LYOYD GEORGE CITES PERILS OF AUTOCRACY

Britain's World Renowned War-Time Premier Fears That Force of Democracy Is Dwindling

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)—Five years after the world war, democracy, which in 1918 won a great victory over autocracy, is in peril. David Lloyd George, the war-time premier of Great Britain, declared in a luncheon address here today.

“The force of democracy is a few months after starting the experiment,” the former premier asserted. “Italy, Spain, Bulgaria and now Germany is talking about a dictatorship. Democracy is in peril—perhaps five years after the greatest triumph democracy has ever had.”

“Why is democracy now so sure, after it is so slowly steadily it does not bring its forces into action in the way perhaps an autocracy does, but in a struggle it is the least that tells and democracy sustains the heart and what happens is that democratic institutions alone can produce and train men that are able to last a lifetime, to rise to those heights of sacrifice which are the last citadels of freedom in all lands.”

“Now, when democracy is in danger, when I can see the throne of democracy tumbling in one land after another, you have a land of democracy. Britain is the land of democracy. France, the ally, will be by democracy, and whatever happens there, three great lands together will stand against this wave of autocracy which seems to be sweeping over the world.”

The arrival of the distinguished visitor in the city was marked by a great demonstration. Met at the station by a reception committee headed by Mayor Dever, Mr. Lloyd George was taken on a drive through the loop section, preceded by a band from the Great Lakes-American running an escort of cavalry and flanked and followed by mounted police and official cars. Crowds packed the sidewalks while others hung from windows and other places of vantage high up on the buildings. Confetti and streamers filled the air, while there was a continuous roar of welcome as the automobile bearing the former premier, a bearded head passed through the streets.

Luncheon Guest. Arriving at the La Salle hotel, Mr. Lloyd George immediately went to the luncheon which was tendered him by the Chicago Association of Commerce, where several hundred more applauded his appearance. It was in response to official speeches of welcome by half of the city and of the citizens by Mayor Dever and association officials that he delivered the address of the day.

Later Mr. Lloyd George went to his headquarters in the Drake hotel to remain quietly this evening, excusing himself from a private dinner given by Brigadier General Charles Dives, former director of the federal budget, because of fatigue caused by his strenuous day.

Holds Americans to Blame for Big Liquor Shipments

Ontario Police General Advances Arguments Tending to Acquit Canadians of Controlling Rum-Running Trade

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 16 (AP)—Americans are directing virtually the entire Canadian-American rum-running industry, according to a statement by General V. A. S. Williams, commissioner of the Ontario provincial police, appearing today in the Toronto Evening Telegram in reference to the charge that Canadian bootleggers were keeping the United States moist.

“They are practically all Americans,” said General Williams. “If I had control of policing the highways of the province, I would seize six or seven American automobiles every day engaged in this trade. As it is, we caught four New York state automobiles just recently engaged in rum-running.”

“As for the boat trade, I have seen with my own eyes the situation at Windsor border. I have seen Detroit-owned launches come over to our side, land at Petite Cote, load up with liquor and beer and go back to their home city.”

“I am told that American officials do not want to stop this trade. If they do want to, why on earth don't they do it?”

“The business is managed, operated and financed by their own citizens, who use motor boats and automobiles of United States ownership. Surely they should have some responsibility in controlling the situation.”

No words were exchanged as the two officers met in front of a store in the business section, according to witnesses, and both men died immediately without making a statement.

According to reports to the police, the trouble is said to have been caused by court papers not being served after being given to the constable and resulting in a fine being imposed on the sheriff.

FLOOD REFUGEES TELL TALES OF HEROIC RESCUES

Oklahoma City Is Still Virtually Isolated by Greatest Inundation; Water Begins to Fall But Many Still Homeless

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 16 (AP)—Staggered by the greatest flood in the history of the state and virtually isolated by rail and highway, Oklahoma City tonight sheltered her little army of refugees and waited for the maddly turbulent expanse of the North Canadian river to recede and reveal the damage it has wrought. Although the river had fallen approximately two feet from the 25-foot crest that swept down on the city at five o'clock this morning, the swift rush of the waters was still swirling through streets heretofore considered immune from the ravages of the fitful stream.

More than 2,000 of the 15,000 persons who fled before the on-rush of the water still were homeless tonight. They were quartered in halls and churches throughout the city. The remainder of the host had returned to their homes by means of vehicles that passed, often hub-deep, through streets still filled with floodwater.

Two Are Dead

The known dead list stood at two, but city officials and members of rescue crews declared it probably would be greater when the receding waters make possible a thorough search of the flooded areas. The dead thus far known are Mrs. R. H. Looze and her daughter, Clara, 8 years old, who were drowned when a boat in which they attempted to gain land, after tarrying in an effort to save their personal effects, was caught in the millrace at Wheeler park, a municipal resort, and capsized. Leone and another daughter, Desais, 10, were rescued from the top of a large tree into which they had climbed when the boat went over. They had been there 15 hours when a skiff driven by two men finally nosed its way among the trees and brought them to safety.

