DEATH LIST IN NAVAL DISASTER STILL MOUNTING

Stories of Heroism Brought to Light as Details of Disaster Are Gathered; Cause Still a Mystery

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Sept. 10 (AP)—The death list in the disaster which sent seven naval destroyers crashing on the rocks of Point Huen, 75 miles north of here Saturday night, has increased to 29 tonight, according to a message from a correspondent of the Santa Barbara Morning Press.

Search for three missing men who may still be alive and effort to recover the bodies of men imprisoned and undoubtedly killed in the overturned destroyer Young occupied most of the afternoon. Twenty naval officials in connection with the wrecking of seven destroyers near here Saturday night.

Radio Operator, Reidochi, Coxswain Salzar and Seaman Martin are known to have left the Young on one of the two life rafts that were launched from that vessel after she struck. One of the rafts, with five men aboard, reached shore. The other has not been seen since it was slipped into the black, oil-covered water.

Cuba Wreck Responsible.

Today it developed that the wrecking of the Pacific Mail liner Cuba probably was indirectly responsible for the loss of the seven destroyers and many lives about four hours after the Cuba struck. The destroyers, traveling in a heavy fog, mistook radio signals directing the destroyer Reno to the Cuba for instructions for them. The mistake was discovered only a few minutes before the Delphy, the first of the seven to run aground, hit, and two lives to save them.

Eleven other naval vessels, including with the destroyers succeeded in avoiding the rocks in consequence of the Delphy's warning.

Survivors of the wreck who reached San Diego today told of many instances of heroism. Chief Boatwain Mate Peterson of the Young and Chief Electrician Eckenberg of the Delphy, each ashore of to other vessels to enable their comrades to escape. An Italian fisherman, G. Noetti, and his crew of two men made many trips back and forth through the surf from the destroyers Woodbury and Fuller to the shore, although carrying about 150 men to the beach and ashore.

Thirteen in Hospital.

Thirteen men were taken to a hospital here, but one was able to leave soon afterward. Five hundred and seventeen enlisted men and 38 officers were taken to San Diego on a special train, arriving there today. Among them were about 20 seriously injured and all were much exhausted and more or less bruised.

Science Baffled by Inclement Weather During Sun Eclipse

Heavy Fogs Obscure Phenomenon at Every Point of Vantage on Coast; Aviators Alone Able to Witness Stellar Event

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10 (AP)—Scientific observation of today's eclipse of the sun generally failed, according to reports received here, except possibly in the case of naval aviators who flew above the clouds and fog at San Diego and took photographs of the phenomenon.

Clouds of fog obscured the view at the time of totality at all points from Santa Barbara, Cal., to Encinas, Mexico, where scientists had made preparations to study the eclipse. These points included Avalon, on Santa Catalina Island, San Clemente Island, San Diego, Mount Wilson, and Point Loma.

Four Are Indicted by Federal Grand Jury on Various Charges

L. L. Brockenridge Foreman; Mann Act Violations Constituted Principal Offense

BOISE, Sept. 10 (AP)—Indictments were returned here today by a grand jury in federal court for the southern Idaho district, in four cases in which violation of the Mann act was alleged, and in one case in which counterfeiting of silver dollars was charged, according to a statement tonight by the prosecuting attorney's office. Persons indicted for violation of the Mann act were Frank Reggio, alias Frankie Regan, pugilist; Lawrence Bennett, Roy Motley and John R. Corbett and Mrs. Ellen Stone.

John E. Wanggaard was held to answer to the counterfeiting charge, which was alleged to have been committed in Boise county.

Twenty persons compose the grand jury of which L. L. Brockenridge of Twin Falls, was appointed foreman.

Fire Aboard Ship Results in Heavy Damage to Cargo

Thirty-Firemen Overcome by Blaze in Hold of Freighter American

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10 (AP)—Thirty firemen were overcome, four requiring hospital attention, in combating a fire which spread through the entire cargo hold of the American-Hawaiian 10,000-ton freighter American here tonight.

The American put in here today with fire in her hold. It was estimated tonight that $250,000 worth of damage had been done.

MANY PERSONS KILLED.

RIGA, Sept. 10 (AP)—A dispatch received here from Moscow says an express train was derailed Saturday at many and that 32 persons were killed and 152 injured.

SHOOKS ARE RECORDED.

FAENZA, Italy, Sept. 10 (AP)—A violent earthquake apparently 6000 miles distant in a northeasterly direction was registered on the seismograph here beginning at 11:12 o'clock Sunday night. The disturbance lasted two hours.

LEAGUE COUNCIL LIKELY TO ADOPT WAITING POLICY

Anxiety to Settle Greco-Italian Situation Will Not Interfere with Intention to Proceed Slowly Towards End Sought

GENEVA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Watchful waiting, for the moment at least, was considered tonight to be the policy of the council for the league of nations regarding the Greco-Italian conflict. This was deduced from the publication of a telegram which Viscount Lelievre, president of the council, sent to the council of ambassadors, saying that the council of the league shared with the ambassadors anxiety to see the dispute settled as soon as possible. The message voiced the council's happiness that the documents forwarded by it to the Paris body were useful, and asked to be kept informed on any results of the decision taken and any discussions which might still take place.

This telegram, communicated to all the delegates to the assembly here, was interpreted as confirming the impression earlier prevalent that for the moment the assembly would content itself with awaiting developments in the Greco-Italian controversy before taking further action. This attitude of watchful waiting was said to apply particularly to the Italian position with regard to the evacuation of Corfu.

Withdrawal Would Help

The general sentiment at Geneva is that the entire dispute would be immensely clarified if the Italian government would issue an order immediately for the withdrawal of the troops from Corfu and the restoration of the other islands to Greece. The league leaders are anxious that evacuation should take place before any debate on the competency of the league is introduced at the meetings of the assembly, the idea being still further to help in the actual settlement of the crisis which has caused such a profound disturbance in Europe. They believe the world public opinion, as voiced by the nations' representatives at Geneva, has also made prompt

Death of French Consul General Among Incidents Graphically Described by Eye-Witnesses of Disaster

KOBE, Sept. 10 (AP)—Merrill Martin, a British refugee from Yokohama, describes as follows the death of M. Do Jardin, the French consul general there:

"I was in the consulate with him together with M. Bickart, a French attorney. The first shock threw Bickart and me into the compound, where the air seemed filled with yellow acid dust, which made breathing difficult. "The sounds of crashing buildings was like the roar of a typhoon. Again and again we were thrown to the ground. When we finally recovered ourselves we rushed back into the building to find that the consul had been crushed under the heavy timbers. "During our frantic efforts to rescue him other shocks flung us aside. We finally managed to extricate M. Do Jardin, but he was fatally injured and died while I was searching for medical help. I put the body in a stretcher and hurried to my own home. "The fires were spreading, necessitating a long detour. When I arrived it was to find the house lying on its side. As I was considering whether to attempt to save any valuables, three nearby dwellings burst into flame. "I was toward the British consulate, but found it encircled by flames. I then took refuge in the naval hospital compound, but this soon became untenable. "Children Hurled to Death "The road from the summit of the bluff was crowded with Japanese, some of whom frantically hurled their children over the cliff, following themselves with such recklessness that they were often crushed at the bottom. "When I reached the seashore the dead and injured were all along the coast of the bluff. It was ghastly. Many of the Japanese swam out to launches and other

LARGE QUANTITIES OF FOODSTUFFS ARRIVING IN ILL-FATED CITIES

Refugees Leaving Tokio at Rate Estimated at 94,000 Daily by Rail Alone

SHANG HAI, Sept. 10 (AP)—There were between 20,000 and 30,000 dead in Tokio up to Sept. 3, according to an official message from Premier Yamamoto received by the Japanese consulate here today. Large quantities of foodstuffs are arriving in the stricken area and it is said the supplies will gradually catch up with the demand.

