JAPS ATTRIBUTE CAUSE OF QUAKE TO SEA MONSTER

Superstition Plays Part in Theories of Orientals; Disaster Is Worst in History of Occident

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 5 (AP)—According to the Rev. Dr. H. H. Gowen, professor of oriental history in the University of Washington, many Japanese attribute the earthquake, to the writhings of a "shishu" or earthquake fish, a sea monster living underground with its head in the north, whose rumblings are comparatively rare, and its tail between Kyoto and Tokio, where the temblors center.

The written annals of Japan began in 645 A. D., related Dr. Gowen, and tradition tells of two earthquakes prior to that time, in 416 A. D., and one, particularly destructive, in 590 A. D. In the period covered by writing he listed the following important disasters:

1185: A great earthquake in Kyoto attributed to the defeat and slaughter of the Taira clan. The surface of the earth was quivering for weeks.

1213: Great earthquake, 25,000 killed in Kamakura.

1590: Two great earthquakes, August 30 and Sept. 4, across the main island. Osaka castle badly damaged. Kyoto very badly damaged. Temples and houses throughout the city fell in a moment. Seven hundred ladies of the imperial court were killed.

1662: Earthquakes shook Japan for an entire month. They were attributed to lack of virtue on the part of the emperor, whose abdication was forced.

1703: Great earthquake followed in 1707 to the great earthquake of Fujiyama. Yedo castle almost destroyed and 37,000 lives lost in Yedo. A tidal wave swept away 100,000 people in three districts.

1854: Earthquake and tidal wave destroyed Shimoda. The Russian freighter "Adana" lost.

1865: Tokio wrecked by earthquake and fire. 103,000 people perished.

1891: Earthquake over considerable of main island, especially severe in the neighborhood of Yipi.

1893: Earthquake had eruption in Kiyoshi, Kagoshima, almost buried in ashes.

MARINE UNDERWRITERS HARD HIT BY DISASTER

All Available Adjusters of American Companies and Those of China to Begin Work of Estimating Damage

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Marine underwriters here have had their hardest hit by the Japanese disaster, it was learned today at a special meeting called by the Board of Underwriters of New York, which embraces marine insurance companies. All available adjusters of the American companies, as well as those of China will be sent at once to the devastated area to calculate the extent of claims, as soon as detailed reports of the disaster have been received.

Fire insurance companies will not be seriously affected, according to Howard P. Moore, general manager of the American Foreign Insurance Association, which embraces sixteen fire insurance companies, two of which are in Japan. The immunity from loss is due, he said, to a protection clause in all Japanese insurance policies eliminating liability for fire caused by earthquakes.

PEKING, Sept. 5 (AP)—The American legation here received its first dispatch from Japan Tuesday from United States Consul Edw. R. Dickover of Kobe. Consul Dickover stated that Nogoya consulate was believed to be safe and that it was sending a vice consul on a relief ship to Yokohama Wednesday and expected to have some authentic news of the quake in a day or two.

Dispatches from Shang Hai stated that Consul General George N. Johnson, Consul General Edwin S. Cunningham and Vice Consul John T. Wright were leaving immediately for Japan.

Re-Writes Bible in Vernacular

Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed

Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed of Chicago, has rewritten the New Testament in modern vernacular, setting aside out-of-date language that was used in the St. James version and doing away with the complicated writing of the earlier versions. In this version characters speak like everyday moderns. Women buy pounds of things with dollars and cents, and grain comes in bushel baskets. Children start life by being born instead of being "begot." The work has created much comment.

BUY LUMBER TO REBUILD JAPAN

Cable Orders Received at San Francisco for 500,000,000 Feet of Material

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Cable orders from Kobe, Japan, for approximately 500,000,000 feet of lumber for use in the rebuilding of Yokohama, Tokio and other Japanese cities, laid waste by earthquake and fire, were received here today, according to statements made by representatives of steamship companies and northern Pacific mills.

Orders from Japan for Douglas fir and cedar logs brought demands to the Robert Dollar company and North Pacific mills for more than half a billion feet alone, it was stated here tonight.

This new demand comes at a time when the world lumber demands were slackening, and the sharp rise in the price of Pacific lumber will follow the huge demand, it was predicted.

Japan's lumber orders, shipping men stated, will size the capacity of all available freighters on the Pacific. Every available freight steamer on the Pacific will be pressed into service to handle the lumber traffic, it was asserted.

