FAVOR PLAN TO SHORTEN HOURS IN IRON MILLS

Hope to Cut 12-Hour Shift Within Six Weeks, Gary Announces; Believe Others in Industry to Follow

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—Elihu H. Gary today made it plain that the United States Steel corporation, of which he is head, planned within six weeks to begin eliminating the 12-hour day in its plants.

It was reported in Wall street that the rest of the industry would follow suit and that the pledge made to President Harding concerning the much-attacked shift gradually would be redeemed.

It was under the date of June 27 that directors of the American Iron and Steel Institute wrote the president that they were "determined to exert every effort at our command" to obtain in the iron and steel industry of this country "a total abolition of the hour day at the earliest time practicable."

Gompers Skeptical.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and other labor leaders hit on the phrase "the earliest time practicable," and expressed their skepticism.

A little later Mr. Gary, in an interview declared that increasing labor supplied by the negroes of the south, Mexico, and China, and announced his belief that the initial step would be taken, but no time limit was mentioned.

Today, however, Mr. Gary declared that "we probably shall commence actively taking steps to reduce the number of 12-hour workers within the next six weeks."

No Sudden Change.

Declining to state the number of workers who would be affected in that period, Mr. Gary made it plain that a sudden and complete change is not to be expected.

"Plans are now being developed," he said, "which will require a considerable length of time to complete the change. If I said I was going around the world next week, what would it mean? It would mean that I was going to start around the world next week. The actual trip would take a much longer time."

TWO ARE KILLED WHEN TRAIN LEAVES RAILS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 14 (AP)—G. D. Stephenson of Denver and Mrs. E. P. Rosello, 40, of Limon, Colo., fireman, were instantly killed today when a Rock-Island engine, overturned on a curve between Haman and Simla, sides with the train, breaking the steam pipe connections.

The accident was one of the most baffling in many years of railroading. After having assisted a westbound passenger train to leave this city, the engine of Calahan, the engine men were backing up when the accident occurred. Trainmen say that in all probability the engine attained too great speed down the hill and got out of control.

Though the accident is believed to have occurred shortly after noon, it was not discovered until an hour later, when passing motorists and the railroad agent at Simla.

The heavy locomotive, according to word from Simla, turned over on its top when it passed the engine men, and smashed the cab to bits, breaking the steam pipe connections.

SHERIFF PUTS DEPUTIES AT SCENE OF KLAN MEET

SEATTLE, July 14 (AP)—Sheriff Matt Starwick took three deputies with him today at a picnic held by the Ku Klux Klan at Benton Junction, south of this city, lingered for a while looking in vain for anyone wearing a mask in violation of the state law, left the deputies on the lookout and returned home.

The sheriff, whose announcement that he would not permit masks to be worn at the picnic, resulted in a vain request by Luther I. Powell, king of the Klan in this area, to be permitted to wear a mask. Governor Hart sent troops to "protect" the picnicers in their regalia, declined a proposal to have his picture taken with the officers of the organization.

He also had conversations with German emigration authorities and officials of the American and German shipping lines.

Tomorrow Mr. Davis will proceed to Warsaw, thence he will go to Prague, Vienna, Rome and Naples. The purpose of his trip, he said, was to effect the administration of visas in such a way that emigrants actually granted visas to enter America in a certain month would surely be admitted and not crowded out by rivals who get ahead of them by waiting in Canada and other neighboring countries and making a rush to the United States.

STOP MARK QUOTATIONS

German Banks Refuse to Buy Foreign Notes or Checks; Condition of Confusion and Embarrassment Prevails

BERLIN, July 14 (AP)—For the first time since the mark's depreciation began, no official quotations on foreign currencies were announced today. This created confusion and embarrassment, not only for the speculators in dollars, who have always regarded the list of exchange rates as the outstanding news of the day, but also for business men and tourists, who subsequently found themselves unable to buy necessary amounts of German currency.