The Zenjiro Yasuda has contributed 3,000,000 yen ($1,500,000) and the Mitani family has made a second contribution of 5,000,000 yen for relief work, according to an eastern news-agency dispatch from the Osaka Asahi.

The daily average of refugees leaving Tokio by rail is estimated at 94,000.

TAKES STEPS TO PROTECT PUBLIC

Governor Pinchot Invites Cooperation by Other States in Effort to Keep Coal Prices from Soaring

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 10 (AP)—Speaking as the chief executive of the only anthracite producing state, Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania today called upon the governors of thirty other anthracite consuming states to join him in seeking methods of safeguarding coal users against high prices during the coming winter.

In a letter to the governors, in which he told that he is directing an investigation in his own state of "means or methods of any and every kind which could be used to prevent gouging of the consumer," he suggested similar studies in each of the other states looking toward a personal conference concerning joint action.

As an initial step in his own investigation he conferred with Chairman W. D. B. Oney, of the Pennsylvania public service commission, which body, he told President Coolidge in a letter last night, he would ask to make a study of the reasonableness of anthracite freight rates within the state. He suggested to the president that the interstate commerce commission make a similar investigation of transportation rates on hard coal with a view to their readjustment.

Certain other factors, he pointed out in his letter to the governors, as to local outside action could not influence them, while there are others upon which joint action of the governors "would be useful in preventing extortion." Among the more local matters to which Governor Pinchot referred are the profits of coal dealers, such as wholesalers, retailers, jobbers and distributors.

Plans for a joint conference of the governors are indefinite and independent, it was indicated, upon the results of the action they may take in response to Governor Pinchot's letter. No immediate preparations will be made for a meeting and it was said at the state capital that none probably would be made until the return to Harrisburg of the governor, who left today for a two weeks vacation.

SELECT CONVENTION CITY

Republican National Committee to Meet in December to Choose Place for Party Gathering

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—After a conference today with President Coolidge, Chairman Adams of the republican national committee, said the committee probably would meet in Washington in December to select a place for the 1924 national republican convention.

All the cities that have issued invitations will be given a full hearing, Mr. Adams said. He added, however, that a final decision would be deferred until satisfactory assurance had been given with regard to hotel rates and other charges.

PARKS ARE FULL OF REFUGEES IN PITIABLE PLIGHT

Suffering Among Survivors of Catastrophe-Grows in Intensity as Congestion Increases in Many Districts

OSAKA, Sept. 8 (Delayed) (AP)—An Eastern News Agency dispatch to the Osaka Asahi from Tokio says that many hundreds of refugees gathered in Ueno park, have committed suicide as result of hunger and exposure. Most of the refugees are exhausted and only a few are able to walk and these are fleeing to Niyyori, where tens of thousands of other refugees are collected. A large number of women are reported to be helpless near the Niyyori railway station unable to continue their flight.

The same report says that among those who have been reported dead but have been found to be living are the Princess Tsubonori Kaya, Tsubo-Ogishima and Maruyoshi Marikata, Mayor Watanabe of Yokohama and Chief of Police Kume of the Kanagawa prefecture.

Prince Yasuhito Chichibu, younger brother of the prince regent, makes daily inspection of the infantry barracks consoling the sufferers of the Honjo district situated here.

It was in the Honjo ward that the earthquake did the most serious damage.

MANOUEIRA GIVES AID.

HONOLULU, Sept. 10 (AP)—A special wireless dispatch to the Hawaii Shiping from its Tokio correspondent states that General Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian war lord, has donated 2,500,000 bushels of rice to the earthquake relief. The rice will be shipped from Mukden immediately.

Most of the Tokio newspapers are said to have resumed publication with greatly reduced numbers of pages.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—The dead counted by Japanese authorities up to September 7-number 47,000 in Tokio and 23,000 in Yokohama, the foreign office in Tokio reported tonight to the Japanese embassy here.

The message said 150 foreigners have been killed "so far as has been ascertained."

About 316,000 houses, or 71 per cent of all, were destroyed in Tokio, while 70,000 of the 85,000 houses in Yokohama met a similar fate. Police of Tokio, ac-

Science Baffled by Inclement Weather During Sun Eclipse

Heavy Fogs Obscure Phenomenon at Every Point of Vantage on Coast; Aviators Alone Able to Witness Stellar Event

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10 (AP)—Scientific observation of today's eclipse of the sun generally failed, according to reports received here, except possibly in the case of naval aviators who flew above the clouds and fog at San Diego and took photographs of the phenomenon.

Clouds of fog obscured the view at the time of totality at all points from Santa Barbara, Cal., to Encinas, Mexico, where scientists had made preparations to study the eclipse. These points included Avalon, on Santa Catalina Island, San Clemente Island, San Diego, Mount Wilson, and Point Loma.

Scientists who came from all parts of the world and who had worked for months on their plans took their defeat gracefully.

The scientific observers had to be content with momentary glimpses of the obscuration, gained when the fog was occasionally dissipated, only to hide the phenomenon again quickly.

The fog was especially heavy at Avalon, where the principal preparations of the scientists had been made. It swept in from the ocean, high and thick, early in the morning, although the weather forecasters made frequent predictions that it would blow out to sea again at the time of the eclipse, their prophecy proved incorrect. The net result was a practical failure of the hopes of scientists and a disappointment to many thousands of laymen who had taken special pains to be at points of vantage for the drama of the heavens.

Total of All Dead in Yokohama Estimated at 30,000 to 40,000; Royal Wedding Postponed; Banks Meet Demand

TOKIO, Sept. 10 (AP)—The wedding of Prince Regent Hirohito and Princess Nagako, which was to have taken place in November, may be postponed definitely as a result of the earthquake and its accompanying misfortunes, it has been learned.

The projected naval maneuvers have been canceled. The combined Japanese fleet led by the flagship Nagato, arrived at Yokohama today and the first, second and third fleets are speeding toward that city.

The losses of Tokio banks have been surprisingly small. The banks are making payments of less than 100 yen but reserving the right to suspend operations for ten days on all demands of more than 100 yen.