Water Falling

At the city reservoir, where a break in a retaining wall precipitated the unprecedented flood upon the city, the water still was falling tonight with the 2,000 acre reservoir nearly two-thirds drained. No estimate of the damage could be made, but the city authorities believe

Alaskan Railroad Heavily Damaged by Severe Storm

Entire Section Between Seward and Potter Reported Suffering from Torrents

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—One hundred miles of the Alaskan railroad have been put out of commission by an unusually severe rainstorm combined with high tides, according to a telegraphic report received by Secretary Work today from Anchorage.

No estimate of the damage was furnished by the report, which said the entire section between Seward and Potter has suffered from washouts and destroyed bridges.

Utilities Gain by Paid Advertising in Modern Dailies

Business Executives Must Pay for Newspaper Space Hereafter, Press Expert Asserts

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)—In dealing with the reputable newspaper publicity men will have to pay for their advertising and they cannot buy news space, Joe Carmichael of Des Moines, Iowa, said in addressing the meeting here of the Inland Daily Press association. The association represents newspaper in the central states and Connell, and seeks to promote “a newspaper news, business, economy and authentic advertising.”

On the other hand, public utility executives are learning the value of paid newspaper advertising in the advertising columns, Mr. Carmichael continued, and have solved experienced men from the editorial and advertising forces of newspapers to act as directors of committee on public utility information. Mr. Carmichael is director of such a committee in Iowa. He told of a company which began newspaper advertising about August 1, 1922, and subsequently “sold more washing machines than he had during the two years previous.” The chief executive of the company declared that if he could sell washing machines by newspaper advertising he could cultivate good will through the same medium.

“No industry is so vitally dependent on the understanding and good will of the people as the utilities, which are regulated in almost every action by legislatures, commissions, city councils and courts. They are dependent on

MOVE FOR REDUCTION OF EXPORT RATES ON GRAIN IS UNDER WAY

THIRTEEN KILLED IN PHILIPPINES; TROOPS OF U. S. ARE CALLED

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 17 (AP)—Two school teachers, one supervising teacher, one lieutenant, a sergeant and eight privates of the Philippine constabulary were killed by Moros last Sunday at a school house at Lake Buluan, Lanao province, island of Mindanao, according to a report received here. The aid of United States troops has been asked.

Rail Line Chief, at Request of Coolidge, to Start Movement for Lower Charges; Commission to Conduct Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—President Coolidge today asked Samuel R.hea, head of the Pennsylvania railroad system to inaugurate a movement among railroad executives looking to a reduction in freight rates on grain destined for export. At the same time the interstate commerce commission would proceed with an investigation to determine whether present rates on grain and other agricultural products are reasonable. Mr. Rhea, it was indicated may call other railroad presidents into conference on the subject. The commission's program calls for hearings at times and places which will be fixed shortly. Reopen Case. The commission temporarily denied the complaint of western grain growers, which has been pending before it for several months, asking for a reduction in freight rates on grain and grain products in the west, but instead of dismissing the complaint, re-opened the case for hearing. Present rates, the decision said, had not been shown at previous hearings to be unreasonable, while earnings of western railroads were found to be low.

Farm Profits Low

“The agricultural industry in the west is heavily mortgaged and deeply indebted to the banks,” the decision said in reaching upon the situation which led to the filing of the complaint. “The labor and capital of the grain and hay farmer in part of the western district receive a reward much lower than in any important, gainful pursuit, and this at a time when many other industries have shaken out of the depression and have made rapid substantial strides toward recovery.”

Notwithstanding this, and the fall in grain prices, the commission concluded the present rates on the products under consideration in the western district which include territory west of the Mississippi and east of the Rocky mountains, had been reasonable, and that the former standard, adjusted, not unreasonable to themselves. In reopening the case it was further suggested that a study of grain rates in other parts of the United States be made, and that rate revisions might apply in all parts of the country. Commissioners Campbell and McCord dissented from the majority decision, the former declaring in a separate opinion that immediate decreases should have been granted. Costs of a rate reduction in the west for grain and other products were not discussed in the commission opinion, by Clyde A. Reed, chairman of the Kansas state public utilities commission, which is in preventing reduction of rates, and the former estimated that earnings of railroads would decrease $17,000,000 if grain rates in the west were cut 10 per cent.

PROHIBITION IS DEBATED TOPIC

President Confers with Cabinet Members on Program for Meeting of Governors

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Preparatory to the governor's law enforcement conference to be held Saturday at the White House, President Coolidge called into conference today Secretary Mellon and Assistant Secretary Moss of the treasury and Commissioner Blair of the internal revenue bureau and spent more than half an hour with them in a discussion of prohibition enforcement problems. Beyond the statement that the program for the conference was discussed, none of those who saw the president made any comment on the meeting, and it was not disclosed whether one of the subjects considered was the declaration made by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania at the recent prohibition conference, that the prohibition enforcement should be personally directed by the president. Secretary Mellon is known to propose the implementation of the prohibition amendment “by a system which permits United States senators to control the appointment of federal enforcement officers in the states.”

