OPERATORS ARE PUT UNDER FIRE IN NAVAL PROBE

Testimony of Four Men Who Sent Messages Features Investigation in Recent Wreck of P. S. Destroyers

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Under the smoke screen of technicalities which hung over today's session of the naval court of inquiry investigating the wreck of seven destroyers off Honolulu, Sept. 8, four men responsible for the operation of a radio compass on the Point Arguillo came in for a grilling cross fire of questions from counsel for 13 naval officers who have been named defendants in connection with the disaster.

The radio station itself received a direct thrub in the form of an accused. The report of several bearings received on August 23 from Point Arguillo, which had not been disregarded then, would have put us ashore on San Miguel Island.

Whether he was aboard a commercial vessel or naval craft at that time, the sonder did not state.

First of the four men to be interrogated was Lieutenant Commander John M. Ashby, superintendent of communications for the eleventh naval district and responsible for the supervision of naval radio stations in that district.

Ashby was called to stand to introduce the log of the Point Arguillo compass station, which was admitted in evidence as a record of all signals or messages sent and received there between noon and midnight on September 8.

It has been brought out in previous testimony that the signals telling the navigators of the destroyer squadron that they were still on the wreck of Point Arguillo to turn east were disregarded, and one of these navigators has testified that the signals were disregarded because of a confusion in the messages sent and received there between noon and midnight on September 8.

REMAIN OFF DUTY

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Commanding officers, executive officers and other officers of seven destroyers of the Point Arguillo on the night of September 8, will not be permitted to resume active duty with the destroyer force until after the court of inquiry has ended its session. Orders to this effect were received today from the secretary of the navy by Rear Admiral Sumner Kiltelle, destroyer force commander.

At the same time all the remaining officers and men of the wrecked destroyers were ordered to duty fitzout and commissioning the ships which will take the pieces of those lost in the Honda disaster.

King Tut's Tomb May Contain More Priceless Relics

American Who Assisted Earl of Carnarvon Believes Many Relics Still Hidden

LONDON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Less than one-fourth of the antiques in Tutankhamun's tomb have been removed, said Howard Carter, one of the discoverers of the tomb, in a lecture to the Royal Society of Antiquaries today. Carter, who is now in Egypt, said that he and his assistants had discovered many more objects than they had reported. He said that he had discovered a "shadow king" not of royal blood. His origin and life shrouded in mystery, he said, he had found a claim to the throne rested solely upon his marriage to the third daughter of King Akhenaton.

Mr. Carter said he believed the tomb was that of a potential heir to the throne rather than that of a ruling king.

Liquor Valued at $1,820,000 Is Taken from Warehouses

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21 (AP)—Following the theft of $375,000 worth of key-locked $1,820,000 worth of the bonded warehouse of the Jack Daniel distillery here, which was discovered yesterday, it was learned that the cases, which were stored in the warehouse of the Parker distillery company, also has been "spirited" away.

ADOPT SCHEME TO END STRIKE

International Union to Endeavor to Run Presses of New York Daily Papers

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—The New York Newspaper Publishers' association and the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' union today signed an agreement under which the international union will endeavor to run the presses of metropolitan dailies while the local union, suspended from the international body, remains on strike.

The agreement calls for dissolution of the local union and the reversion of its charter. The contract was signed by newspaper owners, President Berry, and other officers of the international union.

Terms of the contract were made public by Louis Wiley, business manager of the New York Times. They were as follows:

The agreement announces the dissolution of the old local pressmen's union and the reversion of its charter. The international union enters directly into relations with the publishers. The working hours are reduced from 48 hours, day and night, to 41 hours night and 45 hours day. The basic wages are increased $3 a week, and the rate of the reduction in hours there is likewise a material increase in the total compensation. The other points of relationship are to be settled by conciliation, and, failing that, by arbitration. It is provided that the parties cannot agree upon arbitrators, Governor Smith is to nominate them.

Mr. Berry, it was understood, would meet tonight and instruct them to return to work as members of the international union, rather than as members of the former local union.

NEW CHARGES ENTER IN CASE AGAINST STOKES

Witnesses Claim They Were Offered Bribes to Defame Character of Defendant in Divorce Trial

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Three witnesses told a state's attorney's office today that they had been offered money to sign affidavits defaming Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, according to assistant state's attorney investigating Mrs. Stokes' charges for husband's adultery. E. D. Stokes, wealthy New York hotel owner, had tried to injure her reputation in connection with his divorce action.

One of these witnesses, it was announced, was Thomas Flynn, a former sergeant of police, who said he had been approached by a private detective and offered money to sign an affidavit that he had looked Mrs. Stokes under the name of "Helen Norwood" after a raid on a notorious club of 15 years ago. He refused, Flynn said.

After his story, the books of the private detective agency were ordered brought to the state's attorney's office. Two women, it was declared, also said they had been offered money by the keeper of an alleged disorderly house to sign affidavits that they had been inmates of the club with Mrs. Stokes.

While 22 witnesses summoned to the state's attorney's office yesterday, waited a chance to testify, subpoenas were issued for seven others, all prominent in Chicago's south side night life of two decades ago.

COMMISSION TO REPORT ON FRONTIER INQUIRY

Allied Body Investigation Assassinations Discovers Italian Trouble to Make Results Public

PREVEZZA, Albania, Sept. 21 (AP)—The report of the allied inquiry commission into the assassination of the Italian minister of the Great Britain frontier commission, will be forwarded to Paris tomorrow.

It is believed here the report accuses the Greeks from the accusation of the Italians that the Greeks were negligent in trying to trace the murderers of the commissioner. It is said, however, that the Italian members of a minority report substantiating their original charges.