Treasury Minister Inouke has reported that his portfolio had been lost and that his wife is missing. There is an unverified rumor that unconsciousness is felt at the Funkhoushi wireless station and that protection for the station has been asked.

Under martial law, which recently was proclaimed, nobody is permitted to be abroad after 9 o'clock at night and on official business is permitted to enter Tokio after sunset. Detachments of engineers, infantry and medical corps of the Second, Osaka, Fukuoka and Ooyama divisions are proceeding to Tokio.

The cabinet has decided on speedy relief measures for foreign residents. Police have collected all Koreans in one place and are caring for them. Banks have reopened under army protection. The mansions of the rich have been opened to refugees and have the courts and the homes of royalty.

The army staff communication department has been removed from Tokio to Osaka to facilitate foreign communication. Milk is extremely scarce in Tokio. Babies, invalids and the injured are suffering. The army is commandeering milk and powder from the neighborhood about Tokio. In Tokio 118 grammar schools burned and there are no prospects of their being replaced. The only school in Yokohama is a city of ashes, virtually every building having been burned. The dead in Yokohama is estimated at 30,000 to 40,000.

INDIAN LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Organization for Promotion of Universal Peace Elected Among Indians Back in Stone Age

New York state Indians in the Stone Age had a constitutional league of nations for the promotion of universal peace which was based on and dominated by woman's suffrage and in which the initiative, referendum and recall were employed, as J. N. H. Hewitt, ethnologist of the Smithsonian institution, who has just returned from an investigation among the Iroquois of New York and Canada, declared here, says the New York Evening Post. Chief business among the confederated Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga and Seneca tribes had equal rights and titles with the male chiefs, who were nominated by women's votes, his most recent researches into the governmental form of these five nations reveal.

The scope of the league formed among these Indians in the Sixteenth century, Mr. Hewitt said, was not limited to the five Iroquois tribes, but they proposed to bring under their form of government all known tribes of men. The league was based on peace, righteousness, justice, power and health. Laws were provided to stop family feuds and regulations for the promotion of mental hygiene were laid down.

Hawatha was one of the league chiefs selected by the women and subjected to recall by them, said Mr. Hewitt found that the automobile, the phonograph and other modern products are rapidly causing the Indians to forget many of their former laws and customs.

Bergdoll's Gold Dug Up in Maryland?

Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, millionaire son of a German-American brewer, of Philadelphia, notorious slayer in the World War, escaped from a Federal prison, where he was serving a term as a deserter, by asking permission to go to Maryland to dig up $110,000 in gold he said he had buried there. He went to Germany, where lately he killed a man who tried to kidnap him and bring him back to America. Now a mountaineer named Houser, living near Hagerstown, Md., says he has dug up a box containing $105,000. Howard Wheeler, a 10-year-old boy, claims to have seen it, first and demands the money. This photograph shows where it was found. Houser's sister denies he found any money, alleging the entire affair was a practical joke, but the government officials are investigating and will seize the money if it was found.

YOUTH ADMITS SAFE RIFLING

"Billy" Yates, Age 10, Held to Face Charge of Aiding Pal to Steal Small Sum

OMAHA, Sept. 10 (AP)—"Billy" Yates, 10, today returned in custody of Red Oak's sheriff to that place to face a charge of safe rifling, by which he and his eight-year-old pal, Paul Warden, are said to have obtained $12.75 which they divided between them, prior to "Billy's" decision to flee to Omaha, where he arrived yesterday morning, took a taxi and instructed the driver to drive "me to my aunt's house." When no such house could be located, he stoutly maintained he had a "big collection" of relatives in Omaha, when questioned after being turned over to the police. Reports from Red Oak's sheriff today say "Billy" has confessed that he and Paul entered an outer stairway window of the implement store and rifled the safe, dividing the spoils.

Not long ago, according to the sheriff, "Billy" was caught with the loot he obtained from an open safe in the office of a Red Oak coal dealer. On that occasion he was sharply reprimanded, but no charge was made against him.

HARROWING STORY TOLD OF COREU REFUGEES

ATHENS, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Near East relief has received from its representatives at Corfu a harrowing story of the condition of the 10,000 refugees there, who are sleeping out in the open and are virtually without food. Relief officials here are endeavoring to collect food and money to allay the sufferings of the refugees.

MAKES STARTLING FIND

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 10 (AP)—Mrs. M. E. Mack was startled into calling the police for assistance when, sitting recently, she found an 18-inch bull-snake coiled within the pot. The police officer who responded to her frightened summons chased the snake into a hole beside the drain pipe, where it was said the reptile would have to remain until released by sawing a hole through the wall of the house. Mrs. Mack was emphatic in asserting that the snake would be removed regardless of the damage to the house.

FEW INJURED ESCAPED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—A 40-mile gale from the sea followed the first quake in Japan and fanned the flames so that few of the injured escaped, Admiral Anderson, commander of the Asiatic fleet, said in a message received here tonight by the navy department. Those who escaped were driven into the bay, he said, and many perished there. He named 16 Americans who were killed in Yokohama, most of whom previously had been reported dead.

The wind so fanned the numerous fires that sprung up after the earthquake that few injured were able to escape ahead of the racing flames, the message indicated. It added that many were forced by the advance of the flames to take refuge in the bay, where they later perished. The message was dated at 10:45 o'clock tonight. Admiral Anderson early today reported the arrival of his flagship, the Huron, at Yokohama harbor.

GIRL NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Member of Lasky Family Is Rescued from Ruins of Buildings at Tokio

KOBE, Japan, Sept. 10 (AP)—An American girl was buried under debris and rescued alive only after hours of feverish digging when the Fujika hotel at the fashionable Mayanohita resort near Tokio collapsed during the earthquake. The young woman, Miss Lasky, has reached here in company with her sister and brother-in-law, Thomas D. Cochran, American representative of Famous Players' Lasky corporation in Japan.

Mountains slid into valleys, roads were obliterated and houses and buildings were transformed into piles of debris in a few minutes, declared Mr. Cochran in describing the earthquake scenes.

Martial law is being strictly enforced in Yokohama and newspaper correspondents and photographers are having difficulty in entering the devastated districts.

From Osaka it was officially announced that no one would be permitted to enter Tokio except on official business.

It is understood the department of finance contemplates exemption from taxation for one year of persons living within the zone of the disaster. A member of the staff of the Tokio newspaper Asahi who has just reached here, says that between Hiratnank and Oiso stations on the Tokaido railway he saw a wrecked train in which 20 passengers had been killed including an American aide-de-camp and two German embassy secretaries.

GUARD AGAINST LOOTING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP)—The shortage of food and water in Yokohama is "unpeakable" and thousands of refugees in the streets "opened their mouths and attempted to drink the falling rain," said a message received today by the Japanese Times from the Japan telegraphic agency.

Since the arrival of army units, martial law has been enforced so strictly throughout the devastated areas that there is now no looting, as had been reported previously. Retail prices have returned to almost normal in Tokio, the message said.