The banks refused to buy any foreign bank notes or checks even at yesterday's official rates at which the dollar stood at 187,000; they told their patrons that it was impossible for them to do so, because they could not get mark currency themselves and were not permitted to sell foreign monies.

CLAIM HYPNOTISM CAN BE USED IN OPERATING

Experiments Given by Magazine Firm Tend to Establish Theory Involving Use of the Wireless

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—An experiment designed to show that hypnotism can be practiced by radio and that the flow of blood in any part of the subject's body can be arrested, making a bloodless operation possible, was performed today before a group of news paper men in the office of a magazine concerning itself with scientific subjects.

Operating from a radio station in the Hippodrome section of Brooklyn the hypnotist focused his powers on a youth seated before the newspaper men.

Over the radio came the hypnotist's formula, ending "You are becoming rigid—quite rigid. You cannot resist. Go."

No physician was present, but a member of the magazine staff who said he had studied medicine, waved a match in front of the subject's eyes, insisting that he did not blink and therefore was completely under.

The youth was restored to normalcy and then put under again. His body was stretched across two chairs and the medical student sat on his stomach to see that he was rigid. The human seal held.

Then the youth was put under for the third time.

"I command the blood to leave your arm and flow into your body," came the order from the air. A needle was thrust into the flesh of the subject after it had been spiced with what the student said was an anesthetic.

No blood appeared.

OFFICERS TURN ATTENTION TO SALE OF CIDER

Federal Prohibition Department Watches Manufacture of Fruit Juices; Legal Opinion Is Prepared

WASHINGTON, July 14 (AP)—For the moment, prohibition officials have diverted some of their attention away from rum runners and wet Atlantic liners and are preparing to overtake the regulations relating to cider.

An announcement from the prohibition bureau today said that the fruit juice regulation now under revision and will be issued in the near future. Officials would add no details, but by way of preliminary advice the bureau gave out the substance of a legal opinion on a subject prepared by James G. Britt, its chief counsel.

The statement was in the form of a primer and was supposed to make perfect clear when, if ever, it is permissible to have on hand hard cider and why. It follows:

"The word 'cider' shall mean the pressed juice of whole fresh, sound fruit applied exclusively to apples, pears or foreign material and without regard to the fermentation or alcoholic content thereof unless otherwise indicated by the context.

Older Defined.

"Sweet cider" is the fresh juice obtained by the first pressing of cider as defined above in which acetic fermentation is prevented or materially retarded (1) by the addition of an antiseptic preservative of U. S. P. benzoate of soda in the proportion of not less than 4 to 4 1/2 avoirdupois ounces to each barrel of not exceeding five gallons capacity, or (2) by pasteurization, sterilization and impaling same in small, impervious, sterile, sealed containers, such as bottles or jugs.

The presence of 4 per cent of acetic acid will be considered as constituting the article "vinegar" and the presence of 4 1/2 such as 1-8 per cent of acetic acid will be considered as vinegar. Other acetic solutions of similar strength made from malt, etc., shall also be considered to be vinegar or vinegar stock.

Must Get Permit

"In order to manufacture commercially, a permit must be obtained and bond given in accordance with the customary regulations of the department. The production of vinegar, cider and fruit juices in the home is not controlled in the same manner. Permits are not required unless the cider or fruit juices are sold to vinegar manufacturers.

"Under section 29 of the act, cider may be produced for use in the home for culinary and other non-beverage purposes and may be obtained without permit unless it develops into vinegar or may be sold to vinegar manufacturers under permit as vinegar stock."

THANKS, NOT WHILE THAT EX BIG LEAGUE PITCHER IS OUT THERE IN FRONT

SIX CONVICTS SUCCESSFUL IN DARING ESCAPE

Inmates of Pennsylvania Prison Use Collapsible Ladder to Gain Freedom; Take Machine from Truck Driver

PHILADELPHIA, July 14 (AP)—Six convicts today made one of the most daring escapes in the history of the eastern state penitentiary and up to tonight had not been caught. Several hours after the escape, six men wearing prison garb rode into Ogden, Del., in a red motor car, held up a farmer and robbed him of $200 and a quantity of clothing.

