COOLIDGE HOLDS TO SILENCE ON WORLD TRIBUNAL

Declines to Announce Policy Regarding Issue Placed Before Senate by Harding; Gives Problem Much Study

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (AP)—The question of American participation in the world court regarded by the White House as one still pending before the senate for such action as it may decide to take upon it. Inquiries as to whether the president directed that President Harding submitted the matter to that body last February and have been told that in the circumstances there remains nothing for President Coolidge to do, at least for the present.

Suggestions that Mr. Coolidge make some public pronouncement on the subject have had the information that the executive will not undertake to dominate legislative action. This position, his friends say, is in accordance with that of the late president, whose policy it was to leave the initiative to the legislature.

Moreover, President Coolidge has what his advisors describe as a natural hesitancy in discussing matters which are to be decided by the senate. It was not until the new congress in December. This natural hesitancy, they assert, has influenced what has amounted to a virtual decision to abstain from public address until after the legislative branch of the government has assembled and received its first annual message.

The world court is one to which Mr. Coolidge has given no small amount of attention since he took up the task laid down by President Harding. It was brought by a number of his callers over by a member of himself in the White House executive office and it had been brought up from time to time since.

Those who have discussed the matter with the executive include senators of the "irreconcilable" group and some cabinet officers and party leaders. Thus he has received the views of both opponents and proponents of the court idea, but his own position has been no more definitely outlined publicly than it was in the statement to the country after he took the oath of office that he would endeavor to carry through the policies inaugurated by his predecessor.

Speculation Prevails. Mr. Coolidge's position on the court plan outlined by Mr. Harding at St. Louis, remains, therefore, a matter of speculation. Neither has there been opportunity to assess the reactions of those who have discussed the matter with Mr. Harding followed soon after and before he had had a chance to give more in detail the plan upon which he believed the two schools of thought in the country might meet.

When the late president left Washington for the west the court issues had caused a wide difference of opinion within his party and even a rumbling of an open split. Whether the St. Louis plan would have served to bring the two groups closer together remains an open question, but it is known that the "irreconcilables" if not all of them, are steadfast in their opposition and have made known their position to the new president.

QUIET PREVAILS IN SPANISH CITY

General Rivera, Who Engineered Revolt at Barcelona, Meets Little Opposition.

MADRID, Sept. 15 (AP)—With Captain General Primo Rivera in control, supported as he is by King Alfonso, and with the formation of a dictatorship to take the place of the Alibacete ministry the situation in the capital is, for as outward appearances go, normal. General Primo Rivera, who engineered the military coup d'etat at Barcelona, reached here today and proceeded at once to the organization of the new administration. With the army behind him, he was met with no opposition.

The courts reopened today, and the minister of justice and the president of the supreme court made speeches in which they touched briefly upon the necessity of maintaining order. The king is expected to sign a decree immediately dissolving the present cabinet. Another council of the military directorate was held this afternoon.

Admiral Aznar, minister of marine in the Alibacete cabinet, announces that he will be ordered to leave Spain. General Aliphan, however, with all the officials of the ministry of war, quit and left for Cordoba on their way to San Sebastian. Various political leaders have assembled here. Count Balmaceda, the former premier, informed the associate Press correspondent that the first news of the overthrow of the Alibacete government reached him in northern France and he decided to return immediately to Spain and remain at his post as president of the senate.

"My attitude is one of separation from the present government," he said, "but I believe it should be made as difficult for them so that God may enlighten their minds and direct them in the regeneration of Spain." Former Premier Sanchez Guerra explained to the committee of ministers to be present at the new turn of political events, but that he would remain apart from the new government. He will go to San Sebastian shortly.

MADRID, Sept. 15 (AP)—General Miguel Primo Rivera, Marquis de Estella, head of the revolutionary movement which overthrew the Alibacete ministry, took the oath of conformity with the law, was requested to verify the oath, was absent, sending word that he was indisposed. MINE OFFICIALS SCOUTS CLAIMS OF RADICALISM

Bridon Sees Reports of Communist Scheme as Union Officials' Attempt to Evade Responsibility

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—A recently published series of charges by the United Mine Workers of America that the communist international in Moscow, was fomenting industrial revolution in the United States and Canada at a step toward overthrowing the government were refuted today by statements were made by John C. Britton, president of the National Coal association, as a "bold, ineffective and belated attempt by the mine workers' officials to evade responsibility for events which they justly should be ashamed."

