BURLEY GIVES EVANS' TEAM SEVERE LACING

Twin Falls Gives Up Hopes for Championship When Defeated, 46 to 14; Victors Win by Smashing Attacks

Twin Falls' hopes for the Idaho football championship went glimmering Friday night when the Bruins received a 46 to 14 drubbing at the hands of the Burley aggregation. Burley was able to gain almost at will through the Bruin line and they put over two touchdowns in the first 15 minutes of play with straight line backs.

The Bruins fought until the last gun but they seemed bewildered by the smashing attack of the Burley huskies, particularly Kerchick and Canine, who plugged the Twin Falls line for long gains throughout the game and the Bruin defense was unable to stop a line of the one but not the other.

Friday's affair was the Bruins' last appearance on the football field this season and at the conclusion of the game Clarence Garrity was unanimously elected captain of the Bruins for 1924.

Burley, by his victory, earns the right to meet Idaho Falls next Friday for the interdistrict championship. The game will be played at Burley. Six of the seven touchdowns registered by the Burley team were the result of straight line backs while the seventh came as the result of a long pass. Clarence was particularly slippery around ends and got away time and again for long gains. Taylor, the midget Burley quarter, also proved hard to catch.

Jenkins outshone all the Bruins, playing a brand of football that would do credit to make a college player. Jenkins was the receiving end of pass after pass, plucking them out of the air when they looked impossible, stopping one with one hand. Twin was only able to gain by the aerial route, and gained 185 yards by this method and secured both touchdowns as the result of passes.

Moore Garrity was called upon time and again to hit the Burley forward wall, and never failed, and was the same old Moore on defense.

The crowd, estimated at 2000, was fairly orderly, but insisted upon crowding on the field on the west side of the gridiron. Many Twin Falls fans made the journey and composed a large section of the huge crowd.

RATE HEARING IS UNDER WAY

Federal Commissioners Told of Farming and Financial Conditions in Mid-West

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 16 (AP)—Banking conditions in the middle west reflect agricultural depression. C. W. Worthington, deputy governor of the Kansas City federal reserve bank, and C. J. Peterson, Kansas bank examiner, testified here today in the middle western grain rate hearing.

Testimony is being taken before John J. Johnson, Commerce Commissioner, Interstate commerce commissioner, on the application of eight states for lower freight rates on grain, grain products and hay.

Mr. Worthington told the commissioners that the wheat farmer was losing money and that agricultural conditions were getting no better. Many banks, he said, were holding on anticipating a bumper crop.

Mr. Peterson spoke for conditions in the middle western reserve district, including Kansas, western Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado and Wyoming.

Reports Unfavorable

Reports from county officers, the witness continued, showed that twice as many farms were advertised for sale because of delinquent taxes as in 1919 and that there were more than three times as many foreclosures in the first ten months of this year as in 1919.

HARDING'S NAME IS DRAWN INTO FORBES HEARING

Woman on Witness Stand at Investigation of Former Vet Bureau Director's Affairs Injects New Sensations in Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—President Harding apologized to J. M. Williams of Philadelphia for the conduct of Charles R. Forbes, while he was director of the veterans' bureau. Mrs. Williams testified today before the senate veterans' committee. She was called after the four-day's examination of Forbes had been concluded.

"The president apologized," she said, "and said how he had met Mr. Forbes and come to appoint him. He said he met him in Honolulu, and that Mr. Forbes, as the American officials there had shown the party about. Later he came to Marion."

Chairman Reed interrupted to end this phase of the witness testimony as immaterial to the purpose of the inquiry.

Mrs. Williams, who said she was the aunt of Mrs. Elias H. Mortimer, declared that Forbes and Bieber had visited her home in Philadelphia in an effort to get possession of some papers which Mortimer had given to Mrs. Mortimer for safe keeping.

This was after the friendship between Forbes and Mortimer had been broken off and after Mrs. Mortimer had contemplated starting divorce proceedings against her husband.

U. S. UNABLE TO ACT ON CRISIS IN GERMANY

Washington, Nov. 16 (AP)—President Coolidge believes that the American people will sympathize with any move to be taken by the allied government to prevent restoration of the Hohenzollerns to power in Germany, although the American government cannot in accordance with the long established policy take definite action in the matter which has been brought up by the return to Germany of the crown prince Frederick Wilhelm.

ENGLAND BREAKS WITH FRANCE ON USE OF FORCE AGAINST GERMANY

DISSOLUTION OF ENTENTE IS SEEN AS PROBABILITY

Formal Notice of Great Britain's Position is Delivered at Paris; France May Enforce Penalties Separately

LONDON, Nov. 16 (AP)—The British government will not accede to the demands of France for punitive measures against Germany and has notified the British ambassador in Paris to so inform the council of ambassadors.

