

STORMY DEBATE MEETS BRITAIN'S NEW MINISTRY

Premier Baldwin is Only Party Successful in Mollifying Opposition by Offer to Receive Claims from Deportees

LONDON, May 28 (AP)—The new government, completed by the appointment of Sir Warrington Fyfe as postmaster general, with a seat in the cabinet, started its active career today in an uneventful fashion.

Stanley Baldwin, the new prime minister, was elected leader of the conservatives in place of the retiring premier, Andrew Bonar Law, at a party meeting which was noteworthy for the absence of Lord Birkenhead and Austen Chamberlain, the latter of whom was evidently aggrieved at being ignored in the formation of the government.

The new premier and his ministers met parliament without ceremony. The customary speeches of eulogy and sympathy for the retiring premier and his welcome for the new head of the government were delivered briefly by the leaders of the various parties. Mr. Baldwin made no direct declaration of policy, except for the general statement that he would continue along the lines laid down by Mr. Law and by conservative tradition.

Speeds Up Proceedings.

The house of commons plunged forthwith into the debate on the second reading of the indemnity bill to protect Home Secretary Bridgeman from the penalties threatening him as a result of the appeal court's decision in the case of the Irish rebels. The government desires to secure the adoption of all stages of the bill in two days, and an all-night sitting is not improbable.

The opposition parties are putting up a bitter fight against the measure, and J. Ramsay MacDonald, the labor leader, opened the attack with a stirring speech in which he moved rejection of the bill. Premier Baldwin had attempted to mollify the house by announcing that the government had decided to receive claims from the deportees for their losses in consequence of arrest and deportation and appoint a committee of investigation.

Meets Bad Situation.

Thus the government at the threshold of its career meets the worst situation that it is likely to encounter during the present session of parliament. Premier Lloyd George, while expressing sympathy for Mr. Bridgeman who, he said, had acted illegally under bad advice, declared Premier Baldwin's offer to compensate the deportees "for their traveling expenses" was quite inadequate. The government, he contended, should frankly assume liability for the illegality of its action and pay like gentlemen.

CLARA PHILLIPS NEAR HOMETOWN

Los Angeles "Hammer Murderess," From Honduras, to Land at New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, May 28 (AP)—Clara Phillips, Los Angeles "hammer murderess," who escaped from jail after having been sentenced to serve ten years for the murder of Mrs. Albert Meadows, was expected to arrive in the Gulf waters of the United States Sunday today.

The Cushman Fruit Company's steamer Cuban, upon which the woman and her guard are passengers, was due at the mouth of the Mississippi river sometime after midnight from Puerto Cortes, Honduras, and was expected to dock here tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. While nothing was known here tonight of the plans of the officials, it was assumed they, with their prisoner, would leave for the Pacific coast at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning if the Cuban docks when scheduled.

The fight over her extradition from Honduras, which was effected in spite of a decree from the Honduran supreme court that she be set free, is said in Latin American circles here, to have resulted in a resurrection of political animosities in the Central American republic.

On one side, battling for the legality of the extradition was Under Sheriff Eugene Biscuit of Los Angeles, Frank M. Morley, American minister to Honduras, George Shaw, American consul, and Chief of Police Robert of Tegucigalpa.

On the other side was aligned a group of influential Hondurans opposed to the administration of President Gutierrez, and it is understood the incident has been seized as a weapon against the regime now in power, inasmuch as many Hondurans are reported to have felt that the woman was being persecuted.

Superintendent Mahoney of the New Orleans police, said tonight he would have a detail of police meet the boat on its arrival here and accompany Mrs. Phillips to the Parish prison here.

where she will remain until her departure for the Pacific coast. It was reported later tonight that the Cuban probably would cross the bar at the mouth of the river at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon ending a delay in the start of the homeward journey of Mrs. Phillips and her guard until 11 o'clock tomorrow night.

He asked the leaders to spend the next three days in concentration on the problems not yet settled, so that everything might be disposed of within a week, so the ensuing week could be devoted to drafting the final text of the treaty.

