the convention heard an address by M. Robert Masson of Paris, director general of the Credit Lyonnais, who said the million franc Franco-Belgian armistice in the Ruhr was that of a shrewd to collect debt. He declared that France's military expenditures for 1923 were less than those of 1913 and that the per capita tax on citizens was equivalent to $34 as compared with $27 in America. The French government, he said, was taking steps to wipe out its indebtedness. He said the French people were ready to accept a steady, slow and prudent inflation.

GIRL FRIEND OF MOUNT SAYS HE TALKED SUICIDE

Doris Fuchs Tells Investigators Missing Student Expressed Purpose to Disappear on the Night of Hazing

CHICAGO, May 10 (AP)—Leighton Mount, Northwestern university student, who disappeared following a class rush in September, 1921, expressed his intention of disappearing the night of the rush, Miss Doris Fuchs, a friend of the youth, today testified before the grand jury investigating his disappearance and the finding several days ago of a skeleton believed by the authorities to be Mount's under a pier at Evanston.

Miss Fuchs, who has said she received a letter from Mount the same day he disappeared, asserted that she at first believed he had made good his threat to disappear and three days after the finding of the skeleton she told the jury she believed he had been a victim of class hazing and that his body was hidden.

"I first met Leighton when he and two other boys came to my assistance while I was trying to open the door to my apartment," Miss Fuchs told the grand jury.

Restive Under Restraint

Leighton confided to me about his family affairs, he was not allowed to go out anywhere and he came to me for mental aid and comfort.

The night before the class rush, while he was riding, he said that I would not see him again. He said that he would disappear during the class rush, but I paid no attention to him because he had said those things before. The night of the rush it began to worry me, so I went and told his mother.

Asked whether she had ever received any presents from Mount, the girl said he had several times brought her flowers he had picked in the fields and at one time bought her a pair of slippers.

President Walter Bill Scott of Northwestern, was the other principal witness before the grand jury today and made a flat denial of having ordered the search for Mount by students discontinued, as J. Allen Mills of Akron, Ohio, a former student, had testified. President Scott said Mrs. Mount had come to see him the morning after her son's disappearance and had told him of trouble she had with her son over Miss Fuchs and had also said that Leighton had been riding and was running away. He expressed the opinion that Mrs. Mount feared her son had committed suicide, but hoped that he had been kidnaped by the students instead.

Advice Use of Detectives

President Scott said he told Mrs. Mount at that time that he did not think her son had committed suicide and said he promised to start a search for the boy and that the search was carried out without result. He said he advised Mr. Mount, the boy's father, to employ detectives and to watch Miss Fuchs, as he believed that the youth was to get into communication with her if he had run away.

The detectives were employed and the students and house officials continued their hunt, he testified, adding that at the time Mr. Mount left, he made a signed statement that the university was doing everything to find his son. President Scott said J. Allen Mills and another student had called on him a few days later and expressed the opinion that a newspaper reporter was responsible for Mount's disappearance. They wished to force the reporter to tell where the youth was concealed, he said. President Scott said he counseled against any violence, but did not say anything about stopping the hunt only insofar as he forbade violence.

MASKED INVESTIGATORS ACCUSED OF KIDNAPING

Friend Says Hooded Men Threatened to Obtain Confession of Theft of Klan's Gift to Mother

ASBURY PARK, N. J., May 10 (AP)—Three white masked men, investigating the theft of $50 given to Mrs. Ella Titus of West Belmar, by the Belmar branch of the Ku Klux Klan, entered the home of William Radman, a contact of Mrs. Titus last night, and with drawn pistols kidnaped Mrs. Titus' 18-year-old son, George, it was asserted by County Detective Charles G. Davern.

Radman had befriended the boy since his mother and father separated several months ago, the county detective said. Radman told the authorities the masked men placed Titus in an automobile and carried him to Shark river, where by threats they sought to compel him to admit the theft of the money. The men threatened to hang the boy with a rope which was dangling from a tree, the county detective said, if he did not tell the truth. The boy said the men also menaced him with a large knife.

After young Titus had repeatedly denied the theft, the men carried him back in the automobile to a crossroad at New Bedford, about a mile from the Radman home, and released him.

IDAHO FAVORED, DAVIS DECLARES

Assistant Secretary of Interior Tells Buhl Rotarians of General Demand for Water

BUHL, Idaho, May 10—Assistant Secretary of the Interior D. W. Davis, former governor of Idaho, was a guest of the Rotary club at luncheon today. Previously he had spoken to a crowd at the Masonic hall. The secretary is on a tour of inspection of government projects, which brought him to this section. He said he had not intended to make any talks but was glad to meet the people here again and to give them any information in his possession.

"I am not here to tell you what to do about the American Falls project," said the governor, referring to the forthcoming election. "That is a matter for you to settle, but if anything I may say will be instructive to you I shall feel well repaid."