LEAGUE BODY STIRRED OVER DRUG MENACE

Opium Commission Hears Charges of Narcotics Made in Switzerland Being Imported to U. S. in Big Quantities

GENEVA, Sept. 21 (AP)—The charge that great quantities of harmful drugs are being manufactured in Switzerland and clandestinely imported to the United States and Canada caused a stir during today's discussion by the league of nations opium commission which yesterday decided to recommend an international conference for the furtherance of the fight against opium.

Dame Elith Lytleton, from England, expressed regret that Switzerland, which had not yet ratified the Hague narcotics convention, should be turning out drugs based on opium and morphine and smuggling them by in-sidious methods into the United States. She said that Swiss public opinion should be aroused and that the Swiss government should act promptly in the premises.

Defends Switzerland. Gustave Ador, former president of Switzerland, quickly protested against "these grave accusations." He insisted that Switzerland was doing everything possible in the situation and hoped to ratify the convention next year.

Mr. Graham, the Canadian member of the commission, read documents which he declared proved that drugs were being fraudulently exported from Switzerland to both Canada and the United States. Other speakers then intervened and saved what appeared to be developing into a most embarrassing situation.

Ireland Contested Sought. Ireland contested vigorously on the stage of origin activities today when Marquis McSwiney insisted that a representative of Celtic culture should be added to the permanent commission on international co-operation, the membership of which will be increased so as to include various world culture groups. Ireland, said Marquis McSwiney, was the natural country to represent the culture of the Celtic, whose apostles had contributed so much to European civilization. The disarmament commission of the league concluded its first reading of the proposed treaty of mutual assistance. The text of the treaty will be reported shortly to the assembly, though a number of points are still to be definitely drafted by the jurists.

Science Advances New Scheme for Happy Marriages

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21 (AP)—Unhappy marriages can be prevented by means of blood tests, Dr. William S. Balmbridge of New York, told a meeting of physicians and surgeons here today. Dr. O. M. Grubist of Detroit, presented the theory that there were four different kinds of blood. In the discussion that followed, Dr. Balmbridge asserted that by taking blood tests of persons in love, unhappy unions could be forestalled, as only the mating of persons in the same blood group could be recommended.

FARM PROBLEMS RECEIVE STUDY

Secretary Wallace to Have Report Ready Soon for Submission to Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—President Coolidge and his advisers still are giving energetic study to the agricultural situation, but probably will be unable to come to any conclusions as to possible relief measures before late next week. Secretary Wallace, upon whom has devolved the task of assembling data on the subject, will not have his report ready for several days and consequently the cabinet, at its regular meeting made no effort to reach a conclusion.

Several possible remedies have been suggested to the executive and those are receiving attention. Others are to be presented next week, among them the reviving of the United States grain corporation to handle this season's wheat crop, but whether any of these will meet the test of the administration policy for relief none sound economic lies remains to be determined.

One development of the situation today was the reiteration at the White House that the president still is of the opinion that there exists no reason for summoning congress in an extra session. The official view is that so far as the pending questions are concerned they can wait for the regular session, which will open in a little more than two months, but it was emphasized that the executive has not entirely foreclosed the question of calling congress to Washington if there should be any development necessitating its presence here.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR DEFIES KU KLUX KLAN

Gov. J. C. Walton

DECLARING that there can be but one government—that of law and order—Governor J. C. ("Jack") Walton, of Oklahoma, has placed the state under martial law in his war on the Ku Klux Klan for alleged flagging outrages.

INJUNCTION IS SERVED AGAINST KLAN MEETING

Headquarters of Hooded Order Books to Restrict San Antonio Members from Confering Second Degree

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 21 (AP)—Deputy Sheriff invaded the secret meeting of the K. K. K. at the San Antonio speedway where an initiation and barbecue was being held early tonight and served injunction writs upon five alleged members of the clan. The injunction, which was issued at noon by Judge Roberts W. B. Tarrell, upon application of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a corporation, with headquarters in Atlanta, restraining the San Antonio Klan from confering the second degree.

Writs were served upon four alleged members of the organization after the deputy sheriff refused to be turned away by guards who patrolled the enclosure. Another klanman was served by Sheriff James Stevens as he entered the grounds.

Police headquarters reported at 10 o'clock tonight that no persons had appeared in masks on the streets.

KLAN LEADER IN OKLAHOMA UNDER ARREST

Jewett Falls into Net Spread by Walton; Additional Whipping Episodes Brought to Light as Inquiry Continues

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 21 (AP)—N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, was arrested tonight on a flagging charge, as Governor J. C. Walton, from his mansion, pronounced "the klan is whipped," and that members of the clubhouse of the legislature to proceed with their announced intention to meet next Wednesday and consider his impeachment.

Jewett, the highest klan official in the state, fell into the net spread for flagging by the governor when J. K. Wright, prosecutor of Oklahoma county, a military court of honor, grand dragon participated in the whipping of E. R. Morrison of Oklahoma City on the night of March 7, 1922.

Jewett entered a plea of not guilty and was released on $1000 bond within 15 minutes after he was arrested. The charge against Jewett grew out of the inquiry being conducted here by a military court of honor, which Governor Walton has laid at the door of the Ku Klux Klan.

County Attorney Wright testified before the military court that he himself had paid a membership fee in the klan.

Says Klan Is Whipped. Asserting that 95, a majority of the members of the lower senate of the legislature are members of the klan, Governor Walton declared an attempt on the part of the legislators to convene the house Wednesday would constitute an "unlawful klan assembly," which is prohibited under his martial law proclamation. "There will be no meeting of the legislature. The klan is whipped," said the governor.

Representative W. J. Cunningham of Sapulpa, one of the leaders in the movement to convene the house, denied that klan influence is intimidating the session. "A large majority of the house of representatives are law-abiding, Governor Walton himself may claim credit for it, for one of his appointees and chief lieutenants assisted in obligating many members during the recent session," Cunningham said.