Ismet declared his conviction that the Near East conference could be completed within a fortnight.

DAYTON WELCOMES FLIERS

Kelley and MacReady Receive Ovation Upon Arrival in Ohio City Where Dinner in Their Honor is Spread

DAYTON, Ohio, May 28, (AP)—Lieutenants Oakley G. Kelley and John A. MacReady, on their return trip tonight were honored as guests at a banquet tendered by citizens of Dayton.

Flying the monoplane from San Diego to Washington in about 40 hours, the aviators landed here at 8:16 p. m. tonight, coming from Scott Field, Bellevue, Ill.

A few minutes after the landing the two officers walked into Memorial Hall and the crowd that had assembled to honor them and other fliers from McCook and Wilbur Wright fields, arose with a cheer.

All city offices were closed in Dayton this afternoon in honor of the fliers. Twenty-two aviators from McCook and Wilbur Wright fields took part during the afternoon in the greatest flying circus ever held over Dayton to celebrate the return of the two lieutenants. Racing, stunt flying and all kinds of stunts known to the air, were watched, although the men in whose honor the circus was given were miles away, piloting the monoplane toward Dayton from Scott field. Simon D. Pess, United States senator, and Roy G. Fitzgerald, congressman, were two of the speakers at the banquet.

FOUR ACCUSED OIL OPERATORS PLEAD GUILTY

"General" Robert A. Lee, Reputed Former Idaho State House Janitor, and Two Others-Elect to Stand Trial

FORT WORTH, Texas, May 28 (AP)—Four defendants in the "oil fraud" case, which started in the United States district court here, pleaded guilty when they were arraigned before the court and three pleaded not guilty. Those pleading guilty were Walter M. Gibson, Phillip Blaine, Milton H. Gibson; Nathan H. Lang, alias N. J. Lang, and M. J. Hirsch, alias M. H. Hirsch. The three defendants pleading not guilty were H. H. Scherwin, Charles Schwab and (General) Robert A. Lee. The defendants were connected with the General Lee oil interests. Judge Benjamin H. Blodgett announced when the Scherwin and (General) Robert A. Lee pleaded guilty that he would defer sentence until Friday morning.

Injects Ku Klux Klan. The trial of Scherwin, Schwarz and Lee was then commenced and selection of a jury to try the case began. Hardly had examination of the defendants been carried over to the defense when the Ku Klux Klan was injected into the case. The first question asked by W. H. McLaughlin, Jr., defense counsel, was "are you a member of the Ku Klux Klan?" It was directed at J. L. McDonald, who answered in the negative. McLaughlin went down the list of 28 veniremen, asking the same question. If he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Four veniremen answered in the affirmative. None of the men said that they were members of the Klan were drawn on the jury.

Recites Lee's Claims. The indictment, read by Judge Blodgett set forth that Scherwin, Schwarz and "General" Lee had conspired to defraud and had used their stated status in their schemes. It set forth the allegations that Scherwin and Schwarz sent out literature telling how "General Robert E. Lee gave his life to his country, that he set forth his life as a sacrifice to the oil business and to humanity," declaring that this was a part of their scheme to defraud.

GIRL SEEKS AMENDS FOR WRONGFUL ACCUSATION

Stella Larimore Would Obtain Punishment of Three Months' Imprisonment in Tollezen Divorce Action

NEW YORK, May 28 (AP)—Miss Stella Larimore, actress, through her attorney, announced today that she was not satisfied with the decision handed down today by Supreme Court Justice Lehman, vindicating her charges that she miscondacted herself with Len Tollezen, actor, while he was in Farrar, in her petition for a divorce from Tollezen. Those who made the charge should be punished, she said. It was upon the admission of Samuel Untermyer, Miss Farrar's attorney, that the allegations against Miss Larimore were untrue that Judge Lehman said he based his decision declaring that such abandonment represents a complete a vindication as could be obtained. Miss Larimore's attorney had sought a jury trial to clear his client but the court said it reasoned that since the charge was withdrawn, there was none to contest.