After the cabinet had deliberated at length today on the reiterated terms of M. Poincare, the foreign office tonight telegraphed Lord Crewe, the British ambassador to France, to inform the council of ambassadors when it resumes its sittings that Great Britain remains firm regarding its opposition to Germany of the severe coercive penalties threatened by France.

As Premier Poincare declares France will enforce these penalties separately if Great Britain refuses to join her, there appears to be a hopeless deadlock between the two nations which to some of the political observers portends an ultimate dissolution of the entente cordiale.

PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—A postponement was announced tonight of the session of the allied council of ambassadors which was to have been held tomorrow to take further action with regard to the situation arising from the German government's opposition to resumption of the inter-allied military control commission in Germany in the deportation of former crown Prince Frederick William from Germany.

Donald Waite, nine-year-old son of Mrs. L. W. Waite, 219 Washington street, is making satisfactory recovery from effects of injuries suffered Wednesday afternoon in a fall in Rock creek canyon near his home. In play with other lads, Donald was climbing down to a cave they had dug in the canyon wall when he slipped and fell down about 10 feet. As a result of the fall, the attending physician stated, Donald's skull had been cracked. He was rendered unconscious for a period of about eight hours.

Fred Klineborn, who was arrested late Wednesday night at the end of a chase made by the sheriff and his deputies in the vicinity of Knoll, pleaded guilty in probate court Friday to a charge of illegal possession of liquor. He stated that he would enter the same plea to the charge on arraignment in district court, and an information charging him with the offense was prepared by the prosecuting attorney's office. Opportunity, however, was not found Friday for Klineborn to enter his plea in the higher court where he probably will be arraigned today.

RELEASE WOMAN PRISONER

Mrs. W. A. Weaver, Had as Suspect in Connection with Killing of Coburn, Is Permitted to Go Free

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 16 (AP)—Chief of Police Beavers late today telephoned to the Nashville police to release Mrs. W. A. Weaver, who had been arrested there at the request of the Atlanta police for questioning in connection with the killing of W. E. Coburn by Philip E. Fox. The Atlanta chief said there was no warrant against Mrs. Weaver. It is understood that the police wanted to get a statement from her and that she made one to the Nashville police. Mrs. Weaver was set free, the Atlanta police said.

DEPUTIES LAMENT LOSS OF SUPPORT IN DRASTIC MOVE

Eventuality of Actual Rupture of Allied Nations is Speculated Upon; Will Make Final Effort at Unity

PARIS, Nov. 16 (AP)—The talk in the lobbies of the chamber of deputies today centered about the precarious situation brought about by the disagreement between France and Great Britain with regard to proposed measures to require Germany to facilitate the work of the inter-allied military control commission in Germany.

The general opinion among the deputies seemed to be that what was termed the half-way measure contended for by Lord Crewe, the British ambassador, acting on instructions from London, would be worse than none, since it would merely tend to demonstrate to the Germans the helplessness of the allies.

The eventuality of an actual rupture in the entente cordiale was speculated on for the first time today and even found an echo in the session of the chamber of deputies itself, where the socialists interrupted Premier Poincare during his address with cries of "It is a rupture of the entente cordiale."

M. Poincare declined today to discuss the questions of military control or the crown prince, because the negotiations with regard to both subjects are still going on, but members of the chamber who are not bound to such discretion exchanged views as to consequences which were generally regarded as not likely to weaken the bond of France in dealing with Germany.

The opinion was expressed that the new world and the position would be the entente cordiale, since encouragement from Great Britain then would lose its significance; then France, free from the necessity of consulting her allies who disagree with her, would be able to simplify her program and apply it with greater vigor.

It is expected a final earnest effort would be made tomorrow to find some way to avoid a break between the allies, but if Great Britain still refuses to join with France in some concrete action it seems to be a practical certainty that M. Poincare will act alone and occupy more territory probably contiguous to that now in the hands of the French.

AMERICA ONLY VULGAR JOKE TO ZANGWILL

WHAT Jermal Zangwill, famous English playwright, thinks of America, he says with bitterness. "We're a vulgar joke to Zangwill. He says it right on in meeting in New York City. America's part in world affairs has been silly all along. It's seriously blameworthy. We have the war, the 'ole and the 'ole away. Our immigration is a parasite. We have little sense of justice. Also we have no religion today. We think we're doing and act without conscience. We'll struggle."