Attacks Walton. Cunningham charged that Walton hoped to make the klan a part of his political machine. "He attempted to join the klan in order to gain control of it," said Cunningham. "Now, having failed, he is attempting to destroy it."

Cunningham said that he had belonged to the klan in Sapulpa, but was not now a member.

Informed that W. D. McBoe, representative from Stephens county and one of the leaders in the session movement, not only has denied that he is a member of the klan, but has declared that he is an opponent of the organization, the governor said: "I have evidence in my possession that McBoe is one of the leaders of the Duncan klan."

Word of the people are forced to buy newspapers from outside the state to ascertain exactly what is going on in Oklahoma," the governor declared. "Because the newspapers of this state will not print the news as it is, I am seriously considering setting up a newspaper of my own to publish the true facts. Most of the mob violence

Blames Churches for Weakened Hold on American Home

Speakers at Convention Lament Lack of Proper Leadership and Training

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Loss by the universal church of its religious influence on the home, the American "vitality defective educational system" and a "tremendous lot of adult indifference and inactivity in giving the youth of the church a square deal, according to speakers who addressed the international convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew tonight.

The basic reason for the increase in crime was attributed to the church itself having lost its hold on the American home and because the individual home had lost all touch with any religious impulse.

"That the American youth was suffering from vitally defective education was proven by the fact that 'the young people increasingly are thinking of the world as inhabited by a lot of intellectual animals and acting accordingly,'" it was asserted. "America is falling today because its fathers are spiritual morose, while the country, spiritually, is a land of little leaders who are preaching to fifty people the trivial things which are another charge."

BRINGING THE GOSPEL OF TRUE AMERICANISM (?) TO OKLAHOMA

RUHR BLOCKADE HINDRANCE TO PEACE PROJECT

Restoration of Normal Economic Activity Seen as Primary Requisite Toward Franco-German Settlement

BERLIN, Sept. 21 (AP)—A semi-official statement referring to reports current in Paris of possible Franco-German negotiations makes it quite clear that no practical results can be obtained without the restoration of normal economic activity in the Ruhr, with amnesty and permission to those expelled to return, and that the administration must be placed in the hands of German officials and freedom of traffic between occupied and unoccupied Germany restored.

The statement declares that such conditions would include cessation of payments, beginning with the evacuation of the Ruhr, but that Germany can never agree to recognize in any form the legality of the occupation of the Ruhr.

That Belgium is attempting to mediate in the Ruhr conflict is admitted at the foreign offices, where it is said the Belgian minister has been a frequent caller of late and has candidly discussed the situation with Chancellor Stresemann in what is regarded as something more than a merely informal manner.

The German government also is reported as being prepared to offer France an early, if not immediate, cash payment in the event of its plan of hypothecating German private property is accepted as the basis for new reparations. In such case, it was said, the government would be in a position by virtue of its lien on the holdings of industries, banks, commerce and agriculture, to mobilize some of the ready cash to appease the French demand for something tangible at the earliest date possible, as it was Germany's desire to give concrete evidence of her good faith as soon as the Ruhr conflict was adjusted.

With negotiations and the Ruhr again topics of formal conversations between Great Britain and France, and a decisive turn in the Ruhr deadlock likely to occur, the Berlin editors are indulging in the familiar recriminations respecting capitulation.

"Rather a breach with France than surrender of our honor by capitulation on the Ruhr," says Kreis Zeitung, which charges Chancellor Stresemann with having "cultivated the capitulation sentiment," inasmuch as he was continually emphasizing Germany's inability further to finance passive resistance.

COOLIDGE MAKES STUDY OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

President Devotes Considerable Time to Analyzing Work of Tariff and War Finance Bodies

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—President Coolidge acquainted himself in detail Wednesday with the work of the tariff commission and the war finance corporation. He was elected for half an hour with the members of the commission, except Chairman Marvin, who is absent from the city, and later conferred with the chief executive and managing director of the finance corporation.

Members of the tariff commission said the president had been informed generally as to the time of the tariff act of 1921 and the procedure of the commission in operating under the specific provisions of that act. It was indicated that some of the subjects which are points of controversy within the commission had been touched upon and also that there had been no specific discussion of the tariff act subject in their possible bearing on the agricultural situation.

President Coolidge was represented as having approved generally the work of the war finance corporation in extending aid to the farming industry through loans to banks. It was stated that the difficulties facing western wheat growers were being met practically, but attention was directed that the corporation was doing what it could to aid agriculture all along the line.

BELGRADE EDITORS SEE PLAN FOR ANNEXATION

BELGRADE, Sept. 21 (AP)—Notwithstanding the assurances given by the Italian chargé d'affaires that the dispatch of General Girardino to Fiume as military governor has not affected the status of Fiume, the feeling in this city today was that the Italian case are accurately expressed by such newspaper headlines as "Italy Annexes Fiume," "Italy Annexes First," "Negotiations Afterward," and everybody is making his mobilization been over.

Yet the uneasiness is being increased by the absence of any official statement after a two-hour cabinet session last night. Deputy Foreign Minister Nesich, in the face of the fact that the occupation is officially admitted by Italy, expressed the opinion that the act did not constitute annexation, Italy expressly denying alteration in the status of Fiume.

WOULD DISSOLVE PURNELL COLONY

Woman Member of Cult Brands "King Benjamin" as Imposter; Alleges Cruelty

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 21 (AP)—Another broadside was hurled at the walls of Shiloh house, "King" Benjamin Purnell's residence at the House of David colony in Benton Harbor, when Mrs. Estella A. Meldrim, a member of the cult for years, filed suit in federal court here today asking dissolution of the colony and the appointment of a receiver for its extensive property.

The bill asks enforcement of claims in excess of $20,000 and requests an injunction to prevent disposal of the colony funds.