From Ginza (the main street of Tokio) to Sudarho, (a street two miles away) all is destroyed," said the message. Bay City Submerged. The message also confirmed a report that Onitima, said to have been the center of the quake, had been submerged, and "rumor circulated that from the south of Hoda around Hojo bay also submerged." Hoda, members of the Japanese Times staff said, was a popular summer resort housing from 30,000 to 40,000 persons. Up to the evening of September 4, said the message, it was estimated that 50,000 had been killed in Tokio. At Honzo (government military stores station) 10,000 were killed. Those made homeless were said not to number less than 2,000,000.

In Yokohama, it was reported, the number of dead was being increased by those succumbing to lunging refugees. Fifty policemen were burned to death at the Ogihashi police station in Fukagawa ward, Tokio, said the message. Hukunome and Shonan, summer resorts, also were destroyed with heavy loss of life, it was said.

The government is now commandeering the home of millionaires for the refugees, it was reported, and also is sending lumber from the imperial forest reservation in Tokio and Yokohama.

Discussions on the planetary system of the sun, we may state the average astronomical opinion; it is far less optimistic for the diffusion of life than is the opinion of the enthusiasts.

astronomers Less Optimistic Regarding Existence of Life Than the Enthusiast.

(1) Venus, so far as we can see, more nearly fulfills the conditions than any planet other than the earth. Its mass and orbit are certainly favorable, its distance, rotation, and chemical constitution, are probably not unfavorable, though we cannot penetrate its dense covering of clouds and seek out the mysteries of its surface.

(2) Low forms of life may exist on the planet Mars, where the thin atmosphere does permit our telescope explorations. High forms of life at the present time are, however, generally deemed improbable, and being comparable with man and other terrestrial mammals are considered utterly impossible.

(3) The other planets of the solar system are now quite unsuited to protoplasmic life.—Harlow Shapley, director of Harvard College Observatory, in Harper's.

PHILADELPHIA TAKES ONE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Brooklyn today took the first game of the series with Philadelphia, 7 to 1, after pounding two pitchers for 13 hits. T. Griffith led the Brooklyn attack with four straight hits, one a double.

Score: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 7 10 1
Philadelphia 1 7 3
Batteries—Deantar and Taylor; Behan, Snyder and Hentline.

COULDN'T WAIT LONGER

An old lady was on a visit to her married daughter. One day there was company, and little Theodore, the hope of the house, was doing his best to amuse his mother's visitors. Presently he left the room, to return soon afterward with a zinc bucket. This he planted right in front of his grandpa, while the others sat wondering what was about to happen.

"Grandma," said little Theodore, "will go kick it."

"Bless the child," said the surprised old lady, "why do you wish me to do that, darling?"

"Because," replied the young hopeful, "I heard pa say we should be awfully rich when we kicked the bucket!"

SIX RUNS ON ONE HIT

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10 (AP)—Donohue's wildness and poor support in the field enabled Pittsburgh to score six runs on one hit in the fourth inning today and easily defeated Cincinnati, 8 to 0. Errors by Funch and Casaway were costly and Donohue forced in two runs with passes after filling the bases. Meadows had his curve ball under good control and the Reds got only one man to third. As a result of the victory the Pirates advanced to second place in the league race.

Score: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh 8 7 2
Cincinnati 0 10 1
Batteries—Meadows and Schmidt; Donohue, Harris and Gargrave.

GERMANTOWN CROCKET CLUB

Philadelphia, Sept. 10 (AP)—A single upset marked the first day's play in the forty-second annual tournament for the lawn tennis championship of the United States in singles, which began today.

Robert Kinsey, of San Francisco, provided the startling reversal of form when he completely outplayed and defeated in straight sets Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia.

Approximately 7,000 persons, the largest first-day crowd in the history of national championships, saw the field of 64 selected players; representative of seven countries, melt away through the elimination play of the first round or by default, to a field of 32 players, who will begin the second round tomorrow.

Nine foreign players survived the first round. Two went out through defaults and four others by default.

COACH MATHEWS BUNCH BELIEVED TO OBTAIN LIKELYEST LOOKING TEAM

Coach Mathews' bunch believed to obtain likelyest looking team in history of institution.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW

Sept. 10.—Football prospects at the University of Idaho for the coming season are good, says George M. Varnell, veteran Pacific coast conference referee, in the first of a series of press articles dealing with the prospective strength of each team in the coast and northwest conference.

"On present dope the eleven turned out by Coach R. L. Mathews of the Moscow institution figures to be one of the best that has represented the University of Idaho in recent years," he says.

"The Idaho team will lose the services of Babo Brown, one of the greatest fullbacks the Gem state institution has had in recent years; Dale Vols, a high caliber tackle and heady lineman; Jim Neal, another strong lineman; "Beany" Breathers and Arnold Cobley this year, the first three via the three years' eligibility rule, and the last two by graduation.

"Brown, Vols and Neal will be keenly missed on the Idaho squad this fall, as they form a trio of players

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 10 (AP)—The same heavy sparring sessions, made more interesting by their liveliness, were done today by Luis Angel Firpo, who meets Jack Dempsey for the world's title on Friday night in New York. The Argentine worked for speed, practiced defense and gave his jaw and stomach to the punch test.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Abundance of rain in the corn belt this summer has resulted in a better crop corn than expected earlier in the season, but decreased threshing returns and the ravages of rust caused a drop in the estimated spring wheat crop. It was shown in crop estimates issued today by the department of agriculture. The forecast based upon the condition of the spring wheat was 221,000,000 bushels, or about 4,000,000 bushels less than estimated on August 1 by department experts.

Last Legal Obstacle in Dempsey-Firpo Bout Removed; Work at Auditorium Moves Steadily Forward... NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP)—With the removal today of all legal obstacles that have been the pull of the Dempsey-Firpo heavyweight title match, work was pushed ahead on the additions to the Polo grounds arena, advance ticket sales boomed and the champion and his challenger put redoubled energy into the finishing stages of their training campings for the battle next Friday night.

There has been talk early today that Firpo's left arm was giving him trouble but there was no evidence of soreness during the workout. Firpo is wearing a new bathrobe. The gaudy yellow and black checked one he carried about his shoulders in all his fights is tucked away in a wardrobe in New York and probably will be taken out for the title fight, but for the remainder of the training time, a gray and black checked one is to be used.

Before his sparring today, Firpo was called upon for the usual round with photographers. With a woman pugilist, he posed in a fighting attitude and assumed a fighting scowl. Then came into the ring Miss St. Louis, one of the contestants in the beauty pageant held here last week. Luis and the Missouri girl held hands and smiled prettily. This round lasted five minutes.

MILLION ASKED FOR IMMEDIATE NEED IN TOKIO

Entire Sum Requested by American Red Cross Virtually Supplied; First Consignment of Supplies via Seattle

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Confidently anticipating by tomorrow of the full $5,000,000 asked of the American people for Japan's earthquake sufferers, the executive committee of the Red Cross has called a meeting to take action on Ambassador Wood's cable request for $1,700,000 to be sent immediately for expenditure in the devastated areas.