McADOO REPLIES ON BONUS ISSUE

Defends 50-Year Government Bonds to Pay Soldiers; Declines Comment on Politics

SALT LAKE, Nov. 16 (AP)—William G. McAdoo, representative presidential candidate of the democratic party in 1924, was in Salt Lake for a short time late today on his way to Los Angeles and took occasion to answer criticism of his proposed 50-year government bond issue to pay a soldier's bonus.

"If the republicans in congress who profess to favor a soldier's bonus really want one they must adopt the only practical means without overburdening the present generation," he declared to a representative of the Associated Press. "Burdensome taxation, if put upon the people, would be a hypocritical way of trying to defeat justice to the soldiers while professing friendship for them."

Mr. McAdoo said he was not prepared to comment on the announced candidacy of United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California, for the republican presidential nomination. At Ogden, however, he remarked, "The race for president is a free-for-all, and anybody has a right to enter."

Accompanied by his wife, a daughter of former President Grover Cleveland, and their two children, Mr. McAdoo expects to reach his home in Los Angeles some time late tomorrow.

NORTHWESTERN SCHOOL FUND REACHES $2,664,079

Chairman for Idaho Reports Progress for Endowment and New Buildings; Much Support Given

BOISE, Nov. 16.—Since Northwestern University began her nation-wide campaign on October 1, she has raised $5,000,000 for endowment and new buildings funds and alumni of the institution have donated to date $2,664,079, according to figures given out by Thomas C. Hollingshead of Boise, campaign chairman for Idaho. This sum includes the $200,000 received by the general education board by July 1, 1924, the university has raised $1,400,000 for endowment alone. About $885,000 of this sum has already been subscribed, Mr. Hollingshead said.

Efforts are being made to complete the entire fund of $5,000,000 by November 15, the university's homecoming day. One of the first of the new buildings to be erected as a result of the campaign will be the law school which will be known as the Levy Mayer Memorial hall. The school of commerce hopes to begin construction on its new home about the same time, probably next March. These two schools, together with the medical and dental schools, will occupy the Alexander McKimlock Memorial campus on Lake Shore drive, Chicago.

Total of Bank Deposits in United States Figured at $17,331,479,000 Last Year

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Each person in the United States would have $158 if the total deposits in the savings departments of banks and trust companies were divided equally among the entire population, according to figures made public today by the savings bank division of the Bankers' association.

Savings deposits, which were only $8,425,275,000 in 1912, increased to $17,331,479,000 in 1922. The number of savings accounts increased from 12,584,316 to 30,323,220.

The doubling of savings deposits in ten years shows that Americans are fast becoming a nation of wise spenders, the report adds.

Lives in Drop of Water.

So tiny that it can be seen only by aid of a magnifying glass, an animal, heretofore unknown, has been discovered by an eastern scientist. By means of whip-lash strokes of hairlike projections covering its body it can move rapidly about in a drop of water. The little creature feeds chiefly on germs and other animals living in the water. It measures about one two-hundredths of an inch long and is less than one-fourth as wide.—Popular Mechanics.

Japan Makes Tin Plate.

The manufacture of tin plate in Japan has been begun by government works.

Origin of the Ghetto.

The ghetto was the Jewish quarter of an Italian city. Pope Paul IV, 1555 established the ghetto of Rome, and it existed until 1855, when it was removed to make way for the new embankment of the Tiber. The Jews were at one time closely confined to that section of the city and were not allowed outside the limits unless distinguished from the Christians by wearing the men a yellow hat and the women a veil of the same color. The ghetto was inclosed by a wall and the gates thereto were locked at night.

Blue Walls and Flies.

Blue color keeps flies from a room, declares Alexander Dushkuan, an English experimenter. Lord Avebury, a great bee lover, once experimented to find out the effect of color on wasps. He decided they had no "color sense." It is seen rather than color that welcomes an insect, though nature employs color in addition. One plant attracts its necessary insect satellite by smelling like bad meat.

The Order of the Bath.

No matter how humble the Japanese laborer may be, he regards his evening bath as a sacred duty and as the greatest luxury of the day. By the time the head of the family is home from his labors his wife has the tub and the water ready. In goes the little man first, then his wife, then the children by order of age. Afterwards the family, clad in clean garments, are ready for supper.

HEAR FACTS ON RAIL MERGERS

Final Evidence on Railroad Consolidation Given Commission; Finish Work by Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (AP)—Final evidence concerning western consolidation proposals was taken today by the interstate commerce commission in connection with its plans for general railroad consolidation. Differences between eastern trunk line roads, over the commission plans will be considered at hearings tomorrow and the conclusion of the presentation of all testimony is looked for by next Tuesday.

It is expected that tomorrow's session will be largely taken up with presentations by New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio representatives, these two systems having raised an issue to the disposition of the Central of New Jersey and the Reading lines in case of consolidation.