Charges of abuse, fraud, the teaching of perjury, deprivation of civil rights and accusations of immorality are made in the bill against Purnell, who is a fugitive from justice, being wanted by the state on a statutory charge.

Made Confessions

Mrs. Meldrim describes the conversion of Mr. Meldrim, her husband and their two daughters at Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1903. It asserts that Mrs. Meldrim was required on entering the colony to make a complete confession in writing covering her entire life, and supplement it with monthly confessions to Purnell. These confessions, the bill alleges, were for the purpose of "placing in Purnell's hands such power over this plaintiff as could be gained thereby."

Daughters Mistreated

Mrs. Meldrim in her bill says she was loath to believe charges against Benjamin until recently. She says she has lately learned that the "work of Purnell was not devout and useful, but that Benjamin Franklin Purnell is an imposter; that both daughters of the plaintiff were at a very early age treated improperly by Purnell and that one daughter, Edith Meldrim, has been used by him to get other girls into his power." Edith Meldrim is described as "the executive director, confidante and intimate of Purnell, in her mother's complaint."

Obtained Property

The alleged fraud is said by the bill to result from a system that includes "interesting religiously inclined persons by a series of representations, persuading them to join the House of David, obtaining conveyance of their property, obtaining their labor without recompense and gaining inquisitorial powers over them."

JAPANESE START REHABILITATION

Oriental Begin Great Task of Rebuilding Huge Area Destroyed by Tremors

TOKYO, Sept. 21 (AP)—The tenacity and resolution with which the people of Tokyo are devoting themselves to the task of rebuilding a larger, more substantial, and more beautiful city manifest a faith in life and the future as inspiring to the foreigner as the havoc wrought by the earthquake was appalling.

Those who are wont to extract philosophy from such phenomena point out that this latest disaster demonstrates beyond dispute that no catastrophe short of submersion of the whole continent or islands such as the semi-mythical Atlantis or the glacialation of entire hemispheres as probably occurred on two or three occasions in the remote past can utterly destroy or break the spirit of a race of people like the Japanese.

Tremors Continue

In spite of the fact that tremors continue to make wooden buildings creak and those of masonry throb at intervals day and night, new habitations are springing up all over the city. Vast one-story barracks of timber and corrugated iron are being erected by soldiers and workmen in the parks and other open spaces.

Live in Tiny Shacks

The most spectacular drama incident to Tokyo's rebirth, however, is to be seen in the tiny temporary homes that have arisen from the ashes of the old ones. There is hardly a city block without its little family group throwing up whatever remains from the framework of a former dwelling to support tin and charred metal until time and fortune provide a better abode.

Food Distributed

Some of these improvised dwellings are no larger than piano boxes, typewriter desks and primrose beds. Relief workers are passing out a quart of rice daily to each family. Other relief agencies pass out pickles and other curries. Each came the water wagons which before the quake were used to sprinkle the streets. They are now used to deliver water for domestic uses.

RUTH ACCLAIMED MOST VALUABLE YANKEE PLAYER

Home-run Expert Is Awarded American League Trophy for 1923 Season for Highest Possible Record

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—George Herman "Babe" Ruth of the New York Americans, pennant winners of the American league for 1923, today was declared to be the most valuable player by his team and was awarded the American league trophy for the season, having received the highest possible number of points and setting a record that will not be broken.

Ruth was the unanimous choice of the committee appointed to select the American player who has been of the greatest service to his team during the championship year and was awarded first place on every ballot—some from each of the eight cities in the circuit—for a total of 61 counts.

Announcement of the award was made today by President Dan Johnson of the league.

Starred Comeback.

How complete was the comeback staged by Yankee slugger this year can be seen from the fact that in the 1922 trophy contest, which was won by George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns with 59 points, Ruth was not mentioned among the eight best players of the year.

Eddie Collins of the Chicago White Sox stood second in Ruth in this year's contest with 57 points. He was named as the best player on the Chicago team by all eight of the committee members. Last season Collins was fifth with 48 points. Harry Holman of Detroit is rated third and George of St. Louis is tied with Joe Sewell of Cleveland for fourth, each having 20 points.

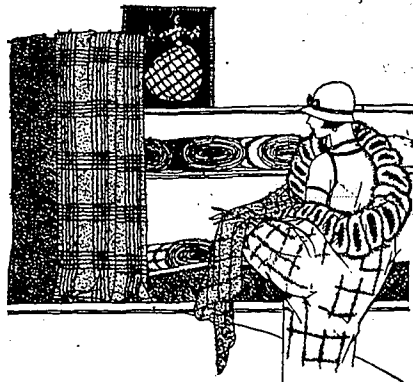

Name on Monument.

Ruth's name will be inscribed on the 1923 tablet of the $100,000 monument to be erected by Eusey Potomac park at Washington and presented to the United States government by the American league as a memorial to baseball and a hall of fame to perpetuate the memory of its greatest players.

The award was made by a committee of eight baseball writers, one in each city, each of whom selected the best players of the season on each team and ranked them according to his individual opinion on the ball's so arranged that first place could be carried eight points, second place seven points, etc.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 21 (AP)—The New York Giants strengthened their hold on first place by taking both games of a double header from the Pirates today, 8 to 4 and 8 to 1.

The Giants knocked Meadows and Stone from the box in the first game and continued their heavy hitting in the second, sending Cooper to the showers. Cary drove a homer over the left field wall in the ninth inning of the first game, scoring Maraville ahead of him.

Hazen Cuyler, purchased by the Pirates from the Nashville club of the Southern association, reported today and played left field in both games.

Boerger pitched well after the third inning, but was taken out for a pinch hitter in the eleventh and Smith is charged with the Brooklyn defeat. The batting of Olson, who got four hits and a sacrifice out of five times up, and the sensational fielding of Charney were the leading features.

