LEGION LOCKED ON BONUS AND KU KLUX KLAN

Michigan Delegates Hold Out for Complete Repudiation of Hooded Order; Start Anti-Compensation Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17 (AP)—With Michigan delegates to the fifth annual American Legion convention holding out for the complete repudiation of the Ku Klux Klan by the legion convention and with the organization here in San Francisco of the national organization of the anti-bonus league to fight actively on the floor of the convention any resolution favoring compensation for the ex-service men, the legion convention finished its third day of a virtual deadlock here tonight.

Early today a spirit of compromise entered the Ku Klux Klan question when the California delegates in caucus voted an "honest neutrality" in matters pertaining to politics, religion and industry. This was the first of the break in a situation which legion officials admitted was threatening the very existence of the legion as an active organization.

Opposes Klan. Michigan delegates stated that they would carry their fight to the floor of the convention to force through the resolution drawn up by James E. Hunt of Mount Pleasant, Mich., in which the legion will called upon tomorrow or Friday to renounce the Klan as "un-American in fact" and "contrary to the very principles for which the American legion stands."

Adopts Slogan. For the disabled, everything for the able-bodied. This will be the demand for the anti-bonus faction, Mr. Van Antwerp stated. "That is the slogan for ex-service men."

The anti-bonus league which is now operating in actively functioning in 26 states. "We are opposed to the granting of any form of bonus to able-bodied ex-service men on the basis that to serve the country in time of war is a privilege as well as a duty and to seek material reward therefor is repugnant to the spirit of true patriotism and the violation of the fundamental principles of American citizenship."

Skipper Stands by While High Jackers Escape With Liquor

Apparently Peaceful Long Island Fishermen Turn Out to Be Villains in Tale Unfolded by Dominion Packet Captain

YARMOUTH, N. S., Oct. 17 (AP)—Long Island sound fishermen turned high jackers were the villains of a tale involving the theft of thousands of dollars in cash and liquor which Captain John Sims of the rum-running dominion packet related today. The packet lay off Montauk point, L. I., with $6400 in the skipper's safe and $30,000 worth of imported whiskey stowed between decks, according to the captain.

Two fishermen bobbed up in a motor boat. They looked honest, and when they hailed the dominion packet, "How much for 100 cases?" Captain Sims invited them aboard into his cabin. "Let's see," the captain mused, "one hundred cases will cost you—"

Imperial Kludd of Klan, ex-Minister, Is Booked as Drunk

The Rev. Caleb Bidley Admits Drinking Whiskey when Nabbed with Booze in Car

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 17 (AP)—The Rev. Caleb Bidley, known as the Imperial Kludd of the Ku Klux Klan, and former pastor of an Atlanta church, was arrested here today on a charge of being drunk and operating an automobile while intoxicated. The arrest was made by Motorcycle Officer L. E. Shumate, who said that in the machine driven by Dr. Bidley were two small bottles of whiskey.

In police station Dr. Bidley stated that he had driven out into the country when he was accosted by a man who offered to give him some whiskey. He stated that he accepted the whiskey and before starting to turn he took a drink.

FAIL TO REACH ENTOMBED MEN

Fate of Buried Miners Still Unknown; Rescuers Brave Dangers to Reach Victims

BINGHAM, Utah, Oct. 17 (AP)—Five men or their bodies are still held in stope number 20 of the Utah-Apex mine and rescue parties announced that it will be several hours at least before the fate of the entombed men can be learned. The body of Dan Eden, the foreman, which was within reach of the rescue party all last night, was finally removed today and the men continued on with their efforts to remove the caving.

At six o'clock tonight the rescue crews changed and the night men took up their work where the day crew stopped. The rescuers themselves have been in grave danger and more than once were forced to stop their work and flee to safety, but tonight they ground has settled and the timbering is such that there is scarcely more than the ordinary danger to the rescue crew.

MISHAP DELAYS FIRST SESSION OF GOVERNORS

Montana and Utah Officials and Wives Slightly Injured when Auto Turns Over; Opening Program Is Made Ready

WEST BADEN, Ind., Oct. 17 (AP)—Their opening session delayed until 9 o'clock tonight by slow travel over rain-soaked roads through the hills of southern Indiana, governors from all sections of the United States tonight began their fifteenth annual conference on state and national problems, preparatory for a meeting in Washington Saturday with President Coolidge.

Governor and Mrs. Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, and Governor and Mrs. Charles R. Mabey of Utah, whose automobile left the road and turned over in a ditch twelve miles north of Bedford, Ind., this afternoon, were resting in their hotel quarters tonight uninjured by their mishap.

Passengers Fined.

The machine carrying the western governors and their wives was hauled from the roadway when it struck soft spots of the highway while passing another car in the party on a sharp bend. Turning on its side in a four-foot ditch paralleling the road, the machine temporarily imprisoned its passengers, including the driver, until other members of the governors' party came to their aid.

The women in the car were badly shaken by the mishap which occurred while the car was moving at about 25 miles an hour. Governor Dixon was cut about the hands by glass, but the entire party was able to continue the trip in another car within a few minutes.

Not Badly Hurt.

Governor Mabey said upon his arrival here tonight he felt no effects of the experience and that a few hours quiet and rest would fully restore Mrs. Mabey. Mrs. Dixon felt a stiffness in her left shoulder but physicians said it was merely strained muscles. Governor W. W. Brandon, of Alabama, who was riding in the (Continued on Page Five)

Three Men Nabbed at Sacramento as Hold-up Suspects

Trail Followed by Poses Since Sensational Train Robbery Believed Ended

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 17 (AP)—Three men, supposed of being the men who held up the Southern Pacific passenger train No. 13, in the Sierran mountains last Thursday when four men were killed, were arrested here this afternoon by Police Inspector Arthur Ryan and several other police detectives and patrolmen.