Alone on Battered Sloop, Frenchman Refuses Assistance

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Eighty-four days out of Gibraltar, alone in a battered 35-foot sloop in heavy seas about 200 miles off Nantucket light, F. Gerbault, a French seaman, on Wednesday refused a tow by the Greek liner Bryon, Captain Vlahis, related today on arrival from Greek ports.

Gerbault was seen standing clad only in underwear despite bitter cold and freezing seas on the deck of his dilapidated craft, waving his arms furiously and shouting in French.

After explaining that he was crossing the ocean on a bet, bound for New York, and two other schooners which had left Gibraltar with him had disappeared, the hardy Frenchman asked that his empty water kegs and food bins be filled, took his bearings and went on his way.

FOOD PROBLEM IS SEVERE IN JAPAN CITIES

Flames Gotten Under Control; Communication Is Still Difficult; Hospitals Crushed by Tremors

TOKIO, Sept. 5 (AP)—After another night of terror, the flames which followed the temblors were brought under control at noon Monday. The food problem here and throughout other parts of Japan is most serious, owing to the destruction of great stores of rice. The people, however, seem to be undergoing their ordeal with great patience, adding one another wherever it is possible. The military has taken charge and evidences are increasing of the perfection of its organization.

The navy is co-operating in the shipment of supplies to Yokohama and other devastated areas.

It is reported that Yokohama has been wiped out. The Grand hotel collapsed.

Up to date there has been no communication established with Osaka or Nagao. Tokio virtually is cut off from the south. There are no rail ways operating and no lights.

It was estimated today that the casualties probably will approximate 50,000. A number of hospitals, including St. Luke's and the International, were destroyed. There were no casualties in the latter.

EIGHT HUNDRED BURNED

SHANG HAI, Sept. 5 (AP)—An Eastern News Agency report from Harzomachi today said 800 patients in the imperial university hospital at Tokio were burned to death and that the imperial palace had been opened to refugees.

The report said that some large buildings had escaped damage, including the department of justice, navy, supreme court and House of representatives buildings and the Tokio prefectural office and the imperial hotel. The buildings reported totally destroyed include the Bank of Japan, the Mitsui bank, the Yasuda bank and the Third bank.

Princesses Nagato Kuni and Hiroko Kazin and Prince Kazin are reported safe.

FORGIGNERS GATHER

TOKIO, Sept. 5 (AP)—The earthquake left great gaps in pavements and wrecked most of the buildings. Fire which started in numerous places at once completed the destruction. The American and British residents of Yokohama who escaped the disaster are gathering the bodies of foreign victims for burial at sea.

The remnants of the Chinese population of the ruined city are gathered under the bluffs, without food and shelter. Their condition is pitiable. As far as is known now only one American lost his life in Tokio. He was W. T. Blume of the General Electric company, who was killed in the collapse of the company's building.

Americans who lost their lives in Yokohama include Captain MacDonald of the Grand hotel, a Mrs. Box and son, recent arrivals, and Max D. Kirjasoff, American consul.

VOLCANO STILL ACTIVE

HILLO, H. I., Sept. 5 (AP)—The Kiluaea volcano resumed activity today with molten lava bursting forth with loud reports, according to a message received here late today from Thomas Boles, superintendent of the Kiluaea national park. The lava, according to the message, was hurled from 100 to 150 feet in the air, and streamed down the sides of the volcano.

AMERICANS KILLED

NAGASAKI, Sept. 5 (AP)—It is stated that the American military attaché and 35 other persons were killed in the derailment of a train between Horatsuka and Oiso during the earthquake. The secretary of the German embassy also was killed.

It is reported that a passenger train near Atami on Saturday noon was hurled into the sea and 300 persons were drowned. Thirty of the passengers swam ashore.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Lieutenant Colonel Clunio Burnett has been stationed at the American embassy as military attaché since 1919. He was appointed to the United States military academy from Illinois and was graduated in 1901. He served with the thirtieth division in France.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—The state department tonight received a radio message from Kobe, saying that Yokohama had been completely destroyed. That the United States naval hospital there had been destroyed and that Chief Pharmacist L. Zembach and his wife and two enlisted men had been killed. Dr. U. R. Webb, in command of the hospital was "badly injured," the message added.

She is making the trip in a special car tendered her by an old friend of the family, E. M. Costin, general manager of the New York Central lines.

Since leaving the White House two weeks ago Mrs. Harding has been living at Friendship, the country home near Washington of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean.

