DEATH THREATS FULFILLED BY TRAIN BANDITS

Ambassador Schurman Reports Morale of Prisoners "Becoming Lower"; Brigands Showing Desire to Negotiate

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—An official dispatch received from Peking by the state department today said the morale of the prisoners held by the Chinese bandits was "becoming lower. The message indicated that none of the captives had been put to death, despite the threat of the brigand leaders to kill two of them if their terms were not accepted within the Chinese government by yesterday.

The telegram sent by Jacob Gould Schurman, the American minister, stated that the bandits were "showing indications of a desire to negotiate. Sanitary conditions are the strongest here, and are as very bad and Mr. Schurman said everything was being done to supply the Americans and other foreigners with food and other supplies.

The following statement, issued at the state department shortly before midnight supplemented an earlier announcement that the diplomatic corps in Peking had named an international commission to investigate the bandit situation: "The department has received information from the location at Peking to the effect that General John H. Davis and Major Philson reported at noon, May 23, that an investigation shows that the troops made several retreats and that on May 22, those near Linchow were driven 100 miles. There was no fighting yesterday.

WARNS AGAINST SLUMP IN BUILDING INDUSTRY

Banker Suggests "Build In 1924" as Slogan of Movement for Immediate and Continued Prosperity

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—The building industry was described as the "punch hitter" in the present wave of business prosperity by George Woodruff, vice-president of the National Building Association. Speaking tonight before representatives of the building trades, "Upon the intelligence, team work and vision of American builders now the future of the nation depends, prosperity of the nation," he said. Mr. Woodruff advocated the adoption of the slogan "Build In 1924," pointing out that this would have the effect of keeping down prices in 1923 and forestall the threatened buyers' strike in the building industry which he said, may be unprofitable for the country as the industry is the backbone of the present boom.

Presbyterian General Assembly Votes 439 to 359, to Require Conformity with Creed

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23 (AP)—Fundamentalists opposed to the liberalization of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick tonight forced through the Presbyterian general assembly a resolution requiring the preaching in the First Church of New York city to conform to the Presbyterian doctrines. Led by William Jennings Bryan and two Philadelphia ministers, the Rev. A. Gordon Macfiegan and the Rev. Clarence MacArney, the conservatives won a five-hour fight by a vote of 439 to 359, a majority of 90, to substitute their resolution for a liberal permit from the committee on bills and overtures.

Assembly Votes Sorrow

The resolution adopted by the general assembly tonight says: "The 135th general assembly of the Presbyterians of the United States in answer to the petition of the overtures presented by the presbytery of Philadelphia regarding the public proclamation of the world in the pulpit of Christ in the United States, in filling the First Presbyterian church in New York City, expresses its profound sorrow that doctrines contrary to the standards of the Presbyterian church, proclaimed in said pulpit, have been proclaimed by the members of the church in our church and therefore would direct the presbytery of New York to take such action (either through its present committee or by appointment of a special committee) as will require the preaching and teaching in the First Presbyterian church to conform to the doctrine in the confession of faith and that said presbytery report its action in full transcript of its records to the 135th general assembly of 1924."

BALDWIN SEEKS TO BRING PARTY INTO HARMONY

Horne Declines Place as Chancellor of Exchequer in New British Ministry; Post May Be Offered Chamberlain

LONDON, May 23, (P) — Premier Baldwin has been busy throughout the day consulting with his colleagues and the political leaders, but it is not expected that he will be in a position to submit a list of the new ministry to the king before tomorrow. Four appointments tonight are certain: Magdalen Carzon as foreign secretary; the Earl of Derby, war; Colonel Sir Samuel J. Hoare, secretary of state for air; and Lieutenant Colonel Leslie Orme Wilson, chief whip.

Apparently Mr. Baldwin took the opportunity of his accession to the premiership to attempt to effect a reconciliation of the differing sections of his party, and as a first step invited Sir Robert Stevenson Horne to become chancellor of the exchequer. It was supposed yesterday that Sir Robert had accepted, but in a speech at Glasgow tonight he said:

"For a time at least I have turned my back on any prospect of any of my ministry."