NEGOTIATE FOR SECOND BATTLE

Arrangements for Another Dempsey-Firpo Scrap Taken Up Between Principals

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—Though a return match between Jack Dempsey and his Argentine rival, Luis Angel Firpo, is regarded by ring followers as inevitable details of their second clash for the heavyweight title may not be arranged for some time, probably not until next year, when the battle is most likely to take place. Tex Rickard, promoter of the fight at the Polo grounds a week ago, has made little headway in negotiations this week. Firpo and Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, despite the willingness of both fighters to enter the ring again. Firpo is averse to being involved in another long term contract such as he had with Rickard this year.

He is willing to fight Harry Wills, negro contender, in addition to Dempsey, but not until next year. Kearns, on the other hand, has several tempting theatrical, motion picture and exhibition offers for Dempsey, but declared tonight that he would give none of them serious consideration for some time. He has still offers from English promoters for exhibition tours of the British Isles and Europe, as well as a proposal for a visit to Mexico. The champion's manager has conferred in some detail with Rickard regarding a return match with Firpo, but, like the Argentine, is inclined to let negotiations drop for a while.

Firpo has not yet completed plans for his proposed Canadian trip beginning next week, but his tentative schedule is for a first appearance in Montreal September 25, with Elmer Blouin, the French-Canadian giant as an opponent, in an exhibition contest. Blouin was a member of Jack Dempsey's sparring staff at Saratoga Springs for a time.

Champion Expresses Doubts as to Firpo's Ability to Improve Enough to Win Heavyweight Crown

OMAHA, Sept. 21 (AP)—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion fighter, en route from New York to Salt Lake, to see his folks, said today that the world's championship had thus far netted him more than $2,000,000. Asked if Firpo, Argentine fighter, who he recently knocked out in New York, would ever improve into championship calibre, Dempsey said he thought he would become a fighter, but that he did not think the improvement would be enough to make him a champion.

SHOSHONE, Sept. 21 (Special to The News)—Wendell high school defeated Shoshone high school here today, 32-0, in a pre-season game. Shoshone has had only a week of practice and the game was more in the nature of practice for both teams. Wendell has many of their last year's men back and are well advanced for this early in the season. The game was not a conference game.

Evans Experiments With Line Changes

Question of Center for Twin Falls Elevator Still Sticker; Swim Gets Chance

More scrimmages, more signals and more hard drilling characterized the last workout for the week at Lincoln field Friday night. Many shifts in the line-up of the first string were noticed also. Football was shifted back to end and Mussel used at center for a time, but that didn't suit the eye of Coach Evans, so he gave Swin a whirl at the center job. Swin gets the ball back there pretty fast and his experience on the line will stand him in good stead. The question of center is still a sticker and the solution is not in sight yet.

There are a lot of linemen out that have the beef and some of them will make a showing before the season is over. Christoferson got a fling on the first string Friday night, although his inexperience was plain he was in there working all the time and did some effective tackling. Umphrey and Helman are both showing some good stuff and will make a strong bid for positions.

The number of bleacher coaches has been increasing every night and if the increase keeps on the bleachers will have to be enlarged. Opinions are slow fast and furious and it is observed that the motorcycle cop is on hand every night to prevent any disturbance that might arise over differences of opinion. Evans can't satisfy all of them and a new team is picked or a man changed every five minutes. But, if Clint wins the games they will be satisfied even if he did use the wrong man.

Tim received a couple of tough hits during the scrimmage Friday and took a rest for the balance of practice. By the way, Tim looks fast out there and hits the line hard and low, but his chief ability is probably in open field running, where his speed will count. He is a valuable addition to the backfield.

Garity and Jeffkins seem to be in old-time form. Jenks is in much better condition than last year and if he keeps away from injuries he will be stronger than ever. He is leading the line with old-time speed and if anything lower than last season. Moose loses his wind early but a few days of work like this past week and he will be in tiptop form. Moose is the hardest bird to get off his feet seen on the local grid for some time. Watch him the next time you are out there.

Alford is still working at quarter and is making a good showing. He is fast and a hard man to catch in the open. Mussel worked part time in the back field and was in line Friday night and looked best either at end or in the backfield. He shows well at defensive end and also scooped up some pretty nice passes in scrimmage. Early season drive passes amounts to much anyway, but somebody must make predictions, so the newspapers are the fall guys. But unless an earthquake hits us there will be a team out there every game that will make history and put Twin Falls on the map stronger than ever.

Idator G. Friedman, teacher of violin and saxophone, 353 Seventh avenue is not a conference game.

Prohibition Laws Will Not Affect Entry of Papyrus

English Derby Winner Does Not Drink Beer as Stimulant Before Races

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—Papyrus, English Derby winner, does not drink beer as a stimulant and the brew will be under no financial pressure because of prohibition in coming to this country to race the best American three-year-old in an international race at Belmont park, on October 20. So declared Christopher J. Fitzgerald on his return today aboard the Iberogravia from England, where, as representative of Major August Belmont, he concluded negotiations with Ben Irish, owner of Papyrus, for the race.

Fitzgerald asserted that the beer drinking habit attributed to Papyrus probably had become confused with the drinking of Irish, another crack English thoroughbred, for a bucket of ale before going to the barrier.

Papyrus, who is scheduled to leave England tomorrow on the Aquitania for this country, is in excellent condition, according to Fitzgerald. He said that the few cuts on the horse's hind legs, sustained in running in the St. Leger stakes recently, proved to be merely superficial and healed quickly.

GRID WARRIORS GET IN ACTION

Football Season to Open in Many Centers Saturday with Preliminary Workouts

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—The 1923 gridiron season will get under way tomorrow in many parts of the country, but few of the better known eleven will be seen in action. A dozen or more games are scheduled but most of the leading colleges are polishing up their machines in preparation for the real season's inauguration on Saturday of next week.