A total of $1,140,000 had been reported as donated tonight, and officials expressed belief that the goal would be passed before another day and that the fund asked for by the ambassador would be made available.

A statement stressing the fact that the money collected will be expended solely for relief work was issued today by Chairman John Barton Payne, of the Red Cross.

Supplies from Seattle. Acting to prevent any serious outbreak of disease in the stricken cities, Red Cross officials prepared tonight to send medical supplies on the steamship President Jackson which will sail tomorrow from Seattle.

A cablegram from Admiral Anderson stressing the urgency of the situation was received at the navy department. He said the estimate of funds obligated cannot be estimated and that conditions are terrible and beyond estimation of future needs.

Admiral Anderson said he was operating in perfect accord with the staff in Japanese officials. The greatest need, he added, was food and material, not personnel.

HEIR TO A $50,000,000 ESTATE DROWNS

Angier B. Duke

ANGIER B. DUKE, 39, member of the world-famous family of tobacco manufacturers, was drowned when he fell from a small boat at a float off the Indian Harbor Yacht club, Greenwald, Conn. Mr. Duke, who lost a hand in a hunting accident several years ago, was unable to swim and was drawn under the float, while preparing to take a party of friends to his yacht for a midnight supper. Mr. Duke was the heir to the $50,000,000 estate of his father, Benjamin J. Duke, and his uncle, James B. Duke.

cup carried out the Gamma Phi Beta colors of buff and brown. Other guests, who, with Mrs. Pike and Mrs. Wilson, are members of the Gamma Phi Beta, were Mrs. Harry Bonnet, Miss Louise McMartin, Miss Albertina Bonnet, Miss Alma Baker and Miss Helen Roberts.

Mrs. Merita G. Batley entertained the Pan Hellenic club Monday evening at her home in the Reed apartments. The usual business was transacted, after which the following officers were elected: Mrs. Batley, president; Mrs. Harry Bonnet, vice-president; Mrs. Amanda Byers, secretary-treasurer. A class contest in which each member designed a replica of her college sorority pin furnished much entertainment. Mrs. J. W. Visher, member of Phi Beta Kappa, won first prize.

After a social hour refreshments were served. The hostess being assisted by Mrs. Robert Logan and Miss Polly Thomas.

COMMENTS HEARD AMONG TOURISTS

Elmer Landis and Charles Zimmerman, two boys of Dayton, Ohio, are working their way to Ellensburg, Wash., to visit relatives. They left Dayton as soon as school closed in May, and in an old Ford are slowly nearing their journey's end. They were at anything that is offered, and are now helping with the bean crop. At one place they worked for three weeks on a farm. A tourist said, after talking with the boys: "Well, these boys will never starve."

Mr. and Mrs. T. Schuman of Springfield, Idaho, who have been visiting in Santa Cruz, Cal., for some time, came through Nevada covered with dust and filled with wrath. They say that the first 100 miles of road that they traveled in California were very bad, but not as bad as the best in Nevada. Only six miles of good roads were encountered in that state, and that was the bottom of an ancient lake. They said that the fruit growers of California are extremely unfortunate this year, though some kind of fruit rotting on the ground for want of a market.

The park looked like a small but thriving town Sunday night. There were three houses on wheels, two of which were small hotels, and the other a complete machine shop, containing a forge, an acetylene welding outfit and some kind of electric machine. It proved very handy for one tourist who came in with a broken spring.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Willand are leaving Seattle for their former home in New York city. Mr. Willand said that perhaps little old New York would not look as good as they imagine, and that they would come back next year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hancecock and Daniel Royden are returning to Mingo, Okla., from a long visit along the coast. They were much pleased with this section and intimated that they might return if they could dispose of their business.

FULL EXTENT OF TOKIO CALAMITY IS POINTED OUT

Dispatch to Honolulu Newspaper Man Sets Dead, Injured and Homeless at 77 Per Cent of the Entire Population

HONOLULU, Sept. 10 (AP)—Cable advice to the Nippo Jiji, a Japanese language paper here, from his Tokio correspondent said that 71 per cent of the buildings of Tokio, including commercial structures and residences, were in ruins, either from fire or collapse following the earthquake of September 1. Seventy-seven per cent of the population is dead, injured or homeless, according to the Tokio metropolitan police bureau's estimate.

In Yokohama, the cable advice said, approximately 200,000 of the 440,000 population of that city are dead, injured or homeless and 71,000 out of 88,000 buildings were destroyed. At the Yokosuka naval station only 150 houses out of a total of 15,000 remain standing. The insurance losses will be tremendous, the Nippo Jiji's correspondent declared, the amount reaching two billion two hundred million yen ($1,100,000,000). Of this sum 80 per cent of the losses will be paid by the government and 20 per cent by the insurance companies.

The leading business men of Tokio, headed by Viscount Shibusawa, have held a conference at which a decision was reached to construct fireproof and earthquake-proof buildings and to make Tokio one of the most nearly ideal cities in the world. In furtherance of this plan bonds will be issued to finance the rebuilding.

Good Order Prevails. Law and order prevails throughout Tokio and no uneasiness is felt over the food situation. The law courts will not reopen until September 15. No date has been set for the reopening of the public schools.

Proposals to move the headquarters of the chief of staff and other important government offices, to some other city, have not with decided opposition and it is not believed that any steps in this direction will be taken by the authorities.

PARKS ARE FULL

According to the message estimated 1,350,000 persons homeless there, constituting 67 per cent of the total population.

The deaths of the British assistant commercial attache, Horne, and Mrs. David Waddell, assistant to the British commercial attache in Yokohama, were reported.

Five Banks Reopen. Five of the leading banks opened for business on September 9, including the Mitsu bank, the Kwangyo bank, the bank of Taiwan, the Kogyo bank and the Yokohama Specie bank, the dispatch said, while the ministry of finance and the Bank of Japan were striving to re-establish the financial affairs of Tokio.

The foreign office building was reported only partially destroyed, but owing to the dislocation of communication not more than one-half of the staff was able to reach the office.

"Better efficiency in foreign communication will be attained in a few days," the message predicted.

SESSION CURTAILED. GENEVA, Sept. 10 (AP)—The assembly of the league of nations curtailed its sessions today as a special mark of feeling for the bereavement of Japan.

*Mrs. C. H. Williams, 327 Fourth avenue west, entertained on Saturday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter Luetta. The little folks spent the afternoon with games on the lawn after which many refreshments were served. Mrs. Williams being assisted by her daughter, Miss Marjorie, Pearl Melton and Theresa Ford. Each child was presented with a fancy bag of delicious candies as a favor. There were two lovely birthday cakes, each bearing eight pink candles. Little Miss Luetta received many beautiful gifts. Those present were Jessie and Virginia Roberts, Ruth Miller, Opal Melton, Helen Ford and Lottie Shannon.