The secretary said the west was fortunate, and the whole country as well, in having a man of the constructive and development ability as Secretary Work at the head of the interior department. "He is a western man," Secretary Davis said, "in full sympathy with development. President Harding is also; and it is believed the president in his forthcoming address at Portland will devote his remarks to reclamation."

Pay High for Water

Secretary Davis told of the reclamation activities elsewhere in the west, where people were clamoring for storage reservoirs. In one place, he said, they were willing to pay $60 an acre foot for water. The Strawberry project costs the people $10 an acre foot; and they are paying for that reservoir, he added, gladly.

"When we consider that the construction cost for storage at American Falls is to cost not over $6 an acre foot," he added, "we can understand how very cheap Snake river storage is to be compared to that of new projects being considered with one exception. This is an era of development," said Secretary Davis. "The people are grasping the opportunities presented to them. They are voting bonds with unanimity to conserve their water for irrigation."

"I am glad to note the interest here in the American Falls reservoir project. It is the most desirable productive investment for you people, especially in the light of the fact that the Snake river valley lost enough in crops in 1919 to have built several American Falls reservoirs."

"Other states are very jealous of Idaho because of the amount of government money applied for reclamation in our state. They are clamoring for these funds and they would not go into mourning if Idaho should fall down in proposals to co-operate with the government so their opportunities will be increased."

"If we can conserve the water that is at present going to waste, if we can reduce our holdings and raise more profitable crops, if we can standardize our produce this will become one of the nation's greatest and most prosperous producing sections."

SOVIET LEADER AT LAUSANNE IS SHOT TO DEATH

Swiss Kills Vorovsky Outright and Severely Wounds Two Russian Companions While at Lunch in Hotel

LAUSANNE, May 10 (AP)—M. Vorovsky, an unbidden guest from soviet Russia at the Lausanne conference, lies dead tonight, slain by a Swiss, formerly an officer in the Russian service, and two of his lieutenants are seriously wounded, each with two bullets in his body.

One of the wounded is Herman Ahrens, a bolshevik from Berlin, who was the Russian press agent at both the first and second Lausanne conferences, the other is J. Dzhirkovski, Vorovsky's young Russian secretary.

The assassin, whose name is Maurice Alexander Conradi, and whose home was in the Canton of Orleans, was seized immediately after he shot the three Russians while they were dining at the Hotel Cecil, headquarters of the Russian delegation.

Most of the guests in the dining room had finished dinner when the assassin drew his revolver and, advancing quickly, fired on the Russians. The first bullet struck Vorovsky behind the ear; he fell across the table and uttered no word; probably he died immediately. He was struck by other bullets also.

Ahrens, who is always armed, drew his weapon after being shot twice, but before he could use it a waiter seized his arm, apparently fearing for the safety of the guests now crowding the doorways.

Conradi told the police tonight that his uncle and brother had been tortured and murdered by the bolsheviks during the terror in Russia. His act, in shooting the Russians, he declared, was one of vengeance.

Chicago Street Car Workers Demand 10 Per Cent Wage Increase for All Company Employees

CHICAGO, May 10 (AP)—Chicago was threatened with a street car strike today when a demand for a 10 per cent wage increase for all employees was presented to Harry Blair, president of the Chicago surface lines. The demand included provision for one day off a week and the abolishment of the one-man car. If the demands are granted it will mean the restoration of the wage scale in effect before the reductions made last year and will put into effect an 82 cent an hour maximum scale.

HAVRE IS TRAINING CAMP

Tommy Gibbons, Challenger for Heavyweight Championship, to Establish Quarters in Northern Town

HAVRE, Mont., May 10 (AP)—Tommy Gibbons will establish training quarters in Havre Sunday, May 20, according to an announcement by Mike Collins here Wednesday. Collins and Loy Maloney, state commander of the American Legion, who represented promoters of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in negotiations that led to the signing of the articles for the fight at Shelby, July 4, arrived here Wednesday enroute to Shelby.

The two promoters were met at Chicago by a delegation of Havre business men and in the 25-mile railroad journey from Chicago to Havre, consummated the deal to have Gibbons train here. Collins informed representatives of the Associated Press that the delegation had agreed to take $50,000 worth of tickets to the championship battle. Collins said he would probably make his headquarters in Havre, commencing next Sunday.

Whooping Cough.

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paragon, codine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.—adv.

Planning for tomorrow

In addition to meeting your needs today, a part of the unseen service of your electric light and power company consists of planning for your needs of tomorrow.

Service must be ready whenever a new home, a new hotel, a new school, a new theatre, a new store, a new church or a new factory is built. And that service, once installed, must be at your command every second during twenty-four hours, every day, every year. No time off—no vacations.

Your company must anticipate the growth of your community by the continuous investment of new capital in generators and distribution systems.

That capital—$750,000,000 a year for the country as a whole—can be attracted to live communities that wish to grow and will to grow.