In a formal statement, Miss Larimore said: "This has ceased to be a personal fight—I have been fighting for a principle. This matter is by no means closed. I shall see it through to the end."

SHOSHONE LOSES THROUGH ERRORS

Twin Falls Wins Game From North Side Team, 11 to 3; Contest Loosely Played

Twin Falls won the second baseball game of the southern Idaho baseball league at Shoshone Sunday afternoon when it won from the Shoshone ball players by the score of 11 to 3. A timely hitting couple led erratic fielding gave the Twin Falls boys an easy victory, the result never being in doubt after the second inning. "Lefty" Oliver opened the game for the Whitlow clan, but after being nicked for a couple of markers in the fifth frame gave way to "Smiling" Dan Linville. Oliver got through the first four frames in neat fashion, but in the fifth he was nicked for a triple and a single, which netted the Shoshone team two runs, and Lefty went to the mound. Don Linville, making his first appearance in two years, took up Oliver's burden in the sixth and Pothie greeted him with a terrific smash to right field that went for three bases. Webster mopped up D. Linville's easy toss on Blonga's weak roller to the box, and Pothie scored. This ended the run making of the Shoshoneites, leaving the twirler left the home boys down in the next three innings, without a hit.

"Grandpa" Morton occupied the mound for the Shoshone team. His pitching was good enough to win the average game, but his support was decidedly off color at crucial moments. One of the hits registered off Morton would have been easy outs but for erratic fielding.

The first inning was a blank for both teams, but in the second inning the home boys scored three runs on two hits. Dingle was hit. Fix fanned, and Hulihay whiffed. Linville was safe when Christianman fuzled his easy roller, and Dingle, who had been out, scampared to third. Oliver sent a single to left field, and Dingle and Linville scored. Carlos made the journey from first base, and Oliver tied up at second base on the throw to Smith, sent one to Christianman to hot to handle and Oliver scored.

Three more were added in the fourth. Fix sent a high one to right center that Blonga misangled, the runner going for two bases. Hulihay singled to left, scoring Fix, and went to second when Hulihay fumbled the ball. Linville singled through the box, Hulihay trying up third, scoring a run. Infield scoring Hulihay. Smith sent a single to left, scoring Linville across with the third run. Webster, Mussell and Whitzel ended the inning by whiffing.

In the fifth Wilson was granted a life when Dingle missed his pop up. Piper batting for Hulihay, sent a long fly to third, and Hulihay taking it out. The next two men were easy outs, but Bhaer delivered a safe blow to left scoring Piper.

Twin Falls scored three more in the eighth. Hulihay sent a neat single to center, and went to third when Blonga let the ball get away from him. C. Linville doubled to right field scoring Hulihay. Oliver lined out to Piper, and Smith reported to Christianman. Webster singled infield, Mussell sent a double to deep left scoring Linville and Webster.

The last two runs of the game came in the ninth, when Twin Falls scored twice without the least sign of a hit. Dingle walked, but was forced at second by Fix. Hulihay was safe when Christianman fumbled his roller. Fix going to third, and Hulihay taking it out. On an attempted double steal, Whopping Cong. This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, cocaine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Colic Remedy. Most people know that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.—adv.

SWEELY WINS CHAMPIONSHIP FOR DOUBLES

Breaks 42 Out of 50 and Pulls Down Coveted Prize; Other Shooters Meet in Brilliant Competition

Everett M. Sweeley of Boise, won the state championship for doubles in the second day's shooting of the state tournament Monday, when he broke 42 out of 50 in this event. Although he has won this title several times in the singles, this is the first time the popular Idaho marksman ever took the title in the doubles. In the single target of 100 birds, the last 100 counting for the first leg of the 200 bird championship, which will be decided today, Skurman of Salt Lake, was high with 153 although his record does not count on the Idaho state championships. Seckel of Boise was the high Idaho man with 140, while Fowler and Anderson, both of Salt Lake, registered 138 and 147.