Comparatively little evidence was taken concerning western consolidation proposals today. Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, filed final exhibits and statistical data in behalf of that railroad, while Walter Splawn, member of the Texas railroad commission, urged in behalf of that body a consolidation plan differing in several respects from the tentative plan before the commission.

Dig Deep Enough to Find Pay Dirt

The story runs that early in life Mark Twain, the famous American author, and another fellow went prospecting for gold in some of the western hills. Having very good reason to believe the spot they had selected would produce "pay dirt" they started to dig.

After days and days of backaching use of pick and shovel, Mark became weary and quit, giving his share in the venture to his partner, who kept on digging and in a few days more struck it rich.

The point is—some people try the WANT COLUMNS once or twice and because an avalanche of returns does not come in immediately they despair and quit.

Reasonable use of the WANT COLUMNS under any classification will, sooner or later, pay a handsome profit on a small investment, so if you want a home or have one for sale, or desire to purchase or sell a used car, need a position or help—give the want ads a fair chance—they will produce—because the "pay dirt" is there.

SET FOR BATTLE

Fast Game Promised in Stanford-Idaho Contest; Washington Meet U. of California

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16 (AP)—Interest in the Pacific Coast football conference will center tomorrow in the game at Berkeley, Cal., between the invading team from the University of Washington and the defending eleven of the University of California.

Neither team has lost a game. Washington has won every contest, while California played one scoreless tie against the University of Nevada, a non-conference eleven. The winner will have one leg over the top of the conference ladder, but in other instances, will face another strong foe the succeeding Saturday and must dispose of that enemy before completing the climb.

Another battle royal is promised on the Stanford university gridiron tomorrow when the flashy Stanford team meets the University of Idaho, also an undefeated conference team. Idaho has not been scored on this season—a distinction no other conference team can claim. Idaho, however, will be nosed out of the conference title race unless both Washington and California lose or tie before the end of the season, because Idaho has against it a scoreless tie in a conference game with Oregon.

Washington State and the Oregon Aggies should afford the fans at Tacoma, Wash., a close contest tomorrow. University of Southern California will play a non-conference game at Los Angeles with the University of Arizona.

GOODING LOSES TO OAKLEY

Coch Coach's Squad Goes Down in Defeat to Score of 13 to 10; Forward Passes Feared

OAKLEY, Nov. 16 (Special to The News)—Gooding lost his second game of the season here today when Oakley triumphed over Coach Khard's squad. The final score was 13-10. Both teams used the aerial game extensively with Martindale playing a brilliant game as usual. Gooding's score came as a result of a place kick and a lone touchdown. The Oakley team was outwitted by the invaders, but the plugging ability of Oakley and their superior passing game gave them the victory.

The most valuable carriage in the world is preserved in the palace of Trilanon at Versailles, on the outskirts of Paris. It was constructed for Charles X of France. From pole to hind wheels the vehicle is thickly covered with gold, and it cost more than $200,000.

Regarding Slang. Slang of any other country seems so much more foolish than that of our own.

A Pertinent Question. "It is too late to feed men and babies by instinct. We have learned this lesson from animal feeding and animal breeding. When will we do as much for our babies?"

FILER SWAMPS WENDELL TEAM

Wildcats Scamper Away with 55 to 7 Victory Over Visitors from the North Side

Wendell was completely whitewashed on Filer's field Friday when the Wildcats scratched the North Siders into passive submission by a score of 55-7.

A blocked kick on the two yard line accounts for one of Filer's scores and the others were the result of straight football with the exception of the last two made in the initial period.

In the last eight minutes of play Wendell advanced the ball to the 25 yard line and on the next play Christopheron, captain and quarterback of the visiting aggregation, juggled the ball after he had safely negotiated the goal line, and "Egg" Love, the opposing leader, picked the ball out of the air and calmly ran it 20 yards for Filer's last score.

The last score came on the first Wendell play after the next kick when Wendell fumbled on the 10 yard line and Adkins crossed the line.

Elliott at fullback, played a brilliant game for the visitors with his team-mate Christopheron, the giant quarter back, and on the next play Filer team it was about the same old story—Lapp, Love, Diehl, Phil's punts were beautiful, while Love and Diehl had a little the best of the line plugging.

Filer won the toss and Christopheron kicked to the 25-yard line. Filer took the ball and smashed their way down the field for four first downs and the first score, Diehl carrying the ball 17 yards.

Lapp hesitated too long and his attempt at goal was blocked. Lapp kicked off back of the goal. Wendell failed to make a yard and when Christopheron snatched back to punt his kick was blocked and Filer again scored. Lapp converted and the score was 13-0, all within four minutes of play.