With one exception, all the escaped prisoners were from Philadelphia. They were:

Louis A. Edwards of Reading, brought to the jail two weeks ago, after shooting a guard in the Reading jail.

Thomas J. Gillian, serving ten to fifteen years for conspiracy in the holding of a bank runner in December, 1921.

James Brown, known as the "hand-some burglar," serving 20 years.

James L. Malone, serving 18 months for highway robbery.

George Brown, serving five to twelve years for larceny.

James Williams said to have a police record for larceny and other crimes.

Plot Is Related.

Prisoners and guards at the prison told how the six had plotted their escape. Some of the prisoners were employed in the carpenter shop, and in the course of their work they made a cedar chest more than six feet long into which they smuggled a collapsible ladder that had been put together from time to time.

This chest evidently was locked, as its contents were never discovered.

When the appointed hour came, the chest was carried to the prison yard by the convicts. This they were able to do as they were members of the "police gang" whose duty it was to keep the prison clean.

While the ladder was being put to gether Charles Loomer, serving time for a $300,000 bank embezzlement in this city, passed by and tried to dissuade the men from escaping. He was backed against a wall at the point of a gun. Then a guard appeared and he was knocked out with the butt end of a pistol.

Overpower Guard.

All six prisoners climbed up the wall and another guard was encountered, overpowered and locked in the watchman's tower on the wall.

The prisoners dropped two ropes, the ends of which were fastened to the wall, and then slipped to the street. They tried to steal a closed automobile nearby but found it locked. A small motor truck came into view at that moment and the driver was forced to abandon it.

The convicts abandoned the machine and commiserated another half mile away. They were last seen crossing Girard avenue bridge in Fulmont park before they were reported in Delaware.

Louis Edwards, known also as Justice Edward Sanders, Arthur Stewart, Lawrence Clark and James West, has been arrested in a number of places, including Dayton, Ohio, Salt Lake and Washington.

McADOO IS WILLING TO -SEE FORD ENTER RACE

Former Treasury Secretary Says Presidential Contest Is the "Great American Free for All"

CHICAGO, July 14 (AP)—There is no reason why Henry Ford, Detroit manufacturer, should not enter the 1924 presidential race if he desires to be a candidate, according to William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, who passed through Chicago today on his way to New York.

"The present campaign is the great American free-for-all," McAdoo said, when a newspaper reporter asked him what he thought of Ford's chances. "I see no reason why he should not enter if he desires to be a candidate."

The former treasury secretary said that he had made no statement in Kansas City last night, as reported, that he had not decided whether he would seek the nomination for the presidency. He said that he had not discussed politics while in Kansas City.

"My trip is a luxurious one, and it is important to bring me clear across the continent in mid-summer," he said. "I am not discussing politics at all on this trip."

OFFER REWARD FOR CAPTAIN WHO ESCAPED PRISON

PREPARE REPLY ON REPARATIONS

Great Britain Ponders Over Means of Appraising German While St. Louis Takes Un-Financial Strength

LONDON, July 14 (AP)—Great Britain's reply to the German memorandum regarding reparations is being prepared by members of the cabinet and it is believed the complete draft will be finished by the latter part of next week. The reply, it is said, will be in expressions not to run counter to French sensibilities.

Premier Baldwin is expected either on Monday or Tuesday to reply in the affirmative to J. Ramsey MacDonald's query in the house of commons this week as to whether a copy of the reply will be communicated to the United States government. It is expected that Washington will be advised of the contents of the document at the same time as the allied powers.