Chamberlain May Have Post

Thus the new premier's first effort at conciliation failed and Mr. Baldwin has the difficult task of finding a new chancellor since it is not likely he would care to assume the heavy task of double role of premier and leader in the house of commons combined with the chancellorship.

Austen Chamberlain returned to London tonight and Sir Robert Horne will arrive tomorrow.

They will enter into consultation and if reconciliation proves possible, it may be that Mr. Chamberlain will become the new chancellor.

Cecil Considered for Place

It is asserted with some show of authority that Lord Robert Cecil will be included in the new administration. If so, it will be a very important move, greatly strengthening the new ministry. Lord Robert has for so long a time pursued an absolutely independent course that it was considered quite as likely some day to join a liberal, perhaps even a labor government, as to follow his own traditional conservative proclivities. He enjoys an almost unique reputation in the country as a completely honest, independent, fearless statesman of high ability.

Mr. Horne has a more favorable night and was pronounced slightly better today.

HOOPER IS RE-ELECTED LABOR BOARD CHAIRMAN

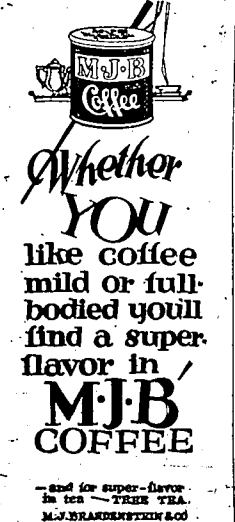

Successful Candidate Declares Opposition Was Not Due to Any Official Action Affecting Labor Issues

CHICAGO, May 23 (P) — Hon. W. Hooper, former governor of Tennessee, today was re-elected chairman of the United States railroad labor board for 1923 in the first annual executive session of the board since President Harding made appointments for three vacancies. G. W. Hauger, public group member from Washington, was re-elected vice chairman.

Early reports stated that Mr. Hauger had been asked to be a candidate to succeed Chairman Hooper. Mr. Hauger issued a formal statement today, asserting he was unable to accept the candidacy although it had been tendered him by a majority of the board members.

On his re-election, Chairman Hooper said: "I do not care to talk about the matter, such opposition as there was to my re-election did not affect it in my action on the board affecting labor questions."

The Illinois central railroad today notified the board that it had reached an agreement with its telegraphers, the employes having accepted a decision cutting an average of 5.42 cents an hour from their scale. The carrier withdrew all pending disputes with the telegraphers over rules and wages, declaring the controversies adjusted.

UPHOLDS CONVICTION OF TEN MEMBERS OF I. W. W.

Criminal Court of Appeals Rules Criminal Character of Organization Constitutes Proof

SACRAMENTO, May 23, (P) — The district court of appeals today upheld the conviction of ten members of the Industrial Workers of the World in the superior court here January on charges of criminal syndicalism. The defendants were Walter Smith, Thomas Zangar, Thomas O'Mara, Charles B. Larue, Peter H. Easley, William Rutherford, John F. Nash, H. B. Edwards, and B. Kyle.

The indictments against them were returned on admissions that they were members of the I. W. W., made under oath at the trial of J. A. Casford and Earl Percy, on charges of criminal syndicalism in 1922.

The defense in the appeal held the evidence to show membership of all the defendants except three in the I. W. W. was extra judicial, being based on their testimony in the previous trial and not brought out by independent proof. This they held to be an absence of the corpus delicti.

In the case of three their membership was testified to by a witness for the prosecution.

The court of appeals, in setting this point, while admitting that "the corpus delicti cannot be established by the extra-judicial statements and admissions of the defendants without other and independent proof" held that the criminal character of the I. W. W. organization constituted the corpus delicti.

PROPOSE TERMS TO BRICKLAYERS

New York Builders Offer to Arbitrate with Strikers if They Return to Work

NEW YORK, May 23 (P) — The Mason Builders' association today offered to arbitrate differences with 20,000 union bricklayers now on strike if the men would immediately return to work.

Chairman Fogarty of the strikers declared the union would consent to arbitrate other points such as working conditions, if the wage increases were granted, but that the increase of from $10 to $12 a day, with a two-year contract, was imperative.