Complimenting Miss Marie Hagerman of Mountain, N. D., house guests of Miss Iris Guthrie, Miss Louise McMartin entertained at luncheon Monday at the Hotel Rogerson. Margaritos were used for the centerpiece and the nap covers were yellow. Covers were laid for Miss Hagerman, Miss Guthrie, Miss Polly Thomas, Miss Ellene Lewis and the hostess. Following luncheon the afternoon was spent at the marina.

Local members of the Delta Gamma sorority entertained for the girls who are leaving for college at the home of Mrs. Arthur J. Peavey on Sunday evening with a "supper-five-dollar." The three course supper was served at four small tables lighted with pink candles, the base of each candle being twined with clematis and pink and blue asters. The rooms were artistic with vases and baskets of the blue and pink asters, this being the sorority colors. After supper the guests gathered about the fluide where the interesting memory books were looked over and college and sorority songs were sung. Guests of honor were Misses Margaret McAtee, Edna Parrott, Orpha Markel, Cleo DeWitt, Irene Costello, Marjorie Brown, Margaret Dunlap, Dorothy Simpson and Mildred McNichols. Hostesses were Mrs. Peavey, Mrs. Francis Field Hill, Misses Marela Giffen, Zuma Shearer, Gen. Helen Honnold, Annabelle McMaster, Esther McRoberts and Polly Thomas.

Miss Ellene Lewis will entertain with a 1 o'clock luncheon today at her home at the Rex Arms apartments in honor of Miss Marie Hagerman. An old fashioned nosegay will form the centerpiece for the table and smaller ones will be placed at each cover as favors. The guest list includes besides the honored guest, Miss Iris Guthrie, Miss Margaret McAtee, Miss Orpha Markel and Miss Louise McMartin.

On Monday morning Mrs. W. F. Pike entertained at a beautifully appointed breakfast complimenting Mrs. Richard Wilson, nee Miss Agnes Hart, who with her baby son, is here from Seattle to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart. Other specially honored guests were Miss Margaret Dunlap, Miss Cleo DeWitt, Miss Margaret McAtee and Miss Irene Costello, all of whom are leaving in the next few days to attend college. EASTERN REPRESENTATIVES: George D. Davis Co., Inc., 171 Madison Ave., New York; A. L. Keator, 1411 Hartford Building, Chicago.

NEIGHBORS: Once upon a time there was a man of a certain race who lay dying and penniless by the roadside.

A teacher, using this story as an example, asked his pupils who was the man's neighbor in that case—those at his own race and city, or the man from afar and of a different cast of thought.

Japan was far away and feared because of our inability to grasp her type of mind. She feared of strong and foreign race.

Now one lies distressed by the roadside. And from the alien country come lumber, food, bandages and money.

There is no more question of misunderstanding now. Underneath all differences lies humanity. Japan and America are neighbors.

LITTLE HUMAN WEEDS: Secretary of Labor Davis told the Alabama legislature that there are five hundred thousand 'neglected children' in the United States today—children living in such destitution, squalor and bad family environment that they have no chance for normal development.

Half a million, a large number in itself, seems small when compared with the total number of children in the country. It may be as much as two per cent. All the more striking, therefore, Secretary Davis' further statement that from these five hundred thousand children are recruited eighty per cent of the nation's criminals.

Children, of course, are their own justification for anything that can be done for them. Every child has a right to a chance in life and to the pursuit of happiness with some hope of attainment. But it is plain from the figures how society's own interest is bound up with service to these children.

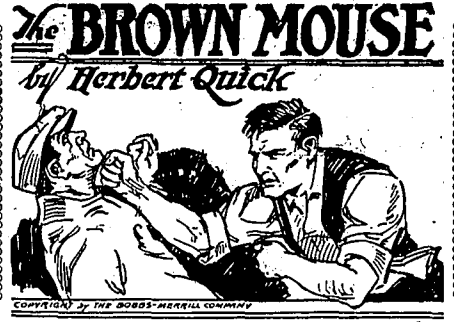

The little minority, neglected, may do vast harm to all the rest, as one little point of infection in the human body may bring illness and death.

MEXICO: Washington's recognition of Mexico is followed quickly by similar action at Paris. French resumption of diplomatic and business relations was almost automatic, when once the United States government had set the example.

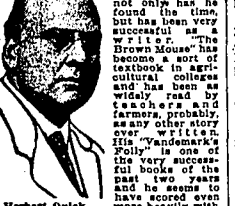

The way in which Europe generally has tacitly followed American leadership throughout the Mexican troubles has shown the respect felt for the Monroe Doctrine, and for all that it implies. It was left to this country to handle the Mexican situation, even though several foreign countries believed they were making big sacrifices thereby.

Some favored armed invasion at various times, and some favored friendly tolerance of Mexico's follies. It is to the credit of American statesmanship that a peaceful policy of watchful waiting and calm insistence on American rights has proved successful at last, and bids fair to bring compensation for the long delay.

It is only fair to give equal credit to the present Mexican administration, under President Obregon, which has been instrumental in reconstruction.

Herbert Quick has been such a busy man in various lines of activity that the wonder is he has found time to not only have the four successful stories written for 'The Brown Mouse' but also to have been a sort of textbook in agriculture to college teachers and farmers, probably.

Herbert Quick. "The Hawk" is the list of his novels and short stories. He is in general excellence would credit the person who has devoted all his time to literature.

He was born on a farm near Steamboat Rock, Grundy county, Iowa. From farming he turned to school-teaching and then to writing. He has been a member of the American Red Cross, with the rank of colonel. Several years ago he moved to Berkeley Springs, Ohio, where he is now recognized as one of the greatest teachers in the world. His story is so charmingly constructed that it can be made to attach to the occupations of teaching, medicine, and law, and is relished by children as well as adults, and the practical ideas which it contains are of value to all who are interested in the progress of the world.

CHAPTER I

A Maiden's "Humph!" Jim brought from his day's work all the fragrances of next year's meadows. He had been feeding the crops. All the day opposite notes, and the accents of the farm are an exception to the rule.

He was now conscious of this as was Jennie Woodruff. Had he been so, the glimmer of her white plique dress on the bench under the blue wood would not have drawn him back from the gate. He had come to the house to ask Colonel Woodruff about the farm work, and having received instructions to take a team and join in the road work next day, he had gone down the walk between the beds of four o'clocks and petunias to the lane.

A brief hello betrayed old acquaintance, and that social equality which still persists in theory between the work people on the American farm and the family and employer. A desultory murmur of voices ensued. Jim Irwin sat down on the bench—not too close, he observed, to the plique skirt.

"I know you are," said she, "but after all these years don't you think you should be at least preparing to be something more than that?" "What can I do?" he pleaded. "Tried hand and foot. . . I might have." "You might have," said she. "But Jim, you haven't. . . and I don't see any prospect. . . I have been writing for the farm papers," said Jim; "but . . . But that doesn't get you anywhere, . . . You're a great deal more able and intelligent than Ed, and see what a fine position he has in Chicago. . . There's mother, you know," said Jim gently.