The final 100 birds for the state championship will be shot this morning starting at 9:30, after which the state handicap of 100 birds will take place. In the first 100 of the 100, which count for the state title, Seckel starts off today with a score of 91 out of the 100. Strickfaden, Twin Falls shooter, featured in this event, broke 91 out of the last 100, being Everett Sweeley. Strickfaden is a novice at trap shooting, this being his first season at the popular sport.

BANDIT LEADER ON WAY BACK TO FEDERAL PRISON

Roy Sherill, Kansas Outlaw and Reputed Leader of Denver Mint Robbers, Captured in Oklahoma Town

MALISTER, Okla., May 28 (AP)—Roy Sherill, Kansas bandit and train robber, is under arrest and will be returned to the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, from which he escaped June 22, 1921. Sherill today admitted his identity and confessed since his escape from Leavenworth he had been a professional baseball player with the East Coast league, and whiskey runner for a firm at Blue Island, Ill., a Chicago suburb.

TELLS OF DENVER ROBBERY.

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, May 28 (AP)—Roy E. Sherill, notorious bandit and escaped convict, reported apprehended at Malister, is believed by officials here to be the brains of the bandit gang which staged the daring robbery a few months ago of a federal reserve bank trunk in front of the government mint at Denver.

Sherill, according to prison officials, confessed when arrested by a posse following a train robbery June 10, 1918, that he and fellow robbers had admitted to money plans for robbery of the Denver mint. His statements at the time were regarded by officials as too fanciful to be believable. At the time of his arrest at Malister last Thursday Sherill is said to have given the name of Homer Johnson. His positive identification as Sherill was made through Bertillon measurements.

WOMEN VOTE TUESDAY TO BAR AUTOS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., May 28 (AP)—Undergraduates here voted today to bar automobiles from campus because of the cause of abolition of underclass automobile privileges at Stanford University if the plans of student leaders here meet success in the student body election May 29. A move started two years ago by student journalists to remove undergraduate privileges of car ownership and operation met with failure but a small group by persisting work has succeeded in putting the issue up to a student body vote with the assurance of support from unexpected quarters.

The present freshmen class, which is at a conference here today, has been most affected by the new ruling passes, has declared by class acclamation its intention to support the measure and to lend assistance in its enforcement next year. Meeting of honorary organizations and more influential groups on the campus are held daily to discuss the problem and to make recommendations to students in charge of local government. Group organization is being held by Press Club, a Stanford student journalism society headed by Harry J. Burba, former editor of the Daily Palo Alto and the Stanford Pictorial.

The campaign in the senior class is headed by Myron J. Reed, a member of the Stanford football squad and one of the six senior students who enforced the student government and honor system.

President Ray Lyman Wilbur has assured student leaders that if the campaign is successful the administration will make enforcement easy for the undergraduate authorities. Dr. Wilbur has for several years opposed the automobile as a "disintegrating factor in student life" to be removed so far as harmful effects are concerned only with liquor and gambling. He has, however, hoped that the car question would be settled by undergraduates, a hope which seems to have a fair chance of being fulfilled.

IDAHO STUDENT PLAYERS FORM OWN FRATERNITY

Michael Thometz, Twin Falls, One of Members Elected to New Organization on State University Campus

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, May 28—Under the name of "The Curtain," a dramatic fraternity has been formed at the University of Idaho by alumni and undergraduates who have formed certain requirements in their dramatic work. The name of the fraternity is not only significant because of its direct connotation of the theatre but it happened to be the name of one of the most famous of London playhouses during the time of William Shakespeare.

The purpose of the new group will be to further dramatic activities at the university, to make studies of acting, play-writing and play production, to establish and maintain on the campus a code of theatrical ethics, to encourage through alumni and active members the production of desirable amateur plays throughout the state, and eventually to make possible annual tours of the state by properly qualified University of Idaho players. Membership will be restricted to those taking active parts in dramatic work. "The Curtain" will sponsor an all-university play each spring and will also produce a number of shorter plays during each term.