WILLS TRIES TO PUT DAMPER ON DEMPSEY SCRAP

Obtains Order for Rickard to Show Cause Why Match with Firpo September 14 Should Not Be Cancelled

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Paddy Mullins, manager for Harry Wills, heavyweight boxing championship aspirant, obtained an order in Brooklyn supreme court today directing Tex Rickard to show cause why he should not be issued restraining order to prevent the Dempsey-Firpo fight September 14.

In his argument for the order Mullins said that if the fight between Dempsey and Firpo takes place as scheduled, Wills will be champion, unless the New York Athletic Commission, because of Dempsey's failure to meet him. He said Wills was the logical opponent of Dempsey because he had $2500 forfeit money posted for more than a year.

Tex Rickard when informed that Mullins had obtained an order to show cause, said the news meant nothing to him.

"If he had any legal means to stop the fight he would have done it long ago," he said. "But Mullins has no contract for Wills to fight Dempsey and no right to one. He had a chance to sign a contract to fight Firpo, and he still has, any time he wants to come and sign."

JACK DISPLAYS GREATER SPEED

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 5 (AP)—Displaying astonishing speed and ring cunning, Jack Dempsey today started his final week of training in preparation for the defense of his title against Luis Angel Firpo. He engaged in six rounds of boxing, in addition to tugging at the chest weights, shadow boxing, and peppering the punching bags for four rounds.

The champion, refreshed from his lay-off yesterday, was eager for work and his trio of sparring partners suffered a severe pummeling. Dempsey mixed speed with defensive stepping around his opponents with the pace with characteristic aggressiveness. When he finished the ten rounds without being disrupted, with perspiration, but breathing normally, indicating his wind is perfect. Farmer Lodge, the 235 pound Minnesota, who faced Dempsey for the first time, was the brunt of the champion's attack.

SCORE DOUBLE KNOCKOUT IN FLYWEIGHT CONTEST

Milgrets, Fighting in Drizzling Rain, Put K. O. to Each Other when Blows Land Simultaneously

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 5 (AP)—Boxing in a drizzling rain, an open air arena Tuesday night, a double knockout was registered by Gene Larue, Canadian flyweight champion, and Kid Pacho, claimant of the southern flyweight title, in the fourth round of a scheduled 12-round bout. With the ring drenched with a steady down-pour, both came from their respective corners and simultaneously hit each other with terrific punches. Larue landing a left to the jaw, while Pacho landed a right to the chin. The impact of the blows caused each man to fall face downward and both were counted out. On gaining consciousness, Larue, in delirium, struck the referee and everyone who attempted to check him from attacking the unconscious Pacho. Both had scored a knockdown in the previous rounds.

Luis All Swelled Up When Told of Alleged Ancestry

Angel Hears He Is Direct Descendant of Nobility; Slams into Sparring Mates

ATLANTA CITY, N. J., Sept. 5 (AP)—Luis Firpo is a direct descendant of the Italian nobility of the twelfth century.

Shortly before he went to the dog park this afternoon for a sparring session, in which he all but knocked out three of his helpmates, Luis Angel received an official looking sheepskin decorated with gold seals, a coat of arms and Latin writing.

There is some Latin below the shield telling about nobility and the family Firpo and then in the history of the family it is said that the Firpos as far back as known were of the highest caste, owned castles and were invincible warriors.

Luis Angel was right proud of the sheepskin, and his barrel like chest swelled a little as he exhibited it. At the dog park Firpo sparred six rounds with Joe McCain, Frank Korbis and Natalio Pera. Jeff Clarke, the Joplin ghost, took an afternoon off.

After the workout Luis' trainers announced that the Argentinian would rest tomorrow. His sparring corps is all tired out and sore of body and jaw and Luis through that they should be shown some mercy.

DUNDEE LOSER IN SCRAP WITH STATE COMMISSION

Featherweight Protests Vigorously Against Postponement of Leonard Battle; Has No Success

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Johnny Dundee, featherweight champion and lightweight title aspirant, fought and lost one battle today, but it was not with Benny Leonard.

Before a special meeting of the New York state athletic commission this afternoon Dundee protested vigorously against the postponement by promoter Jimmy Johnston of the Italian's scheduled match tonight at the Yankee stadium with the lightweight champion, but after hearing all the evidence the boxing solons mentioned the postponement.

The commission ruled that Johnston was within his rights in taking advantage of a clause in the fight contract permitting its abrogation in the event either of the principals was defeated in any other engagement before the title match. Dundee recently was defeated in a bout with Eddie (Kid) Wagner in Philadelphia.