The best manner in which to phrase Great Britain's acceptance of the plan for an international body of experts to appraise Germany's financial strength, as advanced originally by the American secretary of state, is giving the cabinet members a good deal of thought. They desire to find some way of overcoming France's contention that such an organization is not envisaged by the Versailles treaty and that therefore its decisions would be without judicial sanction. They probably will suggest the ideal that such a body could act as a subsidiary to the existing reparations commission and its findings and recommendations be morally, if not legally binding.

The cabinet also is canvassing the question as to how far it is expedient in the draft reply to touch upon Germany's passive resistance suspension of which France regards as indispensable to any negotiations.

Twin Falls News, July 10, 1908.

The opening of the Hansen town-site has been set for Wednesday, August 5, on which date the drawing will take place here. The Hansen town-site company is composed of E. L. Hollister, E. Peritz, S. T. Hamilton, William Foelt and W. H. Browning.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stalker are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter born Friday, July 3.

From the fanfare of trumpets which heralded the parade in the morning until the pop of the last fire cracker at night, the Fourth of July celebration in Twin Falls was a success. There were some burned fingers and the usual quota of kickers who expect a balloon ascension or an eruption of Mount Pelee every five minutes, but the celebration as a whole was entertaining and was well conducted.

The corner stone of the Lincoln school will be laid on Thursday afternoon July 16, with imposing ceremonies by the Masons, in which all secret orders have been invited to participate. The Masons will assemble at their hall and march to the school. Every business house in the city will be closed between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. The address will be delivered by Colonel Thomas R. Hamer.

The Twin Falls Music House is the name of the new piano house that has been opened on Main street just beyond the Idaho Department store. O. E. Carlson is the proprietor. Associated with Mr. Carlson is S. G. Hull of Omaha, Neb., an experienced piano tuner.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Craven and daughter spent the Fourth at Clear Lake.

"It was almost criminal—"

THE amount of good Conoco gasoline I was wasting until I discovered not long ago that what the carburetor needed was more air!

"Now I've got a lean, economical mixture and this little motor is spinning along in great shape. Not a bit of sacrifice on pep or power, either—while the merry mileage figures I'm reading on the speedometer are a great comfort to the pocketbook."

"The big point about this carburetor adjustment is that I don't have to tinker with it every time I start off on a long trip. In practically every town I've made this season I've seen the CONOCO sign—where I was sure of getting the same dependable gas that I started out with."

"Looks like I'm dodging a lot of the old carbon troubles, too."

THE GUMPS—A MIDSUMMER DAY DREAM

MAN AND WIFE ARE SENTENCED

Chicago Couple Must. Forfeit Lives for Death of Woman's First Husband

CHICAGO, July 14 (AP)—Mrs. Babelle Nitti Crudelle and her second husband, Peter Crudelle, were sentenced to be hanged October 12, by Judge Joseph David today. They were convicted a few days ago of the murder of Frank Nitti, Mrs. Crudelle's first husband, by beating him to death with a hammer while he slept at the time Crudelle was a boarder at the Nitti home.

Sentence was pronounced immediately after Judge David had denied a motion for a new trial. An effort was made to find an interpreter to translate the sentence into Italian for Mrs. Nitti, who understands little English, but none was found.

Mrs. Crudelle apparently understood something of the sentence, however. As she was led from the court room she shrieked, "They choke me!" and attempted to hurl herself down an elevator shaft, but was restrained by guards. This was the second suicide attempt the woman has made since her conviction, having attempted to end her life in her cell at the county jail immediately after learning the nature of the verdict.

Editor Sentenced to Serve Year in Jail on Contempt Charge is Released. Under Bonds Totaling $14,000.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 14 (AP)—Carl C. Magee, editor of the Albuquerque Tribune, whose editorial in this paper recently resulted in his being jailed in contempt of court at Las Vegas yesterday, will have an occasion to go to jail or to the penitentiary for several months unless he decides not to answer the cases to the supreme court, attorneys interested in the cases said today.