"Violence in the coal fields," said Mr. Britton, "is the result of the machinations of communists who draw their inspiration from Moscow. It is the direct result of an even more dangerous theory of the mine workers, the infiltration and murder of the United Mine Workers of America have sought to shut off production during strikes."

The association's general committee, special committee, asserted that the $170,000,000 a year which the miners' union has received from the government has a great deal more to do with the maintenance of violence in the coal fields than has the mythical $1,100,000 from the treasury of the nation.

"I have read with amazement," Mr. Britton's statement begins, "the melodramatic stories which picture officials of the United Mine Workers as 'gang-bangers' and 'maimings of industry with the violence of Moscow still pursuing them.' He then tells of an exhaustive investigation undertaken by the mine workers as an aid to the United States coal commission and the examination of trial records 'of scores of violence cases in all these states against communists which have centered coal history with blood from Kentucky to Utah and from Alabama to Pennsylvania, and in which a reasonable evidence of any communist influence. What we have found is a creed and practice based upon the union of American shall mine or shall not mine in the United States in time of strike with freedom to his property and life, unless he shall mine that coal in accordance with the dictation of the United Mine Workers of America."

"The Herria massacre has achieved world publicity and is therefore one of the counts on which the United Mine Workers of America are based on itself. But Herria was no worse in principle than the killings which followed, if five days later in Ohio or in Pennsylvania, the same kind of violence which accompanied the strike of 1922. But Herria, like all the others, is a perfect example of the untruth of the contention that any union of mine workers in the United States is a threat to the life and property of the leaders of the United Mine Workers of America is the moving force that stirs not foreigners, but Americans to unspeakable crimes against their fellowmen and against

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—A recent report by the United Mine Workers of America that the communist Internationale at Moscow was fomenting industrial revolution in the United States and Canada as a strategy for overthrowing the government was characterized today by John C. Bridon, president of the National Coal Association, as a "bald, ineffective and hollow story."

Clues Check-off: The association president, who also is chairman of the Bituminous Operators' special committee, asserted "that the $17,000,000 a year which the miners' union raises through the check-off is a great deal more to do with the maintenance of violence in the coal fields than the mythical $1,100,000 from the treasury of the soviet."

"I have read with amazement," Mr. Bridon's statement begins, "the melodramatic stories which picture officials of the United Mine Workers as the innocent victims of industry with the claims of Moscow still pursuing them." He then tells of an exhaustive investigation undertaken by the mine operators as aid to the United States coal commission and the examination of trial records in scores of violence cases.

BORAH TO URGE U. S. AID IN RUHR PROBLEM

Idaho Senator Intends to Renew Efforts for International Meeting; America Should Take First Step

SALT LAKE, Sept. 15 (AP)—"The United States must take the initiative," said Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, when speaking here Friday night in reference to his intention of renewing his resolution in the senate seeking to bring about a conference between the leading nations in clearing up the Ruhr situation. "The problems now facing Europe are of grave importance to our industries," he said, "especially our agriculture. As long as the Ruhr trouble remains in its present unsettled condition we cannot expect to have world peace. The policy of the allies since the war has been destructive rather than helpful and a conference between the countries is necessary to formulate an economic program relieving this situation."

Farm Prices Fatal.
"Farming in the western territory is in about the same condition as it is over the whole country. The farmers have been forced back to pre-war prices for their products, while wages and the cost of implements have remained at the war-time scale, a condition which also includes high taxation. The crops of Idaho this year have been very good, but the prices for them have been reduced to the level of the year 1922 in light circumstances. In the year 1922 two million men left the farms, and it is estimated that this number will be increased to five million by the end of the present year. There is a vast amount of unrest in the agricultural industry and the program of adjustment must be enacted if the farmer is to remain contented and prosperous."

Senator Borah in speaking of the Coolidge administration stated that the president in carrying out the issues of the party had progressed very well. It was generally thought that President Coolidge would be nominated by the republican party if he continued to show the same ability in the administration of affairs.

Senator Borah declared the party presenting a program including a substantial relief in agricultural taxation in this territory would be successful in gaining the votes of the people engaged in that industry. Business conditions throughout the country are very much improved, said Senator Borah, who has recently visited many states. "With a successful conference between the leading nations relieving the Ruhr situation, we may expect to gain prosperity considerably above our present condition," he added.

WANTS RESULTS FROM MEN IN PUBLIC OFFICE

Past, Present and Future Records Are Demanded by Nebraska Governor Before His Will Cast His Vote

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 15 (AP)—"The people are not interested in a candidate, but in results," Governor Bryan of Nebraska declared when asked today for his opinion on presidential candidates. "It will be necessary for each candidate to express himself specifically on each issue before I or any other voter will express our confidence," the Nebraska governor declared.