Among the eastern games slated for tomorrow are three between upstate New York aggregations. Colgate, looming as one of the most dangerous eastern combinations of the year, will swing into action against Alfred at Hamilton; Clarkson at Schenectady and Hamilton plays St. Stephens at Clinton. The Army's scheduled contest with the third army corps eleven at West Point has been cancelled.

Gloom Overspreads Camp of Rotarians

Disability of Stellar Player Dampens Hopes for Victory Over Kiwanians

Gloom, gloom, gloom, deep, dark, murky gloom overspreads Rotary training quarters today. According to coach, manager, trainer and promoter Clint Evans, Jim Keel is on the bum; his knee has gone back on him again and Evans entertained serious doubt as to whether Jim can get in shape to participate in the great Legion benefit game to be staged next week with Kiwanis. Bill Scilley, in order to act a good example as befits his position, has discarded his car and trucks out to the sugar factory every day. Evans says Bill has inspired the boys and hard work is their middle name. Evans is relying on such stars as Chet McMartin, who says he can talk any one into doing anything he wants them to, and if he can't hit the old pill he can talk the pitcher into grooving them for him; Charley Nooley, whose previous experience at polo climbing ought to make him just on the edge of the game; and Larry Cloy, who has developed a husky biceps from removing molar and ought to be able to heave the old pill a mile; Larry Cloy, who has been doing that heavy duty around the store all day and his wife says he either wants to polish the floors or snout up the back yard every day. Evans refuses to give out a position line-up but says you can rest assured there will be a team out there that may be a surprise—no doubt it will be.

The Kiwanians are doing a Carpenter and mason job in their headquarters. Wendell Allen has been heaving oil barrels, with the assistance of the warehouse crew, but the pounds are rolling off and he hopes to be in the thick of condition; C. E. Wright, an old-time star, has been out on the vacant lots lately putting in a lot of strenuous time in getting the old soup-bone limbered up. Frank Stephens, a local consulting Spaulding's Guide looking up the past records of some of the Kiwanians and Rotarians and has been wearing a mysterious smile the last two days. John Harvee ought to be a bear on the base—he gets plenty of practice running around town.

According to announcement from the Legion the day of the game has not been definitely set as yet. The Rotary club has a trip to Jerome next week and the game will have to be scheduled to conform with their date at Jerome which is not definite. It is planned to start the game at 4:30 in the afternoon to give as much time as possible for the stunts that are to be pulled off before the game.

The day will wind up with the big Legion dance at Danceland and the Legion boys promise the best dance of the entire season. The four-odd Ford sedan will be wound up with the dance and will be disposed of during the evening's program.

GOODING BANS GRID GAME

Student Association Votes Against Participation in Football Contests; Plans Substitute Activities

GOODING COLLEGE, Gooding, Sept. 21—The student association at Gooding college has unanimously voted not to take part in football contests this year. A program that will reach and include the interests of each and every student, without the scouting for players, the long trips, the absence from classes and the heavy financial burdens incurred by striving to emulate the practices and meet the heavy schedules of the larger institutions will take the place of the gridiron and the pigskin.

Basket ball, track tennis, intramural football and physical culture work will still have a place on the program at Gooding college and valedictorians, readers, debaters, chess clubs, orchestras and dramatic clubs will continue to let the people know about the good work that is being done. As one of the old football players, who is quite gifted musically, put it, "I would like to help lick those other fellows this year but I am so busy getting ready for what I intend to be when I get out of school, that I am going to stand by Gooding college, football or no football."

HEAVY TRACK HINDERS GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

Favorites in Classic Turf Event Find Goals; Rather Rough on Account of Recent Heavy Rains

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21 (AP)—Favorites found the going rather rough this afternoon when the Grand Circuit racing was resumed on a heavy track after a three day layoff because of rain. Tommy Murphy drove winners in the first two events, but only one was a favorite. Rose Scott, favored in the Capital City $3000 stake for 2:05 trotters, easily showed her supremacy and won at also placed in straight heats. Laurida was made favorite in the M. and M. $5000 stake for 2:14 trotters, but the heat she could do was finish second in each of the last two heats, while Mrs. Yerkes of the Murphy stable was a straight heat winner.

Frisco June, first choice of the 2:04 pace, failed to win a single heat, however going to Logan Hedgewood and Peter Elvahn, the two second choices. Logan Hedgewood won the first two heats, while the third went to Peter Elvahn. The fourth race for 2:15 trotters furnished another surprise. Maryanne, the strongest favorite was out-trotted in the stretch by Zaquilla in each heat.

and red radicalism in Oklahoma has been agitated by the newspapers. But I am for the freedom of the press and free speech, and I will stand it as long as possible." Governor Walton denied reports that he had ordered the mobilization of the entire national guard to enforce his decree of martial law throughout the state.

"I will further show that when I commenced the fight to overthrow this 'empire' within this state, that they shipped their records to Atlanta, Ga. "I will further show from the records that the K. K. K. is a lawless and criminal organization.

"I will show by extracts from the testimony of Dr. A. A. Maupin which the Klan newspapers refused to publish, something of the doings of N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the organization in this state."

The transcript of Dr. Maupin's testimony related to the alleged action of the Oklahoma City Klan in developing $500 as a donation to the Ardmore Klan for the defense of members of the latter organization, who Dr. Maupin charged, had shot down a bootlegger when he resisted an attempt of a Klan "squad" to abduct him.

The witness related that two of the Klansmen were killed in the affair. No names were given by Dr. Maupin but it was believed that he referred to the slaying of Joe Carroll by members of a masked band near Ardmore more than a year ago when two of Carroll's assassins were killed.

Dr. Maupin testified that he had seen the grand dragon and head of the organization that sent him $500 to the Ardmore Klan to protect it from prosecution for mobbing and murdering a citizen of that county.