The men are O. J. Underwood, J. D. Carroll and a man known under the name of Willie. The men up to late this afternoon had not been questioned, but the authorities stated they were convinced the suspects know something of the holdup. The officers would not make public the nature of their information, declaring they first would question the trio. It was declared, however, that the men recently were in the vicinity of the tunnel where the holdup and murders occurred.

RATE PROBLEM INVESTIGATED

Traffic Men Appear at Senate Hearing; Cites Figures to Show Discrimination

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—The nine-foot stage of water between Chicago and New Orleans is necessary if the shippers of the middle west hope to compete with eastern shippers, the special senate committee, holding hearings here on the McCormick deep inland water bill, was told here today by traffic men representing the leading manufacturers and shippers of that part of the country.

Senator McKellar of Tennessee at a dinner given this evening to the committee by the Illinois chamber of commerce, and the Chicago Association of Commerce, said that the hearings had gone far enough to convince him of the necessity of a nine-foot stage between Chicago and New Orleans as well as the withdrawal of 10,000 or more cubic feet from Lake Michigan for sanitary and navigation purposes. He predicted that the Mc- (Continued on Page Five)

Two Indictments Returned in U. S. Court Involve Persons Connected with Alleged Ring of Mail Bobbers

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17 (AP)—Two indictments involving 29 persons were returned late today by a federal grand jury which has been investigating mail robberies in which an alleged criminal ring figured. The names of those indicted were withheld pending serving of warrants for their arrest. All of them, according to David V. Cahill, special United States prosecutor in charge of the investigation, are believed to live in eastern cities.

Much of the evidence, according to Cahill, was introduced through presentation of an alleged confession made by Herbert Wilson, now serving a life sentence in San Quentin prison for the murder of Herbert Cox, said to have been a member of the gang.

FOOD RIOTING IS ABATED

Berlin City Authorities Quick to Respond to Demand of Unemployed; Feeding Kitchens to Be Opened

BERLIN, Oct. 17 (AP)—There was no recurrence today of Tuesday's food riots in Berlin in which at least one person was wounded fatally and many were injured when the police charged the mobs which had gathered in the vicinity of the railroads to protest against excessive prices of foodstuffs.

The city authorities were quick to respond to the demands of the unemployed. In order to relieve the distress, it was decided today that the municipally should immediately open four feeding centers at which 20,000 lunches are to be supplied either free or at minimum prices and also 8000 free meals are to be distributed daily. A further extension of the relief measure is being planned.

Ex-Premier Paints Striking Picture of Present European Conditions; Reiterates Support of Hughes Proposal

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—David Lloyd George, England's war-time premier, regarding the vigor with which he tackled Great Britain's problems in the allies' struggle with Germany, after a day of rest in his rooms, tonight addressed an immense crowd gathered in the international amphitheater here to listen to the English statesman's "most comprehensive" American address.

His address follows:
"I shall claim your indulgence whilst I am giving a calm, unemotional, unreticent, and I trust, strictly fair and unbiased view of the position in Europe."

The condition of Europe is of importance to every great business community throughout the world, and the greatest business community of all, the United States of America, is no exception. You can afford to put up with these disturbances better than we can, but I have had some evidence since I reached there, responsible shores that we are gradually losing some important sections of your producers and in the end it will reach all. Representatives of your farmers have informed me that they are suffering very materially because of the serious impairment of the purchasing capacity of Europe. The European need of your product is as great as ever. Nay, it is greater than ever, but the capacity to pay and therefore to purchase is less than it has been for many a year.

"Europe is like a ragged man standing in front of the plate-glass window of a well stocked store. His need of clothes is infinitely greater than that of the well dressed man who is making extensive purchases inside. His need of food is more urgent than that of the well-fed gentleman who is coming out after a good meal; for he can buy neither food to satisfy hunger, nor clothes to cover his nakedness."

"Until European prosperity is restored, that continent cannot be rolled upon as a customer for world products."

Europe Exhausted.
"What is the matter with Europe? Exhaustion. Europe is exhausted after the most terrible struggle the continent ever passed through. Between ten and fifteen millions of her picked young men were slaughtered on the battlefield. Many more died of the pestilences which are the gruesome partners of war. Twenty millions at least of their best men have been mutilated and have become a burden on the resources of others."

Attorney's Clash at Trial of Cook Amuses Crowd

Defense, Prosecution and the Court Are All Involved in Hostilities; Letters Again Placed in Evidence

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 17 (AP)—A tilt between defense attorneys, government prosecutors and the court featured the afternoon session of the third day of the trial in federal court here of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, arctic explorer, and his 13 co-defendants.

Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey, leading counsel for the defense, created a stir when he sprang to his feet reproaching Special Prosecutor Sylvester R. Bush for stating that he "hoped to prove guilty" Cook and the others on trial.

Prosecutor Bush became impatient at a delay. He had just introduced a letter purporting to be one written by Cook to C. H. Whitmer, Fremont, Iowa, real estate operator, the first government witness. He shot back a retort which brought plier defense attorneys to their feet, each reproaching him for the statement.

LLOYD GEORGE FEELS STRAIN OF LONG TOUR

Former Prime Minister of Great Britain Forced to Remain in Seclusion of His Apartments; Physicians Attending

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—David Lloyd George, the British war minister, remained today in the seclusion of his room.

Cancelling all engagements made for his visit here, except his address at a mass meeting in the stock yards district tonight, he remained in his hotel suite on the advice of physicians, in an effort to prevent development of a condition marked by slight temperature caused by a week-old cold, the effects of which he has had difficulty in throwing off, and the strain of the continuous activity that has marked his American and Canadian tour since he arrived in New York.

Such good progress did the former premier make in his recovery that during the day it was announced definitely he could address tonight's meeting and that the engagements previously made for the evening's program still stood.

Whether that program will have to be curtailed, it was indicated would not probably be known before tomorrow when there will be an opportunity to observe how well he has stood the physical strain of tonight's meeting.