"His past record, his environment, his political affiliation, and his future position are the things the people are going to ask before they express their confidence," Governor Bryan said he believed.

The Nebraska governor added that it would "be necessary for the presidential candidate to declare himself clearly on the real issues before the people before they would form their judgment as to who is available."

The governor refused to mention names regarding presidential candidates and was charged the subject of the conversation to announce himself in favor of amending the federal constitution to require concurrence of at least seven judges before any act of congress was declared unconstitutional.

RAPS ENACTMENT OF LIQUOR LAW

Senator Wadsworth Tells New York Veterans Act Is Violation of Rights

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—Prior to the enactment of the eighteenth amendment it was never suspected that the constitution would contain a provision limiting or prohibiting the activities of the individual, United States Senator Wadsworth declared today before the state convention of the American Legion.

"It is a gross pity," he said, "that this conception was violated by the eighteenth amendment, which says that an individual cannot do certain things. The amendment is a statute, summary in character, for it seems to govern the personal conduct and habits of the individual citizen, always a difficult and dangerous thing to attempt."

"The statute is being violated right and left. Millions of people purchase or consume illegal alcoholic beverages. The federal government and the states collectively spend millions to stop the traffic. After four years they have made no appreciable headway."

"The corrupting influence of this situation is admitted and dreaded by every honest mayor and chief of police in the United States."

SEPTEMBER IS HALF OVER—IS YOUR WARDROBE READY FOR AUTUMN'S CHILLY WINDS?

Fur Jaquettes are ideal for Fall

Sport Coats retain their popularity

Jacquettes are too useful to lose their popularity. In furs and fur fabrics they are smarter than ever, and can be worn with almost any frock or skirt.

For sports and general utility wear the tailored sport coat is most satisfactory, and is likely to be made of camel's hair, Polo Paire, or one of the popular plaids. Into their coats for sports and the street Hart Schaffner & Marx have put all the clothes wisdom and skill that have made the name nationally famous.

Coat Dresses will be much worn

These perfectly tailored coat frocks of the finest woolen fabrics furnish material for many a good-looking street costume. Many women find a coat dress meets their requirements better than a suit.

Sweaters are irresistible

Sweaters assume an importance this Fall that they have never before enjoyed. Many are sleeveless, some are in Jaquette style, some fasten closely about the throat—all are very smart! Of course, we have the dainty little sweater blouses you will want to wear with the sleeveless sweaters.

Fur trims many of the lovely wraps

The dressier coats are fashioned of such supple fabrics as Lustrosa, Gerona, Marvella, and Bolivia. The styles are too varied to be described—you must see them.

FOR THE LITTLE GIRL WHO WOULD GO SMARTLY AS WELL AS WARMLY CLAD

PoloPets are the cleverest little outfits for children we have seen in a long time. A PoloPet includes a sweater coat and cap, both trimmed in brushed wool. The colors are red and tan.

The styles this fall in Jack Tar Togs are better than ever. There are middies for school-room and gymnasium, and girlish dresses in a variety of styles and colors.

1924 Model Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car

$995

The Price of This Car Is Misleading

Some buyers take it for granted that cars which sell at about the same prices are equal in value. This is distinctly not the case. To buy on this basis would be an injustice to yourself.

You can pay several hundred dollars more than the Light-Six price and get a car that represents no greater, if great, intrinsic value as the Studebaker Light-Six.

Or you can pay about the same price as the Light-Six, or less, and get a car that is high-priced when compared with the Light-Six because it does not represent as much for the money invested.

And in the Light-Six you enjoy all the advantages of smooth, flexible, dependable, six-cylinder performance.

You get a beautiful, substantial, well-built, roomy and comfortable car.

The practical absence of vibration in the Light-Six is a notable achievement. It is due largely to the fact that the Light-Six crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces. This is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars within hundreds of dollars of the Light-Six price.

Stop in and see the 1924 Model Light-Six.

Test it for yourself—drive it and make your comparisons. Driving is believing.

After seventy-one years of service the name Studebaker enjoys confidence and respect more than ever.

Donations to date amount to more than 20,000,000 yen ($10,000,000).