Dundee's attitude, meanwhile, may result in abandonment of the match altogether. After Johnston's proposal to stage the bout at the stadium on September 28, Dundee told the commission he would give his answer on Friday.

THE GUMPS—A WORD TO THE WISE

CONFERENCE ON MINE WALKOUT SHOWS CHANGE

Employers Abandon Demand for Arbitration; Union Officials Accept Wage Increase Compromise Scheme

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 5 (AP)—Representatives of anthracite mine operators and officers of the miners' union today agreed in conference with Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania to their terms in a position which they have retained in suspension of mining. The employers' group tentatively abandoned its demand for arbitration which the union has unyieldingly opposed.

Miners union officials definitely accepted the ten per cent wage increase which Governor Pinchot tendered in an effort to compromise the dispute, but asked more than that amount for day laborers employed in and around the mines. They did, however, agree to modify the demand for a "check-off" of union dues, by limiting the amount which could be collected by it from individual miners.

Both the employers' group and the union committee, which met with Governor Pinchot in executive sessions, rejected their alterations of original stands as concessions. The governor, while keeping his feet on the ground involved, said that "progress had been made," and that the statements had been exchanged by him between the parties concerned. The conference adjourned until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Though the employers agreed to drop, for the time being, the demand for arbitration and to make a "check-off" of union dues, and working conditions, they were said to be entirely unwilling to grant more than a ten per cent wage increase. The governor, while keeping his feet on the ground involved, said that "progress had been made," and that the statements had been exchanged by him between the parties concerned. The conference adjourned until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

REFUGEES STRUGGLING

within these sections to live safely from the fire. For two days the fires of Tokio raged, destroying possibly 200,000 houses and property, the value of which cannot be estimated, cremating the bodies of many of the dead and probably ending the sufferings of scores of injured. The cause of the fire, the very great estimates at present vary from 50,000 upwards in Tokio alone. How many were killed in the outlying districts is not known, but the cause for a long time Tokio was cut off from communication with the outside world.

Immense difficulties are being encountered in forwarding the Japanese great disaster to the countries of the world. Couriers have been sent out with special press dispatches; the Japanese naval press is being utilized and details have been forwarded by airplane to Nagoya and thence to Iwaki, about 150 miles from Tokio, for transmission abroad. The foregoing details received from the Japanese capital since Saturday when the earthquake occurred. Tokio was for a considerable time shut off from all communication with the outside world, and couriers bearing dispatches were sent out, for the nearest radio stations which had escaped destruction and messenger dispatches which details began to filter through from points such as Osaka, which lay outside the zone of destruction.

TOKIO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Yokohama is a channel house; canals and water front are filled with dead and stench from decomposing bodies is unbearable, according to refugees arriving from the stricken city today. It is estimated that more than 200 foreigners lost their lives there. Most of the dead and injured among the Yokohama foreigners were those who were caught by the earthquake and fire while shopping in the downtown district. Thousands of the terror-stricken natives drowned in the canals when seeking safety from the raging inferno which followed the temblor.

CLEVELAND PEOPLE REPORTED KILLED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Consul Dickover, at Kobe, reported to the state department in a message received tonight that Bess and Richard Mendell, of Cleveland, and Elizabeth Dodson of Kingston, N. C. were among the Americans killed in the Japanese earthquake. Dickover said that several, in addition to those whose names already have been reported as dead, were believed to have been killed. A further list of casualties, he said, would be wired later.

RELIEF DRIVE GETS WELL UNDER WAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Marshaling of the nation's forces for the relief of Japanese earthquake sufferers is progressing rapidly. A further list of casualties, he said, would be wired later. Principal relief developments of the day were:

Placing at the disposal of the Red Cross by the shipping board of approximately 320,000 tons of shipping the board has in the Pacific for transportation of the supplies. Goal is $5,000,000. Generous and quick response to the national appeal for a $5,000,000 fund to be administered by the Red Cross for sufferers.

Actual undertaking of practical relief measures by the Red Cross by ordering the purchase of food, medical supplies and shelter articles to be forwarded at once, and the dispatch of medical and nursing personnel. In addition reports received by the navy department from Admiral Axtell, commander of the Asiatic fleet, indicated that the first group of American destroyers ordered to Yokohama already had arrived while Admiral Axtell's fleet of naval operations, announced that supply ships in the Orient were being filled with supplies and shortly would be under way. Other naval vessels at Manila and San Francisco were ordered to study by ready to proceed on demand.