Magee, who was sentenced to 300 days in jail and fined seven cents, and who also is under sentence to the penitentiary for alleged libel, was at liberty today under $14,000 in bonds in the contempt case, signed by a number of prominent men, including Jose A. Brien, lieutenant governor, and Arthur Seligman, national democratic committeeman from New Mexico.

Because of the legal routine provided for in the statutes, it was pointed out today by attorneys that the appeal which Magee's attorneys notified the court would be taken, will not reach the supreme court for three or four months.

LOCALS READY FOR POCATELLO

Indications Point to One of the Best Games of the Season Here This Afternoon

Twin Falls fans will get their first glimpse at a foreign team this afternoon, when the fast Pocatello ball team clashes with the Twin Falls boys at Athletic park. Pocatello comes here with a record second to none in the state, and it is up to the Twin Falls lads to put the brakes on whether Twin Falls will be able to bring home the bacon remains to be seen, but if one is to judge by the way the locals have been going through their workouts, then Pocatello had better be on its toes all the time.

Ross Phillips is slated to start in the box for Pocatello, with Richard first string catcher for Notre Dame for three years, behind the bat. This battery has been the fear of every team in eastern Idaho, and Manager Singlerland expects much of these two men this afternoon.

The local management will in all probability start Fix in the box with Thomas or C. Livillo behind the bat. Fix has been working hard all week getting into condition, and reports that he is fit as a fiddle. This afternoon's game will start at three o'clock.

Delegates to Conference Appalled at Possibility of Failure in Peace Hopes

LAUSANNE, July 14 (AP)—The delegates to the Near East conference by private interviews are attempting to bridge the breach over concessions, for all are appalled by the possibility of peace failing after a half year of negotiations. The Turks, however, are increasingly sensitive over anything tending to limit their economic future and insist that the allies must abandon claims for preference in future reconstructions. Joseph G. Grew, representative of the United States, is also busily seeking to make the general treaty harmonize with the American conception of the open door and is trying to smooth away the difficulties with the Turks over the commercial features of the Turco-American treaty.

HAWAII SEEKS RECOGNITION AS TERRITORY

Campaign Being Waged by Governor Farrington to Obtain Rights to Benefits as Contained in Legislation

HONOLULU, July 14 (AP)—A concerted campaign to obtain recognition of Hawaii's status as a territory and its rights to the benefits and privileges enjoyed by states, as set forth in the measure adopted by the recent legislature which is known as "Hawaii's Bill of Rights," is being waged by Governor Walter D. Farrington and other territorial officials.

The territorial government is mailing to the governors of all the states and to each member of congress a copy of the "Bill of Rights," which was approved April 26. A letter requesting aid in obtaining the recognition sought accompanies each copy.

Reviews History.

The bill, containing 16 printed pages, reviews the history of Hawaii from 1853, when annexation to the United States was considered for the first time, until the present day.

"This declaration and its method of promulgation are extraordinary, unique in the history of legislation," the document says. "The reason for this procedure is that an extraordinary and critical situation exists in Hawaii—one unique in history."

"For a quarter of a century Hawaii has occupied the legal status of full and complete political independence in the United States as an integral part thereof, but a misunderstanding appears to exist in the congress and in some of the executive agencies of the federal government as to the status, which has at times resulted in the classification or treatment of Hawaii as if it were an 'insular possession' in a derogatory manner to the dignity of this territory."

Not "Property" of U. S.

The document declares that "Hawaii is in no sense the 'property' of the United States, inasmuch as Hawaii became a part of the union by voluntary agreement as an independent nation, having sovereign powers equal with those of the United States. By the manner of its entrance "Hawaii acquired certain inalienable rights, contractual, equitable and moral, to the maintenance of which the good faith of the United States is pledged," the measure asserts.