White Rape System

“If the senator is not,” he added, “he appoints wet enforcement officers, or if the senator is not, as it were, in the north Atlantic seaboard states, the senator appoints wet enforcers and the governors of those states are tied hand and foot by those wet federal enforcers. The prohibition cannot be enforced by the federal government under the system of patronage now prevailing unless the president of the United States does one of two things: Either put eight thousand men on the streets into the wet senators, or break with them. Neither alternative is easy.” Mr. White expressed confidence that President Coolidge would be able to handle the situation.

EXECUTIVES TO CONVENE INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16 (AP)—Chief executives of 30 states and territories were gathering in Indianapolis tonight for the fifteenth annual governors' conference beginning Wednesday at West Baden to discuss national problems and means of uniform relief legislation. The party will go by automobile to West Baden Wednesday.

Taxation, agriculture, marketing, waterways and development and transportation are among the subjects assigned for general discussion. Several round table periods will be given over to regional questions. Governor W. M. Ross of Wyoming was among those registered tonight at conference headquarters. The governor said he came with no “net program” but his state's stance for prohibition. He also is interested in plans to stabilize farm products prices, he said. Governor Scott Bone of Alaska and Governor Franklin of Hawaii, notified conference chiefs today they were leaving Washington Tuesday to participate in the West Baden gathering.

Arctic Explorer Placed on Trial on Fraud Charge

Government Presents Evidence in Case of Dr. Frederick A. Cook; Letters from Oil Firm Are Read in Court

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 16 (AP)—Presentation of evidence by the government in the trial in federal court here of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, Arctic explorer, and his co-defendants, charged with using the United States mails to defraud, began this afternoon when C. B. Whitmer, real estate dealer of Fremont, Iowa, took the witness stand as the first of more than 100 witnesses expected to be called for the prosecution. Mr. Whitmer's testimony was short, as much of the time was taken by the government reading letters to the jury. He testified he received through the mails from the Bury Hoyt Oil company, signed by J. B. Hooks, a co-defendant, and from the Petroleum Producers' association, signed by Dr. Cook.

The letters urge that the stockholders in the Bury Hoyt company transfer their stock into Dr. Cook's association by paying 25 per cent of the stock value in cash. One of the letters written by Dr. Cook said: “Petroleum is the king of industry, and our success is as certain as Adam's success.”

Los Angeles Detective Fails to Connect Astrologist's Horoscopes with Taylor Murder; Many Were Influenced

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 16 (AP)—De cipherings made today of horoscopes declared to have been sent to film stars by Arthur Covell, astrologist, of Marshfield, Ore., who has been charged with murder in an indictment, disclosed one relating directly to William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, who was slain in his home in Hollywood, Los Angeles, said Luke S. May, detective.

"I have deciphered a horoscope sent by Covell to an mentioned very prominently in connection with the death of Taylor," said May, who announced last night that his studies of the death of Mrs. Elba Covell, of Bandon, Ore., for which Covell was indicted, might give a "strong clue to the Taylor mystery, and I have found that it makes no reference to Taylor.

"The studies I have made of horoscopes sent out by Covell show that a number of leading Hollywood people were influenced by him in pretty nearly everything they did. They were guided by his horoscopes as to how scenarios should be written, whether contracts should be signed, and on what day certain pieces should be acted."

May said that continued perusal of Covell's horoscopes indicated that a great many people were warned to leave Oregon, the alternative being the payment of sums of money, and that warnings signed "K. K. K." were to be sent to these people. May declared that one set of horoscopes showed that Alton Covell, who has confessed that he killed Mrs. Covell "under orders," had been directed by the astrologist, and I have directed by a girl 15 years old and held her for a ransom of $5000 and that a note demanding the money was to be signed "K. K. K."

Three Officers to Return from California with Boys Held on Murder Charges

SALT LAKE, Oct. 16 (AP)—By midnight tonight three Salt Lake officers will be speeding toward San Bernardino, Cal., where three young men, not yet of voting age, are waiting to be brought back to this city on the charge of murdering Patrolman David H. Crowther of the local police force last Saturday or Sunday. The youths who confessed, according to California authorities, to the murder, say they will not make any fight against extradition. However, the officers are bearing the necessary legal documents which will be presented to Governor Richardson of California for signature in case the youths decide not to return to this state voluntarily. All three of these young men, Robert Sanders, 20, said to have confessed to the actual murder; Fred Dupont, 20, and George Williams, 19, will be brought back. Local officers, when asked if they expected any demonstration against the men, stated that they

WOOD'S MESSAGE MEETS RESPECT

Slight Applause Breaks when Proposal is Read for Military Preparedness

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 16 (AP)—A joint session of the Philippine legislature today received Governor General Leonard Wood's message in respectful silence. Although interruptions and disturbances were anticipated, not one occurred. The galleries were packed. There was applause from some quarters, among members of both houses, at the message's reference to the necessity for reorganization and military training for defense in case of possible emergencies. There was applause again when Governor General Wood stressed the necessity for maintaining a distinct line of demarcation between the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government and of amending all legislation so as to avoid conflict with the provisions of the Jones law, the organic act of the insular government. Representative Vincente Sotto of Cebu declared today he would introduce at tomorrow's session a declaration of independence for the Philippines. He said he realizes this would border on audacity, but that he thinks it will force the majority party to take definite action one way or another.