Remains in Bed.
Although Mr. Lloyd George was advised to take to his bed last night because of a slight fatigue, it was not decided until this morning that he should remain there for a little longer time than usual. Even then it did considerable reading and writing and at noon felt sufficiently well to dress and take luncheon in his suite with Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, and publishers of Chicago newspapers as his guests. In the afternoon he worked at the preparation of his evening address.

Since arriving in New York Mr. Lloyd George has been almost constantly active and in the course of his travels has made more than thirty speeches.

Program Dull.
At Montreal he first observed that the program arranged for him in the various cities was too extremely difficult and he ordered a complete curtailment, eliminating some cities entirely from his itinerary. When it was observed that the physical strain was telling on him, it was decided that as a precautionary measure a day of rest should be decreed in the hope that tonight's meeting might be held as scheduled and that the rest of his tour would require no restriction.

Recall Harding's Experience
The experience of President Wilson and the death of President Harding in their tours were recalled and the former premier's advisers decided that it was best to take prompt measures for easing the program now rather than risk any permanent impairment of the distinguished visitor's health.

Mr. Lloyd George is to leave here tomorrow to visit Springfield and the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, and from there will go to St. Louis.
Amplifiers were installed for tonight's address in the international amphitheatre in the heart of the stock yards that the former premier might speak with the greatest ease possible. The hall has an estimated seating capacity of 10,000.

FARMERS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WHEAT CONTRACT
SPOKANE, Oct. 17 (AP)—Farmers in nearly 15 states in which the American Wheat Growers' association operates have shown enthusiasm over the new contract which becomes effective when two-thirds of the crop is signed up, according to George C. Jewett, manager.

Washington is the one state in which the drive has not gone over big, he said. "We did all we could to aid the farmer because we thought him in a precarious position when he mortgaged his wheat," he declared. "As a result, many of the farmers took advantage of the association and caused untold trouble by mortgaging their wheat and then mortgaging it."

It was stated that the new contracts will clarify the sections relating to mortgaged wheat, which is to be sold through the association on the open market where the market is in the best condition to absorb it.

BRAVED DEATH IN WILDERNESS

Canadians Explore Lands Untrod by Humans Since 1777; Dined on Old Sacks

THE PAS, Man., Oct. 17 (AP)—Bringing back data of scientific observations of variation of the earth's magnetism and movement of the north magnetic pole, R. G. Maddill, assistant magnetician of Dominion observatory, Ottawa, C. G. Nagy of Winnipeg, and Philip Rose, of The Pas, today returned from a 400 mile trip through Canada's darkest north wilderness. They told a tale of harrowing experiences and of a summer-long struggle against starvation.

During the journey, which led the party over 4000 miles of wilderness, mostly by canoe, over a period of two months, the scientists made a complete study of the magnetic pole which lies almost due north of here.

At many times, according to Mr. Maddill, the party faced starvation and were forced to chow old moccasins, discarded socks and dried suckers. He said they had crossed land which had been trodden by white men last when Samuel Hearne journeyed from Fort Prince of Wales to the mouth of the Copper river in 1777. The survey, Mr. Maddill said, was part of a world-wide search into the laws governing the earth's magnetism, made necessary by the constant movement of the north magnetic pole. The party, he said, brought back

No snout was found.

Socialistic-Communist Government Functions Without Much Consideration for the Reich

DRESDEN, Saxony, Oct. 17 (AP)—The socialist-communist government of Saxony is functioning in its own particular way without giving much consideration to the reich government at Berlin. General von Mueller, commander of the reichswehr in Saxony, recently issued orders prohibiting the congress of Saxony proletarian defensive organizations, but, despite such orders, a meeting of the organizations has been held.

Strong measures by the central government, it is understood, are contemplated, but for the present the army authorities intend only to utilize Saxon police, who, accordingly, have been placed under control of the military commander with the warning that disobedience will entail dismissal from the service.

WENATCHEE, Wash., Oct. 17 (AP)—The apple movement has hit its top stride, according to A. W. Micks, fruit agent, with picking and packing in full blast. He reports approximately five trains of apples leaving Wenatchee daily.

A campaign toward eliminating the "G" grade apple is being agitated by growers this season, he said, owing to a recent slump on the market. Elimination of "G" grades has long been a matter for discussion but this year growers sensing the above normal crop, are especially desirous of it, he said.

LEAGUE TEAMS PREPARE FOR NEXT SEASON

Giants to Go Through Rebuilding Process and Yanks May Also Close Up Weak Links; Scott Considers Retirement

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Again will the New York Giants, fallen world's champions, go through a rebuilding process before they are ready to scale the heights, but the Yankees, their successors to baseball's crown, also may bolster a few weak links in their victorious machine before the 1924 season gets under way.

It developed that Everett Scott, veteran shortstop of the Yankees, who holds the all-time record for consecutive games played, is considering voluntarily retiring, although Miller Huggins, manager of the new champions, has no definite aim to part with the game's greatest "iron man."

Scott, however, has an attractive business enterprise in view, which if accepted, would mean his passing after having piled up the remarkable record of participating in 1138 consecutive games, a record he started in 1916 with the Boston Red Sox and which he doubles the best previous major league mark.

May Quit. "This may be my last world's series," Scott admitted just before one of the games with the Giants. "I don't want to be at it but if I don't come back in the spring, I can remember with pride my last season. I've been around a long time and I'm not getting any faster."

Scott had his wish so far as the series was concerned, for the "Dunc" after a rather disappointing season, came back to lead the greater championship ball of his career, battling over 300 and mizing but one chance in the field.

"Beauty" Boley Considered. Scott may find the call to game too strong to resist when spring comes around but in the event he drops out, his place may be filled by Joe Boley, $100,000 beauty of the Baltimore Orioles, who has been eagerly sought by a number of major league clubs for several seasons. The purchase of Boley has never been officially announced by the Yankees' manager, but it is understood the world's champions have first claim on him.

"Beauty" Boley Considered. Scott may find the call to game too strong to resist when spring comes around but in the event he drops out, his place may be filled by Joe Boley, $100,000 beauty of the Baltimore Orioles, who has been eagerly sought by a number of major league clubs for several seasons. The purchase of Boley has never been officially announced by the Yankees' manager, but it is understood the world's champions have first claim on him.