Complicating Miss Beatrice Ostrander, who is to be married in August, Mrs. George Enaley entertained Saturday evening for 24 guests at a bridge supper at the Hotel McQueen and her home on Eighth street. Covers were laid at the table charmingly decorated in a color scheme of yellow and pink. Shasta daisies and pink roses being used with beautiful effect. Mrs. E. B. Williams won the prize for high score in the card games, and Mrs. E. J. Ostrander received the consolation award. A most interesting feature of the affair was the kitchen shower for Miss Ostrander that came as a complete surprise to her. Gifts were both useful and novel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McMartin entertained at dinner Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scaver and Mr. and Mrs. Burton E. Morse. The centerpiece for the table was a silver basket of sweet peas, silver candlesticks holding pink candles were placed at either end of the table which was further adorned with pink nut cups.

The beautiful country home of Mrs. H. N. Champlin was the scene of a delightful social event Saturday morning when Mrs. Champlin and Mrs. Frank Hovorka entertained with a 10 o'clock waffle breakfast in honor of Miss Ellen Carlson, who is to be married this month to Mr. Murphy of Stillwater, Oklahoma. Pink sweet peas formed the centerpiece for the table, and a pink rosebud in a crystal vase stood at the four corners of the table. Covers were laid for ten and breakfast was served in three courses, between which Mrs. Carl Benson rendered several delightful piano solos. Following breakfast some time was spent with scissors and machine cutting out pictures which were pressed in a book to form a life story of the bride and groom. Needless to say this caused much merriment.

EVIDENCE CLOSES ABOUT WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER

Witnesses Secured by the State and Announcement is Made of Nearly Complete Case by Police Chief

LOS ANGELES, July 14 (AP)—Additional evidence tending to connect Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich with the slaying of her wealthy husband, Fred Oesterreich at their home here last August, was being sought tonight by police detectives, although Herman Glue, lieutenant in charge of the investigation, declared no case against her was "practically complete."

"So far as we are concerned," said Mr. Glue, "Mrs. Oesterreich's preliminary hearing could be held today. We have the evidence and we are ready. We expect the investigation now under way to produce additional information supplementing the evidence we already have; but we are not expecting any new angle to develop nor do we expect any further arrests."

Three witnesses were questioned at police headquarters today while Mrs. Oesterreich, who yesterday was formally charged with murder, conferred with her attorney at the county jail. Mr. Glue would not divulge the names of these witnesses, nor would he discuss the nature of their testimony except to say that they were entirely new witnesses and had never before been mentioned in connection with the case.

The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Oesterreich is scheduled to take place July 25.

CONFESSIONS OF WILBURN SOUGHT IN MURDER CASE

Attorneys for William Blizard Believe New Light May be Thrown by Statements of Prominent Witness

LEWISBURG, W. Va., July 14 (AP)—Attorneys for William Blizard today renewed their efforts to gain possession of the first confessions of the Rev. J. E. Wilburn and John Wilburn, two of the principal witnesses of the state in Blizard's trial on a charge of being an accessory to murder.

The defense contended that it was their belief that the original statements differed from the testimony the Wilburns gave on the stand, while Prosecutor Attorney J. M. Austin contended that there are two more cases to try after Blizard's, and that the defense had no right to examine the statements. Forest W. Brown, a Charleston attorney, before whom the first statements were made was brought here by a subpoena ordering him to produce the signed statements of the Wilburns which were left in charge of the prosecuting attorney pending Judge S. H. Sharp's decision.

Other witnesses called by the defense during the day corroborated testimony of previous witnesses that Blizard, during the period of the armed marches in the night, was active in discouraging the men who marched on Logan and Mingo counties. The state has contended that he was one of the leaders of the march.

A PICTURE'S A PICTURE

We are indebted to a Chicago film "fan" for this bit of humor. The Windy City fanfatic wrote Hope Hampton asking for one of her hand-colored autographed pictures. In the envelope containing the photograph requested was a brief typewritten letter signed by Miss Hampton stating that her latest picture, "The Light in the Dark," would soon be shown in Chicago and suggesting that she try and see it. Here's the answer from the Chicago miss:

"My dear Miss Hampton: "I received your photograph and think it is just too beautiful. "You spoke about a picture named "The Light in the Dark." I would appreciate it very much if you would send it to me. I love beautiful pictures."