One million, seven hundred and fifty thousand Americans have invested their money to furnish electrical service to the country. Other thousands will join them and the plans of today will become the realities of tomorrow.

THE GUMPS—THE SOUTH EIGHTY

suffered at this time, in my opinion, without some more or less pronounced development showing future prospects.

Would Clinch It?

"I feel confident, therefore, that the American Falls project has had an important influence upon the minds of railroad executives in connection with the proposed railroad south. I am not advised as to any final decision at this time, but my opinion is that success of the American Falls reservoir project would clinch a railroad south for your people."

"What the result might be if the election failed on Saturday could not be said, of course, but it might be logically concluded by anyone, as the reservoir project had an influence on the railroad matter from the beginning, and negotiations and agreements have been based to an extent upon assurances that the reservoir would be built, through favorable action at the polls, that defeat of the reservoir project might cause a delay, pending further investigation of a more or less serious nature, if not abandonment."

"Understand, of course, that I am not speaking with any special information as the basis for my statement, but merely reaching, or trying to reach, a logical conclusion the same as if it were a business project of my own."

Irrigay Crop Losses

Secretary Davis said that heavy crop losses had occurred all over the irrigated west because of the failure to provide storage for waste water in the rivers.

"In the Snake river valley alone, in 1919," he added, "the crop losses, due to water shortage were enough to have built several American Falls reservoirs."

"At various points the people are clamoring for storage reservoirs and have their money ready to put into the bag with the idea of buying time it is found practical to proceed."

"In one case the cost will be $60 an acre foot. Think of that, as against $6 an acre foot for storage in the American Falls reservoir. The Strawberry reservoir project, in Utah, cost $40 an acre foot and the people are paying it gladly and find it a fine investment."

"Other states in the west are jealous of Idaho because of the amount of money expended here on reclamation, and it is unquestioned that they would not shed any tears if the American Falls project should be abandoned, so they could get the government appropriation that will go to it if the election carries."

"It must be remembered, however, that in some cases these states are short on water, although long on land. Idaho has both. The only question is whether the people want the water stored instead of running waste into the Pacific ocean."

Outlook for Crops

Secretary Davis voiced an optimistic note as to general conditions, particularly as to agriculture.

"The people have entered upon an era of development," he continued, "and are grasping every opportunity to improve the present and assure the future."

"It is my belief there will be very fair markets for our produce this fall. The new tariff will help a great deal by minimizing the importation of cheap foreign competition. The big industrial activity all over the nation increases the purchasing power of the consumer. He must be fed."

"Out here we need the fullest possible water conservation, such as is proposed on Snake river at American Falls. We need smaller farm units and more diversified farming. We need more compressed crops, such as dairying, etc., provides. The small acreage farmer is the one who is making the money these days. We also need standardization of our produce."

Value of Western Man

Secretary Davis said the west was particularly fortunate in having a western man, Dr. Work, as secretary of the interior, "a man who is in thorough sympathy with western development and needs and who is constructive, a developer."

"President Harding is of the same type—a developer," the secretary added. "I feel confident that in his enlightening speech at Portland he will devote his time to reclamation."

"The president is working hard for greater efficiency and economy in government, and in line with his policy is supporting a bill in congress—a bill having no political significance whatever—to reallocate the governmental departments and bureaus so as to avoid duplication of effort and expense and put them all on a substantial business basis. The present agency is so heavily top-heavy and a barrier to efficiency. I hope you people will urge Idaho's representatives in congress to support that bill."

reference to the American Falls reservoir project, on which a vote will be taken in this district next Saturday. This confirms the statements unofficially made of the important bearing of the reservoir project on the proposed railroad construction. In an interview here some time ago Mr. Platt stated railroad construction would depend to a large extent upon the future possibilities of the territory to be served and referred to the American Falls project as a strong factor in development in this territory.

Culminates Efforts of Decade

The successful culmination of the negotiations marks the end of an effort to secure the building of a railroad outlet for Twin Falls to the east, which began more than ten years ago.

To George D. Aiken of Twin Falls and the late Robert M. McCollum belongs the credit for the first definite move along these lines. In the fall of 1912 these two made a trip to Oakland, Cal. where a week was spent in an effort to interest California capital in the building of the line. There was no lack of interest during the visit and for a period of years following but at no time was the encouragement of a nature sufficiently definite to warrant full consideration in the outcome.

A year or two later, however, a company was organized in Twin Falls with the object of constructing the line. This was known as the Twin Falls, Oakland and San Francisco Railroad, of which Dr. T. O. Boyd was president, George D. Aiken, vice-president; Ed J. Roberts, secretary, the balance of the officers being filled with other well known Twin Falls men.

Western Pacific Interested

President Bush of the Western Pacific visited Twin Falls a year or two later and again there was a definite move of effort to put over the project. From that time until up to a year or so ago the proposed line has lain dormant.