Ernie Johnson and Mike McNally, Yankee utility men, may battle for the shortstop berth.

Huggins also is understood to be anxious to obtain a right handed hitting outfielder, either to alternate with or replace Whittier White in center field. The man shown in the last game of the series when Joe Bush, left-handed pitcher, was substituted for Witt in the eighth inning rally, Huggins has Edmore Smith available, but he is a left-hander at the plate. Smith might be used in a trade to his own club's advantage, for Elmer is considered too valuable to remain on the bench regularly.

Carl Mays, veteran pitcher, who has passed the crest of his effectiveness, also may be involved in a trade. Series retrospect today brought to light another record made by Bob Meusel, whose $50,000 hit broke up the declining game of the Yankees in center runs during the series, shattering the mark of seven established by Tommy Leach with Pittsburgh in the series of 1905, and equaled by Danny Taylor and Frank Baker of the old Athletics; Eddie Rosh of Cincinnati, and Irish Meusel, brother of Bob, in the 1921 Giant-Yankee series.

BABE RUTH TAKES POLICY

Insures His Life for $50,000 with Harry Hellman, His Greatest Rival in American League

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Babe Ruth today took a $50,000 life insurance policy with his greatest American league rival for battling honors, Harry Hellman of the Detroit Tigers. The policy was arranged during the off season.

Hellman witnessed the triumph of the Yankees in the last game of the season, and he is reported to have bought the policy Monday and talked business with the Babe today soon after the big slugging received his part of the winner's share in the series. The policy was made out in favor of Mrs. Ruth and Baby Dorothy.

Hellman and Ruth are the keenest of rivals in the diamond, the former winner out by a narrow margin this year in the race for hitting supremacy, but the are also warm friends.

RACING FANS WITNESS SLOW WORKOUT BY ZEV

American Entry in International Race Goes Through Slow Pace; English Colt Casters Around Track

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—Wide Zev, America's entry in the $100,000 international race next Saturday went through his final workout today in a race that aroused marked contrast of opinion. Papyrus, England's thoroughbred hope, centered through his first workout with Steve Donoghue, American favorite, and the English colts, the reins of the derby winner, in the classic at Belmont park.

Zev's workout, a mile and a quarter in 2:09, fell short of the expectations of some observers to whom the horse's slow finish was disappointing, but general belief prevailed that the American star probably was covered up after showing a brilliant burst of speed in the first few furlongs. Zev covered the first half in the remarkably good time of 47 seconds flat, and was clocked in 1:12.55 for the six furlongs. Thereafter Jockey J. Fator, who had the leg up, restrained the colt, turning the mile in 1:30.45, nine furlongs in 1:54 and finishing the mile and a quarter in 2:09.

GOVERNMENT RESERVOIR PROJECT GETS STARTED

Work is Reported by Federal Engineers on Washington Dam to Be Progressing Satisfactorily

YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 16 (AP)—Work on the government plan at Rimrock, 47 miles northwest of here, is progressing satisfactorily and indications point toward its completion in 1925, according to engineers in charge of the project. The big reservoir was started before the world war, but had to be abandoned for a period of years. Construction was resumed in 1921 and has been going along steadily since then.

The dam, which is being raised near the headwaters of the Tilton river, is expected to be one of the engineering feats of the world. It is an earth fill and said to be 25 feet higher than any other of its type in the world. It has a concrete core concrete to make it waterproof, the wall running longitudinally through the dam. Measured across, the fill is about 1110 feet at the base and slopes toward the top to a diameter of 55 feet. The core wall is imbedded in solid rock and sunk about 100 feet below the stream bed.

From foundation to crest, the dam will be 221 feet high and the earth fill or embankment against the core wall 244 feet. Over a million and a half cubic yards of earth and a quarter million yards of rock will be used in the embankment. Into the construction of the core wall has gone 24,000 cubic yards of concrete.

Drainage canals are set at 187 miles with a storage capacity of 292,000 acre feet. Cost of construction is estimated at $4,000,000. The waters stored will be used to irrigate lands in the Yakima valley.

GLEASON QUITS WHITE SOX JOB

Fiery Manager of Chicago Team Hands in Resignation; Spent 37 Years in Baseball

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—William "Kid" Gleason, the fiery manager of the Chicago White Sox since 1910, resigned today, making the fourth managerial position to be filled in the American league before the opening of the 1924 season.

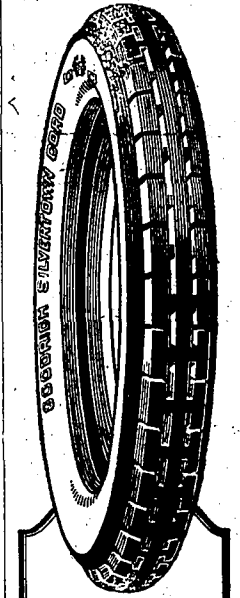

The 59-year-old pilot, with a record of 37 years in baseball, resigned, he said, because he was dissatisfied with his attempts to reconstruct the club, wrecked with the exposure of the world's series scandal with Cincinnati in 1919. He set about to rebuild the club when the players who participated in the "frame-up" were dropped, but in the three seasons that have passed, Gleason's fighting spirit alone carried him through, as he had little success in the development of a new team.

"I've given the best that's in me, and the boys did the best they know how," Gleason said tonight, "but we didn't seem to be able to get anywhere. The change often works wonders, so I decided to step out and give somebody else a chance."

There has been no hint from President Comiskey, of the White Sox, as to the successor of the grizzled veteran. Eddie Collins, second base star, whose injury in midseason contributed to converting the club from a second place contender to a second division club, may be in line for the management. Ray Schall, regarded as the premier catcher of the league, also may be given consideration, along with Harry Hooper. ADVISORY PLAN ROILS FARMER

Move Designed to Assist Wheat Growers Gets Rise Out of Northwest Official

SPOKANE, Oct. 17 (AP)—Appointment in Chicago recently of a committee, headed by ex-Governor Lewden of Illinois, to assist in harmonizing various interests which handle wheat, was attacked by John Q. Adams, president of the Farmers' Union of Washington and northern Idaho, at a hearing held here today by Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, and Frank W. Mondell, a director.