Quick Response. The Red Cross announced that the first mail today brought more than $125,000 in checks to headquarters here. The amounts received by local chapters cannot be estimated, but the total already subscribed is believed to be large.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, issued an appeal to American business men to participate energetically in the campaign. In a message sent by him to 1400 business organizations throughout the country, he demanded immediate response to the appeal for funds to relieve the suffering. The great need is for relief which can at once be made available.

Calendar Curiosities. The calendar offers certain curiosities which are little known. No century can begin on Wednesday, Friday or Saturday. The month of October begins always on the same day of the week as the month of January; February, March and November begin on the same day of the week. May, June and August begin on different days. These rules do not apply to leap years. The ordinary year always finishes on the same day of the week as it began.

Walking Sticks From Hedgerow. Fifty per cent of our walking sticks come from English hedgerows. Particularly in Herefordshire and Worcestershire there are miles of hedges which are allowed to grow so tall that the muggles build in them. The man who supplies sticks in the rough pays the farmer a mutually agreed-upon sum per hundred for the privilege of cutting them, and these, roughly trimmed and still green, he sells to the manufacturer in the town.—London Daily Mail.

Thought for the Day. If some people cannot get what they want they make it most uncomfortable for the person who does get it.

VETERANS CLOSE FOUR-DAY MEET

Interallied Organization Adopts Many Resolutions; Agrees on Ruhr Policies

BRUSSELS, Sept. 5 (AP)—The congress of the interallied veterans federations closed its sessions this evening with unanimous agreement by all seven delegations, representing the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, Serbia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania, on every resolution drawn up by the various committees during the last four days and presented to the congress for approval.

This evening the resolution on German reparations and the occupation of the Ruhr, which had kept the committee on peace deadlocked until late this afternoon, finally was ironed out by the general ratification of all through the French delegation agreeing to elide all reference to the Ruhr and the British admitting that Germany was acting in bad faith and that she could not pay reparations. The text of the resolution as finally adopted reads in part:

"The congress of the interallied federation of war veterans believe that Germany can pay with relative short delay the amount of reparations agreed upon in common by all the allies."

Foreign Minister Jaeger of Belgium and his colleagues in the Associated Press correspondent today: "Your American delegation to the congress captured the heart of Brussels by their frankness and honest manner. They have shown themselves to be worthy of the best traditions of the American people. Would there were more such people in the world."

Members of all the delegations admitted that no headway had been made toward the formation of an international court of justice, as was outlined at the congress at New Orleans last year, as the question whether coercive forces should be applied by such a court has proved insolvable.

All the delegates agree on the necessity of an veterans' organization being represented on the interallied mission and they have agreed to undertake to recommend such a move to their respective governments. Colonel Edwin Wesley, national commander of the American Legion, left Brussels early this morning to make a tour of the American cemeteries of northern France. Colonel Herold N. Jackson, Colonel H. H. Polk and Colonel Ernest Thompson will join Colonel Wesley in Paris and go by train to Cherbourg to sail for home tomorrow. The other American delegates will await formal adjournment.

ACTION OF U. S. AT VERSAILLES EXCITES BRITON

Birkenhead Stands Ready to Defend His Statements on Wilson's Idealism; Europe Failed to Look into Future

MONTREAL, Sept. 5 (AP)—Had Europe known when the Versailles Treaty was being drafted that the United States intended staying out of her affairs, "many matters which have caused endless trouble in the world might have been spared," it was declared tonight by the Earl of Birkenhead, former lord chancellor of England, in an address before the Canadian Bar association.

"Lord Birkenhead declared he was ready to back up the speech he made at Westminster before the institute of politics in which he said America was not ready for the idealism of former President Wilson so far as his idea of a league of nations was concerned. "When I spoke at New York in 1918," continued Lord Birkenhead, "I was certain that the United States would remain exclusive and live their lives. That speech aroused the fiercest turmoil in the United States. It was attacked right and left through all possible channels. The venom poured upon me for having made such a statement was tremendous. "And now it appears, after all this time, that I was quite right."

Speaking of the Versailles conference, Lord Birkenhead said: "It was a bit late, you know. We were very stupid when the great peace conference was on at Versailles. If then we had realized that the United States intended to live their own lives, we would have been much ahead."