Charter members are Rex Kimmel of Kisco, Fla.; Abe Goff of Walla Walla; Camille McDaniel of Moscow; Philip Buck of Moscow; C. K. Virginia of Boise; Bernard Skalko of Boise; Talbot L. Jennings of Nampa; Mrs. L. J. Schomover of Moscow; Glen H. Hyle of Kimberly; Boy McKinley of Boise; and Max Reed Sholes of Moscow. Members elected so far this year are Michael Thometz of Twin Falls, Helen Johnston of Boise, Fred Caroline Logan of Boise, Charles Brennan of San Francisco, Beth Collins of Boise.

Talbot Jennings is president, Camille McDaniel secretary-treasurer, and John "Bushman" Brierley of dramatics, advisor and director.

MAVORESS HAS WETS ON JUMP

SALT LAKE, May 28 (AP)—Mrs. Ethel Stoner, who has gained a reputation as a sailor of Cokesville, Wyo., was a recent Salt Lake visitor. Here she explained how she accomplished the task of transforming Cokesville from a "wild and woolly" place into a "Sunday school" town.

"My election a year ago was on a law enforcement ticket," she said, "and with the hearty cooperation of the members of the city council (two men and two women) I have tried to carry out that platform. We have fined drunks heavily and the 'wee's' say we have succeeded by persisting work has succeeded in putting the issue up to a student body vote with the assurance of support from unexpected quarters.

"One cannot do much in a year, but we have started to pull in the weeds and also greatly improved the water system of the town. The administration has been a success, I believe, judging from telegrams of congratulation we have received from all parts of the country."

Mrs. Stoner is a native of Bloomington, Bear Lake county, Idaho, and her husband is a sheepman and rancher.

In 1920 she represented the club women of Wyoming on a trip to the international convention of the Council of Women held in Christiania, Norway, and following the convention, toured Europe with 50 other women from America.

MURPHY SETS PACE IN SPEEDWAY AUTO TRIALS

Sends Car Around Indianapolis Track at Average of 104.05 Miles An Hour in Qualifying Run

INDIANAPOLIS, May 28 (AP)—Jimmy Murphy, winner of the last year's 500 mile automobile race, showed the greatest speed of 14 drivers who qualified their cars today to participate in the annual event here on Memorial Day. His time for 100 miles was 5:45:94, an average of 104.05 miles per hour.

Two other drivers to date have qualified their names for the race, which will begin at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Among those who successfully passed their trials today were three German car drivers—Christian Werner, Christian Lautenschlager and Karl Sailer. Other qualified drivers were Earl Cooper, Frank Elliott, Prince DeCoyson, of France; Cliff Durant, Joe Boyer and Ralph DePalma.

Murphy's performance in an 8-cylinder machine was the nearest approach to the record time of 108.2 miles per hour established last Saturday by Tommy Milton. Cliff Durant and DePalma were the only other drivers to haul their cars around the oval at a speed greater than 100 miles an hour.

NOTES OF SHOSHONE GAME.

Morton started the first inning by fanning three batters. Oliver opened by fanning three in the last half of the first.

Dingle's catch of Blouga's hot drive in the second inning was a neat piece of work. This Blouga is some swifter, and hits them on the nose.

Dingle received credit for a two base hit in the fifth, that should have been an easy out, when he popped a fly between short and left.

"Fix was robbed of a triple in the fifth, when Blouga nipped his hard drive to right center.

"Biner, Shoshone southpaw first baseman, made a beautiful catch of Hallahan's foul by the fence in the fifth.

Piper's swat off of Don Livville in the sixth was a night walk and went for three hits.

Hoola Livville forged into the lime-light in the fifth when he grabbed Christman's high foul near the grandstand.

Piper made a dandy catch of the Smith's line drive to the left field foul line, robbing the Twin Falls' center fielder of home run.

Morton, with the assistance of Empire Ellis, whiffed 13 men. Ellis' eyesight was slightly off, and Bob Whitzel was the goat, the Twin Falls manager being elied out on strikes four times during the game.

Bob Whitzel doubled up like a jack-knife in the ninth to grab Piper's drive before it hit the ground.