"We farmers know what we need and we know how to get what we want," Mr. Adams declared, "and we don't need the expropriation of Illinois by the manufacturers of farm machinery to tell us how to run our business."

Mr. Mondell and Mr. Meyer, at whose instance the committee was appointed, replied with some heat, and sought to show that the body was merely an advisory agency to assist the farmer.

Mr. Adams produced a number of posters which he said had been sent broadcast by Chicago grain dealers, warning farmers against signing with co-operative marketing agencies, and attacked the Chicago Board of Trade and certain banking and implement manufacturing interests for what he declared was their opposition to the co-operative marketing movement.

Mr. Meyer and Mr. Mondell assured those present at the hearing, mainly farmers, that the war finance corporation stands ready to lend all possible assistance in the way of credit, and declared it was unnecessary to "sell" the co-operative marketing idea to the directors.

"We are convinced that co-operative marketing offers the best and the most speedy remedy for the ills that beset the wheat grower, not only in the northwest, but in the entire country," Mr. Meyer declared.

Bruin Squad Turns Out With Sunrise

Majority of Players Brave Early Morning Frost for Snappy Practice Session

The majority of the Bruin squad braved the early morning frost Wednesday morning and were out at Lincoln field at 7:30 o'clock. It was a beautiful morning and just snappy enough to make the squad work fast. Signal practice was the first order of the day, and in the absence of D. Alford, Stan Crom ran the team. Stan has recovered from his illness of the first of the week and, while still a little stiff, he put in a lot of snappy into the team and the boys looked good. Moose was also among those absent and there were only a few of the second string men out; most of them were working or were gathering a little shuteye.

The linemen are having a hard time satisfying Coach Evans that they can charge properly and fast enough. Most of the scrimmage was for the sole benefit of the linemen, and the backs had a well-earned rest while their brother linemen were put through a grilling scrimmage. The whole squad came in for blocking practice, and although the linemen looked good, it should be noted, still they need a lot of work along this line if they expect to defeat a team like East High.

The strength of the Indians, who are scheduled to meet the Bruins here Friday, still remains somewhat of a mystery. Not a great deal of their activities this year, but it is almost an assured fact that they will not be as easy to defeat as some of the fans seem to think. They have the rep of being fighters and dope has it that they have a new coach this season, which should add considerably to their possibilities.

With Boise's chances for championship of the west lessened by their defeat Saturday by a comparatively weak team, Ontario, it begins to look as though the state honors would lie between Idaho Falls, Twin Falls and Nampa. Nampa is admittedly up against the hardest team of the west this coming Friday when they meet their ancient rivals, Caldwell. Although on paper Nampa has all the advantages, west end dopsters have it that Caldwell may prove a dark horse. Idaho Falls has only one team to meet that will give the Tigers a battle. That is Pocatello, and it is not disputed that the Tigers will be able to take them into camp. The Bruins, apparently, have clear sailing for the honors in this district. Rupert is the only obstacle, and although it will not be a cinch to come home with the long end of the score, comparing the scores made by Idaho Falls against the two teams, the Bruins have it over the Rupert aggregation.

Practice for Thursday was called at 4:30 p. m. by Coach Evans at the Wednesday morning practice, and it will probably only be a light workout before the game Friday. The game will start at 2:30 p. m. as the Indians are anxious to catch the evening train.

IDAHO FALLS FARMERS ASSISTED IN HARVEST

High School Football Players Descend on Spud Acreage to Save Crops Threatened by Recent Rains

IDAHO FALLS, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Idaho Falls "Tigers," who are racing toward the state high school football championship this fall, turned their faces upon the potato fields of Bonneville county yesterday and scored heavily in the first day's "play."

The local high school has been dismissed for the remainder of this week to permit the pupils to aid in the picking of potatoes, the harvest having been delayed by rains. JUNIOR HIGH GRIDIRON TEAM TO MEET JEROME

Twin Falls Cubs with Two Victories to Their Credit, Prepare for Clash with North Elders Second Squad

The junior high school is entering upon a football career that may make its name for itself to their credit. Next Monday the junior high team, under the tutelage of Coach Anderson, will meet the second team of Jerome high school. Just how many of the Jerome squad constitutes the second team and how many Coach Anderson will send to Twin Falls to meet the junior team is unknown, but the Twin Falls Cubs are out to make a name for themselves, and Jerome should heed the warning.

To date the junior high has two victories. When the high school team went to Idaho Falls two weeks ago the Cubs engaged the remainder of the squad in a friendly game on Lincoln field, which gave way to a real battle ending in a victory for the junior high seconds. The score was 20, resulting from a safety by the high school. The other victory was over the St. Edwards school which the junior high took easily by a 43-0 score. They have no scintillating players, but combined they are able to play a very presentable game. This is the first year the junior high has had a coach and under the supervision of Mr. Anderson they have developed a regular team.

They play at Lincoln field Monday afternoon. Negotiations are under way to play with the second team and other high teams of the other towns of the district.

WITHDRAW ENTRIES FROM AVON ENDURANCE RACES

Sixteen Remaining in National Contest to Take the Spud Thursday, Army Mounts Via with Ponies

AVON, N. Y., Oct. 17 (AP)—Sixteen runners were barred or withdrawn before or during the third lap of the 1923 national 300-mile endurance contest at Avon today. With Nineteen disqualified yesterday, 16 remaining entries will take the road tomorrow.

The stiffest course in the history of the endurance races was responsible for the first big gap in the ranks of the entries, officials said. Kildaire, a big boy gelding, one of the Irish bred colts owned by Herbert J. Brown of Portland, Maine, made a gallant fight to stay in the running, but was ruled out after breasting 30 miles of rocky hills.