Jim, you haven't. . . and I don't see any prospect. . . I have been writing for the farm papers," said Jim; "but . . . But that doesn't get you anywhere, . . . You're a great deal more able and intelligent than Ed, and see what a fine position he has in Chicago. . . There's mother, you know," said Jim gently.

"You can't do anything here," said Jennie. "You've been a farm-hand for fifteen years. . . and you always will be unless you pull yourself loose. Even a girl can make a place for herself if she doesn't marry and leaves the farm. Yours is twenty-eight years old."

"It's all wrong!" said Jim gently. "The farm ought to be the place for the best sort of career—I love the soil!"

"I've been teaching for only two years, and they say I'll be nominated for county superintendent if I'll take it. Of course I won't—it seems silly—but if it were you, now, it would be a first step to a life that leads to something."

"Mother and I can live on my wages—and the garden and chickens and the cow," said Jim. "After I received my teacher's certificate, I tried to work out some way of doing the same thing on a country teacher's wages. I couldn't. It doesn't seem right."

"Jim rose and after packing back and forth sat down again, a little closer to Jennie. Jennie moved away to the extreme end of the bench, and the shrinking away of Jim as if he had been repelled by some sort of negative magnetism showed either sensitiveness or temper.

"It seems as if it ought to be possible," said Jim, "for a man to do work on the farm, or in the rural schools, that would make him a livelihood. If he is only a field-hand, it ought to be possible for him to save money and buy a farm."

"Pa's land is worth two hundred dollars an acre," said Jennie. "Six months of your wages for an acre—even if you lived on nothing."

"No," he assented, "it can't be done, and the other thing can't, either. There ought to be such conditions that a teacher could make a living."

"They do," said Jennie, "if they can live at home during vacations. I do."

"But a man teaching in the country ought to be able to marry."

"Marry!" said Jennie, rather unfeelingly. "I think. 'You marry!' Then after remaining silent for nearly a minute, she uttered the syllable—with out the utterance of which this narrative would not have been written. 'You marry! Humph!'"

Jim Irwin rose from the bench tingling with the insult he found in her tone. They had been boy-and-girl sweethearts in the old days at the Woodruff schoolhouse down the road, and before the fateful time when Jennie went "off to school" and Jim began to support his mother. They had even kissed—and on Jim's side, lonely as was his life, cut off as it necessarily was from all social life, he saved that of his tiny home and his fellow-workers of the field, the tender little love-story was the sole romance of his life. Jennie's "Humph!" retired this romance from circulation, he felt. It showed contempt for the idea of the man in her shoes, and for a scissel category with other defectives, and boded him with the certainty of a sort of Twentieth-century monk, without the honor of the priestly vocation. From another girl it would have been bad enough, but from Jennie Woodruff—and especially on that quiet summer night under the lindes—it was insupportable.

"Good night," said Jim—simply because he could not trust himself to say more.

"Good night," replied Jennie, and sat a long time wondering just how deeply she had unintentionally wounded the feelings of her father's field-hand; deciding that if he was driven from her forever, it would solve the problem of terminating that old childish love affair which still persisted in occupying a suite of rooms all of its own in her memory; and finally repenting of the unpremeditated thrust which might easily have hurt too deeply so sensitive a man as Jim Irwin. But girls are not usually so made as to feel any very bitter remorse for their male victims, and so Jennie slept very well that night.

Jim Irwin was sorry and regretted and homesily, with a big mouth and wide eyes, and a form stooped with labor. He had fine, lambent, gentle eyes which lighted up his face when he smiled. He was not ugly. Jim Irwin possessed charm. That is why little Jennie Woodruff had asked him to help with her lessons, rather than as a teacher was necessary, in those old days in the Woodruff schoolhouse when Jennie wore her hair down her back.

But in spite of this homely charm of personality, Jim Irwin was set off from his fellows of the Woodruff neighborhood. He was different. In local parlance, he was an off ox. He was as odd as Dick's husband. He ran in a gang by himself. He had always liked to read, and had piles of literature in his attic room which was good, because it was cheap.

Very few people know that cheap literature is very likely to be good, because it is old and unprotected by copyright. Jim had Emerson, Thoreau, an Encyclopedia of English Literature, some editions of standard poets in paper covers, and a few Ruskins and Carlyles—all read to rags.

In fact Jim had a good library of publications which can be obtained gratis, or very cheaply—and he knew their contents. He had a personal philosophy which which he was carrying him the world in which his fellows lived, had given him one of his own, in which he moved as lonely as a cloud,

CITY RATES ON WATER PROVIDE WEXING TOPIC

Commission Gives Schedule of Charges Further Consideration; Will Talk Levy at Meeting on Wednesday

Municipal water rates, receipt of bids for water order formerly used by the city and the suggestion for inoculation of dogs against rabies infection were among the several matters considered by the city commission at its regular meeting Monday night.

The adoption of the city tax levy for the year was placed before the commission, but no action was taken and the matter will be given full consideration at an adjourned meeting set for Wednesday night.

The subject of water rates has required considerable attention lately, the purpose being to arrive at the proper schedule of rates, with the least expense of the water works department being taken into consideration.

May Revises Rates. The discussion revolved principally around the matter of rates for the recent year in rates having been made on the basis of an annual expense estimated at approximately $50,000 and the necessity, therefore, of having to raise the charges in order to meet the expense of installing meters. It was afterwards found, it is said, that the expense figures as stated by the department were not correct in that various items had been improperly charged.

Search for Audit. In discussion of the city water rates the council had occasion to refer to the five year audit as well as the annual audit completed by the accounting firm of Wolfenden & Radcliff. The five year document was found but search for the 1922-1923 audit proved unavailing, and it was not recited whether the audit had ever been filed with the commission. It was said, however, commissioners advised.

John Radcliff applied for the contract to make the next twelve months' audit and the application was taken under advisement.

Tower Bids Rejected. Bids ranging from $275 to $350 for the purchase of the water tower were received and all were rejected as being too low. According to Commissioner S. E. All the original cost, including installation, of the tower was in the neighborhood of $1200 and a much higher bid than those opened Monday night had previously been received, he said.

Talk Inoculation. Dr. Hal Bieker, two local veterinarians and Dr. Smith, state veterinarian, appeared before the commission in connection with the suggestion for the inoculation of dogs to prevent the spread of rabies. The serum treatment is accredited as being effective and entirely harmless to the animal inoculated. The city council at Emmett recently adopted an ordinance providing for inoculation and a copy of the ordinance will be obtained for local consideration.

Leaves Library Board. A communication from the Twin Falls library board stated that Frank L. Stephens has been elected to the board to succeed W. H. Eldridge, resigned. Action on the matter was passed for the time being and until the proper procedure is determined upon.