Most of the bricklayers are said to be receiving more than the union wage while they are on strike, working for independent builders. Several have already resigned from the builders' organization and granted the higher wages, according to union officials.

Strikers were circularized today by the school printing trades council, which requested that they deposit their money with the Federation bank, and thus answer widely circulated reports that banks were backing the builders' association would force them to return by cancelling all loans to independent builders. This cancellation would cut off the high wages which the men are receiving from independents, according to the reports, while the builders' as-

South American Wins Contention with Promoter; Guarantee to Each Boxer is Reported $100,000

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Luigi Angelo Firpo, South American heavyweight, today signed articles with Tex Rickard, promoter, to fight Jess Willard, former world's champion, on July 7 in New York or vicinity.

The agreement stipulating the match was signed after a conference between Firpo and Rickard, at which the promoter was understood to have revised the original offer he made for the fight, which the South American declined.

Terms were not revealed, but it was

Willard signed articles with Rickard recently, just prior to his departure for a vacation in California.

Rickard announced he had decided to hold the bout July 7, because it would give Firpo more time in which to train, following his engagements next month in Cuba and Mexico.

The site has not been selected but it probably will be in the Yankee stadium providing the state athletic commission raises no barriers. Despite reports that the commission had ruled against further appearance by Willard in this state because he is over the age limit of 35, that body has as yet taken no official action.

LIQUOR RULING ISSUE BAFFLES

Task of Harmonizing Court Decision with Foreign Laws Engages Officials

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Government officials charged, with drafting new regulations under the present court decision barring liquor from domestic and foreign waters in American territorial waters, find their troubles before Secretary Mellon today after another effort to bring the court ruling into harmony with foreign laws. Commitment was refused as the result of the latest effort on the conference with the secretary, but indications were given that postponement of the effective date of the regulations, now set as June 10, has been recommended to Mr. Mellon.

As the situation stood tonight, it appeared that the officials, headed by Assistant Secretary of the treasury, and Commissioner Blair of the internal revenue bureau, had given up hope of "writing around" the court's findings so that there would be no conflict between the American prohibition law and foreign statutes concerning the sale of liquor to carry liquor as crew ration.

AMERICAN SOCIALISTS PRAISE MEXICAN STAND

Telegram Dictated by Convention Urges Obergren to Hold Firm in Controversy with United States

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—A telegram lauding the stand of President Obergren of Mexico on article 27 of the Mexican constitution of 1917, which article has been a source of controversy between the Mexican and United States governments, was sent to Mr. Obergren today by Otto Braunstein, secretary of the socialist party, in carrying out a resolution adopted by its national convention which adjourned yesterday.

Article 27 has been held to prevent foreigners from acquiring clear title to sub-surface rights there, involving millions of dollars worth of property claimed by Americans.

"The national convention of the socialist party renounces your stand in defense of the interests of the Mexican people," reads the telegram. "We heartily approve section 27 of your splendid constitution and trust you will be able to maintain it against all opposition, both foreign and domestic."

BAPTIST FACTIONS FIND GROUND FOR AGREEMENT

Progressive and Orthodox Camps Join in Defense of Brown University President

ATLANTA, May 23 (AP)—First harmony between the progressive and orthodox factions of the Northern Baptist convention developed today when the rival camps joined in criticizing the action of the Rev. John Roush Stratton of New York, who sought harrasing of President W. N. P. Fluency of Brown university, from the platform. Fundamentalists disclaimed any share in the attack on the college executive, the Massachusetts delegation, through Dr. C. H. Manning, announced publicly that Dr. Stratton spoke "as a fundamentalist, but as an individual." First action of the prohibition question, which took place in New York delegation passed a resolution urging Governor Smith to veto the repeal of the Mullin-Gage act.

Jury Holds Players Guilty of Staging Immoral Production

New York Producer and Members of Cast Convicted in First Case of Kind

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Harry Weinberger, producer of the play, "God of Vengeance," and 71 other persons, including the cast, were found guilty by a jury of producing an immoral play. The jury deliberated less than two hours.