Vagrant, an army thoroughbred, ridden by Major J. M. Melwright, dropped out early in the morning. The contest is narrowing down to a fight between the army thoroughbreds and the Morgans ridden by cowpunchers under H. E. Fretz.

Bowlers Organize For Season's Games

Plans for Eight-Team League and 21-Week Season Are Adopted at Initial Meeting

Organization of a bowling league for the coming season to be composed of eight teams, five of which are now being formed, was effected at a meeting of bowlers Wednesday evening in the Twin Falls bowling alley.

Officers named at the meeting were authorized to arrange a schedule to start November 5, and calling for league matches on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

D. A. Salmon was the choice of the meeting for chairman of the league, and Charles P. Larson was elected secretary and Carlos Linville treasurer. William Towan, Roy Cubit and F. S. Thomas were named as members of the board of directors.

Each of the eight teams in the league will bowl three times around, according to plans outlined at the meeting, making a season of about 21 weeks duration. It was decided that a charge of 50 cents per man per night should be made, to build up a surplus in the treasury that is to be distributed in prizes at the end of the season.

The Golden Rule store, Idaho theater, Troy Laundry, Royal Bakery and Amalgamated Sugar company teams are being organized, it was announced, so that berths in the league are left for three other teams yet to be formed. It was indicated that the organization of the eight teams would be completed within the week, and that bowlers would begin limbering up the old soup bones preparatory to the opening of the season.

JONES URGES PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO VOTE

SPOKANE, Oct. 17 (AP)—A penalty for failure to vote and a modification of the direct primary were suggested by United States Senator Wesley L. Jones in a newspaper interview here. He is on his way by motor to Washington, D. C. The outstanding need in politics, Senator Jones declared, was party responsibility and the prevention of candidates running on personal platforms.

Heat Reddens Fruit

What makes cherries red, light or heat? The question was recently discussed by the French Academy of Sciences in Paris, and the answer was light. Some cherries, exposed to the light, remained as colorless as at first. Others, put into a dark oven, became beautifully red. Which only shows us that light alone, without heat, cannot ripen fruit, but that heat, without light, can. Many of us would have thought otherwise.

WEDDING RING ALWAYS PLAIN

The wedding ring of plain gold, which is a survival of Saxon custom, has outlived several attempts at change of fashion. For instance, at the marriage of Queen Mary of England to Philip of Spain, the English statesmen debated the question of the ring and wished to have it jeweled, but Mary herself intervened by declaring that she would not have it set with gems, for she chose to be wedded with a plain hoop of gold like other maidens.

The Utah-Apex mine came into prominence in 1911 when Raphael Lopez, one of the west's most prominent "bad men," held off a posse of 600 hundred men for several days and finally escaped. Lopez was wanted for killing four men, three being members of the posse which was after him for the murder of a man in a saloon in Bingham.

Lopez, after the killing in the saloon, fled to the hills and hid for several days. He ambushed a posse of four and killed three, then succeeded in getting into the Utah-Apex mine. Here he held the posse at bay, killing two who attempted to smoke him out.

Later the mine was flooded with sulphur fumes from another entrance, but Lopez evidently escaped from the mine before the deadly fumes were loosed. He was never captured.

Melting Sulphur. Sulphur is often used to anchor bolts in cement or stone floors, but as it catches fire so easily when melted over an open flame, its use is somewhat inconvenient. The difficulty can, however, be avoided by first melting some lead and then pouring the molten sulphur vessel in the molten lead. The sulphur will be melted in a short time, and there it will not catch fire, unless the temperature of the lead is allowed to exceed 625 degrees Fahrenheit.

DISCRETION PARAMOUNT IN WAR DEBT PROBLEM

England as the avenger of Europe from ancient times, and the fact that in all of the European troubles the English strength has been on the side of justice. Lloyd George plunged into the question of reparations.

"What is the British attitude toward this limited but all important question of reparations? It is this: That Germany ought to pay to the Allies for every principle of jurisprudence which obtains in every civilized land, she is liable to make good the damage she has inflicted.

"But she can only pay to the extent of her capacity and that capacity must be reasonably interpreted. Any attempt to extort more than a country can pay stands in the way of recovery when she can. In addition to that, Britain is opposed to any policy which utilizes the obligation to pay reparations as a means of depressing production in emergency (reparable to another.

"It is therefore, a question of capacity. What can Germany pay? Here the world is confronted with almost a new problem, how huge sums of money due from one country can be paid in emergency (reparable to another.

"I have in special interest being tender to Germany. Germany was our greatest trade rival before the war. If we, therefore, take a strained view of the present policy it cannot continue to do so if the people are driven into despair.

"Mr. Millerand and Mr. Briand were in charge of the interests for France, they avoided this perilous commitment. I wish their wise guidance had been followed today. Last year at Cannes we were discussing plans with the German delegates which I believe would have led to a reasonable accommodation in a very short time.

THE VERTICAL MONOPOLY
A new kind of monopoly is represented in the policy of the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Ford declares that it will be but a short time until everything that goes into the making of his product will be owned or controlled by his company.

Monopolies heretofore have operated horizontally, so to speak. That is, they have sought to control some single commodity like oil or meat or sugar everywhere at once. Here we have what might be termed a "vertical monopoly." Instead of trying to control all the country's automobiles, Mr. Ford tries to control all the materials entering into the manufacture of his particular type of automobile.
By controlling every process of manufacture in the automobile, the ultimate product," he explains, "we will be able to make a machine at a lower price. False profits will be eliminated all along the line; and when the time comes to exist, the buying public will have full value for its money.
This is what manufacturers, not only of automobiles but in all lines, are going to be compelled to do. Business is coming to be big business, and the only way in which big business can exist is to control everything that enters into its ultimate product.
This, obviously, is a far less dangerous kind of monopoly than the old kind. There is nothing against it in the Sherman Act and nothing against it in public opinion. It may be, so far as can be applied, the policy of the future.