Sanders, according to the local police, is a native of Toledo, Ohio, and only six weeks ago was paroled from the Wyoming state penitentiary, where he served time for grand larceny. ## HIGH APPROVAL GIVEN TO WASHINGTON APPLES

SPOKANE, Oct. 16 (AP)—Washington apples last week played no small part in the International Dairy congress in session at Syracuse, N. Y. Over 100 representative heads of dairy associations, including delegates from South America and Europe, received apple literature extolling the merits of this state from the hands of Governor Louis F. Hart, who attended the convention. The apples were shipped last week from Yakima, Wenatchee and Okanogan valleys upon receipt of telegrams from the governor urging the local commercial clubs to send him post haste several boxes of the fruit. "These men are high class citizens and representatives of their several countries," the governor said, "and while primarily interested in dairying and marketing dairy products, they are close students of our productive activities."

The governor voiced the opinion that it might be a profitable way of extending the state's markets as well as offering a high class brand of publicity, by his being able to distribute a quantity of its produce.

Four Mail Pilots Carry Secretary Davis from 'Frisco to Rock Springs in Fast Time'

SALT LAKE, Oct. 16 (AP)—Flying in record time four mail pilots carried Secretary of Labor James J. Davis from San Francisco to Rock Springs in five hours and 54 minutes, exclusive of stops. This is said by the air mail field here to be a record for the western division. Davis arrived in Rock Springs at 5:56 tonight. Three stops were made during the flight. At Reno, Nev., the first stop, pilots were changed and 13 minutes time taken. At Elko, Nev., the second stopping place, pilots were again changed and four minutes taken. Salt Lake was the third and last stop and again four minutes were lost, although due to the changing time, Davis apparently lost one hour and four minutes. The trip from Salt Lake to Rock Springs was made in one hour and eight minutes. This is within eight minutes of a record for that course, airmail officials stated tonight. Secretary Davis, during his brief stay here, said that he was enjoying the trip immensely and added that he never expected to travel any faster than during this trip. He commended the air mail pilots for their efficiency.

SERIES PROVED POPULARITY OF NATIONAL GAME

Heydler Points Out New Successes and Stronger Hold Baseball Has Won Through Annual Word Championship

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—Baseball has emerged from the 1923 world's series with the New York American team yesterday, stronger in its hold on popular interest than ever before and unshaken by unfortunate incidents of the last few years, John A. Heydler, president of the National league, asserted in a statement tonight.

Frank Fritsch, the New York National's second baseman, by his consistent hitting, having base running and seasonally flawless fielding "came out of the series with the greatest, if not the greatest, present-day, all-around player of the game," Mr. Heydler said, and John J. McGraw, he added, though manager of the defeated team, "was one of the series a bigger man than ever before in his career," and his sportsmanship was splendid.

"If the world's series just closed," read the statement, "baseball reached a peak no one had dared to prophesy for the game. Friends of the game had dreamed of a million dollar series, but nobly ever expected to awake and find that the dream had come true. Here was a third series in succession played in New York, and yet over 300,000 persons paid over a million to see six games.

"Best Contest in History.

"The series shows that after nearly half a century baseball's hold upon American life is stronger than ever," it continued. "In all my years of close connection with the game I have never seen so much interest in the fall classic as this year. And I never saw a finer contest.

"There were those who doubted and who threw cold water and who said that the game had slipped back and had been hurt by the things that are bound to happen to all human enterprises as time goes by. But the wave of intense interest that swept the land in full flood this fall has carried the game to its zenith.

"The reasons were fundamental. The fans were expecting a close-contested series. When the Yankees, beaten twice in succession, turned on the champion Giants and deadlocked the series Saturday the interest leaped to fever heat at a bound. As many people were turned away Sunday as were seated in the biggest baseball park in the world.

Both teams fought to the last, gave their spectators their all, and the best team won. I believe that John McGraw came out of the series a bigger man than ever before in his career, even though he was beaten. His sportsmanship was splendid. His comment and his attitude day by day showed a game loser at his best.

"There was a difference of $2,047.53 between the individual shares of the winners and the losers.

"Yanks Split Million

"The Yankee players voted today to divide their million into 26 full shares and one half share, the full shares amounting to $6,100.40, the biggest figure in the game's history. The half share was split among several players late on the team who did not get into the series—to secretaries and ground-keepers.

"The Yankee players did not receive their world's series checks today, but the club gave them their regular salaries.

"The players, who were the guests of Owner Ruppert, spent this afternoon and evening celebrating their long-deferred triumph over the McGraw clan. Colonel Ruppert was enthusiastic in his praise of Manager Huggins and the players. It was reported, and will demonstrate his appreciation for their work during the season and throughout the series by liberally increasing the salaries of all his players.

"So engrossed were the Yankees in Colonel Ruppert's party that it was not until late tonight that their list of world's series beneficiaries was forwarded to the office of Judge Landis.