Lapp again kicked off to the 5-yard line and Wendell opened up with an aerial attack which soon placed the ball on the 20-yard line where Filer held and punted the ball out of danger. Once more Wendell started down the field and this time they were not denied, as Elliott and Christopheron making big gains through the line were able to score, Christopheron carrying the oval over. Elliott kicked goal. Christopheron kicked off to Lapp and Filer carried the ball up the field to the 30-yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble. The quarter ended with the ball on the 30-yard line in Wendell's possession.

The second period started with an exchange of punts, Lapp having the advantage by 5 yards. Wendell attempted several plays from a punt formation, but the majority of them were detected and smeared before they were well organized. Early in the second battle broke when "Egg" Love broke through the line and stopped off 30 yards surrounded by the Wendellites. Filer again put over a score and Lapp kicked goal. Elliott was injured in the scoring play and was taken from the game. Wendell punted on the kickoff and Filer carried the ball over for their only score by a delayed pass. Jerome was unable to make first down in the first half. Machechek, the Buhl captain and star punter, was out of the game with injuries, but his place was well filled by Morris.

Buhl's first score came in the first period through the use of a triple pass from the 20-yard line. Buhl has used this play with telling effects throughout the present season. Wingcar carried the ball over. The next score for Buhl came in the second quarter when Buhl was held within a foot of the goal for downs and clearing the back through the Jerome defense and blocked Nims' attempted punt.

Jenks made 3 yards more as the first quarter ended. Score, 13-0.

Second Quarter. Muszell failed to gain on another spread play, but the play was blocked. A beautiful 20-yard pass to Jenks, who caught the ball over his head on the run. Crom carried the ball on the next play, but the Bruins were offside and received 5 yards. Moore tore 5 yards off tackle. Crom got away to the 20-yard line and Jenks put it over in two bucks. Crom kicked goal. Score, 13-7.

Moore slipped another beautiful 20-yard pass to Jenks who made a marvelous catch and the two repeated the process for another 20 yards on the next play. Moore delivered the ball on the 10-yard line, where they fumbled to Adkins who made the final score 55-7. Filer reports several injuries. Diehl is reported to have a broken collarbone as a result of the game and Atkinson is suffering with a badly wrenched ankle.

Mrs. Edwin A. Wilson entertained six tables of players at bridge on Friday afternoon at her home on Eighth avenue east. Favor for high score was won by Mrs. Bortha Leonard, and consolation by Mrs. C. H. Burton. A color scheme of yellow was carried out in all of the decorative details, and a two-course luncheon was served at the close of the games.

The Entre Nous club was entertained by Mrs. A. D. Bellamy on Friday afternoon. Bridge was the diversion and in the absence of one of the members Mrs. C. F. Dwight substituted. Prize for high score was won by Mrs. W. J. Taylor. Delicious refreshments were served after the games. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Halpin.

The War Mothers held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. S. Martin Friday afternoon, with Mrs. J. E. Ross and Mrs. C. E. Rowcliffe as assistant hostesses. There was a large attendance, 31 being present, including four members and three visitors. Following the regular routine of business Mrs. T. H. Irwin was in charge of the entertainment which consisted of the conundrums composed of a play on the names of members. This proved most clever and amusing. During the social hour refreshments were served.

Miss Enid Frazier and Miss Larsen were hostesses at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower for Mrs. George H. Sumner on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. D. Thomas. Three tables of players, all teachers in junior high school, enjoyed the games. A doll carriage decorated in pink, was then wheeled in containing many useful and beautiful gifts. The dainty refreshments served, carried out a pink and white color scheme.

The Catholic Women's League met Thursday evening at the Business Women's club rooms, with Mrs. Wolfe as hostess. NO STUDIO SHIPS USED IN MAKING "STORMY SEAS"

"Stormy Seas," a new and exciting photoplay which comes to the Idaho theater today, offers a rare treat to all lovers of the screen who demand plausibility along with their romance and action.

Declared to be one of the most realistic sea tales ever photographed, it is pointed out by the producers that every foot of the film is authentic to the extent that where the script called for action on board a coastwise vessel passage was booked for the entire company, and the scene was taken "on the spot."

In this manner the engine room and stokehold seen in the picture are not Hollywood reproductions, nor does the captain's peering the bridge in the face of a terrific storm, gaze at the sunny hills of Los Angeles.

J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes are the stars.

SHE SPANKS ERRING HUSBAND

He Acquiesces in the Punishment and Declares They Get Along Splendidly.