House Damaged. C. E. Ritchey appeared before the commission to present his claim for repairs to a house at 1440 Fourth avenue east, which he claimed was damaged by a falling tree when the city cut down the trees along "Lovers Lane" in the east part of the city. The cost of repairs was estimated at about $25 and Mr. Ritchey was asserting they would be made.

Wants Parking Space. Edgar Cross requested action by the council setting aside spaces at street corners in which he could park his jitney bus while receiving and unloading passengers. Decision in the matter was deferred for further consideration.

Eclipse of Sun Viewed. While thousands of persons in other cities were peering at the phenomenal eclipse of the sun on Monday, people in Twin Falls were going through the same performance. Smoked glasses once more came into prominence and the exceptional occurrence was plainly visible here. The eclipse was visible during the early afternoon.

The Ideal Purgative. As a purgative, Chamberlain's Tablets are the exact thing required. Strong enough for the most robust, mild enough for children. They cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any of that terrible griping. They are easy and pleasant to take and agreeable in effect.—adv.

Form New Body of Scout Officials

Fifty Lively Lads Take Part in Local Sessions; Favor Permanent Organization

A permanent junior scout officers' association for the counties of Twin Falls, Cassia and Minidoka was formed during the closing period of the Boy Scout convention here. Scout Keith Nelson, a merit badge patrol leader from Troop 4, Rupert, Idaho, was elected president of the newly formed association. Scout Charles Brown, scribe of Troop 2, Twin Falls, was elected secretary. The organization plans to arrange for another and much larger convention of the leading scouts in the county to be held in the spring. Fifty lively scouts took part in the convention and most home were out with many hours of serious consideration as to the problems confronting local scouts desirous to lead their fellows. Only for brief moments did these earnest youths relax into fun and frolic. Visitors remarked that the boys showed as much serious concern over the program as could any adults in connection. All went away declaring that the convention had been a wonderful inspiration and help to them.

Put Ideas in Doublet. Scout Executive F. Douglas Hawley plans to keep in touch with these junior leaders during the winter, check up on their ability to carry out the ideas learned in convention, and to help them with their individual problems. Mr. Hawley states that one of the principal reasons for this convention was to train these junior officers to take over some of the load of duties now carried largely by the faithful scoutmaster leading the troops.

Monday night scouts were busy at the council headquarters and at various troop meetings around the flag and couches of a jolly Boy Scout exhibit for the fair. This exhibit is designed to show people some of the things scouts do and call attention to the value of the organization in the community.

NEW TRUSTEES PUT IN OFFICE

Weaver and Flory Sworn in on School Board; Committees for Year Named

E. N. Flory and W. H. Weaver, newly elected members of the school board of Independent District No. 1, took the oath of office at the meeting of the board Monday night, after which the board was reorganized, committees appointed and general business considered.

The two new members were sworn in after the announcement by the county superintendent of their election.

Board Reorganized. C. E. McClain was re-elected chairman, Mrs. Jane Craven Scott was re-elected clerk and Mr. Flory was elected treasurer to succeed James Fitzgerald, who declined the nomination for reappointment.

A motion then prevailed that Treasurer Flory's bond be fixed at $30,000 and upon motion of Mr. Fitzgerald an audit of the treasurer's books will be made before they are turned over to the new treasurer.

Committees Named. Chairman McClain then appointed the following committees for the ensuing year: Purchasing and auditing—K. S. Peters and James Fitzgerald. Property—E. N. Flory and Mrs. Scott. Wagon—Mr. Flory and Mr. McClain. Report is Read. The treasurer's report was read and accepted and bills to the amount of $3,853.29 were allowed and warrants ordered drawn. Most of this sum was for insurance on the different school buildings.

DOG TRIALS TO DRAW INTEREST OF SPORTSMEN

Plans Under Way for Largest Tests of Southern Idaho Club; Best Animals in District to Be in Action

Plans and preparations are well under way for one of the best and largest field trials for bird dogs ever held in Twin Falls. This is the third annual field trial held under the auspices of the Southern Idaho Field Trial club. According to an announcement by the temporary secretary of the club, Dr. Zera Aroux, if present indications are fulfilled the trial will draw dogs from Oregon, Washington, California and Idaho will be here to take a whirl at the Chinese pheasants. Large entries of both pointers and setters from outside points with professional handlers are expected. Such well-known handlers as Whiteside, Wilson and Nelson from the coast states and Black and Dickerson from California are expected to handle dogs in the trials.

Judges Listed. The judges will be C. N. Williams, of the Idaho Daily Statesman, Boise, and J. Taylor Williams of Boise, both excellent dog men, and can be relied upon to render their decisions solely from the merits of the trial.

Five Stakes Offered. Five stakes are offered this year: A puppy stake for pointers and setters (registered or eligible) born on or after January 1, 1923; a derby stake for puppies born on or after January 1, 1922; an all-age stake for dogs of any age, must be registered; an amateur stake for pointers and setters who have never won in any recognized stake (registered or not), professional handlers barred. This presents a golden opportunity for anyone who has a good bird dog that he wishes to try out. And a stake for Irish setters.

Entry Fee $5. The entry fee is $5 for each dog and all of these wishing to enter dogs are requested to communicate with Dr. Zera Aroux, temporary secretary of the club, at Twin Falls. It is the desire and aim of the club to promote better sportsmanship, better dogs, more birds, better game conditions, and more sportsmen.

The trials will be run near Twin Falls, the place to be announced later on Sunday and Monday, September 16 and 17.

Lengthy Chase Ends in Driver's Arrest

W. H. Prough Is Held in Jail to Face Charge of Speeding while Intoxicated

W. H. Prough pleaded guilty when arraigned Monday in police court before Justice Mulloy on a charge of speeding and driving an automobile while intoxicated. Justice Mulloy took the case under consideration to render a decision at 2 p. m. Tuesday. The defendant is being held in the city jail until that time. Empty whiskey bottles were found in the car, police said. The arrest of Prough was accomplished by city police officers shortly after 2 o'clock Monday morning and after Prough, it is said, drove up and down the principal downtown streets at an excessive rate of speed. Officers said they had made several attempts to halt the alleged speeder and Patrolman Del Kennison took up the case in the police "grayhound." The driver, however, failed to remain within the limits of the bigger car, it is said, and Motorcycle Officer Quigley caught up with the pursued machine outside the city limits. Prough was arrested when he returned to the city. The authorities allege that the car driven by Prough bore a license issued to the defendant's father for another car. The car is said to be the property of a deputy sheriff here, and had been sent to a mechanic for repairs.

FILER FAMILY HONORED

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bradley call to Express Best Wishes; Will Leave Shortly for Alaska. A group of neighbors and friends numbering about 30 called at the W. J. Bradley home near Filer Sunday afternoon to wish them good fortune on their venture in making their new home in Alaska. Mr. Bradley expects to leave with his family in about two weeks for Wrangell, Alaska, taking with them a carload of goods and livestock. He will join a son who is already located there in the livestock business.