"The governor's statement said, 'I do not know whether the citizen was a bootlegger or not, but he certainly never had a trial before a jury.'"

"I wish to say now I have the evidence which shows that under the laws of this state and under the section 15 of the penal code of the United States, that every man who joined the Klan and remained in the organization long enough to know its ultimate purpose, is guilty as an accomplice from and after the fact—that when any man is mobbed, murdered, mutilated or flogged every member of this organization is guilty of crime as an ac-

NEW SCHEME TO OPERATE SHIPPING IS PREDICTED

Routing of Attorney-General Throws Officials on Resources as to Merchant Marine Fleet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Early presentation to President Coolidge and his legal advisers of a new plan of operation for the government merchant fleet was forecast today at the shipping board. It was emphasized that the necessity was apparent for a decision which would give national shipping interests a permanent policy.

Chairman Farley of the board, telegraphed a statement from New York tonight asserting that inasmuch as the plan to create special corporations for ship operation had been declared illegal by Attorney General Daugherty, other methods would be pursued. It was stated at the office of the board that the attorney general's action had not been entirely unexpected and that considerable work had been done on a substitute plan.

As described by an official who assisted in its preparation the alternative proposition would permit the board to transfer ships on each of its routes to a corporation or other form of commercial organization, under a lease or special charter pact.

A further modification being considered has to do with the guarantee sought by the board—the effort being to relieve substantially the prospective operator of the risks he would incur. Failure of the responsible government agencies to agree upon some policy along the line of the Lusk-Farley proposal would leave straight out government operation as the sole alternative, a member of the board declared today.

complex, either before or after the fact, unless he promptly withdrew and severed his connection when he discovered that the K. K. K. as an organization were murdering, mutilating and flogging a member of the human race."

The governor said he would continue each day to tell the story of the K. K. K. as shown by the evidence in my possession taken before the military court."

LEAGUE BODY

One point submitted by the experts seems to be based on the idea that the United States one day will sign this treaty. It declares that the treaty will be considered as entering into force when it has been ratified by the United States.

The attitude of Italy toward the league of nations having become a closed issue through the decision to turn over the entire covenant to the jurists for interpretation, there is a general feeling of relief in Geneva.

RUBR LOSES: The Germans are admitting at last that their policy of passive resistance in the Ruhr is a failure, and are preparing to make some kind of workable terms with the French.

So far, so good. They were doomed to failure from the start, because France was more determined than Germany and had greater powers of endurance. Germany was, and is, as helpless against the military resources of her conquering enemy as France was after the Franco-Prussian war.

It remains to be demonstrated, however, that France has won by her policy of coercion. She will have forced Germany, after eight months of deadlock, into a new agreement to pay.

These eight months have been lost, as far as the economic and political situation is concerned. France and Germany are both worse off. Europe is worse off. Business is more disarranged. National enmity has increased when it should have decreased.

JAIL FOR SLOPPY PIONEERS

A few years ago the practice, adopted in some eastern cities, of arresting picnicers who litter up the parks with refuse of their meals, would have been considered unnecessarily drastic. Now it causes general approval.

BOLSHEVIST PHILANTHROPY

Russian Bolshevism appears in a new light—that of charity. But a weird sort of charity it is. Immediately after the Japanese earthquake, it develops, a relief ship was dispatched from Vladivostok by the Soviet government, laden with medical supplies, physicians and nurses.

reached any other class. The outraged Japs did exactly what Americans would have done. They ordered the commander of that ship to sail right back to Vladivostok with his charity and propaganda.

On due reflection, this may strike the average reader as about the most uncomplimentary thing he has ever heard of the Bolshevists. The pettiness of it can be appreciated all the more strongly in this country because of the impartial way in which America relieved the needy people of starving Russia, making no distinction between Russian, peasant and proletarian, feeding and nursing the Reds as freely as the respectables.

COAL REMEDIES

The federal fact-finding coal commission made thirty-seven recommendations in its report of September fourth. It suggested very little legislation, but urged the continued study of coal production and the discovery of further facts concerning it.

If its report is to accomplish the good it should, there must be plenty of publicity on all its thirty-seven recommendations. Representatives of the industry itself—both operators and miners—need to study the report; Congress should study it; the public should study it.

The BROWN MOUSE By HERBERT QUICK (Copyright by The Bobbs-Merrill Company)

"But Jennie had the keenness to see that if Mrs. Irwin could have had an up-to-date costume she would have become a rather ordinary and not bad-looking old lady. What Jennie failed to divine was that if Jim could have invested a hundred dollars in the services of tailors, hattermakers, barbers and other specialists in personal appearance, and could have blotted out his record as her father's field-hand, he would have seemed to her a distinguished-looking young man. Not handsome, of course, but the sort people look up to."

"Come to dinner," said Mrs. Woodruff, who at this juncture had a hired girl, but was yoked to the oar nevertheless when it came to turkey and the other fixings of a Christmas dinner. "It's good enough, what there is of it, and there's enough of it such as it is—but the dressing in the turkey would be better for a little more sauce."

The bountiful meal piled mountain-high for guest and hired help and family melted away in a manner to delight the hearts of Mrs. Woodruff and Jennie. The colonel, in stiff starched shirt and black tie and frock coat, carried with much embarrassment, and Jim felt almost for the first time a sense of the value of money.

"I had bigger turkeys," said Mrs. Woodruff to Mrs. Irwin, "but I thought it would be better to cook two turkeys instead of one great big gobbler with mint as tough as tripe and stuffed full of fat."

"One of the hens would 'a' been plenty," replied Mrs. Irwin. "How much did they weight?" "About fifteen pounds apiece," was the answer. "The gobbler would 'a' weighed thirty. I guess. He's pure Mammoth Bronze."