"The Giants' secretary, however, was early on hand with the McGraw list. The best total for the series was $110,645.91, and of this amount each of the 26 regular players, manager and coach, receive $4,112.88.

England's Premier Jockey Is Hopeful of Winning Honors of Winning Honors

Steve Donoghue, Jockey Chap Who Will Ride Papyrus, Faces Big Race of His Life

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—England's premier jockey, Steve Donoghue, well built with 109 pounds, only four feet 11 inches tall, and rather boyish looking despite his 39 years—the anniversary of which was fittingly celebrated yesterday atop the Olympic stadium—will ride Papyrus in the first time tonight. He was "hopeful, but not confident" of the outcome of the $100,000 international horse race at Belmont park next Saturday.

Steve traveled in regal style, with even a secretary in his accompanying party which included Isaac Whitall, personal representative of Ben Irish, owner of Papyrus, Britain's premier horse, which meets Zev, his American rival, in one of the greatest international races between three-year-olds.

"This race," said Donoghue, "will mean the attainment or non-attainment of the greatest ambition of my life. I do not underestimate the ability of Earl Sande, who will be in the saddle on Zev, your great American horse. I feel that this international sporting event is the greatest in which I will have figured and the interest taken in it, both in America and in England, will go far, I think, in strengthening the existing good will between the countries."

SALT LAKE MAN TAKES COAST BATTING HONORS

Paul Strand Participated in 102 Games and Ran Up an Average of .394; Made 43 Circuit Drives

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 16 (AP)—Paul Strand of the Salt Lake club, captured the hitting honors for the 1923 season in the Pacific Coast baseball league, according to unofficial results made public today. Strand participated in 102 games and ran up an average of .394.

Strand was at the bat 325 times, made 100 runs, scored 325 hits and knocked out 43 home runs.

Paul Werner, of the San Francisco club ran up an average of .369. Whit of Salt Lake came third with .361, and Pete Schneider of Vernon came fourth with .360.

Happy Men.

I had been working in my garden. The sun was just below the horizon and the dew was already on the smooth green walks bordered by sweet-smelling roses and carnations. The stillness of the evening was broken only by the whistling of a blackbird. I sat down on a rude seat I had formed beneath an old tree, and as I thought of the fruits and plants that were ripening around me, I exclaimed to myself: "How happy, if they knew it, are they that till the ground."—William Barnes.

How Diamonds Are Tested.

The geological survey says that the ordinary tests to determine the genuineness of a diamond are to test its specific gravity, hardness and refractive index. When further proof is desired the stone is burned in an atmosphere of hydrogen. An ordinary fire will not affect a diamond if only the atmosphere of the air is present. Diamonds are the hardest substance known.

WHITE SOX WIN IN TEN INNINGS

Americans Take Eighth Chicago City Championship on Fumbles and Wild Throw

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)—The White Sox are again Chicago city champions, beating the National League Cubs, four to three, in 10 innings today. The Americans won the series, four games to two. Two fumbles and a wild throw by George Grant gave the Sox the championship. The first fumble came in the ninth inning in which the Sox scored twice and knotted the count, while the second fumble and wild peg came in the tenth and allowed the Sox to win the game.

It was the eighth city championship the Sox have won from the Cubs, who earned the title three times. The National leaguers won their title last year, the first in 13 years.

Tony Kaufmann hurried the route in the final game for the Cubs. Urban Faber, Ted Lyons and Gorham H. Levrett pitched for the Sox.

INNOVATIONS STARTED IN COLORADO SCHOOLS

Pomona College Loses Several Stars of Last Year But Coaches Are Optimistic of Outcome

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 16 (AP)—Household care of the sick will be included in the curricula of schools in district 20—the south side of the Arkansas river in the city of Pueblo—under the auspices of the local American Red Cross chapter, it was announced recently.

The work, which is in the nature of an innovation in public schools, will include classes for mothers in simple home nursing—how to bathe a sick person in bed, how to change a bed while occupied by a sick person, how to properly feed the patient, how to take temperatures and examine the pulse.

The classes will be conducted in three schools one afternoon a week for at least six or seven weeks, it was said by the local Red Cross.

Wanted to Know.

Headlight Bill was a colored gentleman of sporting proclivities, who had got his name from a large diamond which he wore as a stud. He had occasion to consult a doctor about a "mystery in his chest." The medical man eyed the stud keenly. This made Headlight somewhat uneasy. After asking a number of questions the doctor produced a stethoscope and placed it squarely over the stud. Finishing his examination the doctor looked solemn. So did the patient. "Ain't it kewanee, doctah?" asked Headlight.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

WILL MARK STATE ROADS

Maps and Color Bands Placed at Intervals Along Highways to Guide Tourists to Destinations

PHOENIX, Arizona, Oct. 16 (AP)—Marking of all state roads in Arizona with maps and color bands for the guidance of tourists is one of the plans being worked out by the state highway department. The plan, it is announced by the state highway department officials, will be presented to the legislature in its next session. Officials say that approximately $4000 will be necessary to get the work under way.