Nathaniel Schillerkin, noted Viennese actor, who played the leading role, Miss Virginia McFadden and James Wiggins, three members of the cast of 12, all of whom were convicted, were not present when the verdict was announced.

The entire cast, with Weinberger, was indicted several months ago under a section of the state penal laws.

Judge John P. McFadden, who tried the case, said he would be severe in imposing sentence. The maximum penalty is three years in prison or a fine of $500.

Weinberger, who conducted the defense, others in his contention that the performance was not indecent or salacious and that it taught a moral lesson. "Though a moral lesson was sought to be taught," Judge McFadden said, in charging the jury, "this cannot be done by lies or words or actions that might amount to immorality or obscenity. The fact that Shakespeare saw fit to write in a manner that might be characterized as satirical, is no defense in this case."

The defendants were released in $200 bail each for sentence on June 22.

Confesses Killing Eight Revenue Men in Battle in 1908

Kentuckian Bares Story of Fatal Affray After Years of Wandering

LOS ANGELES, May 23 (AP)—A man who gave his name as Joe Buckley Loner, 28, formerly of Kirby Knob, Ky., today confessed, according to the police, he killed eight revenue officers in a fight in the mountains of Kentucky in April, 1908. History is being checked by department of justice agents.

Loner told police detectives, they said, that he was 13 years old at the time of the fight and that after the slaying, he and his brother Charles who had taken part in the affray, wandered from place to place, fearing arrest.

IMMIGRANT SMUGGLERS ACCUSED OF TREACHERY

Survivor Tells of Massacre by Guides of Party of Italians Seeking to Enter United States from Mexico

SAN ANTONIO, May 23 (AP)—The recent murders of six Italians who were killed for their passage across the Rio Grande only to be betrayed and shot down by their guides and robbed of their money, is only one of a series of wholesale murders the smugglers have committed in the opinion of Captain W. H. Hansen, American inspector of the border district.

One of the party of Europeans captured with wounds from three bullets passed through his body and succeeded in carrying the tale of the massacre to American officials. He was overlooked by the assassins, as it is believed the murderers intended to leave no one to carry back an account of the murder. The story was told by the survivor who said he saw the murderers calmly go through the pockets of their ill-fated victims in search of money.

COAL SHORTAGE IN RUHR BENEFITS GARDIFF DEALERS

CARDIFF, Wales, May 23 (AP)—Cardiff has profited enormously by the stoppage of coal shipments in the Ruhr valley. Hundreds of thousands of tons of coal have been sent to French and other European ports which might otherwise have been sent from the Ruhr mines.

Some British coal merchants have proved that it is practicable to ship coal from Cardiff to eastern Canada and unload there coal from Pennsylvania. This is a new avenue of trade which Cardiff's thrifty coal traders are developing. The foresight behind it is emphasized by the fact that these dealers, the operations have bought large timber areas in Canada so as to ship raw for coal mines as return cargo.

MONTREAL SUFFERS FIRE

One Man Missing; Three Injured and Many Families Made Homeless by Flames

MONTREAL, May 23 (AP)—One man is believed to have lost his life, three others, two of them firemen, were injured, and many families were made homeless when fire destroyed 15 dwellings and a new sawmill in the east end tonight. The property loss is estimated at $200,000. Earlier, flames started by an explosion of undetermined origin destroyed the shops of the Montreal Hardware company with loss of $125,000.

CHALLENGER'S STRENGTH IS CONCEDED BY KEARNS

Dempsey Faces Hardest Fight in His Career, Manager for Heavyweight Champion Declares

SHELBY, Mont., May 23 (AP)—Jack Dempsey faces the hardest fight of his career, in his bout with Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, July 4, it was declared today by Jack Kearns, manager of the heavyweight champion.

Kearns was the loudest geyser today at a luncheon of the chamber of commerce of this little city, where the July 4 battle will be staged.

Gibbons is a hard hitter and the best boxer in the world," said Kearns, adding that if the fight went over as it looks like it would, he will "not be surprised" to see the winner of the match and Harry Wells, negro heavyweight, fight for the world championship in Shelby on Labor Day next.