"I wish," said Jim, "that we could get a few breeding birds of the wild bronze turkeys from Mexico." "Why?" asked the colonel. "They're the original blood of the domestic bronze turkeys," said Jim, "and they're bigger and handsomer than the pure bred bronzes, even. They're a better stock than the Northern wild turkeys from which our common birds originated."

"Where do you learn all these things, Jim?" asked Mrs. Woodruff. "I declare, I often tell Woodruff that it's as good as a lecture to have Jim Irwin at table. My intelligence has fallen since you quit working here, Jim."

There came into Jim's eyes the gleam of the man devoted to a Cause—and the dinner tended to develop into a lecture. Jennie saw a little more plainly wherein his queerness lay. "There's an education in any meal, if we would just use the things on the table as materials for study, and follow their trails back to their starting points. This turkey takes us back to the chaparral of Mexico."

"What's chaparral?" asked Jennie, as a diversion. "It's one of the words I have seen so often and know perfectly to speak it and read it—but after all it's just a word, and nothing more."

"Ain't that the trouble with our education, Jim?" queried the colonel, cleverly steering Jim back into the track of his discourse. "They're not even living words," answered Jim, "unless we have clothed them in flesh and blood through some sort of concrete notion. 'Chaparral' to Jennie is just the ghost of a word. Our civilization is full of inefficiency because we are satisfied to give our children these ghosts and shucks and haws of words instead of the things themselves, that can be seen and heard and handled and tested and hefted."

of command superior teacher, and he was the county superintendent selected. "Eating a dinner like this, mother," said the colonel gaily, "is an education in itself—and eating some other requires one; but just how 'learning' is wrapped up in the school lunch is like to do these things, and if it would help prepare them for life on an intelligent plane, while they prepared the meals."

"Isn't that looking rather far ahead?" asked the county superintendent. "It's like a lot of other things we think far ahead," urged Jim. "The only reason why they're far off is because we think them so. It's a thought—and a thought is as near the moment we think it as it will ever be."

"I guess that's so—a wild-eyed reformer," said the colonel. "But go on. Develop your thought a little. Have some more dressing." "Thanks, I believe I will," said Jim. "And a little more of the cranberry sauce. No more turkey, please."

"I'd like to see the school class that could prepare this dinner," said Mrs. Woodruff. "Why," said Jim, "you'd be there showing them how! They'd get credits in their domestic economy course for getting the school dinner—and they'd bring their mothers into it to help make up the head of the table classes. And one detail of girls would cook one week, and another serve. The setting of the table would also be a study—flowers, linen add all that. And when we get a civilized teacher, table manners!"

"The hired man, winking at Selma Carlson, the maid, from somewhere below the salt. 'The way I make my knife feed my face would be a great help to the children.'"

"And when the food came on the table, Jim took up the cranberry sauce, his former fellow-laborer, who had heard most of this before as a part of the field conversation, "Just think of the things we could study while eating it. The literary term for eating a meal is discussing it—well, the discussion of a meal upon proper guidance is much more educative than a lecture. This breast-bone, now, said he, referring to the remains on his plate. 'That's physiology. The cranberry sauce—that's botany and commerce, and soil management—do you know, Colonel, that the cranberry may be made up soil—which would kill alfalfa or clover?'"

"Read something of it," said the colonel, "but it didn't interest me much." "And the difference between the types of fowl on the table—that's the difference between the average account—that's geography. And everything on the table runs back to geography, and comes to us linked to our lives by dollars and cents—and they're mathematics."

"We must have something more than good food," said Mrs. Woodruff. "Culture," cried Jim, "is the ability to think in terms of life—isn't it?" "Like Jesse James?" suggested the hired man, who was a careful student of the life of that eminent bandit.

"That's the best answer I've had on the spot, Pete," said Jim, smiling at the disturbance had subsided. "But if the James boys and the Youngers had had the sort of culture I'm for, they would have been successful stock men and farmers, instead of train robbers. Take Raymond Simms, for instance. He had all the qualifications of a member of the James gang when he came here. All he needed was a few experienced associates of his own sort, and a convenient railway with unfenced trains running over it. But after a few weeks of real 'culture' under a mighty poor teacher, he's doing all right for the most enthusiastic farmer I know. 'That's real culture.'"

"It's knowing like everything," said Jennie, who faced the window. "Don't cut your dinner short," said the colonel to Pete, "but I think you'll find the cattle ready to come in out of the storm when you get good and out of the weather."

"I think I'll let 'em in now," said Pete, by way of excusing himself. "I expect to put in most of the day from now on getting ready to quit eating. Save some of everything for me, Selma—I'll be right back!"

"All right, now," said Selma. "Mrs. Woodruff and Jim's mother went into other parts of the house on research work connected with their converse on domestic economy. The colonel withdrew for an inspection of the live stock on the eye of the threatened bilkard. And Jim was left alone in the front parlor.

Scanning him by means of her back hair, Jennie knew that in another moment Jim would lay his hand on her shoulder, or otherwise advance to personal nearness, as he had done the night of his ill-starred speech at the neighborhood meeting in self-defense. Self-defense, however, did not seem to require that he be kept at too great a distance; so she maneuvered him to the sofa, and seated him beside her. Now was the time to line him up.

NEW GAUGE OF HORSEPOWER

Method of Showing the Relation Between It and a Kilowatt Has Been Devised.

More than 100 years ago James Watt took the strength of a "strong London draft-horse" as a unit of measurement to indicate the power of his steam engine. This unit, which was the amount of energy that would raise 55,000 pounds one foot in one minute, is called one horsepower.

Electric motors, automobile engines and all other forms of energy-producing machinery have been measured in terms of Watt's horsepower ever since, says a bulletin of the New York State Committee of Public Utility. The "strong London draft-horse" is dead as Eoliphus and his bones are dust, but his mighty thrills have been imbedded in tradition that from that time to this no one has questioned.