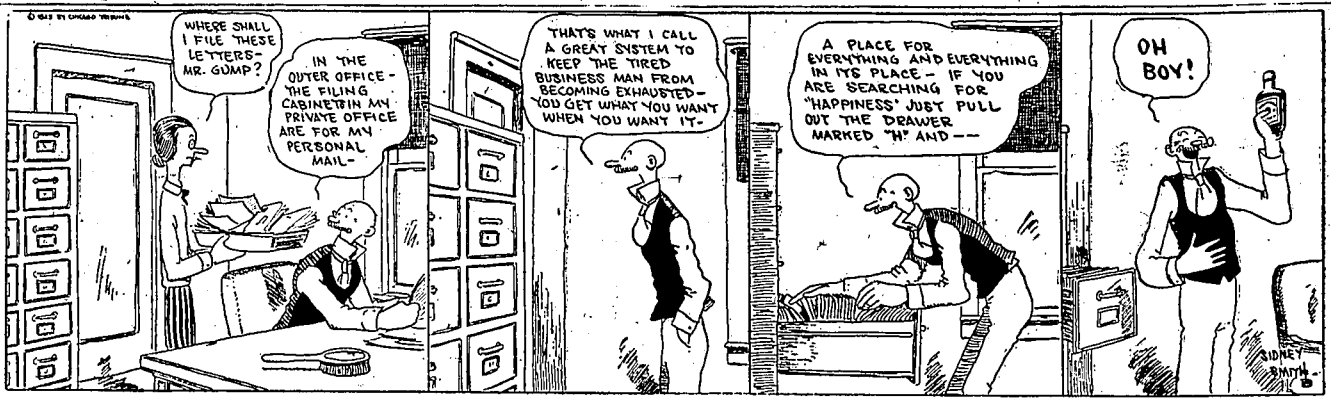

Under the plans worked out by state officials, all state roads will be numbered and given a distinctive color band to be used in designing the highway and its course from cross roads and side roads leading to it. At graduated intervals a post will be erected bearing the road color.

At certain points along the road large maps of the sections of the state will be erected and corresponding sections on printed maps will be designated by arrows.

The plan being worked out by the state highway department is one in vogue in Wisconsin, where, it is boasted, no one ever gets lost.

But the failure was in the lack of vision, courage, leadership of the rulers, and this is not without meaning now when democracy has been thrown over in one country after another in Europe as it were a thing of no use.

"I ventured to tell them," he said, "that Germany might have peace that day, that hour, if she accepted the conditions laid down by the president of the United States of America."

COURT TALKS STATUS OF MOTION PICTURE AGENTS

Arguments Presented Before Supreme Tribunal to Determine if Distributors Are in Interstate Commerce

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (AP)—Arguments were presented today in the supreme court in a case brought by Charles G. Biderkup of Nebraska against the Pathe Exchange and 18 other producing and distributing agencies. It has determined whether they are engaged in interstate commerce and are amenable to the Sherman anti-trust law.

Biderkup contends that he was put out of business by refusal of the defendants to rent him films. The companies named in the suit, however, hold that Biderkup, like all other exhibitors, must make contracts with state agents and obtain films from them after the films have come to rest in the state and lost all interstate aspects.

On the Screen

CRUISE WINS LAURELS

"Counpuncher humor" has suffered sometimes when brought to the stage or screen because the men chosen to interpret it were entirely unfamiliar with it.

So it was that when Paramount Pictures decided to film "Buggles of Red Gap," by Harry Leon Wilson, perhaps the most humorous story ever written, a counpuncher was chosen to direct it.

Not a counpuncher right off the range, however, but one that was, as it were. It is over 20 years since James Cruze punched cows at Pioche, Nevada, but it is said that the dramatic experience he has had since fits in splendidly with his present opportunity to put on the screen the humor which was a part of his youth. "Buggles of Red Gap" will be seen at the Idaho theatre today.

FASTING AND INDIGESTION

Dr. Margaret Kunde, a graduate student of physiology at Chicago University, appears to have demonstrated a valuable treatment for indigestion.

At the end of the fifteen days she resumed normal eating with no difficulty and with average appetite.

Simultaneously with Dr. Kunde's experiment the same regime was tried on several men and on animals.

The doctors watching all the fasters believe that "fasting may be used with success by persons who wish to get back pep and energy, by diabetics and by persons with indigestion."

These conclusions do not seem particularly surprising. Wise parents know that very plain fare just before and just after Christmas feasting helps considerably in maintaining healthy digestion.

Neither should this experiment be used by hurried folks to justify the habit of rushing off to the day's work without an adequate breakfast or doing without lunch for lack of time to eat.

CROSSING SAFEGUARDS

The rural has commonly used to carry pupils to the centralized township schools calls for attention on the part of parents and school authorities.

FEW HINTS FOR HUSBANDS

Advice on How to Make One's Wife Perfectly Happy All Through Married Life.

"The secret of success in married life," says a paper, "is to reveal some new trait in your character from time to time."

You see the idea? Don't be all yourself all at once. Spring little surprises on your wife from time to time and spread them over at least fifteen years; that is, if your wife is still alive.