We have with us a married man who admits that his wife spanks him whenever he does serious wrong. They began their married career in a business partnership and made money. When the husband began to spend more than his share and ran around nights the wife on one occasion tied him face downward to the bed and lashed him to a tangle with a strap. The husband accepted the findings of his supreme court in good faith. He had his lesson and admitted that it was coming to him. Now when he and wife get along splendidly together. Whether the lady ever gets spanked or not the husband does not say. But he does assert, that the wife who spares the rod may spoil the husband. If all husbands lined up for a spanking whenever they stayed out after midnight or lost $4 at poker it would be better all around. The husband would prefer the strap to a tongue lashing and the wife would feel better for the physical exertion.

When wives get together for gossip it would be proud matter for converse when one could say that she had not had occasion to spank her husband for six months. Also it would be easier for husbands to avoid the temptations of bootleggers and other vicious persons if they would take no chances of being spanked by an irate wife.

She "Gets Even" with Arresting Policeman

When Miss Margaret Sterba, daughter of a wealthy New York manufacturer, speeded her racing car in downtown New York, Motorcycle Policeman Walter J. Meyer gave her a summons. In Traffic court next day she paid a fine of $25 and lashed at Meyer. "I'll get even with you, Mr. Poleman, if it takes a lifetime. You did this, and you'd better watch out!" She visited his beat next day to repeat the threat. Meyer grew apologetic, and an argument ensued. Well, you know how it is. Miss Sterba got even. CUBS AND CASTLEFORD TO MEET ON GRIDIRON

Junior Football Players in Good Shape and Hope for Victory in Saturday Afternoon's Game

The junior high team meets Castleford high school this afternoon on the local gridiron to decide definitely which is the superior team. Coach Anderson's team is in excellent condition and have the best array they have been able to present this season ready for the west enders.

Berg, Frazelle, Owens and Simpson will no doubt be the backfield quartet which will start for the local team. Castleford is expected to present a real battle and everyone is urged by the junior high enthusiasts to be present as the activity funn of the younger high school is not on a very sound financial foundation and besides the price is not exorbitant. The game is called for 2:30 on Lincoln field.

ACCOUNTS FOR DECLINE IN TEXTILE SECURITIES

Babson Ascribes High Prices to Irregular Conditions in Worsted and Woolen Industries; No Shortage of Wool

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Nov. 16.—(Special to The News).—The report dropped in certain textile securities has led many investors to believe that unseasoned factors were at work within the industry.

Conditions in both the cotton goods and worsted and woolen goods industries are irregular and unsettled, says the statistician. "The fundamental reason for this is largely the fact that prices of these goods are relatively much higher than most other kinds of articles."

Production was heavy. "The cotton goods industry began the fall with a fairly good supply of orders taken during the late summer. Production was good during September and October."

The present situation favors low cost concerns. These are mostly located in the south. Statistics show that southern mills usually work much more especially than northern mills.

Wool Situation. "The wool situation is not quite so tense as cotton. There is no acute shortage of wool, and the price therefore has fallen considerably."

Future Not Promising. "As for the future, there is no assurance of any broad advancing tendency while general business and stocks are rounding out the balance of the decline begun last spring."

At levels which give some assurance of being maintained and when the fear of interest competition from abroad has been either fully realized or dispipated. But that time is not the present.

GIRAFFE IS TARGET

How Humorists Pick on Maligned Animal.

Not Satisfied After Artists Have Colored Him to Suit. Backgrounds.

America has never known a native giraffe, scientific and though it is admitted that an American parrot was once found and is still preserved, stuffed. Yet the giraffe is rapidly becoming a native American by adoption, and its long neck and remarkable complexion is attaining something of a vogue among the new artists.

The artists are not the only ones now finding the giraffe one of our most also picking him off and turning him to account. George Bernard Shaw in his "Back to Methusalem" discusses this matter of the long neck and the giraffe and seems to lean to the theory that after all the leaves on the lower branches of the trees had been eaten, the giraffe with the longest neck got the food higher up and that starvation gradually eliminated the short-necked ones, and thus the animal kept growing a longer and longer neck, by natural selection.

There is something ingenious about the giraffe. These long forelegs are angled and give him an air of being leanness. A certain sculptor has taken advantage of this unfortunate variation of nature and has put heads on his two forehoofs, leaving only his neck reaching up and absorbing luscious leaves. Satire carried to this extent seems a little ungracious to the view of this animal's great service to the human race in the theory of evolution.

Three Men AND a Maid By P. G. Wodehouse Illustrations by Irwin Myers

As I read over the last few chapters of this narrative, I see that I have been giving the reader a rather too jump-y time. To almost a painful degree I have excited his pity and terror; and, though that is what Aristotle tells me ought to do, I feel that a little rest would not be out of order.