NEW YORK WINS FOURTH VICTORY

Errors Contribute to Severe Drubbing Given Chicago; Cleveland Loses to Boston

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—The New York Americans won their fourth victory of the last five games played with the Chicago club by a score of 10 to 4, here today. One 1/2 inning was all that was necessary for the Yankees to turn the tide in their favor when they were helped by four Chicago errors, two of them by Eddie Collins in the third inning. Babe Ruth in his first time up in the first inning, drew his one hundred and forty-ninth base off a ball, breaking his own major league record which he made in 1920, the year he hit 54 home runs.

CHICAGO CUTS GIANTS' LEAD

World's Champions Nosed Out, 3 to 2; Pittsburgh and Brooklyn Divide

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Chicago cut New York's lead in the pennant race to four games today by nosing out the world's champions 3 to 2. In the second straight game of the series, while Pittsburgh and Brooklyn divided honors in a double header and Cincinnati won from Boston, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh are in a practical tie for the runner-up honors, although owing to a few number of games played over the Pirates have a one-point advantage over the Reds.

The first game was a pitchers' battle between Meadows and Ruether in which the latter yielded the winning run in the sixth inning and two more in the eighth.

and wild throws by Benton and Finelli, but could not quite overcome the lead which the Reds had acquired by pounding Genewick for 15 hits and seven runs in the first six innings, the score ending 7 to 6. Burns, Broderick and Keck stopped the Boston rally by striking out Felix in the eighth with the tying run on first base.

TILDEN VICTOR AGAIN.—GERMANTOWN, CRICKET CLUB, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15 (AP)—William T. Tilden II., the tall, angular Philadelphia, retained the lawn tennis singles championship of the United States this afternoon when he defeated William M. Johnston of San Francisco, in the final round at the Germantown Cricket club. Tilden won in straight sets. The scores were 6-4, 6-1, 6-4.

The victory in such decisive, sweeping fashion, was the fourth national championship triumph for the Philadelphia in succession, the second in order over Johnston. It marked him the world's greatest player, for his California antagonist this year is rated world's champion, by virtue of his victory at Wimbledon, Lugland, early in the summer.

Tilden was master of the match from the outset. His carefully planned campaign of play came to fruition as he had desired. He drew with cautious firmness, played with a care and accuracy that was unceasing, wore his opponent ragged with long, cross court shots and throughout prevented the Californian from executing his famous forehand driving shots.

DEMPSEY-FIRPO
TITLE CONTEST

South American Admitted as Being More Dangerous than Ever; Rickard May Stage Bout July 1 in New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (AP)—Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo have not settled their little feud despite the world's champion's smashing victory over his Argentine rival last night at the Polo grounds in a swelling, cyclonic drama unparalleled in ring annals.

Firpo, in defeat, was acclaimed by critics as a more dangerous challenger than ever and tonight Tex Rickard announced he already had plans under way for a second championship fight between these two mighty gladiators. It cannot take place before next summer, the promoter declared, but if it materializes, he hopes to stage the match about July 1, 1924, probably in New York.

Meanwhile, Rickard added, he is ready to match Firpo and Harry Wills,

Now Orleans negro. Wills, so far, however, has turned a deaf ear to Rickard's proposal, intending to press his claim for a fight with the champion.

Was Too Inexperienced.

One factor—inexperience—was chiefly responsible for Firpo's downfall, experts agreed today, and the giant South American, recognizing his own shortcomings, intends to take no chances of being outwrenged again.

"I will want at least three months of training before I fight anyone," said Luis today, as he sat with a few friends in an apartment at Fifty-first street and Broadway, while a throng of 2,000 massed themselves around the outside of the building, blocking traffic for blocks in their eagerness to catch a sight of the Argentinian.

"Do I want to fight Dempsey again? Certainly," declared Firpo, "but I will be ready next time—and who knows—there may be a different story."

The Argentinian's own summary of his case dovetailed with the consensus of expert boxing opinion tonight. Had Firpo possessed the ring knowledge, the experience to have followed up swiftly and accurately his advantage when, after himself being floored five times in the first round, he lifted Dempsey from the floor with a terrific right and sent the champion flying through the ropes—had the challenger snuffed home but one sure punch as the title holder recoiled to a defeat, a new king might have ruled the heavyweight domain today.

Dempsey in Fine Shape.

Dempsey was never greater, observers are convinced. The champion fought and won a savage, furious battle in a manner that stupified him among the greatest ring men of all time, a master strategist, lightning like on attack and deadly in the power of his short swift hooks, delivered from any angle and with either fist. Dempsey had two weapons to Firpo's one and he made good use of this advantage.