The game ended with a double play, in which ten participants had a wonderful time figuring what to do. Wilson opened the inning by staying at first by virtue of Dingle's error. Piper lined out to Whitzel. Morton hit one at Don Livville. Morton remained in the box after hitting the ball, while Don held out the ball as though it were a diamond ring. Whitzel, yelling like a wild

Indian, aroused Don from his slumber and the Empire King threw the ball to Dingle at second. In the meantime, Wilson refused to leave first, and as Dingle failed to see why he should have the ball, he like Livville, started to fumble the ball. More wild scrambling from Whitzel, and Dingle threw the double play to Webster, completing the foule play and ending the game.

The Screen

"OMAR THE TENTMAKER" IS MAMMOTH PICTURE

What is declared to be one of the finest of the season's cinema productions at the theatre is the new feature, "Omar the Tentmaker," a First National attraction. It is "Omar the Tentmaker," with Guy Bates Post in the titular role, and is an adaptation of Richard Walton Tully's stage play of the same name that served Post on the speaking stage for more than four years. It was directed by James Young and is a colorful story of Persia in the days when Omar Khayyam wrote the Rubaiyat.

"ABYSMAL BRUTE" IS DRAMATIC THRILL

Those who like a genuine dramatic thrill will find one of the year's best examples of a clean, rapid-fire story of the crime ring in "The Abysmal Brute," which opened its engagement at the Idaho theater last night.

POPULAR NOVEL SCREENED.

The late John Fox, Jr.'s novel, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," as pictured by Paramount, with Mary Miles Minter in the stellar role, will be seen at the Idaho theater next Wednesday and Thursday. The picture, directed by Charles Maigne, adheres closely to the story and in so doing loses none of the force and interest which made the book so popular. Antonio Moreno and Ernest Torrence are featured players.

* Chimneys an Old Institution.

It is said chimneys were first introduced into Great Britain in 1518, their use being confined to the kitchen and fire hall. They were in general use in domestic architecture in 1310. How far the Greeks and Romans were acquainted with chimneys as we now know them is a matter of dispute. An ancient mosaic found in Algeria, representing a Roman country house, shows chimney stacks projecting above the roof.

What is a 'Mara's Nest'?

Certainly "mara" in this case has nothing to do with the horse. It is a corruption of "mara," a mischievous demon who according to tradition, possessed a nest filled with wonderful jewels and gold.

A Doubtful Attitude.

"A man that keeps reminding anybody that they owe him gratitude," said Uncle Eben, "is liable to be 'bout as popular as an installment collector." —Washington Evening Star.

Thackeray and the Pantomime. It is recalled that William Makepeace Thackeray was a fervent admirer of pantomime, and he never missed viewing one if he could help it. He admitted, though, that "very few men could expect to see all the pantomimes of one season."

Heat Expansion. The bureau of mines says that when heating hot air furnace to a very high temperature the iron will not melt but it repeatedly heated to redness, the iron will "grow" get larger—and may break some other part of the furnace that has not "grown."

WHAT A HUNDRED MILES MEANS

Some people can negotiate one hundred miles in an automobile in three hours, others in less time, depending on the roads and the spirit of the driver.

But one hundred miles can mean a lot, even today, depending on the territory traversed and the objective of the mileage.

Apparently it is not such a cold and selfish world as some persons believe.

The Light of Western Stars A Romance By Zane Grey Illustrations by Irwin Myers

(Continued.) "They appear to be friendly enough," whispered Madeline. "Ambrose, tell me—explain to me—the real thing."

"Sure. Gene thinks they're after you ladies to carry you off. But Gene—Oh, Gene's some highfalutin' in his ideas little. Most of us boys think the guerrillas are out to rob—that's all."

Madeline could not distinguish his words, his gesture plainly indicated a question in regard to the rest of the camping party.

"They, cull," he called in loud voice, "ain't ye gadd to cough up a drink?"

"Haw, haw! I heard over in Rodes that ye was gittin' to be shore some for temperance," said this fellow. "I hate to drink water, but I guess I've gotter do it."