SAVED TIME
A modern Diogenes might well be sent forth to discover what is done with all the time saved by civilized beings. With labor-saving devices in homes and in offices, with all sorts of machinery speeding up industrial production, with the means of transportation and communication developed so far that it is difficult to get away from contact with one's fellow men—we find ourselves still unduly busy, still rushed to death, still pressed for time and wishing for leisure.
Labor-saving machinery was supposed to enable men and women to accomplish their tasks more efficiently, in less time and with less physical drudgery than formerly, releasing them for recreation, meditation and further self-development. Yet few indeed are the wise men and women who grasp that saved time and use it for their own good.
Anyone can interrupt us at any time. The telephone and the automobile make even a country cottage accessible to the persistent salesman or the eager acquaintance. Secretary of State Hughes recently described the situation in these words:
"it is the day of the fleeting vision. Concentration, thoroughness, the quiet reflection that ripens judgment are more difficult than ever.
Facility of communication is agreeable and useful, but it leads to a vast waste of time rendering easy countless intrusions on serious work."
Public officers and private individuals alike suffer from this facility of intrusion. It is possible that modern machinery has gone to civilization's head and that we are all a little dizzy from the rapid development of new and useful inventions! No sane person would advocate doing away with the telephone and all the train of conveniences that have followed it. But it would be well to ask ourselves whether we are to be the slaves of these time and strength-conserving devices or whether they are to be tools for us to use wisely and beneficially to ourselves and our age.

FOREIGN TRADE

Trade with Latin-America has been increasing this year. That is especially pleasing at a time when trade with Europe has decreased. If Europe is going to go to pieces, as some pessimists prophesy, it is conceivable that the trade of South America eventually may take the place of our trans-Atlantic trade. Every gain made now is an much reinsurance for the future, in addition to its present benefits.

An important thing to observe in this case is that the added business with our Latin-American brethren represents an increase of both imports and exports. Economists explain that the countries concerned have been buying more from us because we have been buying more for them and thereby making their larger purchases possible. That sounds reasonable.

It is a reminder, too, that "foreign trade" is, in general and in the long run, exactly what the words indicate. One-way trade is hardly possible. One nation or one set of nations cannot continue indefinitely buying from another, because the buyer's money would give out, even if the seller's supply of goods did not give out. Especially when one country has most of the gold in the world, the rest of the world cannot continue to buy its products in large volume unless the rest of the world gives products in exchange.

International commerce means, ordinarily, the trading of one kind of goods for another kind of goods, to the benefit of both parties. It is really barter, with money used merely as a counter.

Probation Precedes Vows.

In most of the Nyasaland tribes, in Africa, permanent consubial life is preceded by a term of probation, which can be broken off at will by either party. When the woman has finally made up her mind to stay, she punctuates her decision by kneeling when she addresses her husband. As a rule, she will inaugurate this change in their relations by a little coup de theater. She will choose an occasion when chance has brought together a goodly number of people, and she sees her husband standing among them. She will then walk right up to him, kneel down before him, put some trivial question, or give some unimportant piece of information, wait for the reply in a kneeling posture, and after this has been given, get up and join the others. By thus humiliating herself, she has taken possession of her husband.
In some tribes, as, for instance, that of the Wangoni, where probation is not required, the girls will postpone kneeling until after marriage.—Atlantic Monthly.

With Happiness. We heard a stranger philosophizing about the feverishness of a visit. "One evening it was a ride, the next a trip to the movies, the next dancing, and so on. Always restlessness. We're getting so we can't sit still." Do we deserve Stevenson's advice and indictment: "We are in such haste to be doing, to be writing, to be gathering gear, to make our voice audible a moment in the desolate silence of eternity, that we forget that one thing of which these are but the parts—namely, to live. . . . We run to and fro like frightened sheep. And now you are to ask yourself if, when all is done, you would not have been better to sit by the fire at home and be happy thinking. To sit still and contemplate—to remember the faces of women without desire, to be pleased by the great deeds of men without envy, to be everything and everywhere in sympathy, and yet content to remain where and what you are—is not this to know both wisdom and virtue, and to dwell with happiness?"—Collier's.

USED BOARDS TO GUIDE CAR

Hero of Desert Automobile Race Won Third Money Owing to His Resourcefulness. I used to hear a lot about the old Los Angeles-to-Phoenix desert races. The drivers checked in at all-night stops at the end of each day. These races were run at a season of the year when rain ran all or part of the course was not unusual. It took Bradine, a powerful car and a heavy foot to negotiate that muddy course.

Bill O'Day was my hero in the Phoenix struggle. He wasn't licked unless his motor fell out of the chassis or something else, just as bad happened. In one of these races Bill was running pretty well up in front on the third day. He was sitting pretty, in spite of having wallowed through mud for two days. But bad luck got him. He broke his steering arm—I mean on the car. That would have been the curtains for most drivers.

But old Bill and his mechanic took two fence rails and wired one to the axle on the inside of each front wheel. Then they got into the car, each one holding to the rail on his side of the car. They guided that car into the fair grounds at Phoenix by pressing the rails against the front tires when they wanted to turn.

That is, when they wanted to go to the right, the man on the right side of the car would pull in on his fence rail and the end of it would then press on that part of the right front tire ahead of the front axle. At the same time the man on the left would so manipulate his fence rail as to press on the left front wheel behind the front axle and thus both front wheels would be turned in the right direction. The tires were cut to pieces on the sides, but the car finished in third place—and that was the important thing.—Saturday Evening Post.

The Adventure of Work. We are in grave danger in these days of divided life into two utterly unrelated portions, and the true function of play as something that is essentially creative and life-renewing in the fullest sense is being forgotten. The best work must ever have in it the spirit of play; that is, the spirit of adventure. Great work, as another writer has said, is play itself.—Cape Argus.