No more convincing proof of the gripping tenacity, the whitewind slugging pace set by the two battlers in the first round can be gained than the fact that no two ring-siders agreed as to the exact details of the three minutes and 57 seconds of fighting. Veteran newspaper ring followers, for a score or more years, sat spellbound and incandescent at the amazing spectacle unfolded before them. Such action was impossible for the human eye to follow and record accurately and thus today there are many and varied stories of some of the tensest moments of the struggle. Only the unerring camera's eye will disclose all that was packed in that round and a third of epochal fighting.

Dropped Seven Times.

Experts generally agreed that Firpo was knocked down for counts five times in the first round and twice in the second, before a final right hook set him sprawling on his back for the eighth and last time.

Some credited the champion with scoring seven knock-downs in the first round, including two when it seemed the challenger sagged at the knees, but did not go down for a count.

Firpo, it was revealed today by Promoter Rickard, fought Dempsey with the handicap of an injured left arm, that had bothered him to such an extent three weeks before that the challenger wanted to postpone the match.

Until it is thoroughly mended he will do no further fighting, he declared.

But outside of his arm Firpo bore no marks of battle, except for a slight swelling where his lips were cut. The champion's body blows never harmed him, the Argentinian said. It was the punishment to the chin and head that brought him down at least eight times.

Champ Has Black Eye.

Dempsey, who indulged in a busy day in contrast to the seclusion his antagonist sought, bore a blue-colored eye as evidence of the conflict, but otherwise was unmarked. The champion, followed by cheering throngs wherever he went, devoted most of the afternoon to helping make a success of the annual games of the New York police department on Long Island and corps of 30 internal revenue men, assisted by Rickard's aides, worked throughout the day checking up the tickets and gate receipts. The task remained uncompleted, but estimates differed little from last night's figures. The latest information placing the attendance at about 85,000 and the receipts at $1,150,000.

Picture framing done neatly. Prices reasonable.

TOMMY MILTON SETS NEW RACETRACK SPEED MARK

Crowd of More than 65,000 on Hand when Race Speeds Over 100 Miles in Little More than One Hour

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 15 (AP)—More than 65,000 persons saw Tommy Milton set a new world's automobile racing speed record of 100 miles on a dirt track at the New York state fair today, the winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile race this year making the distance over the one mile track in one hour 15 minutes and 33 seconds. The former record was one hour 29 minutes and nine seconds, made by Eddie Hearne at Phoenix, Arizona in 1910.

Taking the lead early from Harry Hartz, who finished second at Indianapolis, Milton held it through to the end and finished two miles ahead of Hartz, who was second. Ira Vail was third, Ralph De Palma, fourth, and Eddie Hearne, fifth. Milton's victory brought to him the American championship for the distance on a dirt track and a cash prize of $6,000. Hartz and Vail finished well ahead of the former record.

ORPHEUM THEATRE

TOM MIX
and his famous horse presents
"JUST TONY"
A story adapted from the famous Max Brand's novel, "Alcatraz"

A feature that all highbrow critics praise as the finest outdoor classic of the screen. The story tale of a horse with more than horse sense. He was a horse of mystery—wild, determined, and the leader of his herd of desert mustangs. By night he wrought vengeance on man for the cruelties of the brand and incarceration. He opened his eyes and liberating the enslaved horses; he trampled fields of grain and destroyed the hated animal and was victorious. Then he encountered a different sort of man—a man who would neither whip nor choke him. Always one bound ahead of the wind, one stride in front of fate, one tongue to the gods of his partners, was "Tony," the hunted horse, who shares the honors with Tom Mix in this seven-reel production that all critics agree is a one hundred per cent screen classic.

Also showing two-reel sport special by Field and Stream, "Hunting the Wild Duck and the Wild Turkey." The latest pictures afield with rod and gun. Also comedy and News Weekly.

BROADCASTING DISEASES

Alarmists who take a fiendish pleasure in prophesying human woe have often told, in recent years, how whole races might be annihilated in future war by the scattering of deadly disease germs from airplanes. It was assumed that the thing was practical.
Laboratories could furnish the germs,
and all that was required was the diabolical will to sow them broadcast over hostile cities and countries.

There may be something in it, but certainly not all that the alarmists have pictured. For the thing has been tried, on a small scale, and failed utterly. A crazy chemist in Paris smashed in the street a lot of glass tubes containing some of the deadliest disease germs known to the medical profession. And the population was not wiped out as by evil magic. There was no epidemic. People were frightened when they heard about it, but they did not die. They did not even get sick.