Stewart made an almost imperceptible motion as if to leap forward; but he checked the impulse. "Guess my party forgot that. You're welcome to it."

Like bees the guerrillas swarmed around the lucky finder of the bottles. The drink did not last long, and it served only to liberate the spirit of recklessness.

It was the demeanor of Stewart and his comrades that puzzled Madeline. Apparently they felt no anxiety or even particular interest.

those below to the cowboy crouching beside her. "The quality, the note of Ambrose's whisper had changed. It had a slight malignant stare; then he threw back his head, swept up the sombrero, and his evil smile showed gleaming teeth."

With magnificent bound Stewart was upon him. The guerrilla's cry was throttled in his throat. As the wrestling ensued, too swift to see clearly, then heavy, sodden blows, and Don Carlos was beaten to the ground.

Then the guerrillas wavered and broke and ran for their horses. Don Carlos rolled over, rose, and staggered away. The silence of those three men crouching like tigers about to leap was more menacing than the nerve-wracking yells.

"I know it," declared Ambrose. "Never seen a Greaser who could face a gun like that. He was some warm. And Monty Price never flashed a gun! He'll never get over that. I reckon, Miss Hammond, we're some lucky to avoid trouble."

"Because the guerrillas sure will get their nerve back, and come sneaking on our trail or try to head us off by ambush!" replied Ambrose. "That's their way. Otherwise three cowboys couldn't bluff a whole gang like that. Gene knows the nature of Greasers. They're white-livered. But I reckon we're in more danger now than before, unless we get a good start down the mountain. Hurry!"

Helen had slipped down from her vantage point, and therefore had not seen the last act in that little camp-drama. It seemed, however, that her desire for excitement was satisfied for her face was pale and she trembled when she asked if the guerrillas were gone.

Ambrose hurried the three women over the rough rocks, down the cliff. The cowboys below were saddling horses in haste. Swiftness, with regard only for life and limb, Madeline, Helen, and Christine were covered by horses, and half carried down to the level. By the time they were safe down the

Then the guerrillas wavered and broke and ran for their horses. Don Carlos rolled over, rose, and staggered away. The silence of those three men crouching like tigers about to leap was more menacing than the nerve-wracking yells.

"I know it," declared Ambrose. "Never seen a Greaser who could face a gun like that. He was some warm. And Monty Price never flashed a gun! He'll never get over that. I reckon, Miss Hammond, we're some lucky to avoid trouble."

"Because the guerrillas sure will get their nerve back, and come sneaking on our trail or try to head us off by ambush!" replied Ambrose. "That's their way. Otherwise three cowboys couldn't bluff a whole gang like that. Gene knows the nature of Greasers. They're white-livered. But I reckon we're in more danger now than before, unless we get a good start down the mountain. Hurry!"

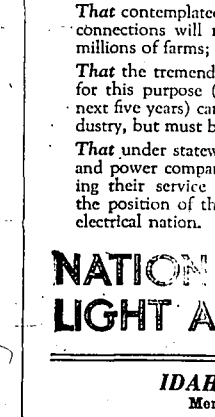

Helen had slipped down from her vantage point, and therefore had not seen the last act in that little camp-drama. It seemed, however, that her desire for excitement was satisfied for her face was pale and she trembled when she asked if the guerrillas were gone.

Stewart made an almost imperceptible motion as if to leap forward; but he checked the impulse. "Guess my party forgot that. You're welcome to it."

Like bees the guerrillas swarmed around the lucky finder of the bottles. The drink did not last long, and it served only to liberate the spirit of recklessness.

It was the demeanor of Stewart and his comrades that puzzled Madeline. Apparently they felt no anxiety or even particular interest.

other members of the party appeared on the cliff above. They were in excellent spirits, appearing to treat the matter as a huge joke.

Ambrose put Christine on a horse and rode away through the plain; Stewart led Madeline's horse up to her, helped her to mount, and spoke one stern word, "Wait!"