"If at Versailles we had known that the United States were to remain out, many matters which have caused endless trouble in the world might have been spared. We should have known and been prepared for what the United States did with America, what happened to Greece and in that case the Ruhr might have been invaded. What I am saying I am perfectly aware will raise a storm. I am prepared to back up my statement here tonight at any time in any country. I do not propose to recall one particle from what I said at Westminster or what I say tonight."

Boy Claims Prize. A fifteen-year-old boy in Medford, Ore., claims a $100 prize for long-distance reception. He picked up an address delivered in Cuba.

ADMIT LEAGUE NOT ABLE TO END DISPUTE

Italy's Refusal to Recognize Intervention Throws Consternation Over Delegates at Geneva Meeting

GENEVA, Sept. 5 (AP)—The super structure of the league of nations, of which an American president was the chief architect, is imperiled, and in the British view, the very foundations of present day Europe are shaken. Such, briefly, is a summary of the situation at Geneva tonight, because of Italy's refusal to recognize the right of the league of nations to intervene in her dispute with Greece.

Consternation and a deal of sadness prevail everywhere, for it is generally, though reluctantly, admitted that the league has been unable to withstand the first great test of its practical use as machinery for regulating difficulties between nations, since one of its leading members has declined to concede to it its competence. The Greek government sentiment among the smaller countries that, if the league covenant applies to them, it apparently does not bind the great powers of Europe.

All the more do they feel convinced of this because the proportions which the Latin and Greek conflict have taken are deemed by all to be of a nature that is a genuine cause of the controversy, serious and regrettable as was the murder of the Italian officers.

The hope is not abandoned, there are many who are still striving for a deal of the half hundred countries represented at Geneva, who, believing in the league and in the ideal of conciliation and arbitration which the league has refused to admit that action of any member, powerful or weak, can succeed in ruining the league as a power for good.

Argue Questions. Signor Salandra's entire argument today was that the questions arising from the assassination of the Italian mission should be settled by the council of ambassadors, and not by the league, because it was the ambassadorial body which had appointed the mission to fix the frontier between Albania and Greece. That body was dissolved by the council of the league at the peace conference and was empowered with the expectation of the terms of the treaties.

The head of the Italian delegation accused Greece of evading her responsibility and of diverting world attention from the murder of the Italian officers to Italy's seizure of Corfu, an act of dangerous aggression.

Mussolini Takes Stage. It was not Signor Salandra, but Mussolini, who seemed to be addressing the council of the league today at its dramatic session. As the good natured appearing former premier read his fateful message, the crowd's emotion ebbed and flowed, but that of his fascistic chief and leader, who has suddenly loomed up on the stage of Europe. No state would be so bold as to deny to the league, read Signor Salandra, if membership meant renunciation of the right to defend its national dignity. Italy had not moved a step toward peace, and that is the sufficient reason for the application of its articles of the covenant cited by Greece, which were founded on the supposition that danger of war existed between the ambassadorial body pronounced judgment, he contended, any action by the league was out of place, because of the league's evident incompetence.

M. Politis renounced the Greek government repudiated energetically any allegation that it was morally or materially responsible for the odious crime committed in its territory. Greece, he declared, did not wish to evade the prerogatives of the council of ambassadors, but, on the other hand, had asked that the council be dissolved, investigation, Italy, however, in bombarding Corfu had created a situation which justified Greece in appealing to the league.

Failure is Seen. ROME, Sept. 5 (AP)—The Corriere d'Italia, the factious organ here, enumerates some reasons why it believes the league of nations cannot interfere legally in the controversy between Italy and Greece. This newspaper recalled the American seizure of Vera Cruz in 1914, and quotes the words of President Wilson on that occasion. "Thus spoke the future creator of the league of nations when the interests of his country were at stake," the paper says. "Why should Premier Mussolini change his style or system?" Despite the rain crowds stood outside the foreign ministry awaiting the appearance of Mussolini and his solidarity of the country and to express approval of his action. Examining the possibility that the Italo-Greek case would be decided by the council of ambassadors in Paris, the Giornale d'Italia, says that Italy would not object on condition that the council does not interfere with the negotiations asked by Italy, but exercises pressure on Greece to submit to Italy's demands. "Any maneuvering aiming to suffocate Italy's prestige and the prestige of the nation by an application of diplomatic cotton or wool," says the newspaper, "will be rejected by our government before the ambassadors as well as before the league of nations. Greece cannot escape her duty. Otherwise we remain at Corfu."