Do not rush matters; wait until things begin to humdrum. Then is the time to reveal the new traits.

For six months—split it out to a year if you can—make happy little quotations from standard authors. Your wife will be delighted to see how well you read her. Buck her up a bit. Wives must be cheered up; after all, she's got to live with you.

When the quotation era falls try something else. Buy a piccolo and a book on how to play it. Learn to play it in your office or on the onnallus.

Then one night, putting your hand in your breast pocket, say, "I've got a little surprise for you, dear." She will think you are only going to give her a diamond necklace, and to her great surprise you will pull out your piccolo and play a little tune.

Do not take any notice of the expression on your wife's face—remember, you have taken her by surprise—they mustn't see another day in your study with the door closed and a blanket over the piccolo. Whatever happens, it will be a new trait.

In the meantime you can be secretly perfecting yourself in various conjuring tricks. Practice out in the country with a pack of cards, some rabbits, and a top hat.

Then one evening you will be able to say, "I'll show you a little trick, my dear." Lead the conversation up to cards first. "In memoriam" cards are a good start. Make your wife take a card and look at it. Tell her to put it in the pack again. Then ask her how many spots it has. When she says she has forgotten, do not show any chagrin; you can change it into a rabbit.

If your wife is ill, relieve her tedium by reciting poetry to her. If the servants are ill, too, see to your wife's breakfast cheerily. Bring it to her bedroom cheerily. If her affection wanes, say, "Carissima mia" tenderly one morning. Show her you are a scholar.

Start a beehive next to the window flowers; learn the Treaty of Versailles by heart and explain the reparations problem to her.

The possibilities are endless. Be versatile—ever changing—and at the end of the tenth year, if she has not already got a divorce—well, she ought to, that's all—London Mail.

BREAD SCARCITY CAUSES RIOTING

Disturbances in Berlin Grow More Intense as Prices of Food Are Advanced

BERLIN, Oct. 16 (AP)—The food riots which have been going on in Greater Berlin for the last 10 days culminated this morning and this afternoon in serious outbreaks in the heart of the city.

The immediate provocation for today's outbreak was the abolition of the official bread card. This resulted in a sudden rise in the price of the loaf and a half pound loaf to 480,000,000 marks, or about 12 cents, as compared with Monday's price of 20,000,000 marks, which was effective while the bread cards still were valid.

A bonus of 10,000,000,000 marks for each of the unemployed, free fuel and free food were among the demands made by the demonstrators.

SHORT PROFITS TAKEN ON WHEAT PRICE RAISE

Material Advance Is Noted in Quotations but Heavy Selling Results and Gains Are Heavily Wiped Out

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP)—Wheat scored a material advance in price today on a report of news that President Coolidge had suggested a reduction of railroad freight charges on export shipments of wheat.

Until President Coolidge's action was announced the wheat market was confined to narrow limits both as to price changes and volume of business.

Wet weather and floods delaying field work and threatening to curtail yields led to general buying of corn and lifted December delivery of a corn high price record for the season.

Provisions declined with hogs.

The market at Idaho Falls declined sharply Saturday, the cash price dropping to 50c on sacked Russets and 30c bulk, sacked on Russets. The Russet price is now only 10c higher than a year ago. STUDENTS JOIN FARM WORKERS

Almost Entire High School Enrollment Finds Opportunity to Help in Saving Crops

More than 250 students of the Twin Falls high school, about 90 per cent of the total enrollment, were enlisted Tuesday in work in fields and orchards in an effort to harvest crops before the coming of storms threatening destruction of a major portion of the district's production of beans, onions and apples.

The numbers of student workers were suggested by several persons who were sent out to work on farms throughout the chamber of commerce office.

"Developments Tuesday showed a greater demand on the part of farmers for help in the harvest than was indicated by our efforts to obtain information on the subject by telephoning Monday evening," Arthur L. Swin, president of the chamber of commerce, said Tuesday evening.

Rain Retards Work Most of the workers sent out Tuesday, Mr. Swin said, were employed in harvesting potatoes, onions and sugar beets. Little work being done in bean fields because of rain during the forenoon.

Requests of farmers seeking help and of persons seeking employment on farms were made at the chamber of commerce office Tuesday, and this work is being done in the emergency exists. Requests that persons in town make known at the chamber of commerce office their willingness to go out to the farms and help in the harvest work was made by Mr. Swin.

Students Answer Call High school students responded enthusiastically to the call for help in the harvest fields, according to statement Tuesday evening of M. C. Mitchell, superintendent of schools. Girls, as well as boys, were eager to help, and many of them found employment picking apples.

Only about 25 per cent of the students reported at school Tuesday morning, not having found employment. Mr. Mitchell said. Students who reported at school were sent to farms during the forenoon as call for additional help came in and at noon Mr. Mitchell said only 40 or 50 students remained at school. These were dismissed for the afternoon, with the injunction that they make special effort to find and improve an opportunity to help in the harvest work. Students were told that it was preferable, when weather permitted, for them to go directly to work in fields and orchards.