Mr. Bennett heaved himself out of the deck-chair. Beyond the French windows he could see an indistinct form in a gray suit, and remembered that this was the morning on which Sir Malaby Marlowe's clerk—who was taking those Schultz and Bowen papers for him to America—had written that he would call on Monday was Friday; no doubt the man was sailing from Southampton tomorrow.

Mr. Bennett stared at his well-wisher dumbly for a moment. The thought crossed his mind that, if ever there was to be any potting in the little black this was it. His opinion of John Peters' sanity went down to zero. "What are you talking about? My stenographer? What stenographer?"

They had sat like this for perhaps a gentle—two happy mortals lulled by the gentle breeze of the day—when from the window of the drawing room there stepped out a white-capped maid. And one may just as well say at once and have done with it that this is the scene in the picture of a peaceful scene in domestic life terminates with a jerk, and pity and terror resume work at the old stand.

Mr. Bennett, torn from a dream of large pink sheets edged with bread-crumbed fat. "Eh?" "A gentleman to see you, sir. In the drawing room. He says you are expecting him."

Mr. Bennett exclaimed John Peters. "What's he doing here? Why? Something to say? What is it?"

Mr. Bennett stared at his well-wisher dumbly for a moment. The thought crossed his mind that, if ever there was to be any potting in the little black this was it. His opinion of John Peters' sanity went down to zero.

SUDDEN DEATH TAKES ANOTHER HANSEN FARMER

Parley P. Walton Died from Apoplexy within 24 Hours After Neighbor T. C. Glenn Is Discovered Dead in Bed

Parley P. Walton, 68, pioneer of the Hansen district, died suddenly from apoplexy early Friday at his farm home, two and one-half miles southeast of Hansson. Death occurred before the arrival of a physician who was summoned by Mr. Walton's daughter when they discovered him in a dying condition. Coroner P. J. Grossman Friday evening stated that no inquest was deemed necessary. Arrangements for funeral services await word from relatives elsewhere, although it was announced that the body will be taken for burial to Mr. Walton's former home in Richmond, Utah. Mr. Walton is survived by several children and other relatives including a brother at Murtaugh.

Mr. Walton's sudden death is the third death of similar nature occurring within a radius of a mile of his home since last July. T. C. Glenn, who was Thursday found dead in his bed, resided on an adjoining farm, and E. E. Pierce, who was fatally stricken by apoplexy last July while at work irrigating, was a nearby neighbor.

All three victims up to the time of their death were apparently in good health.

The bodies of Mr. Walton and of Mr. Glenn were Friday night in the P. J. Grossman mortuary, awaiting disposition to be made upon receipt of word from relatives.

MEXICAN HELD FOR ROBBERY

Antion Fierro Must Answer in District Court to Charge of Holding Up Countryman

Antion Fierro, Mexican, was held under $2000 bond to answer in district court to charge of robbery at the conclusion of a preliminary examination conducted Friday afternoon before W. S. Mallory, justice of the peace, in the probate court rooms. In default of bond, Fierro was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Evidence was offered by the state at the preliminary hearing, including testimony of Jose Argueta, operator of the Blue Lang pool, hall and lodging house, who testified that he had been held up and robbed last Sunday at the point of a gun by Fierro in a room on the second floor of his establishment on Second avenue south. P. O. Herrington, chief of police, also testified as to the circumstances under which he took Fierro in custody on that occasion.

Under Idaho law the offense with which Fierro is charged is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for less than five years nor more than life.

Fierro was at one time employed at the Blue Light establishment. He was convicted at the October term of court of resisting an officer. He paid the fine imposed and was paroled. He is said to have been employed suddenly in beet fields.

Refrigeration Aids Miners.
Refrigeration is a modern science that finds many uses. In mining it overcomes two great difficulties. The influx of water in porous formations and the heat of deep shafts. By freezing the surrounding earth, miners can carry their shafts through water-bearing strata, and by supplying themselves with cool air they can penetrate the earth to great depths.

Books.
The Bible, still the best seller, has been translated into 770 languages and dialects. Next book in line is "The South Sea Islands" translated into 107 languages and dialects. Anyone will admit there must be profound reasons why these two works lead in allurement. Have you read both of them thoroughly? No education is complete without this thorough reading.

The Purpose of Education.
A real education should mean three things to every boy and girl. First, the value of a dollar; second, a real appreciation of honest labor; third, the joy of doing a workman-like job or the joy of achievement.