PIT PRICES OF WHEAT SHOW DECIDED SETBACK

Analysis of Weather as Cause of Growth Has Bearish Effect; Corn Also Feels Decline

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—Decided setback in the price of wheat resulted today from enlarged selling based more or less on opinions that prevailing wet weather although unfavorable for the rapid drying out of corn, was giving the new wheat crop a good start. Closing quotations were quoted 1 3/4 to 1 1/2 cts. lower; December $1.06 1/2 to 1.07 1/2, and May $1.11 1/4 to 1.11 3/4. Corn finished 1/4 to 1/2 cts. lower, on a basis to 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 cts. down, on a basis to 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 cts. down.

At first the wheat market was more or less dominated by apparent strength of corn values, but later the case was reversed and the weakness of wheat had a bearish effect on corn. Lowest prices of the day in the wheat pit were reached shortly before the close, with offerings free on the part of holders and with the market poorly supported. Talk was current that an advance in vessel rates on the Great Lakes might soon divert larger shipments of wheat into the United States from Canada and that any reduction in rail rates would be insufficient to put domestic wheat on an export basis. Temporarily, such factors were given attention to in the corn belt and to assertions that much Nebraska corn was rotting in the fields.

Many Buildings Are Planned for Contact

Active Construction Soon to Commence Upon Several Structures in Nevada Camp

Building expenditures in Contact, Nevada, aggregating nearly half a million dollars, are being made for the signing of contracts as well as the Gray Mining company and certain Los Angeles financial interests, according to John A. Clair, of the Contact Town site company, agents for the sale of the lots.

Three enclosures of lumber and building material are now en route. Clear status, and excavating and other preliminary work is either started or about to commence. Under the terms of the contracts returned to the land for the various buildings is secured to the builders only in the event that the buildings are actually put up. In the event of failure to complete construction the ground reverts to the original owner.

Chief among the improvements planned, according to Mr. Clair, will be a three-story hotel building, 100 by 100 feet, at an estimated cost of $150,000; a sewer and water system expected to cost about the same amount; a two-story bank building, complete with building and business building, opposite the hotel site. The last named structure will be erected by Frank Smith, M. L. House and Harry P. Barber. It will have a business and water system will be constructed by H. A. DeVoux and Robert Weir of Los Angeles.

Work of excavating for the bank building will begin this week and the construction of the hotel must start no later than November 1 and the building must be completed by April 1 of next year, after which time building work must begin this fall and be finished by August 1.

Messrs. Smith, House and Barber have bought adjacent lots in the form of one chain and a fraction south of the townsite which they expect to plot as a residence district. They have also acquired four lots in the townsite upon two of which they will erect their business building. The work of excavating for this building will start within fifteen days, according to Mr. Clair.

SEEKS READJUSTMENT OF LIABILITY FOR TAX

Holder of Mortgage Against Lot Owned by Filer Concerns Objects to Assessment of Personal Levy

Under provisions of Idaho law which, it is asserted, provides that taxes on personal property are a lien on the real estate of the owner, Mrs. Ellen Carlson Murphy instituted suit in district court here Wednesday against the Twin Falls county tax collector, in an effort to avoid payment of personal property tax assessed against a lot in Twin Falls which is owned by the Filer Hardware company, and against which she holds a mortgage.

The assessed value of the lot is $1400. Against this lot, according to the complaint, there has been assessed the tax amounting to more than $1000 on a stock of merchandise. Mrs. Murphy feels that the tax against the merchandise should have been prorated against other property owned by the Filer company. She is represented in this action by Attorney E. L. Ashton.

P. G. WODEHOUSE

The gods must have been having a revel on Mount Olympus and there was a rainbow in the sky when Pelham Grenville Wodehouse was born. Strangely enough, for he is a humorist, the great occurred in England—out one of those places with a whole string of names denoting the town, county, road, farm, grove, house, nearby stream and current state of the crops.

After going through the customary boys' schools, colleges, etc., and getting married, he set up in business as a writer in London; but realizing that there was no proper outlet for such effervescent humor as his in staid old England, he came to the United States in 1900. Right away he caught the American spirit; in fact, his brand of fun was just what was needed. He has tickled the sides of Americans with more than a dozen novels and innumerable short stories, musical comedy lyrics and plays. One of his most amazing successes is "Three Men and a Cradle," which will be printed serially in this paper and which you must not fail to read.

CALL FOR HELP EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Effort to Save Crops Threatened with Damage by Storm Requires More Workers

VOLUNTEERS WANTED. All the men that can be obtained are needed Thursday morning to help harvest the corn crop.

On Wednesday about 75 men were placed during the forenoon, not counting high school students. During the afternoon calls continued to come in which could not be supplied. All those willing to put in a day's work are asked to be at the office of the chamber of commerce at 8 o'clock this morning and it is urged that as many as possible put in an appearance. Regular wages will be paid for the work and aid is asked from business men and all others to help save the crop.

Demand for help in saving crops threatened with serious damage if not harvested before the onset of storms, Wednesday exceeded the supply, made available by action of the Twin Falls board of education in closing the senior high school, and of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce in calling upon business men and employees to render personal service in the undertaking. Practically the entire enrollment of the senior high school was employed in the work Wednesday, and a flood of calls for more help coming in from the chamber of commerce officers, where officials of the organization spent most of the day directing volunteer laborers to fields where their help was needed and listing calls made by farmers after the available supply of help had been exhausted.

Supplies Wide Range

First come first served was the policy adopted and adhered to by the chamber of commerce officials in sending out workers to the farms. Volunteer laborers were sent out not only to fields in the immediate vicinity of Twin Falls but to the Piler and Kimberly districts and to the Salmon River project. Increase in the demand for help was attributed in large part to the effect of fair weather making it possible to effective work in bean fields.

ROTARY CLUB TO AID BOY SCOUT FINANCING

The Boy Scout movement in Twin Falls was given further support Wednesday when the members of the Rotary club, at their luncheon meeting, decided to assist in the work of raising a $2500 bond for financing the movement in this district. The meeting was addressed by C. K. Warno, regional Scout executive, who outlined the work of the Scouts.