HOOPS ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

One of Two Hollister Men Accused of Cattle Theft Tells Own Story of Transaction

Whether Fred Hoops and Clayton Goodyear of Hollister, on trial in district court here on a grand jury charge of stealing cattle, delivered to Charles B. Janks, Twin Falls butcher, on the night of July 25, last, 11 cattle, as Janks testified, or only seven animals was a question presented for determination by the jury when the defense opened its case Wednesday afternoon.

Janks, one of the principal witnesses for the state, had testified that he received from Hoops and Goodyear on that occasion 11 calves among them being three animals which the state, in this case, contends were stolen from Henry Jones, E. C. McIntyre and Henry Larson.

On the witness stand in his own defense, Hoops testified Wednesday that he and Goodyear delivered only seven animals to Janks on the occasion in question. The calves, he said, were the property of his father, William Hoops; one was the property of Goodyear and two were his own. He identified checks issued by Janks to William Hoops, Goodyear and himself in payment for the cattle.

Testimony of Janks and of Hoops agreed in that one animal which Hoops and Goodyear had started to deliver to Janks was not actually delivered on the night of July 25, because it had become lame and was left on the road, later being taken up by Janks.

Reflects Butcher's Record. Another significant development in the trial Wednesday came when Hoops declared that a sheet of paper bearing a number of figures which Janks had represented the weights of the animals delivered by Hoops and Goodyear on the occasion in question, was not the record made at the time of the transaction and that Janks then had written the weights on the check.

Under direct examination conducted by Frank L. Stephan of defense counsel, Hoops told his own story of the delivered checks issued by Janks to the state by Deputy Sheriff E. F. Prater, arresting officer. Hoops admitted that he had drawn a gun on the arresting officer.

"I didn't know Mr. Prater, or that he was an officer, when he drew his gun," Hoops testified.

As soon as he was advised as to the deputy's mission, Hoops said he threw down his gun.

Accounts for Gun. He described his own gun and said he was carrying it that day for the purpose of destroying a sick horse owned by Goodyear.

Hoops and Goodyear, he said, had spent most of the day repairing a header which they were using in the harvest of grain, and were on their way to turn irrigation water on another ranch when they were intercepted by the officer and his companion. After the arrest, Hoops said, the deputy told Hoops and Goodyear to drive ahead slowly in their car to Twin Falls and state.

Upon Hoops' suggestion, the accused horses of Janks, and Mrs. Janks testified, were delivered to him by the accused men, was made by E. C. McIntyre and Henry Jones, appearing as witnesses for the state.

Dan Powell and John McClure, employees of the state, testified that they were on negotiations between Hoops and Janks relative to the sale of the cattle on the occasion in question and on prior occasions about July 1.

Direct examination of the state's witnesses was conducted by Prosecutor Attorney J. W. Taylor. It was announced Tuesday evening that the case Wednesday was on the stand for an hour.

Defense motion for an instructed verdict was denied by the court when the state rested its case.

Identify Own Cattle. Identification of their own animals discovered in the pasture at Janks' butcher plant soon after Janks receipt of the cattle from Hoops and Goodyear and which Janks testified were delivered to him by the accused men, was made by E. C. McIntyre and Henry Jones, appearing as witnesses for the state.

Direct examination of the state's witnesses was conducted by Prosecutor Attorney J. W. Taylor. It was announced Tuesday evening that the case Wednesday was on the stand for an hour.

Defense motion for an instructed verdict was denied by the court when the state rested its case.

Bear Lake Revises Method of Farming

County Agent Tells of Success of Dairying, Poultry and Beet Growing in Southeast

Development of poultry and dairying industries and production of sugar beets in Bear Lake county within the past two years already is proving the error of a notion once more or less prevalent that the county produced only snowballs and leeches, according to Chas. Koarl, Bear Lake county agricultural agent, who stopped in Twin Falls Tuesday evening on his way to Moscow to attend a conference of Idaho county agents.

Bear Lake county is revising its agricultural methods along new lines to keep pace with the progress of the community and state, Mr. Koarl said. For many years, he said, farmers of the county produced only grain crops and livestock. It was believed, because of the high altitude and short growing season, that nothing else could be produced.

Within the past two years, however, Mr. Koarl said, a marked change has been effected. The experience of one man who purchased 500 baby chicks in the early spring of 1922 and kept about 225 pullets through the winter, showing a net profit of almost $500, Mr. Koarl said, was the starting point of the poultry industry in Bear Lake county. This year, he said, 50,000 baby chicks were brought into the county and 20,000 pullets will be housed through the winter in modern poultry houses. Net profits from this source this year are estimated at $40,000.

The county's pioneer poultryman, Mr. Koarl said, kept accurate records, including his costs, his own labor at 30 cents an hour and cost of feed, practically all of which was produced on his farm, at market prices. His records at the end of the first year showed gross returns of $805.90, and net of $489.34.

The county's sugar beet crop, Mr. Koarl said, aggregates this year approximately 150 acres. A total yield of 1500 tons is indicated, with returns of about $10 per acre. Sugar beet growing had been introduced in the county within the past two years.