The Pasteur Institute, which followed up the matter with scientific precision, found that even the most virulent and hardy of these germs died within an hour after their exposure to air and light.
Imagine, then, what would happen to any quantity of germs scattered from an airplane. Inevitably they would be exposed, with killing effectiveness, to their own worst enemies.
Disease germs can resist fresh air and sunshine even less than human beings can resist disease germs. And in that fact lies safety for the human race.

cent, top price for such stock that day,
and within 10 cents of the best fat ran-

Twin Falls struck on Wednesday. The young women have been working for day. With a spirit of fairness the young women consented to return to their switchboards pending a settlement of their grievances with the Salt Lake office which controls the district.

There are 325 telephones in Twin Falls and all are liberally patronized. The operators have no time to waste and the company ever care they receive as their condition they have the hearty support of all patrons of the company.

In a few days the voters of Twin Falls county will be required to pass judgment on the proposal to issue bonds to the value of $150,000 for the purpose of erecting a court house and jail.
The necessity of a court house is apparent to all who are familiar with the needs of the county. The present quarters are inadequate and expensive and the records are in constant danger of destruction by fire.

CHAPTER V

The Promotion of Jennie.

If Jennie Woodruff was the cause of Jim Irwin's sudden irruption into the educational field by her scolding
"bumph" at the idea of a famo-lous ever being able to marry, she also gave him the opportunity to knock down the driver of the big motorcar, and perceptibly elevate himself in the opinion of the neighborhood, while filling his own heart with something like shame.
The fat man who had said "Cut it out" to his driver, was Mr. Charles Dilly, a business man in the village at the extreme opposite corner of the county. Mr. Dilly was a candidate for county treasurer, and wished to be nominated at the approaching county convention. In his gaze of the county lived the county superintendent, a candidate for reappointment. He was just a plain garden or field county superintendent of schools, do better and no worse than the general political run of them, but he had local pride entangled in his cause, and was a good politician.
Mr. Dilly was in the Woodruff district to build a backbone against this conflagration of the county superintendent. He expected to use Jennie Woodruff to light it withal. That is, while denying that he wished to make any deal or trade—every candidate in every convention always says that—he wished to say to Miss Woodruff and her father, that if Miss Woodruff would permit her name to be used for the office of county superintendent of schools, a goodly group of delegates could be selected in the other corner of the county who would be glad to reciprocate any favors Mr. Charles J.
Dilly might receive in the way of votes for county treasurer with bel-lots for Miss Jennie Woodruff for superintendent of schools.

Mr. Dilly never inquired as to Miss Woodruff's abilities as an educator.
That would have been eccentric. Miss Woodruff never asked herself if she knew anything about rural education she expected to be fitted for the task for was not a popular and successful teacher—and was not that enough? So are the officials chosen who supervise and control the education of the farm children of America.

When Jim Irwin started home from supervising his team the day after his first call on the Shims farm, Jennie was waiting at the gate to be congratulated on her nomination.
"I hope you're elected," Jim said,
holding the hand she had extended;
"but there's no doubt of that."
"Why say not," replied Jennie; "but faithfully believe in the way of things if we didn't have a big majority for the ticket. Say a word for me when on your pastoral rounds."
"All right said Jim, "what shall I say you'll do for the schools?"

"Why," said Jennie, rather pugnaciously, "I'll be fair in my examinations of teachers, try to keep the unfit teachers out of the schools, visit schools as often as I can, and why, what does any good superintendent do?"
"I never heard of a good county superintendent," said Jim.
"Never heard of one—why, Jim Irwin!"

"I don't believe there is any such thing," persisted Jim, "and if you do no more than you say, you'll be off the same piece as the rest. Your system won't give us any better schools than we have of the old sort—and we need a new kind."
"Oh, Jim, Jim! Dreaming as of yore! Why can't you be practical?
What do you mean by a new kind of rural school?"

"It would be correlated with rural life. It would get education out of the things the farmers and farmers' wives are interested in as a part of their lives."
Jennie looked serious, after smothering a laugh.

"Jim," said she, "you're going to have a hard enough time to succeed in the Woodruff school, if you confine yourself to methods that have been tried, and found good."

"But the old methods," urged Jim,
"have been tested and found bad.
Shall I keep to them?"

"They have made the American people what they are," said Jennie. "Don't be unpractical, Jim."
"They have educated our farm children for the cities," said Jim. "This county is losing population—and it's the best county in the world."
"Fessimism never wins," said Jennie.