Nevada-Bellevue to Begin Development on Extensive Scale

W. H. Seagrave, President, Outlines Program of Well-Known Contact Copper Property

W. H. Seagrave, president and general manager of the Nevada-Bellevue Copper company, has been in contact the past 10 days perfecting plans for the resumption of operations at the mine to be started immediately. Mr. Seagrave, accompanied by F. K. Easter of Seattle, who is largely interested in the Nevada-Bellevue company, spent the week in Twin Falls. Questioned with respect to the company's operations Mr. Seagrave gave out the following: "Our company has been waiting for the assurance of railroad transportation and has not shipped any ore from its properties during the past two years. However, up to that time approximately $250,000 worth of copper ore was produced and shipped from our properties. We are now preparing to commence production and shipment within six months from date on a much more extensive scale than ever attempted in the past, which is a proportion charge of from $15 to $10 per ton had to be absorbed. To this end during the time the railroad is building a line to drive an aerial tramway on the 400 foot level approximately 2000 feet long, which has already been started and will be driven rapidly to completion during the fall and winter. This will serve as a drainage tunnel and as a working tunnel, which will permit of the most economical mining of the high-grade ore now blocked out on the 200 and 300 foot levels as well as ore blocked out in future. In addition to this further development is to be undertaken on the 200 foot level which will materially increase available tonnage for shipment.

Construct Leaching Plant

"The construction of a leaching plant to treat the oxidized ores now available on the Delano and Bellevue levels will be completed and in operation within three months. We have not less than $750,000 gross value of this grade of ore immediately available. The process is not a new one, but simply an application of a well-known operation of recovering copper from oxidized ores by means of leaching with dilute sulphuric acid. Railroad transportation is not necessary for the successful operation of a plant of this nature, as its product is practically pure metallic copper. "Our territory has some approximately $200,000 since taking over the Delano properties in 1910 and had blocked out a large tonnage of ore, thus being ready for production and shipment of ore in a large way immediately railway transportation is available, which we estimate will save us from $10 to $13 per ton in hauling charges, and other savings in costs of operation."

A Japanese invitation to dinner frequently runs as follows: "I beg your pardon for thus insulting you in begging your company at my house to dinner. The house is very small and very dirty. ## GERMAN EDITOR FAVORS STRESEMANN'S POLICIES

BERLIN, Sept. 5 (AP)—"Nobody will blame Germany for seeking a direct understanding with her western neighbor now, after appeals to the 'world conscience' and Cuno's reliance upon Anglo-Saxon intervention have proven futile," says the Tagesliche Zeitung today in the course of an emphatic editorial in which it approves Chancellor Stresemann's effort to make a political and economic peace with France. The newspaper says that Germany has lost much time for English and American relief which failed to materialize and urges the present government promptly to abandon the policy which which the Cuno cabinet "wasted valuable time."

FASHION AND EXTERMINATION

It was bad enough for the fur-bearing animals when women wore furs only in the winter, but it spelled their doom, says the National Geographic Society, when women took to wearing furs all the year around. The society declares that the relentless demand is threatening with extinction the beaver, marten, skunk, muskrat, and many others which, with a normal demand, might long continue to meet genuine human needs.

It is a matter for keen regret in many ways. A great economic resource is being exhausted. Beautiful specimens of wild life are being wiped out, to the infinite regret of nature-lovers. Women themselves, in a generation or two, may be deprived of furs for warmth because, in this generation, they have worn them so wastefully for ornament.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

A good argument against old age pensions is made by the Ohio State Grange, in connection with a proposal in that state to be voted on in the fall election. The measure provides for a state commission, with branches in every county, to cost perhaps three hundred thousand dollars a year for administration expenses. People over sixty-five years of age would be eligible to pensions. The total amount payable is estimated at many millions a year. Says the grange:

"Those who favor this law contend that when persons have reached the age of sixty-five years and have given these years to society, without having accumulated competence, then society owes them a pension in old age. "If each man and each woman had actually given their best of their life to society during sixty-five years then there would be good reason for old age pensions, but human beings have not reached that stage of perfection. Too many are willing to evade their share of the world's labor. And yet those who toll and save are asked to sanction a law that will rob their savings of those who have failed to save. "To substitute 'state pensions' for the urge to work and to save will remove incentives most needed. "Once the incentives are removed the clamor will begin for more pensions, for increased pensions, for new forms of pensions, for state insurance, for unemployment dolo."