TY COBB CONTINUES TO FLASH OLD-TIME FORM

DETROIT, May 23 (AP)—Tyron Haymond Cobb, victoriously dubbed "The Peerless One" and "The Georgia Peach," is not yet among the bench manager class, despite his 37 years and the thinning hairs on his head. Frequent predictions, first heard when he succeeded Hughie Jennings as manager of the Detroit Tigers two years ago, that he would be a failure, have failed of fulfillment.

It is a different Cobb who guides the destinies of the 1923 Tigers from the player who flashed among the major league constellations in 1905, gaining in brilliancy and renown until in 1911 he became a .420 batter. The speed that gave Cobb a new major league record for stolen bases in 1915, with a total of 98, is waning, but in his place has come craftiness and because he had so much speed to lose, he still is a great outfielder, still a dangerous man on the paths.

At last, he is the same "Peach." His eyes seem as clear as in his earlier days when he was the bugbear of all pitchers in the league. He continues to meet the ball squarely and his facility of driving the ball out of reach of the fielders seems greater, if anything, than years ago.

From the start of this season he has had the Tigers among the league lead-

JAZZMANIA

If you have witnessed Mae Murray's recent photoplay, "Ponecreek Alley," "Enchantment" and "Broadway Rose," you will need no argument whatever to make you decide to see her latest, "Jazzmania." This new photoplay is by far the best she has done. In sumptuous backgrounds, in gorgeous costumes and feminine finery in romantic interest and in the spectacular appeal, "Jazzmania" is sure to be astounding. It gives the beautiful star the most wonderful opportunities of her career. Her acting at all times is as colorful as her personality. Please don't do yourself the injustice of missing this Metro photoplay, presented by Robert Z. Leonard, at the Orpheum theater today.

BANKS PAY PERKING POLICE TO FORESTALL WAGE STRIKE

PERKING, May 23 (AP)—To prevent a strike of metropolitan police, whose pay is five months in arrears, the native banks of the capital city authorized half a million dollars to a man to the ministry of finance which is said to have admitted its inability to hold out any hope of relief for the city guards.

Representatives of the banks, guilds and commercial institutions are attending a reorganization of the police force with a view to removing control from the central government and providing a more stable source of revenue for their pay.

DEATH SENTENCE STANDS

SALT LAKE, May 23 (AP)—The state board of pardons today denied the application for commutation of sentence of George Gardner, convicted slayer, who is under sentence to die at the penitentiary next Friday.

Petitions presented to the board by friends stated that he was mentally un sound when he shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Gordon Stewart at the Garden ranch house on April 15, 1922.

An eleventh hour appeal was expected to be made to Governor Mabey in Gardner's behalf tomorrow.

GERMANY FACES STORM CAUSED BY MARK'S FALL

Financial Circles in Berlin See Doom of Unit of Currency; Labor Indicates Coming Demand for Gold

BERLIN, May 23 (AP)—How long remains of Germany's shipwrecked mark can stand against the waves of depreciated money now pounding it, is the problem which today is giving more worry than ever to the navigators of German finance.

The growing opinion prevails in financial quarters that the mark is doomed to a more complete collapse in the wake of the record-breaking fall of the last few days. Yesterday for the first time its value dropped below that of the Polish currency and it took 105 German marks to buy 100 Polish marks.

Financial experts say it is but a matter of time, perhaps of days, when Germany's paper medium of exchange will have overtaken the discredited Austrian kronen.

Labor Grows Restive.

Rumbling indicative of demands by Germany's laborers that they be paid on the gold basis as had been the case in Austria in the past, the expressions of general pessimism attending the mark's new collapse. The newspaper, Vorwarts, comes out today with a strong warning of this prospect, and declaring that the workers cannot go on and on being made "the goats" of the situation.

ALLIES ANTICIPATE MOVE.

PARIS, May 23 (AP)—The rapid increase in the cost of living in the Ruhr district and anticipated further decrease in the value of the German mark may make necessary the issuance of the special currency which the allies have had in view for the Ruhr and Rhine-land, it was said at the foreign office today.