"Neither does blindness," answered Jim. "It is losing the farms that dwellers, and swelling the cities with a proletariat."
For some time, now, Jim had ceased to hold Jennie's hand, and their sweet heart days had never seemed farther away.

"Jim," said Jennie, "I may be elected to a position in which I shall be obliged to pass on your acts as teacher—in an official way, I mean. I hope they will be justifiable."
Jim smiled his slowest and saddest smile.

THE MARKETS

WHEAT DECLINE FOLLOWS HEAVY CANADIAN SALES

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (AP)—Heavy marketing of new wheat in Canada led to a downturn today in prices here. The country heavy, 65 to 1c, and winter wheat with December $1.01 to 1.01 7/8, and May $1.07 1/8 to 1.07 1/4. Corn lost 3/8 to 7/8c and oats a shade to 1/4c. In quotations there was 2 to 35 cents advance.

It was estimated 14,000,000 bushels of wheat had been marketed this week at country points in the three prairie provinces of Canada and winter wheat soon developed weakness after a little show of strength at the start. Initial sales were in sympathy with early trading in heavy, 65 to 1c, and winter wheat with December $1.01 to 1.01 7/8, and May $1.07 1/8 to 1.07 1/4.

Selling here credited to foreign account had apparently considerably to do with lower wheat prices at Liverpool, a condition due more or less to gossip that recent extreme bearish estimates of Canadian wheat production were calculating an average figure of 1,500,000 acres too high. Liberal export business at the seaboard including 1,100,000 bushels for Greece chiefly Canadian wheat, but partly Russian, tended also to lift the market in the first part of the day.

Corn and oats received with wheat. Outstanding persistent reports of frost damage to corn.

An upturn in land quotations at Liverpool held provisions.

REVELATIONS OF MR. CONOCO

—the most contented motorist in six states!

“A little knowledge—

Is a dangerous thing—especially when the average man like myself picks up a few fancy words and phrases about gasoline.

“For instance, ‘high gravity’ sounded good until I set down to figure it out—and then I learned that the specific gravity of gasoline, alone, didn't indicate any quicker starts, snappier pick-up, greater power or more miles per gallon. In fact, I was just a little ashamed to think I'd ever taken the term seriously—or a lot of similar terms, for that matter.

“Two things brought me to the Conoco habit—first, the assurance of dependable and uniform gasoline, due to the rigid specifications and improved processes under which it is produced and, second, the plain peace-of-mind fact that wherever I traveled in these mountain states I didn't have to look far for the CONOCO sign.”

SALMON TRACT GIVEN BULK OF ROAD BUILDING

Twin Falls Highway District's Program Contemplates the Spending of $30,000 on Roads to South

Building of approximately 14 miles of gravelled highway involving an estimated expenditure of $30,000 on the Salmon River project is contemplated as the road-building program for the coming year of the Twin Falls highway district, according to decision reached at a meeting of the district's directors here Saturday.

Additional road building in other parts of the district will be undertaken during the year provided funds are made available, according to statement of Blair Langford, chairman of the district. Road building is in progress on roads providing outlets for gravelled highways from Twin Falls and Kimberly to the Hines bridge, where connections may be made with gravelled roads of the North Side.

Ready to Fill Gap
In addition, the district retains funds for grading and applying gravel to a gap in the state highway east from Hines about 15 miles to the county line. This work is to be inaugurated as soon as sale is made of warrants issued to the Murtagh highway district, in whose borders the gap in the highway lies, and which will co-operate in the improvement work.

Items in Program
At the same time the district board will call for bids on the several projects included in the coming year's program. These are:
One mile east and west through Amsterdam.
One mile east and west through Haggard.
One mile east and west through Berger.
Five miles east and west on a line from miles south of Twin Falls.
Four and one-half miles west from Hollister to connect with gravel pits and serve a populous farming community. Residents along this road have agreed to grade and construct a mile of this road. It will be extended through Hollister to connect with the east and west road between Rogerson and Twin Falls.
In all instances gravel roads are to be constructed.
The roads through Amsterdam, Haggard and Berger will provide hard surfaced highway outlets to north and south roads either to the east or west.