"The Light in the Dark," which will be the first National attraction at the Orpheum Theatre Monday, is heralded as the finest dramatic production yet made by Miss Hampton. It was directed by Clarence Brown, having been adapted from William Dudley Pelley's novel, and prominent in the cast with the star are E. K. Lincoln, Lon Chaney and other celebrities of the film world.

FAHS SELECTED STORY

Let the fans select the stories upon which to base photographs. That is a plan which has already been put into effect by Hugo Ballin, since "I vote by picture" goes caused him to select "Vanity Fair," in which Mabel Ballin is starred as Becky Sharp, and which comes to the Idaho Theatre, for two days, beginning Monday. Now, a lady "fan" writes to Miss Ballin: "I would like to see you in 'St. Elmo,' 'Betulah,' and 'At the Mercy of Tiberius,' all by Augusta J. Evans and in 'Ann' and 'An Original Belle,' of which I have forgotten the author, of which I have forgotten the author. "I like your 'Directors' because he doesn't change the stories from the way they were written." Rather a large order.

Three musical comedy and vaudeville favorites whose combined performance follows number millions of persons throughout the country appear in support of Pauline Frederick in "The Glory of Clementina," her latest RC dramatic hit now being screened at the Balito Theatre. Louise Dresser, famous for her comedy roles in many musical shows and especially her brilliant characterizations in the "Potash and Perlmutter" productions; Truly Shattuck who made a national hit in the leading role of "Alma, Where do you live?" and Edward Martinello also have important parts.

AN ANSWER

A friend at Hanna writes The News for information as to the relative size of the Twin Falls and the American Falls Irrigation projects.

Because of the many fundamental points of difference the question is not an easy one. The dam itself, when completed, will be the largest irrigation dam in the world. It will be bigger than either the Roosevelt or the Elephant Butte irrigation works in America and will impound more water than either of the two largest irrigation reservoirs in the world, those on the Euphrates and in the valley of the Nile in Egypt.

The new land to be brought under water by means of the American Falls dam, is however, to date, comparatively small. Later, in all probability now land will be added until the area to be watered reaches enormous proportions. Including the new lands which will be watered and those lands in existing projects which will receive a supplementary supply, the American Falls project will of course distribute an amount of water far greater than that distributed by any single irrigation system in Idaho if not in the entire country.

In a general way, this is the answer. But the American Falls project is hardly comparable to the Twin Falls project for the reason that the dam at Milner is designed to supply in its entirety irrigation for two projects, the Twin Falls North and South Slides, while that at American Falls will serve a number of projects, including these two, not with all the water they require but with whatever they may need over and above what they already have.

NEITHER BOOM NOR GLOOM

M. L. Jenks, a New York financier, after surveying business conditions around the country, went back home and reported that he found "no reason for either boom or gloom."

In the Middle West, which he observed particularly, he found that bankers, merchants, manufacturers and farmers could not understand at all the pessimism which has been gathering in the financial district of New York in recent weeks.

American industry, he reports, is "basically in a healthy condition," and "any uncertainty which exists is due to caution in not overstimulating production. There seems to be no danger of such a condition, and there is certainly no indication as yet of any buyers' strike."

This is true of the country as a whole, and of almost every section. The American people not only do not understand the recent gloom of Wall and Broad Streets, but are very little interested in it. The New York financial district is no longer a supreme power or a trustworthy index in American business. The country, regardless of gyrations there, goes about at present, without boom or gloom, keeping the safe middle of the long wide road of rational prosperity.