France and Belgium have agreed on the principal details at issue which can be put out at short notice if necessary.

The money will approach as near as possible the present German money, it was said, but whether the thaler or the mark will be the unit of value remains to be decided.

Leads Right-Seeing Party

To support his statements, Director Davis sent a group of his agents to Excess infamy in a fast motor boat to accompany a party of Detroit newspapersmen.

Two run-running boats were sighted on the river during the trip, which required two hours. One of the boats was a motor launch containing several cases of "goods." The other was a small motor craft and contained four small kegs, presumably of beer. Upon sighting the federal craft the run-runners, who were in midstream, turned back into Canadian waters and remained there, as federal authorities are unable to stop vessels except in American waters.

Americans Render Aid

Minister Schurman reports further that the safety and proper care of the captured foreigners is the subject of constant solicitude. The Shanghai American club, which has done splendid work in studying and organizing relief, Minister Schurman pledged $2,500 in gold yesterday from the United States government, in case it was needed for the purchase of food, bottled water, supplies, etc., and to be delivered for the captives. Minister Schurman also sent seven marine corps teams to the captives. Up to the present time it is the Americans who have furnished all the supplies to all the foreigners.

DIPLOMATS TAKE ACTION.

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Meagre official advisers, from whom they could get no information except that the Peking diplomatic corps, at the suggestion of Jacob Gould Schurman, the American minister, planned and an "international commission" to Taseo Chwang with instructions to investigate and report relative to the negotiations for the release of foreigners held captive by Chinese pirates.

An announcement issued by the state department gave no intimation that the American minister planned to deal with the bandits directly in the name of the governments represented, thus waiving the obligation of the Peking government to prepare the release of the prisoners. The function of the international commission apparently was confined to investigation.

Diplomats In Session.

Minister Schurman's brief message came after a silence of nearly 48 hours, which state department officials were at first to explain. Reference was made by him, however, to the report he had forwarded on a meeting of the Peking diplomats which began Monday. Such a message has not been received here and it is assumed that complete understanding of today's advice and of the specific purpose of the international commission plan depends upon the message cables sent to Washington.

In Washington diplomatic circles the decision of the Peking diplomats to send a commission to the scene of the negotiations with the condition as construed to mean that the situation had entered a new phase. This feeling was based on the belief that the project was a forerunner of late negotiations between the foreign officials and the original leaders, superseding the efforts of the Peking government.

Silence Brings Relief.

In one way, passage of the day without advice to indicate whether the bandits had made their threats to execute some of the prisoners if their demands were not complied with, by the Chinese government by Tuesday, caused relief. It was assumed that the deaths of the prisoners held captive would have come through promptly and it is believed now the bandits' threat was a ruse.

To diplomatic circles familiar with Chinese conditions and habits of thought, the opinion was expressed that the prisoners were in no immediate danger of death, whatever might be their sufferings from exposure, lack of food and unhealthy surroundings. Neither at the state department nor in Chinese circles had made any reference to the prisoners being held here, so far as known, and any information been received tending to substantiate an explanation of the outrage carried in report despatches from Peking which described the kidnapping of the foreigners as furtherance of their own political schemes.

It is thought possible by officials that the international commission mentioned by Minister Schurman may have been appointed to determine whether such a conspiracy exists. Pending additional advice plans for more aggressive measures in China are still held in abeyance.

MEMPHIS, May 23 (AP)—The controversy between Clarence Saunders, president of Piggly Wiggly Stores, Incorporated, and out-of-town members of the "pool" which was associated with him in recent dealings in the corporation's stock on the New York stock exchange, is approaching an amicable settlement, according to F. A. Berry of Nashville, representative of the Nashville interests, and understood to be spokesman for New Orleans Piggly Wiggly investors, who declared tonight that an agreement had virtually been reached on "the principle involved."