These conclusions are supported by the experience of Great Britain, and by the very facts of human nature as constituted at present. Surely society does not owe a debt to any old person unless that person has performed useful service to society. Old age payments, to be just, must be discriminating. A starving man or woman must be fed, the naked must be clothed, the homeless sheltered. Our social standards demand that. But our standards do not demand public payments to all of a certain age, whether they need the money or not, or whether they deserve it or not.

Our society is based on individual striving. While it remains so, it seems destined to do at least for some generations, it will hardly do to take the incentive to strive while in the prime of life and make the thrifty support the thriftless.

MOVIES OF EVERYTHING

The educational uses of the motion picture are more numerous and varied than most persons realize. In a recently published statement Will Hays said: "On land and under it, on the sea and under it, from the sky the camera is ceaselessly shooting, morning, noon and night, every wonder, every secret of nature, every invention, every event, every nation. The whole world is literally revolving before our eyes by the motion picture. Wild animals in their native habitat are as familiar as dogs and cats. The most difficult surgery is pictured; sports are taught;

Clyde D. Atchison and Francis Wadleigh.

In the event of a strike of the anthracite coal miners, Francis Wadleigh, federal fuel administrator, will ration out anthracite substitutes, such as bituminous, coke and oil, throughout the country. Clyde D. Atchison, interstate commerce commissioner, has been charged by President Coolidge with the task of giving such substitutes priority on the railroads and to see that no section of the nation lacks fuel.

tenement children are given health lessons by a specially equipped motion picture outfit operated on the streets; the sale of American goods in foreign lands is influenced and the demand at libraries for literary classes is revived by the product of the motion picture film.

The flickering screen—with its flickers largely removed—is unquestionably destined to become an essential part of every school equipment. There is much in the sciences which can be better taught with the aid of moving pictures. Whether or not the screen drama ever becomes the perfect artistic thing its present critics demand, all the equipment and methods employed for making pictures will continue to be improved and increased, for moving pictures are going to fill an ever-growing purpose.

PONY EXPRESS RIDERS SPEED ACROSS DESERT

Horseman Skirts South End of Great Salt Lake in 35-Mile Dash; Expect to Reach Nevada Thursday

SALT LAKE, Sept. 5 (AP)—The pony express rider tonight speeled onward over the sand of the desert country. Skirting the south end of Great Salt Lake in the 35-mile dash from this city to Grantville, the first jaunt of the express rider with the accompanying cavalcade, to span the expansive Salt Lake desert, was begun by Lawrence Sharp, cowboy.

Between midnight tonight and 1 a. m. tomorrow, the mail will have reached the border of Nevada, where riders of that state will carry it to its western border, nearing the end of the renewal of the pony express ride from St. Joseph to San Francisco. Seven riders will take part in the westward dash from Grantville to the Nevada line. Two young women riders rode their mounts today in the ride through Utah, Miss Myrtle Gardner, a 17-year-old girl, bringing the mail to Salt Lake from Parley's canyon, and Miss Nina McCauley riding the last 10 miles of the stretch between Salt Lake and Grantville.

Miss Gardner was given an ovation as she rode between the lines of several thousand persons in Salt Lake's business district, and tossed the mail to the next rider, Floyd Stookey, who subsequently was relieved by Miss McCauley. Letters to Governor Friend Richardson of California, were presented to the rider by Governor Charles Mabey and Mayor Clarence Nelson, who were at the head of the official group welcoming the express riders. The 212 miles of rough, mountainous travel through northeastern Utah from "C" ranch, on the Colorado-Utah line, to Salt Lake, was covered by Utah riders, familiar with the roads, in exactly 15 hours.

The arrival of the pony express in Salt Lake today was about three hours ahead of schedule, and it was predicted that this would be further increased when the last Utah rider reached Wendover, the Utah-Nevada state line control point.

GILL NET IS DISCOVERED

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 4 (AP)—Discovery of a 50-foot gill net with its illegal catch of Mackinaw trout at Deer Lake has aroused the fighting blood of Spokane sportsmen, who, according to C. W. Carlson, one of the finders of the net, are going to run the offenders into a corner and bring state vengeance upon them.

"For two years I have been co-operating with sportsmen to catch men known to be taking Mackinaw trout from the lake by means of seines and gill nets," Mr. Carlson said. "Last year I caught two sets on grappling hooks and burned them. Trouble was threatened at the time, but the unlawful occupation has been going on just the same. We have been unable to cope with the outlaw fishermen. Destruction of public fishing grounds, illegally destroying young trout planted there for future generations, has attracted fishermen to such a degree that prompt prosecution is now assured."