SPECIAL LEVY IS PROBLEM OF CITIZEN FINANCE

Voters May Be Asked for Authority to Use Part of $42,000 Surplus in Arranging 1923 Appropriations

Calling of a special meeting of Twin Falls voters to authorize expenditure by city of part of the $42,000 surplus as revenue was the principal theme of discussion at the meeting of the city commission Monday night.

The expenditure of the surplus was the subject of a special meeting called for Thursday night. The commission Monday night called the proposition of levying an additional five mills will be submitted to the people and if the proposition carries by a two-thirds vote of the city will thereby be authorized to spend approximately $25,000 out of the surplus, according to an interpretation made at the council meeting Monday night.

The early part of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the low water pressure prevailing at the county hospital, apparently, however, not of water from the hospital main by the water-works. It was shown that the pressure at times is so low as to endanger the proper management of the streets but to make operations impossible. The matter had been taken up with the owner of the waterworks but the results, apparently, have not been satisfactory. Action was postponed until the next meeting, when Mr. Lamborn, the owner of the waterworks, can appear before the commission.

Action on the part of the women of the Twin Falls Union Missionary societies to abolish Sunday baseball was also held over until the next meeting with a full attendance at the commission can be present. J. S. Keel being absent from the meeting Monday night.

The advisability of decorating the streets for Memorial Day was questioned by Commissioner S. S. All, who said the work would cost the city $50. Commissioner Dwight and Mayor Hugin favored the idea but the streets but no official action was taken.

A report on the specifications of local oil storage tanks as to their compliance with city ordinance was also questioned by Commissioner S. S. All, who said the work would cost the city $50. Commissioner Dwight and Mayor Hugin favored the idea but the streets but no official action was taken.

Children to Ride to Jobs in Field

Sugar Company to Have Stages on Hand to Transport the Youngsters to East End

Commencing Tuesday morning stages will be on hand at 8:00 o'clock at the Twin Falls Bank & Trust company corner to convey local boys and girls desiring work with the Amalgamated Sugar company to the beet fields in the east end of the county. It will be in accordance with the announcement of the company offering employment to boys and girls over 12 years of age.

"We will have reliable men in charge of the stages," it was announced, "so that no parent need have any hesitation in letting children go. They can bring their lunches along, go out to the fields at Kimberly and Hansen and leave there at 2 p. m. in the evening."

"In all the sugar beet sections I have been connected with the local people derive a great benefit from the work of spreading thinning and cutbeets in the spring and in harvesting in the fall. This year I have decided to give the boys and girls from 12 years of age up a chance to earn some money, and I think the people of Twin Falls may get more interested in the sugar beet industry."

"This work is not hard and each boy or girl can earn from $1.00 to $1.50 per day according to their efficiency. In this way a lot of money will be distributed in Twin Falls that would go to foreign labor. If the local people will co-operate with us it will not only relieve the farmers but will be a good thing for the children and the community."

RESERVOIR LAND TO BE ACQUIRED

Purchase of Property for the Right of Way Seen as Next Step by Big District

The purchase of property lying in the right of way at American Falls, and which will be submerged by the waters of the Snake river when the reservoir is completed, is seen as the next important step in the progress of the big irrigation project.

Matters concerning the contract with the government were disposed of at the meeting at American Falls last week of the board of directors and the advisory board, representing the various districts involved in the American Falls project, and the contract was signed by the secretary of the board in the hands of R. E. Shepherd, chairman of the board, who will take the contract to Washington to present it to the secretary of the interior. Mr. Shepherd was given a signed and sealed copy of a resolution passed by the board authorizing him to take such action as necessary in his conference with the secretary of the interior on behalf of the other members of the board. The contract was also stamped with the seal of the big district.

It is expected that Mr. Shepherd will be able to take up the matter at Washington this week and no difficulties are contemplated. If the negotiations with the secretary of the interior are successful and the contract signed by the government official the government appropriation will be placed at once toward the purchase of right of way toward the purchase of W. F. Alworth, secretary of the board.

At the meeting at American Falls the advisory board, which was formed several days ago, considered the various city options and approval of the estimated costs. Official record was also made of this action and forwarded to Washington.