Love Triangle With No Sharp Edges

Helen Gladding and Roy Cummings

At Derby, Connecticut, two pretty women are trying to make one man happy. That man has been husband to one of the women and now is husband to the other. Roy Cummings, vaudeville headline, married Helen Gladding, his vaudeville partner, in Bridgeton, New Jersey, nine years ago. They separated, and, in 1919, Cummings permitted her to divorce him. "I gave her $1,025,000," he said. "Count it up—a $17,500 home in Freeport, Long Island, a $3,500 car, a $1,000,000 baby and a $100 dog." Also the court gave her alimony of $150 a week. Later, Cummings married Wife No. 2, Irene Shaw, who was playing with Fred Stone. They were married in Orange, New Jersey. All three met in swimming at Long Beach, New York. The two wives became very fond of each other, and now all three live together, sharing, they say, the love of God and man—and Cummings is saving $150 a week alimony, so Wife No. 2 can have a new sea skin coat this fall.

Blue and Bluing Monday.

Among the answers to the question, "Why is Monday wash day?" was this one: "Because Monday is the most miserable day of the week and washing is the most miserable thing in the world. As a result of his victory, General Ross and his family were allowed to describe themselves as of Bladensburg.

EYE KNOWLEDGE

Thomas A. Edison thinks that the children of today's children will get nearly all their school learning from moving pictures. Experiments with school children have convinced him that 85 per cent of all knowledge is received through the eye, and for this purpose the moving picture is 100 per cent efficient.

"I made one experiment," he says,
"with a lot of pictures to teach children chemistry. I got 12 children and asked them to write down what they had learned from the pictures. I was amazed that such a complicated subject was readily grasped by them to a large extent through pictures. The parts of the pictures they did not understand I did over and over again,
until they finally understood the entire picture."

Undoubtedly moving pictures are going to play a large part in education hereafter, but it may be that Mr.
Edison exaggerates the final value of this method. The eye, in human beings, learns more readily than the ear, but this is not necessarily so with everybody.

Systems of knowledge used to be taught and handed down, through many generations, by the spoken word alone. This was true of Homer's poems and other remarkable works later reduced to writing. Messengers in older times were trained to retain and repeat long messages without error. "Learning by heart" still occupies a very important place in schools.

Some people remember sounds better than pictures—spoken words better than printed or written words—though that is unusual.

Another factor Mr. Edison seems to overlook when he suggests that the movie screen will replace the blackboard. On the blackboard the child writes, and thereby learns through the hand as well as the eye, reinforcing his knowledge. Napoleon, when he met a person for the first time, would look at him, pronounce his name and write the name on a piece of paper and throw it away. Thus he never forgot people.

WHAT YOUR DOLLAR BUYS

Of every dollar spent by an American consumer, forty-nine cents represents the cost of selling and distribution; twenty cents go to the primary producer, seventeen cents to the manufacturer and fourteen cents for profit and return upon invested capital.
The figures, drawn from the Anderson report to Congress, have started a lot of argument and occasioned much complaint, chiefly among the consumers and the original producers.
But wait!

In this country forty-one million six hundred and fourteen thousand two hundred forty-eight people are engaged in gainful occupations, and of this number twenty-nine million five hundred seventy thousand eight hundred sixty-six—or seventy-one percent—are busied with manufacturing, transportation, distribution and allied activities. Under the circumstances it is easy to see why the primary producer, whether of food or fuel or any other commodity, gets so small a share of what the ultimate consumer pays.

There is a feeling general among farmers and consumers that too many individuals have interposed themselves between, and no doubt our marketing system might be greatly improved and simplified. Before we complain, however, we should remember that the grading and packing of foodstuffs, the manufacturing processes necessary before much of our fuel can be marketed,

and the transportation and distribution of every article we eat or wear or use are, in effect, essential parts in the process of production. The public has come to expect such a variety of goods and services that it employs more people in secondary than in primary processes. That is all.
And, of course, the processes must be paid for.

A TRIBUTE
(New Freedom.)