TRUTH URGED BY PUBLISHER FOR DEFENSE

Defendant in Libel Suit Admits Editorials Referred to Walton; Denies Malice and Pleads Charges Accurate

Truth of the allegations and absence of malice in their publication were Friday urged in defense by I. H. Masters, publisher of the Twin Falls Times, who is the defendant in a libel suit for $45,000 damages brought by E. F. Walton, now on trial in district court here.

On the witness stand Friday afternoon, Masters admitted that he had referred to Walton in some of the editorials upon which Walton bases his claim, and which allude to an unnamed person as a "bootlegger," "agitator," and person "who would rather move than pay rent." His purpose in publishing these editorials, he said, was to defeat the political group of which Walton was a "boss," in the municipal campaign of 1922, and to combat Walton's influence in the community, which he felt to be an undesirable one.

Cross examination of the publisher, conducted by E. R. Dampier, reporter of counsel for Walton, had not been completed when the evening recess was taken.

Observes Loss of Fellowship.
The case for the plaintiff was closed early Friday afternoon at the conclusion of testimony by Walton. Walton testified that he felt he was the person referred to in the editorials in question, and that since their publication he had observed a "falling away of former friends and associates and loss of standing in the community."

On cross examination, conducted by Judge E. A. Walters of counsel for Masters, Walton admitted that while he was employed several years ago at Kelly Hot Springs, a resort near Star, Idaho, he had been convicted of selling intoxicating liquor without a license. He had been released, he said, under habeas corpus proceedings because the sentence imposed exceeded the legal limit.

He testified that he was secretary and his wife was president of the

DISTRICT WILL USE RULES FOR PRIMARY VOTING

Candidates for Directors of American Falls Reservoir Organization to Be Named by Certificate, Attorney Says

Candidates for directors of the American Falls reservoir district, to be elected at an election to be held December 11, are to be nominated under provisions of the Idaho primary election law, providing for filing by each candidate of a certificate of nomination signed by not less than 30 qualified electors of his district, according to a letter addressed to the board of directors by James R. Bothwell, attorney for the district, and made public Friday. Names of any persons other than regularly nominated candidates may be written in on the ballot if the voter chooses to do so.

Certificates of nomination must be filed not more than 30 days nor less than 10 days before the day of the election.

Forms of certificates of nomination will be prepared by the attorney and will be let with the secretary at the office of the board in Twin Falls for the convenience of those who may wish to use them.

Under the statutes governing irrigation districts it is necessary to elect seven directors at the election which will be held on December 11 next, says Judge Bothwell's letter. One director is to be chosen from each division of the irrigation district. The boundaries of the divisions as established in the organization of the district are outlined in the notice of election which has been given by the secretary of the irrigation district in accordance with the provisions of law.

Directors' Qualifications.
The qualifications of a director are set forth in the notice of election, which are, that every director must be a qualified elector and a resident of the division of the district whom he is to represent.

For this election it is not required, but in lieu thereof those offering to vote must subscribe to an elector's oath, which is in form similar to the oath taken for registration for a general election, and in addition thereto is added the following: "I am a resident within the boundaries of the American Falls reservoir district."

The polls will be open from 8 o'clock a. m. until 7 o'clock p. m., mountain time. The election supplies will be furnished to the election officers by the district, and the ballot will include ballots on which the names of those who have been nominated for directors will appear, together with a blank space, so that the name of anyone other than those who have been regularly nominated may be written in, if the voter chooses to do so.

Candidates for director may be nominated in the following manner: A certificate of nomination stating the office, name of the candidate, his post-office address and his business occupation shall be signed by electors of the division to which the office relates, the number of signatures to be not less than 30. Each signer shall write or have written in connection with his signature, his place of residence, including, if within a city or town, his street number, if any. The signatures need not all be on the same paper, but all papers so signed, taken together, shall constitute the certificate. The certificates of nomination for directors shall be filed with the secretary of the board of directors at the office of the board at Twin Falls, Idaho, not more than 30 days and not less than 10 days before the day of election.

RECORDS DISCHARGE PAPERS.
Certificate of his honorable discharge from the military service was placed on record Friday in the office of the county recorder by Heald H. Hatfield of Buhl, who served from October, 1917, until August, 1919, as a member of the marine corps. His period of enlistment included eight months' service overseas. He was discharged with the rank of a corporal of headquarters company 11th regiment of the marine corps.

Weather Remains Fair, Temperatures Lower

Weather conditions Friday were fair and slightly cooler, according to records of the government weather observer's station here. Temperature was high at 55 degrees, a decline of one point under the preceding day's maximum, and was low at 22, a fall of three points. Friday's minimum was the lowest since November 8, when a temperature range identical with that of Friday was recorded.