Board at Work on Taxation Problems

County Commissioners Making Study of Factors Entering into 1923 Tax Levies

Twin Falls county commissioners devoted Saturday to study looking toward determination of the county's 1923 tax levy.
Assurance was given by J. D. Barnhart, chairman of the board, at the close of the day, that a reduction in the levy probably would be found possible, notwithstanding the fact that the county's property valuation for purposes of taxation has been reduced this year approximately $2,000,000.
Against a total valuation of $29,141,078.89, in 1922, the county commissioners levied a total county tax levy of 65 cents on each $100 valuation, raising $278,083.28.
In connection with their study of the tax problem the commissioners have received from the county offices estimates as to the probable expenditures of each during the coming year.
They have asked also for an opinion from the county attorney's office as to whether the law requires raising by county tax of an amount equivalent to $15 for each person enumerated in the school census, or whether in computing this total state school funds apportioned to the county and school district revenues may be taken into consideration.
An effort is being made, too, to determine the probable amount of revenue to the county from motor vehicles, license fees which amount, it is believed, will make possible a reduction in the tax levied to meet obligation on account of roads and bridges built under the county administration.

Southern Idaho Field Trial Club Members Assemble Here for Two-Day Events

Members of the Southern Idaho Field Trial club, assembled here for the club's third annual trial Sunday and Monday, in which some of the best bird dogs of five states will participate, at an annual meeting held in the Hotel Perrine Saturday evening elected officers for the coming year.
J. M. Peony, Filer, was elected president, and other officers were elected as follows: First vice-president, Dr. Darrow, New Plymouth; second vice-president, J. M. Stoelthelm, Hansen; secretary and treasurer, M. C. Ware, Twin Falls; field marshal, Dr. H. H. Groome, Twin Falls.
The meeting was presided over by D. Arcus, Twin Falls, retiring second vice-president.
With dogs here from as far as California, Washington, Oregon and Montana, large entry lists in the several stakes are anticipated. Indications point to the amateur stake to be run Sunday afternoon as a popular feature of the two days' event.

Headquarters for the dog men will be maintained during the trials at the Hotel Perrine and Meneuloy's.
Early Start Scheduled
The trials will begin at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning from the R. T. Jester ranch, one and one-quarter miles west of the southwest end of Shoshone street. The running will start from the end of the pavement on this road, continuing two miles west and thence south one and one-half miles to the low-line canal. All day will be occupied in the running.
The puppy stake, open to dogs whelped on or after January 1, 1923, will be the first event. It will be followed by the derbies, open to dogs whelped on or after January 1, 1922. The afternoon will be devoted to the amateur stake, which is open to all bird dogs except previous winners.
The all-age stake is scheduled for Monday forenoon, the afternoon being devoted to the Irish Setters special, open to Irish Setters and pointing griffons.

All scheduled trials will take place in approximately the same territory.
Entrants in the several events will be enrolled as members of the club. Twenty-five per cent of entry fees in all stakes except the amateur stake, in which 50 per cent will be deducted, is to go to the club, the balance forming the purses. In each event the winner will receive 50 per cent, second 30 per cent and third 20 per cent of the total amount of the entrance fees for each event after deduction of the club's share.

The Screen

SHOW PICTURE MAKING. The world in general is going to know a lot more about the way motion pictures are made after seeing "Hollywood's Hand" before this Paramount picture, produced by James Cruze, which will be displayed at the Idaho theater tomorrow, was presented.

Not that it is propaganda, nor yet a travelogue of the studios or of Hollywood. The story is a real one with laughs, tears and romance, quite in the accepted style.
Frank Condon wrote the story which was adapted by Thomas Goraguthy. It is marked, but it is the genuine, busy, industrious, wholesome Hollywood that will be seen, not the garish place some yellow journalists would like to make it appear.
"JUST TONY."
Tony, the beautiful chestnut horse, who has galloped Tom Mix, the noted Fox screen star, through peril after peril, has at last won his spurs as a star—if such a title may be conferred upon a horse—and his name will blaze in electric lights all over the county in "Just Tony," which comes to the Orpheum theater Monday and Tuesday.
If your property is desirable and is advertised in the classified—you'll find your buyer.

Further Decline in Temperature Noted

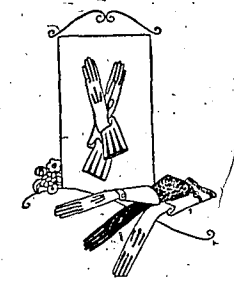

Maximum temperature Saturday at 78 degrees represented a decline of seven points from the high mark of the previous day and a fall of 18 degrees under Thursday's maximum, according to records of the government weather observer's station here. Saturday's low at 47 degrees was only one point under the minimum recorded for both Thursday and Friday.