Southern Idaho has immense cause for rejoicing in the passage of the bond and contract which will insure the building of the great American Falls reservoir. When the Arrowrock dam was built and the Deer Flats became the home of Lake Lowell, impounding the water of fertility for thousands of acres we all rejoiced in the prosperity fore-shadowed.
In like manner the successful completion of the preliminary work which secures the building of the American Falls project is due to the untiring devotion, the skillful handling and the downright hard work of the secretary of the Idaho Reclamation association, Guy Plummer. While Mr. Plummer has the enthusiastic support of hundreds of residents of the State, as well as the moral support of all southern Idaho, yet to him belongs all the credit due to the general in command whose far-sighted plans alone made victory possible. Having to contend with selfish greed in some cases, apathy in others, with misunderstanding and lack of community interest, he patiently worked and argued and showed. With wonderful perseverance he managed to impart to many of his own enthusiasm into the people within the big district until, when the crucial test arrived, his work culminated in a wonderful vote in which the minority was only represented by a scant ten percent of the total vote cast.

Four or five years from now the units comprising that ten per cent will be thankful that they didn't have their own way in the matter.

ATTENDANTS at the Continental service
A stations are imbued with the spirit of courteous and prompt attention to every customer. Their job means something more than the sale of gasoline and lubricating oils—they want to be of assistance to you in every possible way.

A little more air in the tires, or water in the radiator; possibly the crankcase needs to be drained; you may want some road or route information, especially if you are not familiar with this part of the state. You will get any of these cheerfully and, of course, without charge.

Try the nearest Continental service station
the next time you need gasoline or oil. With a full line of dependable products and our constant efforts to extend and improve our facilities for service, we want to merit your patronage.

CONOCO The Balanced Gasoline
POLARINE The Perfect Motor Oil
GARGOYLE MOBILOILS

THE CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY
(A Colorado Corporation)

Marketing a complete line of high-grade
petroleum products in Colorado, Wyoming,
New Mexico, Utah, Idaho and Montana.

The Conoco Coupon Books. They are convenient and save you time and trouble making change. Good at all Continental Service Stations and accepted by dealers generally

Look at this oil range
that really burns gas

At your first trial of the Florence Oil Range you will be astonished by the intensity of the heat. What you see is a clean, blue flame that you can turn high or low. But what you are burning is really gas—oil gas—the vapor given off by heated kerosene.

To light it you just turn the heat regulator and touch a match to the burner. The burners are large,
the heat close to the cooking.
There is neither smoke nor odor—just heat.

Have you seen this modern range?

No words will convince you of the advantages of this most modern of cooking stoves the way five minutes'
examination of the range itself will. It is well worth a trip to the store or the nearest Florence dealer.
There you can light the stove and actually feel its efficiency.

Convenience and beauty are two of the qualities of the Florence Oil Range, but there is a third, equally important.

It is most economical
Kerosene is easy to get and much less costly than other fuels. Unlike a coal stove, you use the Florence
only when you need it for cooking.
Turn a lever and it is out.

Won't you drop in at a store
and look at this efficient, botherless, beautiful cook-stove? Test it for yourself and see whether it does not belong in your kitchen. The store will be glad to render you every courtesy.

The Light of Western Stars A Romance

By Zane Grey

A favorite lounging spot of Madeline's was a shaded nook under the lee of craning facing the east. Here in the shade of afternoon, she and Edith would often lounge under a low-branched tree...

"See here, Majesty Hammond, do you intend to spend the rest of your life in this wilderness?"

"I am convinced, Edith, that I shall live here all the rest of my life." "Oh, Majesty! I hate to preach this way."

"Majesty!" he exclaimed. There was amazed in the voice usually so even and well modulated—amazed in the handsome face usually so indifferent. Her question had startled him. She saw him look down at her gray eyes...

"Work, of course, has much to do with any one's happiness," replied Madeline. "No one can be happy who has no work." As regards myself—for the rest I can hardly tell you, I have never tried it in words. Frankly, I believe it had not had money that I could not have found such contentment here...

THE MARKETS

WHEAT PRICE FALLS BACK

Declines Result from Lack of Speculative Interest and Slowness of Export Demand

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Wheat declined in value today chiefly owing to lack of speculative interest and to the slowness of export demand. The market closed last night 1-1/4 net lower, with 1-1/2 cent change in 1-1/2 cent and September $1.15 3/8 to 1 1/2 1/2.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened the provision market. Considerable selling was done by the small packers.