GROUND FOR OPTIMISM SEEN BY STATISTICIAN

Roger Babson Shows Opportunity for Beneficial Effects Lying in Decisions of the Supreme Court

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., July 14. (Special to The News)—By many people will be heard with the second half of the area of business readjustment in being completed, that it is well to stop here in a while and consider some of the optimistic features of the situation. There is much good news constantly coming out: The great improvement in the condition of the railroad, the corrective attitude on the part of labor; and the late developments in the foreign situation are all optimistic factors. One optimistic feature that we do not hear much about, however, is the present attitude of the United States supreme court. It is difficult for the statistician to measure court decisions," says Roger W. Babson, "and if he did it too often, contempt of court proceedings might follow. Nevertheless, these court decisions are a great factor in business, and could probably be reduced to a statistical analysis. I have special reference to three recent decisions of the United States supreme court.

Investors Cheerful Up. "The decision in connection with the Southwestern Telephone company was exceedingly cheering to investors. This decision clearly ruled that neither legislatures nor commissions can make rates that are confiscatory in any way. The court indicated that the cost of reproduction must be considered, as well as original cost, and that investors must be treated fairly as to encourage them rather than discourage them. This decision has been welcomed by all interests, especially the public utility group. It should make more safe telephone securities, electric light and power securities, and street railway securities. This does not mean that the supreme court upholds dishonesty or stock watering, but it does mean that it will protect capital when politicians, for selfish motives, attempt to jeopardize it. Furthermore, this decision will encourage corporations to appeal to the courts more and bother with congress and legislatures less during the next few years than they have heretofore.

Only Emergency Measure.

"The second decision which interests business men was taken when the United States supreme court held that the Kansas Industrial court can fix or regulate wages only in a great emergency. Briefly, this decision was that in the case of a railroad or coal strike, where the public is threatened with starvation or disaster, an industrial court can come in and fix wages, but only in such instances. The special case was one involving the Charles Wolf Packing company. The United States supreme court held that it was not necessary for this packing company to do business. There were other companies from which goods could be purchased, and as a last resort people could temporarily go without their products for a while if necessary. As most of the states of the country were eagerly awaiting this decision, the ambitions of many political leaders was naturally greatly curbed thereby. There will be fewer attempts during the next few years to interfere with business by legislation than there would have been if the United States supreme court had upheld the Kansas industrial court.

Protects Private Business.

"The third epoch making decision of the United States supreme court was to the effect that the federal trade commission can not interfere in the rights of private business or in the matter of fixing prices. For some time, certain great national advertisers have been in conflict with the federal trade commission concerning prices on nationally advertised goods. Some chain store retailers have been selling certain nationally advertised goods at or below cost in order to get people into the store and sell them something else. The national advertisers have claimed that this is not only unfair to the manufacturer, but also to the public, and have insisted that their prices be upheld by all retailers. The federal trade commission has taken the part of the chain stores and those who want to cut prices. The supreme court has upheld the national advertisers. The case in question was brought by the Mennen company, large distributors of toilet articles. Some may think that this decision is against the public interest, but I seriously doubt it. Public interest demands good business, which will keep the people employed and goods moving. Prices never long remain too high because high prices always either encourage competition or else check buying. Statistics show that business has been harmed more by price cutting than by price fixing. If prices are too high they correct themselves. Price cutting, however, kills the goose that lays the golden egg.

Business Still Fair.

"Business continues fair," concluded Mr. Babson. "The Babson chart stands at 1 per cent above normal. The intricate area of prosperity which threatened to develop into a period of inflation has been checked. We have now started in again to complete the period of readjustment. This is not bad news, but really good news looking at the long point of view. Before a man starts out expanding he should first pay up his bills. The same rule applies to a nation. This is the conclusion which the United States has at last reached. For one, I am very glad of it." (All publication rights, strictly reserved.)

NOTICE TO WATER USERS.

Beginning Monday, July 15, water users living on the odd side of the street shall use water for the sprinkling of lawns, etc., on the odd days of the month; those on the even side of the street on the even days of the month. S. S. Allen, Commissioner.
